A review of the Official Personnel File for the appointee, Charles Krauthammer, reflected the following information:

On July 20, 1980, the appointee accepted an appointment as a Special Assistant to the Vice-president for Speech Writing, Office of the Vice-president, Executive Office of the President. The file contained no additional pertinent information.

Michael Berman, Counsel to the Office of the Vice-president, advised that he has interviewed the appointee extensively prior to hiring him for this position. He advised that he has found the appointee to be a very dependable, capable, competent individual whose character, associates, reputation and loyalty is excellent. He also advised that he was aware of nothing derogatory concerning the appointee, and that he would highly recommend him for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.

The following individuals are co-workers and associates of the appointee during the short period of time that he has been with the Office of the Vice-president. Each of them advised that they have observed nothing of a derogatory nature concerning the appointee, and that they have found him, thus far, to be a competent, dependable individual. They have no reason to question the appointee's character, associates, reputation or loyalty, and recommended him for a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government.
