Title:

IRVING RESNICK

Character:

ANTI-RACKETEERING

Synopsis:

RESNICK, a white, male, American, born 3/6/16, Brooklyn, New York, is employed as Director of Sports, Thunderbird Hotel, and resides 1429 Coyuga Parkway, both Las Vegas, Nevada. RESNICK was at one time a professional or semi-professional basketball player in the New York City area. Additional background information set forth. Sources state RESNICK is shylocking and may carry funds from Las Vegas to New York City.

- P -

DETAILS:

This investigation is predicated upon information received from LV T-6 on October 7, 1963 that the source heard that ASH RESNICK of the Thunderbird Hotel was a member of a syndicate making quarterly trips to New York City.

AT LAS VEGAS, NEVADA:PERSONAL HISTORY AND BACKGROUNDBIRTH DATA:

Records of the Clark County Sheriff's Office, when reviewed by Special Agent [REDACTED] on February 12, 1962, reflected that IRVING RESNICK, commonly known as ASH RESNICK, was born March 16, 1916 at Brooklyn, New York.

b6
b7C

LV 92-113

EMPLOYMENT:

LV T-1 advised on November 8, 1963 that ASH RESNICK is employed by the Thunderbird Hotel as a Director of Sports. Informant stated to his knowledge RESNICK has not been gone from the city of Las Vegas more than two times this year. Informant said that he recalls on the July 4 holiday that RESNICK was in Los Angeles, California.

FORMER EMPLOYMENTS:

Records of the Clark County Sheriff's Office, when checked by Special Agent [redacted] on February 12, 1962, reflect that RESNICK on December 20, 1960 made an application for a work permit to work at the Dunes Hotel, Las Vegas, in the game of baccarat. RESNICK listed previous employments with the Milton Berk, Inc., Newark, New Jersey, and as a professional basketball player with the New York Celtics, 1938 to 1948.

There was a notation in these records that RESNICK had been employed at the Riviera Hotel, Las Vegas, in July, 1955

b2
b6
b7C
b7D

On June 19, 1962, [redacted] Milton Berk Meat Company, telephonically advised Special Agent [redacted] that IRVING RESNICK owns 25 per cent of this company. He stated RESNICK has nothing to say or do with the operations or policies of the company. He said this company formerly operated on 525 11th Avenue, New York City, but was now located at 222 Frelinghuysen, Newark, New Jersey.

LV T-2 advised on May 15, 1962 that ASH RESNICK lost his New York meat business due to his excessive gambling.

RESIDENCE

LV T-1 advised on November 8, 1963 that ASH RESNICK resides with his wife and daughter at 1429 Coyuga Parkway.

FORMER RESIDENCES:

[redacted] New York City, advised Special Agent [redacted] on August 5, 1959 that ASH RESNICK and his wife resided in Apartment 16 B. A two-year lease was filed on September 1, 1957 by RESNICK at which time he listed his employment as President of the Milton Berk Inc.

LV 92-113

[] said this was a wholesale meat company. [] described RESNICK as about 45 years of age, 5' 10" to 5' 11", 220 pounds, and heavy set.

Records of the Clark County Sheriff's Office as checked by Special Agent [], on February 12, 1962, reflected that on April 22, 1956, RESNICK resided at Apartment 73 of the Bali Hai Apartments, Las Vegas, and on December 20, 1960, RESNICK resided at 443 Desert Inn Road, Las Vegas.

MARITAL STATUS AND IMMEDIATE RELATIVES:

Records of the Clark County Sheriff's Office, on February 12, 1962 when checked by Special Agent [] reflected that on December 20, 1960 when RESNICK applied for work permit he listed his wife's name as []

LV T-1 advised on November 8, 1963 that RESNICK's wife's name is [] and that they have an eight or nine year old []

LV T-3 advised on November 4, 1963 that ASH RESNICK's present wife's name is [] and that she is a [] who worked at the Tropicana Hotel. [] some time after marrying ASH RESNICK, went back to work [] at the Sahara Hotel. At this time she is not working.

LV T-2 advised on May 15, 1962 that RESNICK has been married twice.

EDUCATION:

The records of the New York University, School of Education, as furnished by [] to Investigative Clerk, [] reflect the following on the subject:

IRVING RESNICK, 4921 12th Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, date of birth, March 6, 1916 at Brooklyn, New York, entered New York University, School of Education, in September, 1937. His previous education was New Utrecht High School, Brooklyn, New York. RESNICK was dropped in January, 1940 for poor scholarship.

[redacted] Athletic officer, New York University, advised Special Agent [redacted] on November 9, 1962, that records at that Athletic Office show that IRVING RESNICK, 4921 12th Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, earned a freshman football letter in 1937 and varsity basketball letters through 1939. [redacted] said that nothing further was in his records concerning subject. [redacted] furnished the address of [redacted], retired, New York University basketball coach, who coached subject at New York University. [redacted] also stated that [redacted] was on vacation and would not return to New York until December 7, 1962.

On December 17, 1962, [redacted] advised Special Agent [redacted] that he recalls subject playing basketball under him at New York University. [redacted] also recalled that subject did not complete his education at New York University. [redacted] said that after leaving New York University, he never heard of subject playing professional or semi-professional basketball with any team in New York. [redacted] said that subject never played with the Original Celtics or Kate Smith's Celtics but may have played with some pick-up team exploiting the Celtics' name.

b7C

On November 1, 1962, JOSEPH LAPCHICK, Coach, St. Johns University, Queens, New York, and former member of the Original Celtics, advised Special Agent [redacted] that he recalls subject as a basketball player at New York University and later as a professional with some of the players from the Original Celtics. LAPCHICK explained that in 1936 he left the Original Celtics who were then breaking up from old age. DAVEY BANKS, deceased, one of the Original Celtics, brought IRV "Ash" RESNICK into the group in 1938 or 1939 and RESNICK played several games with a team trading on the name Original Celtics. LAPCHICK described DAVEY BANKS as a "race track type guy". LAPCHICK stated he knew of no existing records of the Original Celtics but would make efforts to learn something more about the subject. On December 5, 1962, LAPCHICK advised he knew nothing more about subject other than hearing that subject is presently in Las Vegas, Nevada.

[redacted] Manhattan College, Bronx, New York, advised Special Agent [redacted] on December 5, 1962 that he recalls subject playing basketball at New York University. [redacted] said that subject never played with the Original Celtics or Kate Smith's Celtics but did play professional and semi-professional ball with teams from New York City. [] explained that this activity was prior to the organized professional leagues and was more in the nature of "town teams". He explained that someone like DAVEY BANKS would arrange a game with a team in Jersey City or Philadelphia and BANKS would pick up good players known to him and play the game under the name Celtics. [] could furnish nothing further on the subject.

[] New York Athletic Club. [] recalls subject but could furnish no additional pertinent information about him.

CRIMINAL:

b6
b7C

The records of the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau reflected the following information as obtained by Special Agent [] on December 17, 1962:

April 20, 1946 - subject arrested at Jamaica Race Track;
May 6, 1946 - subject ejected from Clubhouse for making book, warned not to return to Belmont Race Track;
July 5, 1946 - subject arrested at Empire Race Track;
October 26, 1946 - subject arrested at Jamaica Race Track;
February 28, 1947 - Belmont records an undesirable listing and warning not to return;
March 15, 1957 - subject ejected from Gulfstream as recognized bookmaker.

It is noted that Empire, Belmont, and Jamaica are or were race tracks in the New York City area. Gulfstream is a race track in the Miami, Florida area.

The records of the New York City Police Department when checked by Investigative Clerk, [] on December 17, 1962 reflected [] was arrested for bookmaking on July 5, 1946 and fined $50.00 or ten days. On October 26, 1946 [] was arrested for bookmaking and on December 27, 1946 received a sentence of three months in the work house, sentence suspended and fined $100.00.

LV 92-113

It is noted that the above arrests were by the 103rd Street New York City Police Department, which squad covered Jamaica Race Track.

On November 27, 1962 [] Intelligence Unit, Internal Revenue Service, Brooklyn, New York advised Special Agent [] that he could not locate any record for the subject.

On November 27, 1962 [] Intelligence Unit, Internal Revenue Service, New York City advised Special Agent [] that he could locate no record for subject.

Records of the Clark County Sheriff's Office when reviewed by Special Agent [] February 12, 1962, that ASH RESNICK was arrested on April 22, 1956 by officers of the Clark County Sheriff's Office on the charge of Vagrancy at the El Rancho Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada.

RESNICK was arrested because he was an associate of "known hoodlum", CHARLIE TORRINE, also known as Charlie White, and further that RESNICK was not known to have worked while in the Las Vegas, Nevada area.

A notation appeared in this file that the Sheriff's Office had received complaints that RESNICK was running a sports book "out of his pocket". At the time of his arrest, April 22, 1956, RESNICK had $1,456.00 on his person and he claimed to be an athletic trainer.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

[] Boston Celtics Professional Basketball Team, Boston Garden, Boston, Massachusetts advised Special Agent [] on April 6, 1962 that the Boston Celtics is not the successor of the old New York Celtics and that RESNICK is unknown to the Boston Celtics organization.

LV T-2 advised on May 15, 1962 that he heard ASH RESNICK was an all-American football player as well as a nationally recognized basketball player out of New York University, New York City.

IRVING RESNICK, Thunderbird Hotel, was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent. RESNICK was also advised that he did not have to furnish any information and that any information he did furnish could be used against him in a court of law. RESNICK was also advised that he had a right to an attorney.

RESNICK said he did not understand the formality of this interview but that he would certainly help the FBI in any way possible. He stated he has always respected the FBI and he asked if he could be of assistance.

RESNICK was told he was being contacted because of certain allegations the FBI had received concerning him.

RESNICK was asked if he made trips from Las Vegas, Nevada, to the East and New York City in connection with the operation of the Thunderbird Hotel.

RESNICK stated he certainly did not understand the line of questioning he was being asked and that he felt he should not answer this type of question until he understood just what the agent was asking of him.

RESNICK was advised that he was most certainly aware that the FBI was vitally interested in hoodlum interest in the Las Vegas area.

RESNICK stated he was acquainted with many individuals in the gambling field. He said perhaps some of these individuals were persons the FBI considered to be hoodlums, but that to his knowledge, he knew of no individuals violating any laws.

RESNICK advised that the agent had to understand that Las Vegas is full of former gamblers from various parts of the country. He said that in time to come the management of casinos will be operated by individuals brought up within the ranks of the present employees of casinos. He said that at this time, most casino managements are individuals with prior gambling backgrounds from other parts of the country.

RESNICK stated he had very little background in gambling. He said he is employed by the Thunderbird as the Director of Sports.

RESNICK said he was not connected with the casino operations of the Thunderbird Hotel. He said for this reason he could not discuss any operation of the casino.

RESNICK was asked if he represented any undisclosed interest in the casino or had any knowledge concerning the skimming of casino funds.

RESNICK stated he had no comment to make concerning these questions and that he would not continue the discussion with the agent.

The interview was terminated at this time.

From observation, RESNICK is described as follows:

Name	IRVING RESNICK, also known as Ash Resnick.
Race	White
Sex	Male
Age	45
Height	6'
Weight	235 pounds
Build	Heavy
Hair	Dark gray, curly

On 2/14/68, [redacted] (protect identity)
[redacted]
advised as follows:

[redacted]
[redacted] In his capacity
he is in close contact with players and team officials.

[redacted] stated that in January 1968, while the Philadelphia "76ers" were on the West Coast, they were guests of "ASH" RESNICK, part owner and "sports director" Caesars Palace, Las Vegas. RESNICK picked up the check.
These arrangements believed by [redacted] to have been made by WILT CHAMBERLAIN of the "76ers."

On 2/10/68, the "76ers" played in Miami. Prior to the game CHAMBERLAIN brought RESNICK and ex-heavy weight champion JOE LOUIS to "76ers" locker room, then he got them seats in the press box. After the game, CHAMBERLAIN, RESNICK and LOUIS joined FRANK SINATRA and left.

[redacted] said he has heard that RESNICK is a former New York Celtic pro-basketball player, was implicated in basketball scandal and was investigated in the alleged fixing of the first CLAY-LISTON fight in Miami. He allegedly is a friend of MEYER LANSKY and VINCENT ALO ("Jimmy Blue Eyes") and CHARLES TOURINE.

[] advised he is furnishing the above in that CHAMBERLAIN's association with RESNICK does not look good for the game and could eventually become suspicious in that WILT can completely control a ball game by rebounds alone.
