Re Dallas airtel to Bureau captioned as above, dated 12/28/70.

Since submission of referenced airtel, there has been no SDS activity in the Dallas Division area. Since submission of referenced airtel, a former SDS member, [REDACTED] has been unsuccessfully attempting to start a chapter of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) on the campus of the University of Texas at Arlington (UTA), Arlington, Texas, where he is a student. As of the date of this letter, no such chapter has been organized. Since submission of referenced airtel, an unsuccessful attempt was made to organize a YSA group on the campus of the North Texas State University (NTSU), Denton, Texas, by an individual named [REDACTED]. As of the date of this letter there is no such active group at NTSU.

In view of the above, it is not felt that any counterintelligence activity should be considered by the Dallas Division at this time.

Re Dallas airtel to the Bureau captioned as above dated 9/29/70.

Since submission of referenced airtel, there has been no SDS or New Left activity in the Dallas Division area. It is noted a former SDS chapter at the University of Texas at Arlington (UTA), Arlington, Texas, and at Southern Methodist University (SMU), Dallas, Texas, have not reactivated. A former SDS member, [REDACTED] publicly resigned from SDS several months ago and recently has been unsuccessfully attempting to start a chapter of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) on the campus of UTA, where he is a student.

Reference is made to Bureau airtel dated 9/9/70, entitled "Counterintelligence Program, Black Nationalist Hate Groups, Racial Intelligence -- Black Panther Party; Counterintelligence Program, New Left, Security Matter. In this regard the Dallas Division did mail discreetly and anonymously to various individuals and organizations, the articles which were enclosed with Bureau airtel of 9/9/70.

In view of the above, it is not felt at this time that any additional counterintelligence activity should be considered by the Dallas Division.

Re Dallas airtel to Bureau, captioned as above, dated 6/16/70.

Since submission of referenced airtel, there has been no SDS or New Left activity within the Dallas Division area. It is noted a former SDS chapter at the University of Texas at Arlington (UTA), Arlington, Texas, has not reactivated since submission of referenced airtel, and its former leader, [REDACTED], has been unsuccessfully attempting to start a chapter at UTA of the Student Mobilization Committee (SMC).

Reference is made to Bureau airtel dated 9/9/70, captioned "COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM, BLACK NATIONALIST HATE GROUPS, RACIAL INTELLIGENCE - BLACK PANTHER PARTY; COUNTER-INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM, NEW LEFT, SECURITY MATTER." In this regard, the Dallas Division is mailing anonymously, to appropriate individuals and organizations, the articles enclosed with Bureau airtel of 9/9/70, which originally appeared in the 8/14/70 issue of "The New York Times." This anonymous mailing will be discretely handled so that the mailings cannot be traced back to the Bureau. Results of this mailing through informants and sources will be furnished the Bureau.

Re Bureau letter to Albany dated 5/10/68, and Dallas airtel to Bureau dated 1/7/70.

Since submission of referenced airtel, there has been no SDS or New Left activity within the Dallas Division. It is further noted that the SDS off-campus group at the University of Texas at Arlington (UTA), Arlington, Texas, has completely disbanded, with its former leader, [REDACTED], no longer active.

In view of the above, it is not felt that any counter-intelligence activity should be considered at this time by the Dallas Division. Should SDS or New Left activity again commence within the Dallas Division, then consideration will be given to this program.

Re Bureau letter to Albany dated 5/10/68, and Dallas letter to Bureau dated 9/18/69.

Since submission of referenced Dallas letter, there has been no SDS or New Left activity within the Dallas Division; it is noted that the only school within the Dallas Division having an SDS group, University of Texas at Arlington (UTA), Arlington, Texas, has greatly curtailed these activities since the former leader of that group, [REDACTED] has left the UTA area.

In view of the above, it is not felt that any counter-intelligence action should be considered at this time. Should SDS or other New Left activities commence again within the Dallas Division, then Dallas will give appropriate consideration for counterintelligence action, with appropriate Bureau authority.

Delay in submission of this airtel was occasioned by agent assigned SDS - New Left matters being assigned on FISUR to Tulsa, Oklahoma, in case entitled [REDACTED] S -- NISC, Dallas file 105-3014.

Careful consideration has been given to the suggestion that specialized two-day conferences be held at the Bureau concerning captioned matters. It is not feasible to consider such conferences at this time. Therefore, no further action is being given to this matter.

This is not to infer that the Bureau does not attach significant importance to these matters. On a continuing basis, you should remain alert to any situation wherein it would be possible to disrupt the New Left or to engage in a logical, well-planned counterintelligence move against the New Left.

Re Bureau airtel to Albany and all offices, dated 10/2/69, captioned "COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM, INTERNAL SECURITY, DISRUPTION OF THE NEW LEFT."

In connection with the above matters, it is noted that several leaders of SDS have traveled rather extensively throughout the country, changing schools, etc. In example of this is [REDACTED] (Bufile 100-101765)(DLfile 100-119628), who is in the [REDACTED] index of the Dallas Division. This individual formerly was, along with her husband, [REDACTED] (Kerr-McCain, Houston Division), known as the regional travelers for the Texas-Oklahoma area. They both moved to Houston approximately February, 1969, and subsequently broke up, with a divorce pending. The latest information concerning [REDACTED] is that she is residing and working as a legal secretary in Chicago, Illinois, and has allegedly stated that she is finished with the SDS, although she still adheres to their ideology. She is to stay in the Chicago area, on a provision of her five-year probationary period set out in a charitable at Houston, Texas, where she received a six-month sentence for her activities in connection with rioting on the campus of University of Houston during early 1969.

The Dallas Division respectfully suggests that the Bureau give consideration to holding specialized two-day conferences at the Bureau, of Agents directly assigned to the above matters, or Agents designated as Security Coordinators for their respective divisions.

I. POTENTIAL COUNTERINTELLIGENCE ACTION

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) continues to have in existence in the Dallas Division small off-campus inactive chapters at Denton, Lubbock, and Dallas, Texas. All of these chapters operate off the campus, with meetings very irregular. Recently, MARK WILLIAM RUDD, SDS National Leader (Key Activist), from New York, appeared on the campus of University of Texas at Arlington (UTA) on 3/25/69, and on the campus of Southern Methodist University (SMU), on 3/26/69, being sponsored at both schools by the American Association of University Professors. Attendance at both his speeches was very light, with over half the audience leaving in the middle of his speech at SMU - RUDD attempted to obtain a group of students as an audience on the grounds of the Student Union Center, SMU, during the afternoon of 3/26/69, but only about 40 students appeared, with some of these being curiosity seekers. Sources in the Dallas Division area, have stated that RUDD's speeches and appearances were a failure, since he was unable to obtain any following.

Since submission of last quarterly letter on this matter, [REDACTED] (Key Activist) (Bufile 100-450202), and his wife, [REDACTED] have moved to Houston, Texas, and are active in that area, especially in organizing the National Council meeting of the SDS which was held at Austin, Texas during the period 3/27 through 3/30/69.

With the [REDACTED] moving from the Dallas area, SDS activities in this Division have decreased. With the exception of the above two speeches by RUDD, there have been no New Left activities within the Dallas Division.

I. POTENTIAL COUNTERINTELLIGENCE ACTION

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) has chapters in existence within the Dallas Division at Denton, Lubbock, Canyon, Commerce, Wichita Falls, and Dallas, Texas. The chapter at Dallas has about eight actual members, although about four additional persons are strong sympathizers who attend the meetings. Six or eight other persons also attend the meetings for reasons unknown. The other above mentioned chapters are smaller. Those at Denton, Wichita Falls, and Commerce have been created only during the past few weeks. Chapters at Canyon and Lubbock have been practically inactive during the current school year. The major SDS and New Left activity within the Dallas Division center around [REDACTED] (Bufile 100-450202) (a Key Activist) and his wife, [REDACTED] who reside in Dallas but work as regional travelers in Texas and Oklahoma. He is a member of the SDS National Interim Committee (NIC).

Summary reports have been submitted on both the [REDACTED] with recommendations they be placed on the Security Index. Potential counterintelligence action includes efforts toward interviewing [REDACTED]. It is believed an interview with him would have a deterrent effect upon his activity. Bureau authority to interview him will be requested in the near future.

Unless some substantial SDS activity develops at Denton, Lubbock, Canyon, Wichita Falls, and Commerce, counterintelligence action there may not be needed. 100-449698-12

The Dallas Office by LHM and airtel dated 11/6/68, under caption "STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS), IS - SDS; SEDITION", Bufile 100-439,048, reported SDS demonstration activities at North Texas State University (NTSU), Denton, Texas, that occurred on 11/4/68. On 11/2/68, SDS people handed out some leaflets just outside the NTSU Stadium during a football game. One of the items handed out was a leaflet that reflected SDS reaction to the National elections and announced a demonstration would be put on at NTSU, Mid-night 11/3/68, to Midnight, 11/5/68 (Election Day). Another item distributed there was a "Special Election Issue" of "Dallas Notes", a Dallas published underground type newspaper. Each of these handouts contained at least one 4 letter word which Denton local authorities considered obscene and in violation of a Denton City Ordinance which forbids distributing indecent and obscene literature. While these items were being distributed the Denton Police Department arrested 10 of the persons engaged in such activity, charging them with violation of that city ordinance.

An information copy is furnished San Antonio in accordance with its request in relet.

Authority to send an anonymous letter to selected officials of the University of Texas and to Texas political figures enclosing a flier announcing an SDS Regional Conference is denied. As this conference was scheduled for October 18-20, 1968, there was not sufficient time for the mailing of an anonymous letter for the purpose of having the meeting canceled.

After you have debriefed your informants who attended this conference, however, you should compose an anonymous letter to the above suggested officials criticizing the judgement of the administrators of the University of Texas for allowing the conference to be held at the school.

Prior to sending such a letter, you should first submit it to the Bureau for approval.

NOTE:

By referenced letter, San Antonio reported that a Regional Conference of SDS would be held on the campus of the University of Texas on 10/18-20/68. San Antonio suggested that Dallas prepare an anonymous letter to be mailed to the Chancellor of the University, to the Chairman of its Board of Regents, and to a Texas State Senator, Wayne Connally. This letter would be reportedly from an irate taxpayer incensed over the holding of the conference at the University. It would be sent prior to the conference. Sufficient time was not allowed for an anonymous letter to result in the conference being canceled. We can take advantage of the situation, however, by criticizing the school administrators for their cooperation with SDS.

ReBulet to Albany, 5/10/68, and Dallas letter to Bureau, 7/1/68.

The report due 10/1/68, is as follows:

I. POTENTIAL COUNTERINTELLIGENCE ACTION

It is to be noted there are three chapters of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) in the Dallas Division (Canyon, Lubbock, and at Dallas). All three were inactive throughout the Summer of 1968. For the past four months the major SDS and New Left activity performed within the Dallas Division was by [REDACTED] (Bufile 100-450202) and his wife [REDACTED], who worked in Texas and Oklahoma as regional travelers, putting out an SDS Southwest Newsletter which they distribute in Texas and Oklahoma. [REDACTED] in June, 1968, was elected a member of the SDS National Interim Committee (NIC) and since then has been active in that regard. In the near future a summary report will be prepared on each of the [REDACTED]. Immediately following preparation of the report on him Bureau authority will be requested to interview [REDACTED] as a counterintelligence move. [REDACTED] It is believed that an interview with him would have a deterrent effect upon his activities. It is already known that his mother and father at Dallas are completely opposed to his New Left activities, have so expressed themselves to him, and have been severely critical of him. He has no background of affiliation with any basic subversive organizations. He is a member of the Southern Methodist University (SMU) chapter, Dallas, and apparently is its most active member.

100-449698-12-6

If an interview with him should prove unproductive, it is believed then it would be appropriate to make available to the parents of both [REDACTED] leaflets and publications (by anonymous mailings) in order that all four parents will come to know the true nature of SDS with which they know the [REDACTED] are affiliated. It is reported that [REDACTED] parents (also of Dallas) apparently know little of the true nature of SDS and reportedly treat their activities as "just activities of a bunch of college students." No such anonymous mailings will be made without first obtaining Bureau authorization.

The leader [REDACTED] of the SDS chapter at Lubbock apparently has left there to attend the University of Wisconsin. The SDS chapter there and at Canyon, Texas, last year were very small. Unless some substantial activity develops at those two locations, counterintelligence action there may not be needed. This will be followed closely and if any substantial activity develops there, recommendations will be made to the Bureau regarding counterintelligence action there.

II. PENDING COUNTERINTELLIGENCE ACTION

None.

III. TANGIBLE RESULTS

The mother of [REDACTED], Dallas [REDACTED] was one of those interviewed on 9/19/68 to determine if he had been in Chicago during the week of the National Democratic Convention in order to establish whether he was a possible riot participant. She verified that he was in Dallas that week. She pointed out that she and her husband were thoroughly upset over their son's involvement in SDS and stated they have tried their best to talk him out of engaging in such activity. She commented that they "just don't understand him" for getting into such activity and said neither she, her husband, nor the parents of [REDACTED] (who are prominent citizens of Dallas, [REDACTED]) know anything about the SDS. She said [REDACTED] parents consider such activities of [REDACTED] as "just a phase" they are going through.

Although the above interview was not handled for a Counterintelligence purpose, it is believed it will have some effect as such.

RE: TEXAS TECHNOLOGICAL COLLEGE
LUBBOCK, TEXAS

ORGANIZATIONS

"The University Daily", Texas Technological College (TTC) newspaper, Lubbock, Texas, on February 6 and 9, 1968, contained articles which mentioned and identified David Roloff as organizer of the TTC Chapter of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) (characterization of which appears in the appendix), at Lubbock, Texas.

That newspaper, on March 6, 1968, in another article stated a group of TTC students calling itself Students to End the War had staged that university's first open opposition to the Vietnam war earlier that week on the campus. The article identified David Roloff as chairman of that student group and also identified him as President of the TTC Chapter of SDS.

That newspaper on March 19, 1968, on page three, had an article stating three faculty members at TTC had agreed to sponsor the local chapter there of SDS so the organization could gain campus recognition. They were identified as John Duncan and Roger Troub, Assistant Professors of Economics, and Larry Wood, Economics Teaching Assistant. The article stated David Roloff organized the local chapter of SDS.

[REDACTED]

Lubbock, on April 23, 1968, advised an underground newspaper called "The Forum" as named on its first publication went on sale March 11, 1968, both on and off the campus [REDACTED] had information that the second issue bore the name "The Activists Forum". Both issues identified David Roloff and Dan Bidwell as two of the seven members of its staff. Its address is Box 4611, Tech Station, Lubbock, Texas.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on September 13, 1968, advised the TTC Chapter of SDS apparently still exists but had very little activity through the summer, 1968.

KEY AGITATORS

The above confidential source on September 13, 1968, advised the prevailing force in SDS activities at TTC is [REDACTED] but that he has made application to enter the University of Wisconsin, September, 1968, and there is no indication he will not be accepted there. Source said a few other TTC students including [REDACTED] who were active in SDS affairs in Lubbock during the spring semester, 1968, were merely followers of [REDACTED]

Records of the Police Department, Chicago, Illinois, reflect [REDACTED] Lubbock, Texas, was arrested by that department during the period August 22 through 30, 1968, in connection with demonstrations held in the vicinity of the Democratic National Convention at Chicago.

NATURE OF DISRUPTIVE ACTIVITIES

[REDACTED] Dallas, Texas, on March 5, 1968, advised six or eight unidentified persons, believed to be SDS people, on March 1, 4 and 5, 1968, during school hours made vocal expressions and handed out some literature in the main lobby of the library of TTC. They expressed opposition to the Vietnam war and recruiting activities of the U. S. Army representatives which recruiting activities were being carried on at the same time in the same lobby. It was believed those demonstrations were to continue daily for awhile.

[REDACTED] Lubbock, on March 12, 1968, advised that four or five students representing a group called Students to End the War, that morning set up a table in the library opposite the Navy recruiting table. Several placards, three leaflets protested the Vietnam war. He stated that another group that afternoon set up in the library at TTC protest activities of the Students to End the War. That new group was unidentified, but had written on its table "Win In Vietnam".

TEXAS TECHNOLOGICAL COLLEGE, LUBBOCK, TEXAS

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Lubbock, on March 15, 1968, advised that four people representing Students to End the War set up in the TTC library and expressed opposition to Navy recruiting activities being carried on there. During the same time, an unidentified small group protesting Students to End the War was set up in the library. He, on March 14, 1968, stated Navy recruiting was continuing their activities that day at the TTC library, but the group representing Students to End the War failed to appear.

The above mentioned confidential source, contacted on September 13, 1968, advised there is no present indication of disruptive activity being planned for the future at TTC, although source believes the SDS Chapter still exists and there may in the future be some additional anti-Vietnam demonstrations. Source advised there have been no disruptive activities except Anti-Vietnam demonstrations there in the past and source has no knowledge of any specific plans for future demonstrations. Source stated it appears that [REDACTED] will leave Lubbock during September, 1968, to attend the University of Wisconsin. Source does not believe [REDACTED] has the leadership ability that [REDACTED] and is of the opinion [REDACTED] is only a follower.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1964, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us". At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes", the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

RE: STEPHEN F. AUSTIN STATE COLLEGE
NACOGDOCHES, TEXAS

No disruptive activities.

[REDACTED] Nacogdoches, Texas, on September 13, 1968, advised there have been no disruptive activities in the past at Stephen F. Austin State College (SFASC) and he knows of none currently planned for the future there. He said the only organization in existence at SFASC of either a subversive or a racial matter is a small group named King's Men, a racial type organization, which came into existence there on the day following the death of Reverend Martin Luther King.

[REDACTED] stated that group, so far as is known to him, has not engaged in actual demonstrations and he has no knowledge of any specific plans for demonstrations for the future. He said the only threat of possible protest by that group was its desire that Negro students be included in sororities, and concerning the employment of a former deputy sheriff by SFASC as a security officer.

He said that there was some indication in August, 1968, that this group might put on a protest march in connection with an alleged police brutality complaint, but no specific plans in that regard ever materialized.

He stated membership of that group is not known other than it is believed to be small. He said [REDACTED] Professor at SFASC, is regarded as one of the leaders of the organization. He identified its principal officers as [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He said other officers and members appeared to be principally Negroes.

ORGANIZATIONS

[REDACTED] Commerce, Texas, on September 13, 1968, advised a small group known as Afro-American Student Society (AASS), a racial-type group, is the only organization to his knowledge currently existing at ETSU of either a racial or subversive nature. Although AASS is not an organization presently recognized officially as a campus organization, it came into existence there during the spring semester of 1968.

[REDACTED] stated that so far as he knows, a chapter of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) (characterization of which appears in the Appendix) has never come into existence at ETSU. He said, however, that on August 1, 1968, [REDACTED] philosophy professor from the University of Texas, Austin; [REDACTED] past national secretary, SDS, believed of Austin, Texas; and [REDACTED] of the SDS at Austin, Texas, all spoke at a meeting or rally in Commerce at which gathering SDS was promoted. Because of these activities [REDACTED] believes that an SDS chapter may come into existence in the near future at ETSU.

KEY AGITATORS

[REDACTED] identified above, on September 13, 1968, advised that leaders of AASS appear to be [REDACTED] Negro male, date of birth [REDACTED] home address [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Negro female, date of birth [REDACTED] home address [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED], ETSU Business Department instructor, met with [REDACTED] and his group after the August 1, 1968 meeting in Commerce, which promoted SDS activities. He said indications were that two ETSU students, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] would be involved in SDS activities at ETSU since some kind of a meeting was held at "The Kaleidoscope", Live Oak and Campbell Streets, Commerce, Texas, following [REDACTED] public meeting.

[REDACTED] Commerce, on September 13, 1968, advised "The Kaleidoscope" is in a building owned by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] also said that [REDACTED] of ETSU was one of the persons who helped Negro ETSU students to form AASS and that [REDACTED] reportedly had recently attended a wedding in Dallas of an individual who was supposed to be a Communist, identity unknown.

DISRUPTIVE ACTIVITIES

[REDACTED] Commerce, on May 15, 1968, advised he had been presented with a "Declaration of Rights" adopted by the AASS, which made certain demands of the ETSU administration. Attached to the leaflet containing such declarations was a petition signed by numerous members of AASS which requested [REDACTED] to be present at its meeting on May 15, 1968, and which stated they would be anticipating a positive reply to their "Declaration of Rights". Since [REDACTED] already had a commitment to speak to the Student Senate on May 15, 1968, at the same time the AASS meeting was scheduled, he invited the AASS group to attend the Student Senate meeting. Several of the AASS members attended and [REDACTED] spoke to the entire group, taking a firm stand that some of the demands were out of the question; that others were already in effect; and that others were to be considered at a later date, which comments were in answer to each AASS demand. He said he made it clear that he did not intend to let any one group of students upset the educational processes at ETSU. Those present gave him a standing ovation. [REDACTED] stated that immediately after the above combined meeting, AASS held a private meeting of its own in Science Hall at ETSU, and present there were some outsiders who he identified as [REDACTED], and [REDACTED] associate [REDACTED] a pre-law student at the University of Texas at Arlington (UTA), Arlington, Texas. According to [REDACTED] attempted to take over the meeting and advised the group that they should immediately picket and demonstrate. [REDACTED] id, however, that the AASS leadership apparently was able to quiet down the meeting and at about midnight, May 15, 1968, [REDACTED] and three other of their associates departed from the ETSU campus with no demonstration ensuing.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on July 5, 1968, advised [REDACTED] self-admitted representative of Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) (characterization of which appears in the Appendix) at Dallas, Texas, was arrested by the Dallas Police Department on July 3, 1968, for Investigation, Malicious Mischief, which resulted from [REDACTED] participation with others in acts of vandalism at an OK Supermarket in Dallas, amounting to about $200 damage. [REDACTED] was charged with a felony, Destruction of Property, Value Over $50. Source later on September 5, 1968, reported [REDACTED] was found guilty on August 23, 1968, following a jury trial by Dallas County Criminal Court No. 3, and was sentenced to ten years.

[REDACTED], Dallas, on July 26, 1968, advised three SNCC picketers, including [REDACTED] were arrested by the Dallas Police Department on July 24, 1968, for making verbal threats against customers and employees of OK Supermarkets while the three were engaged in boycott activities against that grocery chain.

[REDACTED] Dallas SNCC treasurer, was arrested by Special Agents of the FBI at Dallas on a Federal complaint and warrant issued on August 22, 1968, by the United States Commissioner, Eastern District of Texas, Tyler, Texas, against him, and another person for their participation in a bank robbery at Ladonia, Texas, on August 19, 1968. He was turned over to the United States Marshal at Tyler, and held for trial under $20,000 bond.

[REDACTED] identified above, on September 13, 1968, advised to present there have been no riots or actual disruptive activities at ETSU. He stated, however, that he is apprehensive in that regard concerning the coming school year, which begins on September 16, 1968. He said ETSU expects an enrollment of about 9,000 students with about 5 per cent being Negroes. He said a contract which had been signed between ETSU and the American Program Bureau, 59 Temple Place, Boston, Massachusetts, had been cancelled upon advice of ETSU legal advisors. That program would have had Dick Gregory speaking on the ETSU campus August 14, 1968, but which appearance will not be made. [REDACTED] stated he is apprehensive that some type of demonstration may be put on by the AASS which he expects may become a recognized organization during the coming year on the ETSU campus, or by SDS people who may form an SDS chapter there in the near future. To the present time [REDACTED] has no information that any actual disruptive activities are being planned.

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, described itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, Stokely Carmichael was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced as Chairman by H. Rap Brown, with Carmichael assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of Fidel Castro, Carmichael participated in the Organization of Latin American Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, Carmichael traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

A source advised that when Carmichael was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of H. Rap Brown as Chairman in 1967, it embarked on a worldwide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to the draft and to the United States involvement in Vietnam.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. Rap Brown said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note Brown wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

STUDENT NONVIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

Literature distributed by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, describes itself as not being a membership organization, but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements. SNCC was born out of the sit-in movement which erupted across the South beginning on February 1, 1960. A conference at Raleigh, North Carolina, that Spring, brought together many of the demonstrating Southern students in a loose network of militant youth which was officially named SNCC in October, 1960.

A source has advised that in May, 1966, Stokely Carmichael was elected National Chairman by the Central Committee. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced as Chairman by H. Rap Brown, with Carmichael assuming the position of Recruiter and Organizer for the SNCC. In August, 1967, at the invitation of Fidel Castro, Carmichael participated in the Organization of Latin American Solidarity Conference which was held in Havana, Cuba. Subsequent thereto, Carmichael traveled to Hanoi and other sections of North Vietnam. He returned to the United States in December, 1967, at which time his passport was picked up because of travel to unauthorized countries.

A source advised that when Carmichael was elected Chairman of SNCC, the organization embarked on a program of eliminating Caucasians from its ranks. With the election of H. Rap Brown as Chairman in 1967, it embarked on a worldwide struggle for human rights and to take a firm stand against violations of these rights by the American Government and to the draft and to the United States involvement in Vietnam.

Literature distributed in February, 1968, identifies SNCC as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

On August 13, 1967, while addressing a group in the Watts area of Los Angeles, California, H. Rap Brown said "You better shape up America, or we'll burn you down." Later in February, 1968, in a publicized note Brown wrote, "America, if it takes my death to organize my people to revolt against you and to organize your jails to revolt against you and to organize your children, your God, your poor, your country, and to organize mankind to rejoice in your destruction and ruin, then here's my life."

[redacted] Canyon, Texas, on April 12, 1968, advised he had information indicating a chapter of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) (characterization of which appears in the appendix), had been formed at that university. During the spring, 1968, semester he identified seven individuals who reportedly were associated with that university and believed to be affiliated in some manner with SDS. Among them was [redacted] senior student there who was born on [redacted] place not stated. His home town is Tulia, Texas. Another was [redacted] a student there, who was born on [redacted] place not stated. His residence was said to be [redacted]. He stated [redacted] in an article in "The Prairie", WTSU newspaper dated April 3, 1968, was listed as an SDS member. He also said that [redacted] on April 9, 1968, advised [redacted] WTSU, that he then was a member of the SDS. Mr. Hudson stated [redacted] and [redacted] are WTSU faculty members, who reportedly had been approached to be faculty sponsors for the SDS at WTSU, although, both reportedly turned that down. He had information that [redacted] and [redacted] had been assisting in the organization or formation of the SDS Chapter at Canyon.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. Gus Hall, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticommunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

ReBulet to Albany, 5/23/68 and Dallas letter to Bureau, 5/31/68.

Information requested in Bulet, 5/23/68, is as follows:

(1) False Allegations of Police Brutality

There have not been any direct student-police encounters or riots within the Dallas Division to present. There is no detailed information under this heading.

(2) Immorality

[REDACTED] publicly self-identified as Director of the Dallas chapter of Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), a Negro, whose associates include members of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), and Dallas Committee for a Peaceful Solution in Vietnam (DCPSV), has been reportedly living with women, out of wedlock, at his apartment on which apartment he has failed to pay rent for several weeks. He, a non-student, Negro male, age 23, was arrested by Dallas police on 2/25/68 and charged with using abusive language, and fined $25.00. A Dallas PD squad car (two officers) was parked on the street near [REDACTED] residence when [REDACTED] came out and ordered them to leave, claiming they were harassing and intimidating the neighborhood by parking there. Upon being told they would leave when they finished their business matter, [REDACTED] cursed them.

[REDACTED] Negro male, age 33, lived with [REDACTED] at the latter's apartment from 1/4/68 to 2/27/68, and was considered by some as [REDACTED] body guard. [REDACTED] was released on parole from the U. S. Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas, on 1/4/68 after serving part of a six-year sentence for selling and transporting heroin. He was later arrested by Lubbock, Texas, local authorities on 3/14/68 and charged with burglary.

and assault to murder, being released on bond. Thereafter [redacted] was apprehended on 4/3/68 as a Federal parole violator at Lubbock. He is also now under indictment returned on 4/16/68 at Lubbock for burglary which state case will be disposed of after his release from Federal custody.

The residence of [redacted] white male, about 26 years of age (who is on the faculty of Southern Methodist University, Dallas, and an SDS member) is referred to as the "Peace and Freedom House" in Dallas. [redacted] on about 1/14/68, had a party at his house at which some of the persons smoked marijuana.

"Notes From the Underground" a publication being put out at Dallas, which has advocated SDS membership, appeared in early 1967 and at present copies are available publicly. Articles therein have been written by numerous SDS people, [redacted] and others, some of which articles contained vulgar and obscene words.

(3) Action by College Administrators

Although there have been no student-police encounters, riots, uprisings, or insurgencies on college campuses within the Dallas Division, it appears necessary for college officials and administrators to take a firm stand in resisting militant minority elements attempting to disrupt or take over campuses. There have been some anti-Vietnam demonstrations on some of the campuses in which militant elements participated. A very small per cent of the student bodies and faculties were participants, and extent of outside influence in the demonstrations was very little.

In 1967 an SDS chapter was in existence at Fort Worth-Arlington, Texas, which was centered to a large degree around The University of Texas at Arlington (UTA), Arlington, Texas. Immediately after the University of Texas at Austin, in 1967, denied recognition of SDS at Austin, the UTA administration at Arlington took a firm stand and also refused to approve SDS there as a campus organization. Immediately thereafter SDS activities at Fort Worth-Arlington slowed down and soon that chapter disbanded. In 1965 and again in about December, 1967, efforts were made to set up an SDS chapter at North Texas State University (NTSU), Denton, Texas, but NTSU officials refused to recognize SDS as a campus organization. SDS activities therefore at Denton have not gotten much foothold.

[REDACTED] SNCC representative in Dallas, in 1967 made an effort to start up a SNCC chapter at Bishop College, Dallas, but met with little success. Information was received from a Bishop College administrative official on 5/31/68 that a review was made of Bishop College students who were involved in SNCC and related activities, and at the end of the 1967-68 school-year those students were notified it would be preferred they not return to that college as their attitude and actions were considered incompatible with the ideals and philosophies of that college. Also that official stated a few instructors who were sympathetic to the activities of those students were not expected to return in the Fall, 1968.

In early May, 1968, the president of East Texas State University (ETSU), Commerce, Texas, was presented with a "Declaration of Rights", adopted by "Black Student Representatives" of the Afro-American Student Society (AASS), a local organization of Negro students at ETSU. It made certain demands of the ETSU administration. Attached to that leaflet was a petition signed by numerous members of AASS which requested the ETSU president to be present at its meeting on 5/15/68 and which stated they would be anticipating a positive reply to their "Declaration of Rights." Since the ETSU president already had a commitment to speak to the Student Senate on 5/15/68 at the time the AASS meeting was scheduled, he so informed the AASS leader and invited the AASS group to attend the Student Senate meeting. About 25 of the AASS members, including its leader, attended. The ETSU president spoke to the meeting taking a firm stand, explaining, after taking up each of the AASS demands, that some of the demands were out of the question; that others were already in effect; and that others were to be considered at a later date. He made it clear to those listening that he did not intend to let any one group of students upset the educational processes at ETSU since it was his job to see that students there received an education. Those listening then gave the president a standing ovation.

Immediately following that meeting, on 5/15/68, AASS had its own private meeting at which [REDACTED] of SNCC at Dallas, and one associate (from Arlington, Texas) of [REDACTED] were outsiders present and attempted to take over that meeting, advocating that AASS should picket and demonstrate at ETSU. No picketing or demonstrations resulted. [REDACTED] and his associate returned to the Dallas area.

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI DATE: 5/31/68

FROM : JES/gmt SAC, DALLAS (100-11534) (P)

SUBJECT: COUNTERINTELLIGENCE PROGRAM
INTERNAL SECURITY

Re Bulet to Albany, 5/10/68.

The New Left movement within the Dallas Division, to present, has mainly consisted of some activity by three organizations identified as follows: Students for a Democratic Society (SDS); Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), and Dallas Committee For a Peaceful Solution in Vietnam (DCPSV).

SDS chapters exist at Dallas, Canyon, and Lubbock, Texas, and each have participated in demonstrations or other activities of anti-Vietnam or anti-draft nature. One person, [REDACTED] who identifies himself as the Dallas representative of SNCC has tried, assisted by two or three associates, to start a chapter of SNCC in Dallas, but has had little success. [REDACTED] however, has with assistance of a few SDS people and others, participated in New Left activities in Dallas. DCPSV throughout 1967 and for the first few weeks of 1968 conducted anti-Vietnam peace vigils in downtown Dallas each Saturday. DCPSV at present has discontinued them every Saturday, but is likely to hold such demonstrations sporadically.

It is believed most of the people involved in New Left activities thrive on publicity through newspapers, radio and television. It would appear therefore they will become less interested in such activities if they receive little or no publicity. It is believed potential counterintelligence action against these groups would include giving encouragement, through trusted and reliable news media representatives, toward their withholding news publicity about New Left events, unless the event was unfavorable to the participants, in which instance much publicity should be encouraged.

Potential counterintelligence action against these groups includes education of presidents and/or deans of colleges and universities as to the true nature of the groups that need to be exposed, disrupted and neutralized. It is believed in some instances heads of colleges and universities can be effectively contacted by experienced Bureau personnel and brought to realize how important it is to take positive stands against unreasonable and anarchistic activities being espoused under the cover of academic freedom. In many other instances such messages undoubtedly can be gotten to such school officials through reliable civic leaders, local police or other public officials. School officials should be educated to the fact that the New Left is not seeking to reform society, but to destroy it; and that its overall aim is to have total and radical student autonomy of universities.

At present Dallas does not have any specific recommendations for immediate counterintelligence action. This matter, however, will be discussed with all Agents handling investigations pertaining to the New Left, and effort will be made to formulate some specific recommendations.
