Re F.B.I.

This situation is made to order for you. I know that "Officials" of the F.B.I. not alone work long hours overtime, without compensation, but also have to pay for meals meanwhile.

For the singlemen this may be overlooked, but in the case of married men, who have dinner prepared at home, it is a double expense.

This gripe did not come from either the F.B.I. Official, or his wife to me, and in fact if they knew I was writing this letter, would not have permitted it.

I am sure that I have turned this over to the one man that can help this situation.

Sir:

Respectfully call your attention to Bubbin Freenberg murder case in Miami. Victim is niece of A ubbin, of the Miami judiciary. Certain aspects of the case appear to be reminiscent of the Leopold-. Loeb thing of some years ago.

No satisfactory coverage has so far appeared in the "ew York metropolitan press. Clips from Miami press indicate a great deal more to the story than they are permitted to print, or that they want to print.

Defense attorneys of sufficient eminence to arouse interest if not suspicion... as to culpability of the only suspect.

*ake no mistake, the crime was of out-of-the-ordinary brutality.

There are connotations of parental pressure that might have led to mental abberations in the suspect.

Again, respectfully suggest that you - of all reporters in the country - give it a whirl. I believe it will pay off. It will not be your first scoop. It might turn into one of your most important one

With kindest regards

Dear Walters

G. I. R. sk we seen the following he san Diego. California

I thought you might not have seen the following editorial which appeared in the San Diego, California, Evening Tribune on June 28, 1950:

Rb Walter Winchell, columnist for The San Diego Union, goes entire credit for completing a job which New York's police for a year had been unable to do. Winchell, like the Mounties, got his man. The man, Benedetto Macri, had been sought for slaying a labor union leader. A reward of $25,000 had been offered by the union's president for a satisfactory conclusion of the murder case, and Winchell conceived the idea of getting the suspect to survender. The reward, if paid, will go to the Damon Bunyan Cancer Fund. The hitch now to that the union is quibbling over what it effered.

In New York

These Charming People

Henry (Mr. Roberts) Fonda was telling a reporter how glad he was that he moved from his rural home in Movietown to N. Y. "Why," he why'd, "we lived ten miles from the nearest neighbor. It was quiet and my kids were awful lonely. But New York's different! It is a city with lots of people. It even smells noisy. I'd never move back to the Coast."

"Where do you live in New York?" he was acted.

"Where do you live in New York?" he was asked.
"Oh," said Henry, "we have a lovely place in Connecticut!"

One of Ted Healy's stooges (Mousie Garner) is amused at the feuds among comics over pilfering of gags, etc. He recalled when Milton Berle and Joe Penner clashed about who first used the comedy hat with the brim turned up against the crown.

"You're both all wet," squelched Ted. "Napoleon started that!"

"You're both all wet," squeiched Ted. "Napoleon started that:"

Nearly all of these stories are familiar to show folks. They either read them here in the last 25 years or in the various digests, which know a good story when they see one, too... Peter Lind Hayes' pet stars the late Eddy Foy who was breaking in a new ingenue... When the last curtain fell after several bows she apologized to Mr. Foy: "Oh, I'm so sorry. I didn't mean to keep taking Center that way. I know the center of the stage is reserved for the star."

"Don't let it worry you, my dear girl," said Foy, putting on his best clown-ham manners, "I always take the Center with me!"

Hater Hayes discusses her bushand. Charles Hack when with Helen Hayes discusses her husband. Charles MacArthur, with great affection when interviewed. . She once revealed the sequel to his renowned: "I wish these were emeralds!" which he cooed when they first met, as he offered a bag of peanuts...During the war he picked up some emeralds in the China-Burma-India sast war ne picked up some emeraids in the China-Burma-India sector and had them made into a clip for her. . If one of his pals saw Helen wearing them, he'd say: "I wish they were peanuts."

MacArthur always sends her something on opening nights. When she opened in "Candle in the Wind," an anti-Nazi play, he wired: "I hate you, I hate you, I hate you! (signed) A. Hitler."

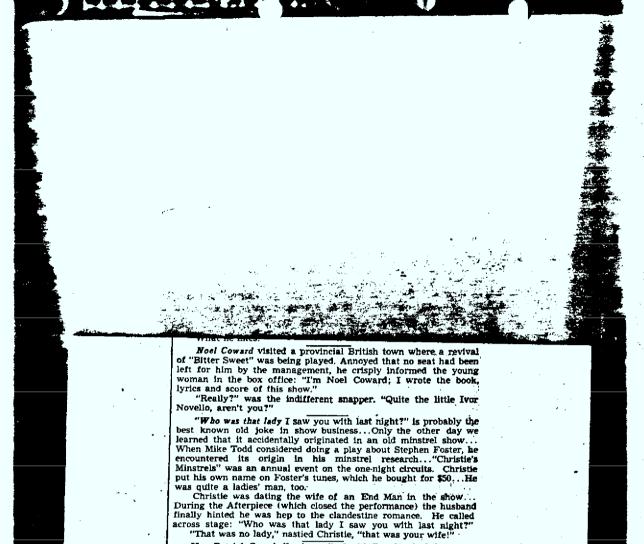

Once, in Hollywood, the late critic Alexander Woollcott was having a small, select dinner. MacArthur, one of his intimates, dropped in and was informed he was not invited and to please leave. Alec should have known better, says Helen. The dinner was being held in a hotel, so Charlie got into a waiter's uniform and when Alec asked for some water MacArthur poured a pitcher of it over his head, saying: "Is this what you wanted, sir?"

Critic George Jean Nathan puts on a good show. When a woman sued his friend, Eugene O'Neill (for alleged infringement), her lawyer tried to rattle George out of the witness chair.

"How many first-rate critics are there?" he asked.
"About 20," said George. was the caustic comment. "I always thought there "Indeed?"

was only one!"
"A lot of people seem to think so," Nathan intoned stiffly, as he brushed his sleeve in The Elegant Manner.

"This business of criticism," says an editorial, "is unfairly onesided, due largely to the prideful, martyr-complexes of authors, actors and producers. Sometime early this century the practice of talking back to critics went out of fashion. The stage folk thought it the better part of dignity to eat their own smoke. They agreed to suffer in allence, for, after all, what does a critic know about art? And after all what does he know?" art? And, after all, what does he know?"

Mrs. Patrick Campbell, who walked with Royalty, had the retort wonderful when a restaurant flunky told her dogs were not welcome.
"My dog," regally replied La Campbell, "dines at Buckingham Palace! Can you say the same for the rest of your patrons?"

Leonora Corbett, the actress, sent this apology to a gentleman friend: "Dear Gerald: Do you remember the day we met outside my door? I had not seen you for quite a while. You came toward me with outstretched hands and beaming smile. I was in a dreadme with outstretched hands and obaming smile. I was in a dread-ful hurry. 'Oh, Gerald,' I said, 'I wish you were a taxi!' You laughed and said how funny I was, but your arms dropped rather quickly. Months have passed since then. Gerald, will you forgive that naughty jest of mine if I tell you this morning as I left my house an empty cab slowly passed me by, and half aloud I whispered; 'Oh, taxi, how I wish you were Gerald!'"

Columnist-bistorian A. Schlesinger, Jr., noted: "Louis Johnson's economy drive played a crucial role in bringing about American defenselessness. But were strong voices (except those of the Alsops) raised against Johnson's policy at the time?"

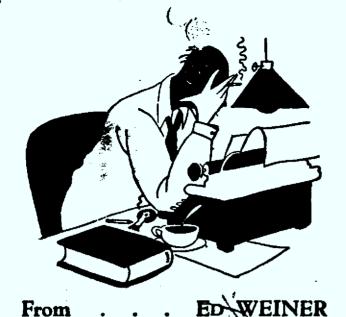

That'll be news to the editors of Collier's. Louis Johnson tried to get them to unprint "Blueprint for Disaster" by the anemicyoiced W. Winchell.

"Wouldn't he have done a great job on the Benelicto Macri assignment?" Walter says.

The admiration had been mutual. In a famous statement about Winchell, Runyon had said: "When a guy's got class, I got to go with him." That "class" has given Winchell's newspaper column an audience of 40,000,000, his Sunday broadcasts an audience of 35,000,000. It has kept dying shows alive, turned slow-moving books into hest-sellers, zoomed unknowns into stars and successes. It has also wreaked havoc with subversive elements in this country on Right and Left. In this article, however, I wish to explore a single faccinating facot of Winchell's brilliant career—crime reporting.

So, far into the night, and life. He knew the real state of Runyon's healthto the last. Winchell also knew that the only way York, answering police and fire calls, and rushing when the action got hottest.

It was at the Imperial that he ran into some of the desperadoes who gave him the beginnings of his rare insight into the underworld. There he encountered the bouncer with the funny name—"Gyp the Blood." As time wearied on, Gyp the Blood often made the headlines. The big blowoff came when he played his gruesome part in the Rosenthal murder case—and the electric chair murmured a droning goodbye to the first hoodlum of Winchell's memory.

Gus Edwards' "The Song Revue," a turn in vaudeville as a song and dance man, a hitch in the navy and then an assignment as a writer of tidbits for the Faudeville News led to Winchell's job as a drama news reporter for The Graphic. Now defunct, The Graphic was a tabloid newspaper that apiced up the doings of New Yorkers with a pictorial device since outlawed by the profession, the "composograph," an imaginary reconstruction of

It was during this era that Winchell, leaving his cubby-hole office one day, noticed a shiny, new car parked in front of the building.

"It's yours," said the big gay minding it.
"If you like me, you won't do this," Walter snapped.

"We think you're a nice kid, and this is a gift from the bosa," said the sentined.

"No can do," Winchell said and walked off, leaving a sulten mobater chewing on his eigar. Only the day before, Winchell had bought a $2,100 Stur Black Hawk at a used car place, and had the knowledge that he had paid for it with his own hardearned money. That is the way he has always operated.

In 1929 Winchell had transferred to the New York Daily Mirror. Gang rule, upheld by corrupt politicians, was then a commonplace. A wildly reckless member of the Dutch Schults squad was getting out of hand, and orders came through for him to be rubbed out. A squad of assessina, riding through a Harlem street, opened fare, wounded five children, killed another. They also killed a may known as Pete Coll. They had been gunning if his brother. Vincent.

That did it. A maniacal killer, Viacent Coll won a one-man murder binge. At about this time, a big story was in the offing but it required a peculiar type of social approach. You can't just walk in unannounced on Mrs. William K. It was my extreme pleasure this Summer to meet some of your "boys" in Washington, Tampa and Havana. They are a wonderful bunch of guys and their friendliness and courtesy were indeed helpful to me.

They all had nice things to say about you, too.

Hope you and Mr. Tolson had a pleasant

Memos to the Editor

During our summer holiday we inspected the files and encountered the following brevities in our scripts... We went back to January, 1945... They included a number of duds, of course... But look at these!

Oct. 7, 1945: Unless some diplomats pull their punches in the aext five months, millions of hien will again be pulling triggers within the next five years..., Sept. 23rd, 1945: Russia has revealed deritorial interest in everything from the flanish Baltie Islanda to a year in the Red Sea. Mr. and Mrs. America, it doesn't look very food to me from this disrephone... Sept. 18th, 1945: Russian diplomats and British-American diplomats have about as much confidence in each ether as rival camps of pickpockets. London and Washington fear that Russia wants to dominate Europe ... July 8th, 1945: Russia's military power against tany Aziatic nation is new twice what it was against Germany!

June 10th, 1945: The Soviet commandant declares that the Communist Party as such is not functioning in Berlin. Want to bet? . . . May 27th, 1945: For reasons best known to itself, Russia refuses to allow any British or American missions into the set called liberated areas . . . May 20th, 1945: I hate Fascism from the Right and I hate Fascism from the Left. That's Communism spelled sideways . . . June 10th, 1945: Beyond question, the Communism as well as the Nazis achieved a deep penetration into high American places. Something should be done!

Oct. 14th, 1945: Diplomatic deadlock between the Big Three is deepening. The situation is much more grave than the public realdes... Nev. 14th, 1945: Moscow on the surface continues to recogsize Chiang Kai-shek, but Russian artillery and supplies are being handed to Chiang's enemies by Russia... Feb. 24th, 1946: Russian intelligence has more than 1,500 agents now operating in the United States. Does See'y of State Byrnes wish to deny that under eath?

April 7th, 1946: The pattern for the next we years will be home-made revolutions financed and armed in other nations...

Bept. 15th, 1946: The U. S. will go to any limits to assure Russia of Russia's defense, but the U. S. will also go to any limits to stop Russian domination of the world... Sept. 22nd, 1946: Our Army and Navy say we are taking no steps to prepare for a preventive war, well, then, don't you think it's time we did?... Sept. 22nd, 1946: Six months ago, Byrnes, Acheson, Cohen and others in the Stage Dept. were for appearing Russia at that time. But Molotov's excessive demands crystallized the opposition. Don't throw away brour uniform!

Oct. 12th, 1946: Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Eden of London will make a surprising announcement. Nov. 2rd, 1946: Behind the nounce the Big Four are agreed that vete power will stick Den't let the debates fool you. Small nations are simply out of luck . Feb. 2rd, 1947: Far more importance than whether any politician returns to Washington in 1942 is whether or not American boys will have to return to uniforms by 1966.

April 20th, 1947: Mr. Whiskers is checking a former top scientist once on the atomic bomb project. Alleged commy connections...

June 1st, 1947: Northern Korea is now bristling with tommyguns... July 6th, 1947: American stockpiling of strategic materiels has begun. Over 100 million dollars in orders will be in effect soon... Nov. 9th, 1947: The reason behind the Russians' offer for withdrawal of all troops from Korea is simple. A packaged revolution is all ready... April 18th, 1948: American atomic scientists believe the Russians will have the atomic bomb by Jan. 1, 1953. However, I know some British experts who disagree. They fear Russia will have the bomb by October, 1949!

April 25th, 1948: Contracts were signed last Thursday by the U. S. and a large manufacturer for 3 million ibs. of paper. For selective service forms . . . June 6th, 1948: The Near East may result in some high cabinet changes. Dean Acheson, I am told, may replace Sec'y of State George Marshall . . . Sept. 5th, 1948: The gurrent spy investigation is not a red herring. Our top intelligence thiefs believe it is a great menace. The truth is that the deepest lecrets of our government are an open book in Moscow . . . Nev. 21st, 1948: The air force of 70 squadrons is being quietly put to sleep on the ridiculous ground that the budget won't stand it . . . Nov. 28th, 1948: It takes 3 years for a British divorce. I hear Mrs. Anthony Eden plans another marriage. His name is Dr. Robert Hedges, in N. Y. gynecologist, formerly with the 9th Evacuation Hosp. Big secret.

Dec. 4th, 1948: Attention National Press Club, Washington: The New York commies are scared stiff tonight. They hear that Lee Pressman, the lawyer, is ready to talk! . . . Jan. 1st, 1950: A top member of the Lawyers' Guild, once in gov't, has been named in secret testimony before a Congressional Committee as having attended Communist Party meetings in N. Y. C. . . . Jan. 8th, 1950: Princess Elizabeth is enceinte again. Since her trip to Malta her diet is simple ungarnished foods . . . Feb. 26th, 1950: Louis Johnson's resignation, White Housers whisper, would be received with sighs of regret and relief . . . June 11th, 1950: Rumors published this week that O'Dwyer will resign to go into private business are not true. The inside story is that His Honor has his eye on the Ambassadorahip to Mexico. That is the only thing, I am told, which would tempt him out of City Hall.

Feb 13th, 1949: The levellest movie star of them all has found a new love. He is a famed director from Italy. Her husband knows all about it . . . June 25th, 1959: Despite the statement by Gev. Dewey that he will not seek re-election, friends say he may reconsider at the Sarajoga Convention on Sept. 7th . . . July 22rd, 1959: Gev. Dewey may allow himself to be drafted for re-election because of the "national emergency" . . . March 6th, 1949: The Navy is crushed by the appointment of Louis Johnson as new Sec'y of Defense . . . Dec. 4th, 1949: Insiders at the White House tell intimates that the cabinet is not big enough to hold both Dean Acheson and Louis Johnson, the Secretary of Defeat. One must go in 1959 . . . Jan. 2nd, 1550: Argentine Carroll's exciting new romance is one of Life mag's biles.

BROADCASTS OF DREW PEARSON AND WALTER WINCHELL

In connection with your inquiry as to whether we specifically cover the broadcasts of Walter Winchell and Drew Pearson on Sunday evenings, please be advised that this has not been specifically designated to Supervisors in the Security Division. We have an arrangement whereby Supervisors are alert to listen to these broadcasts and report in any information which appears to require action. This is not foolproof. The New York Office regularly covers the broadcast of Winchell each Sunday night and initiates action, particularly as to matters of interest to the New York Office. Again, this is not foolproof as matters of interest to the Bureau outside of New York would not always be referred to us.

In connection with the broadcasts of Winchell and Pearson on December 10, 1950, Supervisor Robert Collier dictated a memorandum on the morning of December 11, advising of the pertinency of Pearson's comments concerning Korean activities in the Los Angeles area.

Relative to Winchell's broadcast, the New York Office covered this and appropriate action is being taken as set forth in my memorandum dated today.

For your information, I have designated the responsibility for specifically covering these broadcasts to Supervisors in the Security Division, who will cover the broadcasts each Sunday night and see that appropriate action is immediately initiated in connection with any items that are of interest to the Bureau. They will prepare memoranda the first thing Monday morning reflecting that such action has been taken.

AHR:mer

DIRECTOR'S NOTATION:

This should have all along been done. The fact we had discontinued recording such broadcasts did not prohibit listening to them! H.

DATE: December 18, 1950

The Walter Winchell Broadcast of December 17, 1950, was monitored by Supervisor Edward S. Sanders and below are items from that broadcast which may be of interest to the Bureau:

"The lawyers for Alger hiss are telling friends they will uncover a scientific bombshell and asked for a new trial."

"The Panamanian Government may be overthrown at any moment by a military clique led by General Ramon, Chief of Police. President Arias, the target for assassination, was ousted in 1942 for imitating Hitler."

"The Wationalist Party of Puerto Rico that sent the assassins to Washington to kill the President is planning more acts of violence. They will coincide with the trial-of their leader, Campos, which starts very soon."

"Moel Field, the American fellow traveler, also suspected of being a Russian agent, has been given the double double cross by Moscow. He is now in Lubianica Prison. Folks around him say he will soon confess being a spy for the U. S., which he never was."

"A prominent psychoanalyst is giving daily treatments to a very high official."

When the Circuit Court recently granted Judy Coplon a new trial, it said that her guilt was plain but that her arrest by the FBI was not according to the law because they did not have a warrant for her capture while allegedly plotting against us with Russian agent Gubichev. The judges recommended, however, that Congress correct that law. The fact is that a G-man has no more right to arrest a criminal without a warrant than you have as a citizen. That is more than a loophole in the criminal code. It is a very big break in the ramparts of our national defense. The U.S. Senate recently passed a bill which would stop the Judy Coplons from getting away with it but this bill is prigeon-holed in the House of Representatives. Please write a letter or send a telegram to Congressman Cellar and to Congressman Burns and tell them to get off that spot."

MEMORANDON FOR MR. BELWONT

ADDENDUM :

In analyzing the above information, it would appear that relative to the Alger Hiss case, Finchell is referring to the apparent attempts on the part of the defense to build a typewriter which will have identical characteristics as those of the Hiss typewriter which produced the questioned documents used at the trial. As you know, we have received information on this from our New York Office and are following the activities of the defense in this attempt. We have also called the tactics of the defense to the attention of Mr. Donegan, In order that he may mention these tactics to the court if it appears appropriate.

Relative to the possible overthrow of the Panamanian Government, a check so far does not show that we have received such information. A request is being made of our representative in the Canal Zone that he advise us in this respect today.

Winchell's comment concerning the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico is the same as information we have previously received and the information we have disseminated to appropriate Government agencies.

A pending case on Noel Field as a possible espionage agent exists. The has stated that Field was an espionage agent for the Russians. We know he disappeared in Europe, and presumably is in the hands of the Russians. We are currently checking on the activities of the house of the field's whereabouts, as we have recently picked up information that she may have such knowledge.

It is not apparent to whom Winchell is referring relative to psychoanalyst treatments for a very high official.

Winchell's comments concerning the Coplon case are self-explanatory.

WALTER WINCHELL BROADCAST December 24, 1950 8.47.6

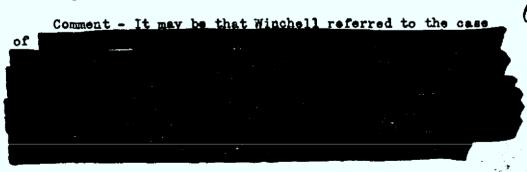

Supervisor Edward S. Sanders monitored the Winchell broadcast which began at 9 P.M. December 24, 1950. The following items are of possible interest to the Bureau:

brown on the state of the state

Winchell - "The Justice Department has just ordered the prosecution at once of every leading Communist in the United States."

Comment - As you know the Bureau has pressed for prosecution of leading functionaries of the Communist Party in the United States and during the latter part of October the Justice Department suggested that memoranda be prepared on the eighty Communist Party functionaries throughout the ocuntry and that the memoranda be submitted to the appropriate United States attorneys for consideration as to prosecution. The memoranda have been submitted to the appropriate United States attorneys for consideration. To date, no prosecutions have been authorized by the United States attorneys or the Department of Justice.

Winchell - "A very high Federal law enforcement official is about to be locked up himself for alleged bribery -- not John Edgar Hoover."

Winchell - "To Postmaster General Donaldson, there is a newspaper being published every day in New York for the Chinese Red Army. It is called the "China Daily News," published at 105 Mott Street, Chinatown, New York. It shouts that the U.S.A. is a war mad imperialistic power whose soldiers are being defeated by China's volunteers. This paper is published right in New York and calls General Eisenhower the military chief of the aggressors and what it calls the President of the United States Mr. Truman himself would not call a music critic. Why do you allow this Chinese Red Army rag full mail privileges?" That privilege is extended only to American newspapers qualifying as beneficial to the public. Since when is the enemy on lend lease of the United States mail?"

Comment - This newspaper is edited by Chew Sick Hong and is the outstanding pro-Communist Chinese language newspaper in the country. Investigations of the newspaper and of the individual officers connected with it were begun during March of 1950 and are presently receiving investigative attention.

Winchell - Miami Herald- Intellectuals for Puerto Rico will confer in Miami with people interested in the defense of Albisu Campos. He is the Nationalist Party leader of Puerto Rico and allegedly the master mind in the recent attempt on the President's life."

Comment - The foregoing information

The Walter Winchell broadcast of December 31, 1950, was monitored by Supervisor Edward S. Sanders and the following items are of possible interest to the Bureau:

Winchell - "Department of Justice has recommended Eugene Eproth as head of the New York Criminal Division."

Comment - The files of the Bureau fail to reflect any information concerning Eproth.

Winchell - "San Juan, attention Presidential Palace of Puerto Rico. The Nationalist Party which inspired the attempt on President Truman's life recently is plotting a jail break to free their leader Campos."

Comment - The Bureau has received several indications from confidential informants that the Nationalists will cause more trouble at the time their leaders are brought to trial. This information has been distributed to the appropriate authorities. There has been no direct information received concerning an actual jail break other than that some of the Nationalists have indicated they will attempt to escape at the time of their trial if they are not handcuffed.

Winchell - "U.S. intelligence is presently translating the stenographic minutes of a so-called secret Communist Party meeting in New York City."

Comment - Winchell may have been referring to a meeting held in New York City from inclusive, at which the question of security was discussed. The meeting was attended by various Communist leaders and extensive precautionary measures were taken to provide secrecy. The meeting was covered by the Bureau, however, and the Internal Security Section is presently preparing a memorandum in this connection.

WALTER WINCHELL'S BROADCAS January 21, 1951

The above broadcast was monitored by Supervisor Arthur F. Baier and the following items are of possible interest to the Bureau:

Winchell - "David Lawrence, the publisher of the U. S. News and World Report, will drop the by-line of his European editor, Bernard Redmont. Redmont was accused last week of giving material to Elizabeth Bentley for the Communists during the war. Redmont also testified for William Remington this week in court and his boss, David Lawrence, found some of his words hard to take."

Comment - As you are aware, Mr. Lawrence, during this past week, advised the Bureau that he was going to take this action.

Winchell - "William/Remington will take the stand in his own defense next week at Federal Court, New York City."

Comment - Our New York Office, during the past week has advised the Bureau that Remington is expected to take the stand in his own defense by the end of this week.

Winchell = "Detroit Times: Communists in a local of the United Auto Workers at Ford will start agitation for a 30 hour week with 40 hour pay = another form of sabotage."

Comment - Ever since the Korean war the Communist Party has been agitating on domestic issues emanating from the war, such as increasing production, speedup methods, shortages, and so on. We recently received information from our Detroit Office indicating that the Communist Party in Detroit was setting up a special trade union committee to study tactical plans and strategy in industry. Winchell's item may be an outgrowth of this overall strategy. The UAW local referred to is Local 600 which covers the Ford plant. This local has a membership of 60,000. Its officers at the top are anti-Communist and they are up for re-election this Spring, and the Communist Party will attempt to defeat them with their own candidates. There is a strong active minority Communist faction in this local. These individuals are well known to the Bureau. The demand for a 30 hour week with a 40 hour pay, of course, gives the CP candidates an attractive platform and at the same time serves the Party in its efforts to forestall increases in production which is needed for the defense program at this time.

Winchell - "Los Angeles: The so-called peace organization out your way will hold a mass demonstration in front of Los Angeles City Hall against universal military training next Saturday."

Comment - The Los Angeles Office this past week advised by teletype that the Communist-influenced Southern California Peace Council was circulating a form letter which calls for participation in a mass demonstration against universal military service which is to be held in front of the Los Angeles City Hall on January 27, 1951.

The above broadcast was monitored by Supervisor Arthur F. Baier and the following items are of possible interest to the Bureau:

"Now please believe this and play no part Winchell in enemy propaganda: Communists over here are creating a brand new front with the following high-sounding and very patriotic name. there's the name - 'Mothers of Service Men in Korea.'"

Communists in the District of Columbia are distributing a leaflet entitled "We Were Fooled - Bring Them Backi" which was issued by a Bring the Boys Home Sponsoring Committee."

Winchell - "Prof. Hawkins on the Los Alamos atomic bomb project during the war has admitted under oath that he was a member of the Communist Party. The FBI has discovered that Prof. Hawkins handled draft deferments and securities regulations. Dr. Hawkins, under oath, testified that both he and his wife were card carriers. His brother-inlaw is William Sloan of Wm. Sloan Associates, the publishers of Max Lowenthal's recent book attacking John Edgar Hoover and the FBI.

Comment -. The Manhattan District and the FBI were cognizant of Prof. Daniel Hawkins' record of Communist affiliation during the time he was employed as an administrative side on the Los-Alamos project during 1943.

The Washington Post of January 28, 1951, publicized the testimony of Hawkins before the HCUA in closed session December 20 and 21, 1950, as 5 revealed by the HCUA. There was nothing in this publicized testimony which the Bureau did not already have in its files. The Bureau was aware of the fact that Hawkins' wife. Frances, is the sister of William Sloan's wife. WALTER WINCHELL BROADCAST February 18, 1951

OTHERWISE

The Walter Winchell Broadcast for Sunday night, February 1951, was monitored by Supervisor Orrin H. Bartlet'c, and the following items of interest were noted:

WINCHELL:

"New York City. Daniel Lang wrote an article for the 'New Yorker' magazine in 1949 whitewashing Communist -  William Remington, who was just found guilty for saying he wasn't a Red."

COMMENT:

The May 21, 1949, issue of the "New Yorker" magazine carried an article written by Daniel Lang. This article reported a sympathetic interview with Remington. Lang is a staff writer on the "New Yorker" magazine.

WINCHELL:

GIR -"The Washington ticker. There will be a wave of desertion from a certain foreign Embassy very, very soon.

COMMENT:

RECORDED - 92

"New York City. Seven hundred New Yorkers will soon receive notices to report in Federal Court on the 28th. From the 700, a dozen will be selected to be the jury in the trial of the atom spies. Judge Irving Kaufman will preside when the trial starts March 6. In this upcoming atom spy trial, the 3 defendants may get death.

COMMENT:

This case involves the following persons: Julius Rosenberg, Ethel Rosenberg, Morton Sobell, David Greenglass, and A. A. Iskovlev. You will recall that Greenglass has already pleaded guilty and that Yakovlev is believed to have been in Russia since 1946. Assistant U. S. Attorney Lane for the Southern District of New York advised the New York Field Division that Peyton Ford, Deputy Attorney General, would recommend the death sentence in this case.

WINCHELL:

"William Z. Foster, the Number One Communist over here, was indicted with il others. He escaped trial claiming a heart condition. Mr. Foster, I have news for you. The U. S. Government will soon demand that you, William Z. Foster, undergo a medical examination, followed by immediate trial."

COMMENT:

Recently, at the request of the U. S. Attorney in the Southern District of New York, the Bureau conducted a three-day physical surveillance of Foster and nothing of importance was noted. Foster's chauffeur recently secured a reservation for a Roomette on a train from New York to Chicago. Inasmuch as this reservation may be for Foster, the New York Office is following his activities. By letter dated February 13, 1951, the New York Office advised the Bureau that on February 6, 1951, Assistant U. S. Attorney Eugene Roth, Chief of the Criminal Division, Southern District of New York, advised the New York Office that he is contemplating bringing a motion before the U. S. District Court for the purpose of having Foster re-examined by court-appointed doctors so that Foster will be brought to trial. Roth believed that Foster is capable of standing trial in view of his prolific writings.

WINCHELL:

Please tell all concerned in the motion picture industry out there not to sell movie stock to Sergi-Rubenstein. The news back here in the East is that Sergi Rubenstein, not long out of federal prison, may soon be back behind bars or deported for stock fraud."

COMMENT:

You will recall that Rubenstein was recently released from a Federal Penitentiary. He was sentenced to serve 21 years in the Federal Penitentiary and fined $50,000 for violation of the Selective Service and Training Act of 1940. Rubenstein is awaiting trial at the present time for a violation of the Securities and Exchange Act.

WINCHELL:

The Washington Post. The FBI will be interested to learn that Scotland Yard has agreed to open its files on famous cases for exclusive presentation on the USA radio and television. The American rights go to College Small, writer for many American magazines?

COMMENT:

Nothing is known concerning this matter. Assistant Director Nichols does not recall the name of Collie Small. A separate communication is being forwarded to Cimperman in London to secure the facts WINCHELL: concerning this.

"New York Journal American. A Hollywood movie writer, long active in Communist activities, is about to leave the United States to produce a film under the sponsorship of a nation which will be taken over by the Communists any moment."

COMMENT:

It is possible that this individual is George Pepper, who has been reported as intending to depart for Indonesia, where he will produce a movie written by him. The Indonesian Government has been reported as financing one-half of the cost of this picture provided Pepper can riase the other half. A confidential source has reported that the plot concerns a Bali dancer and it is presumed by the confidential source to be of an anti-Dutch propaganda theme.

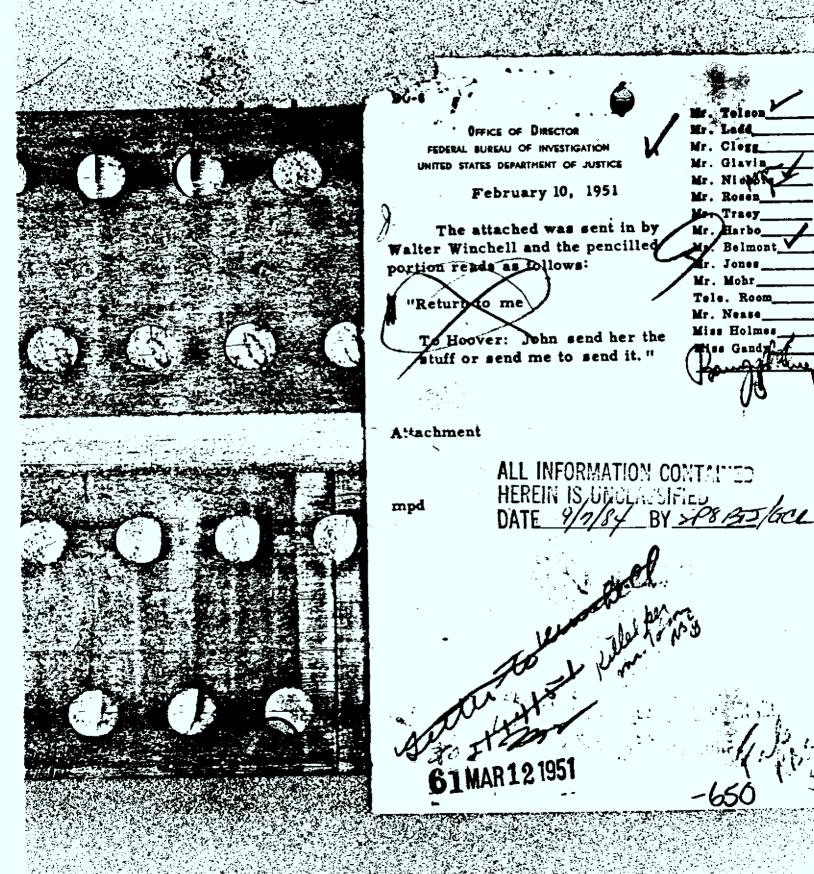

WINCHELL:

"The international war. Moscow. The Kremlin's latest drug produces a brain stroke through high blood pressure. It was used recently on several Norwegian, French, and Italian Red leaders. The victims were then ordered to Moscow for a cure. Some prominent Czech will become ill next week."

COMMENT:

This is set forth for your information.

Dear Sir:-

In your broadcast Sunday, January 28, 1951, you warned parents of men fighting in Korea of a new organization being formed called Mothers of Sons in Korea" or some such name. Could you send me more information of this organization and it's correct name?

I am a mother who has a son in Korea, who also is a veteran of World War 2. I am also a member of the American War Mothers organization, being both State and local officer. I would like this information to pass on to all the Chapters in Virginia.
