it through its first go around. I was able to then scribble, because in the second go around I was able to hear what the voice was saying, and by the third go around, I had copied I think almost verbatim what he said.Q. Okay. You handed me a copy of a newspaper article where it indicates b6 b7Cson of comedian entertainer Jerry Lewis, is getting married. Is this, and this person's identified in the article as being the one on the right side of the picture in the dark clothing, is that your son?A. No. Not at all.Q. Do you have a son?A. I have six sons.I HAVE READ THIS STATEMENT CONSISTING OF 3 PAGE(S) AND I AFFIRM TO THE TRUTH AND ACCURACY OF THE FACTS CONTAINED
HEREIN. THIS STATEMENT WAS COMPLETED AT (LOCATION) Bally Grand ON THE 6th DAY
OF MAY AT 1850 HRS (AM/PM), 1987.

WITNESS: _____

WITNESS: _____

Q. Any of them this age? That would be married?

A. Yes, five of my sons are married, one isn't, the youngest is not.

Q. This man that's depicted in the picture, is he one of your sons?

A. No.

Q. Okay.

A. He looks like [] and he, from here, he's not anywhere near one of my children.

b6
b7C

Q. This man demanded money from you today?

A. Yes, in the phone call, he demanded $250,000 within ten days or else in so many words.

Q. Did he also indicate to you that he would make contact with you later?

A. Yes, he said he would contact me again.

Q. Do you recognize this voice?

A. No, I never heard the voice before. But I know he's out there or this guy purporting to be my son, []

Q. And you've had this problem in the past with similar threats and demands?

A. Oh, yes, oh, yeah, for many years, many, many years.

Q. And this man is using your identity without your permission?

A. That is correct. Now he's going one step further, now he's looking to use my money without my permission.

Q. Okay.

A. But he's also threatening me that if I don't come up in ten days something might happen. So I don't want to wait for the ten days. I called Metro and got you.

Q. Okay. You received this call at your home phone number?

A. Yes.

Q. Is there anything else about this threat that we haven't talked about that you feel should be brought out at this time?

WITNESS: _____

SIGNED: _____

WITNESS: _____

A. No. I can't think of anything I've missed, except it's very unnerving to walk out on a stage with a spotlight on you.

Q. Yeah, I can imagine.

A. That's, I mean, you don't have to be a sharpshooter if you want to get somebody, that's a wonderful way to get him. But he ain't gonna get no quarter of a million dollars, and therefore the next move is his. But I sure as hell would love Metro to call me and say relax, we've got this whacko.

Q. Okay.

Entertainer's son will be wed in El Monte

The Rev. Jerry Lewis Jr., 43, son of entertainer-comedian Jerry Lewis, and Esther Arleen Todd, 49, both of Alhambra, will be married Sunday in a casual ceremony in El Monte.

The wedding will take place at 3 p.m. at the Santa Anita Wesleyan Church, 2400 Santa Anita Ave. and will be performed by pastor Ray Snook, who has been active with both Lewis and Todd in working to help the homeless through his church.

The informal nature of the wedding was chosen out of respect to the homeless, according to Kathy Stevens, a spokesperson for Lewis.

She said a reception, also to be held at the church, will follow the wedding and will be open to Christian members of the public.

Copies of Lewis's life story will be sold at the reception, Stevens said.

For additional information telephone Kathy Stevens at (818) 332-0998.

Jerry Lewis' estranged son, associate helping Valley area homeless

By MARK ADAMS
Staff writer

Those who aid the homeless at times find themselves frustrated, not by a lack of funds or supplies but by the very people they are trying to help.

That was the experience of Covina resident Kathy Stevens and Alhambra street minister Jerry Lewis Jr., estranged son of the popular entertainer.

The pair had become involved in the plight of the homeless in Los Angeles, but beginning in February they experienced a string of incidents causing them to take a second look at aid they were providing and where their efforts could best be used.

Stevens was beaten by a homeless man on a downtown street who told her to "quit looking at me."

She later was attacked by a woman wielding a four-foot-long broomstick at a rally for the homeless, and recently she was robbed of a large amount of cash and personal files.

Lewis has been attacked numerous times since he began living on the streets at age 13 after leaving his father's home, he said.

Earlier this month, just a few days before his planned wedding on a street corner near the Skid Row area, he said he was beaten up because his attackers wanted a load of food Lewis was delivering to different organizations.

His life was threatened, along with that of Stevens and his fiancée, he said, and the wedding was moved to El Monte.

Stevens and Lewis said the mood of those living on the streets has changed since community shelter projects like Tent City II and Justiceville ended.

"As weeks go by, small hostile groups have been breaking off," Stevens said, and violence is becoming more common as the street people battle for self-preservation.

"We want to help people that want help," Lewis said.

They estimate the Valley's transient population to be in the thousands, and most aren't the long-term, hard-core homeless found living in the inner city.

Lewis said he has spent years on the street and in various shelters since he broke off relations with his father 30 years ago, an event he declined to discuss but that Stevens said was related to the death of his twin brother from muscular dystrophy.

Both of the brothers had the disease, but Lewis' condition improved.

Jerry Lewis Jr., Kathy Stevens who are aiding homeless proved and it was an emotional time for the boy when he severed ties with the family, Stevens said.

"I want to help people because I was homeless," Lewis said. "We should take care of our own back yard before we worry about sending help overseas."

Stevens, a handwriting analyst who has published a book showcasing the writing of celebrities, said she became involved with the homeless problem after losing her own house in a legal tangle.

"My talents allowed me to recover," she said, and gave her a closer look at what it's like to be without.

Stevens and Lewis are in the process of forming Helpers of the Homeless, a non-profit group that will work to provide food, shelter and job training for those in need in the Valley.

One of the first projects has been dubbed "Room-Mates" by Lewis, and will give the homeless a place to live while they get their lives back together, he said.

Lewis and Stevens are looking for an attorney to donate the time it would take to handle the legal aspects of starting the organization.

Other needs include donated clothing and storage space. The pair can be reached at P.O. Box 3237, Covina 91722.

Lewis Jr. maintains story trueComedian Jerry Lewis says
Alhambra man is not related

A spokesman for entertainer Jerry Lewis said Monday that there is no truth to the claim of an Alhambra man who says he is the son of the celebrity.

Joe Stabile, the entertainer's manager, said that such claims have arisen several times during Lewis' career and are common in the show business industry.

"You should see some of the mail we get," he said.

But the man who says he is Jerry Lewis Jr. repeated Monday that he is the estranged son of a father he hasn't seen since he was 13.

A feature story in Monday's Tribune told of Lewis Jr.'s plans to aid the homeless in the San Gabriel Valley.

Kathy Stevens, a Covina handwriting expert who has published a book analyzing the penmanship of various celebrities, said in April that Lewis Jr. was the son of the entertainer.

Stevens said Monday that she is continuing to research the claim.

Jerry Lewis Jr.

She and Lewis Jr. are currently waiting for a copy of his birth certificate to arrive from a family friend.

"I have no reason not to believe him at this point," Stevens said.

She and Lewis Jr. hope to

obtain concrete proof of the relationship this month and have plans for a book if it can be documented.

Lewis Jr. said his original birth certificate was destroyed when the hospital where he was born in Israel was bombed.

Alhambra woman says 'Lewis' son' really hers

An Alhambra woman said Wednesday that a man who has been claiming to be Jerry Lewis Jr. is actually her son, James Henry Todd.

Allene Todd said the man's father is her late husband, James M. Todd. Her son was born in Illinois in 1955, she said, and the family later lived in the San Gabriel Valley.

"I think it's all just imagination," she said of her son's story.

Pearl Todd, an El Monte resident, said she is the man's sister and that he has been claiming to be the son of the entertainer for several years.

She received several calls from family friends after a story appearing in The Tribune told of plans that a man claiming to be Jerry Lewis Jr. was formulating to aid the area's homeless.

The woman has several photographs of her brother at elementary school age with other family members. The 1972 Workman High School yearbook also contains a photograph of him as a sophomore, listing his name as James Todd.

A spokesman for entertainer Jerry Lewis said Monday there was no truth to his claim.

But the man repeated his story Wednesday, denying that he is a member of the Todd family.

He said he is waiting for a copy of a birth certificate to arrive that will prove his claim.

ARMED AND DANGEROUS

Synopsis: On 5/7/98, television and movie actor JERRY LEWIS advised that he had been informed that GARY RANDOLPH BENSON, who had been convicted for stalking him in the past, escaped from prison in Utah and called him making new threats of death against him and [REDACTED]. LEWIS hired a private investigator to protect him at home and to escort the child to school. On 5/7/98, FBI Salt Lake City confirmed that BENSON was re-arrested at 10:17 p.m. on 5/6/98 and is being held at the Salt Lake County jail on a no bail warrant from Nevada. No UFAP warrant will be sought by the FBI although AUSA [REDACTED] was advised and debriefed. No FBI jurisdiction exists in the threat matter at this time. AUSA [REDACTED] stated that if [REDACTED]

Contact was made with JERRY LEWIS, at his home at 1701 Waltman, Las Vegas, Nevada 89102, who was interviewed by SA [redacted] and by SA [redacted] (near Charleston and Martin Luther King Drive).

b6
b7C

LEWIS confirmed that he had received death threats against him and [redacted] from BENSON, who was last known to be in Utah and had allegedly escaped.

b6
b7C

On same date, SA [redacted] Fugitive Task Force, FBI, Salt Lake City, Utah, advised that they would be willing to obtain a UFAP warrant for BENSON, once verified that he did escape from the Utah County jail in Provo, Utah, as claimed.

b6
b7C

At approximately 1:00 p.m., SA [redacted] advised that RANDOLPH GARY BENSON was taken into custody at 10:17 p.m. on 5/6/98 at the VETERAN'S HOSPITAL in Salt Lake City and probably was never at Provo and was not in an escape status. [redacted] believes that BENSON called LEWIS from the hospital and made up the story of the escape from Provo. The arresting officer advised the FBI that BENSON was very violent prior to the arrest and had been treated there for a long time (Officer [redacted] telephone [redacted]). Off the record, [redacted] advised that the hospital was anticipating releasing BENSON and when the officers found out they pushed the arrest of BENSON for parole violation out of the State of Nevada, for the stalking issue.

b6
b7C

SA [redacted] confirmed that BENSON was booked at the Salt Lake County Jail (near the FBI office) in Salt Lake City, booking number 0228382 and is on a 15 day hold until BENSON can be extradited back to Nevada.

b6
b7C

After learning that BENSON was back in custody, LEWIS stated that he only wanted his "day in court" and to end the stalking threats and danger to himself and [redacted]

On 5/7/98 at approximately 4:30 p.m., AUSA [redacted] advised that [redacted]

The following is reported by SA [redacted] for the record of the file and occurred on May 13, 1998:

SA [redacted] was advised by Jerry Lewis at approximately 8:00 a.m. that subject Gary Randolph Benson was out of jail.

SA [redacted] contacted Salt Lake City Division, and spoke to Relief Supervisor SA [redacted] who checked and was able to confirm that Benson had been released from the Salt Lake County, Utah jail on Monday, May 11, 1998. [redacted] advised that Benson had been arrested on May 8, 1998 by [redacted], Parole Officer for violation of parole. A fifteen day detainer had been placed on him for violation of parole. For unknown reasons he was released after four days from the Salt Lake County jail. SA [redacted] impressed upon SA [redacted] the need for the immediate location and apprehension of Benson.

Contact was made with Salt Lake County Detective [redacted] telephone [redacted], main number (801) 535-5991, who confirmed the above. [redacted] also advised that he had notified Nevada Parole and Probation and had dealt with [redacted] Probation Officer in Salt Lake City handling Benson. [redacted] stated that Benson should have been held until for fifteen days after his arrest, and that the Salt Lake County Jailers had mistakenly let him out for reasons unknown. [redacted] was asked to have his Captain contact the Captain of the jail to make sure that after Benson was recaptured that he would be kept in jail.

Contact was made with [redacted] Nevada Adult Parole and Probation (P&P), 486-3436. She looked into the matter and advised that their Carson City Office ([redacted] or [redacted]) were handling the extradition of Benson for parole violation. Nevada P&P had been notified that Benson was in jail on an arrest warrant issued by Nevada P&P, and that they were preparing the extradition paperwork.

[redacted] told reporting agent that if Benson did not contest the extradition, then it would take approximately two weeks to get him out and to Las Vegas. If Benson contests, then a governor's warrant would have to be issued and it could take thirty to sixty day.

At approximately 10:00 SA [redacted] Salt Lake City Division advised that Benson had been located at his girlfriend's house in Salt Lake City and that he was acting crazy and making threats.

At approximately 10:30 a.m. SA [redacted] advised that Benson had been taken into custody by the FBI and [redacted], Utah Parole and Probation officer and was to be rebooked at the Salt Lake County jail for violation of parole. SA [redacted] assured SA [redacted] that all efforts were being undertaken to prevent a second erroneous release of Benson.

[redacted] Nevada Parole and Probation, Carson City, Nevada was advised by SA [redacted] that Benson was again in custody and to take all appropriate steps to assure his successful extradition before any further errors were made by Salt Lake County jail officials.

b6
b7C

[redacted] Nevada Adult Parole and Probation confirmed that Benson was in custody and that they had been notified and [redacted] in Carson City was handling the matter. She would follow-up to assure no lapses occurred.

Lewis's [redacted] cellular [redacted] was kept apprised of developments as they occurred. He stated that he would advise Lewis. [redacted] later advised that he had spoken with Lewis and Lewis was relieved that Benson was in custody and was satisfied that the FBI was handling things competently.

b7C

SA [redacted] Salt Lake City Division, direct telephone [redacted] cellular [redacted] was contacted and advised the following: Agents of the FBI and Utah Parole and Probation arrested Benson at the home of his girlfriend, at an address provided the first time Benson was released from jail. [redacted] has been in touch with [redacted] Nevada P+P, Carson City, who handles the transportation of extradited prisoners. Logistics will be handled. [redacted] also advised that he will monitor the confinement of Benson on a daily basis until he is taken into custody by Nevada Parole and Probation.

Stalker's probation revoked

Lewis' harasser ordered back to prison

By Jace Radke
LAS VEGAS SUN

Jerry Lewis walked out of court Monday praising the justice system after District Judge Michael Douglas' judgment to revoke the probation of Gary Benson, a Las Vegas man who was accused of stalking the entertainer.

"Thank God, our justice system works," Lewis said.

Benson, 54, was sentenced on May 15, 1995, to six years in prison on one count of aggravated stalking. That sentence later was suspended and Benson was placed on probation for five years with the stipulation that he stay away from Lewis and continue to attend counseling sessions.

Benson moved from Las Vegas to California, Arizona and most recently Utah in order to get treatment and counseling for chronic schizophrenia, but he always found a way out of the programs, Douglas said.

"He has shown an inability to conform to the requirements of outpatient treatment," Douglas said. "The outpatient route just doesn't get it and it is the court's belief that there is not an inpatient facility that will accept him."

Benson's latest probation violation occurred when he stopped going to treatment sessions at the John Tyler Center in Salt Lake City. At the same time that Benson was not getting treatment or meeting with his probation officer, Lewis claimed he received a threatening phone call.

"It was an anonymous caller who said and I quote, 'Gary Benson is out and he knows where you and your daughter are,'" Lewis said in court on July 26.

Benson, who came before the court for his initial arraignment on April 5, 1994, told the court that he was sorry and that his heart went out to Lewis, but prosecutor Abbi Silver said it was something the court has heard before.

"I don't dispute that he is a mentally disturbed individual, but he is also a manipulator of the system," Silver said. "He violates his probation and then says he's sorry. He is not amiable to probation and has violated it."

Benson has already served 1,151 days, which will be credited toward his jail time.

Jerry Lewis provided interviewing agent, whom he knew from previous investigative contacts, photocopies of transcripts of telephonic threats which had been received at his offices in Las Vegas in July, 1998.

Photocopies are attached and are made a part of this document.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

As the telephonic threats were determined by the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department to have originated locally, no investigation had been conducted by the FBI relative to these threats. They do, however, constitute an ongoing pattern of harassment which Mr. Lewis believes originated with Gary Randolph Benson. No evidence yet exists to connect these threatening calls to Benson.

Jerry Lewis' stalker must serve out sentence

By Peter O'Connell
Review-Journal

A man who stalked comedian Jerry Lewis must serve out his sentence, parole commissioners have decided.

Gary Benson, 55, on Monday asked the state Parole Board to give him early release, saying he no longer poses a threat to Lewis. By a 4-0 vote, commissioners rejected that appeal Wednesday.

"Mr. Benson will serve out his sentence to expiration," board Chairman Tom Patton said Thursday. Benson currently is scheduled for release in August 1999.

Patton said factors contributing to the decision include Benson's extensive criminal history and the serious nature of his crime. Benson pleaded guilty in May 1995 to aggravated stalking, a felony.

"Parole would constitute a threat to public safety in general, and the Lewis family in particular," Patton said commissioners decided.

In a private meeting, Lewis had asked commissioners to reject Benson's request for parole.

"He said that would give him a few more months of peace," Parole Commissioner Michael Harris said Monday.

Benson, who has been diagnosed as schizophrenic, initially was sentenced to five years probation. He was warned, however, that he faced a six-year prison sentence if he failed to abide by probationary terms. He was imprisoned after violating those terms on several occasions.

In seeking parole, he said he planned to start a new life in Utah with his wife. He also hoped to receive treatment for various physical and mental ills.

Benson's troubles with Lewis began in the late 1980s, when Benson married the entertainer's housekeeper. The marriage soon ended in divorce.

At his guilty plea, Benson said Lewis learned about his criminal background and shared the information with the housekeeper.

Benson has admitted calling Lewis and going to the entertainer's home. He denied ever threatening the life of Lewis.

A convicted stalker awaiting his imminent release from prison was ordered Tuesday to stay away from comedian Jerry Lewis.

Justice of the Peace Jennifer Togliatti told Gary Benson that he could be sent back to prison if he contacts Lewis by any means. The judge warned Benson that this prohibition includes everything from e-mail to skywriting.

"Do you understand?" the judge asked Benson.

"Yes, your honor," the inmate replied.

Benson, 56, pleaded guilty in May 1995 to aggravated stalking, a felony. He initially was sentenced to probation, but was ordered to prison after continuing to harass Lewis.

In an affidavit filed in court, Lewis recounted the years of threats that caused him to fear for his life and the life of his daughter.

He said the mental torture didn't end when Benson was sent to prison, and he doesn't expect it to end when Benson is released.

In fact, Lewis said he believes Benson was the person who called him in May with an ominous message.

"Jerry, I'll be out in 65 days," Lewis said the caller told him before the comedian hung up the phone.

Prison records indicate Benson is scheduled to be released Oct. 5. However, Benson said Tuesday he will be freed next week.

Because he served the entirety of his six-year sentence, minus time for work credit and good behavior, Benson will not be supervised after his release.

"He can't be restricted. He completed his entire sentence," said Howard Skolnik, assistant director of the Nevada Department of Prisons.

Togliatti ordered Benson to stay away from Lewis through Sept. 21, 2000.

Violating the order carries a maximum punishment of five years in prison. He also could be found in contempt of court and sentenced to six months in prison.

Benson, who has been diagnosed as schizophrenic, was seated in the courtroom in an orange jumpsuit when Lewis arrived Tuesday afternoon.

The entertainer, dressed in a blue blazer and blue jeans, avoided looking at his tormentor. Benson tried to fix his gaze elsewhere in the courtroom, but his eyes repeatedly strayed toward Lewis.

Though still coping with the effects of viral meningitis, Lewis earlier this month served as host of the annual Jerry Lewis Labor Day Telethon for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

He appeared thin and haggard Tuesday. Even his jokes were tired.

"Here come the piranhas," he said as reporters surrounded him outside court. "Get a day job."

Deputy Public Defender Terrence Jackson told the judge that Benson plans to leave Nevada upon his release from prison.

"He already has made arrangements to fly out of here as soon as he can and reside in another state," Jackson said.

The attorney did not specify where Benson will live. However, during an unsuccessful bid for parole last year, Benson said he planned to start a new life in Utah with his wife.

Benson's troubles with Lewis began in the late 1980s, when Benson married the entertainer's housekeeper. The marriage soon ended in divorce.

At his guilty plea, Benson said Lewis learned about his criminal background and shared the information with the housekeeper.

In an affidavit, Lewis said Benson phoned him repeatedly for about five years before his threats escalated in intensity early in 1994.

In January 1994, Benson went to Lewis' home late one night, rang the doorbell, said he had a gun and demanded entry. Police who were called to the scene found Benson near the home, but without a weapon.

In February 1994, Benson was served with a protective order demanding he stop harassing Lewis. Police intercepted subsequent phone calls from Benson to Lewis, and the Connecticut native was arrested on charges of aggravated stalking and violating a protective order.

He pleaded guilty to aggravated stalking and was sentenced to probation. The plea agreement required him to seek mental health treatment.

The probation was revoked in July 1998 after Benson committed numerous violations. Lewis said these included a phone call placed by Benson or someone associated with the stalker.

"You better watch out for your daughter. He's out," Lewis said he was told.

In addition, Lewis said Benson made some disturbing admissions while undergoing treatment in San Diego.

"Voices are telling me to kill Jerry Lewis," he said Benson told mental health officials there.

In opposing Benson's unsuccessful bid for parole in October, prosecutors said he had an extensive criminal history that included convictions for bank robbery, grand theft and fraud.

"The inmate is psychologically unstable. He has very recently reported hearing more voices telling him to kill the victim," Chief Deputy District Attorney Christopher Laurent said in a September 1998 letter to the Parole Board.

Benson told parole commissioners in October he just wanted to put the matter behind him.

"I am no threat to Jerry Lewis, his family and the community," said Benson, who on Tuesday told his attorney he is taking medication to combat his mental illness.

Earlier this year, Lewis drew upon his own harrowing experiences in an address to state legislators, who later toughened the penalties for those convicted of aggravated stalking.

Comedian's stalker completes sentence, leaves Jean prison

By Peter O'Connell
Review-Journal

A man convicted of stalking comedian Jerry Lewis was freed from prison Wednesday after completing his sentence.

Gary Benson, 56, was driven to an undisclosed location in Las Vegas from the state prison in Jean. This is standard practice when an inmate has no money.

Because Benson served all of his sentence minus credit for work and good behavior, he will not be supervised.

THREATENING LETTER

SUBJECT HAS KNOWN MENTAL CONDITION

Synopsis: Entertainer Jerry Lewis, a long time Las Vegas resident, is again being threatened by subject. Set leads to conduct Laboratory examinations, and locate and interview Benson.

Enclosures: For the Laboratory: Original letter and envelope, elimination prints of Jerry Lewis and [REDACTED] original of Inmate request form with signature of Gary Benson.

For Denver Division: Photocopy of threatening letters.

Details: In early April 2000, Lewis received at his home a threatening letter signed by Benson. The letter bore a Casper, Wyoming, postmark, and Benson's last known address was in Salt Lake City. Benson has a long history of stalking and threatening Lewis. A protective order is in place.

Lewis' troubles with Benson began in the late 1980's when Benson married the entertainer's housekeeper. The marriage soon ended in divorce and Benson blamed Lewis, who had learned of Benson's criminal past and shared the information with his housekeeper. Benson had been telephonically harassing Lewis for five years before the threats escalated in intensity in 1994.

Re: 9A-LV-30409, 04/24/2000

Late one night in January 1994, Benson went to Lewis' residence, rang the doorbell, said he had a gun, and demanded entry. The police who responded to the scene found Benson nearby, but without a gun. In February 1994, Benson was served with a protective order demanding that he stop harassing Lewis. Police intercepted subsequent calls from Benson and he was arrested on charges of aggravated stalking and violation of a protective order. He pled guilty to aggravated stalking and was sentenced to probation. The plea agreement called for him to seek mental health treatment. Benson told mental health officials that he wanted to kill Lewis.

Probation was revoked in July 1998 after Benson, or someone associated with Benson, placed calls to Lewis' home threatening him and his daughter. Benson served the balance of his sentence and was released in September 1999.

A restraining order was put in place upon Benson's release and is to expire in September 2000. This order forbids Benson from having any contact with Lewis whatsoever.

[redacted] Benson's Veterans' Administration (VA) case worker at Salt Lake City, telephone 801-582-1565, extension [redacted] telephonically advised this agent on 04/24/2000 that Benson was unable to care for himself and that [redacted] was indigent and unable to care for him or herself. [redacted] had placed Benson in the Veterans' Administration facility at Sheridan, Wyoming. [redacted] stated that Benson had admitted to having sent the letter to [redacted]

[redacted] denied that Benson had made the admissions to him but stated that he had "heard" that Benson had made statements to one of the staff workers. [redacted] was not particularly cooperative and referred me to his supervisor, [redacted] who was more helpful.

Enclosures: Three pages of handwriting exemplars of Benson

Details: SAC, Las Vegas has discussed the expediting of referenced lead with the Assistant Director of the Laboratory Division, on May 4, 2000. (X)

The enclosed handwriting exemplars of Benson were loaned by the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department (LVMPD), and are from previous investigations of Benson. These documents date from 1981 and 1984. The LVMPD has not conducted a comparison of these exemplars with the threatening letter sent to Jerry Lewis in April, 2000.

, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

b6
b7c

That he is a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, being so employed for a period of approximately thirteen (13) years, assigned to investigate violent crimes and in the course of his investigations investigated the crime of VIOLATION OF AN EXTENDED PROTECTIVE ORDER ONE (1) COUNT AND AGGRAVATED STALKING ONE (1) COUNT committed on or about April 5, 2000, which investigation has developed GARY RANDOLPH BENSON, as the perpetrator thereof.

THAT DECLARANT DEVELOPED THE FOLLOWING FACTS IN THE COURSE OF THE INVESTIGATION OF SAID CRIME TO WIT:

1. That Gary Randolph Benson was previously convicted of Aggravated Stalking in Clark County, Nevada District Court case number C-119141, and a Judgement of Conviction was signed on June 12, 1995 for stalking entertainer Jerry Lewis.

2. That an amended Judgement of Conviction against Gary Randolph Benson was signed in Clark County, Nevada District Court case number C-119141, on April 18, 1997

3. That Gary Randolph Benson was sentenced to six years in Nevada State Prison and was released at the end of September 1999, upon expiration of his prison sentence.

4. That victim Jerry Lewis, who continues to live in constant fear of Gary Randolph Benson, was issued an Extended Protective Order against Harassment, Stalking, and Aggravated Stalking by Gary Randolph Benson, on September 21, 1999 in Clark County, Nevada Justice Court, case number 99PO-0661X, and that the order precedes the release of Benson from prison. That the term of the protective order is one year from the date of issuance. The Extended Order for Protection is valid until September 21, 2000.

5. That a letter of a threatening nature, which bore a date of April 5, 2000 and which stated, "Dear Jerry, Your Dead. Your friend, Gary Benson" (signed), was received on April 11, 2000 at the Las Vegas residence of Jerry Lewis. The envelope containing the letter bore a postmark of Casper, Wyoming, and was delivered by the United States Postal Service.

6. That your affiant, in the course of his investigation, telephonically contacted [redacted] on April 24, 2000, and learned that [redacted] resides in [redacted] and serves as [redacted]. That Benson currently resides in Sheridan, Wyoming. That Benson had placed a collect call to [redacted] from Sheridan, Wyoming on or about April 7, 2000, and during the course of that call Benson told [redacted] that he was off his medications, and was hearing voices which told him to kill Jerry Lewis. Benson further told [redacted] that he had sent a letter or letters to Lewis which contained threats to kill him. One of the letters may have contained a bomb threat. Benson further told [redacted] that he knew he had done something bad and felt bad about it.

b7C

7. Based upon the documented history of Aggravated Stalking directed at Jerry Lewis by Gary Randolph Benson, and the content of the letter received by Lewis signed by Benson, a reasonable person would be in fear of his life and/or in fear of substantial bodily harm, and in fact, Jerry Lewis is in fear for his life and/or in fear of substantial bodily harm by this defendant.

8. A copy of the telephonic interview conducted by this affiant and a copy of the telephone bill faxed by [redacted] to your affiant with a notation about the call of interest to this investigation are attached and made a part of this affidavit.

No conclusion was reached whether GARY RANDOLPH BENSON, writer of the K1 and K4 specimens, did or did not prepare the writing on the Q1 and Q2 specimens due to distortion in the questioned writing..

Observations for Investigative Assistance

Distorted writing generally does not contain the normal handwriting characteristics of the writer. Therefore, it is unlikely this questioned writing can be definitively associated with its writer through a handwriting examination.

Dear Agent [REDACTED]

Defendant Benson is currently being extradited to Las Vegas on our pending case. I need the following reports no later than the end of the month:

1. A taped and transcribed statement of [REDACTED]
2. A taped and transcribed statement of the extra reporter who spoke with Benson telephonically, including explaining times and dates and surrounding circumstances. Had he ever talked to Benson before?
3. All impound records.
4. All reports on the fingerprint analysis of the "letter."
5. All handwriting reports on the "letter."
6. If the analysis is negative as to Benson, perhaps we should have DNA done on the stamp.
7. All of your reports regarding this case.

I realize that you are obviously more familiar with the federal system, so I want to apprise you that our office has an "open file" policy regarding discovery in cases. Thus, I need these items not only for my case-in-chief, but also, for the defense upon the defendant's arrival into Las Vegas.

Additionally, because of the media scrutiny on this case, I would like to have this done as soon as possible. Thank you for your courtesies.

Sincerely,

Abbi Silver

RE: Gary Randolph Benson

Dear Deputy District Attorney Silver:

I am in receipt of your faxed letter of May 11, 2000 and wish to provide you an update of the investigation.

The majority of the investigation should be completed by the end of the month, although if a DNA comparison is needed it will not be finished by the end of May. The postage stamp was self-adhesive, so no DNA is available, however the Latent Fingerprint Unit will examine the rear of the stamp, as well as the letter and envelope for Benson's fingerprints.

The flap of the envelope was examined so as to preserve possible DNA evidence from saliva. No specimens of Benson's body fluids are available from the Veteran's Administration for DNA comparison. A court order would be needed to obtain samples of body fluids from Benson. These samples could be obtained in Wyoming prior to extradition or in Las Vegas upon his arrival. We should further discuss this issue.

I am obtaining additional recent exemplars of Mr. Benson's writings and signature for submission to the Questioned Documents Unit. A preliminary review noted that a conclusive statement that the threatening letter was of Benson's handwriting was probably not possible as the letter appeared to the examiner to be "distorted" writings.

Latent fingerprint comparisons are underway and upon receipt of the report will be forwarded to you.

I have telephonically interviewed [redacted] the EXTRA reporter. He had preserved his notes of the interview and

b6

provided a very comprehensive statement. A copy of his interview is attached.

As to the request that we audio tape the interview with [redacted] it is the general policy of the FBI to not audio nor video tape an interview. This policy may be waived under certain circumstances, and I have secured authority to do this. However, a telephonic interview of each of these individuals has already been conducted. You have a copy of the interview report of [redacted] and a copy of the interview report of [redacted] is attached.

b6
b7c

Now comes the part in which I would like some input as to your thoughts. My concern is that if I were to reinterview these guys on tape, they might say something slightly different than they had said during the first interview. We then have two different interviews of the same person. I am not concerned that a second interview would contradict a first interview, only that slight differences may become fodder for a defense attorney. To preclude that possibility, I would then propose to do the following. During the taped reinterview I would advise why I am recontacting them, and then read to them the report of the interview that I had written. I would then ask them to state for the record that the preceding was a true and correct record of their statements, and if not, that they may correct their statement at this time. That way, both interviews are combined into one and the defense can not raise an issue. This is how I propose to do a taped interview. What do you think?

In conclusion, we will cooperate fully, and provide all reports for the prosecution and for discovery.

~~Sincerely,~~

[redacted]

Special Agent

Stalker of Lewis back in trouble

By Jace Radke and Greg Tuttle

LAS VEGAS SUN

The man who spent more than four years in prison for stalking Jerry Lewis is headed back to Las Vegas after the FBI arrested him in Wyoming in connection with a threatening letter to the entertainer.

Gary Benson, 56, of Sheridan, Wyo., faces charges of aggravated stalking and violating an extended protective order. He was arrested Thursday in Wyoming, FBI spokesman Joseph Dickey said, and has since agreed to be brought to Las Vegas.

Benson

Lewis received a letter at his Las Vegas home on April 11 that read, "Dear Jerry: Your Dead," Dickey said. The letter was signed, "Your friend, Gary Benson."

The envelope was dated April 5 and had a postmark of Casper, Wyo. Benson was arrested at a Sheridan County Department of Veterans Affairs hospital.

In 1989 Lewis obtained for his then-housekeeper a lengthy police record on Benson after she told Lewis that she planned to marry Benson. She in turn told Benson about the report, which sparked a string of harassing phone calls to Lewis' home and office.

After a lengthy investigation, Benson was arrested on Feb. 4, 1994. After a plea bargain was reached Benson was sentenced on May 15, 1995, to six years in prison on one count of aggravated stalking.

The sentence was suspended on the condition that Benson get mental health counseling, but in early 1998 Benson stopped going to treatment sessions at the John Tyler Center in Salt Lake City. At the same time Lewis reported getting a threatening phone call.

In July 1998 Benson's probation was revoked. He was released in September 1999 and was warned by Justice of the Peace Jennifer Togliatti to stay away from Lewis.

Lewis stalker accused of stalking comedian again

By Glenn Puit
Review-Journal

A man convicted of stalking entertainer Jerry Lewis is accused of stalking the comedian again.

Gary Benson, 56, of Sheridan, Wyo., was freed from a Nevada prison in September after completing a six-year sentence for stalking Lewis. Grant Ashley, special agent-in-charge of the Las Vegas office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, said Benson was arrested in Wyoming on Friday on similar charges.

According to Ashley, Lewis received a letter on April 5 which said "Dear Jerry: Your Dead. Your friend, Gary Benson."

Ashley said an investigation into the signed letter has led authorities to believe Benson sent it. The envelope containing the letter bore a postmark of Casper, Wyo., and was delivered by the U.S. Postal Service. Benson was taken into custody at a Veterans Administration Hospital in Sheridan.

"He is charged with one count of aggravated stalking and one count of violation of an extended protective order," Ashley said.

Lewis could not be reached for comment Friday night. Ashley said Benson's extradition to Las Vegas is pending.

In September, Lewis was issued an extended protective order against Benson, protecting him from any form of harassment, stalking or aggravated stalking. In a television interview in September, Benson said, "I have no intentions of going near him at all. It's all in the past, and I learned a lesson."

Benson pleaded guilty in May 1995 to aggravated stalking, a felony. He initially was sentenced to probation, but was ordered to prison after continuing to harass Lewis.

Benson's troubles with Lewis began in the late 1980s, when Benson married the entertainer's housekeeper. The marriage soon ended in divorce.

At his guilty plea, Benson said Lewis learned about his criminal background and shared the information with the housekeeper.

In an affidavit, Lewis said Benson phoned him repeatedly for about five years before his threats escalated in intensity early in 1994.

In January 1994, Benson went to Lewis' home late one night, rang the doorbell, said he had a gun and demanded entry. Police who were called to the scene found Benson near the home, but without a weapon.

Hearing set for man accused of stalking

A man accused of renewing his stalking of entertainer Jerry Lewis will hear the evidence against him at a June 2 preliminary hearing.

Gary Benson, 56, of Sheridan, Wyo., is charged with aggravated stalking and violation of an extended protective order.

Las Vegas Justice of the Peace Deborah Lippis will preside at the preliminary hearing.

Benson was freed from a Nevada prison in September after completing a six-year sentence for stalking Lewis.

He was arrested May 5 in Wyoming on the most recent charges after the comedian received a letter on April 5 that said "Dear Jerry. Your Dead. Your friend, Gary Benson."

Authorities said an investigation into the signed letter led officials to believe Benson sent it.

In September, Lewis was issued an extended protective order against Benson, protecting him from any form of harassment, stalking or aggravated stalking.

Case ID No.:

Results of Examinations:

No conclusion was reached whether GARY RANDOLPH BENSON, writer of the K5 and previously submitted K1 and K4 specimens, did or did not prepare the questioned writing appearing on the previously submitted Q1 and Q2 specimens due to distortion in the questioned writing.

Observations for Investigative Assistance

Because distorted writing generally does not contain the normal handwriting characteristics of the writer, it is unlikely the previously submitted questioned writing will be definitively associated with its writer through handwriting comparisons.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 05/10/00

Gary Randolph Benson, born June 25, 1943, Social Security Number 094-38-8817, was interviewed at the Sheridan County, Wyoming Jail where he was incarcerated. Benson was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview. Before questioning, Benson was verbally advised of the following rights:

He had the right to remain silent.

Anything he said could and would be used against him in court.

He had the right to the presence of an attorney before and during questioning. If he could not afford an attorney, one would be appointed for him.

He had the right to stop answering questions at any time.

Benson was asked if he understood these rights, and he responded "yes". He was asked if he wanted to answer questions, and he responded "yes". He was asked if he wanted an attorney present, and he responded "no".

In response to questions, Benson stated he knew Jerry Lewis in the past. [redacted] worked for Lewis. He had not attempted any contact, either personal, telephonic or mail, with Jerry Lewis in the past year. Benson was shown a copy of a letter addressed to Jerry Lewis and signed "Gary Benson" (copy attached). Benson read the letter aloud and smiled. He was asked if he wrote it. He stated he did not remember writing the letter. He stated he did not know who else would have written it. He stated he was feeling depressed around April 5, 2000, while staying at the Veterans Administration (VA) Hospital, in part because his wife was living in Salt Lake City. He provided the name and address of [redacted]
[redacted]

b6

Benson stated he was under a lot of stress in early April, 2000, and the medications they were giving him at the VA were not "right". He believed the dosages were incorrect. He could not remember all the medications he was taking then or now.

Benson was continuously rubbing his hands during the interview. He stated his fingers were locked in position because of the medication he was taking and he could not write. Benson attempted to write the text of the letter to Lewis (see attached copy).

Benson stated he had been angry at Lewis in the past because Lewis showed Benson's "rap sheet" to [REDACTED]. He was also angry because Lewis fired his wife after eight years of employment. However, Benson stated he has no current bad feelings towards Lewis and did not want to kill him. Benson stated he had his own problems and needed to take care of himself rather than worry about Jerry Lewis.

ADA Silver advised that the judge is asking for a filing of a brief on the Aggravated Stalking charges related to the telephone calls allegedly placed by Benson to Jerry Lewis. There may be some problems with the prosecution of that charge and she may elect to proceed with the charge of violation of a protective order.

Silver placed Veterans Administration [redacted] [redacted] on the stand and she claimed privilege. [redacted] did testify to the statements made by Benson.

Chief Deputy District Attorney Abbi Silver, Clark County District Attorney's Office, (702) 455-4822, advised this date that there were no new developments in the prosecution of Gary Benson. Benson remains in custody.

Silver had filed motions with the court concerning certain legal issues and she had awaited a response from the defense. No response came and she filed for summary judgement. The defense then filed their opposition to the motions concerning the legal issues. A decision is expected from the judge on October 31, 2000 and then a jury trial will be scheduled.

Silver will keep me informed of any developments.

SA [redacted] spoke by telephone this date to Chief Deputy District Attorney (D.A.) Abbi Silver regarding the prosecution of Gary Randolph Benson. Silver advised that the charges of aggravated stalking against Benson will be dismissed at the request of the D.A. due to potential problems in the testimony of the victim. The charge of violation of a protective order will proceed as there is sufficient hard evidence, to wit, the threatening letter, the fingerprint of the subject, and the testimony of several witnesses who Benson told that he had sent the letter to Jerry Lewis. The decision of Debbie Lippis, Justice of the Peace, as to the D.A.'s motions regarding proceeding with what charges will be announced on 10/31/2000. Silver will advise this agent.

LAS VEGAS

Jerry Lewis' stalker to be back in court

A man accused of renewing his stalking of entertainer Jerry Lewis is scheduled to make his initial appearance in District Court next month.

Gary Benson, 57, of Sheridan, Wyo., is scheduled to be arraigned Nov. 15 before District Judge Kathy Hardcastle.

He was freed from a Nevada prison in September 1999 after completing a six-year sentence for stalking Lewis.

He was arrested May 5 in Wyoming after the comedian received a letter on April 5 that said "Dear Jerry. Your Dead. Your friend, Gary Benson." Authorities said an investigation into the signed letter led officials to believe Benson sent it.

Las Vegas Justice of the Peace Deborah Lippis last week ruled there was sufficient evidence to send the case to District Court.

In the current case, Benson initially was charged with aggravated stalking and violation of an extended protective order. District Court records on Monday did not specify the charges for which he will be arraigned Nov. 15.

On this date at 11:45 a.m., investigating agent named below witnessed the fingerprinting of Gary Randolph Benson, date of birth June 25, 1943, Social Security Account Number 094-38-8817, at the Clark County Detention Center, 330 South Casino Center Boulevard, Las Vegas, Nevada. Benson was fingerprinted by Corrections Officer [redacted] was observed to affix her signature and P# to the fingerprint cards.

Gary Randolph Benson's identity was established by his jail identification bracelet attached to his wrist, his response to being asked his identity, the booking card bearing his name and photograph, and being recognized from photographs and television footage as being Benson, by the investigating agent. Benson also signed his name, Gary R. Benson, to each of the fingerprint cards.

Because of infirmities, Benson was unable to open up the middle, ring, and little finger of both hands, and these fingers were not printed. The thumb and index finger of both hands were fingerprinted. Benson stated that he was unable to open these fingers and this was as a result of the medication that he was taking. Benson's fingerprints were affixed to three fingerprint cards.

Investigating agent affixed his initials (LAZ) to the bottom right corner of the face of the cards containing the printed fingerprints. Photocopies of these cards are attached. The originals will be placed into evidence storage at the Las Vegas Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

1. That Jerry Lewis and [] be re-fingerprinted by an FBI person and that these fingerprints be resubmitted to the FBI laboratory for comparison to the Benson threatening letter, as elimination prints.
 2. That the history of the fingerprint card of Gary Benson be established as to who did the fingerprinting so a person could testify that they had fingerprinted Benson. Silver is concerned that the issue of the true fingerprints of Benson be not called into question by the defense.
 3. That the FBI laboratory examiner who provided the latent fingerprint examination and comparison of Benson's prints provide his curriculum vitae and be available to testify at trial.

Pursuant to our conversation today, I need the following:

1. Both Jerry Lewis and [REDACTED] need to be re-fingerprinted by a local FBI agent, and I need the name of the Custodian of Records of FBI, who is the records custodian of your fingerprints.
2. Need to know which certified fingerprint exemplar was sent to FBI, and would like a copy of it out of evidence. If it was Metro's I need to see who rolled the defendant's prints.
3. I need the defendant's FBI file, including his prior criminal history. Per his PSI from 1995, I read he has a federal bank robbery conviction out of San Diego. Since we are filing the habitual criminal allegation for a life sentence, you may have documentation that I need, or save me time from obtaining it.
4. An appointment to view the evidence at your agency.

January trial set for Jerry Lewis' stalker

A January trial date was set Wednesday for a man accused of renewing his stalking of entertainer Jerry Lewis.

Gary Benson

Gary Benson, 57, of Sheridan, Wyo., is scheduled to be tried Jan. 22 in District Court. He is charged with violating a judge's order not to contact Lewis.

Benson was freed from a Nevada prison in September 1999 after completing a six-year sentence for stalking Lewis. He was arrested May 5 in Wyoming after the comedian received a letter on April 5 that said "Dear Jerry. Your Dead. Your friend, Gary Benson." Authorities said an investigation into the signed letter led officials to believe Benson sent it.

RE: State of Nevada v. Gary Benson

February 22, 2001

Dear Agents [REDACTED]

It was a pleasure to have met with both of you last week. Criminalist [REDACTED] left a message on my voicemail that the fingerprint lifted from the letter sent to Lewis was identified as Defendant Benson's right thumb. As a result, I am requesting the following: Please order [REDACTED] to compare the latent print lifted from the letter sent to Lewis with the exemplar of the defendant taken by Agent [REDACTED] and his assistant on 11/1/00. Please request [REDACTED] issue a report of that comparison. After reviewing the copy of that exemplar, it is clear that his thumb was rolled; and is not one of the "deformed fingers." This comparison will avoid any objection raised by the defense against the admission of the exemplar into evidence, as the old exemplars clearly show that they were taken during arrests on prior occasions. That could potentially be prejudicial. This objection and exclusion is avoided by this simple comparison.

Thank you for your courtesies, and I look forward to meeting with both of you again in the future.

Sincerely,

Abbi Silver

SUBJECT HAS KNOWN MENTAL CONDITION

Synopsis: Set lead to conduct latent fingerprint examination.

Details: A trial preparation meeting was held with Clark County (Nevada) Chief Deputy District Attorney (ADA) Abbi Silver, who will be prosecuting this case. She is concerned about the presentation of certain evidence and has requested a examination of the letter and comparison of fingerprint cards submitted by Las Vegas with EC and lead dated 11/3/2000. (X)

ADA Silver has directed that to avoid potential prejudicial issues related to previously submitted fingerprint cards from previous arrests, that the most recently submitted fingerprint card of Gary Benson be utilized for comparison and trial testimony. The card to be used was obtained on 11/1/2000 at the Clark County Detention Center, identified on the card as Contributor: Metro PD, Las Vegas, NV, date of arrest 5/17/2000, and clearly shows impressions of the right and left thumb and index fingers, but the other three fingers of each hand could not be rolled due to their deformed condition. This is the card that must be utilized.

For the information of [REDACTED], the trial is now scheduled to begin on June 18, 2001, and his testimony will be needed.

A hearing was held at Clark County District Court, Division 17, before Judge Michael Cherry on several pre-trial motions. Judge Cherry granted a prosecution motion to allow for an independent psychological examination of defendant Gary Benson. He also vacated the trial date of June 18, 2001 and reset the jury trial date for November 12, 2001.

Several other motions, including one by the prosecution to allow the introduction of prior bad acts into the trial testimony will be heard at the calendar call approximately a week before the trial. It is the intention of the prosecution to charge Benson as a habitual criminal and to seek life imprisonment.

10 POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

11 FACTS

12 Jerry Lewis has known the defendant for over ten (10) years. Preliminary Hearing
13 Transcript p. 6, hereinafter referred to as PHT). The defendant had been dating his housekeeper
14 [REDACTED] (PHT p. 6). Lewis had received many telephone calls from the defendant during ^{b6}
15 that time period. (PHT p. 6). Additionally, Lewis has seen the defendant many times in court, ^{b7C}
16 and has had an opportunity to listen to the defendant speak. (PHT p. 6-7).

17 On May 3, 1998, Lewis received a telephone call at his residence in Las Vegas, Nevada.
18 Lewis heard a voice which he recognized as the defendant's, stating "Gary Benson is out, knows 19 where you and your daughter are." (PHT p. 7 & 13). About a month later, Lewis was physically 20 present at the Defendant's probation revocation in District Court Department XI. (PHT p. 13).
21 Lewis heard the defendant testify "I said something" when asked about the telephone call
22 content by his attorney [REDACTED] (PHT p. 14). ^{b6}
^{b7C}

23 On May 18, 1999, Lewis received yet another telephone call from the defendant. (PHT 24 p. 14). This time, the defendant stated, "I 'll be out in 65 days." (PHT p. 8 & 14).

25 By September 21, 1999, Lewis obtained an Extended Order for Protection Against 26 Stalking against the defendant from Justice of the Peace Jennifer Togliatti. (PHT p. 16-17)
27 Lewis and the defendant were present in Justice Court during the proceeding. (PHT p. 16-17)

28 ///

1 Within seven (7) months of that hearing, and after his release from prison, on April 11,
2 2000, Lewis received a letter at his residence. (PHT p. 18 & 26). That letter stated, "Dear Jerry,
3 your dead. Your friend, Gary Benson." (PHT p. 21). Lewis gave the letter to the FBI, and made
4 copies for the District Attorney's Office, Sheriff Keller, and Metro Swat. (PHT p. 18).

5 Lewis testified that between May 3rd of 1998 and April 11th, 2000, he had been in fear
6 for his life because of this defendant. (PHT p. 21). This defendant, "the stalker", has disrupted
7 his life and his families' life as well. (PHT p. 21). Over the last ten years, the defendant has 8 threatened Lewis in over 50 telephone calls, and specifically threatened his daughter's life.
9 (PHT p. 22-23). Years prior, the defendant had gone to Lewis' home and told his housekeeper
10 he had a gun, and thereafter, went to Lewis' office an hour later. (PHT p. 24). Lewis sought 11 help from every possible agency in the Justice System, and has spent over $100,000.00 in 12 security for his home. (PHT p. 23).

13 [redacted] at the Sheridan VA Medical Center in Sheridan,^{b6}
14 Wyoming. (PHT p. 40). Since December of 1999, [redacted] became acquainted with the defendant^{b7C}
15 as he was a patient on her unit. (PHT p. 41). The defendant originally resided within the locked 16 unit because he wanted to leave, and the VA didn't think he was ready to be on his own. (PHT 17 p. 41-42). [redacted] worked with the defendant about three (3) times a week. (PHT p. 42).

18 In early April of 2000, the defendant came up to [redacted] and said "I sent Jerry Lewis a^{b6}
19 letter." (PHT . 44). When [redacted] asked him what he wrote to him, the defendant said something^{b7C}
20 like, "I told him he was dead." (PHT p. 44). At the time, [redacted] did not know the defendant's 21 history regarding Lewis, and was surprised that anyone would be angry with Jerry Lewis. (PHT 22 p. 44). The defendant told [redacted] he sent the letter because he didn't like Jerry Lewis, and that 23 his ex-wife was his housekeeper. (PHT p. 45). The defendant acknowledged to [redacted] that he 24 knew Lewis' address. (PHT p. 46).

25 Thereafter, the defendant would continually approach [redacted] and tell her he was worried^{b6}
26 about having sent the letter, and worried about what they were going to do to him after Jerry^{b7C}
27 Lewis got the letter. (PHT p. 44). When [redacted] tried to reassure him that he would be fine
28 because he was in a hospital, the defendant told her that "the last time they came and got me."

1 (PHT p. 45). The defendant acknowledged that he had violated the restraining order. (PHT p.
2 45). [] noted that during these conversations the defendant was alert, lucid, able to^{b6}
3 understand conversations, and answered questions appropriately. (PHT p. 45).^{b7C}

4 In late April or Early May of 2000, [] overheard the manager of the unit tell the 5 defendant that he had some visitors, but didn't tell him who they were. (PHT p. 46). The 6 defendant responded, "they're going to come and get me and take me away." (PHT p. 46).

7 [] has known the defendant for approximately three (3) years, since^{b6}
8 November of 1997. (PHT p. 55). Over that time, he has spoken to the defendant 50-100 times.
9 (PHT p. 55). During the time period around April 7, 2000, the defendant called [] collect^{b7C}
10 from Sheridan, Wyoming several times. (PHT p. 55). During a call, the defendant said, []
11 I did something bad. I heard voices and I did something bad, I sent a letter to Jerry Lewis."
12 (PHT p. 56). Thereafter, they were both concerned about getting the defendant some help from 13 the caseworkers at Sheridan. (PHT p. 56).

14 In a later conversation with the defendant, the defendant told [] that the letter he sent^{b6}
15 Lewis was a threatening letter, something to the effect that he didn't like Jerry Lewis. (PHT p.
16 56-57). [] was aware that the defendant is presently married to [] not []
17 [] Lewis' prior housekeeper. (PHT p. 57). [] gave the FBI his MCI bill showing 18 the dates of the calls from the defendant. (PHT p. 58). That MCI bill confirmed that the 19 defendant called [] on March 23, April 4 and April 7 of 2000.^{b7C}

20 The State would like to introduce the following evidence in its case in chief regarding the 21 history of the defendant's stalking of Jerry Lewis:

22 Although the defendant had been making telephone calls to Jerry Lewis' residence and 23 office since 1990. During January of 1994, the telephone calls and the threats appeared to be 24 escalating.

25 By January 24, 1994, the defendant went to Lewis' office located on Sahara Avenue and 26 advised a secretary that he had a gun in his possession. The defendant threatened that he "was 27 looking to get Jerry Lewis." The defendant then told the secretary that, "Jerry Lewis has ruined
28 by marriage to [] He has invaded my life and my privacy. I am going to show him. And^{b6}
^{b7C}

1 I am going to get him." The defendant believed that Jerry Lewis had shown his maid [redacted] b6
2 (who happened to be married to the defendant) the defendant's "rap sheet" from LVMPD. b7C

3 That same evening on January 24, 1994, at approximately 10:00 p.m., the defendant went
4 to Lewis' residence, and repeatedly rang the doorbell demanding entry. The defendant
5 threatened he had a firearm, and he was coming into the residence.

6 The LVMPD Officer [redacted] responded to the 9-1-1 call. Officer [redacted] found the b6
7 defendant in close vicinity of the residence, however, by the time the defendant was apprehended b7C
8 he was not in possession of a firearm. The Defendant told Officer [redacted] that he went to Jerry 9 Lewis' residence because Lewis owed him money. The defendant admitted that he had gone to 10 both Lewis' residence and office that day. The defendant was not arrested at that time, and as 11 a result, continued to make so many telephone calls to Lewis' residence that Lewis had to take 12 his telephone off the hook.

13 Days after this incident, the defendant telephoned Lewis' residence every five minutes,
14 every hour, stating, "I have a gun."

15 Within a week, on February 3, 1994, the defendant was served with the first Protective 16 Order against Stalking issued out of Las Vegas Justice Court (See Attached Exhibit 1). Despite 17 the Protective Order, the defendant continued to make telephone calls. Approximately six (6)
18 of the defendant's calls were intercepted by LVMPD.

19 The next day, on February 4, 1994, the defendant was arrested for Aggravated Stalking
20 and Violation of Protective Order. On May 15, 1995, after pleading guilty to Aggravated 21 Stalking, the defendant was sentenced to six (6) years in Nevada State Prison. The District Court
22 Judge suspended that sentence for the defendant to complete a probationary period with multiple 23 conditions. (See Attached Exhibit "2"). Within a month of a probation grant, on June 1, 1995, 24 the defendant told [redacted] that "Voices are telling me to kill Jerry Lewis." b6
b7C

25 By March 27, 1997, the defendant's probation was modified to include his placement in 26 a locked down facility. (See Attached Exhibit "3"). However, by May of 1998, Parole and 27 Probation requested revocation of the defendant's probation as he had absconded from various 28 facilities, and failed to report as required. Significantly, during the time that the defendant was

1 an absconder, Jerry Lewis received a telephone call from the defendant stating, "you better
2 watch your daughter, he's out." (PHT p. 7 & 13, and revocation transcript). Coincidentally, 3 Lewis' daughter was approximately 6 years old at the time.

4 During the defendant's revocation proceeding in July of 1998, the defendant
5 acknowledged that he might have called the victim. Based on that hearing, Judge Douglas 6 revoked the defendant's suspended sentence, and the defendant was ordered to serve the 7 remaining 6 year sentence in Nevada State Prison. (PHT p. 14). Because of all of the credit for 8 the time served, the defendant would be released from prison the following year in September
9 of 1999, as his sentence would expire at that time. Prior to the defendant's prison sentence
10 expiring, in May of 1999, Jerry Lewis received a telephone call from his residence from the 11 defendant stating, "Jerry, I'll be out in 65 days." (PHT p. 8 & 14).

12 Because Jerry Lewis feared any contact from the defendant upon his release from prison, 13 he obtained a second Order for Protection against Stalking from Justice Court. On September 14 21, 1999, Justice of the Peace Jennifer Togliatti held an evidentiary hearing with the defendant,
15 his attorney [REDACTED], and Jerry Lewis. At the conclusion of the hearing, Judge Togliatti^{b6}
16 granted Lewis' second request for an Extended Order for Protection Against Stalking.^{b7C}

17 Not only does the State request that this Court grant its motion for other bad acts
18 concerning the defendant's prior conviction for Aggravated Stalking and the defendant's acts
19 leading up to that conviction, but the State also requests that this Court allow the State to present
20 evidence regarding the two phone calls made prior to the September 1999 protection order
21 hearing. Specifically, as a result of those two telephone calls, Jerry Lewis requested an Order
22 prior to the defendant's release from prison. Additionally, the State would like to present 23 statements the defendant made to the media.

24 The defendant made several statements to the media, including:

25 1. Inside Edition broadcast of October 15, 1999:

26 This film coverage shows the defendant in front of the parole board on Oct. 12, 1998.
27 The defendant is wearing jail clothing and is asking to be paroled prior to discharge. The 28 defendant states: "I feel bad for what has happened in the past, and forgive whatever he has done

1 to me or what I've done to him." The defendant also states, "I am no threat to Jerry Lewis and 2 his family or the community at this time."

3 2. Channel 8 News broadcast of the Extended Order Hearing on September of 1999:

4 This film coverage shows Jerry Lewis and his wife walking up to the Courthouse.
5 Thereafter, this shows the defendant with [] attorney, bending over during th^{b6}
6 proceedings and talking with him. Although the defendant is in an orange shirt, there is no other 7 indication he is in custody. Judge Togliatti then warns the defendant "I am spelling it out for 8 you, E-mail, correspondence, phone, cellular, any contact whatsoever of any kind, skywriting, 9 do you understand? The defendant replies, "yes, your honor."

10 3. Channel 3 News broadcast of the Extended Order Hearing on September of 1999:

11 This film coverage shows the defendant's attorney, [] assuring Judg^{b6}
12 Togliatti that when the defendant is released from prison, the defendant intends to leave the State
13 of Nevada. Further, [] advised Judge Togliatti that the defendant had already made 14 arrangements to fly out of Las Vegas as soon as he could to reside in another state.

15 4. Inside Edition broadcast of the Extended Order Hearing on September of 1999:

16 This film coverage shows the Extended Order Hearing and the courtroom with Jerry
17 Lewis, his wife, and the defendant with [] Thereafter, the defendant tells []^{b6}
18 [] reporter for Inside Edition (just a voice is heard with the reporters's face) the following 19 statements:

- 20 a. "It's, over with and I'm just tired of it."
21 b. "I apologize. It will never happen again."
22 c. "I just want to get on with my life."- the defendant states this to Judge Togliatti.

23 5. Extra broadcast of October, 1999:

24 This film coverage shows [] interviewing the Defendant after his release from^{b6}
25 prison (due to his expired sentence). When [] asked the defendant if he would threaten 26 Jerry Lewis again, the defendant replied, "No, I have my own family to attend, and I have no 27 threats or no intentions of going near him at all."

28 ///

1 Finally, there is film coverage of the defendant speaking to reporter [redacted] from^{b6}
2 Inside Edition in 1995 (This was aired on October 15, 1999, see #1 above). In that clip, the^{b7C}
3 defendant is behind glass in custody stating, "He (Jerry Lewis) thinks that I am a very dangerous
4 person. He takes these extra measures to have me stay away from him."

5 The State now makes this motion to admit other crimes, wrongs, or bad acts in its case 6 in chief.

7 ARGUMENT
8 THE STATE SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO PRESENT EVIDENCE OF 9 OTHER BAD ACTS IN ITS CASE-IN-CHIEF

10 NRS 48.045(2) provides:

11 Evidence of other crimes, wrongs or acts is not admissible to prove 12 the character of a person in order to show that he acted in 13 conformity therewith. It may, however, be admissible for other purposes, such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake or accident.

14 The decision to admit or exclude evidence, lies within the discretion of the court. And 15 such a decision will not be reversed absent manifest error. Kazalyn v. State, 108 Nev. 67, 825
16 P.2d 578 (1992); Halbower v. State, 93 Nev. 212, 562 P.2d 485 (1977).

17 The Nevada Supreme Court has held evidence of prior misconduct is admissible in the 18 State's case in chief in many cases. In [redacted] v. State, 101 Nev. 46, 692 P.2d 503 (1985), 19 [redacted] was charged with shooting a car salesman in the head with a .22 caliber handgun^{b6}
20 [redacted] claimed that the shooting was done during an argument with the car dealer and that^{b7C}
21 it was an accident. The trial court allowed evidence that [redacted] had previously become 22 embroiled in an argument with a female. He drug her out of her place of employment and shot
23 and killed her with a .22 caliber handgun. The Nevada Supreme Court upheld the trial court's 24 decision to allow such evidence to establish the absence of mistake or accident.

25 In [redacted] v. State, 101 Nev. 782, 711 P.2d 856 (1985) [redacted] was charged with killing^{b6}
26 two young females with a hammer. The two women were kidnaped by [redacted] and his wife^{b7C}
27 and transported to their fatal destination as part of the [redacted] "sex slave" fantasy. The tria 28 court allowed evidence that [redacted] had previously kidnaped two young women from :

1 shopping mall and thereafter shot and killed them. The high court affirmed the lower court's
2 ruling and allowed such evidence for the purposes of establishing common plan, intent, identity
3 and motive. Id. 101 Nev. at 788.

4 In [REDACTED] State, 122 Nev. 266 (1996), [REDACTED] was charged with three (3) counts of ^{b6}
^{b7c}
5 burglary which occurred approximately 18 days apart. Two were vehicular burglaries while the 6 third was the burglary of a store. On appeal after his conviction, the defendant alleged that the 7 burglaries were improperly joined and additionally, evidence of a vehicle burglary that occurred
8 two years earlier was improperly admitted before the jury. The Nevada Supreme Court ruled
9 that, not only was joinder of the three burglaries proper, but additionally ruled that the burglaries
10 were "cross admissible in evidence . . . to prove [REDACTED] felonious intent in entering the 11 vehicle. See NRS 48.045(2);)." In addition, the Nevada Supreme Court held that evidence 12 pertaining to the vehicle burglary which occurred two years earlier was properly admitted in 13 order "... to show [REDACTED] common plan or scheme and his intention to feloniously enter the 14 vehicles on May 29th and June 16th (two years later). See NRS 48.045(2)."

15 Pursuant to N.R.S. 48.045(2), and the case law cited above, this Court should grant the 16 State's motion for other bad acts, wrongs, or crimes, in its case-in-chief. The defendant's history 17 of stalking this victim is relevant in that it shows a motive and common scheme or plan on 18 behalf of this defendant. Further, this evidence is relevant to show the defendant's intent to 19 willfully violate this Extended Order Against Stalking, which is an element of the offense.
20 Despite the defendant's mental condition, the State submits that it is relevant to show the 21 defendant's intent to send this letter in violation of a Court order. This evidence is also relevant 22 to show identity of the perpetrator as the person that sent this letter to Jerry Lewis in April of 23 2000.

24 The State can meet the burden of proving this evidence by not only clear and convincing
25 evidence, but by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, through the defendant's prior Judgment
26 of Conviction. The State submits that through its offer of proof, the judgment of conviction, 27 and the totality of the witnesses statements, that it has met its burden of proving by clear and 28 convincing evidence that these acts did occur.

1 The evidence of the defendant's prior history of stalking Jerry Lewis, and statements made
2 by the defendant prior to sending the letter in April of 2000 are also relevant under the doctrine
3 of "res gestae."

4 The general rule of law pertaining to the "complete story" or res gestae was set forth by 5 the Nevada Supreme Court in [] v. State, 94 Nev. 461, 581 P.2d 856 (1978). There the 6 court stated: "The State is entitled to present a full and accurate account of the circumstances of 7 the commission of the crime, and if such an account also implicates the defendant or defendants 8 in the commission of other crimes for which they have not been charged, the evidence is 9 nevertheless admissible." (Quoting State v. Izatt, 534 P.2d 1107 (Idaho 1975). The facts in

10 [] reveal that he and a co-offender entered a police sponsored store which was fronting as b6
11 a "fencing" operation. Negotiations were entered into with regard to several items of property, b7C 12 including some bronze wear and a camera. As a result of that conduct, he was indicted for 13 possession of the stolen camera. In finding no error with regard to the evidence dealing with his 14 possession of the bronze wear, which was likewise stolen from the victim at the same time as 15 the camera, the court stated "Courts have long adhered to the rule that all the facts necessary
16 to prove the crime charged in the indictment, when linked to the chain of events which support 17 that crime, are admissible."

18 The holding was similar in the recent Nevada Supreme Court decision of State v. []
19 900 P.2d 327 (Nev. 1995). There, the defendant was charged with possessing the controlled
20 substance, Methamphetamine, and Cocaine, which was found by officers pursuant to a vehicle
21 stop. The vehicle was stopped following an investigation involving the purchase for sale of a
22 quantity of heroin by defendant [] and his son-in-law. The trial court prohibited the b6
23 prosecution from revealing to the trial jury any evidence pertaining to the uncharged heroin b7C
24 transaction. The Nevada Supreme Court in overruling the trial court stated:

25 "If the agents are not allowed to testify regarding their surveillance, 26 the State cannot inform the jury how [] obtained the drugs or 27 that officers suspected [] was participating as a lookout during 28 the purchase of the drugs that were ultimately found in the car he was driving. Without such testimony, the State cannot effectively prosecute the transportation of illegal narcotics charges pending against []

1 The charges at issue were contemporaneous to the heroin
2 purchase, arose out of the same transaction, and involved the same
3 participants. The excluded evidence was inextricably intertwined
4 with the charged crimes and completed a story leading up to 5 [] ultimate arrest.

6 We conclude that the State's witnesses could not adequately testify
7 about the methamphetamine and cocaine charges without some 8 reference to the heroin sale and the accompanying surveillance 9 activity. The district court, thus abused its discretion by granting 10 the motion in limine. The district court should have admitted the 11 evidence and issued a cautionary instruction to the jury."

12 It is important to note that the [] court relied upon Allan V. State, 92 Nev 318 (1976), 13 a case where the defendant complained that the trial court erred by admitting evidence of 14 uncharged lewd behavior in a Sexual Assault on Minor case. The Allan court explained the 15 complete story doctrine:

16 When several crimes are intermixed or blended with one another,
17 or connected such that they form an indivisible criminal transaction
18 and when full proof by testimony, whether direct or circumstantial, 19 of any one of them cannot be given without showing the others, 20 evidence of any or all of them is admissible against a defendant on 21 trial for any offense which is itself a detail of the whole criminal 22 scheme.

23 Id at 7 (citing Allan, supra at 321). Ultimately, the Allan court found the evidence admissible 24 stating:

25 The testimony regarding the additional acts of fellatio, as well as 26 the act of masturbation, was admissible as part of the res gestae of 27 the crime charged. Testimony regarding such acts is admissible 28 because the acts complete the story of the crime charged by proving the immediate context of happenings near in time and place. Such evidence has been characterized as the same transaction or the res gestae.

29 Id at 8 (citing Allan, supra at 320) (see also State v. Villa Vicencio, 388 P.2d 245 (Arizona 1964) 30 (undercover agent's testimony that the accused made an uncharged sale to a third person while 31 selling to the agent was admissible under res gestae and doctrine).

32 Returning to the facts of [] the court found that the district court improperly denied
33 the undercover officer from testifying about the uncharged acts. Specifically, the district court
34 erroneously relied on NRS 48.035(1), which provides for the weighing of the relative, probative
35

1 and prejudicial value of the evidence. The [] court recognized that when the complete story^{b6}
2 doctrine applies: ^{b7C}

3 The determinative analysis is not a weighing of the prejudicial
4 effect of evidence of other bad acts against the probative value of 5 that evidence. If the doctrine of res gestae is invoked, the 6 controlling question is whether witnesses can describe the crime
7 charged without referring to related uncharged acts. If the court
8 determines that the testimony relevant to the charged crime cannot 9 be introduced without reference to uncharged acts, it must not 10 exclude the evidence of the uncharged acts.

11 Id at 9. The Shade court found that the uncharged acts should be admitted because, "the charges 12 at issue were contemporaneous to the heroin purchase, arose out of the same transaction, and 13 involved the same participants." Id at 10. Therefore, it was necessary for the officer to be able 14 to explain the events leading up to the arrest of the defendant for sale of controlled substance.

15 Other Nevada Supreme Court decisions with similar holdings are as follows: []
16 v. State, 104 Nev. 547, 763 P.2d 59 (1988). In that case, the defendant was convicted of 17 Burglary and Possession of Credit Card Without Consent of the Owner. Defendant []^{b6}
18 entered a Round Table Pizza Parlor, sat down at a table occupied by []^{b7C}, and began 19 eating their pizza and drinking their beer without their permission. The defendant, thereafter, 20 left the pizza parlor and was observed by [] to burglarize several automobiles. The trial
21 court allowed into evidence testimony that the defendant had helped himself to [] pizza
22 and beer even though the defendant had not been charged with that conduct. The Nevada 23 Supreme Court ruled that this evidence was admissible in that it bore on the identification of 24 Brackeen by [] and:

25 "Additionally, the description of [] pilfering was 26 admissible as an integral part of [] narration of the events 27 leading up to [] removal of the personal property from the 28 vehicles in the parking lot. We have adopted the rule that the State is entitled to present a full and accurate account of the circumstances surrounding the commission of a crime, and such evidence is admissible even if it implicates the accused in the commission of other crimes for which he has not been charged."

29 Shults v. State, 96 Nev. 742, 616 P.2d 388 (1980) was an appeal from a conviction for 30 murder in the first degree. The trial court had admitted detailed testimony pertaining to a

1 robbery which had involved the defendant and the victim, but was not directly related to the 2 murder. It was the position of the State, that the robbery was part of the motive for the murder
3 since the defendant feared that the victim was going to testify against him with regard to that 4 crime. In upholding the admission of the fact that the defendant had planned the robbery, gave
5 orders and divided the money, the Nevada Supreme Court ruled that this was admissible in order
6 to show motive and to "present a full and accurate account of the circumstances surrounding the 7 crime." See also, Lucas v. State, 96 Nev. 428, 610 P.2d 727 (1980) (admitting evidence of 8 sexually explicit photographs and slides shown to the victim of a sexual assault admissible "to 9 complete the story of the crime by proving the immediate context of happenings near in time and 10 place."). The "complete story" rationale permits the introduction of other crimes evidence so 11 long as the crime is so interconnected to the acts in question that a witness cannot describe the 12 act in controversy without referring to the other crime." See, [REDACTED] v. State, 907 P.2d 978
13 (Nev. 1995). [REDACTED] was reversed because the State's key witness was able to testify at the^{b6}
14 preliminary hearing without ever discussing the uncharged act. In addition, none of the^{b7C}
15 witnesses who testified about the killing made mention of the uncharged act which consisted of 16 possession of drugs and the court, therefore, concluded that there was simply no connection 17 between the drug possession and the murder.

18 N.R.S. 200.591, Violation of an Extended Protective Order Against Stalking, is a 19 relatively new crime. That statute was enacted to punish individuals who continue their stalking 20 behavior even after a victim obtains an Extended Protective Order. This statute was enacted to 21 convict and punish individuals based on one singular act in violation of that order. Certainly,
22 the acts leading up to a victim going to Court and obtaining such an order is not only relevant,
23 it necessary for the jury to understand the case in chief. If the jury did not know the history of 24 the defendant's stalking case, then it would not make any sense that Entertainer Jerry Lewis 25 asked the Court for a Protective Order in September of 1999. The fact that the defendant was 26 being released from prison, that the defendant was still calling the victim, saying things like, "I'll 27 be out in 65 days," is relevant as to why Jerry Lewis sought a protective order. Without this 28 information, Jerry Lewis' request would not make sense.

1 Before evidence of other bad acts are admissible before a jury the court must conduct a 2 [redacted] hearing [redacted] v. State, 101 Nev. 46, 692 P.2d 503 (1985). Before admitting the
3 evidence of other acts, b6 b7C

4 "The court must determine three (3) things on the record and 5 outside the presence of the jury: whether admission of the evidence 6 is justified, whether it is proven by clear and convincing evidence, and whether the danger of unfair prejudice substantial outweighs its probative value." Salgado v. State 114 Nev. 1039 (1998).

7 The Salgado court likewise addressed the issue as to whether or not a formal evidentiary
8 hearing with live witness testimony is required during this [redacted] hearing. The court b6 b7C
9 concluded that this was not necessary, that indeed the State can meet it's obligation through a 10 verbal offer of proof. The court concluded as follows:

11 Thus, under [redacted] clear and convincing proof of collateral acts 12 can be established by an offer of proof outside the presence of the 13 jury combined with the quality of the evidence actually presented to the jury.

14 In [redacted] supra, the Nevada Supreme Court reminded the trial courts that the efficient 15 administration of justice depends on their conscientious adherence to the dictates of our previous 16 decisions requiring on-the-record hearings." The Nevada Supreme Court upheld a defendant's 17 conviction for attempt murder with use of a deadly weapon despite the fact that a hearing was 18 not held on the record for review. In [redacted] the State introduced evidence that the defendant b6 b7C
19 and co-defendant attempted to kill a young woman because of her association with a rival gang, 20 and that [redacted] was a "wannabe" member of the rival gang.

21 The Nevada Supreme Court emphasized its preference that such a hearing be held to 22 make a record for review, and did not reverse [redacted] conviction despite the District Court's 23 failure to hold such a hearing, under harmless error analysis.

24 CONCLUSION

25 Accordingly, for the foregoing reasons, the State respectfully requests this Court grant
26 its Motion to Admit Evidence of Other Crimes, Wrongs, or Bad Acts in its case-in-chief, as 27 relevant. Thereafter, the State requests that this Court hold a [redacted] Hearing, wherein the b6 b7C
28 State may make its offers of proof regarding the evidence so that this Court may a record of the

1 following: 1) that the evidence is relevant 2) that State has met its burden of proving by clear
2 and convincing evidence the prior bad acts occurred, and 3) that the^t probative value of the 3 evidence outweighs the danger of unfair prejudice.

Lewis stalker's trial postponed

Judge orders mental health evaluation of Gary Benson

By PETER O'CONNELL

REVIEW JOURNAL

The trial of the convicted stalker accused of sending a threatening letter to entertainer Jerry Lewis was postponed Monday after a judge ruled that prosecutors may have a mental health expert evaluate the defendant.

Gary Benson, 57, was scheduled to be tried today on a felony charge of violation of an extended protective order. District Judge Michael Cherry reset the trial for Nov. 12.

In approving Chief Deputy District Attorney Abbi Silver's request for an independent psychological evaluation, Cherry said his own courtroom observations of Benson have caused him concern.

"He never says anything. He's got that faraway look," Cherry said.

Benson was freed from a Nevada prison in September 1999 after completing a six-year sentence for stalking Lewis.

He then moved to Wyoming, but was arrested in May 2000 and accused of violating a court order that prohibits him from having any contact with Lewis. Authorities said Benson's fingerprints were found on a threatening letter sent to the entertainer. Also, prosecutors have said that Benson admitted to several people that he sent the letter.

"Dear Jerry. Your Dead.

Your friend, Gary Benson," the letter read.

The defense initially opposed the prosecution's request to secure an independent psychological evaluation. The defense withdrew its objection after Cherry cautioned the objection could result in the defense not being permitted to present testimony regarding psychological issues.

The judge said the defense also may pursue an additional psychological evaluation of Benson, who was diagnosed as a schizophrenic in 1963.

Cherry said he wanted to gather as much information as possible on this issue because prosecutors plan to ask the judge to sentence Benson as a habitual criminal should he be convicted at trial.

Benson pleaded guilty in May 1995 to aggravated stalking, a felony. He initially was sentenced to probation, but was ordered to prison after he continued to harass Lewis.

Benson's trouble with Lewis began in the late 1980s, when Benson married the entertainer's housekeeper. The marriage soon ended in divorce. Benson has said Lewis learned about his criminal background and shared the information with the housekeeper.

In an affidavit, Lewis said Benson phoned him repeatedly for about five years before his threats escalated in intensity early in 1994.

In January 1994, Benson went to Lewis' home late one night, rang the doorbell, said he had a gun and demanded entry. Police who were called to the scene found Benson near the home, but without a weapon.

The trial of Gary Benson was postponed until November while he undergoes an independent psychiatric evaluation. Benson is accused of sending a threatening letter to Jerry Lewis.

Jerry Lewis' stalker dies in jail

Convicted in earlier case, 57-year-old faced life sentence on new charges

By J.M. KALIL
REVIEW-JOURNAL

A convicted stalker facing a second trial for threatening entertainer Jerry Lewis died in jail early Saturday.

Corrections officers found Gary Benson dead in his cell at the Clark County Detention Center at 1:48 a.m., Las Vegas police Lt. Wayne Petersen said.

Benson apparently died in his sleep, Petersen said, but the official cause of his death will be determined by the coroner's office.

The 57-year-old felon was scheduled to go to trial Nov. 12 on felony charges of aggravated stalking and violating a protective order that prohibited him from contacting Lewis.

Benson, a diagnosed schizophrenic who claimed he heard voices commanding him to kill Lewis, had appeared gaunt and distracted in recent court appearances.

Less than seven weeks ago, District Judge Michael Cherry said Benson's demeanor caused him concern.

"He never says anything. He's got that faraway look," Cherry said of Benson in June, before granting a prosecutor's request to postpone the trial so the defendant could undergo a mental health evaluation.

Candi Cazau, a publicist for Lewis, said the entertainer was en route to San Diego on Saturday and unavailable for comment because he is recovering from pneumonia.

"Death is not pleasant, whether it's an enemy or a friend," Cazau said. "Silence is golden, and that's all we're going to say."

Benson was freed from a Nevada prison in September 1999 after completing a six-year sentence for stalking Lewis, known for his starring roles in slapstick comedies and his annual telethons benefitting muscular dystrophy research.

Benson then moved to Sheridan, Wyo., but authorities arrested him less than nine months later for violating a court order prohibiting him from having any contact with Lewis.

Authorities said his fingerprints were found on a threatening letter sent to Lewis in April 2000.

According to the FBI, the letter bore a postmark of Casper, Wyo., and said, "Dear Jerry. Your Dead. Your friend, Gary Benson."

Prosecutors had intended to seek a life sentence for Benson under a state law that sets tough penalties for habitual criminals.

He was sentenced to probation in 1995 after he pleaded guilty to a felony count of aggravated stalking. But a judge revoked the sentence and ordered him to serve six years in prison after Benson continued to harass Lewis.

His troubles with Lewis began in the late 1980s, when he married the entertainer's housekeeper. The marriage soon ended in divorce.

Benson has said Lewis learned about his criminal background and shared the information with the housekeeper. Lewis has said Benson phoned him repeatedly for about five years before his threats escalated in intensity in early 1994.

In January 1994, Benson went to Lewis' home late one night, rang the doorbell, said he had a gun and demanded entry. Police found Benson unarmed outside the home.

Coroner says stalker died of natural causes

A convicted stalker who died in his jail cell earlier this month while awaiting trial for again stalking entertainer Jerry Lewis died of natural causes.

The Clark County coroner's office said Wednesday that Gary Benson died of coronary artery sclerosis, or hardening of the arteries.

The diagnosed schizophrenic was found dead in his bed at the Clark County Detention Center early Aug. 4.

Benson, 57, was arrested in May 2000 in Sheridan, Wyo., after Lewis reportedly received a letter at his Las Vegas home a month earlier. The letter read: "Dear Jerry. Your Dead." The letter was signed, "Your friend, Gary Benson."

Benson was facing a Nov. 12 trial on charges he violated a protective order and again stalked the entertainer.

Benson had been freed from prison eight months before that April letter after serving six years for stalking Lewis.

In this portrait there is a profile shot of a white male adult wearing a dark suit, presumably this is the person portraying himself as . The newspaper article also indicates that the pastor is the one standing in the center. Mr. Lewis states he does not recognize this subject from the photo but he definitely can state that this is not one of his sons'.

Mr. Lewis went on to state that on this particular date, being 5/6/87 at approximatey 1615 hours, he had an occasion to be in his office located at Spring Mountain Road and intercepted a call going to his residence. According to Mr. Lewis his phone set-up permits him to intercept calls from his office or his home and to either place.

Mr. Lewis stated that when he answered the phone the first thing he heard was a voice on the phone stating, "This is a recording, but you better listen; I will continue telling everyone I am your son unless you give me $250,000.00 in cash in the next 10 days or I'll get you at the MGM Bally. I will contact you soon."

Mr. Lewis stated that this message was repeated two other times and it sounded to him as though it was the original tape recording, just replayed on the same tape. Mr. Lewis, being a director of movies, stated that he is familiar with sound effects and sophisticated recording instruments and that was his first thought that this was the same message, simply repeated over again and again on the tape.

Mr. Lewis stated he did not recognize the voice and it should be noted that he has not talked with this person who is impersonating him as his son. Mr. Lewis stated during the interview that approximately 40 years ago Mr. Lewis did have an encounter with a subject stating that he was his son. However, he did not know this subject and to the best of his knowledge he should not state that this is the same person, due to the time involved.

Mr. Lewis stated that he wanted to cooperate with authorities, however, he was in fear of his safety and welfare as well as his wife.

Results of Examinations:

No watermarks, indented writing, or other physical characteristics were observed on the Q1 and Q2 specimens which would further assist in determining their immediate origin.

The Q1 and Q2 specimens were searched in the Anonymous Letter File without effecting an identification. Representative copies of these specimens have been added to this file for future reference.

No conclusion was reached whether GARY RANDOLPH BENSON, writer of the K1 and K4 specimens, did or did not prepare the writing on the Q1 and Q2 specimens due to distortion in the questioned writing..

Observations for Investigative Assistance

Distorted writing generally does not contain the normal handwriting characteristics of the writer. Therefore, it is unlikely this questioned writing can be definitively associated with its writer through a handwriting examination.

I, [REDACTED], being first duly sworn, depose and say:

b6

1. I am a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), stationed at San Diego, California.

2. On September 12, 1977, at approximately 12:20 AM, the Bank of America, 3333 Rosecrans, San Diego, California, was robbed by a Negro male who obtained $866.

3. [REDACTED] victim teller at the Bank of America, 3333 Rosecrans, advised Special Agent (SA) [REDACTED] FBI, that he was conducting bank business at approximately 12:20 AM when a Negro male approached his teller window and presented a demand note which stated, "This is a hold up. Put all money in bag. Do what is said and no one gets hurt." The robber obtained $866, which did include bills whose serial numbers had been pre-recorded by the bank. [REDACTED] observed the robber take the money and exit the south door of the bank.

b7C

4. [REDACTED] described the robber as a Negro male, approximately 25 years of age, approximately 6'0" tall, 190 pounds, black hair - short cropped natural, light complexion, wearing a sport shirt with a criss-cross or rectangular pattern, possibly green or beige in color. The surveillance camera at the Bank of America, 3333 Rosecrans, was activated during the robbery by victim teller [REDACTED] and photographs obtained by that surveillance camera depicted a Negro male who appeared to be approximately 25 years of age, light complexion, black short-cut natural with wide sideburns, mustache, sport shirt with both sleeves rolled up to the elbow, a watch on his left wrist with a dark band and a handful of money. The photograph was identified by the victim teller as the man who robbed him and showed the robber exiting the south entrance of the bank.

b6
b7C

[redacted] b6

Subscribed to and sworn to before me this 13th day of September, 1977.

Edward J. [redacted]

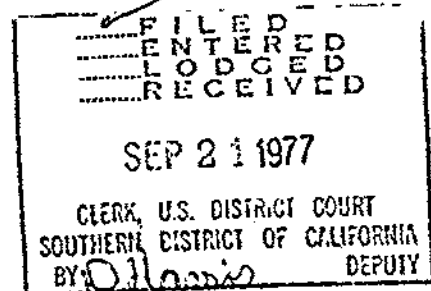

5. SA [redacted] advised that he interviewed a witness who observed a Negro male, who matched the above description, running from the direction of the bank toward a vehicle which was described as a 1972 Lincoln, brown in color, California License 300 EAP. Investigation by the FBI determined this vehicle to currently be registered to Gary Randolph Benson, 3880 Greenwood, San Diego, California.

6. [redacted], Robbery Detail, San Diego Police Department (SDPD), San Diego, California, advised SA [redacted] after viewing the surveillance photograph taken by the Bank of America, 3333 Rosecrans, that the individual in that photograph was known to him as [redacted]. [redacted] advised that the photograph was also shown to [redacted] SDPD, who also independently identified the individual in the photograph as [redacted]. [redacted] continued that records of the SDPD showed a recent arrest photograph taken June 10, 1977, and a comparison of the two photographs indicated that [redacted] was identical with the robber of the Bank of America, 3333 Rosecrans, San Diego, California.

7. [redacted] advised on September 12, 1977, that investigation by the SDPD led to the arrest of [redacted] and his subsequent incarceration at San Diego County Jail. [redacted] advised that approximately $396 was recovered along with the shirt and watch worn by [redacted] in the robbery.

8. On September 13, 1977, SAs [redacted] interviewed Gary Randolph Benson at 3880 Greenwood, at his trailer. Benson, during interview, admitted his participation in the robbery of the Bank of America, 3333 Rosecrans, as the driver of the getaway vehicle, the individual who prepared the demand note and as having shared in the proceeds of the robbery. Benson also viewed a photograph of the individual who robbed the bank and stated that that individual was positively [redacted]. Benson produced $254 of bank robbery monies which he stated was given to him by [redacted].

9. Assistant U.S. Attorney [redacted], San Diego, California, was contacted by SA [redacted], given the above facts, and authorized the arrest of Benson for robbery

SUBJECT: OBSCENE RECORDING ALLEGEDLY MADE BY DEAN MARTIN AND JERRY
LEWIS (ACTORS)
INTERSTATE TRANSPORTATION OF
OBSCENE MATTER

[redacted] who has been used as a general source of information and who has furnished reliable information in the past, confidentially advised SA [redacted] on May 22, 1956, that DEAN MARTIN and JERRY LEWIS, actors, had allegedly made an obscene recording during the cutting of a sound track, advertising a motion picture film, "The Caddy," in which they appeared and which was produced at Paramount Studios, Hollywood, California, about one and one half years ago. The obscene portions of the sound track were supposed to have been destroyed but someone unknown to [redacted] made recordings of same which were known to her to have circulated in the Hollywood area for personal amusement. [redacted] added that she did not know of any specific commercial traffic in this recording and that it originally came to her attention approximately eighteen months ago and in her opinion was "very obscene."

[redacted] continued on May 22, 1956, that [redacted] was known to have had a "pressing" of this record and was supposed to have destroyed it. However, [redacted] learned that he still had a master pressing of the record in approximately February of 1956. She said that she learned this through conversations with one of the employees of [redacted]. She stated that she had no knowledge that [redacted] was selling the record but got the impression that he was making it available to certain individuals for their own amusement and that it was possible that he could be selling it. Furthermore, [redacted]

Bufiles show that Jerry Lewis and his partner, Dean Martin, are alleged to have made a series of remarks considered very obscene which were cut on the sound track of a "trailer" advertising the motion picture film, "The Caddy," in which they appear. While the portion of the sound track was deleted, it was surreptitiously obtained by some employees of Paramount Studios and later re-recorded. There has been no indication to date that it has been made a commercial item. [REDACTED]
One [REDACTED] a potential criminal informant of the New York Office, when interviewed by Agents in November, 1955, advised that among the persons of

Dean Martin was born as Dino Crocetti on June 17, 1917, in Steubenville, Ohio. Prior to entering into the entertainment field, Martin was employed as a boxer, a laborer in steel mills, a gas station attendant and a dealer in illegal gambling houses in Ohio. He currently resides in Beverly Hills, California.

Martin has not been the subject of an investigation by this Bureau; however, our files contain the following information concerning him:

He has been reportedly associated with several known hoodlums and is well known to the gambling interests in Las Vegas, Nevada. In 1961 he reportedly owned a one percent interest in the Sands Hotel, Incorporated, Las Vegas, Nevada, and he also has an interest in the Cal-Neva Lodge, Lake Tahoe. He has reportedly also been associated with prostitutes and officials of the Teamsters Union. (92-3024; 92-3087; 92-6314; 62-9-31-399)

In November, 1955, unsubstantiated information was received from an admitted homosexual identifying numerous stage and screen personalities as homosexuals. This individual also stated that a number of other personalities in the entertainment business were known among homosexuals as "gay." He stated he had heard Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis were classified as "gay." (94-45373)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, in May, 1956, advised that Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis had made an extremely obscene phonograph record while cutting a record advertising one of their films. The source explained that the obscene portion of the record was supposed to have been destroyed but the master disc was saved and additional records were believed to have been circulated in Hollywood for personal amusement. Martin was also alleged to have been

On May 27, 1950, the Chicago Office advised that they had received information from the Chicago Police Department's Vice Squad concerning the call house prostitution ring with Hollywood connections. With reference to the memorandum dated 8-21-57 directed to Division heads over the signature of [redacted] transmitting a copy of a letter signed by the Attorney General addressed to Jerry Lewis dated 8-15-57, I desire to point out that in discussing other matters with [redacted] on the afternoon of 8-23-57 I pointed out that just before Fred Mullen went on vacation he told me that the Department of Justice was going to embark on a television program with Jerry Lewis, that "your boss knows all about it since the Attorney General has discussed it and secured from your boss a sample letter of commitment and statement of understanding." I told [redacted] I had discussed this with the Director, the Director stated the Attorney General had asked for a copy of our understanding and agreement that we made with various motion picture companies and television stations, that this had been sent to the Attorney General, that the Director had no knowledge of any agreement which the Attorney General had made for a Departmental television program.

I further told [redacted] that the Director on the West Coast had heard considerable discussion which reflected unfavorably upon the character of Jerry Lewis and had asked us to check our files here. I further stated we had done this and I advised [redacted] of the substance of the derogatory information set forth in Mr. Jones memorandum of 8-10-57.

[redacted] pointed out he suspected that Jerry Lewis was a "chaser" but the allegations of homosexuality were not consistent with his reputation as a "chaser." I told [redacted] that this, of course, was in character as Lewis always boasted of his versatility. I then exhibited to [redacted] a transcript of the obscene record which had been cut as a sound track for the Martin and Lewis picture, "The Caddy," a disc of which had not been destroyed but was being circulated in Hollywood and apparently was pretty widely known. [redacted] started reading the transcript and at one point half the way through stated, "Nice clean people." After he had finished reading this he just shook his head. I told him the Director told me to see him since this program had now jelled and that we, of course, had not been consulted on the matter and regretted we had not had the opportunity of presenting the derogatory information to the Department prior to their making a firm commitment but this, of course, was impossible since the Department did not let us know of its plans.

I then pointed out that in the first instance we had steadfastly refused to participate in any television programs and as [] could recall we were very favorably impressed with [] of the NBC "Home Show" who also worked in the past two Nixon campaigns and that certainly if we were unable to cooperate with [] we would not cooperate with a filth purveyor such as Jerry Lewis, that secondly even if we were in a position to accept a commitment we would not be a party to anything which Jerry Lewis was connected with. [] then stated he wanted to tell me the background and I told him this was not necessary. He pointed out that Jerry Lewis was a friend of [] of Internal Security Division. [] introduced Jerry Lewis to Tompkins and Tompkins talked to the Attorney General. [] stated that he had nothing to do with the negotiations although he had met Jerry Lewis and the Attorney General had sent him the draft of his proposed letter to Jerry Lewis dated July 15, that he had written into the draft the phrase that the Department did not want a statement that each film had been produced with the cooperation of the Department of Justice.

[] stated he guessed the Department had better go slow and easy on this and when Lewis comes in for discussion just be busy and keep putting it off. I told [] this, of course, was all right as a tactic but that if on the strength of the Attorney General's letter Jerry Lewis went out and signed up a sponsor and got network time then they would be stuck. [] admitted this could be difficult. He then pointed out that, of course, it was not his idea that the FBI would be brought into the television orbit and his letter was sent to us as a matter of courtesy, that what Lewis had in mind was developing interesting court trials. This, of course, I think was an afterthought.

Fred Mullen told me this morning that yesterday he had had a chance to talk to the Attorney General about the Jerry Lewis television program. He told the Attorney General the highlights of the information which I had previously furnished him. The Attorney General did not know of the background of Jerry Lewis and asked Mullen if he could get some more information. Mullen was wondering if we could send a memorandum to the Attorney General or could loan him the obscene transcript which we have. I told him I would check on this.

I prepared a brief summary on August 26, 1957, and the Director noted on it, "I spoke to A. G. re this on Sept. 5 and he stated he has no intention of going ahead with it. H." In view of the comments which the Attorney General made to the Director, the question arises as to whether we should send the attached memorandum to the Attorney General. I think perhaps we should.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE TELEVISION PROGRAM

Mr. Fred Mullen has asked that a brief memorandum be furnished you on the background of Jerry Lewis in connection with a television program which the Department presently has under consideration. pB

You will recall that I discussed this with you on September 5, 1957, and at that time you indicated that you had no intention of going ahead with the program. While Jerry Lewis has not been the subject of an investigation by the Bureau, briefly, the information which we have is as follows:

On May 27, 1950, the Chicago, Illinois, Police Department Vice Squad furnished information to our Chicago Office concerning a call house prostitution ring with Hollywood connections. The Chicago Vice Squad claimed to be in possession of a book containing the names of prospective customers. Among those listed was Jerry Lewis.

In November, 1955, an admitted homosexual furnished considerable unverified data concerning people in the entertainment field. He identified numerous stage and screen personalities whom he knew to be homosexuals and indicated that a number of others were known among the homosexual set as being "gay." Among those whom he had heard classified as "gay" were Jerry Lewis and Dean Martin. It is to be noted that in connection with this information, it is hearsay and has not been verified.

The Bureau has also been informed of the circulation of a rather obscene recording on the West Coast which allegedly was made while Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis were preparing a sound track of a trailer advertising one of their films called "The Caddy." The obscene portions of the sound track, according to our information, were supposed

Fred Mullen told Mr. DeLoach November 13, 1957, that the Bureau should know that the Department had completely canceled any plans for York Productions, New York City, to handle the future Department movie. Mullen stated the Department had learned a lesson in this regard.

This is the planned production in which Jerry Lewis, the movie and television actor, inveigled the Department into allowing York Productions to handle ~~the~~ Departmental movie. The Department was furnished information regarding Jerry Lewis's background and then attempted to get out of the original arrangements.

The Attorney General indicated that he thought that in the future persons seeking to do television shows on the Department should be treated in the same manner as persons seeking to do newspaper articles, namely, the Department would not sponsor such shows, but would make available material upon which such shows could be produced. Mr. Luther Huston made reference to the Jerry Lewis show, and from the discussion, I gathered that that is in the works so far as the preliminaries are concerned. The Attorney General stated that his predecessor, Mr. Brownell, had committed the Department for that program, and for that reason, the same cooperation would be extended as would be extended to any other one seeking information for television.

I suggested that irrespective of who might seek television production of the Department's activities, I believed that as a condition precedent, the names of all such persons as might be connected with an operation of that type should be first checked by the FBI. The Attorney General agreed to this and directed Mr. Huston to follow that procedure in the future. Mr. Huston stated that he assumed that the Jerry Lewis group checked. I told Mr. Huston that they had not been checked; that one upon whom a report had been submitted was Jerry Lewis and that was because of his highly immoral character. Mr. Tompkins interjected and stated he would supply to Mr. Huston the remaining names in the Jerry Lewis operation so that they might be checked.

I gathered from the discussion that the Lewis group will present some Criminal Division case. There was no reference to the FBI in this discussion, and it is my intention, if the Lewis group seeks to utilize the FBI in any way, to register a vigorous objection with the Attorney General. As a general policy, I intend to urge the Attorney General not to include the FBI in future television shows in view of the tremendous amount of time and effort which have been taken in the "Wide Wide World" show. Certainly, we will not participate in any show unless and until we have checked the names of all parties connected with the same and have a specific agreement that all production will be on film and not live.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON
MR. NEASE

This afternoon while in conference with the Attorney General, I talked with him about my concern over the contemplated TV program being developed by the York Pictures Corporation headed by Jerry Lewis. I stated that excluding the unsavory background and reputation of Lewis, I was particularly concerned about the fact that I understood that their first TV production was to be on the Rosenberg case and I thought that this was most undesirable and dangerous. I stated that in the first place I understood that no script had been submitted nor would be submitted to the Department upon this case, but that the York Pictures Corporation intended to go right ahead and produce the film which would be used on TV, but would be shown to the Department before public release. I stated that this would be grossly unsatisfactory and dangerous, in that once a company has gone to the expense of spending hundreds of thousands of dollars making a film, it would be next to impossible to get them to scrap it if it was unsatisfactory or to change it materially. A

RECORDED-46 62-104217-7

I also pointed out that many aspects of the Rosenberg case are still current, in that David Greenglass and Harry Gold, who were convicted along with the Rosenbergs, are in the penitentiary and their cases will shortly be considered for parole, and that Morton Sobell, another one convicted in that case, was now in Alcatraz and it was the plan of the communists to start a worldwide campaign for their release within the next few weeks. I stated that for a picture to be portrayed dealing with this case and sponsored by the Attorney General would inevitably result in repercussions. The Attorney General stated it had been intended to have a saving clause appear at the opening or the closing of the picture to the effect that the program was not sponsored by the Department of Justice. I told the Attorney General that this was certainly not a protection because the fact of the matter was that the material upon which the script has been written and from which the picture is being produced was given to the York Pictures Corporation by the Department of Justice and the fact that there was going to be a pilot picture shown to the officials of the Department before public release would certainly indicate that the Department had given tacit approval, if not public approval.

I also stated there was danger in that suits would be brought by relatives of the Rosenbergs and other defendants which might tend to embarrass the Department.

I told the Attorney General that the Bureau had at no stage in this matter been consulted and that obviously there would be some reference to the FBI in the picture and I was greatly concerned as to this aspect because as to the material furnished to Look Magazine, there were nine flagrant errors of fact and that if the York Pictures production was based on the same material or any portion of it, it could be anticipated that there would be basic errors of fact in the picture. The Attorney General stated he had also been concerned about this York production situation but that former Attorney General Brownell had signed a letter, agreeing to go ahead with the program but that nevertheless he, [] was becoming more concerned about the matter, and in my presence, [] called Mr. Luther Huston, Director of the Department's Office of Public Information, and instructed him to prepare a letter for either Mr. Huston's signature or the Attorney General's signature to be addressed to the York Pictures Corporation, advising them that he, the Attorney General, was concerned about the use of the Rosenberg case, it being such a controversial matter, many aspects of which were still pending before the Department. The Attorney General instructed Mr. Huston to advise Assistant Attorney General Tompkins of the action which he, the Attorney General, was taking and to inform Mr. Tompkins that he, the Attorney General, did not desire to have the Rosenberg case portrayed on TV by the York Pictures Corporation at this time or at any time in the near future.

MR. TOLSON:

Re: JERRY LEWIS
~~YORK PRODUCTIONS, INC.~~

While discussing other matters with Luther Huston on the afternoon of 2-3-58, Huston mentioned that the Attorney General had assigned him the responsibility of checking to see whether the Department could back out of its commitments with York Productions or not. Huston stated that a review of the files reflected that York Productions had gone to a great deal of expense and, therefore, he was afraid that a big row would be kicked up over the matter. He stated that he was referring this matter to the Legal Counsel's Office for an opinion as to whether the Department could safely back out or not.

Mr. DeLoach mentioned that we were of the opinion that the Department had already backed out of the matter. Huston stated that he wished this were true but that he was a little afraid that it would be impossible to back out now in view of the lengths to which York Productions had already gone in producing a pilot film in the Rosenberg case. He reiterated the fact that he had not seen the script nor was he personally familiar with the matter other than reviewing the information in Departmental files. He was advised that we had found through sad experience in television and radio that it was absolutely necessary to review the script in all instances and that most certainly there could be a terrific "kickback" if a close watch was not maintained on television and radio outfits.

There appears to be no doubt but what the Department is still toying with the possibilities of dealing with York Productions. It is not felt that Huston yet fully understands the dangers of dealing with Jerry Lewis.

SUBJECT: YORK PRODUCTIONS
RESEARCH MATTER

Re tel call from Inspector JOHN MC GUIRE of the Bureau to LA this date re captioned matter. The correct name is York Pictures Corporation.

During a conversation with [redacted] Paramount Pictures, Inc., 5451 Marathon Avenue, Los Angeles, about a related matter, SA [redacted] determined that the above-captioned corporation has been in the control of Paramount Pictures, Inc., since 1954. The business relationship was described by [redacted] as a management trust with the York Pictures Corporation being financed and its production being released by Paramount. Paramount Pictures, Inc. has the controlling stock interest and Y. FRANK FREEMAN, Vice-President of Paramount Pictures, Inc., is President of York Pictures Corporation.

b6
b7c

According to [redacted] York Pictures Corporation was initially established by DEAN MARTIN and JERRY LEWIS when this comedy team was together for the purpose of producing television shows and motion picture features. When MARTIN and LEWIS separated in 1954, Paramount Pictures Inc. took over the controlling stock and apparently arranged to satisfy MARTIN's interest in the corporation.

b6
b7c

[redacted] mentioned that Paramount has invested $2,000,000 in this corporation which produces pictures featuring JERRY LEWIS. He expressed some concern as to the advisability of this investment indicating the return probably hadn't been as good as anticipated. Because of the desire to keep this inquiry on a confidential basis specific details concerning the above-captioned corporation's internal affairs were not sought from [redacted]

RE: YORK PICTURES CORPORATION

York Pictures Corporation is engaged in motion picture production with offices at 5451 Marathon Street, Hollywood, California. The corporation uses the production facilities at this address. The corporation was chartered in New York on October 20, 1949, with authorized capital of 200 shares, no par value; domesticated under California law in June, 1950, and reportedly unactive until July, 1950. York Pictures Corporation has 3 stockholders, Paramount Pictures Corp., 50-51%; JERRY LEWIS, 43-44%; and JOSEPH ROSS, 6%. The corporation's officers are Y. FRANK FREEMAN, President; JOSEPH ROSS, Vice-President -- Secretary; and JACOB H. KARP, Treasurer. The officers compose the Board of Directors.

With regard to the corporation officers the report reveals the following information concerning the corporation officers:

B. APPROX. 10/21

Y. FRANK FREEMAN, 67, born in U. S., married. Graduated Georgia School of Technology, 1910. Has been connected with Paramount Pictures since 1933 and presently serves as chief executive of studio production and operations.

B. APPROX. 1/11

JOSEPH ROSS, 47, born U.S., married, local practicing attorney, and has been active in this corporation since its inception. (ROSS is a member of the legal firm of Pacht, Ross, Warne, and Bernhard, 6535 Wilshire Blvd., Los Angeles, and is legal counsel for actor JERRY LEWIS.)

B. APPROX. 1/11

JACOB KARP, 56, born U. S., married, presently active as assistant administrative executive to Y. FRANK FREEMAN at Paramount Pictures, Inc.

The report further reflects the corporation produces theatrical type motion pictures under an exclusive 5 year contract with JERRY LEWIS. No film is produced without the use of JERRY LEWIS. The contract also includes television performances and tours in which JERRY LEWIS participates.

The Dun & Bradstreet report reveals that Y. FRANK FREEMAN when interviewed on November 25, 1957, concerning the above-captioned corporation declined to furnish a financial statement. He revealed, however, the corporation had realized a $1,500,000 gross profit from the picture entitled, "The Delicate Delinquent", starring JERRY LEWIS, and that about $690,000 of this would be net profit. JERRY LEWIS receives a salary of $4,000 per week for his TV performance and is under exclusive contract to York Pictures Corporation for motion picture productions, TV performances and tours.

In November, 1957, the York Pictures commenced a picture starring JERRY LEWIS entitled, "Rock-Abye-Baby" which is scheduled for completion in early 1958. FREEMAN at the time of interview estimated that this production would cost $1,350,000.

The Dun & Bradstreet report further reflected that the corporation has not been a seeker of mercantile credit and no credit rating is quoted.

It is noted that in regard to the above corporation that a motion picture entitled, "Sad Sack" was produced in 1956 starring JERRY LEWIS. This production was released in 1957 and according to motion picture trade information has been generally financial successful.

With reference to the pilot film of York Pictures pertaining to the Rosenberg case, I called Luther Huston and told him that we would not have a representative sit in on the showing of the pilot film in view of the Director's very strong opinion about the inadvisability of such a venture. I further told him that we wanted no reference in the picture to the FBI or its activities. I pointed out that certainly no one has a right to commit the Bureau without our prior concurrence.

Mr. Huston stated he understood thoroughly and that if that is the way the Director wanted it, that is the way it would be. He stated he did not know exactly when the picture would be shown yet but he would keep me advised as to developments.

In my memorandum to you 2/24/58 I pointed out that I had told Luther Huston of the Department that the Bureau would not have any representative sit in on the showing of a pilot film which York Pictures allegedly was going to send to the Department based on the Rosenberg case. While in Luther Huston's office today Mr. McGuire was advised by Huston that York Pictures did not send a pilot film but instead sent a script which could be used as the basis for a film.

Mr. McGuire observed that this changed the picture entirely as it was apparent that York Pictures was not ready to pour 40 or 50 thousand dollars into a pilot film unless they had a solid commitment. Huston agreed stating that he was purposely delaying doing anything about the script with the thought in mind that York Pictures would realize the Department was not interested and that the matter could drop. Mr. McGuire observed that since we had no pilot film ~~not~~ to look at he could keep the script as we were not interested in looking at that either. Huston smiled and said that he still felt that there was enough in the Department of Justice to warrant the use of television as a medium for getting out information to the public about the Department.

He then observed that there was some indication that Jerry Lewis would drop out of the negotiations but as far as he was concerned he felt it best to let the whole project with York Pictures die out. While this may lead to the end of dealing with York Pictures as far as the Department is concerned, there is no doubt that Luther Huston has in mind digging up some other television venture for the Department of Justice.

 MOVIE ACTOR
 (TRUE NAME - JOSEPH LEVITCH)

BACKGROUND:

Captioned individual called the Director's Office at approximately Noon today, May 21, 1959. In the Director's absence, he requested that the Director return his call.

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA:

The current "Who's Who" reflects that Jerry Lewis, comedian, was born in 1926. He attended Irvington High School, Irvington, New Jersey. He is married and has two children. He began his career as an entertainer with a routine at a Catskill, New York, hotel. He formed a comedy team with Dean Martin in 1946, and they subsequently appeared in night clubs, theaters, and on radio and television programs in addition to motion pictures. His latest movies have been "You're Never Too Young," 1955; "Artists and Models," 1955; "Pardners," 1956; and "Delicate Delinquent," 1957. He was the master of ceremonies for the Motion Picture Academy Awards in 1955. Lewis resides in Hollywood, California.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

In the interest of expediency, review has been limited to abstracts only in addition to a previous summary memorandum.

"P.M." newspaper for May 6, 1948, contained an advertisement concerning a rally sponsored by The American League for a Free Palestine. The rally was entitled "Colors of Hebrew Freedom" and was held in Madison Square Garden on May 13, 1948. Jerry Lewis was one of the entertainers on the program. (100-316012-A)

On May 27, 1950, the Chicago Office advised that they had received information from the Chicago Police Department's Vice Squad concerning the call house prostitution ring with Hollywood connections. The information came to the Vice Squad from a prostitute who had worked on the West Coast who had set up a call house in an apartment with the intention of catering only to a select clientele.

Jones to DeLoach memorandum

The Chicago Vice Squad claimed that a book was found in this call house which allegedly contained the names of prospective customers. One of the names listed was Jerry Lewis. (31-76625-4)

The January, 1956, issue of "Screen Stories," a movie magazine, contained a summary of the plot of a motion picture entitled "Artists and Models." This picture starred Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis and ^{was} a slapstick comedy which made frequent reference to the FBI. FBI Agents were portrayed in this picture in a slapstick manner. (62-39368-129)

A potential criminal informant of the New York Office, [redacted] b3
[redacted] was interviewed by Special Agents on November 29, 1955. [redacted] an b6 admitted homosexual, furnished considerable unverified data concerning people b7C in the entertainment field. He identified numerous stage and screen personalities b7D whom he knew to be homosexuals. In addition, he stated that a number of others b7E in the stage and screen business were known among the homosexual set as being "gay." He emphasized that his knowledge was hearsay, but among the individuals he heard were classified as "gay" were Jerry Lewis and Dean Martin. [redacted]

By letter dated July 23, 1956, the Los Angeles Office advised that

[redacted] b6
[redacted] was an individual who was a source of infor- b7C mation and had supplied reliable data to the Los Angeles Office in the past. She b7D confidentially advised that Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis had allegedly made an obscene record while cutting the sound track of a trailer advertising one of their films called "The Caddy." The obscene portion of the track was supposed to have been destroyed, but in some manner a master disc was saved and additional records were cut and circulated in the Hollywood area for personal amusement.
[redacted] did not know of any commercial traffic in this record, but she did consider it to be "very obscene." She obtained a copy of this record (playing time approximately six minutes) and handed it over to the Los Angeles Office which in turn sent it to the Laboratory. The record was placed on tape and according to Bufiles is currently maintained in the Laboratory in the ~~obscene~~ obscene collection under #D-2333099AX. (145-805)

Jones to DeLoach memorandum

On July 26, 1957, a [redacted] who identified himself as a departmental attorney came to the Director's Reception Room and requested that a special tour of the Bureau be conducted for [redacted] and [redacted] advised SA [redacted] of the Crime Records Section, who conducted the tour, that [redacted] had been conferring with individuals in the Department about a forthcoming movie concerning the Department. [redacted] stated [redacted] [redacted] was introduced as a representative for Jerry Lewis.

b6
b7c

[redacted] advised SA [redacted] that he lived at [redacted] and stated he was affiliated with the National Broadcasting Company and York Pictures Corporation. Bufiles contain no reference identifiable with [redacted] or York Pictures. (Memorandum from M. A. Jones to Mr. Nichols, 7-30-57, entitled [redacted] Tour of Bureau.")

b6
b7c

You will recall as indicated in August, 1957, the Department signed a contract with York Pictures Corporation to produce a series of films on the Department. Jerry Lewis handled the arrangements for York. The Department did this without first checking with us and we subsequently told them we would have nothing to do with it in view of Lewis' background. The Department was quite embarrassed when Mr. Nichols made them aware of Lewis' background and subsequently in the Fall of 1957 they were able to cancel this contract.

SUBJECT: MOVIE ENTITLED
"CINDERFELLA"

[redacted] of the Publications Unit of the Crime Research Section saw captioned movie December 18, 1960. She advised that during one part of the movie Jerry Lewis, who plays the part of Cinderella in this parody of the fairy tale "Cinderella," runs across his fairy godfather in his bedroom and, being startled, says, in effect, "I know who you are. You're from the FBI and you are here to protect the Princess." Lewis is referring to a princess from a foreign land, who is visiting America.

The fairy godfather chuckles and says, "No, I'm not from the FBI."

After some discussion, during which Lewis asks him one more time is he sure he is not from the FBI, the mission of the fairy godfather is revealed to Lewis and the movie goes on from there. This is the only reference to the FBI in the movie, and the foregoing episode was not presented in any sort of a ridiculing manner.

He later asked for additional privileges which were denied him and the Director also declined to write a foreword to his book. We later learned that without permission, had had the publishing firm use the title "Crusade Against Crime: Famous Cases of the FBI." We have protested vigorously both in letters to the publisher and by having SAC Simon of the Los Angeles Office personally contact

For the record, it should be noted that the above is not identical with Jerry Lewis, the comedian, who formerly was teamed with Dean Martin. In August, 1957, the Department of Justice signed a contract with York Pictures Corporation to produce a series of films on the Department. Jerry Lewis, the comedian handled the arrangements for York. Lewis was president of York Pictures Corporation in 1957. York Productions was found to be a front organization for Jerry Lewis, handling only his television, movie and personal appearances. It was not a production company and the productions were actually made through Paramount Pictures. The corporation was initially established by Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis. After Paramount Pictures took over the controlling interest, Lewis was no longer president.

The arrangements which the Department made with Jerry Lewis the comedian were not discussed with us before hand and when we brought to the Department's attention information available to us concerning Jerry Lewis's background and moral character, they were successful in having the program plans cancelled. In his letter to the Attorney General, the Director stated, "I would be unwilling to have the Bureau associated in any way with an individual such as Mr. Lewis."

MR. AND MRS. JERRY LEWIS - Summary

In May, 1950, a representative of the Vice Squad, Chicago, Illinois, Police Department, advised that the names of Jerry Lewis and Dean Martin were contained in a book of alleged prospective customers which was found in a Chicago, Illinois, house of prostitution which allegedly catered to Hollywood male clientele.

D.C. CALIF
In November, 1955, unsubstantiated information was received from an admitted homosexual identifying numerous stage and screen personalities as homosexuals. This individual also stated that a number of other personalities in the entertainment business were known among homosexuals as "gay." He stated he had heard Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis were classified as "gay."

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, in May, 1956, advised that Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis had made an extremely obscene phonograph record while cutting a record advertising one of their films. The source explained that the obscene portion of the record was supposed to have been destroyed but the master disc was saved and additional records were believed to have been circulated in Hollywood for personal amusement. Martin was also alleged to have been involved in the negotiations for an obscene film which was to be distributed outside the United States. (94-49096 & 145-805)

Mr. LEWIS was interviewed at 2:30 p.m., at his office, Warner Brothers Studio, 4000 Warner Boulevard, Burbank, California. Mr. LEWIS commenced the interview by commenting on his sincere respect for the Director, for the men and for the principles of the FBI. He noted that early in his entertainment career he had the opportunity of visiting with the Director in Washington, D.C., and recalled that the Director personally had escorted him on a tour of the FBI building. Mr. LEWIS said he believed this country could not exist without obedience and respect for its laws by all citizens. He said he strictly observes the laws and has tried to teach his children this virtue.

Mr. LEWIS said a situation had arisen with [redacted] that was causing him great mental anguish and personal concern. He said he had wrestled with his conscience over the matter, had thoroughly discussed the problem with his wife, and came to the conclusion that if he believed in living by the laws of this country that he had to do something in this situation. MR. AND MRS. JERRY LEWIS Summary

Captioned individuals, who you advised reside at 3322 St. Cloud Road, Los Angeles, California, have not been the subjects of an investigation conducted by the FBI. However, our files contain the following information concerning Jerry Lewis.

In May, 1950, a representative of the Vice Squad, Chicago, Illinois, Police Department, advised that the names of Jerry Lewis and Dean Martin were contained in a book of alleged prospective customers which was found in a Chicago, Illinois, house of prostitution which allegedly catered to Hollywood male clientele.

In November, 1955, unsubstantiated information was received from an admitted homosexual identifying numerous stage and screen personalities as homosexuals. This individual also stated that a number of other personalities in the entertainment business were known among homosexuals as "gay." He stated he had heard Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis were classified as "gay."

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised in May, 1950, that Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis had made an extremely obscene phonograph record while cutting a record advertising one of their films. The source explained that the obscene portion of the record was supposed to have been destroyed but the master disc was saved and additional records were believed to have been circulated in Hollywood for personal amusement. Martin was also alleged to have been involved in the negotiations for an obscene film which was to be distributed outside the United States. (62-104217-16) 723/11/8
