RE: FRITZ KUHN
INTERNAL SECURITY (G)

Dear Sir:

On a recent occasion the enclosed pin was turned over the Special Agent [redacted] [redacted] of the Pennsylvania Motor Police.

This pin was one of a number found in the possession of FRITZ KUHN at the time of his arrest in Reading, Pa. by the Pennsylvania Motor Police.

It is believed that this pin, containing the Nazi emblem and the words "Forderor des" and the letters "AV", might be of interest to the Bureau.

TO FRITZ KUHN, #26558, CLINTON PRISON, FROM [REDACTED] NEWARK, N. J.

Well, Mr. Kuhn, how do you like your new quarters, now that you are a convict in America? I am sorry that you can no longer combat the slightly red-tinged Communists and serve your religious hypocrites and harlots' chief in Rome and his harlot-nests, called cloisters. Why do you not appeal to your friend [REDACTED] and his criminal band, the Christian Front? I have discovered that the Red Communists make better American citizens than the louts who are the fools of the big swine in Rome, the so-called Pope. In conclusion, I can tell you, Mr. Fritz Kuhn, that the men, whom you have persecuted and who are called Reds, lead an honest life and provide for their wives and children. They do not travel around the country with a golden (darling" and leave their wives and children in want as you did, my big fellow-countryman from Bavaria. Now, Fritz, since you happen to be twenty years younger than I am, and you have plenty of time to study the present political situation, I advise you to study the passages of the Bible which refer to this present political situation. Perhaps it will enlighten you. And when you get out of prison, you will learn how to respect the rights of the Red Worker. Fritz, have them give you a German or an English Bible and study the 5th Chapter of St. James (in German, St. Sacher Jakobi), the 23rd Chapter of Matthew, the Revelation of St. John from the 17th to the 19th Chapters. Learn it all by heart and you will be an honest man.

RE: FRITZ KUHN
Perjury

Dear Sir:

An examination of the correspondence directed to FRITZ KUHN at the Sing Sing Prison, which correspondence had been turned over to Special Agent [redacted] discloses that it was mostly letters expressing good wishes to KUHN, particularly at the Christmas Season. There were three letters, one on the letterhead of the Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter, dated December 22, 1939, one on the letterhead of the Youth Division of the German American Bund, dated December 20, 1939 and one on a prepared form, directed, "To our revered leader, Fritz Kuhn", dated Christmas, 1939, which contained longhand signatures of various individuals, some of which appear on more than one letter. These are the longhand signatures of [redacted]

b7C

There are two letters dated January 15, 1940, one over the signature of [redacted] directed to KUHN saying that [redacted] would like to visit him at his earliest convenience, and the other over the signature of [redacted] [redacted] would like to visit him at his earliest convenience. These letters give the address of [redacted] and of [redacted]

There is a post card greeting from [redacted] of the National Gentile League, 2207 K Street, N. W. Washington, D. C.

postmarked at Newark, New Jersey, January 8, 1940 but contains no address or full name. It makes vague references to [] of

[] It also mentions [] who it states, had just obtained employment at what is referred to as the Patterson Air Works. This may have reference to the Wright Aeronautical Company plant at Patterson, New Jersey, and copies of this letter are being furnished the Newark Office for its information in connection with this possibility. The writer also mentions having seen the crew of some ship which is not identified at the picnic grounds of Springfield, New Jersey.

There is a poem from [] who at the top of the sheet on which the poem is printed, expresses his admiration for KUHN and pledges his loyalty.

There is a card which is written by [] in which the latter expresses complete satisfaction in the fact that KUHN is in jail where he states he belongs. The writer indicates that he is angry that KUHN and his Nazi and Communist friends should smear the fair name of the loyal German-American. b7C

The New York Office will give consideration to the advisability of interviewing this individual for any information he may have concerning the activities of FRITZ KUHN and the GERMAN-AMERICAN BUND.

There is a letter from a man named [] who wants to commit a proposition to KUHN to make money out of horse racing.

There is a letter dated December 21, 1939 from [] In view of [] former importance in the movement, this letter is set out in full:

"The case of [] is settled as far as I am concerned. This you announced in answer to question put to you by delegates of the Convention of 1938. The fact that I remained silent for sixteen months was used by you to represent me as a coward. You misunderstood the reason for my silence, but I was always aware that this case would be opened again by me as soon as you passed from public life. Since you are enjoying at the present time an involuntary vacation in the Jew state prison, I am compelled to postpone the cleansing of this matter until you are released. Be assured, Herr Kuhn, that I am not happy that you are in prison but I was convinced by the trial that you willingly allowed falsifications and accusations to be arrayed against you. Furthermore I am convinced that the bad manner in which the business of the Bund was conducted supplied Attorney Dewey and Jewish assistant much welcomed material with which to conduct a case against you. And secondly, the court process as well as your utterances committed the entire Bund.

I must also doubt that your so called wonderful connections with the weaker sex (as you thus choose to refresh yourself) provided the Bund with advantages and in the case of the last two, I would emphatically deny it.

That a nine times divorced woman (five times because of adultery and three of these with a Jew) could provided the Bund with good connections; that the midnight visits of this woman to the hotel room of these heroes and a payment of a $60 doctor bill out of the Bund fund could be construed by you to be advantageous to the Bund is more than I can see. But all of this has nothing to do with my accusation against you.

You and your noble friend [redacted] smeared my name and then denied me the right to defend myself. Even the pack of Hebrews in New York gave you that right. The fact that I allowed this injustice to continue is because I didn't want the opponents of the Bund to know that internal contention existed in the Bund. To the joy of Israel we have ourselves exposed the Bund. The contemptual manner in which you have betrayed the trust of the thousands of sacrificing Germans in this country defies any description. I just want to remind you of this.

In Chicago in September 1937 you spoke of your good relationships to the U. S. Secret Police (G-Men) and the forth coming arming of the whole orderly service. (O. D.)

You spoke on July 24, 1938 of a well-developed plan of a confirmed homesteading of German-Americans and that the U. S. Housing Administration had promised 100,000 acres of land for this purpose.

You talked in bombastic words to your simple and harmless followers of how German patents have been offered you for exploitations in America. You talked of factories to be built to employ German-Americans, etc.

I'll not mentioned how you lied about your important relations in Germany. This is a chapter for itself and I hope to be able to refer to it later. You know, Herr Kuhn, that I could easily have had you placed behind bars. Had I done this I might have spared myself long days of deprivation and poverty. Also I could have perhaps prevented the attempt which is now being made to deprive me of my American Citizenship.

You always were as eager to quote Martin Luther that the Jew is the master of lies. The Jews in this respect have nothing on you. Your tempestuous bragging has cost us the good will of our new home country. You think the Jews are the only people who are glad you're in prison. Just remember that you are getting all that you deserve."

Two copies of this letter are being forwarded to the Chicago Office and it is suggested that that office consider the advisability of reinterviewing [redacted] to ascertain what he had in mind when he mentioned that he might have been able to place FRITZ KUHN behind bars. It is possible that if his citizenship is really threatened, [redacted] might be inclined to disclose additional information concerning KUHN and his operation of the German-American Bund and his other activities as they are known to [redacted]

b7C

The various letters mentioned above are being maintained in the file of this office together with a number of other letters which proved to be of absolutely no interest whatsoever. Among these are some that are insulting and some that are obscene. There is also a Christmas card bearing the return address of [redacted] whose address is given as [redacted]. The card expresses Christmas and New Year greetings to KUHN and contains the signatures of a large number of persons which are set out below.

[REDACTED]

No activity will be taken as to the various persons named but the names are being indexed in the files of the New York Office for possible future reference. The translations of these letters were made by Special Agent [REDACTED]

March 29, 1942

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. D. M. LADD

Re: Pearson and Allen Broadcast;
March 29, 1942

b7C

All remarks made by Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen on their broadcast for March 29, 1942, were general in nature, relating to the War activities, with no specific mention of the FBI. They did remark, however, that the Justice Department will soon revoke the American citizenship of Fritz Kuhn, the imprisoned bund leader.

I brought this to the attention of [redacted] who advised that he had no knowledge of any action of this nature as related to Fritz Kuhn. He stated, however, that recently the Department had publicly announced its intentions to revoke the citizenship of undesirable American citizens; that, to assist in this program, the FBI had been requested to obtain for the Department, a list of from thirty to thirty-five in each judicial district throughout the United States who might be considered under this project. He advised that the Field had been requested by teletype to furnish the Bureau by Monday, March 30, 1942, the names of such persons as they felt would be fit subjects for denaturalization. [redacted] advised no names had been given by the Department when referring to this contemplated procedure.

In making this known to [redacted] he advised me that the Department had, from all indications, been studying such a general plan for some time, but that nothing had been made known except that recently publicized by the press. [redacted] likewise advised me telephonically that he had no knowledge as to this action being taken against Fritz Kuhn.

MEMORANDUM FOR ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL
WENDELL BERGE

RE: FRITZ JULIUS KUHN
SOUTHERN JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

The following information is submitted for your consideration for the denaturalization proceedings of Fritz Julius Kuhn of the Southern Judicial District of New York.

Fritz Julius Kuhn, who is presently incarcerated at Sing Sing Prison, which is within the Southern District of New York, was born in Munich, Germany on May 15, 1896, and immigrated from Laredo, Mexico via the International Bridge. His last foreign residence was Mexico City and he arrived at Laredo, Texas on May 19, 1928. Kuhn filed his declaration of intention to become a United States citizen in the United States Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, at Detroit, Michigan, on December 6, 1928. He petitioned for citizenship in the same court on June 28, 1934, and was admitted to citizenship by this court on December 3, 1934.

He was formerly the head of the German-American Bund, having been elected to that position on December 1, 1937. During the World War he was a Lieutenant in a Machine Gun Detachment of the German Army. He became a Doctor of Chemistry in 1922, and after coming to the United States was employed for a time with the Ford Motor Company as a chemist. He was discharged from this position with no reason given. After becoming head of the Bund, the German Government issued an order that German Nationals in the United States could not be members of the Bund or its Prospective Citizens League. Kuhn, as leader, disregarded this order, and refused for a time to ask German citizens to resign their membership.

r. Tolson The German-American Bund had its origin first in the "Teutonia Society" formed on October 12, 1924. This grew into the League of the Friends of the New Germany, founded on June 30, 1933. The Bund itself was actually founded on June 3, 1936, and had its headquarters in New York City.

r. Ladd In August, 1937, Julius Hochfelder, then of 150 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York, submitted to the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, 15 bound files containing newspaper articles and matters of a related nature, together with a list he termed "Factual Findings" and "Legal Reasons" for the support of his contention that Kuhn's citizenship should be revoked. This material was reviewed by the Legal Branch of the Bureau of Immigration and Naturalization, which Branch found that most of the material submitted was irrelevant but did make some suggestions for investigation based upon material submitted by Hochfelder. Hochfelder brought action in the Court of Federal Claims.

Judge Hohn W. Chaney, New York City, who heard arguments on October 29, 1937, and the matter was dismissed by this Court.

The points urged by Hochfelder were briefly:

1. That Kuhn is an intimate friend of Hitler, and an ex-machine gunner in the German army.
2. That Kuhn came to the United States to strengthen the Nazi program, and to work in the interests of a greater Germany.
3. That Kuhn heads the German-American Bund to represent Hitler in America.
4. That many local leaders of the Bund were displeasing to this Government, and were recalled by Hitler, and actually left.
5. That Hans Spanknoebel came here from Germany and acted as an Espionage Agent without the knowledge of this government.
6. That Spanknoebel fled after indictment to Germany.
7. That Kuhn is the successor of Spanknoebel.
8. That Kuhn is the Editor of Der Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter, official organ of the German-American Bund.
9. That this paper prints material from Germany which is not only un-American, but insulting to certain officials of the American Government.
10. That Kuhn came here for the purpose of serving Germany and in pursuance thereof has enlisted native and naturalized Americans and aliens for military service in Germany.
11. That Kuhn invited "Young German Men" to enlist in a Regiment of the National Guard of the State of New York, which service would be in lieu of service in Germany.
12. That Kuhn dresses in the uniform of an officer of the German army.
13. That Kuhn invites Germans and Americans to join his Bund for the purpose of undermining our Constitution, and to propagate Nazi ideas.
14. That Kuhn has collected moneys in America which he has delivered to Hitler for the German army and Relief Fund.

15. That in August, 1936, Kuhn and other members of the Bund paraded for Hitler in Hanover, Germany, and that Kuhn not only was dressed in the uniform of an officer of the German army, but took some form of an oath to support Germany.
16. That Kuhn received more than 80,000 enlistment papers to be signed by members of the Bund for military and labor service in Germany.
17. That Kuhn supervised the execution of the enlistment papers.
18. That one of these enlistment papers is in the possession of the former McCormack-Dickstein Committee.
19. That one copy of the enlistment paper is filed with Henry B. Hazard, Assistant to the Acting Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.
20. That Kuhn and the Bund maintain camps where military drill is taught, where allegiance to Hitler is sworn and where training in weapons is given.
21. That since the Bund is not chartered by law to engage in such military activities, it is acting unlawfully.
22. Not included in Hochfelder's Brief.
23. That Kuhn has conferred with members of the German Embassy re the operation and purpose of the Bund.
24. That for the above reasons Kuhn obtained his naturalization by fraud.

Reinhold Spitz, a former resident of Munich, Germany, known to Fritz Kuhn practically all of the latter's life, has deposed that he conducted a clothing business in Munich, Germany; that while Kuhn was attending the University in Munich and while Kuhn was about 24 or 25 years of age, the latter stole goods, merchandise and wares at the University, and being convicted thereof, was sentenced to serve four months in prison; that after Kuhn was released from prison, the father of Kuhn prevailed upon Spitz to employ Kuhn to rehabilitate him in society; that Spitz did give Kuhn employment; that within eight weeks of this employment Spitz found Kuhn had stolen wares and merchandise valued at about 3,000 marks; that upon the pleadings of Kuhn's father, Spitz did not prosecute charges, but enabled Kuhn to flee to Mexico.

It should be noted at this time that considerable investigation has been conducted by this Bureau to determine the verification of Spitz' charges with negative results. In this same regard, an attempt was made by the Department to secure Kuhn's criminal record from the German authorities. However, German authorities flatly refused to furnish Kuhn's record stating that they did not furnish foreign authorities with information from the criminal register in such cases where German citizens are concerned, the naturalization of whom abroad would not be in the interest of Germany.

Kuhn's possible insincerity in obtaining his American citizenship may be measured by the fact that he devoted his entire time to the work of the Bund among whose principles were:

"Vigorous anti-Semitism; attack upon the Anti-Nazi boycott of German Goods entering America; adoption of the Nazi slogan, 'The Common Good before Private Gain'; 'Defense of Aryan Culture'; '—to build a great American Movement of Liberation under the Swastika, the Common Symbol of the Defenders of Aryan Nationalism—'; '—to combat all atrocity and boycott propaganda, base defamation, distortion of news, malicious lies—'; 'to defend our Right to cherish the German Language and German Customs and our Right and Duty to defend the good name of all things German'; 'American-Germans are strongly under the long distance influence of the German Reich—'; 'Youth Groups of the American-German League are a real accomplishment for Germanism'; 'The idea must be recognized: maintenance of racial Germanism (in America) at any price'; 'The mission which our Camp has to fulfill is a holy one just as every service in the interest of our German racial idea is a holy and noble one. We, the living generation who have called into life this enterprise, consecrate this work to the service of the German racial idea in America—'; in speaking of Camps the Bund declared, 'It is there where they (youth) shall be strengthened and confirmed in national socialism so that they will be conscious of the role which has been assigned to them as the future carriers of German racial ideas in America. Hereby we give you (Camp Nordland) to your holy mission. We consecrate you as a little piece of German soil in America, as a sample of our motto: 'Obligated to America, tied to Germany'; 'And thus the German human being is and remains our racial comrade regardless of citizenship papers which he may own in any country'; the August 18, 1938, issue of the Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter, official organ of the German-American Bund carried the following - 'One Volkstum, one Bund, one Fuehrer.'"

On July 20, 1940, [redacted] New York [redacted] furnished to a Special Agent of this Bureau a seven page copy of a speech which was delivered in the German language by Fritz Kuhn on October 8, 1935. In this speech Kuhn states, "We are friends of Germany, not because it is a propitious opportunity, but because it is innermost in our hearts". Kuhn further states in this speech, "We are heart and soul for our Germany, yesterday, today and tomorrow. We stand for our National Socialist Germany because we obtain from it the powers which we need for our struggle for the maintenance of the true German cause in the U. S. A. No one can influence us and even if we have bitter resentment in our hearts because of the injustice which is inflicted upon us from the German side, we shall always intercede in favor of the country of our fathers and its leader. Germany is also our Germany and we intend to remain and be its most loyal sons."

"Hail to you, dear co-workers in our common struggle and destiny."

A memorandum dated May 13, 1939 concerning the subject of this case was furnished to the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice and it should be noted that this memorandum quite completely covered all the information pertaining to Kuhn and the activities of the German-American Bund which were in the possession of this Bureau at that time. Since the submission of the memorandum dated May 13, 1939, all information concerning Fritz Kuhn and the German-American Bund has been submitted currently to the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice. It should be further noted that Fritz Kuhn is incarcerated in the Sing Sing Prison due to his having been convicted on December 6, 1939 by the State Court of New York for the crime of embassament for which crime he was sentenced to a term of 2½ years to 5 years.

son's reply to the question, "Why don't you get married?" is: "I'm too busy." He admits that "there is anything wrong with marriage, but I believe in love. Marriage and love have his beams, but he hasn't got round to them yet, that's all. He hasn't needed for inspiration so far, but who knows when he will?" Tyrone Power are either "mad" about one another and romance is cooling, according to which paper you read today. Tyrone says little and lets people talk. After all, he has plenty of time.

He agrees that no one should marry unless he feels he is the one and only love. But he indirectly denies that he is round sizing up the girls he knew and trying to decide not he should marry one of them. He feels, as Robert Taylor's studio does, that marriage is a lot better as a career.

Good for Richard Greene, Twentieth Century's new star. At present, this young scion of an English family is reported to be "romancing" alternately with Sonja Henie and for the good of their pictures. He isn't absorbed enough Hollywood atmosphere yet to be intelligent" on any Hollywood topic.

He is to agree with the Frenchman who declares that perfection in everything including marriage, and so disappointed. Personally, he thinks perfection would be won't be looking for that.

Another young Britisher, is not going to marry. He is free, and it suits him better to stay single. He may be telling the truth, so far as he knows, but he is George, because George is not going to marry. He comes along.

They say that, they usually arrive at church, wearing a nervous smile and worrying about what the best man will say with the ring—before too long.

He insists that marriage is definitely on his schedule. He swears; it's the girls who seem reluctant. Anyway, he tries some one else. He grins as he says it.

He has been rumored engaged so often that it's sure he still isn't married. He likes girls and goes out some day. That dear old some day. He agrees that a man must fight out his own way—own career—and no amount of love can help him, if he is for doing it.

He married because the good old pocketbook never fails enough when the right girl happened to be on hand. He says that the girl who seemed right to him didn't feel the right moment. One of these days, he'll land with the right girl and a full pocketbook, and then married!

a child becomes independent enough to begin to want to take of his self.

son is 3 years old," writes A. E. P. "and while we have a nice yard for him to play in, we can't induce other children to play with him. They all play on the street. I have warned Sonny about the dangers of the street but have let him go out to play on the sidewalk. I have watched him closely and until lately he has stayed on the sidewalk very well. Lately he has begun to venture out into the street.

"The street is dangerous and I have brought him in and made him stay in the yard. But should I deny him the companionship of children? He is the kind of child who hates to play alone. I will appreciate your help in charting my future course."

There should be no compromise upon this question. A 3-year-old cannot play in the street safely, so he cannot play in the street at all—ever. If you trust him on the sidewalk, watch him and bring him in the house the very moment he leaves it.

Fix up the yard so other children will be attracted. A swing, a teeter-board, something upon which to climb, a parallel bar or trapeze rings, these are the things which keep boys interested.

Every individual who drives a car knows the deadly peril of children who play in the streets. They know, as well, the children's apparent indifference to it. I saw a 7-year-old sitting in the middle of a hilly, narrow street, repairing a toy. Boys on busy streets ride their bicycles tandem fashion, letting the motorist worry about hitting them.

Since children obviously expect to be protected by adults, adults have to accept the responsibility. This means not only drivers but parents. To do otherwise is to woo disaster.

By reference from the Director's Office this afternoon at 2:05 p.m., [redacted] the New York Daily News called. She heard the rumor that Fritz Kuhn, former Bund leader in New York, had been traded for some American and had gone back to Germany on the S. S. Drottingham.

After checking with Mr. Ladd, I told [redacted] that we had nothing to indicate he had gone back to Germany and in fact, we understood that he was still in the New York State Penitentiary on the embezzlement charge resulting in his conviction on Long Island several years ago.

[redacted] stated she appreciated this help.

MEMORANDUM for

I am enclosing herewith for your information a memorandum which has been prepared in this office concerning a newspaper article entitled "Fritz Kuhn, the Henlein of America." The original article was printed in the Swiss newspaper Schweizer Wochenpost on June 19, 1939, and later reproduced in the Chicago edition of the Deutscher Weckruf under Beobachter and the Free American, apparently purposely distorted in size in order to convey the impression that the original article was in reality a front-page spread.

MEMORANDUM for the Files.

January 7, 1943

Subject: Fritz Kuhn the Henlein of America

On page 3 of the Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter and the Free American, Chicago edition, dated August 31, 1939, appears a photostatic copy of an article from the Schweizer Wochenpost, Bern, June 19, 1939, under the title "Fritz Kuhn the Henlein of America". Above this reprint is the following introduction in large type by the editors of the Bund paper:

"The German-American Bund in European light.

"The effectiveness of the German-American Bund is being followed with great interest also in the various countries of Europe. The Weckruf carries below for its readers a photostatic reproduction of an article which appeared in the Schweizer Wochenpost."

Among the papers removed by this office from the headquarters of the German-American Bund in New York, was a clipping which would appear to be the original from the Swiss paper from which the reproduction was made. Attached to this clipping was the masthead of the Swiss paper. On the clipping is the following marginal notation in pencil: "56³⁰/₂ 6¹/₂ inch flush on sides". An identical notation, also in pencil, appears on the masthead.

Whereas the reproduction in the Bund paper shows the article in question as a full front-page spread in the Swiss paper, the clipping and the actual length of the masthead show clearly that in making the reproduction the masthead was reduced to the width of the article in order to create this impression deliberately.

Also found among these papers was a photographic reproduction of this article as it appeared in the Bund paper, but somewhat larger in size and printed on fine gloss paper. This would seem to indicate that this article may have been distributed by the Bund also as a photographic copy.

The original article reads in translation as follows:

FRITZ KUHN, THE HENLEIN OF AMERICA

The German-American Bund, Its Organization and Its Leader

8,000--10,000 Uniformed Storm Troops - The Duel Kuhn-Dewey
(Special Despatch from the United Press)

It is reported from New York: The German-American Bund which attracted public attention, even more than heretofore, as a result of the recent arrest of its Fuehrer,

ENCLOSURE

Fritz Kuhn, holds a special position among the radical organizations in the United States of America in view of the fact that it is generally regarded as the organization which places the racial problem in the foreground. All similar organizations have one thing in common, namely, that they take "Americanism" as their basis and declare to be unconditionally loyal to the Constitution of the U.S.A. Moreover, the preponderant majority of such organizations is anti-Communist and anti-Semitic. Among these, Fritz Kuhn's Bund plays the leading part; in any case it is one of the most powerful organizations. In 1937 Kuhn reported to a government official charged with the investigation of its activities that the Bund numbered 8,299 members. Since then he has estimated the membership of his organization, in private conversation, at more than 200,000, and this figure is generally regarded as more correct.

65 Local Groups in New York

In support of this claim it should be pointed out that even at the beginning of 1938, 58 local groups of the Bund existed in the New York area. Following the annexation of Austria, their number increased to 65. The Bund publishes a juvenile periodical as well as its own newspapers in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, and Los Angeles. Moreover, the Bund enjoys the active support of a large number of German-American newspapers which are not owned by it. In addition it maintains approximately twenty-five summer camps, and has at its disposal a large number of experienced public speakers. The number of its uniformed Storm Troops totals 8,000-10,000. However, owing to the laws introduced in the separate States of the Union against the activity of political organizations this number will probably be reduced considerably in the following months. For instance, the parliament of the State of New York passed a law, which has already been signed by Governor Lehmann, prohibiting the wearing at public meetings of uniforms resembling those of foreign countries. Similar legislation is pending in California and various other States of the Union.

Fritz Kuhn, the Fuehrer of the Bund, owes his rapid rise to his ability to organize. He can be described as a steady, conscientious worker rather than as a genius, and his friends declare that his greatest advantage lies in his methodical mind.

Kuhn is now 43 years old. He came to the United States from Germany in 1923, obtained a position as chemist with Ford, and became naturalized in 1934.

The officials of the office of the District Attorney of the State of New York described him as a person who exerts great power of attraction upon women, and who has a large number of admirers among the feminine sex. If Kuhn should be found guilty of larceny and forgery with which he is charged, the maximum sentence would be fifty years in jail. However, the Fuehrer of the Bund seems to be expecting with confidence that the New York District Attorney, Dewey, will not succeed in obtaining a verdict of guilty. When Kuhn was arrested on the charge of having stolen $14,548.59 from his organization, he laughed and declared that this accusation was "a bunch of nonsense". He was subsequently released on $5,000 bail, and is now expecting trial.

ALIEN ENEMY CONTROL

Dear Sir:

~~DEFERRED RECORDING~~
Assistant United States Attorney, Lulu Bender, Southern District of New York, today advised that FRITZ KUHN could be taken into custody on Presidential Warrant since this office was officially advised by the New York State Parole authorities that KUHN would be released to Federal custody. He stated that this case could be handled in the usual manner and that there would be no objection to having KUHN brought from Dannemora Prison to Ellis Island by the Immigration authorities.

Special Agent [] of the Albany Office telephonically informed Assistant Special Agent in Charge H. M. Kimball that the Albany Office had received word from the New York State authorities that KUHN would be released to Federal authorities under Presidential Warrant when desired. [] advised that the New York Office would make arrangements with the Immigration authorities at Ellis Island to have FRITZ KUHN brought from Dannemora Prison to Ellis Island the early part of next week.

G. S. GERMAN, Inspector in Charge, Parole Division, Ellis Island, telephonically advised that he would arrange to have inspectors from his office take KUHN to Ellis Island on June 21st, 1943. When KUHN is brought to Ellis Island, the New York Office will arrange to have him photographed and fingerprinted as an enemy alien.

Assistant Special Agent in Charge Kimball telephonically informed Supervisor [] at the Bureau of the proposed arrangements.

At the above time, ASAC Harry Kimball called from New York and advised Supervisor [] during my absence that at approximately 3:00 PM, the New York State Parole Board paroled Fritz Kuhn "for internment." [] called attention to the fact that a Presidential warrant has been lodged against Kuhn at Dannemora Prison in New York pending his parole or release.

[] stated the press has started to call the NY and Albany Offices and he requested advice from the Bureau as to what steps the Bureau desired to take with regard to Kuhn in view of this development. It is pointed out that Kuhn was incarcerated at Dannemora Prison for embezzlement of funds of the German-American Bund and subsequent to his incarceration he was denaturalized and in addition, of course, the Presidential warrant mentioned above was issued in order to take him into custody as a dangerous enemy alien.

[] requested advice as to whether the Bureau desires to have Bureau Agents take Kuhn into custody and deliver him to the Immigration authorities at Ellis Island, or whether this action should be taken by the Immigration authorities.

ACTION: At 4:30 PM I contacted [] stating that this situation should be immediately discussed with the USA at NY and it should be determined from him if he desires to have Bureau Agents take Kuhn into custody and deliver him to Ellis Island or whether he feels that the matter is one to be handled by the Immigration authorities and desires that those authorities take Kuhn into custody. With reference to press inquiries, [] was instructed to make no comment to the press until after Kuhn is taken into custody and that if the Agents are requested by the USA to take this action, after Kuhn has been taken into custody appropriate inquiries should be made of Mr. Nichols' office with reference to any press release.

Reference is made to my memorandum of June 19th requesting you to take custody of the above-named alien enemy and transport him to Ellis Island. Since the time of writing that memorandum, I have been orally advised by [redacted] of your Bureau that this apprehension is believed to be one which the Immigration and Naturalization Service should make. b7C

The Immigration and Naturalization Service feels that it is not within its jurisdiction to make any apprehensions under Presidential warrants, and states that this position is one which your Bureau has taken in past instances where the problems arose. Accordingly, it is believed that Kuhn should be apprehended by your Bureau.

The matter of getting this subject to Ellis Island quickly is one of considerable importance owing to the publicity attendant upon the case. It would be appreciated if every effort would be made to expedite his apprehension and transfer.

Judge BRIGHT, in his opinion, stated that the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND was formed "for German purposes and controlled in thought, and a large part in action by Germany", and further, that "the aims and purposes of the Bund in the respects mentioned were un-American and subversive". In regard to KUHN personally, he held that "before and after he became a citizen he was irretrievably bound to National Socialism and Germany, to the advancement of German political, racial, and economic thought, propaganda and theories in this country." Pertinent part of opinion incorporated in this report. Detainer placed against KUHN at Clinton Prison, Dannemora, New York. DETAILS:

At New York City:

The purpose of this report is to incorporate into case file the personal history and activities of Subject. It might be noted that KUHN, upon numerous occasions was interviewed by agents of the Bureau, but invariably these interviews were confined to matters regarding the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND and subsidiary organizations, and had little or nothing to do with the personal life of KUHN.

KUHN was born May 18, 1896, in Munich, Germany, and attended a primary school and later a high school or gymnasium. During his attendance at the gymnasium in Munich, KUHN studied chemistry and related subjects. In 1924, KUHN emigrated to Mexico and resided in such country until 1928. He entered the United States May 19, 1928, through the port of New York. He subsequently procured employment at the Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, Michigan, from August 5, 1928, to December 23, 1929, as a technician in the laboratory department. The records of the hospital contain a notation that KUHN was "laid off because of slow hospital work and laboratory work". Another position was obtained with the Stafford Laboratory, which he takes to date. The employment record of the hospital reflected that KUHN, or FRED KUHN as he was known at the hospital, resided at 7527 Dunedin Street, Detroit, Michigan.

KUHN was naturalized December 3, 1934, in Detroit, Michigan. During this period of time he was a member of the Detroit group of the FRIENDS OF NEW GERMANY. In connection with the personal history of KUHN, it might be noted that in the September 26, 1935 issue of the DEUTSCHER WECKRUF UND BOEBACHTER, there was carried the following article regarding the personal history of Subject, who at the time of the issue of such publication was a Middle Western District Leader of the FRIENDS OF THE NEW GERMANY. The article is as follows:

" FRITZ KUHN, MIDDLE WEST DISTRICT LEADER

Local Group Leader of Detroit, Mich.

The successors of FRITZ GISSIBL as the District Leader in the Middle West, FRITZ KUHN, was born on May 18, 1896, in Munich, attended the Volkschule and Oberrealschule there and fulfilled his military duty in the Bavarian Life Guards of Munich.

He spent the years 1914 - 1918 at the front and was promoted to Lieutenant of the Reserves in his old regime. As leader of the machine gun detachment and in the Alpine Corps he distinguished himself on the French, Italian, Serbian, and Rumanian fronts. He was wounded three times.

After the war, he took up the study of chemistry in Munich and passed his state examination in 1922.

In 1919, he fought in the Epp Voluntary Corps against the traitorous politics, and helped to free his fatherland from the terror of Aeisner. Also, he took an active part in the Oberland Volunteer Corps and entered the party in 1921, in which he worked directly under Rehner.

When on November 9, 1923, in front of the Feldherrnhalle the Bavarian State Police fired upon the National Socialists marching under the leadership of Hitler and Ludendorff, KUHN was in this parade.

In 1924, he emigrated to Mexico and came in 1928 to the United States. He has belonged to the Bund since its beginning, and has lead the Detroit, Michigan, local group for two years. "

In an interview with agents of the New York Field Division, KUHN related that he joined the FRIENDS OF NEW GERMANY in or about November, 1934, in Detroit. In July, 1935, he became unit leader of the Detroit group, and the following September succeeded to the post of Mid-Western Department Leader of the organization. In January, 1936, KUHN related he was appointed national leader of the FRIENDS OF THE NEW GERMANY, which organization the following May became known as the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND.

In July, 1936, KUHN, with approximately 250 other members of the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND sailed on the SS New York for Germany. The express purpose of this trip was to visit the Olympic games and to make a tour of Germany. It was during this tour, namely about July 26, 1936, that KUHN and various other members of the O.D. or Uniform Group of the German American Bund met and passed in review in front of the Chancellory in Berlin. The group was reviewed by Chancellor Hitler and Marshal Goering, and shortly thereafter FRITZ KUHN, [redacted] were received by Chancellor Hitler who chattered briefly about their trip, the Olympic games, etc.. The other members of the group, which were afforded a reception by Hitler, were likewise officials of the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND. KUHN insists that the conversation was entirely social in character and that the Bund as an organization was not mentioned or discussed in the short conversation with Chancellor HITLER. At such time, however, KUHN presented HITLER with the "Golden Book" consisting of signatures of various well wishers in the United States, and the sum of $2300. donated by Bund members and such well wishers in the United States. KUHN also related that he attended the Olympic games and during the games was introduced to [redacted] the GERMAN LABOR FRONT. He also related that during this trip he attended the Party Congress of the N.S.D.A.P. in Nuremburg, Germany. KUHN denied that he attended the Party Congress as a member of the N.S.D.A.P., but only as a spectator. During this trip, he also contacted or attempted to contact [redacted] N.S.D.A.P. units in foreign countries, [redacted] with a view, according to KUHN, of obtaining a clarification of the status of the D.A.B. or GERMAN AMERICAN VOCATIONAL LEAGUE in the United States. b7C

A review of the convention minutes of the 1938 convention of the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND held in the Turn Halle, New York City on September 3, 4, and 5, 1938, reflects various statements by Subject indicating a pro-National Socialistic viewpoint, at variance with the American concept of democracy. In one part of the speech to the delegation, KUHN discusses his 1938 trip to Germany, and states as follows:

" At the end of the year came the time, when it was requested from the German Government that the German citizens should withdraw from our organization. Discussions concerning this were carried on back and forth, in what manner the German citizen might be able to join the conflict in this country. Thus even work was done by various consulates with threats and the remaining situation in German groups became always more uncertain. In February of this year I suddenly decided to go abroad. Comrades, concerning this trip to Germany I can not and may not say and report very much. Here I must absolutely request your confidence. I tell you only this much, that had my trip been without success, or had I unfavorable reports to make, I would not be standing before you today, but would have withdrawn my consistency. One thing I might, however, say that you can understand some things more easily. I was reproached naturally with some things. Do you recall, for instance, that we sent Adolf Hitler a telegram from the last convention? I was asked about it: 'How can you as an American organization openly send a telegram of congratulation to the Fuehrer, etc.?' I need also not tell you with whom I have spoken; whom I went to visit....All that is my affair and likewise to be trusted to me by you. Either a confidence exists which gives me free action, or no such confidence exists, in which event you have the opportunity today to deprive me of this trust. At all events I can give you the assurance that over there I procured a clarification of the situation in this country."

The minutes also reflect a statement by KUHN to the effect that a denial of the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND in Germany would have caused him to withdraw as leader of the organization. The particular parts of the minutes concerning this matter are as follows:

" However, all this comes only from one single place, which cannot tolerate us, and which cannot tolerate anything since the existence of the Bund and this is the A.O. (Auslands Organization). If I had declared myself prepared to be a puppet, and to work as a sham leader of the A.O., only to carry out their instructions unreservedly, perhaps I too would have become a love-child of the A.O. I stand, however, on the point of view that we should be and should remain as an American organization, for as a non-citizen one cannot engage in any politics and no country on earth would drop. I agree that in the first two weeks I almost lost my courage and the thought came to me to drop the entire work. I give you my word of honor that a denial of our organization in Germany would have caused me to stand before you today and to state: 'I can no longer undertake the responsibility of the continuing leadership of the Bund and I herewith withdraw.' Then you would have perceived yourself that the continuance of the Bund would be useless. "

" Then, however, I asserted myself and defended the Bund with entire success as never before. Of course, they began to be amazed, since all my assertions I could verify readily. As I already said, the only hindering situation today is the A.O. with Messrs. Bohle and Grothe at the top. The grounds are known to you, we can not, in fact as American citizens possibly accept in the long run instructions from a German place and conceal them from the American Government and their spies. It is quite clear, and I hope that you all understand me correctly, that the Bund only then can do and attain something worth mentioning, if it keeps itself purely American in every respect."

During the course of the convention, the question came up of the advisability of continuing the German greeting, because Americans, otherwise friendly, objected to the Nazi salute. To this question, KUHN replied, according to the minutes,

" The direction of the Bund is settled firmly for all time. The question here is about external, practical things. Need I, perhaps, remind you, Henlein has no swastika flag and also gave no greeting but despite that, it was a Nazi organization. The means justify the end, everything we do must be done so that it will be of use to the movement."

On December 5, 1939, KUHN was sentenced to 2½ - 5 year term for grand larceny second degree, (and forgery, third degree. The sentence was imposed in General Session Court, New York County, New York City, and arose from KUHN'S embezzlement and misuse of the funds of the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND. Subsequent to the sentence, KUHN was first incarcerated at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York, and February 7, 1940, was transferred to Clinton Prison, Dannemora, New York. [redacted] related that the records reflected that KUHN has written no letters since his incarceration in Dannemore Prison. Supplementary records reflected that on January 30, 1942, [redacted]

[redacted] visited KUHN at Dannemora Prison, New York, at which time [redacted] listed his occupation as [redacted] by occupation.

On March 18, 1943, United States District Judge, JOHN J. BRIGHT, of the Southern District of New York, handed down a decision in the case entitled UNITED STATES OF AMERICA versus FRITZ JULIUS KUHN, et al., revoking FRITZ KUHN'S denaturalization certificate and ten other former members and officials of the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND. The proceedings were brought under Section 338 of the Nationality Act of 1940, Title 8 U.S.C.A., Section 738, to revoke the naturalization certificates of the various defendants "on the ground of fraud or on the ground that such order and certificate of naturalization were illegally procured". The complaint alleges that the various defendants, including Subject, fraudulently and illegally obtained their naturalization certificates in that at the time of procurement of same, the defendants were not attached to the principles of the Constitution, and had not renounced all allegiance to the German Reich, and that consequently when they took this oath of allegiance they had a mental reservation at that time,

In handing down his opinion revoking the certificates of FRITZ KUHN and others, Judge BRIGHT discussed the history and policies of the FRIENDS OF THE NEW GERMANY, and the successor organization the GERMAN AMERICAN BUND, and stated, "I feel bound to find from practically uncontradicted evidence that the Bund Friends of New Germany and the German American Bund were formed for German purposes and controlled in thought, and a large part in action, by Germany. They were the natural outgrowth of the organizations here which were directly associated with and furthered the National Socialist movement in Germany. Those organizations did what they could to bring Adolf Hitler and his theories to power in Germany. It is not to be believed that when he succeeded, the same organizations would abruptly abandon him and his ideas. They did not; they then transferred their activities to accomplish his aims and purposes here, still being governed and guided by the new German ruler." Another part of the opinion concludes as follows: "I feel entirely justified in finding that the aims and purposes of the Bund in the respects mentioned were un-American and subversive."

There is, in view of its importance, quoted hereafter that part of the opinion of Judge BRIGHT which deals with the Subject. It summarizes and covers the various items of evidence introduced against KUHN at the trial, in order to establish that he possessed a mental reservation at the time of taking the oath of allegiance to the United States. It is as follows:

FRITZ JULIUS KUHN

This defendant filed his petition for naturalization on June 28, 1934, and became a citizen on December 3, 1934. At the time of his naturalization, he was a leader of the Detroit unit of the Friends of New Germany. His answer does not deny any of the allegations of the petition, except that he alleges that the complaints against him were made after he became a citizen and are not proof that at the time of the oath he had any mental reservation; that while some of the statements of the complaint are undoubtedly true, others are misrepresented, and still others absolutely false - which, he does not say - except that he avers that he always expressed his belief and attachment to the principles of our Constitution and is ready to support the Constitution and laws against all enemies. He did not offer any proof upon the trial in contradiction of any of the evidence produced by the plaintiff. That evidence shows that he attended the annual convention of the Friends of New Germany in July 1934, at which that organization was pledged to further all of the aims of German Kultur so far as they are based on the principles of the National Socialistic world philosophy. He was in attendance at the 1935 convention, and he became national leader of the Friends of New Germany in December 1935, and continued as such and as national leader of the German American Bund until his conviction and imprisonment at the end of 1939. As such, in November, 1936, he organized a school under the leadership of Soverin Winterscheid, to teach National Socialism and the Nazi philosophies, to which school all unit leaders were expected to attend. He sent Winterscheid forth as a national speaker to teach those principles to the units all over the country, and at all times was actively engaged in disseminating that philosophy and all that it comprehended. The basis of that teaching was Mein Kampf, written by Adolf Hitler, and German history, the study and teaching being of history of National Socialism, the Nazi ideology and the social economics of that philosophy, based on the slogan "Ein Volk - that a German-born person is a German no matter where he may live, remains such, that his blood is thicker than water or citizenship, that his German stock comes first and citizenship is secondary; Ein Reich - one country, and that is Germany; and Ein Fuehrer - one leader, who should be Adolf Hitler. In the summer of 1936 he headed a delegation which went to Germany and presented to the Fuehrer a purse of $3,000. and a golden book signifying the loyalty of the Friends of New Germany to his movement. Upon his return he stated that the trip was a great success, for one reason at least, and that was that those participating could see the true bond which bound the Germans here to the homeland. He was told by Adolf Hitler to go back and continue the fight. As a result, he knew better than ever before the direction in which the Bund should go. As an organization bound to the German volk, it should engage in political activity favorable to the German fatherland. The German and American standpoints must be combined in all their considerations. He favored the election of a candidate opposing Mr. Roosevelt for the presidency, and when asked his reasons, stated that he had received instructions to that effect from Germany. He suggested that German nationals be members of the Prospective Citizens League in the Bund upon the theory that if they were not taken care of by the organization, they would become swallowed up in American life, and it might be impossible to win them back later to the German way of thinking and to his movement. He demanded the unceasing support of every Bund member for the carrying through of the Fuehrer or leadership principle, as the only indispensable guarantee of the strength of the movement. When war was obviously imminent, and had in fact already started in Europe, he directed that all local groups should call attention to absolute neutrality here, war against Jewish profiteering war mongers, combine to keep America out of the war, and particularly to refer to the non-payment of the war debts of the last war. Some of these statements would not be un-American, and are not a strange doctrine among our people. But these instructions, along with others to which reference has been made and will be made, show that in his mind Germany was always to be first and this country next. He urged a wider subscription and distribution of the Bund newspaper, published by the A.V. Publishing Company, of which he was president; and he admittedly assumed responsibility for whatever was published therein, whether he signed the article or not. He called it the main weapon of the Bund, its battle organ and mouthpiece. That newspaper taught and advocated National Socialism, that the new Reich would know only Germans holding their volkdom in high regard and sacred strength through the deep powers of the new German world philosophy, of wishing for nothing else than allegiance for allegiance, to strive to emulate the example of Adolf Hitler, the spiritual renewal and unification of the entire American Germandom into a strong political and economic community of volk obligated to America and bound to Germany. The direction of the movement was not American. It did not teach full allegiance to our laws and Constitution, or to this country, which his oath demanded. A divided allegiance could not suffice. U.S. v. Karmuth, 19 F. Supp. 581, 583. He telegraphed to Adolf Hitler shortly after the national convention of the organization in 1937; "In inextinguishable Volkish solidarity with the homeland, the fountain of all strength of volk German millions throughout the entire world"; and to the district leader of the foreign organization in Germany: "May the new collaboration of all Germans throughout the world contribute to the end that the common final goal for a German community of volk and destiny will soon be fulfilled." In 1938 he said that every country on earth needs the idea of National Socialism, and his newspaper in the same year, at about the time of the birthday of Adolf Hitler gave him a pledge of heart and of loyalty for the whole German volk - "This shall be a sacred oath to fulfill loyally the tasks which are confronting us in great present. The world will hear and history shall know it; the most glorious dream of German generations throughout the century, 'Ein Volk, Ein Reich, Ein Fuehrer' has through the power of the greatest German and the will of the entire volk, become a proud imperishable fact". At the time of the Bund convention in this year, he spoke of his second trip to Germany, gave his word of honor that if Germany had made any objection to the organization he would resign. His statement then made: "You may believe me if we interest ourselves in the politics of this country we are doing the greatest favor to our own homeland", is significant of his feelings. At that same convention he also said with reference to candidates for public office, that if the Bund supports them they must first of all promise to use their influence to keep America out of every European war under all circumstances, and that would be the greatest service that the Bund could do for Germany. These utterances and his other actions, in my judgment, clearly show that his effort was to place Germany and its interests first and those of our country second.

His speech on the aims of the Bund in May 1936 further demonstrates his adherence to the principles of National Socialism. While it redounds with many protestations of his duty to his adopted country, it is obvious that his heart and mind were in the forwarding of purposes for which the Bund clearly was organized and existed. There existed for him only the National Socialistic Germany - the German volk, its fuehrer, and the ideals to which he had given form, "are one - so inseparably one, that an acknowledgment of allegiance to Germandom can today have no other meaning than a profession of adherence to the Third Reich". His belief in the blood theory was there clearly shown - "The proposed racial amalgamation of which we hear so much always reverts to the lowest type . It will not benefit America, should the honest, forthright race-conscious German element be dissolved into a mongrel horde of citizens". "The Bund is American in its structure, and in its field of activity, but German in its thought and in its character . German American VolksBund is inspired with the National Socialist world philosophy", and was clearly against the "world melting pot" idea. His idea of being obligated to America and bound to Germany could not and did not bespeak a true and total allegiance. Both before and after he became a citizen he was irretrievably bound to National Socialism and Germany, to the advancement of German political, racial and economical thought, propaganda and theories in this country. He was opposed to the democratic way of life, to our assimilation of nationals of all countries for their and our betterment, and to the training of youth here to make them better American citizens. With this in mind he could not have taken, and did not take, his oath without a mental reservation. He did not entirely renounce his allegiance and fidelity to the German Reich, and he has not borne true faith and allegiance to the Constitution and laws of this country, and did not intend so to do at the time of his naturalization. Judgment will, therefore, go against him. "

It should be mentioned that in his capacity of national Bund leader, KUHN also functioned as President and national leader of various auxiliaries of the Bund, such as the D.K.V. and the ~~A.V.~~ Publishing Company. The A.V. Publishing Company was the organization publishing the official Bund newspaper, the Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter, an anti-Semitic, pro-Nazi publication. In his capacity of President of the D.K.V. or Deutscher Konsum Verband, strenuous efforts were made by the Bund to combat the boycott against German goods and to further the sale of German merchandise. A part of this campaign was directed against Jewish merchants in New York City. In this connection, it should be mentioned that the indices of the New York Field Division rebound with myriad references concerning KUHN and speeches and remarks made and allegedly made by him. These items are not being set out at this time, as it is believed that the essential points have been covered in Judge BRIGHT'S opinion.

Details of KUHN'S early life and residence in Mexico are lacking, and he will be interviewed in the immediate future and supplementary records obtained from the immigration authorities to rectify this condition.

The file of the United States Attorney, Southern District of New York, reflects that KUHN entered the United States May 19, 1928, through the port of New York, presumably under the Mexican immigration quota.

On June 18, 1943, Assistant United States Attorney JOHN C. HILLY of the Southern District of New York, advised the New York Field Division that Subject, on the same date, was placed on parole by action of the New York State Parole Board, and was presently being held in Clinton Prison, Dannemora, New York, under a detainer placed by the United States authorities, Southern District of New York, under the authority of a Presidential Warrant. Mr. HILLY related that the Presidential Warrant would be executed immediately following receipt of official notice of the action of the New York State Parole Board.

A review of this report reflects that information concerning the decision of Judge John J. MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: FRITZ JULIUS KUHN
ALIEN ENEMY CONTROL - G

This is to advise that Fritz Kuhn was taken into custody as an alien enemy by Bureau Agents on June 30, 1943, when he was released from Clinton Prison, Dannemora, New York.

The United States Attorney at New York City received a Presidential Warrant from the Department for the arrest of Fritz Kuhn on November 25, 1942. This warrant was received at the Bureau from the Department on November 26, 1942, and transmitted to the New York Field Division on December 3, 1942. Fritz Kuhn was denaturalized on June 1, 1943, at which time he was incarcerated in the Clinton Prison. A detainer was filed against Kuhn at the Clinton Prison by the United States Attorney's office at New York City. On June 19, 1943, the New York Field Division received information from the United States Attorney's office that Kuhn was going to be released from Clinton Prison and could be taken into custody as an alien enemy. The New York office contacted Mr. G. S. German, Inspector in Charge of Parole at Ellis Island, in order to effect arrangements for the Immigration Service to bring Kuhn to Ellis Island. Mr. German agreed to this procedure but later advised that the Immigration Authorities at Rouses Point, New York, would bring Kuhn to Ellis Island. However, on June 24, 1943, [redacted] of the Department called and requested the Bureau to serve the warrant on Kuhn, and he was advised that the Immigration Service usually serves a Presidential Warrant when the individual is already in the custody of another agency. [redacted] later called and advised that the Immigration Service refused to serve the warrant as the FBI had on occasions objected to the Immigration Service serving such warrants. The New York office was advised on June 26, 1943, of the decision of the Immigration Service, and they were instructed to determine the possibility of the U. S. Marshal transporting Kuhn, and if that office refused, then Special Agents of the New York Office should transfer Kuhn to Ellis Island. The New York Field Division contacted the U. S. Marshal's office and they advised that they could not move Kuhn without written authority.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. D. M. LADD

Re: Fritz Kuhn;
Denaturalization Proceedings

At the above time ASAC Olsen of the Albany Office telephoned, stating that on June 18th his office received inquiries from the press concerning the release of the subject from the State Prison at Dannemora, New York, and thereafter contacted the NY Office with reference to the Presidential warrant which was filed at the prison as a detainer against the subject in order that he could be taken into custody upon his parole or release and interned. Mr. Olsen stated that the subject is now ready to be released from the penitentiary and he requested advice as to what action the Albany Office should take with reference to turning the subject over to the Immigration authorities at Ellis Island.

I advised that Mr. Kimball of the NY Office had telephoned me concerning this matter on June 18, at which time he was instructed to immediately contact the USA at NY to determine whether he wanted the Bureau to take the subject into custody and transfer him to Ellis Island or if he felt that this was a matter to be handled by the Immigration authorities and to follow the instructions of that office. Mr. Olsen was therefore instructed to immediately contact Mr. Kimball.

At 2:20 PM on June 19 ASAC Kimball called from NY and in my absence talked to Supervisor [redacted]. He advised that he had consulted with the USA's office in NYC, as a result of which the case would be handled in the following manner.

The New York Office is notifying the Albany Office to notify the Warden of the State Prison at Dannemora, New York, that the Immigration and Naturalization Service will take Kuhn into Federal custody sometime the first of next week, that is, Monday or Tuesday, June 21 or 22. The New York Office will notify the Immigration Service at New York City, which, in turn, will make necessary arrangements to take Kuhn into custody under the Presidential warrant which has been lodged against Kuhn at the State Prison at Dannemora. The NYC Office is not making any press release according to Mr. Kimball.

ASAC H. M. Kimball of the New York Office called with reference to a call this morning from the Bureau to the New York Office. Mr. Kimball advised that Fritz Kuhn is presently at Dannemora Prison and the New York State Parole Board has paroled him for internment. He stated it was indicated we were going to have the Immigration Service meet Kuhn at Dannemora and transport him to Ellis Island prior to his being interned. Mr. Kimball stated the Immigration Service in Washington apparently told the Bureau they did not want to transport Kuhn in this instance and that the Bureau Agents should handle it.

Mr. Kimball desired to know whether it was meant that the Agent from the New York Office should go to Dannemora to get Kuhn, or whether Agents from the Albany Office should take care of the matter inasmuch as it is in their district, or whether the United States Marshal should do the transporting from Dannemora to New York.

I advised Mr. Kimball I would check on the matter and consequently call him back as to the action to be taken.

Respectfully,

ADDENDUM: 5:15 P.M.

I called Mr. Kimball advising him that his Agents should serve the Presidential warrant, and that either the Agents or the U.S. Marshal should transport Kuhn from Dannemora to New York. He was also told that Kuhn could be turned over to Immigration and Naturalization at any point they are willing to accept. Mr. Kimball stated that pursuant to this advice, appropriate action will be taken Monday.

THE DIRECTOR

Re: FRITZ JULIUS KUHN
ALIEN ENEMY CONTROL - C

This is to advise that Fritz Kuhn was taken into custody as an alien enemy by Bureau Agents on June 30, 1943, when he was released from Clinton Prison, Dannemora, New York.

b7C

The United States Attorney at New York City received a Presidential Warrant from the Department for the arrest of Fritz Kuhn on November 25, 1942. This warrant was received at the Bureau from the Department on November 26, 1942, and transmitted to the New York Field Division on December 3, 1942. Fritz Kuhn was denaturalized on June 1, 1943, at which time he was incarcerated in the Clinton Prison. A detainer was filed against Kuhn at the Clinton Prison by the United States Attorney's office at New York City. On June 19, 1943, the New York Field Division received information from the United States Attorney's office that Kuhn was going to be released from Clinton Prison and could be taken into custody as an alien enemy. The New York office contacted Mr. G. S. German, Inspector in Charge of Parole at Ellis Island, in order to effect arrangements for the Immigration Service to bring Kuhn to Ellis Island. Mr. German agreed to this procedure but later advised that the Immigration Authorities at Rouses Point, New York, would bring Kuhn to Ellis Island. However, on June 24, 1943, [redacted] of the Department called and requested the Bureau to serve the warrant on Kuhn, and he was advised that the Immigration Service usually serves a Presidential Warrant when the individual is already in the custody of another agency. [redacted] later called and advised that the Immigration Service refused to serve the warrant as the FBI had on occasions objected to the Immigration Service serving such warrants. The New York office was advised on June 26, 1943, of the decision of the Immigration Service, and they were instructed to determine the possibility of the U. S. Marshal transporting Kuhn, and if that office refused, then Special Agents of the New York Office should transfer Kuhn to Ellis Island. The New York Field Division contacted the U. S. Marshal's office and they advised that they could not move Kuhn without written authority.

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

WASHINGTON, D. C.

July 16, 1943

MEMORANDUM FOR
HUGH B. COX, ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL AND
J. EDGAR HOOVER, DIRECTOR
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

I refer to Mr. L. M. C. Smith's memorandum to me dated June 28, 1943, which reviews the history, development, and meaning of the Special Case work and of the danger classifications that were made as a part of that work.

After full re-consideration of these individual danger classifications, I am satisfied that they serve no useful purpose. The detention of alien enemies is being dealt with under the procedures established by the Alien Enemy Control Unit. The Special Case procedure has been found to be valueless and is not used in that connection. There is no statutory authorization or other present justification for keeping a "custodial detention" list of citizens. The Department fulfills its proper functions by investigating the activities of persons who may have violated the law. It is not aided in this work by classifying persons as to dangerousness.

Apart from these general considerations, it is now clear to me that this classification system is inherently unreliable. The evidence used for the purpose of making the classifications was inadequate; the standards applied to the evidence for the purpose of making the classifications were defective; and finally, the notion that it is possible to make a valid determination as to how dangerous a person is in the abstract and without reference to time, environment, and other relevant circumstances, is impractical, unwise, and dangerous.

For the foregoing reasons I am satisfied that the adoption of this classification system was a mistake that should be rectified for the future. Accordingly, I direct that the classifications heretofore made should not be regarded as classifications of dangerousness or as a determination of fact in any sense. In the future, they should not be used for any purpose whatsoever. Questions raised as to the status or activities of a particular person should be disposed of by consideration of all available information, but without reference to any classification heretofore made.

A copy of this memorandum should be placed in the file of each person who has hitherto been given a classification. In addition, each card upon which a classification appears should be stamped with the following language:

"THIS CLASSIFICATION IS UNRELIABLE. IT IS HEREBY CANCELLED, AND SHOULD NOT BE USED AS A DETERMINATION OF DANGEROUSNESS OR OF ANY OTHER FACT. (SEE MEMORANDUM OF JULY 16,

REFERENCE: Bureau letter to New York Field Division dated July 19, 1943. b7C

Report of Special Agent [redacted] dated June 22, 1943 at New York, New York.

DETAILS: Special Agent [redacted] reviewed Civil Docket No. 18-415 in the office of [redacted] clerk in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. The docket reflected that on June 1, 1943 judgement was entered in the case entitled "United States Versus FRITZ JULIUS KUHN, Et Al", revoking the Naturalization Certificate of FRITZ JULIUS KUHN pursuant to a judgement and instructions of United States District Judge JOHN J. BRIGHT.

Pursuant to a Presidential Warrant the subject was apprehended at the New York State Prison, Dannemora, New York, on June 30, 1943 by Special Agents [redacted] and the reporting agent. The subject was taken to the New York Field Division where he was fingerprinted, photographed, and assigned New York arrest number GCD 1841. He was then delivered to Ellis Island pending his transfer to a permanent internment camp. By letter dated July 14, 1943 the Bureau advised that the subject had been ordered interned by the Attorney General. This order was dated June 21, 1943.

PERSONAL HISTORY

The following facts are concerned only with the subject's personal history. The subject's activities and connection with the German American Bund and other subversive organizations have been reported in reports covering the investigation of the German American Bund.

The subject furnished the following information relative to his personal history and activities. He was born on May 15, 1896 in Munich, Germany. His father, KARL, now deceased, was the owner of a printing establishment in Munich and was fairly well to do. The subject attended the Public Schools in Munich for a period of twelve years. He was in attendance at the University of Munich in 1914 when the first World War was declared. In that year he joined the German Army and served as a Lieutenant in the Infantry until 1918. He stated that he was awarded the Iron Cross, First and Second Class, during this conflict for bravery. He suffered shrapnel wounds in 1917 while serving on the western Front.

At the termination of the war in 1918 the subject returned to his home city in Munich. He desired at that time to return to the University immediately in order to continue his studies. However, in 1919 there occurred in Munich a Communist uprising and during that year the subject served in the General EPP FREE CORPS against the Communists. The subject claimed that he was with a group of members of the EPP FREE COPRS who were instrumental in saving the life of the present Pope, whose residence in Munich was surrounded by the Communists. At that time the present Pope was living in Munich where he was stationed as a Papal Delegate.

The subject denied ever being a member of the National Socialist German Workers Party or ever participating in the ill fated putsch, under the leadership of Adolf Hitler and German General Ludendorff of 1923. The subject stated that he had often heard of Hitler while living in Munich in the early 1920's and admitted on one occasion he went to hear Hitler speak at a hall in Munich. He stated, however, that at that time he paid little attention to Hitler or the National Socialist movement inasmuch as his only interest at the time was in obtaining his degree from the University of Munich.

The subject was graduated from the University of Munich with a degree in Chemistry in 1922. He married his present wife, ELSIE WALTHER KUHN on March 28, 1923 in Munich, Germany. The subject has the following relatives now living in Germany: his mother, ANNA; his brother [redacted] and his daughter [redacted] who returned to Germany in 1938; she is married to a German soldier. The subject's brother, WALTER, was killed while serving in the German Army during the first World War and his youngest brother, KARLHEINZ was killed while serving with the German Army in 1941. The subject's father, KARL, died in 1942.

not the subject
The subject left Germany in 1923 and entered Mexico on May 23rd of that year. He stated that he desired to come to the United States directly but at the time he was unable to obtain an American visa because so many people in Germany were coming to this country at that time. Upon his arrival in Mexico he obtained work in the oil fields of Tampico. In November of that same year he brought his wife, ELSIE, to Mexico. His daughter, [redacted] and his son, [redacted] were both born in Mexico. The subject at one time owned a small cosmetic factory in Mexico City but in 1927 he was forced into bankruptcy.

not the subject
The subject entered the United States legally at Laredo, Texas, on May 19, 1928. He was destined to an individual named [redacted] a citizen of this country whom he met in Mexico. According to KUHN, [redacted] served in the American army during the World War and at that time lived in the Grosse Point section of Detroit on Lake Point Avenue. In Detroit KUHN obtained a position with the HENRY FORD Hospital as laboratory technician. He remained at this position for a period of two years. He then obtained a position in the HENRY FORD MOTOR plant where he worked for a period of seven years. In Detroit he has lived on Dunedine Avenue.; he later moved to Hogorth Avenue where he remained until 1937. In 1937 he moved with his family to 73rd Street, Jackson Heights, New York. He lived there until he was arrested and imprisoned in 1939.

Heinz SPAN KNOCBI
The subject was naturalized on December 3, 1934 in Detroit, Michigan. In 1934 he joined the Friends of New Germany which was at that time headed by an individual named SPANKNOBLE. Prior to his joining the Friends of New Germany the subject was affiliated with an organization known as the German Steel Helmets. This organization was composed of former German World War Veterans. The subject joined the Friends of New Germany after reading an advertisement in one of the Detroit papers concerning this organization.

In 1936 the subject was named leader of the German American Bund. In the summer of 1936 the subject as Bund Fuhrer returned to Germany with a delegation of 250 German American Bund members to attend the Olympic games. In Germany he formally met Adolf Hitler and the subject presented Hitler with $2,300 as a gift donated by various members of the Bund. At that time the subject claimed he spoke to Hitler for about five minutes and the German Fuhrer spoke to him about such things as working conditions in Germany and what KUHN's reaction was to the Olympic games as a method of creating better relationship between Germany and other countries. The subject was accompanied on this trip to Germany in 1936 by his wife and family. On the occasion of this trip the subject attended a Nazi Party Day Celebration held at Nuremburg in September, 1936. He denied going to the Party Day Celebration as a representative of the German American Bund or as a party member but stated that he merely went as a spectator. He remained in Nuremburg for a period of four days. The subject also claims to have gone to Kharkov, Russia for a period of two weeks in August, 1936. He stated that the purpose of this trip into Russia was to study labor conditions in that country. He stated that he had no difficulty in obtaining a Russian Visa for this trip into Kharkov. He returned to the United States in October, 1936.

The subject also went to Germany in February, 1938 to attend the Golden Wedding Anniversary of his parents and further in an effort to obtain some exhibits for a proposed German American Business Men's League Exhibition which was to be held at the Grand Central Palace in New York City. He stated that the League was desirous at that time of obtaining some artificial rubber exhibits made in Germany. He stated that he was unable to obtain these exhibits because of the unstable conditions in Germany at that time due to political events in Europe. He advised further he only remained in Germany for a period of two weeks in 1938 and at that time he was not contacted by any German Government officials or Nazi party members.

On December 5, 1939 the subject was sentenced to serve a 2 1/2 to 5 year term for grand larceny and perjury arising out of his misuse and embezzlement of funds of the German American Bund. He was incarcerated at the Clinton

Prison, Dannemora, New York, until his release on parole on June 30, 1943. Upon his release he was immediately apprehended as an alien enemy.

THE DIRECTOR

RE: GERMAN-AMERICAN BUND
INTERNAL SECURITY - G
NATURALIZATION PROCEEDINGS

b7C

Reference is made to the teletype from the San Antonio Office to the Bureau dated October 15, 1943, recounting an alleged statement made by Fritz Kuhn, former National Leader of the German-American Bund, to the effect that the German government sent him $1,000,000. a year for the organizational activities of the German-American Bund. Specific reference is made also to your notation on this teletype "Can this be true?"

At the time Kuhn allegedly made this statement he was in the custody of Deputy U. S. Marshal [redacted] of Newark, New Jersey, and [redacted] Hudson County Boulevard Police, Jersey City, New Jersey, and was being brought by these officers to Washington, D. C. for specific questioning by attorneys working under the direction of Special Assistant to the Attorney General O. John Rogge, in connection with the case entitled [redacted] with aliases, et al., Sedition". Kuhn was intensively questioned by Departmental attorney Joseph Burns, who is working on the [redacted] case, and Bureau Agents were invited to participate in or observe this questioning. In this connection it is noted that Supervisor [redacted] of the Internal Security Section of the Security Division did observe approximately five hours of the questioning of Kuhn by Burns, during which period Kuhn gave little, if any, substantive information, and specifically and carefully denied that the Bund had any connection with the German government.

Mr. Tolson [redacted]

Mr. E. A. Tamm

Mr. Clegg [redacted] As you are, of course, aware the Bureau has since 1937 conducted an extensive and detailed investigation of the German-American Bund throughout the United States, the results of which investigation have been called to the attention of the Department of Justice, as a result of which numerous leaders of the Bund have been prosecuted, have been interned as alien enemies or have been denaturalized.

RECORDED & INDEXED

The statement attributed to Kuhn to the effect that the Bund received $1,000,000. a year from the German government is absolutely unsubstantiated by the voluminous information and reports the Bureau has received concerning this organization. The receipt by the German-American Bund of any substantial sums of money and the subsequent activities of the Bund would have been obviously impossible in view of the intensive investigative scrutiny which has been given this organization for several years by the Bureau. In all of the investigation conducted of the Bund not one single item of proof has been developed indicating that this organization received actual financial support from the German government. It is of interest to note that the information developed in this investigation to a large extent indicates exactly the contrary, inasmuch as the Bund is known to have made sizable contributions of money directly or indirectly to the German government. As examples of this the Bund frequently contributed to the German Winter Relief Campaign, and in 1937 Fritz Kuhn and other Bund leaders presented a Golden Commemoration Book to Adolf Hitler, together with a cash gift of approximately $3,000.

will

As an indication of the illogical and improbable nature of this alleged statement by Kuhn, it is pointed out also that there was no necessity for the German government to subsidize the German-American Bund, in order to capitalize upon its organization and its sympathies, and the German government has not in the past been noted for spending large sums of money needlessly to support such organizations. The total expenditures of the German-American Bund and its leaders, so far as has been ascertained, represented only a small fraction of this figure and represented nothing in excess of the normal, legitimate income of the German-American Bund from dues and social functions, as well as the proceeds of its newspaper, the Deutscher Weckruf und Beobachter.

In view of the fact that Kuhn, not only in his recent questioning by the Department, but upon numerous prior occasions when questioned by Bureau Agents and representatives of other Governmental agencies, has steadfastly and carefully denied any connection of the Bund with the German government, it was felt that this alleged statement, if actually made by Kuhn, was made solely in jest.

On the basis of a carbon copy of reference teletype, efforts were made to call this matter to the attention of [redacted] who is in charge of the [redacted] case. In his absence, the allegation concerning Kuhn's statement was called to the attention of Departmental attorney Joseph Burns, who, as above-noted, questioned Kuhn recently in the Department. Burns stated at that time that the officers guarding Kuhn had specific instructions to entertain him and to create in Kuhn a friendly frame of mind to assist Departmental attorneys questioning him. Burns stated he was satisfied that the statement allegedly made by Kuhn was not a serious statement and that if such a remark were actually made, Kuhn was undoubtedly joking. Burns stated that any statements of pertinent interest seriously made by Kuhn would unquestionably have been called to his, Burns, attention by Deputy Marshal [redacted]. In conclusion, Burns advised that he attached no significance whatever to the alleged statement made by Kuhn, in view of its improbability and in view of the likelihood that it was made in jest.

ACTION: In view of the improbability if not impossibility of this statement and in view of the indications that it was merely a jesting remark by Kuhn, it is not believed any further action herein is necessary or advisable.

Respectfully,

STATEMENT OF FRITZ KUHN

I, FRITZ KUHN, make the following statement voluntarily and of my own free will to Joseph W. Burns, Special Assistant to the Attorney General:

You have shown to me a book with a blue cover called Department of Justice, Criminal Division, Trial Brief of Evidence, Volume II, page 347, which purports to be a statement by myself at the 1938 Bund Convention. I do not know whether that is actually a statement from the minutes of the Convention, but I have read the statement and I do recall that I was in 1938 expecting to go to a meeting in Kansas City which I did not, however, attend. The article you showed me states:

b7C

"A conference of this nature took place in Kansas City and a way was sought which would make the People's Front as described above a reality."

I recall [redacted] spoke to me about attending a meeting in Kansas City at which various organizations engaged in patriotic activity were to meet. As near as I can recall this was the first time I had met [redacted] I had heard of [redacted] before; I knew of his writings and I had heard of the Knights of the White Camelia. I do not recall exactly where he met me in New York or why he stated he came to see me. The main thing of the conversation was about forming a united organization which was already in progress, and should have taken place in Kansas. If I recall right, he wanted my reaction on that meeting. I don't think he came in an official capacity to invite me. I distinctly remember that he said he would let me know the date and would send me an invitation to that meeting. I do not know if he stated who would be there, but the following names were mentioned, either told by him or asked by me:

[redacted]
Gerald Smith

[redacted]
Pelley

We discussed these names but I cannot recall which names were stated as persons who were expected to attend the meeting. I do recall that as far as [] were concerned the discussion was whether one of them would lead the new organization.

61-7584-178

As I understand it the purpose of the meeting was to bring these organizations together for a common front and work out a basis which would be acceptable to each organization. The new organization had not been formed yet. By patriotic organizations I meant those for the country first; organizations which had more or less our ideas. I understood that these organizations were interested in combatting Communism and the Jewish influence in this country. My own idea was that a National Socialistic form of government would be better for America than the present form of government. I understood from [] that these organizations were trying to agree on a leader for the People's Front and he mentioned Moseley as the possible leader.

After I saw [] in New York, I had occasion to go on a tour of the country to visit some of the local Bund units. When I was in Los Angeles I expected to hear from [] about attending this meeting, but I did not receive any word from him and did not attend the meeting.

I met [] once in New York at the home of [] I do not recall definitely whether this was before [] spoke to me about this Kansas City meeting or afterwards, but I think it was before. As near as I can recall [] was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and had worked with one of the local Bund units in Long Island, and that was how I met her. I had met her previously to being invited to her house. There was a fairly large group of people at the house, and [] spoke. I met [] at this meeting at [] house. After [] spoke I met him and talked to him for about fifteen minutes. I formed the opinion of [] that he was a very sincere man and one who would make a good leader. I do not recall what [] said in his speech but I remember that it appealed to me and that I agreed with everything he said.

I know [] I visited his printing shop in New York. I have also had lunch with him. I believe it was in 1938 that I met [] but it could have been 1937. The Bund bought [] bulletins and gave them away at meetings and sent some to local units. I don't recall any particular amounts that were bought or distributed as that was under the Director of Public Enlightenment and Propaganda, who was [] at the time. I don't know whether the Bund bought every issue of the publication or how many copies they bought of any one. I do recall that on at least one occasion we had several hundred copies of a bulletin for distribution.

b7C

Fritz Kuhn Statement

-3-

I met [] at a meeting of the Bund at the Germania Club in Chicago. I believe the year was 1937. He was the President of the German American Alliance, if that is the man I have in mind.

I met Pelley in Los Angeles in 1936. I believe the meeting was arranged by [] I did not like Pelley's ideas and I did not like him personally. As I recall it, I no sooner met him when he said that,

"Hitler has some pretty good ideas, but I had them long before him."

[] was in favor of cooperating with the Silver Shirts but I did not agree with him. At [] request I did speak at one joint meeting of the Silver Shirts in Los Angeles.

On occasions groups of Russian Fascists and Italian Fascists met with Bund groups.

I only saw [] once - that was at the Hotel Commodore, New York City. As near as I can recall, a group of Bund leaders, myself, [] and [] were there. [] was chairman of the meeting and introduced the speakers. I did not meet []

b7C

I met Gerald L.K. Smith in the Hotel Pennsylvania in New York City and I believe it was in 1937. As I recall it, a man named [] man, phoned me and asked me to come down to the hotel. I knew about Smith and his Committee of One Million, and I was interested in getting acquainted. I went to the Hotel Pennsylvania and met [] and we went downstairs to lunch with a couple of others, whose names I do not remember. [] talked about matters within his organization which indicated to me there was some disagreement between him and Smith. I concluded that he wished my support in this disagreement. After the luncheon we went upstairs and I met Smith. I believe I talked with Smith only about five minutes. I did not find out just what the trouble was between Smith and [] whether it was personal or a matter of policy, but I know that later they did split up. I cannot recall at this time the subject of the talk with Smith.

I recall the meeting at Innisfail Park in August 1939, at which [] and I spoke. The meeting was under the auspices of the Christian Mobilizers, but there were Bund members also present. After the meeting [] and myself went to the restaurant near by.

I saw [] on several occasions and was familiar with his activities. He never mentioned to me anything about [] as far as I can recall. [] organization was anti-Communistic and advocated National Socialist principles.

I recall Bund Command No. 23, issued September 8, 1939. The purpose of this was to endeavor to keep America out of the war, and these themes were to be used as a basis for propaganda.

Dear Sir:

Information has recently come to this office through [redacted]

[redacted] with reference to FRITZ KUHN. According to this informant, KUHN, an internee, was believed to have maneuvered himself into a position as unofficial spokesman for the other German internees. The recognized spokesman is one [redacted] internees and recognized as such by the director of the camp.

It was stated that during the early part of KUHN's internment at Crystal City he was more or less ostracized by the other internees, whose complaint appeared to be that KUHN was a convicted criminal and as such should not be forced upon the other internees. The informant further advised that at present KUHN and [redacted] spent a great deal of time in each other's company, and it was further believed that [redacted] had become a mouthpiece for FRITZ KUHN and that most of the complaints on the part of the German internees as to their treatment in the camp and also their official requests for various favors, if they did not originate with KUHN at least had his approval.

The above is being furnished for your information.

The Bureau has recently received information from the State Department that among the persons whom the German Government has requested in the next repatriation exchange is Fritz Julius Kuhn, former national leader of the Bund.

You will recall that Kuhn was sentenced in New York for grand larceny and perjury on December 5, 1939, and remained in prison until he was denaturalized on June 1, 1943, and taken into custody as an alien enemy. He has been interned since that time and, having been out of circulation for so long, it does not appear that he would be of very much informational value to Germany.

When the full list of proposed repatriates is received from the State Department for the Bureau's consideration as to objectionable persons, I believe that we should make no objection to Kuhn's leaving. It will be a good opportunity to get rid of him. If you agree, no objection will be made.

9/11 [redacted] of MID called and desired to know whether the Bureau had made any recommendation to the effect that Fritz Kuhn should be repatriated.

[redacted] advised that some State Department representative, name unknown, called on some of the officials of the War Department and intimated that the FBI was interested in seeing Fritz Kuhn repatriated and that they were endeavoring to have the State Department withdraw objection to this repatriation. According to [redacted] they objected to the repatriation because they thought considerable newspaper publicity would result due to his prominence.

[redacted] was advised that the Bureau did not recommend that Fritz Kuhn be repatriated, but that the State Department was advised that the Bureau has no objection to his repatriation in view of the fact he was included among the list of repatriates being considered for repatriation. He was also advised that by this the Bureau meant that there was no objection from a security standpoint for Fritz Kuhn being repatriated and no separate recommendation has been made by this Bureau concerning Fritz Kuhn.

Dear Sir:

Attached is a carbon copy of a Western Union telegram sent Government collect to one [redacted] at the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The telegram was not accepted but was retained by Western Union as undeliverable.

The Fritz Kuhn mentioned in the telegram is presumably the former German-American Bund official who has been serving a penitentiary sentence, was denaturalized and is being considered for deportation. This Bureau has no such person as [redacted] among its personnel, and the telegram is, therefore, otherwise not clear as to its meaning and intent.

It would be appreciated if you would take such steps as are available to you to determine the import of this wire and whether some person by the name of [redacted] has been misrepresenting himself as affiliated with this Bureau.

Dear Sir:

~~The writer (doubtless along with millions of other American~~ citizens) was delighted to see that Mr. Fritz Kuhn is to be deported to Germany.

I have personally followed with much interest the rise and fall of this and many such similar organizations, and I see in these deportation proceedings another real triumph for the F. B. I., and for the splendid and untiring work of your department in ridding us of undesirables- and, even more important, in keeping the undesirables checked long before they become a matter of public interest.

Please accept my heartiest congratulations. I can see no more appropriate reward for Mr. Kuhn and his kind than allowing them to return to the land they so vehemently love, and helping rebuild it from the ashes of a system they wished for this country.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
Yours, with congratulations,

JKC

Attorney General Tom C. Clark today ordered the repatriation to Germany of Fritz Julius Kuhn, onetime leader of the German-American Bund as an alien enemy "dangerous to the public peace and safety of the United States because he has adhered to the government of Germany and to the National Socialist principles thereof."

Attorney General Clark directed the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization to remove Kuhn, who is now at Ellis Island, to Germany and he probably will be placed aboard the SS Antioch Victory which sails from New York next week.

Kuhn, already under a deportation order issued by the Board of Immigration Appeals on May 16, 1945, was brought from an alien enemy camp at Ft. Stanton, Texas, last week, and given a repatriation hearing at Ellis Island last Tuesday by a special three-man board appointed by the Attorney General. The board, composed of Willard Kelly, Assistant Immigration Commissioner for Alien Control, Stanley Diana, chief of Immigration's Alien Parole section, and George German, chief of the alien parole unit in New York, recommended repatriation.

The deportation order is being executed simultaneously with the Attorney General's order, issued under authority of the Alien Enemy Act and the Presidential Proclamation of July 18, 1945.

Text of Attorney General Clark's order signed today: SEP

ORDER

WHEREAS, Fritz Kuhn is a German alien enemy, over the age of fourteen years who has heretofore been interned by order of the Attorney General dated June 21, 1943; and

56 SEP 19 1945

(OVER)

WHEREAS, I deem the said alien enemy to be dangerous to the public peace and safety of the United States because he has adhered to the government of Germany and to the National Socialist principles thereof; NOW, THEREFORE,

IT IS ORDERED that said alien enemy depart from the United States and the Commissioner of the Immigration and Naturalization Service is directed to provide for his removal to Germany.

This order is in addition to and does not supersede the order of deportation dated May 16, 1945, and the warrant of deportation issued pursuant thereto.

TOM C. CLARK

Attorney General

Dated, Washington, D. C.,

Kuhn was first interned as a dangerous alien enemy on June 21, 1943, upon his release from Dannemora prison. He had been convicted in New York on November 29, 1939, on six counts of grand larceny and forgery and sentenced to a term of 2-1/2 to five years. Charges involved misappropriation of Bund funds and making false entries in the books of another Nazi organization.

The Board of Immigration Appeals deportation order signed last May was based on the fact that Kuhn had been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude within five years after his last entry into the United States.

Kuhn was born in Munich in 1896 and first came to this country in 1928. He was naturalized in Detroit in 1934 but on June 1, 1943, the U. S. District Court in New York cancelled his citizenship on grounds that it had been obtained fraudulently.

Kuhn's wife and teen-age son [redacted] were repatriated to Germany on February 15, 1944.
