or transvestites. Any attempt to so label publicly such a group would beg belief of the recipients of the information.

There are no state statutes dealing directly with transvestism; however, Section 14-12.7 of the General Statutes of North Carolina states in effect that no person or persons over sixteen shall, while wearing a mask, hood, or device where the person's face or voice is disguised so as to conceal the identity of the wearer, appear on any lane, walkway, alley, street, road, highway, or other public way in the state.

The use of this statute possibly could be employed by state authorities in the event the Klan members actually disguise themselves in women's clothing and take the action they have discussed. However, the suggestion to don female attire was only in the form of a proposal, and no information has been received indicating that any action has been instituted to carry out this plan.

In the event any information is received that members plan to or have engaged in such activities, it is believed local authorities should be furnished the details as a possible violation of Section 14-12.7. Authorization to advise local authorities is requested of the Bureau.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE EDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIG. JION

Charlotte, North Carolina

October 26, 1966

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC. KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

According to an article which appeared in the October 11, 1966, issue of the "News and Observer," a daily newspaper published at Raleigh, North Carolina, "An airplane trailing a banner emblazoned 'KKKK-1' flew back and forth over Raleigh and the State Fairground Monday. The four-K symbol is used by the United Klans of America, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The numeral one was said to designate the first airplane in the 'KKK Air Force.' Mormally, a permit from the Federal Aviation Agency is required for low-flying airplanes pulling banners. The FFA here said it had granted no such permit to the Ku Klux Klan."

advised that Province #1 of United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA), rented a Cessna 170 owned and operated by Stancel Flying Service, Washington, North Carolina, to pull a banner bearing the initials "UKA, Inc., KKKK" during the week of October 10 - 15, 1966, while the State Fair was being held at Raleigh, North Carolina.

In addition to the above advised that on it was decided that the Klan members in Province #1 will support Dr. John East, for Congress in the November, 1966, election. Dr. East is a professor of Bolitical science at East Carolina College, Greenville, North Carolina, and is running against the incumbent representative, Walter Jones.

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with units in several southern states.

Second source advised that at a meeting in Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Third source advised on May 25, 1966, that the UKA is currently an active organization, with Klaverns in several states. This source said that ROBERT M. SHELTON is the Imperial Wizard of this organization and was elected to this position on September 5, 1964, at a National Klonvocation in Birmingham, Alabama. Source stated that during April, 1966, the national office was moved from Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, to the carport of SHELTON's residence, #18 Lake Sherwood, Star Route, Northport, Alabama, which space he had converted into a room.

On August 17, 1964, a source advised that the North Carolina organization of United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, became affiliated with the national organization of the same group in the spring of 1961. The State Headquarters was at the residence of North Carolina Grand Dragon JAMES ROBERTSON JONES, Granite Quarry, North Carolina, who is subordinate to the national organization with headquarters in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

The organization in North Carolina has the same aims and objectives as the parent group; that is, advocacy of segregation of the races and white supremacy.

On August 17, 1966, the same source advised that the status, leadership, and affiliation of the North Carolina organization have not changed. The State Headquarters is still located at Granite Quarry, North Carolina, but is no longer maintained at the residence of Grand Dragon JAMES ROBERTSON JONES.

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM INTERNAL SECURITY DISRUPTION OF HATE GROUPS Massure

ReBulets 9/29/66 and 10/19/66. Charlotte airtel, 10/14/66.

The situation relative to the activities of members of the South Rowan Klavern has again been thoroughly analyzed by this office. It appears that the action proposed by some of the members of this Klavern in donning female attire and driving through a Negro Section of town is very similar to action taken by many of the major police departments in their efforts to apprehend deviates, purse snatchers, etc.

To publicize such proposed action would tend to make "heroes" of the Klan rather than discredit the organization in the eyes of the local public. The fact that there is a group willing and able to take steps to prevent the molestation of white women by Negroes would be heartily endorsed by most if not all of the white population.

Due to the large number of members who usually attend these meetings and who would be aware of this proposed action, it is believed that the informant will not be directly jeopardized by publicity given to this matter; however the following possible results should be considered.

well aware of the fact that there is an informant of the FBI in the South Rowan Unit.

In the event national publicity is given to this situation, members of the South Rowan Klavern more than likely will institute more stringent security measures,

The Charlotte Office remains of the opinion that publicity given to the proposed action by members of this Klavern will not accomplish any beneficial results, but possibly could stimulate Klan growth in the area and also result in the loss of an informant.

COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM INTERNAL SECURITY DESCRIPTION OF MATE CROSS

RecEres 10/28/66 captioned "United Klass of America, Inc., Enights of the Eu Elux Klas, aka (North Carolina); Racial Matters (Klas)."

A review has been made of rerep, and it is apparent that you have available substantial information and situations which might readily be utilized in connection with the counterintelligence program directed against Elan activity.

Since it has been long established that North Carolina boasts more numbers in the United Elans of America, Inc., (NEA), then any other state, or possibly combination of states in the United States, it appears that your Elan counteristelligence activities should be redirected at this time.

The should make a thorough analysis of your counterintelligence needs in North Carolina and submit same to the Bureau. This analysis should be accompanied by imaginative recommendations designed to carry forth a substantial counterintelligence effort against the UKA: In the event your judgment dictates the accessity of assigning a Special Agent to the handling of counterintelligence activity on a fulltime basis so state.

You should understand that it is the objective of the counteristelligence program to significantly retard the activities in North Carolina. Submit your analysis and recommendations to reach the Bureau within 21 days of the time of this communication.

Charlotte has a problem in that UKA membership in Serth Carelina is extensive. Although Charlotte has contributed to the counterintelligence program, most of the contributions have been based on Bureau analysis or prompting. If we are to see the greatest, we must capitalize on the vast information heigh developed through Klam investigations. This matter will be followed carefully and additional recommendations made based through the program.

SUBJECT: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAMS

INTERNAL SECURITY DISRUPTION OF HATE

GROUPS

Re Bureau letter to Charlotte 12/8/66.

An analysis of counterintelligence programs and needs in North Carolina has been made and the following comments are submitted:

The primary aims of such a program are considered to be twofold: (1) Cutting down the membership and (2) Curtailing violent activities and views of the organization.

It is considered that reduction of the over-all membership can be most effective if it can be accomplished through reduction in the number of new members coming in. Whether a new member continues to be active or not after he has once joined, the organization still has the $10 initial fee, and on an average, about $3 in beginning dues. funds help both the local, state, and national organization to continue strong and with these funds at their disposal to use as they see fit. It has been observed that in all units there is a substantial dropout rate among persons who have joined, for various reasons including lack of interest, general disillusionment with the type of members, and dissatisfaction that there is no worthwhile program; or in some cases, with the fact that there is less "action" than the new members had expected.

It has been observed that in most units there continues to be a "hard core" of devoted members who stay on in spite of almost anything that can happen.

The great difficulty, of course, is in finding some way to discourage prospective members from applying and joining. In the majority of cases Charlotte does not learn through its informants the fact that an applicant has applied until his application has been brought up for discussion, and generally, for a vote in a Klavern meeting.

After that has taken place, the only thing remaining is for the person to be brought in, usually at the next meeting. In many cases, of course informants are unable to obtain the name or sufficient identifying information about an applicant when he is being discussed and often do not learn his identity until he has attended a number of meetings.

In those instances where an informant obtains adequate information about a prospective new member in advance of his initiation, it is generally in a situation where the informant is the only one, or one of only a very few, who are in a position to have this information. For an interview or contact by Agents to be had with the prospective member at this stage, would in most cases expose the informant. Some of the recommendations later in this letter are aimed at reducing the number of new applications.

Charlotte has found that interviews with Klan members are, at least to a limited extent, effective in causing some of the less dedicated members to drop out. It is also believed, though there is no tangible way of establishing a real measure of this, that interviews tend to hold down on violence which might otherwise be conducted by particular members, simply because they know that their Klan membership In the program of preparing Non-Prosecutive Summary is known. Reports on individual Klan members, Charlotte follows the practice of interviewing the individual member whenever possible. This serves the three fold purpose of getting background information directly from the person himself and thus saves investigative time; making him aware that the FBI is aware of him and possibly retarding violent activities; and in some cases, has resulted in developing of informants. Agents are under instructions to bear in mind at all times during such interviews the possibility of making an informant out of the individual interviewed. Interviews with Klan members will continue.

Charlotte has not found that harassing type interviews are effective in reducing Klan membership, particularly among those individuals who are "hard core" members and those who might resort to violence.

As an example of the situation concerning harassment type interviews, from November, 1965, until approximately April, 1966, Charlotte had a special squad of as high as 30 Agents conducting very intensive investigation in the case entitled

Much of the effort during this time consisted or interviews with all known Klansmen in the Charlotte Klavern and the then newly formed Mount Holly Klavern and in the case of persons considered "hard core", Agents repeated interviews with them, many of them at their places of employment.

In practically all instances the "hard core" individuals are still Klan members. The Charlotte and Mount Holly Klaverns continue in existence and continue to take in new members. In addition, since the spring of 1966 new Klaverns have been formed in the nearby towns of Belmont and Stanley as off-shows from the Charlotte and Mount Holly Klaverns.

As a part of the effort to reduce membership, attacks on the leaders and on the organization as a whole will be continued, but with the underlying thought that these are merely steps in cutting down the membership, and that removal of a particular leader is not an end in itself, unless, of course, he is considered a particularly dangerous individual or one who is particularly effective in organizing. Charlotte considers it important to create and continue dissatisfaction among the membership, and at the same time, not to cause such radical changes in the administration of the state organization as to make it thoroughly honest, efficient, and effective, because it is believed that if this happens it would be a stimulus rather than a deterrent to continued growth.

Attacks on North Carolina Grand Dragon I Patients will be continued and new methods of attacking him sought, both with the view to causing dissatisfaction against him and possibly ultimately removing him if this can be done under circumstances that will cause great disillusionment with the whole organization.

It has been reported by informants in numerous instances in recent months that various members have commented on the fact that Klan members seem to be exempted from being drafted simply because of their Klan membership. There have been indications that some young men have joined primarily for the purpose of seeking to make themselves ineligible for military service. Although there is no information that he joined originally with this primary purpose in mind. a very good example along this line is

AS set out in charlotte report of June 21, 1966, was called for induction in May, 1966. He was interviewed in May by representatives of the Army, during which interview he acknowledged that he was a member of the United Klans of America, and was Klan in Virginia. He said he was opposed to integration but was quoted by the Army interviewer that he desired to serve in the Armed Forces, would live with Negro soldiers, and would take orders from Negro superiors. As was set out in that report, United Klans of America for Virginia is quoted as making a statement to the effect that the Klan cannot lose whether 18 inducted or not. He said that if is exempted on the basis of his membership, other young men would join to escape military service. On the other hand, if he is taken, the Klan can advertise that the Government has no objection to Klan membership.

As set out in Charlotte report on dated August 24, 1966, he still had not been inducted. Charlotte in transmitting that report sent an extra copy with the letter to the Bureau suggesting that the Bureau might consider furnishing a copy of the report to the Selective Service System.

McI

As of November 25, 1966, the Clerk of his Local Board in Lillington, N.C., stated there had been no change in his status and the board was still awaiting word from the induction station as to whether or not he was acceptable.

In interviews with Klansmen, when the subject can be brought up, Agents point out that Klan membership is likely to cause an inductee to be passed over for advancement and to receive the less desirable assignments. However, it is considered this is a very weak point when contrasted with the fact that the word is probably getting around rapidly in Klan circles that being a Klansman can keep a young man out of the military entirely. While it may not be true that it does keep persons from the draft entirely, an example like that of the where he has been given an extended deferment for at least six months with no showing that he ever will be called, certainly indicates that military service can be avoided in this matter.

It seems unquestionable that young men who have been passed over or at least temporarily suspended from being inducted because of their Klan membership will be passing the "good news" to their friends as a means of keeping out of service, and thus increasing applications for Klan membership. While it is well recognized that this is unpatriotic and in the long run will make a black mark against the record of this individual in the future, that is a very hard thing to get across to a young man who is without high ideals and is just looking for a way to stay out of the Army. In addition, of course, Charlotte does not have the man power nor facilities to go to all such possible young men and try to argue them into accepting their duty and not taking advantage of this loop hole.

It is recognized that the military services are seeking to get the most dependable young men they can in their ranks and are not anxious to take anyone who by his statements or past activities indicates he might be any kind of a problem. However, it definitely does not seem right or fair that young men are seeking and apparently succeeding in using this means of keeping out of service.

Charlotte knows of nothing it can do about this on a local level since this is a decision that has to be made either by Selective Service or by the various military agencies. It is recommended that the Bureau consider taking up with the military agencies their policies in this regard. It would appear that some definite action could be taken much more expeditiously by the military than has been done in the case of for example, so that he would either be inducted in a reasonable period or given a 4-F classification on moral grounds. It seems probable that at least some young men who might seek to stay out by joining the Klan would give up this idea if they could see that their friends are rather promptly either inducted or classified 4-F on moral grounds when they attempt this tactic.

Charlotte considers that action by state and local authorities against the Klan where possible should be encouraged and assisted for the reason that the State statutes on violations that might be committed are generally much more simple and susceptible of proof, such as in the case of a cross buring. In addition, it is believed that this tends to hold down on the feeling of resentment that can be exploited by Klan leaders in the press and public rallies that the Federal Government is picking on them.

The following recommendations for specific action are submitted:

(1) A number of new applicants for membership fill out application cards and send them to the state headquarters of United Klans of This is particularly true of persons attending public rallies. In such cases, the state headquarters sends the cards to the nearest local Klavern so that these persons can be contacted. Charlotte proposes, if the Bureau approves, on a selective basis sending cards from time to time to the state headquarters reflecting applications from entirely fictitious persons. It is believed this will have an effect of wasting the time of the local officials in trying to locate these persons and causing them to become disgusted and possibly being less active in running down and contacting the actual persons who really are applying. It is recognized that if this is done, Charlotte will have to maintain a record of the fictitious names used, so that when in some instances we get the information back from an informant that the person has applied, we will know that this is not a person who will require any investigation.

It is recognized that this will probably not cause any great decrease in applications processed, because a large number of applications are received from personal contact by members among their friends and acquaintances.

- Widows Benevolent Fund. Charlotte has corresponded with the Bureau along this line previously, the last communication being Charlotte airtel of December 6, 1966, advising that information concerning this possibly illegal insurance program of United Klans of America in North Carolina has been turned over to a representative of the North Carolina State Insurance Commission. Nothing further has been heard from that agency and this will be followed. It is believed that if this insurance program is found to be illegal under the State laws, this would have a disruptive effect on the membership and further cause disillusionment and distrust concerning Grand Dragon J.R. JONES. If such a ruling is made by the state agency, recommendations will be made to the Bureau for steps that Charlotte can take to exploit this information.
- (3) As the Bureau was advised by Charlotte airtel of December 13, 1966, entitled, "United Klans of America, Inc., Racial Matters (Klan)", Bureau file 157-370, Charlotte file 157-230, when that occurs, Charlotte plans to submit a recommendation to the Bureau to publicize this fund raising effort and this recommendation will possibly include giving the information to the press on a discreet basis,

PJD

CE 157-281

4) Concerning Bureau letter of December 22, 1966, and previous correspondence concerning the tax liability of

Virginia, Charlotte is determining the identity of a person in the North Carolina Tax Division with whom this matter can appropriately be discussed and recommendation will be submitted to the Bureau when this is learned.

Charlotte is continuing to seek ways of curtailing and disrupting the United Klans of America. Ideas are again being solicited from all Agents having any contact with Klan matters, and any that appear of value will be submitted to the Bureau with recommendations.

- Mr. Dooran

A detailed analysis has been made of your observations and suggestions set out in referenced letter. Your efforts in this regard have been noted.

In comparing the suggestions set out in referenced letter with the material contained in the Charletta report of Special Agent captioned (Naited Klane of Lawrica, Inc.; /Klighta of the Second Rane, ake; North Caroline; Racial Setters (Klan), it appears that your counteristelligence targets should be raised. The Klan situation in your division is such that it requires a dynamic imaginative program to split the Klan organization.

The experiences of other field divisions having Elan problems have shown that the best attack on the Elan for the purpose of thearting Elan growth and disrupting the organization has been by an attack on the established leaders.

inalysis of the report of Special Ignoral Professed to above reveals that there are certain areas of the Han activity which could be capitalized upon to achieve our objective. The above is set out for the purpose of showing we areas where it is believed you could draw up and institute counteristelligence activity which would cause discatisfaction within the Elan ranks. It has been found that when situations occur wherein the klassmes are disagreeing amongst themselves and are defending their own positions within the Man they are not at liberty to ingrease Elaz membership nor partake in Elaz activities which would strengthen the erganization. It is strongly felt that the best avenue of attack against the Klan is through the established leaders and by causing dissatisfaction within. The principle means of causing distatisfaction within Elan ranks appears to be by attacking the handling of finances. Jones should be very valuerable concerning his handling of Klan finances in view of the statement that the treasury is broke. The fact that there is so soney left in the treasury of the largest Klan state organization in the United States indicates clearly that semebody must be miqueing the Klan funds.

The above is being furnished for your consideration. It is fully realized that you are closer to the situation, therefore, should had better position to formulate counter-intelligence activity. The areas suggested above should be considered and you should submit your recommendation as to any possible action in these areas. Your consideration should not be limited to the above areas. Your consideration should, however, include attacks on the Elan which could totally disrupt the entire organization.

of America, Inc., newborship applications be utilized in a counterintelligence proposal, it is not believed that this operation would affect the operation of the Elan in North Carolina. Rather than send fictitious applications to the Elan for the purpose of thwarting Elan recruitment, it is believed you would be in a better position to control this activity by developing informants who could be in a position to advise you on all new Elan applicants and then you would be able to formulate some plane to discourage these new applicants.

As you are well aware, the trend of Elan activity in North Carolina requires that you inaugurate new programs to deter this most successful Elan organization. Your goal for 1967 is the complete disruption of the Klan in your division. I expect you to achieve this goal and you should insure that the Agent personnel in your division exert their full efforts in this endeavor.

MITS:

Referenced Charlette letter made an analysis of the counterintelligence programs and needs in North Carolina, Charlette stated that it is believed that the reduction of the everall membership can be most effective through the reduction in the number of new members joining the Elan. Charlette believed this could be accomplished by the Bureau sending ficticious cards from time to time to the state Klan honoquarters applying for membership. This would in effect discourage the klansmen because they would not be able to trace down these ficticious individuals. Charlotte miso recommended that the Bureau consider taking this up with military agencies concerning their policies in connection with the enlistment of klausmen. This matter was checked through linison with Department of the Army and there is no set pelicy. The Army does have a pelicy concerning the mission of individuals that belong to organizations which the cited by the Attorney General; however, none of net Klan organizations have been cited by the Attorney Charlotte believed that the klammen would benefit to the kind of the limit of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of the language of igh it appears he should be. Re Charlotte letter to Bureau, 12/13/66; and Bulet to Charlotte, 12/22/66.

Raleigh, W. C., advised that a North Carolina Income Tax Return must be filed by every resident having a gross income during the income year in excess of $1,000 if single, or $2,000 if a married man living with wife on December 31.
He said residents of North Carolina must include gross income from all sources even though they may be taxed on some or all of the income in other states or countries, noting that if the income was taxed in other states or countries, they may be entitled to a tax credit. He further stated that any salaries, wages, or other compensation for services rendered outside North Carolina must be reported.

4 JAC, C

As noted in referenced Charlotte letter, it is the policy and practice of the Haleigh, N. C., to rurnish the Bureau only information whether or not an individual did in fact file a N. C. Income Tax Return for a specific year.

BROWN should also be in a position to advise if the State of Morth Carolina would move against in the event it is determined he has not complied with N. C. income tax laws.

It is understood that under certain circumstances the Director of Civilian Marksmanship of the U.S. Army furnishes rifles and ammunition to National Rifle Association affiliated clubs, and this appears to be what is referring to.

It is recommended that the Bureau specifically suggest to military intelligence authorities that a copy of this LHM be called to the attention of the Director of Civilian Marksmanship. C OSTRU REC 48 157-9-8-82

Charlotte does not know what relationship or softast the Bureau might have with the headquarters of the National Rifle Association. It is suggested consideration be given to furnishing information concerning the Belmont Rifle and Pistol Club and its UKA connections directly to that organization, with the view toward getting its support of the Belmont Rifle and Pistol Club withdrawn. Also, if available, it is requested the Bureau obtain a list of the members of the Belmont Rifle and Pistol Club.

If action of the type proposed through the National Rifle Association is not feasible or successful, it is suggested consideration be given to furnishing the information herein to one of the Congressional Committees which, according to the recent news reports, have received a barrage of protests from the National Rifle Association concerning proposed gun control legislation.

It is recognized that if the latter step of furnishing this information to a Congressional Committee is carried out, it probably would result in publicity being given to news media by some Congressional member about this particular National Rifte Association affiliated group being connected with the Belmont Klavern of UKA.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC. KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UKA)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Albama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with units in several southern states.)

Second source advised that at a meeting in Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan

Third source advised on May 25, 1966, that the UKA is currently an active organization, with Klaverns in several states. This source said that ROBERT M. SHELTON is the Imperial Wizard of this organization and was elected to this position on September 5, 1964, at a National Klonvocation in Birmingham, Alabama. Source stated that during April, 1966, the national office was moved from Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, to the carport of SHELTON's residence, #18 Lake Sherwood, Star Route, Northport, Alabama, which space he had converted into a room.

(UKA)

On August 17, 1964, a source advised that the North Carolina organization of United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, became affiliated with the national organization of the same group in the spring of 1961. The State Headquarters was at the residence of North Carolina Grand Dragon JAMES ROBERTSON JONES, Granite Quarry, North Carolina, who is subordinate to the national organization with headquarters in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

The organization in North Carolina has the same aims and objectives as the parent group; that is, advocacy of segregation of the races and white supremacy.

On August 17, 1966, the same source advised that the status, leadership, and affiliation of the North Carolina organization have not changed. The State Headquarters is still located at Granite Quarry, North Carolina, but is no longer maintained at the residence of Grand Dragon JAMES ROBERTSON JONES.

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this memorandum is to secure approval for the Charlotte Office to attempt to utilize in combating the Klan ... the services of in the Charlotte Division.

BACKGROUND:

Special Agent in Charge Robert M. Murphy and two of the Charlotte Agents were recently at the Seat of Government for conferences to give them guidance in neutralizing the Klan in North Carolina which has the largest concentration of klansmen in the United States. One of the topics discussed was methods to develop a hardhitting counterintelligence program designed to break up the Klan in that territory. It was proposed that Charlotte determine whether there were prominent religious leaders who would be willing to take a stand opposing the Klan.

OBSERVATIONS:

The Klan is a religious-oriented organization professing that klansmen are dedicated Christians. They oppose, however, the Roman Catholic Church and the more prominent Protestant denominations which are associated with the National Council of Churches. Any clergyman from these denominations opposing the Klan would have no real affect on Klan membership.

however, stands in the unique position of being this country's leading evangelist. He is an interdenominational minister who tends to preach along the fundamentalist lines which are attractive to klansmen and which are in accord with the klansman's own beliefs. His opposition to the Klan could have a devastating effect among those klansmen who have been duped by the highmoral principles which the Klan organizations profess but do not follow.

We believe a proposed sermon might be more attractive to contrast and compare the evils of communism and the Klan organizations. It might be difficult for him to single out the Klan organizations alone in a sermon but it would be less difficult if he were to show the basic evils of both philosophies and illustrate how klansmen, who are opposed to communism, are using similar tactics to suppress the rights of their fellow citizens.

RECOMMENDATION:

That attached letter be forwarded authorizing the Charlotte Office to make a preliminary exploratory discreet contact with for the purpose of determining whether could be interested in preaching a sermon along the lines indicated above.

IMPEACHMENT?

Money Squabble Shaking Jones' Grip On N.C. Klan

By DWAYNE WALLS Observer Staff Writer

Money squabbling, the ancient bugaboo of Ku Klux Klan outfits, in recent weeks has created a serious rift among North Carolina klansmen that might be felt Southwide.

Klan informers have reported a movement afoot to topple N.C. Grand Dragon Bob Jones for his handling of klan funds. Several klaverns or local chapters have quietly broken off their affiliation with the national klan organization headed by Imperial Wizard Robert Shelton of Alabama.

Bob Jones $200 Per Week

Numerous local units are withholding monthly dues to the state organization.

At the moment, most of the dissension is in two Eastern North Carolina "provinces" where it began. But it is spreading into the Piedmont fringes.

The attempt is impeach Jones — his elected term still has two years to run — could come within a matter of days.

It would almost have to come at a meeting of the klan's state board, and one problem has been that the ruling clique meets only once a year, or at Jones' pleasure.

Ironically, Jones himself might provide the dissidents their chance.

Jones reportedly is angry because a Greensboro klavern accepted into klan membership former klan leader James W. (Catfish) Cole.

There has been speculation that Jones is ready to call a statewide meeting of klan leaders to squeeze Cole out of the organization.

Jones told reporters earlier this week that he would have a statement on Cole's membership today.

Dissatisfaction with Jones began building up after a meeting of state klan officers in Salisbury on January 22 in which the state organization doubled its financial bite on local klaverus and put Jones' wife on the klan payroll at $100 a week.

There had been some grumbling about Jones' reign before the January meeting, but the grumblers had not been able to put together a firm anti-Jones faction because of poor communication between state head-quarters and the local units and among the scattered units themselves.

The klan organization is set up so that the state and national headquarters are supported by mandatory contributions from the local units.

In North Carolina until the January meeting, each local klavern in the state was required to pay 50 cents per man per month into Shelton's office in Alabama, 25 cents per man per month into Jones' state office, and 10 cents per man per month to the "titan" or organizer for the province—the administrative unit between state and local levels.

At the January meeting Jones pushed through the board a ruling increasing the local kick-in to state headquarters from 25 cents a month per member to 50 cents.

That, plus Jones' insistence on putting his wife on the payrell as a secretary, almost touched off an immediate revolt.

At one point in the meeting feelings were running so high that Jones stalked out with some parting strong words. Apparently it was a dramatic bluff that worked.

There was strong sentiment expressed at the meeting not only against an increase in state dues but also to cut the 50-cent contribution to national headquarters.

Even the pro-Jones faction was leary of putting Mrs. Jones on the payroll because of the impression it might leave with the membership at large.

They pointed out that Jones already was on a salary of $200 a week. Putting his wife on the payroll meant that the Jones family was akimming off $300 a week from families who do not make that much money in a month.

Word of the January meeting apread rapidly through dissident eastern North Caro-

On February 8, at a province meeting near Clinton, klan leaders began adding up estimated total membership and matching it with dollars and cents.

When the meeting ended, those attending had drawn up five reasons as grounds for impeaching Jones. Heading the list was his use of finances including hiring his wife.

During the following month there were at least three other meetings in the East at which management of klan finances at the state level and lack of proper accounting were the chief topics.

Two large eastern klaverns have pulled out of the United Klans of America organization, although they still exist as a local rabble-rouser fraternity.

In Franklin County alone four klaverus are on the brink of withdrawing, and only one unit in the county continues to send its dues to state headquarters.

The discontent over money matters is not confined to the salaries of Jones and his wife.

The members also want to know where Jones and Shelton are spending the thousands of dollars pouring into state and national headquarters every month-

Jones gets the brunt of the discontent because he functions as a one-man boss of state headquarters. State treasurer Fred Wilson of Salisbury has very little to de with state funds and knows almost nothing about where the money comes from and where it goes.

Besides the salaries for Jones and his wife, the state treasury also pays Jones 10 cents a mile for travel and provides him with a car, currently a new Chrysler.

There is a profit also from the sales of kinn robes, the pins, books and records and assorted kinn trappings.

One particularly sore subject among the discontented members is the income from contributions tossed into buckets passed around at klan rallies.

At a meeting of a Franklin County klavern on March 7, one man told his fellow klausmen he knew personally that more than $300 was collected by passing the buckets at one rally last year.

Kian officials amounced after the rally that the bucket-passing had produced $125, he said.

This year bucket collections are not announced publicly.

Although there is no reiform rule, the local klaverns also remit part of their $10 to $15 initiation fees into state and national headquarters.

To counter criticism against his bandling of funds, Jones told fellow klassmen recently that he drew only half of his salary last year.

He claims to be living mostly off of his expense account, He is huilding a new home near Salisbury, but he says the labor is being done by klan volunteers.

One big drain on klan finances has been the cost of attorney fees — especially the fee for Raleigh lawyer Lester G. Chalmers, who represented Jones and other klan leaders before the House Un-American Activities Committee last year.

Klan insiders report this Chaimers has collected more than $30,000 in legal fees.

State Rift Deepening?

Klan Leader Says NC Shakeup Coming

GREENSBORO Un — Reports of dissatisfaction among Ku Klux Klansmen in North Carolina appeared more sound than ever today, with one Klan leader promising a realignment of the state's KKK units, possibly within a week.

The Rev. George F. Dorsett of Greensboro, imperial national chaplain of the United Klans of America, Inc. (UKA), indicated the realizament has been planned for months and that it may be completed by the end of the week.

"North Carolina Klansmen have followed Robert Jones as far as they're going to follow him," Dorsett said Saturday.

"Mr. Jones' action toward Mr. Cole has brought all this to a head."

DORSETT was referring to James (Catfish) Cole, former state leader of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, who recently joined the 6th Province (Greensboro area) of the UKA. Jones is North Carolina grand dragon of the UKA.

Jones, a former awning salesman, denier any rift within the Klan and emerged from a meeting of the Klan's state board Saturday and said by manimous vote he was still the top Klansman and "official spokesman" in North Carolina.

"I wasn't thrown into this organization and I'm not going to be thrown out," Jones replied when newsmen asked about his future as KKK leader in North Carolina.

He declined to say how many of the 10 state board members were present at the "high level" conference held "somewhere in Rowan County." He said all board members not present had sent him their proxies. Jones had little to reveal concerning the nature of the discussions which lasted several hours.

He said that a report of the meeting will be sent to all Klan units in the state and to UKA Imperial Wizard Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala.

DORSETT SAID he has been collecting charters from local Klan units that want to withdraw from the United Klans and from Jones' leadership. He said under the new set-up, Klansmen will be members of the North Carolina Knights of the Ku Khux Klan.

If the move is carried out, official ties between the units and Shelton apparently would be severed.

When asked about reports of dissatisfaction among Klansmen over the handling of Klansinances, Jones said, "My books are open at any time to any Klansmen who want to examine them, and for those not in the klan, the books are none of their business."

Published reports last week quoted Klan informers as saying that dissatisfaction was especially widespread in eastern North Carolina over finances and concerning Jones' weekly salary of $200. The decision last January to put Jones' wife on the payroll at $100 à week as a secretary reportedly added fuel to the fires of dissension.

Then Jones' opposition to Cole's re-entrance to the Klan muddied the waters even more.

Cole, who says he is a:
Baptist minister, has been relatively inactive since 1958, when a rally of his supporters was broken up by a bunch of howling Lumbee Indians near Maxton.

He was convicted of inciting to riot in that incident, and served some 18 months in prison.

To All Esteemed Fellow Klansmen:

have seen by now the Imperial Wizard, Mr. Shelton, and have stated that nave been banished from UKA. I have not been officially notified of this by Mr. Shelton and received this information only through the newspapers.

You all know that I have been a devoted klansman and have spent a tremendous amount of time attending rallies and carrying on the principles on which the organization stands. I have no intention of accepting this banishment without fighting it in every legal way possible. For over a year I have been one of the leaders in an effort to bring about reforms in the State Office of UKA in North Carolina, seeking to obtain honesty and a more efficient operation. I have never tried to and am not seeking that position at the present time. I am most honored to have the position of and those are the only positions I desire.

The recent action taken by Mr. Shelton to be based on the fact that in as a member of UKA recently. This was not done on my say-so but was done because all of the Titans and elected members of the State Board approved accepting as a member of UKA. This approval was unanimous at a State Board meeting held on at Henderson, N. C. The proposal was made by the and the vote was unanimous. The proceedings at this meeting were taped and later played for Mr. Shelton at Durham several days later.

At the State Board meeting in Henderson, the following duly blected State Officers were present and voted unanimously to offer membership in UKA

Now, apparently and I are being banished for having abided by the wishes of the State Board.

ENCLOSURE

I do not know the reason for having taken this is afraid of action against us unless most of you know, there has been a lot of criticism against particularly in the past few months over financial matters, his failure to defend arrested klansmen, his lack of leadership, the units and members are not receiving anything for the money they are sending to the state office, failure to take any action in obtaining use of the Dorton Arena after all the petitions had been signed and filled out and turned in, and klansmen could not get a reply when they write to the State Office. given us no long-ranged program. He has used klansmen to build he has failed to his home, account for your money. has indicated by his actions that he is not a man of high moral character which a person would expect of the us from criticizing him and trying to clean up the state office.

You can see from the way that that they do not follow the klan constitution in this or in the handling of the klan funds or the other functions of the State and National Office. As you know, the klan constitution provides for a trial of any klansman in his own section before he can be banished. Charges must be brought and the Klokann has to investigate these charges and make a report before the trial.

We two are going to defend ourselves against this unjust and unlawful banishment.

pears, speaking at klan rallies, many of you have come to me with complaints about and the operation of the state office, particularly as to mishandling of klan funds. Because of your complaints, I have tried to lead a movement to straighten out these matters and straighten out our organization.

I just wanted you to be aware of what the situation is and ask you for your prayers. May God bless you and the organization. I remain yours in Christ.

The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith published a report concerning strength of United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (UKA) in various states. This report showed that in North Carolina as of January, 1967, there were about 8500 members in 143 klaverus against 6000 members last summer. JAMES R. JONES of Granite Quarry was listed as Grand Dragon of the UKA in North Carolina.

Following the issuance of this release by ADL, it has been reported that J. R. JONES on several occasions has stated that the report was inaccurate and that actually the UKA in North Carolina has over 10,000 members.

An organization with the number of members J. R.

JONES claims to have should be able to afford a much more luxurious state headquarters than the present office of UKA in North Carolina located over the Crescent Fish House on Righway 52 between Granite Quarry, North Carolina, and Rockwell, North Carolina. For the rooms rented at this location, the Klan is reportedly paying $30.00 a month. However, it has been recently learned that JONES, during the construction of a new home at Granite Quarry, is also building on his property a building which will be used as state headquarters for the Klan in North Carolina as long as the Klan exists. Afterwards ownership of this building will return to JONES presumably since it is on his property. JONES' new residence is being constructed off the Gold Knob Road in eastern Rowan County about one mile from the state headquarters. JONES has recently reported that this residence of his is being constructed by Klansmen.

Dissatisfaction on the part of Klansmen concerning the construction of a new home reportedly resulted in JONES issuing a statement that the money being used in construction of the home was not Klan money. Inquiry has established there is no mortgage outstanding on this home which is in the $20,000 class.

JONES also operates a 1967 Chrysler on which the Klan pays all expenses and which was bought for him by Klan funds. JONES is reportedly allowed 10¢ a mile, and during the past year reportedly put approximately 100,000 miles on a previously-owned Chrysler which was bought for him by the Klan.

JONES' apparent prosperity has raised questions as to the source of his income.

It has been reported that in January, 1967, at a state meeting of the Klan JONES, through some of the persons in attendance, was able to have the monthly state dues raised from 25¢ to 50¢ per member per month. Previously, 50¢ a month was sent to Imperial Wizard ROBERT SHELTON in Alabama, and this amount has been continued.

With the 10,000 members in North Carolina which JONES claims to have, this would be an yearly income to JONES of $60,000 from dues alone.

In addition, it has been learned through sources that membership initiation fees range from $10 to $15, of which $5 goes to the state office. The ADL report shows that since the summer of 1966 the Klam has increased by 2500 members in North Carolina which during that period would mean an additional income to JONES of $12,500.

Probably one of the more lucrative sources for funds by JONES are public rallies of the Klan. The North Carolina Highway Patrol must have men present at these rallies for safety reasons in connection with the flow of traffic, and it has been learned that during the year 1966 over 130 public rallies were held in North Carolina with an estimated 90,000 people attending. At these rallies the amounts collected from the unsuspecting public who attend mostly out of curiosity averaged about $130 per rally for a total income to JONES of approximately $17,000.

The announced figure is not always thittely necessarily correct, however, since it was recently learned that some Klansmen in the vicinity of Franklin County were recently complaining about the fact that over $300 was actually collected at a recent rally there but that it had been announced to the public that only $125 was collected.

The items which bring revenue to JONES mentioned above are only those which are more visible to the general public. JONES has additional sources of income from the sale of robes, shoulder patches for uniforms, Klan jewelry, phonograph records, and various Klan insignia.

In connection with the sale of robes alone it has been reliably reported that in one year JONES sold an estimated 8000 robes, both satin and cotton, and from the sale of these robes should have realized a profit of over $30,000.

The sale of the above-mentioned items are apparently well known and sanctioned by the general membership of the Klan, however, it is probably not widely known that JOHES has also entered into an enterprise for the purpose of raising funds for JONES. It has been learned that within recent months JONES had a Charlotte recording company prepare under a "NCK" label a phonograph record, "Why the United Klan Burns Crosses," Which has on the reverse side "The Old Rugged Cross." Sources have indicated that the sale of these records will result in substantial profit for JONES personally. Also, it has been learned that at the Klan booth at the North Carolina State Fair in Raleigh in October, 1936, which resulted in considerable adverse publicity concerning JONES and the Klan, that JONES had to invested what he termed was his personal money in materials such as records and literature which he sold at the Klan booth for personal profit.

It has also been learned that for over one year

JONES has been operating his own insurance company within North Carolina under the name of the Widow's Benevolent Fund. In order to avoid having the state look into the operation of this insurance company, JONES, by using a loophole in the law, has paid to beneficiaries by check $999.95 and reportedly has paid the additional nickel out of his pocket. The state laws reportedly cover any insurance company which pays a claim of $1000 or more.

It has been reported that 1000 Klan members initially joined this Klan insurance program at a cost of $5 per member and thereafter upon the death of any member each of the 1000 members contributed $1. This has left JONES with a minimum operating capital of $5,000 which would bring him additional revenue if invested. In connection with the operation of this insurance company, it has been reliably reported that JONES one occasions has refused to pay the beneficiary claiming technicalities.

Since the inseption of the planned program considerably more than 1000 members have joined, and upon the death of each member JONES realizes a considerable profit to himself.

At one time JONES was operating six separate bank accounts, according to sources. One of these six was a "Legal Fund." This fund was initiated about the time the Klansmen were subposned to appear before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in Washington during the fall of 1965. An appeal was made for funds to support those members subpoensed and reportedly over $14,000 was immediately received. A large portion of this amount was reportedly paid to a Raleigh attorney who has acted as attorney for Klansmen on several occasions.

One other possible current source of revenue is the fact that JONES' wife, SYBLE, has recently been placed on the payroll of: the Klan and is the only paid employee other than JONES himself. Until the summer of 1966, the Klan in North Carolina had as many as seven paid employees, and it has been reported that JONES and SHELTON at a meeting of the Klan in July, 1966, at Salisbury, North Carolina, claimed these employees had been paid an estimated $30,000 during the preceding twelve months. With the Klan no longer supporting paid employees other than Mr. and Mrs. JONES, the additional revenue coming into the state office may be the reason for JONES' new affluence in the community.

In connection with the "financial report" given at this July meeting, it was learned from reliable sources that JONES and SALLTON had to manufacture some records in order to "whitewash" JONES' accounting for funds, and even so were unable to account for all the funds received. It was learned that approximately $5,000 could not be accounted for, which is considerably more than the average Klansman makes during a year.

Alabama is doing much better. Not only does he get the same amount from dues that JONES receives, but he is receiving money from all the other states in which he has been able to set up Klan organizations. In addition, "The Fiery Cross," which is the only official publication of UKA, is not even given gratis by the national office to its members but is sold for 10¢ to the members. In the past individual units have been required to buy a certain number of copies in order to insure that SHELTON's income from this source of revenue is maintained. SHELTON, it is reported, as also in the jewelry business selling Klan rings and also has written a book he is selling.

Mr. JOHES and Mr. SHELTON apparently are running a closed shop. It has been reported that recently when a high-ranking Klan official, GEORGE DORSETT, from Greensboro, questioned the financial operation of the Klan he was banished by SHELTON after charges were brought by JONES. Although it was initially reported he would receive a trial, it has now been learned that he will not be tried and is no longer a member of ULL. Apparently no criticism can be directed at JONES or SHELTON over the manipulation of money without suspension or banishment, and members of the Klan have expressed the feeling that both SHELTON and JONES are dictators.

In banishing DORSETT, SHELTON carried out his threat at the Klan meeting in July of 1966 to banish those who criticize JONES over his accounting for finances.

Apparently one local Klansman is also in cahoots with JONES and SHELTON. Recently FRED WILSON, the state treasurer, told a reporter of this paper that he could account for every penny, but efforts on the part of many members to review the financial records of the Klan have met with no success, and it appears JONES is most reluctant to have either the individual members or tax authorities inspect his records.

All the records carry segregation themes, some critical of Negroes and others of the federal government. (One is entitled "De New Sheriff").

Jones also administers the klan's insurance company, under the name of the Widow's Benevolent Fund, But he skirts the insurance laws by working in payments of five cents less than $1,000. Laws cover companies which pay claims of $1,000 or more.

The insurance is for widows of klansmen who die. The widows receive $1,000 in death benefits, but the klan checks are for $999.95 and Jones reportedly pays the other nickle from his own pocket.

Sources say that 1,000 klansmen have joined the widow's insurance fund and paid $5 to join. When a member dies, these 1,000 members hand over $1 cach to cover the insurance payments. The initial $5,000 is not touched for benefits, but it is not known if Jones invested the money for extra covenue.

DIFFIRENT FUNDS

The ..l.n has different bank funds for various activities. One is the "legal fund" which was mitiated when top state klansmen were subpoensed to Washington last year and more than $14,000 was reportedly collected for the fund when an appeal was made. Kian attorney Lester Chalmers of Raleigh apparently collected much of this in legal fees for representing the klansmen who all hid behind the fifth amendment in Washington.

The kian has cut out some of its spending outside the Jones household, however, Until last summer the state group had seven paid employes who were reportedly paid some $30,000 in salaries in the previous 12 months. These employes have been cut off with salaries now going only to the Jonesea.

Jones also receives 10 cents a mile for driving his new car for klan activities. He reportedly drove 100,000 miles last year.

SHELTON'S BLESSINGS

The grand dragon has the blessings of Imperial wizard Robert Shelton of Alabama in Chicago untermed the unancial dealings of the klan. When former klan kludd (chaplain) George Dorsett of Greensboro announced he was leading a battle to dig into the financial structure of the KKK, he was banished from the organization by Shelton. The imperial wisard had said In July 1966 he would remove anyone who criticized Jones' records.

Kian complaints have been made about Shelton as well as Jones, but no organized movement against Shelton has been heard.

Shelton and the national organization also receives 50 cents a month per member (the monthly dues are $2 with Jones and Shelton getting half and the other half staying in the local klaverns), plus 10 cents per copy of the klan newspaper, "The Fiery newspaper, 'The Fiery Cross." Members have been required to purchase a cer-tain number of copies of the paper in the past.

Shelton is also in the jewelry store business and has a captive customer audience for selling klan rings and jewelry.

Jones has denied any wrongdoings in his financial dealings in the past and said his books are open to any klansman, but are not open to anyone else.

State klan treasurer Fred Wilson of Salisbury told a Post reporter two weeks ago he does not question any klan financial matters. He said he know. here every penny is going.

li be . he is one of few, according o klans sources who say :.... efforts to review the records have been unsuc-. cessful.

At the present time, it appears that the best tactic to create further dissension within the klan with the possibility of having temoved, is to continue the attacks against in the press, reflecting his mismanagement of klan money and in any other way discredit From statements made by feels that if the publicity continues, he will be forced to take some action against and it is felt that this tactic, if continued, may have some positive effect in the swaying of SHELTON to remove

I believe that it is the duty of men of kindred thought to unite fraternally for the fulfillment of these Divine purposes; that by so doing they increase the followship of men and more effectively carry out the will of God; that the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is an Order in all ways conforming to these great principles.

He will collect from each candidate the klettokon, if same has not been previously paid. On hearing the signal of the Klexter he will excuse himself from the candidates and will approach the outer door of the inner den and give thereon seven raps (having in his possession the petition of the eandidates and the klectokons by him collected).

They having read the imperial Frodamation of our Emperor, and prompted by unselfiah motives, desire a nobler life. In consequence they have made the honorable decision to foreake the world of selfiahness and fraternal alienation and emigrate to the delectable bounds of the Invisible Empire and become loyal ottisens of the same."

E. C. "Faithful Night-Hawk: This is indeed important information, and most pleasant to hear. Important, in that it evidences human progress; most pleasant, in that it reveals through you a klansman's sincere appreciation of his sacred mission among men and his fidelity to duty in the betterment of mankind. Their respective petitions will be received and justly considered."

N.-H. (Bows and says): "Skr, I have in my possession the required petitions for citizenship of the men named, together with their klectokon."

If there be no objections, the E. C. will address the Night-Hawk:

E. C. "Faithful Night-Hawk, you will inform these alien petitioners from me:

Be you well assured that "he that putteth his hand to the plow and looketh back is not fit for the kingdom of heaven," or worthy of the high honor of citisenship in the Invisible Empire, or the fervent fellowship of klansmen. Don't deceive yourselves; you cannot deceive us, and we will not be mocked. Do you wish to retire?

E. C. "Faithful Kladd, you will direct the way for these worthy allens to the sacred altar of the empire of chivalry, honor, industry and love, in order that they may make further progress toward attaining citisenship in the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan."

The Kladd will conduct his party to the sacred altar by way of the Klokard's station. When he has arrived within about six feet of the Klokard's station he will turn square to this left and continue in a straight direction until he reaches a point about six feet of the sacred altar toward the station of the E. C.; sacred altar toward the station of the E. If he has five candidates or a fewer number he will form them in a straight line facing the sacred alter on the side of the alter toward the Klaliff's station and about four fest from the Klaliff's station perfect the three-quarter hollow square formation with klansmen.

The N.H. takes his place with the Fiery Cross held aloft just from the corner of the sacred alter to the right of the E. O. He stands within the quadrate. The Fiery Cross is held within the quadrate. The Fiery cross is held anoth during the administration of the oath and dedicatory ceremony.

The first paragraph above gives a general idea regarding the journey of the candidates to the sacred altar as to turning angles and as to distances, etc. In making this journey the number of candidates and the good judgment of the Kladd will determine the size of the hollow square formation and the best results in getting to and forming it.

The Kladd should study well his part in the fror work, for his is a very important and impressive part. He should exercise good military mannerisms in his work.

When the Kladd has perfected the three-quarter hollow square formation, he will advance to a point about midway between the altar and the station of the E. O., salute and in a strong, clear voice say:

Kladd. "Your Excellency: The aliens in our midst from the world of selfishness and fraternal allenation, forsake the past and are now ready and willing to bind themselves by an unyisiding tie to the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Kluz Klan."

Then the Kladd will about face and advance to his position opposite of the center and to the rear of the line of candidates toward the station of the Klaliff and await orders.

The Klokard, with his assistants, the Klaliff and the Kludd, will, with steady pace, form across the open side of the hollow square so as to complete the square, and will administer Sections III and IV of the Oath of Allegiance. The Klaiff administers Section III, and the Kludd administers Section IV. The Klokard stands between his assistants, the
the Oath shall have been administered, the Klokard will about face and advance to a point about midway between the altar and the E. C., facing the E. C.; he will salute and address the E. C. thus:

Kiokard. "Your Excellency: The worthy aspirants at the sacred altar of the klan have each voluntarily assumed, without mental reservation the solemn and thrice binding Oath of Allegiance to the Invisible Empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, and are awaiting to be dedicated to the holy service of our country, the klan, each other, our homes and humanity."

E. C. "Faithful Klokard: You and your assistants have performed your duty well; now you may rest; but stand by in readiness to perform other duties, if such arise."

The Klokard resumes his place in the quafrate formation between his assistants. The E. O. will then proceed to the sucred ultur to perform the following ceremony of dedicution:

Now, oh, Godi We, through Thy goodness, have here dedicated with Thine own divinely distilled fluid these manly men at the altar kneeling, who have been moved by worthy motives and impelled by noble impulses to turn from selfishness and fraternal allenation and to espouse with body, mind, spirit and life, the holy service of our country, our klan, our home and each other,—we beseech Thee to dedicate them with the fullness of Thy spirit, keep him (or each of them) true to his (or their) sacred, solemn oath to our noble cause, to the glory of Thy great name. After saying this the E. C. will raise the front apron of his heimet (and all klansmen

The noble achievements of the Ku Elux Elan abine with undiminished effulgence through the gathering mist of accumulating years, an eloquent tribute to the chivally and patriotism of the past, and the chivally end patriotage of a superior race—political supremacy, racial integrity, social peace and security, and to humanity the boon of cultured civilization. It abides the malicious slanders of the tation to those of this generation who aspirate all things noble and good for themselves.

our country and our race.
When the shuddering peals of the thunder of the impending storm of the American Reconstruction were heard above the fading echoes of the buttles of the great Civil War, the chosen victims stood against and pale, wondering at the meaning and purpose of the gathering gloom.

Darkness gathered apage, and the demons were loosed from hell's most dismal depths: the bilghting hand of devastation complete was laid heavy upon the Southern recopie,—a people pauperized, bleeding, prostrated and defensoless. These nable people turned to the power of the National Government for protection but were spirited away with conprotection in the possession of property, in the pursuit of peuceful employment and in the pursuit of peuceful employment and in the pull, but the National Government, by the shumeful devility of its anscrupulous manipulators, repudiuted that solemn promise und lators, repudiuted that solemn promise und inaugurated the most disgruceful epoch in the languagurated the most disgruceful epoch in the lafeutod, defenseless und submissive people.

That call was a hortible medial full of intense anguish, medancholy grouns and satekening, penetrating sobs of distressed women and the plaintive cry of hungry, clailless child; on this melancholy orchestra Grief fouched the chords of universal sadness and played the direct direct direct of death over the standard corps of civilization.

Constitutional law was stripped by profune hands of its virtuous vestments of civilized sovereignty of four thousand years in the making, and was mocked by polluted political pirates in legislative assemblies; and by the dubolical enactments of these assemblies the hands on the dul of the clock of civilization in the tower of human progress were turned back thousands of years.

In the name of law and National Authority the property of the husband and father was ruthleasly snatched from him without provocation by the venal hand of unholy confiscution; paupers by the multitude were mude in a day. Carpetbaggers, the vultures of gluttonous greed, swooped down from their aerie on the lofty peaks of the mountains of national authority o'er the dismal plain of human helplassness, fastened their tortuous talons in the fessness, fastened their tortuous talons in the people's sustenance; and the scallawage—the consciencelss, cadaverous wolves of treason—cansciencelsss, cadaverous wolves of treason—gamed the bones remaining to a baleful state of ghastly bleaching.

The chastity of the mother, wife, sister and daughter was imperiled and their sacred persons were placed in jeopardy to the licentious longings of lust-crazed beasts in human form. Might ruled over Right. Life and living was made intolerable; the rasping, discordant notes of penury had displaced the heavenly harmony of domestic happiness and no man's harmony of domestic happiness and no man's Ignorance, Lust and Hate seized the reins of State, and riot, rapine and universal ruin reigned supreme; the highest form of cultured society was thrust down and its noble neck was forced under the fron heel of permicious pussion who yielded a potent scepter of inquisitorial oppression, and the very blood of quisitorial pression, and the very blood of with an everlasting contamination.

They dissipated the cruel storm of the American reconstruction and won the plaudits of an intelligent, unprejudiced world. They stemmed the murky tide of despotic usurpation and tyrannical greed, and rescued the entire country from utter disgrace and ruin. They re-established racial rights and the sovereignty of constitutional law, redressed the wrong, made secure political supremacy, started and the wheels of industry and made possible the birth of the greatest nation of all time—the Re-United States of America.

With a "flery cross", symbol of the purest and most loyal patriotism, as their beacon, the Ku Klux rode through the darkness of Reconstruction's night; they dispelled the dense derkness of that frightful night, and at the rising of the sun of a giorious day, they saw the shades of that awful night receding. Right had been by them established over Might. The voice of music was again heard in the land; their purpose and mission was ended; they laid aside their spotless robes, and the greatest order of chivalry in all history disbanded—for the Ku Klux rode no more.

The noble ride of the Ku Klux Klan is immortalized by their accomplishments, and is memortalized by the men of today who appreciate the chilvaric, holy and patriotic aclidevements of the original Klan in the permanence of this our great fraternity.

The Spirit of the Ku Klux Klan still lives, and should live a priceless heritage to be succedity treasured by all those who love their country, regardess of section, and are proud of its sacred traditions. That this spirit must live always to warm the hearts of manly men, live always to warm the hearts of manly men, unity them by the spirit of holy clanishness, to assuage the billowing tide of fruternul alteration that surges in human breasts, and inspire them to achieve the highest and nucles in the defense of our country, our homes, each other and humanity, is the paramounities of the Knights of the Ku Klux Kluh.

SAC. CHARLOTTE (157-281)

SUBJECT:

COUNTER INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM INTERNAL SECURITY DISPUPTION OF HATE GROUPS UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA

> PUBLICATION OF ACTS RE: OF VIOLENCE

The Charlotte Division continues to take advantage of every opportunity to further the dissension within klan ranks and to disrupt the klan organization in North Carolina generally and one facet of such program being utilized by the Charlotte Division in its Counterintelligence Program is the publication of acts of klan violence.

Based on information received from informants and other sources, it has been found that the publication of such acts of klan violence does have a deterrent effect on klan recruiting in the areas involved. Such publication of klan acts of violence further holds the klan as an organization up to the public in a disreputable manner and further disrupts the klan organization.

As the Bureau is aware, Charlotte has developed several friendly press contacts throughout the state which Charlotte is utilizing for the publication of timely articles which have the express purpose of disrupting the klan and leading to the ouster of North Carolina Grand Dragon J. R. JONES.

These press sources are also being utilized to publicize klan acts of violence and one such incident was recently utilized.

This incident involved the burning of a cross at the residence of Rev. JAMES A. HEATH, JR. in December, 1966. Based on information received from the second and an independent source, it was learned that one FREDERICK D. FEIMSTER and FRED CLIFFORD SHITH had participated in this incident. (ct Klan na 12

ONE YEAR 2 Ex-Klansmen Jailed For Burning Crosses

Picked Wrong Address

By JERRY ADAMS

Observer Staff Writer

Two Mecklenburg County exklansmen were each sentenced Wednesday morning to a year in prison for burning crosses in the front yards of two local homes.

Freddie C. Smith, 26, of Rt, 10, Charlotte, and Frederick D. Feimster, 30, of 5205 N. Tryon St., were found guilty in County Recorders' Court of burning the crosses the night of Dec. 30.

Both men have told police that they quit the kian earlier this year. City detective A. J. Europa testified Wednesday that Smith told him of suggesting the site for the second burning that night, but after the cross was lighted they found that it was in front of the wrong address.

In Wednesday's trial, Rev. James A. Heath, a Negro, testified that city police awakened him at his home at $16 Walnut Ave. to tell him there was a cross burning in the front yard.

Heath described the cross as about five feet tall and "a sight to see — it was very beautiful. It was the first time I'd ever seen one so I just stood on my front porch and watched it."

A neighbor of Heath's. James L. Jefferson, said that he later examined the cross and found it to be made of two-by-fours wrapped in kerosene-soaked burlap. Jefferson is white.

It was this cross, Europa said, that had been intended for a former neighbor of Smith's. Europa quoted Smith as saying he suggested to his friends that night that they burn the cross in front of the home of "a German . . . a man Smith had had some trouble with when he lived on Walnut Avenue."

The nightriders discovered their mistake after the cross had burst into flames, Europa said.

This brought a sarcastic laugh from Judge Winfred R. Ervin, along with the comment, "What organization."

Mrs. Genius C. Evans, of Hutchinson McDonald Road in the county, testified that on the morning of Dec. 31 her husband found a charred cross in their front yard. Mrs. evans is a Negro.

Hutchinson McDonald Road is just north of city limits and about four miles from Walnut Avenue.

"We didn't know that It had been burned the night before," Mrs. Evans said, "but it's the second one."

Europa said that he talked to Smith and Feimster March 15 and 16. Both told him that they had quit the klan.

They admitted having been along Dec. 30, Europa said, buth that they had been "talked into it" after a meeting of the klan.

Both men said that they had not helped build the crosses, Europa said, but had seen them built and described the stand as being "of the same principle as the stand you put on a Christmas tree."

The ride began from the home of Andy Gay Laughter of Rt. 11, Europa said, and the men went back to Laughter's afterward.

When Ervin passed sentence, Smith's wife began to cry, and defense lawyer Amon Butler asked that the men be fined instead.

"These men have already quit," Butier pleaded. "They saw that it was all foolish and got out. That's what you want when someone comes before you, that they stop doing whatever they're doing wrong." Ervin added:

"But this court also has a duty to the community to discourage such acts in the future."

Man Arrested, Charged With Cross Burnings

Andy Gay Laughter of Rt.11, was arrested Wednesday night by county police and charged with participating in the burning of crosses in front of homes on the night of last Dec. 30.

Laughter is charged with being one of at least seven men who burned crosses in front of the homes of Rev. James A. Heath at 516 Walnut Ave. in the city, and Genius C. Evans of Hutchinson McDonald Road in the county.

A trial is scheduled for all five this morning in County Recorder's Court,

3 More Arrested In Cross-Burnings

Three more men have been arrested by county police in connection with cross-burnings at two Negro homes the night of Dec. 30, 1966.

Accused of cross-burning each are Harold Graham Carr, 22, of Rt. 11, Durham Lane; John Richard Dossett, 20, of 4712 Gilmore Drive; and Donald Aubrey Laughter, 22, of 1232 Meadow Lane.

They were arrested by police Thursday. All are free under $500 bond pending a trial in County Recorder's Court.

Also awaiting trial is Andy Gay Laughter, of Rt. 11, who is accused of cross-burning.

Two other men, Freddie C. Smith, 25, of Rt. 10, Charlotte, and Frederick D. Feirnster, 30, of 5205 N. Tryon St., ex-Ku Klux Klansmen, were found guilty in County Recorder's Court Wednesday morning of

On April 24, 1967, the five additional klansmen appeared in Mecklenburg County Court represented by klan attorney LESTER V. CHALMERS, who requested a trial by jury for the klansmen, which trial has been set for May 8, 1967, in Mecklenburg County Superior Court.

This development was followed in the April 25, 1967, edition of the Charlotte Observer with the following article:

Five Mecklenburg Klansmen To Get Jury Trial In May

By JERRY ADAMS
Observer Staff Writer

The trial of five Mecklenburg County klansmen was postponed Monday when their lawyer requested that they be tried before a jury.

A new trial date for the men, accused of burning two crosses the night of last Dec. 30, was rescheduled for May 8 in Superior Court here.

After the arrangements were made for the jury trial, however, the men did not immediately leave the courtroom and very nearly went to jail.

The men were held because, despite a large following of well-wishers, no one in the group owned sufficient property in the county to sign the five $500 appearance hands.

Facing trial are: Harold G. Carr. 22, of Rt. 11, Charlotte; John R. Dossett, 20, of 4712 Gilmore Drive; Donald A. Laughter, 22, 1232 Meadow Lane; his brother, Andy Gay Laughter, 35, of Rt. 11, Charlotte; and Jakie C. Frazier, 33, of 1116 Mockingbird Lane.

After several persons were told by the clark of court that they were not eligible to sign for the bonds, a county policeman was called to take the men to jail.

At that point, N.C. Ku Klux Klan leader J. Robert Jones stood and announced that a professional bondsman would be hired.

(To sign a bond voucher, one must own $2,000 worth of property, free of mortgage, in the county.)

The trial was transferred from County Recorder's Court to Superior Court for the jury trial. Cross-burning is a misdemeanor punishable by a maximum of two years in prison and $2,000 fine.

April 5, Freddie C. Smith, 26, of Rt. 10, Charlotte, and Frederick D. Feimster, 30, of 5205 N. Tryon St., were each sentenced to a year in prison for the Dec. 30 burnings.

The crosses were burned in front of two homes, one in the county and one in the city.

The five mes were represented Monday by Wake County lawyer Lester V. Chalmers, recent defender of United Mans of America Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton during congressional investigations.

Among the klansmen's following of and, in persons at the scheduled stal were N.C. klan leader the containt, security guard lead the person of Charlotte.

One of the their facing trial, Donald Lauge was a candidate in Monale scity council primary election. He was joined in the courtroom by fellow candidate and klansman Farrell W. Ostwalt.

Most of the men in the klansmen's following wore the small maroon-and-gold, triangle-shaped lapel pin of the klan. CE 157-281

It is felt that the wide-spread publicity resulting in the identification of these klansmen as involved in this cross burning incident, and the subsequent arrest, trial and sentencing of SMITH and FEIMSTER to a one-year active sentence, will have a profound effect on the klansmen in the Charlotte and Mecklenburg County area since it has been demonstrated to them that active sentences are being given for what the klan has apparently considered a "minor act" of burning a cross.

Charlotte will continue to take advantage of this situation and fully exploit from the publicity standpoint the trial of the additional five klansmen scheduled for May 8, 1967. It is felt that this program of publicizing klan acts of violence will effect not only klan recruiting, but will make many klansmen think before engaging in similar acts or other acts of violence.

The Bureau will be kept fully advised of the developments regarding the trial of the five additional klansmen.

All 32 degree masons in the Southern Jurisdiction of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, receive a monthly publication entitled, "The New Age". The booklet is about the size of a TV Guide or of The Grapevine magazines. Presently and for several years.

as the titular head of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of the Southern Jurisdiction, has championed the Americanism theme. So much so, that a noted historical writer on such topics, has been running a continuing series about Americanism, especially in the public schools.

For the Bureau's information, the Director has in the past contributed many articles which have been published in "The New Age" and distributed widely through Masonic circles.

It would appear that the Bureau's liaison unit, or personnel in Crime Records, or the Ancient Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at Alexandria, Va., could effect the publication of some type article or articles in "The New Age"

Presently the Grand Lodge of Masons, which is the governing body of all masonic Blue Lodges in North Carolina is in session at Raleigh, N. C. should be well aware of the activities and the influence of the Klan in Eastern North Carolina and depending on his personal attitude, some assistance from the Grand Lodge might be effected.

It has been determined that presently there is no state-wide publication of the Grand Lodge or Grand Lodge Officers which is disseminated to the rank and file Blue Lodge or 3rd degree mason. However, it is understood that consideration is being given to starting such a publication. Exact details of this are presently unknown.

Charlotte would suggest that the Bureau consider exploring the possibility of furnishing timely and appropriate information through the Crime Records Section and the Bureau Liaison Unit and perhaps through for the publication of such articles in the publication "The New Age".

If such liaison could be established through the Bureau and suitable information published in "The New Age", it would reach a considerable number of klansmen from the 4th through the 33rd degrees.

Such articles should be geared to point out the fallacy of masons who might join the klan believing it to be a patriotic-type organization as well as members of other civic organizations who may have been misled by klan publications.

In respect to such operation within the Charlotte Division, Charlotte would request Bureau authority for SA to make discreet inquiry of who represents North Carolina on the Supreme Council for the Southern Jurisdiction upon his return from Europe. Its a personal friend of SA and it is felt that such contact would result in a determination being made as to what extend the local North Carolina Council could be of assistance in publicizing appropriate information in such a fashion to reach local mason members.

In the same vein, it is felt that it would be valuable to also develop rapport with to ascertain the personal attitudes of these individuals concerning such assistance as can be given through various Masonic publications.

If such authority is granted to contact these individuals, their response to such a program will be ascertained and the Bureau advised at that time as to the possibility of successfully carrying through such a project. No specific action to further the project other than the above contacts would be made without prior Bureau approval.

The above individuals have not previously been called on by the Charlotte Office in matters of this nature but it is felt that their cooperation could be obtained and all of these individuals are believed to be stable, reliable, and loyal Americans, who would discreetly and in good taste carry forward such a program. Charlotte indices reflect no information of a derogatory nature concerning any of these individuals and it is felt that their assistance in such a program would have a material effect in divorcing from the klan ranks those individuals who are presently affiliated with the masonic organization and other civic and fraternal organizations.

To further this counterintelligence, the Charlotte Division requests Bureau approval of the following program as a counterintelligence operation.

On Page 21, of "The Klan in Action", there is provision under Section 11 entitled, "Intelligence Committee" for the establishment of a committee whose duties are stated to be, among other things, the protection of the klan from the actions of unfavorable members and to investigate members whose actions are suspicious or whose actions seem to show lack of proper regard to any part of their oath and to protect the klan Order by advising of spies and enemies within the klan.

A copy of "The Klan in Action" has previously been furnished to the Bureau in Charlotte letter to the Bureau on 4/7/65, directed to the attention of Research - Satellite Section, Domestic Intelligence Division, under the caption of "United Klans of America, Inc.; RM".

"The Klan in Action" provides for such Intelligence Committee on a klavern level and it is not known that such a committee is in existence or operation on the national level, but it is felt that this operation has immense potential for creating confusion and disruption within the klan ranks as will be set out hereinafter. In connection with this counterintelligence operation, Charlotte proposes and strongly recommends Bureau approval to utilize letterheads identical with that which is enclosed for the Bureau's information. If Bureau approval is granted, Charlotte will prepare a letter on this letterhead which will be sent to all Imperial Officers and other Grand Dragons in the UKA empire.

This letter will point out to the Imperial Officers and Grand Dragons that this committee has met, after being duly assembled for the purpose of ascertaining the true state of facts existing within the North Carolina klan as relates to the charges and counter-charges being made by North Carolina

N.C.

The letter will state that the committee, after a full investigation of the controversy raging in North Carolina, has found sufficient cause to warrant the removal of

Based upon these findings, the committee will then direct that all Imperial Officers and Grand Dragons receiving copies of this letter should immediately reproduce copies of this letter which should be forwarded to the Exalted Cyclops of all units with the instructions that until further notice, no further monies or contributions in any fashion should be directed to the North Carolina State Office or to the Imperial Office until such time as the committee meets in final session and until such time as a special product of the committee.

By virtue of the fact that "The Klan in Action" under Section 11, sets out that the members of this committee must work in utmost secrecy, this will be used as the reason the letter is not signed but a seal has been prepared and has been affixed to the copies furnished the Bureau and it is believed that this will lend authenticity to the document in the eyes of the klansmen, although it is not signed.

CE 157-281

It is believed that this type of counterintelligence movement will have a profound impact on the klan in North Carolina, throwing it into turmoil, leaving many units undecided as to whether to send money to the state office or national office and will require attempts at rebuttal by both SHELTON and who will probably attempt to point out there is no such committee.

It is felt that such letter will also create confusion and work to the detriment of the klan in general and for that reason, the Charlotte Office recommends that all Imperial Officers and Grand Dragons in states other than North Carolina also receive copies of the communication.

To further this portion of the program, Charlotte is requesting that all offices receiving copies of this communication covering the States of Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia, furnish to Charlotte the current addresses of all Imperial Officers and other Grand Dragons in the states set out above.

If the Bureau approves of this counterintelligence operation, Charlotte will prepare these letters for forwarding and re-mailing from Fort Lauderdale, Fla.

In view of the present turmoil within North Carolina relating it is felt that time is of the essence in this operation, and offices receiving copies of this communication are requested to submit the addresses of the Imperial Officers and Grand Dragons to Charlotte by return airtel.

The Bureau is requested to expeditiously consider this program and advise Charlotte if such program can be instituted.

The letter will be prepared on the letterhead of the "National Intelligence Committee of the United Klans of America, Inc.," and it is believed this measure will be of tremendous aid in furthering the dissension which already exists in Klan ranks.

MANDATE

To All Imperial Officers and Grand Dragons, United Klans of America, Incorporated, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan:

Pursuant to the power and authority vested in this committee as set forth in THE KLAN IN ACTION, this committee duly assembled for the purpose of inquiring into the current controversy existing in the Realm of North Carolina between North Carolina Grand Dragon J. R. Jones and Imperial Kludd Reverend George F. Dorsett. The following findings have been made:

- 1. Whereas, the Imperial Kludd, Rev. George F. Dorsett, has, as any other klansman, the right and obligation to appear before this committee to air any grievances which he may have concerning other klansmen or the administration of the klan, and having failed to do so is found to be derelict and remiss, and is hereby officially reprimanded, and
- 2. Whereas, this committee, being the eyes and ears of the klan army, has, due to the seriousness of the charges alleged against North Carolina Grand Dragon J. R. Jones and Imperial Wizard Robert Shelton, conducted a complete and thorough examination of the charges, and
- 3. Whereas, the charges against the Grand Dragon, J. R. Jones relating to his personal misconduct; malfeasance in that he wrongfully used klan funds which were entrusted to him; and has failed and been delinquent in his proper administration of his high office in that he has neglected to visit the units and has failed to provide literature and klan material as prescribed, and

- 4. Whereas, on numerous occasions he has demonstrated his failure to abide by the provisions of the klan constitution, the foremost being his refusal to hold an election for the position of Grand Dragon of North Carolina prior to the expiration of his two-year term in February, 1967, and
- 5. Whereas, these charges having been duly considered and verified, this committee finds as a fact that North Carolina Grand Dragon J. R. Jones has been guilty of personal misconduct, malfeasance in office, and guilty of violating the klan constitution.
- 6. Unless this committee is effective, the best klan will grope and fail. Therefore, by virtue of the power and authority vested in this committee, J. R. Jones is hereby removed as Grand Dragon of the United Klans of America, Incorporated, forthe Realm of North Carolina effective June 7, 1967, and divested of all power and privileges of his office. He is ordered to cease and desist exercising any of the powers of the office of Grand Dragon and is ordered to turn over all klan records, books, funds, property, and paraphernalia to the individual designated Grand Dragon hereinafter.
- 7. Whereas, the committee has found that the charges above against J. R. Jones have been brought to the attention of Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton on numerous occasions, and
- 8. Whereas, Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton failed to take any action to remedy this situation, this committee finds as a fact that the Imperial Wizard has been guilty of nonfeasance and remiss in his obligation, and
- 9. Whereas, the first and most essential duty of a leader is to know completely the situation in which he is to act and to know his enemies and the needs of the situation and the men whom he is to lead. Knowledge is power, and it is nowhere more truly powerful than in the hands of a leader. Therefore, Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton, having been found derelict and remiss in his duties as a leader, is hereby, by virtue of the power and authority vested in this committee, suspended as Imperial Wizard until further notice.

THEREFORE, it is hereby ordered and decreed:

1. That Grand Klabee Fred Wilson, Realm of North Carolina, is ordered to assume the duties of Acting Grand Dragon in the Realm of North Carolina effective June 7, 1967, and is ordered to personally take possession and secure all klan records, books, funds, property, and paraphernalia now in the possession of J. R. Jones.

- 2. That upon assuming the duties of the office of Grand Dragon in the Realm of North Carolina, Fred Wilson is hereby directed to immediately notify all units in the Realm of North Carolina of this action. He is ordered to establish a state office for the purpose of conducting all klan business within the Realm of North Carolina.
- 3. That Acting Grand Dragon Wilson is further ordered to schedule a state meeting as soon as possible, no later than August 1, 1967, for the purpose of holding an official election for the office of Grand Dragon for the Realm of North Carolina.
- 4. That all Imperial Officers and Grand Dragons receiving this letter will immediately reproduce copies of this letter and forward them immediately to the Exalted Cyclopes of their local klaverns within their respective Realms.

Upon receipt of this letter from the Imperial Officers and Grand Dragons, all local klaverns are directed and ordered that no further moneys or contributions in any fashion are to be directed to or sent to the North Carolina State Office or to the Imperial Office until ordered to do so by this committee.

5. That until an Imperial Klonvocation can be called, which will take place no later than September, 1967, the Imperial Kligrapp, Melvin Sexton, is ordered to assume the duties of Imperial Wizard, and is hereby granted and endowed with the powers and privileges of the office of Imperial Wizard, and is directed to conduct and carry out such duties and obligations befalling him in this position until such time as the suspension of Robert M. Shelton is duly removed by this committee.

Upon this committee depends the knowledge of enemies within and without and upon it rests the duty of furnishing the information upon which all plans must be based. Yet, its members work in the utmost secrecy and without open honor; therefore, we, the members of this committee, have hereunto this 5th day of June, 1967, affixed the official seal of this committee.

Esteemed Klansmen:

I am sure you have read and heard what happened in Richmond. I went to Richmond to try and see Mr. Shelton and see if we could not patch up the differences and try to bring about some changes have a better klan in North Carolina. I intended to again tell him about the many complaints about a chance to see Mr. Shelton, in the State Office. Before I had a chance to see Mr. Shelton, had his Security Guards resort to violence to keep us from talking to Mr. Shelton.

Although I never got a chance to see Mr. Shelton, I still have only one purpose and that is to try to build a better klan with honest leadership.

I just want to set the record straight about my activity in the klan. I am a loyal klansman who has dedicated about ten years of my life to the klan and its principles. Thousands of klansmen know my character and my conduct.

Can any one of you honestly say you have devoted more time to the klan, traveled more miles in klan work, given more speeches, or collected more money for the klan than I have? At one rally at Raleigh last summer, over $2,000 was collected after I asked for contributions.

You all know that I was called before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in Washington by the stooges of the Johnson government because of what I stand for as far as the klan is concerned. I was later arrested and indicted and now must stand trial for these same principles. If I stood up to the Federal Government for these principles, I am certainly not going to give them up now for Mr. Shelton and I am going to continue my fight for honest klan leadership in North Carolina.

I have been telling you that we had a dictatorship in the klan and pointed out what happened in other states. In Russia I would not be able to complain about leadership and I find the same thing is now true in UKA. I have been illegally banished for insisting on a code of ethics. I do not want anything from the klan in a financial way, but I do want leadership the klan can be proud of.

Not only is dishonest, but is leading the klan down the road to trouble. I weep to think about the klansmen who are going to end up in serious trouble with the kind of leadership has been giving. I know that most of the klansmen are God-learing, hard-working people who joined this organization as a means of standing up for their principles. I also know that there are those members who are not above taking actions not in the best interest of the klan. The has encouraged these individuals by not taking a strong stand against violence and I weep for those who will suffer because of the activities of this type of a klansman.

Here is where I stand. I have faith in the future of the klan but it can only be accomplished through dedicated men. The klan is bigger than any one of us and with the right kind of leadership, which I am fighting for, the klan can become a driving force to rid our country of the evils of integration and Communism.

May God bless you and the organization. I remain yours in Christ.

Klan Rebellion Grows Serious

By Roy Thompson

· A mud-slinging campaign inside the Ku Klux Klan has escalated into gun-slinging.

Up to now, no injuries have been reported but the tempersture is rising under the sheets.

Unless a peace-maker can be found to cool things off, the rebellion against Grand Dragon J. Robert Jones of Granite Quarry could turn into something serious.

George F. Dorsett of Greensboro, onetime imperial kludd (national chaplain) of the klan; Jemes W (Catfish) Cole, onetime imperial wix ard (national president), and Clyde A. Webster, a state klan official, ore trying to have Jones removed as head of the Tar Heel klan.

Claims Ouster

Imperial Wilard Robert Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., has kicked them out of the klan, he says.

They say he can't de it.

Their trial is to be held in Salisbury Saturday night.

In the meantine, Dorsett, Cole and Webster are holding rallies of their own and trying to take Jones' Man ay ay from him.

Tast week, copies of a extoon of Jones were mailed all over the state from Reidsville.

The details of the cartoon can not be given here for the sente reason, presumably, that the artist did not sign them..., and no identification was to be found on the envelopes in which they were mailed.

Suffice it to say that the carbons old nothing to build up Junes' reputation.

Saturday night, George Dirsett tried to attend a Shelton rally near Richmond, Va., and the car in which he was riding was surrounded by klan security guards.

The guards ordered Dorsett bill the field. Rocks were thrown at the ear.

E. H. Hennis of Greensboro, driver of the ear, headed out.

A shot was fired.

Dorsett and Hennis say someone shot at them. The other side contends that Dorsett himself fixed the shot.

It got a tire.

Now Dorsett is saying that a national klan klekann committee (klan investigators) has been digging into the operation of the national klan and has uncovered "definite wroughling in high klan circles."

He wouldn't be specific about what klansmen are being investigated.

He hinted that the wrong-dologs involved money.

Dorsett said that Shelton's klansmon are selling 60-cont pins for $2 and 70-cont records for a buck and a half

"Missed the Mark"

Suggesting that the mark-up was too stiff, Dorselt stid, "If we can't have an honest, clean kian, we've already missed the mark."

The Saturday night shooting incident seems to have been a milestone in the klan rebellion.

Dornett said he went to Richmond to try to "make peace" with the imperial visard.

After what happened there, he said, there is no chance westever of their coming to terms... at least not right awar.

Machine Guns Aplenty

Feuding Klansmen 'Arming'

By Roy Thompson Staff Reporter

GREENSBORO — Mounting tension between feuding factions of the state Ku Kiux Klan has both sides arming for "defense."

Friends of J. Robert Jones, the beleaguered Grand Dregon, say that his enomies have aworn "to get rid of him if they have to kill him."

The anti - Jones group, which includes George F. Dorsett of Greensboro, said the opposition fired the first shot in Richmond last Saturday right when a bullet hit a tire on the ear in which Dorsett was fleeing from a Klen rally field.

Dorsett and Clyde A. Webster say they were watching the Red Barn at Lexington Tuesday night when Jones had a Kica meeting there. Both said Jones was apparently expecting some kind of reprisal.

They said they saw Ellan security guards in trees and on top of the building, and

"at least 25 to 30 carbines, a chrome - plated; saved - off shotgum and a mounted machine gun."

When the reference is a machine gun raised eyebrows, Webster said casually, "There's plenty of them around."

Dorsett said Jones had so many well-rimed guards at Lexington that "they'd have been a good army for Vieinam."

Webster and Dersett insisted that they do not intend to use violence to overthrow Jones. They say they can do it with klan votes.

Both feel that their rebellion has hit Jones where it hurts — in his income. Webster said. "If we cut that off, somebody's going to cut our throst and we've cut a lot of it off."

Neither Webster not Dorsett seemed particularly apprehensive about having their throats out. Neither, on the other hand, is taking any unnecessary chances these days. "If anything happens to Mr. Webster, Mr. Cole (James W. Cole) or myself," Doisett said, "that won't end it."

Jones, as has been his custom recently, was unavailable for comment.

In the past, he has claimed at least two attempts have been made on his life. He has never said who tried.

Jones, according to menhigh in his Klan, is carrying a rifle strapped inside the deer of his car... and a pistol.

Both factions in the Klan are alive with rumors. Most concern the other side's alleged plans for violence.

Dansmen are also spreading the word that Myrea H. McBryde, the new director of the State Bureau of Investigation, has a master plan for running the Klau cut of the state.

They add that the anti-Defamation League met in Raleigh late last year to launch "Operation Slingshoi." That, too, the klansmon say, is designed to destroy the Klan.

The inevitable result is a sp; scare and witch hunt under the sheets.

Law enforcement officers, newspapermin and others have had spies in the klan since its most recent revival. The fact has been well known, although devied by klan leaders.

Now both groups are accusing each other.

At Lexington Tuesday night, Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton, president of the national klan, told the assembled klanmen that George Porcett has been spying for the Anti-Defamation Lenguand has recently received a new Camaro for his services.

Dorsett said he does not even know anyone in the league. He said he paid for his ov. n car.

He named some people on the other side who he felt may be feeding information to "aliens" (anyone outside the klan).

There is probably not a major officer in either of the opposing klan groups who has not been accused of spying for someone in the past 30 days.

Jones' crowd is saying that the Dorsett - Webster - Cole group is jealous of the Dragen and wants to take over his Job.

Dorsett Lelieves that the whole blow-up came because of Jones' jealousy and fear of James W. (Cauish) Cole.
Webster said, "Rob Jones

Webster said, "Heb Jones has his heart set on being the Imperial Wizard. A year set he was talking about it, and North Carolina had enough votes to elect him, but he's lost out now, and he couldn't do it today."

Out of the major sources of trritation at the moment is a cartoon that has been circulated across the state. It gives a very bad impression of Grand Dragon Jones, Dorsett and Webster says they had nothing to do with it.

They said it was first circulated last year and was maded from Chesapeake, Va. Later, they said, copies were mailed out of Kinston and South Carolina. Most recently, they've been coming out of Leaksville and Reidsvilla.

Dorsett and Webster mink Marshall Kornegay of Raleigh, Grand Dragon of Virginia, is responsible.

Dorsett said, "I think Kornegay would like to have North Carolina. Virginia is growing, but it's nothing like North Carolina for the Klan."

Kornegay could not be reached for comment yesterday.

Klan 'Ought to Be Run by the Rules'

Ex-Kludd Tries Legal Afriack

An ousted chaptain of the Ku Kiux Klan is plenning a drive to have the group declared illegal in North Carolina.

Imperial Kludd George K. Dersett of Greensboro said today he has sent a telegram to Secretary of State Thad Eure about violations of the KKK's charter to do business in North Carolina.

"I'm going to make an appointment one day the last of this week and see how some of these things effect it," Dorsett said.

"When we had to register with North Carolina we had to leave a copy of our constitution and by-laws with the Secretary of State. The charter called for us to abide by those by-laws.

"Not to abide by them would be breaking our agreement with the State and the present leadership is not abiding by the constitution."

the constitution."

Dorsett said State Grand Dragon J. Robert Jones of Granite Quarry was supposed to run for reelection in February but has not done so. He said national Imperial Wizard Robert Shelton of Alabama is also overdue for reelection.

Dorsett said the United Klans of America is supposed to hold at least one national business meeting every two years, none has been held by Shelton.

"I'm going to try to find out if I can force our leadership to go by the constitution and by-laws," Dersett said.

"If we are going to have an organization, then it ought to be run by the rules."

Jones could not be reached for comment today.

Dorsett was recently thrown out of the Klan during a power struggle with Jones. The battle burst into the open when Dorsett admitted for root Klansman James (Catlich) Cole into a Greensboro KKK unit Dorsett attended to get a Jones voted out of effice of the failed. Jones had Dorsett removed along with several orbers who supported Dorsett.

Cole was State Klan loader in 1937 when a rally noar Manton was broken up by gui-firing Lumber ludians. Cole was conflict prists for two years for inciding the Indians to riot.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC. IMPERIAL OFFICE

DADURIAL WIZARD ROBERT M. SKELTON

DIPERIAL KLIGRAPP WELVIN SEXTON PRESS RELEASE - June 13, 1967

From Melvin Sexton, Imperial Kligrapp

P.O. BOX 2369 TUSCALOGSA, ALABAMA 8540

The purpose of this release is to set at rest false implications and fraudulent statements made in an unsigned letter of June 5,1967 purportedly from a "National Intelligence Committee" of the United Klans of America, Inc., copies of which have been and are being distributed by one George F Dorsett. That unauthorized and clandestine publication indicates among other things that Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton is suspended and that I am to assume the duties of Imperial Wizard.

The general public should be informed that Mr. Dorsett has not been a member of the United Klans of America, Inc. since April 18,1967, at which time he ceased to be a member under the rules, regulations and By Laws of the United Klans of America, Inc. He was forcibly expelled because he had violated our regulation in that he as a National Officer had recommended and engineered the membership of one James S. "Catfish Cole in a North Carolina unit of the Klan knowing at the time that the said Cole was not eligible for membership in the Klan because of his former indictment and conviction for the incitement of the Cherokee Indian Tribe of North Carolina to riot, and his subsequent sentence in the North Carolina penitentiary for this felony, as well as other bad conduct in his background.

There is no "National Intelligence Committee" in the organization of the United Klans of America, Inc., and if there were such a committee the Imperial Wizard himself would be the chairman thereof under the rules and dogma of the organization. This is not the first time that such a publication as the letter of June 5, 1967 has been traced to Mr. Dorsett. As his other and former publications have proved, this particular communication, unsigned and almost untraceable, is completely false and fraudulent in its implications and statements.

Imperial Wizard Shelton's term of service has not terminated or been suspended and he will continue to serve as Imperial Wizard pursuant to his lawful election, and I will not, of course, assume any duties of the Imperial Wizard. Moreover, I am not even eligible to succeed to the office of the Imperial Wizard upon said office becoming vacant for any reason, such right of succession being vested in the Imperial Klaliff or Vice President of the United Klans of America, Inc. Likewise, the Grand Dragon of North Carolina, J.R. Jones, has not and will not relinquish his office and will continue to serve until his successor is duly elected and qualified.

In connection with the foregoing, it has been recommended by members of the Imperial Council that this entire matter, including false and fraudulent letters sent through the United States Mail by former members of the United Klans of America, Inc. be turned over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and United States Postal Authorities for investigation and possible prosecution for violation of the criminal laws of the United States. It is my understanding that a mail fraud conviction could carry a sentence up to five years.

IMPERIAL KLIGRAPP MELVIN SEXTON PRESS RELEASE - June 13, 1967

OFFICIAL MANDATE

Esteemed Klansmen:

Up to this time I have remained silent about this insidious conspiracy perpetrated by the so called Rev. George Dorsett, Rev. James "crawfish" Cole often referred to as "catfish" Cole - but according to the Lombee Indians of North Carolina, quote, [a catfish has a backbone and Cole has none, the proper name should be "crawfish"], end of quote, and Clyde Webster, whom I feel was duped into violating his oath apparently with the help of the Anti-Christ have tried to create anamosity suspicion, disunity and slandered the leadership of the United Klans of America. But upon using my name in a letter designed to appear as an official Mandate of this Order and making press releases: I Melvin Sexton have no choice but to step forward as a God fearing Klansman and an ever true patriot of our beloved nation "the United States" and denounce the above mentioned.

A true Klansman forsakes the bad and strives for the good, remembering always that the living Christ is a Klansman's criterion of character. This obligation they have violated. George Dorsett and James Cole cannot be men of God so I will never associate their names with Reverend again.

A true Klansman is patriotic towards his country and loyal to his fellow Klansmen. This obligation they have violated, by entering into a conspiracy revealing secrets of this organization, breaking the blissful bonds of fraternal union fidelity one toward another and devoted loyalty to the sacred principles and purposes of our noble order and have aided and abetted the true enemies of our Country [communism] and this order with malicious lies to create disunity for selfish gain.

The proper officials have known of their conspiracy for over a year and the ever watchful eye of scrutiny has been upon them. They have been legally banished under article XX section 34, so stating: In the event the preceding sections of this Constitution fail to provide for punishment of any Klansman for any of the offenses herein referred to, or for any other offenses that is inimical to the best interest of this Order, the Imperial Wizard is hereby vested with authority and power to prefer charges against such Klansman in accordance with the provisions of this article, or at his discretion to issue banishment order against such Klansman, who shall have the right of appeal to the Imperial Kloncilium for a period of 90 days after date of banishment, but these men forfeited all rights and privileges by releasing names and secrets to the news medias and trying to collect dues after banishment in a fraudulently manner and shall forever be banished from the United Klans of America, Inc.

The Imperial Kligrapp shall publish the decree of banishment to Klans in the realm in which such person holds membership, or throughout the bounds of the Invisible Empire in accordance with the decree, which I have done.

George Dorsett has referred to his watch dog committee thru the news media on numerous occasions, which is not a legally constituted body having never been voted on and approved by the majority of Klansmen in North Carolina. It's nothing more than a manufactured perpetrated monoilific lie. The only watch dog that would associate with him after his banishment would be a mongrelized traitor.

If any Intelligence Committee were a legally constituted body of the Klan the Imperial Wizard himself would be Chairman, but George Dorsett could never qualify for such a position which apparently would require a man of proven discretion, highly alert and intelligent. He would be disqualified on all three.

Enclosed for the Bureau are three (3) copies of letter prepared by Charlotte on letterhead of the National Intelligence /Committee of United Klans of America, Inc. (NIC) dated 6/5/67.

As the Bureau and other offices are aware, the NIC letter was mailed to selected Imperial Officers, selected Grand Dragons, and Titans of the UKA as set out in referenced Charlotte airtel to the Bureau dated 5/31/67. This letter was mailed by the Atlanta Division on the afternoon of 6/5/67,

The overall evaluation of this operation at the present time is that the results are exceeding the Charlotte Division's expectations insofar as fostering discontent, dissension, and confusion not only in the klan membership in general, but also throughout its leadership in North Carolina.

Rules Say Klan Can Fire Jones, Shelton

RALEIGH — (UPP) — The National Intelligence Committee which suspanded Imperial Wizard Robert Shelico and Grand Disgon Robert Jones is founded in the Ku Klon Klon constitution and clearly has this power, it was confirmed Friday.

It was learned that action of the NiC was part of a nationwide attempt by one finition to "clean up" tile klan.

The faction, which includes a purcher of christian ministers, wants to clean out kinn nigwiga using their forces for personal financial gain.

While the NIC has ourfed efficiencies in the past, they have held relatively minor positions. It was learned that the NIC never has attempted to fire anyone of the stature of Jones or Shelion.

Well-informed sources said while the rack and file membership of the klan has gone along with NIC orders in the past, there is a question whether the members will go slong with the firing of Johns and Shelton.

The sources, who have informants in the KKK, said the feeling was the dismissed of Jones and Shehon will probably lead to a split in the United Kians of America.

The sources said the dissention within the UKA has been going on for four or five mentls. One source discribed it as "a heli of an internal fight."

Esteemed Klansmen:

I have just received in the mail a letter from the National Intelligence Committee of UKA dated June 5, 1967. This letter reprimands me for the way I have gone about criticizing Mr. Shelton and the state and although I feel that I did the right thing, I accept this criticism as a good klansman.

I know that will make every effort to discredit the letter from the National Intelligence Committee and will attempt to keep klan members from seeing this letter inasmuch as the committee has removed him as and has instructed that all of the units not send any money to him or to Mr. Shelton until this matter is cleared up. For this reason, I am sending a copy of the committee letter with this letter so that all of you will know exactly what has happened.

The committee has appointed that been too close to for several years, at least it is a step in the right direction.

The committee has criticized for wrongfully using klan funds and for personal misconduct. I hear that is still trying to use the klan for personal gain by having mail out letters all over the state asking members to oring him expensive gifts for his new house which he admits the klan built for him.

All klansmen must strive to re-unite the klan and follow the orders which have been handed down to us and look forward to electing a new transfer who will have and keep the best interest of the klan foremost.

May God bless you and the organization. I remain yours in Christ.

They were advised by our Resident Agents that the memorandum did not contain information which would indicate any violation of which the FBI has jurisdiction. #### UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC. KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UKA)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401. Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with units in several southern states.)

Second source advised that at a meeting in Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Third source advised on May 25, 1966, that the UKA is currently an active organization with Klaverns in several states. This source said that ROBERT M. SHELTON is the Imperial Wizard of this organization and was elected to this position on September 5. 1964, at a National Klonvocation in Birmingham, Alabama. Source stated that during April, 1966, the national office was moved from Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, to the carport of SHELTON's residence, #18 Lake Sherwood, Star Route, Northport, Alabama, which space he had converted into a room.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC. KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (NORTH CAROLINA) (UKA)

On August 17, 1964, a source advised that the North Carolina organization of United Klans of America; Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, became affiliated with the national organization of the same group in the spring of 1961. The State Headquarters was at the residence of North Carolina Grand Dragon JAMES ROBERTSON JONES, Granite Quarry, North Carolina, who is subordinate to the national organization with headquarters in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

The organization in North Carolina has the same aims and objectives as the parent group; that is, advocacy of segregation of the races and white supremacy.

On August 17, 1966, the same source advised that the status, leadership, and affiliation of the North Carolina organization have not changed. The State-Headquarters is still located at Granite Quarry, North Carolina, but is no longer maintained at the residence of Grand Dragon JAMES ROBERTSON JONES.
