1. The first of these is the fact that the majority of the population of the United States is now living in urban areas. This is a result of the process of urbanization, which has been going on since the beginning of the 20th century. The population of the United States has increased from about 100 million in 1900 to over 200 million in 1960. At the same time, the population of rural areas has decreased from about 100 million in 1900 to about 50 million in 1960. This has led to a concentration of the population in urban areas, which has had a number of important consequences. One of the most important is that it has led to a change in the way of life of the majority of the population. In rural areas, the population is more closely tied to the land, and the way of life is more traditional. In urban areas, the population is more mobile, and the way of life is more modern. This has led to a number of changes in the economy, in the culture, and in the politics of the United States. For example, the concentration of the population in urban areas has led to the development of a large service sector, which is now a major part of the economy. It has also led to the development of a more sophisticated culture, and to the emergence of a more active political citizenry. These changes have all had a profound impact on the United States, and they are likely to continue to shape the country for many years to come.

We talked to him about the proceedings.
He asked about the situation with David and how it was going?
David said that the situation of how it takes a long time and he didn't want to go into it.
David said that he didn't think that we had more than a fifty percent chance that we would get away.
He said that he didn't tell you this, but I think I will anyway.
He said that he was a little bit, I like you, said he understood us better, but in Cuba they are having these things;
a. Lack of knowledge in Cuba about B.I.
b. Difficulty about how of our military (not sure)
c. He said that just really, there is two things.
He said that he was going to the subject
He said that they were going to the conclusion that we are a little bit better, but if they did not come out and see how we did, what we were doing?
He said he would do that, but I think he was just waiting for the time to go there.
He said that he was going to do that one thing that would influence is that we are going to the citizens?
He said that he didn't think so, because Cuba holds the right to help any people who are in trouble anywhere.
He said that with strength and later, situation in his voice (David) David said that he was going to split up, or was it one of the conditions that we had to do in a group?
He said that we would be able to do that, that we realized that we were going, that we might have to do this. He mentioned that even if we had a lot of our people would come, that was all that we would like to go to Cuba and do the same thing.
David said he felt this meeting was a good one, he was glad that we had it.
David said that he was going to do that, would he be able to speak to the people.
He said that if he could he would
He said that he would like to have a trip out there and just tour and not be able to speak to the people.
He said that if it would help him out, if he saw slides of Cuba?
David said that he would like to see it, he said that they if he saw the slides, his opinion of David's people would change, he said that he would go to that conclusion by the leaders he had met here in Cuba, and seeing us at the house, seeing us to fifteen people living in our house.

When I was with him we talk to David, he gave a little more open and friendly to our people, in terms of the way, going to be more positive, as a possibility of a kind of in, it was Cuba right to it. David, although he said in a way if, in my opinion the most important thing is the people in Cuba, to the first five or ten and I think that, David, as a person for opinion, I don't think you can really think he is really tough, but he said that as it really is, I think that the best, that we have it long term, he, David, like the

He was speaking to the first secretary when the Korean Ambassador entered to speak to us. He said they have been trying to locate us, they will have many things to do with us. He was told to see us there in that they were searching for our location. The First Secretary later told us they had heard of us in North Korea, there was an article about us. Taron asked if it was good or bad? He said it was good. He said he did not read the article himself, but their information service provided the information. He asked a lot of questions; basically he wanted to know the nationalities of our members, and the names of people who spoke both here and in the United States, again, in this project, he, his wife, blacks, whites, Chinese, etc. Taron asked if we had children, as we have here and in the U.S., Taron asked if we had a TV, said they would like to see him if he comes to the house. He asked for directions to our office in G/200, said he would like to see. Taron asked what they found interesting about us? He said they found our projects, and after talking with us, it will make them more comfortable as to how we can cooperate and work together with them. He said they were interested in all projects people. Taron asked if they found it strange that a group of Americans were in China living so peacefully? He agreed that they did. The Ambassador sent a message to us that he suggested he was not able to come here with us today, but he could see us another day. They gave us quite a bit of information on Korea, and it was written by their Ambassador, Kim Il Sung.

Conclusion: They were very enthusiastic, I understood rather than asking them they could not see us today, they were anxious of seeing us especially. Also asked about the type of work we did, and Kim Il Sung's function on the project. They gave us some details and said that Kim Il Sung was the one with us. As he talked, I took special care without Kim Il Sung.

The first sec. did not say anything of relations with all socialist countries including Russia & China.

We were speaking to the first secretary when the Korean Ambassador entered to speak to us. He said they have been trying to locate us, they will have many things to do with us. He was told to come as there in that they were searching for our location. The First Secretary later told us they had heard of us in North Korea, there was an article about us. Sharon asked if it was good or bad? He said it was good. He said he did not read the article himself, but their information service provided the information. He asked a lot of questions; basically he wanted to know the capabilities of our leaders, and the needs of people who reside both here and in the United States, e.g., leaders' proper care, how many leaders, blacks, whites, Chinese, American leaders? Leaders' children: how many here and in the U.S., asked several times about Lee, said they would like to see him if he comes into town. He asked for directions to our home office in G/area, said he would like to come. Sharon asked what they found interesting about us? He said they liked our family, not in the military projects, and after talking and after the contact with us, it will make them more knowledgeable as to how we can cooperate and work together with them. He said they were interested in all progressive people. Sharon asked if they found it strange that a group of leaders were in Guyana living cooperatively? He agreed that they did. The Ambassador sent a message to us that he suggested he was not able to spend more time with us today, but he would see us another day. They gave us quite a bit of information on Korea, and books written by their leader, Comrade Kim Il Sung.

Conclusion; They seemed very enthusiastic, I noticed rather than asking when they could meet our leader, they were desirous of seeing Lee especially. Also asked about the type of work Lee did, and Kim Yoo Ni's function on the project. They served us soft drinks and saw that Martin was who was with us drunk as such as he liked, took special care without Martin asking.

The first Sec. did mention they have good relations with all socialist countries including Russia & China.

Registration Delay Visit to them 13/2/76 (Charles & Tim)

He called to the head of the party P. J. Pichon "Pichonovich"

He said he would arrange for us to visit the "Liberation" but they've been a little reluctant they've had a delegation from Yugoslavia/ there are just 3 of them here, himself, the other two and a man who takes care of the building

He said that the structure of Yugoslavia is based on self-organization/ it stresses action for self-organization by the workers

Workers are allowed to have their own programs, they can have their own schools/people can set up their own offices / even the G.P.s are allowed to do their own thing and have their own schools

I asked them if they would be willing to take a bunch of foreigners/ he said that they were already planning to go to Yugoslavia to "take a look" because it is a very interesting country/ it's a different kind of society, but I asked if they would take a bunch of people in, he said "why not"/ I said that we were interested in going to Guyana and wanted to help here but I just wanted to know their policy

they have a law for people and didn't want people coming and starting their own businesses and their own schools/ they don't have it as a kind of school or govt.
organization of schools

they have no regulations on religious or first churches

they wanted to be totally independent of the G.P. and their's is they got into self-organization because they felt people would be interested if they could change their own lives, and then it is set up on a self-organization basis

He said he'd like to visit Guyana

We told him about the situation of the mercenaries and the things Stoen is doing.

Quoted him an article on Stoen and Kitearis.

We also told of his involvement with the aerial photography and the agencies involved with the CIA

He said that down

We did most of the talking, basically filled him in on the whole background of Stoen, then quoted him and Anita Blackwell Wright and Colonel Stoen and he said that our stories were very real and that Kitearis was also concerned that the mercenaries would use the V. as a leader for a base to attack us.

At first he tried to tell us there was no real threat from the mercenaries because it was well protected by the USFMA and there was too much resistance to let the two agencies for anyone to move about freely over the borders.

We explained how people in and travel back and forth all the time and it is virtually unknown.

He told us he would have to step up his visit to Cuba under the circumstances.

He said he would call all the officials he had on Stoen and he would stop by our house tonight to pick it up

He said he wanted to express solidarity with us, but that we were late about in Cuba (in other words there were limitations)

We asked him what we were getting at? What did we want or expect from them?

He told him we stated his opinions and appreciated what they had to say because we had looked to Cuba for a long time with the deepest respect, and what did he suggest?

We said we had sent our request to Cuba (ref. to people going to Cuba) but he didn't expect an immediate reply, they would have to analyze and understand the situation.

In other words, I told him I didn't feel people took us seriously and that he felt like the Jews that no one would listen to them.

We said he couldn't make any commitments on his own, but that he would get back to us as quickly as possible.

I felt he took our explanation a little more seriously this time and he really listened for the first time, because things we talked to him about, he said he hadn't heard before although we have told him at different times details on Stoen and the whole agency.

We asked him to contact the USSR about the doctor situation he said we were concerned in view of the threats and attempts.
We took down the information and said he would pass it on, he said that they did have fast communication, but that did not mean that the reply would come so fast.

We asked him about contacting Rev. Garrison for us because of the position we are in.

Mr. Vukobratko said it would be difficult for this as well, they could not do this, he asked to know why he didn't write him an official letter or telegraph, to see him?

We told him of our concern of the article, and that Rev. Garrison had never visited Communist and would be respectful for what his people would have to say about it, and furthermore, it would have been a last thing we talking about ourselves.

We said he was sorry he could not help us out in this matter, but he would get back to us as soon as possible on the other situation.

He said we should be careful, or write us to how to deal with us.

We told him we were ready to talk to us that day.

Nifeyev said not to use the word pragmatic, said it was not a proper word in Russian, it means selfish, it is not a positive word.

He advised us against making any unofficial visits to Japan, said we should have invited him to the cultural center though and that we could invite him to any public function that we had.

He said once before they had tried to go to Jonestown and had contacted the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, at that time Shirley Field-Ridley was standing in for Wills

She had said no, for them to go another time.

at a later date, she had tried to make it look as if they had misunderstood her instructions, as if she had never said no.

mentioned that Wills was a more progressive leftist and now that Wills was put out, didn't know what could happen with Mingo.

G-2-13-1/a

He said that Alex had mentioned that Jim refused to be taped Timofeyev thought the fact about another big group coming to Jonestown, Guyana, should be omitted from the article, troubles could be raised for their immigration.
-H

He read the article to us, what he called the unofficial translation (read translation in Sharon's notes)

Alex had come in by then, Alex mentioned that Cde. Jones was surprised he did not take notes.

Timofeyev said it was his advise that we shouldn't have Jim move about unless it was stated in writing, something written from the Guyana Govt.

He also mentioned that four rep. from the GDR (someone by the name of Yodkin) was at our function at the cultural center

He said he had mentioned to their consular counselor of our interest in boats and helicopters.

He said the rep was also impressed with the talk of Cde. Alexander Alex will be giving a talk and show of some slides to the others in the Embassy.

Timofeyev said he was reading a book called "The Commentary" he said he didn't think there was an english translation, but he thought there may have been a translation in French or German.

I'm not sure which and he would get it for us. He would like for one of our people to read it, he said it mentions us in it, (meaning the Peoples Temple)
