On November 18, 1978, U.S. Congressman LEO RYAN was assassinated at the Jonestown, Guyana, settlement of People's Temple. The same day, over 900 members of People's Temple, including its founder, JIM JONES, participated in a mass murder at Jonestown. It is publicly known that People's Temple, Disciples of Christ, originated in Indiana during the mid-1950s, traveled to California during the mid-1960s, and established an agricultural mission in Guyana during the early and mid-1970s. People's Temple dissolved during January, 1979, as a result of the assassination of a U.S. Congressman and the mass murders of over 900 people at Jonestown, Guyana. (u) b7c In March, 1979, during the course of an investigation conducted by the FBI into the assassination of Congressman Ryan, 15 crates of evidence were received from Jonestown. Included in that evidence were two statements from People's Temple member [REDACTED] who returned to the United States prior to the mass murders at Jonestown and is currently residing in this country. [REDACTED] was born [REDACTED] and was a member of the People's Temple planning commission. (u)

In the first undated handwritten statement, [REDACTED] stated she would like to kill Governor Regan "just as soon as possible". (u)

[REDACTED] advised he knew little of [REDACTED] personal life and had never discussed personal philosophies with her. He did not know of her affiliation with People's Temple until the mass suicide in Jonestown brought JIM JONES and his followers to the forefront of public attention. [REDACTED] impressed [REDACTED] as a deeply devoted individual who seemed to be searching for a cause or philosophy with which to identify. She mentioned occasionally that she had a sister on the East Coast who did work in the area of computer services. (u)
