It should be noted that Dr. ABRAHAM WOLFSON is the brother-in-law of HARRY DEXTER WHITE. HARRY DEXTER WHITE has been named by ELIZABETH BENTLEY as a member of a Soviet espionage ring who furnished information to the Soviets while he was in an official capacity with the Treasury Department. SUBJECT: HAROLD GLASSER, was
ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: NOV 7 1952

Reference is being made to New York letter to Director, 7/24/52 in case entitled "JAMES MICHAEL ANSARA, ESPIONAGE - R" (Bufile 100-352833). This letter reflects that RAPHAEL CHARLES POLLOCK had changed his address to 3613 Military Road, N.W., Washington, D.C. Further this letter reflects that POLLOCK in 1951 went to Quito, Ecuador, as assistant Director of the Institute of Overseas Studies. As you are aware, HAROLD GLASSER was at that time and is currently the Director of the Institute of Overseas Studies.

In the report of SA WILLIAM H. ATKINSON, 2/20/52, Washington D. C. in the ANSARA matter it was requested that POLLOCK be interviewed regarding JAMES M. ANSARA inasmuch as ANSARA and POLLOCK were co-employers in the Foreign Economic Administration.

Inasmuch as New York has not been advised to the contrary, it is assumed that POLLOCK has been interviewed by the WFO re ANSARA.

In view of the fact that POLLOCK was assistant Director to GLASSER in the Institute of Overseas Studies, and the WFO feels that POLLOCK was cooperative in the interview regarding ANSARA, the Bureau is requested to authorize WFO to interview POLLOCK re GLASSER. Should WFO have any objections to such an interview, it is requested that the WFO advise the Bureau of these objections.

For the benefit of the WFO in conducting the proposed interview, it is noted that GLASSER for the past few months has received numerous correspondence from various export firms in New York City. He has also contacted various firms in Italy, Germany and Belgium asking price quotations and ordering materials, which is an indication that possibly GLASSER is engaged in export and import activities.

It is requested that the WFO attempt to ascertain from POLLOCK the exact nature of subject's duties with the Institute of Overseas Studies along with his reported export activities. WFO is also requested to ascertain subject's associates, activities and current sympathies.

DETAILS:

[T-1], of known reliability, advised that Miss MARGERY ROWEN, who was the niece of Mrs. SEYMOUR DRIBBEN, had visited at the DRIBBEN residence in the summer of 1952, and was presently residing at 48 Radnor Road, Great Neck, New York. (u)

[The records of T-2], an industrial enterprise in the Los Angeles area, reflect that a check of the Los Angeles County Registrar of Voters had disclosed that SEYMOUR LESTER DRIBBEN, 3343 West 119th Place, Inglewood, California, had registered as an Independent Progressive Party voter from an address of 629 East 9th Street, Los Angeles on April 22, 1948. The records of T-2 further reflected that DRIBBEN was reported to be a partner in the Dribben Textile Shrinking Company located at 629 East 9th. It was reported to T-2 that DRIBBEN was 5'8" tall, weight - 210 pounds, brown hair, hazel eyes, married, wife's name - LILLIAN. (u)

[Records of T-2] further disclosed that a reliable confidential informant had reported that SEYMOUR DRIBBEN had been a recent unsuccessful applicant for a civil defense position and that a civil defense official reported he had observed copies of the "Soviet 1936 Constitution," the "Communist Manifesto," and several books by Lenin and Stalin in DRIBBEN's home. It was noted in the records of T-2 that DRIBBEN resided in Imperial Village which is very close to Northrop Field. (u)

T-3, of known reliability, advised that the Independent Progressive Party in Los Angeles County is under the complete control of the Communist Party which sets its organizational goals, organizes its forces and assigns its leadership. The Communist Party has been cited by the Attorney General as falling within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

T-4, T-5 and T-6, all of known reliability, who have been generally familiar with some Communist activities in the Los Angeles area, which includes Inglewood, California, had no information concerning MARGERY ROWEN, SEYMOUR LESTER DRIBBEN, LILLIAN DRIBBEN or S. E. DRIBBEN. (u)

ESPIONAGE - R

Rerep SA CHARLES A. MAY dated December 3, 1952, at Washington, D. C., concerning STANLEY I. POSNER, mentioned in rerep.

It is noted that in the report of SA ROBERT F.X.O'KEEFE dated April 25, 1949, at New York in the JAHAM case (Bureau file #74-1333) on page 14, HAROLD L. POSNER was interviewed at which time he advised that he had a brother, STANLEY I. POSNER, and further that KATHERINE WILLS PERLO had identified a brother of HAROLD POSNER as "sympathetic or a member." Inasmuch as it is not known whether or not STANLEY POSNER is the only brother of HAROLD or that Mrs. PERLO had STANLEY in mind, this information was not included in rerep.

Concerning Mrs. ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG, also mentioned in rerep, it is noted that in the report of SA LAMBERT G. ZANDER dated December 23, 1946, at Washington, D.C., Page 17, as well as in SA ZANDER's report dated March 25, 1947, Page 4, in the GREGORY case, Mrs. GOLDBERG corresponded with Mrs. GLASSER. This information was not set out in rerep because it was not determined pertinent to this inquiry.

Concerning ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG, in reports of SA THOMAS A. MENDENHALL dated February 7, 1951, and April 3, 1951, at Washington, D.C., entitled "UNSUB, wa., [HARE (SOVME)] Espionage-R," there is set forth information indicating Communist activity and association on the part of GOLDBERG.

In addition, the files of this office could furnish information indicating association on the part of GOLDBERG with the National Lawyers' Guild and the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties.

It is also noted that in a report of SA W. ALBERT STEWART, JR., dated April 10, 1946, at Washington, D.C., in the GREGORY case, on Page 7, it was indicated that GOLDBERG and GLASSER were in telephonic communication. However, in view of the fact that it was clearly indicated that Mrs. ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG was the correspondent in instant matter, information concerning Mr. GOLDBERG was not set forth in rerep. RUC.

BITTERMAN advised that he came to the Division of Monetary Research, Treasury Department, about September of 1943, at which time HARRY DEXTER WHITE was the Director of the Division. He stated that WILLIAM H. TAYLOR, HAROLD GLASSER, EDWARD M. BURNSTEIN, and an individual named NESS were Assistant Directors of WHITE. According to Mr. BITTERMAN, GLASSER and TAYLOR performed similar functions in the Division, primarily dealing with geographical problems in countries other than those in the Far East. He said that both GLASSER and TAYLOR went on missions abroad for the Treasury Department, and in general when GLASSER was abroad, TAYLOR was here and when TAYLOR was abroad, GLASSER was here. He said that the Division under WHITE was a rather disorganized operation, in that there was never a clear cut division of functions. He continued by stating that WHITE became an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury after the Bretton Woods conference in order that he might present to Congress the bill dealing with the Fund of the International Monetary Fund and the International Bank. He said that when WHITE became Assistant Secretary, FRANK COE came to the Division of Monetary Research as Director of the Division. He advised that as a result of COE's appointment as Director of the Division, relations between GLASSER and COE were "cool," and those between BURNSTEIN and COE were "worse than cool."

Mr. BITTERMAN stated that he considered COE, GLASSER, TAYLOR, and WHITE, to be "new dealers who were products of the depression era," and that they were interested in equitable distribution of wealth through progressive taxation, full employment, expansion of international policy, and considered it desirable and possible to reach an agreement with Russia.

BITTERMAN advised that he came to the Division of Monetary Research, Treasury Department, about September of 1943, at which time HARRY DEXTER WHITE was the Director of the Division. He stated that WILLIAM H. TAYLOR, HAROLD GLASSER, EDWARD M. BURNSTEIN, and an individuals named NESS were Assistant Directors of WHITE. He said that both GLASSER and TAYLOR went on missions abroad for the Treasury Department, and in general when GLASSER was abroad, TAYLOR was here and when TAYLOR was abroad, GLASSER was here. He said that the Division under WHITE was a rather disorganized operation, in that there was never a clear cut division of functions. He continued by stating that WHITE became an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury after the Bretton Woods conference in order that he might present to Congress the bill dealing with the Fund of the International Monetary Fund and the International Bank. He said that when WHITE became Assistant Secretary, FRANK COE came to the Division of Monetary Research as Director of the Division. He advised that as a result of COE's appointment as Director of the Division, relations between GLASSER and COE were "cool," and those between BURNSTEIN and COE were "worse than cool."

Mr. BITTERMAN stated that he considered COE, GLASSER, TAYLOR, and WHITE, to be "new dealers who were products of the depression era," and that they were interested in equitable distribution of wealth through progressive taxation, full employment, expansion of international policy, and considered it desirable and possible to reach an agreement with Russia.

During the course of the interview, it was ascertained that DANIEL has shared her apartment for the last four years with a Miss DOROTHY BUCKLEY, concerning whom CROWLEY furnished the following information:

BUCKLEY is single and has been employed by the New Brunswick Board of Education for about 25 years. She is presently the Senior High School Librarian, but since 12/23/52 has been on a leave of absence because of a trip she is making to India. BUCKLEY owns a lake cottage somewhere in New York State, where, except for the summer of 1951, when employed by the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co., New Brunswick, N.J., she usually spends her summer vacations.

stated this association, which was primarily in connection with his employment, although he did visit subject's home socially on one occasion and subject visited his home on one occasion, lasted until the early part of 1949 when he, POLLOCK, left the institute. He stated he has not seen subject since that time with the exception of a chance meeting in September 1952 when he, POLLOCK, was vacationing in Branden, Vermont, and subject was likewise vacationing in that vicinity at a place "across the lake". POLLOCK stated he could not now recall the name of the resort where subject was vacationing.

POLLOCK advised that he had formerly resided in Palestine and inasmuch as subject was going to Israel, in connection with his duties with the Institute of Overseas Studies, subject took him, POLLOCK along for the purpose of introducing subject to officials of that country. He stated that this occurred in approximately September 1948 and that while there he and GLASSER made a study of the economic situation in that country. He stated subject stayed for approximately four weeks and returned to the United States while he, POLLOCK remained an additional three weeks to complete the above study. He stated this was the only foreign trip made by him for the Institute and that his trip to Ecuador in 1951 was made for the Pan American Union.

POLLOCK stated that in his position as Director of the Institute of Overseas Studies, subject acted in the capacity of, Administrator and that the purpose of the Institute was to make surveys and recommendations concerning the plight of indigent people who would be the recipients of funds of the Council, which were donated for this purpose.

Concerning subject's associates, POLLOCK stated he had no idea who they were outside of his office staff and he cannot now recall anyone he might have met while visiting subject's home socially, as stated above.

Concerning subject's loyalty, POLLOCK stated that during his association with subject, he never suspected that subject was a Communist or had such leanings.

He advised that during their association, subject was called to testify before a Federal Grand Jury in New York, but that this fact only became known to him, POLLOCK, after it appeared publicly in newspapers and subject had never discussed the matter prior to his appearance. POLLOCK stated that the only mention made of this subsequently by subject was to the effect that, although called, he, subject, was not required to testify.

WFO 101-496

Dear Lou:

With the thought that you may be interested in the issues involved, here is a copy of my memorandum in opposition to the motion for a stay filed by counsel for the four witnesses proposed to be called by the Internal Security Subcommittee under the immunity statute (section 3456 of title 18, U. S. Code). (This motion was filed with the Circuit Court after Judge Pine in the U. S. District Court had signed orders requiring each of these witnesses to appear and testify or give evidence pursuant to section 3456, and after counsel for the prospective witnesses had appealed from this order.)

All best regards.

MEMORANDUM IN OPPOSITION TO
MOTION FOR STAY

Appellants, by these motions to stay "the effectiveness" of the orders of the District Court entered on April 10, 1957, seek to frustrate the operation of section 3486 of Title 18, U. S. Code, and the attempts of the Internal Security Subcommittee of the United States Senate to utilize this statute.

Appellants seek to maintain a position in which they will be able with impunity to refuse to furnish information to the committee. But appellants have no legal right to maintain this position.

Appellants Claim a Right They Do Not Have

Appellants contend they have a right to use the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution as a shield against giving information to the Subcommittee. But they have no such right. They only have the right to use the Fifth Amendment as a shield against being compelled to give self-incriminating testimony. When all danger of incrimination is removed by a grant of immunity in response to the claim of Fifth Amendment privilege, there is no right to withhold pertinent information. (Ullman v. United States, 350 U.S. 422).

Appellants Misconstrue the Legal Situation

Counsel for the prospective witnesses assert that under the District Court's orders of April 10, 1957, the appellants are being summoned to appear before the Subcommittee "without protection of the Fifth Amendment". This statement is contrary to fact. The Fifth Amendment privilege, being constitutional, cannot be cut off, circumscribed, or limited either by an Act of Congress or by an order of a court. The truth is that the Court's orders of April 10, 1957, merely put these cases in such posture that, if one of the appellants, while testifying before the Subcommittee, asserts his Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination in response to a particular question, the Subcommittee will have an option to accord him the claimed privilege against self-incrimination in either one of two ways: (1) by allowing him to stand mute, without responding to the question, or (2) by granting him complete immunity from prosecution with respect to all matters and things concerning which he shall testify responsively to the question. Only in the latter case, when the privilege has been recognized and allowed by a grant of immunity as broad as the privilege itself, will the committee become entitled to have an answer to the question.

As the Supreme Court said in Ullman v. United States, supra:

"We are not dealing here with one of the vague, undefinable, admonitory provisions of the Constitution whose scope is inevitably addressed to changing circumstances. The privilege against self-incrimination is a specific provision of which it is peculiarly true that 'a page of history is worth a volume of logic.' New York Trust Co. v. Eisner, 255 U. S. 345, 349. For the history of the privilege establishes not only that it is not to be interpreted literally, but also that its sole concern is, as its name indicates, with the danger to a witness forced to give testimony leading to the infliction of 'penalties affixed to the criminal acts . . . ' Dodd v. United States, 116 U.S. 616, 634. We leave Dodd v. United States unqualified, as it was left unqualified in Crown v. Walker. Immunity displaces the danger. Once the reason for the privilege ceases, the privilege ceases. We reaffirm Crown v. Walker, and in so doing we need not repeat the answers given by that case to the other points raised by petitioner."

No Constitutional Question Presented

Appellant makes much of a purported challenge to the constitutionality of section 3486 of Title 18, U. S. Code. But no constitutional question has yet arisen. Such a question can only arise if and when a witness before the committee, having claimed his privilege under the Fifth Amendment as a basis for refusing to answer a question, and having thereafter been required to answer it in connection with a grant of immunity under section 3486, nevertheless refuses to answer, and is thereupon cited for contempt and either called before the bar of the Senate to answer or indicted by a grand jury. No prospective witness in advance of such eventuality is entitled to have an advisory opinion concerning the constitutionality of the law as applied to his particular case.

Appellants Show No Injury

No showing of injury has been made by appellants, and none can be made. The only right which appellants allege to be involved is the right to claim the privilege against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment.

District Court's Order Leaves Appellant's Rights Intact

The order signed by Judge Pine leaves the Fifth Amendment rights of each appellant intact. It leaves intact his right to object to, or refuse to answer, any impertinent or immaterial question. It leaves intact his right to refuse, with complete impunity, to answer any question which may tend to incriminate him. It leaves intact his right to question the constitutionality of the so-called "immunity statute," section 3486 of Title 18, U. S. C. It leaves intact his right to challenge the jurisdiction of the committee, or the composition of the committee, or its authority. In no way is any right which the appellant had before the issuance of the order in any way circumscribed or limited or rendered more difficult of exercise by reason of the District Court's order of April 10.

Judge Pine's order does not compel the witnesses to do anything that would not otherwise be required of them. It does not command their appearance before the committee except in response to a lawful summons from the committee, which in and of itself would command such appearance just as strongly.

Appellants Inconsistent

Appellants are wholly inconsistent in arguing that "the proposed immunity will be spurious and unavailing" because the District Court's orders of April 10 "are invalid." It is the appellants here who are attempting to overthrow the District Court's order. But for them, the order would stand unchallenged. In such case, there can be no doubt that the order would be effective to meet the requirements of the statute. Appellants cannot consistently seek to attack the District Court's order and justify their right to attack it on the ground that they have been, are being, or will be injured by the fact that it is under attack.

No Need for Court to Approve Specific Questions

Under subsections (a) and (b) of section 3486, where the questions are to be asked by authority of the Senate, and not by authority of the Court, the proper view is that the court should not be asked to pass upon any specific questions in advance. Thus the right of a witness to object to a question for lack of pertinency will remain unimpaired.

Either the Court must approve specifically every one of the questions which are to be asked of the prospective witness, thus substituting its judgment for that of the legislative committee, or else it must leave the committee free to ask at least some questions without the specific prior approval of the Court. In the latter case, it is obvious that the provisions of the statute still apply, and the questions must be such as fall within the statute or else the witness is not required to answer.

To deny the committee the right to ask any questions not specifically approved in advance by the Court is to make it impossible for the committee to follow up testimony actually given by the witness for the purpose of making a clear and coherent record; or else to require the committee, having learned from the answers to some of its questions the nature of certain additional questions which should be asked, to come back to the Court for specific approval of those questions, the answers to which in turn may lead to further questions which will again have to be brought back to the Court for specific approval, and so on, ad infinitum.

In the Ullman case, the Court was asked to approve certain specific questions because those were questions which had been asked before the grand jury (and, therefore, by authority of the court); but although it was there argued that the Court's order should not command the answering of other or further questions, the Court declined to be limited in this way and did in fact order the answering of other and further questions than those specifically approved in advance.

Appellants May Not Halt Legislative Inquiry

Appellants have no right to prevent the committee from completing the preliminary procedural steps which will put it in a position, in the exercise of its discretion, to offer a grant of immunity under the statute. Appellants have no right to say whether or how the committee shall complete these preliminary procedural steps. The statute does not say that these steps are to be completed to the satisfaction of the prospective witness; the statute says they are to be completed to the satisfaction of the District Court.

Statute Complied With

The order of the District Court having been entered on April 10, the requirements of the statute with respect to such an order have been complied with, and the committee is in a position to offer each of these appellants, when he appears as a witness, the grant of immunity for which the statute provides. This compliance with the statute is complete. The purpose of the statute was to procure a determination by the Court that certain prerequisites to the grant of immunity had been met, and to provide for the making of a permanent record by the Court with respect to this determination. The Court has made this determination, and its order evidencing the determination has been entered. This fully satisfies the requirement of the statute that the "record show" such action to have been taken.

Kisseloff-78801.

This Court Has Passed On The Issues

This Court already has passed on the issues involved in this motion. By its order of April 9, 1957, stating that "no showing has been made of injury due to the pendency of the proceedings in the District Court," this Court clearly and necessarily comprehended a finding that the issuance of the order applied for below would not injure the appellant nor adversely affect his rights. A contrary finding would have justified a stay, pending appeal of the denial of appellant's motion to intervene in the proceeding below.

CONCLUSION

Of all the facts and law of this matter - which boil down to the finding already entered by this Court, that "no showing has been made of injury" to appellants or any of them, the motion for stay should be denied.

SUPPLEMENTARY MEMORANDUM
IN OPPOSITION TO
MOTION FOR STAY

This supplementary memorandum is submitted pursuant to the order of this Court entered April 12, 1957.

Supplementary Statement of Facts

The statement of facts set forth in the memorandum accompanying appellants' motion for stay, under the subhead "The Proceedings Below", should be supplemented and modified in the following respects:

(1) The applications made to the District Court on March 1, 1957, were by J. G. Sourwine, the authorized representative of the Committee on the Judiciary of the United States Senate and the Internal Security Subcommittee thereof, not by the Subcommittee alone.

(2) The orders entered by the District Court on April 10, 1957, in terms "approved" the applications of the Subcommittee.

(3) These orders of April 10, 1957, were issued on the basis of the applications on behalf of the Committee on the Judiciary of the United States Senate and its Internal Security Subcommittee, supported by substantial evidence presented to the Court with respect to each of the allegations of the applications, such evidence including a certified copy of a resolution of the Committee on the Judiciary showing the authority of the Subcommittee and the nature of its inquiry; an affidavit by the Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary of the United States Senate^{1/}, certified copies of letters of notification to the Attorney General pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3486, and letters from the Acting Attorney General stating that he did not desire to be heard regarding the applications and would interpose no objection to the issuance of the orders.

(4) The appeals in numbers 13808, 13809, 13810 and 13811 were taken from these orders entered by the District Court on April 10, 1957.

(5) The subpoena issued for appellant Glasser had not been served prior to entry of this Court's order of April 12, 1957, temporarily staying the effectiveness of the order of the District Court entered on April 10, 1957, and such subpoena has been recalled by the Subcommittee. The hearing of the Subcommittee scheduled for April 30, 1957, pursuant to subpoenas served on appellants McElrath, Oka and Symonds has been continued without date, subject to further order of the Subcommittee. Counsel for the respective appellants have been advised with respect to these matters.

1/ Senator Eastland's affidavit stated, in part:
"Information at hand respecting the threat of treason, sabotage, espionage, sedition or seditious conspiracy, both in the Hawaiian Islands and elsewhere, to the possible serious and immediate endangering of the national security or defense of the United States needs verification and amplification to provide a proper basis for congressional action designed so far as possible to meet such threatened danger."

"Time is of the utmost importance in securing the testimony needed and desired to supplement, verify or amplify information already at hand. Even such delay as might be involved in appeal procedure in the Court of Appeals might be sufficient to thwart or frustrate the Committee's purpose to secure the needed and desired testimony in time to permit formulation and enactment of appropriate legislation while it will have maximum impact and effect in preserving and protecting the national security and defense of the United States."

XEROXED ORIGINAL RETAIN

ARGUMENT

I.

In order to enjoin the proceedings herein, appellants have a duty to show that the possible damage to them from a continuation of the proceedings far outweighs any injury to the appellee resulting from a stay. It is clear that in the instant case such a showing is wholly impossible. The effect of a stay order by the Court would be to harm and to frustrate the Congressional investigation presently in being. It is axiomatic that courts will not interfere with the operation of the Legislative Branch unless there is an absolute and clearly demonstrable necessity therefor, and unless there is absolutely no other way to safeguard individual rights. As a matter of fact there are few, if any, examples of court interference with the legislative process such as would result if a stay order were entered in the instant case. If prospective witnesses in Congressional proceedings had the right to full judicial, appellate review proceedings before even proceeding to testify, the activities of the Congress and its committees could well be brought to a standstill, for as this Court knows, appellate proceedings, if carried to the highest courts, might well exceed in time the term of a Congressional session or the life of a particular Congressional investigation. It is obvious, therefore, that so far as appellee is concerned, the possibility of injury is not only apparent and extreme, but it is also of such an unusual nature that every conceivable presumption ought to be indulged in to prevent its occurrence.

On the other hand, appellants can point to no present injury whatever. The injury to them is purely speculative. For example, the committee may never call them as witnesses; or if they are called as witnesses, it may never question them concerning activities as to which they might desire to invoke their privilege against self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment; or if they do assert privilege under the Fifth Amendment the committee may not wish to offer them immunity under the statute; or if immunity is offered under the statute, the appellants may desire to testify in response so as to mature the grant of immunity; or if such testimony is refused, the Congress may not proceed against them for contempt. The possible harm to appellants at this point could hardly be more speculative. And there is, therefore, no urgency whatever to grant them presently the relief they ask for.

Moreover, it would appear that the Court should not indulge in the presumption or the assumption that the grant of immunity will be injurious to appellants. If any speculation is to be made, the Court might well conclude the grant of immunity would be beneficial rather than injurious so far as the recipients of immunity are concerned.

It would appear that appellants' asserted rights could be very effectively safeguarded by litigation and appellate procedures growing out of any contempt citations that might possibly result from the proceedings presently contemplated by the committee. Court litigation at this point, therefore, is entirely premature. In view of the far reaching consequences to the operations and functioning of a co-equal branch of the Government, on the one hand, and the availability of effective, judicial review, if and when an invasion of appellants' rights actually has occurred, on the other hand, the Court should deny a stay for that reason alone.

Moreover, there is another strong public-interest reason why the order of a District Court pursuant to 18 U. S. Code section 3486 should not be subject to collateral attack.

Such an order should represent solid assurance to the witness that his immunity, if granted, will be full and complete. It cannot be such assurance if collateral attack is possible. The District Court's determination with respect to the procedural prerequisites of the contemplated immunity grant should be conclusive of the issues; but if these matters can be re-examined in any way after the order has been entered, it will not serve this purpose, and the witness will not have the protection Congress has sought by this means to give him.

Since appellants cannot show irreparable injury, and since, on the other hand, the most potent reasons of policy and equity favor an uninterrupted Congressional proceeding, the granting of a stay pending appeal would definitely be unwarranted.

II.

Furthermore, appellants would not prevail on the merits of their appeal; and a stay should not be awarded on an appeal which has as little hope of ultimate success as the instant one.

In our Memorandum in Opposition to Motion for Stay we have listed some of the reasons why appellants' position on the merits is not well taken. The following additional thoughts occur in this regard.

Appellants feel that 18 U.S.C. section 3486 is unconstitutional as violative of the Fifth Amendment. But, as indicated above, there is no constitutional question as yet because the privilege against self-incrimination guaranteed by the Fifth Amendment has not yet been claimed. Consequently, much of appellants' constitutional argument is simply not before the Court at this juncture.

The Court certainly should not indulge in a premature construction of the statute which would render it unconstitutional, where -- to say the least -- a constitutional interpretation is possible.

The duty of courts, in construing congressional enactments, to take care to interpret them so as to avoid a danger of unconstitutionality (as pointed out by the Supreme Court in United States v. Congress of Industrial Organizations, 68 S. Ct. 1349, 335 U. S. 106, 92 L. Ed. 1849, and in United States v. Harriss, 74 S. Ct. 808, 347 U. S. 612, 98 L. Ed. 989) has been repeatedly recognized by this Court.^{2/}

Thus, in Duehay v. Acacia Mutual Life Insurance Company, 70 App. D.C. 245, 105 F. 768, 124 A.L.R. 1268, this Court held that the cardinal principle of statutory construction is to save and not destroy, and as between two possible interpretations, by one of which the statute would be unconstitutional and by the other valid, the plain duty of the court is to adopt that which will save the statute, and the rule is the same even to avoid a serious doubt. (Emphasis supplied).

A statute is not to be declared unconstitutional unless clearly so, this Court said in Lindsey v. United States, 77 U. S. App. D. C. 1, 133 F. 2d 368.

Courts must avoid the issue of constitutionality if the statute which is being interpreted is susceptible of any reasonable interpretation consistent with constitutionality, this Court held in First Iowa Hydro-Electric Co-op v. Federal Power Commission, 80 U.S. App. D.C. 211, 151 F. 2d 20, reversed 66 S. Ct. 906, 328 U. S. 152, 90 L. Ed. 1143, rehearing denied 66 S. Ct. 1336, 328 U.S. 879, 90 L. Ed. 1647.

^{2/} It is interesting that one of the early but leading cases on this point was Thompson v. Riggs, 6 D.C. 99, affirmed 72 U.S. 663, 5 Wall. 663, 18 L. Ed. 704, in which it was held that for a legislative act to be pronounced unconstitutional the opposition between the Constitution and the act in question should be such as to lead the court to a clear and strong conclusion of their incompatibility with each other.

XEROXED ORIGINAL RETAIN

And in Blackmer v. United States, 60 App. D. C. 141, 49 F. 2d 523, certiorari granted 52 S. Ct. 19, 284 U. S. 602, 76 L. Ed. 516, affirmed 52 S. Ct. 252, 284 U. S. 421, 76 L. Ed. 375, this Court held that a statute should be construed so as to avoid grave doubts of its constitutionality, if such construction is fairly possible.

In Naganab v. Hitchcock, 25 App. D. C. 200, affirmed 26 S. Ct. 667, 202 U. S. 473, 50 L. Ed. 1113, this Court held that in passing on the constitutionality of statutes generally, it is a well settled rule that nothing but a clear violation of the Constitution will authorize the courts to overrule the legislative will, and, where there is reasonable doubt as to the constitutionality of an act, it must be resolved in favor of the act. And in United States ex rel. Bernardin v. Seymour, 10 App. D. C. 294, affirmed United States v. Duell, 19 S. Ct. 226, 172 U. S. 576, 43 L. Ed. 559, this Court held that the fact that a court entertains doubt as to the constitutionality of a statute is of itself sufficient ground for upholding the power of the legislature in enacting the law.

And in Pelley v. Botkin, 80 U. S. App. D. C. 251, 152 F. 2d 12, having found that the Subversive Activities Control Act is not "plainly and palpably void", this Court held that a presumption exists in favor of its validity.

The so-called "immunity statute", 18 U. S. Code 3486, is susceptible of construction as a constitutional statute. It is possible to hold that the purpose and intent of subsections (a) and (b) is the same as the purpose and intent of subsection (c), despite certain differences in language. The court need not hold that the "approval" under subsection (b) is any more or less than approval of the application for an order. Since a constitutional interpretation is possible on the face of the statute, the court is not compelled by any portion of the legislative history to construe the law in such a way as to find it unconstitutional.

Appellants indicate that the District Court has no power to issue orders in connection with immunity to be granted by a Committee of the Congress. One of the aspects of that argument is that a proceeding to obtain such an order is not a "case or controversy" within the meaning of Article III of the Constitution.

If appellants' restrictive view as to the power of courts of the United States under Article III were correct, the courts would be precluded from issuing warrants, subpoenas, duces tecum, show cause orders, temporary restraining orders, disbarment orders, orders revoking bondsmen's licenses, orders in aid of the jurisdiction of administrative agencies, etc., in all of which there are no present adverse parties before the court. Article III has never been given such a narrow construction.

To have a "case or controversy" under Article III of the Constitution, it is enough that there exist "present or possible adverse parties" whose contentions are submitted to the court for indication (In re Pacific Railway Commission 32 U.S. 240, 250). This is the situation here. There is the possibility of some future criminal prosecution of one of these prospective witnesses for or in connection with some matter or thing concerning which he may testify under a grant of immunity. It is important that in connection with any such case, the witness be able to establish the validity of his immunity grant.

It is also possible that there may be in the future a contempt proceeding against one of these witnesses for refusing to answer a proper and pertinent question even though offered immunity with respect to all matters and things concerning which he might testify responsively in his answer. In such case also it would be important to know that the offer of immunity was valid.

In either of the circumstances suggested above, there would be adverse parties; in the first case, the witness and the Government; in the second case, either the witness and the Senate, or the witness and the Government.

As pointed out in the Pacific Railway case at page 257 in the note, "Proceedings to perpetuate testimony, where litigation is expected or apprehended, are within the ordinary jurisdiction of courts of equity, and come under the designation of 'cases in equity' in the Constitution." Similarly, perpetuation of a record of judicial determination of compliance with important procedural prerequisites to a grant of immunity, where litigation is expected or apprehended is within the jurisdiction of the district courts under 18 U. S. Code 3486.

It is obvious that the proceeding before the District Court was a proceeding in aid of a legislative inquiry. As appellants have clearly stated in the memorandum accompanying their motion for stay, the application to the District Court was "for orders requiring appellants to testify under 18 U. S. Code 3486 (a) and (b)." (Emphasis supplied). The important effect of the Court's order is not to compel the appellants to appear and testify or give evidence (for this can and will be controlled by the inherent power of the committee itself), but to require that when the appellants do appear, if they do, they appear pursuant to 18 U. S. Code 3486 (a) and (b). To state the matter in another way, the effect of the District Court's order is to put the committee in a position to offer each of the witnesses a valid and unchallengeable immunity.

Just as a Federal court may, in an ex parte proceeding, order the issuance of a warrant of arrest, or a subpoena duces tecum, or a search warrant, in aid of a possible or expected criminal proceeding, so a court may, in an ex parte proceeding, issue an order of the type provided for by 18 U. S. Code 3486, in aid of a legislative proceeding. That is all that is here involved.

Appellants have also indicated that under appellee's interpretation of the statute the District Court has no real function to perform. That is not appellee's position.

The statute requires the court to make a determination with respect to compliance or non-compliance with the procedural prerequisites to a valid grant of immunity. The court may find non-compliance, in which case it will not approve the application nor enter the order applied for. If the court does find compliance, and enters its order showing that fact, the order is not subject to collateral attack but becomes conclusive with respect to the matters determined by the court, and thereafter only a valid offer of immunity followed by testimony of the witness in response thereto need be shown in order to make the immunity effective.

The function of the court to determine whether there was compliance with the procedural requirements of the statute, and the purpose to safeguard the rights of those who have been granted immunity pursuant to the procedure prescribed by the statute by having its order stand as a conclusive bar to prosecution inconsistent therewith, are of considerable importance, and can hardly be dismissed as insignificant.

Finally, it must be remembered that unlikelihood of reversal exists here if for no other reason than that in Numbers 13,787 and 13,788, 13,789, and 13,790, the appeals are moot, (as well as having been premature since no one of appellants has suffered any legal injury) and that in Numbers 13,808, 13,809, 13,810 and 13,811 appellants, not having been parties to the proceeding below, have no standing to appeal. To stay the effectiveness of the District Court's order would, therefore, be merely to delay the Senate committee in its legislative course, to no ultimate purpose.

III.

There is precedent for denial of a stay in these circumstances. In the Ullman case, after the Justice Department had presented its application, and the District Judge had given notice that he would sign an order, counsel for the witness moved for (1) a stay and (2) their own form of order. Judge Weinfeld refused the stay. Counsel for the witness appealed to the Second Circuit, and also asked the Second Circuit to stay the proceedings. The Justice Department filed a motion to dismiss the appeal, claiming the order was not appealable within Section 1291, Title 28, U. S. Code. The Court of Appeals of the Second Circuit issued a written opinion:

"Motion to dismiss appeal granted on the authority of Cobbledick v. United States (309 U. S. 323). Motion for stay dismissed as moot since motion to dismiss the appeal is also being hereby granted." See also, 350 U. S. at p. 425. The situation here is of course analogous.

Moreover, a division of this Court denied a stay just prior to the entry of Judge Pine's order herein, rejecting arguments quite similar to those made by appellants in connection with this renewed application. If a stay pending appeal were now granted, there would appear to be a conflict with the original order denying a stay. It is submitted that the Court here should follow its own precedent and that of the Ullman case.

CONCLUSION

Wherefore, it is respectfully requested that the motion for stay pending appeal be denied.

III. MISCELLANEOUS

The Chicago files reflected the following information concerning HAROLD GLASSER:

The "Chicago Daily Tribune" issue dated February 9, 1946 in an article entitled "Charges State Department Is A Tool of Reds" by WILLARD EDWARDS points out that HAROLD GLASSER was a "Red" sympathizer. The article reflects that "GLASSER formerly was military research director in the Treasury and (JOSIAH) DUBOIS (also named as a Red sympathizer) is a close friend. GLASSER's wife was corresponding secretary of the League of Women Shoppers which was regarded by the Special House Committee on Un-American Activities as a Communist front organization".

Mr. MILTON WALTERS, 1646 Jonquil Terrace, Regional Director, Social Security Administration, Chicago, Illinois, advised SA DANIEL J. MC CARTHY in June of 1948 that SOLOMON ADLER, Aka. associated a great deal with HAROLD GLASSER in 1935 and 1936. Mr. WALTERS added that ADLER had been induced by HAROLD GLASSER, then Dean of the Peoples' Junior College, Chicago, to travel from England to accept a teaching position at the College.

Mr. WALTERS advised that he was of the opinion that ADLER was a Socialist in view of the fact that he associated a great deal with HAROLD GLASSER who, he stated, was an avowed Socialist. Mr. WALTERS further advised that he knew of no Communist activity on the part of an employee or any faculty member at Peoples' Junior College.

Concerning SOLOMON ADLER, ELIZABETH T. BENTLEY, a former Russian espionage agent, advised that during the latter part of 1942 and through the early part of 1943, mention was made by other individuals involved in a Soviet espionage conspiracy of SOL ADLER who was a Treasury Department representative in Chungking, China. On occasions BENTLEY observed official letters written

ALEXANDER SACKS, an attorney, office address at 36
West 44 Street, New York City, residence address at 463 East
178 Street, Bronx, New York, was interviewed at the New York
Office on February 4, 1953, by SA PAUL J. BLASCO and SA
BLAZE J. TOMASONI regarding his association with NORMAN BURSLER.

In this regard, it is noted that ~~Confidential~~
Informant T-2, of known reliability, advised that during the month of April, 1946, BURSLER had received correspondence from ALEXANDER SACKS, 463 East 178 Street, Bronx, New York. 78 (u)

ELIZABETH TERRELL BENTLEY, self-confessed Soviet espionage agent, advised SA THOMAS G. SPENCER and SA JOSEPH
M. KELLEY on February 1, 1946, that NORMAN BURSLER, an employee of the Anti-Trust Division of the Department of Justice, had furnished Department of Justice reports to NATHAN GREGORY SILVERMASTER and his wife, HELEN SILVERMASTER, for transmission to the Soviet Union.

Miss BENTLEY described the SILVERMASTERS as active in Soviet espionage work in Washington, D. C., in the 1940's and as active members of the Communist Party.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Department of Justice personnel records for ALEXANDER SACKS, as reviewed by SA WILLIAM H. ATKINSON, in December, 1951, reflected that SACKS was appointed a Special Attorney in the Anti-Trust Division at Washington, D. C., on August 1, 1938, and resigned August 20, 1938. According to these records SACKS, carried as an employee of the Department of Justice, was actually assigned to the La Follette Committee, or Senate Civil Liberties Committee as it was popularly referred to at that time, as an investigator.

The records further reflected that on May 25, 1942, SACKS was appointed Special Attorney in the Anti-Trust Division with headquarters at New York City. He resigned in June, 1947. SACKS was assigned to the New York Division in the Department of Justice from September 29, 1944, to July 1, 1945, in the Economic Welfare Section. It was further reflected that SACKS served on a special assignment for the Department of Justice in Germany where his services were utilized on the Decartelization Program. Upon returning from Germany, SACKS was again assigned to the Department of Justice in New York City from September, 1945, until May, 1946, after which he returned to Washington, D. C.

It is noted that NORMAN BURSNER accompanied SACKS on his assignment for the Department of Justice in Germany.

Further, the records disclosed that SACKS was born November 11, 1909, in New York City. He received a Bachelor of Laws Degree in 1932 from Brooklyn Law School, New York City.

It was also reflected that SACKS had been employed as a social investigator for the Department of Welfare, New York City, and as an agent in the United States Bureau of Narcotics, New York City, in 1937.

CHARLES RINDONE, 41-10 10th Street, Long Island City, Queens, New York, furnished a signed statement to SA ARTHUR V. HART and SA RICHARD J. BURNETT on February 21, 1949. In the signed statement RINDONE stated that while he was employed by the Department of Welfare, City of New York, he joined the Communist Party about 1937. His unit was in the Men's Service Division, No. 2. RINDONE stated that some time after he joined the Communist Party ALEXANDER SACKS became employed by the Department as an investigator and stayed for approximately two years. Within a few months after coming to the Welfare Office, SACKS joined RINDONE's Communist Party unit, and RINDONE stated that he was present when SACKS' Communist Party card was signed at a meeting.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NY 100-95034

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

During the course of the interview with SACKS regarding NORMAN BURSNER he was questioned briefly about several other individuals, one of whom was the subject, HAROLD GLASSER.

During the interview SACKS advised that upon resigning from the Department of Justice he was engaged as an attorney-economist with the Decartelization Branch of the Office of Military Government of the United States in Frankfurt, Germany, from the latter part of 1947 to November, 1949.

He stated that after he returned from Germany in the latter part of 1949 he was subsequently contacted by HAROLD GLASSER. SACKS explained that the subject had a friend, whose name he could not recall, who was engaged in the manufacture of goods for deportation to the United States from Germany. SACKS stated that because of his extended knowledge regarding Germany's cartels and other business enterprises, GLASSER "used him" for a business connection in Germany. He went on to say that he had many conferences with GLASSER regarding businesses in Germany and that after GLASSER had garnered all of the information he could from SACKS, GLASSER then "dropped" him. He said that this was the extent of his associations with GLASSER and that he has not seen GLASSER for approximately one year.

SACKS pointed out that he had not known GLASSER prior to their initial contact in late 1949 or early 1950 and said he knew nothing about GLASSER other than the subject had formerly been employed by the Treasury Department and that during his association with GLASSER, the subject was employed by an organization in New York dealing with Jewish matters

[Confidential Informant T-3,] of known reliability, (u) advised on December 22, 1952, that the subject maintains an account with the Great Neck Trust Company, 51 Middle Neck Road, Great Neck, New York, under the name of HAROLD and FAYE GLASSER. The account was opened in both names on July 6, 1948, while GLASSER was residing at 52 Colgate Road, Great Neck, New York. For the past year the average balance has been from $1,400 to $2,400. The informant advised that the account is used mainly to pay for general household expenses.

It should be noted that the above information furnished by Confidential Informant T-3 is not to be made public except in a usual proceeding following the issuance of a subpoena duces tecum.

[REDACTED] Confidential Informant T-4, of known reliability, (u) had advised on July 22, 1952, that the subject had received correspondence from one PHILIP BERNSTEIN, in care of Sweets College, Lake Dunmore, Salesky.

[REDACTED] It is further noted that on June 30, 1952, Confidential Informant T-5, of known reliability, (u) advised that the GLASSERS had indicated that they were going on a vacation beginning July 1, 1952, and that after visiting Cleveland they were going to a lake resort in Vermont near the Massachusetts border.

The PHILIP BERNSTEIN listed as an Assistant Director of the Institute on Overseas Studies as referred to in the communication made available by ~~(T-3)~~ is probably (u) identical with the PHILIP BERNSTEIN who corresponded with the subject on July 22, 1952. The return address of Sweets College, Lake Dunmore, Salesky, is undoubtedly identical with Sweets Cottages, Salisbury, Vermont, the address given by GLASSER to ~~(T-3)~~ in August, 1952, as a temporary vacation address. It is quite possible that Confidential Informant T-4 had difficulty in translating the return address on the correspondence of July 22, 1952.

Harold Glasser appeared before an Executive Session of the Jenner Committee on April 14, 1953. The Bureau has received the testimony on a confidential basis for review. The original has been returned to the Jenner Committee. Glasser is the subject of a current Bureau investigation arising out of the charges of Elizabeth T. Bentley that he furnished her with information from the files of the Treasury Department in 1943 and 1944, to be transmitted through her to a Soviet espionage agent. The Glasser main file is 101-3599. It is noted that Executive Session testimony should not be disseminated outside the Bureau.

A review of the testimony reflects that there is no new information of a pertinent nature contained therein. Mr. Morris, Counsel for the Committee, advised that the Committee had evidence before it that Glasser had been a member of the Communist Party and a Communist organization. Glasser refused to answer any questions regarding Communist Party membership or membership in any Communist organization on the ground that it may tend to incriminate him. Glasser refused to admit that he knew Victor Perlo, Alger Hiss, Donald Hiss, Whittaker Chambers or Harry Dexter White on the ground that it might tend to incriminate him. Glasser did answer some general questions about his past employment history, place of residence and education.

RECOMMENDATION:

No action is necessary in connection with Glasser's testimony and a copy of the testimony is being filed in the Jenner Committee control file 62-88217 and in the main case file on Harold Glasser, 101-3599. New York, office of origin in the Glasser case, has been advised by separate letter of the review of the Executive Session testimony.

TUESDAY, April 14, 1953

United States Senate,

E. Jenner, presiding.

Present: Senators Jenner, Welker, Hendrickson, and Smith.

Also Present: Robert Morris, committee counsel.

Senator Jenner. We will proceed.

Will you raise your right hand and be sworn?

Do you solemnly swear that the testimony you will give before this subcommittee will be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God?

Mr. Glasser. I do.

TESTIMONY OF HAROLD GLASSER, 8 SHEFFIELD ROAD,
GREAT NECK, NEW YORK, ACCOMPANIED BY COUNSEL,
MILTON H. FRIEDMAN, 522 FIFTH AVENUE,
NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Senator Jenner. You may state your full name.

Mr. Glasser. Harold Glasser.

1 Senator Jenner. Where do you reside?

2 Mr. Glasser. At 8 Sheffield Road, Great Neck, New York.

3 Senator Jenner. Let the record show the attorney as pro-
4 sent. What is your name?

5 Mr. Friedman. Milton H. Friedman. My office is at 6 522 Fifth avenue, New York.

7 Mr. Morris. Mr. Glasser, we have evidence before this
8 committee that you have been a member of the Communist party
9 and Communist organization. Have you in fact ever been a
10 member of the Communist party or a Communist organization?

11 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question on the 12 ground it may tend to incriminate me.

13 Mr. Morris. Will you give us a short sketch of your 14 life? I will ask it this way; you are from Chicago, are you
15 not?

16 Mr. Glasser. That is correct.

17 Mr. Morris. Will you tell us what your degrees are?

18 Mr. Glasser. My academic record?

19 Mr. Morris. Yes.

20 Mr. Glasser. I took my bachelor's degree, the only
21 degree I have, from the University of Chicago in 1926.

22 Mr. Morris. What did you do at that time?

23 Mr. Glasser. I continued with graduate work at the 24 University of Chicago, for two years.

25 Mr. Morris. Until 1928?

Mr. Glasser. That is correct.

1 Then I taught at the University of Akron.

2 Mr. Morris. University of Akron?

3 Mr. Glasser. At Akron, Ohio.

4 From, I believe, April, it was in the mid-semester, from 5 April 1929 until September 1929.

6 Mr. Morris. Will you proceed, Mr. Glasser? That brings
7 you up to September 1929?

8 Mr. Glasser. I then went to Harvard for graduate work.

9 Mr. Morris. Graduate work at Harvard from 1929?

10 Mr. Glasser. To 1930.

11 Mr. Morris. All right. What did you do the following 12 year?

13 Mr. Glasser. From 1930 to 1931, I returned to Chicago.

14 Mr. Morris. Were you with the Brookings Institution
15 prior to that?

16 Mr. Glasser. No, I was with the Brookings Institution
17 from 1931 to 1932.

18 Mr. Morris. Between 1930 and 1931, what did you do be-19 tween 1930 and 1931?

20 Mr. Glasser. I was doing additional work at the Univer-
21 sity of Chicago.

22 Mr. Morris. Where did you live? Do you remember your 23 address in Chicago?

24 Mr. Glasser. Well, if you could tell me that, I could 25 remember it.

1 Mr. Morris. All right. Did you live at 72-49 Constance
2 Avenue, Chicago?

3 Mr. Glasser. That was later.

4 Mr. Morris. That was later?

5 Mr. Glasser. Yes.

6 Mr. Morris. All right. While you were at the University
7 of Chicago, 1930 and 1931?

8 Mr. Glasser. Yes?

9 Mr. Morris. How were you supporting yourself at that 10 time?

11 Mr. Glasser. I think I was living at home. I had odd
12 jobs of tutoring. I may have had some assistance from the 13 University, a loan during that period.

14 Mr. Morris. From 1931 to 1932, you were back in Washing-
15 ton?

16 Mr. Glasser. 1931 and 1932, I was back in Washington.
17 The first time I was in Washington at the Brookings Institution
18 as a Fellow.

19 Mr. Morris. What did you do following 1932? When were 20 you with the People's Junior College?

21 Mr. Glasser. That was later.

22 Mr. Morris. Later on?

23 Mr. Glasser. Yes.

24 Mr. Morris. In 1932, the Brookings Institution, 1933,
25 what did you do that year?

Mr. Glasser. From 1932 to 1933, I went back to Chicago, and I was unemployed. I had some odd jobs, really, until I entered the People's Junior College, which was organized in the fall of 1933.

Mr. Morris. Did you have any official position on the faculty there?

Mr. Glasser. Yes. After the first few months of the operation of the People's Junior College, I became the Dean. I was the administrative Dean of the College.

Mr. Morris. You were the Dean from when?

Mr. Glasser. Until 1935.

Mr. Morris. This is Senator Willis Smith from North Carolina, Mr. Glasser and Mr. Friedman.

We have been taking Mr. Glasser through his activities.

Senator Wolke, this is Mr. Harold Glasser and his attorney, Mr. Friedman.

Senator Wolke. I am glad to see you. I have two of my staff with me.

(Discussion off the record.)

Senator Jenner. On the record.

Mr. Morris. While you were Dean of the People's Junior College in Chicago, were you a member of the Communist party?

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question on the ground it will tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. Were you active while you were in Chicago

1 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question on the
2 ground it might tend to incriminate me.

3 Mr. Morris. What was your next assignment?

4 Senator Welker. Just a moment, Counsel, were you a member
5 of any political party at that time?

6 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question on the
7 ground it may tend to incriminate me.

8 Senator Welker. Go ahead, Counsel.

9 Mr. Morris. What was your next assignment?

10 Senator Smith. Do you think it would tend to incrimi-
11 nate you to say you were a member of the Republican Party?

12 Mr. Glasser. May I consult my attorney?

13 Senator Smith. Yes.

14 (Witness consults his counsel.)

15 Mr. Glasser. I don't suppose so.

16 Senator Smith. Would it incriminate you to say you were 17 a member of the Democratic party?

18 Mr. Glasser. I don't think so.

19 Senator Smith. Would it incriminate you to say you
20 were a member of the Socialist party?

21 Mr. Glasser. I think it may.

22 Senator Smith. You think it may?

23 Mr. Glasser. Yes.

24 Senator Smith. Would it incriminate you to say you
25 were a member of the Communist party?

Mr. Glasser. I think so.

Senator Smith. It is your understanding the Communist party is outlawed in America, or not?

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Senator Smith. Don't you know whether the Communist party is legally in America or not?

Mr. Glasser. I am sorry, sir; I must refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. What was your next assignment after the Ecuadorian trip in 1937?

Mr. Glasser. The Ecuadorian trip was over in 1942. I returned.

Mr. Morris. Over in 1942?

Mr. Glasser. I returned in June or July of 1942. Then I stayed in Washington until January, 1943, when I went to North Africa.

Mr. Morris. In what capacity did you go to North Africa?

Mr. Glasser. I was, I believe, Chief of the Financial Division of the North African Economic Board.

Senator Welker. Who sent you there?

Mr. Glasser. The Treasury.

Senator Welker. Who in the Treasury?

Mr. Glasser. I am sorry, sir, I must refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Senator Jenner. Who was your immediate superior?

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Senator Smith. What you mean by that, Mr. Glasser, is there was someone in the Treasury Department who ordered you to go to North Africa; if you told who that person was it would tend to incriminate you?

Mr. Glasser. That is right.

Senator Smith. I just want to get it clear. Is that right?

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. How long were you Chief of the Financial Division of the Economic Board of North Africa?

Mr. Glasser. I stayed there until -- I believe it was September, August or September of 1943. Then I returned to Washington.

Mr. Morris. All right then.

What was your assignment in Washington?

Mr. Glasser. I think I took over my usual duties.

Mr. Morris. What were they?

Mr. Glasser. Involving financial questions in North Africa, in the European theater; and also I worked on the organization of UNRRA, as the representative --

Senator Hendrickson. UNRRA?

Mr. Glasser. UNRRA, United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Association.

Senator Hendrickson. Do you remember an arrangement of the U. S. Treasury, made with the Soviet Union, whereby certain printing plates were transferred from the United States Government to the Soviet government? Do you know anything about that Treasury arrangement?

Mr. Glasser. Excuse me. May I consult my attorney?

Senator Hendrickson. You may.

(Witness consults his counsel.)

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. Asking about the Treasury, not your participation, do you know what arrangements the Treasury made?

(Witness consults his counsel.)

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. What was your next assignment after 1943?

Mr. Glasser. In the Spring of 1944, I believe it was in March, I went to Italy to do an anti-inflation study in methods of combating inflation in Italy.

Mr. Morris. How long were you on that assignment?

Mr. Glasser. I was on that assignment for three months, I should think.

Senator Smith. May I ask a question?

1 Senator Jenner. Yes.

2 Senator Smith. Did you speak Italian?

3 Mr. Glasser. No, sir.

4 Senator Smith. Who did you deal with there in Italy?

5 Mr. Glasser. It was with the Military Government.

6 Senator Smith. Only with Americans, then?

7 Mr. Glasser. Americans and British.

8 Senator Smith. Were you studying about the inflation in 9 Italy of the civilian end of their life?

10 Mr. Glasser. That is right.

11 Senator Smith. Wouldn't you have to have some under-12 standing of Italian to have read Italian reports and done the 13 things a man had to do in doing research on a project of that 14 sort?

15 Mr. Glasser. We had translators and interpreters so
16 the Italian material was made available to us.

17 Senator Smith. Who were they? Who were some of those 18 who worked with you there?

19 Mr. Glasser. The Italians?

20 Senator Smith. Yes; interpreters.

21 Mr. Glasser. I don't remember. They were employees in 22 the Military Government. I think they were Americans, not 23 Italians -- American soldiers.

24 Senator Jenner. Who was your immediate superior?

25 Mr. Glasser. I really had no superior in the sense I

1 was on a special assignment from Washington to do a special
2 job.

3 Senator Jenner. Who assigned you.

4 Mr. Glasser. I must refuse to answer that question on
5 the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

6 Senator Smith. You will refuse to answer who assigned
7 you to go to Italy for the United States Government?

8 Mr. Glasser. Awfully sorry.

9 Senator Smith. I think you ought to make him answer
10 that.

11 Mr. Morris. Harry Dexter White was your superior, was 12 he not?

13 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question on the
14 ground it may tend to incriminate me.

15 Senator Smith. I knew there was something in this.

16 Senator Hendrickson. May I ask a question.

17 Senator Jenner. Senator Hendrickson.

18 Senator Hendrickson. I happened to be with the Allied 19 Military Government in Italy. Were you with the Allied
20 Commission?

21 Mr. Glasser. Yes.

22 Senator Hendrickson. Were you under the Allied
23 Commission?

24 Mr. Glasser. I was assigned to the Allied Commission.

25 Senator Hendrickson. Were you under Admiral Stone?

Mr. Glasser. Yes.

Senator Hendrickson. In Naples?

Mr. Glasser. Yes.

Senator Hendrickson. Who was the man between Stone and your function?

Mr. Glasser. I am not sure there was a man, because the Chief of the Finance Section there -- I believe was one English and one American.

Senator Hendrickson. Do you remember who the British was?

Mr. Glasser. Grafty Smith.

Senator Hendrickson. Grafty Smith?

Mr. Glasser. Yes.

Senator Hendrickson. How closely did you work with Smith?

Mr. Glasser. Colonel Grafty Smith.

Senator Hendrickson. How closely did you work with him? Just what were your duties in Naples?

Mr. Glasser. As I --

Senator Hendrickson. Were you in Naples or Salerno?

Mr. Glasser. I was in Naples.

Senator Hendrickson. Go ahead.

Mr. Morris. What was your next assignment?

Senator Hendrickson. I wanted to know what his duties were. I wanted to know what he did there.

Mr. Glasser. We studied the economic and financial situation in the liberated Italy. We drew up a program for combating inflation which was to be a guide to the Italian authorities in the administration of their area, and a guide to the Military Government in civilian operations.

Senator Hendrickson. You were in civilian clothes, were you?

Mr. Glasser. That is right.

Senator Hendrickson. You were a civilian employee of the Army?

Mr. Glasser. No. I think I was a Treasury employee.

Senator Hendrickson. You were on loan from the Treasury?

Mr. Glasser. I was attached to the Military Government.

Senator Hendrickson. Were you responsible in any way to the Military?

Mr. Glasser. Well, I believe being attached to the Military made me believe I was responsible to the Military. When I went into the area I was under Military jurisdiction.

Senator Hendrickson. Did you take orders from the Military?

Mr. Glasser. I don't really remember, because I don't think the Military gave me any orders.

Senator Hendrickson. Go ahead.

Mr. Glasser. It was an ambiguous situation, sir.

1 Senator Hendrickson. I remember the Allied Commission
2 very well. They did a lot of things over there.

3 Senator Jenner. That was their purpose.

4 Senator Hendrickson. I know the Allied Commission very 5 well. I know the mess they made of a lot of things, both in 6 Italy and other places.

7 Senator Jenner. That will be in the record.

8 Mr. Morris. What was your next assignment after your 9 assignment to Italy?

10 Mr. Glasser. I returned to the Treasury, and I just 11 assumed the duties in the Division of Finance and Economic 12 Problems, principally in the European Theater.

13 Mr. Morris. What Division were you in at the time?

14 Mr. Glasser. Division of Monetary Research.

15 Mr. Morris. Who was the head of the Division of Monetary
16 Research?

17 Mr. Glasser. I must refuse to answer that question on 18 the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

19 Mr. Morris. How long did you stay in the Treasury,
20 1946?

21 Mr. Glasser. No; I stayed in the Treasury until 1947.

22 Mr. Morris. End of 1947?

23 What did you do at that time?

24 Mr. Glasser. What time?

25 Mr. Morris. End of 1947?

Mr. Glasser. I was Assistant Director of the Office of International Finance. There had been a reorganization, I believe, in 1946.

Mr. Morris. This is your last Treasury job? Is that the Assistant Director of the Office of International Finance?

Mr. Glasser. Yes.

Senator Welker. Who was the Director.

Mr. Glasser. The Director of the Division of Monetary Research?

Senator Welker. Yes.

Mr. Morris. In the Department of Finance. You were Assistant Director.

Senator Welker. I want to know who the Director was.

Mr. Glasser. Frank Southard.

Mr. Morris. You left the Treasury completely at the end of 1947, did you not?

Mr. Glasser. Yes.

Mr. Morris. Who did you work for then?

Mr. Friedman. Senator, may I say I just want to be sure there is no question about the fact that the witness has answered all questions fully. Is Counsel under the impression that witness has stated all of his assignments in the Treasury?

Mr. Morris. No.

Mr. Glasser. Of course being in the Treasury, that means you were continuously getting assignments. I assume you mean by assignments, the important ones.

Mr. Morris. Yes.

Mr. Glasser. Or the ones that have taken me out of the Country.

Mr. Morris. I understand that.

The reason I am skipping over, we hope to have this open session at 10:00 o'clock.

Senator Jenner. We go in session at 11:00 today.

Senator Welker. 10:00 o'clock.

Mr. Morris. The Committee; but the Senate goes in session at 11:00.

Senator Welker. I see.

Mr. Morris. Mr. Glasser, will you tell us what your next assignment was after you left the Treasury?

Mr. Glasser. I became the Director of the Institute on Overseas Studies for the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds.

Mr. Morris. Were you at that time a Communist?

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. Have you held that position until the present time?

Mr. Glasser. Yes, sir.

Mr. Morris. How many trips abroad have you taken in connection with that?

Mr. Glasser. Two in 1948. I think two in 1949. No;

1 I am sorry, in 1949 I went abroad with my family, and I think
2 I came back to the United States twice.

3 Mr. Morris. On these trips did you ever meet with any 4 foreign communists?

5 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the
6 ground it may tend to incriminate me.

7 Mr. Morris. Was your last trip in 1949; Mr. Glasser?

8 Mr. Glasser. No, sir.

9 Mr. Morris. Any in 1950?

10 Mr. Glasser. In 1950 I returned to the United States in 11 the middle of the year. I can't remember now whether I went 12 back again in 1950 or not. But I had two trips in 1951. The 13 last trip abroad was in September, 1951.

14 Mr. Morris. Did you meet with any foreign Communists
15 at that time?

16 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the
17 ground it may tend to incriminate me.

18 Mr. Morris. Are you presently a Communist?

19 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the
20 ground it may tend to incriminate me.

21 Mr. Morris. Did you testify before the Federal Grand
22 Jury at any time in New York?

23 Mr. Glasser. Excuse me. May I consult my attorney?

24 (Witness consults his counsel.)

25 Mr. Glasser. Yes, sir.

Mr. Morris. Did you know there was an FBI investigation made into your loyalty in 1941? Do you know it?

Senator Jenner. You may consult your counsel if you wish.

(Witness consults his counsel.)

Mr. Glasser. I have a vague feeling there was. I knew there was investigation. I didn't know it was an FBI investigation. There was a Secret Service investigation.

Mr. Morris. Did the Treasury Department make a ruling in February, 1942, that no action should be taken on your case.

Mr. Glasser. I am sorry. I am not aware of that.

Mr. Morris. Do you know that in 1946 there was a recommendation that you leave the Treasury?

Mr. Glasser. I did not know that.

Mr. Morris. Didn't you have a conversation with the Treasury Department officials about your loyalty in 1946?

Mr. Glasser. Excuse me.

(Witness consults his counsel.)

Mr. Glasser. Will you please repeat that question?

Mr. Morris. Did you know that there was a question of your being investigated, had come up in Treasury in 1946?

Mr. Glasser. I don't remember it, sir.

Mr. Morris. Did you know there was an investigation of Mr. Victor Forle in the Treasury in 1946?

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. Do you remember having a conversation in Treasury whereby the recommendation was made that Victor Perlo leave the Treasury?

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. Did you subsequent to that time recommend Perlo to the State Department in connection with an Inter-Governmental Committee on Refugees?

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. Did you ever have a discussion of this subject with Stephen Spingarn at the White House?

Mr. Glasser. Excuse me, sir.

(The witness consults his counsel.)

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. Did you meet -- do you know a man named Max Lowenthal?

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Mr. Morris. You had letters of recommendation, did you not, when you went to your present job?

Mr. Glasser. No, sir. You mean I had? I did not have

1 letters.

2 Mr. Morris. Official superiors of yours in the Govern-
3 ment did write letters to Mr. Lourie on your behalf, did they 4 not?

5 Mr. Glasser. I believe they did.

6 Mr. Morris. Do you know who these officials were?

7 Mr. Glasser. Excuse me a moment.

8 Mr. Morris. Yes.

9 (The witness consults his counsel.)

10 Mr. Glasser. It is my understanding that Secretary
11 Snyder and Dean Acheson sent letters to Mr. Lourie. There
12 may have been others but I don't know of them.

13 Mr. Morris. Did you take any steps in order to obtain
14 these letters or recommendations?

15 Mr. Glasser. No, sir.

16 Mr. Morris. They were purely voluntary on the part
17 of the senders?

18 Mr. Glasser. I had nothing to do about getting those 19 letters. I assume Mr. Lourie wrote them.

20 Mr. Morris. Had you personally met Mr. Acheson before
21 that?

22 Mr. Glasser. Yes, sir.

23 Mr. Morris. Under what circumstances?

24 Mr. Glasser. Various times through my Government ser-
25 vice.

1 Senator Welker: Did you ever meet Alger Hiss?

2 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the
3 ground it may tend to incriminate me.
4

5 Senator Welker. Donald Hiss?

6 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the
7 ground it may tend to incriminate me.
8

9 Senator Welker. Whittaker Chambers?

10 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the 11 ground it may tend to incriminate me.
12

13 Mr. Morris. To your knowledge is Mr. Louria, Mr. H. L.
14 Louria, Executive Director of the Council of Jewish Federations
15 and Welfare Funds?
16

17 Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the 18 ground it may tend to incriminate me.
19

20 Mr. Morris. Mr. Chairman, I think, in view of the 21 time, I have no more questions.
22

23 Senator Jenner. All right. You may stand aside at 24 this question.
25

26 Senator Smith. Did he tell you what he was doing now?

27 Senator Jenner. Yes, he did.

28 Mr. Morris. Yes.

29 Senator Hendrickson. Just before we conclude, will 30 you tell us whether there were any Russians operating in 31 Naples at the time you were there with the Allied Commission?
32

33 Mr. Glasser. I am afraid I must refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

Senator Hendrickson. There were Russians attached?

Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me.

(Whereupon, at 10:00 a. m., the subcommittee recessed, subject to the call of the Chair.)

Glasser Won't Testify About Red Advice

By Murrey Marder
Post Reporter

A former Treasury economist who was named in the 1948 spying hearings here, yesterday refused to tell Senate investigators whether he gave pro-Communist advice to high Federal officials between 1936 and 1947.

The witness, Harold Glasser, testified before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee. The group is seeking to develop new links to the testimony of Whitaker Chambers and Elizabeth Bentley five years ago, and uncover Communist infiltration of Government.

In questioning Glasser, the subcommittee headed by Sen. William E. Jenner (R-Ind.), spread on the record the names of many New Deal and Fair Deal officials, a development which appeared to have political implications for the 1954 congressional elections.

Adviser to Marshall

Glasser said that in 1947 he served as an adviser on economic problems of Trieste for then Secretary of State George C.

Over a period of seven years Glasser said, he attended possible "30 or 40" economic conferences with Dean Acheson when Acheson was Assistant Secretary of State and later Undersecretary of State.

Glasser refused on grounds of possible self-incrimination to say whether he is a Communist or whether he passed on to Federal officials advice he received from Communist sources.

"The fact is," Sen. Herman Welker (R-Idaho) told Glasser, "that in your entire Government duties you were engaged in espionage activities against the United States."

Subcommittee Counsel Robert Morris produced a 1947 letter in which Dean Acheson gave a recommendation for Glasser on the civilian job which he obtained when he left the Government.

The letter, dated December 23, 1947, was addressed to H. L.

Lurie, executive director of the Council of Jewish Federal and Welfare Funds, Inc. said he now is director of the council's Institute of Overseas Studies on a part-time basis at an annual salary of $10,000.

Associated for Seven Years

Acheson stated in the letter that he worked with Glasser for seven years on problems of "foreign funds control and other economic warfare matters." He said Glasser served under him on two United States delegations to United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration council meetings.

Glasser "impressed" him, Acheson wrote, "with his technical competence" and his ability to carry "a large part of the burden of the financial committee of the council."

Acheson stated that Glasser was "a good working companion" who is "able to approach problems in a well-organized and analytical manner" and would be found to be "a first-rate economist."

At the time the letter was written, Acheson was not in the State Department. Acheson resigned from the department in July, 1947, and returned to it as Secretary of State in 1949.

Information which appears in last year's hearings before the same Senate subcommittee, and which was not mentioned yesterday, states that Glasser was under a loyalty investigation when he resigned from the Treasury on December 31, 1947.

Report List Measures

The present Federal loyalty program began in March of 1947. A Civil Service Commission report in last year's hearings states that when Glasser resigned, "Precautionary measures were taken to prevent Mr. Glasser's reemployment in the Federal service at a later date until the question of his loyalty has been resolved."

Glasser is a soft-spoken man of 47. He has repeatedly been accused of engaging in Communist underground work with Alger Hiss—who is now in prison—but yesterday was the first time Glasser has testified publicly.

He said he attended the University of Chicago and Harvard University. In 1936, after a job with the Works Progress Administration, Glasser began work at the Treasury Department. In 1940 he served as a financial adviser to the government of Ecuador, and in 1943 he was on another financial mission to North Africa. Later, back in the Treasury Department, Glasser said he served as an adviser to former Treasury Secretary Henry Morgenthau, Jr.

Accused by Former Reds

Former Communists Chambers and Bentley have stated that the late Harry Dexter White, former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Glasser, and Victor Perlo were fellow Communists in the department. Miss Bentley said Glasser had worked with Hiss in the Red underground.

Counsel Morris yesterday put in the record what he said was a part of a heretofore unpublished intelligence report which mentioned Glasser and was dated November 25, 1945.

The report, obviously made to the FBI—referred to as the "bureau"—was based on statements by Miss Bentley. It said she was told that "Hiss of the State Department had taken Harold Glasser of the Treasury Department and two or three others and had turned them over to direct control by the Soviet representatives in this country."

Morris stressed the date of that report. He noted that it was referred to in 1950 by Vice President Richard M. Nixon, then a Congressman, as part of a secret 1945 memorandum "circulated among several Government departments and ... made available to the President."

Refuses to Identify List

Glasser was asked yesterday to identify a long list of persons named in that document and other records; he declined to do so. Morris asked him if he knew that "after a conference with Stephen Spingarn at the White House, Victor Perlo's record was cleared." Glasser declined to answer that.

Stephen J. Spingarn, now a member of the Federal Trade Commission, told reporters yesterday: "The implication in the question is completely without truth." Spingarn said he has asked Morris for a copy of the transcript.

Spingarn was assistant general counsel in the Treasury Department and became a White House aide in 1949. At the Treasury Department he was counsel for the Secret Service, and he served in counter-espionage work during World War II.

INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

Harold Glasser has been under investigation over a period of several years arising out of information furnished by Elizabeth T. Bentley that Glasser, a former Assistant Director in the Treasury Department, furnished her with information in 1943 and 1944, from Treasury Department files, which information she turned over to her Soviet espionage superior for transmittal to the U.S.S.R. According to Bentley, Glasser was a member of the Victor Perlo group of the Soviet espionage apparatus.

Whittaker Chambers and Katherine Wills Perlo, former wife of Victor Perlo, have described Glasser as a Communist.

Investigative reports have been regularly furnished to the Records Administration Branch.

It would be appreciated if you would advise if Glasser is subject to registration under the terms of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended by Section 20(a) of the Internal Security Act of 1950.

INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN OTHERWISE

There are attached hereto for the information of the New York Office two copies of a memorandum to the Criminal Division which seeks its opinion as to whether or not subject, Harold Glasser, should register under terms of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended by the Internal Security Act of 1950.

A review of the Glasser case file at the Bureau reveals that no information has been developed over the past several years to indicate that Glasser is currently engaged in any Soviet espionage activity or Communist Party activity.

The report of SA Carl N. deTemple dated 5-18-49 at WFO, two copies of which were designated for New York, reflects that Glasser was interviewed at the WFO on April 30 and May 3, 1947, and gave considerable information to the interviewing agents concerning many persons connected with the Silvermaster and Perlo espionage groups. Glasser admitted knowing and being friendly with both Nathan Gregory Silvermaster and Victor Perlo. The admissions of Glasser were set down in statement form and on May 7, 1947, Glasser appeared at the WFO and refused to sign the prepared statement because of differences of opinion concerning two items therein. One of the items was that Glasser claimed he would rather call the meetings he attended with Art Witt "social workers meetings rather than Communist Party meetings." The other point of difference was that Glasser claimed he had not said he was a member of the American League Against War and Fascism but that he had stated that he may have been a member. The admissions of Glasser are set out on pages fifteen through twenty-three of referenced report. It is noted, however, that although Glasser admitted close friendship with various members of the espionage apparatus and lesser association with others in a business and social way, he did not admit any complicity in or knowledge of the operation of the espionage apparatus.

On January 28, 1949, Glasser was interviewed by NYC agents at which time he refused to answer any questions concerning his alleged Communist or Soviet espionage activity.

On February 2 and 3, 1949, Glasser was reinterviewed by NYC agents and declined to answer any questions.

Glasser testified before the Federal Grand Jury in October, 1947, but failed to give any information concerning Communist or espionage activities.

On April 14, 1953, Glasser testified before an Executive Session of the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security (Jenner Committee). A review of this testimony at the Bureau reflected that Glasser refused to state on grounds of self-incrimination whether or not he is or was a Communist or a member of any Communist organization. He also refused on grounds of self-incrimination to state whether or not he knew Harry Dexter White, Alger Hiss, Donald Hiss, Victor Perlo or Whittaker Chambers. No new information concerning instant case was noted from a review of the above Executive Session testimony. The fact that the above Executive Session testimony was reviewed by Bureau representatives should not be divulged outside the Bureau, (S)

Glasser also testified on April 14, 1953, in public hearing before the Jenner Committee, the transcript of which has not as yet been received at the Bureau. Newspaper accounts of same, however, reflect that he failed to give any information to the Committee regarding Communist or espionage activities on his part.

The Times-Herald newspaper for April 28, 1953, reflects that Columnist George Sokolsky devoted his column that day to Harold Glasser pointing out the fact that Glasser is connected with the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, an important organization which functions in this country and in Europe.

Sokolsky stated that Glasser had held some of the most important positions in the United States Government to which Sokolsky would refer in a subsequent article.

Sokolsky pointed out the fact that Glasser had been uncooperative with the Jenner Committee and ended his column stating: "Harold Glasser, hidden away in a vast bureaucracy, was in a position to influence the policies and actions of the United States. His importance cannot be overestimated. Yet, he rejected identifying an oath which he signed and his own signature lest they incriminate him. When a man is so afraid of his past, and when that past was so important in American life, he needs to be investigated even more fully. That is being done, but such an investigation would be incomplete unless it includes evidence as to how he got his job in the important council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, who gave it to him, who keeps him in that job, and what he did during his trips to Europe every year."

The New York Division is instructed to review the file on Glasser and make recommendations as to how this case may be brought to a logical conclusion. New York is also instructed to make recommendations to the Bureau as to whether or not further attempts should be made to interview Glasser.

New York should handle this matter promptly and advise the Bureau of its recommendations.

THESE DAYS

By George Sokolsky

Harold Glasser, who had long been in government service, is now connected with the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds. This is an important organization which functions in this country and in Europe.

Glasser was called before the Jenner committee where he used the fifth amendment to refuse to answer questions which obviously could not incriminate him. For instance:

"Mr. Morris. Mr. Alder lived with you in Chicago at that time, did he not?"

"Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer that question, sir, on the ground it may tend to incriminate me."

Solomon Adler, it is true, has been identified by two witnesses as a Communist, but how is it possible that a demonstrable fact, as to living with Glasser, could incriminate Glasser? Either they did live together or they did not.

Similarly, Glasser used the fifth amendment in connection with an oath he took on January 8, 1944, to which he signed his name, and in it Glasser, among other things, swears "That I am not an alien, nor a Communist, nor a member of any Nazi bund organization, that I will not become a Communist, or a member of any Nazi bund organization during such time as I am an employe of the federal government."

This man, who has held some of the most important positions in the United States government, to which I shall refer in a subsequent article, was shown this oath, signed by him.

Then the following colloquy occurred:

"Sen. Jenner — Is that your signature, Mr. Glasser?"

"Mr. Glasser—I refuse to answer that question, sir, on the ground that it may tend to incriminate me."

"Sen. Jenner—You refuse to answer whether or not that is your signature?"

"Mr. Glasser—Yes, sir, I refuse to answer that question."

"Sen. Jenner—You know your own signature when you see it, do you not?"

"Mr. Glasser—I refuse to answer that question, sir, on the ground it may tend to incriminate me."

This amazing sequence of questions and answers followed:

"Sen. Welker — Were you a member of the Communist party on the 8th day of January, 1944, when you were administered that oath, when you took that oath?"

"Mr. Glasser—I refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me."

"Sen. Welker—You want to deny that you ever took an oath such as that, do you?"

"Mr. Glasser—I refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me."

"Sen. Welker—As a matter of fact, at the time you were administered that oath, you were a member of the Communist party?"

"Mr. Glasser—I refuse to answer that question on the ground it may tend to incriminate me."

"Sen. Smith. May I ask again? Did I understand the witness to say that admitting his own signature would be evidence tending to incriminate him?"

"Sen. Jenner. That was his statement."

"Sen. Smith. Is that right, Mr. Glasser?"

"Mr. Glasser. Yes, sir."

"Sen. Smith. That you refuse to identify your own signature to an oath because to do so would tend to incriminate you?"

"Mr. Glasser. I refuse to answer the question on the grounds it would tend to incriminate me."

Sen. Jenner made the point that he believed the witness was within his rights under the fifth amendment because "if he admits that is his oath, he admits he lied when he took it."

Harold Glasser, hidden away in a vast bureaucracy, was in a position to influence the policies and actions of the United States. His importance cannot be overestimated. Yet, he rejected identifying an oath which he signed and his own signature lest they incriminate him. When a man is so afraid of his past, and when that past was so important in American life, he needs to be investigated even more fully. That is being done, but such an investigation would be incomplete unless it includes evidence as to how he got his job in the important council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, who gave it to him, who keeps him in that job, and what he did during his trips to Europe every year.

When Harold Glasser was before the Internal Security Committee he was interrogated about various individuals whom he had contacted and who rendered services to him. One of the individuals was Stephen J. Spingarn and Morris asked Glasser questions about his contact with Spingarn and so forth. On these occasions Glasser invoked his constitutional privilege. Morris told me that immediately after the hearings Spingarn called him and jumped him on the questions. Morris agreed to furnish Spingarn the pertinent portion of the testimony.

Spingarn in his conversation talked about correcting the testimony and Morris, accordingly, invited him to appear before the Committee in Executive Session and make any statement he desired. Morris then followed this up by letter, again inviting Spingarn to appear. Spingarn in turn by letter dated April 21, 1953, points out that he was precluded from testifying because he was bound by the President's Executive Order restricting the furnishing of any information on Loyalty cases. Spingarn then goes on to say that it has always been his understanding that the Director has been one of the strongest proponents of these Presidential directives against the disclosing of information on individual loyalty matters. Spingarn states that he was not at the White House at the time Glasser contacted him and has requested that his letter pointing out this be made part of the record.

Morris would like to get Spingarn before the Committee as he feels that Spingarn has been involved in a lot of behind-the-scenes maneuvering.

The Communist Party has been designated by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

[Confidential Informant T-3, ^K of known reliability, (u) furnished the names of individuals who were officers of various International Workers Order lodges in New York City. Among this list appeared the name of ABEL REINSTEIN, 1323 West Farms Road, Bronx, New York. He was listed as being the Vice President of Thomas Paine Lodge number 807 JA as of November 16, 1948.

The International Workers Order has been declared by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

~~ANNA SOKOLOW~~
10 Monroe Street
New York City

THOMAS A. GRAY, Manager, Knickerbocker Village, 10 Monroe Street, New York City, advised on May 5, 1953 that his records failed to reflect that ANNA SOKOLOW is or has been one of their tenants. However, a further check by GRAY disclosed that ANNA SOKOLOW stayed in apartment HF10 for a period of two weeks in the latter part of 1952. This apartment is rented to ARNOLD BANK. ^{NY}

ALEX NORTH, 338 North Crescent Drive, Beverly Hills, California, was interviewed on November 30, 1950 by SAs WILLIAM H. VAN LANDINGHAM and HARVEY G. BERKEY. It is noted that ALEX NORTH is the brother of JOSEPH NORTH, former editor of "New Masses". ^{NY}

ALEX NORTH advised that he met ANNA SOKOLOW, who was then a member of the Martha Graham Dancing Group, and from approximately 1933 to the summer of 1939 NORTH lived with ANNA SOKOLOW in common-law marriage. NORTH pointed out that both he and ANNA SOKOLOW gave various concerts at parties and rallies sponsored by such organizations as the Abraham Lincoln Brigade and the International Workers Order, but that his and ANNA SOKOLOW's participation in such activities was strictly limited to a professional basis. He stated that they were separated in approximately July, 1939 subsequent to a quarrel over a love affair.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The only address he had for ANNA SOKOLOW was the Sherman Square Studio, West 73rd Street, New York City. NORTH also suggested contact with SOKOLOW's sister, Mrs. ARNOLD BANK, also known as ROSE BANK, Knickerbocker Village, New York City, for her current whereabouts (Confidential Informant T-274) advised that ANNA (u) SOKOLOW was an instructor in "Dancing for Children" at the Jefferson School of Social Science for the fall term of 1946. The informant also advised that both ANNA SOKOLOW and ALEX NORTH, 19 West 16th Street, New York City, registered as Communists in 1936 from the 10th Assembly District in the 26th Election District.

The Jefferson School of Social Science has been designated by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

Miss JO ANN FOZIO, in care of Urban Company, 1457 Broadway, New York City, agents for 71 West 55th Street, New York City, advised on November 1, 1951 that ANNA SOKOLOW resides in apartment 2R at 71 West 55th Street, New York City. She stated that SOKOLOW is in business for herself as a choreographer and resides at that address with her husband.

The January 14, 1938 edition of the "Daily Worker", the well known East Coast Communist newspaper, announced that the New York State Committee of the Communist Party had made public complete details for a Lenin Memorial Meeting to be held at Madison Square Garden on January 19, 1938. ANNA SOKOLOW, who is described in the article as a "noted young modern dancer" was to present her dance group in the "Dance of all Nations".

The "Daily Worker" of May 6, 1938 contained an article concerning a review to be held on May 8, 1938 at the Mecca Temple in New York City. The review was to be presented by the Negro Cultural Committee for the benefit of the New York Chapter of the National Negro Congress. The review included a ballet dance entitled "Filibuster" which was under the direction of ANNA SOKOLOW. According to the article, the Negro Cultural Committee was composed of several individuals including ANNA SOKOLOW.

The National Negro Congress has been designated by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

The Negro Cultural Committee was described as a Communist front organization in the 1947 report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities.

The 1946 Spring catalogue of the Jefferson School of Social Science listed ANNA SOKOLOW under the caption of "Instructors and Guest Lecturers". The Winter catalogue of 1947 of the Jefferson School of Social Science listed ANNA SOKOLOW as a member of the faculty.

The Jefferson School of Social Science has been previously mentioned above.

The records at the Board of Elections, New York City, checked by SE CLINTON E. POLLOCK on March 30, 1953 failed to reflect a record for ANNA SOKOLOW at 10 Monroe Street, New York City.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York checked by SE RICHARD F. O'HARA on March 27, 1953 failed to reflect any record for ANNA SOKOLOW, 10 Monroe Street, New York City.

BETTY ACKERMAN
41-46 81st Street
Jackson Heights, New York

[Confidential Informant T-2] advised that his organization had no record for BETTY ACKERMAN, 41-48 81st Street, Jackson Heights, New York. (u)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NY 100-95034

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York checked by SE RICHARD F. O'HARA on March 26, 1953 failed to reflect any record for BETTY ACKERMAN at the above address.

The records at the Board of Elections, New York City, checked by SE WILLIAM R. SWEENEY on March 31, 1953 reflected that one BEATRICE ACKERMAN, age 41 and married, registered to vote under one of the two major political parties in 1952 from the address of 31-46 81st Street, Jackson Heights, New York. She indicated that she had been in the state and city for 41 years and in the Election District 14 years. 53/2

Her husband, Mrs. SIDNEY ACKERMAN, age 43, also registered to vote under one of the two major political parties in 1952. SIDNEY ACKERMAN indicated that he had been in the state and city for 43 years and in the Election District for 14 years. Both indicated that they were born in the United States. It was also noted that both ACKERMANS registered to vote under one of the two major political parties for the years 1944 through 1952. 53/2

However, the records further reflected that in 1937 BEATRICE and SIDNEY ACKERMAN registered to vote in that year from 4222 Ketcham Street, Elmhurst, Long Island, New York. At that time both indicated their political preference as the American Labor Party. SIDNEY ACKERMAN indicated in 1937 that he was self-employed at 4003 National Avenue, Corona, Queens, New York. BEATRICE ACKERMAN at that time indicated that she was a housewife.

A review of the New York indices failed to reflect any information which could be identified with BEATRICE ACKERMAN.

The Queens telephone directory for 1952 reflected that SIDNEY ACKERMAN, lawyer, resides at 31-46 81st Street, Jackson Heights and that he maintains an office at 20 West 47th Street, New York City.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NY 100-95034

It should be noted that the current address of 31-46 81st Street, Jackson Heights, for the ACKERMANS is not the same as the 41-46 81st Street address which was furnished by Confidential Informant T-1. However, it is believed that this is one and the same person and there could have been an error in the transcription of the address by Confidential Informant T-1. (u)

The "New York Times" on April 15, 1953 carried an article emanating from Washington, D. C. which reflected that HAROLD GLASSER testified before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on April 14, 1953.

GLASSER refused to say whether he had conferred with Communists before offering his advice to then Secretary MARSHALL at the Council of Foreign Ministers Meeting in Moscow in 1947; questions concerning conferences with then Secretary ACHESON; and whether he is now or had been a Communist during his 12 years of federal service. GLASSER testified that he entered government service with the Works Progress Administration in 1935 and that he went to Washington, D. C. to join the Treasury Department the following year. Later as an economist and specialist in currency matters, he was made financial advisor to the government of Ecuador and he served in North Africa, Italy, Germany and other overseas posts, he related to the Subcommittee. The subject refused to say whether his assignment as financial advisor to Ecuador had been influenced by the late HARRY DEXTER WHITE, former Secretary of the Treasury. GLASSER testified that the advice given Secretary MARSHALL at the Moscow Conference concerned Trieste.

At the first and second United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration meetings at which he was a financial advisor, GLASSER said he gave advice to Mr. ACHESON, then Undersecretary. The subject stated that his particular task was to advise as to which UNRRA countries could pay the full costs of the aid given them.

Set out below is a list of correspondence received at the subject's residence, 8 Sheffield Road,

Concerning ALLAN R. ROSENBERG, it is noted that when GLASSER was interviewed on April 30 and May 3, 1947 by SAS JEROME M. GARLAND and E. HYATT MOSSBURG at the Washington Field Office, he stated that he first met ALLAN ROSENBERG sometime before 1940.

ELIZABETH TERRILL BENTLEY, self-confessed Soviet espionage agent, stated that ALLAN ROSENBERG furnished information to be turned over to JACOB M. GOLOS, a Soviet agent. ROSENBERG obtained this information as a result of observation, recommendations, plans and proposals made by various government officials regarding the handling of postwar Germany. During that period he was employed in the Foreign Economic Administration and material of the above description came to him in the course of his duties with that agency. ROSENBERG was also known by BENTLEY as a member of the Communist Party.

In regard to Robert R. Nathan Associates, mentioned above as a correspondent of the subject, it is noted that this organization is headed by ~~ROBERT R. NATHAN~~ and is a law firm in Washington, D. C.

Bureau authority is not being granted at this time to interview Allan R. Rosenberg and Solomon A. When the results of this case are known, further consideration will be given to the interview of Rosenberg and Lischinsky.

New York should advise the Bureau regarding the date of the appearance of Harold Glasser before the Federal Grand Jury.

The interview of Nortman should be conducted according to current standards regarding interviews with security subjects. If Nortman is cooperative, he should be interviewed about his own Communist and/or espionage activities as well as the activities of Harold Glasser.

The interview should be conducted promptly and the results submitted to the Bureau in report form suitable for dissemination to the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice.

 SUBJECT: HAROLD GLASSER, was

DATE: 6/10/53

Rebulet 5/5/53.

A review of the NYC File regarding HAROLD GLASSER reflects that he has associated in the past and continues to associate with CP members or sympathizers. The file further reflects that the subject, aside from his regular employment appears to be engaged in the import-export business. It is also noted that the only known bank account maintained by the subject reveals a low four figure balance and not in keeping with the substantial income of the subject.

In view of the above, it is recommended that Bureau authority be granted to interview the following individuals, who appear to be close associates of the subject regarding their knowledge of him:

P. BERNARD NORTMAN

ABRAHAM WOLFSON → 100-343963 DECEASED,

The file reflects that each one of these individuals has been and possibly continues to be active in some form of espionage or Communist activity, such as the Silvermaster group, the Perlo group, or the CP itself. It appears that these individuals could be interviewed or reinterviewed regarding their activity and associations and in so doing determine the extent of GLASSER'S participation. It is also suggested that these interviews be conducted in accordance with existing Bureau instructions regarding Security subjects.

Copies of this letter are being forwarded to the Offices involved so that if any reason exists for not interviewing any of these individuals the Bureau may be so advised. If Bureau authority is granted to conduct these interviews, the NYO will furnish the appropriate offices with the necessary information regarding the subject.

It is further recommended that investigation continue to establish the extent of the subject's apparent interest in the import-export business, also, if the subject has other bank accounts. The possibility exists that the subject is diverting funds for CP use.

Because of the subject's lack of cooperation when interviewed by agents of the NYO in 1949, and subsequent lack of cooperation when called before the Jenner Committee this year, it does not appear likely that a reinterview would be productive.

It is believed that the recommended interviews and the suggested investigation will enable this case to be brought to a logical conclusion.

You mention in paragraph two of your letter that you have recently been informed that Harold Glasser was cleared by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in 1948, when he appeared before a grand jury investigating Communist activities in the government. For your information, the Federal Bureau of Investigation does not issue clearance to anyone. We are a fact finding investigative agency. Judgment on the facts collected is not within our province.

The files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation are confidential and it is not our policy to issue opinions regarding the loyalty of any person. I, therefore, regret that I can be of no help to you in this matter.

J. Edgar Hoover
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

A few months ago a congressional investigating committee on communistic activities had before them a witness by the name of Harold O. Glasser. At the investigation Mr. Glasser refused to answer some questions on the grounds of "self-incrimination."

I have been informed recently that he was cleared by the F. B. I. in 1948 when he first appeared before a Grand Jury, investigating, I believe, communistic activities in the government.

Since the recent newspaper publication of Mr. Glasser's refusal to answer some questions, his niece and the woman I hope to marry, Miss Jacqueline Glasser and I have had some heated arguments over her uncle's allegiance to this nation. She is convinced of his innocence; I am undecided. The quarrel between us can easily be settled if we knew Mr. Glasser's present status as regarded by the F. B. I.

Our quarrel if not settled will lead to an eventual break between us. I know this may seem a trivial request to ask of you, but is Mr. Glasser as clean an American as the rest of us, and if he is would he be acceptable enough for a civil service job? Please give us any information which will be helpful. We would be very grateful.

Respectfully yours,

Letter acknowledged Mr. Marvin H. Lehr

This office desires to point out that despite the fact SOLOMON AARON LISCHINSKY, R.F.D. #2, Sterling, Va., lives in the territory covered by this Division and is the subject of a file in which this office is office of origin, an examination of the Richmond file indicates that the subversive activity involving LISCHINSKY deals primarily with allegations made by ELIZABETH TERRILL BENTLEY as to the Perlo Group. LISCHINSKY has in the past been interviewed by the Washington Field Office and it is felt that if further interview with LISCHINSKY is desired that the interview could more appropriately be handled by the Washington Field Office as suggested in Richmond letter to the Director dated April 14, 1952, captioned SOLOMON AARON LISCHINSKY, was., SM-C, Bureau file 100-362595.

Reference is made to your memorandum of May 5, 1953.

A review of the information previously furnished to this Division indicates that, according to Elizabeth Bentley, the subject during the course of his service in the Treasury Department gave her confidential government information for transmittal to the Soviet Government. This information is considered sufficient to warrant a determination that the activities of the subject fall within the purview of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended by Section 20(a) of the Internal Security Act of 1950. However, the evidence presently available has not been sufficiently corroborated to support a successful prosecutive action against the subject if his registration were solicited and he refused to register.

It is considered advisable that the subject be summoned before a grand jury for a thorough interrogation concerning his past activities, particularly with respect to a possible violation of Section 20(a) of the Internal Security Act of 1950. Consequently, you are requested to forward to the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York all investigative reports and other pertinent matter in your possession concerning the subject. Upon review of the subject's testimony before the grand jury, you will be advised as to any decision regarding the violation of any federal statute by the subject.

Re: New York report of SA VICTOR TURYN (A) May 26, 1953 setting forth a lead to identify the occupant of 590 North Vermont Avenue, Los Angeles, California who corresponded with the subject on March 24, 1953.

The current Los Angeles criss-cross telephone directory reflects that the above address of 590 North Vermont Avenue is a large office building known as the "Jewish Community Building" housing a number of Jewish fraternal, social, and welfare organizations.

In view of the apparent nature of the occupancy, no further identification is here being set forth. RUC.

SYNOPSIS:

As a step in bringing this case to a logical conclusion, it is suggested that P. Bernard Nortman, subject of a pending SM - C case, be interviewed. Nortman was a former associate of Glasser. Nortman was interviewed by WFO agents 4-15-47, and admitted knowing various persons connected with the Gregory case, but denied any complicity therein. Nortman was interviewed in January, 1952, by Richmond agents regarding subject of an SM - C case and although cooperative, claimed he knew no subversive derogatory information regarding the subject of the SM - C case. Suggest that field not be authorized to interview Allan R. Rosenberg and Solomon A. Lischinsky, subjects of the Gregory case, in view of the recent decision in the Joseph Katz case to attempt to have Katz returned to the United States. Cooperation of Katz would open possibility of successful prosecutive consideration of Gregory subjects.

RECOMMENDATION:

That attached letter be sent authorizing Newark to interview Nortman; denying authority to Boston to interview Rosenberg; and denying WFO authority to interview Lischinsky.

DETAILS:

Harold Glasser, subject of instant case, has been under investigation for a number of years arising out of charges of Elizabeth Bentley that Glasser, a former Treasury Department official, furnished her with information obtained through his official position for transmission to a Russian espionage agent. Investigation has developed that among others, Glasser has been associated with P. Bernard Nortman, 324 Beechwood Place, Leonia, New Jersey; Allan R. Rosenberg, 10 Tremont Street, Boston, Massachusetts; and Solomon A. Lischinsky, RFD #2, Sterling, Virginia (Fairfax County). Glasser was interviewed by Bureau agents on January 28, February 2, and February 3, 1949. He testified before the Federal Grand Jury in October, 1947, and before an executive and an open session of the Jenner Committee on April 14, 1953. To date he has declined to admit his participation in Soviet espionage or Communist Party activity.

Elizabeth Bentley has stated that Nortman was a Communist Party member during the late 1930's, and that Nortman, while in Government employment in Washington, D. C., associated with Communist Party members, William Remington, Mary Jane Keeney, and Victor Perlo. Investigation revealed that Nortman registered in the American Labor Party in 1938-39 and 1941-42. Nortman was interviewed April 15, 1947, by WFO agents and admitted knowing Remington, Keeney, and Perlo, but denied Communist Party membership or sympathies. Nortman stated he is diametrically opposed to Communist philosophy and considers himself a rugged individualist and a subscriber of the policies and doctrines of the late President Roosevelt. Nortman is the subject of a Security Index card and currently resides at 324 Beechwood Place, Leonia, New Jersey, where he is believed to be employed as a free-lance writer. Informants have been unable to determine any recent subversive activities on his part.

New York letter of June 10, 1953, also suggested that Allan R. Rosenberg, 10 Tremont Street, Boston, Massachusetts, and Solomon A. Lischinsky, RFD #2, Sterling, Virginia, subjects of the Gregory case be interviewed.

Both Rosenberg and Lischinsky, who are major subjects in the Gregory case, have been previously interviewed by Bureau agents and have not furnished any admissions regarding Soviet espionage or Communist Party activity. Both have appeared before various Congressional investigating committees and have failed to give pertinent information.

A decision was reached in the Joseph Katz case authorizing the Israeli Intelligence Service to attempt to set plans in motion for the return of Joseph Katz to United States authorities. Should Joseph Katz return to the United States and be cooperative, the Bureau would stand its best chance to date of being able to successfully prosecute the subjects of the Gregory case. In light of this, the field is being refused authority at this time to reinterview Rosenberg and Lischinsky; however, when the success or failure of the Katz venture is known, further consideration will be given to interviewing Rosenberg and Lischinsky as well as other major subjects in the Gregory case.

INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

Reurlet 7-28-53. The Bureau feels that the questions posed by the United States Attorney in his memorandum should be answered in writing. The answers to his queries appear to be available from current investigation; therefore, the New York Office is instructed to address a memorandum to the United States Attorney using the information set out below as a guide in phrasing your memorandum to him.

Any additional investigation which the United States Attorney desires to clarify questions should be conducted immediately and the results furnished to him in an investigative report.

New York should point out to the United States Attorney that in regard to his suggestions in paragraph 3 of his memorandum that Glasser was under physical surveillance by New York agents as recently as December, 1952, and that no activities of significance were noted.

In regard to the United States Attorney's query as to whether or not any confessed Communists can identify Glasser and corroborate Bentley, it should be called to his attention that anytime a confessed Communist is interviewed by Bureau agents this avenue is explored if there is any reason to believe the confessed Communist would be in a position to know of the Silvermaster espionage network.

Regarding the United States Attorney's suggestion that Lee Pressman and David Lahl be interviewed, it should be noted as follows: Pressman was interviewed by agents of the New York Office 1-27-49; 8-30, 31-50; and 1-20-53. Pressman was cooperative only to a limited degree. On 8-28-50, Pressman testified before the HCUA and was reluctant to furnish details or to involve other individuals. Pressman has been under intensive investigation for perjury as a result of his testimony before the HCUA on 8-28-50. Recent investigation of Pressman has not indicated that he would be cooperative with Bureau agents to any greater degree than he has been in the past. In view of the above, and notwithstanding the fact that Glasser has previously admitted being a close social acquaintance of Pressman, it is not believed advisable at this time to interview Pressman about Glasser. You should so inform the United States Attorney.

In regard to David Wahl, it should be noted that Wahl testified before an executive session of the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security (Jenner Committee) on 6-18-53. A review of the testimony reflected that Wahl in his answers specifically denied all matters relating to his Communist Party membership and activities. Investigative efforts are now under way to determine if a perjury violation can be established against Wahl for his testimony before the Jenner Committee. In view of Wahl's attitude toward the Jenner Committee, it is not believed logical or desirable to interview him about the Communist Party activities and/or Soviet espionage activities of Glasser. The executive session testimony of Wahl before the Jenner Committee is confidential. You should therefore not specifically mention it to the United States Attorney at this time, but advise him that Wahl has recently refused to advise a Government agency of his Communist Party activities.

Recent Bureau investigation of Wahl has reflected that during the past two years he has been in contact with persons of known Communist background, such as, Mary Jane Keeney, Robert T. Miller, Charles Kramer, and others. He has also been in touch with known Israeli intelligence agents, such as, Reuben Shiloah, Ifraim Ben-Arzi, Theodor Kollek and Nahum Bernsteim. New York is familiar with the activities of Wahl and until recently has been the office of origin in the Wahl case. The information regarding the contacts with Israeli intelligence agents should not be made known to the United States Attorney.

New York should suggest to the United States Attorney that he may desire to call Pressman and Wahl before a Federal Grand Jury and question them about Glasser.

New York by letter dated 6-10-53, advised that subject has a low four-figure bank account which is not in keeping with his income from the import-export business and his position with the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds. New York suggested that the subject could be diverting funds for Communist Party use and that this line of the investigation was being pursued. New York should so inform the United States Attorney.

New York should recontact established confidential informants and sources of information who would be in a position to know of any current Communist Party activities on the part of Glasser and report the results of the contacts in the next investigative report.

After the above memorandum is forwarded to the United States Attorney, New York may also orally point out the following to the United States Attorney; Glasser has been the subject of investigation by this Bureau at various times since 1941 and continuously since the allegations of Elizabeth Bentley in 1945. The reports concerning the investigation of Glasser have regularly been disseminated to the Records Administration Branch of the Department of Justice and have recently been furnished to the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York. The investigation has been directed entirely toward determining whether or not Glasser is or was engaged in Soviet espionage and/or Communist Party activities. As in other cases arising from Bentley's allegations, and although much investigative effort has been expended, a second witness cannot be found to substantiate her allegations concerning Glasser's participation in Soviet espionage activity.

Whittaker Chambers and Catherine Villa Perlo have both stated that Glasser was a Communist; however, Glasser refused to testify on this point before the Federal Grand Jury in October, 1947, and the Jenner Committee on 4-14-53, on the grounds of self-incrimination. He therefore avoided a possible perjury violation.

Numerous persons who were associates of Glasser and who were involved in the Nathan Gregory Silvermaster espionage network have been interviewed in the past and have failed to make any admissions which would make them witnesses against Glasser. These persons include Charles Kravner, Solomon Litichinsky, Allan Rosenberg, Henry Hill Collins, Victor Perlo and others.

After the United States Attorney's queries have been answered in writing, you should advise the Bureau promptly of your discussions with the United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York and submit an investigative report reflecting his prosecutive opinion in order that it may be disseminated to the Criminal Division of the Department of Justice. The Criminal Division will then be asked for its opinion as to whether or not Glasser's registration will be solicited under Section 20 (a) of the Internal Security Act of 1950.

New York should pursue all leads vigorously and bring this case to a logical conclusion at an early date.

Re NY air-tel, 7/21/53 in instant case.

On 7/21/53 USA LEONARD P. MOORE and AUSA C. W. WICKERSHAM, both of the EDNY gave their opinion regarding bringing the subject before a Federal Grand Jury at this time. The opinion was prepared by AUSA WICKERSHAM and agreed to by USA MOORE. The full opinion is as follows:

- I. Prosecution at this time appears premature or much too late. ELIZABETH BENTLEY'S testimony is the only real evidence tottie GLASSER into espionage in 1944 only and she is unable to identify any particular report as one she received from GLASSER. CHAMBERS' testimony is no help except as hearsay. Other evidence ties him in with Communists but alone is only circumstantial. GLASSER'S own statement is unsigned and very carefully guarded so as to deny unlawful activity.
- II. GLASSER has refused to testify before Congressional committees but has stood on Constitutional rights and there is no reason to believe that he would not do so again if called before Grand Jury. It would therefore appear that no benefit is to be obtained by calling him at this time and on the contrary he would be in a position to cause the government unfavorable publicity by charging persecution.
- III. There are many loose ends in present reports. Among them are:
 1. What business activity (if any) outside of GLASSER'S job as Director of Overseas Studies is GLASSER now engaged in?
 2. If he is engaged in outside business activity, how is it financed?
 3. Does GLASSER receive communications at places other than his home and office? It is doubtful that he would receive unlawful communications at his home which he must know is under some surveillance.
 4. Can other confessed Communists identify GLASSER and corroborate BENTLEY? Particularly how about LEE PRESSMAN and DAVID WAHL?

When the results of further investigation are made known, this office will be in a better position to indict or to put real pressure on GLASSER to answer questions before the Grand Jury.

It is noted that the suggested investigation set forth in paragraph III by the AUSA will in no way aid possible prosecution in this case with the exception of the possibility of obtaining corroborating information from LEE PRESSMAN and DAVID WAHL.

On August 24, 1953, the New York "Daily News" newspaper contained a column, entitled "Capitol Stuff" by ~~JOHN O'DONNELL~~. This column referred to a National Issues Committee, which is to be formed by ELEANOR ROOSEVELT. This Committee is described as "An effort to educate us poor dumb American voters about the lost virtues of the New and Fair Deals and, as Mrs. ROOSEVELT put it, "reverse the reactionary trend." The column further states "One threat that frightens the relics of the New Deal is the uncovering of what went on in the Treasury under Mrs. ROOSEVELT's good friend, HENRY MORGENTHAU, his No. One Assistant, the mysterious HARRY DEXTER WHITE, and tight-lipped HAROLD GLASSER."

The column mentions that GLASSER during his recent examination before the Jenner Committee had on 24 occasions refused to answer questions on the ground that it would incriminate him. The column describes GLASSER as "no minor figure by any means. He had held highly important government posts in the twelve years before he resigned in 1947, with letters of recommendation from TRUMAN's Secretary of State, ACHESON, and his Secretary of the Treasury, SNYDER. He had been a trusted and confidence advisor to both these top cabinet members and had accompanied then Secretary of State, General GEORGE CATLETT MARSHAL, to the 1947 Moscow meetings of Foreign Ministers." The column pointed out that GLASSER refused to answer questions about a Russian passport or his association with HARRY DEXTER WHITE.

It is to be noted that ELIZABETH TERRILL BENTLEY, self-confessed espionage agent, identified HARRY DEXTER WHITE as a member of a Communist underground espionage group, which was active in Washington, D. C. during World War II.

INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

DATE: 9/17/53

Rebulet 8/31/53.

The appropriate answers to the questions raised by the USA in this case were furnished to him by Memorandum on 9/14/53.

USA LEONARD P. MOORE and his Chief Assistant CORNELIUS W. WICKERSHAM advised SA WALTER A. WANGENHEIM that unofficially in their opinion insufficient evidence existed to prosecute the subject under the terms of the Internal Security Act of 1950, or any other statute. They also stated unofficially that calling the subject before the Federal Grand Jury for interrogation would be useless as he undoubtedly would resort to his constitutional rights.

The USA stated that he desired to discuss this case with the Department after which he would formally render his opinion.

The Bureau will be immediately notified of the USA'S official opinion in this matter.

Reference

MORRIS GLASSER, Attorney, 100 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, advised SA RAYMOND L. BECK in June of 1948 that he has known LEVIN for a number of years and was, in fact, his brother-in-law. He remarked that in his opinion, LEVIN was loyal to the government, and stated that anyone working for the government was loyal, otherwise they would not remain, that is, would attempt to find other work.

It is to be noted that MORRIS GLASSER is the brother of the subject and has previously been identified.

B. Connections with Communist Front Organizations

[T-2,] of known reliability, advised in 1941 that YALE (u) LEVIN's name appeared in the files of the United Spanish Aid Committee and the Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade. It was noted that the two organizations occupied a joint office at 203 North Wabash Avenue, Chicago.

The Veterans of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The United Spanish Aid Committee has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Miscellaneous

[T-3] a representative of an agency of the State of (u) Illinois, who was associated with LEVIN in the sociological field, advised SA RAYMOND L. BECK in June, 1948, that he had known LEVIN for several years and felt that he was an unreliable, untrustworthy, and undesirable individual. He expressed no doubt that LEVIN would be loyal to Russia if war ever came between the United States and Russia. T-3 stated that LEVIN's wife belonged to the International Workers of the World, and he felt that LEVIN himself was a member of this organization.

[T-4] of known reliability, who is generally acquainted (u) with Communist and related activities in the Chicago area, advised that the International Workers of the World is a Pro-German syndicalist, anarchist organization.

Dr. SOPHIE SCHROEDER, Acting Superintendent of the Institute of Juvenile Research, 907 South Wolcott Street, Chicago, produced records for SA RAYMOND L. BECK in June, 1948, reflecting that LEVIN was employed in May, 1930, as a Research Sociologist and was assigned to the Illinois State Penitentiary at Joliet, Illinois. On October 1, 1931, these records disclosed that LEVIN was alleged to be carrying letters, materials, and liquor in and out of the prison. Another instance occurring at that penitentiary reflected association on the part of LEVIN with known criminals and withdrawing documents which were institute property and refusing to return same. These records reflected that he was requested to resign effective June 9, 1932, from his position with this organization because of inefficiency and misconduct in relation to his assignment. Furthermore, in the course of accumulation of records in the prison, he assumed that the records of examination were his personal property and he refused to return them.

II. INFORMATION CONCERNING FREDERICK WEISS

T-5, ¹⁸ of known reliability, advised that the subject was ^(u) in contact with Dr. ~~FREDERICK WEISS~~, Telephone Number Harvey 4883 at Harvey, Illinois.

The current Suburban Chicago Telephone Directory gives a listing for FREDERICK WEISS, M.D., as 15320 Center Street, Harvey, Illinois, Telephone Number Harvey 6100, and also a resident listing as 14506 Clinton Street, Harvey, Illinois, and Telephone Number Harvey 4883.

The Chicago files failed to contain any information identifiable with FREDERICK WEISS at Harvey, Illinois.

III. INFORMATION CONCERNING THE DEAN FURNITURE COMPANY

T-5, ¹⁸ supra, advised that the subject was in contact with ^(u) subscriber to Chicago Telephone Number Kildore 5-8804.

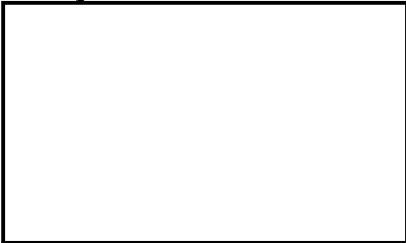

The Information Operator for Illinois Bell Telephone Company, Chicago, advised on October 12, 1953, that the Chicago Telephone Kildore 5-8804 was listed to the Dean Furniture Company, 4745 North Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago.

It is to be noted that there is no Kildore telephone exchange in the Chicago area.

Reference is made to my memorandum of June 4, 1953, in which you were advised that the subject was to be summoned before a grand jury for interrogation concerning his past activities, particularly with respect to his possible obligations under the terms of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended by Section 20(a) of the Internal Security Act of 1950.

The United States Attorney for the Eastern District of New York during the course of a conference with me on November 3, 1953, stated that in his opinion there would be no useful purpose served by summoning the subject before a grand jury at this time, since the subject not only has denied having engaged in any espionage activity as well as membership in the Communist Party, but has also claimed the privilege against self-incrimination during the course of his interrogation before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in April of this year.

Since the evidence is insufficient to warrant prosecution of the subject for failure to register, his registration will not be solicited at this time. In the event that additional information is obtained tending to corroborate the allegations of Elizabeth Bentley regarding the subject's participation in a Soviet espionage apparatus, this matter will, of course, be reexamined in the light of such information.

was a Communist or Soviet spy during twelve years in Federal service. It mentioned also that subject refused to answer any questions about any Communist or espionage activities. It was mentioned that the subject had headed the Overseas Institute for six years, and in the announcement of his resignation, JULIAN FREEMAN, the Council's President, stated the subject had "an exceptionally fine record," but had "completed" his studies planned for 1953.

On October 12, 1953, the Indianapolis office furnished an article which appeared in the "National Jewish Post," issue of September 18, 1953. This article mentioned that the "Post" had learned that certain affiliated groups of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds had demanded the acceptance of GLASSER's resignation when he first submitted it. It appeared that GLASSER had submitted his resignation when he first refused to tell the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee whether he had been a member of the Communist Party. This was on June 1, 1953. It was further mentioned that the subject planned to enter private business, but there was no explanation of what business he intended to go into.

The "New York Times," daily newspaper of October 21, 1953, contained an article which stated that a special subcommittee headed by Senator KARL E. MUNDT was attempting to establish how certain engraving plates, on which currency for expenses in occupied Germany were printed, were given to Russia. According to the article, on October 20, 1953, six individuals were called before this committee and questioned regarding these plates. Among those called was the subject, and he again invoked the privilege of the Fifth Amendment to remain mute on answers that might tend to incriminate him.

^{D.C.}
The New York "Daily News" newspaper of October 22, 1953, contained an article which stated that "ELIZABETH BENTLEY, the confessed Communist courier," has stated that NATHAN GREGORY SILVERMASTER and WILLIAM LUDWIG WULLMAN were the Communist agents who stole samples of the occupied Germany currency in 1944 from the office of Assistant Treasury Secretary HARRY DEXTER WHITE for transmission to

Regarding the aforementioned correspondence of the subject, the following information is noted: (u)

Mrs. MORRIS BENDER MRS. MORRIS BORIS BENDER (u)

The current edition of the Nassau County telephone directory reflects only one MORRIS BENDER as a resident of Great Neck, New York. This individual is MORRIS BENDER, M.D., at 400 East Shore Road. (u)

[T-2] of known reliability, another governmental agency, provided certain information regarding the background of Dr. MORRIS BORIS BENDER because of his position as a consultant in neurology of the Veterans Administration, 252 Seventh Avenue, New York City. [T-2] advised that Dr. BENDER was born in Russia on June 8, 1904; is married; and his wife's name is SARA SPIRTER BENDER. He is director of Neurological Services at Bellevue Hospital and Mount Sinai Hospital in New York City. He has resided at 400 East Shore Road since 1951 and has been a resident in Great Neck since 1946. A preliminary inquiry was made into the background of Dr. BENDER, but no substantive/disloyal information regarding him was developed. (u)

Action Books, WILLIAM A. RUEBEN (u)

[T-3] of known reliability, advised that on January 4, 1953, a payment of $200.00 was made to a WILLIAM RUEBEN by the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case. (u)

[T-4] of known reliability, stated that a throwaway dated April 27, 1953, issued by the Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case, listed among its sponsors a WILLIAM A. RUEBEN. (u)

The "National Guardian," publication of November 14, 1951, on Page 3, had an article by WILLIAM A. RUEBEN announcing a pamphlet to be published regarding the ROSENBERG case.

NY 100-95034

RUEBEN was described as the provisional chairman of the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case. (NCSJ)

The "National Guardian" on August 31, 1953, on Page 5, announced the publication of a book entitled "The Atom Spy Myth." The announcement stated that Action Books, Room 2800, 165 Broadway, had announced for fall publication "The Atom Spy Myth -- from Hiroshima to the Rosenbergs," by WILLIAM A. RUEBEN. It was stated that this is the book in which RUEBEN, who wrote the original "Guardian" articles for the ROSENBERG case in 1951, "had been working on for two years." It described the book as an examination of all the "Atom Spy Cases" "in light of parallel Washington cold war moves." It was stated that the "Atom bomb spy hunt is the greatest hoax in history."

Regarding the "National Guardian," the 1949 report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities cited the "National Guardian" as a publication launched in New York in 1948 aiming at national circulation which they found to be from its inception notoriously Stalinist in its staff, writers, management, and content. (1949 report of the California Senate Fact Finding Committee on Un-American Activities, page 394.)

The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case was formed in December, 1950, for the purpose of raising funds for the legal defense of, and to arouse public sympathy for, JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG, executed Soviet agents who died in the electric chair on June 19, 1953.

The attached documents were made available to me on November 13, 1952 by Elbert Tuttle, General Counsel, Treasury Department. They reflect the part played by White, Coe, Glasser, Taylor, Gold, Friedman, and others, in forcing on the Alien Property Custodian and State a recommendation to the President that enemy property seized during World War II never be returned, and the institution of such a program even though contrary to the recommendations of the American Bar Association and contrary to our historical policy as set forth in the American Bar Report.

The documents have all been incorporated in the records of public hearings held November 16, 1953.

Mike Horan called and stated that Deputy Attorney General Rogers had just told him to contact the Bureau; that the Attorney General had a request from the Jenner Committee for dissemination data on Coe and Glasser, the number of times data was disseminated and a summary of the material that was disseminated. Horan stated that a memo was coming through requesting this information and, in addition, he had seen the transcript; that the name of Perlo also came up, that they would accordingly request the same data for Perlo and that he understood there was a request in the mill for Solomon Adler. Horan asked if we would get started on checking our files and get up a memo on the dates the Bureau disseminated the information on Coe, Glasser, Perlo and Adler. He also asked that we get up a summary of the information which could be made available to the committee.

I told Horan with reference to the summary of the information the Bureau would have furnished the Department all substantive information on these individuals; that since the request was directed to the Department, I felt certain they would prefer to do this; that I would check and see if we had sent anything to the Department on dissemination.

I think we would probably have difficulty avoiding furnishing information on dissemination. I do not think we should prepare summaries for the Department on Coe, Glasser, Perlo and Adler. On the dissemination data, Horan stated they wanted the dates of the dissemination and to whom disseminated.

The following is being made available for information purposes:

On November 25, 1953, Investigator [redacted] of the [redacted] confidentially advised that in a recent conversation with one [redacted] Connecticut, who is [redacted] the [redacted] he was given certain information regarding GLASSER that might be of interest to the Bureau.

[redacted] advised that he had been informed by the National office of the Jewish Federation in New York City that at the time GLASSER had been considered for employment with the National office of the Jewish Federation, one of his references had been the then Secretary of the Treasury SNYDER. SNYDER furnished a letter of reference on GLASSER and fully recommended him for this position with the Jewish Federation. After GLASSER had refused to testify before a Senate Committee regarding his subversive activities, the Jewish Federation again directed a letter to the then Secretary of the Treasury SNYDER and asked if he had changed his mind in regard to his reference. The Jewish Federation received another letter of recommendation from SNYDER in which he stated that in spite of the hearing he still believed GLASSER to be a good American and that he had not seen nor heard anything that would change his mind in this regard. [redacted] believed that [redacted] whom he described as a very loyal American, still had photostatic copies of SNYDER's letters of reference on GLASSER.

[redacted] advised [redacted] that the Jewish Federation hired GLASSER but because of adverse publicity in regard to subversive activities, secured a letter of resignation from GLASSER which they held in their file pending their decision as to GLASSER's employment status with them. [redacted] indicated that this is a common practice of the Jewish Federation in regard to its employees.

HARRY DEXTER WHITE WORKED UNDER THIS COMMITTEE TO OUTLINE THE SPECIFIC TYPES OF ADDITIONAL STUDIES THAT WOULD BE MORE APPROPRIATE AND HELPFUL TO THE PROJECTED INSTITUTE ON OVERSEAS STUDIES. HE SERVED ON A PART-TIME BASIS ALONE FROM 8/15/47 TO EARLY IN OCTOBER, 1947. AT THAT TIME HE SUFFERED A HEART ATTACK WHICH INVALIDATED HIM FOR A PERIOD OF SIX MONTHS WHICH MADE IT IMPOSSIBLE FOR HIM TO COMPLETE THE ASSIGNMENT. THE COUNCIL THEN TURNED TO THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR CONTINUING HELP IN PLANNING AND SETTING UP THE INSTITUTE ON OVERSEAS STUDIES. FOR THIS ASSIGNMENT, MR. HAROLD GLASSER WAS CHOSEN FROM A GROUP OF ECONOMISTS SUBMITTED BY THE TECHNICAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE. WE CLEARED HIS REFERENCES WITH MR. JOHN W. SNYDER, THE THEN SECRETARY OF TREASURY; DEAN ACHESON, THEN OUT OF GOVERNMENT SERVICE AND OTHERS. HE WAS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED TO US AS A QUALIFIED ECONOMIST AND ABLE RESEARCH WORKER. MR. WHITE DID NOT SUGGEST MR. GLASSER FOR THE POST BUT IN RESPONSE TO LETTERS SENT OUT ON BEHALF OF THE COMMITTEE INDICATED THAT MR. GLASSER WAS A QUALIFIED ECONOMIST. HE WENT TO WORK FOR THE COUNCIL ON 1/1/48. WHEN MISS ELIZABETH BENTLEY TESTIFIED BEFORE A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE, ABOUT SIX MONTHS LATER, WE WROTE TO MR. IN APRIL OF THIS YEAR, MR. GLASSER TESTIFIED BEFORE THE JENNER COMMITTEE. TO OUR KNOWLEDGE THIS WAS THE FIRST TIME MR. GLASSER WAS CALLED TO TESTIFY BEFORE A CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE OF THIS NATURE. BECAUSE OF THIS PUBLICITY, HE FELT THAT HIS CONTINUING EMPLOYMENT MIGHT BE EMBARRASSING TO THE COUNCIL AND HE, THEREFORE, RENDERED HIS RESIGNATION. THE RESPONSIBLE OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE COUNCIL CONSIDERED THIS REQUEST AT SEVERAL MEETINGS. FOLLOWING FULL CONSIDERATION IT WAS DECIDED IN JUNE, 1953 TO ACCEPT MR. GLASSER'S RESIGNATION EFFECTIVE AS OF SEPTEMBER FIFTEENTH. THIS WAS LATER CONFIRMED BY THE COUNCIL'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS. IN HIS WORK WITH THE COUNCIL MR. GLASSER COMPILED AN EXCEPTIONALLY FINE RECORD AS DIRECTOR OF THE OVERSEAS INSTITUTE. HIS OBJECTIVE AND IMPARTIAL STUDIES HAVE BEEN HELPFUL TO THE AGENCIES CONCERNED IN ANALYZING THE ROLE OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE IN ISRAEL'S ECONOMY, DEVELOPMENT OF AGRICULTURE, VOCATIONAL TRAINING AND OTHER ELEMENTS IN THE CONSTRUCTIVE SOLUTION OF REFUGEE PROBLEMS IN EUROPE AND ISRAEL. Mike Horan called and stated that he wanted to check with me on requests of the Jenner Committee growing out of the hearings on Tuesday so that there would be no duplication of work.

1. He stated that Morris had asked the Attorney General whether there had been any dissemination of the letter of November 8, 1945, other than to the White House and asked the Attorney General to furnish details of that letter to General Vaughan.

2. The dissemination of the November 27 memorandum on Soviet Espionage. Horan pointed out the Attorney General has stated that he already referred to this in his statement to the press. I told Mike the details on this have been furnished to the Department.

3. Morris had asked him about the dissemination of the letter dated February 1, 1946, to General Vaughan. I told Horan that I felt sure the details had been furnished to the Department.

4. Details on dissemination of Harold Glasser, Frank Coe, and Victor Perlo.

5. Whether Irving S. Friedman and William Henry Taylor were still employed. The Attorney General stated he would have to check on this. I told Horan that, of course, to answer the question would necessitate a check immediately prior to the answer; that it was my understanding that Friedman and Taylor were still employed, but this was something they should check on.

Horan then stated that Morris had advised the Director of the request of the Attorney General to supply dissemination data on Glasser, Coe, Perlo and others and in response to the specific question, the Director had stated that the dissemination data would not violate security, although the Director would be opposed to producing the reports.

Horan then stated that in view of the fact that we have had liaison with the Jenner Committee, he was wondering whether we should handle this or he should handle it. I told Mike that it appeared that this had been taken out of our hands, the request had been directed to the Department and I felt that this was something that would probably be more appropriate for him to handle. In this connection, Morris told me last night that he was pressing the Department for dissemination data on Glasser, Coe, Perlo and Solomon Adler to be used in a hearing on Monday.

Mr. Ladd

Memorandum for Mr. Tolson from L. B. Nichols

We probably should have the dissemination data readily available for our own use. As pointed out in my memorandum yesterday, we will probably have to furnish the Department with the dissemination data unless this has previously been done.

INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950
(OO: WFO)

Rebulet dated 7-7-53 entitled "JUST LUNNING, IS-R", in which the Bureau directed the WFO to report in individual case files information regarding certain personalities as reflected in an affidavit submitted to the Passport Office, Department of State, by JUST LUNNING. Two affidavits were submitted by LUNNING and are hereinafter more fully identified.

JUST LUNNING was born 5-14-10 at Odense, Denmark. His father, EDUARD FREDERIK LUNNING immigrated to the U. S. in 1923 and was naturalized on 5-20-29. JUST LUNNING received his derivative Certificate of Naturalization (U.S.) on 5-19-44 which was to date from 7-14-30.

LUNNING attended Harvard University from 1930 to 1937, where he, according to his own admission, with fellow like-minded students, participated in the reading of the works of MARX and ENGELS and attended Marxists study groups. He denies any present adherence to Marxists philosophy.

LUNNING was employed by the U. S. Government from 1942 to 1947 and was on duty with the U. S. Navy, assigned to the Office of Strategic Services, Washington, D. C. and Europe from January, 1944 to May, 1946. He continued his employment as a State Department employee until 4-18-47 on which date he resigned. During the above period LUNNING associated with a number of suspected Communist and Soviet agents. He denies knowledge of any of his associates having been known to him as Communists or engaged in Soviet espionage.

LUNNING admits being a stockholder in the Metropolitan Broadcasting Company, Washington, D. C., a number of whose stockholders are reported to be Communists or Communist sympathizers. The Consumers Union has been cited as a Communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities in a report issued by that Committee on 3-29-44, Page 153.

Since May, 1947, LUNNING has resided at 24 Gramercy Park, New York City. He is employed as General Manager and Vice President of GEORG JENSEN, Inc., 667 5th Avenue, New York City.

The Passport Office, Department of State, directed letters to LUNNING under the date of 4-1-53 and 6-15-53, requesting that he furnish the Passport Office answers to certain questions as well as an explanation of the extent of his past association with certain named personalities. Thereafter, LUNNING submitted two affidavits to the Passport Office under the date of 5-9-53 and 7-17-53, in which he explained the extent of his association with these individuals, one of which was: HAROLD GLASSER.

LUNNING stated he represented the Foreign Economic Administration at the Atlantic City Conference which resulted in the creation of UNRRA in the Fall of 1943, and it was at this conference he first met HAROLD GLASSER. He said he next met GLASSER in 1944 or 1945 in London, England, where they discussed the preparation of reports or papers similar to the "Guides" prepared in Washington concerning enemy or enemy-occupied territory and their problems. He did not see or have any further contact with GLASSER until the Fall of 1946 in Washington, D. C. LUNNING said he called on GLASSER in his office at the Treasury Department in his capacity of an Administrative Officer of the State Department, at which time they discussed the status of employees of the Treasury Department sent abroad on official business.

Regarding their social contacts, LUNNING stated that in the Fall or Winter of 1943-44 he attended a fair sized party at the ALLAN ROSENBERG residence in Maryland. He also stated that he did not own a car while in Washington, D.C., so someone, probably ROSENBERG, arranged for he and MRS. LUNNING to ride to the party with MR. and MRS. GLASSER. LUNNING does not remember having returned from the party with the GLASSERS, or to have engaged in any conversation of significance. He stated he believes this to be a complete statement of all his contacts with HAROLD GLASSER. C.

There is attached a memorandum to Mr. Olney of the Criminal Division which is in answer to his memorandum of November 19, 1953, enclosing summaries prepared by the Criminal Division on eleven individuals. We reviewed the summaries to determine if there was material contained therein which would reveal confidential sources or confidential investigative techniques, and to determine if dissemination to the Jenner Committee would interfere with current investigations. While we informed the Criminal Division that we did not check these summaries specifically for accuracy, we do make comment to the Criminal Division on various misstatements which we have found in the summaries and which it might be noted show the summaries were very sloppily written.

We are also furnishing to the Department as an attachment to the memorandum to Mr. Olney, individual memoranda on eleven individuals showing the dissemination we made on these persons. It is to be noted in this dissemination we left out instances where we wrote memoranda to the Attorney General requesting authorization for technical surveillances. In the dissemination on Harold Glasser, we also committed the fact that oral information was given to representatives of the World Bank on October 31, 1947. We did this because our dissemination to the World Bank representatives was on a very confidential basis and is not something which should be made known to the Jenner Committee.

RECOMMENDATION

There is attached a memorandum to the Criminal Division commenting on the statements they previously prepared and furnishing them the dissemination on the eleven individuals involved in this matter. It is also to be noted that the Director, in connection with a memorandum from Mr. Belmont to Mr. Ladd dated November 19, 1953, stated he wanted Mr. Tolson and Mr. Nichols to look at the material before it went to the Department.

RE: INDEXING PROCEDURES - MAJOR CASES

There is attached, the result of a serial by serial review of the first 4017 serials in this case. This review was made for the purpose of identifying serials wherein each of 49 principal subjects are mentioned. No attempt has been made to eliminate duplicate information.

An original and two copies will be filed in this case file. A copy of the listing for each of the 49 subjects will be serialized into each main file and this fact will also appear on the same summary card. Copies are being made available to the Espionage Section and other copies will be used in this section, in order to further evaluate this method of improving our indexing procedures in major cases.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That this memorandum be approved for filing as serial 4039 of the Silvermaster case.

2. That copies of this memorandum be filed in each of the main files of the 49 subjects mentioned on attached list.

Mrs. RICHTER has, from time to time, rented rooms to individuals unknown to informant, but has no roomers at the present time. She is also employed in a clerical capacity, although her exact place of employment is unknown.

[T-2] advised also that Mrs. RICHTER occasionally hears from her son in Israel. Her mother, Mrs. LENA BUDNICK, also known as LENA TEEMAN, about seventy-five years of age, resides also at 2308 West 39th Street, in the downstairs unit, which is jointly owned by them both. [T-2] added that Mrs. RICHTER has given no indications of being pro-Communist or being engaged in any subversive activities. (u)

[T-2] has observed, however, that Mrs. RICHTER has definitely appeared to be very interested in "Socialism" which [T-2] described as the general improvement of working conditions for the common man. [T-2] stated also that SARA RICHTER currently receives the "National Guardian" publication. (u)

The above named "National Guardian" has been described by the 1949 Report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities as a publication launched in New York in 1948 aiming at national circulation, which was found to be, from its inception, notoriously Stalinist in its staff, writers, management, and content.

T-3, of known reliability, advised in March, 1949 that SARA RICHTER, 2308 West 39th Street, Los Angeles, California, had attended classes at the California Labor School in 1948. (u)

T-3 also advised in August, 1950 that the records of the California Labor School in 1948 contained the names of "SARAH and LOUIS RICHTER, 2308 West 39th Street." Further, that "SARAH RICHTER, 2308 West 39th Street" was included on a list headed "donations." (u)

The above named California Labor School is one of the organizations named by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 10450.

[T-4] of known reliability, advised in December, 1949 that on a list of names bearing the notation "mailing list, Mexico," the significance of which was unknown to the informant, though it was believed to relate to the Civil Rights Congress, appeared the names of SARA RICHTER and E. LOUIS RICHTER, both indicated as residing at 2308 West 39th Street, Los Angeles, California. (u)
