ADDENDUM: CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION (CID) JLT:atj 8/10/77

Two Accounting Technicians (AT) were on special assignment in the New Orleans Division for six weeks assisting in the review of the Carlos Marcello records. They completed the review of available records on 8/5/77, and the two ATs were sent on special assignment to Albuquerque. The case agent has advised the ATs could handle the review requested in attached teletype if they are available. CID recommends that it be determined on or about 9/1/77 if the ATs have completed their special assignment and if so, make them available for the New Orleans Division. If they are not available, CID recommends the assignment of two Special Agent Accountants to assist on this extremely important case concerning the head of the LCN family in New Orleans.

During the investigation of [redacted] it was learned that MARCELLO co-signed a $408,000 loan with the First National Bank of Jefferson Parish.

Said loan was made in the name of Gulf Coast Fabricators, Inc. (GCF), [redacted] and [redacted] as an individual. As a result of this information subpoenas duces tecums were served on nine different banks suspected of doing business with CARLOS MARCELLO and/or his corporate enterprises. A review and analysis of MARCELLO's personal checking account #40-871-6 at the Merchants Trust and Savings Bank located in Kenner, La., revealed in the year of 1975 MARCELLO deposited a total of $432,650.00 into this account. Most of the deposits were $5,000.00 and above, and were not identified. Supporting documents for the deposits have not been received from the bank as of this time. Of the total deposits approximately $156,000.00 in deposits have been tentatively traced to MARCELLO's account from the checking account #660-210-5 in the name of [redacted] at the First National Bank of Jefferson Parish.

A review of [redacted] as identified above reveals that on 5/5/75, [redacted] deposited in his account a check received through the Federal Reserve Bank in the amount of $100,000.00. It was learned that this $100,000.00 check made payable to [redacted] was drawn on the account of [redacted]

Investigation at New Orleans and Cleveland, Ohio has revealed that JOHN G. MASONI is primarily engaged in land development in Ohio concentrating on race tracks and dog tracks throughout the United States. MASONI has been associated in Cleveland with the LOMBARDO family who are also engaged in construction, automobile race tracks, drive-in theaters, and various other land speculation deals. MASONI is the principal stockholder of Jefferson Downs Race Track located in Kenner, La., the owner/operator of Sunshine Race Track, Oldsmar, Florida; owner of the Southland Grayhound Track, West Memphis, Arkansas; owner of the Daytona Beach Kennel Club, Daytona Beach, Florida, and a financial interest in the Bali Corporation. It should be noted these ownerships have not been confirmed.

On 5/5/75, [redacted] issues a check payable to CARLOS MARCELLO in the sum of $50,000.00. On 5/13/75, and 6/6/75, [redacted] issues a check for $20,000.00 on each occasion payable to CARLOS MARCELLO.

An analysis of MARCELLO's checking account as identified above reveals that on 5/8/75, he deposited into this account the $50,000.00 check from [redacted] and on the same date he writes one check to the estate of [redacted] for $23,775.00 and another check to [redacted] with a notation on each check, Principle $15,000.00, Interest $8,775.00. It should be noted that prior to the $50,000.00 deposit MARCELLO did not have enough money in his bank account to write the two checks for $23,775.00 each, which totaled $47,500.00.

On 5/13/75, MARCELLO deposited one $20,000.00 check from [redacted] and on 5/13/75, the very same day, wrote a check for $5,286.50 to the H.P.B., Jr. Development Corporation and another check for $14,496.59 at the National American Bank with a notation on that check stating "Interest on loan." It should be noted that prior to the $20,000.00 deposit from [redacted] MARCELLO did not have sufficient funds in his account to issue the two above-described checks.

On 6/9/75, MARCELLO deposits the second $20,000.00 check from [redacted] and on 6/10/75, issues a check for $18,500.00 to the estate of [redacted] and on 6/10/75, he issues a check for $3,850.00 to the H.P.B. Jr. Development Corporation.

On 9/9/75, cashier's check #4434, which was obtained with funds from [redacted] account at Pontchartrain State Bank, in the amount of $5,000.00 was deposited in MARCELLO's account. On 11/18/75, MARCELLO deposited $31,900.00 in his account. This deposit was made from the proceeds of two checks, one in the amount of $26,400.00, the other a cashier's check #1113 made payable to CARLOS MARCELLO from the Pontchartrain State Bank, in the sum of $5,500.00.

Although it cannot be corroborated at this time it appears that large deposits in MARCELLO's accounts may possibly be the proceeds of illegitimate gains perpetrated by MARCELLO and/or other persons used as conduits, similar to the situation where [redacted] funneled money into MARCELLO's account. It therefore becomes apparent that in order to completely analyze MARCELLO's financial and corporate empire each and every bank account, corporate account and loans must be scheduled out and the monies from each traced. It also is becoming apparent that the corporate officers in his controlled corporations appear to be his brothers and his son and that it may become necessary in the very near future to subpoena their financial records which must thereafter be analyzed.

In connection with an investigation entitled [redacted] ANTI-RACKETEERING" and a review of his banking records it was determined that [redacted] had a close relationship both personal and business, with CARLOS J. MARCELLO.

On May 5, 1975, [redacted] issues a check payable to CARLOS MARCELLO in the sum of $50,000.00. On May 13, 1975, and June 6, 1975, [redacted] issues a check for $20,000.00 on each occasion payable to CARLOS MARCELLO.

An analysis of MARCELLO's checking account as identified above reveals that on May 8, 1975, he deposited into this account the $50,000.00 check from [redacted] and on the same date he writes one check to the estate of [redacted] for $23,775.00 and another check to [redacted] with a notation on each check, Principle $15,000.00 Interest $8,775.00. It should be noted that prior to the $50,000.00 deposit MARCELLO did not have enough money in his bank account to write the two checks for $23,775.00 each, which totaled $47,500.00.

On May 13, 1975, MARCELLO deposited one $20,000 check from [redacted] and on May 13, 1975, the very same day, wrote a check for $5,286.50 to the H.P.B., Jr. Development Corporation and another check for $14,496.59 at the National American Bank with a notation on that check stating "Interest on loan." It should be noted that prior to the $20,000.00 deposit from [redacted] MARCELLO did not have sufficient funds in his account to issue the two above-described checks.

On June 9, 1975, MARCELLO deposits the second $20,000.00 check from [redacted] and on June 10, 1975, issues a check for $18,500.00 to the estate of [redacted] and on June 10, 1975, he issues a check for $3,850.00 to the H.P.B., Jr. Development Corporation.

On September 9, 1975, cashiers check #4434, which was obtained with funds from [redacted] account at Pontchartrain State Bank, in the amount of $5,000.00 was deposited in MARCELLO's account. On November 18, 1975, MARCELLO deposited $31,900.00 in his account. This deposit was made from the proceeds of two checks, one in the amount of $26,400.00, the other a cashier's check #1113 made payable to CARLOS MARCELLO from the Pontchartrain State Bank, in the sum of $5,500.00.

To date it has been determined that of that total the following amounts have been deposited from this account into the following corporate accounts: H.P.B., Jr. Development Corporation, $45,636.50; Marco, Inc., $950.00; Churchill Farms, $4,000.00; the Louisa Corporation, $2,500.00; DeWeese Properties, $25,400.00; Estate of [redacted] $18,500.00; the Estate of [redacted] and [redacted] $57,540.00.

The MARCELLO account as described above for the year 1976 has not been completely analyzed at this time, however it has been determined that MARCELLO diverted monies from his personal checking account into the following corporations during 1975 and 1976: H.P.B., Jr. Development Corporation; Stevie Motel Corporation; Marco, Inc.; [redacted] Churchill Farms; the Louisa Corporation; Town and Country Motel; Southern Tours; Pier 90 Lounge; Pelican Tomato Company; Marsh Investment Corporation; Lad Investment; Jefferson Music Company; Elmwood Plantation, Inc.; Broussard's Restaurant; Bayou Verrett; Gem Corporation; DeWeese Properties; Estate of [redacted] Estate of [redacted] and [redacted]

GCE is a fishing concern which is associated with Taiyo Americus (TA), a Japanese fishing cartel with offices located in New York City, New York.

[redacted] and Jefferson Parish Sheriff's Office (JPSO) Intelligence Division, advised information to effect that GCE is a MARCELLO-controlled business and possibly involved in narcotics smuggling from the island of Utila, off the northeastern coast of British Honduras.

MARCELLO also made arrangements with president of local bank in New Orleans for TA to deposit in middle of 1976, $500,000.00 by means of a letter of credit in this bank. Investigation also reveals that in approximately the early part of 1976, TA deposited a $250,000.00 letter of credit. It is unknown at this time where this $750,000.00 is now located.

It should also be noted that this company lists in its Dunn & Bradstreet report that it owns a 125-foot steel vessel named "Taurus".

Although complete returns have not been made on the subpoenas issued, however partial returns on some of the accounts revealed CARLOS is using these corporations as collateral for large loans, two of which were $500,000 each. On each of these loans, papers received from the banks reveal that MARCELLO never has furnished a complete financial statement, however at the banks' request has only provided a typewritten letter on MARCELLO's stationery stating that he is the owner of large tracts of land and business corporations and his net worth is in excess of $1,650,000.00. When the bankers have been asked why MARCELLO has not been requested to furnish a complete financial statement the bankers reply that he has been doing business with the bank for years, is known to be a reliable businessman who always pays his loan and therefore a financial statement has not been requested by the directors of these banks.

[redacted] advised he was employed at the bank as a [redacted] while [redacted] was the [redacted] During the course of his duties as the bank's administrative officer, [redacted] had very little to do with [redacted] in the way of daily business involving loans. [redacted] stated that the person who worked directly under [redacted] during that period of time was [redacted] who has since quit working with the bank.

[redacted] stated the bank has a policy whereby the Executive Vice President or President has the authority to approve loans up to $100,000 without the approval of the Board of Directors. He stated this loan maximum is on individual loans and does not take into account the aggregate amount of loans to any individual. He stated further bank policies existent during the course of time [redacted] was employed as [redacted] pertaining to the issuance of loans had since been revised and the procedures had been tightened considerably so as to avoid the recurrence of the situation such as that involved with [redacted]

[redacted] stated as a matter of course the bank will for certain clients handle Accounts Receivable for the clients in order to strengthen the bank's position for the control of capital on loan. He stated that when these procedures are instituted for a client, the invoices and receipts are maintained in the file jackets and are never destroyed since the bank is in effect assuming partial responsibility for the work of the Accounting Section of the business.

In further discussion of the loans obtained by [redacted] advised a review of these loans had indicated a surprising number of them had been issued without proper collateralization. A good number had been based upon receivables in which case the bank had loaned 80 percent of the receivables as is their standard practice. He stated further this is one of the practices that had been amended since the departure of [redacted]. b6 b7C

Another practice which had been changed was the numerical designation on loans issued by the bank. Originally loans were issued to customers by name only and the numbering system was secondary. This resulted, however, in a confusion concerning the numbering on individual loans. The new system now precludes any two loans having the same numbers since the system of issuance carries a specific numerical designation as well as the alphabetical designation by customer's name.

[redacted] advised [redacted] is now employed by [redacted] He and [redacted] have been close friends for a long time. As an aside [redacted] added [redacted] had many loans from the bank, all of which had been repaid in good order.

On July 21, 1977, [redacted] provided the following information: b6 b7C

During the course of the entire [redacted] situation, the bank had had occasion to review all of the loans and transactions with [redacted] as well as those transactions and loans with persons related to or dealing with [redacted] The result of this review in addition to failing to reveal any complicity on the part of [redacted] who was at that time the [redacted] further showed the bank's position was extremely poor since a great number of the loans were under-collateralized. [redacted] further explained under-collateralization for some loans was in reality no collateral. He stated that subsequent to the review of the entire situation the bank had arrived at a figure of approximately $879,000 it was forced to charge off.

In discussing the loans with [redacted] Brownsville, Texas, [redacted] advised the loans had totaled $80,000. In further explanation he stated the original documentation indicated negotiations for loans of a large amount which were never consummated. Subsequent to the refusal of these large loans [redacted] had pleaded a great deal of expense in attempting to satisfy the requirements of the bank, and therefore requested two loans of $40,000 each, one for himself and one for his company. These loans were approved and deposited into [redacted] account with Pontchartrain State Bank. [redacted] could not recall the exact details but did recall there was some confusion with approximately $15,000 in the total loans. This was eventually straightened out to everyone's satisfaction. Additionally, [redacted] had apparently agreed to pay [redacted] a commission for his role as a broker on these loans. The check written by [redacted] to [redacted] had been stopped by [redacted] acting on behalf of the bank, had deducted the amount of the check from [redacted] account and delivered this to [redacted] as his commission. [redacted] for some reason had taken half of this commission in cash and with the other half purchased a cashier's check which he gave back to [redacted] For this, [redacted] could supply no explanation.

In discussing a renegotiation by the bank with [redacted] for approximately $60,000 worth of loans, [redacted] stated this renegotiation was the result of a combination of four separate loans on which [redacted] was not paying. This renegotiation was the result of attempting to avoid civil litigation and allowing [redacted] a sufficient amount of latitude so that the bank would be able to regain its funds. [redacted] stated he recalled the collateralization for this renegotiation had been in three sections. He admitted at the time the bank realized that this money was in reality almost lost with the renegotiation being their only hope of recovery and no attempt had been made to verify the collateral which [redacted] had pledged on this loan. [redacted] stated even with the negotiations, payment on this loan was still in arrears. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated he has in his possession in his office the sum total of all records concerning [redacted] and related matters, and will be prepared to answer specific questions by the FBI at anytime.

He further stated that during the two years in which the loan had been outstanding he had neither requested or received any repayments on the original amount. Arrangements were made between AUSA [redacted] and [redacted] to have records turned over in compliance with subpoena to Bureau Agent at Cleveland, Ohio, for transmittal to FBI, New Orleans, rather than having a representative of Cleveland Trust Company, actually appear at New Orleans with records.

On August 29, 1977, AUSA [redacted] advised that he had been contacted by officials of the [redacted] in Shreveport, Louisiana. These officials desired to turn over the records pertaining to [redacted] and [redacted] to an agent of the FBI at Shreveport, Louisiana, rather than appear at New Orleans and turn over these records to the Federal Grand Jury [redacted] work as possible to supply these records. However, each indicated they had other work to do, a personnel problem, and that these records were going to be difficult to locate. It appears that these bankers rather than being wholeheartedly cooperative are putting up as subtle as possible resistance to Bureau efforts to obtain records.

On October 13, 1977, [redacted] the account of [redacted] were obtained from [redacted] On October 27, 1977, [redacted] records regarding the MARCELLOs were obtained from [redacted] and information regarding Churchill Farms and [redacted] were obtained from the [redacted] has advised that they have prepared information regarding the [redacted] All of these banks are continuing their search for the records requested; however, it appears that due to poor microfilm and poor record keeping and the age of records desired, that all records will not be available.

October 4, 1966

My dear Mr. Hoover:

The arrest of Carlos Marcello in New York brought to mind his long struggle against the government to escape deportation. As I recall it the courts of Louisiana did not emerge quite clean and at least one judge reversed himself at the last minute, for reasons known to himself.

I would think that a reissue of the case history of the Marcello case and the inability of the Justice Department to get him out of the country as an undesirable alien would be propitious at this time. To me it illustrates the impotence of agencies like yours when you cannot get proper judicial backing. A refresher on Marcello might be revealing at this time.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Texas, to determine the amount of publicity given to this assault in the Laredo area.

On December 16, 1966, the San Antonio Office furnished the following information:

Investigation at Laredo, Texas, determined that the "Laredo Times", the only daily newspaper in Laredo, Texas, published United Press International (UPI) release from New Orleans regarding this assault on October 7, 1966. This article appeared on page two and was approximately six inches long. No other article was located as having been published in this newspaper from September 30, 1966, to October 7, 1966.

A review of the "South Texas Citizen", a weekly newspaper at Laredo, Texas, disclosed no article published on October 6, 1966, or October 13, 1966.

Television Station KGNS-TV, Laredo, Texas, had no record of running the news item in this matter; however, they advised that they most probably ran a UPI or Associated Press (AP) news release as it came off the wires and would have no record of having done so. This television station is not set up for still photographs; therefore, no photographs have been shown.

Radio Station KOZ and KGNS, Laredo, Texas, advised that they have no record of running any news item in this matter. They both advised that if they had broadcast a news item it would have been off of the UPI or AP news wires.

The San Antonio Office furnished the following article which was published in the "Laredo Times", Laredo, Texas, on October 7, 1966:

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) - New Orleans Rackets figure Carlos Marcello goes before U. S. Commissioner Fritz Windhorst today on charges of slugging an FBI agent he thought was a news photographer.

Marcello was arrested after the melee broke out at the New Orleans International Airport on his arrival from New York.

Marcello, in a group of alleged Mafia chieftains arrested in New York last week, was met at the airport by a group of newsmen and photographers. He ordered the newsmen to leave and all but two bystanders obeyed his command.

He threw a roundhouse left at one of the men who refused to go. The recipient turned out to be FBI Agent Patrick Collins Jr.

Marcello said he thought Collins and the other men were newsmen. He said they were dressed in shirt sleeves and were carrying cameras.

Windhorst ordered $50,000 bond, which Marcello posted immediately."

At 8:05 p.m., I arrived at the New Orleans International Airport, Kenner, Louisiana, for the purpose of placing CARLOS MARCELLO and [redacted] under surveillance from the time of their disembarking from an airplane to their departure from the airport. I determined that Delta Airlines Flight 925, due to arrive at 8:36 p.m., would not be in until 9:30 p.m.

At 9:30 p.m., I observed CARLOS MARCELLO and [redacted] [redacted] come off the ramp from the airplane. They were immediately surrounded by cameramen and newspapermen who stayed with them from the exit on Gate 19 into the Main Lobby.

I observed this group from about seventy-five feet. At this juncture, CARLOS and [redacted] met an unknown individual and these three persons walked out of the main entrance of the airport. This party turned to its right and started walking down a narrow rampway between parked vehicles and a railing fence.

I stayed approximately fifty feet behind this party until they had gone about seventy-five feet down the ramp.

I then observed CARLOS MARCELLO, [redacted] and the unknown individual turn and start shouting to the contingent of newspapermen. I heard [redacted] shout "Haven't you got enough pictures, you (obscene)". CARLOS MARCELLO started shouting "Get out of here. I'm the boss around here, you (obscene)".

SA [redacted] was standing with the photographers carrying a camera. It appeared to me that the MARCELLOs might take immediate physical action against the photographers and newspapermen so I moved up through the crowd toward the MARCELLO party and took a position next to SA [redacted] facing CARLOS and [redacted] MARCELLO.

CARLOS MARCELLO directly faced me and said "I'm the boss here. Are you looking for some (obscene) trouble?" I crossed my hands on my chest and stated to CARLOS MARCELLO, "I can handle trouble".

CARLOS and [redacted] simultaneously closed the distance between myself and them, and CARLOS MARCELLO brought his right hand with his fist closed toward me in a roundhouse blow. Simultaneously with his commencing of a blow, [redacted] grabbed his arm and attempted to restrain him. I immediately took a counterpunch position with my hands open.

CARLOS MARCELLO did not get to strike a blow due to his brother's immediate action and the unknown individual's action shortly thereafter. I struck no blow due to the fact that I would not strike a blow unless one of these individuals struck first.

[redacted] and the unknown individual pulled CARLOS MARCELLO down the rampway, about twenty-five feet, and got CARLOS MARCELLO into the back seat of a vehicle parked at the curb. [redacted] took the right front seat and the unknown individual got into the driver's seat and these three individuals immediately departed from the airport. b6 b7C

FD-302 (Rev. 1-25-60) FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

1 Date 10/3/66

At approximately 9:30 p.m., I filmed CARLOS MARCELLO and [redacted] as they arrived at Gate 19, New Orleans International Airport. A third person, an unidentified male who met the MARCELLOs, was also filmed.

The MARCELLOs were filmed as they walked through the airport concourse, lobby, and out the front door. At various intervals in the airport, members of the MARCELLO party were heard to say "Don't you have enough pictures", which was addressed to the representatives of the news media in general, as well as SA [redacted]

The MARCELLOs walked out the front door of the airport on the lobby level, and turned to the right and walked down the sidewalk of the automobile ramp. The representatives of the news media followed about five to ten feet behind the MARCELLOs. After walking about seventy-five feet, CARLOS MARCELLO turned and stated "You have enough pictures, I'm the boss here". About this time SA PATRICK J. COLLINS, JR., moved into position alongside SA [redacted]

As CARLOS MARCELLO made this statement, he, [redacted] MARCELLO and the third man, stepped towards the group. The MARCELLOs stopped and CARLOS MARCELLO appeared to face SA COLLINS and state "I'm the boss here. Are you looking for (obscene) trouble?" SA COLLINS stated "I can handle trouble" and CARLOS MARCELLO responded by taking a step and swinging a "roundhouse blow" with his right hand. SA [redacted] did not see whether the blow swung by MARCELLO struck anyone. The two men with MARCELLO restrained him, and the three turned and abruptly departed in a dark, late model car.

At 8:10 AM, SAs [redacted] and ERNEST C. WALL, JR. arrived at the residence of CARLOS MARCELLO, 3117 Ridgeway Court, Metairie, Louisiana. The Agents rang the front door bell and a peep hole in the front door was opened and a male voice inquired as to what the Agents wanted. SA WALL stepped up close to the peep hole and identified CARLOS MARCELLO as the individual standing inside the door and immediately identified himself and SA [redacted] as Special Agents of the FBI, informing him that the Agents had a warrant for his arrest charging him with assaulting a Federal officer. MARCELLO closed the peep hole and as he was closing the peep hole stated that he had to call his attorney. SA WALL requested admittance to the house to which MARCELLO replied that the Agents would be admitted after he called his attorney.

At 8:15 AM, CARLOS MARCELLO returned to the front door, opened it, admitted the Agents and at that time was placed under arrest. SA WALL and SA [redacted] identified themselves as Special Agents of the FBI and MARCELLO was immediately advised by SA WALL that he did not have to make any statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law, and that he had the right to consult an attorney. Immediately after MARCELLO was advised of his rights, without any questions from the Agents, he stated that when he and his party arrived at the airport on the preceding night a large group of photographers were taking photographs of them. MARCELLO said that the lights from the flash attachments to the cameras were hurting his eyes and, in addition, his son was present at the airport with them and that he felt the taking of pictures would be embarrassing to his son. MARCELLO said that after he turned to the group of photographers and asked if they had taken enough damn pictures and one of the men in the group said they had not taken enough damn pictures, MARCELLO stated that at that time he swung his arm up and that there was a man standing nearby, but that he did not actually strike this man. MARCELLO said that he did not know this particular man was an FBI Agent.

[redacted] Louisiana, a detective with the Intelligence Bureau, New Orleans Police Department, where he has been employed for seven years and nine months, said he and his partner, Detective [redacted] also of the Intelligence Bureau, New Orleans Police Department, were at approximately 9:30 PM on September 30, 1966, at Moisant Field, New Orleans International Airport, standing outside Gate 19, Concourse [redacted] stated that he observed [redacted] CARLOS MARCELLO, both of whom he recognized by sight, exit what he considered to be the airlines' personnel exit at Gate 19. [redacted] stated that [redacted] CARLOS MARCELLO met with a young white male, believed to be CARLOS MARCELLO's son-in-law, and all three of them briskly walked in the direction of the airport lobby without speaking. [redacted] stated that a group of approxiamtely 10 individuals, appearing to be press, wearing white shirts and ties, who had been waiting in the reception room, Gate 19, at that time noticed the MARCELLOs had left the waiting room area by another door and they moved rapidly in an effort to catch up with them. [redacted] said the MARCELLOs continued along the concourse apparently undisturbed by the photographing which was being done by the group which had joined them.

[redacted] stated the photographing group was within about 10 feet of the MARCELLOs and he and his partner, Detective [redacted] remained 20 to 30 feet behind and slightly to the left of the MARCELLOs, as the group walked up the concourse and across the lobby exiting to the elevated roadway through the main exit. He said as the group left the main airport terminal, they turned right and walked on the walkway which is next to the main building and continues on around the elevated ramp. Detective [redacted] advised at that time his partner, Detective [redacted] proceeded to the opposite end of the elevated ramp to a point where his police car was parked. b6 b7C

He stated that the group he was observing proceeded on the walkway and as they approached the parked cars following the MARCELLOs, they had to walk two abreast because the passageway narrowed.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

[redacted] stated as the MARCELLOs approached the rear of a 1966 Buick Riviera, gold in color, bearing 1966-67 Louisiana license 31B644, CARLOS MARCELLO turned on the group of people and said in a loud or much louder than normal tone (This quotation, because of its obscene nature, is contained in a separately sealed record). [redacted] stated that CARLOS shouted several other words which he could not distinguish and since he could see tension building he moved in and joined the group. [redacted] related that he observed CARLOS and [redacted] standing abreast one another on the walkway and believed that CARLOS shouted several other cuss words at the crowd; however, he was unable to distinguish exactly what CARLOS MARCELLO was saying.

At about this time, [redacted] said CARLOS MARCELLO began to shove the crowd in an apparent effort to move the group back. NOLAN stated, in his opinion, the group had not hampered the movement of the MARCELLOs and at the moment the shoving began, the MARCELLOs were not crowded. He advised [redacted] for just a moment watched CARLOS MARCELLO shoving the crowd and he, [redacted] had a look of disbelief on his face. Subsequently, according to NOLAN, [redacted] MARCELLO joined his brother CARLOS in shoving the crowd. Detective [redacted] stated as CARLOS shoved the group his shouts of "move back, move back," became frenzied and grew steadily louder.

Detective [redacted] advised at about this time there were three or four people in front of him and the group began to thin out. He stated he noticed a tall white male, approximately six feet, 180 pounds, wearing a white shirt and tie, had been crowded to a point against the guard rail and that the remainder of the crowd was shoved by MARCELLO to a point slightly passed this white male.

[redacted] said at just about this time, CARLOS MARCELLO noticed this white male which had been pinned against the guard rail; [redacted] related that the white male was located approximately at CARLOS MARCELLO's left shoulder. [redacted] stated CARLOS MARCELLO, noticing this white male was not moving, appeared to become enraged, at which time he threw his left arm across his body and leaned slightly to the right. [redacted] related CARLOS feinted with his left arm in a backhand motion. He recocked his left arm and struck the white male a glancing blow across the left chest and face. [redacted] said that at the same time he was striking this white male, he shouted something at him which he personally feels was a profanity; however, he could not recall the exact statement. He stated the white male who had rolled with the blow stood his ground and intently watched CARLOS MARCELLO. [redacted] said CARLOS MARCELLO and the white male stood intently staring at each other.

"We arrived at the Airport about 8:15 and were told that there would be a delay of the Delta flight from New York on which MARCELLO would be arriving. We waited in the Delta lobby at Ramp #19, where we met other members of the local news media. I could identify the following: [redacted] news photographer, W.D.S.U. TV N.O.LA.; [redacted] news photographer, Associated Press; [redacted] two representatives from WVUE TV NOLA., were present but left before the arrival of MARCELLO.

"At approximately 9:35, the plane arrived. When MARCELLO entered the terminal building, we [redacted] and [redacted] along with the other news personnel began to photograph MARCELLO as he walked up the corridor back to the main lobby of the terminal. At one point I attempted to interview MARCELLO. It went something like this: b6 b7C

"Following this we continued to photograph MARCELLO as he walked down the corridor. All of the photographers, including members of the F.B.I. who were identified to us earlier as Agents, remained with MARCELLO as he walked toward the main entrance of the airport. MARCELLO was followed by two men... one identified as his brother [redacted] and the other as his son, [redacted] At no time before leaving the building did anyone in the MARCELLO group say anything to the newsmen and F.B.I. people. b6 b7C

"As we left the building and began walking down the concourse, what appeared to be MARCELLO, turned to the group of photographers and yelled...'You got enough...You got enough (obscene) pictures?'

"At this point, we all stopped. MARCELLO, his brother and his son began walking back towards us. MARCELLO asked again, 'You got enough (obscene) pictures...,cause if you don't?'

"At this point, all of the news men and photographers with the exception of the two Agents stepped back several paces. The two Agents held their ground and remained silent. Both pretended to be looking at the ground. MARCELLO, flanked by his brother and his son walked up to the F.B.I. men; still addressing everyone and said...

"'This is my town....I'm the boss....No (obscene) pictures.'

[redacted] replied: b6 b7C

"'OK if that's the way you want it.'

"A few moments later, MARCELLO turned to the two Agents, who were still standing there looking down and began yelling obscenities at them, still harping about 'enough pictures.'

"I noticed that CARLOS moved in swiftly toward the Agent leaning against the rail as if he were going to hit him with a fist. I saw several fists in the air....about shoulder high to the Agent....I don't know how well they may have landed except that the Agent was pushed back several feet. At one point, I felt that the Agent might be going over the rail and even leaned over to take a picture which later showed that he did not go over.

"The scuffle lasted about 30 to 40 seconds and ended when a guard, later identified as a Kenner policeman, broke up the affair. CARLOS MARCELLO mumbled something, then turned with his companions and walked to where his car was, got in, and drove away.

"I walked up to one of the Agents (the one that I believed to have been on the recieving end of the punch) and asked him if he was hurt. He replied, No.

"Then I asked him if he felt that MARCELLO was going to beat him up and possibly throw him off of the concourse. He replied, 'No, I wasn't afraid of him. I did not want to hurt that old man and would not lay a finger on him.....We'er not suppose to do that kind of thing anyway.'

"Following the scuffle, we all walked back into the main lobby, later departing back for New Orleans where we prepared our reports for the late news show.

No promises, rewards, threats or inducements have been made to me by Special Agent [redacted] in order to get one to make this statement.

"I, [redacted] live at [redacted] Metairie, La. I am 46 years old. I am a high school graduate. I am employed by WDSU Broadcasting Cooperation, New Orleans, La. I am a news cameraman for WDSU.

"On Friday, September 30, 1966, I was on an assignment at Moissant International Airport, Kenner, Louisiana. I had been sent there by the WDSU station news director to photograph one CARLOS MARCELLO and his brother [redacted] who were expected to arrive at the airport from New York City at approximately 8:30 AM.

"The airplane arrived at 9:30 AM. I waited at Gate 19, Concourse B, for the MARCELLO brothers to enter the terminal. As they came from the deplaning area, I started to take 16 MM, black & white motion pictures of them.

"They walked quickly toward the main entrance of the airport. They spoke to no one, nor did anyone speak to them.

"I followed them to the main entrance door, at the top level of the terminal, where the taxis and automobiles leave off passengers.

" The MARCELLO brothers walked through the doors and turned to the right and walked down the sidewalk. I was still photographing them. There were two other cameramen taking pictures of the MARCELLO brothers.

"There was another motion picture cameramen taking pictures of the MARCELLO brothers, but he was farther back fromthe MARCELLO brothers than I was.

"The MARCELLO brothers stopped on the sidewalk, and turned toward me. CARLOS MARCELLO asked me 'Don't you think you have enough pictures?'. I replied, 'Yes, I think I do.'

"I was adjusting my camera, when I then heard someone start to yell very loud. I looked up and saw it was CARLOS MARCELLO. He appeared very agitated. He was pointing at the photographers and waving his arms and was using profane and vulgar language to the photographers. I heard him say words to the effect that 'I ought to punch you in the mouth. I ought to hit you in the face. Why don't you leave me alone?' He interspersed his comments with a great deal of profane and vulgar expressions.

"CARLOS MARCELLO then took a couple of steps toward two men who were standing with the photographers. One of them had a 16 MM Bolex motion picture camera in his hand, but was not taking any pictures. The other man was standing there beside him.

"The man without the camera did not say anything to the MARCELLO brothers at any time.

"I saw CARLOS MARCELLO walk up to this man, hollering and cursing at him. As he got near him, MARCELLO swung his left fist at the man. I saw MARCELLO hit the man. The man tried to block the punch with his right arm. The man did not swing back, but just tried to avoid the punch.

"At this time, [redacted] and a Kenner, Louisiana policeman came up and got between CARLOS MARCELLO and the man and the photographers. The Kenner policeman said "Allright fellows, let's break it up and get to your cars.'

"The MARCELLO brothers left immediately and entered a new, brown colored automobile. I photographed the car as it pulled away.

"I wish to state again, that the man struck by CARLOS MARCELLO did not at any time speak to MARCELLO, make any threatening gestures toward him, take any pictures of him, nor get any closer to him than about 10 feet away. The attack on the man by CARLOS MARCELLO was absolutely unprovoked by the man.

After the MARCELLOS got off the plane they started walking up Concourse B to the main airport lobby and through the lobby to the outside of the building where the automobile ramp is located.

He advised that from the time the MARCELLOS started walking up Concourse B and until they left the building to the vehicle ramp he and the other photographers took various photographs of CARLOS and [redacted]

He advised that as the MARCELLOS left the building they turned to the right and walked about 50 feet or so. He and the other photographers continued to follow the MARCELLOS. Also included in the group of photographers, were two additional persons whose names were unknown to him but it was his understanding that these two persons were FBI Agents.

[redacted] advised that when CARLOS and [redacted] stopped walking CARLOS again made some remark to the effect that "haven't you got enough pictures." At this point he and the other photographers, as well as the two FBI Agents, who were all in a group, were about 15 feet from CARLOS MARCELLO.

[redacted] stated that he and the other photographers took a few steps backward, which left the two FBI agents between the photographers and CARLOS MARCELLO.

He stated thereafter MARCELLO started to gesture and said something in the direction of the FBI agents but he could not hear what CARLOS MARCELLO said. MARCELLO then took a few steps towards the FBI agents and [redacted] thinking something might happen approached this group with his camera ready. which was the MARCELLOs walking and photographers taking pictures. The only verbal exchange which I recall was one of the other newsmen asking CARLOS what appeared to be a question and apparently received something to the effect of, no comment because moments later he (the reporter) stepped away from CARLOS and rejoined the other newsman.

"After nearing an automobile, which I later found out belonged to one of the MARCELLOs or their family, CARLOS turned towards the photographes and said something to the effect, have you got enough pictures? At this time I was standing about 10 feet behind the photographers (this was to the airport terminal side of the entire scene) the photographes than indicated that they had enough pictures. I gathered this impression from seeing nods of the various photographers as they turned and began to walk from the scene. At this point the FBI Agent who had been mingling with the photographar and reporters took a step or two forward towards the MARCELLOs and CARLOS asked him, exact words I cannot recall, something to the effect, what do you want? From where I was standing I did not hear clearly any answer by the Agent, but observed him shrug his shoulders in an expression of don't want anything. I knew this man to be an FBI Agent do to previous conversation with him. CARLOS than uttered a few profane expressions, including get your a-- out of here. The agent just continued

From where I was standing I did not hear or see whether or not CARLOS' fist had struck the agent. Then CARLOS' [redacted] and a young man who I now believe is one of the MARCELLO sons stepped on either side of CARLOS and spoke a few words to him, what they were I cannot say. It appeared to me that they were trying to verbally restrain him from any further actions. At that moment an airport security guard appeared and stepped between the Agent and the MARCELLOs and advised the MARCELLOs to leave the scene. They then turned and got into their late model automobile and drove off.

"After that I went to a telephone and called in my story.

"The above is a true and complete statement. All corrections have been initialed by me."

CARLOS MARCELLO

Carlos Marcello, 3117 Ridgeway Court, Metairie, Louisiana, was identified by the Kefauver Committee in the 1950s as involved in gambling, narcotics and other operations with criminal characters not only in the State of Louisiana, but in other parts of the United States. He was described as owning and having interest in a number of illegitimate and illegal businesses and as one of the principal criminals in the United States. (Committee Report, Part 8, Louisiana, Page 53)

In August, 1951, Marcello was tried for contempt of Congress in the United States District Court, New Orleans, Louisiana, as a result of his refusal to answer questions before the Kefauver Committee in New Orleans in early 1951. Marcello was convicted and received a sentence of six months and a fine of $500. Subsequently, his conviction was reversed. (73-10189-11; 62-97929-16)

Marcello was convicted in the United States District Court, Eastern District of Louisiana, in 1938, and sentenced to one year and one day in the custody of the Attorney General for violation of the Marijuana Tax Act. In 1948, Marcello was investigated in connection with his application for pardon after completion of sentence. During this investigation, he was described by law enforcement officials and other individuals who were familiar with his activities, as the Number One racketeer, gangster and hoodlum in the New Orleans area and positively unworthy of pardon.

Following his release from prison on the marijuana charge, Marcello was arrested on a number of occasions. He was caught carrying a concealed revolver and twice charged with assault and battery. Marcello was reported as the head of a gambling syndicate and to possess associates who were known criminals and ex-convicts. During World War II, Marcello was allegedly engaged in black market operations and profiteering. He was charged, but not convicted, with Office of Price Administration violations. During interviews by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Marcello was caught in numerous lies regarding his financial interests. In 1948, allegations were received that Marcello was then the head of a large-scale dope smuggling ring which operated between the United States and Mexico utilizing Marcello's fleet of shrimp boats. Numerous allegations were also received indicating that Marcello made large-scale pay-offs to Jefferson Parish, Louisiana, officials and controlled numerous state and local officers. A number of individuals interviewed expressed fear of bodily harm for furnishing any information regarding Marcello. (73-10189-6)

As a result of his conviction for violation of the Marijuana Tax Act, Marcello was ordered deported in 1953, by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service. His deportation has been stayed since that date because the Immigration and Naturalization Service has been unable to obtain a travel document for him, since no country will claim him as its citizen.

In November, 1963, Marcello was found not guilty in United States District Court, New Orleans, Louisiana, for conspiracy to defraud the Government. In August, 1965, Marcello was found not guilty in the same court on charges of bribery. This charge resulted from attempted bribery of the jurors in the conspiracy trial.

Marcello attended a meeting and was arrested with twelve other hoodlums and La Cosa Nostra racketeers in New York City on September 22, 1966. Prosecutive action by local authorities growing out of this hoodlum meeting is still in progress. On September 30, 1966, Marcello assaulted a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at the airport in Kenner, Louisiana. He has been indicted and is currently awaiting trial in Federal court for assaulting a Federal officer. (89-1333)

It was recently alleged that New Orleans District Attorney [redacted] planned to indict Carlos Marcello in the Kennedy assassination conspiracy. [redacted] believed Marcello to be connected in some way with Jack Ruby. This information has not been confirmed. It was furnished by

[redacted] who is fighting an arrest warrant obtained by [redacted] following [redacted] failure to appear and testify in [redacted] assassination probe. Novel did not know what evidence [redacted] possessed concerning Marcello in this regard.

Confidential sources who have furnished reliable information in the past continue to identify Carlos Marcello as the leading racketeer and La Cosa Nostra boss of New Orleans and Louisiana. He has continued to meet with La Cosa Nostra and racketeering leaders from other areas including New York, Kansas City and Florida. Marcello allegedly controls gambling in Louisiana and sets policy among other hoodlums and criminals. He is reported to control this group through fear.

Review of instant matter reveals no additional investigation outstanding at this time. As you are aware, Marcello has been the subject of numerous prosecutive efforts by various law enforcement agencies, but remains at large. In view of Marcello's prominence as a national racket and La Cosa Nostra leader, this case must be closely followed with the United States Attorney's Office and every effort made to insure prompt prosecutive action.

You are instructed to contact the United States Attorney and determine the present status of this matter. Press for an early trial date and prosecutive action. Advise the Bureau of the results of your contacts.

NOTE: Marcello, La Cosa Nostra boss at New Orleans and a racketeer of national prominence, was indicted 10/7/66 for assaulting a Federal officer. He was subsequently arraigned, entered a plea of not guilty and remains free on bond. Trial date has not been scheduled. New Orleans is being instructed to initiate contacts in an effort to secure an early prosecution.

SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION

September 12, 1967

Attached teletype reports that SAC and 3 Agents of New Orleans Office will appear in Federal Court on afternoon of 9/13/67, to testify if needed that New Orleans Office has no material relating to any wire tapping or electronic eavesdropping relative to Carlos Marcello or any of his attorneys. This testimony to be in response to subpoena served on SAC and Agents by attorneys representing Marcello, New Orleans hoodlum who is charged with the September, 1966, assault of a Bureau Agent. Special Investigative Division concurs with recommendation of SAC that he so testify if necessary, it being noted that U.S. Attorney believes this is merely fishing expedition by defense. All Bureau microphone coverage discontinued in July, 1965, 14 months prior to this assault and we have never maintained microphone coverage on Marcello or his attorneys.

CARLOS MARCELLO

Defendant

MOTION TO RECONSIDER ORDER
DIRECTING CHANGE OF VENUE

The defendant by his attorneys moves the Court for reconsideration of its order directing a change of venue for the following reasons:

1. The motion for a change of venue was prepared and filed on or about June 27, 1967, and prior to the publication in September, 1967, of two articles in Life Magazine.

2. After assessing the nation-wide impact of the Life Magazine articles defendant and his attorneys decided that defendant could obtain a fairer trial in New Orleans than any place in the United States provided a suitable continuance was granted. In New Orleans the unreliable source of the articles -Aaron Kohn is known to the public. Outside the State of Louisiana this fact is not known.

3. Defendant Carlos Marcello had instructed his counsel not to pursue a change of venue after the publication of the Life Magazine articles and for this reason the Court was advised that the motion for change of venue was not being pressed but merely the continuance. This was intended to be an abandonment of the chance of venue motion but counsel did not express himself quite so forcefully.

4. Defendant does not waive his constitutional right to be tried in this District where the crime is alleged to have been committed. The Court is therefore lacking in authority to transfer the case to a place not consented to by the defendant. United States vs. Parr, 17 F.R.D. 512 (S.D. Texas, 1955).

5. In view of the changed circumstances since publication of the Life Magazine articles and the express wishes of defendant not to have a change of venue, request is made that the Court's order granting a change of venue be reconsidered and that an order be entered directing withdrawal of defendant's request for such change of venue.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, in and for the Parish of Jefferson State of Louisiana,

PERSONALLY CAME AND APPEARED: CARLOS MARCELLO, a person of the full age of majority, and a resident of Jefferson Parish, Louisiana:

WHO, after having been duly sworn, did depose and say:

1. I am the defendant herein and I make this affidavit to oppose any change of venue herein.

2. Subsequent to the publication of the Life magazine articles, and prior to September 13, 1967 I advised my attorneys that I desired a postponement of my case because of adverse and prejudicial publicity but not any change of venue.

3. Pursuant to my request my attorney, Jack Wasserman advised the Court that he did not press the motion for change of venue.

4. I do not waive my constitutional right under the Sixth Amendment to a trial in the place where I am alleged to have committed the crime herein.

5. My attorneys have stated that they are unable to designate a place outside of New Orleans where I can recieve a fair trial. I understand that the Court has no authority to change venue to a place not consented to by the defendant. United States vs. Parr 17 F.R.D. 512, (S.D. Texas 1955).

I do not consent to a change of venue outside of New Orleans and in particular to anyplace designated by the Government or the Court. I therefor request reconsideration of the Court's order.

Arguments on numerous tions by the defense initiated yesterday in the case arising from the assault of Special Agent Collins by New Orleans La Cosa Nostra boss Marcello. Trial judge directed defense to argue their motion for change of venue first and would not permit defense withdrawal of this motion. It is noted that unknown to defense attorneys Government attorneys decided not to oppose motion as they anticipated this was only a maneuver by defense to create an issue for appeal. Further, Government attorneys being aware of the extreme success Marcello has had in all jury trials in the New Orleans area decided trial in another Federal district may be more effective for the Government. It is noted after completion of the defense argument the judge ordered the trial removed to a district which will be named at a later date.

AT NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

On September 22, 1967, United States District Judge FREDERICK J. R. HEEBE heard arguments from MARCELLO's attorneys and from Government attorneys on the motion filed by the defense to reconsider the order by USDJ HEEBE directing a change of venue. On October 26, 1967, United States Attorney LOUIS C. LA COUR advised that USDJ HEEBE had not ruled as yet on the motion filed by MARCELLO's attorneys to reconsider his order that directed a change of venue. USA LA COUR stated that he did not know when USDJ HEEBE would rule in this matter.

Washington Field should not request former [redacted] to obtain the photo described in referenced airtel from [redacted] subject's attorney. b6 b7C b7D

New Orleans review appropriate news articles in an effort to obtain copies of appropriate news photos taken at the time of subject's arrival at New Orleans Airport and his attempted assault of an FBI Agent. Make no open inquiries in this regard.

It is noted that a superseding indictment was obtained from a new grand jury on 6/1/67 because of possible questions concerning the impaneling of the grand jury originally indicting subject on this charge.

NOTE: Former [redacted] was in recent personal contact with Carlos Marcello, a leading hoodlum and racketeer in Louisiana. Marcello related he had obtained a news photo showing him carrying his raincoat on the arm he allegedly used in an attempted assault on a Bureau Agent. [redacted] later viewed this photo in possession of Marcello's attorney who also stated he had found an error in the impanelling of the Federal Grand Jury which indicted Marcello. New Orleans is being instructed to discreetly attempt to locate copies of news photos taken of Marcello at the time of the attempted assault. It is noted that Marcello was re-indicted on this charge by a new grand jury on 6/1/67 because of the possibility that the original grand jury which indicted him 10/7/66 was improperly impaneled. USA LOUIS C. LACOUR, Eastern District of Louisiana, New Orleans, confidentially advised 11/20/67 that he had a private discussion with Federal District Judge FREDERICK J. R. HEEBE, EDLA.

Judge HEEBE advised that he is transferring captioned case to Laredo, Texas, for trial. Judge HEEBE is refraining from making his decision public until such time as he has determined the best method of conducting the transfer without raising the question of "reversible error" on his part. Judge HEEBE pointed out to USA LACOUR that MARCELLO had raised an issue hitherto unraised in law when he filed a motion for change of venue and then attempted to rescind the motion.

Judge HEEBE feels that MARCELLO, no matter what happens, will appeal on the grounds that he has a right to be tried in the jurisdiction where the offense occurred, as per the 6th Amendment to the Constitution. Judge HEEBE stated that under the 6th Amendment, MARCELLO also has the right to a fair and impartial trial and MARCELLO claimed, at the hearing, that he could not get a fair and impartial trial due to Life magazine articles relative to him and subsequent statements by the Louisiana Governor.

March 2, 1968

With respect to the prosecution of New Orleans La Cosa Nostra leader Marcello for assaulting Agent Collins in New Orleans on September 30, 1966, it has been ascertained that the court has granted the defense motion for a change of venue. Matter will be tried in Texas. No date given.

By way of background, defense made motion for a change of venue and, when unopposed by Government, attempted to withdraw motion. Government attorneys, being aware of the success Marcello has had before with juries in New Orleans area, decided trial in another Federal District might be advantageous to the Government and, therefore, did not oppose the defendant's motion for removal.

DETAILS:

AT NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

ReHOtel, 3/22/67, and report SA G. MYRYWIN ALDERSON, 7/19/67, at New Orleans.

The following information is being furnished in order that the Bureau and New Orleans files will be more complete concerning pre-trial motions made by subject in connection with captioned matter:

I. Motion to Dismiss for Failure to State an Offense.

Subject's attorneys claimed subject should have had knowledge of the identity of COLLINS as a Government official in order for his indictment to be valid if such knowledge is essential as an element of proof during his trial.

II. Motion to Dismiss for Failure to Present Evidence to Warrant Indictment.

According to subject's attorneys, the complaint filed by SA COLLINS contains the words "... attempted to strike..." He claims that no blow was struck and that, therefore, his client, the subject, should not be indicted. He stated further that this is a re-indictment, and he suspects that Government attorneys slanted their presentation to the FGJ in order to obtain the indictment.

III. Motion to Dismiss Indictment Upon the Ground That It Was Procured by Improper Conduct of Prosecuting Officials Herein.

Subject's attorneys claim that the basis for this motion was the fact that conduct of

U.S. Savings Bonds Regularly on the Payroll Savings Plan

Government officials in publicizing MARCELLO's background, etc., biased the FGJ and that this is verified by the fact that the judge in New Orleans granted a change of venue.

[redacted] also requested permission of the court to subpoena the foreman and a representative number of FGJ members to determine whether they had been influenced by adverse publicity.

IV. Motion to Dismiss Upon the Basis of Immunity.

Subject's Attorney [redacted] entered in evidence numerous documents reflecting that MARCELLO had been subpoenaed to appear before the Queen County Grand Jury and had been granted immunity by the Court. He stated further that this immunity was specifically extended to proceedings against MARCELLO in Louisiana and that MARCELLO had been questioned concerning captioned matter while testifying before this Grand Jury. b6 b7C

MARCELLO was placed on the stand by [redacted] and testified that he had been asked during above Grand Jury proceedings whether any legal actions were pending against him, and he replied in the affirmative; to wit, he was involved in legal proceedings concerning a deportation order and was under indictment for assaulting a Federal officer. b6 b7C

[redacted] also alleged that SA COLLINS, the victim, was in the courtroom observing the proceedings and that Federal Government officials were advising Court officials and they therefore would have been in a position to prevent the granting of immunity to MARCELLO.

V. Motion of Defendant to Inspect the Grand Jury Minutes of Testimony of PATRICK J. COLLINS, JR.

Judge BEN C. CONNALLY pointed out to Attorney [redacted] that this motion may be a little premature, and [redacted] stated he would not belabor the point and did not intend to pursue it at this time. b6 b7C

VI. Motion to Inspect All Evidence in the Possession of the Government Favorable to the Defendant.

Judge CONNALLY pointed out that he expects that this will be done and will direct that it be done if necessary. He directed the U. S. Attorney to review his files and produce any reports which might be favorable to the defendant.

U. S. Attorney MORTON SUSMAN, Houston, stated that to his knowledge no such reports exist.

[redacted] specifically requested all reports that SA COLLINS had made to his supervisors concerning this matter. b6 b7C

VII. Motion Challenging Grand Jury Array and to Dismiss Indictment Upon Such Challenge.

[redacted] contention is that of the 13 parishes comprising the Eastern District of Louisiana, 5 had been selected in 1948 by order of the judges comprising the district as those from which jury members would be drawn. In 1967, two more parishes were added to the original five. U. S. Attorney LOUIS C. LA COUR, New Orleans, Louisiana, who was present at the hearing, advised that this latter action was taken in order that the Court would be more in accordance with the findings in the RABINOWITZ case. b6 b7C

According to [redacted] two parishes were unintentionally left out of the voter registration lists which were furnished for selection of FGJ members and, added to those which were left out by judicial order, he felt that this excluded an unusual number of "blue collar workers." He contended that had the FGJ been comprised of such workers, they would not have taken such a dim view of such physical action as is alleged in this case. b6 b7C

VIII. Motion of Defendant for a Bill of Particulars.

[redacted] stated that in view of the Government's statement that no wire tap evidence was involved, he was withdrawing all such requests from his Bill of Particulars. He stated that he did not desire that the others be answered. Judge CONNALLY pointed out that what [redacted] asked was to know the nature of SA COLLINS' testimony. [redacted] replied in the affirmative, and Judge CONNALLY stated that he understood. b6 b7C

IX. Motion for Production of Documents and Tangible Evidence for Inspection and Copying; Rule 16.

[redacted] under questioning by Judge CONNALLY, stated that what he wanted were the photographs which were taken by the FBI, especially those taken with a movie camera alleged to have been in the possession of some of the Agents at the time. He stated that he wanted this at least 30 days before the trial, and that the Government had agreed to give them to him three days before the trial with the proviso that he in turn provide the Government with all photographs in his possession. b6 b7C

X. Motion of Defendant to Suppress Evidence Illegally Obtained.

This motion was withdrawn based upon the Government's statement that there is no such evidence.

XI. Motion for Continuance and for a Change of Venue.

[redacted] pointed out that, although the Judge in New Orleans, Louisiana, had agreed to a change of venue, no action had been taken in connection with his motion for a continuance. Judge CONNALLY stated that the motion for continuance would be considered removed and off the docket. b6 b7C

Attorney [redacted] also requested that Judge CONNALLY enjoin the news media present from making any derogatory references to MARCELLO and any other references which would tend to enflame public opinion concerning his client. Judge CONNALLY took defense and prosecuting attorneys into his private chambers, and his decision is not known. b6 b7C

Judge CONNALLY stated that he will probably not rule on these motions for approximately two weeks, and that trial, if agreeable to all concerned, would be set sometime after 6/1/68, at Laredo, Texas.

MEMORANDUM:

The defendant recently has filed his "Motion to Enjoin Prejudicial Publicity". He contends here, as he has in prior motions, that he is a person of notoriety and wide news interest by reasons of allegations of his complicity in organized crime. He asks that all members of the news media be enjoined from publishing any derogatory description or appellation of defendant other than what may be developed in open court, and likewise that counsel for the prosecution and officials of the Department of Justice be enjoined from alerting the news media or releasing adverse information relative to the defendant to any member of the news media.

I doubt very much whether under the authorities cited [Sheppard v. Maxwell, 384 U.S. 333 (1966) and the American Bar Association Tentative Draft, Standards Relating to Fair Trial and Free Press] this Court is empowered to enter a valid order restraining all news media. Such persons, of course, are not a party to this or any related action and are so numerous that knowledge of such order might not be brought home to such parties. Insofar as this relief is requested, it is denied.

Counsel for the government and for the defendant, and officers and employees of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (who, I understand, have made the investigation in the matter) are directed that they will not discuss any aspect of the case with news media, will not divulge contents of their files to such persons or otherwise disclose any information which they may have to the news media which may be disadvantageous or reflect unfavorably upon the defendant until after the trial of the case on its merits.

Copies of this Memorandum will be furnished to counsel of record and to the Special Agents in charge of the offices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in New Orleans, Louisiana, in Houston, Texas, and in Laredo, Texas.

Done at Houston, Texas this 24th day of April, 1968.

SPECIAL INVE IGATIVE DIVISION

April 17, 1968

Carlos Marcello, La Cosa Nostra boss and leading racketeer in Louisiana, is waiting trial for assaulting a Bureau Agent. Trial is tentatively set for 6/19/68 in District Court, Laredo, Texas. The Department attorney handling this case has advised the New Orleans Office that Marcello's attorneys are going to request a subpoena of the Attorney General or the Director, FBI, to produce personnel files, including payroll records of SA Patrick J. Collins, the victim, and SA [redacted], both assigned New Orleans Office. They believe these files are material for defense of Marcello. b6 b7C

Department attorney stated he could think of no reason to do this except possibly to utilize in cross-examination, and if subpoena issued or requested, he will immediately move to quash it. Department attorney is conferring with Department on this today and New Orleans will follow the matter closely.

SPECIAL INVESTIGAT E DIVISION

New Orleans La Cosa Nostra leader Marcello, who is scheduled for trial June 19, 1968, in Laredo, Texas, for assaulting a Bureau Agent, has made motion to enjoin news media and the Department of Justice from publishing or releasing adverse information relative to the defendant. Federal Judge doubted that court was empowered to restrict news media, particularly since they are not party to action, and denied the defense request. Federal Judge did, however, direct that counsel for the Government and the defendant, as well as officers and employees of FBI, are not to discuss aspects of case with news media and will not divulge contents of files to news media which may reflect unfavorably upon defendant until after trial of this case.

Valachi, after recent testimony in a state case in New York, has been returned to Federal Prison at Milan, Michigan, and Detroit is being instructed to conduct the interview with Valachi and submit results as requested by the Department.

Valachi is not known to have identified Marcello in previous Bureau interviews, but in view of known relationships between the Marcello LCN group and the Genovese group, of which Valachi is a member, it is recommended that Valachi be interviewed regarding his possible knowledge of Marcello's LCN membership.

This concerns the assault of Bureau Agent Collins by New Orleans hoodlum Marcello to be tried in Laredo, Texas. Department Attorney [redacted] advises that the subpoena duces tecum to the Attorney General for memoranda pertinent to Marcello and for Bureau personnel records of Agents Collins and [redacted] are legal maneuvers typical of defense attorney [redacted] [redacted] will move to quash the subpoena and is optimistic that judge will agree. Concerning subpoena of SAC, New Orleans, and SA [redacted] by defense, Department Attorney believes this may be attempt to delve into possible press contacts, electronic surveillances, and somehow impeach credibility of Agents Collins and [redacted] We had no prior electronic surveillances of Marcello in this case or any other matter, and judge has been so advised. Department Attorney stated he will take all available steps to ascertain reason for defense subpoena of Bureau personnel. New Orleans will keep Bureau fully informed.
