FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PRIVACY ACTS

SUBJECT: BARKER/KARPIS GANG
BREMER KIDNAPPING
FILE NUMBER: 7-576

SECTION: SUB A - Section 2

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

THE BEST COPY OBTAINABLE IS INCLUDED IN THE REPRODUCTION OF THESE DOCUMENTS.
PAGES INCLUDED THAT ARE BLURRED, LIGHT, OR OTHERWISE
DIFFICULT TO READ ARE
THE RESULT OF THE CONDITION OF THE ORIGINAL DOCUMENT.
NO BETTER COPY CAN BE REPRODUCED.

SUBJECTO Barker/Karpis Bang (Bremer Kidnapom
FILE NUMBER 7-567
SECTION NUMBER Sut a Section 2
5ERÍALS 1/25/34 - 2/8/34
606AL PAGES_134
pages released 134
pages wighteldo
exempsion(s) used None

C

(

Want My Boy Back," St. Paul Brewer Says in Appeal; Eager to Negotiate

By THOMAS F. CULLEN

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 25 (I.N. 8.).—Nearly frantic as the eighth day dawned without any further word from the kidnapers of his word from the kidnapers of his banker son, Adolph Bremer, aged brewer, today was in the position of appealing to the kidrapers to communicate with him.

Except for the original letter left at the office of Walter W.

Magee demanding $200,000 ransom, no word has been received from the kidnapers since Edward G. Bremer was "snatched" in broad daylight on the morning of broad daylight on the morning of January 17.

Disclaims Riches

Assured by this correspondent that the kidnapers would communicate with him if they were assured he would deal fairly with them, the elder Bremer asserted that he wanted the kidnapers to get in touch with him immediately. ——serted:

"I am not dealing with the police, and I shall have nothing to do with them, I want my boy to do with them. I want my boy back. I would like the kidnapers to communicate with me."

Brewer disclaims his reputation as a very wealthy man. He said he cannot afford to pay the ransom which has been demanded of him but declared he is willing to ne-gotiate with the kidnapers.

Odd Acting Motor Car Bearing out his statement that he was not dealing with the police was the evident inactivity of St. Paul authorities in the case. Neither have the Federal agents taken an active part in the investigation. Reports that the banker's failure to return last Tuesday night was due to the kidnapers missing connections with a "contact" automobile carrying the ransom money were traced to their source. It was reported that the gang had inadvertently followed the automobile of Harry Bach-man, believing him to be the

"contact" man. Bachman reported to Duluth (Minn.) police that two other automobiles jockeyed back and forth with his car along the highway near Hinckley, Minn., and that he had difficulty in passing them. passing them.

From similar sources it was reported that the local "contact" men of the kidnap gang were waiting in an apartment in the Hill district of St. Paul while Bremer was being held within 100 miles of here.

Federal agents denied reports that they were investigating these leads.

leads these

Cullen Sees Kidnapers Too Clever to Kill Bremer

The kidnapers of Edward G The Manapers of Easter Gr.

Bremer, bent only on collecting, the $200,000 ransom demanded;
will in all probability return their victim shortly, in the opinion of Thomas P. Cullen, formel Federal Department of Justice concreting who is soon a state operative, who is now a staf writer for International New Service.

By THOMAS F. CULLEN ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. (I.N.S.).—Edward G. Bremer, kannaped banker, who has been mising eight days, in my opinion will be returned soon. Five days spent in studyin every available fact in conne tion with the case, and in sift ing rumors of all sorts convinces me that some development will take place in the very near future.

I am certain from what I have heard in talks with members of the family and with others iden-tified with the case that Ed Bremer signed the original note that was placed under the door of the office of his friend, Wal-ter W. Magee.

This being true, I cannot see how any great harm could have come to him as might possibly have been indicated by the blood stains found in his abandoned automobile.

Unquestionably the kidnapers knew a great deal about this young bank president, his movements and his financial background. There seems to be only one motive for this abduction. Ransom.

If Bremer was taken for money, then the kidnaper will not harm

Adolph Bremer is a shrewd, cautious individual who will not part with a fortune unless he knows that it will bring the return of his boy.

I do not know what his financial condition is but he impresses me as being able to meet the terms laid down.

Of one thing I am sure, and that is that no communications have been received by him or any have been received by him or any friend since Magee received the note Wednesday a week ago.

MR. NATHAN MR. TO. " 3B. C

TWO WOMEN SAV

Supply Police With Clues That May Lead to Capture of Gang.

By the Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, January 25.—Two unnamed eye witnesses, both women, who espied the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, when they seized the wealthy St. Paul banker January 17 and spirited him away, today supplied police with chies that might lead to ultimate apprehension of the gang.

One of the women, it was understood, witnessed the actual abduction from about 20 feet near where Bremer's automobile was halted near the Summit Girls School after he had left his sever-old daughter, Betty.

Tells of Struggle in Car.

Tells of Straggle in Car.

She related a story of a brief scuffle in the Bremer car as he apparently resisted the kidnapers, who have dehanded $200,000 ransom. His automobile later was found, the interior injusted with blood.

The second witness was reported to he gang's car.

Meanwhile Federal operatives struck but on a new trail, seeking to solve the hight-day enigma of the kidnaping by sunning down the source of two anonymous notes, supposedly penned by the abductors.

Although the contents of the missives were not disclosed it was understood they contained instructions for meeting the kidnapers at their rendervous for ransoming the son of the principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Co.

Letters Were Unstamped.

Letters Were Unstamped.

One of the missives, unsigned, was received Tuesday at the Minneapolistost office. The other was brought in yesterday. Both were collected from different mail boxes in that city in the regular course of routine. They were unstamped and addressed to Adolph Bremer, father of the missing man.

W. C. Robertson, postmaster, turned them over to Werner Hanni, head of the Bureau of investigation.

Justice Deuartment investigators con-

Justice Deuartment investigators considered the posibility the notes might have been the work of a crank.

Meanwhile, as hour after hour elapsed without any apparent words from the kidnapers, apprehension for the missing man's safety grew. Close friends of the family were absahed at the failure of what they earlier had claimed was an impending contact with the gang, and were at a loss to explain why negotiations for his release had not reached a climax.

Bremer, 37-year-old president of the Commercial State Bank, was selsed eight days ago after he had left his 8-year-old daughter. Betty at a school for girls.

for girls.

MR. TOL. ON ... 3-1E

7-576.A. WHRZ

TWO WOMEN SAV

Supply Police With Clues That May Lead to Capture of Gang.

By the Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, January 25.—Two unnamed eye witnesses, both women, who espied the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, when they seized the wealthy St. Paul banker January 17 and spirited him away, today supplied police with clues that might lead to ultimate apprehension of the gang.

One of the women, it was understood, witnessed the actual abduction from about 20 feet near where Bremer's automobile was halted near the Summit Girls' School after he had left his 8-year-old daughter, Betty.

Tells of Struggle in Car.

She related a story of a brief scuffle in the Bremer car as he apparently resisted the kidnapers, who have denanded $200,000 ransom. His automobile later was found, the interior iplotched with blood.

The second witness was reported to aplotched with blood.

The second witness was reported to have obtained the license number of the gang's car.

Meanwhile Federal operatives struck but on a new trail, seeking to solve the hight-day enigma of the kidnaping by sunning down the source of two anonymous notes, supposedly penned by the abductors.

abductors.

Although the contents of the missives were not disclosed it was understood they contained instructions for meeting the kidnapers at their rendervous for ransoming the son of the principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Co.

Letters Were Unstamped.

One of the missives, unsigned, was received Tuesday at the Minneapolis post office. The other was brought in yesterday. Both were collected from different mail boxes in that city in the regular course of routine. They were unstamped and addressed to Adolph Bremer, father of the missing man.

W. C. Robertson, postmaster, turned them over to Werner Hanni, head of the St. Paul office of the Bureau of the St. Paul office of the Bureau of investigation.

Justice Deuartment investigators considered the posibility the notes might have been the work of a crank.

Meanwhile, as hour after hour, elapsed without any apparent word, from the kidnapers, apprehension for the missing man's safety grew. Close, friends of the family were abashed at the failure of what they earlier had claimed was an impending contact with the gang, and were at a loss to explain why negotiations for his release had not reached a climax.

Bremer, 37-year-old president of the Commercial State Bank, was seized eight days ago after he had left his 8-year-old daughter Betty at a school for girls.

MR. NATHAN. VR. TO L. ON

MR. C...

Metter 7-576.A. WHRZ

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON .. MH. ECAN.

Three-Day Delay in Bremer's Delivery Is Reported in Note

Authorities Uneasy Over New Development in Baffling Negotiations; Trace on Message

By United Pres ST. PAUL-A three-day delay between the payment of $200,000 ransom and the release of Edward G. Bremer, 36, kidnaped banker, was reported as the demand of his abductors in a note delivered to the victim's father, Adolph Bremer, a friend of President Roosevelt.

The demand was the subject of waeasy conjecture on the part of po-lice investigators who called any such procedure as "highly unusual."

MAY BE INJURED

The report of the demand recalled that bloodstains were found in the auto from which Bremer was kidnaped a week ago last Wednesday. Police were aware that such a de-mand might follow an unexpected accident in which Bremer sustained injury.

The unprecedented massing of Department of Justice agents in the Twin Cities also was seen as a factor in causing such a demand for de-lay. Release of Bromer under such a plan might occur hundreds of miles from St. Paul.

The number of Federal agents working on the case could not be ascertained, but some reports ran as high as 250. Leaders of the Federal forces held a conference in their Minneapolis headquarters last night and then disappeared on a mysterious mission.

BEEKING SANKEY

The Federal men were known to be anxious to leaste Verne Sankey, 42, and Gordon Alcorn, 27, South Dakota kidnaying enspects. Sankey and Alcorn are wanted on kidnaping charges in St. Paul and Denver, bald charges in St. Paul and Denver. One police theory of the kidnaping held that headquarters for the abductors was being maintained in the heart of St. Paul's most fashionable neighborhood. One telephone call to the Bremer family was reported traced to an exchange in this district.

In support of this theory, police had the story of Ray McCord, Northwest Airways radio operator, who was subjected to a machine gun attack by several men in this district recently.

McCORD WOUNDED

McCORD WOUNDED

McCord was wounded and his auto

McCord was wounded and his autoperforated by the machine gunslugs. McCord wore his khaki airways uniform, which closely resembles St. Paul police uniforms.

Detectives believed that while the kidnapers' headquarters was within the city limits, that Bremer was being held somewhere within an hour's drive from the city. They refused drive from the city. They refused to reveal on what they based their deductions, but inferred that considerab e evidence had not been made public.

Mrs. Emily Bremer, wife of the missing man, was reported in a ner vous collapse and under the care of a physician.

7-576-4-

WKT

MR. NATHAN

BREMEr family Awaits signal To pay ransom

-3-6

$200,000 in Small Bills Ready in Vault of Bank; Federal Aides Find Kidnaping Clue

By RAY QUISNO

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 24.—Edward G. Bremer, wealthy young St. Paul banker, still was in the hands of his kidnapers, or possibly dead, tonight. It was the eighth day since he was abducted after taking his daughter, Betty, to school.

There were numerous rumors of "contact" with the kidnapers and of payment of the $200,000 ransom demanded, but Bremer's far.ily tonight still nervously awaited a signal to pay the money. At the closing hour for St. Paul banks, the money in small bills remained in the vaults of one of the chain of Bremer banks.

U. S. AGENTS FIND CLUE

Police authorities said they had uncovered no new clues.

Federal agents working independently of the police and the Bremer family, did learn, however, that a car believed to have held the kidnapers and their viotim passed a St. Paul filling station on the outskirts of the city within half an hour of Bremer's abduction, January 17.

The station attendant was reported to have observed the occupants of the car and was "certain one of them was Bremer."

The attendant stated the car continued in the direction of the resort and take district where most local kidnap victims of the ast have been secreted. The Bremer family, it was earned, have politely snubbed the Federal men as well as local officers.

They resent all offers of aid.
The explanation, according to Adolph Bremer, father of the missing man and owner of a large brewery, is that present official investigation only delays the moment of his son's release.
He said:

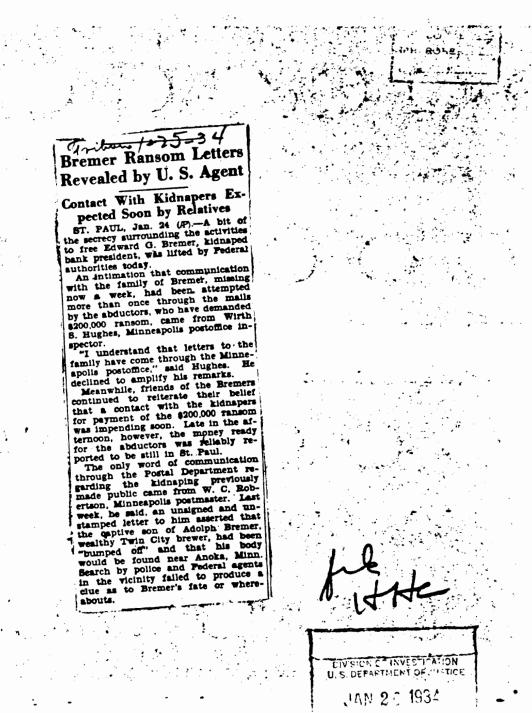

He said:
"Let me deal with the kid-mapers.

"Let the others lay off. It means everything to me to have Edward back safely. All this checking on clues and all those sensational stories only prevent us from getting in touch with "Mim."

file (+ /+ C

1-576-A-WHA-9

7-576-A

Ů

St. Louis Globe-Democrat St. Louis, Missouri, January 25, 1934.

U. S. PARTIALLY LIFTS KIDNAP CASE SECRECY

By Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, MINN., January 24.—
A bit of the secrecy surrounding the activities to free Edward G. Bremer, kidnaped bank president, was lifted by federal authorities today.

An intimation that communication with the family of Bremer, missing now a week, had been attempted more than once through the mails by the abductors who have demanded $200,000 ransom came from Wirth S. Hughes, Minneapolis Post Office inspector.

"I understand that letters to the family have come through the Minneapolis Post Office," said Hughes, who declined to amplify his remarks.

7-576-A-

SOON, SAYS

Editor's Note: — The kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, bent only on collecting the $200,000 ransom demanded, will in all probability return their victim shortly, in the opinion of Thomas F. Cullen, former Federal Department of Justice operative, who is now a staff writer for International News Service.

By THOMAS F. CULLEN, International News Service Staff Correspondent

International News Service Staff Correspondent
ST. PAUL, Jan. 25.—Edward G.
Bremer, kidnaped banker who has been missing eight days, in my opinion will be returned soon.
Five days spent in studying every available fact in connection with the case and in sifting rumors of all sorts convinces me that some development will take place in the very near future.

I am certain from what I have heard in talks with members of the family and with others identified with the case that Ed Bremer signed the original note that was plated under the door of the office of his friend, Walter W.
Mageet.

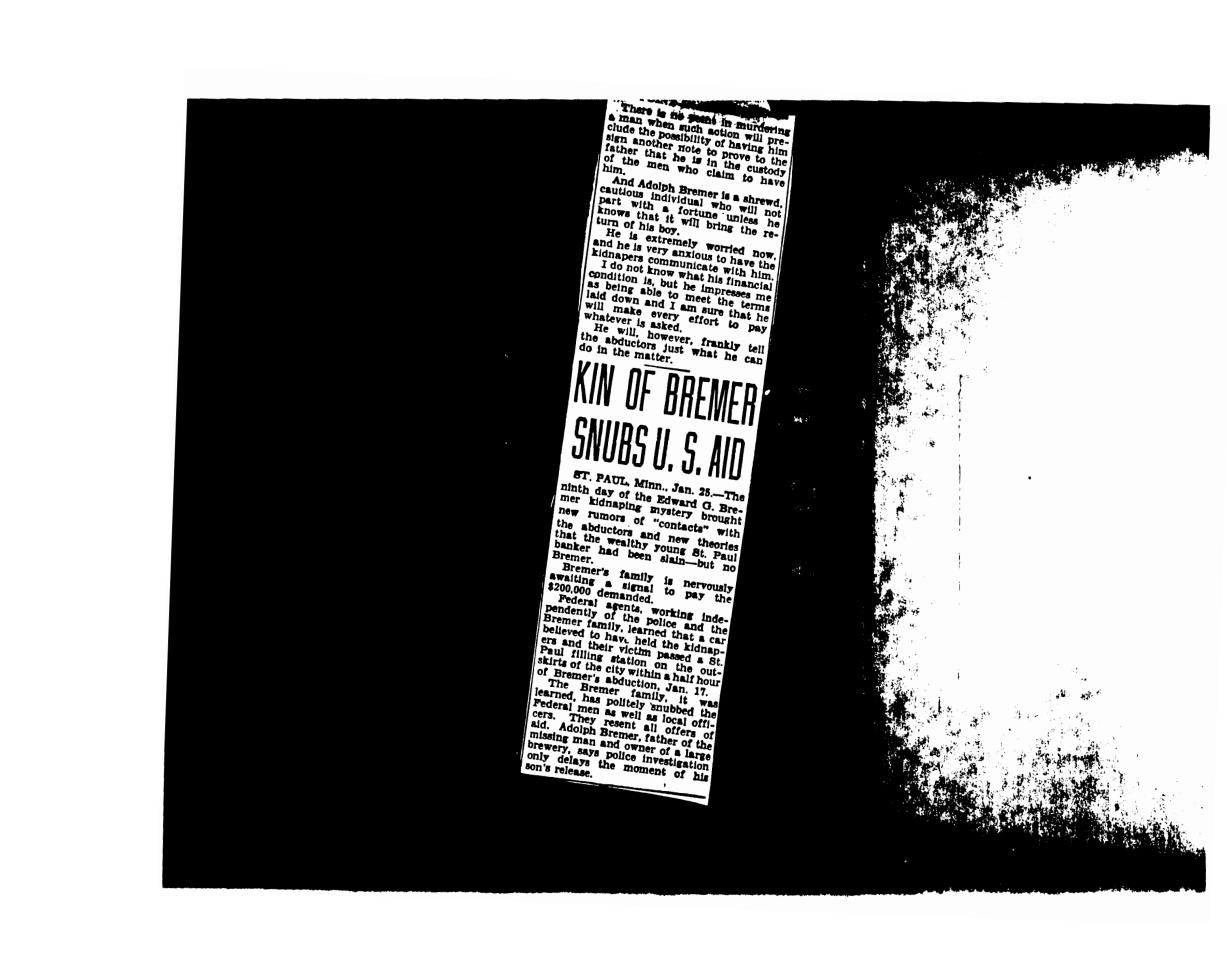

MOVESPIANNED.
This being true, I cannot see how an great harm could have come to him as might possibly have been indicated by the blood stains found in his abandoned automobies.
Unquestionably the kidnapers knew a great deal about this young bank president, his movements and his financial background.
Notwithstanding various ill-founded rumors, of which this city has been surfetted, there seems to me to be only one motive for this abduction.
That is for ransom.
If Bremer was taken for moner.

That is for ransom.

If Bremer was taken for money, and no other reason has been to be tanable, then to be tanable, then to be tanable, then to be tanable, then the tanable t

MR. CLEGO.

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON

(Staff Correspondent of The Hews)

Minnersolis, Minn., Jan. 24.—

Won in the Edward G. Bremer ping case shifted from St. this city today with the receist, by Postmaster W. C. Robertson of Minneapolis of a new letter from the millionaire banker's letter from the millionaire banker's captors.

It demanded that the family give fresh assurance there would be no double-cross in the pay-off negotiations and also stated the presence of Federal agents had deterred the snatchers from further contacting efforts.

The letter, addressed personally to Robertson, was for transmission to Adolph Bremer, the victim's father and close friend of President Roosevelt, who has had the $200,000 ransom money ready for delivery for more than a week.

Letter given to Bremer.

Letter given to Bremer.

Robertson immediately telephoned Werner Hanni, chief of the phoned Werner Hanni, chief of the St. Paul bureau of the Department of Justice, who turned the letter over to Bremer. The latter, maintaining his no-interview attitude toward the press, went into conference with business associates, and refused to make a statement. It is understood an advertisement in code will appear towards.

in code will appear tomorrow morning in a Minneapolis newspaper in answer to the letter.

Today's developments were the first since last Wednesday when the original ransom note was received by Walter Magee, wealthy contractor, three hours after Bremer had been kidnaped.

Agents Under Cover.

J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Department of Justice, is keeping in touch with the case by long distance telephone. He talks daily with Hanni and Harold Nathan, his field chief. However, because of the pleas of the Bremer family, the Federal men are working under Federal men are working under cover.

A sharp difference of opinion in the handling of the payoff occurred between Adolph Bremer and the Department of Justice, it has been learned. The agents wanted to surprise the kidnapers and shoot it out with them, but Bremer wouldn't consent. So as arrangements stand today, the snatchers will receive their $200,000 with no risk of an encounter with the law.

Tomoriow will mark the eighth day that Bremer has been missing and though Federal agents have searched the countryside for fifty miles around the Twin Cities they have uncovered no class to the kidnapers' hideout.

U.S.Agents Discover Messages Passing Through Minneapolis P.O.; Contact Believed Near

BT. PAUL, Jan. 24 (AP),-New letters, possibly supplying his family with detailed instructions for delivery to his kidnapers of the $200,000 ransom demanded for Edward G. Bremer's freedom were scrutinized today by Federal investigators. vestigators.

With close friends asserting a final contact was nearing, the letters, understood to have been received through the Minneapolis post office, were believed to have pointed the way.

FOUND BY U. S. AGENTS.

Existence of these new clues, re-

Existence of these new clues, reportedly unearthed by government agents, was inferred by Wirth S. Hughes, Minneapolis post office inspector. Hughes said:

"I understand letters to the family have come through Minneapolis post office."

The only word of communication through the Postal Department regarding the kidnaping previously made public came from W. C. Robertson, Minneapolis postmaster. Last week he said an unsigned and unstamped letter to unsigned and unstamped letter to him asserted the captive son of Adolph Bremer, wealthy Twin City brewer, had been "bumped off" and that his body would be found near Anosa, Minn. Search in the rightity failed to produce a sixe vicinity failed to produce a clue as to Bremer's fate or whereabouts.

REVEALED FIRST LETTER.

Robertson said today:
"The first letter was addressed to me so I felt at liberty to make its contents public.

"Anything else which has since come in has been turned over to the Department of Justice."

Justice."

At least one problem communications was believed fiven the family and Bressell friends pointed to it in predicting a final contact either tonight or tomorrow for payment of the ransom.

A DIE IN TOAIN WEREN

MR. NATHAN. MR. TOLSON ... N.R. CLTGG......

Mystery still enfolded be fate of Edward G. Bremer, 27-year-old president of the Com-mercial State Bank, today on the ninth day of his absence since his seizure by kidnapers. Taken from the streets of this city January 17, Bremer has not been heard from since, and no word has reached his family from the kidnapers since that day. Although the $200,000 ransom

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)

MR. TOLFON . MR. CLS 30 * R. - S. MT. 1.P. Q MR. LESTER .. MP. LOCKE MR. RORER

One of 4 Prisoners in Arizona "Coughs Up" Note; Woman in "Talkative" Mood

TUCSON, Ariz., Jan. 26 (I.N.S.) With four members of the Dillinger gang in jail as the result of the smart detective work of what they thought was a "hick town" police force, Federal and local authorities moved swiftly today in an effort to connect the desperadoes with the kidnaping of Edward Bremer, St. Paul banker.

A tiny scrap of paper which Harry Pierpont, 39, known as the gang's "rub out" man, attempted to swallow as he was arrested was believed to be the clue that may link the midwestern gangsters with the kidnaping of Bremer.

Coughs Up Note Police forced Pierpont to cough up the note. The contents were not revealed, but were said to be of a nature that led police to think that at least the Dillinger gang is acquainted with the Bremer plot. Seized in surprise raids late yesterday were John Dillinger, bank robber and killer; Pierpont, known as "The Killer"; Charles Makley, 50, "The Smooth Talker"; and "Rub Em Out" Russell Clark, 39.

In addition, three women were arrested, one of whom identified herself as Ann Martin, Dillin-ger's wife.

In :"Talkative" Mood

One of the three women held was said by officers to be in a "talkative mood," and she was subjected to close questioning in the hope that an important clue to the Bremer case may be learned.

J. Edgar Hoover, in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, has wired from Washington to the Taicson police chief, C. A. Wollard, that he has ordered C. J. Endres, a Federal agent, to fly here from Phoenix to investigate the possible con-nection of the Dillinger gang with the Bremer case.

Police pointed out that the Dillinger desperatoes did not start West until two days after the Bremer kidnaping.

money demanded was made ready that the kidnapers have no soubt for delivery a week ago, the kidnapers today had made no effort to collect nor to establish contact with Bremer's family, one of the most influential in St. Paul.

Family Distraught

Not since the infant son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh was kid-naped has so long a time elapsed in a kidnaping without some exchange of messages between kidnapers and family of the victim.

father of the kidnap victim, and attempt to communicate with the others of the banker's family family. were growing increasingly distraught.

Adolph Bremer was keeping vigil either in his office or in his nearby home, hoping against hope that he will receive some communication from the kid-napers. Mrs. Emily Bremer, wife of the banker, remained secluded in her home.

Authorities Wait

Police and Federal agents remained inactive but alert. Everyone connected with the case was still waiting for the kidnapers to make the next move.

The passive attitude of Department of Justice agents and police served to contradict a report that St. Paul police had found a witness who saw the kidnapers seize Bremer and said he could identify the men.

That the authorities were growing tired of their enforced "hands off" policy was indicated when Harold Nathan, chief of the Fed-gral operatives here, attended a conference at police headquarters. Nathan was accompanied by Wer-ner Hanni, another Federal op-erative. Neither Nathan nor Po-lice Chief Thomas Dahill would disclose the nature of this con-

Cullen Sure of "Break" In Bremer Case Soon

Forecasting an early "break" the Edward G. Bremer kidnapino Thomas F. Cullen, Jormer Pedera Department of Justice operative points out in the following stors the kidnaping to wane before establishing contact with the family.

By THOMAS F. CULLEN ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 2 (I.N.S.) .- The Edward G. Bremer kidnaping case is rapidly reaching a stage where there will be a contact with the men who have been holding him for nine days.

In my opinion the gang has been waiting until the attention Adolph Bremer, owner of the directed to the case has leasened Jacob Schmidt Brewery and in some degree before they will

Sure Money Ls Ready

For nine days Adolph Bremer the father, has been waiting and hoping for the men to get in touch with him

He has appealed to them to negotiate, he has refrained from a public discussion of the case, and he has declined to take the police into his confidence.

Not only has he done these things but I am convinced he has the $200,000 ransom money ready to pay.

I know the anxious father will do anything for his son and it is known here that he has always been ready and willing to lend a helping hand to his children whenever it became necessary. He has been very much disturbed because of so many baseless rumors.

Today it was reported that the Department of Justice was looking for Charles "Ice Wagon" Con nors in connection with th Bremer case.

I know as a matter of fact the I know as a matter of fact that this department has been looking for this individual for severa months in connection with the John Factor kidnaping case in Chicago. They are also on the lookout for Basil Banghart for the same reason.

There is no more reason to lin them with this case than with the O'Connell kidnaping case in Al-

7-576-A. LONA

AGENTS IN BREMER

in their hideout.

One of the woman witnesses claime to have watched the seisure of Bremer and two of the gang scuffle, she said, as the latter in waded the banker's automobile, late found profusely blood stained. The other woman gave authorities the latter woman gave authorities the latter in waded the banker's automobile, late found profusely blood stained. The other woman gave authorities the latter woman gave authorities the latter woman gave authorities the bore.

New Strategy Mapped at Secret Meeting-Anonymous Note Found.

By the Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, January 26. - Federal operatives intensified their work today to trap the kidnapers of Edward G.

to trap the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer as his absence from home lengthened into nine days.

While the Bremer amily awaited final instructions for keeping a render-vous with the gang and paying the $200,000 ransom, Department of Justica agents mapped new strategy at a secre meeting in Minneapolis yesterday.

Whether that meeting at an undisclosed place was the result of three developments in the case was conjectural. The authorities latest work had gleane the stories of two unnamed woman eye witnesses and another anonymous note. The note was to be compared with other similar missives received in the Twin Cities since the owner and president of the Commercial State Bank was abducted January 17, in an effort to determine if it is the work of a crank bore.

"Communications from the band soo after Bremer's abduction gave prelim mary instructions for contacting the kidnapers, but the family so far hanot received word for completing the negotiations.

MŘ. NATHAN... N'R. TOLSON 119. OL: 11 . 3 : n. :2.1 MR. LT M.R. LOCKE MR. ROPER

MACHINGTON A. C. POST James 2

9

MR. NATHAN ...
MR. TOLSON ...
MR. CLEGG ...
MR. COWLTY
MR. EDWATD ...
MR. QUII N ...
MR. LES FR ...
MR. LGC E ...
MR. LGC E ...

Another Note Urges Ransom In Bremer Case

Women Describe Kidnaping; License Reported Revealed.

St. Paul, Jan. 25 (P).—Another anonymous note, written perhaps by the kidnap gang holding Edward G. Bremer, wealthy St. Paul bank president, for $200,000 ransom, was tossed into the grabbag of meager clews in the case today.

It was mailed in St. Paul and addressed to a man described as a friend to the missing banker and his father, Adolph Bremer. It was reported the note, written in pencul and not signed by the captive president and owner of the Commercial State Bank, urged immediate ransom payment.

som payment.

Federal Department of Justice investigators, to whom the missive was turned over, were in doubt as to whether it was the work of a crank or from the gang.

Disclosure that the latest anonymous note had been received came as two women who said they saw

Disclosure that the latest anonymous note had been received came as two women who said they saw the abduction of Bremer gave information today that may lead to the lair of the kidnapers. One woman said she saw a struggle in the Bremer car after he had taken his young daughter to school, while the other was reported to have given the license number of the car in which he was carried away.

In Chicago, city police and Federal authorities hunted Charles "Ice Wagon" Connors and another suspect, both wanted for questioning in the case.

Connors, a former Minnesota convict, was indicted with Roger Touhy and four others for the kidnaping of John Factor. Touhy and three associates are now on trial in connection with the Factor.

AH He

7-576-A

WHAS

BLASSINGTON B. S. BENS SHEETS 20 1934

-3-1

Bremers Optimistic,
Tho Saying Nothing
By United Press
ST PAUL—The air of fear was

ST PAUL—The air of fear was gone today from the household of Edward G. Bremer, 36, kidnaped banker, but police and relatives maintained absolute secrecy in regard to late developments.

As the result of activities of the past 24 hours, both police and Federal agents made public statements indicating that they were not interfering in any way with the efforts of Adolph Bremer, the victim's father and a personal friend of President Roosevelt, to negotiate the safe return of his son for $200,000 ransom.

Reports persisted however that the ransom had been paid and that Bremer would be returned to his family before Saturday night.

family before Saturday night.

Adolph Bremer Jr., the victim's brother said that he had "every reason to believe that the authorities are laying off until Eddie if safe." He refused to comment on the report that a delay between the payment of ransom and delivery of the abducted man had been arranged by the kidnapers.

HW HRZ

7-576-A-

250 Federal Agents Said To Be Gathered in St. Paul as Ransom Is Reported Paid

ST. PAUL, Jan. 25 (U.P.).—Fear, grew tonight in the heart of Mrs. Emily Bremer that her banker husband, Edward, has been killed b- the men who kidnaped him eight days r o for $200,000 rand

The victim's father, Adolph Bremer, friend of President Roosevelt, still hoped for safe return of his son, it was understood reliably, but the wife told a friend she had practically given up hope of seeing her husband alive again. NEW RUMORS HOURLY

The wife's fears were based partly, it was said, on discovery of bloodstains in the automobile from which Bremer was kidnaped a week ago last Wednesday after he had taken his 9-year-old daughter, Betty, to school.

New rumors started almost hourly concerning the kidnaping and the efforts of Adolph Bremer to make contacts with the abductors.

One report was that the month of the second started almost hourly concerning the kidnaping and the efforts of Adolph Bremer to make contacts with the abductors.

One report was that the ran-som already had been paid, but that the kidnapers had specified that the release of Bremer would not occur until three days after payment.

This agreement it was said

payment.
This agreement, it was said, was demanded because of the reported presence in St. Paul of a large number of Federal agents.
The exact number of Federal operatives here was kept secret.
One report said that there were 250 Government the

250 Government men in the vicinity, most of them working secretly.

WITNESS DENIED

St. Paul police declined to verify a report they had found an eye-witness to the kidnaping who might be able to identify the abductors. They indicated that if any such witness had been found his ability to make any identification was doubtful.

Statements that a letter or let.

Statements that a letter or let-ters from the kidnapers had been sent through the mails to the Bremer family were retracted today with the admission that investigation has shown the communications—to—be—the work of cranks or well-meaning aniateur detectives.

MR. NATHAN ... MR. TOLSON ... MR. CLTGC..... MR. COWLLY MR. EDWALDS ..

7-576-A-

St. Louis Globe-Democrat St. Louis, Missouri, January 26, 1934.

0

ST. PAUL KIDNAPERS SEND ANOTHER NOTE

Letter Unsigned but Urges Payment of Ransom for Banker.

for Banker.

By Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, MINN., January 25.—
Another anonymous note, written perhaps by the kidnap gang holding Edward G. Bremer, wealthy St. Paul president and owner of a bank, for $200,000 ransom, was tossed into the grab bag of meager clues in the case today.

It was mailed in St. Paul and addressed to an unnamed man, described as a friend of the missing man and his father, Adolph Bremer. It was reported the note, written in pencil and not signed by the captive president and owner of the Commercial State Bank, urged immediate payment of the ransom.

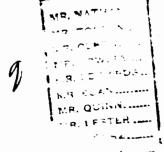

Federal Department of Justice investigators, to whom the missive was turned ever, were not sure whether it was the work of a crank or came from the gang. They planned to compare its penmanship or came from the gang. They planned to compare its penmanship with that of other notes received since Bremer was abducted January 17.

Disclosure the latest anonymous Disclosure the latest anonymous note had been received came as two women, who said they saw the abduction of Edward G. Bremer, banker, January 17, gave information today that may lead to the lair of the kidnapers. One woman said she saw a struggle in the Bremer car after he had taken his young daughter to school, while the other was reported to have given the license number of the car in which he was carried away. he was carried away.

M. S. Bureau of Investigation Department of Justice

Pittsburgh Post-Gazette 1/26/34

Agents End Truce With Kidnap Mob

Washington Orders Federal Officers to Trail Bremer Kidnapers Despite Pleas of Family Not to Interfere in Ransom Deal.

Special to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette and the Chicago Tribune.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 25.— "the Bremer family has seriously Abruptly ending a truce with the hindered our efforts by its lack underworld and overriding pleas of of co-operation. the family of Edward G. Bremer, department of justice, sent here by made and to shoot it out with the J. Edgar Hoover, held a conference mobsters. with Thomas E. Dahill, police commissioner, at which plans were mapped to bring in the mobsters orders direct from Washington.

orders direct from Washington.
Simultaneously, announcement was made by Attorney General Cummings at Washington that (Continued on Page Two, Col. 2)

Nathan and Dahill, of course, kidnaped for $200,000 ransom, Federal agents and local police united today to run down the 37year-old millionaire banker's abductors regardless of consequences.
Harold Nathan, field chief of the department of justice, sent here by

Thus, for the first time in "dead or alive."

Both Adolph Bremer, the victim's father, and Otto Bremer, his bachelor uncle, personal friends of President Roosevelt, vainly pleaded with the authorities to maintain major kidnaping case, the authoriwith the authorities to maintain their hands-off policy in the case but Nathan had received his dusted and searched, but contained dusted and searched, but contained

FEDERAL AGENTS TRAIL ABDUCTORS

(Continued From Page One.) rection taken by the kidnapers Local newspapers have printed stories of eye-wienesses of the "snatch" found by the police but the fact is that there wasn't any. Bremer vanished without leaving single clue.

Some Believe Victim Slain.

The case is the most baffling the department of justice has been called on to solve. The belief persists that Bremer is dead, because no evidence that he is alive has reached the family since the first note containing his supposed sig-nature, written in a shaky hand. Chief of the developments today was an order issued by Postmaster

A. A. Van Dyke of St. Paul, to all

A. A. Van Dyke of St. Paul, to all mail carriers to report anything suspicious in buildings, apartment houses and homes on their routes.

Department of justice activity was extended to Chicago when a search was started for Charles (Ice-Wagon) Connors, former Minnesota convict and a Tuohy gangster, under indictment for the John (Jake the Barber) Factor kidnaping.

Federal agents and squads of kidnaping.

Federal agents and squads city detectives, all heavily armed, watched a Chicago West Side building where a man answering Con-nors' description had been seen with another suspect in the Bre-mer case. They also searched the Chicago underworld for traces of Verne Sankey, wanted for the Boettcher kidnaping in Denver.

lar Sained Reaten;

7-576A

2 Eyewitnesses
Intensity Bremer
Kidnaping Hunt
1.7. 2.6/34
Unnamed Wasia Who Saw

Jnnamed White Who Saw Banker Abdicted and Anonymous Note Spur U. S. Agents

NEW STRATEGY MAPPED

Family Has Received No Direct Communication Since $200,-000 Ransom Demand

ST. PAUL, Jan. 26 (P).—Federal operatives intensified their work today to trap the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer as his absence from home lengthened into nine days.

ward G. Bremer as his absence from home lengthened into nine days.

While the Bremer family awaited final instructions for keeping a rendezvous with the gang and paying the $200,000 ransom, Department of Justice agents mapped new strategy at a secret meeting in Minneapolis.

Whether that meeting at an undividend place was the result of

Whether that meeting at an undisclosed place was the result of three developments in the case was conjectural. The authorities' latest work had gleaned the stories of two unnamed women eye-witnesses and another anonymous note.

Notes to Be Compared

The note was to be compared with other similar missives received in the Twin Cities since the president of the Commercial State Bank was abducted January 17, in an effort to determine if it is the work of a crank or emanated from the gang concealed in their hideout.

One of the women witnesses claimed to have watched the seizure

One of the women witnesses claimed to have watched the seizure of Bremer from a distance of twenty feet and secalled, having seen Bremer and two of the gang scuffle, she said, the latter invaded the banker's factomobile later found profusely blood stained.

The other woman gave authorities the license number she said the gang's car bore.

Negotiations at Standstill

Communications from the band soon after Bremer's abduction gave preliminary instructions for contacting the kidnapers, but the family so far has not received word for completing the negotiations. MR. NATHAN
MR. TOUSON
MR. CETTOC
MR. CWLEY
MR. FETT
WR. EC
MR. QUIT
MR. LESTER
MR. LOCKE
MR. RORER

1)

file

JAN 27 1934

Witness to Struggle Reported to Have Given Auto Number; Big Ransom Believed Unpaid

ap-3Xes

Juc-

P.C. 3.76

per pm-pich ST. PAUL, Jan. 25 (AP).—Two women who said they saw the abduction of Edward G. Bremer, banker, Jan. 17, gave information today that may lead to the lair of the kidnapers. One said she saw a struggle in the Bremer car after he had taken his young daughter to school. The other was reported to have given the license number of the car in which Bremer was carried away. Bremer was carried away.

DETAILS WERE WITHHELD.

There was speculation as to why the Federal investigators became more active today in seeking the abductors who demanded the $200,000 ransom awaiting them Some thought it had been decided Bremer had met a fatal end, leaving capture of his kidnapers the main object.

main object.

It was reported the ransom had not been paid up to today.

FEDERAL PLANS VEILED.

Whether a concentration of Federal operatives presaged an impending raid on a suspected hideout or apprehension of persons believed to have knowledge of the crime as the shall of three anonymous letters to the last two days by the dependent of the missives, were ableved to contain instructions the deliverting the ransom hideys.

7-576-A-

8TH DAY PASSES AND BREMER IS STILL MISSING

No Further Word Heard from Kidnapers.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 25.—[Special.]
—Edward G. Bremer has spent his eighth day in the hands of kidnapers, who made no further moves to collect the $200,000 ransom held in readiness by the Bremer family.

The elder Bremer denied receipt of further messages from the kidnap gang and there were no signs of further developments, aside from the usual gossip and rumors that have complicated news of the case.

Police sought to allay worry over Mr. Bremer's eight day captivity by recalling that kidnaping victims have been held much longer before their release was affected. They pointed to the fact that John [Jake the Barber] Factor was held ten days, and that John G. O'Connell of Albany, N. Y., was held 24 days last summer before being released.

being released.

Meanwhile, Chicago police and United States inveatigators were conducting a search for Charles Connors, former Minnesota convict, and another man in connection with the Bremer case. 'Connors is under indictment for participation in the kidnaping of John Factor. Roger Touhy and three members of his gang are now on trial in Chicago for the Factor job.

NOT RECORDED

fil He.

1-26-34

9

N.A. Hone to

MR. TOLSO MH. CI N.R. L MF. LOCKE Nh. Honna

Police Keep Hands Off in Bremer Case

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 26.—(UP)-All appearance of fear and anxiety was gone today from the household of Edward G. Bremer, kidnaped banker, but police and relatives maintained secrecy in regard to late developments.

Both the police and federal agents made public statements indicating that they were not interfering in any way with the efforts of Adolph Bremer, the victim's father, and a personal friend of President Roosevelt, to negotiate the safe return of his son for $200,000 ransom.

Reports persisted however that

Reports persisted, however, that

Reports persisted, however, that the ransom had been paid and that Bremer would be returned to his family before tomorrow night.

Adolph Bremer Jr., the victim's brother, told the United Press that he had "every reason to believe that the authorities are laying off until Eddie is safe." He refused to comment on the report that a delay bement on the report that a delay between the payment of ransom and delivery of the abducted man had been arranged by the kidnapers. There was no doubt, however, that once the president of the Commercial State Bank of St. Paul is safe at home one of the most comprehensive drives in the annals of crime fighting will be started.

The special antikidnaping squad of St. Paul police has been chafing to be given a free hand in the case. In addition, scores of federal agents worked out of headquarters in Minneapolis, determined to contract kidnapers.

MR. Q' II . MR. LE TOO MR. LCC: L MR. BORLA ******

Heedless of Attorney General Brewer Insists Police and U. S. 'Stay Out'

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. (I.N.S.) .—Determined that police and Federal authorities shall no interfere, Adolph Bremer, age brewer, continued to play a lon hand today in efforts to negotiate for the release of his kidnaped son, Edward G. Bremes, wealthy banker.

The 37-year-old banker was kidnaped 10 days ago and today was still being held for a $200,000 ransom.

Criticism Ignored

Criticism Ignored

The elder Bremer apparently took no heed of the criticism leveled at him by Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, who said that the reluctance of families to do anything but what they thought was best for the safety of the victim was often the most shortsighted policy.

The father denied that he had heard from the kidnapers since the original letter was delivered to Walter W. Magee on the day of the younger Bremer's disappearance. He insisted that he is keeping open every possible channel through which the kidnapers might establish contact.

Confidence Wanes

Pacing the floor of his brewery office and hoping for an encouraging word as to the fate of his general was said to he losine.

aging word as to the fate of his son, Bremer was said to be losing confidence.

Mrs. Emily Bremer, wife of the victim, still refused to see all visitors at their new home on the Mississippi River bank.

Federal Department of Justice operatives under Harold Nathan remained inactive. Police likewise-were quietly awaiting developments.

: Just ORDED

7-576-A-

MR. NATHAN ... MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGG..... 1.R. Q: N' MR. LC61. B M.R. LOCKE. MR. PCHER

Bremers Vow To Avoid Police

Family Already Refuses Sleuths' Aid, Is Plea to Kidnapers.

St. Paul, Jan. 26 (AP).—A promise to the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, held for $200,000 ransom, that the family would keep secret all information so the gang might communicate with them, was given today by Walter Magee.

Magee, wealthy contractor and friend of the missing banker, was named contact man in the first note. received from the band a few hour after Bremer was seized Januar
17. The family—was not coopera

17. The family-was not cooperaing with authorities, he said.

"We wish to extend every assurance that we will not communate with authorities," promise Magee. "We are interested in obtaining Mr. Bremer's release. That is all. We are not cooperating with the authorities because we wish to leave open every possible chance for the holders of Mr. Bremer to communicate."

The family, meanwhile, awaite word from the gang as to whe and how to pay the ransom.

and how to pay the ransom.

The elder Bremer some days as pleaded with authorities to remain on the sidelines until his so was released.

City police, it is said, have abide by that request.

7-576-A- WARDS

_
MR. NATHAN
MR. TOLCC'
M.R. CL: 17
MR. CCW
MR. EDW
MR. EOAS
MR. CUINN
MR. LESTER
MR. LOCKE
MR. RORER

Bremer's Kidnapers Object to U. S. Men By United Press ST. PAUL—An underworld grapevine message that Edward G. Bremer, kidnaped banker, would not be released until Federal Justice Department agents were withdrawn from the case was received by St. Paul police today.

Paul police today.

Negotiations for a $200,000 ransom have been halted, the massage said, because of the activity of the Federal men. Local police are back on routine schedules.

It was learned today that notes received from the kidnapers thru Dr. H. H. Nippert, Bremer family physician, designated details for paying the ransom, but they were disregarded because they did not contain any proof they were from the kidnapers.

NOT RECOMBINE

7-576-A

:01-0" LEGG OWLEY ...

MB. Q. H. P.

R. L.L. R 1.F. L.

F. R. HOT.

Bremer Hasn't Paid Ransom for Son Yet, Investigator Claims

Misunderstanding Said to Be Responsible for Fililure; All Lines Are Being Kept Open

By United Press ST. PAUL-Investigators in th Edward G. Bremer kidnaping cas today said they have learned the $200,000 ransom money was still be ing held by Adolph Bremer, the vi tim's father.

The elder Bremer was still ne gotiating with the men who hav held his son captive 10 days, the in vestigators said, due to an unfore seen misunderstanding.

LINES ARE OPEN

Altho negotiations for trading the huge ransom for the young bankers' release were believed practically completed several days ago, the Bremer family was making every ef-fort today to assure the kidnapers that all lines were open for negotia-

Speculation arose over whether failure to complete the ransoming grew out of attempts of the Bremer family to reduce the kidnapers' demands or over demands for proof that the victim was still alive.

A device thru which the family

A device thru which the family could gain assurance that young Bremer was still alive was offered by Dr. Orlando F. Scott, Chicago criminologist.

CAN CHECK WRITING

In a telegram to Adolf Bremer, Scott said: "If you have any way of communicating with his kidnapers, require that they submit his signature and some phrase or incident known only to him and you written across the printed text of a current lewspaper.

"You can then check his handwrite."

"You can then check his handwritng for double verification of authencity inasmuch as a newspaper can-ot be forged wor also will have roof that the message must have een written since the paper's pub-ication."

WHAC.

NOT FROORDING 7-576-A

MR. NATHAN MO TOLEGO 5.3. Re

BREMER HIDNAPPING

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 26 (U.P.) State and Federal officers held their forces ready tonight to begin an intensive search for the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer. banker, who is held for $200,000 ransom.

Officers so far have maintained a "hands-off" policy at the request of Adolph Bremer, father of the victim and friend of President Roosevelt. Negotiations for Bremer's return have been conducted by the family.

Indication that authorities plants enter the case, possibly over the to enter the case, possibly over the protest of Bremer's family, was seen in announcement that offiseen in announcement that officers would withhold their offensive another 24 hours.

For the first time since Bremer was kidnaped, nine days ago, an air of confidence was noticeable among relatives and close friends. None, however, would comment on reports that the ransom already had been paid and the banker's release arranged.

More than 20 Department of Justice Bureau of Investigation agents were concentrated here to aid in the investigation. Police Chief Thomas Dahill held 67 officers ready for duty on a mofficers ready for duty on a moment's notice.

1-576-A- Waraq

St. Louis Globe-Democrat St. Louis, Missouri, January 27, 1934.

SECRECY ASSURED
BREMER KIDNAPERS

By Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, MINN., January 26.—
A promise to the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, held for $200,000 ransom, that the family would keep secret all information so the gang might communicate with them, was pledged today by Walter Mages.

•

NOT RECORDED

7-576-A

KIDNAP PROTECTION PROMISED TO GANG

 \mathbf{C}

Abducted Banker's Friend Splits With Police; Awaits Ransom Claim

promise to the kidnappers of Edward G. Bremer, held for $200,000 ransom, that the family would keep secret all information so the gang might communicate with them, was pledged today by Walter Magee.

Magee, wealthy contractor and friend of the missing president and owner of the Commercial State, Bank, was named contact man in the first rate received from the band within a few hours after Bremer was seized January 17. The family was not co-operating with authorities, he said.

"We wish to extend every assurance that we will not communicate with the authorities," promised Magee. "We are interested in obtaining Mr. Bremer's release. That is all.

"We are not co-operating with the authorities because we wish to leave open every possible chance for the holders of Mr. Bremer to communicate."

The family, meanwhile, awaited word from the gang as to when and how to pay the ransom for freeing the son of Adolph Bremer, principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company.

The elder Bremer some days ago ST. PAUL, Jan. 26 (A. P.).-A cipal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company.

The elder Bremer some days ago had pleaded with authorities to re-main on the sidelines until his son was released, feeling any police activity might endanger the son's life.

City police have spided by that life.

City police have abided by that request. Federal operatives have worked on the few meager clues, preliminary instructions from the gang, the banker's blood-stained automobile, and at least four notes which have passed through the postoffices of the Twin Cities.

Whether these missives were the work of cranks has not been ascertained. Sketchy accounts of the work of crants has not been ascer-tained. Sketchy accounts of the actual seizure, purported to have been seen by a milk wagon driver and two unnamed women witnesses so far have not aided authorities toward a solution.

MS TOLEON

0 hiladelphia, Inquier

1-27-34 NOT RECORDED
1-576-1

NOT RROOKDED

-576-A.

BREMER'S FAMILY SHUTS OFF POLICE

Friend of Captive Banker Promises Kidnappers Not to Inform Authorities.

RELEASE IS ONLY OBJECT

Relatives Wish to Give Gang Every Chance to Negotiate, Says Intermediary.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 26 UP). promise to the kidnappers of Edward G. Bremer, held for $200,000 ransom, that the family would keep secret all information so the gang might communicate with them, was pledged today by Walter Magee.

Mr. Magee, wealthy contractor and friend of the missing president and owner of the Commercial State Bank, was named intermediary in the first note received from the band within a few hours after Bremer was seized Jan. 17. The family was not cooperating with authorities he said.

"We wish to extend every assur-authorities he said.

"We wish to extend every assurance that we will not communicate with the authorities," promised Mr. Magee. "We are interested in obtaining Mr. Bremer's release. That is all.

"We are not cooperating with the authorities because we wish to leave open every possible chance for the holders of Mr. Bremer to communicate."

The family, meanwhile, awaited communicate."

The family, meanwhile, awaited word from the gang as to when and how to pay the ransom for freeing the son of Adolph Bremer, principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company.

The elder Bremer some days ago had pleaded with authorities to remain on the sidelines until his son was released, feeling any police activity might endanger the son's life. City police have abided by that civity might endanger the son's life.

City police have abided by that request. Federal operatives have worked on the few meager clues, preliminary instructions from the gang, the banker's blood-stained automobile, and at least four notes which have meand through the

which have passed through the postoffices of the Twin Cities. Whether these missives were the work of cranks has not been ascertained.

Today began the tenth day the younger Bremer has been missing. He was abducted between 8:20 A. M. and 8:30 A. M., Jan, 17, after leaving his ayear-old daughter, Betty, at the exclusive Summit girls' school.

-01:0H

C'S CEPART OF CHECK JAN 2 1934

STILL TO

NEW YORK OFFIC

ST. PAUL, Jan. 26 (AP),promise to the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, held for $200,000 ward G. Bremer, held for $200,000 ransom, that the family would keep secret all information so the gang might communicate with them, was pledged today by Walter Magee.

Magee, wealthy contractor and friend of the missing president and owner of the Commercial State Bank, was named contact man in the first note received from the band within a few hours after Bremer was seized Jan. 17. He said:

"We are not co-operating with the authorities because we wish to leave open every possible chance for the holders of Mr. Bremer to communicate."

Today began the 10th day the younger Bremer has been missing.

NOT RECORDED

P.R. NATHAN 1'B. " OLE ON TIP CLCCO...... V. _CY 1.1 (c. 448...... MP. LCOSL. MR. RORES ...

BREMER'S RETURN HOME DIM AFTER TENTH DAY

Family, Anxious to Pay Ransom, Unable to Contact Kidnap Gang.

By the Associated Press.

BT. PAUL, January 27.—The question of when Edward G. Bremer will return, remained unanswered today as the tenth day passed since the wealthy banker was kidnaped January 17 for $200,000 ransom.

The Bremer family, anxious to pay for the freedom of the 37-year-old head of the Commercial State Bank, said they still lacked final instructions from the gang for handing over the money. Adolph Bremer, father of the missin man, has given assirance he would keep secret any communication from the kidnapers to insule safety from policie interference.

The Bremer family is not co-operating with authorities, he said.

NOT BECOMING

7-576-A

WADS

DS.

Silent on Ransom

Father Anxiously Awaits News of Son.

St. Paul, Jan. 27 (P)-The question of when Edward G. Bremer will return remained unanswered today as the tenth day passed since today as the tenth day passed since the wealthy banker was kidnaped January 17 for $200,000 ransom.

The Bremer family, anxious to pay for the freedom of the 37-year-old head of the Commercial State Bank, said they still lacked final instructions from the gang for handing over tile money.

Adolph Bremer, father of the missing man, has given assurance he would keep secret any communication from the kidnapers to insure safety from police interference

7-576-A. WHATE

Bremer Clings To Belief Son Is Still Alive

Father Begs for Proof Before Paying a Ransom Of $200,000

ST. PAUL, Jan. 27 (U.P.) Silver-haired Adolph Bremer clung desperately today to belie that his kidnaped son, Edward G. Bremer, still lives and appealed to the kidnapers for the proof he begs before paying the $200,000 ransom.

Doubts that beset the millionalize brower and friend of President

Doubts that beset the million-aire brewer and friend of Presi-dent Roosevelt were indicated when it was learned he had re-ceived 23 communications deal-ing with the abduction, only one of which has been established as from the captors. from the captors.

DENIES A TRAP

This was a letter signed by young Bremer. He admitted:

"We do not know what to think or what to do. We do not want to make any move that would endanger my son, for I am confident he is alive and that a way can be found to bring him back safely.

and that a way can be found to bring him back safely.

"We have done everything the kidnapers asked. The money is ready, the authorities are standing aside and all lines of communication are clear. There is no trap and there will be none.

There is no trap and there will be none.

"Yet we have not received the message we await and are powerless to do anything further until we are convinced of contact with the men we want to deal with."

The letter left at the door of walter Magee, contractor and friend of the family two hours after young Bremer disappeared is the only one known to be genuine.

NOT RECORDED

7-576-A

HAN ... ' ON C

:DS.

w d h &

AWAITED BY BREMERS

Instructions for Delivering $200,000 Lacking, Family Says in St. Paul.

Says in St. Paul.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 27 CP.—The question of when Edward G. Bremer will return remained unanswered today as the tenth day passed since the wealthy banker was kidnapped Jan. 17 for $200,000 ransom.

The Bremer family, anxious to pay for the freedom of the 37-year-old head of the Commercial State Bank, said they still lacked final instructions from the gang for handing over the money.

Adolph Bremer, father of the missing man, has given assurance he would keep secret any communication from the kidnappers to insure safety from police interference. The Bremer family is not cooperating with authorities, he said. All avenues of communication are being kept open to smooth the way for contact between the kidnappers and the family. The last communication from the banker was received four days or more ago, through the medium of a gang missive. Since then, only silence has bridged the gap separating the gang's hideout and the family.

NOT RECORDED

Ridnapers of Edward G. Bre-mer, St. Paul banker, are "sore" at members of the victim's family and this accounts for the lack of contact between the snatchers and those who are attempting to effect his release, according to confiden-tial reports of Federal agents.

According to reports to the De-partment of Justice, the kidnapers instructed Bremer's father, Adolph Bremer, wealthy brewer, immediately after the kidnaping, to indicate his willingness to pay the $200,000 ransom by placing an NRA Blue Eagle in a certain window.

After consulting with friends, the elder Bremer posted the insignia, as demanded—but he tore it in halves, indicating that he was willing to part with $100,000 to obtain his son's release.

The kidnapers sensed the sig-nificance of the divided Blue Eagle, according to Federal agents, and within a few hours sent a note to the elder Bremer which substantially was as follows:

"Getting smart, aren't you? Trying to pitch a few curves, eh? Well, now you can look for us."

Nothing has been heard since from the kidnapers.

Bromer's Confidence In Son's Safety Wanes

By THOMAS F. CULLEN
ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan 29
(IN.S.).—Although still hopeful.
Adolph Bremer apparently was losing confidence today that the kidnapers of his 37-year-old son.
Monard G. Bremer will pesotiate.

kidnapers of his 37-year-old son. Edward G. Bremer, will negotiate with him for the safe release of the banker, now missing 12 days. Pacing the floor of his large hrewery office and smoking one cigar after another, the aged widower seems to be facing for the first time in his career a problem which is beyond his ability to solve.

His whole life has been one of ability to solve.

His whole life has been one of successful service to his family. of providing for his children even though they are grown and able to take care of themselves.

Judging from his standing in the community, financial and otherwise, he has successfully solved the multitude of problems with which he has been confronted. But this one is different. He is at a loss as to where to turn or what to do.

Bremer admits this problem is Bremer admits this problem is such "that a man cannot think for himself." He is dependent on the friendly spirit and advice of Walter W. Magee, the close personal friend of the missing man, and C. E. Newcome, his brewery manager.

7-576-A-

WHE WHAS

BREMER, ILL AND WORRIED, ASKS FOR SIGN THAT SON IS STILL ALIVE

By the Associated Press.

The Paul Agriculture of Str. Paul Agriculture of Str. Paul Agriculture of Str. Paul Agriculture of Adolph Bremer, ill and worried, today pleaded with the kidnapers of his son. Edward G. Bremer, for some sign that the missing man is still alive.

As the twelfth day passed since a gang seized the young Bremer with out any definite word of his fate, the elder Bremer apparently was becoming more concerned, and begged for a contact with the abductors.

He made public a statement yesterday in which he said:

"Please communicate with us. We want our son back. We are ready to negotiate and the money is ready if you will only tell us where to meet you.

(Signed) "ADOLPH BREMER."

Even Federal operatives of the De-

NOT RECOKUL

7-576-A-

WASHINGTON D. C. POST January

29 1934

NE NATHAN

Bremer Kidnap Clew Fizzles

Ransom Payment Repor Proves False; Police Held in Check.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 28 (R).—
Twin City police today held in check enforcement officers, to enable kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer to communicate with his family after investigating a seemingly false report the $200,000 ransom was paid.

The check on police activities was

The check on police activities was loosened for a time last night, when Hennepin County deputy sheriffs, in Minneapolis, and a few St. Paul police sped to the outskirts of Minneapolis to investigate the story of two men from Montana. They told of seeing a mud-spattered sedan, allarge bulky white sack and a small coupe, which they believed had picked up the ransom money near a bridge over the Minnesota River.

The Bremer family, still hopeful the abductors of the 37-year-old president of the Commercial State Bank would communicate with them, insisted the ransom money had not been paid. Hennepin County sheriff's office likewise said its inquiry had not shown any indication that the ransom had passed last night.

Merte

NOT RECORDED

7-576-A-

, 4 R S

MR. NATHAN
IIR. TOLSON
IIR. CLEOS
IIR. CV. LEY
IIR. I DW MD3
IIR. VYAN...
IIR. LOUIS ...
IIR. LOUIS ...
IIR. LOUIS ...
IIR. DOMER. ...

Here is the ransom of $200,000 in $5 and $10 bills, in the vault of a St. Paul, Minn., bank, ready to be paid to the hidnapers of Elward G. Bremer for his safe return to his family. There are 25,000 individual bills in the pile of 25 bundles.

NOT RECORDAL

7-576-A-

HHZ.

CAMINGTON, D.C. NEES January

Safety of Bremer Is Again Doubted By United Press ST. PAUL — Police today feared they "may have a murder instead of a kidnaping" to solve in the 12-of a kidnaping" to solve in the 18-day disappearance of Edward G. Bremer, 86, banker.

In only one other abduction, the kidnaping of the infant son of Col. kidnaping of the infant son of Col.
Charles A. Lindbergh, has so long a period elapsed between the receipt of the first ransom note and agreement on a ransom payment. In the Lindbergh case the victim was killed.
Members of the Bremer family said they were confident that Edward was safe and would be returned as soon as ransom delivery can be arranged.

NOT RECOLUM 7-576-A. WHAS

ST. PAUL, Jan. 28 (U.S.) Hope that contact would be es-tablished with the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer over the weekend faded tonight. No word was received.

Twelve days have passed since the banker and son of one of St. Paul's most prominent families was shoved into an automobile after he had escorted his little eight-year-old daughter to school. MAY BE IN LAKE

A note, not taken seriously at first, said Bremer was accidentally killed during the abduction and added that the body would not be found until the "snow melts in the spring."

Since then the weather has been warm; little snow is on the ground in St. Paul. Did the note have another meaning? Could it mean that a hole had been chopped in the ice on one of the numerous lakes around St. Paul and the body dropped through? and the body dropped through?

State, city and Federal authorities have worked tirelessly on the case. A mass of information has been collected by the authorities, it is understood. It is being checked and sechecked in the hope of finding the key to the mystery. mystery.

WHE

7-576-A-

MR. NATHAN MR. TOUSON MH. BOHER

()

BREMER PAYMENT DENIED BY FAMILY

Minnesota Deputies Doubt That Money Was Picked Up as Told by Montana Men.

ST. PAUL, Jan 28 (P). Twin City police held their men in check today to enable the kidnappers of Edward G. Bremer to communicate with his family. This followed investigation of a seemingly false report the $200,000 ransom was investigation of a seemingly false report the $200,000 ransom was paid.

The check on police activities was loosened for a time late Saturday night when Hennepin County deputy sheriffs in Minneapolis and a few St. Paul police sped to the outskirts of Minneapolis to investigate the story of two men from Montana.

The men told a tale of seeing a mud-splattered sedan, a large bulky white sack and a small coupé, which they believed had picked up the ransom money near a bridge over the Minnesota River.

The Bremer family, still hopeful the abductors of the 37-year-old president of the Commercial State Bank would communicate with them, insisted the kansom money had not been paid to the Hennepin County Sheriff's office-likewise said its inquiry had not she man any indication that the ransom had passed last night.

Walter Magee, a contractor and close friend of Bankan when asked today about the said when any indication that the ransom was paid, I wouldn't answer your questions, but on my word of honor I'll tell you it has not been paid."

N S. DEPARTME

IAN 35 C

MUL RECORDED

7-576-A

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 29.— Growing hourly more worried over the continued silence of the abductors of his son, Adolph Bremer, wealthy brewery owner, paced the floor of his offices here today, awaiting some word from the men who kidnaped Edward G. Bremer, 37, banker, twelve days ago.

The senior Bremer has re-

The senior Bremer has repeatedly appealed to the abductors to communicate with him. He has offered to pay the $200,000 ransom demanded. But he has heard nothing to indicate even whether his son is still alive, or when he will be freed.

Meanwhile, Federal men assigned to the case, and police, betrayed growing impatience over their enforced inactivity.

7-576-1

Police Abandon Hope for Bremer Returning Alive

St. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 28.—In but one place—the bosom of his family—hope still lingers for the safety of kidnaped Edward G. Bremer, wealthy local banker who was "snatched" eleven days ago.

Reports that the $200,000 demanded had been paid over to the abductors were denied at the father, Adolph, m i lli on a ire brewer and personal friend of President Roosevelt. He expressed confidence, however, dence, however, that his son is alive and will be returned un-

At the same time, he admitted that he Edward Bremer lacks the necmitted that he Edward Bremer lacks the necessary instructions for the paying of the ransom, and reiterated that he has the money ready for obtaining the 87-year-old victim's release. He is inclined to believe that as soon as the kidnapers are certain that the family is acting independently of Federal and police investigations they will return their prisoner.

their prisoner. Walter McGee, wealthy contrac-Walter McGee, wealthy contractor and close friend of young Bremer, the first to be informed of the "snatching," and active in attempting to gain contact with the kidnapers, would not discuss the possibilities today.

That he has not managed to con-

Continued on Page 7

ence, and police and some 250 ederal agents are all but unanious in the belief that Bremer was lled, either accidentally or in ld blood, and that the gang has oken up.

Similarity of the Bremer abducon and that of young William famm, Jr., who was released last tuly after tamily had paid 1100,000 co-since the officers that he same hand is responsible.

The Roger Touly gang was ac-uitted on the charge of kidnaping Hammand is now on trial in Chicago harged with abducting John Linke the Barber) Factor,

Continued from Page 3
but several of the alleged members are still missing and it is thought that they may possibly have been considered certain in view of his

7-576-A-

Bremer Kidnaping Hunt Halted to Aid Ransom Deal

Family Insists $200,000 Has Not Been Paid; Still Hopes to Hear from Abductors

ST PAUL, Minn., Jan. 28 (AP). Twin City police today held in check enforcement officers, to enable kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer to communicate with his family after investigating a seemingly false report the $200,000 ransom was paid.

was paid.

The check on police activities was loosened for a time late Saturday night when Hennepin County deputy sheriffs, in Minneapolis, and a few St. Paul police sped to the outskirts of Minneapolis to investigate the story of two men from Montana. They told a tale of seeing a mud-spattered sedan, a large bulky white sack, and a small coupe, which they believed had picked up the ransom money near a bridge over the Minnesota River.

near a bridge over the Minnesota River.

The Bremer family, still hopeful the abductors of the 37-yearold president of the Commercial State Bank would communicate with them, insisted the ransom money had not been paid. Hennepin County sheriff's office likewise said its inquiry had not shown any indication the ransom had passed last night.

Edward Bremer, son of Adolph Bremer, principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company, was seized January 17. A few hours after his disappearance a ransom note was found by Walter McGee, a contractor and close friend of Bremer, and ultimately, his bloodstained automobile was discovered in an outlying residen-friend of Bremer, and ultimately his bloodstained automobile was discovered in an outlying residential district, where it had been abandoned.

The Bremer facility, remaining aloof from police; and Federal agents, insist the their found by McGee and a single telephone call later received are the only communications had with the

AN NOTHAN MA LOCKE

()

AWE RECOBLISE

Lindbergh Reenacts Night of Kidnaping

Revisits Scene of Tragedy with Betty Gow.

TO CALL WIFE

Mrs. Lindbergh to Testify Against Hauptmann

For the first time since they quit the place in grief two years ago, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Betty Gow returned to Hopewell late yesterday to re-enact for police the events of the night of the kidnaping of the flier's son.

Mrs. Anne Morrow Lindbergh did not accompany her husband and Miss Gow, who was nurse to the stolen child, as they retraced their steps of that traging evening of March 1, 1932.

Anne to Testify

However, it had been announced earlier in the day that Mrs. Lindbergh will be an "important" prosecution witness against Brune Hauptmann, who goes to trial next Wednesday on a charge of aliying the infant.

Attorney-General Wilentz, Posecutor Hauck, Assistant Attorney-General Pescock and Special Assistant Attorney-General Large were with Lindbergh and Miss

The object of the visit, it was learned, was to familiarize Large and Peacock with what happfined on the night of the kidnaping and to give them a picture of the house and grounds so testimony at the trial will be perfectly clear to them.

Lindbergh had not visited the estate since the Summer of 1932. Miss Gow has spent most of her time since then in Scotland.

But yesterday, with prosecuting officials asking questions at every point, the two spent an hour in the house and about the grounds.

Miss Gow showed where she put the child to bed the night of the kidnaping.

Where Note Was Found

Then Colonel Lindbergh showed where he went, armed with a shot-gun, searching the estate after the kidnaping had been discovered, and where he found the kidnaper's note.

When the visit was over—and the source of the information expressed the opinion it was an ordeal to the flier—Col. Lindbergh left, presumably for Englewood.

That Mrs. Lindbergh will testify at the trial was announced by a State official, who said: "It is only natural that Mrs.

"It is only natural that Mrs. Lindbergh would like to take the witness stand and tell what she knows of the case. She will be a willing witness and will testify without being subpoenaed. The State looks upon her as a very important witness."

Curtis Spurned

From Norfolk, Va., yest/rday came word that John Hughes Cartis, convicted of obstructing justice in the kidnaping investigation, had notified New Jersey au-

Continued on Page 4, Column 1.

Mr. Nathan.....
Mr. Tolson.....
Mr. Clegg.....
Mr. Baughman.
Cher Clerk....
Mr. Oórfey....
Mr. Edwards...
Mr. Edwards...
Mr. Herbo...
Mr. Kefth...
Mr. Lester...
Mr. Quinn...
Mr. Schilder...
Mr. Tamm...
Mr. Traoy...
Mise Gandy....

(/

Continued from First Page.

thorities of histories willingness to

According to a telegram sent by Curtis' attorney, the shipbuilder said he recognized Hauptmann from photographs as a man who showed him ransom money while he was conducting negotiations for the return of the child.

Attorney General Wilentz said he had received a similar offer from Curtis two months ago and had it "under advisement." But persons close to Wilentz indicated the offer would be rejected and pointed to recent rumors that Curtis might be a defense wit-

Another development was the revelation that Nelson Wyckoff, 67, a former caretaker of the Lindbergh estate, will be an ace witness in a prosecution attempt to place Hauptmann near the home a few days before the kidnaping.

Hailed by Autoist

Wyckoff, a plodding, reticent sort, is reported to have gone to prosecution officials only recently, after considerable hesitation about elling his story.

His story, so far as has been learned, is that a few days before the kidnaping, as he was walking along the Wertsville-Hopewell road, he was hailed by a man from a "dark sedan." The car, he said, was being backed out of a lane leading to the Lindbergh estate. He added:

"He asked me where Featherbed Lane was. I pointed it out to him and went on."

Featherbed Lane, a little used back road, is believed to have been taken by the kidnaper as he hurried away with the stolen baby. Wyckoff continued:

"I did not say anything of the incident at the time becausewell, it wasn't important. Later on, what with all the excitement and confusion, it slipped my mind. After Hauptmann was arrested and his pictures appeared in the papers I got to wondering, I finally decided to tell my story.

Taken to See Hauptman

When he had told his story wyckoff is believed to have been ing the carpenter of "wilfully, taken last week to see Hauptmann in his cell in the Hunterdon thought" murdering the child. County jail in Flemington. The outcome of that encounter is a ed. showed intense interest. The that nails found among Haupt- article. mann's tools are the same type as those used in the kidnap ladder. It is understood the expert conferred with Wilentz ten days ago, showing him the nails and enlarged photographs of them.

SPURNED - John Hughes Curtis, Lindbergh 'hoaxer,' whose offer to testify has been spurned by the State.

Hauptmann's finances have been under examination since his arrest stated, although "complications" more than three months ago. Yes- in the trial might lead authorities more than three months ago. Yesterday, it was announced the prosecution will employ detailed accounting at the trial to show that the prisoner, since 1932, possessed $46,000 more than his admitted sources of income showed.

All Sources Checked

The study has embraced banking records, stock market transactions and personal employment sheets.

Sheriff Curtiss, of Hunterdon County, formally served Haupt-mann in his cell in Flemington with the indictment against him and the jury panel list.

Curtiss reported afterward that he stood before his prisoner

he spent some time studying it after the Sheriff had left.

So far as defense attorneys Edward J. Reilly and C. Lloyd Fisher were concerned, they were occu-pled during the day denying one report after another. They denied, among other things, that they would call J. Edgar Hoover chief of the Department of Justice Investigation Bureau; Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf, head of the New Jersey State Police; Maurice Rosner, Long Beach police chief; Salvator Spitale and Irving Bitz as witnesses.

Flemington was excited by rumors that the 48 persons on the jury panel had received threatening letters since their selection a few days ago. Both prosecution and defense attorneys belittled the

Jersey to Arrest Hauptmann Associate

Evidence sufficient to warrant arrest of "a close associate" of Bruno Richard Hauptmann in connection with the Lindbergh kidnaping has been obtained by One prosecution official said the authorities, Universal Service yesterday an expert has reported said last night in a copyrighted

The identity of the suspect is being withheld at the request of a high New Jersey official because additional clinching evidence is being gathered, it was said.

The arrest may be delayed until Hauptmann's trial is over, it was to make an immediate arrest.
It has not been decided whether to accuse the suspect of being an accomplice in the kidnaping or an accomplice after the fact. Present indications are that the suspect helped plan the abduction, it was said.

EB

MR. CUINNAL. MR. LESTER .-MP LOCKE MR. BORER

Bremer Family Denies
Ransom Has Been Paid
Police Held in Check to Let Kidnapers Negotiate
ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 28 (A).—Twin
City police today held in check enforcement officers, to gashle kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer to communicate with his family after investigating a seemingly false report the $200,000 ransom was paid.

The check on police activities was loosened, for a time, late on Saturday night when Hemfepin County deputy sheriffs, in Minneapolis, and a few St. Paul police sped to the outskirts of Minneapolis to investigate the story of two men from Montana. They told a tale of seeing a mud-spattered sedan, a large bulky white sack, and a small coupe, which they believed had picked up the ransom money had not been paid. Hennepin County sheriffs, link the inquiry had not shown any indication; that the ransom money had not been paid. Hennepin County sheriffs likewise said the inquiry had not shown any indication; that the ransom mate indicate that inght. Edward Bremer, son of Adolph Bremer, principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company was selzed on January 17. A few hours after his disappearance, a ransom note was found by Walter, Magee, a contractor and closs friend of Bremer, and, ultimately, his bloodstained automobile was discovered in an outlying residential district, where it had been abandoned. The Bremer family, remaining aloof from police and Federal agents, insist the note found by Magee and a single telephone call he later received, are the only communications had with the kidnapers.

The Bremer family, still hopeful the abductors of the thirty-seven-year-old president of the Commercial State Bank would communicate with them.

36 14.7.

NOT RECORDED

[Acme Phote.]

HERE IS RANSOM AWAITING KIDNAPERS FOR RETURN OF E. G. BREMER. There are 25,000 individual bills in this pile of 25 bundles, which the family has ready to pay the kidnapers of E. G. Bremer in St. Paul. The bills weigh about 50 pounds and fill two suiteases. The money totals $200,000.

SIN V

NUL BAICUMUNIU

()

RANSOM PAYMENT IS DENIED BY MEMBERS OF BREMER FAMILY

(Picture on back page.) St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 28.—(F)—Twin City police today held in check enforcement officers to enable kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer to communicate with his family after investigating a seemingly false report that $200,000 ransom was paid.

The check on police activities was loosened for a time late Saturday night when Hennepin county deputy sheriffs in Minneapolis and a few St. Paul police sped to the outskirts of sheriffs in Minneapolis and a few St. Paul police sped to the outskirts of Minneapolis to investigate the story of two men from Montana. They told a tale of seeing a mud spattered sedan, a large, bulky white sack, and a small coupe, which they believed had picked up the ransom money near a bridge over the Minnesota river.

The Bremer family, still hopeful the abductors of the 37 year old president of the Commercial State bank would communicate with them, insisted the ransom money had not been paid, Hennepin county sheriff's office likewise said its inquiry had not shown any indication that the ransom had passed last night.

: r.:: ; :.a. i ... I have Lin MD. EU.

Bremer-Kidnaping Hunt Revives Hope

Word From Abductors Is Expected Shortly.

Expected Shortly.

St. Pagl, Minn., Jan. 29 (P).—A new attitude of optimism prevailed today as his family remained alert for word from the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, 37, banker, seized January 17 for $200,000 ransom.

Walter Magee, wealthy contractor and friend of Bremer, who received the first ransom note a few hours after the kidnaping, hinted fresh developments were a possibility soon.

developments were a possibility soon.

"I am optimistic," said Magee, "that we will hear something within the next few days. The appeals by Adolph Bremer, father of the missing man, and assurance that the ransom is ready for payment to the gang as soon as authentic word is received ought to bring some results soon."

WHI

NUT RECOKDED 7-576-A-

Only Family Clings to Hope of Safety of Kidnap Victim; Police Hunt at Standstill

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 29 (U.S.).—Hope definitely was waning today for the safety of Edward G. Bremer, wealthy young ward G. Bremer, wealthy young banker, kidnaped January 17, for a $200,000 ransom.

The family including the kidnap victim's elderly father, Adolph Bremer, continued to believe the young man would be returned to them safely, but officials were less optimistic because of the long silence of the kidnapers since their first demand for $200,000.

This was in the form of a note received by Walter Magee, wealthy contractor and friend of the family, the morning of the kidnaping.

Although there have been rumors of other notes from the kidnapers and even that the ransom already hai been paid, Magee and members of the family have continued to insist no contact was made.

Adolph Bremer the father in have continued to insist no contact was made.

Adolph Bremer, the father, in his latest public appeal to the kidnapers, asked them to communicate with him. He said:

"We want our son back. We are ready to negotiate and the money is ready if you only tell us where to meet you."

Faderal agents are working quietly on the case, but police officers practically have withdrawn in deference to family requests that every opportunity for communication with the kidnapers be permitted.

FOT RECORDED

7-576 A.

•-----

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLGON MR. LOUNE.....

ST. PAUL. Minn., Jan. 30.—
Hope definitely was waning today for the safety of Edward G. Bremer, wealthy young banker who was kidnaped on Jan. 17 for a $200,000 ransom.

The family, including the kidnap victim's elderly father, Adolph Bremer, still clung to belief that the young man gould be returned to them safely, it officials were less optimistic in view of the long silence of the kidnapers since their first demand for $200,000.

Adolph Bremer, in his latest public appeal to the kidnapers, asked them to him. He said:

"We want our son back. We are ready to negotiate, and the money is ready, if you only tell as where to meet you."

St. Paul Brewer Asks for Sign That Son is Still Alive; Family Keeps Police Idle

ried, today pleaded with the kidnapers of his son, Edward G. Bremer, for some sign the missing man is still alive.

2:30 p. m. since a gang seized the younger Bremer for $200,000 ran-

By Universal Service

Wy Universal Service, WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer are "sore" with members of his family and this accounts for the lack of contact with the abduetors, according to confidential reports of Pederal agents working on the case.

According to reports to the Dapartment of Justice, the kidnapers instructed Bremer's father, Adolph Bremer, immediately after the kidnaping, to indicate his willingness to pay the $200,000 ransom by placing an NRA blue eagle in a certain window.

Bremer pested the insignis, but he tore it in halves, indicating he was willing to pay $100,000 to obtain his son's release.

The kidnapers within a few hours sent a note to Breiner, which substantially was as fellows:

Which superantently was a low:
lows:
"Getting mart, aren't yea?
Trying to pitch a few curves, ch? Well, now you can look for us."
Since then nothing has been

Since then nothing has heard from the kidnapers.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 29 (AP)—Adolph Bremer, 67, ill and wor-

As the 254th hour passed at younger Bremer for $200,000 ransom, without any definite word of his fate, the wealthy brewer apparently was becoming more concerned, and begged for a contact with the abductors. He made public a statement which said:

"Please communicate with ma. We want our son back. We are ready to negotiate and the money is ready if you will only tell us where to meet you. Adolph Bremer."

Even Pederal agents have been unable to span the ses of silence that has widened between the abductors and the family since the first ransom note and a telephone call were received a few hours after Bremer was spirited away.

KEEPS POLICE IDLE. KEEPS POLICE IDLE

City police have not tried. The elder Bremer, the practical owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company and a personal friend of President Roosevelt, has begged authorities to remain on the sidelines until his son was freed, feeling police activity might endanger the young banker's life.

HOI RECORDAT 7-576-A.

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON .. MR. CLªCC... MR. TOP LTY ... MR. Q MR. LESTER ... MP. LOCKE. MR. ROBER.

FAMILY IS OPTIMISTIC IN BREMER KIDNAPING

Police Refrain From Activity as Banker's Father Issue New Appeal:

ST. PAUL, Jan. 29 (P).—A new attitude of optimism pervaded members of his family today as they remained alert for word from the kidnappers of Edward G. Bremer, 37-year-old banker seized Jan. 17 for $200,000 ransom.

Walter Magee, wealthy contrac-tor and friend of Mr. Bremer, who received the first ransom note within a few hours of the banker's within a few hours of the banker's seizure, hinted fresh developments were a possibility soon.

"I am optimistic," said Mr. Magee, "that we will hear something within the next few days. The appeals by Adolph Bremer (father of the missing man) and assurance that the ransom is ready for payment to the gang as soon as authentic word is received ought to bring some results soon."

In view of the reiterated denials by himself and members of the family of any contact with the band Mr. Magee's statement created new speculation over whether communication might have now been established.

The father the seesented as feeling more shaded as the state of the father who had a father than the son, we will be to the family would be from author-

7-576-A-

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSO MR. CL" 1 MR. COV. MR. ED MR. QUINN MR. LESTER . MP. LOCKE

MR. RORER

Man Asks Woman

Aid on Bremer Note

By United Press

SAN FRANCISCO — Police searched today for a "foreign-appearing man in a gray fedora hat" to determine whether he had sent a communication to the father of Edward G. Bremer, kidnaped St. Paul, Minn., banker.

Mrs. S. S. Ritchie. wife of a local Min., banker.

Mrs. S. S. Ritchie, wife of a local dentist, told authorities that the man had asked her to address a letter to "Adolph Bremer, St. Paul, Minn., care of the bank."

The incident occurred while she was writing at the St. Francis Hotel here, according to Mrs. Ritchie's story. The man, who had been sitting at another writing desk, asked whether she would mind addressing an envelope for him, explaining that he "hadn't had much schooling and I don't write very well."

He tore a strip from a newspaper and read to her the name of the St. Paul capitalist

Paul capitalist.

7-576-A- LO CAN 9

St. Louis Star-Times St. Louis, Missouri, January 31, 1934.

MR. NATHAN ... MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGG...... MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS .. MR. EGAN MR. QUINN MR. LESTER MR. LOCKE MR. RORER

How Bremer's Two-Week Captivity Compares With Other Kidnapings

Edward G. Bremer, kidnaped St. Paul banker, has been missing two weeks today. The record kidnaping for length of time was that of John J. O'Connell of New Lork, who was released July 30, 1933, after being held for twenty-three days.

A list of kidnapings which have attracted nation-wide attention follows:

NAME	DATE OF KIDNAPING	MISSING .
John T. Soy, St. Louis	Aug. 29, 1930	Eight
Adolphus Busch Orthwein, St. Louis	Dec. ?1, 1880	TWO
Dr. Isaso Dee Kelley, Jr., St. Louis	April 20, 4931	Eight
Alex Berg. St. Louis		Pour
Nell Donnelly, Kansas City		Two
Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr	March 1, 1532	Murdered
Haskell Bohn, St. Paul	June 30, 1032	Six L
Peters Meyers, Jr., Warren, Ohio	March 18, 1933	Eight
Charles Boettcher, Jr., Denver	Peb. 12, 1933	Bixteen
Jerome Pactor, Chicago	April 12, 1933	Nine -
Margaret (Peggy) McGrath, Barwich, Mas		Two
Mary McElroy, Kansas City, Mo		One
William Hamm, St. Paul		Three '
John Pactor, Chicago		Twelye
John J. O'Connell, Albany, N. Y	July 7. 1933	Twenty-three
August Luer, Alton, Ill	July 10, 1933	Pive /
Brooke Hart, San Jose, Cal	Nov. 9, 1932	Murdered /

AVENUE OF THE CONTRACTOR

JT RECORDED

7-576-A-

MR. LOCKE... MR, FORER.

(;

NEVER HEARD FROM WAS UNCLEDED TO STATE OF St. Paul Banker Denies Getting Note.

BT. PAUL, Jan. 21 (A. P.).—Numerous letters have been received by his family but none from the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, who was seized for $200,000 ransom two weeks ago today.

Adolph Bremer, the principal proprietor of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company and the father of the missing man, insisted today that of the scores of missives received daily, not one has been from the gang.

The welfare of the thirty-sevenyear-old owner that wesident of the Commercial laste Bank still was a matter of conjecture as the worry over his absence was unallayed by continued silence. The family saw as the work of another crank a letter which Mrs. 8. 8. Ritchie has told the San Francisco police that she addressed for an unidentified man in that city yesterday.

HOL HILOUADED 7-576-A-

MR TOLPUN ..

()

Bremer Still Hopes For Son's Return

BT. PAUL, Jan. 30 (AP).—The Bremer family again denied themselves to all visitors size intimate friends today, but had not abandoned all hope for the safe return of Edward G. Bremer, kidnaped 14 days ago.

The plea of Addiph Bremer, wealthy brewer, for prompt return of his son has gone unheeded despite his assurance the $200,000 ransom was ready and would be paid on proof his 37-year-old son the safe all live.

OI KECONDE

7-576-A

MR. NATHAN ...

MR. TOLCON ...

MR. CLEGG ...

MR. COWLEY ...

MR. EDWARDS

MR. EQAN ...

MP. QUINN ...

MS LETTER ...

MR. EGRER

ELDER BREMER WAITS IN VAIN FOR LETTER FROM KIDNAPING GANG

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 20.—[Special.]
—Word from the kidnapers of Edward
G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, abducted
Jan. 17, still was lacking today, nearly two weeks after his disappearance.
Frantic appeals from his father, Adolph Bremer, wealthy St. Paul brewer and Democratic party power, have failed to establish contacts with the captors.
Notes to the family last week, at first believed from the kidnapers, proved to be the work of cranks. Police and federal department of justice agents were still "standing by" in the case.

Chicago Tribune

NOT RECORDED

7-576-A-

St.

MR. NATHAN .. , MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGG..... MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS .. MR. ECAN..... MR. QUINN MR. LESTER MR. LOCKE ... MR. RORER ..

Bremers Deny Word From Gang

ST. PAUL, Jan. 31.—(P)—Numer-1 of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Comous letters—but none from the kid- pany and personal friend of Presinapers of Edward G. Bremer, seized dent Roosevelt, insisted today that for $200,000 ransom two weeks ago of the scores of missives received today—have been received at the kome of the Bremer family. ome of the Bremer family.

Adolph Bremer, principal owner

What's Become of Chickie

NOT RECORDED
7-576-1
Chicago 2 runna american
1/31/34

The National Police Officer January, 1934.

1m

BANK ROBBER

EDDIE LA RUE (23)

Eddie La Rue altas Edward Doll, 30 years old; 6 feet. ½ inch; 170 pounds; brown hair; brown eyes. Wanted for post office burglary, bank robbery and kidnaping.

P. C. 32 OMM 0 9

32 OIM I

If apprehended, hold and notify Chief of Police, Peoria, Ill. P. O., Jan., 1934.

1-576-A

MR. NATHAN ...
MR. TOLECT
MR. CLEGG
MR. COWLEY ...
MR. EDVY TE
MR. EGAN ...
MR. QUIN ...
MR. LEGTER
MR. LOCKE ...
MB. EORED ...

O

Bremer Gone 15 Days.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 31 (A).—The fifteenth day without further comunication from the kidnappers of Edward G. Bremer passed today. The family and Walter Magee, contractor friend, continued to maintain a day and night vigil beside telephones in their respective homes, anxiously awaiting a message from the gang which would tell them where to pay for the freedom of the 37-year-old bank president.

For more than a week $200,000 demanded as ransom has been held in readiness pending final instructions from the abductors.

..ಆ ಸಚಿಲಿಯಾಗಿ

7-576-A-

MR. NATHAN. MR. TOLSON .. MR. CLEOG. MR. COWLEY _. MB. EDWARDS. MR. EGAN MR. QUINN MR. LESTER _ R. LOCKE. MILL RORER

(_)

Bremer Hope Rises With Sankey Seizure

(;

ST. PAUL. Feb. 1 (P).—A belief that the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer would move soon to collect a $200,000 ransom and free the thirty-seven-year-old St. Paul banker now that attention of city and county authorities has been directed at Verne Sankey in Chicago, was expressed today by friends of the Bremer family.

Absence of Charles Tierney, inspector of detectives, and M. F. Kinkead, Ramssay County attorney, who are in Chicago today, was seen by friends of the family as sefinite assurance to the abductors of the Commercial State Bank president, kidnaped on January 17, that peace officers would "seep a "hands off" policy and thus permit negotiations between the gang and the family.

NOT RECORDED

7-576-A-

MR. TOLBON MR. CLEGG..... MR. COWLEY ... MR. EDWARDS MR. EGAN..... R. QUINN FSTER LOCKE "R. RORER ...

ST. PAUL, Jan. 31. — (P) — The fifteenth day without further communication from the kidnapers of munication from the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, wealthy St. Paul banker, passed today.

The family and Walter Magee, contractor friend, continued their day and night vigil beside telephones in their homes, anxiously awaiting a message which would tell them where and when to pay the freedom of the 37-year-old, owner and president of the Commercial State-Eank. mercial State- Bank.

For more than a week $200,000 demanded as ransom has been held in readiness pending final instructions for meeting the abductors.
Adolph Bremer has insisted no communication has been received from the captors since the first note was found by Magec at his office shortly after the kidnaping January 17.

> Chicago Herald or Examiner
> NOT RECORDED 2/1/34 7-576-A

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGG..... MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS .. MR. EGAN MR. QUINN.... MR. LESTER ... MR. LOCKE ... MR. RORER ...

Outsiders Believe Bremer

Dead; Kidnaped 16 Days

By United Press

ST. PAUL—Outsiders today believed that Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker kidnaped 16 days ago probably is dead, but the Bremer family still expressed hope in spit of its firm denials that word has been received since the day of the kidnaping.

Adolph Bremer, father of the victim, has maintained consistently that no messages from the kidnapers have been received since the first note demanding $200,000 ransom.

ransom.

Police, outwardly at least, have refrained from intervening in the case, as requested by the father.

NOT BECORDED 7-576-A-

WHAS

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGG MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS MR. EQAN.... MR. QUINN MA. LESTER MR. LOCKE ... MR. RORER.

()

BREMER FAMILY'S HOPE

Relatives Believe Contact Will Soon Be Made With the Banker's Kidnappers.

Banker's Kienappers.

St. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 1.—Diversion of the attention of Federal and local authorities to Chicago, where local authorities to Chicago, where Verne Sankey confessed the kidnapping of Haskell Bohn, revived hopes of the Bremer family today that word would be received soon from the abductors of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker.

Relatives and friends were more hopeful than they have been for hopeful than they have been for hopeful than they have been for kidnap gang was brighter than it kidnap gang was brighter than it has been since Bremer was seized Jan. 17. Up to late today, however, no word had been received from the men who are holding him for the men who are holding him for some friends of the Tamily, while refusing to be quoted, persisted in the belief that young Bremer had been slain. They were convinced, they said, that if he was alive the kidnappers would have moved to kidnappers would have moved to get the ransom which has been ready from the start.

The police, heeding the request of the family not to interfere, have instanding by" in the case.

7-576-A

g

O

MR. NATHAN
MR. TOLBON
MR. CLEGO.....
MR. COWLEY
MR. EDWARDS..
MR. EGAN......
CUINN......
LECTER

NEW HOPE REVIVED KIDNAPED BREMER YET MAY BE FREED

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 1.—[Special.]—Diversion of the attention of federal and local authorities to Chicago where Verne Sankey confessed the kidnaping of Haskell Bohn today revived hopes of the Bremer family that word would be received shortly from the abductors of Edward G. Bremer, 37 year old St. Paul banker.

Relatives and friends of the member of one of St. Paul's wealthiest families were more hopeful than they have been for several days. They felt that the opportunity for contact with the kidnap gang was the brightest it has been since Bremer was seized Jan. 17. Up to late today, however, no word had been received from the men who are holding him for $200,000 ransom, they said.

Some friends of the family, while refusing to be quoted, persisted in the belief that young Bremer had been siain. They were convinced they said, that if such was not the case, the kidnapers would have already moved to get the money which has been ready from the start.

Police, heeding the request of the family not to interfere, have repeatedly given assurance that they were "standing by" in the case.

Chicago Tribune 2-2-34

NOT RECORDED

7-576-A-

4

MR. TOLSON ... MR. CLEGG..... MR. QUINN..... MR. LESTER MR. LOCKE..

Bremer Kidnapers Remain Silent

ST. PAUL, Feb. (AP) — Kidnapers main med their silence for the seventeened their silence day as the Bremer family still anxiously awaited word from the gang which seed Edward G.
Bremer, wealthy hanker, for $200,000 ransom hanker, for $200,000 ransom hanker, for speculation postered in some quarters as to their he had been killed by his captors though the family remained hopeful some communication would be received soon.

NOT RECORDED

0

KIDNAPERS STILL,
HIDE FATE OF THE
ST. PAUL BANKER

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 2.—[Special.]
—The sixteenth day of silence by the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, passed today as the family of the abducted man waited, ready to pay the $200,000 ransom fr his return. Other than the first ransom note, received a few hours after Bremer was seized Jan. 17, no word has been becomed from the gang.

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON

MR. CLEGG. MR. COWLEY_

MR. EDWARDS.

MR. LESTER . MR. LOCKE.

MR. RORER.

SUNDAY STA

Bremer Begs Sign From Son

Father of Kidnaped Banker Suggests New Method of Contact in Third Appeal to Abductors.

ST. PAUL, February 3.—Begging an early release of his son, Edward G. Bremer, an anxious father tonight gave the kidnap gang demanding $200,000 ransom for the young banker's release, three days and three nights in which to act before summoning authorities to track them down.

Hore than a week.

A veiled intimation that police and Pederal authorities would be given the full co-operation of the family in attempting to track down the abductors was contained in the last paragraph of the statement. It said: "If I have not heard from Edward within three days and three nights I winderstand that you do not wish ST. PAUL, February 3.—Begging

"Please give this all the prominence you can," Adolph Bremer, principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Co., asked newspaper men as he made his third public appeal for immediate return of the 37-year-old bank presi-

"This," was a neatly typed state-ment, offering fullest co-operation and secrecy to the gang if they would heed his plea and pledging that his interest in the abduction would cease upon the safe return of the younger Bremer. The elder Bremer inferred he would not prosecute the gang if they were captured, provided the son was freed.

Plan Is Suggested.

Standing in the living room of his home, the brewer, his voice trembling, his eyes brimmed with tears, handed out the statement to reporters

'I realize that I cannot publish my choice in making this contact," Mr. Bremer's statement said, "to convince you that there is no catch in this effort of mine, I can see but one way to work out our negotiations.

"Edward will have to select some one regardless of where he may be located in the United States. Have Edward write this party a letter in his own handwriting referring to this notice in the press so that I will know he has read it. Inclose with Edward's communication from the gang for more than a week.

A veiled intimation that police and shall understand that you do not wish to deal with me and I will feel I am released from any obligations as con-tained in this note."

Mr. Bremer then said in the state-ment that city, State and Federal authorities "have consented to allow me thorities "have consented to allow me in my own way for a limited time to seek the return of my bby. First and last I am only interested in the safe return of Edward, and if the suggestions are carried out I will have no interest in any activity after my son is returned." is returned."

Sincere in Offer.

Mr. Bremer made it clear that he was sincere in his offer to co-operate fully with the gang for the safe re-turn of his son by saying "my tele-phones in home and office have been watched, therefore contact in this way is not desirable. I merely mention this to indicate to you men that I am sincere in my desire and efforts to communicate with you free from any outside interference."

"I give you my word of honor when this contact is made no one except the parties named by you shall have any knowledge of its existence." His promise to exclude "outside interference" is in line with the family's decision to discourage police activity in the case, manifest from the first day Bremer was kidnaped.

It was the second interview granted he has read it. Inclose with Edward's letter your instructions to the party that Edward selects, but be sure to give sufficient time for the instructions to be carried out."

Fear for Son's Life.

The text of Mr. Bremer's statement was viewed as indicating the family harbored renewed fears for the life of the missing man, and seemingly bore out the persistent assertions of the Bremer that they have had no the Bremers that they have had no the same second interview granted by any members of the Bremer samily any any members of the Bremer samily any any members of the Bremer samily any any members of the Bremer samily since the oldest son of the brewer was abducted early the morning of January 17. Mr. Bremer, after handing out the one-page typed statements signed in longhand by himself, then retired to his library and refused to submit to any questions. His eyes were red and he had, friends discovered to have a proposed to submit to any questions. His eyes were red and he had, friends discovered to have a proposed to submit to any questions. His eyes were red and he had, friends discovered to his library and refused to submit to any questions. His eyes were red and he had, friends discovered to his library and refused to submit to any questions. His eyes were red and he had, friends discovered to his library and refused to submit to any questions. His eyes were red and he had, friends discovered to his library and refused to submit to any questions. His eyes were red and he had, friends discovered to his library and refused to submit to any questions.

NOT RECORDIN 7-576-A

ý

MR. NATHAN....
MR. TOLSON
MR. CLEGG....
MR. COWLEY....
MR. EDWARDS...
MR. EGAN....
MR. QUINN....
MR. LESTER
MR. LOCKE...
MR. RORER

Bremer Sets 3-Day-Limit for Kidnapers

Father of Missing Man Makes Final Plea for Contact.

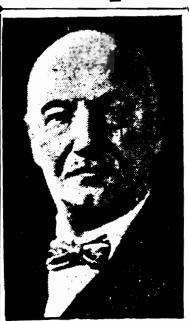

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 3 (U.D.—Adolph Bremer, millionaire brewer and friend of President Roosevelt, late today gave the kidnapers of his son. Edward G. Bremer, "three days and three nights" to prove that the son is alive and arrange for collection of $200,000 ransom.

Weeping, Bremer handed newspapermen a signed statement, in which he warned the kidnapers that his home and office telephone "have been watched" and gave his word of honor that if further contact can be made, "no one except the parties named by you shall have any knowledge of its existence."

The statement follows:
"To the parties holding my son and to Edward G. Bremer:

"All city, State and Federal authorities have consented to allow me in my own way for a limited time to seek the return of my boy.

"First and last, I am only interested in safe return of Edward and if the following suggestions are carried out I will have no interest in any activity after my son is re-

ADOLPH BREMER.

"My telephones in home and office have been watched; therefore contact in this way is not desirable. I merely mention this to indicate to you men that I am sincere in my desire and effort to communicate with you free from any outside interference.

Continued on Page 10, Column 1.

Bremer Kidnapers Given Ultimatum

Continued from Page 1.

"I realize that I can not publish my choice in making this contact. To convince you that there is no catch in this effort of mine, I can see but one way to work out our negotiations. Edward will have to select some one, regardless of where he may be located in the United States.

"Have Edward write this party a letter in his own handwriting referring to this notice in the press, so that I will know that he has read it. Inclose with Edward's letter your instructions to the party that Edward selects, but be sure to give sufficient time for the instructions to be carried out.

"If I have not heard from Edward within three days and three nights, I shall understand that you do not wish to deal with me and I will feel that I am released from any obligations contained in this note.

"I will give you my word of honor, when this contact is made no one except the parties named by you shall have any knowledge of its existence."

NGT RECORDED

7-576-4

WWAS

MR. NATHAN. MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGO..... MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS .. MR. EGAN MR. QUINN

R. LESTER ...

R. LOCKE. R. RORER.

DAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1934

Gives Kidnaper 3 Days More To Collect Ransom "Without Danger From Police"

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 3 (U.S.) Adolph Bremer, father of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker who yas kidnaped January 17, todan gave the kidnapers three days and three nights to prove that they had his son alive and to collect the $200.000 ransom.

Weeping, the wealthy brewer handed Twin City newspaper men a statement here this afternoon which informed the kidnapers that if they would return his son no one would know about it until they had opportunity to make their getaway.

ADDRESSES KIDNAPERS

The statement follows:

"To the parties holding my son, and to Edward G. Bremer: "All city, State and Federal authorities have consented to allow me in my own way for a limited time to seek the return of my boy.

"First and last, I am only interested in safe return of Ed-ward, and if the following sug-gestions are carried out I will gestions are carried out I will have no interest in any activity after my son is returned.

"My telephone in home and office have been watched; therefore, contact in this way is not desirable. I merely mention this to indicate to you men that I am sincere in my desire and effort to communicate with you free from any outside interference. outside interference.

TRGES SO TO ACT

"I realize that I cannot pub-lish my choice in making this contract. To convince you that there is no catch in this effort of mine, I can see but one way to work out our negotiations. Edward will have to select some one regardless of where he may be located in the United States.

be located in the United States.

"Have Edward write this party a letter in his own handwriting referring to this notice in the press so that I will know that he has read it. Enclose with Edward's letter your instructions to the party that Edward selects, but be sure to give sufficient time for the instructions to be carried out.

"If I have not heard from structions to be carried out.

"If I have not heard from Edward within three days and three nights, I shall understand that you do not wish to deal with me and I will feel that I am released from any obligations as contained in this note.

"I will give you my word of honor, when this contact is made no one except the parties made no one except the parties and named by you shall have any knowledge of its existence."

Bremer was kidnaped the morning of January 17 as he took his laughter, Betty, to Summit School. Since the first contact note left under the doorstep of Walter Magee, a friend of the lamily, not a single contact has been made. een made.

D=: -- 447

7-576-A

WAR

NOT RECORDED

Aged Father Pledges Secrecy in Asking Contact With Abductors of St. Paul Banker. 17

BUT ISSUES FINAL WARNING

If Effort Fails, He Says, the Family Will Cooperate With Police in Hunting Gang.

ST. PAUL, 19th, 3 (AP).-An aged father tonight voiced his third pub-lic appeal for the return of his son, Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, seized for $200,000 ransom more than two weeks ago.

"Please-give this-all-the prominence-you can," were the words of Adolph Bremer, principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company.

In the living room of his home the elder Bremer stood with head bowed and eyes dimmed with tears as he pleaded for the immediate as he pleaded for the immediate release of the 37-year-old banker.

"I realize that I cannot publish my choice in making this contact."
Mr. Bremer's statement said. "To convince you that there is no catch in this effort of mine I can see but one way to work out our negotiations. tions.

tions.

"Edward will have to select some one regardless of where he may be. Have Edward write this party a letter in his own handwriting referring to this notice in the press so that I will know he has read it. Enclose with Edward's letter your instructions to the party that Edward selects, but he sure to give sufficient time for the instructions to be carried out."

"I give you my word of honor when this contact is made no one except the parties named by you shall have any knowledge of its existence."

shall have any knowledge of its existence."

An intimation that police and Federal authorities, as a last resort, would get the cooperation of the family in attempting to track down the abductors was contained in the last paragraph, which said:

"If I have not heard from Edward within three days and three nights I shall understand that you do not wish to deal with me and I will feel I am released from any obligations as contained in this note."

Mr. Bremer then stated that city,

note."

Mr. Bremer then stated that city, State and Federal authorities "have consented to allow me in my own way for a limited time to seek the return of my boy. First and last, I am only interested in the safe return of Edward, and if the suggestions are carried out, I will have no interest in any activity after my son is returned."

The statement was viewed as indicating that the family had fears.

dicating that the family had fears for the life of the missing man and as bearing out assertions of the Brensing that they have had no

MR. NATHAN ... MR. TOLSON MR. CLFGG. MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS .. MR. EUAN MR. QUINN. ---MR. LESTER ... MR. LOCKE.. MR. RORER.

()

NOT RECORD D 7-576-4-Washing ston Star, 7-4, 5,193.4

Fears Grow That Missing St. Paul Banker May Be Dead.

By the Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, February 5.—A father's public plea that the kidnapers of his son. Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, release him within three days and nights apparently went unheeded today, while fears grew that the missing man may be dead.

The father, Adolph Bremer, who president of the Jacob Schmidt Breweing Co. here, in making the plea indicated his hope that his son is still alive, but in other quarters there was a growing belief the kidnaped man was sain.

Young Bremen was selzed January. By the Associated Press.

Young Bremen was selzed January.

17 and $200,000 ransom demanded by his abductors. Bloodstains were found in his abandoned automobile and for two weeks no word has been received two weeks no word has been received from the kidnapers.

Adolph Bremer pleaded Saturday night with the holders of his son to have Edward write a letter and designate some one to act as a contact man for payment of the ransom. He promised that for three days and three nights any communications or arrangements would be secret so far as police and other officials are concerned.

If within three days no sign has been received the authorities would be asked to step in. Heartofore the officers have abided by the Bremers' request that they keep out of the case.

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGG..... MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS ... MR. EGAN.... MR. QUINN MR. LESTER ... MP. LOCKE MR. RORER ...

NOT RECORDED 7-576-A- W483

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGG...... MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS .. MR. EGAN..... MR. QUINN..... MR. LESTER MR. LOCKE..... MR. RORER

Bremer's Appeal Gets No Response

ST. PAUL, Feb. 4 (I.N.S.).—The kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, remained "unheard from" today, 24 hours after the father of the victim, Adolph Bremer, issued his appeal for a contact."

Though the radio and newspapers, the elder Bremer informed the abductors he would give them three days and three nights to prove his son is alive and to collect the $200,000 ransom.

NOT RECORDED 7-576-4

() adingto Daily news, Feb. 5/920

Police at St. Paul

Accused by Editor

By United Press

ST. PAUL—Politically controlled police department and the apparent flocking of bootleggers and hi-jackers into armed robbery and kidnapings today led to a public hearing of demands of Howard Kahn, militant editor of the St. Paul News, for a thoro inquiry into the causes of six major kidnapings here in less than three years. three years.

three years.

The hearing came while Edward G. Bremer, 36, sonker and scionsof a wealthy and influential family, was being held by kidnapers who seized him more than two weeks ago.

Kahn characterized his demands as part of a war to drive out "riff-raff" who allegedly found haven in St. Paul after cleanups in other cities. The hearing was called by Police Commissioner John McDonald, principal target of Kahn's editorial principal target of Kahn's editorial five.

The hearing was twice postponed to appear before when Kahn refused to appear before a "star chamber" in which the ac-cused was to sit in a quasi-judicial position.

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGG..... MR. COWLEY ... MR. EDWARDS MR. EGAN MR. QUINN..... MR. LESTER MP. LOCKE MR. RORER

7-576-A

NOT RECORDED

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON ... MR. CLEGG..... MR. COWLEY .. MR. EDWARDS. MR. EGAN MR. QUINN. MR. LESTER ...

()

ST/P-UI dans for 5.—First of the three days which Adolph Bremer, and Giber of the kidnaped banker keward G. Bremer, has given the abductors in which to effect in the proof the $200,000 ransom department has passed to-day with the word from the day with grom the kidnapers.

Two m before t e victim keeps his over to authoritie.
The fat

keeps his ord, and turns the case over to the part of local authorities of human fide action. The father, maintain friend of President compatt, through the press and action stations here, informed the kidnapers that he is willing to pay the ransom.

7-576-A-

MH, NATHAN. MH TOLSON DE CLEGO 65 20 No . NE LOOKE MP ROMER

BREMER HINTS FEAR KIDNAPED SON WAS SLAIN

 C_{ℓ}

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 4.—(P)—His hope mingled with grave fear, Adolph Bremer sought in his "own way" today to effect the return of his banker son, Edward, 37, victim of a kidnap gang seeking $200,000 ransom.

"Have Edward write a letter in his ewn hand," the father pleaded in a public statement to the abductors.

The statement implied for the first time the family's belief that the victim may have been slain. For almost two weeks no word has been received from the abductors.

Adolph Bremer's "own way" was Adolph Bremer's "own way" was to promise in a published statement absolute secrecy to the gang concerning arrangements with the family; a promise that he would not have any interest in any activity after my son

Chicago Tribune 2-5-34

NOT RECORDED

7-576-A-

(c) ashing es, 712, 6,1934

MR. NATHAN ... MR. TOLSON ... MR. CLF NIA. COWLET MA. LESTIF ... MR. LOCKE MR. RORER

-37

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. (INE.) —While the family of Edward G. Bremer, missing bank president, still waited for a communication from his kidnapers, Federal authorities and police to-

Federal authorities and police to-day prepared to launch a search for the abductors within 24 hours. Unless negotiations are begun for Bremer's release, police author-ities planned to swing into action with the passing tomorrow of the deadline set by Adolph Bremer, aged brewer and father of the banker. Bremer was kidnaped January 17 for a ransom of $200. 000.

Police Chief Thomas Dahill. after questioning members of a band of eleven armed men capband of eleven armed men cap-tured at Owatonna, Minn., an-nounced he was convinced they had no connection with the Bre-mer kidnaping although $4.000 was found in their possession. The elder Bremer, who last Sun-day broadcast notice that the kid-papers had but three days in day broadcast notice that the fid-napers had but three days in which to open negotiations, has been given a free hand in attempt-ing to contact the gang and in compliance with his request auth-orities have followed a policy of watchful waiting.

7-576-A.

Washington Star, Feb. 6, 1934

MR. TOLSON .. MR. CLEGO..... MR. COWLEY . MR. EDW 2753 MH. LESTER ... MR. LOCKE

MH. NATHAN

MR. RORER

Eleven Men Released After Questioning in Regard to Kidnaping.

By the Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, February 6.—The authorities have struck, but without success, in an initial effort to solved the $200,000 kidnaping of Edward Bremer, wealthy banker, abducted January 17.

Eleven men, carrying $4,000 were arrested yesterday and last night at Owatonna, Minn., in the hope they might furnish information leading to a solution of the case, but Chief of Police Thomas Dahill announced after questioning them that he was convinced they had no connection with Bremer's abduction.

Dahill said one automatic pistol was found among the gang when they were captured in an apartment house in which they had been living since January 10.

Wester Masses wealthy contractor.

January 10.
Walter Magee, wealthy contractor friend of the missing banker, whose blood-stained automobile was found abandoned shortly after his abduction last month, declared the ransom money in $5 and $10 bills had not been paid.

The three days and three nights, which Adolph Bremer, friend of President Roosevelt and father of the kidnap victim, has allotted the gang before withdrawing his offer of secrecy and co-operation in negotiating without police interference, expires at noon tomorrow.

NOT RECURPED

7-576-A

Washing in Poit, Februs, 1934

MR. NATHAN. MR. TOLSON ... MR. CLEOO .----MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS. MR. EGAN MR. QUINN MR. LESTER MR. LOCKE ... MR. RORER ..

11 Held as Bremer Suspects Absolved

Long Grilling Fails to Link

Group to Kidnaping.

St. Paul, Feb. 5 (P).—Eleven men, arrested at Owatonna, Minn., tonight as suspects in the kidnaping of Edward B. Bremer, were absolved of any connection with the abduction by Chief of Police Thomas Dahill after a lengthy grilling.

Silence only so far has answered the appeal of Adolph Bremer, father of the missing man, that communication be established by the abductors at once with the family. Unless some word is conveyed by Wednesday noon, the elder Bremer inferred in a statement issued las week, he would support authorities in tracking down the criminals.

NOT RECORDED

7-576-A-

waa 5

Washington Henald Feb. 6, 1934

MR. NATHAN
MR. TOLSON
MR. CLEGG......
MR. COWLEY
MR. EDWARDS ...
MR. EGAN
MR. QUINN
MR. LESTER
MR. LOCKE.....
MR. RORER

5 Suspects Quizzed In Bremer Mystery

ST. PAUL, Feb. 5 (U.P.).—Inspector Charles_Tierney's antikidnaping squad held five men tonight for questioning after a hurried trip to Owatonna where the men were arrested. The men were questioned about the kidnaping of Edward G. Bremer, 36, son of Adolf Bremer. They were arrested in connection with an alcohol robbery and were not believed to be involved in the kidnaping.

MOI RECURDED

7-576-A

SX.

MR. NATHAN ..

MR. TOLSON ...

MR. CLEGG..... MR. COWLEY ...

MR ROBER

Bremer Kidnapers

Police Plan to Hunt

By United Press
ST. PAUL—Inspector Charle Tierney's anti-kidnaping squad an Federal agents prepared today t begin a comprehensive hunt for the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, 36. bank president, as the latter's disappearance neared the three weeks' limit.

Adolf Bremer, the victim's father, announced he would call in police if he failed to hear from the abductors by Wednesday.

Meanwhile police were investigating the movements of five men arrested in Owatonna late yesterday on suspicion of having engineered the theft of 5512 gallons of alcohol from the La Salle Products Co. yesterday. Police were holding another five men who entered the apart-ment from which the first five were taken.

MR LESTER .. MR. LOCKE

7-576-A-

st. 000 cash and an automatic pistol in their possession, were pistol in their possession, were brought here by St. Paul police. The other six. Chief Dahill said. The other six Chief Dahill said would be questioned about recent bank robberies and liquor law violations, particularly a $38,584 theft of denatured alcohol.

7-576-A-

SEIZE 11 ARMED MEN IN HUNT FOR KNONAPING GANG

Five Freed of Bremer Blame After Quiz.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 5.—(P)—Eleven armed men were seized today at Owatonna, Minn., with $4,000 cash in their possession. After their capture this afternoon deputy sheriffs brought them here for questioning about the kidnaping of Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker. After selverely grilling five of them. Chief of Police Thomas Dahill tonight said he was convinced they had no connection with the $200,000 kidnaping plot.

The five in custody are Archie Bell, 39, Blooming Prairie, George J. Overton, Blooming Prairie, Louis Meyers, 28, Pipestone, Jack Dahlin, 22, Galt, and Jose Vallee, 35, address not disclosed.

Six in St. Paul.

The remaining six, not identified, were to be brought here tonight by 3t. Paul police who, Chief Dahill said, planned to question them about recent hank robberies and liquor law violations, particularly the $38,584 theft of 5,512 gallons of denatured alcohol here yesterday from the LaSalle Products company.

Suspicion was aroused at the comings and goings of the 11 at their apartment house. The men, Owatonna authorities said, had been there since Jan. 20.

After the first five were seized deputy sheriffs secreted themselves in the apartment to await the rest of the gang, and were rewarded when six more men walked into the place.

No Ransom Paid Yet.

Walter Magee, wealthy contractor friend of Edward Bremer, who received the first ransom note shortly before the victim's blood stained automobile was found abandoned Jan. 17, said tonight none of the $200,000 ransom money had been paid.

There were conjectures in some quarters whether the money had passed when it became known $4,000 was found on the men taken at Owatonna.

Only last Saturday Adolph Bremer, father of the kidnaped banker, had pleaded for return of his son, promising secrecy and cooperation with the gang for three days and nights if negotiations would be opened.

Today, however, passed without word from the abductors, as the familiar continued its watchful waiting for news from the gang.

Chicago tribune

ME LESIEF

2-6-34

NOT RECORDED

-3--6

7-576-A

MR. CLEGG MR. COWLEY ... MR. EDWARDS . MR. EGAN MR. QUINN MR. LESTER MR. LOCKE MR. RORER ...

MR. NATHAN .. MR. TOLSON

Gang-Ignores Bremer Plea

Family's 3.Day Offer to Avoid Police in Kidnap Hunt Ends Today.

St. Paul, Feb. 6 (A).—Less than 24 hours remained tonight for kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer to communicate with the family before authorities may be given a free rein in hunting down the gang which seized the banker for $200,000 ransom.

Steadfastly refusing to cooperate with police, Adolph Bremer, father of the 37-year-old banker, in a final public plea to the abductors accorded them three days and three nights in which to make contact, with assurances of secrecy and cooperation.

That time expires tomorrow noo and so far no contact has been established. The elder Bremer de clined today to say he would call in police and Department of Julius investigators.

In his statement Saturday, how ever, the father inferred he woul take such action, viewing lack or communication to mean the band does not want to contact him and as thereby releasing him from any promises.

doned a few hours afterward.

tice investigators.

The younger Bremer was kid-naped January 17. His blood-stained automobile was found aban-

"OI RECORDED

7-576A-

Washing on Trues, 7.5.7,1934

No Word Received From Abductors of St. Paul Banker As Time Limit Ends

ST. PAUL, Peb. 7 UNS.) Combined forces of police, State and Federal authorities were ready to unleash at an hour's notice today, an intensive manhunt for the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, wealthy banker seized three weeks ago for $200,000 ransom.

Members of the Bremer family still insist that no communication had come from the abductors since January 17, the day of the kidnaping, when a note demand-ing the huge ransom was received. To Begin Active Hunt

As the time limit set by the elder Bremer neared its expiration, it became increasingly evident that Department of Justice agents and police were prepared to abandon their policy of watchful waiting and begin an active hunt for the gang. Police Chief Thomas Dahill said a picked force of detectives was awaiting the of detectives was awaiting the signal to go into action. Since the abduction, authorities

Since the abduction, authorities have honored the request of the elder Bremer that he be given a free hand in his attempts to establish contact with the kidnapers of his son. He had stubbornly refused to cooperate with law enforcement officers.

In a public message Sunday, however, the wealthy brewer announced the kidnapers would have just three days and nights in which to carry through the

in which to carry through the ransom negotiations unhindered by the authorities.

MR. TOLSON MR. CLECC MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS .. MR. EGAN..... MR. QUINN MR. LESTER N.P. LOCKE MA. BORER

NOT RECORDED

7-576-A

ward

10 adinato (Daily New Jec. 7/9>0

U. S. Agents Ready for Intensive Huntin Bremer Kidnaping

Abductors' Period of Freedom From Police Ends Today and Forces Mobilize for Search

By United Press ST. PAUL-Kidnapers of Edward 3. Bremer, 86, bank president, had until noon today to communicate with Adolf Bremer, the victim's father, without police interference.

Bremer was seized three weeks ago today and $200,000 ransom tiemanded for his return. After the kidnapers' first note no authentic communications have been received, the elder Bremer said. Bloodstains were found on the auto from which Bremer was kidnaped.

Unleashing of police activity in the case today was expected to bring about one of the most comprehensive man-hunts since the kidnaping of the infant son of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

A secret mobilization of Justice Department agents in Minneapolis was said to have brought dozens of Was said to have into the case. St. Paul expected to see its newly organized anti-kidnaping squadron used to track down the abductors. MR NATHIN ... MR TOLSON ... MR. CLEGG MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS MR. QUINN WR. LEGTER

7-57/-A

WH To St

Racket Prosecutor Threa

J. D. Carpenter Jr. and Four Jersey Aids Are Told Retribution Waits for Them.

Threats of bodily harm and kidnaping have been received by James DeCarpenter Jr., Assistant State's Attorney-General in charge of the prosecutor's office in Paterson, N. J., and four men who have been working with him in an investigation of jury fixing, slot machine operation and general vice conditions. All the threats were made by telephone. A man telephoned Mrs. Carpenter at the prosecutor's home, 43 Glenwood avenue, Upper Montclair, and voiced a threat to kidnap the Carpenter children.

One of those threatened was Assistant Prosecutor Michael Shershin of Clifton, in charge of the prosecution at a slot machine trial which ended yesterday with the conviction of six men on a charge of conspiracy in the court of Quarter Sessions. The men convicted were Harry Kuller, James (Big Jim, Profito, Frank (Little Frank) Fiella, John Cammariato, John McDonald and Paul Louis Fialla. Threats were also received by Fred J. Senz, chief county detective, and Detective Sergeant James Smith and Detective Stephen Nauman of the Paterson police force.

All were told that retribution would be visited upon them if they did not cease their slot machine activities. As information in the hands of the authorities shows a tie-up of the slot machine racket with jury fixing and other phases of the vice inquiry, the threats were interpreted as applying to those phases of the investigation.

Acting Prosecutor Carpenter is president of the New Jersey State Bar Association.
"My answer," he said, "is the verdict the jury returned yesterday against six defendants in the slot machine case. These threats simply make us more determined to do everything we can to clean up this entire situation. All necessary pre-cautions will be taken to frustrate any attempt to carry the threats into effect."

Most of the messages were received by the investigators at their

MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGG..... MR. COWLEY ... MR. EDWARDS MR. EGAN..... MR. QUINN.

MR. NATHAN

7-596-A

Hunt for Bremer Put Off One Day

Father of Banker Delays Calling in Police in Hope of Making Contact

ST. PAUL, Feb. 7 (P).—Another

ST. PAUL, Feb. 7 (P).—Another day in which to communicate with the family before law enforcement agencies started a search was granted today by Adolph Bremer to the kidnap gang holding his son. Edward, for $200,000 ransom.

"With the nope of making contact, I have decided to extend the time until Thursday night," said a statement by Bremer, friend of President Roosevelt, today. "Officials have agreed to this."

Last Saturday Adolph Bremer announced that he would give the gang three days and three nights in which to contact the family with assurance of secrecy and refusal of cooperation with the police. That period ended at noon today.

O'Connell Case Recalled
The underworld snatch of Edward G. Bremer in St. Paul, Minn., drew close today to tying the record for the longest kidnap seizure in modern criminology, says the Associated Press.

Twenty-two days have psed since the mid-Western have president was kidnaped on Jamery 17 after he had taken his your drughtern had been his your drughtern his after he had taken his your doughter to school.

John J. O'Connell Jr., har to the O'Connell brothers' political dynamy in Albany, N. Y., was released, by his kidnapers last July offer a twenty-three-day setzurg and sayment of $40,000 ransom, by Young O'Connell's imprisonment is the longest on recede in the nation-wide wave of Manapings since the abduction and murder of Charles Augustus Lindbergh Jr. Prior to the O'Connell case the snatchers of Charles Breticher 2d in Denver, Colo., held the record at sixteen days.

NOT RECORDELL

7-576-A

MR. COWLEY ...

MR. NATHAN MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGO.....

Mr. Toleon.. Mr. Quinn. Mr. Lester. STAR - 2- 7- 1934 Mr. Looke

SHOWDOWN NEARS IN BREMER'S CASE

. Family Deadline for Word From Abductors May Start Pursuit Today.

By the Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, Pebruary 7.—A show-down between the law and the kidnapers of Edward Bremer, abducted banker, appeared possible today.

This was indicated in a veiled threat of an intensive manhunt voiced by Adolph Bremer, father of the missing man, who had given the kidnapers three days and three nights in which to communicate with the family, without police interference.

Noon today was the deadline for rebeipt of the communication, and as the abductors apparently had spurned the elder Bremer's offer, there was considerable speculation as to whether the family would call on the authorities to help.

The elder Bremer declined to reveal what plans, if any, he had made. So far the family has implored city police to remain out of the case and has not co-operated with Federal investigators, feeling that to do so would endanger the captive's life.

Whether the banker still was alive was a moot question, though sources close to the family professed belief Stremer still lived.

MOT RECORDED

7-576-A-

MR. NATHAN ... MR. TOLSON MR. CLEGG...... MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS .. MR. EGAN..... MR. QUINN..... MR. LESTER MP. LOCKE MR. ROBER

ST. PAUL, Feb. 6.than twenty-four hours of grace re-mained tonight for kidnapers of Edward G.

Bremer to communicate with the family before au-thorities m a y b e given a free given a free rein in hunting down the gang which seized the banker for $200,000 ran-som.

The ab duction octhree weeks ago tomor-row morning. Steadfastly refusing to co-operate with police, Adolph Bremer, friend of President Roosevelt and father of the 37-year-old banker, Saturday gave the kidnapers three days and three nights in which to communicate, with assur-ances of secrecy and co-operation. That time expires tomorrow noon and up to tonight, no contact had been established. The elder Bremer declined to reveal whether he would call in police and Depart-ment of Justice investigators to hunt the gang.

E. G. BREMER.

7-576-A

MR. NATHAN. MR. TOLBON MR. CLEGG..... MR. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS .. MR. EGAN..... MR. QUINN MR. LESTER MR. LOCKE MR. RORER ...

BREMER FAMILY STILL WAITS FOR KIDNAPERS' REPLY

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 6.-[Special.] -With the deadline when police will be called in a matter of hours away, there was nothing today to indicate that a contact with the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, $7 year old St. Paul banker, had been completed.

Relatives continued the silence begun Sunday when Adolf Bremer, wealthy brewer, gave the men holding his son for $200,000 ransom a final three days and nights in which to communicate with him, but the anxiety written on the face of the aged father and other members of the Bremer family belied any possibility that the kidnapers had moved to negotiate.

While refusing to make statements before expiration of the deadline about noon tomorrow, police, state, and federal authorities were known to be pre-paring an intensive man hunt for the abductors, who selzed Bremer the morning of Jan. 17 and who have made no move, since sending a note with a demand for ransom the same day, to Walter Magee, St. Paul contractor.

The authorities apparently were convinced Bremer is still alive, despite a widespread conviction throughout the city that the continued silestee or the widnapers indicated he is dead.

Chicago Tribune

AUT REPOORDER 2-7-34

7-576-A

BREMER RELEASED ON RANSOM AFTER BEING IMPRISONED 23 DAYS BY GANG

Amount Paid for Freedom of Banker Held for $200,-000 Is Not Announced. Wounds Are Healed.

EYES WERE BLINDFOLDED OR TAPED ENTIRE TIME

Victim Is Thrown Out of Car by Trio Near Rochester, Minn., and Returns Home—Possible Clue Is Given by Chauffeur for Mayo Clinic Doctor.

By the Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, February 8.—Ransomed with an unannounced amount of money, Edward G. Bremer, seized by kidnapers for $200,000 January 17, was at home today after a 23-day imprisonment in an unlocated hideout.

Wounds about the head, which he had suffered when spirited away by the gang, were healed, Dr. Joseph Sprafka said, though the victim was weak, exhausted, and "very, very nervous."

Dr. Sprafka was summoned soon after the son of Adolph Bremer, wealthy brewer, had returned home after being thrown out on a highway near or at Rochester, Minn., about 85 miles south of here, last night. Dr. Sprafka said a ransom had been paid, but he did not know how much.

Possible Clue Found.

Three men in a small sedan, members of the gang of six or seven which held the president and owner of the Commercial State Bank prisoner, freed him about $ p.m. last night.

Bremer was unshaven. He had been either blindfolded or his eyes taped during the imprisonment, friends of the family said the family said.

A possible clue to the gang was given by Douglas Street, 33 chauffeur for Dr. Waltman Walters, Mayo Clinic physician at Rochester. Street

Back Home

EDWARD G. BREMER.

Seen by Depot Employes.

The banker, memor said, took a bus from Rochester to St. Paul, then went to his father's home in a taxicab. First announcement of his release was made by Werner Hanni, chief of the Department of Justice office.

Howard McGonn and Mrs. Jennie Haight, employes of the bus depot at Rochester, were believed to have been the first persons to see the banker after his release.

He entered the depot, they said, about 8 p.m. yesterday, asking about bus connections with the Twin Cities. They told him he had missed the last but that night to the Twin Cities, but that he could take a train to Owathonna, nearby, and catch a but there items.

bonna, nearby, and catch a bus there.

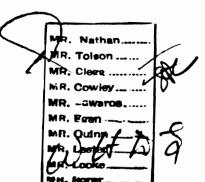

Bremer was quoted as saying he'
couldn't do that. McGonn and Mrs.

Haight paid no particular attention to the unshaven stranger, who appeared dazed, they said, and did not know, he was the long-sought St. Paul

Banker Is Quizzed.

They did not know, they said, whether Bremer took a train to Owatonna and sought a bus there.

As soon as Bremer returned home

BREMER RELEASED ON RANSOM AFTER WAIT OF 23 DAYS

(Continued From First Page.)

Chief of Police Thomas Dahill, Inpector of Detectives Charles Tierney and Detective Tom Brown of the St. Paul Police Department rushed to the Adolph Bremer home.

They, with Federal investigators, immediately began questioning the banker. No one else was permitted to enter the yard, guarded by police and Federal operatives.

M. P. Kinkead, Ramsey County attorney, came to the home shortly afterward. The door first was shut h his face. A few minutes elapsed before he was admitted.

fore he was admitted.

Hanni, asked if Bremer was a right, replied: "Yes, he is."

Beyond that, silence veiled the experiences of the banker since the gang seized him shortly after he had left his 8-year-old daughter Betty at the exclusive Summit Girls' School.

Refused to Co-operate,

At the home with Bremer and his father were his uncle. Otto Bremer chairman of the board of the American National Bank and head of the Minnesota Home Owners' Loan Corporation. The Bremers, prominent Democrats, steadfastly refused to cooperate with authorities during the banker's imprisonment, feeling at that time any police activity would endanger the victim's life.

Beremer was held the same length

Beremer was held the same length of time as John J. O'Counell, ir, wealthy young member of a politically prominent New York State family. This was the longest kidnap seizure since the fatal Lindbergh baby abduction. Both O'Connell and Bremer were held 23 days.

Each victim was taken from his automobile. A short time after, Bremer was seized an anonymous telephone call was received by Magee. The speaker informed him a note would be found on the rear doorstep of his anonymous telephone call was received by Magee.

MUNT TO BE INTENSIFIED.

U. S. to Threw All Efforts Into Kidmap Search.

Department of Justice officials indicated today that the search for the abductors of Edward G. Bremer, wealthy St. Paul banker, would be intensified now that he has been returned alive.

This was disclosed as details of the return of Bremer were coming into the office of J. Edgar Hoover, director of the division of investigation of the Justice Department. He would not see newspaper men.

gation of the division of investigation of the Justice Department.
He would not see newspaper men.
Many high in surial life in Washington were happy at the return of the young man, as his family is well known to President Roosevelt and others here.

He graduated from George Washington University where he received two degrees. He attended Catholic University for a time, but transferred to George Washington to complete his studies.

In other kidnap cases the Department of Justice has not thrown its fullest resources into the search for

1m

FEB 91934 M

w-asingle Henold ()2/2/2),

MR NATHAN MR. TOL 5011 MR CLEGG..... MH. COWLEY MR. EDWARDS .. ME. ECAN

MR. QUINN WE LESTER 11% 10 Chb. -WE ROBER .

Gang Still Aloof

Father Gives Abductors More Time to Dicker for Son's Release.

St. Paul, Feb. 7 (P).—The law and the Bremer kidnap gang still marked time today as the mystery dragged through its twenty-second day.

Police activity was retarded by the latest word of Adolph Bremer, father of Edward, seized January 17 for $200,000 ransom, in offering the many to comone more day for the gang to com-municate with the family without however, he extended until mid-night tomorrow the time of three days and three nights announced last Sunday as the period in which he would please his word to keep inviolate any word from the gang and to cooperate fully with them.

fear of interference.

fear of interference.

Outwardly quiescent for days captors of Edward Bremer, 37 president and owner of the Commercial State Bank, continued to rest on their apparent lack of initiative toward opening negotiations for payment of the ransom.

Bremer, principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Co., insisted no word from his son has been received.

been received.
Contemplating imminent contact,

NOT RECORDED

7-57/-A

WHAS

Ranson of $200,000 Is Paid in Full to Banker's Abductors

Young Heir to Brewing and Banking Fortune Was Beaten on Head by His Assallants

-By United Press ST. PAUL-Edward G. Bremer, kidnaped St. Paul banker, was released last night after full payment of the $200,000 ransom by Adolf Bremer, his millionaire father who is a friend of President Roosevelt, Federal agents and the family revealed today. . .

Bremer was freed in the residential district of Rochester, Mian., at 8 p. m. Federal agents immediately loosed their massed forces in a search for "three men driving a small sedan."

Bremer traveled by train and bus to his father's home in St. Paul, where he slept today with Government agents posted at every entry. Even city police officials found it hard to get in.

SMALL BILLS Adolf Bremer revealed that the full amount of the ransom was paid Tuesday night with $84,000 in five-dollar bills and the balance in ten-dollar bils. He said today:

"I am so happy to tell you that my boy is back at last after this terrible experience. The hidous hours of suspeme have been almost unbearable for all of uncommendation of the personal interest of the President and Governor, and the splendid co-operation given by the press and by the radio. The city, state and Federal law enforcing authorities have been most kind in their offers of assistant. Above all, I will never forget their hamane willingness to stand by when my pleas convinced them that Ed-ward's life was in serious jeopardy.

No sacrifice has been too great for my brother Otta, Walter Magee, Clarence Neacomb and the others who at great risk have done their parts.

"It is my earnest prayer that other fathers and mothers will be spared the agony of a similar ordeal."

The text of the note which the 73-year-old-father dispatched with the ransom money Tuesday follows:

"To parties hilding Edward: I've done my par and topt my word 100 per cent just as I call I would. This above is used:

(Continued on Page 27)

Released 🚟 EDWARD G. BREMER

MR. COWIEY ... MR. -GWaros MR. Egen MR. Quinn MR. Lester MR. Looke.

NOT RECORDED 7-576-A-

10HBS

Is Paid for Bremer

Continued from Page 11

marked and is the full amount asked for, And new boys, I am counting on your honor. He operts and do the square thing by furn-ing Edward loose at once.

(Signed) ADOLF BREMER. On his return, the young banker explained that he was struck ever the head after he was kidnaped and

Bremer dismissed the injury as nothing at all to worry abo had recovered completely before his

Other members of the family insisted upon a physical examination.
A doctor was called.

SEVERE INJURIES

"Mr. Bremer suffered very severe injuries about the head," the doctor said. "He may have believed doctor said. He may have believed his hurts to be trifling, but they were serious.

Federal officials took complete charge of the case. J. Frank Blake, whose shrewd deductions helped solve the Charles Urschel kidnaping at Oklahama.

at Oklahoma City, was one of the first arrivals at the Bremer home after the announcement of the banker's return.

Bremer was kidnaped Jan. 17 while en route to his office after taking his small daughter to school Shortly before noon the same day Walter MaGee, contractor and clos friend of Bremer, received a tele phone call.

"We've got your pal, Ed Bre-mer," he was told. "Don't get ex-cited. Go to the back door of your office. You'll find further instructions there. Ed's automobile is out at the Dale Street Reserveir."

Magee found the note, which ha been pushed under the door. It was typewritten. The note instructed him to raise $200,000 and "wait." H vas not to notify police.

Magee communicated with fre-mer's family. Police were notified but requested not to enter actively into the case. At the request of the family news of the kidnaping was not made public until the next after-

The elder Bremer took charge of egotiations for his son's return. Indicating the family's willingness to comply with the kidnapers demands, a notice was inserted in the "personal" column of a Minneapolis paper, reading, "We are ready. Alice."

Alice."
It was not until four days later that a second communication was received from the kidnapers. A bottle containing two notes was thrown the containing two notes was thrown thru the glass door in the home of Dr. H. T. Nippert, Adolph Bremer's physician, at 6:20 a. m. Sunday.

The notes again wirned against police intervention and gave specific directions for payment of the nan-sam money and the deliverance of som money and the deliverance of the victim. Police and Faderal officers agreed to remain and of the

St. Louis Post-Dispatch St. Louis, Missouri. February 8, 1934.

ME NATHAN. MI TON ON VI Think

BREMER FREE; KIDNAPERS LET HIM GO ON 23D DAY

Wealthy St. Paul Banker Released at Rochester, Minn., Returns Home. Unharmed, but Weak and Exhausted.

NO WORD WHETHER RANSOM WAS PAID

Abductors Had Demanded $200,000 for Release and Father Was Willing to Meet Terms—Three Contacts Reported Made.

By the Associated Press. ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 8. - Unharmed, but weak and exhausted, Edward G. Bremer, wealthy St. Paul banker, was home again today after 23 days in the hands of kidnapers who held for $200,000 ransom.

He was released about 8 o'clock last night near Rochester, Minn., 85 miles south of here. He was turned loose by three men in a small sedan, friends of the family said, but the kidnaping gang num-bered six or seven.

Whether any of the ransom had been paid for the release of the $7year-old president and owner of the Commercial State was conjectural.

The family, happy in their reun-ion, were protected from question-ing by Department of Justice agents who guarded the home of Adolph Bremer, father of the victim. A physician was called to examine Bremer.

The banker, friends said, took a bus from Rochester to St. Paul, then went to his father's home in a taxicab.

Friends said his eyes had been taped during the 23 days of his imprisonment.
First News of Belease.

First announcement of his release was made by Werner Hanni, chief of the Department of Justice office.

It was not learned Bremer had suffered an injury at the time of the kidnaping. Shortly after he was seized, between $:20 a. m. and 8:30 a. m., Jan. 17, his automobile, with blood stains in it, was found the next day, abandoned in an outlying residential district. Howard McGonn and Mrs. Jennie Haight, employes in the bus depot at Rochester, were believed to have been the first persons to see the banker after his reclase. He entered th depot, tehy said, about $ p. m., yesterday, asking about bus connections with the Twin Cities. They told him he had missed the last bus that nighth, but that he could take a train to Owatonna, nearby, and catch a bus there.

Bremer was quoted as saying he could not do that.

McGonn and Min. Hairnt paid no particular attention to the unshaven stranger, who appeared dased. They did not suspect he was the long-sought St. Paul banker. They did not know, they said, whether he took the train to Owatonna.

Officers Question the Victim. As soon as Bremer returned home, Chief of Police Thomas Dehill, Inspector of Detectives Charles Tierney and Detective Tom Brown of the St. Paul Police Department went to the Adolph Bremer home. They with Federal investigators immediately began questioning the banker.

No one else was permitted to es ter the yard, guarded by police and Federal operatives.

M. F. Kinkead, Ramsey County, Attorney, went to the home shortly afterward. The door was shut in his face, but a few minutes later he was admitted.

Hanni, asked if Bremer was all right, replied, "Yes, he is."

At the home with Bremer and his father, were his uncle, Otto Bre-mer, chairman of the board of the American National Bank, and head of the Minnesota Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

Dr. J. M. Sprafka said, after an examination, that Bremer's physical condition was "good." He had suffered a beating on the head, presumably when he was seized.

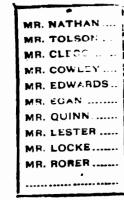

"The wounds are all healed now," said Dr. Sprafka. "Mr. Bremer is very, very nervous. I ordered him to bed for a good rest."

Dr. Sprafka said the banker's wife, and their 8-year-old daughter, Betty, were in the house with the Bremer, the physician said, was not sure whether his eyes were taped or whether he was blindfolde dduring his imprisonment, Neither did he know where he was

NOT RECORDED 7-576-A

and the Continue Continue of the Continue of t

U. S. Authorities Will Scan Farm As Bremer Clue Examination of House Near Creston, Iowa, as Kidnap Hideout Planned.

Hideout Planned.

Federal authorities prepared today to investigate a farm near Creston. Iowa, which an Iowa official said may have been the hideout where Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, was kept by kidnapers.

Authorities also resumed questioning of Mr. Bremer here to obtain; more complete details of his story of the abduction.

Park Findley, former Des Molnes sheriff and now head of the Iowa bureau of criminal investigation, disclosed, according to the Associated Press, he had given the federal officials the information that the farm near Creston was the hideout, but declined to make public the source of his information or the background of it.

The federal officials, headed by Harold Nathan, first assistant chief of the United States Department of Justice division of investigation, indicated they will not take Mr. Bremer to view the farm at least until more information regarding it is obtained.

The tight secrecy which has surrounded the Bremer case investigation from the beginning was continued today, Mr. Bremer was kidnaped in St. Paul January 17, and held 22 days before he was released. A ransom of $200,000 was paid.

7-576-A

St. Louis Post-Dispatch St. Louis, Missouri, February 8, 1934.

KIDNAPERS FREE BREMER ON PAYMENT OF $200,000 RANSOM; LELD 23 DAYS

IN ATTEMPI TO ESCAPE

"Fairly Well Treated" After First Struggle on His Seizure — U. S. Agents Have Serial Numbers of Money Paid Abductors.

PUT OUT OF AUTO AT ROCHESTER

First Contact With Gang Which Held St. Paul Man Came Three Days After He Was Taken Away, Doctor Discloses.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Feb. 8. - A ransom of $200,000 was paid to the kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer, wealthy banker, the victim's father, Adolph Bremer, declared in a statement issued today after Edward had returned to his home. He had been held for 23 days. He was thrown out of an automobile last night at 8 o'clock st Rochester. er, Minn., and returned home about midnight. . ,,.

Bremer said the ransom was paid in currency in denominations specified by the abductors. The money, he added, was paid to the kidnapers Tuesday night

Payment of the ransom, authorities said, was accompanied by a said.

His eyes were bandaged and though he had no recollection of

"To parties holding Edward: I've done my part and kept my word 100 per cent just as I said I would. This money is not marked and is the full amount asked for. Now, boys, I am counting on your honor. Be sports and do the square thing by turning Edward loose at once, and tell him to come to my house

Serial numbers of the bills have been listed by agents of the United States Department of Justice, and will be broadcast to the banks of the country.

Visibly elated over the conclusion of the ordeal experienced by him since his son was kidnaped after taking his daughter to school on Jan. 17, the elder Bremer, wealthy owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Co., said he greatly appreciated the personal interest of President Roosevelt and Gov. Olson in the safe return of his

"Fairly Well Treated."

Bremer's return marked the conclusion of the sixth major kidnaping in St. Paul. The payment of $200,000 constitutes the largest sum paid for the release of any of the country's kidnaping victims during the last few years. William Hamm Jr., wealthy St. Paul brewer, kidmaped last spring, paid $100,000 ran-

Bremer was described as in good condition and unharmed, but nervous and shaken. Federal agents said the banker had been "fairly well" treated during his three weeks of captivity.

It was reported that Bremer had been struck on the head by the abductors shortly before his release and was in a slightly dazed condi-tion when freed. A friend of the family disclosed that Bremer had been blindfolded during all of the time he was in the hands of his captors.

Bremer was beaten when he first attempted to resist his abductors. Victim Tells of Seizure.

When Bremer was stopped, one of the gang climbed into the front seat of his car with : pistol, the banker told police and Federal investigators.

Bremer attempted to open the cor on the left and flee but another of the gang blocked his way, suched him back into the seat and ooth kidnapers dugged bin arec how many men were in the car when he regained consciousness Bremer belived there must have been 10 or 12 men in the gang, judging from the number of voices he heard in the place where he was held captive.

During his imprisonment, "fire" mer said, he was kept in a dark room with guards, working in relays of two, always seated behind him night and day. He was con-stantly warned not to look around. "One look and we'll blow your brains out," Bremer said he was

When he was finally subdued. Bremer was pulled out of his own car by the kidnapers and placed in another one held in readiness. The ensuing ride lasted for 15 hours, and at length the kidnapers stopped in front of a house, believed somewhere near Rochester. There Bremer was held until last night.

Except for the first attack on him, it was learned, Bremer was well treated during the entire time he was held prisoner. He was given good food and plenty of and furnished a comfortable place to sleep.

Able to Detail Experience. When the money had been paid, Bremer was placed in an automobile, still blindfolded, and driven for several hours. He was turned loose at Rochester, 25 miles from St. Paul.

He boarded a bus and came into St. Paul, and went at once to the home of his father.

Three men in a small members of the gang of six or seven which held the president and owner of the Commercial State Bank prisoner, freed him about 8

m. Walter Mages, wealthy contractor friend of the family, was the intermediary who delivered the ransom, it was reported. Full details of the delivery were not disclosed, though it was learned Magee had taken from the pocket of a small coupe a note from the kidnapers, standing with his back to the curb while reading the communication.

After replacing the note in the pocket of the ear, Mages then put two "bundles of money" on the seat. It was presumed the ransom was wrapped in two large cardboard suit boxes tied with heavy cord in secordance with the gang's earlier instructions.

CORDE

Tells of First Contact.

Dr. H. T. Nippert, friend of the Bremers, said the first contact with the family by the gang after the original ransom note was made through him. He received three notes, on Jan. 20, three days after the seizure.

A large envelope, containing three notes, was slipped under the door of his home and a milk bottle hurled through the door glass to attract attention. Nippert at the time admitted the bottle incident, but declared "it would be beneath my honor and dignity as a physician" to deny the notes if any had been received. ..

The three notes were address to Walter Magee, Adolph Bremer and Dr. Nippert.

A telephone call from an uniden tified man that morning instructed the physician to "go down and look at your front door and don't be afraid." Nippert then found the envelope. It was penned in ink in Bremer's handwriting, the physician said.

Wounds about the head, which he had suffered when taken away by the gang, were healed, Dr. Joseph Sprafka said, though the vicseph Sprafka said, though the vic-tim was weak, exhausted, and "very, very nervous."

The family, happy in their reun-ion, were protected from question-ing by Department of Justice agents who guarded the home of Adolph Bremer.

First News of Belease.

First announcement of his re-lease was made by Werner Hanni, chief of the Department of Justice office.

Howard McGonn and Mrs. Jennie Haight, employes in the bus depot at Rochester, were believed to have been the first persons to see the banker after his release. He en-tered the depot, they said, about 8 been the first persons to see the banker after his release. He entered the depot, they said, about 8 p. m., yesterday, asking about bus Magee's doorstep.

connections with the Twin Cities. They told him he had missed the last bus that night, but that he could take a train to Owatonna, nearby, and catch a bus there.

Bremer was quoted as saying he could not do that.

McGonn and Mrs. Haight paid no particular attention to the unshaven stranger, who appeared dased. They did not suspect he was the long-sought St. Paul banker. They did not know, they said, whether he took the train to Owatonna.

Officers Question the Victim.

As soon as Bremer returned home, Chief of Police Thomas Dahill, Inspector of Detectives Charles Tierney and Detective Tom Brown of the St. Paul Police Department went to the Adolph Bremer home They with Federal investigators immediately began questioning the banker.

No one else was permitted to n-ter the yard, guarded by police and Federal operatives.

M. F. Kinkead, Ramsey County Attorney, went to the home shortly Attorney, went to the nome source, afterward. The door was shut in his face, but a New minutes later he was admitted.

Charence Newcomb and ounges were at great risk have done their part.

"It is my earnest prayer that other fathers and mothers will be other fathers and mothers will be his father, were his uncle, Otto Bre mer, chairman of the board of the American National Bank, and head of the Minnesota Home Owners' Loan Corporation.

Story of the Kidnaping.

Bremer was kidnaped shortly after he had taken his daughter to school. His automobile with blood stains in it was found a short distance away. Shortly afterward one of the kidnapers called Magee of the kidnapers called mages said: "Well, we've got your friend." Bremer, and if you are not caraful, we'll get you too." The man said Bremer would be killed if Mages

The father had constantly refused to deal with police or Federal agents, saying he felt that to do so would endanger his son's life. Three days ago he gave public motics to the kidnapers that he would give them three days in which to som-municate with him. "by any, source suitable to the abductors," and he hinted that if they did not be would call in the police.

Statement by Violim's Father.

Adolph Bramer issued a statement of thanks today, saying:

"I greatly appreciate the personal interest of the President and the Governor and the splendid co-operation given by the press and the radio.

"The city, State and Federal lawenforcing authorities have been most kind in their efforts and ofmost kind in their enteres and orfars of assistance. Above all, I will never forget their humane willingness to stand by when my pleas convinced them that Edward's life was in serious jeopardy.
"No sacrifice has been too great for my brother Otto, Walter Magee, Charence Newcomb and others who at great view have done their part.

spared the agony of a similar or-

Gov. Olson called a State-wide conference of law enforcement officials for tomorrow.

"All law enforcing agencies and all law abiding citizens must join together to crush the menaca of kidnaping," said the Governor. "Unless that is done it will grow to such an extent that no one will be safe and we will live under a condition worse than under the rale of a tyrant."

· ~ RECORDED

7-576-A

KERLKD

MAGEE DELIVERS RANSOM MONEY; KIDNAPED BANKER RELEASED AT ROCHESTER

With Edward G. Bremer, kidnaped St. Paul banker, safe at home today. The Daily News learned that the full $200,000 ransom had been paid and that delivery of the money was made by Walter W. Magee, St. Paul contractor,

The News discovered that Mr. Magee, who received the first contact note and telephone call, delivered the money according to instructions of the snatchers, who told him to drive to a point on a certain highway, where he would find an abandoned Chevrolet coupe. He was instructed to get into the car and deliver the money. Further details of the delivery were not obtained.

Bruised about the head and in a highly nervous state, Mr. Bremer was at the home of his father, Adolf Bremer, wealthy St. Paul brewer,

NO Seized Jan. 17 at 8:15 a.m. near Lexington parket y and Goodrich ave., the president of the Commercial State bank was freed on a dark street in the residential district of Rochester late Wednesday night, exactly three weeks after e was snatched.

In a dazed condition as a result his experiences and his injuries THREE PERSONS INJURED nd train to the home of his father, 55 W. 7th st.

There he slept today with government agents posted at every entry seriously in motor accidents in St. the home.

IN AUTO ACCIDENTS HERE

In another room was his gray
Michael Thielen, 62, 322 Pisk st.,

aired father, exclaiming, "I am so was seriously hurt, suffering a probappy to tell you that my boy is back able skull fracture and other injulast after this terrible experience." In the same room sat his wife ries about 9 p. m. when he was hit

In the same room sat his wife and his 8-year-old daughter, Betty, by a car at Western and University whom he had just taken to the summit school. 1150 Goodrich ave, hen he was kidnaped.

That the full amount of the ransom was paid was indicated in two developments today. One, that the John Lynch, 57, 719 Cromwell ave., money, in two large oversize suit injured when hit by a car at W. 7th (Continued On Page 2, Col. 1.) st. and Goodrich ave.

Nurse's Garb Reporter Into Br

ALVIN CARPIN ...

FRED BARKER.

Kidnap Suspects Daily News Writer One To Pass Gua Police, Feds; Hit-In Family.

> BY ROSE MEKER I was just ready to a coffee this morning and de office when the telep

"This is Fred Strong (atty Edward Bremer has return your job to see his ter. I don't know them or how. Dal bang went the rec I followed by f

Edward Bremer was rehably home of his father Leab. The st. 1988 fform, I tuesse control all the newspaper the Twin Cities were milling front of the house.

I walked up to the front d
"Wish you luck," called porter from an opposition p Louise Bremer, sister of ti naped man, came to the door
She admitted Mrs. Edward er was there, but she would me in. Through the win-could see Betty Bremer, the daughter Edward Bremer had to school just before he wa naped. She was playing I with books and a doll amon: potted ferns in the sun parl I could see it was no use v about hoping the Bremers wo me in fer just a minute or thad to get my story.

So I decided to disguise my a nurse.

I was able to borrow a u but not a nurses' cap or cape. to wear my cost, which is a but gaudy green-a coat that recognized again by the F (Continued on Page 2, Col

PERSONALITIES IN THE BREM

After 22 anxious days EDWARD G. BREMER, young St. Paul banker, was released by his kidnapers near Rock-cerrific strain under which his pretty, young wife, MRS. EDWARD G. BREMER, has been ever since he left have

BremerHome vs Writer Only Pass Guard Of Feds; Hits Snag

LOBE MCKEE

ready to swallow my rating and dash to the he telephone rang. ad Strong (city editor). er has returned. It is se his wife and daughknew where you'll find Patch a cab." And moeiver.

by first hunch—that er was probably at the futher, Adolph, 855 W. s. my cab drew up in sast, I guessed I was the newspaper men in he were milling about he kouse.

p to the dront door.

inck," called a rean opposition paper.
mer, sister of the kidmer the door. ame to the door.
ed Mrs. Edward Brem-, but she wouldn't let trough the window I try Bremer, the little ard Bremer had taken it before he was kidwas playing happily ad a doll among some in the sun parlor. it was no use waiting the Bremers would let a minute or two. I to disguise myself as to borrow a uniform s' cap or cape. I had cost, which is a dirty a coat that would again by the Bremer on Page 2, Col. 3.)

Pass Kinkead?

Where the kidnapers are believed to have passed County Attorney M. F. Kinkead and his family in southern Minnesota as they sped to get their victim in hiding, is shown by the cross on this map. The point is on highway No. 218, near Austin, and southwest of Rochester.

rb Gets Girl KIDNAP HIDEOUT IS BELIEVED IN IOWA; KINKEAD SAW CAR NEAR AUSTIN, RACING SOUTH

(Copyright, 1934, St. Paul Daily News.)

With Edward G. Bremer safe at Home and Indications pointing to probability that he was held captive in Towapolice and federal agents joined-forces today, nearly 200 strong, for one of the most intensive manhunts in the nation's history.

Particularly sought were Fred Barker and Alvin Karpis, former convicts and Missouri outlaws, hunted since April, 1932, as the murderers of George E. Anderson, alias George Cooper, 1031 Robert st., West St. Paul.

It was learned by The Daily News that descriptions of these two men have been forwarded to all offices of the federal investigation bureau.

Spurred by the second major kidnaping in six months in what has been called "America's kidnap capital," and by their defeat in trying to convict the Touhians in the William Hamm, Jr., abduction, federal agents launched an intensive search, particularly for "three men in a small coupe," who dropped and their drivers and helpers were forces into the manhunt. meeting today to try to iron out the meeting today to try to iron out the That Mr. Bremer probably was strike which has halted nearly all held captive in Iowa was seen in coal deliveries.

St. Paul Coal Wagon, Truck Drivers Will Meet Tonight.

coal wagon and truck drivers, and today. their helpers, at the Lebor temple tonight, to vote whether St. Paul workers in this industry will go on

To Vote On Strike Wednesday night.

While police, equipped with machine guns and 17 of the newest type of automatic rifles, ordered. Tuesday, joined forces, Gov. Olson today launched a state war on kid-With hundreds of Minneapolitans napers, called a meeting of all peace short of fuel, Mill City coal dealers officers for 10 a. m. Saturday at his office, offered to throw all state his statement that he rode for "10 or In the meantime, plans went ahead in St. Paul for a meeting of ments discovered by The Daily News

Car Seen Near Austin.

First was the statement of County Attorney Michael F. Kinkead that he, his wife and son, while en route to Florida Jan. 17, day of the Bremer abduction, saw a small, five-passenger car, speeding southward, near Austin.

There were at least five men in the car, he said he believed. As it passed them, two of three men in the rear seat turned toward the Kinkead machine, stared at it in passing. The man in the middle, believed to have been Mr. Bremer, did not turn.

The windows were steamed up.
Mr. Kinkead said. At the time, he asserted, the thought of the Bremer kidnaping flashed into Mrs Kinkead's mind, although news of it had not yet been publicly released. To Mr. Kinkead she said, "It looks as if those fellows had some thing on their mind. Maybe they know you." He said that he and know you." He said that he and his wife then talked of recent kidnapings in St. Paul.

"Prebably" Sieux Dity.

Second development was the statement of George F. Sullivan United States district attorney for Minnesota, who presecuted the Touhy aging in the Hamm case, ?
He said that he believed Mr. Bremer was held captive either in

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

KIDN APING

t expressing his heart-felt gratitude to all those who co-operated . . . First news wine the friend of the Bremer family, who received the ransom note . . . Further contact with the kidners was established through the first and exclusively by NIPPERT, family physician, when a milk bottle was through his glass front doo a development which was published first and exclusively by and confirmed today by Dr. Nippert . . . Recovery of Mr. Bremer and hot pursuit the kidnapers was brought about and continued largely the direction of WERNER HANNI, chief investigator of the St. Paul district, feder

oday (Continued From Page One.)

British telegraph system, government-owned, and will send a telelast in England.

Government ownership of tele-some member of the family. graphs and telephones will come After waiting a few minutes, he ing, police have been informed. ment property, eventually.

But not soon, the government has had arrived some time previously all it can attend to trying to be C. E. Newcome, manager of the honest and efficient and manage Jacob Schmidt Brewing Co., and one all the business of the country.

"as much as the oldest, most conil-servative banker in America hates men, declared the return of Mr.
it, has recognized the Russian gov-Bremer was "all news to me." ernment.

Stocks went up in Budapest when the Russian-Hungarian agreement was signed.

George Bernard Shaw "sees Britain drifting to war," says the headline. He said over the radio that talk about disarmament is "hummediate family mediate family bug." and that Britain is heading for war as "likely as not."

The British will find comfort in the fact that Shaw is old, and usu-

ONTINUEL From Page 1

BREMER RETURNS HOME: $200,000 CASH PAID

denominations: $84,000 in $5 bills, circled St. Paul shortly after mid-$116,000 in $10 bills. It was revealed night Tuesday Chest. that the ransom was paid Tuesday

The second development was the disclosure of a note dispatched with the money by Adolf Bremer. It read: expressed that it may have been To parties holding Edward—I've used in completing the kidnap condone my part and kept my word tact.

100 per cent just as I said I would.

Second was a checkup of the li-This money is not marked and is cense number of a car believed to the full amount asked for. And now, have been used by kidnapers. The boys, I am counting on your honor; number was turned in by a resident found out a few things. Be soprts and do the square thing living near the kidnap scene who by turning Edward loose at once, was at breakfast the morning of the and tell him to come to my home abduction and noticed two cars, both first -Acolf Bremer."

one of the largest on record and One car drove away within a few Mrs. Bremer was ill. exactly twice that paid for the re- minutes, the other remaining. lease of William Hamm, Jr., wealthy Curious, the police informant St. Paul brewer and businessman, drove by there on the way down-The $200,000 equaled that reported town, and suspicious of the car, took ing me—said, "Mrs. Bremer is aleeppaid for release of Charles Urschel, the license number of the machine ing. She's well. In fact this is the entrance to the Bremer home, the been kidnaped. story of the release was told them by federal men. They said Mr. Bremer was "in good condition, unharmed, but very nervous and sha-

However, a friend of the family who left the home early this morning, said that Mr. Bremer had "several bruises and large welts on his head.'

Had Long Ride.

Mr. Bremer was released on dark street in the residential section of Rochester after a ride he esti-mated 1.5 from 10 to 12 hours, according to his story as retold to newsmen by Forten Berry, depart-ment of justice agen., as the kidnap victim and members of the Bremer family refused to see any visitors.

From there, he said, Mr. Bremer went to downtown Rochester, boarding a train for a nearby town, where he caught a bus which brought him into St. Paul a little after midnight. Mr. Berry said he could not recall the name of the nearby town. Reaching St. Paul, on the bus, he said, Mr. Bremer left it as near as possible to his father's home, and End Commercial club, a block from the home, then calmly walked to the home of his father.

At the house waiting on a rear side porch were Mr. Berry, and Mr. Bremer's sister, Louise, waiting in hopes of word from the victim.

Mr Bremer was taken to Roches ter in a "small car" it was stated, in which there were three men.

Mr. Berry said that Mr. Bremer had been "fairly well treated" all through his captivity, but he could shortly after 8 a.m., and was re- have been working on that clus 🞉 fused admittance at first.

I by reporters following the rele Bremer, wealthy brewer and uncle of the k-ewery manager, are shown denying a reporter night, C Schmidt the right, the reporter at the left,

ment-owned, and will send a telement-owned, and will send a telegraph message anywhere in Great Britain for 12 cents. That was the price at least when this writer was sisted in refusing him admittance, tan top, which drove slowly on Lin-until he insisted that word of his coln ave., to Lexington ave., then eventually here, of course, for nat- was admitted, on the O. K., it was ural monopolies will be all govern-said, of Inspector Charles Tierney the head of the kidnap squad, who of those who was active in trying to secure contact with the kidnapers, Hungary, which hates communism arrived at the home at 8:20 a. m. and Newsmen Barred.

When word of Bremer's return mediate family.

From Page 1

200 POLICE, U. S. AGENTS

Among new developments being had it not been for Mr. Hanni.

think I was there 15 m though, of course, time checked by police and federal agents

"Just a minute. Where do you her to me checked by police and federal agents today as they ctarted their hunt was come from?" he asked. boxes, was prepared in the following today as they started their numt was night Tuesday. Checkup of airplane companies revealed that no plane ly in his eye. (I have been told that had arrived or was departing in St. you can't lie and look people in the Paul at that time, and belief was eye, but that's not so.)

[expressed that it may have been "Call the nurses' exchange and see man and talked too. The paul at the photographen took is even posed for a new of man and talked too. The call the nurses' exchange and see man and talked too. The photographen took is even posed for a new of man and talked too. The photographen took is even posed for a new of man and talked too. The call the nurses' exchange and see man and talked too. The photographen took is even posed for a new of man and talked too. The call the nurses' exchange and see man and talked too. The call the nurses' exchange and see man and talked too. The call the nurses' exchange and see man and talked too. The call the nurses' exchange and see man and talked too. The call the nurses' exchange and see man and talked too. The call the nurses' exchange and see man and talked too. The call the nurses' exchange and see man and talked too.

large machines, and each occupied The Bremer ransom payment was by one man, parked near the corner.

Because news men were denied where Bremer is believed to have the kidnaping."

cense number over to police, who it could well be called a mansion several days.

arrival be sent into the house to turned out Lexington ave. This car being in with the ki has not been seen since the kidnap-thorough was he. "He'd ming, police have been informed. reporter," I thought. (is to their door three times now.

ONTINUE From Page 1

GIRL REPORTER RUNS

GUARD AT BREMER HOME SEIG.

It was worth a chance though, I thought.

I got a cab to draw up to the side came today, newsmen flocked to entrance of the Edward Bremer ed in rather threatening Bremer's mansion, but their en-trance was barred. No one but po-lice officials was allowed to commu-

Lets "Nurse" In.

"I'm the nurse," I said to Werner he had his position to m. Hanni, in charge of the federal bureau of investigation who would be the person to come to the door. "The nurse?" he questioned.

"Yes, I came as soon as I could." He let me in.

Inside an elderly woman whom I IN KIDNAP MANHUNT can't place but whom I have seen, I can't place but whom I have seen but whom I h

"The St. Paul Nurses' exchange," I answered, hoping that my tone was matter of fact. I looked direct-

"Call the nurses' exchange and see if they sent anyone," he told the first time in my life woman.

She called them and, of course they had not sent anyone. But I hoped I could stall them until I

Mr. Hanni started to question me. kidding My name? Margaret Anderson. Where did I take my training? I think I said Rochester.

Then I said, "But they told me

Mrs. Bremer's First Sleep

The woman-I hope she'll tell me who she is some day for it's bothermillionaire Oklahoma City oil man, still parked there, within a block of first time she's had any sleep since

The house was deathly quiet. It Morgenthau today. Later, when the kidnaping was reported, the informant turned the lipones in the place which is so large ported, the informant turned the lipones in the place which is so large per practicing before the could well be called a mansion would be given temporal to the could be given the ported to the could be given the port to the could be given the co in an o

Mr. Hanni started again. I thought he su He indicated he would and I was ready to be at fact I sort of hoped ? might find something out But the woman interpe

"She's not a murse." paper woman. I know "But Mrs. Bremer family I was afraid for I had been to say, hoping I would fu name.

"I'm not Mrs. Bremer but not angrily.

They both looked at me "What paper are you fr

So I told him. I think wanted to smile: But 1 really couldn't indulge in a

"You know this is a s fense . . impersonatin to get inside a house?" he

I appealed to them for . . would they please Mrs. Bremer?

. . . you're the only

I tried to stay longer

When I got outside the 'news.'

When the cameraman with me, the other repor ed around . . . trying story. I was in for a go · I'm going to stick to pl ing. . . I don't think I ing. . of a nurse.

TREASURY WOULD

STANDARD OF L WASHINGTON, Peb. "raise the standard practicing before the t partment were revealed h running from year to y this way the number w stricted

GUARDING BREMER HOME

commentator. His ideas do not necessarily coincide with the editorial ideas of The Daily News.)

Mere French Trouble Europe Knows Our

For Free American Wins

ACCOUNTS BELSEANS

Premes again changed her government. Gaston Doumergue, formation Premes president, 71 years old, indicateless the task of managing before under difficulties. France owes much to old men, and, for

Paul rejoices in his safe return.

BUT A CLOUD BLACKER THAN EVER HOVERS OVER THE CITY.

The fiends who seized Mr. Bremer apparently have collected an immense sum of money. Success has crowned their effor. They are at large probably hundreds of miles and time. But they may be right in our midst.

WHE COME BACK FOR MORE?
WHE CHERS, ENCOURAGED BY THEIR SUC KE THE NEXT BLOW?

Bohn abductions, have been feeble. Even nsideration to the fact that they have been by restrictions quite naturally imposed by the victim's family, no intelligent eadership nown.

kidnaping problem is largely a matter of prevention. The task is a difficult one but it can be accomplished. MILWAUKEE, FOR EXAMPLE, HAS HAD BUIL ONE ABDUCTION IN 10 YEARS. A TRAP WAS LAID FOR THE EXTORTIONIST. HE WAS SHOT DEAD AS HE TRIED TO PICK UP A BAG OF MONEY DROP-PED FROM A CAR. MILWAUKEE HAS HAD NO KIDNAP THREAT SINCE THAT DAY.

Suspicious characters are not permitted to hang around in Milwaukee. Men without visible means of support are sent to jail, then chased out of town. Criminals carrying concealed weapons get heavy sentences. In St. Paul they are freed on nominal bail and given a chance to disappear.

MILWAUKEE, IN SHORT, HAS NO POLITICAL-LY DOMINATED POLICE DEPARTMENT. IT IS ABLE TO PREVENT CRIME.

St. Paul has had three major kidnapings under the present police administration. Whatever success has been made in solving any of them has been largely due to the efforts of federal operatives.

individual cities. What efforts if the crime has been committed.

THE JOB OF PREVENTIN ST. PAUL IS DISTINCTLY UP POLICE DEPARTMENT. It has the past few years.

. It will continue to fail as lor rendered impotent by reason of pe

St. Paul's charter can be a blight of politics. Pending this, reorganized sufficiently to give at tection to citizens.

UNTIL THIS IS ACCOMP AND DAUGHTER OF A ST. PA FICIENTLY WEALTHY TO I COUNT IS A POTENTIAL KID

EDITOR, TH

THE ST. PAUL DAILY NEV

Complete Wire Reports Of United Press, The Greatest World-Wide News Service

VOL. 34, NO. 344

HOME EDITION

ST. PAUL, MINN., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1934

WEATHER: Mostly cloudy tenight pricing temper

BREMER BACK; $200,000

ICE START MANH

Nurse's Garb Gets Girl KIDNAP HIDEOUT

Kidnap Suspects

ALVIN KARPIS.

Edward G. Bremer.

THREE FIGURES IN THE BREMER KIDNAPING

Money Delivered in Five and Ten Dollar Bills Tuesday-Victim Released in Rochester, Minn.

3 PUSHED HIM OUT OF SEDAN

Trail of Gang Leads Across State Line-Elder Bremer, Happy to Have Son Back, Aids Federal Agents.

> By WILLIAM E. HALLBERG. Copyright, 1934, by United Press.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 8.—Freed after payment of $200,000 to his kidnapers, Edward G. Bremer, 36-year-old bank president, today nurred three law enforcement agencies in a manhunt for the abductors.

The tral of the gang that held the son of Adolf Bremer, millionaireorewer, for more than twenty-one days led southward thragh Rochester, where he was freed, to Sioux City. Ia., giving the federal government jurisdiction under the Linberg law.

"x or seven" men were sought as the kidnapers, includin the three who pushed Bremer from a small sedan in the residential district of Rochester, ninety-five miles sout of St. Paul, at 8:30 P. M., Wednesday.

Their bargain with the kidnapers having been complied wa by payment of the money and preservation of secrecy will the victim's return, both Adolf Bremer and his son

The money was paid Tuesday night by Walter Magee, rominent contractor and friend of the memors, through an ingenious plan in which he had to handle his own automobile and drive the memors, through an mobile and drive the straight of the rendervous with the kidnapers.

With bruises still visible about his hind, but apparently the straight of the heating by when

BREMER FREED; KIDNAPERS GET

on Tuesday

NEMA OBBELEVSE HELD AT

Intensive Search for Three Men in Small Sedan Started Immediately,

(Continued from Page One)

full ransom was paid Tuesday night with $84,000 in five-dollar bills and the balance in ten-dollar bills. The silver-haired father said today:—

"I am so happy to tell you that my boy is back at last after this terrible experience. The hideous hours of suspense have been almost unbearable for all of us."

It was not until nearly twelve hours after the release of Bremer that news of it was given out by the family and the Department of Takes Daughter in Arms The attractive wife of the banker hattened to his side. There was a joyful reunion as she' hugged her husband. Bremer swept his daughter, Betty, 9, into his arms.

Meanwhile, scattered details of the kidnaping became known.

Dr. H. T. Nippert, Bremer family physician, confirmed United Press dispatches, which had related that he acted for a time as the "contact" man in the case.

Dr. Nippert, who previously had denied the reports, said he was made the intermediary for delivery cate with him. He woods of a message, contained in a bottle that was hurled through the front door glass of his home Saturday by many or morning; January 20, and also admired that he received a telephone Wednesday

HEAP OF DOUG

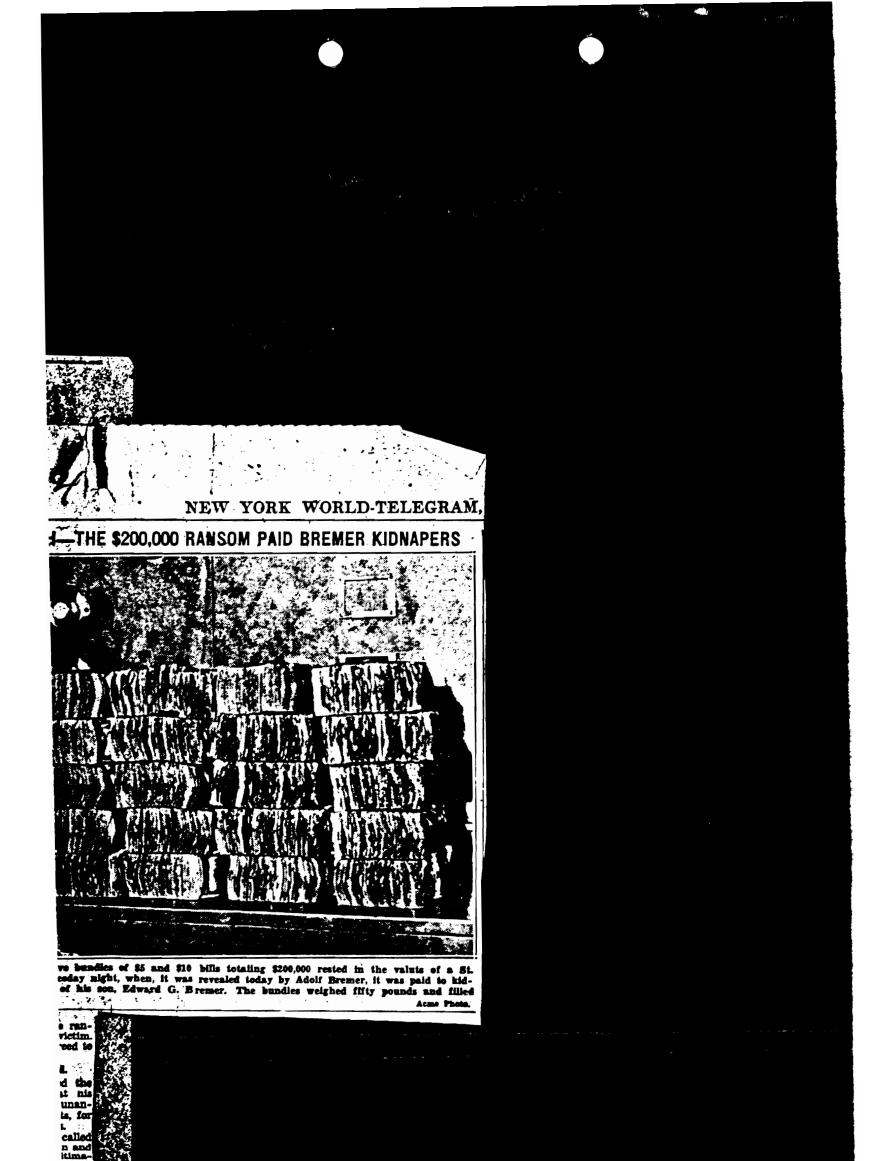

This pile of twent Paul, Minn., bank until napers for the pale re directions for payment com and about release of Police and federal effice Promised Every Safe

The elder Bremer pr kidnapers every safegu command. His pleas v swered, according to all at least two and a half Saturday night the f a conference of newspar issued what was called the statement to the real three part three ingenious plan in which he had to the designated spot mobile and drive a strongs, machine to the designated spot for the rendezvous with the kidnapers.

With bruises still visible about his healing but apparently recovered from the effects of the beating healing when he tried to escape immediately after his about on, young Bremer made his way by bus and train from Hachester and reached his father's home early today.

Bremer's Story of the Kidnaping

By the Associated Press.

ST. PAUL, Peb. 8.—Edward G. Bremer, kidnap victim released yesterday, told police and federal in- end their questioning of him. The vestigators today some details of guards said no one was to be alhis abduction.

When Bremer was stopped after leaving his eight-year-old daughter, Betty, at school, January 17, one of the gang climbed into the front Bremer, the United Press learned seat of his car with a gun in his hand, the banker told police and federal investigators.

The banker attempted to open the door on the left and flee, but another of the gang blocked his way, pushed him back into the seat and both kidnapers alugged him over the head about the same time, he said.

Eyes Bandaged.

The next he remembered was being taken some place is the would find an abandoned coupe. He gang's car. He did not recall being drove this machine in paying the transferred from his own automo- ransom. bile, later found abandoned with blood spattered inside, to the kidnapers' machine.

His eyes were bandaged, and though he had no recollection of when he regained consciousness been stolen. Bremer believed there must have

During his imprisonment, Break puring his imprisonment, award and, he was kept in a dark room, with guards, working in relays of two, always seated behind him night two, always seated behind him night and day. He was constantly warned Posted at every entry of his home.

"One look and we'll blow your - get in. brains out!" Bremer said he was Pederal agents took charge of the case, throwing guards around the Bremer home to hold off all visitors, and in the meantime questioning the young banker. One of the agents was J. Frank Blake, credited with brilliant detective work in solving the Urschel kidnaping.

Later today Bremer was on the verge of a nervous breakdown and federal agents were compelled to lowed to see him "because of his serious condition.

Used Abandoned Coups.

Along with the clues given by that St. Paul police had obtained the license number of one of the two automobiles believed to have been used by the kidnapers.

Other clues were sought from the automobile which Magee used in carrying out the kidnapers' instructions. It was learned that Magoe drove his own automobile Tuesday night to a spot on a certain highway, where he had been told he

After the money had been turned over, in a manner as yet undis-closed, Magee returned in the same machine and placed it in the garage at the Bremer home. Federal agents how many men were in the car expressed the belief the car had

Their bargain with the kidnapers been ten or twelve men in the sang, having been compiled with by payjudging from the number of voices, ment of the ment of the judging from the number of votes. Here to the money and present the heard in the place where he was tion of secrecy until the victim's return, both Adolf Bremer and his son threw their support behind the effort to capture the gang.

Even city police found it had to

The Bremer ransom payment was one of the largest on record, equalling the reported payment of $200,000 for release of Charles Urschel, Okiahoma oil millionaire. In no other recent kidnaping case has such a large sum been de-manded and collected.

Adolf Bremer revealed that the (Continued on Page Fouriers)

made the me of a message, contained in a bottle the statement w that was hurled through the front door glass of his home Saturday morning, January 20, and also admitted that he received a telephone call from the abductors, calling his attention to the notes.

Taken from Car.

Bremer was kidnaped shortly before 8:30 A. M. Wednesday, January 17, while en route to his office after taking his small daughter to school. A milk wagon driver, who was unaware of what was occurring witnessed the abduction.

ED

The kidnapers' automobile forced Bremer's car to the curb at a street intersection. One of the abductors got into the victim's automobile and both cars were driven away. Bremer's automobile, blood stained, was found in a suburb.

Shortly before noon the same day, Walter Magee, contractor and close friend of Bremer, received a telephone call.

Note in Office.

"We've got your pal, Ed Bremer," he was told. "Don't get excited. Go to the back door of your office. You'll find further instructions there. Ed's automobile_is out at the Dale St. Reservoir."

Magee found the note, which had been pushed under the door. . It was typew..tten. The note instructed him to raise $200,000 and wait. He was not to notify police.

Magee communicated with Bremer's family Police were retified, but requested not to enter actively into the case. At the request of the family news of the kidnaping was not made public until the next after-

The elder Bremer took charge of negotiations for his son's return. Indicating the family's willingness to comply with the kidnapers' demands, a notice was inserted in the personal column of a Minneapolis paper, reading, "We are ready. Alice."

It was not until four days later that a second communication was received from the kidnapers. This was in the bottle containing two notes thrown through the glass door in the house of Dr. Nippert. ... The notes again warned against police intervention and gave specific

The next three days were marked to see by many conferences among federal, State and city authorities. The Wednesday dead line arrived and Bremer announced that no further communication had been received. However, he seemed so optimistic that authorities granted him thirty more hours.

Eyes Taped 22 Days, Banker Is Unharmed; ak and Exhausted

Doma Called After Release Near Rehester, Minn.—Head Wounds Healed-6 or 7 in Gang

AUL, Feb. 8 (AP).—Ransomed with an unannounced amount of money, Edward G. Bremer, seized by kidnapers for $200,000 January 17, was at home today after a twenty-two day imprisonment in an unlocated hideout.

Wounds the head, which he had suffered when spirited away by the gang, were healed, Dr. Joseph Sprafka said, though the actim was weak, exhausted and "very, very nervous.'

Dr. Sprafka was summoned soon after the son of Adolph Bremer, wealthy brewer, had returned home after being thrown out on a highway near or at Rochester, Minn. eighty-five miles south of here, last night. Dr. Sprafka said a ransom had been paid, but he did not know how much.

BREMER'S OWN STORY

ST. PAUL, Feb. 8 (P).-Edward police and Federal investigators honor. come details of his abduction.

When Bremer was stopped after leaving his eight-year-old daughter, Betty, at school January 17, one of the gang climbed into the front seat of his car with a gun in his hand, the banker told police and Federal investigators.

The banker attempted to open the door on the left and flee, but another of the gang blocked his way, pushed him back into the seat and both kidnapers slugged him over the head about the same time,

Taken Away in Gang's Car

The next he remembered was being taken some place in the gang's car. He did not recall being transferred from his own automobile, ilater found abandoned with blood spattered inside, to the kidnapers' machine.

His eyes were bandaged and though he had no recollection of how many men were in the car when he regained consciousness, Bremer believed there must have een ten or twelve men in the gang, judging from the number of voices he heard in the place where he was held captive

During his imprisonment, Bremer said, he was kept in a dark room with guards, working in relays of two, always seated behind him night and day. He was constantly warned not to look around.

"One look and we'll blow your brains out," Bremer said he

The Minneapolis Journal, however, said the full amount was paid and that with the money Adolph Bremer sent the following note: "To the parties holding Edward:

"I have done my part and kept my word 100 per cent as I said I would. This money is not marked and you have the full amount asked for. G. Bremer, kidnap victim, today told Now, boys, I am counting on your "Release Edward and tell him to come to my house first.

"(Signed) ADOLPH BREMER."

All in Small Bills

The Journal said the ransom consisted of $85,000 in $5 bills and the remainder in $10 bills.

Three men in a small sedan, members of the gang of six or seven which held the president and owner of the Commercial State Bank pr oner, freed him about 8 o'clock last night.

Bremer was unshaven. He had been either blindfolded or his eyes taped during the imprisonment, friends of the family said.

A possible clue to the gang was given by Douglas Street, thirty-three chauffeur for Dr. W. Walters, Mayo Clinic physician at Rochester. Street said he saw two well-dressed men in an automobile bearing a New York license at Lewiston, Minn., about 3 A. M. today. Lewiston is thirty-seven miles east of Ro-

Magee Delivered Ranso

Walter Magee, wealthy contractor friend of the family, was the intermediary who delivered the ransom. Full details of the delivery were not disclosed, though it was learned Magee had taken from the pocket of a small coupe, a note from the kidnapers, standing with his back to the curb while reading the communication.

After replacing the note in the pocket of the car, Magee then set two "bundles of money" on the seat. It was presumed the ransom was suit boxes tied with heavy cord in accordance with the gang's earlier instructions.

It was not disclosed when er where the payment was made nor what the instructions were. In view of the family's earlier statements that they were ready and eager to pay the full ransom, the view was taken in some quarters that the entire $200,000 was turned over to the captors. 77

Taxi Driver Recalls Him

ship to get a bus appears the St. Paul that night. S.: Dr. H. T. Nippert, friend Bremers, said the first coats Bremers, said the first consists with the family by the gang after the original ransom note was made through him. He received three notes, on January 20, three days after the seizure.

In Bremer's Handwriting

A large envelope, containing three notes, was slipped under the door of his home and a milk bottle hurled through the door glass to attract attention. Nippert at the time admitted the bottle incident but declared "it would be beneath my honor and dignity as a physician" to deny the notes if any had been received.

The three notes were addressed to Walter Magee, Adoph Bremer, and Dr. Nippert.

A telephone call from an unidentified man that morning instructed the physician to "go down and look at your front door and don't be afraid." Nippert then found the envelope. It was penned in ink in Bremer's handwriting, the physician

The banker, friends said, took a bus from Rochester to St. Paul, then went to his father's home in a

First announcement of his release was made by Werner Hanni, chief of the Department of Justice office. Howard McGonn and Mrs. Jennie Haight, employees in the bus depot at Rochester, were believed to have been the first persons to see the banker after his release.

Asked About Connections He entered the depot, they said, about 8 P. M., yesterday, asking about bus connections with the Twin Cities. They told him he had missed the last bus that night to th Twin Cities, but that he could take a train to Owatonna, nearby, and catch a bus there.

Bremer was quoted as saying he couldn't do that. McGonn and Mrs. Haight paid no particular attention to the unshaven stranger, who appeared dazed, they said, and did not know he was the long sought St. Paul banker.

They did not know, they said, whether Bremer took a train to Owatonna and caught a bus there

Questioned by Police

As soon as Bremer returned home, Chief of Police Thomas Dahill, Inspector of Detectives Charles Tierney and Detective Tom Brown of the St. Paul Police Department

rushed to the Adolph Bremer home. They, with Federal investigators, immediately began questioning the banker. No one else was permitted to enter the yard, guarded by police and Federal operatives.

M. F. Kinkead, Ramsey County Attorney, came to the home shortly afterward. The door first was shut in his face. A few minutes elapsed before he was admitted.

Hanni, asked if Bremer was all right, replied "Yes, he is."

Beyond that, silence veiled the experiences of the banker since the gang seized him shortly after he had left his eight-year-old daughter, Betty, at the exclusive Summit Girls' School.

Befused to Co-operate

At the home with Bremer and his father were his uncle, Otto Bremer, chairman of the board of the American National Bank and head of the Minnesota Home 12 Owners Loan Corporation. The Bremers, prominent Democrats, steadfastly refused to co-operate with authorities during the handson prominent Democrata, with authorities during the banker's any police activity would endanger fremer's far the victim's life.

Adolph Bremer issued a statement I thanks later. It said:

I greatly appreciate the personal resons to necreat of the President and the Paul. overnor and the splendid so-oper-tion given by the press and the dio.

The sity, Siste and Suderal law ders of aforcing sytherities have been bleed in out kind in their efforts and of treat at ers of assistance. Above all, I will imm it release of the wne. Bremer of St. I ising the case with a orders to intensify nae abductors, he sa er was released nea: Minn., shortly befo: last night and returner alone by train and busis clear that a ranso he declared., ransom demanded was hally at $200,000, but w or only a part of that wa not indicated by the Att ral.

noted that Bremer had for the same elingth of ohn O'Connell of Albany.

ednesday morning, Januar ride young Edward Bremer son daughter, Betty, to the Sur grade school in St. Paul, Ber started for the Commercia Bank, of which he was m He never reached the a men in another car ever That was between $:15 and 10 a Walter W. Magee, wealth trailer, was called to the same from husky voice; we've got your Brimer. We want $200.600. not careful, well oth sidnapers studied him to head about the same time,

The Bremer k

Taken Away in Gang's Car

The next he remembered was taped during the imprisonment, being taken some place in the gang's friends of the family said.

car. He did not recall being transferred from his own automobile.

A possible clue to the gang was ferred from his own automobile. ferred from his own automobile, later found abandoned with blood later found abandoned with blood spattered inside, to the kidnapers' machine.

His eyes were bandaged and though he had no recollection of how many men were in the car when he regained consciousness, Bremer believed there must have een ten or twelve men in the gang, judging from the number of voices he heard in the place where he was held captive.

During his imprisonment, Bremer said, he was kept in a dark room with guards, working in relays of two, always seated behind him night and day. He was constantly warned not to look around.

"One look and we'll blow your brains out," Bremer said he was told of the Commission State Same fello-oner, greed him shout & o'cleth leat night.

Bremer was unshaven. He had been either blindfolded or his eyes given by Douglas Street, thirty-three chauffeur for Dr. W. Walters, Mayo Clinic physician at Rochester. Street said he saw two well-dressed men in an automobile bearing a New York license at Lewiston, Minn., about 3 A. M. today. Lewiston is thirty-seven miles east of Rochester.

Magee Delivered Ransom

Walter Magee, wealthy contractor friend of the family, was the intermediary who delivered the ransom. Full details of the delivery were not disclosed, though it was learned Magee had taken from the pocket of a small coupe, a note from the kidnapers, standing with his back to the curb while reading the communication.

After replacing the note in the pocket of the car, Magee then set two "bundles of money" on the seat. It was presumed the ransom was in two large cardboard suit boxes tied with heavy cord in accordance with the gang's earlier instructions.

It was not disclosed when or where the payment was made nor what the instructions were. In view of the family's earlier statements that they were ready and eager to pay the full ransom, the view was taken in some quarters that the entire $200,000 was turned over to the captors.

Taxi Driver Recalls Him

L. J. Mosher, ticket Rochester for the Western Railroad positive the man ticket for Owaton onight was Bremer.

night was Bremer.

Merrit Horn, a la Rochester, declared has drove Bremer fry pot to the railroad str.

hill h rushed to the Adolph Bremer home.

immediately began questioning the banker. No one else was permitted to enter the yard, guarded by police and Federal operatives.

M. F. Kinkead, Ramsey County Attorney, came to the home shortly afterward. The door first was shut in his face. A few minutes elapsed before he was admitted.

Hanni, asked if Bremer was all right, replied "Yes, he is."

Beyond that, silence veiled the experiences of the banker since the gang seized him shortly after he had left his eight-year-old daughter, Betty, at the exclusive Summit Girls' School.

Bremers, prominent Democrats, steadfastly refused to co-operate with authorities during the banker's mprisonment, feeling at that time my police activity would endanger ne victim's life. Adolph Bremer issued a statement forcing authorities have been took kind in their efforts and offers of assistance. Above all, I will never forget their humane willingness to stand by when my pleas convinced them that Edward's life was in serious jeopardy.

No Sacrifice "Teo Great" "No sacrifice has been too great for my brother, Otto, Walter Magee, for my brother, Otto, watter magee, Clarence Newcomb and others who at great risk have done for part. It is my earnest prayer that other fathers and mothers will be spared the agony of a similar ordeal." _ **`$^.

Cummings Admits Payment former family, fighting hysteria, read:

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 (P).—Attribute former family, fighting hysteria, read:

Very sorry, but Edward Bremer family, fighting hysteria, read:

Very sorry, but Edward Bremer family, fighting hysteria, read:

As soon can be the common to be the common to be the common to be the common to be of the St. Paul Police Department

They, with Federal investigators,

Refused to Co-operate At the home with Bremer and typed note. It told him how his father were his uncle, Otto reach his friend Bremer's kie Bremer, chairman of the board of napers. A shaky hand had inke the American National Bank and head of the Minnesota Home Owners Loan Corporation. The Bremers' prominent Democrate thanks later. It said:

"I greatly appreciate the personal merest of the President and the evernor and the splendid co-oper-on given by the press and the lio.

The city, State and Federal law message came from the hoodlums Two hundred thousand dollars wa: held ready. The anxiety grew. Note to Postmaster Postmaster Robertson of Minneapolis received a note—Bremer "hac been bumped off." A fake, police said.

for the same eingth of time ally at $200,000, but whether or only a part of that was paid not indicated by the Attorney noted that Bremer had been to release of the kidnaped hrough payment of a ranhing the case with report-e orders to intensity the hunt ae abductors, he said that ir was released near Roch-Minn., shortly before midlast night and returned to St. alone by train and bus.

is clear that a remsom was ransom demanded was fixed he declared.

city

ral.

which he was president. It reached the bank. Seve tother our everhauled hir between $:15 and 10 A. N That was between 8:18 and 10 A. 1
Walter W. Magee, wealthy co tractor, was called to the phone.
A low, husky voice:
"Well, we've got your frie:
"Well, we've got your frie:

we've got your We want $200,000. Bremer. If y are not careful, we'll get yo

"Who is this? Who are you?" M gee asked.

Finds Note on Porch

"Never mind. If you don't thir we mean business go out to Highland Park. You'll find Breme car . . . And take a look at the backdoor steps of your house, M.

"Now, please," Magee said, "te me—" But the speaker wou not give the contractor time trace the call. He hung up.

Magee hurried home. He found a signature. Bemer's car was four a mile away from where the phor caller had said it would be.

Nation-Wide Interest

The Bremer kidnaping becam national news partly becaus Bremer's father, Adolph Breme aged brewer, was a personal frien of President Roosevelt; partly be cause seven months earlier William Hamm Jr., millionaire brewer, pai $100,000 to be freed by kidnapers i St. Paul.

To St. Paul, a winter rendezvou of desperadoes and gunmen, hurrie Department of Justice agents on or ders of the President, alarmed whe blood stains were found on both front and rear seats of Bremer's au tomobile.

Police said Bremer must've beer slugged when he resisted the kidnapers. Bremer's old father waited. No use with reportintensify the hunt s, he said that used near Rochtly before mid-d returned to St. n and bus. t a ransom was ing, January 17, Bruner took his to the Summit Paul, Then he summercia. State was president, the bank. Seven overhauled him. 18 and 10 A. M. e. wealthy conto the phone.

ice: it your friend. $200,000. If you we'll get you.

are you?" Ma-

a Perch you don't think you don't trible to out to Highand Bremer's te a look at the our house, Ma-

agee said, "left speaker would tractor time to ung up. he. He found a ld him how to Bremer's kid-land had inhed of the kidnaped r of St. Paul was until after the snow goes. ayment of a ran-all off. Please forgive us. All take by one of our gang drunk.

On January 20 Police of Dahill said he thought the your banker still was alive. Fede agents—successful in recent kidn outrages when 'local official seemed clumsy—scouted over 350 square miles. No luck.

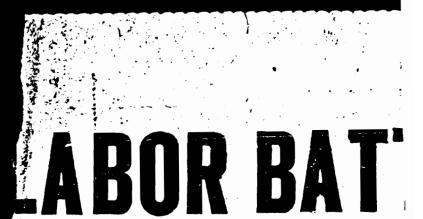

When the 123d hour passed and no word had come from the kidanded was fixed no word had come from the kidnopers, the police began a roundup of underworldlings. Deputy sheriffs searched in autos and airplanes. On January 22 it was said the family had received not one but two ranged Albany.

When the 123d hour passed and no word had come from the kidnapers, the police began a roundup of underworldlings. Deputy sheriffs searched in autos and airplanes. On January 22 it was said the family had received not one but two ranged and received not one but two ranged and no word had come from the kidnapers, the police began a roundup of underworld in appears the police began a roundup of underworld in appears, the police began a roundup of underworld in appears, the police began a roundup of underworld in appears, the police began a roundup of underworld in appears, the police began a roundup of underworld in appears, the police began a roundup of underworld in autos and airplanes. On January 22 it was said the family had received not one but two ranges of the police began a roundup of underworld ings. Deputy sheriffs searched in autos and airplanes. On January 22 it was said the family had received not one but two ranges of the police began a roundup of underworld ings. Deputy sheriffs searched in autos and airplanes. On January 22 it was said the family had received not one but two ranges of the contraction in the police began a roundup of underworld ings.

magee, the contractor, as intermediary.

On February 3 the elder Bremer gave the kidnapers three days to prove his son still was alive. On February 6 police feared the young banker was deed.

THE WEATHER

Fair, colder tonight; tomorrow fair and continued cold; fresh northerly winds.

Sun rose, 6:59 a. m.; sun sets, 5:22 p. m. High tide at Governers Island, 2:06 a. m. and 2:22 p. m.

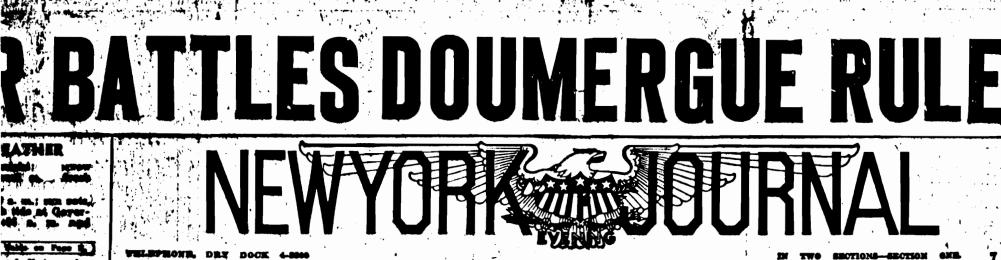

Omplete Weather Table on Page S.

International News Service and Universal Service wire and cable reports.

TELEPHONE,

No. 17,066-D

$200,000

SPORTS FINAL

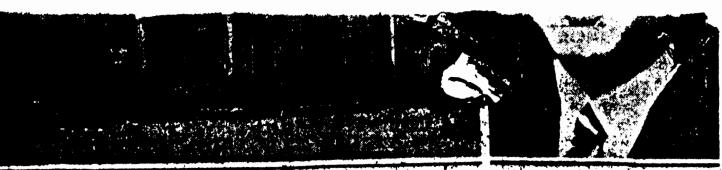

THURSDAY, EDRUARY 8, 1934

Bremer Home, Released by Kidnapers

Victim's Beating by Kidnapers Told

ST. PAUL HOME OF EDWARD G. BREMER. was from this luxurious home in St. Paul that Edward G. Bremer, milairs banker and sea of browery magnete, was kidnaped almost a month ago. Since then, the search for + him and his kidnapers has been shrouded in much mystery. A ransom note demanded $200,000, which his relatives agreed to pay. Pictures from International News Photograph Service.

KIDNAPED BANKER
A note saying he had been accidentally killed by the kidnapers was received soon after the kidnaping, but blice said it was written by crank."

Adolph Braser, declared today, following the retu tim to his home here.

Adolph Bremer said the ransom was paid f notes and bills, $85,000 of which were $5 notes and the remainder in $10 bills, as demanded by the abdustors. The money, he added, was paid to the kidnen. ers Tuesday night.

Visibly elated over the conclusion of the ordial experie by him since his son was kidnaped after taking his dangetes to school on Jan. 17, the elder Bremer, wealthy owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Co., said he greatly appreciated the personal interest of President Roosevelt and the Governor, in the sefe return of his son.

Kidnap Gang Beat Bremer; Kept Blindfolded

ST. PAUL, Feb. 8 .- Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, who returned to his home today after three weeks in the hands of kidnapers, was beaten when he attempted to resist his abductors, International News Service learned from reliable sources.

Comptroller Cunningham today higher than last year.

In spite of the four year agreement of the city with the bankers, which it was expected would reduce the basic levy, the comptroller stimated the 1934 rate would be $2.70 per $100 valuation.

The 1933 rate was $2.88 and to in affect the Comptroller's and inflicted injuries which accounted for the bloodstains nouncement was interpreted as a found on the front seat of his blow to small home owners, who car. may have to carry the burden of the new increase since assessed valuations of larger properties murcered by his captors. have gone down generally.

However, although he bled freely, Bremer was not severely hurt, according to this information.

In addition, it was learned, Bremer was driven about for fifteen hours in an automobile immediately after he was kidnaped while on the way to his bank in St. Paul.

As soon as he learned the obestimate dthe 1934 tax rate for ject of his kidnapers, circles close New oyrk ity would be 37 cents to the family stated, Bremer tried to overpower the criminals and escape, but found the force of numbers too much for him.

BLOODSTAINS EXPLAINED,

Athletically inclined and possessed of a quick temper, Bremer made imediate efforts to get away from his captors. They struck him and inflicted injuries which

It was these stains which led to reports Bremer might have been

When he was finally subdued Mayor LaGuardia shook his Bremer was pulled out of his own head when the seeming disparity car by the kidnapers and placed in another one held in readiness. "That's pretty bad," he said.
"But you can't blame me fer hours, and at length the kidnapers blame hours." in another one held in readiness.

The younger Bremer poturned to his father's home early today in good physical condition, despite the fact that a physician attended him far minor injuries incurred whent he struggled with the abdustons at the time of the kidnaping. Adolph Bremer's statement

"I am se happy to tell you that my boy is back at least after his terrible experience. The hidoous hours of suspense have been almost unbearable for all of us. I greatly appreciate the personal interest of the Prodent. The Governor, the city, State and Federal law enfercing authorities have been most kind in their efforts and efforts assistance.

"Above all, " see QUINN get their humane, willingship thand by when my pleasures vinced them that liewers is was in serious icone

"No sacrifice has great for my brother, to ter MeGee (the

Today's Journ

14 27

20 27

34 34 34

.

Copyright, 1934, by International Mews Service.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 8 .- Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, who returned to his home today after three weeks in the hands lows: of kidnapers, was beaten when he attempted to resist his abductors, International News Service learned from reliable sources.

Comptroller Cunningham today estimate of the 1934 tax rate for ject of his kidnapers, circles close New own type ity would be 37 cents to the family stated. Bremer tried higher than last year.

In spite of the four year agreement of the city with the bankers, which it was expected would reduce the basic levy, the comptroller estimated the 1934 rate would be $3.70 per $100 valuation. The 1933 rate was $2.83 and the

1932 levy $2.59. In effect the Comptroller's plow to small home owners, who car. may have to carry the burden of It was these stains which led to the new increase since assessed reports Bremer might have been valuations of larger properties murgered by his captors.

was brought to his attention.

"That's pretty bad," he said. "But you can't blame me for that. We inherited that situation from another administration." The Mayor grew concerned when

Continued on Page 9, Column 2.

U.S. Suspends Probe Of Weirton Election

New Vote to Be Taken at Steel Plant, Cummings Announces

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8 .-- The Department of Justice investigation into the election of company representatives of the Weirton pending a new election, Attorney-General Cummings said today.

U. S. TREASURY REPORT and Cincinnati Clearing House (Figures on Page 3)

However, although he bled freely, Bremer was not severely hurt. according to this information.

In addition, it was learned, Bremer was driven about for fifteen hours in an automobile immediately- after he was kidnaped while on the way to his bank in St. Paul.

As soon as he learned the obto overpower the criminals and escape, but found the force of numbers too much for him.

BLOODSTAINS EXPLAINED.

Athletically inclined and possessed of a quick temper, Bremer made imediate efforts to get away from his captors. They struck from his captors. They struck him and inflicted injuries which In effect the Comptroller's accounted for the bloodstains mouncement was interpreted as a found on the front seat of his have gone down generally.

When he was finally subdued,
Mayor LaGuardia shook his Bremer was pulled out of his own head when the seeming disparity car by the kidnapers and placed in another one held in readiness The ensuing ride lasted for fifteen hours, and at length the kidnapers stopped in front of a house, be-

Continued on Page 2, Column 3

Falling Man Grasps Fire Box, Loses $50

Alibi. Fails to Impress Magistrate Who Imposes Fine

Frank Matzger gave the best excuse of the week in court today, but it cost him $50 just the same, Matzger, 28, of 377 69th st. Brooklyn, explained in Bay Ridge Court that he was falling on a Steel Company has been suspended slippery sidewalk and yanked at thefirst thing he happened to grasp for support. It happened to be the pull lever of a fire alarm Magistrate Sabbatino was unimpressed. Matzger said he would pay the $50 fine.

he struggled with the abductors at the time of the kidnaping. Adolph Bremer's statement fole that my boy is back at last after his terrible experience. The hideous hours of suspense have been almost unbearable for all of ms. I greatly appreciate the personal interest of the President. The Governor, the city, State and Federal law enfercing authorities have been most kind in their effects and offers of in their effects and extent assistance.

"Above all, I was Chiling or get their humane, willing of their humane, willing of their humane, willing of their humane, willing of their humane, willing was in serious improved their was in serious improved their tee.

"No sacrifico" has been too.

great for my brother, too; Wa ter MeGee (the comic

Today's Journal

BILLY BENEDICT 27
BILL CORUM. 27
BRIDGE, by Mrs. Calbertson. 29
CARTOON, by Burris Jenkins Jr. 27
"CHICKIE'S DAUGHTER". 10
CROSSWORD PUZZLE. 25 EMBROIDERY 21 FOOD and COOKING. 15 FOOD and COOKING. 15
GILBERT SELDES. 19
"GIRL IN THE FAMILY" 24
HAENICSEN 19
HELEN ROWLAND 22
JACK KOFOED 29
JOHN ANDERSON 22
KAY DANIELS. 20
KAY DANIELS. 20
LEWIS HANEY 31
LLOYD PANTAGES 22
LOUIS SOBOL 24 SHALL
MARY DOUGHERTY
MME FLUTTERBYE
MUSIC, by Henristic Weber. 23
OBITUARIES SOCIETY ... 14
TRUE STORY. 24
VOICE OF EXPERIENCE. 46

Di Kelley, Jr., in April, 1931.

Dr. Kelley, Jr., in April, 1931.

Dr. Kelley was lured from his home on a fake sick call and was released after eight days of captivity, when it was reported, although never verified, that ransom of $100,000 had been paid.

Mrs. Nellie Muench, wife of the physician; Angelo Rosegrant, John Johnson and Mart Davit were arrested this afternoon. A fourth man, Felix Francis McDonald, is in State prison, where he is serving a sentence for an attempted bidgaping.

Mrs. Muench branded her arrest as "an outrage," asserting: "I don't know anything about the case or anyone in it."

DEADLINE EXTENDED.

BT. PAUL. Feb. 7 (US).—An additional 40 hours was granted today to kidnapers of Edward G. Bremer to establish contact with the victim's father, Adolf Bremer, wealthy brewer.

The deadline, originally fixed for noon today, was extended at the request of the elder Bremer, who said:

request of the elder memor, said:

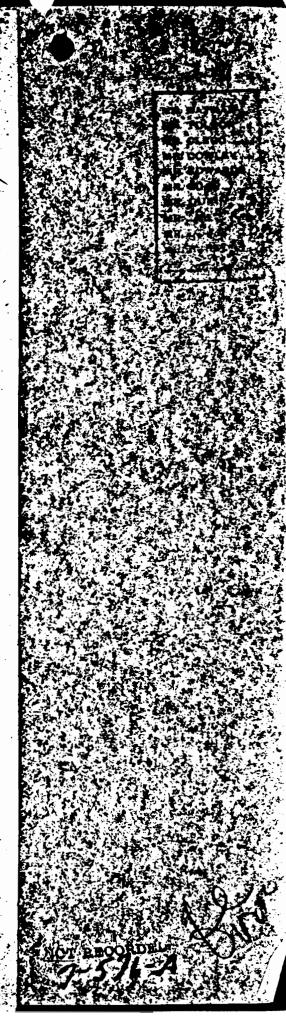

"In hopes of making a contact the officials have agreed with me to extend the time until Thursday night, Feb. 8."

While the family spirit was broken by failure of the abductors to heed Bremer's earlier plea for the safe return of his son, hope for the youthful banker's safe return has not been abandoned.

Bremer remained in the se-safe return has Box been acan-doned.

Mr. Bremer remained in the se-clusion of his home. He has promised immediate payment of the $200,000 ransom if communi-cation is established and groof furnished his son is still allow.

Kidnapers Release Premer; FIGUES AND SCENES IN N $200,000 Ransom Is Paid

Continued from page 1

wealthy St. Paul banker, majority owner of the stock of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company and a close personal friend of Presides. Roosevelt.

The President sent his personal condolence to the father shor after the kidnaping. Otto Bremer, uncle of the kidnaped man, is held of the Minnesota Federal Home Owners Loan Association and is leader in the democratic party in this state.

It was between 8:15 and 8:30 a.m., January 17, that Edward Bremer left his home at 92 North Mississippi River boulevard, in Paul, to drive to work. His 8-year-old daughter, Betty, accompanial him. He drove her to the fashionable Summit school on Goodriga avenue. A moment after he had left her, the kidnapers seized him. His bloodstained automobile was found abandoned on Edgecume drive, near the Highland Park golf course, on the south city limits

The same day, at 11 a.m., Walter Magee, prominent St. Paul c tractor, received a telephone call. It was the kidnapers representative. He told Magee that Bremer had been kidnaped and instructed him to look in the rear of his office for a note. The note demands $200,000 ransom. The note instructed the family to insert an ad "Tare ready—Alice" in a Minneapolis newspaper, signifying they we ready to negotiate. This was done.

Dr. Nippert Admits Bottle Contained Note From Bremer's Kidnapers

The next word was heard from the kidnapers January 20 whithe kidnapers got a note to Dr. H. T. Nippert, Bremer fami physician.

Dr. Nippert admitted today the bottle which was thrown throu the front door of his home at 706 Lincoln avenue, St. Paul, January actually did contain a note from the kidnapers. It was reported the time this was the case, but no one with knowledge of the fact would confirm the report.

An automobile drove past Dr. Nippert's house early in the mor ng. There was a crash and a patent medicine bottle broke through the glass in the front door of the Nippert home. The next night, utomobile parked for a moment in front of the Nippert home and its headlights flashed on and off, as if signaling. The porch light on the Nippert home then flashed, as if in answer. The car drove away,

A veil of secrecy was thrown around later activities in the case and the public knew nothing more of the actual negotiations with the sidnapers until the time of Bremer's release last night.

Saturday, Adolf Bremer issued a public statement, appealing t he kidnapers. He promised to carry out their wishes to the lette out gave them a time limit of three days and three nights in which t Yesterday he announced this time limit had been extended unt Thursday night, February 8." At that time, he had received find instructions from the kidnapers and was ready to pay the ransom.

Bremer Released in Residential Section, Wanders to Bus Station

After payment of the ransom, Bremer was released in the resilential district of Rochester. Three men in a "small sedan" release im. He wandered downtown to the Rochester bus station.

The first persons to see Bremer' fter his release were Howard Mcioon and Mrs. Jennie Haight, emloyees in the bus depot at Rocheser. Mr. Bremer entered the bus epot at about 8 p.m. yesterday. He sked when he could get a bus to it. Paul.

McGoon told him that the last ight bus for the Twin Cities had aft but advised him he could take train to Owatonna and catch a us there to the Twin Cities. Brener said he couldn't do that. Breier was unkempt and badly in eed of a shave, the bus depot em-loyees said. He appeared highly ervous and constantly blinke 📥 his yes, as though they were unaccus-omed to the light. The employees lid not recognize him as Bremer and he gave no indication of his .Jentity

Goes to Father's Home

Road Routing Work Delayed

City Officials to Seek Twin More Equitable Share of Tourist Trade

The new state highway routing system is being held in abeyance as Manneapolis and St. Paul officials prepared to confer in an attemp to work out a more feasible routing of federal highways through the two cities.

Goes to Father's Home
Bremer made his way to his faher's home immediately after he rrived in St. Paul.
As soon as Bremer returned tome, Warner Hanni, chief of the ederal department of justice in St.
Paul: Harold Nathan, assistant to C. Edgar Hoover, national chief of the department of justice: Frank
the department of justice: Frank
the department of justice: Frank

TODAY WAS A HAPPY DAY in the home of Adolf Bremer in St. Paul, where Edward G. Bremer joined his wife and daughter Betty, after 22 days in the hands of kidnapers. In the pictures above, left to right, are: Adolf Bremer, father of the kidnaped banker, who announced the ransom money had been paid to the gang which released his son in Rochester, Minn.; the back stoop of the office of Walter Magee, St. Paul contractor and friend of Edward Bremer, where the original ransom demand note was left, and Walter Magee. who was named contact man by the kidnapers and who worked to aid the family gain Mr. Bremer's return. In the lower pictures are Mrs. Ed-ward G. Bremer and Otto Bre-mer, Minnesota democratio leader and uncle of Edward, who took part in the family councils on having the young St. Paul banker returned.

'UNCLE AND FRIEND WELCOME BR

ED KIDNAPING CASE

ER HOME

Day-by-Day Acc ant of Kidnaping and Manhunt

Extension of Deadline Proves Successful in Obtaining Release

E. G. Bremer was kidnaped Wednesday, January 17, shortly after 8:15 a.m. At that hour he left his home, 22 North Mississippi River boulevard, with his young daughter Betty in his sutomobile.

He drove down Summit avenue, St. Paul, and then turned over to Summit schoel, 1150 Goodrich avenue, where he dropped Betty. Presumably, he turned back to Summit avenue, as was his custom, to continue his trip to his office in the St. Paul loop. He was seized somewhere between the school and the office.

The first intimation of a kidnaper.

elivery of

Shriners Sign Circus Queen

May Wirth to Do Full Somersault on Back of Horse in Auditorium

May Wirth, who is known as the queen of circus equestrennes, will be one of the featured performers at the annual Shrine circus which will have its first perfermance at 2 p.ms February 20 in the Municipal

Right of the stand other cits and the stand th

Friday brought few developments in the case. Police, federal and state authorities were urgently requested by the elder Bremer to refrain from any activities which might endanger the young man's life. Bertillon experts, however, examined the kidnaped man's car and determined that no fingerprints had been left behind. Apparently the abductors were gloves while staging the crime.

The same day the forces of the Minnesota American Legion, of which Mr. Bremer was a member, were placed at the disposa; of the family in the event a statewide hunt for the abductors was launched.

Saturday, Sunday and Monday (January 30, 21 and 22) were days of anxious waiting, made to a statewide held a few acks of coal, enough to tide him over the day, he would be given more that any arriver to day asking for police suggisted that if he would get a truck or trailer that would hold a few acks of coal, enough to tide him over the day, he would be given protection argainst any strike.

hunt for the abductors launched.

Saturday, Sunday and Monday (January 30, 21 and 22) were days of anxious waiting, made more trying by scores of wild rumors which file about the two cities. Three different times rumors gained wide circulation to the effect that Bremer had been found dead and were disproved.

Early Sunday, a bottle was thrown the splate glass in the front this weef but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied be one of the featured performers at the annual Shrine circus which will have its first perfermance at 2 p.m. February 20 in the Municipal Auditorium.

Miss Wirth has been a star for a number of years in the Ringling Bros. Hagenbeck and other circuses but this will be her first appearance here with a Shrine show.

dead and were disproved.

Early Sunday, a bottle was thrown through the plate glass in the front though the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied. Nippert, family physician to the Bremers. Immediately, reports began to seep out that the bottle contained two notes written by the kidnapers to the Bremer family. Monother the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied. William Brown, president of the Coal Drivers Union, said the tieup than the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied. William Brown, president of the Coal Drivers Union, said the tieup than the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied. William Brown, president of the Coal Drivers Union, said the tieup than the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied. William Brown, president of the Coal Drivers Union, said the tieup than the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied. William Brown, president of the Coal Drivers Union, said the tieup than the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied to the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied to the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied to the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are apparently supplied to the plate glass in the front this weel but all other city school buildings are appare vas being giv nd trailers coal from the coal and Coal Drivers Union, said the tisup will be kended to include drivers of fuel all trucks and that some of the oil frivers may go out today. In anticipation of this, several oil companies made deliveries to homes he Urschel kidnap case, and St. From Minn Pacific im as long as they believed his hysical condition would permit. They returned to the home early coday and resumed their questioning, not permitting newspaper men to enter the yard of the Adolf Brener home until late in the mornance.

andris decided their city, too, should be on highway No. 30, and an appeal to the highway department ment ment in the morning.

Greeted by Family

Mrs. Edward Bremer and her 8-year-old daughter, Betty, who was sith her father on the morning he was kidnaped and whom he left it the exclusive Summit school, on Goodrich avenue, just a few moments before the snatchers seized him, were waiting at the Adolf Bremer home when Bremer resurned. Today, while young Bremer was in conference with federal and city autorities, little Betty yould be seen playing on the sunporch of the Adolf Bremer home, laughing and happy.

Bremer was held the same length of time as was John J. O'Connell, Jr., wealthy young member of a politically prominent New York state family—22 days and 12 hours. This was the longest period-industry prisoner has ever been held in any of the prominent recent United States kidnapping cases.

Soon after young Bremer had appeared at the home. He made a complete examination of the kidnap victim. On leaving the house he said:

Was Beaten About Head

He is in soud share physically the condition coming the house he said:

Was Beaten About Head

Bremer setty too the highway department and the subtlement through Alexandria. When the new state marking system was being worked out, it was too longer feasible, and alexandria. When the new state marking system was being worked out, it was too longer feasible, and alexandria. When the new state marking system was being worked out, it was too longer feasible, and lexandria. When the new state marking system was being worked out, it was the southern through Alexandria. When the new state marking system was being worked out, it was the later of the pilottot Lakes and a large decided their city, too appear out, it was the submitted to the highway department to the highway in the submitted to the highway department to the hig

U. S. Students Called To Oust Huey Long

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 8.-(U.P)-

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 6.—(U.P.)—A call to the nation's students to join in unified action to force the puster of Huey P. Long from the senate was studed today by the Harvard Libe al Club.

The club has sent letters to unifier aduate solitical organizations of more than 100 colleges and universities in a parts of the country calling attention to the failure of the senate committee on elections and privileges to take action against the kingfish in the face of evidence of aleged corrupt practices. the kingfish in the face or e of a leged corrupt practices.

EXTENSION SCHOOL PARTY The Extension Student Federaschools will sponsor a bunco and beard party tomorrow night at 700 Plymouth avenue N. New officers of the organization include Mrs. Bertha Syverud, president; Carl Thirs, first vicepresident; Mrs. Clara Tutelman, second vicepresident; Peter Peterson, secretary; Ludwig Schmetzer, treasurer, and Max Shuman, auditor, Schools and Schuman, auditor, Schools and Salided President Harding, Hamburg, Fabruary 7, for New York. President Van Buren, New York. President Van Buren, New York. Conte Di Savola, Gibraltar, February 7, New York. City of Havrs, Hamburg, Fabruary 7, Salided President Harding, Hamburg, Fabruary 7, for New York. President Wan Buren, New York. Conte Di Savola, Gibraltar, February 7, May York. Salided President Harding, Hamburg, Fabruary 7, for New York. President Van Buren, New York. President Van Buren, New York. Conte Di Savola, Gibraltar, February 7, Salided President Harding, Hamburg, Fabruary 7, for Hamburg. President Van Buren, New York. Conte Di Savola, Gibraltar, February 7, Manila via San Franvisco. Volendam, Rotterdam, February 7, for Hamburg. President Harding, Hamburg, February 7, For Hamburg, New York. President Van Buren, New York. Conte Di New York. President Harding, Hamburg, February 7, For Hamburg, February 7, Manila via San Franvisco. Volendam, Rotterdam, February 7, for Hamburg, February 7, lis and going on to the oast through North Deoute Split at St. Cloud

A few years ago citizens of Alexandric decided their city, too, should be on highway No. 20, and state highway commissioner, representatives of the Hennepin County Good Roads Association coming Was Beaten About Head

"He is in good shape physically, though he suffered a beating about the head. He is very, very mervous. I ordered him to bed for a good rest. The wounds on his head have all healed in good shape resentatives of the Hennepin Country Good Roads Association coming into this section was from Illinois. The way the roads are routed at present, practically all this business must come to St. Paul before it can pass on to Minneapolis, it was said. It is feasible to route traffic from a southeast through Rochester disputations.

""

partment to mark the roads to accomplish the end desired, he said.

STEAMSHIP MOVEMENTS

Arrived
Champlain, New York, February 7, from Havre,
Excalibur, New York, February 8, Marseilles,
President Jefferson, Shanghai, February
6, Seattle,
Excambion, Marseilles, February 3, New York.

6. Seattle.
Excambion, Marseilles, February 3, New York.
Alaunia, London, February 6, New York.
Carinthia, Marinique, February 7, New York.
Aquitania, Madeira, February 7, New York.
Empress of Britain, Bombay, February 7, New York.
Manhattan, Havre, February 7, New York.
United States, Copenhagen, February 7, New York.
Buenos Aires.
Ascania, New York, February 7, London, Sailed
President Harding, Hamburg, February 7, President Harding, Hamburg, February ?

AMONG THE FIRST TO ARrive at the Adolf Bremer home (above) today to greet Edward G. Bremer, returned after 22 days in the hands of kidnapers, were Otto Bremer and Clarence Newcome, general manager of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company of St. Paul. Mr. Brem-er, uncle of the kidnaped bank-er and a democratic party leader in Minnesota, is shown at the left in the lower picture. Mr. Newcome, associated with Otto and Adolf Bremer in the brewing company, is in the middle.

PRISONERS MAKE TOYS

Convicts in Denmark, land of Hans Christian Anderson of fairy tale tame, have been put to making tops. They are allowed to use their imagination instead of helping in mass production. The toys are sold outside, and the men paid regular wages part of which sea to lar wages, part of which ges to the state for their keep, some to the Prisoners Aid Society, a portion to dependents and a small amount to the prisoners to be spent at the prison canteen.

Table Shows Hou New Income Tax Will Be Applied

Washington, Feb. 8.—(49)—The head have all healed in good shape now."

It is feasible to route traffic from the southeast through Rochester disperse had been taped or blindfolded. Soon after the physician left, a barber arrived at the house in a taxicab. Bremer had an unkempt beard when he was released and one of his first requests after he returned was for a barber to shave him.

TI C Canada Callad

It is feasible to route traffic from the southeast through Rochester dispersed in the southeast through Rochester dispersed in the southeast through Rochester dispersed in the surface ways and means committee has issued a table showing how much a married man with no dependents would have to play under the normal income and suffax rates proposed in the new revenue bill.

The normal rate is 4 per cent of the surfax rates begin at 4 to tap through road markings.

Once this was done, it will be an once of $4,000 and are graduated to 59 per cent on incomes of $4,000 and are graduated to 59 per cent on incomes. A credit of 10 per cent is allowed.

The kidnapers hurled a between the southeast through Rochester dispersed in the surfax rates begin at 4 to tap through road markings.

A credit of 10 per cent is allowed.

The kidnapers hurled a between the southeast through Rochester dispersed in the surfax rates begin at 4 to tap through road markings.

A credit of 10 per cent is allowed.

The kidnapers hurled a between the southeast through Rochester dispersed in the surfax rates begin at 4 to tap through road markings.

A credit of 10 per cent is allowed.

The kidnapers hurled a between the southeast through Rochester dispersed in the sissued a table showing house ways and means committee that is suited a table showing house ways and means committee that is suited a table showing house ways and means committee that is suited a table showing house ways and means committee that the normal income and suffax the normal income and suffax the normal income of the new revenue bill.

The normal rate is 4 per cent of the two of the suffax the normal income of t

Thus the tax is figured on the net income, less the earned income credit and the personal exemption.

Illness Delaye

Gang Note: Wife Deadened Te

those over $1,000,000.

A credit of 10 per cent is allowed on earned incomes up to $8,000.

A personal deduction of $2,500 is allowed a married man with no delegation of $2,500 is allowed a married man with no delegation. The bottle contained man better the contained man and the second man and the pert's housemaid called from distairs and asked why he had been answering the telephone. knew of the physician's strict ac stairs a...

been answering the term to be the physician's strict acceptance of the physician's strict acceptance

to be the physician's strict acceptance

to be the physician's strict acceptance

to professional duties, including the phone rings quickly.

Dr. Nippert had not heard telephone bell because its sound been deadened. His wife, suffer from a cold, had stuffed the with paper to reduce the shril of the noise.

22 50 28 50 28 50 213,860 17,190 22 50 28,360 23,360 243,860 with paper to reduce the shril of the noise.

"I was in the bathroom shrip in 1933 including the phone ring. I went to answering the term."

The phone ring is the term of the physician's strict acceptance of the phone ring. I went to answering the phone ring.

220 WEST 19th ST., NEW YORK Tel. CHelsea 3-8860

THIS CLIPPING FROM MINNEAPOLIS, MINN. JOURNAL

EDWARD G. BREMER

Kidnapers Release St. Paul Banker at Rochester in Night

Victim Slugged After Abduction — Head Wounds Heal in 22 Days of Captivity-Bremer Nervous

FATHER SENDS MESSAGE WITH CASH ASKING "BOYS" TO BE FAIR

Dr. Nippert Admits Bottle Thrown Through Door Contained Note-Final Instructions Received Yesterday

Edward G. Bremer was released by his kidnapers yesterday at 8 p.m. at Rochester, Minn., upon payment of $200,000 ransom by his father, Adolf Bremer. He was unbarmed.

He had been held captive 22 days and 12 hours.

His release was not announced until shortly before 8 a.m. today. Federal agents had kept the news secret while they questioned Bremer thoroughly. The announcement was made by Harold Nathan, first assistant to J. Edgar Hoover of Washington, chief of the department of justice.

Bremer revealed he had been slugged shortly after the abductors seized him. His head was severely cut but the wounds had bealed before his return. A physician examined him today and pronounced his physical condition "good," although he said the young St. Psul banker was "very, very nervous and unstrung."

Walter Magee, original contact man with the kidnapers and close friend of Bremer, actually delivered the huge sum of ransom assess, wrapped in two cardboard packages. He made the delivery yesterday, it was reported. But full details of the transaction were kept secret today, until the government men had completed their preparations for their manhunt.

Magee received a message, said to have been left in his autotions for their manhunt. mobile, instructing him to drive out the highway until he saw a green modile, instructing him to drive out the highway until he saw a green Chevrolet parked beside the road. He was ordered to leave his car and drive on in the green Chevrolet until he received a signal. Then he was to throw out the ransom, it was reported. He followed instructions. The Chevrolet, a stolen ear, is now in the Bremer garage, being inspected by federal agents.

Full $200,000 Ransom Paid After Final Contact With Kidnapers

The full $200,000 ransom was paid, it was disclosed at the Bremer home. Final contact was made with the kidnapers yesterday and the elder Bremer dispatched the money, $84,000 of which was in $5 bills and the remainder in $10 bills, to the kidnapers with a note which

To the parties holding Edward:

"I have done my part and kept my word 100 per cont as I said:
I would. This money is not marked and you have the full amount.

ked fer. Now, boys, I am counting en your he "Release Edward and tell him to come to

At 8 p.m. yesterday, young Bremer was released in the residential, section of Rochester. He said he knew nothing axcept that "three men in a small sedan" had released him. Finding he could not get a bus from Rochester to St. Paul last night, he went to Owatonna by train, where he caught a late bus to the Twin Cities. At the St. Paul was depot, he hired a taxicab and grove to within a block and a helf of the father's home. Then he walked to the deor, arriving at the residence of his father. Shi West Saventh street. St. Paul, shortly affect his father's home. Then he walked to the detail, shortly added to the delice of his father, $55 West Seventh street, St. Paul, shortly night. Bremer was badly in need of a shave and his ciothes v kempt; he was highly nervous and the wounds on his head we

MR. NATHAN. MR. TOLSON MR. COWLEY. MR. RDWARDS. MR. BGAN. MR. QUINN MR. LESTER. CHIEF CLERK_ MR. RORER.

Federal officials took charge of min manufacturing he needed rest several hours hast night questioning him then, realising he needed rest badly, left, returning shartly before $ a.m. today. Their questioning was resumed then and continued until nearly moon teday.

Newspaper Men Barred, Sleeping & Powder Reported Given Bremer

The federal men would allow no newspapermen on the ground of the Bremer home, and they were not allowed to question Bremer it was reported he was given a sleeping nowder after he had been questioned by the agents.

Though it could not be confirmed, it was reported that Breme had arrived at Rochester after having been driven "10 or 12 hours" an automobile.

Bremer, when he reached the St. Paul bus depot, took a taxical on to his father's home. He got off a block and a half from the home, so that the cab driver would not suspect his identity, and walked to the trust front door.

After the amouncement of Bremer's return, his father sent out a typewritten statement to the press, amplifying the amouncement, Shortly before noon today, the federal men were still in conference with the young banker. Harold Nathan, chief amistant to the national director of the department of justice, emerged from the home.

Clarence Newcome, business associate of Bremer, came running from the Jacob Schmidt brewery, nearby, carrying a large package wrapped in brown paper. He handed it to Nathan, and Nathan got into a car to drive away.

The package contained a black suitcase, the handle of which could be seen protruding from the wrapping paper. Nathan was asked what it was. He grinned mysteriously and said:

"Mrs. Bremer is very fond of canaries. We have a canary in here."

A few moments before 2 p.m. Mr. Magee came rushing out the back door of the Bramer home, accompanied by two investigalors. He jumped into an automobile with the officers and sped away before news men had an opportunity to question him.

Brewery Workers Cheer Lustily When Told Edward Had Returned

As brewery employees came to work today, they were surprised to see the acore or more of automobiles that were gathered in front of the Adolf Bremer home. When they were acrest cheer man that Edward had returned there were a great cheer.

men that Edward had returned, there was a great cheer.
"Is he al! right?" the workers asked anxiously. They were told he was "fine," and the cheering started again.

The exact details of the final contact with the kidnapers were not revealed before noon today, but it was learned that the family actually did contact the kidnapers on at least three more occasions after the first day.

Dr. H. T. Nippert, family physician, received a note from the abductors, contained in a bottle thrown into his house January 20, although he had previously denied that the bottle had contained a kidnap note. Later Dr. Nippert received a telephone call from the contern.

Bremer, who is 37 years old, is president and owner of the Commercial State Bank of St. Paul. His father, Adolf Bremer, is a Continued on page 12

Kidnapers Release St. Paul Banker After Holding Him Prisoner 22 Days.

RANSOM MONEY IS PAID

But Family Will Not Divalge Whether Abductors Obtain the $200,000 They Asked.

Son of Wealthy Brewer is Thrown Out of Car on Highway Near Rochester, Minn.

HIS WOUNDS ARE HEALED

Some of the Details of His Capture and Incarceration Are Related. '

PRISON" MIGHT HAVE BEEN HERE.

Sz. PAUL. Peb. & -- Officials were disagreed late today in their theo-Hes about where Edward Bremer was held captive. George F. Sulliven, district attorney, expressed the opinion it might have been either Sioux City, Ia., or Kansas Oity. M. P. Kinkead, sounty atprincy, said he believed the "prisn" was in Iowa.

He quoted a woman who said Whe saw a car near Austin, in Southern Minnesota, January 17, after the kidnaping, which she believed was that of the kidnapters. Sullivan did not explain why he suspected the abductors might thave taken their man to Kansas Olty.

Two men sought in connection with the crime were said to have been members of the Harvey :.Bailey gang, and involved in various crimes in Kansas and Missouri.

(By the Associated Press.)

St. Paul, Feb. 8.—Ransomed with an unannounced amount of money, Edward G. Bremer, seized by kidnapers for $200,000 January 17, was at home today after a 22-day imprisonment.

Wounds about the head, which he had suffered when spirited away by the gang, were healed, Dr. Joseph Spratks sald, although the victim was week, Minausted and very, very mervous to the state of the state of the Throive Out on Highway.

Dr. Sprafks was summoned soon after the son of Adolph Bremer, wealthy brewer, had returned home after being thrown out on a highway hear or at Rochester, Minn., about eighty-five miles south of here, last might. Dr. Sprafts said a ransom had been paid, but he did not know how much.

Three men in a small sedan, mem bers of the gang of six or seven which held the president and owner of the

Noves there must have be he number of volces he the place where he

During his imprisonment, Bri aid, he was kept in a fark ret with guards, working in relays of tw always scated behind him night an day. He was warned constantly in to look around.

"One look and we'll blow statu brains out," Bremet said he was told Walter Magee, wealthy contractor briend of the family, was the interediary who delivered the fancom Full details of the delivery were not disclosed, although it was tearned Maree had taken from the pocket of a small coupe a note from the kidmapers, standing with his back to the curb while mading the communica-Water State tion.

Placed "Bundles of Money." After replacing the note in the pocket of the car, Magee then set two "bundles of money" on the stat. It was presumed the ransom was wrapped in two large sardboard suit boxes tied with heavy cord in accordance with the gang's earlier instruclons.

It was not disclosed when or where the payment was made nor what the instructions were. In view of the family's earlier statements that it was ready and eager to pay the full sunsom, the view was taken in some quarters that the entire $200,000 was burned over to the captors.

L. J. Mosher, ticket agent at Bochester for the Chicago Northwestern railroad, said today he was positive the man who purchased a ticket for Owatonna from him last aight was Merrit Horn, a cab driver at Rochester, said he was ecriain he drove Bremer from the bus depot to the railroad station after the victim had learned he would be unable to get a bus out of there for St. Paul last night.

Another Intermediary In. Employees at the bus station had advised him he could go by train to Owatonna and board a bus there for the Twin Oities.

Dr. H. T. Mippert, physician and friend of the Bremers, revealed today the first contact with the family by the garig after the original ransom note was made through him. He received three notes, he said, the morning of January 30, three days after the banker's seizure.

A large envelope, containing three notes, was slipped under the front door of his home and a milk bottle hurled through the front door glass to attract his attention. Nippert at the time admitted a bottle incident, but said "it would be beneath my honor and dignity as a physician" to deny the notes if any had been received.

The three notes were addressed to Walter Magee, Adolph Bremer and Dr. Nippert.

In Bremer's Handwriting. A teléphone call from an uniden fled man that morning instructed the physician to "go down and 'look at your front door and don't be afraid." Rippert then found the broken door glass and the envelope, which was addressed to 'Dr. H. T. Rippert personal."

It was permed in ink and was in Bremer's bandwriting, the physician sald.

said.

He specied the mote addressed by himself, Rippert said, and fellowed its instructions to give the other missives to Mages and Adolph Resmer. His mote, Rippert said, was written by Maward Bremer, and warned bliss against addition participation in the case, Rippert ambridge. That was case, Rippert ambridge.

Against instructed.

Against his father's home, having sleeping at his father's home, having sleeping at his father's home, having

TOLEON ... MR. CLEGG MR. COWLEY . .. MR. FDW/ RDS MR. FUAN..... MR. Q. INN. .. MR. LESTER ... MH. LOCKE MR. RORER

. . . ,

EDWARD G. BREMER.

Commercial State Bank prisoner, freed him about 8 o'clock last night. Bruner was unshaven. He either had been blimifolded or his eyes taped during the imprisonment, friends of the family said.

Possible Clue Is Reported.

A possible clue to the gang was given by Douglas Street, 33, chaufteur for Dr. Waltman Walters, Mayo clinic physician at Rochester. Street said he saw two well dressed men in a car bearing a New York license at Lewiston, Minn., about 3 o'clock this morning. Lewiston is thirty-seven miles wast of Rochester.

When Bremer was stopped in his motor ear after leaving his 8-year-old daughter, Betty, at the exclusive Summit Ciris' school, January 17, one of the gang climbed into the front seat with a revolver in his hand, the Banker related.

The banker attempted to open the good on the left and flee, but anyother of the gang blocked his way, pushed him back into the seat, and both kidnapers slugged him ever the head about the same time, he said.

The next he remembers was being taken some place in the gang's car. He does not recall being transferred from his own car, later found abandoned with blood stains inside, to the kidnapers' machine.

His eyes were bandaged and, although he has no recollection of how

(Continued on Second Page.)

against notifying puree.
the extent of his participation in the case, Nippert asserted.

Meanwhile, the kidnep victim was sleeping at his father's home, having been given an opiate after talking with federal investigators and police.

Police in Secret Quis.

As soon as Bremer returned home, Chief Thomas Dahill, Inspector Charles Tierney and Detective Tom Brown of the St. Paul police department rushed to the Adolph Bremer

With federal investigators they began questioning the banker. No one else was permitted to enter the yard, guarded by police and federal opera-

M. P. Kinkead, Ramsey County attorney, came to the home shortly afterward. The door first was shut in his face. A few minutes elapsed before he was admitted.

At the home with Bremer and his father were his uncle, Otto Bremer, chairman of the board of the American National Bank, and head of the Minnesota Home Owners Loan Corporation. The Bremers refused to cooperate with authorities during the banker's imprisonment, feeling at that time any police activity would endanger the victim's life.

Futher Grateful for Aid.

Adelph Bremer later issued a seatement of thanks:

"I greatly appreciate the personal interest of the President and the governor and the splendid co-operation given by the press and the radio.

"The city, state and federal law enfercing authorities have been most kind in their efforts and effers of assistance. Above all, I will never forset their humane willingness to stand by wheat my pleas convinced them that Edward's life was in serious iscounty.

jeopardy.

"No andizine has been too great for my brother Otto, Walter Magee, or brother Newstanh and others who at the have done their part.

great risk have done their part.

"It is my earliest prayer that other fathers and mothers will be spared tile agony of a similar ordeal."

Bremer Is Returned Alive By Kidnapers After 22 Days

Wealthy St. Paul Banker FREED BY KIDNAPERS Released at Rochester, Minn., Reaches Home Weak and Exhausted

WHETHER $200,000 RANSOM WAS PAID IS NOT DISCLOSED

Victim Was Waylaid by Gang In Street After Driving 8-Year-Old Daughter to School

BEATEN ABOUT THE HEAD BUT NOT SEVERELY HURT

St. Paul, Feb. 8—(AP)—Weak and exhausted, Edward G. Bremer, wealthy St. Paul banker, was at home today after being freed at about 8 o'clock last night by the kidnap gang which had held him 22 days for $200,000 ransom.

Whether any of the demanded ransom had been paid was not disclosed.

His captors, who numbered six or seven, close friends of the family said, released him near Rochester, Minn, 85 miles south of here. He was turned loose by three men in a small sedan, they said.

The 37-year-old president and owner of the Commercial State Bank for whose life fears had been expressed was uninjured other than suffering from exhaustion.

The family, happy in being reunited with the banker, was protected from interruption by Department of Justice agents who guarded the home of Adolph Bremer, father of the victim.

EDWARD G. BREMER Wealthy St. Paul banker who re-turned alive today after 22 days captivity.

7-576-A

MR. TOLSON ...

MR. EDWARDS

MR. QUINN.. MR. LESTER . MR. LOCKE.

MR. RORER

NOT RECORDED

Adolph, principal owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Co., and friends of President Roosevelt probably will issue a statement later.

The banker, friends said, took a bus from Rochester to St. Paul, then vent to his father's home in a taxi-

Friends said his eyes had been taped during his imprisonment.
First announcement of his release was made by Werner Hanni, chief of the Department of Justice office.
Bramer had been beaten about the head but not severely hurt at the time of the abduction.

Shortly after he was seized be-tween 5.20 A. M. and 8.30 A. M., Jan-mary 17, his blood-stained automo-bile was found the next day, aban-doned in an outlying residential dis-

Howard McGonn and Mrs. Jennie

Howard McGonn and Mrs. Jennie Haight, employes in the bus depot at Rochester, were believed to have been the first persons to see the banker after his release.

He entered the depot, they said, about 8 P. M. yesterday, asking about bus connections with the Twin Cities. They told him he had missed the last bus that night to the Twin Cities but that he could take a train to Owatonna, nearby, and catch a bus there.

the last bus that night to the lawin Cities but that he could take a train to Owatonna, nearby, and catch a bus there.

Bremer was quoted as saying he couldn't do that. McGonn and Mrs. Haight paid no particular attention to the unshaven stranger, who appeared dazed, they said, and did not know he was the long-sought St. Paul banker.

They did not know, they said, whether Bremer took a train to Owatonna and caught a bus there.

As soon as Bremer returned home, Chief of Police Thomas Dahill, inspector of detectives Charles Tierney, and Detective Tom Brown, of the St. Paul police department, rushed to the Adolph Bremer home.

They with Federal investigators immediately began questioning the banker. No one else was permitted to enter the yard, guarded by police and Federal operatives.

M. F. Kinkead, Ramsey county attorney, came to the home shortly afterward. The door first was shut in his face. A few minutes elapsed before he was admitted.

At the home with Bremer and his father, were his uncle, Otto Bremer, chairman of the board of the American National Bank, and head of the Minnesota Home Owners Loan Corporation. The Bremers, prominent Remocrats, steadfastly refused to co-operate with authorities during the banker's imprisonment, feeling at that time any police activity would-andanger the victim's life.

Hanni, asked if Bremer was all right, replied "Yes, he is."

Beyond that, silence veiled the experiences of the banker since the gang stopped his car, seized him in the street shortly after he had driven his S-year-old daughter, Bet-Lossinued on Last Pays, Column Eight)

BREMER IS RETURNED ALIVE BY KIDNAPERS AFTER 22 DAYS

(Continued from the First Page)

ty, to school. to the exclusive Summit Girls'

ty, to the exclusive Summit Girls' School.

Shortly after he was abducted, one of the men called Walter Mages, wealthy contractor, a friend of the Bremers, and said, "Well, we've got your friend, Bremer, and if you are not—careful, we'll get you, too."

Death for Bremer was threatened if Magee called in police or communicated with newspapers. A note, the unidentified speaker said, would be found on Magee's doorstep. The note, signed in a shaky hand by Bremer, gave directions for negotiating with the abductors.

Although unconfirmed, it was reported three contacts had been made previous to his release last night.

Three days ago he sent a public notice to the abductors that he would give them three days in which to contact him "by any source suitable to the abductors," and he hinted that if they did not he would leave the case entirely in the hands of the police.

Washington, Feb. $\textit{S}_{\textit{A}}(AP)_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit{D}_{\textit

Washington, Feb. 8—(AP)—Department of Justice officials indicated today that the search for the abductors of Edward G. Brumer would be intensified, now that he has been returned alive.

This was disclosed as details of the return of Brumer were coming into the office of J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Division of Invastigation of the Justice Department.

Many high in official life in Washington were happy at the return ington were happy at the return of the young man, as his family is well known to President Roose-velt and others here.

In other kidnap cases, the De-partment of Justice has not thrown its fullest resources into the search

Its fullest resources into the search for the kidnapers until the victim was returned.

It has ben explained that by giving the kidnapers a chance to return the person abducted, the family is satisfied and additional possibilities for securing information as to the identity of the responsible parties is provided.

Des Moines Tri

THE PAPER WITH THE PICTURES

'VOL. 53. NO. 149.

DES MOINES, IOWA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1934.

Believe Bremer, Now J. Was Held In Iowa b sic ward (believed lieved l A h near Fl to St. I day, act the Uni.

Ra Af S

Tribune

RES

RUARY 8, 1934.

22 PAGES

MARKETS SPORTS

Released, a by Kidnapers

Raid Near Sioux City After Tip to U.S. Men Saturday Is Reported

SIOUX CITY, IA. (U.P.)—The house in which Edward G. Bremer, wealthy St. Paul, Minn., banker, was believed held captive during ransom negotiations was believed located by federal agents working here Thursday.

A house in a secluded section northeast of the city near Floyd's cemetery, on the main road from Sioux City to St. Paul, was raided by federal operatives last Saturday, acting on a tip, but nothing was found at that time, the United Press learned.

County officials, while denying that they knew of the work of the federal men, admitted that Dick Cooley, Omaha, federal operative, and at least one federal agent from St. Paul, were believed close on the trail of the kidnapers near here as early as last Friday.

Possibility was expressed that the ransom negotiations were hastily concluded and the abductors took flight from here with their victim shortly before the federals raided the house.

ST. PAUL, MINN.—Edward G. Bremer, kidnaped St. Paul banker, has been freed.

He was released near Rochester, Minn., weak and exhausted, about 8 p. m. Wednesday after payment of $200,000 ransom by his millionaire father, Adolph Bremer, federal agents and the family revealed Thursday.

The victim, who had been held captive 22 days, is now at the home of his father here.

The father revealed that the full amount of the ransom was paid Tugsday night with $84,000 in $5 bills and the balance in $10 bills.

Kidnap Note.

The text of the note which the 73-year-old father dispatched with the ransom money Tuesday follows:

"To parties holding Edward: I've done my part and kept my word 100 per cent just as I said I would. This money is not marked and is the full amount asked for. And now, boys, I am counting on your honor. Be sports and do the square thing by turning Edward loose at once.

gned) "Adolph Bremer."
One of Largest.
Bremer Panson

E. G. BREMER.

Hold as Days & Prisoner.

Own Story

Guarded Day and Night, Says Bremer.

Warned Not to Look Around.

BT. PAUL, MINN. (A.P.)— Edward G. Bremer Thursday told his own story of his $300, 000 kidnaping.

When he was stopped in the automobile after leaving his 8-year-old daughter, Betty, at the exclusive Summit girls school, here, Jan. 17, one of the gang climbed into the front seat with a gun in his hand, the banker told police and federal investigators.

Blocked Way.

open the door on the left and flee, but another of the gang blocked his way, pushed him back into the seat and both kidnapers alugged him over the head about the same time, he

The next he remembers was being taken some place in the gang's car. He does not recall being transferred from his own automobile, later found abandoned with blood spattered faside, to the kidnapers' machine.

Eyes Bandaged.

His eyes were bandaged and though he has no recollection of how many men were in the car when he regained consciousness, Bremer believes there must have been 10 or 12 men in the gang, judging from the number of yolces he heard in the place where he was held lashified in the place where he was held lashified in the place where he was held lashified.

During his imprisonment, Broman make the mass kept in in a lark room with guards, worked ing in relays of two, always seated behind him, night and day. He was constantly warned not to look apound.

"One look and we'll blow your brains out," Brainer sald

Seeks Sages For Cabinet

PARIS, FRANCE (F) Gesto

MF. NATHAN ... L. TOLSON THE CLEOG. N.R. COWLEY BIH. LUWARDS ...

FATHER EXTENDS DEADLINE FOR BREMER CONTACT

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 7.—[Special.]—
The deadline set by Adolf Bremer, wealthy St. Paul brewer, for a contact with the kidnapers of his banker son, Edward G. Bremer, today was extended until tomorrow.

He issued a statement which said:

"In hopes of making a contact, the "In hopes of making a contact, the officials have agreed with me to extend the time until tomorrow night." The deadline set in the elder Bremer's appeal to the kidnapers Sunday expired at noon today. In the statement which set the original deadline the brewer indicated that if the kidnapers who seized his son Jan. 17 for $200,000 repression had not community. for $200,000 ransom had not communicated with him by today he would turn the case wide open to the fed-eral, state, and St. Paul authorities. These previously at Bremer's request, have been insective in the case.

Chicago hibrane 5-5-34. NOT RECORDED 7-576. A

Bremer Closeted With Authorities, Relating Kidnap Experiences

nished a comfortable place to sleep.

In the brief scuffle which preceded the actual kidnaping, International News Service was informed, Bremer had no opportunity to see his captors clearly. He was blindfolded almost immediately, and bandages were kept on his eyes during the twenty-three days of his captivity.

RELEASED AFTER RIDE.

After Adolph Bremer, millionaire brewer and father of the kidnap victim, established contact with the cers.

good food and plenty of it, and fur- criminals and paid over the ransom, the banker was released.

When the money had been paid, Bremer was placed in an automo-bile, still blindfolded, and driven for several hours. He was turned loose on a lonely road near Rochester, eighty-five miles from St. Paul.

He boarded a bus and came into St. Paul, arriving this morning and going at once to the home of his father, where he has been closeted with police and federal investigators ever since.

Bremer is in good shape and able to detail his experience to the offi-

Bremer Father Thanks Those Who Aided

ST. PAUL, Feb. 8.—Adolph Bremer, father of the kidnaped Edward G. Bremer, made the fol-

I greatly appreciate the personal interest of the President and the governor and the spiendid co-operation given by the press and the radio.

The city, state and federal law enforcing authorities have been most kind in their efforts and offers of assistance. Above all I will never forget their humane willingness to stand by when my pleas convinced them that Edward's life was in serious jeopardy.

No sacrifice has been too great for my brother Otto, Walter Magee, Clarence Newcomb and others who at great Risk have done their part.

It is my earnest prayer that other fathers and mothers will be spared the agony of a similar or-AND LANGUAGE WITH partment of Justice officials indilowing statement today after the cated today that the search for the younger Bremer had returned abductors of Edward G. Bremer, home:

Rt. Paul banker would be intensi-St. Paul banker, would be intensified now that he has been returned alive.

> This was disclosed as details of the return of Bremer were coming into the office of J. Edgar Hoover, director of the division of investiga> tion of the Justice Department.

>
> Many high in official life in Washington were happy at the return of the young man, as his family is well known to President Roosevelt and others here.

> In other kidnap cases, the De-partment of Justice has not thrown its fullest resources into the search for the kidnapers until the victim was returned.

It has been explained that by giving the kidnapers a chance to return the person abducted, the fam-Try is satisfied and additional pos-sibilities for securing information as to the identity of the manageible parties is provided.

NOT RECORDED 7-576-A

Edward G. Bremer, St. Paul banker, released at Rochester, Minn., by kidnapers who had held him prisoner since January 17.

SAFE AFTER BEING HELD 23 DAYS

Joyful Father Reveals How He Paid Cash in Old Bills.

(C 1934, by International News Service.)
ST. PAUL, Feb. 8.—(By International News Service.)-With the full ransom of $200,4 000 paid, Edward G. Bremer, kidnaped banker, was free and back in his St. Paul home today.

Payment of the ransom was ade mitted by Adolph Bremer, the banker's rich brewer father.

The elder Bremer said the ram som was paid in notes and bills, $85,000 of which were $5 notes and the remainder in $10 bills, as' demanded by the abductors. The money, he added, was paid to the kidnapers Tuesday night.

Visibly elated over the conclusion of the ordeal experienced by him since his son was kidnaped after taking his daughter to school on January 17, the wealthy owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Company, said he greatly appreciated the personal interest of President dent Roosevelt and Governor Oleon. Section IN GOOD COMPANIE

The younger Bremer returned good physical condition, despite that fact that a physician attended him for minor injuries about the incurred when he strugg the abductors at the time matching."

Adolph Bremer said:

BEATEN IN FIGHT. Bremer, who was freed last night near Rochester, where he had been near Rochester, where he had been held for twenty-three days and who returned to St. Paul on a bus, told relatives of the kidnaping.

He said that after the seisure he had attempted to fight with his abductors but had been heldy beaten and subdued. He said he was then driven continuously in an was then driven continuously in an automobile for about fifteen hours.
At length the kidnapers stopped in front of a house, believed so where near Rochester. Here Bremer was held until-last night.

PLENTY OF GOOD FOOD. Except for the first attack upon him, it was learned, Bremer was well treated during the entire time he was held prisoner. He was given Continued on Page 4, Col

Chicago duereau 7-5-76-A 2-8-34