Dear Senator:

Many thanks for your letter and for your comments on my rebuttal to Life's article. Your words made me feel so very good.

I was told that you mentioned me when you appeared on the Army-McCarthy Hearings show on television recently. Thank you.

I hope to use your views on the McCarthy Hearings as they are certainly pertinent.

Please send me your newsletter. I want to see if you are a threat to my syndication.

Dear [REDACTED]

LIFE editors have your query about Loudon Wainwright's column, "The View from Here," published in LIFE May 22, based on your reading of Walter Winchell's column.

As you may know, Mr. Wainwright's column is a recent addition to LIFE. In introducing it, LIFE's Managing Editor George Hunt said in his Editors' Note, published March 27:

magazine
A second new department in LIFE is The View from Here, a column by Loudon Wainwright. N.Y. Wainwright has worked for LIFE for 15 years as a reporter, staff writer and editor. His stories on the Astronauts, particularly the moving account of Annie Glenn during her husband's historic flight, are among his most memorable articles.

b-6
The new column will be one of personal comment, and its intent is to say how things feel, not to all of us but to one of us. Wainwright's feelings about the film Dr. Strangelove (not entirely shared by his editors) were the subject of his first column two weeks ago. Last week's column was called "A Dignified Loser Drops One More," the loser being Harold Stassen. The View from Here will usually appear every other week, alternating with the Special Report.

Just as this column is one of personal comment, intended to let our readers know how things feel to one of our staff members, so we're glad to have our readers' views in exchange. In this case, we've been happy to give prominent space in our June 12 Letters Column to letters from Emmett C. McGaughey, President of the Society of Former Special Agents of the FBI, Inc., Henry L. Sloan of the FBI Academy, Quantico and Joseph Cottstein a director of the Thoroughbred Racing Associations.

Sincerely yours,

Re: Editorial - J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Sir:

b6
b7C
The strained, tortured logic shaping your recent editorial on Mr. J. Edgar Hoover achieved - to my mind - an apex in editorial irresponsibility. The content of the editorial - as such is, of course, blatant nonsense and deserving of no more note than was required to read through it. Certainly the accomplishments of Mr. Hoover need no defending - least of all by me. Nevertheless, the mere fact that one of your staff would compose such tripe - and you would permit its appearance distresses me considerably since I have long been a reader of your magazine, and have admired the coverage of world events.

I was, at first, prompted to exercise the only sanction available to me - cancellation of my subscription. However, Walter Winchell's request - per attached copy of his column - suggested an explanation might be forthcoming, other than that which originally occurred to me, which was an hiatus in the mental processes of the chief editor, or the most colossal error in recent years. If such an explanation exists, I should appreciate, along with the thousands of other readers, being apprised of it.

Thank you very much,

Gentlemen:

b6
b7C

This letter and the attachments do not mean that you lost a subscriber because actually I cancelled my subscription to both of your magazines more than ten years ago due to the distorted, twisted and misleading articles published in your magazines on subjects, particularly concerning Latin America, about which I was familiar enough to at least recognize the work of something more than just a misinformed reporter or editor.

As an American, it is absolutely frightening to me to see that you now consider your position secure enough to attack a man like John Edgar Hoover using the same twisted, distorted tactics. I am reminded of the closing sentence of an article written by Henry J. Taylor and published on January 27, 1964 which states: "This nation ( USA ) is in absolute peril ". For your information and convenience a photostatic copy of this article is enclosed.

In all probability this letter and enclosure will be thrown in the waste basket without being read. However, I have given my time, effort and the money it will cost to mail this letter, with the hope that it may reach the hands of someone in that office who is interested in the welfare of the United States and who will take the trouble to look around in that publishing house and see what is happening before it is too late.

Yours very truly,

c.c. Mr. W. Winchell

HENRY J. TAYLOR Says—

U.S. Failures In Panama Swept Under The Rug

NEW YORK

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, taken by surprise about events in Panama, told the House Foreign Affairs Committee on January 15 that his department had consulted the returned Ambassador Joseph S. Farland.

"Oh, yes, Mr. Farland has been completely de-briefed," he testified.

On Farland's statement to writer Victor Riesel this is absolutely untrue. He was asked about nothing. Farland sat around Washington for three solid weeks without even—or ever—being consulted ("de-briefed").

It is vital now for President Johnson to find out who in the State Department arranged to misinform the Secretary of State.

Repeated failures to be informed, failures of subordinates to level with their boss, calculated sabotage of information such as the Farland brushoff, and repeated denials of the undeniable mistakes confront us again with the same mysteries we faced in the days of Yalta and of Alger Hiss.

Each Crisis Was Surprise

Each crisis is a surprise—Soviet missiles in Cuba, Laos, the Berlin Wall, Nehru's invasion of Goa, the Dominican revolution, the Cambodian backlash, Zanzibar, Panama. Surprise, surprise, surprise. In the sacred name of the security of the United States, what's going on here?

Like Secretary Rusk, CIA Director John A. McCone also failed inexplicably to consult Farland when the ambassador returned from Panama, although Farland's dispatches bristled with information about the Castro buildup and mounting crisis.

An ex-FBI star, counter-espionage expert, the chief of missions, and admittedly the most successful ambassador we've had in Latin America for many years, Farland was utterly ignored.

Who in the CIA and State Department kept Farland away from the tops? And why was no new ambassador to Panama appointed for five critical months after Farland's return home last August?

Now, one of the things Farland knew, and that I knew, too, was that the CIA in both Cuba and Panama had been infiltrated wholesale by Soviet-trained Castro agents. This disclosure was proven by the systematic murders and tortures that greeted Cuban and Panamanian anti-Communists promptly after being recruited by the CIA.

Details? I repeat here the text of my article of February 27, 1963—11 long and decisive months ago—including the name of Castro's main agent in Panama, only to prove beyond any possible doubt that no surprise at the top of our government is permissible.

"Castro guerrilla fleet is moving fighters and their arms into Panama. Costa Rican Communist Julio Buel is in Havana directing this support in Costa Rica—on Panama's border. The chief sabotage point is La Colma (Cuba), now a Soviet-occupied port. Castro's backing agent, [name], and cover in Pan-Ex-Ambassador to Panama Joseph S. Farland was asked about nothing.

ama's famous Panamanian Communist Thelma King—ruthless, relentless, competent.

"By air these groups operate from the Soviet air base at San Julian, 90 miles southwest of Havana, and from San Antonio de Los Baños. They are headquartered in downtown Cienfuegos and the central radio tool is a very modern Russian-built station on Key Breton." February 27, 1963!

Endless Pattern of Surprises

Starting with the Bay of Pigs, after new teams entered the innards of the State Department and CIA, the endless pattern of surprises and failures we have would be utterly impossible unless our government has been infiltrated at the policy level.

The British, French, West German, Italian, Dutch, and Swedish governments have experienced such Soviet infiltration. As our American ambassador to Switzerland, I saw this happen even there. And we are seeing the success of deep-cover, Sinu-Soviet agents and fellow travelers planted here.

As it did to Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, it must come as a tragic, horrible shock to President Johnson. But all legislation and other important duties fall to nothing compared with the heartbreaking, shifty, diabolic problem he confronts: the restoration of internal top-level security.

Moreover, he knows the enemy's self-serving alibi of "witch hunt" will automatically blame, as always and everywhere, the moment he moves.

May all intelligent citizens and thoughtful newspapers across our country help give him the strength to reach each discoverable truth, place security above every other consideration and let the chips fall where they may. This nation is in absolute peril—with Washington

Mr. WINCHELL advised that ABC Films, Inc. has accumulated 93,000,000 feet of old newsreel clips, which have been taken over the past 45 years. The format of the show will be showing portions of these film clips pertaining to famous incidents, particularly in the criminal field, with a narration by WALTER WINCHELL.

Mr. WINCHELL furnished no information concerning any contemplated date for starting production or any other details concerning the venture.

For the Bureau's information, it has been determined from other sources that ABC Films, Inc., 190 North Canon Drive, Beverly Hills, California, handles sales of American Broadcasting Corporation TV programs, which are offered for syndication to independent TV stations throughout the United States. Re Los Angeles airtel to Bureau 6/29/64

At 5:05 p.m., 7/23/64, WALTER WINCHELL telephonically contacted the Los Angeles Office to advise that King Features in New York had received a communication from "his editor in Anniston, Alabama", and that the editor has advised King Features that he received information from a Special Assistant Attorney General that the story by WINCHELL concerning WILLIE SMITH's house burning to the ground is without foundation. The editor in Anniston, Alabama, wants WINCHELL to print a retraction or correction.

As the Bureau is aware, Mr. WINCHELL wrote a story which appeared under his byline in many newspapers about 6/29/64, wherein he alleged that WILLIE SMITH, rising young Negro star for the Los Angeles Angels, American League baseball team, had told him about his house in the Carver Heights section of Anniston, Alabama, being "burned to the ground by suspected segregationists". Investigation by the Birmingham Office has disclosed that a small fire did occur in an unoccupied house which the SMITH family planned to purchase; however, interview with [redacted] and contact with the Anniston Fire Department disclosed no indication of any racial aspects in connection with this fire, which was of unknown origin.

Mr. and Mrs. United States!

WROTE FORS BUT NOT WAY IT CAME OUT! WILL

The deceitful are victims of their own exaggerations. Since they cannot reconcile stark truth with private delusions, there are extremities of illogic and the debasing touch of malice. The latest example was reached by Life magazine's recent clumsy exercise in defamation directed at No. 1 G-man John Edgar Hoover... Contradictory in fact and irresponsible in intent, the turgid composition is reminiscent of George Orwell's nightmare world--where Good is Competence is described as cause for resignation--dedication is scorned as demagoguery--pride is derided as self-glorification--longevity is dismissed as dangerous--and efficiency is denounced as one-man rule. O

new paragraph

WALTER WINCHELL

The bulk of the mag's strange indictment is encompassed in this paragraph "But the most serious defect in this business of Mr. Hoover's continuing one-man rules centers around the Bureau's preoccupation with him. Evidence of the Hoover cult abounds. Perhaps the most startling signs appear in the documents put out by the FBI about the boss. In one biographical hardout Mr. Hoover's career is described with such unequivocal sentences as: 'During the past 30 years, the entire complexion of law enforcement throughout the United States has been changed primarily because of the principles advocated by Mr. Hoover and successfully tried by law enforcement agencies.'"

new paragraph

SEE REVERSE SIDE FOR CLASSIFICATION
ACTION

The rather obvious suggestion is that Mr. Hoover's accomplishments are mere personal propaganda... The truth is that they are matters of historical record... On May 10, 1964 The N.Y. Times reported: "No one disputes Mr. Hoover's solid accomplishments. He eliminated political influence in appointments. He had the foresight to promote--on a scale never before attempted in America--high scientific standards in detective work. And he established a huge fingerprint collection, an indispensable resource in tracking down criminals. He also created a skilled laboratory to make scientific tests on minute physical clues. Mr. Hoover also founded the National Police Academy, which trains selected officers from departments throughout the country in the latest scientific methods"...The newspaper added: "Mr. Hoover has made an incalculable contribution to raising the standards of law enforcement in the U.S."

(Life)

The primary problem with debunking the article is that so much of it is ludicrous--it is difficult to choose the most foolish paragraph. But this one comes close: "But I wonder if the loyalty of his staff and his own continuing efficiency, his remarkable popularity with Presidents and public officials and the confidence so many private citizens have in his ability, really qualify Mr. Hoover for a perpetual lock on the job."

If loyalty, efficiency, popularity, respect and integrity don't qualify a man for a job--whatinell does? Disloyalty? Incompetence? Unpopularity? Disrespect? Dishonesty?

The obvious conclusion is simply this: When a man's record and reputation are unassailable you can abuse him by describing Good as Evil. This is to remind the mag's editors of another reason to vilify him. For more than 40 years the FBI has been unblemished by scandal.

new paragraph

There is no function of our national existence--from the lonely blinking lights off the Florida Keys--to the signal towers of the Alaska railroad--whose operations are not the responsibility of some very responsible person in our Nation's Capitol...Tens of thousands of faithful Americans give the Civil Services the same selfless devotion--that the Flag receives from the Armed Forces...Their heartbreaking role is that their effectiveness is taken for granted...And, in this case, a diligent and dedicated public servant is being condemned for being successful. There is no need to belabor the unreasoning aspects of the magazine's indictment. Such idiocy is self-destructive.

new paragraph

The diatribe against J. Edgar Hoover is launched with: "Under ordinary circumstances the Roman senate conferred god status on a few emperors while

257

Mr. Hoover has always st actioned within his Constitutional powers. And it follows the previous, defined slant of the turvy-toppy logic: Make the target seem devilish by ascribing godlike ambitions.

new paragraph

The article rages on: "One gets the feeling that if Mr. Hoover departed the Bureau (FBI) would fold. The 170 million fingerprints would fade away on their cards, and the agents, mourning the retirement of their leader, would turn flabby. I don't think that either the Bureau or J. Edgar Hoover would suffer much from a separation."

The FBI chief has never contended he is indispensable. And it would be equally unrealistic to deny his importance to the nation's security. To demand his resignation (or suggest Mr. Hoover is "too old") during these critical days would be as recklessly foolish as demanding the resignation of General Eisenhower during the Normandy invasion... The FBI may or may not suffer from such a divorce. But we know that the American people would suffer --since it would represent a triumph for every spy, subversive, hoodlum, corrupt politician and traitor--Here, There & Everywhere.

new paragraph

The picture weekly snidely comments that Mr. Hoover "could take any one of a number of jobs that have been offered him in private business or he could just putter with his azaleas and play the horses at his favorite $2 / window."

I have another scandal for Mr. Luce's lily-white mag: J. Edgar occasionally loses as much as ten bux at the track--his limit.

new paragraph

Let there be no misconceptions: This reporter has no desire to disgrace Mr. G-Man (and his agents) with a defense... But I would be derelict in my duties as a newspaperman and citizen if I neglected to debunk Life's bunk...

3. windbell Sunday 2:00 PM

I believe that the "Plot-the-Kan-Down" article should not go unchallenged without a really clear public understanding of the mag's motives... So I urge my readers to clip this col'm and mail it to Life's <sup>stet</sup> idiots at the Time & Life Bldg, 51st Street and 6th Ave. in NYC with a request for a rational <sup>explanatio</sup>.

Several weeks ago President Johnson called Mr. Hoover "a quiet, humble and magnificent ~~xxx~~ public servant."

The only Americans we can think of, who might not subscribe to the President's sentiments, are those named on the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted" list.

Dear John:

The enclosed speaks for itself. I was in court to hear the summations by both sides and the judge's charge.

The thing that eludes me is why Agent Geary solicited this man's assistance to apprehend fugitives and then failed him on the witness stand. Also I do not understand why Federal agents from the Treasury Department and the FBI did not arrest him.

The buzz among newspaper people in San Diego is that a new law was being tested for the first time and to quote some of them: "The State had to have a conviction or nobody could ever be held on that charge again". If this is true, it is a shameful thing in my opinion.

Also I am told by reputable newspaper people there that one of the high State lawmen confided to others "This is a tough one because so many important San Diegans and others are character witnesses for the defendant and if he is not indicted, we may be accused of being influenced by his important and famous friends". The District Attorney is alleged to have told others "We prosecute the guilty and raise hell with the innocent".

I was invited to meet the judge by Commissioner of Jurors Bowen but said: "No, thank you, not while he is presiding over this case". One of his staff also suggested (when I asked where a good restaurant was at lunch) "Why not go up to the cafeteria in the building" and I asked if judges, court attaches, prosecutors, and Federal people would be there. The reply was "Very likely" and I said "No, thank you, I will go to a restaurant down the street", which I did.

This letter to you, John, is to report my activities that day in San Diego and in the court house and in no way is this intended for any other reason.

EVIDENCE INTRODUCED AT TRIAL, INCLUDING TAPED RECORDINGS, ESTABLISHED MONTEVERDE FIRST MET FEDERAL NARCOTIC UNDERCOVER AGENT ON FEBRUARY FOURTEEN, AT WHICH TIME HE MADE OFFER TO SELL TEN OUNCES OF HEROIN, THREE DAYS BEFORE RECEIPT OF WANTED FLYER IN THIS OFFICE ON FEBRUARY SEVENTEEN, AND FIVE DAYS BEFORE FLYER FURNISHED TO HIM BY SA GERRY.

MONTEVERDE WAS PROSECUTED UNDER STATE LAW FOR OFFERING TO SELL NARCOTICS BECAUSE THERE WAS NO FEDERAL CASE OF AN ACTUAL SALE, ACCORDING TO LOCAL PROSECUTING ATTORNEY AND FEDERAL BUREAU OF NARCOTICS. THEY ADVISE THIS IS NOT A NEW LAW AND IT WAS NOT A TEST CASE. THEY FELT THE SERIOUSNESS OF OFFER TO SELL TEN OUNCES OF HEROIN MADE IT NECESSARY TO CONSIDER PROSECUTION. BECAUSE OF LOCAL PROCESS HE WAS ARRESTED BY LOCAL AUTHORITIES AND NOT FEDERAL BUREAU OF NARCOTICS AGENTS.

MONTEVERDE TESTIFIED HE RECEIVED WANTED FLYER FROM GERRY ON FEBRUARY SEVEN LAST. IN REBUTTEL, PROSECUTING ATTORNEY HAD MONTEVERDE READ DATE WANTED FLYER WAS ISSUED, WHICH IS FEBRUARY TWELVE NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR. ATTENTION HERE.

SA GERRY TESTIFIED HE GAVE WANTED FLYER TO MONTEVERDE ON FEBRUARY NINETEENTH. LOCATOR CARD AND FD TWO ZERO NINE REPORTING CONTACT WITH MONTEVERDE VERIFY THIS. I TESTIFIED AS TO RECEIPT OF WANTED FLYER IN THIS OFFICE.

MONTEVERDE IS DESCRIBED AS A HABITUAL LIAR, A QUOTE BORDER OPERATOR UNQUOTE WHO HAS LIVED BY HIS WITS FOR MANY YEARS. TWENTY SIX LOCAL CHARACTER WITNESSES, INCLUDING NEIL MORGAN OF SAN DIEGO TRIBUNE, FRANK RHODES OF SAN DIEGO UNION, BOTH WELL KNOWN COLUMNISTS, AND OTHERS TESTIFIED AS TO THEIR OPINION OF HIS REPUTATION AS TO TRUTH.

WALTER WINCHELL DID NOT TESTIFY AS A CHARACTER WITNESS. IT IS RUMORED THE REASON HE DID NOT TESTIFY IS THAT MONTEVERDE GOT WINCHELL OUT OF TIJUANA OVER A YEAR AGO AFTER HE WAS INVOLVED IN SOME SCRAPE. ALTHOUGH DETAILS NOT KNOWN TO PROSECUTOR, RUMOR WAS SUFFICIENT TO CHALLENGE WINCHELL.

THE ONLY DEFENSE WITNESSES WERE MONTEVERDE'S WIFE AND NICK AVENETTI WHO CLAIMED TO HAVE SEEN WANTED FLYER IN MONTEVERDES POSSESSION PRIOR TO FEBRUARY FOURTEEN. [REDACTED]

IN LOS ANGELES LETTER OF JUNE TWENTY SECOND SIXTYFOUR, WINCHELL ALLEGED THAT GERRY HAD DISAPPEARED.

I HAVE RECEIVED A LETTER DATED SEPTEMBER TWENTYFOUR LAST FROM DISTRICT ATTORNEY DON KELLER WRITTEN BY F.A. WEISMANTEL, WHO PROSECUTED THIS CASE, COMMENDING GERRY AND MYSELF FOR FORTHRIGHT TESTIMONY. I told Henry ~~Plitt~~, headman at ABC Films, Inc. in New York, to write you regarding "Disaster Squad". I will appreciate permission to use it as the pilot for my upcoming series.

Mr. Plitt won a Peabody Award in 1962 when he and Fae Thomas (I introduced her to you and Clyde at Del Mar) co-produced a series for that network.

NEW MYTH IN THE MAKING

Tricks Fail to Short-Sell FBI

THE LIBERAL-RADICALS have seized upon the Warren Commission report to renew their attack on the Federal Bureau of Investigation and its director, J. Edgar Hoover.

Before the report was released, the liberal-radicals had been conducting a rather desultory campaign to convince the American people that Robert Kennedy was the only attorney general since who knows when who had been able to exert authority upon Mr. Hoover.

They wanted the voters to believe that Robert Kennedy in his three and a half years as attorney general had found it necessary to impose his will on a man who far surpassed him in ability and in experience and in knowledge of law enforcement.

This is foolish, of course, but Mr. Kennedy is not without his friends in the field of communications, and they consider it necessary to create a myth as to his achievements to bring about his election as senator from New York State.

The Warren Commission report suggests that somehow the FBI should have gone beyond its authority in relation to its information regarding Lee Harvey Oswald, as if the FBI should have been able to perceive his intentions, though the Supreme Court of which Mr. Warren is Chief Justice has been particularly alert to protect the alleged civil liberties of known Communists and proved criminals.

As a matter of fact, among previous recommendations to the Justice Department by the FBI and Mr. Hoover were measures for stronger coordination and greater exchange of information among federal investigative agencies. The wisdom of these suggestions has been proved by the very case which the Warren Commission had under consideration. But nothing had been done by either the Kennedy or Johnson Administrations.

The principal claim being made on behalf of the Robert Kennedy "legend" is that he had to order the FBI to "redirect" its major effort to place greater emphasis upon investigations of organized crime, even though this would mean a slackening of FBI operations against espionage agents and Communist activities in the United States.

This is hardly consistent with recommendations in the Warren report, which has so pleased the liberal-radicals.

The record, however, doesn't indicate any slackening of the efforts of the FBI in regard either to espionage or organized crime, and any attempt to conceal or deny the facts to embellish the record of Mr. Kennedy is dishonest on its face.

Much of the anti-crime legislation for which Mr. Kennedy is being given credit actually was recommended to him and the Justice Department by the FBI, and long before he assumed office the FBI was concerned with the enforcement of civil rights in all fields.

It is the practice of politics to give public credit to Cabinet officers or other politically-appointed office holders for the accomplishments of their departments or bureaus, and it taxes the mind to believe that the young Mr. Kennedy, with no experience in law enforcement or any meaningful experience in the practice of law, had to direct Mr. Hoover in the proper discharge of his duties.

But a new Robert Kennedy myth is in the making—and the White House looms in the distance.
