The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Humphrey 'Lifts' an LBJ Speech

By Drew Pearson
and Jack Anderson

When Vice President Humphrey delivered his recent speech on building bridges to China, most people figured that either he was breaking with President Johnson or had cleared his speech with the White House in advance. Real fact is that he had done neither.

It was a speech quite different from that of six months ago when he talked about "militant aggressive Asian communism with its headquarters in Peking." Instead, last week he talked about replacing "Iron Curtains" with "open doors."

"I look forward to the day when the great Chinese people, no longer victimized from within, take their place in the modern world," Humphrey said.

People who wondered about the speech didn't know that after its delivery the Vice President got a phone call from President Johnson congratulating him. They also didn't know that previously Mr. Johnson had told Humphrey to go out "on your own, make your own policy."

"It was a great speech," the President said after delivery.

"It was the same speech you delivered at White Sulphur Springs last year," the Vice President replied.

HHH Organizes

Vice President Humphrey isn't making it official until today, but behind the scenes he's been making a lot of political hay. He now has a close-knit campaign organization, a top money-raiser, and a braintrust, together with a lot of delegates quietly pledged around the Nation.

Most interesting member of the Humphrey team is Dick Maguire, one-time money-raiser for John F. Kennedy and once a close friend of the Kennedy family. Today, however, Maguire is ensconced in the Mayflower Hotel in Washington as treasurer of "United Democrats for Humphrey."

The Vice President's campaign managers are two live-wire members of the Senate—Fred Harris of Oklahoma, who may be the next Senate Democratic Whip, and Walter Mondale, Hubert's fellow Minnesotan.

Bob Short, former owner of Minneapolis Lakers, who was Minnesota campaign manager for Sen. Estes Kefauver when Kefauver trounced both Adlai Stevenson and Humphrey in the 1952 Minnesota primary, has also joined the Vice President's brain trust.

Pastore Backing

Humphrey's most interesting Senate backer is the leading Italian-American of the nation, Sen. John Pastore of Rhode Island. Pastore packs a lot of punch in the Senate, also in the White House. President Johnson gives him credit for his new technique in holding televised press conferences.

"That little bantam rooster came in here and told me to stop being a Baptist preacher," the President told a friend. "Get away from the podium," he said, "and be the old swinging Lyndon Johnson!"

Sen. Pastore suffered a heart attack this winter, and also has been under attack by the Kennedy forces. Bobby Kennedy has applied tremendous pressure to get Pastore to support him. He has argued that Rhode Island is the neighbor of Massachusetts and he wanted all of New England to be for him for President.

Despite the pressure, the Vice President last week got a call from Sen. Pastore.

"Hubert," he said, "I've just called the Providence papers in here and I've told them I'm for you. You're the best qualified man we have to be President."

"Can I quote you on that?" Humphrey asked.

"Sure you can," Sen. Pastore replied.

The Vice President has talked to members of the Johnson Cabinet, and with four exceptions, advised the not to endorse him. He was fearful of the political reaction.

"I can just hear Bobby say in his next speech that Lyndon Johnson was meat-axing me by turning his entire Cabinet loose to cut me up," the Vice President told Cabinet friends. "He's just waiting for a chance to make that speech."

The four exceptions who are backing Humphrey are:

Orville Freeman, Secretary of Agriculture, who was elected Governor of Minnesota partly through Humphrey's campaigning, and once babysat for the Humphrey children as a student at the University of Minnesota.

Willard Wirtz, Secretary of Labor, whose close affiliation with George Meany and the AFL-CIO, and Walter Reuther makes support for Humphrey a natural.

Hubert Cohen, Secretary of the old friend of the President.

Robert Weaver, Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, the one Negro in the Cabinet. Weaver expects to announce later.

Among the Democratic stalwarts around the country lining up for Humphrey are Fred Betz, former Democratic state chairman in Colorado; Sen. Gale McGee in Wyoming; Arthur Courshon, Miami Beach banker; J. B. Fuqua in Georgia; and Sen. Ed Muskie in Maine; plus the probable support of Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago, Mayor James Tate of Philadelphia, and Gov. Richard Hughes of New Jersey.

UNKNOWN SUBJECT; THREAT AGAINST HUBERT H. HUMPHREY
VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

On June 7, 1968, at approximately 6:10 p.m., [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Maryland, telephonically contacted a Special Agent (SA) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), advising that on April 25, 1968, at approximately 9:00 p.m., [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] man, identity unknown, stopped her as she was approaching the band stand to determine the identity of the vocalist of the dance band. She stated the voice sounded familiar and she thought the singer might be a Negro male, whom she would recall from playing with a band with which her son was involved.

[REDACTED] advised the man said "That's a nigger band," and further advised that she would not know any of the members.
She stated a casual conversation followed, during which the man expressed an extreme hatred for Negroes, Catholics, and Jews, and further expressed extreme pleasure with the recent assassination of Martin Luther King. She stated the man said "The midget with the fat face is next." She stated the man then said, "I have a machine gun and I am going to gun Hubert H. Humphrey down."
She stated she was afraid, due to the "savage" look on the man's face. She stated that the man did not exhibit a weapon in her presence.

[REDACTED] advised she has returned to the [REDACTED] on several occasions and has not seen the man again. She stated she will remain alert and immediately notify the FBI of any identifying data she obtains regarding this man. She described the man as follows:

Re: New Haven teletype 6/15/68.

Enclosed are six copies of an LHM captioned as above.

The subject, as set forth in the enclosed LHM, makes reference to a visit by Vice President HUBERT H. HUMPHREY, to New Haven, Conn. The files of the NHO, however, do not contain any information indicating a recent visit by Vice President HUMPHREY to New Haven, Conn., but do reflect that he made the commencement address at the U. S. Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., on 6/4/68.

One copy of this LHM is being designated to the Secret Service, New Haven, Conn.

The FBI Laboratory, if deemed warranted, may consider comparing the subject's handwriting contained in his letter attached to the enclosed LHM in an effort to identify him as the writer of other anonymous letters threatening the President and Vice President of the United States in the event such letters are in possession of the FBI Laboratory.

It is noted that an article appearing in the Temple University News under date of September 26, 1967, captioned "Avoid Draft Speakers Tell Peace Rally," indicates that one MARK GREENE, '68, who was a speaker in an anti-war demonstration held on Barton Mall, urged students to "lie to the government, tell them you might shoot your own men, tell them you will make love on the battle field." GREENE reportedly said, "You can't beat the system, but you sure can play it."
