I was driving my car South on Raymond Ave, near Green St. at approx. 2:45 A/M on 1-21-53, at the northwest corner of Green St. & Raymond Ave. my friend and I saw a colored man standing on the corner. he waved at us as we passed, we drove across Green St. to a point approx. 50 ft. South of Green on the West side of Raymond.

Immediately after we stopped the Negro man came up to the car.

I did not notice the type of clothing this man wore other than he wore a tan slap type cap and tan vest.

He asked us "if we wanted a good time". we asked him what he meant, he replied that "he couldn't offer us much, but he He was in the car when he made this statement. He was in the front seat with and I.

I then got into the back seat and the colored man stayed in the front
