PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the Progressive Labor Party (PLP), formerly known as the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

The "New York Times" City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York, and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge," page 6, states that "this paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life-where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The source advised that the PLP utilizes the address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, but also utilizes an office in Room 622, 132 Nassau Street, New York City, where PLP publications are prepared.

ReBuairtel, 8/29/66,

A check with known sources and informants familiar with racial, black nationalist and communist matters has failed to develop any information reflecting that captioned organization is active in the San Antonio Division.

On a discreet basis reliable officers in surrounding police departments were contacted to see if they knew of organization existing in their areas and this likewise met with negative results. These approaches were made in such a manner so as not to leave the impression that the Bureau was in any manner investigating captioned group.

There has been no indication that STOKELY CARMICHAEL has been in any city covered by the San Antonio Division. Should any information be developed reflecting activation of captioned group or presence of CARMICHAEL in the San Antonio Division, the Bureau and Atlanta Division will be immediately advised.

Pursuant to Bureau instructions, one copy of this communication is being sent to the Atlanta Division for information.

APPEARANCE OF STOKELY CARMICHAEL, NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., AUGUST 30, 1966

STOKELY CARMICHAEL, National Director of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), arrived in Philadelphia, Pa., August 30, 1966, via bus; and in an interview by news media he repeated SNCC's allegations that Philadelphia Deputy Commissioner FRANK RIZZO was a "racist" and framed SNCC people in Philadelphia in the arrests of August 13-15, 1966, in which they were charged with violating state law in regard to possession of dynamite. CARMICHAEL was scheduled to appear at a rally in the Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond Streets, Philadelphia, the night of August 30, 1966.

Deputy Commissioner RIZZO of the Philadelphia Police Department was in command of the police department in the absence of Commissioner EDWARD BELL when the SNCC people were arrested in the dynamite case.

During the interview, CARMICHAEL was asked if he were non-violent, and he is quoted as replying: "I'm standing here as non-violent as you are. But if you strike me, I will kill you before God gets the news. I'm non-violent."

Civil Disobedience Unit, Philadelphia Police Department, advised that after CARMICHAEL left the bus station in downtown Philadelphia he appeared at 16th and South Streets in South Philadelphia, in the vicinity of 52nd and Market Streets in West Philadelphia, and at 16th and Susquehanna Avenue in North Philadelphia throughout the afternoon, continually criticizing and castigating the Philadelphia Police Department, Deputy Commissioner RIZZO, Mayor JAMES H. J. TATE, and the City of Philadelphia as "racist."

ENCLOSURE

APPEARANCE OF STOKELY CARMICHAEL, NATIONAL DIRECTOR OF STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE, PHILADELPHIA, PA., AUGUST 30, 1966

After these street meetings, which were not well attended, drawing no more than 50 to 100 people, CARMICHAEL, along with JAMES FORMAN, National Official of SNCC, held a rally at the Church of the Advocate, 18th and Diamond Streets, in Philadelphia from 8:00 to 9:30 p.m. One purpose of the meeting was to raise the costs of bail bonds for the three SNCC people arrested by the Philadelphia Police Department in the dynamite case.

CARMICHAEL, in his address to the approximately 1,000 people attending the rally, extolled the virtues of "Black Power." His theme was for the Negro to unite and quit fighting among themselves and become a force against the white man so that the black man would no longer be the white man's slave. CARMICHAEL said that the Negro in Philadelphia must reject anything at all proposed by the City of Philadelphia because it was white and "racist."

CARMICHAEL also told the audience that the black man should not serve in Vietnam. He characterized this as "black urban removal." He also said that the Black Power movement had no place for whites of any description to take part in the movement. He also advocated control of the police districts in which Negroes resided by the black man: the captain of these districts should be responsible to the Negro; the police officer working in the Negro community should live in the Negro community. He also proposed shutting down the State liquor stores so that the white man could not sell the Negro cheap, disgusting, poisonous wine to destroy the Negro. The Negro must control the community economically, as well as politically.

A filmed news report of Station KYW-TV in Philadelphia on the 11 p.m. news broadcast, August 30, 1966, contained a three to four minute segment in which JAMES FORMAN was the speaker. FORMAN stated that the news media people came to SNCC's rallies and the news-worthy situations to exploit the situation and that since the television crews were making $300-$400 per week for their coverage of SNCC's activities that in the future and as of that time they would be expected to make contributions to the SNCC cause. After making these statements, FORMAN: said that he could in no way control the audience and that if the news men did not make a contribution, he "washed his hands" as regarding the crowd's actions. The commentator stated that the news men made no contributions and no action was taken by the crowd or anyone else against the television crew.

advised that after the meeting broke up there were mobs of people in the streets outside of the church;
however, there were no disturbances or incidents.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.
The following are examples of some of the wild and inflammatory statements which have been made in the recent past by Stokely Carmichael, Chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee:

1. The February 5, 1966, issue of the "Independent Journal" a daily newspaper in San Rafael, California, reported that Stokely Carmichael, while visiting in Marin County, California, made the following statements: "Our country is not run on reason, it is run on violence. That's the reality of how things are done here.

"It is to my benefit to get the Negro out on the streets to stop the machine which is keeping me from my rights. Whether they do it by marching or singing or dancing or fighting is irrelevant."

Justifying his membership in the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, a "non-violent" civil rights group, Carmichael explained, "Doing non-violent is a personal thing; I might be non-violent, but I wouldn't try to push that onto the people I'm trying to organize.

"If the people were out there, ready to fight for their rights, I certainly wouldn't say that they should all be very nice and not hurt anybody. I'd tell them to get what they deserve."

When asked whether try to prevent the civil rights movement from breaking out into widespread violence, Carmichael retorted, "Of course not. This non-violence bit is just a philanthropic hang-up. I don't see why people keep thinking about that.

"The violence is inevitable." I wouldn't try to stop the fight. I'd try to prepare the people I'm organizing so when the fight comes, they'll be able to win it."
STOKELY CARMICHAEL

2. The May 28, 1963, issue of "The Militant," a publication of the Socialist Workers Party, an organization designated pursuant to Executive Order 10420, contained an interview with Stokely Carmichael concerning his work as a field secretary of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee in Lowndes County, Alabama. During 1963, in speaking of forming a new political party in that county Carmichael stated: "I've always been taught majority rules. In Lowndes we're 90 percent. We're the majority. We're going to take power in Lowndes County and rule. We don't even want to integrate. We want power, pure unalloyed political power."

Carmichael was questioned as to his plans if the political organization, Lowndes County Freedom Organisation, faced violence. Carmichael commented: "The Lowndes County Freedom Organisation is not nonviolent. Non-violence is irrelevant. Dr. King has working for him is a moral force, but we're building a force to take power. We're not a protest movement. We're out to take power legally, but if we're stopped by the Government from doing it legally, we're going to take it the way everyone else took it, including the way the Americans took it in the American Revolution. And we've seen the way the Federal Government protects us, or rather doesn't protect us. If one of our candidates gets touched, we're going to take care of the murderers ourselves."

Carmichael was also questioned as to the feeling in Lowndes County about the war in Vietnam and commented: "Most people in Lowndes are against the war. But you can't go talking to them about teach-ins or Genova. The only thing that makes sense in saying 'end the war' or 'get out' or something like that. My way of ending the war is to tell all the Negroes to stop fighting. Then the war will be over."

3. The June 3, 1963, issue of "Muhammad Speaks," a publication of the Nation of Islam, an all-Negro semi-religious organization which advocates a violent hatred of the United States Government and the white race, contained an article relative to the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and Carmichael. This article quoted Carmichael as stating: "While most other civil rights organizations are working for reform, I believe the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee is trying to lay the foundation for a revolution. I do not feel that a reform movement will solve the socio-economic problems facing us. The best it can do is bring the problems to the public."
STOKELY CARMIKAEL

4. The July 28, 1966, issue of "The Washington Post," Washington, D. C., contained an article relative to an appearance of Carmichael in an Anacostia public housing project. He is quoted in this article as stating: "We've got to tell Johnson that if we don't get home rule we're going to disrupt this city completely. The only people who can get home rule in this city are the black people."

Carmichael is further quoted as stating: "They are trying to split us up, move us out all over. In six years Negroes will control all major cities in this country . . . if we stick together."

5. The July 29, 1966, issue of the "Sun Times," a newspaper in Chicago, Illinois, referred to a meeting in Evanston, Illinois, at which Carmichael spoke to an audience of more than 1,000 most of whom were Negroes. During his speech, he is reported to have stated: "We've got to build internal strength so that if they touch one black man, taking his pregnant wife to a hospital in Matta, touch one black man in Mississippi, or arrest one black man who rebels in the ghetto and charge him with treason, we're going to move to disrupt this country.

"What's going on in the cities of the urban North is not rioting, it's rebellion. They keep talking about extremists . . . the extremists are the white people who are forcing us to live the way we live.

"We don't have to obey any law we didn't have a part in making, especially if it keeps us down. We have every right to break it."

The article further indicated that Carmichael accused Negroes who served in the United States armed forces of being "black mercenaries" which he defined as people who fight for a country and do not enjoy the rights of that country. Carmichael further stated: "Black people are off fighting for the right to vote for people in Vietnam, but when they come back they haven't got the right to vote in Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas, Georgia, Alabama, and Washington, D. C."
STOKELY CARMICHAEL

"A black mercenary goes to Vietnam and gets shot and when they bring him home they won't bury him in his own home town.

"We've got to get the strength so when they ask us to fight their war, we can say, 'Hell, no.'"

6. The August 6, 1966, issue of "The Cleveland Press," a newspaper in Cleveland, Ohio, contained an article regarding a speech made by Stokely Carmichael at a rally of the Congress of Racial Equality in Cleveland, Ohio. Carmichael is reported to have stated: "When you talk of black power, you talk of bringing this country to its knees.

"When you talk of black power, you talk of building a movement that will smash everything western civilization has created.

"When you talk of black power, you talk of picking up where Malcolm left off.

"When you talk of black power, you talk of the black man doing whatever is necessary to get what he needs . . . We are fighting for our lives."

Carmichael again made the statement that any black man who fights in this country's army is a "black mercenary," and in referring to such military service commented: "When Johnson calls, let's stand together and say 'Hell no, I'm not going.'"

7. The August 22, 1966, issue of "The Washington Evening Star," Washington, D. C., contains an article relative to the television program "Meet the Press" which appeared on National Broadcasting Company stations on August 21, 1966. In this article Carmichael is quoted as again attacking the Vietnam conflict, stating that Negro soldierns are "black mercenaries." Carmichael is reported to have stated: "A mercenary is a hired killer and I think that when this country says to black youths their only chance to a decent living is when you join the Army it's saying to that black man his only chance to a decent life is to become a hired killer."
STOKELY CARMICHAEL

The August 22, 1966, issue of "The New York Times," New York City, also contains an article containing excerpts from this same television program. In this article Carmichael is quoted as stating: "Let it remain crystal clear that in this country we are the only people who have to protect ourselves against our protection. We have to protect ourselves against state troopers, against police in Mississippi. And if we do not protect ourselves, since the police forces of this country and the Federal Government and the law officials are not protecting us, then who is going to protect us? And I agree 100 per cent that black people have to move to the position where they organize themselves and they are in fact their protection for each other.

"While we may be 10 per cent inside the country, continental borders of the United States, we want to make it crystal clear that we are well located in cities across this country. And if in fact 100 million people just think they are going to turn on us and we are going to sit there like the Nazis did to the Jews, they are wrong. We are going to go down together, all of us.

"And the second thing is that we want this country to be crystal clear, to understand that its army is integrated and in Vietnam, 10 per cent of your fighting forces are black people. And if you think those black people are going to fight a war while 100 million people turn on its fellow black brethren inside this country and continue fighting a war, you are mistaken."

8. The August 22, 1966, issue of "The Evening Star," Washington, D.C., contains an article relative to the appearance of Stokely Carmichael at a Free D.C. Movement in Washington, D.C. On August 21, 1966, the article indicates that in commenting on the voteless status of people in Washington, D.C., Carmichael stated: "I don't think black people ought to wait to get the vote, because you're waiting for the white man to give it to you and he's not about to do that.

"You oughta get together and tell the man that if you don't get the vote you're gonna burn down this city. Tell him, "If we don't get the vote you're not gonna have a Washington, D.C."

9. A United Press International news item dated August 20, 1966, filed from New York indicated that Stokely Carmichael had warned Cleveland, Ohio, that building stores with no windows will not prevent damage when racial rioting erupts. Carmichael is quoted as stating: "In Cleveland they're building stores with no windows—all brick, I don't know what they think they'll accomplish. It just means we have to move from Molotov cocktails to dynamite."

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I wish to call to your attention a newspaper report of a recent meeting in Phila. How can Carmichael, Cecil Moore and other militant Negro leaders get away with such stuff? Isn't this obvious treason or seditious or a verbal plot to overthrow the government?

The situation worsens in our country daily but little or nothing is done about it. Laws are passed, but not enforced. Government troops are used to protect agitators and murderers. Many of us have written to Congress and the President but to no avail.

Is there any way that interested citizens can help the F.B.I. to do away with this terrorism?

Sincerely yours,

Phila. Is a 'Racist City,' Carmichael Tells 2,000

By DANIEL J. MCKENNA

Of The Bulletin Staff

Stokely Carmichael, national chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, last night told a crowd of about 2,000 in North Philadelphia that "Philadelphia is a racist city run by police terror."

He called Mayor Tate, Police Commissioner Edward J. Bell and Deputy Police Commissioner Frank Rizzo "racists."

The next day, racist Rizzo tries to march 700 cops into our community," he said. "We're not going to get away with it." Carmichael was referring to the police raids on three SNCC meeting places earlier this month in which two and a half sticks of dynamite were thrown and four persons were arrested.

"We can't let the white man take our culture," he said. "All we need is money, not their Jukebox, filthy, rotten culture." Carmichael called for the tearing down of Western civilization which he said was dedicated to exploiting all nonwhites.

"We can't afford to be part of the American system," he said. "We must to let the Tate and the Bells and the Rizzos know that this is the beginning. We are going to tell the man that we... " His voice trailed off here and he broke into a little, menacing laugh.

The crowd responded with cries of "Black Power."

"Get Off Our Backs."

Carmichael said he is "not out to get willy-nilly white man" to get off our backs and leave us the hell alone."

He ridiculed projects such as "Head Start," which, he said are attempts to teach the Negro the white man's culture.

"We don't want their culture," he said. "All we need is money, not their Jukebox, filthy, rotten culture."

"We can't afford to be part of the American system," he said. "We have to get the Tate and the Bells and the Rizzos to know that this is the beginning. We are..."
to take all of the police cars. Carmichael said that if he comes here, he will "organize the black man to take me away." He said that he would call in 100,000 people who could be mustered from a number of cities.

The enthusiastic crowd which had gathered outside the Church of the Advocate at 26th and Disciples Way, responded with cries of "Black Power!" and an occasional "Down with White People!

Carmichael and a number of other speakers talked from the steps of a side door of the church on 26th St. The crowd filled the street, making vehicular traffic on it impossible.

No Uniformed Police

No uniformed policemen or red cars were observed in the vicinity during the meeting.

However, Capt. Michael Roberts, new head of the Civil Disobedience Squad, and about eight members of the squad were in the scene as observers. A number of clergymen also were present.

During the meeting, which began inside the church and which lasted for three and a half hours, there were no disorders. The audience, composed mostly of young people, was enthusiastic but well-behaved.

Take Over the Streets

Carmichael said that Negroes in Philadelphia must control the police in their city. He said they should also "start taking over the streets every night because they fight every night."

"You have to make the police chief in your city do what you want," he said. "Have a police man who works in the community you can depend on. That way he won't be able to break your heads open and then go home among you."

Carmichael also exhorted his audience to gain control of their community economically:

"Own everything in the community," he said. "The stores, the tax-cursed buildings, everything. In that way, the profit will come back to the community to benefit us."

Shut State Stores

He urged shutting most of the state stores in Negro areas and the taking over of the churches.

He said that Negroes should take over the state stores and let the white man stop selling the things that destroy the Negro.

"Go into the church and take it over," he said. "It's not a fire. The preacher is the only man in the community who has any power and he's using it for the white."

Throughout his talk, Carmichael urged Negroes to unite and then to gain power. He said, "We are going to control. And if anyone tries to stop us, you'll have another war."

Nujol
I received your letter of September 1st, with enclosure, and the concern which prompted you to write is understandable.

I have continually emphasized the great need for all Americans to demonstrate their support of law enforcement officers engaged in the official performance of their duty. It is through this respect for the law and an awareness of the rights and responsibilities inherent in their citizenship that thoughtful individuals can aid their Nation.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: Correspondent is not identifiable in Bufiles. The enclosure is an article in the August 31st issue of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin quoting Stokely Carmichael's attack upon the Philadelphia Police Department. Carmichael is the chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on September 12, 1966, that William Epton contacted Ivanhoe Donaldson, Director of the New York Office of SNCC, at the SNCC office, 100 Fifth Avenue, New York City on that date.

The "New York Amsterdam News", a New York City weekly newspaper, issue of September 3, 1966, Page 1, described William Epton as the, "head of the leftist Harlem branch of the Progressive Labor Party".

Donaldson told Epton that he had just returned from Atlanta, Georgia, and that SNCC was trying to launch a major campaign against the Anti-Riot Act by asking Senators and Congressmen not to support it.

The source also advised that at the request of Donaldson, Epton agreed he would try to have some people send telegrams to Ivan Allen, Mayor of Atlanta, protesting the "political" arrest of Stokley Carmichael, National Chairman of SNCC.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised on April 20, 1965, that the Progressive Labor Party (PLP), formerly known as the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), held its first national convention April 15-18, 1965, at New York City, to organize the PLM into a PLP. The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

The "New York Times" City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York, and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

The June 1, 1965, issue of "Challenge," page 6, states that "this paper is dedicated to fight for a new way of life-where the working men and women own and control their homes, factories, the police, courts, and the entire government on every level."

The file further indicates that INS furnished on 9/19/66 to the Department of Justice a memorandum concerning STOKELY CARMICHAEL as follows:

ADOLPHUS CARMICHAEL entered the U.S. at New York on 7/15/46 as a transient to B.W.I. and on 3/28/51, an order was entered by the Assistant Commissioner of INS that his deportation as an alien who had remained for a longer period than authorized be suspended; that his case be referred to Congress. The suspension was based on a finding of economic detriment to his lawful resident alien wife should he be deported. Concurrent Resolution of Congress, CR-29892, approved the action. A record of entry for permanent residence, retroactive to 7/15/46, was created on 1/28/52. STOKELY CARMICHAEL was destined to his father when he entered the U.S. on 6/15/52.

INS file does not indicate the purpose for which STOKELY CARMICHAEL requested the certificate of citizenship.

It should be noted that information furnished in WFO airtel, 8/26/66, captioned "COMINFIL SNCC; STOKELY CARMICHAEL, IS-C" concerning STOKLEY CARMICHAEL's citizenship status was received from an INS representative as a result of a WFO request. This INS representative advised that the file was not available for WFO personnel to review, as their records indicated the file was located in the INS office in Atlanta, Georgia.

WFO making additional review of subject's file and will submit results. \[\text{Supervisor}\] advised procedure is for WFO to furnish INS a "flimsy" request which INS clerk handles. If file is available, it is made available to WFO clerk for review. If not, INS clerk makes notation on flimsy of what their records show and where file is located, which is what happened in this instance. Erroneous date was result of mistake by INS clerk. STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

A source advised on February 22, 1964, that at a meeting of the Portland (Oregon) Communist Party Youth Club held on February 20, 1964, a report was given by JAMES R. BERLAND of the Reed College Communist Party Youth Club concerning a meeting of the National Party Youth Commission (Communist Party) previously held in New York City. BERLAND reported that one of the four main points taken up in the New York City meeting concerned the SDS and its problems. BERLAND indicated that SDS was weak nationally but some local chapters were strong. It was noted that the SDS has an incorrect political orientation, being too far left on some issues and not far enough on others, and that the SDS does not follow the Marxist theory for the most part. One speaker said that the Party could work through SDS to achieve the aims of the Communist Party.

As a result of this meeting of the National Party Youth Commission, it was decided to work through SDS where there are strong local SDS chapters.

City, for Leo Bernard who was described as "the Detroit Socialist who was shot down by a fanatical anti-Communist."

Page 6 of this issue of "The Militant" stated that Elizabeth Sutherland, Chairman of New York SNCC, a scheduled speaker at this memorial, was unable to attend but sent a statement. This statement printed in column three read in part as follows:

"The murderer of Leo Bernard is the same creature which encourages murder in Mississippi, which keeps the poor from controlling the anti-poverty programs, which sustains discontent in Watts, which sends troops to the Dominican Republic and Vietnam.

"That creature is the octopus of international racist capitalism with the U.S. at its head. The tentacles of that octopus must be broken one by one."

A characterization of "The Militant", SWP and YSA is contained on the appendix hereto.

A *advised on July 26, 1966, that Ivanhoe Donaldson of New York SNCC was a speaker at a forum sponsored by Students For a Democratic Society held at New York City, on

Donaldson talked about the history of the Negro - and he called for "black power."

The "New York Post", a New York daily newspaper, issue of August 30, 1966, page 20, contained an article which reflected that Stokely Carmichael was "hailed at a 'Panther' rally," which was held in the Mount Morris Presbyterian Church in Harlem, New York, on August 29, 1966, and billed as a fund-raising benefit for SNCC.
The article stated:

"Militant Negro leaders hammered at the themes of black unity and alleged white oppression last night from a Harlem speaker's platform guarded by uniformed members of the city's new Black Panther Party."

Max Stanford, who was described as a member of the newly organized "Black Panther Party" (BPP) spoke, stating that black men must unite in overthrowing their white oppressors but must do it "like panthers - smiling, cunning, scientifically . . . striking by night and sparing no one."

Stanford said that the BPP is supporting a boycott of two Harlem schools on September 12, 1966, and urged those present at the rally to "come into the streets with us on September 12."

Max Stanford is characterized in the characterization of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) attached hereto.

Stokely Carmichael spoke from a platform in the Mount Morris Presbyterian Church in Harlem at this rally held on August 29, 1966, at which six members of the BPP, each wearing black shirts, black pants and black panther emblems guarded the platform. In his speech, Carmichael criticized the war in Vietnam and urged "black people" to unite with nonwhites all over the world.

He also said, "We can't talk about freedom any longer. We have to talk about liberation. . . ."

"In Cleveland they're building stores with no windows. All brick. I don't know what they think they will accomplish. It just means we have to move from Molotov cocktails to dynamite."
A [blacked out] advised September 1, 1966, that among other speakers at the rally were Ivanhoe Donaldson, of New York SNCC, and William Hall, a New York field secretary, who stated that SNCC would enhance the BPP in Harlem, New York.

The "New York Times," a New York City daily newspaper, issue of September 22, 1966, contained an article which reflected that Stokely Carmichael, Chairman of SNCC, was among the demonstrators picketing Intermediate School 201, in East Harlem, New York, on September 21, 1966, and that William Hall, 100 Fifth Avenue, New York City, was one of five pickets arrested and charged with disorderly conduct and obstructing police officers.

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT (RAM)

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto," the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the Winter of 1963 by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of ROBERT F. WILLIAMS, now residing in Cuba, and his concept of organized violence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto disclosed that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philosophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the nonwhite races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding WILLIAMS, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotte, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the crime of kidnapping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, WILLIAMS fled the United States to Cuba, where he now publishes a monthly newsletter entitled "The Crusader" from Havana.

This source in September, 1964, advised RAM is dedicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely nonwhite in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World," that is, the nonwhite races of the world rather than to any national entity, as such.

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised he learned recently from an RAM member that the organization began in Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of DON FREEMAN, described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as

RAM's "Black Stalin." FREEMAN served as RAM Chairman, with MAXWELL STANFORD, now of New York City, formerly of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, serving as RAM Field Chairman.

On March 18, 1965, a third source advised that HANIF ABDUL WAHAB of Cleveland, Ohio, occupies a position in the RAM only one or two places removed from the top RAM leadership.

On May 16, 1966, a fourth source advised that the RAM still remains active, however, there is no formal headquarters, as such, for the RAM. This source further advised that so far as is known, FREEMAN, STANFORD, and WAHAB still occupy positions of leadership in the RAM.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 23, 1966, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 23, 1966, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC). The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 535, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.
Survey of all available sources within Buffalo Office territory was conducted during 9/66 and all advised they have no knowledge indicating presence of any SNCC members, organization, or activity in this area.

SUBJ. CONTROL
Detroit, Michigan
September 26, 1966

The "Detroit Free Press", a Detroit daily newspaper, in its edition of September 26, 1966, in a section captioned "Week End in Religion", contained an article captioned, "17 Lawyers Vow Aide to Negro Extremists". This article in part stated 17 Detroit area lawyers have formed a militant vanguard of black power it was learned Sunday. The attorneys, three whites and 14 Negroes, have formed the Metropolitan Defense Committee to defend Negro and others arrested in riots and those who are victims of alleged illegal police procedures and assist draft protestors, particularly Negroes. The group headed by Milton R. Henry, a former Pontiac City Commissioner, said he would reveal the full membership list later in the week. Henry Cleage, brother of Albert B. Cleage of the Central United Church of Christ, said he was a member. Cleage, Henry and attorney Conrad Lynn, a militant white protestor from New York, who inspired formation of the local group, were interviewed Sunday in the basement of the Central Church, 7625 Linwood, Detroit. Lynn is a former United States Communist Party (CP) member, who was drummed out of the Party for being too radical in 1937. Henry said they exchanged briefs and ideas with Lynn and agreed with Lynn's ideas nearly 100%. Henry said we will handle draft cases because there are groups of fellows who resist military service and we will be there to defend them. Right now, Henry said, the group which he conceded was a form of black power would work to have charges dismissed against persons arrested in Detroit during disturbances on the east side. Henry said, "We're organized to defend people when it's unpopular to defend them. We'll be available to anybody who gets beat in the head by the police and we hope to defend the community against rampant police aggressiveness."
Re: Appearance of Stokely Carmichael, at Detroit, Michigan, September 27, 1966

The article also mentioned a mass rally lead by a black power advocate, Stokely C. Carmichael, National Co-ordinator of Students Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), was planned at Reverend Cleage's church on September 27, 1966. Carmichael's topic will be "Who Is Afraid of Black Power".
