The January 14, 1961 Los Angeles Mirror contained an article reflecting that on January 14, 1961 STEVE ALLEN had given a talk at the Los Angeles High School to more than 2,000 teachers, which talk was sponsored by the American Federation of Teachers, Local 1021. The article reflected that pickets had marched around the school. According to the article, TOM SULLIVAN, 27, of 12220 Montana, admitted that some of the placards were used when ALLEN was picketed Wednesday at a restaurant in the San Fernando Valley. The article said that SULLIVAN, a public relations man, said he had organized the demonstration on January 14, 1961, that he was a member of the Policy Board of "For America", a local patriotic group, but that the group had had nothing to do with the picketing.

The newspaper quoted SULLIVAN as saying that the pickets came from a number of patriotic groups, including the American Legion, John Birch Society, Young Republicans, Californians for America, and America First. According to the article, SULLIVAN said the demonstration was not officially organized by the groups and that he had paid for the new placards out of his own pocket.

Date February 1, 1961

On January 27, 1961, [redacted] personal secretary to STEVE ALLEN, Suite 25, 15445 Ventura Boulevard, Sherman Oaks, California, advised that she had received in the morning mail delivery, a letter forwarded from the office of [redacted] initialed and dated the following envelope and letter:

Envelope, plain, white, 4" by 7 1/2" addressed to [redacted] Los Angeles 53, California, no return address listed, sent Special Delivery with 30 cent stamp attached and stamped Postage Due 4 Cents. The envelope was marked with postmarks of January 19, 1961, 7:00 p.m., Los Angeles, California, and on the back with postmarks of January 19, 1961, of 8:30 p.m. and another of 9:00 p.m. The address was typewritten.

The envelope contained four pages of typewritten material on pages of plain white paper, 6" by 8". The letter is as follows:

"If ever a great country was led into a dead-end of despair, humiliation and helpless anger by the ignorance, inertia and perfidy of it's own people, that country is the United States of America.

"The disgusting, unpropitious display, [redacted] that you gave on the night of Tuesday, January 17, when you had nothing but superlatives and pulchritudinous adjectives for Steve Allen, who has been proven by some of our most highly regarded investigating Red probes of the U.S. Congress as being involved in serious Communist activities, was a demonstration of disloyalty and stupidity in the first magnitude.

"In your entire eulogizing performance, not once, repeat, not once did you ask Allen about Senator Thomas Dodd's (D.-Conn.) charges that the Hollywood for SANE was a Communist front. In a speech that Dodd made in the Senate on September 14, 1960, he stated that the SANE group was being seriously infiltrated by members of the United States Communist Party, and, in many cases, being controlled by Reds.

"Not once in the entire 'interview' did you ask allen about Rep. Francis Walter's (D.-Penn.) arraignments that the SANE group, from top to bottom, was Communistic; that the SANE rallies across the country are Communist arranged and are participated in by Communists; that many of the SANEites in Hollywood alone, have long loaned their names to pro-Red causes; and that the main intent of the members of SANE was to beguile the American public and turn them into activities against this nation and not even realize it.

"Apparently, all of this was not germane enough for you.

"Nor was it important enough, apparently, in your own opinion, to ask Allen about the list of names that were published in the right-wing (pro-American) publications, the National Review, that did show just a diminutive portion of the ones in SANE who have Communist gravitational tendencies.

"Only a small part of the small list:

[redacted] formerly of the National Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell; [redacted] supporter of the Henry Wallace for President Committee; [redacted] national committee member of the Workers Defense League; [redacted] employer of such Red-tinged Fifth Amendment takers as Dalton Trumbo, [redacted] Albert Maltz, et. and ect.; [redacted] [redacted] and supporter of the Committee of One Thousand (to extirpate the Un-American Activities Committee); [redacted] accused by two FBI agents as being a member of the Communist Party, and [redacted] the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee; Dr. Linus Pauling, the left-wing charlatan from Cal Teck U., who belongs to the latter committee and who has long been identified as a international Communist fellow traveler, ect. and ect.

"This list, to be sure, to repeat, only scratches the surface of the SANE organization throughout the country.

"But, again, it was still too much for you to have catechized Allen on this information.

"This goes further than facile inept or brusque anarchy, even though those constituents you certainly consist. On December 6, 1960, the Kremlin released the text of the 20,000 word Manifesto unanimously adopted by the November plenum of the 81 existing Communist parties. This new Manifesto explains once more that the Communist objective is to bury the non-Communist world. Khrushchev has said it over and over. Operating as a disciplined, criminal unit of the world enterprise, the specific task of each Red party in the non-Communist world is to subvert the non-Communist government of it's own nation. Meaning, of course, that it is a war, cold or hot, between the Communist countries and the non-Communist countries. Therefore, within every non-Communist nation, Communism or Communist activities or Red fronts are tantamount to treason.

"Naturally, when Steve Allen says, as he did on the Tuesday night 'interview,' that this nation 'is over-playing the anti-Communism,' is just like a crook saying that we should stop putting so much emphasis on anti-crime laws: both don't want to get caught; both want to perform the perfect crime.

"The outrageous effrontery on your part, [redacted] when you glamorize Allen and his wife as a 'good American family,' and nearly upbraid the ones who picketed Allen's propaganda performance last Saturday morning, makes one honestly wonder about your own political tinctures. When a portion of the public is finally snapping out of it's state of prodigious apathy over the Communist activities in this country, and when many of our most renowned leaders, including President Eisenhower, have insisted that this country faces a supreme menace in the Communist conspiracy, and then you praise Allen and all of his sinister, treacherous, pseudo-activities and also berate anti-Red pickets, one would have to seriously wonder about your own patriotism (to what country).

"Not once, repeat, NOT ONCE, in the entire interview did you ask Allen or his wife of the American Legion's charges that the Hollywood For SANE is a subversive group working for the Communist cause in this country. On multifarious occasions, in fact, the Legion has demanded that Allen let a congressional investigating committee, particularly the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, which has also demanded the same, and has said the same verbatim about the SANE group as subversive, investigate the group to determine whether it is subversive enough to be eradicated or whether the charges of subversion are false and the group be proven innocent of it's charges. Of course, Allen has refused.

"After a SANE rally in New York about four months ago, John Edgar Hoover issued a statement saying that the rally was conceived and controlled by two members of the Communist Party. He also said that the Red workers were simply jocund and exultant over the continued success of SANE and from the support it has received from the press, radio and TV and from the amount of exoneration it has received after committing constant treason. After witnessing the porcine stupidity that you demonstrated, [redacted] last Tuesday evening, I would say that the Commie has a mighty good reason to be happy.

It was further concluded the typewriting on specimens Q1 through Q 29 was not prepared on the typewriters used to prepare specimens K2, K 4 and K 9 and the [redacted] letter.

"The handwriting and hand printing on specimens Q 28 and Q 29 was too limited to determine definitely whether or not it was prepared by the individual or individuals responsible for the previous handwriting and hand printing.

b7C "It was concluded the handwriting and hand printing on specimens Q 1 through Q 29 were not prepared by the individual who prepared specimen K 6. However, it could not definitely be determined whether or not the questioned material was prepared by the individuals responsible for the handwriting and hand printing on specimens K 3, K 7, K 8 and the [redacted] material due to the limited amount of comparable handwriting and hand printing available.

"Nothing of particular significance was noted as a result of the comparison of the questioned paper with specimens K 3 through K 5 and K 7.

"Specimen Q 28 is a white bond envelope which measures approximately 7.5 by 3.9 inches and bears no watermark. Specimen Q 29 consists of four sheets of laid white social correspondence type paper which measure approximately 5.8 by 7.8 inches and bear no watermark."

The Latent Fingerprint Section of the FBI Identification Division, advised that in connection with Q-28 and Q-29, two latent fingerprints and one latent palm print of value were developed on the envelope Q-28.

The Identification Division also advised that latent fingerprints developed on Q-28 and all previously developed latent fingerprints in this case, were compared with the fingerprints of the following and are not identical:

LA 9-2498

The Identification Division also advised that inasmuch as there were no palm prints for those individuals, no such comparison could be made.

The Identification Division further advised that the latents developed on Q-28 were compared insofar as possible with comparable areas of latents previously developed in this case and are not identical.

b7C STEVE ALLEN previously advised that [redacted] of the [redacted] Los Angeles, California, had attacked him in his writings or speeches by accusing him of being a Communist because of his viewpoint on the death penalty and his connection with "SANE" and his support of SANE's aims of preventing a nuclear war. ALLEN said he did not believe that [redacted] would write a threatening letter to him but felt the writer of the letter was a person of his professional background.

b7C Various typewritten letters received from [redacted] [redacted] and other material received from him were submitted to the Laboratory for comparison.

The Laboratory report No. D362067DG dated March 23, 1961, advised as follows:

b7C K10 Four letters, photocopy of letter, form letter, copy of speech and envelope all bearing typewriting prepared on typewriters belonging to or available to [redacted]

Result of examination:

It was concluded the questioned typewriting on the specimens previously received in connection with this case was not prepared on any of the typewriters used in the preparation of specimen K10.

"If you venerate and adore Communism and the Communist way of life so much, why do you stay in this country? Why don't you go to Russia and live? Certainly, nobody here will stop you, and, in fact, there's plenty of people who would be jocund to see you go. Why don't you?

"Go back to Russia. You itinerantly go to Khrushchevland. You just recently went there. Why don't you stay there permanently? He advised the company would cooperate completely in making necessary records available and suggested contact with [] of the Western Tablet and Stationery Plant, St. Joseph.

The following investigation was conducted by the Kansas City, Division:

b7C [] Western Tablet and Stationery Company, St. Joseph, Missouri, advised he would estimate his firm sells about 40,000,000 envelopes in the Los Angeles area each year and that between 750,000 and 1,000,000 of them are envelopes 6.25 x 4.30, white in color similar to envelope referred to in Los Angeles letter to Cincinnati dated February 16, 1961.

They advised they have about 39 customers in the Los Angeles area who purchase supplies from them and that these customers are mostly of a wholesale type, who in turn sell the product through outlets in the Los Angeles area.

b7C [] stated the white bond, two ring notebook paper with the "Jewel" watermark is distributed nationally, however, they said the two ring type is not commonly distributed in Los Angeles. They said they believed some two ring type has been sold in the San Diego area and stated [] of their plant located at 7571 Lamson, Garden Grove, California, and [] would know what customers handled the notebook paper.

b7C [] said the largest single market for two ring notebook paper is in Texas, but said paper sold in Texas for the most part has a blue edge, which is sprayed on the edge of the batch of paper at the time it is gathered.

b7C [] suggested that original sheet of paper be exhibited to [] and that either he or [] would possibly be able to identify possible sources in the Los Angeles or San Diego area.

b7C The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] of the Boston Division:

b7C On March 7, 1961, [redacted]
[redacted] Rising Paper Company, Housatonic, Massachusetts, advised that the only two outlets for the company's white bond paper bearing the watermark "Rising Parchment 100% Rag, USA" in the California area are the Neumann Paper Company, San Francisco, California, and the California Paper Products, Los Angeles, California.

b7C The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] on the dates indicated:

b7C On March 28, 1961, [redacted] California
Paper Corporation, 811 Traction Street, Los Angeles, California, telephone [redacted] advised that his corporation is the only official outlet for the Rising Paper Company in the Los Angeles area. He stated that the only other possible source of the Rising Parchment 100% Rag paper would be the Regency-Thermographers, 13212 Saticoy, North Hollywood, California, which is a branch of a New York company and which recently opened. He stated he believed that their New York company handles this paper and that the North Hollywood branch might possibly bootleg it in from the New York company.

b7C [redacted] stated that the piece of Rising Parchment 100% Rag used in this case was what they refer to as a monarch or executive size piece of personal stationery, seven and one quarter by ten and one half inches. He stated the 100% Rag paper is expensive paper, costing about $1.00 a pound and that because of the cost, it is not used very extensively. He stated that most of such paper is usually engraved and would be used by executives desiring prestige or lawyers or other business firms desiring a high degree of permanency in their records. He stated that the paper is generally received in sheets of 22 inches by 34 inches and that it will be cut down to the desired size. He stated that seven and one quarter by ten and one half inches is not a stock size and will usually be cut down by the printer or engraver. He stated that in 1960 the company sold approximately 4,000 sheets of 22 by 34 inches and that the firm purchasing the paper would probably cut that down into eight individual sheets.

LA 9-2498

b7c [redacted] stated that from April, 1960, to October, 1960, the following sales were made:

On May 23, 1960, the Coffey Engraving Company, 3124 Riverside Drive, Los Angeles, purchased 380 sheets, 17 inches by 22 inches, along with 1,000 envelopes.

On August 26, 1960, Tower Lee Company, 417 Wall, Los Angeles, purchased 60 sheets, 22 inches by 34 inches.

On October 11, 1960, the Axworthy Printing Company, 931 East Pico, Los Angeles, purchased 5,000 sheets, eight and one half inches by 11 inches, along with some other Rising products.

On April 7, 1960, the Allen Corporate Supply, 5024 Melrose, Los Angeles, purchased 2,000 sheets, eight and one half inches by 11 inches, with three holes punched on the side.

b7c [redacted] stated that on August 25, 1960, this company purchased 1,000 sheets, eight and one half by 11 inches, requesting that three 3/8 inches holes be punched on the side and on September 1, 1960, purchased an additional 3,000 sheets, eight and one half by 11 inches, with three holes punched on the side.

On April 8, 1960, the Axworthy Printing Company, purchased 5,000 sheets, eight and one half inches by 11 inches, and on April 14, 1960, purchased an additional 5,000 sheets.

b7c [redacted] stated the records reflected that they purchased 5,000 sheets, eight and one half inches by 11 inches, on May 19, 1960, on August 3, 1960, on August 11, 1960, on August 30, 1960, and on September 30, 1960, purchased 9,500 sheets. He stated that in connection with some of these orders, the Axworthy Printing Company also purchased other Rising Company products.

On August 12, 1960, the Albert E. Coffey Company, 3124 Riverside Drive, Los Angeles, received 500 sheets, eight and one half inches by 11 inches, along with 1,000 envelopes, for engraving, which purchases were actually for Carl and Irving, P. O. Box 627, Tulare, California.

LA 9-2498

On September 2, 1960, the Carl-Francis Press, 7823 Santa Monica Boulevard, Los Angeles, purchased 1,000 sheets, eight and one half inches by 11 inches, along with matching envelopes, and other products.

b7C [redacted] stated that although a printer or engraving company may receive eight and one half by 11 inch sheets, they may cut them down to seven and a quarter by ten and one half inches, if so requested by their customer.

b7C [redacted] stated that the variety of stationery and envelopes used in writing the various questioned items would indicate that the writer has access to a supply of paper which might only be found in a printing company. He stated that his company, the California Paper Corporation, did not handle all of the items used in this case and actually only handle a very small number of them.

On March 28, 1961, HERMAN ALLEN, age 31, advised that he is the owner of the Allen Corporation Supply Company, 5024 West Melrose Street, Los Angeles, telephone HO 4-3944. He stated that he has three employees in his shop. He advised that the only customer he has ever had for Rising Parchment 100% Rag paper is the firm of Kaplan, Livingston, Goodwin and Berkowitz, 270 North Canon Drive, Beverly Hills, California, attorneys at law. He stated that this law firm organizes a lot of corporations and that they also represent some film corporations and they purchase eight and one half by 11 inch three hole paper for the minute books of the various corporations they represent. He stated that they are a very reputable outfit and that he has been doing business with them since 1955. He stated that this law firm buys other paper from him but does not buy any legal size paper or onionskin paper. He stated that his company does not handle the wide variety of paper used in this case and that he does not purchase any products from the Western Tablet and Stationery Company or the U. S. Envelope Company. He stated that he has a new Royal Administrator portable typewriter, ten letters to the inch, but an examination of the numerals indicated that they were different than those contained on the questioned items. He stated that he formerly had another portable typewriter, make unknown, which he inadvertently left on the sidewalk near his car and was stolen about six months ago after which he purchased his present typewriter.

On March 28, 1961, [redacted] Carl-Francis Press, 7828 Santa Monica Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, telephone OL 4-5858, advised that [redacted]

[redacted] He stated that the only sale of Rising Parchment 100% Rag paper that he has made in years was a special order which he sold on September 30, 1960, to Black Gold Productions, Inc., 190 North Canon Drive, Beverly Hills, California. He stated that [redacted] at Black Gold, ordered 500 letterheads, eight and one half by 11 inches, and 500 matching envelopes. He stated that he may have included 25 to 50 blank sheets for second pages of letters and that he has on his shelves about 2,000 sheets of the Rising Parchment 100% Rag. He exhibited the remaining stock he has which was determined to be blank sheets, eight and one half by 11 inches. He stated that he recently purchased a Royal upright electric typewriter with carbon tape, Serial No. RECEL3-6764357. He stated that this typewriter has not been used very much and he voluntarily furnished, after being warned of his rights, two typewritten specimens and a printed leaflet which he stated contained printing prepared on the typewriter. He also furnished an engraved letterhead of the Black Gold Productions, Inc. on Rising Parchment 100% Rag. Specimens of the typewriter were also typed on this piece of Rising Parchment. [redacted] stated that he did not write any letters to STEVE ALLEN and stated further that he did not believe that anyone having access to eight and one half inch by 11 inch blank sheets would go to the trouble of cutting them down to seven and one quarter by ten and one half inches before typing the letter. [redacted] stated that while he had a wide variety of stationery on hand, he did not have all of the stationery or envelopes used in connection with this case.

On March 28, 1961, [redacted] Tower-Lee Company, Inc., 417 South Wall Street, Los Angeles, California, telephone MA 4-8437, advised that a 22 inch by 34 inch sheet of paper will cut down into nine sheets of monarch size, seven and one quarter by ten and one half inches, or eight sheets of legal size, eight and one half by 11 inches. He stated that the 60 sheets of 22 by 34 inch paper they received from California Paper Corporation were cut down into monarch size, seven and one quarter by ten and b7C one half inches, for customers. He stated that on August 26, 1960, the company sold 500 engraved letterheads, monarch size, to the Day and Night Manufacturing Company, P. O. Box 2222, La Puente, California. He stated that this order was for [redacted] and that they sent the paper to Allen and John for engraving with the name of the company [redacted]. He stated that the Day and Night Manufacturing Company is a reputable outfit which makes the Payne Furnace and that his company has done business with them for 15 years. He stated that he did not believe that any blank second sheets had been sent with that order.

b7C [redacted] also stated that on December 30, 1959, they sold 500 engraved letterheads, monarch size, to the [redacted] Spectrol Electronics Corporation and these sheets were engraved with the name of the company as well as the name of [redacted] P. O. Box 2222, La Puente, California. He stated these sheets were engraved by Allen and John Company and that he did not believe that any blank second sheets had been sent with the order. He said that in connection with these two orders, the letterhead could not be cut off the paper without reducing the size of the paper considerably below that of seven and one quarter by ten and one half inches. He stated that his company has done business with the Spectrol Electronics Corporation for the past few months but he believes they are a reputable concern and noted that the president has the same address as the president of the Day and Night Manufacturing Company. He stated that both of these customers purchase other paper from the Tower-Lee Company. He stated that the wide variety of stationery and envelopes used in preparing the extortion letters, did not suggest any possible one source for the material.

b7C On March 29, 1961, [redacted] Allen and John, Inc., 303 East Fourth Street, Los Angeles, California, advised that most of their business is engraving on high class stationery. He stated that 90 per cent of the paper they handle is sent in by particular concerns for engraving. He stated that they did several orders for the Tower-Lee Company but that the only paper they would have on hand would be possibly a few samples of the letterhead they prepared for the Tower-Lee Company. He stated that his company does not handle the wide variety of paper used in this case and stated that they specifically do not use any ruled paper or any punched paper. He stated that he has a number of employees but that none of them would have access at work to such a variety of paper nor did he think that any of them would have sufficient intelligence to prepare such letters. He stated that the wide variety of paper used, suggested a printing company as one source that might have such a variety, or a wholesale paper outfit such as Blake, Moffit and Towne or Zellerbach.

On March 29, 1961, [redacted]

[redacted] Albert E. Coffey Company, 3124 Riverside Drive, Los Angeles, both advised that they normally buy 17 inch by 22 inch sheets of paper and cut it down to eight and one half by 11 inch size or seven and one quarter by ten and one half inch size, commonly known as monarch size.

b7C [redacted] stated that they purchased paper from the California Paper Corporation and bought eight and one half by 11 inch sheets of Rising Parchment 100% Rag which were not cut down any smaller. He stated that on August 19, 1960, Carl and Irving Printers, 161 North "N" Street, Tulare, California, had them engrave 500 letterheads with the name [redacted] [redacted] California." He stated that these letterheads were eight and one half by 11 inch size and that probably no blank second sheets were included in the order. He stated that 1,000 envelopes were also included in the order.

[redacted] further advised that they purchased 380 sheets of 17 by 22 inch paper from California Paper Corporation about June 1, 1960, for Cole-Holmquist, Inc., 1228 South Flower, Los Angeles, California. He stated that this paper was made up into 1,000 engraved letterheads, eight and one half by 11 inch size, with the letterhead being [redacted]

b7C

[redacted] Los Angeles 13, California, [redacted] He stated that this order included 500 blank second sheets as well as 1,000 engraved envelopes.

LA 9-2498

[redacted] stated that it was possible that the blank second sheets might be cut down to seven and one quarter by ten and one half inches but that he could not visualize taking the trouble to do so.

He also stated that the pink and yellow bond paper utilized, suggested a place printing duplicate order forms. He said that the size and variety of paper utilized suggested to him a small printing shop rather than an engraving or paper company. He stated that the Parker Company, Fourth and Winston Street, does a lot of work for lawyers and that the Stuart Cooper Company, 2201 Compton, East Los Angeles, handles a lot of office supplies for lawyers. He stated that the Industrial Paper Stock, 900 Mateo Street, Los Angeles, telephone MAdison 6-4173, picks up scrap paper from many engraving and printing companies and might possibly accumulate the variety of paper utilized in this case.

On March 29, 1961, [redacted] Axworthy Printing Company, 931 East Pico, Los Angeles, telephone RI 7-7553, advised that their company is probably the biggest purchaser of Rising Parchment 100% Rag paper from the California Paper Products. He stated that this type of paper is sold to four reputable outfits. He stated that the law firm of Loeb and Loeb, 710 Pacific Mutual Building, Los Angeles, is their biggest customer for this type of paper and that approximately every month they buy 2,500 engraved letterheads and 1,000 blank second sheets, all of which are eight and one half by 11 inch size. He stated they also buy matching envelopes.

He stated that Coldwell, Ranker and Company, 900 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, buy printed eight and one half by 11 inch forms on Rising Parchment 100% Rag, which forms could not possibly be cut down and used as stationery. He stated that the law firm of Wallace and Wallace, 605 South Hill Street, Los Angeles, buy engraved eight and one half by 11 inch size letterheads but that he does not recall whether they receive any blank second sheets. He also stated that the stock brokerage firm of Stern, Frank, Meyer and Fox in the Union Bank Building, Eighth and Hill, also buy engraved eight and one half by 11 inch letterheads.

b7C

Both [redacted] were unable to recall any other customers of Rising Parchment 100% Rag nor the sale of any such paper in seven and one quarter by ten and one half inch size.

b7C

[redacted] stated that their company does not handle any notebook paper nor any paper from the Western Tablet and Stationery Company. He stated that the size and variety of paper utilized, suggested a stationery store as a possible source rather than a printing company. He stated that one printing company that does a lot of work for legal firms is Parker and Sons, located at 241 East Fourth Street, Los Angeles.

b7C

On March 29, 1961, [redacted] Parker and Company, printers, 241 East Fourth Street, Los Angeles, advised that the company does not have the variety of paper utilized in this case nor do they handle any Rising Parchment 100% Rag paper. He stated that the variety of paper utilized would eliminate most printing companies and that he would suspect that the only possible source of such a wide variety would be a wholesale stationery warehouse rather than a retail store. He stated that such a place could be the Stationery Corporation Warehouse, 1300 Factory Place, Los Angeles; the Atlas Stationers Warehouse, 364 South Anderson; the Southern California Stationers Warehouse, 1498 East Fourth Street, or the Schwabacher and Frey Company at 1240 South Figueroa, Los Angeles, which concern handles a lot of business forms. [redacted] stated that Parker and Company did not carry a wide variety of paper in stock and did not maintain paper in small sizes but would only stock it in the 17 by 22 inch or 34 by 22 inch size.

b7C

On April 3, 1961, [redacted] Regency-Thermographers, Inc., 13212 Saticoy Street, North Hollywood, California, telephone STate 2-8243, advised that his company does not handle Rising Parchment 100% Rag paper. He stated that the variety of paper utilized could be odds and ends in a printing shop or could come from a stationery store if Rising Parchment 100% Rag had ever been boxed as stationery. He also pointed out that the one sheet used could have been a sample sent to some printing company which had been lying around on the shelves. He stated that his company prints mostly on paper supplied by customers and that of the paper utilized in this case, they only use Laid white and pink bond.

LA 9-2498

He stated that the use of pink and yellow bond stationery in this case could have been odd sheets used as markers in connection with another order. He stated that in a large order, printing companies will place a different color piece of paper in as a marker after every 500 sheets.

On April 3, 1961, [redacted]

[redacted] U. S. Envelope Company, 2828 East 12th Street, Los Angeles, advised that the six and one half by three and one half white bond self-sealing envelope of the U. S. Envelope Company used in this case contains on the inside, code number 2360 which indicated the envelope had been manufactured at the Los Angeles plant in the third quarter of 1960. [redacted] stated that the six and one half by three and one half inch window envelope utilized could possibly have been made by the U. S. Envelope Company but that they were unable to identify it inasmuch as the company purchased a new punch press about one year ago.

[redacted] pointed out that the four and one quarter by six and one quarter inch size envelope which was utilized on several occasions in this case, is the greeting card size envelope.

[redacted] stated that the variety of envelopes and stationery utilized did not suggest any particular source with the possibility of stationery stores and printing shops.

[redacted] stated that there are not a large number of sales for the self-sealing envelopes with a printed return address and that he would check the company records and advise the identity of purchasers of this particular item during the last quarter of 1960.

On April 4, 1961, [redacted] made available a list which reflected that during October, November, and December, 1960, two sales were made to Handy-Spot, 1515 North Alvarado, Los Angeles, five sales to Certified Grocers, 2601 South Eastern Avenue, Los Angeles, one sale to the J & S Distributing Company, 711 East Rosecrans, and one sale to the Steindler Paper Company, 4554 Council, Los Angeles.

[redacted] stated that these four concerns are jobbers and that he did not know how many different retail outlets they might furnish the self-sealed envelopes to. He stated that each sale would probably only amount to several dozen envelopes. He stated that these jobbers might be compared with the Los Angeles jobbers who handle stationery of the Western Tablet and Stationery Company to see if any jobber handles both types.

He said that their picketing was carried out in a peaceful manner, that the picketing caused no interference with ALLEN's speech, nor had they expected that it really would. He said that the purpose of the picketing was merely to show STEVE ALLEN that not everyone agreed with him, and the wish to "give him a little opposition".

b7C

[redacted] said that he had also gone with his father to picket ALLEN when he had appeared at a Los Angeles high school, where ALLEN was to address a meeting. [redacted] said that it so happens he is a member of the [redacted] but that neither of these picketings was organized by the [redacted] and that in fact, he saw only about two people that he recognized as [redacted] members. He said that in his opinion, the persons who were picketing ALLEN were all individuals acting on their own or in concert with a few other people who were there to express their opposition to ALLEN's views.

b7C

[redacted] said that although he does not agree with the views of STEVE ALLEN with regard to the international situation and the SANE group, which ALLEN is espousing, he nonetheless feels that ALLEN has a right to speak as he sees fit and [redacted] certainly would not threaten him or feel that he should be threatened in any degree because of his views. He said that he has never written a letter of any kind to STEVE ALLEN, nor does he know of anyone else who has, beyond one individual who wrote to ALLEN requesting some of the literature

Specimens received 5/8/61

Resubmission of Q10 and Q11

K13 One sheet of white paper bearing watermark "Rising Parchment 100% Rag USA"

Result of examination:

It was concluded specimen Q11 and specimen K13 did not come from the same package. The watermark in specimen Q11 was not made with the same die as that used in making the impression of the watermark appearing in specimen K13.

There are insufficient characteristics left by the cutter used in cutting specimens Q11 and K13 to determine whether or not these specimens were trimmed by the same cutter.

It was not definitely determined whether or not specimen Q11 was prepared on an electric typewriter but there is some evidence to suggest that it possibly was not. Furthermore, the only electric Royal typewriters originally equipped with this style of type were the first Royal electric typewriters manufactured, and they were manufactured in the early part of 1950. In June, 1950, the style of type used as standard equipment on the Royal electric typewriters was changed so that it varies from the style used on specimen Q11.

The evidence submitted is returned herewith. No photographs have been made.

It is requested that Q11 and the enclosed piece of Rising Parchment be compared to determine if they are the same size, weight, thickness and cast and are identical in all other respects. It is also requested that it be determined if both pieces of paper were cut by the same cutting machine. Compare the watermarks on both pieces of paper and determine if they are identical and were made by the same die.

EXP. PROC.

It is further requested that Q11 be re-examined to determine, if possible, whether the typewriting was prepared on an electric typewriter. Several individuals have suggested that because of the evenness of the touch, it was possibly prepared on an electric typewriter.

b7C [redacted] The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] [redacted] on April 19, 1961 in Garden Grove, California:

b7C [redacted] Hytone Division, Western Tablet and Stationery Company, 7571 Lampson, advised the following:

This plant has been in operation only since December, 1960, and it neither manufactures or sells any two ring notebook paper with the "Jewel" watermark. There are two other plants of the Western Tablet and Stationery Company on the west coast, but neither handles the "Jewel" line. The only plant that handles this particular line is the one in St. Joseph, Missouri.

b7C [redacted] suggested that the plant in St. Joseph be recontacted to ascertain if some of the above mentioned paper had been shipped out here by that plant, before the Hytone Division began operations.

b7C [redacted] made available the following information:

He has been selling paper for the Western Tablet and Stationery Company for the past five years here on the west coast. The two hole type of filler paper does not sell widely on the west coast, and he had never, as far as he could recall, sold any of the paper with the "Jewel" watermark, out here. He said he was sure he would recall any sales of this paper because the two hole "Jewel" type is not popular in the area.

b7C [redacted] added that [redacted] San Marino, California, was the other west coast salesman for this company, up until a couple of weeks ago when he left the firm. His office is located at [redacted] Los Angeles ([redacted] owns the building in which the office is located), however, he is presently on vacation and probably will not be at the office. His home and office telephone numbers are [redacted] respectively.

b7C [redacted] stated that it was possible that [redacted] had sold some of the two hole "Jewel" paper to the Los Angeles News Company, 301 East Boyd Street, Los Angeles, MA 7-3751. [redacted] b7C [redacted] would be the person to contact at this firm. This company is a wholesaler which distributes to retailers.

b7C The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] b7C On April 28, 1961, [redacted] Los Angeles News Company, 301 East Boyd, Los Angeles, telephone MA 7-3751, advised that his company does not handle at the present time any stationery bearing the "Jewel" watermark, which is a product of the Western Tablet and Stationery Company. He stated he believed that the Western Tablet and Stationery Company had discontinued that watermark several years ago as all of their recent stationery bears the trade name of Hytone. He stated that about five years ago the Los Angeles News Company did handle two ring notebook paper with square corners and possibly bearing the watermark "Jewel" for parochial schools in the Los Angeles area. He stated that the company had a contract with the Archdiocesan Office on West Ninth Street and the paper was delivered to approximately 100 individual parochial schools throughout the Los Angeles area. He stated that for the past few years the Stationers Corporation has had the contract to supply the parochial schools.

b7C [redacted] said that the two ring notebook paper is not popular in the Los Angeles area and that generally the three ring notebook is used. He stated that the only area he knows where two ring notebook filler paper is still popular is in the San Marino, California, area. He stated that his company sells two ring notebook filler to the San Marino Pharmacy and to the San Marino Stationers, both on Huntington Drive in San Marino. He stated that this paper is Hytone paper and that it was possible that these outlets may have purchased "Jewel" paper years before.

b7C [redacted] also stated that his company purchases self-seal envelopes from the U.S. Envelope Company and sells them throughout the Los Angeles area. He also stated that his company handles some pink bond, yellow bond, and white onionskin paper, but only in the 8 1/2" x 11" size.

LA 9-2493

b7C [redacted] stated that from the variety of paper utilized in writing the various extortion letters he could not suggest any one source where such supply would be available to an individual.

b7C On May 3, 1961, [redacted] California, advised that he is presently retired but had been a salesman for the Western Tablet and Stationery Company for over 20 years. After examining a piece of two hole notebook paper, size 8" x 10 1/2", with square corners, bearing the "Jewel" watermark, on which one of the letters to STEVE ALLEN was written, [redacted] stated that he did not believe that such paper had been sold in the Los Angeles area in over 10 years and believed that the piece of stationery utilized was possibly brought into the Los Angeles area from out of state. [redacted] stated that two hole notebook filler paper was somewhat popular in the parochial schools and may still be popular in the San Marino area, but he stated that none of the stores have handled any paper bearing the "Jewel" watermark. He stated that he knows that the San Marino Pharmacy handles Hytone paper produced by the Western Tablet and Stationery Company.

b7C [redacted] stated he did not think it would be feasible to attempt to trace the two hole notebook stationery.

b7C On May 3, 1961, [redacted] Stationers Corporation, 1300 Factory Place, Los Angeles, and [redacted] both advised SA [redacted] that their company has never handled any Rising Parchment 100 % rag paper and that they cannot recall handling any paper bearing the "Jewel" watermark in recent years.

b7C [redacted] stated that most large stationery stores would have a variety of paper similar to that used in writing the various letters, except for 100 % rag paper which a stationery store did not stock. He stated that so many stores currently handle a wide assortment of stationery that it would be impossible to trace paper and envelopes that are of common usage.

b7C [redacted] Day and Night Manufacturing Company - The Payne Company, 859 South Anaheim Puente Road, La Puente, California, furnished the following information:

b7C [redacted] is president of the Day and Night Manufacturing Company, and [redacted] is president of the Spectrol Electronics Corporation, a subsidiary of the Day and Night Manufacturing Company. Both have executive offices at the Day and Night Manufacturing Company. Both have personal stationery, some of which was ordered from the Tower-Lee Company.

b7C [redacted] had [redacted] Secretary to [redacted] check their personal stationery for stationery of Monarch size 7 $\frac{1}{4}$ by 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ and having a Rising Parchment, 100% rag; USA watermark.

b7C After search by [redacted] letterhead stationery for both [redacted] and [redacted] were located which had the Rising Parchment, 100% rag watermark. [redacted] stated that the personal stationery of [redacted] appeared to be much lighter in weight and thinner than that of [redacted] and that this paper was also lighter and thinner than the piece used in writing a letter to STEVE ALLEN. [redacted] stated that neither order placed with the Tower-Lee Company called for any blank ~~second~~ sheets.

b7C [redacted] had [redacted] make a recheck of stationery available to [redacted] and [redacted] after which she located a box of blank stationery, some of which sheets contained the Rising Parchment, 100% rag watermark. [redacted] furnished a copy of such a blank second sheet and both he and [redacted] and agent dated and initialed this piece of paper.

b7C [redacted] stated that there are two secretaries and three executives in the executive offices where this blank paper was maintained. He stated, however, that the paper is not kept under lock and key and that technically anyone working for the company, or anyone of the janitors would have access to the paper.

b7C

[redacted] examined the typing on the letter to STEVE ALLEN typed on Rising Parchment paper and stated that the typing appeared to be a very even type, indicating that the letter could possibly have been typed on an electric typewriter. He stated that the company does not have any Royal typewriters, pica type, ten letters to the inch, presently being used and if there are any they are in storage for disposal.

b7C

[redacted] stated that the company has their own printing shop and prints much of the paper utilized by the company. He stated that from the variety of the paper utilized in this case, it would tend to indicate that whoever was writing the letters might possibly be employed in or have access to a printing shop that had a lot of different types of paper. He stated that the company printing shop did not have access to any 100% rag paper.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date May 8, 1961

[redacted] Day and Night Manufacturing Company, 859 South Anaheim Puente Road, La Puente, California, advised that at the request of [redacted] she made a search for various types of personal stationery used by [redacted] and [redacted] executives of the company. She stated that she located some personal stationery for [redacted] which had the Rising Parchment, 100% rag, USA watermark on it, but stated that the personal stationery for [redacted] that she was able to locate did not appear to have any watermarks. She stated that she had no blank second sheets of the stationery for [redacted] but on some occasions had need for a blank second sheet and had to use different stationery.

b7C

She was requested to make a further search of [redacted] personal stationery in an effort to locate some bearing the Rising Parchment watermark. After an additional search, she located some personal stationery bearing the letterhead of [redacted] which contained the Rising Parchment watermark. She further stated that there were no blank second sheets in this box of stationery.

b7C

She was requested to make a further search of all the stationery available to [redacted] to determine if possibly the Tower-Lee Company had forwarded some blank second sheets of the Rising Parchment paper. She eventually located a box of blank stationery Monarch size, some of which sheets contain the Rising Parchment 100% rag, USA watermark, and some of which sheets did not. [redacted] stated that she had not ever known of the existence of this box of stationery.

b7C

[redacted] was advised that agent was conducting an investigation of threatening letters which had been sent to STEVE ALLEN, Movie and T.V. actor, that one letter sent to Mr. ALLEN was typed on a piece of Rising Parchment stationery, Monarch size, and that [redacted] and [redacted] had both ordered personal stationery, Monarch size, on Rising Parchment paper. [redacted] was advised that if she knew anything concerning the threatening letters or had anything to do with them, that she did not have to discuss the matter with the agent, that no promises or threats would be made to her, that she had a right to consult an attorney, and that anything she said could be used in a court of law.

She stated that she knew nothing about anyone sending threatening letters to STEVE ALLEN. She also stated that off-hand, she could not recall anyone who had been openly critical of STEVE ALLEN.

She stated that the stationery utilized by the executives of the company including that with the Rising Parchment watermark was kept in an unlocked storeroom in the executive offices.

[redacted] dated and initialed one piece of plain stationery, Monarch size, bearing the Rising Parchment watermark.

LA 9-2498

By letter dated May 12, 1961, the FBI Laboratory, Laboratory Report Number D366707DG, advised as follows:

"K13 One sheet of white paper bearing watermark 'Rising Parchment 100% Rag USA'

"Result of examination:

"It was concluded specimen Q11 and specimen K13 did not come from the same package. The watermark in specimen Q11 was not made with the same die as that used in making the impression of the watermark appearing in specimen K13.

There are insufficient characteristics left by the cutter used in cutting specimens Q11 and K13 to determine whether or not these specimens were trimmed by the same cutter.

It was not definitely determined whether or not specimen Q11 was prepared on an electric typewriter but there is some evidence to suggest that it possibly was not. Furthermore, the only electric Royal typewriters originally equipped with this style of type were the first Royal electric typewriters manufactured, and they were manufactured in the early part of 1950. In June, 1950, the style of type used as standard equipment on the Royal electric typewriters was changed so that it varies from the style used on specimen Q11."

b7c On May 24, 1961, SA'S [redacted] and [redacted] attempted to contact [redacted] California, an active figure in the Network of Patriotic Letter Writers, at which time it was determined that she was out of town for several weeks.
