WEEKLY SUMMARY AIRTEL

Following is a summary of information furnished by [] and BU [] for the period 7/6 through 12/64.

On 7/6/64, [] advised informant that he makes more money at his Porter Avenue station in one day than he does in a week at his Delaware Avenue station. He told the informant that he had given notice to the Texaco Corporation that he would give up his Delaware Avenue station effective 8/1/64.

On 7/8/64, [] indicated to the informant that he may go to New York City during the week of 7/13/64. He furnished no additional details regarding this trip. He also indicated to the informant that he wanted to get out of his station on 8/1/64.

On the same date [] met with VICTOR (RANDACCIO) and discussed the fact that some unidentified person wanted to see VICTOR or the subject regarding obtaining a job. [] told this individual the subject has absolutely nothing to do with getting jobs and under the present circumstances not even VICTOR could give this man a job. It appeared that this concerned obtaining employment through Local 210 of the labor union of which VICTOR RANDACCIO is Secretary-Treasurer.

Re Buffalo airtel to Bureau, dated 6-10-64, enclosing one reel of tape containing Sicilian conversation as reported by [redacted] on 6-8-64.

Enclosed for Buffalo is aforementioned one reel of tape.

It appears to Kansas City that the discussion between [redacted] (LNU) and [redacted] regarding GEORGIE RAFT's arrest is very brief and not particularly informative. Pursuant to referenced Buffalo airtel, Kansas City was not able to find any information relative to the missing papers from the Court Clerk's Office and Judge BELLOMO's possible involvement in this matter. However, it seems that this topic is related to a much longer, sporadic and very unintelligible discussion in which [redacted] is complaining about the conduct of some unidentified person. The "funeral parlor" is mentioned several times throughout this discussion. Furthermore, Kansas City could not logically surmise the topics under discussion in view of the fact that the information obtained was only partially audible and, for the most part, fragmentary. Possibly the office of origin may be able to determine from the translation set out hereinafter intelligence information not readily apparent to Kansas City.

He gotta one over here. Right?

Yeah.

He opened another one. He gotta here so much money to open up?

Oh, sure.

The only thing it cost money.

And how.

If it cost $4,000, means you gotta have 19.

$4,000?

It cost more than that too. (Unintelligible sentence.)
He got a nice place too.

Nice?

Yeah.

b6
b7C

From the Government?

The pay from me. (Inaudible sentence).

(Inaudible comment.)

No. He puts himself in trouble. (Unintelligible sentence.) If he were a half brother, it would mean nothing. (Inaudible word) the customers this. (A lengthy, unintelligible and inaudible discourse by [REDACTED] follows.)

Subsequent to the above conversation, a non-pertinent topic is discussed regarding some unidentified young man who drives a truck for the city or county. This young man, allegedly, is studying to become a doctor and the speakers state it would be unwise for the young man to get married at the present time. [REDACTED] departs, conversation terminates, and reel ends at this point.

On 6/9/64, CI learned that subject [] were planning on taking a trip within the next several days and returning on Saturday, 6/13/64. It appeared that the purpose of this trip was to visit an unidentified race track. CI also learned of subject's plans for the coming wedding of JOHN CAMMILLERI's son.

b6
b7C

In discussing finances the subject mentioned the word "broke" and then mentioned visiting his son's home and the amount of 5,000 (dollars ?).

On 6/12/64, CI learned that subject, [] PAT NATARELLI and JEAN GRAVANTE were going to the Finger Lakes Race Track, Victor, N. Y., that date and would return on 6/13/64.

On 6/17/64, CI learned details of the foregoing trip by these four individuals and learned from [] that two other unidentified individuals have been met at the track.

On 6/17/64, CI also learned of the subject's plans to attend the funeral of STEVE MAGADDINO's sister-in-law and also learned from the subject that NATARELLI and DANNY SANSANESE had been out of town.

On 6/25/64, CI furnished information regarding a settlement by [] with an insurance company.

On 6/26/64, CI reported concerning an argument between [] and the subject over the subject's allegedly telling [] employer that he was giving [] a certain amount of money per month. [] berated the subject for letting people think that she needed support and stated she did not know how the subject ever obtained the position which he holds.

b6
b7C

On 7/2/64, CI again furnished information that [] and possibly the subject were planning on taking a trip on 7/7/64.

On 7/6/64, [] and [] were observed by CI making preparations to leave on a trip on which they would be accompanied by NATARELLI and the subject.

b6
b7C

BU 92-174 Sub 3

The subject indicated that ROY CARLISI could not join them on the trip.

On 7/7/64, CI furnished additional details regarding arrangements made for departing on the trip which permitted a physical surveillance to be conducted by Buffalo Agents and indicated that NATARELLI and the subject, after arriving in a car driven by STEVE CINO, had departed in GRANN's car.

On 7/10/64, CI reported the return of [] and []

On 7/12/64, CI learned the subject had been under surveillance by police officers and also learned that [] would be leaving Buffalo on 7/13/64 with her mother to visit Old Forge, N. Y., and would return on 7/16/64.

b6

On the same date, CI learned from [] and the subject that they had apparently visited a race track on 7/6 and 7/64.

ny On 7/12/64, CI also learned that the subject had been contacted that morning by Attorney WILLIAM B. MAHONEY who indicated a desire to see the subject on an urgent matter. It should be noted that MAHONEY is the brother of New York State Senator WALTER B. MAHONEY and ny is a former chairman of the Erie County Democratic Party. From cryptic remarks by the subject it appeared to the informant that MAHONEY's interest in seeing the subject related to a possible approach made to some candidate by the Liberal Party. The subject indicated he did not know if such an approach had been made.

b6
b7C

On 7/23 and 24/64, CI furnished information regarding arrangements made by [] to attend a local race track with her employer, Attorney SALTEN RODENBERG.

On 7/23/64, CI also furnished information regarding a conversation between [] RICHARD TODARO and [] [] N. Y., which generally concerned horse racing but also related to background information regarding STEFONETTI.

b6
b7C

BU 92-174 Sub 3

On 8/2/64, [] indicated to CI she had been off from work for one month but intended returning on 8/3/64.

b6
b7C

On 8/19/64, CI learned that the subject had returned from being out of town and also learned that the subject, [] and the other unidentified individual planned on leaving on 8/20/64 to go to the (Finger Lakes Race Track) where the subject indicated that a thousand dollars would be bet by [] and another woman. As a result of this information physical surveillances were initiated which placed the subject and [] at the Finger Lakes Race Track on 8/20 and 21/64 and resulted in the identification of subject, of their companions and contacts at the track.

b6
b7C

On 8/25/64, [] commented to the subject that he had better tell people where he went ten days ago.

WEEKLY SUMMARY AIRTEL

Following is a summary of information furnished by [redacted] for the period 9/14-20/64.

CI furnished no pertinent information between 9/14 and 19/64.

On 9/20/64, subject advised informant and [redacted] [redacted] that he had been out of town for ten days. Subject indicated that he did not desire to discuss the details of his travels with [redacted] so that she would be able to say that she was not aware of them in the event she might be questioned.
 He indicated, however, that he had traveled by air and had been in New Jersey spending only one day in New York City. He stated that he had spent more time in the air than on the ground estimating that he had been air-borne for two days going and coming. He indicated that on these flights "we" would leave in the morning and return in the afternoon and that all of his travels were within a radius of 500 miles (of where he was staying).

Efforts are being made to determine the full details of the subject's travels during this period.

Title: FRED G. RANDACCIO

Character: ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis:

BU T-1 advised subject has been observed at restaurants and hangouts on the West Side of Buffalo. Subject observed at Finger Lakes Race Track, Canandaigua, New York, on 8/20 and 21/64 with [REDACTED] ROY CARLIS, NICK RIZZO and PASQUALE NATARELLI. An investigation to identify an individual believed to be planning to enter the United States illegally disclosed that [REDACTED] arrived in the United States from [REDACTED] and over stayed his visit. While in New York he attempted to contact [REDACTED] by telephone. [REDACTED] departed New York City for [REDACTED]. Subject and other members of the "Magaddino Family" observed the funeral of PIETRINA MAGADDINO, 6/19 and 20/64. Subject observed at wedding party of his nephew in Buffalo, which was attended by numerous city, state and federal officials. Subject did not attend funeral of SAMUEL LAGATTUTA, who died 9/11/64, since he was reported to be out of town with STEVE MAGADDINO.

DETAILS:

BUSINESS INTEREST
AND INCOME

On June 20, 1964, BU T-1 advised that FRED G. RANDACCIO continues to maintain a financial interest in the building and construction business [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He stated that the subject's [REDACTED]

b6

BU T-1 stated that during the past week he has observed RANDACCIO at various restaurants and hangouts on the West Side of Buffalo and to his knowledge he is not actively employed in the construction business.

On September 18, 1964, BU T-2 stated that he has known FRED G. RANDACCIO most of his adult life as a resident of the West Side of Buffalo, New York. He stated that as far as he knew RANDACCIO has never been actively engaged in any legitimate employment. He explained, however, that he did not know enough of RANDACCIO's personal finances to say whether or not RANDACCIO had income from various investments. He stated that RANDACCIO usually drops in on floating crap games operating in the Buffalo, Tonawanda and Niagara Falls, New York, areas and he can be found almost daily meeting with bookmakers and gamblers in Buffalo. BU T-2 stated that it is common knowledge that RANDACCIO is loaning money on a six for five basis.

BU T-2 explained that RANDACCIO is considered the leading man in "The Arm," which loans money to bookmakers, gamblers and small businessmen in the Buffalo-Niagara Falls area. He stated that RANDACCIO is the most feared member of "The Arm" and is considered a personal representative of STEVE MAGADDINO of Niagara Falls.

BU T-2 stated that because of RANDACCIO's reputation and position in the rackets in Buffalo he has no trouble collecting on his six for five operations and his cut on most crap games and bookmaking operations in the area.

GAMBLING ACTIVITIES

Suffolk Downs
East Boston, Mass.

As previously reported, BU T-3 furnished information that JOSEPH M. FINO and his brother NICHOLAS FINO, well known bookmakers and members of "The Arm" in Buffalo, had been working with [redacted] and DANNY SALAMONE of Syracuse, New York. According to BU T-3, NETRO had been supplying DANNY SALAMONE and the FINO Brothers with the name of "order horses" on which to place bets. BU T-3 stated that in June of 1964 the FINO Brothers and [redacted] were at Suffolk Downs, East Boston, Mass., and were maintaining contacts with either horse trainers, jockeys, or the horse owners, who were associated with horses running at this track. BU T-3 stated that the FINO Brothers, after obtaining the name of a "hot" horse running at Suffolk Downs, would telephonically contact [redacted] in Buffalo and have her lay off large bets for them in Buffalo.

b6
b7C

As previously reported, RANDACCIO and PASQUALE NATARELLI left Buffalo, New York, by American Airlines on April 21, 1964, and traveled to Boston, Mass. While in the Boston area RANDACCIO and NATARELLI were observed meeting the FINO Brothers and JAMES NETRO at the Suffolk Downs Race Track. The identities of the jockeys, trainers and owners whom they were contacting were previously identified in earlier reports.

Information relating to the long distance telephone calls charged to the telephones of JOSEPH M. FINO, NICHOLAS R. FINO, PASQUALE NATARELLI, [redacted] and [redacted] were previously set out.

Relative to an April 21, 1964, telephone call from the Fenway Motel, Boston, Mass., to [redacted] it is noted that [redacted] and has unlisted telephone number [redacted]

b6
b7C

On May 15, 1964, BU T-6 furnished information that DANNY SALAMONE operates Danny's Hair Stylist, Syracuse, New York, and is associated with bookmaking and horse betting activities. He stated that [redacted] has been supplying DANNY SALAMONE with horse tips, who in turn would place bets for [redacted] with bookmakers. BU T-6 stated that he had also learned that [redacted] has been doing some business with [redacted] of Buffalo and that he has furnished her with information concerning horses running at various tracks.

b6
b7C

BU T-6 further stated that information had been received by him that on April 21, 1964, [redacted]

[redacted] New York, area gamblers and burglars had been in touch with another individual believed to be PASCAL POLITANO, also known as "Pantaloons" of Buffalo. He stated that POLITANO, a suspected arsonist, met these individuals at the Brown Jug on South Salina Street, Syracuse, New York. Later that day the person believed to be POLITANO contacted DANNY SALAMONE at [redacted] residence.

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

It was the opinion of BU T-6 that the meeting between POLITANO and SALAMONE concerned plans for an arson job to be handled by POLITANO.

Finger Lakes
Race Track

On July 21, 1964, BU T-3 advised that "Nearest," a horse running at the Finger Lakes Race Track, Canandaigua, New York, lost a race. After "Nearest" lost the race [redacted] and the [redacted] had a falling out. According to BU T-3, [redacted] accused [redacted] and her associates of leaking word that "Nearest" was scheduled to win and thus the odds were greatly reduced. [redacted] and her associates denied responsibility for this leak and accused [redacted] of passing this information out at the track.

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

BU T-3 stated that [redacted] told [redacted] who often bets with [redacted] that the word is out that the "Feds" are in the Finger Lakes area and have been contacting jockeys regarding alleged fixed races. BU T-3 stated that [redacted] informed [redacted] that she should not get excited about this allegation as it is logical and a normal occurrence for the "Feds" to be interested in such an operation. He explained this by stating that the Finger Lakes Race Track is a multi-million dollar investment and that they, the "Feds," must be aware of attempts to fix and bribe jockeys.

b6
b7C

On August 21, 1964, at approximately 3:00 PM, SA [redacted] observed FRED RANDACCIO, [redacted] PASQUALE NATARELLI and another female in the club house area of the Finger Lakes Race Track. At that time they were near mutual windows and the unknown female with NATARELLI was an attractive, small boned female about 5 feet 5 inches, weighing 110 pounds, with light complexion and dark hair, wearing it in an upsweep fashion. There were two other males in the club and they were subsequently identified as ROY CARLISI and NICHOLAS RIZZO. The surveillance was conducted from a fixed position, affording adequate security and the subjects were under observation from this position until they departed at 5:30 PM. RANDACCIO and his associates did not fraternize with anyone but remained to themselves. RIZZO appeared to be solitiously to the other individuals and was observed laughing and doing much of the conversation.

b6

At about 3:30 PM, a white male walked up to the group and started a conversation with RANDACCIO and NATARELLI. It was obvious that he was well acquainted with them. This man was subsequently identified as [redacted] and employed by Peter Pan, 1317 East Falls Street, Niagara Falls, New York. [redacted] was with a female who conducted herself as his wife. She was a dirty blonde, about 5 feet 6 inches, weighing about 140 pounds. With this group was another white man about 50 to 55 years of age, 6 feet tall, weighing 190 pounds, dressed as a business executive and had Anglo-Saxon features. After the races he was observed by SA [redacted] to enter a 1963 white

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

Mercury, bearing Ontario registration 955-777. This vehicle is registered to RUSS CARSON STEELE, Ltd., Brandport Airport, Brandport, Ontario, Canada. This individual left the track in the company of [redacted] and his wife.

b6
b7C

During the surveillance a white male identified only as [redacted] stopped several times and discussed races with RANDACCIO and his friends. He appeared to know the group well and discussed several races with them.

Shortly before leaving the track NATARELLI walked over to an individual who was about 45 years of age, heavy build, with a barrel type chest, and shook hands with him. This man was later observed leaving Caruso's Restaurant, Canandaigua, New York, and entered a 1963 blue Ford with New York registration [redacted]. This vehicle registration is listed to [redacted].

b6
b7C

It is noted that the name [redacted] came up during the investigation at Buffalo and Rochester, New York, to locate ALBERT AGUECI shortly before he was murdered. At that time information was received from the New York State Police that a car registered to [redacted] was observed on the outskirts of Buffalo where a meeting between [redacted] ROY CARLISI, [redacted] and one or two other individuals were observed by members of the New York State Police. It was speculated at the time by members of the New York State Police that [redacted] was being taken from Buffalo to Rochester, New York, to hide him out.

b6
b7C

In regards to the subject's appearance at the Finger Lakes Race Track, the two men who were with NATARELLI and RANDACCIO were observed after the races were over entering a 1964 dark blue four door Oldsmobile 98, bearing New York registration 5B 3327. They were surveilled from the race track to Caruso's Restaurant where they were observed entering therein at 6:15 PM.

BU 92-174

It should be noted that while at the race track ROY CARLISI was observed betting at the $50.00 window and his companions were betting the $10.00 win and show.

At 8:55 PM the group was observed preparing to leave Caruso's Restaurant. At this time there were two other men in addition to RANDACCIO, NATARELLI, RIZZO and CARLISI. One of these men was identified as the same individual with whom NATARELLI shook hands at the track when he was preparing to depart. This individual and the other unidentified man entered a 1963 blue Ford previously identified as being registered to [redacted]. The other individual entering this car was 5 feet 8 inches, 45 to 50 years of age, wearing a raincoat and felt hat. He appeared to be of Italian extraction and sat in the rear of the vehicle driven by the other man.

b6

RANDACCIO, NATARELLI and their female companions entered a 1961 or 1962 Plymouth four door white Fury sedan. The registration for this vehicle was not obtained. CARLISI and RIZZO entered the 1964 Oldsmobile. At this time CARLISI and RIZZO had not been identified during the surveillance. [redacted]

[redacted] was observed stopping this vehicle at 9:19 PM on Route 332. [redacted] advised that a large burglary had occurred on the previous night in the area and that a car bearing Buffalo license was observed near the victim's place of business and as a result all vehicles in the area with Buffalo registrations were being stopped that evening to identify the occupants. He stated that one of the individuals produced the driver's license for ROY CARLISI, 20 Anderson Place, Buffalo, New York, who was born April 10, 1909. The other individual produced a license for NICHOLAS RIZZO, 69 Livingston Street, Buffalo, New York, born September 12, 1920.

b7C

On August 21, 1964, [redacted] advised SA [redacted] that the individual talking to RANDACCIO at the Finger Lakes Race Track was [redacted] from Rochester, New York. He stated that [redacted] is a heavy better and frequents the track almost daily. [redacted] advised that [redacted] is a fence and holds himself to be a wholesale jewelry salesman, specializing in expensive stolen diamonds. [redacted] further advised that he had observed this group at the track on August 20, 1964, and specifically recalls seeing [redacted]. He stated he had heard from persons at the track that this group was from Buffalo, New York, and that they were mobsters and to leave them alone.

b6
b7C

On August 21, 1964, [redacted] advised SA [redacted] that he observed [redacted] at the track on August 20, 1964, and that he has no recollection of seeing her at the track on any prior occasion.

b6
b7C

It should be noted the [redacted] residing at [redacted] New York.

b6
b7C

It was further noted that on August 24, 1964, [redacted] were again observed at the Finger Lakes Race Track. In addition, it was ascertained from [redacted] that [redacted] is actually [redacted] who resides in [redacted] New York, and was observed at the Finger Lakes Race Track in the company of [redacted] who formerly resided at [redacted] New York. MISCELLANEOUS ACTIVITIES

Alien Smuggling

During the course of another investigation the Buffalo Office initiated an investigation in May of 1964 to determine whether or not FRED RANDACCIO, STEVE MAGADDINO, PASQUALE NATARELLI and SAM RANGATORE were planning to smuggle an unidentified man then in Canada into the United States.

On May 20, 1964, surveillances by Agents of the Buffalo Office, at Chippewa, Ontario, Canada, failed to develop any information that anyone was being smuggled from that area into the United States. A simultaneous surveillance being conducted in the Buffalo area disclosed that RANDACCIO's car was parked in front of his residence and the car owned by PASQUALE NATARELLI was observed by SA [] parked in front of the Connecticut Athletic Club, Buffalo, New York.

BU T-13 advised that the wedding reception had a service of free food and drink set up in strategic locations throughout the restaurant while waiters and waitresses ceaselessly toured the restaurant furnishing free bottles of various brands of alcoholic beverages.

BU T-13 pointed out that there were a number of unidentified individuals also present and that numerous people were observed by him paying their respects to the family of FRED S. MOGAVERO as well as FRED RANDACCIO.

In connection with FRED RANDACCIO, BU T-13 pointed out that there was a great deal of commotion and noise and the master of ceremonies at the Town Casino attempted to use the microphone without success. However, at one point some individuals remarked over the PA system that FRED RANDACCIO desired to propose a toast to the bride and groom, at which point all those present spontaneously ceased talking and stood up. BU T-13 noted that [redacted] had apparently not heard the announcement and continued talking until he was told by Judge BELLOMO that RANDACCIO had a few words to say and [redacted] immediately became silent.

b7C

BU T-13 stated that he saw FRED RANDACCIO introduced to Counselman WILLIAM BUYERS, III, at the reception and RANDACCIO immediately commented that he recalled BUYERS when BUYERS had been a Deputy Sheriff in the Erie County Sheriff's Department. RANDACCIO commented that BUYERS and his partner had attempted to "get me," but had not succeeded. RANDACCIO was then observed as he chucked BUYERS gently under the chin and added "I like you however." BU T-13 stated that BUYERS was embarrassed by this attention from RANDACCIO.

With reference to [redacted] BU T-13 reiterated that [redacted] and RANDACCIO are very closely associated and that this association was not based solely upon being [redacted]

BU 92-174

BU T-13 recalled that on Primary Day, June 5, 1964, when [redacted] was campaigning for election as a New York State Committeeman opposing DOMINIC LO VALLO, JOSEPH LASCUOLA, a Deputy Sheriff of Erie County, had observed an incident at the voting booth during which time two supporters of LO VALLO had become very rough with some of BELLANCA's supporters. At this point a car drove up and RANDACCIO, accompanied by three or four other men, alighted from the car. RANDACCIO walked up to the two men supporting LO VALLO and told them that if anyone was going to get rough in the area it would be him, RANDACCIO, and if they wanted any trouble they would find themselves laying in the street. Both men disclaimed any intentions of causing any trouble and soon left the area.

b6

Funeral
Sam Lagattuta

On September 14, 1964, BU T-3 advised that SAM LAGATTUTA, also known as "Toto," who attended the Apalachin gangland convention in 1957, died of natural causes on September 11, 1964, at Buffalo, New York. He stated that he had attended the funeral and noted only a few cars present. He stated that the only members of the "MAGADDINO Family" present at the funeral were ANTONIO MAGADDINO and JOHN CAMMILLERI. He stated that [redacted] and his [redacted] had volunteered as pallbearers for the funeral.

b6

FRED G. RANDACCIO
ANTI-RACKETEERING

On September 20, 1964, Source No. 2, furnished information to the Buffalo Office that FRED G. RANDACCIO returned to Buffalo the night before after a ten day absence. RANDACCIO refused to discuss his whereabouts during his absence or the purpose of this travel. He dismissed inquiries by stating he had been traveling with someone in the vicinity of New York City and New Jersey and being only one day in New York City. RANDACCIO also advised Source No. 2 they had been traveling by air daily, leaving in the morning and returning in the afternoon. He further stated that all travels were within a radius of 500 miles of where they were staying.

On September 20, 1964, Source No. 1 reported that STEVE MAGADDINO was in Niagara Falls, New York, that day and discussed, at some length, his concern over members of his family talking, particularly their travels and problems existing in the "BONANNO Family."

It is noted that Source No. 1 failed to locate MAGADDINO in the Niagara Falls area during the past ten days. His son, PETER A. MAGADDINO also indicated that his father was out of town during this period. The secrecy of MAGADDINO's recent travels was highlighted by information reported by Source No. 1, indicating MAGADDINO's wife had been told that STEVE was in a hospital some place and that PETER A. MAGADDINO had to explain that his father was all right, out of town and was not hospitalized.

FRED G. RANDACCIO
ANTI-RACKETEERING

On May 20, 1964, Source No. 1 furnished information that STEVE MAGADDINO, FRED RANDACCIO, PASQUALE NATARELLI and SAM RANGATORE were vitally interested in smuggling an unidentified man from Canada into the United States. Source No. 1 reported that during the discussions about this matter a Toronto telephone number, [redacted] was mentioned. b6 b7C

Records of the [redacted] show that telephone number [redacted] was issued to [redacted]. This same telephone number was transferred on April 8, 1964, to [redacted] where [redacted] now resides. b6 b7C b7D

An investigation conducted in New York, Toronto, Canada, and Buffalo, to positively identify the individual to be smuggled into the United States was made. It was noted that [redacted] the uncle of [redacted] New York, entered the United States from [redacted] as a tourist in November, 1963. On June 23, 1964, [redacted] advised that her uncle, [redacted] is returning to Sicily and had promised to leave the next week. b6 b7C

[redacted] was interviewed on June 24, 1964, and exhibited an Italian passport, number [redacted] indicating he arrived in New York City, New York, on the "SS Olympia," on April 19, 1963. He also exhibited a ticket for himself on the "SS Saturnia" leaving New York City on July 16, 1964, bound for Palermo, Sicily. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised he knew [redacted] years ago in Sicily, and tried to call him by telephone after his arrival in the United States. He stated that [redacted] was not at home and he never spoke to him. [redacted] denied, during the interview, that he knew STEVE MAGADDINO. b6 b7C

SUBJECT: FRED G. RANDACCIO, aka

DATE: 11/25/64

"JUNE"

On 11/8/64, [] furnished information concerning a conversation between FRED G. RANDACCIO and PASQUALE NATARELLI while visiting []

It was noted that RANDACCIO and NATARELLI were in one room talking while [] of RANDACCIO, was in the kitchen running water and washing dishes. Because of the noise of the running water and the fact that RANDACCIO and NATARELLI were whispering, only fragments of the conversation could be heard.

It appears that the conversation concerned someone being "made" as a member of La Cosa Nostra, and this unidentified man was associated with PAUL VOLPE, a leading Cosa Nostra member in Toronto. It also appears that RANDACCIO and NATARELLI discussed some deal that PAUL VOLPE may have had around night clubs wherein the name of JOE DI CARLO was mentioned.

It is noted that information was previously reported that JOSEPH DI CARLO was observed during the spring of 1964 in the lobby of the Lucayan Beach Hotel, Grand Bahama Island at the same time he was registered at the Hotel Taft in New York City. It is also noted that a member of the VOLPE Family has been traveling to the Island of Hati and the Bahamas apparently in connection with his gambling interests in that area.

There is set forth below the fragments of conversation reported by BU [] at Buffalo, N.Y. on 11/8/64 bearing the above information:

FRED G. RANDACCIO is identified as P.R. and PASQUALE NATARELLI is identified as P.N.

ARWEEKLY SUMMARY AIRTEL

The following is a summary of information furnished by [redacted] during the period 12/7 through 12/11/64.

During the period 12/7 through 12/11/64, the informant reported no information that RANDACCIO was visiting [redacted]. It was noted that on 12/11/64, [redacted] advised that [redacted] called upon [redacted] GRANN at her apartment.

b6
b7C

The informant stated that [redacted] proceeded to voice her complaints over the attention RANDACCIO has been giving her. She complained over the fact that he had stopped taking her out and that whenever he comes to her apartment he watches television and goes to sleep. [redacted] defended RANDACCIO as a loyal friend of his and stated [redacted] should trust RANDACCIO explicitly. Informant stated that [redacted] also discussed with [redacted] the fact that he has lost a great deal of money in some gambling operation and that he is going to see RANDACCIO to see if he can borrow the amount he has lost. [redacted] indicated that he had to return the money to some location before he got into trouble.

Informant stated that [] had received information recently that the Internal Revenue Service is interested in RANDACCIO's income and that some Agent of the Internal Revenue has been attempting to see her for information about RANDACCIO's income. She explained that she has taken all of her cancelled checks and placed them in the trunk of her car in order to avoid their being investigated by the Internal Revenue Service. She indicated that her employer, Buffalo Attorney [] told her on 12/10/64 that an Agent was downstairs at the Walbridge Building and had asked why [] did not come down to the Coffee Shop for coffee. She explained to [] that the Agents know that she goes down for coffee at 9:15 AM every day and that they seem to know whenever she has an argument with RANDACCIO. [] explained to [] and the informant that it is her opinion that either the FBI or the Internal Revenue Service believes that she may say something that will help them in their investigation of RANDACCIO. She stated that she had been informed that any time she wanted to get away from RANDACCIO she did not have anything to worry about.

On 12/17/64, [] advised that [] of FRED G. RANDACCIO, continues her employment as Secretary to Buffalo Attorney SALTEN RODENBERG who maintains an office on the 9th floor of the Walbridge Building, telephone number []. The informant advised that during the day of 12/17/64, [] was contacted by a girl friend of JAKEY RUSSO and advised that JAKEY RUSSO has been missing for three months. According to the informant, RUSSO's girl friend contacted [] from Rochester, New York, to ask [] if she knew the location of JAKEY RUSSO or what happened to him. The informant stated that [] was upset by receiving this telephone call and advised that she recalls meeting this girl from Rochester at the Finger Lakes Race Track while she was with FRED RANDACCIO and JAKEY RUSSO. While they were at the race track, [] told RUSSO's girl of the type of work she was doing and the fact that she is a secretary to Buffalo Attorney SALTEN RODENBERG. According to the informant, RANDACCIO told [] that the last time he saw JAKEY RUSSO was at the Finger Lakes Race Track near Canandaigua, New York. [] advised RANDACCIO that if she should receive a subpoena concerning this matter she will deny knowing JAKEY RUSSO's girl friend. She also stated that she had told RUSSO's girl friend that she would deny knowing her and had hung up the telephone without further conversations.

It should be noted that FRANK JOSEPH VALENTI of Apalachin fame closed Club 30 in Pittsburgh, Pa., and moved to Rochester, N.Y., in August, 1964. He reportedly purchased a home at 21 Crossman Terrace, Rochester, N.Y., and his furniture was delivered to his new home in September, 1964. Approximately two weeks after VALENTI had completed his move from Pittsburgh to Rochester, N.Y., RUSSO disappeared from his home and hangouts in Rochester. A man tentatively identified as [redacted] and one other unidentified man went to Niagara Falls, N.Y., to see STEVE MAGADDINO concerning RUSSO's disappearance. At that time MAGADDINO was either ill or out of town and they voiced their suspicions to PETER A. MAGADDINO that something had happened to RUSSO and pointed out that they believed that RUSSO had met with foul play. It appears that through their own investigation RUSSO had an appointment to see FRANK VALENTI on a Saturday night, however, their inquiries regarding this phase of their investigation resulted in VALENTI saying that RUSSO had never showed up for the appointment.

It should also be noted on 10/2/64, the wife of [redacted] the subject of Buffalo case captioned [redacted] " advised Agents of the FBI that her husband told her there was concern for the whereabouts of JAKE RUSSO since he had been missing at that time for four or five days. She said JAKEY RUSSO's brother, CHARLES RUSSO, had found JAKEY RUSSO's car in a park with clothing and a jacket owned by JAKE RUSSO. It was the opinion of [redacted] that no one she knows would know the location of JAKEY RUSSO or what happened to him.

During an interview of RANDACCIO by SA(A) [redacted] [redacted], on 10/13/64, RANDACCIO advised that the last time he saw JAKE RUSSO was at the race track near Canandaigua, New York, and that the FBI would know the date since that was the date he was at the track with his "broad," and that RUSSO had given him a "hot horse" which won money for him that day. RANDACCIO was referring to his belief that he was under surveillance at the Canandaigua, N.Y. Race Track.

Re Buffalo weekly summary airtel dated 1/13/65.

On 12/31/64, [] furnished information relating to gambling operations in the Buffalo area as discussed by PASQUALE NATARELLI and FRED G. RANDACCIO. The informant reported that on the afternoon of 12/31/64, FRED RANDACCIO and his [] were joined by PASQUALE NATARELLI and his [] to exchange New Year's greetings.

There is set forth below the discussion as reported by [] at Buffalo, N.Y., on 12/13/64.

(RANDACCIO, [] NATARELLI and [] are having drinks and wishing each other Happy New Year.)

RANDACCIO: (Mentions the other day) "a guy telling me (inaudible)----- wife out of town
----- (inaudible)-----
I know it." (laughs)

RANDACCIO: (showing NATARELLI the watch that [] gave him for Christmas.) []

RANDACCIO: "Listen, I'll settle for the same kind of year this year as we had last year.
Nobody arrested. Nobody went to jail."

NATARELLI: "In fact it should be a better year. I'm optimistic for this year."

 of [],
 N.Y.

On 3/11/65, the informant advised that while RANDACCIO was visiting [] that night, she told him about a matter being handled by her employer, Buffalo [] She said []
 received a telephone call earlier that day from either DANNY SANSANESE or [] who were someplace in North Carolina. According to [] then learned that [] and SANSANESE are involved in a bank loan fraud amounting to $3,500.

During this discussion, [] speculated that when SANSANESE returns to Buffalo he will try to borrow $3,500 from RANDACCIO in order to make restitution. RANDACCIO out that DANNY SANSANESE only cares about himself. [redacted] speculates that "GEORGIE RAFT" (SAM BONITO) will try to raise the money for DANNY. RANDACCIO explained to [redacted] that he was glad he did not know about this matter and that he isn't involved. He stated that GEORGIE RAFT has a big mouth and will tell JOE FINO about it who in turn will tell JOHNNY (JOHN CAMMILLERI) and then JOHNNY will come and tell RANDACCIO about SANSANESE's troubles.

b6
b7C

Apparently the loan was a home repair loan which called for repairs to a house that neither SANSANESE nor [redacted] RANDACCIO commented that DANNY SANSANESE has a lot of relatives and that one of SANSANESE's nephews went through $31,000 in five days at one time.

b6
b7C

[redacted] commented that [redacted] was stupid since [redacted] had to explain something to her over the telephone and that [redacted] continues to miss the point. GRANN further stated that [redacted] stated she will stay in a motel in Pennsylvania until this matter is cleared up and [redacted] asked her why she didn't hurry back to answer these [redacted] and clear her name. Apparently [redacted] only [redacted] it was "What will I do with my car?" [redacted] remarked to RANDACCIO that she thinks that the bank or the police department is out to get DANNY SANSANESE and RANDACCIO agreed.

b6
b7C

Later that night, [redacted] advised that he learned from RANDACCIO that RANDACCIO had a kidney infection which was causing him to pass blood.

It is noted that information concerning this loan was originally received through a liaison contact with [redacted] on [redacted] 3/9/65. At that time [redacted] advised SAA [redacted] that a home improvement loan in the net amount of $3,500 was made by the bank, by check, payable to [redacted] and his [redacted] on either 3/2 or 3/65. [redacted] added that the loan was made directly to [redacted] when she came into the bank accompanied by [redacted]

On 12/16/64, this source reported a contact by [redacted] with FRED RANDACCIO at the apartment [redacted] New York. During this contact, [redacted] reported to RANDACCIO that he had observed [redacted] entering a building just before he arrived at the apartment. He stated that they, [redacted] and someone else, had ransacked the house just before he saw them. RANDACCIO pointed out that he did not want to see any of these "bums" and he wanted them to keep away from the house. It is noted that [redacted] was found at 2:30 a.m. the next morning bleeding profusely while sitting in a car in a parking lot at the rear of Columbus Hospital on the West Side of Buffalo. The car in which he was sitting is owned by [redacted] of [redacted] New York, who has been accused of burglarizing the Buffalo Automatic Vending Company on 5/10/64. [redacted] home was burglarized on the afternoon of 12/15/64, while he was in court in Buffalo, New York. The New York State Police charged [redacted] with the burglary of [redacted] home. [redacted] has refused to say how or where he was stabbed after being treated at a Buffalo hospital on the morning of 12/17/64.

The above information was of vital assistance in identifying members of a local burglary ring, who have become suspects in case captioned "UNSUBS; Burglary of the Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, Grant-Boyd Office, 133 Grant Street, Buffalo, New York, 12/4-7/64, BB," (Bureau file 91-20904, Buffalo file 91-1973).

On 12/17/64, the source furnished information that the girlfriend of missing JAKEY RUSSO of Rochester, New York, telephonically contacted her in an effort to determine RUSSO's whereabouts. The source also reported that RANDACCIO told DARLENE GRANN that the last time he saw JAKEY RUSSO was at the Finger Lakes Race Track, Canandaigua, New York.

The above information was of vital assistance during the investigation of case captioned "FRANK JOSEPH VALENTI, aka, AR." It is noted that approximately two weeks after VALENTI returned from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to Rochester, New York, as MAGADDINO's number one man in that area, JAKEY RUSSO disappeared from his home and hangouts in Buffalo. During the month of January and February, 1965, this source reported daily information as to the whereabouts of RANDACCIO through his appearance at the apartment of [redacted]

Re your FD-143 dated 3/11/65.

A review of information furnished by [redacted] during the past 90-day period reveals that this source has been of only limited assistance to your office. In view of this, you are not authorized to continue it for a 90-day period.

Authority is granted, however, to continue [redacted] for a 45-day period. As you know, all misurs must be completely justified. If this source does not produce sufficient information to justify its continuance, you should recommend that it be discontinued.

Submit your recommendations to reach the Bureau one week prior to the expiration of this authority.

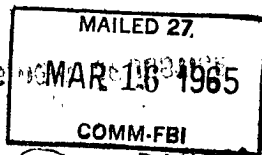

NOTE: This source [redacted]

[redacted] who is the "underboss" of Buffalo's La Cosa Nostra "family." Randaccio frequents this location on a regular basis. Source has provided information concerning his activities. Source has reported his travel plans in advance, which has been of assistance in this investigation. Although, as noted, this source has produced information of value in the past, during the recently authorized period the quality of information obtained was such that it was only of limited assistance to BUO. It is, therefore, recommended Buffalo be authorized to continue this source for a 45-day period rather than the recommended 90.

WEEKLY SUMMARY AIRTEL

The following is a summary of information furnished by [] for the period 3/15-21/65:

On 3/15/65, [] advised that FRED G. RANDACCIO was observed at the []
 after 8:00 p.m. that night.

On 3/16/65, the informant advised that while RANDACCIO and DARLENE GRANN were in her apartment at 9:00 o'clock that night RANDACCIO received a signal by letting the telephone ring twice and indicated that the person signaling him by the telephone was PASQUALE NATARELLI.
 Informant stated that a few seconds after the telephone ring RANDACCIO called out to NATARELLI from [] to tell him that he, RANDACCIO, did not have a car. The informant indicated that someone may have been with NATARELLI on the outside waiting for RANDACCIO to leave the apartment.
 Informant explained that [] asked RANDACCIO who was with NATARELLI and RANDACCIO did not answer. The informant stated that RANDACCIO left [] about 9:15 that night
 ostensibly to go with NATARELLI and some other unidentified individual.

It is noted that at 1:35 p.m. the next day PASQUALE NATARELLI walked into the Park Plaza Hotel in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, with ALBERT and PAUL VOLPE, both members of the "VOLPE Family." They then met with [redacted] a stock promotion salesman and President of Southern Brokerage Holdings Company, Inc. They were immediately arrested by members of the Metropolitan Toronto Police Department as members of an extortion ring who have been extorting large sums of money from ANGLE.

b6
b7C

Based upon the above information, a case captioned "PASQUALE NATARELLI, aka; RICHARD ANGLE - VICTIM; ITAR - EXTORTION; CONSPIRACY," was opened by the Buffalo Office.

On 3/17/65, [redacted] advised that FRED RANDACCIO was observed entering [redacted] at 7:00 o'clock that night before [redacted] arrived. Informant stated that while RANDACCIO was in the apartment alone he answered the telephone and informed the caller that [redacted] would be in shortly. Informant stated that RANDACCIO after watching television for about 20 minutes made a remark to himself or [redacted] "I better blow town." RANDACCIO then left the apartment and returned shortly after 9:30 p.m. with [redacted]

b2
b6
b7C

[redacted] Informant stated that [redacted] was already home at that time. RANDACCIO explained to [redacted] and [redacted] that NATARELLI and three other men had been picked up that day. He tried to console [redacted] by telling her that he may go to see NATARELLI the next day, but that NATARELLI would be home sometime in the afternoon. RANDACCIO told her he did not know what the arrest was all about. [redacted] warned RANDACCIO that he, RANDACCIO, would not be able to go over into Canada any more. RANDACCIO disagreed with [redacted] and indicated [redacted] the charge was not serious and that he would be [redacted] go to Canada.

Based upon this conversation, the informant reported that RANDACCIO, [redacted] and [redacted] were discussing the arrest of NATARELLI and three members of the "VOLPE Family" in Toronto earlier that day.

b6
b7C

The informant stated that while RANDACCIO was in [redacted] he received a telephone call from a man who identified himself as [redacted] This man told

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

RANDACCIO that "NICK called and told me to come in." RANDACCIO informed SAMMY that it was all right for him to come in, indicating that SAMMY was a man from out of town.

It is possible that SAMMY (LNU) had received a call from either NICK RIZZO or NICK FINO instructing him to come in to see RANDACCIO. It is noted that RANDACCIO and NATARELLI are observed almost daily at Gina's Restaurant, 530 Rhode Island St., Buffalo, New York, with members of "The Arm," including NICK RIZZO and NICK FINO.

On 3/18/65, [] advised that during a meeting between [] and RANDACCIO that night [] explained to RANDACCIO the latest developments of the bank's fraud charges against []. The informant previously reported that DANNY SANSANESE, a member of the "MAGADDINO Family," had traveled to Florida with [] on $3500 which she borrowed from a Buffalo bank. [] submitted an application for a home improvement loan to the Western Savings Bank of Buffalo for $3500 and the application bore the signature of [] and her []. Her husband, [] appeared at the bank later to deny he was the receiver or perpetrator of this loan application.

b6
b7C

The above matter is currently being investigated by the Erie County District Attorney's Office of Buffalo.

In discussing the above matter, [] informed RANDACCIO that someone is aware of every stop that SANSANESE and SACCO made while they were away. She stated that they also knew how much money they had spent. Informant stated that [] mentioned the Fountainebleu as a possible place where SANSANESE and [] had stayed in Florida. RANDACCIO stated that it appeared to him that they (the investigators) believed that [] and PATTY NATARELLI are involved in this matter.

b6
b7C

Informant stated that during another conversation [] questioned RANDACCIO as to whether or not he was involved in the Schwab Brothers Construction Company problems, noting that this company has a large contract for construction of an expressway and other city contracts in the Buffalo area. The Internal Revenue Service recently seized all the assets of this company. RANDACCIO indicated

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

that [] may have some interest in this construction project, however, since he started his son in this business it was up to his son to take care of himself.

b6
b7C

On 3/19/65, informant advised that RANDACCIO and his girl friend had a lengthy discussion concerning the legal aspects of NATARELLI's arrest in Toronto on 3/17/65. RANDACCIO asked [] knows anything about Canadian law. She indicated that she had done some research on this matter for [] and learned that extortion under the New York State law is a felony and if it is committed orally it is punishable up to 15 years in prison. RANDACCIO indicated that he did not believe that NATARELLI would get a very severe sentence, however, [] pointed out that NATARELLI would be lucky if he ever got out of jail.

b6
b7C

The informant stated that [] and RANDACCIO also discussed the status of the case involving [] and her home improvement loan at the Western Savings Bank. [] told RANDACCIO that she learned from [] that [] could be indicted, but [] told her that she, [] was not going to be the one who goes to jail in this matter.

b6
b7C

On 3/20/65, the informant observed [] meeting with [] that afternoon. [] discussed the case against NATARELLI in Toronto. [] remarked that when NATARELLI did not return to the apartment on 3/17/65, she was a little mad at him, indicating that she did not know at the time that he had been arrested on extortion charges in Toronto. She explained that she figured NATARELLI would be back the same day like he did all the other times he went out. She explained that NATARELLI's arrest will be hard on the child, especially if NATARELLI is going to go away for a long time. [] told [] that PATTY NATARELLI went to jail when he was 20 years old and when he came out he was 36 years of age. She stated that NATARELLI married his present wife because she waited for him all these years, and that her father and brother were in jail. She blamed NATARELLI's problems over the fact that he had no father. [] stated that

b6
b7C

if anything happened to NATARELLI she would never get involved with another man since half of her life is spent alone. She remarked, "They can make money with their horse rooms, but they want to be millionaires."

[] added that RANDACCIO has not taken a big fall.

[] stated that she did not believe that NATARELLI would be able to get bail in Canada because they believe NATARELLI will jump bail if he ever leaves Canada. []

[] remarked that the last time NATARELLI was arrested he said he would never go to jail again, and that he would go some place and send for her. While discussing the possibility of NATARELLI jumping bail, [] remarked that the Canadians do not like to set bail on anyone unless they are a resident of the area where they are arrested. She mentioned that both DANNY SANSANESE and JAMES V. LA DUCA jumped bail at one time. [] stated those [] brought NATARELLI nothing but bad luck.

b6
b7C

[] stated that although NATARELLI's lawyer from New York State cannot go into Canada, NATARELLI is supposed to trust his lawyer. She recalled, however, that the last time NATARELLI trusted his lawyer he was not supposed to get anything in the way of a sentence and he got six months in jail. She told [] that "They'll have to send somebody up there to get him if anything happens. They'll have to call in some other hoodlums to go in there and bust up something." [] remarked that the authorities are watching NATARELLI like a hawk just waiting for something to happen. She stated that it is possible the Canadian authorities may accept bail for NATARELLI on Thursday, 3/25/65, if he signs extradition papers. [] expressed her belief that without such extradition papers NATARELLI could delay removal for a year or so.

b6
b7C

During this conversation RANDACCIO arrived at [] and told [] that she had better give up the apartment, go live with her mother, and get a job. RANDACCIO indicated to [] that he had been [] up during the day with [] and his brother [] the Schwab Construction Company deal. It is noted that [] is an officer of Transit Paving Company, Inc., and that RANDACCIO has been reported as being carried on the payroll of this company. RANDACCIO's brother is VICTOR RANDACCIO, Secretary of Local 210 of the Laborers Union in Buffalo.

The following is a summary of information furnished by [] for the period 3/22-28/65:

On 3/22/65, informant reported no information relating to the subject.

On 3/23/65, [] advised that RANDACCIO was observed entering the [] at [] N.Y., at approximately 4:15 p.m. that day. The informant stated that [] learned from RANDACCIO that [] is representing some of those arrested with PASQUALE NATARELLI in Toronto on 3/17/65.

[] informed RANDACCIO that her employer, [] was contacted by two State Troopers (two Detectives of the Buffalo Police Department) and an FBI Agent that day. According to [] was informed that the Canadian authorities have an air tight case against PASQUALE NATARELLI and his friends in Toronto. [] told RANDACCIO that [] was told that there are two other men in Buffalo who are involved in this case and that they had better start "sweating." The informant stated that RANDACCIO made no comment to the remark by [] and she stated "You and who else."

It is noted that on 3/17/65, PASQUALE NATARELLI was arrested along with [] and [] in Toronto, Ontario, Canada on charges of extortion. A separate case captioned "PASQUALE NATARELLI, aka; RICHARD ANGLE - VICTIM; ITAR - CONSPIRACY" was opened by the Buffalo Office based upon information developed by the [] and [] as well as the FBI, concerning NATARELLI's travels to Toronto, Ontario, Canada to meet members of the "VOLPE Family."

b6
b7C
b7D

On 3/24/65, [] advised that RANDACCIO called upon [] shortly before eight o'clock that night. The informant stated that [] discussed a local arrest with RANDACCIO which involved a member of the AMIGONE Family in Buffalo. [] told RANDACCIO that a girl, later identified as [] had been arrested by the Buffalo Police Department. She stated that this girl, a prostitute, had been working for [] and had been filling dates with Negroes before she was arrested. RANDACCIO remarked that all of the AMIGONE Family are pimps.

b2
b6
b7C

It is noted that a separate case captioned "UNSUB; [] - VICTIM; WSTA" was opened by the Buffalo Office and the victim was interviewed on 3/22/65 by Agents of the Buffalo Office.

b6
b7C

The informant stated that RANDACCIO and [] discussed the legal aspects concerning NATARELLI's arrest in Toronto, Ontario, Canada and whether or not a charge could be filed against NATARELLI in Buffalo. [] stated she believes that an indictment maybe returned in Buffalo against NATARELLI in this matter. [] who is basing most of her knowledge of this matter from information obtained from her employer, [] appears to be concerned over the fact that RANDACCIO maybe involved in this matter.

b6
b7C

On 3/25/65, the informant advised that RANDACCIO and [] met that night to discuss the value of various properties that could be used to raise bail for PASQUALE NATARELLI. [] informed RANDACCIO that the mechanics of obtaining bail in Canada differ from those in the United States, especially since NATARELLI is not a citizen of Canada.

b6
b7C

The informant stated that RANDACCIO and [] then discussed the case involving DANNY SANSANESE and his [] who have fraudulently obtained funds as a home improvement loan to finance a trip to Florida. RANDACCIO told [] that SANSANESE has used everybody around Buffalo for the past 40 or 50 years.

b6
b7C

Later that night informant stated that Buffalo [] contacted [] while RANDACCIO was present and informed her that he has been making a review of Canadian Laws pertaining to bail and appeals can be made on a bail-denial to a higher court.

b6
b7C

[] thereafter informed RANDACCIO that [] had gone to Toronto, Ontario, Canada to be present during NATARELLI's preliminary hearing on bail and that [] had compared this procedure as that followed by the Buffalo City Court and the Erie County Court. She stated that [] told her that a detainer filed against NATARELLI in Toronto, Canada is comparable to the procedure followed by City Court because NATARELLI is not a resident and he has a prior felony conviction. She stated that it is possible that the Toronto Court cannot grant bail because of the detainer, however, it is possible that he could appeal this case to a superior court. RANDACCIO advised [] that [] is not PASQUALE NATARELLI's attorney and that NATARELLI is now represented by [] a Toronto attorney, whom the [] has identified as being a lawyer for big time gamblers and allegedly attended meetings with Mafia members at the Moosinec Goose Club.

b6
b7C

RANDACCIO stated he believes that [] simply wants to make trips to Toronto, Ontario, Canada and will be going up there every week. [] explained that [] through his review of the law in this matter, will be able to find out something to tell the Canadian lawyers for NATARELLI. RANDACCIO admitted that [] is a brilliant

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

lawyer, however, he suffers from a terrible personality. RANDACCIO informed [] that he wanted to talk to [] on 3/26/65 when he gets back from Toronto, and that he would like to see [] at [] around 7:00 p.m.

b6
b7C

On 3/26/65, the informant advised that RANDACCIO went to [] shortly before eight o'clock that night to meet []. When he arrived [] was not present at the apartment and RANDACCIO complained to [] that the FBI had been following him all day. He also stated that he believes that NATARELLI could get a sentence up to 21 years in Canada and that they also appropriated the car which was driven by NATARELLI into Canada. It is noted that this car is registered to [] at Buffalo and is being held by the MTPD in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. [] informed RANDACCIO that when [] arrived in Toronto that day they would not let him in to see NATARELLI or appear at the preliminary hearing until after three o'clock. She also suggested that RANDACCIO not pay [] for his services that night. She stated that she hopes that [] did not start drinking while he was in Toronto, indicating that he talks too much when he starts to drink. RANDACCIO told [] that he, RANDACCIO, would not go to Toronto himself. While discussing various lawyers in Buffalo and Toronto, RANDACCIO called [] obscene names and said that [] is the kind of man that would sell him, RANDACCIO, down the river and that he would not trust him. At 8:42 p.m. that night [] arrived at [] to see RANDACCIO and [] about his trip to Toronto. [] advised that before coming to the apartment he had stopped at his mother's house and had dinner with her.

b6
b7C

[] informed RANDACCIO that [] a Toronto attorney, wants $7,500.00 as a retainer in this case and that NATARELLI's hearing is either next week or the week after. However they feel that it is almost impossible to get bail for NATARELLI. He explained that in Toronto they do not have a Grand Jury like they have in Buffalo.

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

The informant stated that [] explained to RANDACCIO that the victim [] had a sales promotion plan with "Nassau or Nasso" and that VOLPE went down there (possibly to Nassau) and indicated that he, [] did not like the setup. The informant stated that mention was made of someone giving a man 100,000 shares of stock and a disagreement between the parties took place in their effort to settle the matter. [] stated that "they" threatened to go to a lawyer and that the man is being sued for an eight million dollar fraud. Based upon information furnished by the informant, it appears that reference is being made to [], who is being sued for eight million dollars in back taxes in Canada. [] added that it does not appear that [] or [] are the complainants in the charges filed against NATARELLI and the VOLPE Brothers and that the complaint came from a member of the Police Department. He stated that they would need the testimony of [] for corroboration to support these charges. He stated that the prosecution is going to have a hard time proving extortion since it appears that NATARELLI and VOLPE had money coming to them from [] and that they had simply threatened him in an attempt to collect what was due them. According to [] NATARELLI has not told anyone anything and that one of the lawyers wants a retainer of $7,500.00.

b6
b7C

[] stated that NATARELLI has never mentioned RANDACCIO's name and that neither HUMPHRIES nor NASSO mentioned his name. He stated that NASSO told him [] wanted $7,500.00 plus the expense of a transcript of testimony. After RANDACCIO remarked that NATARELLI is facing a sentence of 21 years, [] informed him that a sentence for extortion is 14 years, but the prosecution will have to admit that there is no extortion. [] stated that [] of the Buffalo Police Department has been to Toronto to make inquiries concerning this matter. RANDACCIO asked [] if [] has obtained his "list," and [] said he has not, but the police in Toronto have pictures of SAM PIERI, DANNY SANSANESE and RANDACCIO, indicating that these pictures are being used in an effort to establish the identification of someone else who was with NATARELLI during his trips to Canada.

b6
b7C

After discussing the problems arising out of NATARELLI's arrest in Canada, RANDACCIO stated that he has heard that an investigative committee is in Buffalo and they want him, RANDACCIO, to run. [] discounted this belief and stated that if there was a committee in Buffalo, [] in the Erie County District Attorney's Office would have to know about it. According to the informant, the conversation turned to the characterization of various attorneys and [] commented that the attorneys are going to stall this case because they want money. He pointed out that [] is the best friend of the VOLPES and indicated that he may call [] who is supposed to be the best lawyer in Canada. He stated that NATARELLI has to make this decision however. RANDACCIO suggested that [] go up to Toronto and explain this to NATARELLI, however, [] should make this trip at his own convenience. He also suggested that [] go over and talk to [] of NATARELLI, and explain to her what she has heard.

b6
b7C

[] stated that he believes NATARELLI should call the Immigration people and tell them he would like to go out on bail and would consent to be excluded or deported right after the trial.

b6
b7C

[] stated that he would try to find out from the Immigration people how this could be worked out. [] stated that if [] would assure him, [] that NATARELLI can beat this charge, then RODENBERG would go along with [] recommendation to NATARELLI since [] has a good understanding of Canadian Law.

The informant stated that during this meeting between [] and RANDACCIO, he recalled that [] told RANDACCIO that the lawyer in Canada informed him that they were involved in this. [] pointed out he did not know if the lawyers in Canada were silent partners in this gambling venture or not.

b6
b7C

It is possible that [] is referring to the stock ownership of Gamba Silver Mines which controls Nassau Tropicana in the Bahama Islands. Previous investigations have disclosed gambling interests of the VOLPE Family in the Bahama Islands.

b6
b7C

Prior to leaving the apartment, RANDACCIO advised that he has an appointment at 11:30 p.m. that night and asked [] if he wanted to go with him. Informant stated that he observed RANDACCIO and [] leave the apartment of [] together at 11:15 p.m.

b2
b6
b7C

On 3/27/65, [] advised that [] of PASQUALE NATARELLI residing at [] called upon [] around four o'clock that afternoon. According to the informant, [] is concerned over the arrest of NATARELLI in Toronto and speculated on her future if NATARELLI did not return to Buffalo within the next few days. She stated that the last time NATARELLI was sentenced and after he returned to Buffalo, they sat down and decided that at least $1,000.00 should be set aside incase anything happened to him. However, they never got around to doing this. [] stated that she owes bills all over town, however, she should realize that she really could expect nothing but trouble this. [] explained to [] that she has an endowment policy on the child of NATARELLI and this policy will be worth $2,000.00 when he is 21 years of age and he can use this to go to school. She also talks of the possibility of NATARELLI being away for a long time and it would not be right for her to promise that she would wait for him. [] told [] that she loves herself and it would be only natural in a year or two to go looking for love. She stated that she would be married if she could find a man who would give her all the things she has not had in the past few years. She stated that the idea of getting a job conflicts with the time needed to take care of her son and complained over the fact that she has not had any new clothes for over a year.

b6
b7C

The informant stated that [] and [] left the apartment around 5:30 p.m. together. At approximately 8:20 p.m. RANDACCIO returned to the apartment with [] and RANDACCIO was complaining that the FBI was surveilling him all day on 3/26/65. [] began discussing the financial needs of [] with RANDACCIO. She mentioned that [] will get NATARELLI's salary of $100.00 a week as long as the money comes in, however, [] owes all kinds of bills for furniture. RANDACCIO stated that he has been giving [] $25.00 a week and figured that the new car payments for [] car must be about $100.00 a month.

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

RANDACCIO informed [] that [] had better go get herself a job since he, RANDACCIO, is not obligated to her. He stated that he has not made any money on "the book" for a year and he is now checking "the book" himself. [] told RANDACCIO that she tried to tell him this before because when RANDACCIO had $100.00 and gave her $50.00 she knew at the same time that [] was getting $200.00 and was out buying $75.00 dresses and so forth. It is the opinion of the informant that RANDACCIO and NATARELLI are sharing in some joint business or gambling venture which [] seems to think they should have been sharing equally. RANDACCIO stated that since he is now seeing the books himself maybe they would get a break and realize additional funds.

b6
b7C

Later that night the informant stated that [] and RANDACCIO were met at [] apartment by a man known only as "SAM." SAM mentioned to RANDACCIO the fact that NATARELLI was arrested in Canada and RANDACCIO told SAM that he was arrested a couple of weeks ago and he has four lawyers representing him and the other men who were arrested with him. Informant stated that during this conversation SAM mentioned the name [] down at the Peace Bridge, apparently employed by the Immigration Service. RANDACCIO's comment to this fragmentary conversation was "We had to bring a guy across last summer."

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

At this point the conversation changed and [] appeared to be amused about the fact that DANNY SANSANESE has a wife and two girl friends and that if anyone should ever write the life of DANNY SANSANESE it would be a best seller. [] stated that he was the one that [] write such a book and []ed out that DANNY SANSANESE is getting old and would like to settle down to a job that would pay $125.00 a week. Someone asked him how DANNY SANSANESE could live on $125.00 a week when he could not live on $125.00 a day and further he has never worked on a job in his life.

 [] and discussed the recent arrest of PASQUALE NATARELLI in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. The informant stated that both RANDACCIO and [] talked at some length about the financial problems involved in NATARELLI's arrest, particularly the cost of attorneys and money to be used in the event bail is granted. RANDACCIO informed [] that NATARELLI's [] will have to go to work. They both agreed that RANDACCIO would give [] [] money and that she would turn this money over to
 [] with the excuse that RANDACCIO did not handle this matter personally since he did not have time to drop the money off at her apartment.

Later that night [] contacted []
 [] and got an assurance from him that he would see

RANDACCIO interrupted to remark that money is no object and they want to get the best lawyer they can. RANDACCIO told [] that they took up $2,000 to give the man (in Canada). He explained that there are supposed to be three lawyers in Toronto, one for each man arrested. RANDACCIO told RODENBERG that these men in Canada should not be worried about him coming up with the money and that [] should ask one of the attorneys if he represents the [] or NATARELLI. RODENBERG was told that he should tell this attorney "FREDDY doesn't like it and PACINI (ALFRED PACINI) doesn't like it."

b6
b7C

On 3/31/65, the informant advised that [] met RANDACCIO and [] at approximately nine o'clock that night to discuss NATARELLI's case in Canada. RODENBERG explained that he flew up to Toronto that afternoon to see NATARELLI.

b6
b7C

On 4/1/65, the informant advised that RANDACCIO had been in downtown Buffalo that night with NICK RIZZO and that RANDACCIO was with his girl [] from around 4:45 p.m. that night until approximately 4:45 []

On 4/2/65, [] advised that [] told [] that the case against PASQUALE NATARELLI looks good for the defense. The Toronto attorney offered to come to Buffalo anytime to discuss the charges against NATARELLI with RANDACCIO. The informant stated that RANDACCIO left a message with [] that she should set up a meet with this attorney at midnight. The informant stated that the name of PACINI (Buffalo attorney ALFRED PACINI) was mentioned.

b2
b6
b7C

On 4/3/65, the informant stated that RANDACCIO met with [] at approximately eight o'clock that night to discuss NATARELLI's case. [] informed RANDACCIO that he saw the transcript of the case against NATARELLI, the way the police had typed it up. He stated that it was "very big stuff," however, he believes that the VOLPES and NATARELLI have a very good defense. He commented that the victim and one of the VOLPES had a reason to get into a fight, but NATARELLI did not. The informant stated that during this discussion the name of [] (PH) was mentioned and that RANDACCIO has this man's business card. The connection of [] with this case is unknown to the informant.

b6
b7C

BU 92-174

According to the informant, [] bases NATARELLI's defense on the fact that if the VOLPES and NATARELLI had threatened victim in January why would the victim be doing business with them in March. At this point [] mentioned "they even sent a man from England, had a blue blood, a sir somebody." There was some indication that this individual involved a delivery of $8,000. RANDACCIO suggested that they send [] over to Canada to represent them in this matter, however, [] and [] informed him that [] is in a bad way in Canada and that he could not help them.

b6
b7C

RANDACCIO told [] and [] that [] was going up to Canada on Tuesday, 4/6/65, however, no one was to mention that she is going up to Toronto. [] advised that NATARELLI and the [] cannot receive visitors and they get six packs of cigarettes a week in jail. He stated that NATARELLI told him that when he gets out of jail he will be an expert in bridge playing. He further stated that the VOLPES and NATARELLI are being represented by Canadian attorneys FRANK NASSO and DAVID HUMPHRIES. He stated that the VOLPES are barred from coming into the United States and that eventually NATARELLI will not be able to enter Canada. He informed RANDACCIO that the prosecution will have to turn over to the defense attorneys the transcripts of the testimony by the victim, as well as the copies of evidence obtained by the police.

b6
b7C

The informant stated that RANDACCIO did not understand how the Canadian authorities could keep NATARELLI in jail for three months.

On 4/4/65, the informant advised that RANDACCIO contacted [] that morning and again that afternoon, however, no pertinent information was reported at that time.

The following is a summary of pertinent information received from highly confidential sources which pertains to FRED G. RANDACCIO:

During the period 9/21-27/64 [] furnished information that RANDACCIO was observed visiting his [] New York, each night with the exception of 9/23 and 27/64. The informant advised that whenever RANDACCIO is visiting at [] apartment and one of his associates such as PASQUALE NATARELLI wants to meet him, he will signal RANDACCIO by letting the telephone ring in [] one or two times.

b2
b6
b7C

On 9/28/64 [] advised that FRED G. RANDACCIO was boasting that he had taken some sort of physical reprisal against [] because [] was not paying his debts. RANDACCIO made the remark that [] was a "bum" and he had knocked [] sprawling.

b2
b6
b7C

Informant also added that [] met with RANDACCIO that night, and that RANDACCIO mentioned that he had gotten into a crap game and lost $2,100.00, borrowed $1,000.00, and proceeded to win $3,100.00.

The informant stated that [] had recently purchased RANDACCIO's car, and the title was in the process of being transferred to [] name.

b6
b7C

On the same date, informant stated that [] had placed a horse bet with a bookmaker and learned that her horse had won. The bookmaker claimed that he did not get [] bet in on time; and she was then wondering whether or not the bookmaker has been placing other bets for her. She complained to RANDACCIO about this matter, and protested to RANDACCIO that she did not want RANDACCIO to go near the men when RANDACCIO mentioned he would talk to the bookmaker.

b6
b7C

On 9/30-10/2/64 informant reported RANDACCIO visiting [] each night.

During the period 9/25-10/19/64 the informant furnished no information concerning the activities of FRED G. RANDACCIO.

On 11/3/64 [] advised that [] FRED G. RANDACCIO, PASQUALE NATARELLI, and [] were planning to visit Rochester and Canandaigua, New York, that evening. Informant explained that RANDACCIO and [] were supposed to meet [] and [] and that NATARELLI and GRAVANTE would join them later. NY

b2
b6
b7C

The informant stated that during a discussion of DANNY SANSANESE, [] said she thought a great deal of SANSANESE's wife, and that she is acquainted with SANSANESE's []. She stated that SANSANESE could do anything, even murder, and [] would never talk. NY

b6
b7C

Informant further stated that [] made reference to a previous gathering wherein DANNY SANSANESE, JOHN "PEANUTS" TRONOLONE, and others were present. During this gathering, PEANUTS TRONOLONE told DANNY SANSANESE that RANDACCIO was getting soft and did not know what he was talking about. [] told RANDACCIO that when SANSANESE agreed with TRONOLONE, she immediately jumped up, knocked over her chair, and cursed SANSANESE for talking about RANDACCIO behind his back. She stated that PEANUTS TRONOLONE told her they were not talking about RANDACCIO; however, she, [] knew that they were. NY

b6
b7C

On 11/8/64 [] advised that [] [] contacted RANDACCIO that day and talked to him about a smart businessman known as [] who wanted to go into business with RANDACCIO. [] described [] as a "big-time wheeler and dealer" and worth a lot of money, but he is having trouble with his wife, who is supposed to be a schizophrenic. [] told RANDACCIO of an incident wherein PAT's wife asked her husband to buy her a new car, and complained over the small house they own, which cost only $14,000.00 or $15,000.00. He stated that PAT's wife wants a Cadillac convertible and [] does not want to buy her the car. [] stated that one of [] employees had bought a brand new home and car, and that PAT's wife cannot understand why they cannot have a bigger home and car.

b2
b6
b7C

RANDACCIO asked [] what [] could do for him, and [] reminded RANDACCIO that [] has a lot of money and

he believed that [] just wants to be seen with RANDACCIO since RANDACCIO is regarded as a "very important man." RANDACCIO pointed out that he still knows where he can get twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars for this business venture if [] has a good, sound deal. RANDACCIO informed [] that he would meet with [] the following Tuesday morning at a restaurant if [] wanted to see him. RANDACCIO remarked "This guy may prove to be my salvation."

b6
b7C

It is noted that subsequent surveillances disclosed RANDACCIO started driving a small tan-colored Mustang registered Transit Paving Company of Depew, New York. [] has been identified as an officer of this company.

Shortly after 1:00 PM 11/8/64 PASQUALE NATARELLI contacted RANDACCIO in Buffalo and, according to the informant, they discussed matters relating to "La Cosa Nostra." The informant stated that NATARELLI and RANDACCIO discussed a matter concerning PAUL VOLPE, of the "Volpe Family" in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, about "making two guys in 'La Cosa Nostra.' "

On 11/9/64 [] advised that FRED G. RANDACCIO and PASQUALE NATARELLI drove over to the Camellia Linen Supply Company that day in an effort to locate VINCENT A. SCRO, the son-in-law of STEVE MAGADDINO. The informant stated that in the discussion of SCRO, RANDACCIO told CHARLES A. MONTANA, another son-in-law of STEVE MAGADDINO, that SCRO was supposed to call his brother, JOSEPH SCRO, on an urgent matter and that JOSEPH SCRO was to get in touch with JOSEPH FALCONE of Utica, New York. RANDACCIO indicated that JOSEPH FALCONE would be at the La Hacienda Restaurant at 7:30 PM on 11/11/64. RANDACCIO indicated that PETER A. MAGADDINO was already aware of this meeting and that possibly two other people had to be notified of this appointment. NATARELLI indicated to the informant that he would take care of the others as far as notifying them of the meeting.

A physical surveillance conducted at the La Hacienda Restaurant on Sheridan Drive in the Town of Amherst, New York, on the outskirts of Buffalo, New York, on the night of 11/11/64 failed to disclose the presence of any individuals associated with the "Magaddino Family." Efforts to locate RANDACCIO, NATARELLI, and other members of the "Magaddino Family" in the

Buffalo area failed to disclose their whereabouts that night.

During the period 11/9-12/64 [] advised RANDACCIO was observed at the apartment of [] in Buffalo, New York.

b2
b6
b7C

On 11/17/64 [] advised that RANDACCIO severely reprimanded [] because [] was continually after him to settle problems in the [] family. Informant stated that [] and RANDACCIO drove out to the home of [] that night to settle a dispute over whether or not [] could be employed as a hostess in a restaurant operated by []

b2
b6
b7C

On 12/14/64 [] advised that DANNY SANSANESE contacted RANDACCIO's girl friend earlier that day and she made the remark that a "bunch of kids" involved in a burglary ring wanted to know if PASQUALE NATARELLI was behind their activities.

The informant stated that shortly after 8:15 PM on 12/16/64 [] contacted RANDACCIO at the apartment of []. As he arrived at the apartment, RANDACCIO questioned [] concerning the identity of someone outside the apartment. [] responded that [] was outside and commented that "they" had ransacked a house and that he, [] saw them as he came into the apartment. RANDACCIO warned that he did not want to see any of these "bums" and he wanted them to keep away from the house.

b7C

It is noted that [] a notorious safe burglar in the Buffalo area, was found at 2:30 AM the next morning bleeding from a stab wound and sitting in a car in a parking lot at the rear of the Columbus Hospital on the West Side of Buffalo. According to Buffalo police reports, the car in which [] was found bleeding is owned by [] New York, who has been accused of burglarizing Buffalo Automatic Inc. on 5/10/64. It is also noted that on the afternoon of 12/15/64 while [] was in court in Buffalo, New York, his home on [] was burglarized. The NYSP have charged [] with the burglary of [] home and reported they are looking for two other men. [] refused to say how or where he was stabbed after being treated at two Buffalo hospitals on the morning of 12/17/64.

b2
b6
b7C

On 12/17/64 [] advised that [] received a telephone call earlier that day from a girl who said she was the girl friend of JAKIE RUSSO. She informed [] that JAKIE RUSSO has been missing for three months and she was contacting [] in an attempt to locate RUSSO.

[] explained that [] was upset over receiving this telephone call since she, [] only recalls meeting RUSSO's girl friend at the Finger Lakes Race Track while she was with RANDACCIO and JAKIE RUSSO. When [] informed RANDACCIO of this call, she explained further that she had told RUSSO's girl friend while they were at the race track that she was employed as a secretary to Buffalo attorney []

b2
b6
b7C

[] stated that RANDACCIO told [] that the last time he saw JAKIE RUSSO was at the Finger Lakes Race Track near Canandaigua, New York. According to the informant, [] told JAKIE RUSSO's girl friend that if she received a subpoena concerning this matter she would deny knowing JAKIE RUSSO's girl friend.

b2
b6
b7C

It is noted that FRANK JOSEPH VALENTI, of Apalachin fame, sold Club 30 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and returned to Rochester, New York, in August 1964. He purchased a new home in Rochester and had his furniture delivered from Pittsburgh to his new home in Rochester in September 1964. Approximately two weeks after VALENTI established residence in Rochester, JAKIE RUSSO disappeared from his home and hangouts in Rochester.

In regards to the relationship between [] and her employer, [] has reported on occasion that [] has trouble at times getting her paycheck on time; however, she apparently works when she feels like it.

b2
b6
b7C

On 12/18/64 the informant stated that [] was asked by RODENBERG if she could trust him for her week's pay; she refused to honor RODENBERG's request and explained that she had agreed to wait on one other occasion for her

pay and it took her three weeks to collect it.

[] later informed RANDACCIO that [] had placed a telephone call to one of his clients, who was facing a rape charge, and told his client that he would have to have $100.00 at 5:00 PM that afternoon in order to get something on the court calendar. [] stated that the client came down to the office with the $100.00 and [] got her paycheck. She stated that RODENBERG had already charged the client with $1200.00 for his services, and that as far as she knew, nothing had to go on the court calendar in this case.

b2
b6
b7C

[] also informed RANDACCIO that [] is going to get in trouble over other incidents like this and specifically referred to a case wherein [] forged a man's and a woman's signature on some checks and papers involved in some case, and that the woman for some reason or other had made photostats of the signatures.

On 12/21/64 [] advised that an unidentified man contacted RANDACCIO that night and indicated his desire to go into some business with RANDACCIO. This same unidentified man also mentioned that he had lost $1200.00 recently in a prize fight; however, the informant could furnish no further information concerning this matter.

On 1/19/65 [] advised that RANDACCIO appeared at [] apartment from around 7:00 PM until around midnight. No information was developed by the informant which would indicated the travels of RANDACCIO during the week.

b2
b6
b7C

The informant reported the presence of RANDACCIO as entering his girl friend's apartment at approximately 7:20 PM that night. The informant stated that RANDACCIO was having trouble getting over a recent illness.

On 2/6/65 [] advised that RANDACCIO, NATARELLI and their girl friends were planning to leave the Buffalo area for a short trip and specific reference was made to a trip into Canada where RANDACCIO wants to play in a crap game.

On 2/15/65 the informant advised that RANDACCIO

explained that [] had to attend a wedding on Saturday, 2/20/65.

[] advised that he observed a wedding party on Saturday afternoon, 2/20/65, at the Cordon Bleu Restaurant, 2909 Genesee Street, Cheektowaga, New York. TERESI explained that guests at the wedding party included STEVE MAGADDINO, FRED G. RANDACCIO and other members of the "Magaddino Family." He pointed out that a daughter of [] had been married that day.

b2
b6

b7D

On 3/11/65 [] advised that [] explained that her employer, [] had received a telephone call earlier that day from either DANNY SANSANESE or [], who were traveling together somewhere in North Carolina. According to [] learned from SACCO or SANSANESE that they had fraudulently obtained a bank loan in the amount of $3,500.00.

[] speculated that when DANNY SANSANESE returns to Buffalo he will attempt to borrow $3,500.00 from RANDACCIO to make restitution from the bank. RANDACCIO scoffed at the idea of his loaning SANSANESE the money, pointing out that SANSANESE only cares about himself. According to the informant, [] was of the opinion that SAM BONITO, aka Georgie Raft, will try to lay the matter before RANDACCIO. RANDACCIO expressed his satisfaction over not being involved in this matter, but commented that SAM BONITO has a big mouth and will tell FINO, who in turn will tell JOHN CAMMILLERI, and then RANDACCIO will have to hear about SANSANESE's trouble from CAMMILLERI.

b6
b7C

He also stated that SANSANESE has a lot of relatives and that he recalls that a nephew of SANSANESE went through $31,000.00 in five days.

[] described [] as stupid and could not understand the instructions RODENBERG gave her over the telephone that day. She stated that [] continues to miss the point and informed RODENBERG that she would stay in a motel, in Pennsylvania, until the trouble at the bank is cleared up. When RODENBERG asked her why she did not hurry back to Buffalo to clear up her name and answer these charges, her comment was "What will I do with my car?" It was the opinion of [redacted] that the bank or the PD is out to get DANNY SANSANESE.

b6
b7C

It is noted that information pertaining to the bank loan was originally received by the Buffalo Office through a liaison contact with [redacted] Western Savings Bank, Buffalo, on 3/9/65. At that time [redacted] advised SA(A) [redacted] on that date that a home improvement loan in the net amount of $3,500.00 was made by his bank and the check was made payable to [redacted] and his wife, [redacted] on either 3/2 or 3/65. [redacted] stated that this loan was given directly to [redacted] when she came into the bank accompanied by [redacted] operator of Baynes Construction Company, Buffalo.

b6
b7C

After the bank mailed [redacted] a verification of the application for the loan, [redacted] came into the bank to advise he had made no such application and did not receive the loan as indicated. He further pointed out that he and [redacted] have been separated since May 1964 and that she, [redacted] was then vacationing in Florida. [] by telling her he may leave the next day to see NATARELLI, but NATARELLI would be home in the afternoon anyway. RANDACCIO denied to [] that he knew what the arrest was about. [] warned RANDACCIO that he would not be able to go over into Canada any more because of the action taken by Canadian authorities.

b6
b7C

The informant stated that while [] and RANDACCIO were discussing NATARELLI's arrest in Toronto, RANDACCIO received a telephone call from a man who identified himself as []. This man told RANDACCIO that [] called and told me to come in." RANDACCIO informed [] that it was all right and indicated that [] was a man from out of town.

b6
b7C

On 3/18/65 [] advised that during a meeting between [] and RANDACCIO, informant learned that DANNY SANSANESE, a member of the "Magaddino Family," had traveled to Florida with [] on $3,500.00 she had borrowed from a Buffalo bank. [] advised RANDACCIO that apparently someone is aware of every stop SANSANESE and [] made while they were away from Buffalo. She stated these people also knew how much money they had spent, and indicated stops were made at the Fountainbleu Hotel in Florida on 3/19 and 20/65.

b2
b6
b7C

[] reported that RANDACCIO, [] and [] are worried over the arrest of PASQUALE NATARELLI in Toronto. The informant stated that Buffalo attorney [] is going to Toronto to confer with Canadian attorneys on the defense of NATARELLI and members of the "Volpe Family." The informant reported that RODENBERG is reporting the status and the progress made in this matter directly to RANDACCIO each time he returns from Canada.

b2
b6
b7C

During the period 3/19 through 4/5/65 [] advised that [] has been meeting with RANDACCIO practically every night in order to keep RANDACCIO informed of efforts being made to get bail for NATARELLI.

b2
b6
b7C

It is noted that NATARELLI is being held without bail; [] was released on $100,000.00 bail; and that [] have been committed for trial along

The information stated that another problem involving RANDACCIO came up on 3/18/65 which concerned the Schwab Brothers Construction Company. Informant stated that RANDACCIO indicated his son, ALBERT RANDACCIO, may have an interest in the large construction project on an expressway through the City of Buffalo wherein Schwab Brothers is the prime contractor.

It is noted that [] reported that RANDACCIO instructed his [] Administrator of the Buffalo Laborers Welfare Fund, to arrange for loans of the welfare fund money to Schwab Brothers in order that the company may continue its construction work. It is noted that the Internal Revenue Service recently seized the assets of Schwab Brothers Construction Company. Schwab Brothers construction work on the Kensington Expressway was temporarily discontinued. [] has advised that around $500,000 was placed in escrow in the form of a restricted loan to Schwab Brothers by the Buffalo Laborers Welfare Fund on the orders of RANDACCIO. DETAILS:

PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

During the past six months spot surveillances of FRED G. RANDACCIO have been made on the West Side of Buffalo, and it has been determined that he continues to reside in a two and one-half story house located at 562 Richmond Avenue, Buffalo, New York. RANDACCIO rents an upstairs apartment to close friends and a garage apartment to individuals after being interviewed by [REDACTED] the subject's wife. At the present time [REDACTED] occupies the second floor apartment of RANDACCIO's house.

b6
b7C

On April 15, 1965, [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] recently made an application for a Diner's Club Credit Card for her husband, FRED G. RANDACCIO, of 562 Richmond Avenue, Buffalo. The application reflects that RANDACCIO is employed by Transit Paving Company of Depew, New York, at an annual salary of $15,000.

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

On several occasions during the past six months RANDACCIO has been observed driving a tan colored Mustang which is registered to the Transit Paving Company.

On December 9, 1964, [REDACTED] Buffalo Police Department, advised that he had received information that FRED G. RANDACCIO is on the payroll of Transit Paving Company, Inc., 3179 Walden Avenue, Depew, New York. [REDACTED] stated that the source of his information was an individual who has access to payroll records which show RANDACCIO's name as being associated with this company.

b6
b7C

On February 4, 1965, [REDACTED] made available records reflecting the background of Transit Paving Company, Inc., 3179 Walden Avenue, Depew. These records show that Transit Paving, Inc., is managed by the following individuals:

b2
b7D

PASQUALE CIPOLLA
President and Treasurer

JOSEPH M. NASCA
Secretary

BU 92-174

JOSEPH GERACE
Vice President

The report stated that [] was born in [] attended Purdue University and later graduated from Erie County Technical Institute in Buffalo, New York. On July 1, 1964, [] entered partnership with [] as the registered [] of Pleasant View Snack Bar which operated as a drive-in type restaurant at 6425 Transit Road, Lancaster, New York. This business was sold in 1960 in order for CIPOLLA to devote his full attention to Transit Paving, Buffalo, New York. []

b6
b7C

[] on May 1, 1960, began doing business as Associated Developing Company, 1285 William Street, Buffalo, New York. This company was reported to own 100 acres in the Niagara Falls Boulevard area adjacent to Ellicott Creek Park, and was doing business in the building and leasing of real estate. In addition, this company reportedly owns a building at French and Union Roads on the outskirts of Buffalo valued at approximately $260,000 subject to a mortgage of about $200,000 held by the Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company.

[] is reported to be the principal at interest in two companies sharing quarters with Transit Paving Company, Inc. Transitgrade, Inc., provides labor for Transit Paving Company, Inc. Its balance sheet as of September 30, 1964, showed current assets of $119,675, current liabilities $58,461, and net worth of $71,365. For the nine months ending September 30, 1964, income was reported at $375,647 and net profit of $26,665. Transit Paverseal, Inc., the other affiliate which sold blacktop sealing material is now reported to be dormant.

[] is also reported to have an interest in Ugen, Inc., chartered a New York Corporation on November 10, 1961. On April 3, 1962, Ugen, Inc., gave a real estate mortgage for $100,000 to Erie County Savings Bank covering property at 3409 Genesee Street, Buffalo, New York. [] is also reported to have one-third interest in Consolidated Land Development Corporation, chartered a New York Corporation June 30, 1962, as a company engaged in developing a subdivision comprising 500 lots in the Cheektowaga area.

INTERVIEW OF SUBJECT

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

-1-

10/21/64

Date

At 10:00 AM, October 13, 1964, FRED RANDACCIO, at a prearranged meeting, was contacted in front of the Rhode Island Lunch, 530 Rhode Island Avenue, by SAA [redacted] [redacted]. Upon arrival at this address, RANDACCIO was observed standing on the sidewalk with JOSEPH FINO and PASQUALE NATARELLI. After acknowledging signs of recognition of SA [redacted] RANDACCIO loudly proclaimed that he had been informed by JOSEPH FINO of this appointment and that if SA [redacted] had not appeared at 10:00 AM for the appointment, he would have "cracked his head" gesturing toward FINO. Joseph M. Fino JOE FINO

RANDACCIO then stated that in view of the recent publicity that the President of the United States was coming to Buffalo, he had a suggestion to make. He stated that if the FBI wanted to guarantee full security of the President and his party, RANDACCIO could get as many men as was needed for the job. RANDACCIO was advised that it was highly possible that he and his friends are the reason that such security measures have to be taken.

At this point RANDACCIO was informed that SA [redacted] wished to talk with him in private, whereupon RANDACCIO dismissed FINO and NATARELLI with a remark "go inside and have a cup of coffee, [redacted] wants to talk only to me." He then offered a 1963 Cadillac bearing New York license FSM-7 which was parked at the curb as a place where the interview could be conducted. As an alternative, he stated he would go some place else if the interviewing Agent so desired. It is noted that the car standing at the curb bearing New York license FSM-7 is owned by FRED S. MOGAVERO of Buffalo.

After entering the car, RANDACCIO was advised that he did not have to make a statement and that anything he may say may be used against him in court. He was advised by SA [redacted] that he may wish to consult an attorney of his own choosing prior to saying anything. RANDACCIO interrupted by stating that he was well aware of his rights and that the

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

FBI was in no position to offer him anything in the way of a reward nor make any deals with him.

RANDACCIO was asked if he knew anyone known as [redacted] who is also known in New York as [redacted]. A photograph of [redacted] was displayed to RANDACCIO, at which time RANDACCIO remarked that he knew this man 20 years ago. He asked why the FBI was interested in this man. RANDACCIO was advised that while he was away from Buffalo around the middle of September, 1964, a man who may be identical with [redacted] appeared in Buffalo. He was also advised that [redacted] was later observed at a prize fight in Cleveland, Ohio with some men from Buffalo.

b6
b7C

In order to refresh RANDACCIO's memory, he was told that [redacted] was observed in Cleveland about the same time as SAM LAGATTUTA's death, September 11, 1964. RANDACCIO mumbled his regrets and apologies for not appearing at LAGATTUTA's wake or funeral without specifically stating that he was out of town at the time. RANDACCIO refused to discuss anything related to [redacted] and repeated the statement he has made in the past that he, RANDACCIO, is not "a big racketeer" and there is "nothing going on in this hick town."

At this point in the interview RANDACCIO was asked if he knew anyone known as [redacted] who formerly operated the Crystal Inn, a night club at Arcade, New York. RANDACCIO stated that he recalled meeting this individual with his wife at Panaro's Lounge on New Hampshire Street in Buffalo several years ago. He explained that he understood that [redacted] had got into some sort of trouble with financial backers and the banks in Arcade, New York and was now in prison. He stated that to the best of his knowledge he met [redacted] through an introduction by [redacted].

b6
b7C

RANDACCIO was asked at this point if [redacted] owed him any money to which RANDACCIO replied that he did not. RANDACCIO was informed that allegations had been made that RANDACCIO had loaned [redacted] $10,000 in 1961 while they were together at Panaro's Lounge in Buffalo. Further RANDACCIO or one of his associates later threatened [redacted] and members of [redacted] family if repayment of $15,000 was not paid within a 30 day period.

b6
b7C

[redacted] RANDACCIO emphatically denied that he ever loaned any money and that as a witness to this discussion concerning loans, he would suggest that SA [redacted] contact Buffalo attorney [redacted] who was present at Panaro's Lounge with him at the time. He stated that [redacted] had told him at the introduction that [redacted] needed funds and wanted to know if RANDACCIO would loan [redacted] $5,000.

[redacted] FRED RANDACCIO stated that he explained to both [redacted] and [redacted] at that time that he did not have $5,000 to loan and that he was not in a habit of loaning money to strangers. He stated he listened to [redacted] story of the attempts to build and operate the night club in Arcade, New York and he, RANDACCIO, felt sorry for [redacted]. He stated that [redacted] was a cripple who apparently knew nothing about the night club business and was surprised that he would even attempt to build such a club in an isolated area like Arcade, New York. RANDACCIO stated that he would have been a fool to even consider loaning [redacted] $10,000 for such a venture.

b7C

RANDACCIO also suggested that [redacted] who operates a furniture store in Kenmore, New York, be contacted to verify his statement that he did not loan [redacted] any money. RANDACCIO was asked why he thought that [redacted] would furnish any information concerning this matter, and RANDACCIO replied that BARONE would say anything since he is a "weak man."

b6
b7C

At this point of the conversation reference was again made to the fact that RANDACCIO was known to be out of town for a period of over a week in September, 1964. RANDACCIO refused to state where he was, where he traveled or who traveled with him during this period of time. He dismissed all questions concerning this matter with the remark "You know my vices. Let's say I was hibernating." RANDACCIO was then asked if there was any reason for our New York or New Jersey Offices asking questions about him, whereupon RANDACCIO replied "I ain't never been in New Jersey in my life."

The conversation relating to RANDACCIO's absence from Buffalo was discontinued at this time and RANDACCIO was then asked if he was acquainted with JAKE RUSSO (JACOMO RUSSOLESI, FBI Number 1360312) of Rochester, New York.

-4-

RANDACCIO readily admitted that he has known JAKE RUSSO most of his life, and as a matter of fact the last time he saw RUSSO was at the Finger Lakes Race Track. He stated the FBI should know the exact date he saw RUSSO because "that was the day I was with my broad at the track."

He stated that on that particular day JAKE RUSSO gave him the name of a horse that won. He stated he could not recall the name of the horse except that it was a Canadian horse that had run at the Boston tracks. RANDACCIO also admitted that during the spring of the year he and PASQUALE NATARELLI had flown to Boston, Massachusetts to attend the race tracks in that area. He dismissed all questioning concerning these activities by saying that he and "PATTY" just went to the tracks to meet friends and bet on a few horses.

RANDACCIO stated that the extent of his gambling activities has been highly overrated and cited an example of how fast a rumor can spread. He stated that a week or two ago he was attending a stag testimonial at the Park Lane Hotel in Buffalo, and while there, he won $2,100 at a dice game. He stated that the next afternoon friends close to him congratulated him on winning $6,000. It is noted that a testimonial dinner was held at the Park Lane Hotel for New York State Assemblyman STEPHEN R. GRECO, which was sponsored by FRED S. MOGAVERO.

Sciandra's Lounge
1287 Niagara Street
Buffalo, New York

On March 15, 1965, BU T-3 advised that for the past two months he has observed RANDACCIO during the afternoons at Sciandra's Lounge, 1287 Niagara Street, in the company of "GEORGE RAFT" (SAM BONITO) and JOSEPH "HORSE" FIORELLA. BU T-3 said Sciandra's Lounge is [redacted]

[redacted] operated Andy's Cafe at 282 Pearl Street for many years prior to his death. He further stated that Sciandra's is a hangout for thieves and burglars and he has often observed Canadian hoodlums from across the river hanging out at the bar. BU T-3 stated that he was surprised to see RANDACCIO hanging out at Sciandra's since this place is known as a hangout of SAM PIERI. Since PIERI's release from prison, he and RANDACCIO have not been seen in the same company and they are considered by some as enemies. BU T-3 advised that [redacted] of the Billboard Night Club, has been hanging out at Sciandra's and is suspected of dealing as a contact for West Side hoodlums who are attempting to fence stolen merchandise.

Buffalo, New York

On March 17, 1965, BU T-3 advised for the past month he has observed RANDACCIO, NATARELLI and "GEORGE RAFT" meeting late at night at Dewey's Diner, 166 West Chippewa Street. He stated he was surprised to see them at this location since members of the Buffalo Police Department have been harassing hoodlums hanging out at this diner late at night. He stated he also knew that [redacted] and [redacted] were on "junk" and had been hanging out at Dewey's Diner. One of these brothers shot the owner of Dewey's Diner three or four months ago and both facing trial in Buffalo on assault charges.

[REDACTED] stated from his personal observation it appears that RANDACCIO is the leader of this group and actually keeps his associates in line. He pointed out that members of his unit of the Buffalo Police Department continue to harass and raid various gambling and bookmaking establishments in the Buffalo area. He stated that because of these tactics it has been very difficult for NATARELLI, RANDACCIO or any of his associates to operate at one location for any length of time.

On April 5, 1965, BU T-3 advised that FRED G. RANDACCIO is a close associate of [REDACTED], and for many years has used this restaurant as a place to meet friends at night.

On 4/13/65, [] advised that while RANDACCIO was in the apartment of [] her employer, SALTEN "ZEL" RODENBERG contacted her at approximately 1:30 PM. The informant advised that [] then explained to RANDACCIO that RODENBERG had just returned from Toronto, and that there was a big "blow up" in court that day over a call originating from someone known as [] in New York. [] explained to RANDACCIO that apparently this telephone call from [] had involved a day of [] the attorney for the [] and because of this [] may withdraw from this case. She indicated that [] is fearful of disbarment proceedings because there are indications that someone had either tried to bribe someone or kill someone in connection with this case.

Shortly before ten o'clock that night RANDACCIO and RODENBERG met at [] apartment and RODENBERG informed [] and RANDACCIO that the trial of PASQUALE NATARELLI in Toronto had been set for next month, however, no bail had been set for NATARELLI. RANDACCIO instructed [] to advise [] of NATARELLI, about the "no bail" decision.

It was noted that during this meeting RANDACCIO admitted to RODENBERG that the only member of the [] family he knows is [] and he only met him once. The informant stated that after RODENBERG left the apartment, [] told RANDACCIO that he had better talk to RODENBERG and tell him that he, RODENBERG, talks too much. She stated that RODENBERG had called her to tell her that [] (PH) would be in Buffalo on the 15th or the 16th and that RODENBERG would get in touch with him right away. It is believed that RODENBERG is planning to see [] in connection with the trial of PASQUALE NATARELLI in Toronto.

FR: "You told him about lawyers."

[redacted] "Yeah, well, he is going to make up his mind.
He said that [redacted] (Toronto attorney [redacted] [redacted] is all right, he says, but he tells me here with senior attorneys, and junior attorneys, a guy by the name of [redacted] is in there with him. They're holding him in a three million dollar fraud, or something."

FR: "Who?"

[redacted] "A Jewish fellow, name is ----- [redacted]
[redacted]. He's in the can with him. -----
----- it's got to be that. He's already made the bail application. Now (pause), [redacted] Now, he's satisfied with [redacted]
but he's afraid of the same thing. He don't know how this guy is ----- They hired [redacted]

he's on trial. see. So they came up with $1500, they gave [redacted] (Toronto attorney [redacted] [redacted] only gave [redacted] a thousand. So PAT said I told him to go give this guy the other $500. He said I'm doing a favor to him. He said I don't know why it should cost me money yet, too. [redacted] told [redacted] But he said ----- don't come up with any money until you hear differently."

FR: "Yeah."

BU 92-174-Sub 3

[redacted] "Not because he's worried about the money, but he said they got money. --- Was it today. I talked to that [redacted]

[redacted] "Yeah."

[redacted] "And he said he talked to [redacted] yesterday, and he said we don't owe anybody any money."

"He said after all there's four guys. They let (ph) two get out, and two go in. -----
----- [redacted] told him don't worry about the Immigration, once we get the bail, the Immigration will be low, this I guarantee. He said we'll get you out through there. Then I had a thought, and he agreed with me, we didn't think ----- He said that bail was going to be high. Like the bail may be $25,000 cash. Now where are you going to get it in a minute? -----
He knows people that you and I can't reach, and this is our best shot at [redacted] (very phonetic, but possibly [redacted] take my word for it."

----- I even told him I was on the plane with [redacted] (phonetic). He's the State Trooper. He was going to Montreal. So, he said I think they got it bad. [redacted] (uh) was drinking (ph), see, but I couldn't hang around."

FR:

Then, I said 'Oh, yeah, a lawyer from Buffalo.' I didn't mention his name because you told me forty times not to mention it."

b6
b7C

FR:

"Yeah."

[redacted] "That's about it. -----
They can't have anything. He said this this guy hustled me to come over there. He said I didn't want to go, and he kept saying I'm not going to pay this money until you're here (ph). Police had told me that. So I said you told him to go ahead and give him to go ahead and give them the money. It's all right. I'll see them later. He kept insisting, no, PAT (PASQUALE NATARELLI), you're my friend. You've got to be here. I've got to make sure everything is all right."

FR:

"-----"

[redacted] "Yeah, that's when they drew him over, you see. And he said all I ever did was good-turn a guy. ----- AN [redacted] called him once and said do me a favor and find out what the VOLPES ----- So he said I thought, but he said they had bills - they might have been phoney - but they could show where every quarter went ----- so he said [redacted] called, I talked to [redacted] again, and he said ----- where the money went. FR: "Where are the other two VOLPE brothers?"

[] "They're on a different floor."

FR: "Different floor."

[] "----- downstairs. ----- only see them for about an hour. He said I told them once already - tell me what's going on. So he says wait til one of us gets out. So I said don't go starting anything with them now until we find out about the bail. He said, 'Oh, I got to tell them about the $7500.' I said if you want to tell them tell them, but what's the sense of antagonizing. First let's find out how much their bail is. Then let's get them out. Then let him do what he wants to do -----."

FR: "But VOLPES ~~never~~ mentioned nothing to PATTY about that?"

[] "No."

FR: "So they must have been conspiring with [] to see what they can get out of PATTY, understand, honey?"

b6
b7C

[] "That could be. But you don't want to paint it too black because you can't be too sure, you know."

(Here Tv covering conversations)

A review of the above information indicates that [] and RANDACCIO are concerned over the amount of bail they will have to raise in order to obtain NATARELLI's release. The New York Office is familiar with the background and activities of [] as an international fence operating out of New York City and Canada. It is noted that [] mentions traveling to Toronto on a plane and meeting [] the State Trooper. He is apparently referring to Senior Investigator [] Bureau of Criminal Investigations, New York State Police, who recently left the Buffalo area to go to Montreal, Canada in connection with a New York State Police investigation involving the murder and robbery of a bank teller in Ellenberg, New York. During the conversation, [] assured RANDACCIO that he had not mentioned the name of the lawyer from Hamilton as instructed by RANDACCIO. [] is apparently making reference to Hamilton, Ontario attorney [] who has represented members of the "E Family" in the past.

BU 92-174-Sub 3

During the conversation, [redacted] and RANDACCIO discussed something about North Park Furniture and "MAHONEY." It is believed that they are discussing a source of bail money and [redacted] owner of North Park Furniture, who was described as a leading figure in the numbers lottery racket in the Buffalo area several years ago. [redacted] is probably Buffalo attorney [redacted] who represented PASQUALE NATARELLI at the time he was arrested by the New York State Police on lottery charges.
