

FRED G. RANDACCIO
ANTI-RACKETEERING

It was agreed by all those present at this meeting that it is now necessary to keep not only their persons but their homes "clean" in the event of any future gambling arrests. Both PETER A. MAGADDINO and RANDACCIO complained that they were being harassed by the Internal Revenue Service and that their prior tax returns were being investigated. According to NATARELLI, the Internal Revenue Service must prove intent to defraud and the investigation cannot go beyond the preceding seven years.

According to Source Number Three, the marriage of [ ] was discussed since it appeared that this marriage may be the basis for deportation proceedings against [ ]. Source Number Three stated that RANDACCIO claimed that [ ] could live like a king in [ ]. However, the others present at this meeting did not believe [ ] had sufficient money to do so. b6 b7C

Source Number Three stated that on February 19, 1964, a meeting was held in Niagara Falls, New York, with the following members of the MAGADDINO Family present:

STEVE MAGADDINO
PETER A. MAGADDINO
PETER J. MAGADDINO
FRED RANDACCIO
DANIEL SANSANESE
SAM RANGATORE

b6
b7C

According to Source Number Three, those present appeared to be concerned over the activities of a woman who apparently lives in Canada. Source Number Three stated that based upon information received the following day, JOHN CAMMILLERI and DANIEL SANSANESE have been mentioned as the individual who will go into Canada with someone who has been selected to "hit" a woman believed to be identical with [ ]. Source Number Three has previously reported information indicating that members of the MAGADDINO Family are concerned over the

In connection with the AGUECI matter, Source Number Three stated that on March 12, 1964, the following individuals met in Niagara Falls, New York:

STEVE MAGADDINO
PETER A. MAGADDINO
FRED RANDACCIO
SAM RANGATORE
PASQUALE NATARELLI
ANTONIO MAGADDINO

According to Source Number Three, JOHN CAMMILLERI, of the MAGADDINO Family, was planning on taking a trip to New York City, and members of the MAGADDINO Family were going to meet him upon his return.

During the meeting, Source Number Three stated RANDACCIO said he thought that [redacted] whom he referred to as [redacted] and [redacted] are getting tough. Source Number Three stated that, apparently, RANDACCIO was referring to Canadian attorney [redacted] and RANDACCIO had suggested that he or someone else should grab [redacted] by the throat.

b6
b7C

Source Number Three further stated that RANDACCIO had asked if anyone knew anything about someone taking a shot at ANTHONY "NINO" MAGADDINO in the parking lot of the Pine Bowl, a bowling alley in Niagara Falls, New York, between 2:30 and 3:00 AM, March 10, 1964. Source Number Three also pointed out that STEVE MAGADDINO had discussed in some

FRED G. RANDACCIO
ANTI-RACKETEERING

Source Number Three reported that on November 26, 1963, RANDACCIO met with STEVE MAGADDINO, SAM RANGATORE, and PETER A. MAGADDINO in Niagara Falls, New York. According to Source Number Three, RANDACCIO, in greeting RANGATORE, made a joking and disrespectful remark about the assassination of the President. MAGADDINO cautioned those present about making such remarks because of the attention they are getting from the public around them. All present agreed with MAGADDINO, and he proceeded to inform those present that the late President was one of the greatest Presidents. He blamed the cause of the late President's assassination on his brother, the Attorney General. MAGADDINO stated that ROBERT KENNEDY pressed too many issues behind the scenes, such as the VALACHI hearings.

According to Source Number Three, MAGADDINO explained he had received this information from some well-educated people who know what they are talking about.

Another matter discussed at this meeting concerned the efforts of the FBI to find ANGELO BRUNO. According to Source Number Three, RANDACCIO told MAGADDINO that ANGELO BRUNO is, or was, in Italy. MAGADDINO reminded RANDACCIO that he had been questioned by the FBI concerning ANGELO BRUNO and indicated he had referred the Agents to his attorney. He also strongly advised RANDACCIO and the others to cut off any FBI interview quickly and refer the Agents to their attorneys.

While they were all present, MAGADDINO voiced strong criticism over the way [redacted] and [redacted] Buffalo, New York, Police Department, questioned people on the West Side of Buffalo.

He pointed out that he is almost 57 years old and expects to die in the electric chair because he intends to kill a few people. Subject indicated that the people to be killed are people that he cannot stand. On 12/22/63, RANDACCIO advised the informant that [redacted]

[redacted] information concerning this present was also furnished by [ ] on the same date.

On 1/1/64, CI observed the subject, [ ] PAT NATARELLI, [ ] and DANNY SANSANESE engaging in a social conversation. Subsequently, NATARELLI indicated he had to leave to go to work and indicated he wanted to find out what football games were being played that afternoon.

b2
b7C

On 1/2/64, [ ] advised the informant that her employer has been planning an appeal to the Appellate Court in connection with DANNY SANSANESE's case and expects the case to run for five or six years. She indicated that some judge had already stated that he would grant a motion. She related that DANNY wanted to talk to her that evening on the way home and kept asking who did they think they were pushing around.

Subsequently, [ ] and subject had a discussion concerning the amount of money spent on clothes and [ ] mentioned that $2500 is a lot of money for clothes.

[ ] then related that some unidentified man was attempting to locate the subject and she was afraid this individual would tell her something. This individual indicated, however, that he would contact the subject that night and RANDACCIO commented that this man may have gotten into trouble again.

b6
b7C

On 1/4/64, [ ] related to the subject that [ ] (LNU) had been acting smart and told her that [ ] was no good. RANDACCIO commented that he, RANDACCIO, is going to have to kill somebody.

[ ] then related that her employer is worrying about collecting his fees and expenses in DANNY SANSANESE's case and that SANSANESE thought he had someone in the District Attorney's Office who was going to take care of the entire matter. Subject then mentioned the name [ ] but the context of his statement was not clear to the informant. [ ] commented that he should be careful and remember what [ ] had told her about [ ]

b6
b7C

BU 92-174-Sub 3

On 1/7/64, subject mentioned to the informant that some unidentified man had come up with $1400 on 1/6/64.

On 1/11/64, subject and [redacted] discussed what the informant thought were car payments, during which the subject mentioned that [redacted] had made five payments and asked if she thought he was made of money. He then asked [redacted] what she would do when he gave her the gate and accused her of what the informant thought was playing around with some unidentified individual. b6 b7C

On 1/17/64, subject advised CI that the Internal Revenue had been in front of [redacted] house all day and wondered what these men were up to.

On 1/20/64, subject complained he was being followed 24 hours a day and is suspected of everything, although no one is able to prove anything against him.

He cited as an example, that on the morning of 1/20/64, he had been precluded from keeping a 10:00 AM appointment in a restaurant while in the company of PAT NATARELLI and [redacted], when he was warned by [redacted] that they were being watched. Subject then began to inveigh against [redacted]

[redacted] stating that no one could make [redacted] come out in the open and make a public statement, such as he had made before the Senate Rackets Committee. He stated that [redacted] would be in trouble if he made such a statement. b6 b7C

RANCACCIO then indicated that he had talked to an individual who is apparently [redacted] and had told this [redacted] what he thought of [redacted]. He noted that [redacted] had claimed he knew RANCACCIO and RANCACCIO stated that if [redacted] knows him, [redacted] would know the person to whom he was talking better because [redacted] had met [redacted]. RANCACCIO then described the Commissioner of Police of Buffalo, New York as a "yellow dog" to which [redacted] objected saying he is not, but had received instructions like everyone else from the same place to lay off. She identified the source of these instructions as being [redacted] [redacted] who had passed the word around through different people that someone is going to hit City Hall and if the b6 b7C

Commissioner is involved in anything, he had better disengage himself, since the investigations concern Mayor CHESTER KOWAL. She described the Police Commissioner as being smart for laying off for a year and thus being able to make more after the year is over.

On 1/22/64, subject and [ ] (PHONETIC) (LNU) were overheard discussing a deal made by [ ] with [ ] (PHONETIC) (LNU) which apparently involved $2500. It appeared that the subject was not entirely in agreement with the actions taken by [ ] in this matter and pointed out that it was not up to him to ask what [ ] was doing, but that [ ] should see the handwriting on the wall and should not get the subject wrong. [ ] retorted that the subject had to have the same confidence in him that he had in the subject and that RANDACCIO should know by now who his friends are. [ ] assured the subject that he would not botch anything or lose it.

b7C

On 1/25/64, [ ] (LNU) and the subject discussed a rumor that [ ] had won a lot of money.

On 1/27/64, [ ] discussed with the subject, her contemplated trip to Florida, during which the subject indicated that he had given [ ] $1000. [ ] indicated to the informant that she was leaving for Florida on February 13, 1964.

On 1/30/64, in discussing what apparently involved an automobile accident by [ ] with (FNU) [ ] RANDACCIO cautioned [ ] not to say anything about the case over the telephone.

b6
b7C

On 2/4/64, [ ] mentioned that DANNY (SANSANESE) owed $300 for work which he had had done (apparently by [ ])

On 2/12/64, RANDACCIO appeared to the informant to be worried that someone might get into [ ] apartment and find something detrimental to him. He was assured by [ ] that she has nothing relating to him in her apartment, except some pictures, which they had taken.

BU 92-174-Sub 3

On 2/14/64, subject told CI that [ ] is leaving for Florida on 2/27/64, and wanted someone to make reservations for him. Subject stated that [ ] asked if subject had any connections or could get reservations for him and added that [ ] and his brother, used to be "playboys".

b2
b6
b7C

[ ] remarked that she knew [ ] and that O'SHEA had mentioned going to Florida at the end of the month to stay with his brother. This information by informant was supplemented and expanded by [ ].

On 2/15/64, [ ] had a conversation with [ ] during which [ ] indicated she would leave for Florida on the morning of 2/16/64, in her own car, and would be in Florida for two weeks.

On the same date, [ ] discussed her conversation with [ ] with the subject and also indicated that she would be traveling with her mother and would arrive in Miami, Florida on the morning of 2/19/64. During this conversation, the subject mentioned the names of various individuals with whom he was acquainted, who had been in Florida and returned or were presently in Florida.

On 3/8/64, CI advised that [ ] had returned from her trip to Florida.

On 3/14/64, subject advised CI that ROY (CARLISTE) was operated on.

On 3/17/64, CI advised that RANDACCIO and [ ] had a violent argument concerning RANDACCIO's alleged attentions to another woman. RANDACCIO denied the accusation, and pointed out that he has been under terrific pressure lately and that one of these days, his body would probably be found in the middle of the river.

the subject's departure, [ ] telephonically contacted her employer and from the tone and contents of the conversation, available to the informant, it appeared that her employer may have been the source of the information concerning the subject.

b6
b7C

On 3/20/64, CI indicated that [ ] and the subject had effected a reconciliation.

On 3/20/64, CI also furnished information that an unidentified Negro, who is apparently employed at the same place as [ ] mother, may be avoiding police officials on a charge of murder, which occurred some years ago and of which he has been unjustly accused.

Re Buffalo telephone call to Boston on 4/21/64.

Subject and PASQUALE NATARELLI left Buffalo via American Airlines, Flight 412, at 9:00 a.m., 4/21/64, scheduled to arrive at Logan Airport, East Boston, Mass. at 10:50 a.m.

Prior to departure, [ ] advised that RANDACCIO remarked the night before that JOSEPH M. FINO and his brother, NICK FINO have been working in Boston for two weeks. The FINO Brothers, RANDACCIO and NATARELLI are all members of the MAGADDINO Family and have represented the MAGADDINO organization in bookmaking and policy racket matters for many years.

[ ] also stated that RANDACCIO was going to Suffolk Downs and indicated that he had a thousand dollars to put on a "hot horse."

It should be noted that investigations at Boston, Mass. have indicated that Suffolk Downs is in the process of being sold and there is some indication that Sportservice, Inc. of Buffalo has a potential interest in Boston race tracks.

The description and dress of NATARELLI and RANDACCIO were telephonically furnished the Boston Office on 4/21/64.

Investigator GAVIN was under the impression that [REDACTED] had set up some sort of deal with trainers and jockeys at Lincoln Downs and Suffolk Downs for "hot horses." GAVIN pointed out that his unit has received information in the recent past that horses have been doped by a new solution that is undetectable by any test made at the track today. He stated that this new serum was developed in Canada and some Canadian horses have been suspected of having been doped with this new serum.

GAVIN stated that a source furnished information that ROSE FINO, the wife of NICK FINO, had telephonically contacted [REDACTED] on 4/22/64 and complained that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] NICK FINO, that day. The newspaper article reported that GEORGE V. LONCAR and Patrolman RICHARD CIEGALSKI of the Colvin Station, Buffalo Police Department, said the victims had been meeting over a period of years for "friendly pinochle games" in the rear room of the bar.

According to [ ] the five masked men walked into the room waving guns and robbed the players of about $1,000. The informant advised that [ ] who served two years in prison several years ago, was recognized by one of the victims, but this victim when interviewed by the police department denied he knew any of the robbers.

b2
b6
b7C

Informant stated [ ] voiced strong feelings about being held up by [ ] and that he wanted FRED RANDACCIO to take care of the matter for him. [ ] had no positive information concerning the identities of the other holdup men, however, it was learned that one of the holdup men is known as "PATTY," who hung out at a bar and grill formerly operated by [ ] on [ ] in Buffalo. Informant reported that "PATTY" is believed to be of Italian descent and at one time played in a poker game at Ferry Street in Buffalo with one of the victims of the Hertel Avenue robbery. Informant further identified a young man of [ ] descent known only as [ ] as the individual who may have fingered the holdup since [ ] has not revisited the location of the robbery for the past two or three weeks.

ARWEEKLY SUMMARY AIRTEL

The following is a summary of information furnished by [ ] and [ ] for the period 5/25-31/64:

b2

On 5/26/64, CI observed [ ] in conversation with [ ] and VICTOR (RANDACCIO) concerning a dinner to be held on the evening of 5/31/64, at the Romulus Club. These men made arrangements for a table for VICTOR and FRED RANDACCIO, PATY (NATARELLI), and [ ] the latter of whom commented that he did not know what the intentions of DANNY SANSANESE were. During the conversation, [ ] mentioned that [ ] has been receiving threatening letters and telephone calls in connection with the sales tax dispute, and that both [ ] and his wife are upset over the situation.

b6

DETAILS:

On April 21, 1964, the Buffalo Office advised that FRED G. RANDACCIO and PASQUALE A. NATARELLI would arrive at Logan Airport, East Boston, Massachusetts, at 10:50 A. M., aboard American Airlines flight 412 on that date.

On April 21, 1964, at 10:50 A. M., FRED G. RANDACCIO and PASQUALE A. NATARELLI alighted from American Airlines flight 412 at Logan International Airport, East Boston, Mass., and were met by two individuals in a 1963 green Buick bearing New York registration EC5056.

BS 92-622

The Buffalo Office advised that this car is registered to [redacted] JOSEPH FINO, of 236 Pellman Place, West Seneca, New York.

They proceeded to the entrance to the Suffolk Downs Race Track and parked outside the main entrance. An individual subsequently identified as [redacted] left the Buick and conversed with an individual subsequently identified as [redacted] outside at the rear of the Buick. The other occupants of the Buick did not leave it. [redacted] and [redacted] were observed conversing by SA [redacted]. At the conclusion of a brief conversation, [redacted] was observed entering a 1956 red and cream Plymouth bearing [redacted].

b7C

The Baltimore Office advised on April 21, 1964, that records of the Department of Motor Vehicles at Baltimore, Maryland, reflect that [redacted] was issued for a 1956 Plymouth titled to [redacted] Maryland. The Baltimore Office advised that [redacted] appeared in their files as a [redacted] Virginia, in 1958. Investigation in 1958 reflected that [redacted] was active in the numbers racket in the [redacted] Virginia, area, and owned race horses trained [redacted].

b6
b7C

After the afore-mentioned conference with [redacted] [redacted] re-entered the Buick and they drove to the Fenway North Motel in Revere, Massachusetts. However, before leaving the race track, they were joined by a woman who drove to the motel with them.

During the afternoon of April 21, 1964, [redacted] a horse in five races at Suffolk Downs. He finished out of the money on all occasions with the exception of the second race, which he won by three and three-fourth lengths. This horse paid $17 and went off at seven and one-half to one odds. The horse named ARGUMENTUM, was in a $2,000 claiming race for four year olds and up. He is owned by Jayel Stables and the trainer was listed as [redacted].

BS 92-622

At the conclusion of the races on April 21, 1964, [ ] was observed outside the race track by SAs [ ] and [ ] in the parking lot in conference with his agent, named [ ] in the 1956 Plymouth previously described. After a ten to fifteen minute conversation, [ ] drove by himself to the China Sails Restaurant in Lynn, Massachusetts where he ate. He remained for the evening at the home of [ ] Massachusetts. Racing schedules indicated that [ ] at Lincoln Downs in Rhode Island as of April 21, 1964.

b6
b7C

On the morning of April 22, 1964, SAs [ ] and [ ] observed FRED G. RANDACCIO, PASQUALE A. NATARELLI, JOSEPH FINO, NICHOLAS FINO and [ ] together in the lobby of the Fenway North Motel. RANDACCIO and NATARELLI took a taxi cab to the Logan International Airport where they were observed boarding American Airlines flight 431 at 12:05 P. M. for Buffalo, New York.

During the early afternoon of April 22, 1964, the FINO brothers and [ ] were observed driving through Lynn and Swampscott, Massachusetts. They made momentary stops at the China Sails Restaurant in Lynn and Swampscott, Massachusetts, but made no contacts. After dropping NICHOLAS FINO back at the Fenway North Motel, JOSEPH FINO and [ ] proceeded to the Suffolk Downs Race Track and arrived while the third race was being run. They appeared to be seeking someone out and prior to the fourth race, had about a five minute conversation with jockey's agent, [ ]. At the conclusion of the conversation, jockey's agent [ ] entered the Grandstand Restaurant and conversed with [ ]. It was noted that on April 22, 1964, [ ] had a horse which he had trained due to run in the fourth race. As set forth heretofore, [ ] was also the trainer for ARGUMENTUM, the horse that was ridden by [ ] on April 21, 1964, paying $17.

b7C

On May 6, 1964, BS T-1 advised that Sheraton Biltmore Hotel, Providence, Rhode Island, registration records disclose that NICHOLAS and JOSEPH FINO had room 521 from April 2 to 4, 1964, when they checked out of the hotel. Their address was listed as 224 Pellman Street, Buffalo, New York. The following toll calls were charged to their bill:

WEEKLY SUMMARY AIRTEL

Following is a summary of information furnished by [redacted] and [redacted] for the period 6/1 through 6/7/64:

b2

On 6/2/64, CI learned from FRED MOGAVERO and the subject that a stag party would be held on the evening of 6/7/64, for the future son-in-law [redacted]

According to plans, tickets were being sold to several prominent local politicians who indicated their intentions of attending the stag as well as to various members of the hoodlum element.

On 6/3/64, [redacted] advised the informant of changes in the operating schedule of his service station on Delaware Avenue, Buffalo. Later CI observed [redacted] discussing a party on 5/31/64 with New York State Assemblyman STEVE GRECO, during which [redacted] accused GRECO of being drunk.

b6
b7C

On 6/7/64, [redacted] discussed a recent social affair at the Glen Casino at which a number of local hoodlums, including the subject and others, were in attendance. It appeared to the informant that Assistant Chief of [redacted] and Special Agent in Charge SAM GIOVINO (Federal Bureau of Narcotics, Buffalo) came to this party and talked to everyone in attendance. According to [redacted] those in attendance feared at the time that they would be taken in by [redacted] for having a meeting.

Subsequently the subject discussed with [ ] and [ ] a matter relating to his driver's license and apparently referring to having been given a summons for speeding. He was advised by [ ] to plead guilty and not to mention the matter to anyone.

b6
b7C

In a subsequent discussion regarding local politics, RANDACCIO accused (Erie County Democratic Majority Leader, Board of Supervisors) [ ] of having sold the Democrat Party down the river. [ ] stated that [ ] is now in Quebec and defended [ ] actions. The topic of conversation apparently related to the recent passage of a three per cent sales tax by the Board of Supervisors. It is interesting to note that although a Democrat, [ ] was subsequently appointed an Assistant County Attorney by the Republican incumbent.

b6
b7C

CI furnished no pertinent information on 6/1, 4, 5, and 6/64.

On 6/1/64, CI observed the subject and [ ] having an argument which was apparently precipitated by the drinking of [ ] with her employer, and failing to meet the subject at an appointed time. During the argument [ ] again accused the subject of having another girlfriend.

On the same occasion, [ ] related to the subject an incident involving a petition which she had signed when she was only seventeen years old on behalf of a [ ] (Ph) which was subsequently challenged. At that time [ ] had threatened [ ] and her family if she had talked. [ ] stated that if [ ] had done anything to her family, she would have had his car bombed and blown up his wife. She claimed that her brother has the connections to carry this out.

On 6/4/64, [ ] and the subject had a discussion concerning the subject being given a summons for speeding by a New York State Trooper. The subject admitted that he had precipitated this by talking back to the trooper, but claimed that the judge will not listen to any witnesses in the car. He mentioned that the trooper had threatened to come and get him if he did not show up to answer the sentence and that he had discussed the matter with [ ]

Conversations of the following are recorded:

1. FRED MOGAVERO
2. [redacted] (LNU)

Recent gambling arrests in the Buffalo area involved one SALVATORE BONITO, aka Sam, Georgie Raft. BONITO had requested a jury trial and his case was held over until conditions for a jury trial were existing in the Buffalo City Court. When BONITO learned that Judge SEBASTIAN BELLOMO, Buffalo file 92-456, was to sit on the bench, he changed his mind and decided to have a hearing before a presiding judge. This hearing was scheduled for 6/8/64, however, certain papers, namely the complaint, were missing from the Clerk of Court's Office and the case was again postponed until these papers could be found.

Reel 1 on this date has a conversation between [redacted] (LNU), of which a portion concerns the pending case involving BONITO. Remarks made by

In view of the possibility that information regarding BONITO is of an apparent important nature, and of the fact that the Sicilian uttered by both individuals on this reel is rapid and lengthy, the reel is being sent to the Kansas City Office to be translated and summarized by a translator with more experience in the Sicilian dialect to establish its full importance.

It is requested that the results of the translation, as well as the reel, be returned to the Buffalo Office, and that appropriate copies of the translation be furnished the Bureau, attention FBI Annex.

BUSINESS INTEREST AND INCOME

On June 9, 1964, BU T-1 advised that he has made an effort to determine whether or not FRED G. RANDACCIO has a financial interest in a construction business with his son, ALBERT V. RANDACCIO.

BU T-1 stated that on July 11, 1963 a Certificate of Incorporation was filed in the name of Alran Development Corporation by the following officers, directors and stockholders:

~~ALBERT V. RANDACCIO~~
~~98 Brookedge Road~~
~~Williamsville, New York~~

~~LOUIS J. RANDACCIO~~
~~98 Brookedge Road~~ ~~Williamsville, New York~~

b6
b7C

The law firm representing RANDACCIO and TURANO in filing the above-described Certificate of Incorporation was Anthony F. Valvo and Salvatore N. Valvo, with law offices in the Ellicott Square Building in Buffalo.

BU T-1 stated that the Alran Development Corporation is presently building multiple unit housing and he has observed RANDACCIO's car parked at an apartment construction site of the Alran Development Corporation on the corner of Wherle Drive and Wiltshire Road in Amherst, New York.

GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

Suffolk Downs
East Boston, Mass.

On April 20, 1964, BU T-7 advised that during the first part of the year NICK and JOSEPH FINO of Buffalo were working a deal with [ ] and one of the [ ] Brothers of Syracuse, New York, whereby [ ] would furnish the FINO Brothers the names of "order" horses. BU T-7 explained that [ ] had been traveling to various racing meets on the East Coast and Detroit, Michigan, and had made about $50,000.00 on "order" horses. BU T-7 advised that [ ] and the FINO Brothers referred to these horses as "bookie busters," and that they were averaging at least one "order" horse or "bookie buster" a day when things were going alright for [ ] at the track.

b7C

BU T-7 stated that [ ] for the past three or four months had been telephoning the names of the "order" horses from the race track to [ ] of [ ] in Buffalo. He explained that [ ] DE JOHN would immediately layoff these bets. The largest layoffs were being made in the Buffalo area to [ ] and [ ]. The information received from [ ] was also used by the FINO Brothers in their bookmaking operation in Buffalo and by [ ]. BU T-7 stated that sometime around the first of April, 1964 things started going bad for [ ] at the track and the FINO Brothers decided to join him to see if they could straighten matters out. Prior to the FINO Brothers and [ ] getting together in Boston, [ ] had been working tracks in Baltimore, Maryland.

b7C

On June 19, 1964, BU T-7 advised that [ ] is continuing to furnish the names of "order" horses to [ ] in Buffalo. He stated that on June 17, 1964 Buffalo attorney [ ] placed two bets with [ ]. The first bet was for $1,400.00 on a horse named Rainbow River running on a Canadian track in the first race that day. The second bet was for $1,100.00 on a horse named Conference which ran at Monmouth, New Jersey the same day.

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

Rainbow River came in third and Conference came in second, according to BU T-7.

On April 21, 1964, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Reservations Section, American Airlines, Statler Hilton Hotel, Buffalo, New York, advised that at 2:16 p.m., April 20, 1964 a man telephonically contacted the Statler Hilton Office and made reservations for two passengers for a one-way flight to Boston, Mass. He stated that his records show that a "P. NATARELL" and a "S. RANDACCIO" left Buffalo, New York on American Airlines Flight 412 on April 21, 1964 at 8:50 a.m. and were scheduled to arrive in Boston at 10:50 a.m. that day.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 4/22/64

-1-

On April 21, 1964, SA [ ] observed a 1963 light blue Pontiac sedan, [ ] with three male passengers stop in front of the main entrance of the Buffalo Municipal Airport, at approximately 8:10 AM. Two individuals, namely PASQUALE NATARELLI and FRED G. RANDACCIO, alighted from this vehicle and entered into the main lobby of the terminal. These two individuals proceeded to the ticket desk of American Airlines whereupon they talked to the ticket agent who in turn took two pieces of light blue luggage and marked them for identification.

In the meantime the 1963 Pontiac then proceeded with only the driver over to the main parking lot directly opposite the entrance of the air terminal whereupon he parked the automobile and entered the main lobby of the terminal.

The three individuals then proceeded up the mechanical stairway to the second level of the airport with a command by FRED RANDACCIO "Come on Pat." When they reached the upper level PATTY NATARELLI went in the direction of the mens room and FRED RANDACCIO and the third individual went into the coffee shop. When PATTY NATARELLI returned the three individuals were greeted by still a fourth man who apparently had some business connection with the Sportservice, Inc., at the terminal. This individual had a cash box in his hand and had a key to the Sportservice Office directly opposite the coffee shop. All four individuals conversed momentarily outside the coffee shop and then went inside and began drinking coffee.

These individuals were observed by SAs [ ] on the upper level making various or frequent trips to the mens room and walking aimlessly around the terminal. Approximately 8:28 AM the individual who drove the 1963 Pontiac descended the mechanical stairs leaving FRED and PATTY in the vicinity of the coffee shop. Then these two individuals walked down to Gate No. 7 on the north concourse of the American Airlines terminal where they displayed their tickets to the agent at this gate and sat in the waiting room. The flight number listed on the sign for Gate No. 7 had Flight No. 412, American Airlines Electra, leaving for Syracuse and Boston at 8:50 AM.

Both individuals were observed boarding Flight No. 412 at approximately 8:50 AM, which departed from the airport at 9:02 AM.

New York License No. 5B24015. for a 1963 light blue Pontiac is listed to an [redacted] New York, who is married to [redacted] of the same address.

b6
b7C

Descriptions of FRED G. RANDACCIO, PASQUALE NATARELLI and the third unidentified individual are as follows:

FRED G. RANDACCIO appeared to be a man in his early 50s, wearing a white all weather type rain coat with a dark green pinch type felt hat, dark horn rim glasses, dark gray suit, gray tie, a gray-blue pastel shirt and black shoes.

PASQUALE NATARELLI was observed to be a man also in his early 50s with a green-gray herring bone top coat, steel gray pinch type hat, dark gray suit, white shirt, gray tie and black shoes.

The third unidentified individual was wearing a black short waist car coat, burnt orange "Rex Harrison" type hat and gray slacks.

The individual who talked with the above three both in and out of the coffee shop wore a gray felt hat with a black rain coat, white shirt opened at the collar with no tie. He carried a small gray cash box and apparently had a key to the Sportservice Office immediately opposite the terminal coffee shop.

BU 92-174

On April 22, 1964, BU T-3 advised that on April 15, 1964, NICK FINO had telephonically contacted [redacted]

[redacted] New York, to furnish her the names of "order horses" running at Lincoln Downs.

BU T-3 explained that [redacted] is also known as [redacted] among Buffalo bookmakers and is [redacted] who was convicted in Federal Court about two years ago on Federal narcotic charges. [redacted] was involved in the [redacted] who is now serving a sentence in the Federal Penitentiary.

b6
b7C

According to BU T-3 either NICK or JOE FINO was then calling [redacted] in Buffalo from a room at the Sheraton Hotel in either Boston or Rhode Island. BU T-3 pointed out that inasmuch as NICK FINO was handling action on horses running at Lincoln Downs, he would assume that the hotel was in or near Lincoln Downs or possibly Suffolk Downs.

BU T-3 stated that when NICK FINO left Buffalo around the first of April or the end of March, 1964, he took [redacted] with him and registered at the hotel as man and wife. BU T-3 stated that he did not believe that [redacted] was aware of his wife and NICK FINO "shacking up."

b6
b7C

BU T-3 further stated that the FINO Brothers up until about a month ago had been renting an office to handle their horse book at an address of 150 Prospect Street, Buffalo. This place was raided by the New York State Police and since that time BU T-3 is not aware of the present location of the "office" used by "The Arm."

It is noted that information has been previously reported that members of "The Arm" have been observed entering and leaving the Connecticut Athletic Club, 465 Connecticut Street, Buffalo, New York.

BU 92-174

On April 24, 1964, BU T-3 advised that approximately three weeks ago [redacted] New York, went to Boston, Massachusetts to meet with NICK and JOSEPH FINO. He stated that [redacted] is employed by the Joseph Lumber Company, Inc., 201 St. Mary's Street, Lancaster, New York, and is also actively engaged in booking horses. He further stated that while in Boston [redacted] accompanied [redacted] and NICK FINO to the Sheraton Hotel and to a nearby race track.

b6
b7C

According to BU T-3, a bookmaker known as either [redacted] of Syracuse, New York has been furnishing [redacted] with the names of horses to bet on which are running at either Lincoln Downs or Suffolk Downs. BU T-3 stated that he had information that on April 8, 1964 [redacted] was registered in Providence, Rhode Island in a motel or hotel room having telephone number 617-761-4825. BU T-3 stated it was his impression that [redacted] had set up some sort of deal with horse trainers and jockeys to get the names of "hot horses." BU T-3 pointed out that information had also come to his attention that in the recent past horses had been doped by a new solution that is not detectable by a urine and saliva test at the race track. He stated that this solution was first used in Canada on Canadian horses.

b7C

BU T-3 stated that during the past two or three weeks he had received information from [redacted] that NICK FINO has been working with a jockey known only as [redacted] and some unidentified horse trainer. [redacted] allegedly paid the horse trainer $200.00 for a horse that was scratched in the first race. BU T-3 stated that this was a late scratch, and he believed the horse was "Nearest." Apparently [redacted] has been complaining that although she pays the jockey and trainer, others are benefiting from this information and are not sharing the cost with her.

b7C

On April 27, 1964, [redacted] Erie County District Attorney's Office, advised that he had observed JOSEPH FINO's car, bearing New York License [redacted] in the driveway of the home of FRED G. RANDACCIO in Buffalo at 12:10 p.m. on April 26, 1964. He stated that a red Thunderbird, bearing New York License [redacted] was observed leaving RANDACCIO's house at 12:25 p.m. that day. Records of the Auto License Bureau, Buffalo Police Department, show this car is registered to [redacted], also known as [redacted] New York. [redacted] stated that shortly thereafter he observed PASQUALE NATARELLI leave RANDACCIO's house and drive away in a light blue Buick bearing New York License [redacted]. At 12:30 p.m. the same day [redacted] stated he saw JOHN V. CAMMILLERI leaving RANDACCIO's house.

BU 92-174

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

On May 14, 1964, BU T-6 advised that [redacted] of Buffalo, New York, handled horse bets by telephone for a "Buffalo mob" and was victimized for a large sum of money by an individual who was later identified as [redacted]. BU T-6 advised that [redacted] was called before "the group" in Buffalo and [redacted] promised that he would get the money to pay off this debt. It was the opinion of BU T-6 that [redacted] and [redacted] [redacted] being members of the "MAGADDINO Family," were interested in [redacted] plans to repay this debt and how [redacted] was going to raise the money. [redacted] and [redacted] had traveled to Buffalo sometime between April 20, 1964 and April 22, 1964 to satisfy MAGADDINO that no one else would be victimized or shaken down in order to pay off [redacted] debts.

BU T-2 stated that the front door of the Connecticut Athletic Club has a peephole and a buzzer arrangement which can be used to warn the club of an arrest or raid by the Buffalo Police Department. BU T-2 stated that entrance into the club can be obtained by membership and that membership is based upon invitation from one of the members of the "MAGADDINO Family." BU T-2 stated that membership in the club costs $500.00 or the cost may depend on the solvency of the prospective member. He described the club as "plush," and noted that the club contained steam rooms, sleeping quarters, a complete kitchen and dining room, a gymnasium, pool tables, a bar room and card rooms. He described the most spectacular recreational facility as the indoor golf driving range. He stated that the floors of the club are covered with thick wall to wall carpeting and in addition the club is equipped with reading and television rooms.

On May 6, 1964, the corporation files of the Erie County Clerk's Office at Buffalo were reviewed by SAA [REDACTED]. It was noted that Corporation File 40580 contains a copy of a Certificate of Incorporation under the name of "Connecticut Athletic Club, Inc.," which was filed on February 7, 1964 at the Erie County Clerk's Office. The certificate was signed [REDACTED] 964 Ellicott Square Building, Buffalo. This is the address of the law firm of Miserendino & Krull. There was in the file a note indicating that the certificate of incorporation had been filed before the Secretary of State at Albany, New York on January 8, 1964. b6 b7C

An examination of the certificate of incorporation was made and it was noted that the names of the stockholders, officers and directors are not listed in the filings. The certificate of incorporation set forth that the aggregate number of shares which the corporation has authority to issue is 200 shares without par value.

It was noted that during the months of March, April and May, 1964, periodic surveillances were made by SAs [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] of RANDACCIO and NATARELLI. It was noted that these two individuals were frequenting the Connecticut Athletic Club in Buffalo. At the time RANDACCIO was observed driving a Cadillac bearing 1964 New York License ER 1503 and NATARELLI was driving a 1963 blue Buick with 1964 New York License 3069 BU. A 1962 Chevrolet convertible registered to [REDACTED] bearing New York License [REDACTED] was also seen parked in the vicinity of the Connecticut Athletic Club.

On May 4, 1964, BU T-3 advised that there is a unit of the New York State Police which is actively investigating organized bookmaking activities in Buffalo and the surrounding area. According to BU T-3, the Connecticut Athletic Club is now being used as a meeting place for members of "The Arm" and receiving the investigative attention of certain members of the New York State Police. BU T-3 stated that some of the most prominent and active bookmakers on the West Side of Buffalo, as well as thieves and burglars, have been observed leaving and entering this club.

On June 16, 1964, BU T-3 advised that on the weekend of June 13-14, 1964, a crap game was held at the Connecticut Athletic Club at which time $18,000.00 was observed on the table at one time. According to BU T-3, the club is operated by [redacted] who was arrested some time ago by the New York State Police for operating a horse book on Johnson Park. [redacted] that his unit is continuing its efforts to gather intelligence information concerning organized crime in the Buffalo area. [redacted] advised that on May 28, 1964 he received information from a member of his squad that there was a meeting of hoodlums then in progress at the Connecticut Athletic Club, Inc., 465 Connecticut Street, Buffalo, New York. He stated that he, accompanied by [redacted] and [redacted] proceeded to the Connecticut Athletic Club, Inc., 465 Connecticut Street, Buffalo. He stated that he noted that the front door of the athletic club was closed and locked, and he then rang the doorbell in order to gain admittance as a police officer. Immediately upon entering the club he noted that two or three tables had been put together in the dining room area of the club and a large number of men were seated around the table. He stated he specifically noted that STEFANO MAGADDINO was seated at one end of the table and FRED G. RANDACCIO was seated at the other end. [redacted] stated he and members of his squad identified the following individuals seated around the table and stated they were having coffee and conversing as he entered.

1. STEFANO MAGADDINO
2. FRED G. RANDACCIO
3. PASQUALE NATARELLI
4. FRED MOGAVERO
5. DANIEL SANSANESE
6. SALVATORE BONITO
7. [redacted]
8. [redacted]
9. [redacted]
10. SAMUEL RANGATORE

[redacted] stated that he spent approximately three hours in the club talking with RANDACCIO and the members present at the table without learning the purpose of this meeting. He stated he did not carry on a conversation with MAGADDINO, however, he recalls upon entering MAGADDINO told RANDACCIO to either "keep quiet or shut up" in Italian as RANDACCIO began objecting to his entering the club without a warrant.

BU 92-174

[redacted] stated that [redacted] was identified as the doorman of the club and [redacted] was the operator. No other members were present during the time they were at the club.

FRED G. RANDACCIO
ANTI-RACKETEERING

On May 20, 1964, Source Number 1 advised that there had been a meeting that afternoon in Niagara Falls, New York attended by STEVE MAGADDINO, FRED RANDACCIO, PASQUALE NATARELLI and SAM RANGATORE. According to Source Number 1, the purpose of this meeting was to decide upon the best method to be used in smuggling an unidentified man from Canada into the United States. It was suggested by SAM RANGATORE that this could be done by having two men drive into Canada in an automobile and substitute one of the men going over into Canada with the man whom they wished to smuggle into the United States. Source Number 1 stated that MAGADDINO and RANDACCIO indicated this smuggling operation would be accomplished by obtaining a motor boat and picking up the unidentified man at either Chippewa, Ontario, Canada or near French Creek, which is located near Fort Erie, Ontario, Canada. It is noted that Chippewa, Ontario, Canada is a small town directly across the Niagara River from North Tonawanda, New York, and between the Buffalo and Niagara Falls, New York ports. It was estimated that the trip by motor boat would take approximately three to five minutes. Consideration was given to borrowing a boat owned by ROY CARLISI, however, it was learned that CARLISI was not in town. In discussing contacts to be made in Canada, RANDACCIO suggested that NATARELLI could drive over to Canada and contact [redacted] or [redacted] regarding a place to stay. NATARELLI explained that [redacted] has been in trouble in Canada with Immigration authorities.

b6
b7C

At this point STEVE MAGADDINO indicated he was only concerned about one person who had contacted [redacted]. Source Number 1 stated that during this discussion with MAGADDINO the name [redacted] with [redacted] Telephone No. [redacted] was mentioned as a man who could speak English, and that there is a possibility that this individual who MAGADDINO wanted to get into the United States has only been in Canada for three days. Source Number 1 also stated that RANDACCIO advised MAGADDINO that they had to get this individual out of Canada, and it would be necessary for someone to see JOSEPH FALCONE and make some arrangements with him.

Source Number 1 stated that MAGADDINO warned RANDACCIO, NATARELLI and RANGATORE that they should not discuss this matter with anyone and that he, MAGADDINO, felt that it was necessary to get the unidentified man out of Canada. Source Number 1 stated that MAGADDINO is afraid that some investigative body or commission in Canada will pick up the unidentified man for questioning. NATARELLI stated that the laws of Canada did not offer a witness or anyone appearing before an investigative body in Canada the protection granted by the Fifth Amendment in the United States. In other words, if the unidentified man refused to answer questions relating to MAGADDINO, the commission could have him incarcerated until he answered the questions to the satisfaction of the investigative commission.

In discussing the possibility of this unidentified man appearing as a witness, NATARELLI pointed out that he had met this unidentified man on the last day of the Fort Erie, Ontario races which ran on May 9, 1964. At that time this man told NATARELLI if he did not testify he would be jailed. He also told NATARELLI that the only thing he could say was that he had met MAGADDINO through "DON SIMONE." MAGADDINO explained that this man could testify that he did not remember, but also professed ignorance of the Canadian laws. NATARELLI told MAGADDINO that he had advised this unidentified man not to testify to knowing MAGADDINO. MAGADDINO retorted that they only ask about him because of [redacted] and about another man whom Source Number 1 believed to be ALBERT AGUECI.

b7C

MAGADDINO then began to discourse as to how this unidentified man could testify by claiming inability to remember and by claiming he had met many people. He also suggested that the man could admit knowing MAGADDINO but only casually and nothing of a derogatory nature.

FRED G. RANDACCIO
ANTI-RACKETEERING

Later when MAGADDINO commented that he was proud of the "family" he had raised, RANDACCIO asked MAGADDINO in a facetious manner which "family" he was talking about. MAGADDINO expressed disapproval of RANDACCIO's comment, whereupon RANDACCIO quickly added that MAGADDINO had done a good job with "both families."

On May 20, 1964, spot surveillances of the water front at Chippewa, Ontario, Canada, and the known hangouts of RANDACCIO and NATARELLI were made by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation from the Buffalo Office. NATARELLI's car was observed parked in front of the Connecticut Athletic Club in Buffalo. No other activity on the part of RANDACCIO or NATARELLI was noted.

On May 20, 1964 previous investigation disclosed that the [redacted] mentioned above is actually [redacted] [redacted] also known as [redacted] who resides in [redacted] [redacted] in that city. According to previous investigation, [redacted] was recently arrested by Canadian Customs officers for smuggling small items of food between the United States and Canada and [redacted] is now heavily in debt because of the high attorney fees which he has to pay.

On May 26, 1964, Source Number 2 advised that FRED S. MOGAVERO met with [redacted] and VICTOR RANDACCIO that day in Buffalo. They discussed plans to have a dinner at the Romulus Club on the evening of May 31, 1964. Discussions were held concerning having a table reserved for VICTOR and FRED RANDACCIO, PASQUALE NATARELLI and [redacted]. Source Number 2 stated that [redacted] did not know what plans DANNY SANSANESE had as far as his attending the dinner. b6 b7C

On June 2, 1964, Source Number 2 learned from [redacted] and RANDACCIO that a stag party would be held on the evening of June 7, 1964 for the future son-in-law of VICTOR RANDACCIO. According to plans, tickets were being sold to several prominent local politicians who indicated their intentions of attending the stag party as well as to various members of the MAGADDINO Family.

It is noted that on June 7, 1964, Source Number 2 reported that from a conversation between [redacted] and [redacted] he learned there was a stag party at the Glen Casino in Williamsville recently which was attended by RANDACCIO and some of his friends. According to Source Number 2, [redacted] and SAM GIOVINO, Special Agent in Charge, Federal Bureau of Narcotics, Buffalo, New York, appeared at the Glen Casino and talked to everyone in attendance. Those present at the social affair were afraid that [redacted] would take them in for a hearing. b6 b7C

ANTI-RACKETEERING

On Thursday, April 30, 1964, the "Buffalo Challenger," a weekly newspaper published and sold in the Negro community in Buffalo, carried an editorial on Page 2 deploring the increased pressure to force ARTHUR HARDWICK out of the race for Assemblyman for the Third Assembly District. A photograph of HARDWICK appears on Page 6 of this newspaper in connection with an advertisement of the Sportsmans Liquor Store.

There is set forth below an article appearing on Page 4 of the aforementioned newspaper, which reads as follows:

"POLITICAL ROUNDUP

"There was very important meeting held at Democratic Headquarters involving West Side Democratic leaders and Negro leadership from the 3rd Assembly District. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the candidacy of Mr. Arthur Hardwick, Jr., Negro Democratic Candidate for the 3rd Assembly District in the June 2nd Primary. The Negroes were asked to have Mr. Hardwick withdraw from the Primary. Never before has such a move been made to deny a person or community representation. The Negroes present did not give into the demands for a public statement against Mr. Hardwick's candidacy. Only one Negro gave in and his circumstances are beyond his control. Hats off to the gentlemen that defended the honor and integrity of the Negro in Buffalo and to those who purposely boycotted the meeting. Lets us now ladies and gentlemen begin the task of electing the First Negro From Western New York To Serve On The State Legislative Body. 'We shall overcome'."

The editorial appearing on Page 2 of the column captioned "Editor's Corner" and signed AMBROSE I. LANE, Editor of the newspaper, made reference to the race for Assemblyman mentioned above. This article reads in part as follows:

FRED G. RANDACCIO
ANTI-RACKETEERING

"The Challenger wants our readers to know that pressure has increased to try to force Arthue Hardwick out of the race for Assemblyman for the 3rd Assembly District. We are told that, as we predicted two weeks ago, another Negro plans to enter the race. If he does he will only split our vote and we will have the same losing result that we had last year when Plummer Godby and Leeland Jones split our votes and allowed Griffin to win as Councilman of the Ellicott District.

"Four years ago, we understand that the Democratic Party was going to endorse a Negro for the 3rd Assembly District. They did not because certain Negro politicians said that there were no qualified Negroes to run. Now, some of these same politicians are trying to get Mr. Hardwick to drop out. If any of these so-called political leaders come to see you, asking support for Mr. Arnone who is running against Mr. Hardwick, ask them these questions: Why has Mr. Arnone refused to give any of his patronage to Negroes? Why did he refuse to even talk with certain Negro elected politicians about jobs for Negroes? Why did West Side politicians call a meeting of Negro politicians to try to persuade them to try to force Mr. Hardwick out of the race? Why are they, the Negro politicians, not doing everything they can for us everyday.

"Let us tell these phonies to either 'Shape Up or Ship Out'."

On April 27, 1964, Source Number 2 advised that shortly before noontime that day a man, later identified as [redacted] New York, stopped to see [redacted] with a complaint that he and six other men had been robbed at gunpoint the night before. According to Source Number 2, [redacted] and several other men were playing poker on Hertel Avenue in Buffalo on Sunday night, April 26, 1964, when five masked men entered the establishment and robbed the poker players at gunpoint.

Source Number 2 stated that these gun men robbed the players of about $1,000.00 and [redacted] who served two years in prison several years ago, was recognized by one of the victims. The victim when interviewed by the police department denied that he knew any of the robbers.

Source Number 2 stated that [redacted] voiced strong feelings about being held up by [redacted] and that he wanted FRED RANDACCIO to take care of the matter for him. Source Number 2 had no positive information concerning the identities of the other holdup men, however, it was learned that one of the holdup men is known as "PATTY," who hung out at a bar and grill formerly operated by PASCAL POLITANO on Allen Street in Buffalo. Source Number 2 reported that "PATTY" is believed to be of Italian descent and at one time played in a poker game [redacted] Buffalo, with one of the victims of the [redacted] robbery. Source Number 2 further identified a young man [redacted] known only as [redacted] as the individual whom he believes fingered the holdup. [redacted] voiced his opinion that [redacted] had fingered the robbery since he has not visited the location of the robbery for the past two or three weeks.

It is noted that the "Buffalo Courier Express," a Buffalo daily newspaper, dated April 27, 1964, carried an article advising that five masked gun men raided a North Buffalo confectionery store where a "pinochle game" was in progress and robbed seven men of about $610.00 and two diamond rings valued at $270.00 shortly before ten o'clock Sunday evening. The holdup occurred in the Dairylea Bar, 1249 Hertel Avenue, Buffalo, just before closing time. The bandits, between 25 and 35 years old, entered waving black revolvers. Two of them wore stocking masks which were discarded later outside the bar. The other three bandits wore rubber Halloween masks.

The following were either witnesses or victims of the robbery:

JACOB NUSINOV
Age 64
1249 Hertel Avenue
Buffalo, New York

DAVID GORSKY
Age 70

FRED G. RANDACCIO
ANTI-RACKETEERING

FRED G. RANDACCIO, also known as Fredrico G. Randaccio, born July 1, 1907, Palermo, Italy, continues to reside at 572 Richmond Avenue, Buffalo, New York.

During the course of another investigation, information was received from Source Number 1 on March 21, 1964 that STEVE MAGADDINO and [redacted] also known as [redacted] were planning on leaving Niagara Falls, New York for New York City on the late afternoon of March 21, 1964 or the early morning of March 22, 1964. According to Source Number 1 [redacted] and MAGADDINO were going to drive to New York City in a car owned by MAGADDINO's son-in-law, VINCENT A. SCRO.

A surveillance was conducted of the home of [redacted] New York, by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on March 25, 1964. At approximately 6:00 a.m., March 25, 1964, a 1963 Oldsmobile, previously identified as a car owned by VINCENT A. SCRO, was observed leaving this residence and traveling in a westerly direction.

It should be noted that shortly before 11:00 a.m. that day, SALVATORE WILLIAM BONANNO was observed leaving [redacted] New York, in a car bearing [redacted] License [redacted] and proceed to the Roosevelt Inn Motel, Hempstead Turnpike, New York, where he was joined by CHARLES JOSEPH BATTAGLIA at 11:00 a.m. They returned to [redacted] left BONANNO's [redacted] at this address, entered BONANNO's car bearing New York License 6014 RJ and drove to the Hotel Wentworth. Surveillances in the vicinity of the Hotel Wentworth on March 25, 1964 failed to locate MAGADDINO or JOSEPH BONANNO.

On April 13, 1964, Source Number 1 advised that SAM RANGATORE met PETER A. MAGADDINO that day and discussed a recent trip he, RANGATORE, had made to New York City. He also mentioned that FRED G. RANDACCIO, ROY CARLISI, [redacted] and possibly PASQUALE NATARELLI had also been in New York City over the weekend of April 3, 1964. It was the opinion of Source Number 1 that RANDACCIO, [redacted] and CARLISI had traveled in NATARELLI's car, which has been described as a 1963 four-door Buick, bearing 1964 New York License 3069 BU. Source Number 1 explained that the departures of MAGADDINO and MONTANA, as well as the departures of RANDACCIO and his men from the Niagara Falls - Buffalo area during the first two weeks of April, 1964 have not been discussed with anyone except the closest contacts of STEVE MAGADDINO. Both PETER A. MAGADDINO and SAM RANGATORE expressed their concern over the fact that [redacted] had knowledge that MAGADDINO is in Florida. Source Number 1 mentioned that MAGADDINO may return to Buffalo, New York after spending three weeks away from home. He further commented that MAGADDINO was enjoying the Florida sunshine.

On March 2, 1964, Source Number 1 reported that a meeting took place between STEVE MAGADDINO, SAM RANGATORE, PETER A. MAGADDINO and a man tentatively identified by Source Number 1 as FRED G. RANDACCIO. Source Number 1 stated that during this meeting a discussion was made of the problem of meeting together to conduct their affairs without drawing the attention of the authorities. STEVE MAGADDINO commented that they stand very good in the local area. SAM RANGATORE added that if some cars were gathered in Niagara Falls in locations frequented by the "MAGADDINO Family," it would not necessarily mean that these cars belonged to "Commission" members. MAGADDINO remarked that they could still meet from time to time to discuss their affairs by going to some restaurant under the pretext of having dinner. He made reference to someone coming to Buffalo, and they all went to the Colonial Inn. He mentioned the following locations as potential meeting places:

1. The Pub
2. The Tenderloin Restaurant
3. The Hacienda
4. Howard Johnson's Restaurant at Delaware Avenue and North Street
5. An unidentified bowling alley

MAGADDINO pointed out that he became frightened when something happened at the late JOE BARBARA's house, and he now believes that the best place to hold a meeting would be in the city instead of the country.

Following this topic of discussion, STEVE MAGADDINO began to discuss the advantage of picking out a "Jew" to front for the organized Italian criminal element. MAGADDINO suggested [redacted] and [redacted] as possible candidates for this job. RANGATORE objected strenuously to bringing in a "Jew," but MAGADDINO seemed to convince him. According to Source Number 1, this topic of conversation began as a result of a comment by SAM RANGATORE that he had been stopped by the police while talking to some Negro and another person and the police thought he was taking "numbers." MAGADDINO remarked that the law would always spot any one of them in this sort of activity. Consequently, STEVE MAGADDINO, in concurrence with most of the speakers present, believed they should get a "Jew" to operate for them. MAGADDINO stated that there is no better "Jew" to handle the operation for them than [redacted] or his brother-in-law. When MAGADDINO pointed out that they had to have a "Jew" in their operation and mentioned the name of [redacted] as a possibility, RANGATORE advised that in his opinion they could use a "Jew" for their business, but they are still "no good."

Source Number 1 stated that RANDACCIO became quite excited about bringing a "Jew" into the organization. MAGADDINO explained to RANDACCIO that he does not care what the fellow is although he does not care for Jews, but stated he is only concerned as to how much bread the "Jew" can bring into the organization. MAGADDINO pointed out that they need "this type of people," to which RANGATORE replied that you do not have to associate with them. MAGADDINO tells RANGATORE that the Jews can be used in many respects, such as handling affairs for them, spying for them, and even "hitting" somebody.

Source Number 1 stated that STEVE MAGADDINO continued by explaining their need of making alliances with policemen. MAGADDINO specifically mentioned the form of business relationships he had with various policemen. He remarked derogatorily that he knows the character of the police after having dealt with them for many years and cited the names of certain police officers who were allied with him in gambling operations.

He made reference to the days when [redacted] [redacted] was handling the graft and payoff to police officers in Buffalo. He stated that if it was not for [redacted] they could not have earned five cents. He stated that by handling matters this way they received word every time they were going to be raided.

In relation to graft paid to various police officers and other persons, STEVE MAGADDINO told those present about his association with a [redacted] [redacted] known to him as [redacted] whom he, MAGADDINO, gave a weekly salary, plus a share of MAGADDINO's gambling operations. Source Number 1 stated that MAGADDINO did not specifically identify the amount he gave [redacted] Source Number 1 continued by stating that during these discussions MAGADDINO discussed at some length the operations of their numbers bank. MAGADDINO accused [redacted] of stealing from the numbers bank, however, he was corrected by RANGATORE who stated that [redacted] was not really stealing from the numbers bank, but was really stealing from two men who are keeping the books. Some of the operators of this numbers bank were identified as possibly DANNY SANSANESE, [ ] and several other individuals unknown to Source Number 1. During the conversation, it was determined that when this numbers bank was in operation the profits of the bank were shared between the MAGADDINO group and individuals from Detroit. Source Number 1 identified the Detroit people associated with this numbers operation phonetically as [ ] and [ ]. Another party involved in this numbers operation was referred to as [ ] and a group from Canada whom MAGADDINO stated he had "fed" without making a nickel for himself.

During the course of this numbers bank operation, [ ] and another operator known as [ ] were stealing from the bank. Source Number 1 pointed out that the terminology used to describe individuals who steal from a numbers bank is a "musician," and while actually stealing from the bank are said to be "playing the piano." Source Number 1 stated that in further describing the numbers bank, MAGADDINO referred to an individual as "the Jew" as a lookout who sat on a high ladder in the room where the numbers bank is located and he referred to one of the overseers as "the captain." It is the opinion of Source Number 1 that MAGADDINO had sent DANNY SANSANESE to the numbers bank in Niagara Falls, New York to catch the cheating operators. Shortly thereafter, a person called [ ] (phonetic), an American, informed MAGADDINO that DANNY SANSANESE was also cheating. The "Jew" backed up the accusation made against DANNY because he was frightened and would say anything that he was told to say by certain people at the bank. Source Number 1 indicated that the "Jew" could observe the workers in the bank from his position on the ladder. SAM RANGATORE then interjected the remark that he did not believe these accusations because [ ] (phonetic) is a lookout man, thereby contradicting the alleged fact that the "Jew" was supposed to be the lookout man. Source Number 1 stated that it was JOHN V. CAMMILLERI's opinion that the people at the numbers bank wanted to get rid of DANNY SANSANESE. Ultimately the problem was resolved and DANNY SANSANESE was cleared of this charge after RANGATORE visited the bank and obtained an admission from [ ] that he was stealing the money. Meanwhile, [ ] and
