Senate approves May 4 memorial

By Jack Corliss

Student Senate last night announced its support for the proposals for the 90-minute memorial service on May 4, which had undergone revision earlier in the day.

The report of the May 4 Memorial Service Committee, a sub-committee of the May 1-4 Recognition Committee and chaired by Dr. Robert Dyal, was presented to Student Senate by Paul Hagemann, a member of the committee.

The report dealt primarily with the program for a memorial service to be held on May 4 from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The theme for the service is "A Call to Reconciliation and Peaceful Change."

The proposals announced last Thursday provide a roster of speakers to include Judy Collins, the Rev. Dr. Jesse Jackson, Pete Seeger and Eugene McCarthy.

The May Day Coalition Committee had previously announced its support for the Dyal sub-committee's program at a meeting last Thursday.

However, earlier yesterday, in a meeting with Dr. Richard Bredemeier, dean for students and coordinator of the May 1-4 Recognition activities, Dr. Bernard Hall, vice-president and provost, and Dean John J. Flower, assistant provost, the members of the sub-committee revised the recommended proposals for the memorial service by recommending that "faculty-student peace marshals should be used to the greatest extent possible."

Dr. Ronald Beer, general executive assistant to President Robert J. White, presented the administration's position on the May 1-4 recognition activities at the Student Senate meeting.

He stressed throughout the presentation that the maintenance of the institution was at stake and "dignity and solemnity" must be preserved at these services.

He conceded that there may exist many mediums through which to express commemoration of the tragic event of last May 4, including folk concerts. Yet, while this medium must be recognized, the events must be held indoors to "dissuade" participation from outside communities.

Currently valid identification cards will be checked at indoor events, he said.

Dr. Beer said he hoped that the university community would vocally express to the other communities desiring to share "our grief" its acknowledgement of such noble actions and motivations.

However, he added, outside communities are urged to remain at home and organize activities whereby they may express these feelings.

57D [REDACTED] mentioned on April 13, 1971, that ABBIE HOFFMAN was recently telling some people that HOWIE EMMER of Kent, Ohio, wanted him to come to Kent on May 4, 1971, but HOFFMAN did not think he could make it because he was in a heavy legal struggle in order to keep his bail from being revoked. HOFFMAN was scheduled to speak in Iowa the night before (May 3, 1971) and HOFFMAN felt that if the people at Kent wanted to put him on the program it would be OK but he did not want the entire program built around him. HOFFMAN was going to try to get to Kent for May 4, 1971, but he could not guarantee it.

ABBIE HOFFMAN

ABBIE HOFFMAN was found guilty in the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois, during February, 1970, of violation of a Federal Anti-Riot Law Statute, arising out of his participation in the riots during the Democratic National Convention held in Chicago in August, 1968. On February 20, 1970, HOFFMAN was sentenced to five years imprisonment and fined $5,000. As a result of the trial, HOFFMAN was also found guilty on February 14, 1970, of 23 separate criminal contempts and sentenced to 8 months imprisonment. On February 28, 1970, the U.S. District Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit, Chicago, Illinois, ordered that HOFFMAN be released on $25,000 bond.

May 1-4 memorial takes shape

By Bob Downing

Although the plans for the May 4 memorial services at noon have not yet been finalized, the weekend plans are beginning to take shape in the form of an outline released yesterday by Dr. Richard A. Bredemeier.

Dr. Bredemeier, who is now the coordinator of all plans, indicated that the plans for the noon memorial service will be released at a later date. At this time, they are still in the planning stages, he said.

The list of speakers, as indicated in the report, include Julian Bond, Georgia legislator; Dick Gregory, black humorist and social activist; James Ahern, member of the Scranton Commission and former police chief of New Haven, Conn.; Kingman Brewster, president of Yale, and Rod McKuen, poet and singer.

Two concerts are scheduled for the weekend -- one Saturday evening which will benefit the Medical Fund and one Sunday afternoon, May 2, featuring folksingers Eric Anderson, Phil Ochs and Bert Sommer.

Other activities scheduled for the weekend include the play "Agamemnon," written by senior Frank Huntington; a candlelight vigil; the Murray Louis Dance Company, which will appear under the auspices of the Artist-Lecture Series; Ruth Greco, an artist who will present a series of works dealing with Kent State University, and workshops and seminars.

Bond will speak on Sunday evening, May 2, at 8 p.m. in Memorial Gym. Gregory will speak Monday, May 3, at 3:30 p.m. in the Gym. Ahern will be presented that evening at 8. Brewster and McKuen will speak Tuesday, May 4, at 2 p.m., the site of which has not yet been determined.

"Agamemnon" will be presented Saturday evening in University School Auditorium at 2 p.m. That evening, the dance company will appear in the same auditorium at 8.

Ruth Greco will deliver her presentations on Monday, May 3, at 4 p.m. in Van Deusen Hall. The site and times of the workshops have not yet been determined.

Over the entire weekend, Dr. Gerald Larson, education, will coordinate a tree and bulb planting program. Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Jackson, library science, are responsible for coordinating a book display.

Coalition issues call to strike against war

The May Day Coalition, at yesterday's press conference, issued a call to the nation to become involved in a solidarity strike against the war.

Ken Johnson, spokesman for the group, said that last year's protests stemmed from an anti-war program. The university's attempt to keep the memorial services within the university is ignoring the basis of the protest last year, according to the coalition.

The statement released by the coalition stated: "We want to make it absolutely clear that we fully support the anti-war actions in Washington during the May 1-7 period and the Kent activities are in no sense an alternative to them. We also call for solidarity with the anti-war movement. . .

"If you can't make it to Washington or Kent, then celebrate life and fight war wherever you are. Stop the government, stop business (as usual), stop war! Down with the May memorial! Up with the May Revival!"

Plans are still being formulated for the "Festival of Life" to be held at KSU in place of the university memorial services, according to Johnson.

The coalition will meet again to finalize several aspects of its program Thursday night at 7:30 in Bowman, Lecture A.

RE: POSSIBLE : IKE AND ATTEMPT TO

Together

If ever there was a time for unanimity on this campus, it will be May 4 between the hours of 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

There will be many who have planned activities for the week which are not official and may appeal to only a select few on campus. That is their prerogative -- particularly if the program is designed, so as not to encourage a confrontation.

Members of the May Day Coalition have agreed to support the May 4 noon-time program planned by Dr. Robert Dyal's sub-committee of the May 4 Recognition Committee. They have stated that, while it is not exactly what they would have planned, it sufficiently satisfies what they consider crucial for the observances.

The program has also received the support of Student Senate.

While there may be particular objections to the proposed noon-time events, the program is sufficiently well planned to provide those things which most people on campus seem to believe are necessary.

Members of these various organizations should be commended for their willingness to let minor objections ride while supporting the entirety of the program.

No program could possibly be planned that would fulfill the expectations of everyone on the campus. Yet the sub-committee appears to have taken into consideration the many ranges in opinion on the campus in regard to what should be done during those 90 minutes.

The Stater adds its support to the noon-time program planned by Dr. Dyal's sub-committee. More importantly, we implore all groups and individuals on campus to place their support behind the proposed program. Finally, we hope that the administration and Board of Trustees add their support to the outstanding work done by Dr. Dyal and his committee by approving the recommendations, so that for at least for these crucial 90 minutes all of us on this campus can stand together in memorial to the four students killed here last fall.

MAY 4th REVIVAL!

The Administration of Kent State University claims that the events of last May were "uniquely ours alone", and that our remembrance of our fallen brothers and sisters should be a "family affair". We can dig it, but we consider all of you part of our family.

We say that our family is people the world over struggling against the U.S. government. Our family is at war:

- it is a war between life and death;
- it is a war between human beings and machines;
- it is a war between cultures;
- it is a war between oppressor and oppressed.

The university is playing its corporate liberal games. Their "peace and harmony" is but "law 'n' order" by another name. Their attempts to make the memorial a funeral wake are but an effort to deny the ongoing struggle which is the only valid means of honoring our fallen comrades. We want to revive their spirit and their struggle. The university hopes to keep both buried.

Behind that liberal facade lie war, racism, and repression. Despite years of struggle against ROTC, the KSU Board of Trustees and the administration are determined to keep it on campus and the Faculty Senate showed where it was at by voting to retain the Corps. The administration has invited a speaker from Jackson State in hopes that we will forget their racist repression of Kent State Black United Students, but we realize that the struggles for black liberation at Jackson State, Orangeburg, and elsewhere are, as they must be, an integral part of our fight. They mumble about "justice" and "due process" while 25 of our brothers and sisters are being ripped off for last May's events instead of the real criminals.

So, too, would those in power have us ignore or forget Nixon's "revolutionary" programs.

Pogroms that have brought vegetable and animal life, as well as human, to the verge of extinction in South Vietnam.

Pogroms that play the numbers game of "calculated withdrawal" while the genocidal air war escalates.

Pogroms which murder or imprison those who would resist.

But we know, we remember, we resist! Kent is a symbol of our struggle and it belongs to us all! To live, to love, to struggle, is where we're at, and we've set up a people's program to oppose the administration's death culture orientation.

that Kent is a fairly small midwestern town. We're not too sure where the local residents are at in relation to the students, and there are indications of some hostility. We're getting things together as far as housing and so forth, but it would be a real help if you brought your own crash gear and some food and anything else you think might come in handy.

BUT IN ANY CASE, WELCOME TO KENT!

We want to make it absolutely clear that we fully support the anti-war actions in Washington during the May 1-7 period and the Kent activities are in no sense an alternative to them. We also call for solidarity with the anti-war movement in Saigon.

If you can't make it to Washington or Kent, then celebrate life and fight war wherever you are. Stop the government, stop business, stop war! Down with the May Memorial, Up with the May Revival!

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society, commonly known as SDS, came into existence at a founding convention held during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," Marxist-Leninist ideology of various shadings became predominant during 1968-1969 with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. All major factions within SDS embrace Marxism-Leninism and identify internationally with China, Cuba and North Vietnam as countries leading the worldwide struggles against the United States. However, the Soviet Union was regarded as imperialist and with the Communist Party, United States of America, "revisionist" in nature.

SDS operated under a national constitution which called for an annual National Convention (NC) and quarterly National Council meetings wherein programs were initiated and debated. Three national officers were elected annually with a National Interim Committee to run the organization. Regional offices and college chapters elected delegates to the national meetings but each functioned independently on local matters. Its official publication "Fire" (formerly "New Left Notes") last appeared in December, 1969.

Internal factionalism of serious proportions developed during 1968 - 1969 and the following three factions evolved as a result of a split at the June, 1969, NC: Weatherman, Worker Student Alliance (WSA), and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The effect of the split on SDS chapters throughout the country was divisive. Some aligned with one or the other of the three major factions. Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

62D [REDACTED] that the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticommunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations," also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense." It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space but would probably be considered as located at Apartment 27, 1067 Alta Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta.

[REDACTED] that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

WEATHERMAN

Initially called the "Action Faction," Weatherman came into being immediately before the June, 1969, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) National Convention (NC). At this NC Weatherman won all three national officer positions and a majority of the National Interim Committee as well. Subsequently, they took over the SDS National Office (NO) in Chicago, and controlled its funds, paper and national records. Although internal struggle existed until late 1969, Weatherman for all major purposes controlled SDS nationally from June, 1969, until its NO closed in February, 1970. At this time it no longer considered itself part of SDS.

The term Weatherman emerged from an ideological paper prepared by its leaders entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows" ("New Left Notes" June 18, 1969). This statement outlined the basic stance of Weatherman: Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action not theory would bring about revolution in the United States. This posture was complemented with an international identification to the Cuban revolution and Castro's statement that the duty of a revolutionary is to make revolution.

During October, 1969, Weatherman riots in Chicago resulted in more than 260 arrests for mob action and related charges. A program of armed struggle was finalized during a December, 1969, "War Council" wherein terrorist tactics and political assassination were contemplated. The basic strength of Weatherman was then revealed to be some 300 - 350 nationally and geographically apportioned to the Midwest, New York, and some Northwest.

As its rhetoric of violence escalated, Weatherman leaders increasingly discussed the necessity of an underground operation wherein more than 90 percent of the organization would be submerged; "affinity groups" of three - five members would function independently. In February, 1970, Weatherman leaders announced a program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE/PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

67D [REDACTED] that at the National Convention (NC) of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held in Chicago, Illinois, during June, 1969, a split arose between the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and the National Office (NO), the NO becoming known as the Weatherman faction. The PLP faction drew the largest support among those in attendance at the NC.

[REDACTED] that during late Summer, 1969, the PLP faction of SDS established its National Headquarters (NH) on the second floor of a loft-type building at 173A Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. The campaign on which the PLP faction centered was to build a worker student alliance or a campus worker student alliance. Thus, they adopted the names of Worker Student Alliance (WSA) or Campus Worker Student Alliance.

[REDACTED] that within the SDS, the WSA is a caucus of which the PLP constitutes the leadership.

[REDACTED] that during demonstrations staged in the Boston area during the Spring and Summer of 1970 by the NH, the main theme of previous demonstrations staged by the NH shifted from protestations of the Vietnam War and other United States foreign policy matters to attacking domestic issues such as racism and unemployment and demonstrating support of the "workers' struggle."

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

"The New York Times" city edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Milton Rosen and Mortimer Scheer after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

67D [REDACTED] that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31 to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

[REDACTED] that at the Second National Convention Milton Rosen was unanimously reelected National Chairman of the PLP and Levi Laub, Fred Jerome, Jared Israel, William Epton, Jacob Rosen, Jeffrey Gordon, and Walter Linder were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor," a bimonthly magazine, and "Challenge-Desafio," a monthly newspaper.

In other words they should not base the whole program on me showing up. I'll really try to get out there - that's all I can promise. ABBIE said that things don't look good because of bail problems, and other kinds of commitments I've made - I don't know what's going to happen in Washington, I'm going to be there the 1st, 2nd, & 3rd, we might be in jail, you know what I mean. It's a very tough date, but I will try. P.H. asked him what happened to the tape we sent you. ABBIE said it wasn't good enough quality - too much giggles - you have to go in the studio & do it. You have to work with an engineer to get it done professionally. ABBIE said he did not think that tape was used.

62 [REDACTED] advised on 4/13/71 that the following activity took place at the Kent Commune on 4/13/71:

At 2:15 pm, HOWIE EMMER contacted 1-212-228-5626
and a female indicates it is ABBIE's residence. EMMER identifies himself as HOWIE from Kent and wants to speak to ABBIE, but the girl does not know if he is there. ABBIE is not there and EMMER indicates he has contacted ABBIE's residence several times, but has not heard from ABBIE.

At 4:36 pm, ABBIE (HOFFMAN) contacts the Kent Commune for HOWIE (EMMER), but he is not there. ABBIE indicates that he knows what HOWIE contacted him for, namely, to come to Kent for 5/4/71 (anniversary of the shooting of the Kent students last year) and the girl who answered says - yes.

ABBIE indicates he could say he was coming to Kent, but the chances are real slim. First of all, he is involved in a heavy legal struggle in order to keep his bail from being revoked because he went to Ireland. This is to be decided within the week and this is the first hurdle ABBIE has. The second is that ABBIE has to speak in Iowa the night before (5/3/71) so if HOWIE wants to put him on the program for the 5/4/71 Kent activities, that is OK and

CV 100-31202

ABBIE will try to get there, but he is not going to guarantee it. In other words, do not base the whole program on ABBIE coming to Kent, but he will really try to get there. That is all he can promise. ABBIE adds that things do not look good because of his bail problems and other commitments he has made.

ABBIE does not know what is going to happen in Washington during the May Day Activities, but he will be there on the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd and they might be in jail, you know what I mean. May 4th is a very tough date but he will try to get there.

The unknown female asks ABBIE what happened to the tape they sent him and he indicates it was not good quality, there was too much giggling and it should have been done in a studio with an engineer so it would be done professionally. ABBIE did not think their tape was used.

ABBIE asks if they got the book he sent them and the girl indicates they did this morning with everyone being very excited about it.

ABBIE ends by indicating that both he and ANITA (ph) hope they can come out to Kent.

RENNIE DAVIS

RENNIE DAVIS was found guilty in the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois, during February, 1970, of violation of a Federal Anti-Riot Statute, arising out of his participation in the riots during the Democratic National Convention held in Chicago, Illinois, in August, 1968. On February 20, 1970, DAVIS received 23 individual and separate criminal contempt citations regarding the above trial, and was sentenced to two years, one month and nine days regarding these citations. DAVIS was incarcerated in the Cook County Jail, Chicago, but was released on $25,000 bond on February 28, 1970, pending appeal.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] on April 29, 1971, that one of the people going to Washington, D. C., for the May Day activities in that city on May 1 - 3, 1971, had been instructed by one of the people affiliated with the Kent Yippie movement to try to get people in Washington to come to Kent for May 4 - 6, 1971. Any of the people in Washington who were interested were to be furnished with telephone numbers in Kent to call when they arrived; also, these people should be told to avoid use of Route 43 from the Ohio Turnpike to Kent because of road construction.

This individual also indicated that the people in Washington should be told that the rumors that KSU will be closed on May 4 - 6, 1971, are bull ---- (obscene) as the town and school will be open.

If any of the people coming to Kent from Washington are stopped it was suggested that they give phony names and that they not be intimidated by the police. This individual did not feel that more than 50 to 100 people in Washington would be interested in coming to Kent and it would not have any adverse effect on the overall Washington activities as there would probably be a million or more people there for May Day anyway. All they want in Kent is a couple of thousand people for their May Day activities. The plans for Kent May Day are mainly to close the KSU ROTC Building by civil disobedience and then go from there, such as doing spontaneous things. In addition, they were trying to get ABIE HOFFMAN to come to Kent for the May Day program as a speaker, but he is on probation and is having trouble trying to travel. Another possible speaker might be DAVE DELLINGER.

also known as
BLACK PANTHER PARTY
FOR SELF DEFENSE

According to the official newspaper of the Black Panther Party (BPP), the BPP was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by Bobby G. Scale, BPP Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, Minister of Defense, BPP.

The official newspaper, called "The Black Panther," regularly states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to as "pigs" who should be killed.

The newspaper, in its issue of September 7, 1968, had an article by the then Minister of Education, George Murray. This article ended with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Charge. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

The BPP newspaper, issue of October 5, 1968, had an article introduced with the following statement: "We will not dissent from American government. We will overthrow it."

David Hilliard, Chief of Staff, BPP, in a speech at the San Francisco Polo Field on November 15, 1969, said: "We will kill Richard Nixon."

David Hilliard, in "The New York Times," issue of December 13, 1969, was quoted as follows: "We advocate the very direct overthrow of the government by way of force and violence."

In the issue of April 25, 1970, the BPP newspaper had an article by Minister of Culture, Emory Douglas, as follows:

"The only way to make this racist US government administer justice to the people it is oppressing, isby taking up arms against this government, killing the officials, until the reactionary forcesare dead, and those that are left turn their weapons on their superiors, thereby passing revolutionary judgement against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U. S. government."

The BPP Headquarters is located at 1046 Peralta Street, Oakland, California. Branches of the BPP, and Committees to Combat Fascism, under control of the BPP, have been established in various locations in the USA.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society, commonly known as SDS, came into existence at a founding convention held during June, 1962, at Fort Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," Marxist-Leninist ideology of various shadings became predominant during 1968-1969 with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. All major factions within SDS embrace Marxism-Leninism and identify internationally with China, Cuba and North Vietnam as countries leading the worldwide struggles against the United States. However, the Soviet Union was regarded as imperialist and with the Communist Party, United States of America, "revisionist" in nature.

SDS operated under a national constitution which called for an annual National Convention (NC) and quarterly National Council meetings wherein programs were initiated and debated. Three national officers were elected annually with a National Interim Committee to run the organization. Regional offices and college chapters elected delegates to the national meetings but each functioned independently on local matters. Its official publication "Fire" (formerly "New Left Notes") last appeared in December, 1969.

Internal factionalism of serious proportions developed during 1968 - 1969 and the following three factions evolved as a result of a split at the June, 1969, NC: Weathermen, Worker Student Alliance (WSA), and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The effect of the split on SDS chapters throughout the country was divisive. Some allied with one or the other of the three major factions. Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

A P P E N D I X

The SDS national office in recent years was located at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. It was closed in February, 1970.

The Weatherman and RYM groups no longer consider themselves associated with SDS, and the WSA group refers to itself as the true SDS.

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

67D [REDACTED] that the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticommunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations," also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense." It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space but would probably be considered as located at Apartment 27, 1067 Alta Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta.

[REDACTED] that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE/PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

670 [REDACTED] that at the National Convention (NC) of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held in Chicago, Illinois, during June, 1969, a split arose between the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and the National Office (NO), the NO becoming known as the Weatherman faction. The PLP faction drew the largest support among those in attendance at the NC.

[REDACTED] that during late Summer, 1969, the PLP faction of SDS established its National Headquarters (NH) on the second floor of a loft-type building at 173A Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. The campaign on which the PLP faction centered was to build a worker student alliance or a campus worker student alliance. Thus, they adopted the names of Worker Student Alliance (WSA) or Campus Worker Student Alliance.

[REDACTED]
that within the SDS, the WSA is a caucus of which the PLP constitutes the leadership.

[REDACTED]
during demonstrations staged in the Boston area during the Spring and Summer of 1970 by the NH, the main theme of previous demonstrations staged by the NH shifted from protestations of the Vietnam War and other United States foreign policy matters to attacking domestic issues such as racism and unemployment and demonstrating support of the "workers' struggle."

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

"The New York Times" city edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Hilton Rosen and Mortimer Schaar after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

67D [REDACTED] that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31 to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

[REDACTED] that at the Second National Convention Hilton Rosen was unanimously reelected National Chairman of the PLP and Levi Laub, Fred Jerome, Jared Israel, William Epton, Jacob Rosen, Jeffrey Gordon, and Walter Linder were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor," a bimonthly magazine, and "Challenge-Desafio," a monthly newspaper.

WEATHERMAN

Initially called the "Action Faction," Weatherman came into being immediately before the June, 1969, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) National Convention (NC). At this NC Weatherman won all three national officer positions and a majority of the National Interim Committee as well. Subsequently, they took over the SDS National Office (NO) in Chicago, and controlled its funds, paper and national records. Although internal struggle existed until late 1969, Weatherman for all major purposes controlled SDS nationally from June, 1969, until its NO closed in February, 1970. At this time it no longer considered itself part of SDS.

The term Weatherman emerged from an ideological paper prepared by its leaders entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows" ("New Left Notes" June 16, 1969). This statement outlined the basic stance of Weatherman: Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action not theory would bring about revolution in the United States. This posture was complemented with an international identification to the Cuban revolution and Castro's statement that the duty of a revolutionary is to make revolution.

During October, 1969, Weatherman riots in Chicago resulted in more than 200 arrests for mob action and related charges. A program of armed struggle was finalized during a December, 1969, "War Council" wherein terrorist tactics and political assassination were contemplated. The basic strength of Weatherman was then revealed to be some 300 - 350 nationally and geographically apportioned to the Midwest, New York, and some Northwest.

As its rhetoric of violence escalated, Weatherman leaders increasingly discussed the necessity of an underground operation wherein more than 95 percent of the organization would be submerged; "affinity groups" of three - five members would function independently. In February, 1970, Weatherman leaders announced a program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

APPENDIX

CV 100-36040 :

In February, 1970, Weatherman abandoned the SDS HQ, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and throughout the country entered an underground status.
