Weekly Guardian Associates, Incorporated

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the "National Guardian":

"1....'established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a "progressive" weekly... it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia.'"

Beginning with the February 10, 1968, issue, the "National Guardian" became the "Guardian."

The May 9, 1970, issue of the "Guardian" is self-described as an "independent radical newsweekly."

The December, 1968, issue of "The New York Times" carried an interview with the editors of the "Guardian." One of the editors stated: "Our job is to build a radical movement. To quote the Cuban Revolutionaries, we are not only to write about it, but also to move along with it... we are movement people acting as journalists."

"The 'Guardian' takes a strong left position, but it is not identified with any organized group because it believes that an American left ideology is still in the making. One of its purposes is to break away from the cliches of the left ideology of the past."

A source advised in May, 1970, that the "Guardian" is located at 32 West 22nd Street, New York, New York.

The passport file of Robert Edward Treuhaf was reviewed at the Passport Office, United States Department of State (USDS), on August 1, 1962. This passport file reflects that subject requested that his passport number 1269760, issued December 2, 1958, be amended to exclude his wife, Jessica Lucy Treuhaf, who applied for separate passport on January 28, 1959.

On July 28, 1961, he renewed passport number 1269760 for a proposed six weeks absence abroad. He stated he would leave New York City approximately September, 1961, by BOAC. He did not list the countries to be visited nor the purpose of his trip. He indicated that he had been in England from May 30, 1959 to June 7, 1959, and in France from June 7, 1959 to July 8, 1959. His mailing address was listed as 6411 Regent Street, Oakland 18, California.

The passport file of Jessica Lucy Treuhaf was reviewed on July 27, 1962. The file reflects that she renewed passport number 1288677 on July 28, 1961. At that time, she advised that she intended to depart from the Port of New York via BOAC on September 10, 1961. She listed her proposed itinerary as England and France. She listed the purpose of this trip as "to visit my family." Her permanent address was 6411 Regent Street, Oakland 18, California, and her mailing address was the same. Passport number 1288677 was amended on May 17, 1962, to exclude her son, Benjamin Treuhaf.

Inspiracy Law Attacked By Author

By George Murphy

The current conspiracy law is "a weapon to stifle dissent," author Jessica Mitford Treuhaft told the San Francisco Barristers Club yesterday.

Mrs. Treuhaft, whose new book, "The Trial of Dr. Spock," came out this week, discussed that case and its ramifications at a luncheon meeting of the club at the San Francisco Bar Association in the Mills Tower.

Spock, the famous pediatrician, and four other defendants were found guilty in Massachusetts of conspiracy of aiding young men to avoid the draft.

Mrs. Treuhaft covered the case from its inception, and said yesterday a Department of Justice prosecutor told her the trial came about "to placate General (Lewis) Hershey (head of Selective Service)."

LINKED

Spock and his co-defendants "had never met either in person or by phone, and were only linked because they stood up against the (Vietnam) war," she said.

"But the government used the conspiracy charge against them. It is a made-to-order tool for frameups."

Mrs. Treuhaft suggested that "perhaps defense attorneys would urge that jurors vote their own consciences, and disregard the instructions of judges."

She said she had spoken to three jurors in the Spock case who felt all five defendants were innocent, but said they had to vote for conviction because of the instructions they were given.

OVERTURNED

(An appellate court later overturned the convictions because of the judge's instructions.)

She also said a Department of Justice prosecutor told her the names of 100 veniremen were "checked out" by the FBI, and that the jury finally was all-male and all-white.

"The prosecution excused two women, one black, and a young man who was seen to be carrying a book," she said.

Mrs. Treuhaft noted the Spock jury was sequestered from the day it was finally selected.

"Juror No. 6 had to be replaced within two days," she recalled. "His wife, who apparently read about it in the papers, looked up the word 'sequestered' and then immediately ran off with her lover."

Author Jessica Mitford Called Pro-Communist

NEW YORK, Oct. 18 (AP). They named their first son A California Congressman Tito but changed the boy's ys Jessica Mitford, author of name to Nicholas, for the late "The American Way of Death," Communist leader Nikolai is, "pro-Communist, anti- Lenin, after Yugoslavia split American" and a foe of the with Moscow.

Christian religion. Miss Mitford called the accusation a "Red herring."

In a statement entered in the appendix of the Congressional Record last Tuesday, Representative Utt, a Republican, listed what he called Communist-linked activities of Miss Mitford and her husband, Robert Treuhart.

Her book, said Mr. Utt, strikes "another blow at the Christian religion."

The book criticizes the American undertaking industry, alleging that funeral directors over-commercialize and charge too much.

Miss Mitford, in Denver, Colo., replied:

"The whole thing is so beneath comment that I'd rather not comment. I'm longing to meet any and all questions and criticism about it (the book). So far the undertakers seem to have come off with nothing except this kind of thing.

"This is rather a Red herring. It seems impossible to go into any extended comment on it."

Simon & Schuster, publishers of Miss Mitford's book, said booksellers had received letters accusing them of fostering the Communist line by selling the book.

"Because the funeral industry has not been able to refute the case Miss Mitford had documented in her book, it is now trying to discredit the book by attacking her personally," said a company statement.

Miss Mitford's married name is Mrs. Jessica Mitford Romilly Treuhart. She is one of eight daughters of the late Lord Redesdale, an English friend of Adolf Hitler. At 18 she eloped with Esmond Romilly, a nephew of Sir Winston Churchill. Her first husband was killed in World War II.

Miss Mitford married Mr. Treuhart, a Hungarian, and they now live in California.

'Laboring To Prepare Suicide'

By JOHNNY JOHNSON
Executive Director
Citizens Information Center

J. Edgar Hoover, in his 1963 Annual Report, says that "A new trend is evolving within the (U.S. Communist) Party." He explains, "A number of Party leaders believe they now are safe from arrests for some time. They contend there will be no more charges filed against them under the Internal Security Act of 1950 until the cases against (Gus) Hall and (Ben) Davis (top party members in this country) are settled finally by the Supreme Court".

Hoover goes on to relate that the communists are expanding their drive for public support. "Speaking engagements, press interviews, radio and television appearances are openly sought." The F.B.I. Chief explains. "Their major aim is to convey the impression that communists are loyal citizens of the U. S. who merely hold political views which differ from those currently prevailing."

Recently the communists experienced tremendous success in getting one of their own on nationwide TV. She was Jessica Mitford Truehaft, author of "The American Way of Death," a book which constitutes a tirade against American funeral parlor practices. She appeared on "CBS Reports," the night of October 2.

It wasn't as if CBS didn't know of Mitford's background. A letter from CIC on September 26 outlined the Communist activities of this woman and suggested that CBS might want to re-evaluate giving her a national forum.

The CBS reply was to the effect that her background wasn't important and she would go on as scheduled.

A second letter to the network brought a similar response. But record where it received national distribution. The end result was that the program narrator mentioned his charges against Mrs. Mitford Truehaft, so the viewing public was not other pressures were being applied by Congressman Utt of California who had received copies of all our correspondence to the CBS news chief.

Representative Utt took the matter to the Congressional completely taken in.

Along with the identified Party member, the CBS program was graced with one Stephen Fritchman, minister of the First Unitarian Church in Los Angeles.

A look into Fritchman's background reveals that his red-lining record is covered in nearly every report from 1948 to the present by the California Senate Fact Finding Committee on Un-American Activities. The 1963 Report says Fritchman has opened his church to "Communist schools, receptions for Communist officials, and assorted Communist front activities."

Fritchman was passed off to the viewing audience as just another minister of the gospel.

J. Edgar Hoover says "Any action taken by the CPUSA is aimed at perpetuating the Party and weakening the governmental, economic, social and moral structure of the U.S. - all in the interest of advancing world Communism. Regrettably, many noncommunists have been duped into helping." Indeed they have Mr. Hoover. Indeed they have.
