CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT
OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF PEOPLES TEMPLE OF THE
DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

MICHAEL B. CARTMELL and JEAN F. BROWN certify:

1. They are the Vice President and the Assistant Secretary, respectively, of Peoples Temple of the Disciples of Christ, a California corporation.
2. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of said corporation, duly held at Redwood Valley, California, on June 24, 1974, the following resolution was adopted:

"RESOLVED: That ARTICLE II of the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to read as follows:

(a) The specific and primary purpose is to further the Kingdom of God by spreading the Word.

(b) The general purposes and powers are:

- (1) To receive property by devise or bequest, subject to the laws regulating the transfer of property by will, and otherwise to acquire and hold all property, real or personal, including, without limitation, shares of stock, bonds, and securities of other corporations.

(ii) To sell, convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, encumber, transfer on trust, or otherwise dispose of, any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.

(iii) To make and perform contracts in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

(iv) To act as trustee under any trust incidental to the principal objects of the corporation, and receive, hold, administer, and expend funds and property subject to such trust.

(v) To borrow money, contract debts, and, from time to time, issue bonds, notes, and debentures, and to secure the payment or performance of its obligations.

(vi) To sue and be sued.

(vii) To qualify to carry on its nonprofit activities in any other state, territory, dependency, or foreign country, and to conduct its nonprofit activities within or without the State of California.

(viii) To adopt, use, and at will alter, a corporate seal, but failure to affix a seal shall not affect the validity of any corporate instrument.

(ix) To do all other acts necessary or expedient for the administration of its affairs and the attainment of its purposes.

(x) To have and exercise all the rights and powers conferred on nonprofit corporations under the General

Nonprofit Corporation Law of California, as such law is now in effect or may at any time hereafter be amended.

(xi) To act as principal, agent, joint venturer, partner, or in any other capacity which may be authorized or approved by the Board of Directors of the corporation and which the Board may deem proper or convenient in connection with any of the foregoing purposes, or which may be calculated directly or indirectly.

The foregoing statement of purposes shall be construed as a statement of both purposes and powers, and the purposes and powers stated in each clause shall, except where otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by any reference to or inference from the terms or provisions of any other clause, but shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

(c) Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes and powers, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this corporation.

RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE VII to read as follows:

'The number of Directors of this corporation shall be seven (7). The manner in which Directors shall be chosen and removed from office, their qualifications, powers, duties, compensation, and tenure of office, the manner of filling vacancies on the Board, and the manner of calling and holding meetings of Directors, shall be as stated in the Bylaws. Directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE VIII to read as follows:

'The authorized number, if any, and qualifications of members of the corporation, the filling of vacancies, the different classes of membership, if any, the property, voting and other rights and privileges of members, and their liability to dues and assessments and the method of collection, and the termination and transfer of membership shall be as stated in the Bylaws; provided, however, that if the voting, property, or other rights or interests, or any of them, be unequal, the Bylaws shall set forth the rule or rules by which the respective voting, property, or other rights or interests of each member or class of members are fixed and determined. Members of this corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.'

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE IX to read as follows:

(a) This corporation is not organized, nor shall it be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit, and it does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits, or dividends to the members thereof and is organized solely for nonprofit purposes.

(b) The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private persons.

(c) Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) If this corporation holds any assets in trust, or the corporation is formed for charitable purposes, such assets shall be disposed of in such manner as may be directed by decree of the superior court of the county in which the corporation has its principal office, upon petition therefor by the Attorney General or by any person concerned in the liquidation, in a proceeding to which the Attorney General is a party.

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE X to read as follows:

"No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propoganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office."

3. The members of said corporation have an unequal voting power. The members entitled to cast eight (8) votes have consented by resolution at a meeting held at Redwood Valley, California, on June 24, 1974, to the adoption of said amendment, and the wording of the amended articles, as set forth in the members' resolution, is the same as that set forth in the Directors' resolution in Paragraph 2 above.

4. The total number of votes of members entitled to be voted for or to consent to said amendment is nine (9).

The board of directors may at any time or from time to time change the location of the principal office from one location to another in this county.

SECTION 1.02: Name.

This corporation may be known as Peoples Temple of the Disciples of Christ, Peoples Temple Christian Church of the Disciples of Christ, Peoples Temple Christian Church (Disciple of Christ), Peoples Temple Christian Church, or similar variant.

ARTICLE II
DENOMINATIONAL AFFILIATION

SECTION 2.01: Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

This corporation shall be a member of and affiliated with the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) Incorporated, (Formerly International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ)). If for any reason the corporation shall cease to be so affiliated, these Bylaws shall nonetheless remain valid and of full legal effect.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 3.01: Classes of Members.

Membership in this corporation shall be divided into two classes. The first class of members shall be known as voting members, and the second class of members shall be known as associate members and shall have no vote. No notice of any meeting of the membership need be given to any associate member. Whenever the term "member" is used by itself, whether within or outside of these bylaws, such term shall be deemed to refer to associate members.

SECTION 3.02: Qualifications of Associate Members.

Any person may become an associate member of this church who is 18 years of age, has been issued a membership card, is in sympathy with the purposes of this church and genuinely desires to work toward the fulfillment of its purposes and program. An associate membership shall remain valid only for the period of time stated on the membership card issued therefor. Each associate member shall be issued a membership card which shall state his name and the date his membership expires. If the membership card lists as a termination date simply a year, such as "71", the termination date shall be deemed as December 31st of that year. A membership card may designate any special or standing committee upon which the member may serve and any special church function he may have. The membership card shall be signed by the president of the corporation. Membership cards shall be issued for years commencing January 1, 1971. For the remainder of the calendar year 1970 all persons shall be deemed associate members who regularly attend the Sunday evening religious meetings of the corporation at its church in Redwood Valley.

SECTION 3.03: Qualifications of Voting Members.

Voting members are the original incorporators and such associate members as may be elected by the voting members from time to time. Death, resignation, or removal of any director as provided in these bylaws automatically terminates his membership as a voting member of this corporation. Election of a successor director as provided in these bylaws shall operate to elect that director to voting membership in this corporation.

SECTION 3.04: Voting Rights.

Each voting member of this corporation shall be entitled to one vote. Voting members only shall have the right to vote. Voting shall be by ballot (or as otherwise determined by voice vote of the voting members present at the meeting at which the votes are taken), with eligibility of voters established by reference to the voting membership list. A majority vote of the total voting membership shall be required for official action, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws or by law.

SECTION 3.05: Membership Roster.

The secretary shall maintain a current list of all voting members.

SECTION 3.06: Termination of Associate Membership.

Any associate member may withdraw from membership in the corporation at any time by presentation of his membership card for cancellation. An associate member may be removed and terminated from membership for good cause upon a majority vote of the total voting membership; provided, however, that such an associate member shall be entitled to at least seven days written notice, a fair hearing, and a declaration of findings before a vote terminating his membership shall be effective.

SECTION 3.07: Termination of Voting Membership.

A voting member may have his voting membership terminated for good cause by a three-fourths vote of the total authorized voting membership. A voting member shall be entitled to a least seven days written notice and a fair hearing before a vote termination of his membership is taken. The voting members shall declare their findings upon a vote to terminate a voting member's membership, said findings to be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

SECTION 3.08: Meetings.

Annual meetings of the voting members for the election of directors and the transaction of other business shall be held on the second Monday of January, 7:30 P.M. at the principal office which is at Redwood Valley, California, or at any other time in January and at any other place determined by the resolution of the board of directors. No notice of any such annual meeting need be given if it is held the second Monday of January at 7:30 P.M. at the principal office of the corporation; otherwise written notice shall be made to each voting member five days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 3.09: Special Meetings.

Special meetings of voting members may be called at any time by the president of the corporation, and shall be called on the written petition of no less than 20% of the voting members filed with the board of directors.

SECTION 3.10: Notice.

Notice of each meeting of voting members giving the time and place of the meeting and the specific business to be considered, shall be given in writing to each voting member five days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 3.11: Quorum.

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the total authorized voting membership.

SECTION 3.12: Liabilities of Members.

No person who is now, or who later becomes, a member of this corporation shall be personally liable to its creditors for any indebtedness or liability, and any and all creditors of this corporation shall look only to the assets of this corporation for payment.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 4.01: Number and Method of Creation.

The corporation shall have seven Directors, who shall serve without compensation and who shall be those persons elected by the voting members of the corporation at the annual meeting, or at a special meeting called to fill a vacancy, and collectively they shall be known as the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may also be known as the Board of Trustees, and each director may be known as trustee. The Board of Directors may also be known as the Board of Elders, and each director may be known as elder.

SECTION 4.02: Qualifications.

Any member of the corporation nominated as provided in these bylaws, shall be eligible to be elected a director of this corporation.

SECTION 4.03: Election.

Directors shall be elected by a vote of the voting members present at the annual meetings at which a quorum is present. Voting by proxy and cumulative voting shall not be authorized. Candidates receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of directors to be elected are elected.

SECTION 4.04: Powers of Directors.

Subject to limitations of the articles of incorporation, other sections of the bylaws, and of California law, all corporate powers of the corporation shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be controlled by, the board of directors. Without limiting the general powers, the board of directors shall have the following powers:

(A) Except for the office of pastor and assistant pastor to select and remove all the other officers, agents, and employees of the corporation, prescribe such powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service.

(B) To conduct, manage, and control the affairs and business of the corporation, and to make rules and regulations not inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws.

(C) To borrow money or incur indebtedness for the purpose of the incorporation, and for that purpose to cause to be executed and delivered, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, or other evidence of debt and securities.

SECTION 4.05: Election and Term of Office.

Terms of directors shall be deemed to commence on the date of the annual meeting. Except as provided below for the initial terms of the first directors, the term of office for each director of this corporation shall be three years or until his successor is elected. Successors for directors whose terms of office are then expiring shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members in the year such terms expire. A director may succeed himself in office.

At the organizational meeting of the first directors of this incorporation, the directors shall, by lot, classify themselves into three groups. The first shall consist of three directors whose initial term of office shall be one year. The second group shall consist of two directors whose initial term of office shall be two years. The third group of directors shall consist of two directors whose initial term of office shall be three years. This classification and the short initial terms are for the purpose of providing, as nearly as numerically possible, for the election of one third of the board of directors in each year.

SECTION 4.06: Vacancies.

Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by a majority of of the directors then in office even though less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director. A successor so elected shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

SECTION 4.07: Place of Meetings.

Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held at any place, within or without the state, that has been designated from time to time by resolution of the board or by written consent of all the members of the board. In the absence of this designation regular meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation. Special meetings of the board may be held either at a place designated or at the principal office.

SECTION 4.08: Organization Meeting.

Immediately following each annual meeting of members, the board of directors, the board of directors shall hold a regular meeting for the purposes of organization, election of officers, and transaction of other business. No notice of such organizational meeting need be given. The Officers to be elected shall include a chairman of the board and a vice-chairman of the board. The chairman or vice-chairman may also be the president of the corporation. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors, and shall have the authority to execute contracts on behalf of the corporation. In the absence or disability of the chairman, the vice-chairman shall perform all the duties of the chairman and in so acting shall have all the powers of the chairman.

SECTION 4.09: Other Regular Meetings.

Other regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held without call on the second Monday of each month at 7:30 P.M., provided, however, that should that day fall on a legal holiday, then the meeting shall be held at the same time on the next day that is not a legal holiday. No notice need be given of any regular meeting.

SECTION 4.10: Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the board of directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the chairman of the board of directors or by the president of the corporation or by any three directors.

Written notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally to each director or sent to each director by mail or other form of written communication, charges prepaid, addressed to him at his address as it is shown on the records of the corporation, or if it is not so shown on the records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place at which the meetings of the directors are regularly held. The notice shall be mailed at least five days before the time of the holding of the meeting.

The transactions of any of the meetings of the board of directors, however called and noticed and wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present and if either before or after the meeting each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to hold the meeting or an approval of the minutes. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made part of the minutes of the meeting.

SECTION 4.11: Action Without a Meeting.

Any action by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board individually or collectively consent in writing to this action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board.

SECTION 4.12: Removal.

A director may be removed from office, for cause, by the vote of the majority of the directors.

SECTION 4.13: Compensation.

The directors shall receive no compensation for their service as directors.

SECTION 4.14: Quorum.

Four members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION 4.15: Vote Needed for Action.

A majority vote of the total number of authorized directors shall be required for official action, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws or by law.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

SECTION 5.01: Officers.

The officers of the corporation shall be a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, and such other officers as may be designated and appointed from time to time by the board of directors. One person may hold more than one of these offices. Officers other than the president need not be members of the board of directors.

SECTION 5.02: Election.

The president, vice president, and secretary shall be elected by the board of directors at the first board meeting in each calendar year. Such officers shall serve for the term of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified. The treasurer shall be appointed by the board from the membership of the corporation and shall serve at the discretion of the board.

SECTION 5.03: Vacancies.

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise shall be filled by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.04: President.

The president shall preside at all meetings of the members of this corporation. Subject to the control of the board of directors, the president shall have general supervision, direction, and control of the business and affairs of the corporation. He shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors. The president shall represent the church as its spokesman on all appropriate occasions.

SECTION 5.05: Vice President.

In the absence or disability of the president, the vice president shall perform all the duties of the president and in so acting shall have all the powers of the president. The vice president shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.06: Secretary.

The secretary shall keep a full and complete record of the proceedings of the board of directors, shall keep the seal of the corporation and affix it to such papers and instruments as may be required in the regular course of business, shall make service of such notices as may be necessary or proper, shall supervise the keeping of the records of the corporation, and shall discharge such other duties of the office as prescribed by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.07: Treasurer.

The treasurer, who may also be known as financial secretary, shall receive and safely keep all funds of the corporation and deposit them in the bank or banks that may be designated by the board of directors. Those funds shall be paid out only on checks of the corporation signed by the president, vice president, treasurer, or secretary or by such officers as may be designated by the board of directors as authorized to sign them. The treasurer shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors. The treasurer may, with approval of the board of directors, appoint an assistant treasurer, who may also be known as assistant financial secretary, and who shall likewise discharge the duties of the office as prescribed by the board of directors. The assistant treasurer shall not be deemed an officer of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

THE PASTOR

SECTION 6.01: Duties.

The spiritual leadership of the corporation and its members shall be invested in the pastor who may also be known as "minister" or similar term. The pastor shall have all the powers and rights contemplated for such by the rules and regulations of the General Assembly of the Christian Church. (Disciples of Christ), Incorporated.

SECTION 6.02: Selection.

The pastor of this corporation shall be appointed by a vote of the voting membership of the corporation present at any meeting legally called for that purpose, and shall serve as such for life or until the dissolution of the corporation, or until he is dismissed or resigns as herein provided.

SECTION 6.03: Dismissal.

A vote of the voting members constituting three-fourths of the total authorized voting membership shall be required in order for the pastor to be dismissed from office. The pastor shall not be dismissed unless for good cause and only then for reasons stated in the applicable bylaws of the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Incorporated. Notice of such meeting shall be given to each voting member personally or by mail at his address as shown in the books of the corporation not more than 120 nor less than 60 days prior to the date of such a meeting and said notice shall state that the purpose of the meeting is to vote on the dismissal of the pastor. Such notice shall be given by (1) the secretary or, in his failure or refusal to do so, by (2) such person as may be designated by the president, or (3) by any board member signing a petition requesting such which is signed by not less than twenty five percent of the voting members of the congregation and filed with the board or secretary thereof. The voting membership book shall be made available to any voting member of the congregation for the purpose of giving notice herein provided.

SECTION 6.05: Assistant Pastors.

The voting members, by three-fourths vote of the authorized membership, may upon recommendation of the pastor, designate assistants to the pastor, who shall be known as assistant pastors and assistant ministers. The assistant pastors shall assist the pastor and shall be under the supervision and jurisdiction of the pastor, who shall have the complete and sole discretion to dismiss any such assistant pastor.

SECTION 6.05: Resignation.

The pastor may resign by filing a written notice of resignation with the chairman or the secretary of the board of directors either personally or by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such officer at the principal office of the corporation. Such resignation shall become effective three months from the day it is received and accepted by the board of directors.

SECTION 6.06: Compensation.

The pastor's compensation shall be that set by the board of directors and may be included in the budget, if any, and shall be subject to the membership for approval at the annual meeting as hereinafter provided, but shall not depend upon the adoption of any other resolution.

ARTICLE VII

COMMITTEES

SECTION 7.01: Committees.

The committees of this corporation, whether standing committees or special committees, shall be such as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors at its sole discretion.

ARTICLE VIII

RECORDS

SECTION 8.01: Minutes.

The corporation shall keep at its principal office, or at some other place as the board of directors may order, a book of minutes of all meetings of directors and of all annual and business meetings of members, with the time and place of the holding, whether regular or special, and, if special, how authorized, the notice given, the names of those present at the director's meetings, the number of members present or represented at membership meetings, and the proceedings thereof.

SECTION 8.02: Books.

The books of account, specifically required to be kept by the board of directors, and the minutes of meetings of the directors and voting members, shall be open to inspection on the written demand of any voting member at any reasonable time, for a purpose reasonable related to the interests of such member. Such inspection may be made in person or by agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to make photocopies. Demand of inspection other than at members' meeting shall be made in writing to the president or secretary of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX

ANNUAL REPORT

SECTION 9.01: Annual Report.

The board of directors may, but shall not be required to, provide for the preparation and submission to the members a written annual report including a financial statement. Such report if required by the board shall summarize the corporation's activities projected for the forthcoming year. The financial statement shall consist of a balance sheet as of the close of business of the corporation's fiscal year, contain a summary of receipts and disbursements, be prepared in such a manner and form as is sanctioned by sound accounting practices, and be certified by the president, secretary, treasurer, or public accountant.

ARTICLE XI

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 10.01: Effective Date.

These bylaws shall come effective immediately on their adoption. Amendments to these bylaws shall become effective immediately on their adoption unless the voting members in adopting them provide that they are to become effective at a later date.

SECTION 10.02: Amendments to the Bylaws.

(A) Subject to the limitations contained in the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation and to any provisions of law applicable to the amendment of the bylaws of nonprofit organizations, these bylaws or any of them, may be altered, amended, or repealed and new bylaws adopted, at any annual or special meeting of the voting members by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting, provided the amendment is first proposed in the manner set forth in Paragraph (B) hereof and provided the notice of the meeting referred to in said paragraph (B) mailed to the membership as provided in section 3.10 of these bylaws sets forth the proposed amendment in full.

(B) Amendments to these bylaws may be proposed by the board of directors on its own motion or (2) by the petition of at least 25% of the voting members not less than 30 days before the membership meeting at which the proposed amendment is to be presented. The board must submit the proposed amendment to the members at the next membership meeting at which a quorum is present, except that if such meeting is a special meeting, the board may defer presentation to the next following annual meeting. The proposed amendment must be voted on at the meeting at which it is presented.

SECTION 10.03: Inspection of Bylaws.

The original, or copy, of the bylaws as amended or otherwise altered to date, certified by the secretary of the corporation shall be recorded and kept in a book which shall be kept in the principal office of the corporation, and such book shall be open to inspection by the voting members at all reasonable times during office hours.

stock, bonds, and securities of other corporations

(ii) To sell, convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, encumber, transfer on trust, or otherwise dispose of, any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.

(iii) To make and perform contracts in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

(iv) To act as trustee under any trust incidental to the principal objects of the corporation, and receive, hold, administer, and expend funds and property subject to such trust.

(v) To borrow money, contract debts, and, from time to time, issue bonds, notes, and debentures, and to secure the payment or performance of its obligations.

(vi) To sue and be sued.

(vii) To qualify to carry on its nonprofit activities in any other state, territory, dependency, or foreign country, and to conduct its nonprofit activities within or without the State of California.

(viii) To adopt, use, and at will alter, a corporate seal, but failure to affix a seal shall not affect the validity of any corporate instrument.

(ix) To do all other acts necessary or expedient for the administration of its affairs and the attainment of its purposes.

(x) To have and exercise all the rights and powers conferred on nonprofit corporations under the General

Corporation Law of California, as such law is now in effect or may at any time hereafter be amended.

(N1) To act as principal, agent, joint venturer, partner, or in any other capacity which may be authorized or approved by the Board of Directors of the corporation and which the Board may deem proper or convenient in connection with any of the foregoing purposes, or which may be calculated directly or indirectly.

The foregoing statement of purposes shall be construed as a statement of both purposes and powers, and the purposes and powers stated in each clause shall, except where otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by any reference to or inference from the terms or provisions of any other clause, but shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

(c) Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes and powers, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this corporation.'

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE VII to read as follows:

'The number of Directors of this corporation shall be seven (7). The manner in which Directors shall be chosen and removed from office, their qualifications, powers, duties, compensation, and tenure of office, the manner of and holding meetings of Directors, shall be as stated in the Bylaws. Directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE VIII to read as follows:

'The authorized number, if any, and qualifications of members of the corporation, the filling of vacancies, the different classes of membership, if any, the property, voting and other rights and privileges of members, and their liability to dues and assessments and the method of collection, and the termination and transfer of membership shall be as stated in the Bylaws; provided, however, that if the voting, property, or other rights or interests, or any of them, be unequal, the Bylaws shall set forth the rule or rules by which the respective voting, property, or other rights or interests of each member or class of members are fixed and determined. Members of this corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.'

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE IX to read as follows:

(a) This corporation is not organized, nor shall it be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit, and it does not state the distribution of gains, profits, dividends to the members thereof and is organized so for nonprofit purposes.

(b) The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private persons.

(c) Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) If this corporation holds any assets in trust, or the corporation is formed for charitable purposes, such assets shall be disposed of in such manner as may be directed by decree of the superior court of the county in which the corporation has its principal office, upon petition therefor by the Attorney General or by any person concerned in the liquidation, in a proceeding to which the Attorney General is a party.

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE X to read as follows:

...substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office."

3. The members of said corporation have an unequal voting power. The members entitled to cast eight (8) votes have consented by resolution at a meeting held at Redwood Valley, California, on June 24, 1974, to the adoption of said amendment, and the wording of the amended articles, as set forth in the members' resolution, is the same as that set forth in the Directors' resolution in Paragraph 2 above.

4. The total number of votes of members entitled to be voted for or to consent to said amendment is nine (9).

EXHIBIT A-1
BYLAWS
OF
PEOPLES TEMPLE OF THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST,
A CALIFORNIA CORPORATION

ARTICLE I
PRINCIPAL OFFICE AND NAME

SECTION 1.01: Office.

The principal office for the transaction of the business of this corporation, hereinafter sometimes referred to as "Church", is located at Redwood Valley, County of Mendocino, California. The board of directors may at any time or from time to time change the location of the principal office from one location to another in this county.

SECTION 1.02: Name.

This corporation may be known as Peoples Temple of the Disciples of Christ, Peoples Temple Christian Church of the Disciples of Christ, Peoples Temple Christian Church (Disciple of Christ), Peoples Temple Christian Church, or similar variant.

ARTICLE II
DENOMINATIONAL AFFILIATION

SECTION 2.01: Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

This corporation shall be a member of and affiliated with the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) Incorporated, (Formerly International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ)). If for any reason the corporation shall cease to be so affiliated, these Bylaws shall nonetheless remain valid and of full legal effect.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 3.01: Classes of Members.

Membership in this corporation shall be divided into two classes. The first class of members shall be known as voting members, and the second class of members shall be known as associate members and shall have no vote. No notice of any meeting of the membership need be given to any associate member. Whenever the term "member" is used by itself, whether within or outside of these bylaws, such term shall be deemed to refer to associate members.

SECTION 3.02: Qualifications of Associate Members.

Any person may become an associate member of this church who is 18 years of age, has been issued a membership card, is in sympathy with the purposes of this church and genuinely desires to work toward the fulfillment of its purposes and program. An associate membership shall remain valid only for the period of time stated on the membership card issued therefor. Each associate member shall be issued a membership card which shall state his name and the date his membership expires. If the membership card lists as a termination date simply a year, such as "71", the termination date shall be deemed to December 31st of that year. A membership card may designate any special or standing committee upon which the member may serve and any special church function he may have. The membership card shall be signed by the president of the corporation. Membership cards shall be issued for years commencing January 1, 1971. For the remainder of the calendar year 1970 all persons shall be deemed associate members who regularly attend the Sunday evening religious meetings of the corporation at its church in Redwood Valley.

SECTION 3.03: Qualifications of Voting Members.

Voting members are the original incorporators and such associate members as may be elected by the voting members from time to time. Death, resignation, or removal of any director as provided in these bylaws automatically terminates his membership as a voting member of this corporation. Election of a successor director as provided in these bylaws shall operate to elect that director to voting membership in this corporation.

SECTION 3.04: Voting Rights.

Each voting member of this corporation shall be entitled to one vote. Voting members only shall have the right to vote. Voting shall be by ballot (or as otherwise determined by voice vote of the voting members present at the meeting at which the votes are taken), with eligibility of voters established by reference to the voting membership list. A majority vote of the total voting membership shall be required for official action, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws or by law.

SECTION 3.05: Membership Roster.

The secretary shall maintain a current list of all voting members.

SECTION 3.06: Termination of Associate Membership.

Any associate member may withdraw from membership in the corporation at any time by presentation of his membership card for cancellation. An associate member may be removed and terminated from membership for good cause upon a majority vote of the total voting membership; provided, however, that such an associate member shall be entitled to at least seven days written notice, a fair hearing, and a declaration of findings before a vote terminating his membership shall be effective.

SECTION 3.07: Termination of Voting Membership.

A voting member may have his voting membership terminated for good cause by a three-fourths vote of the total authorized voting membership. A voting member shall be entitled to a least seven days written notice and a fair hearing before a vote termination of his membership is taken. The voting members shall declare their findings upon a vote to terminate a voting member's membership, said findings to be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

SECTION 3.08: Meetings.

Annual meetings of the voting members for the election of directors and the transaction of other business shall be held on the second Monday of January, 7:30 P.M. at the principal office which is at Redwood Valley, California, or at any other time in January and at any other place determined by the resolution of the board of directors. No notice of any such annual meeting need be given if it is held the second Monday of January at 7:30 P.M. at the principal office of the corporation; otherwise written notice shall be made to each voting member five days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 3.09: Special Meetings.

Special meetings of voting members may be called at any time by the president of the corporation, and shall be called on the written petition of no less than 20% of the voting members filed with the board of directors.

SECTION 3.10: Notice.

Notice of each meeting of voting members giving the time and place of the meeting and the specific business to be considered, shall be given in writing to each voting member five days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 3.11: Quorum.

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the total authorized voting membership.

SECTION 3.12: Liabilities of Members.

No person who is now, or who later becomes, a member of this corporation shall be personally liable to its creditors for any indebtedness or liability, and any and all creditors of this corporation shall look only to the assets of this corporation for payment.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 4.01: Number and Method of Creation.

The corporation shall have seven Directors, who shall serve without compensation and who shall be those persons elected by the voting members of the corporation at the annual meeting, or at a special meeting called to fill a vacancy, and collectively they shall be known as the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may also be known as the Board of Trustees, and each director may be known as trustee. The Board of Directors may also be known as the Board of Elders, and each director may be known as elder.

SECTION 4.02: Qualifications.

Any member of the corporation nominated as provided in these bylaws, shall be eligible to be elected a director of this corporation.

SECTION 4.03: Election.

Directors shall be elected by a vote of the voting members present at the annual meetings at which a quorum is present. Voting by proxy and cumulative voting shall not be authorized. Candidates receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of directors to be elected are elected.

SECTION 4.04: Powers of Directors.

Subject to limitations of the articles of incorporation, other sections of the bylaws, and of California law, all corporate powers of the corporation shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be controlled by, the board of directors. Without limiting the general powers, the board of directors shall have the following powers:

(A) Except for the office of pastor and assistant pastor to select and remove all the other officers, agents, and employees of the corporation, prescribe such powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service.

(B) To conduct, manage, and control the affairs and business of the corporation, and to make rules and regulations not inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws.

(C) To borrow money or incur indebtedness for the purpose of the incorporation, and for that purpose to cause to be executed and delivered, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, or other evidence of debt and securities.

SECTION 4.05: Election and Term of Office.

Terms of directors shall be deemed to commence on the date of the annual meeting. Except as provided below for the initial terms of the first directors, the term of office for each director of this corporation shall be three years or until his successor is elected. Successors for directors whose terms of office are then expiring shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members in the year such terms expire. A director may succeed himself in office.

At the organizational meeting of the first directors of this incorporation, the directors shall, by lot, classify themselves into three groups. The first shall consist of three directors whose initial term of office shall be one year. The second group shall consist of two directors whose initial term of office shall be two years. The third group of directors shall consist of two directors whose initial term of office shall be three years. This classification and the short initial terms are for the purpose of providing, as nearly as numerically possible, for the election of one third of the board of directors in each year.

SECTION 4.06: Vacancies.

Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by a majority of of the directors then in office even though less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director. A successor so elected shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

SECTION 4.07: Place of Meetings.

Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held at any place, within or without the state, that has been designated from time to time by resolution of the board or by written consent of all the members of the board. In the absence of this designation regular meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation. Special meetings of the board may be held either at a place designated or at the principal office.

SECTION 4.08: Organization Meeting.

Immediately following each annual meeting of members, the board of directors, the board of directors shall hold a regular meeting for the purposes of organization, election of officers, and transaction of other business. No notice of such organizational meeting need be given. The Officers to be elected shall include a chairman of the board and a vice-chairman of the board. The chairman or vice-chairman may also be the president of the corporation. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors, and shall have the authority to execute contracts on behalf of the corporation. In the absence or disability of the chairman, the vice-chairman shall perform all the duties of the chairman and in so acting shall have all the powers of the chairman.

SECTION 4.09: Other Regular Meetings.

Other regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held without call on the second Monday of each month at 7:30 P.M., provided, however, that should that day fall on a legal holiday, then the meeting shall be held at the same time on the next day that is not a legal holiday. No notice need be given of any regular meeting.

SECTION 4.10: Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the board of directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the chairman of the board of directors or by the president of the corporation or by any three directors.

Written notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally to each director or sent to each director by mail or other form of written communication, charges prepaid, addressed to him at his address as it is shown on the records of the corporation, or if it is not so shown on the records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place at which the meetings of the directors are regularly held. The notice shall be mailed at least five days before the time of the holding of the meeting.

The transactions of any of the meetings of the board of directors, however called and noticed and wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present and if either before or after the meeting each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to hold the meeting or an approval of the minutes. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made part of the minutes of the meeting.

SECTION 4.11: Action Without a Meeting.

Any action by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board individually or collectively consent in writing to this action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board.

SECTION 4.12: Removal.

A director may be removed from office, for cause, by the vote of the majority of the directors.

SECTION 4.13: Compensation.

The directors shall receive no compensation for their service as directors.

SECTION 4.14: Quorum.

Four members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION 4.15: Vote Needed for Action.

A majority vote of the total number of authorized directors shall be required for official action, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws or by law.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

SECTION 5.01: Officers.

The officers of the corporation shall be a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, and such other officers as may be designated and appointed from time to time by the board of directors. One person may hold more than one of these offices. Officers other than the president need not be members of the board of directors.

SECTION 5.02: Election.

The president, vice president, and secretary shall be elected by the board of directors at the first board meeting in each calendar year. Such officers shall serve for the term of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified. The treasurer shall be appointed by the board from the membership of the corporation and shall serve at the discretion of the board.

SECTION 5.03: Vacancies.

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise shall be filled by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.04: President.

The president shall preside at all meetings of the members of this corporation. Subject to the control of the board of directors, the president shall have general supervision, direction, and control of the business and affairs of the corporation. He shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors. The president shall represent the church as its spokesman on all appropriate occasions.

SECTION 5.05: Vice President.

In the absence or disability of the president, the vice president shall perform all the duties of the president and in so acting shall have all the powers of the president. The vice president shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.06: Secretary.

The secretary shall keep a full and complete record of the proceedings of the board of directors, shall keep the seal of the corporation and affix it to such papers and instruments as may be required in the regular course of business, shall make service of such notices as may be necessary or proper, shall supervise the keeping of the records of the corporation, and shall discharge such other duties of the office as prescribed by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.07: Treasurer.

The treasurer, who may also be known as financial secretary, shall receive and safely keep all funds of the corporation and deposit them in the bank or banks that may be designated by the board of directors. Those funds shall be paid out only on checks of the corporation signed by the president, vice president, treasurer, or secretary or by such officers as may be designated by the board of directors as authorized to sign them. The treasurer shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors. The treasurer may, with approval of the board of directors, appoint an assistant treasurer, who may also be known as assistant financial secretary, and who shall likewise discharge the duties of the office as prescribed by the board of directors. The assistant treasurer shall not be deemed an officer of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

THE PASTOR

SECTION 6.01: Duties.

The spiritual leadership of the corporation and its members shall be invested in the pastor who may also be known as "minister" or similar term. The pastor shall have all the powers and rights contemplated for such by the rules and regulations of the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Incorporated.

SECTION 6.02: Selection.

The pastor of this corporation shall be appointed by a vote of the voting membership of the corporation present at any meeting legally called for that purpose, and shall serve as such for life or until the dissolution of the corporation, or until he is dismissed or resigns as herein provided.

SECTION 6.03: Dismissal.

A vote of the voting members constituting three-fourths of the total authorized voting membership shall be required in order for the pastor to be dismissed from office. The pastor shall not be dismissed unless for good cause and only then for reasons stated in the applicable bylaws of the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Incorporated. Notice of such meeting shall be given to each voting member personally or by mail at his address as shown in the books of the corporation not more than 120 nor less than 90 days prior to the date of such a meeting and said notice shall specify that the purpose of the meeting is to vote on the dismissal of the pastor. Such notice shall be given by (1) the secretary or, in his failure or refusal to do so, by (2) such person as may be designated by the president, or (3) by any board member signing a petition requesting such which is signed by not less than twenty five percent of the voting members of the congregation and filed with the board or secretary thereof. The voting membership book shall be made available to any voting member of the congregation for the purpose of giving notice herein provided.

SECTION 6.05: Assistant Pastors.

The voting members, by three-fourths vote of the authorized membership, may upon recommendation of the pastor, designate assistants to the pastor, who shall be known as assistant pastors and assistant ministers. The assistant pastors shall assist the pastor and shall be under the supervision and jurisdiction of the pastor, who shall have the complete and sole discretion to dismiss any such assistant pastor.

SECTION 6.05: Resignation.

The pastor may resign by filing a written notice of resignation with the chairman or the secretary of the board of directors either personally or by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such officer at the principal office of the corporation. Such resignation shall become effective three months from the day it is received and accepted by the board of directors.

SECTION 6.06: Compensation.

The pastor's compensation shall be that set by the board of directors and may be included in the budget, if any, presented to the membership for approval at the annual meeting as herein provided, but shall not depend upon the adoption of any such budget.

ARTICLE VII

COMMITTEES

SECTION 7.01: Committees.

The committees of this corporation, whether standing committees or special committees, shall be such as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors at its sole discretion..

ARTICLE VIII

RECORDS

SECTION 8.01: Minutes.

The corporation shall keep at its principal office, or at some other place as the board of directors may order, a book of minutes of all meetings of directors and of all annual and business meetings of members, with the time and place of the holding, whether regular or special, and, if special, how authorized, the notice given, the names of those present at the director's meetings, the number of members present or represented at membership meetings, and the proceedings thereof.

SECTION 8.02: Books.

The books of account, specifically required to be kept by the board of directors, and the minutes of meetings of the directors and voting members, shall be open to inspection on the written demand of any voting member at any reasonable time, for a purpose reasonable related to the interests of such member. Such inspection may be made in person or by agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to make photocopies. Demand of inspection other than at members' meeting shall be made in writing to the president or secretary of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX
ANNUAL REPORT

SECTION 9.01: Annual Report.

The board of directors may, but shall not be required to, provide for the preparation and submission to the members a written annual report including a financial statement. Such report if required by the board shall summarize the corporation's activities projected for the forthcoming year. The financial statement shall consist of a balance sheet as of the close of business of the corporation's fiscal year, contain a summary of receipts and disbursements, be prepared in such a manner and form as is sanctioned by sound accounting practices, and be certified by the president, secretary, treasurer, or public accountant.

MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 10.01: Effective Date.

These bylaws shall come effective immediately on their adoption. Amendments to these bylaws shall become effective immediately on their adoption unless the voting members in adopting them provide that they are to become effective at a later date.

SECTION 10.02: Amendments to the Bylaws.

(A) Subject to the limitations contained in the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation and to any provisions of law applicable to the amendment of the bylaws of nonprofit organizations, these bylaws or any of them, may be altered, amended, or repealed and new bylaws adopted, at any annual or special meeting of the voting members by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting, provided the amendment is first proposed in the manner set forth in Paragraph (B) hereof and provided the notice of the meeting referred to in said paragraph (B) mailed to the membership as provided in section 3.10 of these bylaws sets forth the proposed amendment in full.

(B) Amendments to these bylaws may be proposed by the board of directors on its own motion or (2) by the petition of at least 25% of the voting members not less than 30 days before the membership meeting at which the proposed amendment is to be presented. The board must submit the proposed amendment to the members at the next membership meeting at which a quorum is present, except that if such meeting is a special meeting, the board may defer presentation to the next following annual meeting. The proposed amendment must be voted on at the meeting at which it is presented.

SECTION 10.03: Inspection of Bylaws.

The original, or copy, of the bylaws as amended or otherwise altered to date, certified by the secretary of the corporation shall be recorded and kept in a book which shall be kept in the principal office of the corporation, and such book shall be open to inspection by the voting members at all reasonable times during office hours.

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 3.01: Classes of Members.

Membership in this corporation shall be divided into two classes. The first class of members shall be known as voting members, and the second class of members shall be known as associate members and shall have no vote. No notice of any meeting of the membership need be given to any associate member. Whenever the term "member" is used by itself, whether within or outside of these bylaws, such term shall be deemed to refer to associate members.

SECTION 3.02: Qualifications of Associate Members.

Any person may become an associate member of this church who is 18 years of age, has been issued a membership card, is in sympathy with the purposes of this church and genuinely desires to work toward the fulfillment of its purposes and program. An associate membership shall remain valid only for the period of time stated on the membership card issued therefor. Each associate member shall be issued a membership card which shall state his name and the date his membership expires. If the membership card lists as a termination date simply a year, such as "71", the termination date shall be deemed as December 31st of that year. A membership card may designate any special or standing committee upon which the member may serve and any special church function he may have. The membership card shall be signed by the president of the corporation. Membership cards shall be issued for years commencing January 1, 1971. For the remainder of the calendar year 1970 all persons shall be deemed associate members who regularly attend the Sunday evening religious meetings of the corporation at its church in Redwood Valley.

SECTION 3.03: Qualifications of Voting Members.

Voting members are the original incorporators and such associate members as may be elected by the voting members from time to time. Death, resignation, or removal of any director as provided in these bylaws automatically terminates his membership as a voting member of this corporation. Election of a successor director as provided in these bylaws shall operate to elect that director to voting membership in this corporation.

SECTION 3.04: Voting Rights.

Each voting member of this corporation shall be entitled to one vote. Voting members only shall have the right to vote. Voting shall be by ballot (or as otherwise determined by voice vote of the voting members present at the meeting at which the votes are taken), with eligibility of voters established by reference to the voting membership list. A majority vote of the total voting membership shall be required for official action, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws or by law.

SECTION 3.05: Membership Roster.

The secretary shall maintain a current list of all voting members.

SECTION 3.06: Termination of Associate Membership.

Any associate member may withdraw from membership in the corporation at any time by presentation of his membership card for cancellation. An associate member may be removed and terminated from membership for good cause upon a majority vote of the total voting membership; provided, however, that such an associate member shall be entitled to at least seven days written notice, a fair hearing, and a declaration of findings before a vote terminating his membership shall be effective.

SECTION 3.07: Termination of Voting Membership.

A voting member may have his voting membership terminated for good cause by a three-fourths vote of the total authorized voting membership. A voting member shall be entitled to a least seven days written notice and a fair hearing before a vote termination of his membership is taken. The voting members shall declare their findings upon a vote to terminate a voting member's membership, said findings to be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

SECTION 3.08: Meetings.

Annual meetings of the voting members for the election of directors and the transaction of other business shall be held on the second Monday of January, 7:30 P.M. at the principal office which is at Redwood Valley, California, or at any other time in January and at any other place determined by the resolution of the board of directors. No notice of any such annual meeting need be given if it is held the second Monday of January at 7:30 P.M. at the principal office of the corporation; otherwise written notice shall be made to each voting member five days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 3.09: Special Meetings.

Special meetings of voting members may be called at any time by the president of the corporation, and shall be called on the written petition of no less than 20% of the voting members filed with the board of directors.

SECTION 3.10: Notice.

Notice of each meeting of voting members giving the time and place of the meeting and the specific business to be considered, shall be given in writing to each voting member five days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 3.11: Quorum.

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the total authorized voting membership.

SECTION 3.12: Liabilities of Members.

No person who is now, or who later becomes, a member of this corporation shall be personally liable to its creditors for any indebtedness or liability, and any and all creditors of this corporation shall look only to the assets of this corporation for payment.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 4.01: Number and Method of Creation.

The corporation shall have seven Directors, who shall serve without compensation and who shall be those persons elected by the voting members of the corporation at the annual meeting, or at a special meeting called to fill a vacancy, and collectively they shall be known as the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may also be known as the Board of Trustees, and each director may be known as trustee. The Board of Directors may also be known as the Board of Elders, and each director may be known as elder.

SECTION 4.02: Qualifications.

Any member of the corporation nominated as provided in these bylaws, shall be eligible to be elected a director of this corporation.

SECTION 4.03: Election.

Directors shall be elected by a vote of the voting members present at the annual meetings at which a quorum is present. Voting by proxy and cumulative voting shall not be authorized. Candidates receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of directors to be elected are elected.

SECTION 4.04: Powers of Directors.

Subject to limitations of the articles of incorporation, other sections of the bylaws, and of California law, all corporate powers of the corporation shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be controlled by, the board of directors. Without limiting the general powers, the board of directors shall have the following powers:

(A) Except for the office of pastor and assistant pastor to select and remove all the other officers, agents, and employees of the corporation, prescribe such powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service.

(B) To conduct, manage, and control the affairs and business of the corporation, and to make rules and regulations not inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws.

(C) To borrow money or incur indebtedness for the purpose of the incorporation, and for that purpose to cause to be executed and delivered, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, or other evidence of debt and securities.

SECTION 4.05: Election and Term of Office.

Terms of directors shall be deemed to commence on the date of the annual meeting. Except as provided below for the initial terms of the first directors, the term of office for each director of this corporation shall be three years or until his successor is elected. Successors for directors whose terms of office are then expiring shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members in the year such terms expire. A director may succeed himself in office.

At the organizational meeting of the first directors of this incorporation, the directors shall, by lot, classify themselves into three groups. The first shall consist of three directors whose initial term of office shall be one year. The second group shall consist of two directors whose initial term of office shall be two years. The third group of directors shall consist of two directors whose initial term of office shall be three years. This classification and the short initial terms are for the purpose of providing, as nearly as numerically possible, for the election of one third of the board of directors in each year.

SECTION 4.06: Vacancies.

Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by a majority of of the directors then in office even though less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director. A successor so elected shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

SECTION 4.07: Place of Meetings.

Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held at any place, within or without the state, that has been designated from time to time by resolution of the board or by written consent of all the members of the board. In the absence of this designation regular meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation. Special meetings of the board may be held either at a place designated or at the principal office.

SECTION 4.08: Organization Meeting.

Immediately following each annual meeting of members, the board of directors, the board of directors shall hold a regular meeting for the purposes of organization, election of officers, and transaction of other business. No notice of such organizational meeting need be given. The Officers to be elected shall include a chairman of the board and a vice-chairman of the board. The chairman or vice-chairman may also be the president of the corporation. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors, and shall have the authority to execute contracts on behalf of the corporation. In the absence or disability of the chairman, the vice-chairman shall perform all the duties of the chairman and in so acting shall have all the powers of the chairman.

SECTION 4.09: Other Regular Meetings.

Other regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held without call on the second Monday of each month at 7:30 P.M., provided, however, that should that day fall on a legal holiday, then the meeting shall be held at the same time on the next day that is not a legal holiday. No notice need be given of any regular meeting.

SECTION 4.10: Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the board of directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the chairman of the board of directors or by the president of the corporation or by any three directors.

Written notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally to each director or sent to each director by mail or other form of written communication, charges prepaid, addressed to him at his address as it is shown on the records of the corporation, or if it is not so shown on the records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place which the meetings of the directors are regularly held. The notice shall be mailed at least five days before the time of the holding of the meeting.

The transactions of any of the meetings of the board of directors, however called and noticed and wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present and if either before or after the meeting each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to hold the meeting or an approval of the minutes. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made part of the minutes of the meeting.

SECTION 4.11: Action Without a Meeting.

Any action by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board individually or collectively consent in writing to this action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board.

SECTION 4.12: Removal.

A director may be removed from office, for cause, by the vote of the majority of the directors.

SECTION 4.13: Compensation.

The directors shall receive no compensation for their service as directors.

SECTION 4.14: Quorum.

Four members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION 4.15: Vote Needed for Action.

A majority vote of the total number of authorized directors shall be required for official action, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws or by law.

ARTICLE V
OFFICERS

SECTION 5.01: Officers.

The officers of the corporation shall be a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, and such other officers as may be designated and appointed from time to time by the board of directors. One person may hold more than one of these offices. Officers other than the president need not be members of the board of directors.

SECTION 5.02: Election.

The president, vice president, and secretary shall be elected by the board of directors at the first board meeting in each calendar year. Such officers shall serve for the term of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified. The treasurer shall be appointed by the board from the membership of the corporation and shall serve at the discretion of the board.

SECTION 5.03: Vacancies.

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise shall be filled by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.04: President.

The president shall preside at all meetings of the members of this corporation. Subject to the control of the board of directors, the president shall have general supervision, direction, and control of the business and affairs of the corporation. He shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors. The president shall represent the church as its spokesman on all appropriate occasions.

SECTION 5.05: Vice President.

In the absence or disability of the president, the vice president shall perform all the duties of the president and in so acting shall have all the powers of the president. The vice president shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.06: Secretary.

The secretary shall keep a full and complete record of the proceedings of the board of directors, shall keep the seal of the corporation and affix to such papers and instruments as may be required in the regular course of business, shall make service of such notices as may be necessary or proper shall supervise the keeping of the records of the corporation, and shall discharge such other duties of the office as prescribed by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.07: Treasurer.

The treasurer, who may also be known as financial secretary, shall receive and safely keep all funds of the corporation and deposit them in the bank or banks that may be designated by the board of directors. Those funds shall be paid out only on checks of the corporation signed by the president, vice president, treasurer, or secretary or by such officer as may be designated by the board of directors as authorized to sign them. The treasurer shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors. The treasurer may, with approval of the board of directors, appoint an assistant treasurer, who may also be known as assistant financial secretary and who shall likewise discharge the duties of the office as prescribed by the board of directors. The assistant treasurer shall not be deemed an officer of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

THE PASTOR

SECTION 6.01: Duties.

The spiritual leadership of the corporation and its members shall be invested in the pastor who may also be known as "minister" or similar term. The pastor shall have all the powers and rights contemplated for such by the rules and regulations of the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Incorporated.

SECTION 6.02: Selection.

The pastor of this corporation shall be appointed by a vote of the voting membership of the corporation present at any meeting legally called for that purpose, and shall serve as such for life or until the dissolution of the corporation, or until he is dismissed or resigns as herein provided.

SECTION 6.03: Dismissal.

A vote of the voting members constituting three-fourths of the total authorized voting membership shall be required in order for the pastor to be dismissed from office. The pastor shall not be dismissed unless for good cause and only then for reasons stated in the applicable bylaws of the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) Incorporated. Notice of such meeting shall be given to each voting member

PEOPLES TEMPLE OF THE DISCIPLES OF CHRIST,
A CALIFORNIA CORPORATION

ARTICLE I
PRINCIPAL OFFICE AND NAME

SECTION 1.01: Office.

The principal office for the transaction of the business of this corporation, hereinafter sometimes referred to as "Church", is located at Redwood Valley, County of Mendocino, California. The board of directors may at any time or from time to time change the location of the principal office from one location to another in this county.

SECTION 1.02: Name.

This corporation may be known as Peoples Temple of the Disciples of Christ, Peoples Temple Christian Church of the Disciples of Christ, Peoples Temple Christian Church (Disciple of Christ), Peoples Temple Christian Church, or similar variant.

ARTICLE II
DENOMINATIONAL AFFILIATION

SECTION 2.01: Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).

This corporation shall be a member of and affiliated with the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) Incorporated, (Formerly International Convention of Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ)). If for any reason the corporation shall cease to be so affiliated, these Bylaws shall nonetheless remain valid and of full legal effect.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 3.01: Classes of Members.

Membership in this corporation shall be divided into two classes. The first class of members shall be known as voting members, and the second class of members shall be known as associate members and shall have no vote. No notice of any meeting of the membership need be given to any associate member. Whenever the term "member" is used by itself, whether within or outside of these bylaws, such term shall be deemed to refer to associate members.

SECTION 3.02: Qualifications of Associate Members.

Any person may become an associate member of this church who is 18 years of age, has been issued a membership card, is in sympathy with the purposes of this church and genuinely desires to work toward the fulfillment of its purposes and program. An associate membership shall remain valid only for the period of time stated on the membership card issued therefor. Each associate member shall be issued a membership card which shall state his name and the date his membership expires. If the membership card lists as a termination date simply a year, such as "71", the termination date shall be deemed to December 31st of that year. A membership card may designate any special or standing committee upon which the member may serve and any special church function he may have. The membership card shall be signed by the president of the corporation. Membership cards shall be issued for years commencing January 1, 1971. For the remainder of the calendar year 1970 all persons shall be deemed associate members who regularly attend the Sunday evening religious meetings of the corporation at its church in Redwood Valley.

SECTION 3.03: Qualifications of Voting Members.

Voting members are the original incorporators and such associate members as may be elected by the voting members from time to time. Death, resignation, or removal of any director as provided in these bylaws automatically terminates his membership as a voting member of this corporation. Election of a successor director as provided in these bylaws shall operate to elect that director to voting membership in this corporation.

SECTION 3.04: Voting Rights.

Each voting member of this corporation shall be entitled to one vote. Voting members only shall have the right to vote. Voting shall be by ballot (or as otherwise determined by voice vote of the voting members present at the meeting at which the votes are taken), with eligibility of voters established by reference to the voting membership list. A majority vote of the total voting membership shall be required for official action, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws or by law.

SECTION 3.05: Membership Roster.

The secretary shall maintain a current list of all voting members.

SECTION 3.06: Termination of Associate Membership.

Any associate member may withdraw from membership in the corporation at any time by presentation of his membership card for cancellation. An associate member may be removed and terminated from membership for good cause upon a majority vote of the total voting membership; provided, however, that such an associate member shall be entitled to at least seven days written notice, a fair hearing, and a declaration of findings before a vote terminating his membership shall be effective.

SECTION 3.07: Termination of Voting Membership.

A voting member may have his voting membership terminated for good cause by a three-fourths vote of the total authorized voting membership. A voting member shall be entitled to a least seven days written notice and a fair hearing before a vote termination of his membership is taken. The voting members shall declare their findings upon a vote to terminate a voting member's membership, said findings to be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

SECTION 3.08: Meetings.

Annual meetings of the voting members for the election of directors and the transaction of other business shall be held on the second Monday of January, 7:30 P.M. at the principal office which is at Redwood Valley, California, or at any other time in January and at any other place determined by the resolution of the board of directors. No notice of any such annual meeting need be given if it is held the second Monday of January at 7:30 P.M. at the principal office of the corporation; otherwise written notice shall be made to each voting member five days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 3.09: Special Meetings.

Special meetings of voting members may be called at any time by the president of the corporation, and shall be called on the written petition of no less than 20% of the voting members filed with the board of directors.

SECTION 3.10: Notice.

Notice of each meeting of voting members giving the time and place of the meeting and the specific business to be considered, shall be given in writing to each voting member five days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 3.11: Quorum.

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the total authorized voting membership.

SECTION 3.12: Liabilities of Members.

No person who is now, or who later becomes, a member of this corporation shall be personally liable to its creditors for any indebtedness or liability, and any and all creditors of this corporation shall look only to the assets of this corporation for payment.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 4.01: Number and Method of Creation.

The corporation shall have seven Directors, who shall serve without compensation and who shall be those persons elected by the voting members of the corporation at the annual meeting, or at a special meeting called to fill a vacancy, and collectively they shall be known as the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may also be known as the Board of Trustees, and each director may be known as trustee. The Board of Directors may also be known as the Board of Elders, and each director may be known as elder.

SECTION 4.02: Qualifications.

Any member of the corporation nominated as provided in these bylaws, shall be eligible to be elected a director of this corporation.

SECTION 4.03: Election.

Directors shall be elected by a vote of the voting members present at the annual meetings at which a quorum is present. Voting by proxy and cumulative voting shall not be authorized. Candidates receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of directors to be elected are elected.

SECTION 4.04: Powers of Directors.

Subject to limitations of the articles of incorporation, other sections of the bylaws, and of California law, all corporate powers of the corporation shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be controlled by, the board of directors. Without limiting the general powers, the board of directors shall have the following powers:

(A) Except for the office of pastor and assistant pastor to select and remove all the other officers, agents, and employees of the corporation, prescribe such powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service.

(B) To conduct, manage, and control the affairs and business of the corporation, and to make rules and regulations not inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws.

(C) To borrow money or incur indebtedness for the purpose of the incorporation, and for that purpose to cause to be executed and delivered, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, or other evidence of debt and securities.

SECTION 4.05: Election and Term of Office.

Terms of directors shall be deemed to commence on the date of the annual meeting. Except as provided below for the initial terms of the first directors, the term of office for each director of this corporation shall be three years or until his successor is elected. Successors for directors whose terms of office are then expiring shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members in the year such terms expire. A director may succeed himself in office.

At the organizational meeting of the first directors of this incorporation, the directors shall, by lot, classify themselves into three groups. The first shall consist of three directors whose initial term of office shall be one year. The second group shall consist of two directors whose initial term of office shall be two years. The third group of directors shall consist of two directors whose initial term of office shall be three years. This classification and the short initial terms are for the purpose of providing, as nearly as numerically possible, for the election of one third of the board of directors in each year.

SECTION 4.06: Vacancies.

Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by a majority of of the directors then in office even though less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director. A successor so elected shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

SECTION 4.07: Place of Meetings.

Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held at any place, within or without the state, that has been designated from time to time by resolution of the board or by written consent of all the members of the board. In the absence of this designation regular meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation. Special meetings of the board may be held either at a place designated or at the principal office.

SECTION 4.08: Organization Meeting.

Immediately following each annual meeting of members, the board of directors, the board of directors shall hold a regular meeting for the purposes of organization, election of officers, and transaction of other business. No notice of such organizational meeting need be given. The officers to be elected shall include a chairman of the board and a vice-chairman of the board. The chairman or vice-chairman may also be the president of the corporation. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors, and shall have the authority to execute contracts on behalf of the corporation. In the absence or disability of the chairman, the vice-chairman shall perform all the duties of the chairman and in so acting shall have all the powers of the chairman.

SECTION 4.09: Other Regular Meetings.

Other regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held without call on the second Monday of each month at 7:30 P.M., provided, however, that should that day fall on a legal holiday, then the meeting shall be held at the same time on the next day that is not a legal holiday. No notice need be given of any regular meeting.

SECTION 4.10: Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the board of directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the chairman of the board of directors or by the president of the corporation or by any three directors.

Written notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally to each director or sent to each director by mail or other form of written communication, charges prepaid, addressed to him at his address as it is shown on the records of the corporation, or if it is not so shown on the records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place at which the meetings of the directors are regularly held. The notice shall be mailed at least five days before the time of the holding of the meeting.

The transactions of any of the meetings of the board of directors, however called and noticed and wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present and if either before or after the meeting each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to hold the meeting or an approval of the minutes. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made part of the minutes of the meeting.

SECTION 4.11: Action Without a Meeting.

Any action by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board individually or collectively consent in writing to this action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board.

SECTION 4.12: Removal.

A director may be removed from office, for cause, by the vote of the majority of the directors.

SECTION 4.13: Compensation.

The directors shall receive no compensation for their service as directors.

SECTION 4.14: Quorum.

Four members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION 4.15: Vote Needed for Action.

A majority vote of the total number of authorized directors shall be required for official action, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws or by law.

ARTICLE V
OFFICERS

SECTION 5.01: Officers.

The officers of the corporation shall be a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, and such other officers as may be designated and appointed from time to time by the board of directors. One person may hold more than one of these offices. Officers other than the president need not be members of the board of directors.

SECTION 5.02: Election.

The president, vice president, and secretary shall be elected by the board of directors at the first board meeting in each calendar year. Such officers shall serve for the term of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified. The treasurer shall be appointed by the board from the membership of the corporation and shall serve at the discretion of the board.

SECTION 5.03: Vacancies.

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise shall be filled by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.04: President.

The president shall preside at all meetings of the members of this corporation. Subject to the control of the board of directors, the president shall have general supervision, direction, and control of the business and affairs of the corporation. He shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors. The president shall represent the church as its spokesman on all appropriate occasions.

SECTION 5.05: Vice President.

In the absence or disability of the president, the vice president shall perform all the duties of the president and in so acting shall have all the powers of the president. The vice president shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.06: Secretary.

The secretary shall keep a full and complete record of the proceedings of the board of directors, shall keep the seal of the corporation and affix it to such papers and instruments as may be required in the regular course of business, shall make service of such notices as may be necessary or proper, shall supervise the keeping of the records of the corporation, and shall discharge such other duties of the office as prescribed by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.07: Treasurer.

The treasurer, who may also be known as financial secretary, shall receive and safely keep all funds of the corporation and deposit them in the bank or banks that may be designated by the board of directors. These funds shall be paid out only on checks of the corporation signed by the president, vice president, treasurer, or secretary or by such officers as may be designated by the board of directors as authorized to sign them. The treasurer shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors. The treasurer may, with approval of the board of directors, appoint an assistant treasurer, who may also be known as assistant financial secretary, and who shall likewise discharge the duties of the office as prescribed by the board of directors. The assistant treasurer shall not be deemed an officer of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI

THE PASTOR

SECTION 6.01: Duties.

The spiritual leadership of the corporation and its members shall be invested in the pastor who may also be known as "minister" or similar term. The pastor shall have all the powers and rights contemplated for such by the rules and regulations of the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Incorporated.

SECTION 6.02: Selection.

The pastor of this corporation shall be appointed by a vote of the voting membership of the corporation present at any meeting legally called for that purpose, and shall serve as such for life or until the dissolution of the corporation, or until he is dismissed or resigns as herein provided.

SECTION 6.03: Dismissal.

A vote of the voting members constituting three-fourths of the total authorized voting membership shall be required in order for the pastor to be dismissed from office. The pastor shall not be dismissed unless for good cause and only then for reasons stated in the applicable bylaws of the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Incorporated. Notice of such meeting shall be given to each voting member personally or by mail at his address as shown in the books of the corporation not more than 120 nor less than 90 days prior to the date of such a meeting and said notice shall specify that the purpose of the meeting is to vote on the dismissal of the pastor. Such notice shall be given by (1) the secretary or, in his failure or refusal to do so, by (2) such person as may be designated by the president, or (3) by any board member signing a petition requesting such which is signed by not less than twenty five percent of the voting members of the congregation and filed with the board or secretary thereof. The voting membership book shall be made available to any voting member of the congregation for the purpose of giving notice herein provided.

SECTION 6.05: Assistant Pastors.

The voting members, by three-fourths vote of the authorized membership, may upon recommendation of the pastor, designate assistants to the pastor, who shall be known as assistant pastors and assistant ministers. The assistant pastors shall assist the pastor and shall be under the supervision and jurisdiction of the pastor, who shall have the complete and sole discretion to dismiss any such assistant pastor.

SECTION 6.05: Resignation.

The pastor may resign by filing a written notice of resignation with the chairman or the secretary of the board of directors either personally or by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such officer at the principal office of the corporation. Such resignation shall become effective three months from the day it is received and accepted by the board of directors.

SECTION 6.06: Compensation.

The pastor's compensation shall be that set by the board of directors and may be included in the budget, if any, presented to the membership for approval at the annual meeting as herein provided, but shall not depend upon the adoption of any such budget.

ARTICLE VII

COMMITTEES

SECTION 7.01: Committees.

The committees of this corporation, whether standing committees or special committees, shall be such as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors at its sole discretion..

ARTICLE VIII

RECORDS

SECTION 8.01: Minutes.

The corporation shall keep at its principal office, or at some other place as the board of directors may order, a book of minutes of all meetings of directors and of all annual and business meetings of members, with the time and place of the holding, whether regular or special, and, if special, how authorized, the notice given, the names of those present at the director's meetings, the number of members present or represented at membership meetings, and the proceedings thereof.

SECTION 8.02: Books.

The books of account, specifically required to be kept by the board of directors, and the minutes of meetings of the directors and voting members, shall be open to inspection on the written demand of any voting member at any reasonable time, for a purpose reasonable related to the interests of such member. Such inspection may be made in person or by agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to make photocopies. Demand of inspection other than at members' meeting shall be made in writing to the president or secretary of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX
ANNUAL REPORT

SECTION 9.01: Annual Report.

The board of directors may, but shall not be required to, provide for the preparation and submission to the members a written annual report including a financial statement. Such report if required by the board shall summarize the corporation's activities projected for the forthcoming year. The financial statement shall consist of a balance sheet as of the close of business of the corporation's fiscal year, contain a summary of receipts and disbursements, be prepared in such a manner and form as is sanctioned by sound accounting practices, and be certified by the president, secretary, treasurer, or public accountant.

ARTICLE XI
MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 10.01: Effective Date.

These bylaws shall come effective immediately on their adoption. Amendments to these bylaws shall become effective immediately on their adoption unless the voting members in adopting them provide that they are to become effective at a later date.

SECTION 10.02: Amendments to the Bylaws.

(A) Subject to the limitations contained in the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation and to any provisions of law applicable to the amendment of the bylaws of nonprofit organizations, these bylaws or any of them, may be altered, amended, or repealed and new bylaws adopted, at any annual or special meeting of the voting members by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting, provided the amendment is first proposed in the manner set forth in Paragraph (B) hereof and provided the notice of the meeting referred to in said paragraph (B) mailed to the membership as provided in section 3.10 of these bylaws sets forth the proposed amendment in full.

(B) Amendments to these bylaws may be proposed by the board of directors on its own motion or (2) by the petition of at least 25% of the voting members not less than 30 days before the membership meeting at which the proposed amendment is to be presented. The board must submit the proposed amendment to the members at the next membership meeting at which a quorum is present, except that if such meeting is a special meeting, the board may defer presentation to the next following annual meeting. The proposed amendment must be voted on at the meeting at which it is presented.

SECTION 10.03: Inspection of Bylaws.

The original, or copy, of the bylaws as amended or otherwise altered to date, certified by the secretary of the corporation shall be recorded and kept in a book which shall be kept in the principal office of the corporation, and such book shall be open to inspection by the voting members at all reasonable times during office hours.

TO HOLD the said premises for twenty-five years commencing from 10th April, 1974 upon the following terms and conditions:

1. (1) Subject as hereinafter provided the lessee shall pay to the Commissioner of Lands (hereinafter referred to as "the Commissioner") or to any officer duly authorised in that behalf an annual rent for the land hereby leased as follows:
- ~~25%~~
$2.00 per acre for the first 5 years
$4.00 per acre for the second 5 years
- (2) Thereafter the rate at which rent is payable shall be liable to revision by the President of Guyana at five yearly intervals during the currency of the lease.
2. The lessee shall within two years from the date of the commencement of this lease cultivate and beneficially occupy at least one-fifth part of the area of the land hereby leased and shall thereafter annually increase the cultivated and beneficially occupied area by not less than one-tenth part of the area of the land hereby leased until at the end of five years he shall have not less than one-half part of the area of the land hereby leased, cultivated and beneficially occupied, and shall be bound at all times during the continuance of this lease to maintain the said cultivation in good order and in a husbandlike manner to the reasonable satisfaction of the Commissioner or such Officer as may from time to time be deputed by the Commissioner to inspect the said cultivation:
- Provided that where the Commissioner is satisfied from the nature of the land or the composition of the soil or for any other cause that the cultivation of any portion of the land hereby leased is impracticable or uneconomical he would deduct the area of such portions from which the lessee is required to improve and cultivate.
- (2) The lessee shall be bound at all times to:
- (a) comply with any directions given by the lessor for the preparation and submission of plans for the drainage and irrigation of the land hereby leased; provided that such plans are jointly agreed upon by Lessee and Lessor;
- (b) carry out at his own expense to the satisfaction of the ~~Drainage and Irrigation Board~~ Lessor and ~~Drainage and Irrigation Board~~ all drainage and irrigation works as may from time to time be specified by the said ~~Board~~ Lessor, as approved in sub-paragraph (a).
- (3) The ~~lessee~~ Lessor shall be responsible for the upkeep and maintenance of all such works and shall immediately remedy any defect therein all to the satisfaction of the ~~Drainage and Irrigation Board~~. If the lessee fails to remedy any such defect, it may be remedied by the Commissioner or by the Chief Works and Hydraulics Officer or his agent and the cost recovered from the lessee without prejudice to the liability of the lease to forfeiture under clause 13 hereof in consequence of the lessee's failure to remedy such defect.
3. Good husbandry. The lessee shall be bound at all times to:
- (a) cultivate and maintain in a husbandlike manner all or any crops <sup>or pasture</sup> that may from time to time be specified by the Lessor; jointly approved by Lessor and Lessee.
- (b) take all necessary steps to control pests, diseases and weeds on the land;
- (c) keep his livestock under proper control and for that purpose may be required by the Lessor to erect and maintain such fences either by himself or together with an adjoining tenant or tenants, as may be necessary.
4. Sub-letting. The lessee shall not sub-let or give possession of the land hereby leased or any part thereof.
5. Transfer and Mortgage. The lessee shall not transfer or mortgage his interest in the lands comprised in this lease or any part thereof except in accordance with the provisions of the State Lands Regulations for the time being in force.

and premises for twenty-five years commencing from 1974 upon the following terms and conditions:

hereinafter provided the lessee shall pay to the Commissioner (referred to as "the Commissioner") or to any officer duly authorized in that behalf an annual rent for the land hereby leased as follows:

- one acre for the first 5 years
- one acre for the second 5 years the rate at which rent is payable shall be liable to revision by the Commission at five yearly intervals during the currency of the lease.

within two years from the date of the commencement of this lease the lessee shall at least one-fifth part of the area of the land hereby leased increase the cultivated and beneficially occupied area of the land hereby leased until at the end of five years one-half part of the area of the land hereby leased, and shall be bound at all times during the continuance of the lease in good order and in a husbandlike manner to cultivate the land hereby leased in accordance with the directions of the Commissioner or such Officer as may from time to time be directed in respect of the said cultivation:

if the Commissioner is satisfied from the nature of the soil or for any other cause that the cultivation of the land hereby leased is impracticable or uneconomical, the area of such portions from which the lessee is released shall be cultivated.

at all times to:
in accordance with the directions given by the lessor for the preparation and execution of plans for the drainage and irrigation of the land hereby leased that such plans are jointly agreed upon by the Lessor and the Lessee.
at the expense of the Lessor and the Lessee and all drainage and irrigation works as may from time to time be directed by the said Board Lessor, as approved in sub-responsible for the upkeep and maintenance of all such works and to immediately remedy any defect therein all to the satisfaction of the Drainage Board. If the lessee fails to remedy any such defect the Commissioner or by the Chief Works and his agent and the cost recovered from the lessee without prejudice to the lessee's failure to remedy such defect.

at all times to:
to be maintained in a husbandlike manner all or any crops that may be specified by the Lessor, jointly approved by Lessor and Lessee.

steps to control pests, diseases and weeds on the land;

to be kept under proper control and for that purpose may be required to erect and maintain such fences either by himself or with an adjoining tenant or tenants, as may be necessary.

to let or give possession of the land hereby leased or to transfer or mortgage his interest in the lands comprised in the lease in accordance with the provisions of the State Lands

6. The lessee shall bear, pay and discharge:

- (a) all existing and future rates, taxes, assessments and outgoings imposed or charged upon the land hereby leased by any local or other statutory authority or in accordance with the provisions of any Ordinance.
- (b) the cost on a pro rata basis or on such other basis as may, from time to time, be decided upon by the Lessor or such local or other statutory authority, the cost of all or any improvement works carried out at public expense or by such local or other statutory authority, and in the event of the failure of the lessee to pay, such amount may be recovered by Parate Execution or any other process of Law.

7. The lessee shall be bound during the continuance of this lease to keep the boundary lines of the land hereby leased clear and open, to keep the boundary posts thereon in their correct positions and to place and maintain on the front of the tract at or near to each boundary post, a board on which shall be painted in legible letters and figures the name of the lessee and the number and date of this lease.

8. The Lessor shall have full power and authority at all times during the term of this lease, to resume and enter into possession of any part of the land hereby leased which he may deem necessary to resume for any town site, village, railway, tramway, canal, telegraph line, road, wireless or radio station, or power transmission or for any other public work or purpose of public use, utility or convenience; or to sell, lease, licence or otherwise dispose of to any person or persons any part or parts of the said land for any purpose as aforesaid, without making to the lessee any compensation in respect of any part so resumed or sold, leased, licensed or otherwise disposed of:

Provided that the lands to be so resumed or disposed of shall not exceed one-twentieth of the whole of the land hereby leased;

And provided further that no such resumption or disposition of any part of the said lands upon which any buildings or works have been erected or carried out or which may be enclosed and in use for the more convenient occupation of any buildings shall be made without the payment to the lessee of compensation provided in Regulation 43 of the State Lands Regulations:

And provided further that where any part or parts of the lands comprised in this lease is or are disposed of as herein provided, this lease shall immediately terminate over such part or parts and the rental reserved by this lease shall be proportionately reduced.

9. (1) The lessee shall in the month of December, at the end of every fifth year during the continuance of this lease submit in writing to the Commission a report stating:—

- (a) the total acreage under cultivation in respect of each crop grown;
- (b) the condition of the total acreage not under cultivation and the reasons therefor;
- (c) the amount of livestock reared.

(2) On the lessee failing in any year to submit the aforesaid report, or in the event of the said report being false in any material particular, the lessee shall on demand pay to the Commissioner, or to any officer duly authorised in that behalf, a sum of fifty cents per acre of the land hereby leased in respect of any inspection carried out in connection with such default under paragraph (3) of this clause:

Provided that such sum payable by the lessee shall not be less than $10.00 and shall not exceed $250.00.

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to limit the right of inspection conferred by paragraph 3 hereunder.

(3) Any officer of the Government authorised in that behalf by the Commissioner shall be entitled to enter upon the land hereby leased at such times as may be reasonable to inspect the cultivation or stock and the works, boundary lines, notice boards, fences and posts thereon and to do all things necessary to ascertain whether the conditions under which this lease is held are being complied with.

10. This lease shall not confer on the lessee the right to any gold, silver, or other metals, minerals, ores, bauxite, rock, gems or precious stones, coal, mineral oil or radio-active minerals in or under the land leased which shall be saved and reserved to the Lessor with the right to enter upon any part or parts of the land hereby leased (whether by himself or by his servants or agents or by any persons authorised by him in that behalf) to search and mine therefor, subject, however, to the payment to the lessee of compensation as provided in Regulation 43 of the State Lands Regulation

Service of notices

11. For the purpose of this lease any notice shall be deemed to be duly served on the lessee or the mortgagee as the case may be if sent to him by registered post or if service in this manner cannot be made by posting of a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the land hereby leased.

Termination of lease

12. On the expiry of this lease by effluxion of time or upon the surrender or forfeiture thereof, all buildings or erections and all improvements on the land hereby leased shall belong to the Lessor.

Provided that if the land hereby leased is again leased within two years of the date of expiry, surrender or forfeiture as aforesaid, the lessee shall be entitled to receive from the succeeding lessee the full value of all lawful improvements existing on the land computed as at the date of such renewal, and the amount of compensation payable in respect of such improvements shall be determined subject to the provisions of Regulation 43 of the State Lands Regulations and in the manner therein provided.

Breach of terms and conditions

13. (a) Where any instalment of rent payable hereunder is three months or more overdue, the Commissioner may give to the lessee notice in writing to pay the arrears of rent within three months of the date of such notice. If the lease has been mortgaged in accordance with the requirements of the State Lands Regulations for the time being in force a similar notice shall be given to the mortgagee. If either the lessee or the mortgagee complies with such notice the lessee shall continue to hold the land hereby leased as if no breach has been committed. If neither the lessee nor the mortgagee complies with such notice this lease and the land comprised therein and all improvements thereon may be forfeited forthwith.

(b) Where the lessee has committed any breach of the conditions of clause 3 of this lease, the Commissioner may give to the lessee notice in writing to remedy the same within such period as the Commissioner may prescribe and if the lessee fails to remedy the breach within such period this lease and the lands comprised therein and all improvements thereon may be forfeited.

(c) Where the lessee has committed any other breach of the conditions of this lease, the lease and the lands comprised therein and all improvements thereon may be forfeited forthwith.

Provisions as to waiver

14. (1) The Commissioner may exercise his right to enforce any condition of his lease notwithstanding that he may have omitted to exercise such right on any previous occasion.

(2) The receipt by the Commissioner (or by any officer duly authorized in that behalf) of any rent or other money payable by the lessee shall not affect the right of the Commissioner to enforce the conditions of this lease in respect of any breach committed by the lessee whether or not known to the Commissioner before such receipt.

15. The lessee paying the rent and other sums of money hereby reserved and performing all the covenants and conditions herein contained and to be by him observed and fulfilled shall and may peaceably and quietly possess and enjoy the land hereby leased without any undue interference by the Lessor or any person claiming to be lawfully acting under him and upon giving three months notice in writing to the Commissioner shall be entitled to a renewal of this lease for a further period of twenty-five years upon the same terms and conditions including this present condition but at the rent fixed by the President of Guyana under the provisions of paragraph (2) of clause 1 of this lease.

OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF PEOPLES TEMPLE OF THE
DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

MICHAEL B. CARTMELL and JEAN F. BROWN certify:

1. They are the Vice President and the Assistant Secretary, respectively, of Peoples Temple of the Disciples of Christ, a California corporation.
2. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of said corporation, duly held at Redwood Valley, California, on June 24, 1974, the following resolution was adopted:

"RESOLVED: That ARTICLE II of the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to read as follows:

(a) The specific and primary purpose is to further the kingdom of God by spreading the Word.

(b) The general purposes and powers are:

- (i) To receive property by devise or bequest, subject to the laws regulating the transfer of property by will, and otherwise to acquire and hold all property, real or personal, including, without limitation, shares of stock, bonds, and securities of other corporations.

(ii) To sell, convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, encumber, transfer on trust, or otherwise dispose of, any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.

(iii) To make and perform contracts in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

(iv) To act as trustee under any trust incidental to the principal objects of the corporation, and receive, hold, administer, and expend funds and property subject to such trust.

(v) To borrow money, contract debts, and, from time to time, issue bonds, notes, and debentures, and to secure the payment or performance of its obligations.

(vi) To sue and be sued.

(vii) To qualify to carry on its nonprofit activities in any other state, territory, dependency, or foreign country, and to conduct its nonprofit activities within or without the State of California.

(viii) To adopt, use, and at will alter, a corporate seal, but failure to affix a seal shall not affect the validity of any corporate instrument.

(ix) To do all other acts necessary or expedient for the administration of its affairs and the attainment of its purposes.

(x) To have and exercise all the rights and powers conferred on nonprofit corporations under the General

Nonprofit Corporation Law of California, as such law is now in effect or may at any time hereafter be amended.

(xi) To act as principal, agent, joint venturer, partner, or in any other capacity which may be authorized or approved by the Board of Directors of the corporation and which the Board may deem proper or convenient in connection with any of the foregoing purposes, or which may be calculated directly or indirectly.

The foregoing statement of purposes shall be construed as a statement of both purposes and powers, and the purposes and powers stated in each clause shall, except where otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by any reference to or inference from the terms or provisions of any other clause, but shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

(c) Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes and powers, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this corporation.'

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE VII to read as follows:

'The number of Directors of this corporation shall be seven (7). The manner in which Directors shall be chosen and removed from office, their qualifications, powers, duties, compensation, and tenure of office, the manner of filling vacancies on the Board, and the manner of calling and holding meetings of Directors, shall be as stated in the Bylaws. Directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.'

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE VIII to read as follows:

'The authorized number, if any, and qualifications of members of the corporation, the filling of vacancies, the different classes of membership, if any, the property, voting and other rights and privileges of members, and their liability to dues and assessments and the method of collection, and the termination and transfer of membership shall be as stated in the Bylaws; provided, however, that if the voting, property, or other rights or interests, or any of them, be unequal, the Bylaws shall set forth the rule or rules by which the respective voting, property, or other rights or interests of each member or class of members are fixed and determined. Members of this corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.'

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE IX to read as follows:

(a) This corporation is not organized, nor shall it be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit, and it does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits, or dividends to the members thereof and is organized solely for nonprofit purposes.

(b) The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private persons.

(c) Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) If this corporation holds any assets in trust, or the corporation is formed for charitable purposes, such assets shall be disposed of in such manner as may be directed by decree of the superior court of the county in which the corporation has its principal office, upon petition therefor by the Attorney General or by any person concerned in the liquidation, in a proceeding to which the Attorney General is a party.'

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE X to read as follows:

'No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propoganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office.'

3. The members of said corporation have an unequal voting power. The members entitled to cast eight (8) votes have consented by resolution at a meeting held at Redwood Valley, California, on June 24, 1974, to the adoption of said amendment, and the wording of the amended articles, as set forth in the members' resolution, is the same as that set forth in the Directors' resolution in Paragraph 2 above.

4. The total number of votes of members entitled to be voted for or to consent to said amendement is nine (9).

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 3.01: Classes of Members.

Membership in this corporation shall be divided into two classes. The first class of members shall be known as voting members, and the second class of members shall be known as associate members and shall have no vote. No notice of any meeting of the membership need be given to any associate member. Whenever the term "member" is used by itself, whether within or outside of these bylaws, such term shall be deemed to refer to associate members.

SECTION 3.02: Qualifications of Associate Members.

Any person may become an associate member of this church who is 18 years of age, has been issued a membership card, is in sympathy with the purposes of this church and genuinely desires to work toward the fulfillment of its purposes and program. An associate membership shall remain valid only for the period of time stated on the membership card issued therefor. Each associate member shall be issued a membership card which shall state his name and the date his membership expires. If the membership card lists as a termination date simply a year, such as "71", the termination date shall be deemed as December 31st of that year. A membership card may designate any special or standing committee upon which the member may serve and any special church function he may have. The membership card shall be signed by the president of the corporation. Membership cards shall be issued for years commencing January 1, 1971. For the remainder of the calendar year 1970 all persons shall be deemed associate members who regularly attend the Sunday evening religious meetings of the corporation at its church in Redwood Valley.

SECTION 3.03: Qualifications of Voting Members.

Voting members are the original incorporators and such associate members as may be elected by the voting members from time to time. Death, resignation, or removal of any director as provided in these bylaws automatically terminates his membership as a voting member of this corporation. Election of a successor director as provided in these bylaws shall operate to elect that director to voting membership in this corporation.

SECTION 3.04: Voting Rights.

Each voting member of this corporation shall be entitled to one vote. Voting members only shall have the right to vote. Voting shall be by ballot (or as otherwise determined by voice vote of the voting members present at the meeting at which the votes are taken), with eligibility of voters established by reference to the voting membership list. A majority vote of the total voting membership shall be required for official action, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws or by law.

SECTION 3.05: Membership Roster.

The secretary shall maintain a current list of all voting members.

SECTION 3.06: Termination of Associate Membership.

Any associate member may withdraw from membership in the corporation at any time by presentation of his membership card for cancellation. An associate member may be removed and terminated from membership for good cause upon a majority vote of the total voting membership; provided, however, that such an associate member shall be entitled to at least seven days written notice, a fair hearing, and a declaration of findings before a vote terminating his membership shall be effective.

SECTION 3.07: Termination of Voting Membership.

A voting member may have his voting membership terminated for good cause by a three-fourths vote of the total authorized voting membership. A voting member shall be entitled to a least seven days written notice and a fair hearing before a vote termination of his membership is taken. The voting members shall declare their findings upon a vote to terminate a voting member's membership, said findings to be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

SECTION 3.08: Meetings.

Annual meetings of the voting members for the election of directors and the transaction of other business shall be held on the second Monday of January, 7:30 P.M. at the principal office which is at Redwood Valley, California, or at any other time in January and at any other place determined by the resolution of the board of directors. No notice of any such annual meeting need be given if it is held the second Monday of January at 7:30 P.M. at the principal office of the corporation; otherwise written notice shall be made to each voting member five days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 3.09: Special Meetings.

Special meetings of voting members may be called at any time by the president of the corporation, and shall be called on the written petition of no less than 20% of the voting members filed with the board of directors.

SECTION 3.10: Notice.

Notice of each meeting of voting members giving the time and place of the meeting and the specific business to be considered, shall be given in writing to each voting member five days before the date of the meeting.

SECTION 3.11: Quorum.

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the total authorized voting membership.

SECTION 3.12: Liabilities of Members.

No person who is now, or who later becomes, a member of this corporation shall be personally liable to its creditors for any indebtedness or liability, and any and all creditors of this corporation shall look only to the assets of this corporation for payment.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 4.01: Number and Method of Creation.

The corporation shall have seven Directors, who shall serve without compensation and who shall be those persons elected by the voting members of the corporation at the annual meeting, or at a special meeting called to fill a vacancy, and collectively they shall be known as the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may also be known as the Board of Trustees, and each director may be known as trustee. The Board of Directors may also be known as the Board of Elders, and each director may be known as elder.

SECTION 4.02: Qualifications.

Any member of the corporation nominated as provided in these bylaws, shall be eligible to be elected a director of this corporation.

SECTION 4.03: Election.

Directors shall be elected by a vote of the voting members present at the annual meetings at which a quorum is present. Voting by proxy and cumulative voting shall not be authorized. Candidates receiving the highest number of votes up to the number of directors to be elected are elected.

SECTION 4.04: Powers of Directors.

Subject to limitations of the articles of incorporation, other sections of the bylaws, and of California law, all corporate powers of the corporation shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be controlled by, the board of directors. Without limiting the general powers, the board of directors shall have the following powers:

(A) Except for the office of pastor and assistant pastor to select and remove all the other officers, agents, and employees of the corporation, prescribe such powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service.

(B) To conduct, manage, and control the affairs and business of the corporation, and to make rules and regulations not inconsistent with law, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws.

(C) To borrow money or incur indebtedness for the purpose of the incorporation, and for that purpose to cause to be executed and delivered, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, or other evidence of debt and securities.

SECTION 4.05: Election and Term of Office.

Terms of directors shall be deemed to commence on the date of the annual meeting. Except as provided below for the initial terms of the first directors, the term of office for each director of this corporation shall be three years or until his successor is elected. Successors for directors whose terms of office are then expiring shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members in the year such terms expire. A director may succeed himself in office.

At the organizational meeting of the first directors of this incorporation, the directors shall, by lot, classify themselves into three groups. The first shall consist of three directors whose initial term of office shall be one year. The second group shall consist of two directors whose initial term of office shall be two years. The third group of directors shall consist of two directors whose initial term of office shall be three years. This classification and the short initial terms are for the purpose of providing, as nearly as numerically possible, for the election of one third of the board of directors in each year.

SECTION 4.06: Vacancies.

Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by a majority of of the directors then in office even though less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director. A successor so elected shall serve for the unexpired term of his predecessor.

SECTION 4.07: Place of Meetings.

Regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held at any place, within or without the state, that has been designated from time to time by resolution of the board or by written consent of all the members of the board. In the absence of this designation regular meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation. Special meetings of the board may be held either at a place designated or at the principal office.

SECTION 4.08: Organization Meeting.

Immediately following each annual meeting of members, the board of Directors, the board of directors shall hold a regular meeting for the purposes of organization, election of officers, and transaction of other business. No notice of such organizational meeting need be given. The Officers to be elected shall include a chairman of the board and a vice-chairman of the board. The chairman or vice-chairman may also be the president of the corporation. The chairman shall preside at all meetings of the board of directors, and shall have the authority to execute contracts on behalf of the corporation. In the absence or disability of the chairman, the vice-chairman shall perform all the duties of the chairman and in so acting shall have all the powers of the chairman.

SECTION 4.09: Other Regular Meetings.

Other regular meetings of the board of directors shall be held without call on the second Monday of each month at 7:30 P.M., provided, however, that should that day fall on a legal holiday, then the meeting shall be held at the same time on the next day that is not a legal holiday. No notice need be given of any regular meeting.

SECTION 4.10: Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the board of directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the chairman of the board of directors or by the president of the corporation or by any three directors.

Written notice of the time and place of special meetings shall be delivered personally to each director or sent to each director by mail or other form of written communication, charges prepaid, addressed to him at his address as it is shown on the records of the corporation, or if it is not so shown on the records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place at which the meetings of the directors are regularly held. The notice shall be mailed at least five days before the time of the holding of the meeting.

The transactions of any of the meetings of the board of directors, however called and noticed and wherever held, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present and if either before or after the meeting each of the directors not present signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to hold the meeting or an approval of the minutes. All such waivers, consents, or approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made part of the minutes of the meeting.

SECTION 4.11: Action Without a Meeting.

Any action by the board of directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the board individually or collectively consent in writing to this action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board.

SECTION 4.12: Removal.

A director may be removed from office, for cause, by the vote of the majority of the directors.

SECTION 4.13: Compensation.

The directors shall receive no compensation for their service as directors.

SECTION 4.14: Quorum.

Four members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

SECTION 4.15: Vote Needed for Action.

A majority vote of the total number of authorized directors shall be required for official action, unless otherwise specified in these bylaws or by law.

ARTICLE V
OFFICERS

SECTION 5.01: Officers.

The officers of the corporation shall be a president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer, and such other officers as may be designated and appointed from time to time by the board of directors. One person may hold more than one of these offices. Officers other than the president need not be members of the board of directors.

SECTION 5.02: Election.

The president, vice president, and secretary shall be elected by the board of directors at the first board meeting in each calendar year. Such officers shall serve for the term of one year or until their successors are elected and qualified. The treasurer shall be appointed by the board from the membership of the corporation and shall serve at the discretion of the board.

SECTION 5.03: Vacancies.

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise shall be filled by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.04: President.

The president shall preside at all meetings of the members of this corporation. Subject to the control of the board of directors, the president shall have general supervision, direction, and control of the business and affairs of the corporation. He shall have such powers and duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors. The president shall represent the church as its spokesman on all appropriate occasions.

SECTION 5.05: Vice President.

In the absence or disability of the president, the vice president shall perform all the duties of the president and in so acting shall have all the powers of the president. The vice president shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.06: Secretary.

The secretary shall keep a full and complete record of the proceedings of the board of directors, shall keep the seal of the corporation and affix it to such papers and instruments as may be required in the regular course of business, shall make service of such notices as may be necessary or proper, shall supervise the keeping of the records of the corporation, and shall discharge such other duties of the office as prescribed by the board of directors.

SECTION 5.07: Treasurer.

The treasurer, who may also be known as financial secretary, shall receive and safely keep all funds of the corporation and deposit them in the bank or banks that may be designated by the board of directors. Those funds shall be paid out only on checks of the corporation signed by the president, vice president, treasurer, or secretary or by such officers as may be designated by the board of directors as authorized to sign them. The treasurer shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors. The treasurer may, with approval of the board of directors, appoint an assistant treasurer, who may also be known as assistant financial secretary, and who shall likewise discharge the duties of the office as prescribed by the board of directors. The assistant treasurer shall not be deemed an officer of the corporation.

ARTICLE VI
THE PASTOR

SECTION 6.01: Duties.

The spiritual leadership of the corporation and its members shall be invested in the pastor who may also be known as "minister" or similar term. The pastor shall have all the powers and rights contemplated for such by the rules and regulations of the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), Incorporated.

SECTION 6.02: Selection.

The pastor of this corporation shall be appointed by a vote of the voting membership of the corporation present at any meeting legally called for that purpose, and shall serve as such for life or until the dissolution of the corporation, or until he is dismissed or resigns as herein provided.

SECTION 6.03: Dismissal.

A vote of the voting members constituting three-fourths of the total authorized voting membership shall be required in order for the pastor to be dismissed from office. The pastor shall not be dismissed unless for good cause and only then for reasons stated in the applicable bylaws of the General Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) Incorporated. Notice of such meeting shall be given to each voting member personally or by mail at his address as shown in the books of the corporation not more than 120 nor less than 90 days prior to the date of such a meeting and said notice shall specify that the purpose of the meeting is to vote on the dismissal of the pastor. Such notice shall be given by (1) the secretary or, in his failure or refusal to do so, by (2) such person as may be designated by the president, or (3) by any board member signing a petition requesting such which is signed by not less than twenty five percent of the voting members of the congregation and filed with the board or secretary thereof. The voting membership book shall be made available to any voting member of the congregation for the purpose of giving notice herein provided.

SECTION 6.05: Assistant Pastors.

The voting members, by three-fourths vote of the authorized membership, may upon recommendation of the pastor, designate assistants to the pastor, who shall be known as assistant pastors and assistant ministers. The assistant pastors shall assist the pastor and shall be under the supervision and jurisdiction of the pastor, who shall have the complete and sole discretion to dismiss any such assistant pastor.

SECTION 6.05: Resignation.

The pastor may resign by filing a written notice of resignation with the chairman or the secretary of the board of directors either personally or by mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such officer at the principal office of the corporation. Such resignation shall become effective three months from the day it is received and accepted by the board of directors.

SECTION 6.06: Compensation.

The pastor's compensation shall be that set by the board of directors and may be included in the budget, if any, presented to the membership for approval at the annual meeting as herein provided, but shall not depend upon the adoption of any such budget.

ARTICLE VII.

COMMITTEES

SECTION 7.01: Committees.

The committees of this corporation, whether standing committees or special committees, shall be such as may be designated from time to time by the board of directors at its sole discretion.

ARTICLE VIII

RECORDS

SECTION 8.01: Minutes.

The corporation shall keep at its principal office, or at some other place as the board of directors may order, a book of minutes of all meetings of directors and of all annual and business meetings of members, with the time and place of the holding, whether regular or special, and, if special, how authorized, the notice given, the names of those present at the directors' meetings, the number of members present or represented at membership meetings, and the proceedings thereof.

SECTION 8.02: Books.

The books of account, specifically required to be kept by the board of directors, and the minutes of meetings of the directors and voting members, shall be open to inspection on the written demand of any voting member at any reasonable time, for a purpose reasonable related to the interests of such member. Such inspection may be made in person or by agent or attorney, and the right of inspection includes the right to make photocopies. Demand of inspection other than at members' meeting shall be made in writing to the president or secretary of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX
ANNUAL REPORT

SECTION 9.01: Annual Report.

The board of directors may, but shall not be required to, provide for the preparation and submission to the members a written annual report including a financial statement. Such report if required by the board shall summarize the corporation's activities projected for the forthcoming year. The financial statement shall consist of a balance sheet as of the close of business of the corporation's fiscal year, contain a summary of receipts and disbursements, be prepared in such a manner and form as is sanctioned by sound accounting practices, and be certified by the president, secretary, treasurer, or public accountant.

ARTICLE X
MISCELLANEOUS

SECTION 10.01: Effective Date.

These bylaws shall come effective immediately on their adoption. Amendments to these bylaws shall become effective immediately on their adoption unless the voting members in adopting them provide that they are to become effective at a later date.

SECTION 10.02: Amendments to the Bylaws.

(A) Subject to the limitations contained in the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation and to any provisions of law applicable to the amendment of the bylaws of nonprofit organizations, these bylaws or any of them, may be altered, amended, or repealed and new bylaws adopted, at any annual or special meeting of the voting members by a two-thirds vote of the voting members present and voting, provided the amendment is first proposed in the manner set forth in Paragraph (B) hereof and provided the notice of the meeting referred to in said paragraph (B) mailed to the membership as provided in section 3.10 of these bylaws sets forth the proposed amendment in full.

(B) Amendments to these bylaws may be proposed by the board of directors on its own motion or (2) by the petition of at least 25% of the voting members not less than 30 days before the membership meeting at which the proposed amendment is to be presented. The board must submit the proposed amendment to the members at the next membership meeting at which a quorum is present, except that if such meeting is a special meeting, the board may defer presentation to the next following annual meeting. The proposed amendment must be voted on at the meeting at which it is presented.

SECTION 10.03: Inspection of Bylaws.

The original, or copy, of the bylaws as amended or otherwise altered to date, certified by the secretary of the corporation shall be recorded and kept in a book which shall be kept in the principal office of the corporation, and such book shall be open to inspection by the voting members at all reasonable times during office hours.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

PEOPLES TEMPLE CHRISTIAN CHURCH COMPANY LIMITED

---

Number of Members

1. The association for the purposes of registration, is declared to consist of five members.
2. The directors hereinafter mentioned may, whenever the business of the association requires it, register an increase of members.

Definition of Members

3. Every person shall be deemed to be a member of the association who accepts appointment as a director, and in similar manner every director shall be deemed to be a member of the association. Every person ceasing to be a member shall cease to be a director and vice versa.

General Meetings

4. The first general meeting shall be held at a time, not less than one month or more than three months after the incorporation of the association and at a place, determined by the directors.
5. A general meeting shall be held once in every year at a time (not more than fifteen months after the holding of the last preceding general meeting) and place prescribed by the association in general meeting or, in default, at such time in the month following that in which the anniversary of the association's incorporation occurs and at such place, as the directors shall appoint. In default of a general meeting being so held, a general meeting shall be held in the month next following, and may be convened by any two members in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings are to be convened by the directors.

6. The above-mentioned general meetings shall be called ordinary meetings; all other general meetings shall be called extraordinary.

7. The directors may, whenever they think fit, and shall, on a requisition made in writing by any five or more members, convene an extraordinary general meeting.

8. Any requisition made by the members must state the object of the meeting proposed to be called, and must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the registered office of the association,

9. On receipt of the requisition the directors shall forthwith proceed to convene a general meeting; if they do not proceed to cause a meeting to be held within twenty-one days from the date of the requisition being so deposited, the requisitionists or any other five members, may themselves convene a meeting.

Proceedings at General Meetings

10. Seven days' notice at the last, specifying the place, the day and the hour of meeting, and in case of special business the general nature of the business shall be given to the members in manner hereinafter mentioned, or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the association in General meeting. Nonreceipt of the notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting.

11. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary meeting, and all that is transacted at an ordinary meeting, with the exception of the consideration of the accounts, balance sheets, and the ordinary report of the directors and auditors, the election of directors and other officers in the place of those retiring by rotation, and the fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.

12. No business shall be transacted at any meeting except the declaration, unless a quorum of members is present at the commencement of the business. The quorum should be ascertained as follows (that is to say), if the members of the association at the time of the meeting do not exceed ten in number, the quorum shall be five, if they exceed ten there shall be added to the above quorum one for every five additional members up to fifty, and one for every ten additional members after fifty, with this limitation, that no quorum shall in any case exceed thirty.

13. If within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum of members is not present, the meeting if convened on the requisition of the members, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall be adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place; if at the adjourned meeting a quorum of members is not present, it shall be adjourned.

14. The chairman (if any) of the directors shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the association.

15. If there is no chairman, or if at any meeting he is not present at the time of holding it, the members present shall choose some one of their number to be chairman of that meeting.

16. The chairman may, with the consent of the meeting adjourn it from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

17. At any general meeting, unless a poll is demanded by at least three members, a declaration by the chairman that the resolution has been carried and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the association shall be conclusive of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

18. If a poll is demanded in manner aforesaid, it shall be taken in the manner directed by the chairman, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Votes of Members

19. Every members shall have one vote and no more.

20. If any member is a lunatic or idiot he may vote by his committee, curator, bonis, or other legal curator.

21. No member shall be entitled to vote at any meeting unless all moneys due from him to the association have been paid.

22. On a poll votes shall be given personally,

DIRECTORS

23 . The number of the directors, and the names of the first directors, shall be determined by the subscribers of the memorandum of association.

24. Until directors are appointed the subscribers of the memorandum of association shall, for all the purposes of the Companies Act, be deemed to be directors.

25. The association shall be managed by the directors, who shall exercise all the powers of the association which are not by the Companies Act, or by any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force, or by these articles, required to be exercised by the association in general meeting; but no regulation made by the association in general meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that regulation had not been made.

Election of Directors

26. The directors shall be elected annually by the association in general meeting.

Business of Association

27. The Association is established for the objects stated in the Memorandum of Association.

28. The Association is a not-for-profit company, and accordingly - no shares shall be issued.

Audit

29. Auditors shall be appointed and their duties regulated in accordance with sections 122 and 123 of the Companies Act, or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force and for this purpose the said sections shall have effect as if the word "Members" were substituted for "Shareholders", and as if "First General Meeting" were substituted for "Statutory Meeting."

Notices

30. A notice may be given by the Association to any member either personally or by sending it by post to him to his registered address.

31. Where a notice is sent by post, service of the notice shall be deemed to have been effected by properly addressing, prepaying, and posting a letter containing the notice, and, unless the contrary is proved, to have been effected at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

1. Barbara Hoyer's closing check bounced and we are out some $2,600.00. It is wreaking havoc with our checking account. Please see that she writes out another check and leaves the amount open so we can find out what her actual balance is and get it out. Please do right away. Thanks. (If she does not have any checks with her, please have her write an appropriate letter. Thanks.)

2. PLEASE TELL C.L. THAT NO LETTER HAS EVER ARRIVED FROM THAT OTHER ACCOUNT ~~AND~~ THAT I AM WAITING FOR -- SO NO AMENDED RETURNS CAN BE MADE YET. THIS IS EXTREMELY IMPORTANT. I WILL BE GLAD TO WRITE FROM HERE, IF NEED BE.

Dear Sirs:

Enclosed please find the following:

1. The Articles of Incorporation of the Peoples Temple of the Disciples of Christ
2. The Corporate Resolution, Certified Copy, of the Board of Directors Meeting of April 11, 1977

At this time our Board would like to know the amount of interest this account has earned to date and we are assuming the 7% rate for one year fixed time deposit you stated to us when the account was opened. We would like to maintain the funds in this account, but naturally our concern is based on what the funds can earn for our non-profit charitable works. We intend to maintain the account with you, unless the interest rate is not conducive to making the investment worthwhile for the church. Please include current balance on this amount.

We are sorry for the confusion caused you. The distance between us has made communication difficult.

Please send your reply to:

P. O. Box 893
Georgetown
Guyana.

Dear Miss Touchette,

re Savings Account

On 30th June, 1977, we returned to you by Registered Mail No. 88889, the banking resolution for signature and seal and subsequent dispatch to us. Up to this time of writing we have had no word from you on this matter.

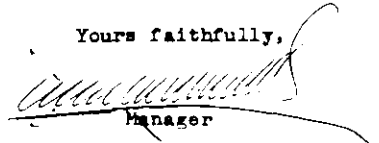

We also, at that time, informed you that the cheque on the United California Bank had been returned to us for endorsement by your Organization, and that for this purpose it had been forwarded for your attention through Barclays Bank Ltd, Guyana. Up to this time of writing we have, here again, had no word from you.

Meanwhile, Barclays Bank at Grenada have sent us two letters addressed to them, one by your goodself and the other by their branch at Georgetown, relating to your Savings Account with us and issuing certain instructions concerning it, but as though it were established at Barclays Bank, Grenada. We are not a little concerned at this action, especially as you yourself visited our office to open the account, and feel that some explanation should soon be forthcoming.

We are quite willing to remit you the balance of your Savings Account with us, provided that you first deliver to us the banking resolution properly signed, sealed and notorized, and at the same time issue to us your written instructions, properly signed, sealed and notorized.

We await your reply in due course.

Yours faithfully,

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT
OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF PEOPLES TEMPLE OF THE
DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

MICHAEL B. CARTNELL and JEAN F. BROWN certify:

1. They are the Vice President and the Assistant Secretary, respectively, of Peoples Temple of the Disciples of Christ, a California corporation.
2. At a meeting of the Board of Directors of said corporation, duly held at Redwood Valley, California, on June 24, 1974, the following resolution was adopted:

"RESOLVED: That ARTICLE II of the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to read as follows:

- (a) The specific and primary purpose is to further the kingdom of God by spreading the Word.
- (b) The general purposes and powers are:
  - (i) To receive property by devise or bequest, subject to the laws regulating the transfer of property by will, and otherwise to acquire and hold all property, real or personal, including, without limitation, shares of stock, bonds, and securities of other corporations.

(ii) To sell, convey, exchange, lease, mortgage, encumber, transfer on trust, or otherwise dispose of any such property, both real and personal, as the objects and purposes of the corporation may require, subject to such limitations as may be prescribed by law.

(iii) To make and perform contracts in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation.

(iv) To act as trustee under any trust incidental to the principal objects of the corporation, and receive, hold, administer, and expend funds and property subject to such trust.

(v) To borrow money, contract debts, and, from time to time, issue bonds, notes, and debentures, and to secure the payment or performance of its obligations.

(vi) To sue and be sued.

(vii) To qualify to carry on its nonprofit activities in any other state, territory, dependency, or foreign country, and to conduct its nonprofit activities within or without the State of California.

(viii) To adopt, use, and at will alter, a corporate seal, but failure to affix a seal shall not affect the validity of any corporate instrument.

(ix) To do all other acts necessary or expedient for the administration of its affairs and the attainment of its purposes.

(x) To have and exercise all the rights and powers conferred on nonprofit corporations under the General

Nonprofit Corporation Law of California, as such law is now in effect or may at any time hereafter be amended.

(xi) To act as principal, agent, joint venturer, partner, or in any other capacity which may be authorized or approved by the Board of Directors of the corporation and which the Board may deem proper or convenient in connection with any of the foregoing purposes, or which may be calculated directly or indirectly.

The foregoing statement of purposes shall be construed as a statement of both purposes and powers, and the purposes and powers stated in each clause shall, except where otherwise expressed, be in no way limited or restricted by any reference to or inference from the terms or provisions of any other clause, but shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers.

(c) Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes and powers, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this corporation.

RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE VII to read as follows:

'The number of Directors of this corporation shall be seven (7). The manner in which Directors shall be chosen and removed from office, their qualifications, powers, duties, compensation, and tenure of office, the manner of filling vacancies on the Board, and the manner of calling and holding meetings of Directors, shall be as stated in the Bylaws. Directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE VIII to read as follows:

'The authorized number, if any, and qualifications of members of the corporation, the filling of vacancies, the different classes of membership, if any, the property, voting and other rights and privileges of members, and their liability to dues and assessments and the method of collection, and the termination and transfer of membership shall be as stated in the Bylaws; provided, however, that if the voting, property, or other rights or interests, or any of them, be unequal, the Bylaws shall set forth the rule or rules by which the respective voting, property, or other rights or interests of each member or class of members are fixed and determined. Members of this corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.'

"RESOLVED: That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE IX to read as follows:

(s) This corporation is not organized, nor shall it be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit, and it does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits, or dividends to the members thereof and is organized solely for nonprofit purposes.

(b) The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable purposes and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer, or member thereof or to the benefit of any private persons.

(c) Upon the dissolution or winding up of the corporation, its assets remaining after payment, or provision for payment, of all debts and liabilities of this corporation shall be distributed to a nonprofit fund, foundation or corporation which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes and which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(d) If this corporation holds any assets in trust, or the corporation is formed for charitable purposes, such assets shall be disposed of in such manner as may be directed by decree of the superior court of the county in which the corporation has its principal office, upon petition therefor by the Attorney General or by any person concerned in the liquidation, in a proceeding to which the Attorney General is a party.

"RESOLVED. That the Articles of Incorporation of this corporation be amended to add thereto ARTICLE X to read as follows:

"No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office."

3. The members of said corporation have an unequal voting power. The members entitled to cast eight (8) votes have consented by resolution at a meeting held at Redwood Valley, California, on June 24, 1974, to the adoption of said amendment, and the wording of the amended articles, as set forth in the members' resolution, is the same as that set forth in the Directors' resolution in Paragraph 2 above.

4. The total number of votes of members entitled to be voted for or to consent to said amendment is nine (9).
