Date of Requests: July 5, 2016 and November 30, 2016

Number of pages to be released: [redacted]

b5

Name(s) of Requester(s): Evan Feeney, the Media Justice Campaign Manager for Color of Change ("COC") and in coordination with the Center for Constitutional Rights ("CCR"). COC is an online organization that has over one million members dedicated to fighting racism and injustice in the African American community. CCR is a public advocacy organization that engages in litigation on topical civil and racial justice rights issues.

Background: [redacted]

b5

Litigation: Plaintiff filed his complaint on October 20, 2016 and pursuant to the Court's order during a Case Management Conference held on February 24, 2017, the FBI and DHS were instructed to provide a representative sample and index of all responsive documents and document types located during their search. Through further negotiations with Plaintiff, the FBI does not need to produce an index or representative sample and a proposed scheduling order was filed with the Court.

High Viz Memo

Subject: Sessions, Jefferson

FOIPA#: 1375480-000

Requester: Leopold, Jason

Date of Consultation Request: 6/2/2017, with initial request to EOUSA on 1/23/2017.

Background of Request: [redacted]

b5

Litigation: Plaintiff Jason Leopold filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, Civil Action No. 1:17-cv-00153-TSC, on January 24, 2017 against the multiple agencies, including DOJ. Plaintiff amended his complaint on February 17, 2017. Plaintiff's complaint concerned the agency's failure to respond within 20 business days or provide a determination within that time frame. FBI is not a party to the litigation, however EOUSA is included in the portion of this litigation against DOJ. [redacted] Defendants have been ordered to make rolling productions of documents until August 28, 2017 and a status report by September 1, 2017.
