Results (	of examination: (U)	7

This report supplements and confirms the preliminary report furnished your office on December 12, 1978. (1)

Specimen Q1 consists of four pieces of lead shot which have been determined to be size "F". This size of shot is not commercially loaded into shotshells in either the United States or Great Britain. However, size "F" shot is available in many countries for hand or reloading purposes. 141

Page 4 31219043 8 NM

(ISVO)

Specimen Q2 is a .38 Special or a .357 Magnum bullet jacket which has been fired from a barrel rifled with six grooves, right twist, such as the K5 revolver. However, the barrel of specimen K5 was found to contain a large quantity of foreign material and corrosion which effected the microscopic markings used in identification. Therefore, it was not possible to determine if Q2 had been fired from K5. None of the other recovered weapons could have fired Q2.

Specimen Q3 was identified as having been fired from the K15 rifle. ( $\mathcal{W}$ )

Specimens Q4, Q6 and Q20 are lead cores from jacketed bullets which do not contain any marks of value for identification purposes. Therefore, the origin of Q4, Q6 and Q20 could not be determined. W

Specimens Q5 and Q18 are .30 caliber bullet jackets which were fired from a barrel(s) rifled with four grooves, right twist such as the barrels in the K17 and K20 rifles. However, due to a lack of sufficient matching microscopic marks between Q5, Q18 and test bullets fired from K17 and K20, it was not possible to determine if Q5 or Q18 had been fired from K17 or K20.

Specimen Q7 is a .380 Auto caliber jacketed bullet which was fired from a barrel rifled with six grooves, right twist. Although the barrel of the K11 pistol contains six grooves, right twist, nothing was found to indicate that Q7 had been fired from K11.  $(\mathcal{V})$

Specimens Q8 and Q19 are .30 caliber bullet jackets which were fired from a barrel(s) rifled with six grooves, right twist such as the barrels in the K14 and K15 rifles. However, there are not sufficient microscopic marks of value for identification purposes in either Q8 or Q19. Therefore, it was not possible to determine if they had been fired from K14 or K15. (N)

The Q9 and Q10 bullets were identified as having been fired from the K3 revolver.  $/\mathcal{U}/$

The Qll through Ql5 cartridge cases were identified as having been fired in the same firearm; however, they were not fired in specimen Kll. ()

Specimen Q16 was not fired in any of the recovered .308 Winchester caliber firearms ( )//

Specimen Q17 was identified as having been fired in the K15 rifle.  $\langle \chi |$

Specimen Q21 does not contain sufficient microscopic marks of value for identification purposes. Therefore, it was not possible to determine if Q21 had been fired in K19 or K17. Specimen Q21 was not fired in K16.(v)

Specimen Q22 does not contain sufficient microscopic marks of value for identification purposes. Therefore, it was not possible to determine if Q22 was fired in K17. Specimen Q22 was not fired in K16 or K19. (U)

The Q23 through Q27 cartridge cases were identified as having been fired by the K23 rifle. ( $\nu$ )

Specimens Q28 and Q29 are consistent with 16-gauge shot shell wads but could not be identified further.

Voice Comparison - Enhancement - Duplication

Remarks:

No transcriptions were prepared of the pertinent conversations on specimens Q1289 and Q1290 by the Technical Services Division, as investigative personnel being more familiar with names, dates, voices, and other matters pertinent to the investigation are ordinarily better able to resolve questionable portions of the recording. (A)

Copies of Q1289, Q1290 and the Also submitted items have been submitted to the Technical Evaluation Unit of the FBI Laboratory for such examination as they deem appropriate.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HERRIN IS ENGLASE IF THE TOTAL BY GIVE

Also submitted: [74]

Two copies of five zerox pages of notes. ( W)

Specimens received: July 9, 1979 ( W)

Q1289 One Scotch C-60 magnetic tape cassette marked in part "TAPE 2" on side 1.

Q1290 One Maxell C90 magnetic tape cassette marked in part
"TAPE 3" on side A.

Results of examination: ( )

The unknown voices on the radio transmissions on specimens Q1239 and Q1290 were subjected to spectrographic (voice-print) examination, which revealed that the quality was too poor to allow meaningful comparisons with known voice samples. (N)

Voice identification by the spectrographic method is not considered a positive means of speaker identification and the results of such examinations are furnished for investigative guidance only  $\{u\}$

Three electronically processed copies each were prepared of side 1 of specimen Q1289 and side A of specimen Q1290 to enhance the radio transmissions, with one copy on a magnetic tape cassette and two copies on 5-inch reels of magnetic tape in a full-track configuration at a recording speed of 3 3/4 inches per second. Only a slight improvement in voice intelligibility could be obtained on the processed copies due to the high level distortion in the speech frequency range.

Specimens Q1289 and Q1290, and two processed copies will be forwarded to your office under separate cover via registered mail.  $/\langle N \rangle$

One 5-inch reel processed copy each of Q1289 and Q1290 was personally delivered to the Technical Evaluation Unit of the FBI Laboratory on 10/2/79.

NOTE: FOR APPROXIMATELY THE PAST FOUR MONTHS DEPARTMENTAL ATTORNEY ALFRED HANTMAN HAS BEEN COORDINATING EFFORTS BETWEEN FBI, DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, U. S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE, AND THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA TO ARRANGE APPEARANCE OF KEY WITNESSES AT LARRY LAYTON'S PRELIMINARY HEARING, GEORGETOWN, GUYANA. LAYTON HAS BEEN CHARGED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA WITH ATTEMPTED MURDER FOR HIS PARTICIPATION IN THE SHOOTING INCIDENT AT PORT KAITUMA, GUYANA, 11/18/78. OF THE FIVE KEY WITNESSES REQUESTED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA, ONLY TWO, VERN GOSNEY AND ODELL RHODES, APPEARED AND TESTIFIED AT LAYTON'S PRELIMINARY HEARING DURING THE WEEK OF 10/29/79. DALE PARKS WAS ANOTHER KEY WITNESS, BUT DURING INITIAL CONTACTS WITH HIM BY SAN FRANCISCO AND MR. HANTMAN, PARKS REFUSED TO RETURN TO GUYANA. SUBSEQUENT CONTACTS WITH PARKS BY SA DON HALE HAVE SUCCEEDED IN SECURING PARKS' TENTATIVE COOPERATION TO RETURN TO GUYANA. THE GUYANESE PROSECUTOR AND LAYTON'S DEFENSE ATTORNEY HAVE SET ASIDE 11/12/79, TO TAKE PARKS' TESTIMONY IN THE EVENT HE RETURNS. THE GOVERNMENT OF GUYANA CONSIDERS PARKS' TESTIMONY ESSENTIAL TO THEIR CASE AGAINST LAYTON. PARKS HAS STIPULATED, HOWEVER, THAT HE WILL RETURN TO GUYANA ONLY IF ACCOMPANIED BY SA HALE. SA HALE AND ASSISTANT U. S. ATTORNEY MIKE NEARNEY, SAN FRANCISCO, ACCOMPANIED GOSNEY AND RHODES TO GUYANA WHEN THOSE INDIVIDUALS TESTIFIED AT THE END OF OCTOBERu)

THIS AUTHORIZES SA HALE TO TRAVEL TO GEORGETOWN, GUYANA, WITH DALE PARKS. (A)

THIS MATTER HAS BEEN COORDINATED WITH MR. HANTMAN, DOJ, WHO IN TURN IS HANDLING NECESSARY ARRANGEMENTS WITH U. S. STATE DEPARTMENT. SA HALE HAS BEEN REQUESTED TO CALL FBIHQ AND FOLLOW WITH CONFIRMING TELETYPE IF HE AND PARKS WILL BE TRAVELING TO GEORGETOWN, GUYANA.

NATIONAL COALITION FOR CHILDREN'S JUSTICE (NCCJ) White House Demonstration Candelight Service Washington, D.C. November 18, 1979

A confidential source advised that the National Coalition for Children's Justice, 1214 Evergreen Road, Yardley, Pennsylvania, is organizing a Candlelight Service at the White House, November 18, 1979, in memory of the 276 deceased Peoples Temple children from Jonestown, Guyana, South America. Kenneth Wooden of NCCJ is soliciting Peoples Temple survivors from Jonestown and concerned relatives in the San Francisco Bay Area to attend and participate in the Candlelight Service. NCCJ is also attempting to obtain national figures and Hollywood personalitites to participate and speak.

Source advised that NCCJ originally planned to picket FBI building in Washington, D.C., however, plans were apparently discarded and will limit themselves to White House Candlelight Memorial Service.

Attached is copy of letters being circulated.

THE CLILLDREN OF JONESTOWN & THEIR LOVE ONES

You, dear friend, as a shepherd of the young, are invited to light a candle and carry it in memory of the 276 children of Jonestown whose precious lives were extenguished on November 18, 1978 in Guyera.

As all-night, candlelight vigil will encircle the White House to protest the year-long national silence on their murders and the harbaric (M bulldozed common burial of two hundred and ten unidentified flowers

Memorandum from C. S. Banner to Mr. Stames RE: ARTICLE CAPTIONED "AFTER GUYANA: THE FORGOTTEN CHILDREN," WHICH APPEARED IN THE WASHINGTON POST NEWSPAPER OF NOVEMBER 11, 1979

DETAILS: The enclosed article captioned "After Guyana: The Forgotten Children," appeared on page 5 of "The Washington Post Magazine" section of the Sunday, 11/11/79, issue of The Washington Post newspaper. The article states that, "Nearly a year after the horror of the Jonestown, Guyana, mass suicide-murder, 210 of the 276 children who died there are still unidentified." Mr. Kenneth Wooden, who is described as an author, is quoted as saying, "The FBI told me they didn't have the time or money to identify all of the victims, and it wasn't a priority."

The article further relates that, after months of 'Washington lobbying" to speed up the identification of the young victims, Wooden is planning a midnight candlelight service outside the JEH Building next weekend (11/17-18/79), which is the first anniversary of the incident, and that "(c)elebrities such as Ed Asner, Otto Preminger, and Julian Bond have lent their names to the memorial service." Mr. Wooden is further quoted as saying that it is crucial that the children be identified 'because there are some people in California who share some heavy responsibility for not monitoring those kids" and because the families should be able to give the children a 'decent, human burial." The article states that, "Most were buried by bull-dozer in a mass grave in Guyana."/?!)

After the Jonestown mass suicide-murder took place on 11/18/78, the bodies of all of the victims were flown to Dover Air Force Base, Delaware, where the FBI's Disaster Squad and the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology (AFIP) processed them for identification purposes. Of the 913 bodies involved, 654 were identified -- 594 by fingerprints or footprints and 60 by other means. Disaster Squad records reflect that there appeared to be 170 children under the age of 16 among the victims. Of that total, 58 were infants from whom only footprints were obtained, 105 were juveniles from whom fingerprints or footprints were obtained, and seven bodies were so decomposed that neither fingerprints nor footprints were obtainable from them. Thirteen of the children were identified by the Disaster Squad -- one infant by footprints and 12 juvenile by fingerprints. Additional children were identified by the AFIP using other identification procedures. (%)

On 3/30/79 Mr. Wooden telephoned me and identified himself as being with "NBC News." He asked about the progress in identifying the children

Memorandum from C. S. Banner to Mr. Stames RE: ARTICLE CAPTIONED "AFTER GUYANA: THE FORGOTTEN CHILDREN," WHICH APPEARED IN THE WASHINGTON POST NEWSPAPER OF NOVEMBER 11, 1979

I responded that very few of the children had been identified by fingerprints to date because of the lack of available fingerprint records relating to them, pointing out that the usual sources of fingerprints are criminal, employment, and licensing records. I explained to Mr. Wooden that, consequently, the best sources for identifying children would be from dental records and hospital records where the children were footprinted at birth.

Mr. Wooden stated that insufficient efforts were being made to identify the children and he asked why the FBI was not out contacting dentists and hospitals to obtain the needed records. I replied that it is FBI policy (established by SAC Letter 69-76 dated 12/23/69) to confine its efforts in disaster situations to conducting fingerprint comparisons using available fingerprint records and that it is left up to the authorities requesting the FBI's assistance to obtain dental and other records. I explained that the requesting agency in this case was the State Department and that they had advised me that they were asking surviving relatives to acquire the needed dental and footprint records. I added that the FBI would perform comparisons on any footprints furnished to it. Mr. Wooden asked what the basis was for the FBI's policy. I replied that the basis is budgetary in that the FBI is not funded to expend manpower to search for dental and footprint records, and that considerable manpower effort would be involved if the FBI undertook this responsibility in this instance. I pointed out that, because of budgetary cutbacks in recent years, the FBI had been forced to direct its manpower resources toward its highest investigative priorities,  $\chi$

Mr. Wooden advised that, if the Government would not mount the effort which was needed, he was prepared to do so. He said that another employee of NBC had already obtained a set of footprints. He suggested that he bring them to the Identification Division and personally assist in making the comparisons since he had acquired knowledge of fingerprint matters while previously affiliated with New Jersey law enforcement authorities. I advised him that the FBI would be pleased to conduct comparisons on any fingerprints or footprints submitted by him or others, but that the FBI would not need his assistance in conducting the comparisons.

Subsequently, on 4/6/79, I received a copy of a set of footprints from Ms. Catherine Porter of NBC. It was quickly determined that the submitted footprints did not contain sufficient ridge detail to make an identification and I telephonically advised her of that fact the same day. No further footprints have been received from either Mr. Wooden or persons acting on his behalf, M

After Guyana: The Forgotten Children

early a year after the horror of the Jonestown, Guyana, mass suicidemurder, 210 of the 276 children who died there are still unidentified. Some of the children were wards of the state of California. No one has yet explained why government officials overlooked the fact that the state wards wound up living in the jungles of Guvana while federal payments earmarked for their care fattened the coffers of Jim Jones' cult.

"The FBI told me they didn't have the time or money to identify all the victims, and it wasn't a priority," says Kenneth Wooden. author "And that's in keeping with the way kids are treated around the country. Those with the lack of power are at the bottom of the list."

Wooden. 44-year-old writer who lives in Bucks County, Pa., knows about forgotten children. His 1976 book, Weeping in the Playtime of Others, was a highly acclaimed account of institutionalized violence against voungaters in reform schools and detention centers. In recent years he has worked with CBS' "60 Minutes" on reports of child pornography, child neglect and interstate commerce of children.

Last spring a tip led him to investigate the role children played in Jones' hellish empire. The Chicago Sun-Times published his findings in a seven-part series that detailed in wrenching fashion the financial boon children represented to Jones; the use of children as prostitutes to curry favor with at least one politician: and the value of children in keeping parents under Jones' rule.

Now, after months of Washington lobbying to speed up the identification of the young victims of Jonestown, Wooden is planning a midnight candlelight service outside the J. Edgar Hoover Building next weekend, the first anniversay of the Jonestown deaths. Celebrities such as Ed Asner, Otto Preminger and Julian Bond have lent their names to the memorial service.

"It's crucial for the identification process to be carried out," argues Wooden, "because there are some people in California who share some heavy responsibility for not monitoring those kids-to say nothing of the fact that parents would like the bodies of their children, and grandparents the bodies of their grandchildren, back for a decent, human burial." Most were buried by bulldozer in a mass grave in Guyana.

Before burial, however, government officials did fingerprint, X-ray and photograph the bodies, and Wooden is working through California courts to become legal guardian of the unknown victims in order to gain access to those documents.

Wooden's efforts are a labor of love borne out of his childhood in Burlington, N.J. He was a punk and arsonist who graduated from high school unable to read. Drafted to fight in Korea, Wooden was introduced to classical music and books by fellow soldiers with college educations. He married the woman who tutored him through Glassboro State College. After four years of teaching high school history and a few years of political organizing, he was appointed by former New Jersey governor William Cahill to help study the state's penal system.

"I came full circle," he remembers. "I saw kids locked up and it reminded me of Ken Wooden, a real high school vandal. There but for the grace of God . . ."

And then the rebel knew he had a cause.

UNKNOWN SUBJECT; ASSASSINATION OF CONGRESSMAN LEO J. RYAN PORT KAITUMA, GUYANA NOVEMBER 18, 1978

HES LY 2493 - 9103

CONGRESSIONAL ASSASSINATION STATUTE

On 11/17-18/78 Congressman Leo J. Ryan, certain members of his staff, various news media representatives, and a group of concerned relatives visited Jonestown, Guyana. The purpose of the Congressman's visit was to personally investigate allegations he had received from various sources that some Peoples Temple (PT) members were being held against their will at the PT compound in Jonestown.

After inspecting the PT compound at Jonestown,

Congressman Ryan and his party returned to their two airplanes at the Port Kaituma airstrip to fly back to Georgetown, Guyana.

A member from the PT compound (Larry Layton) had professed to be a defector and secured permission from Ryan to accompany his party back to the U. S. Shortly after arriving at the Port Kaituma airstrip, a tractor pulling a flatbed trailer carrying a number of PT members opened fire on the Ryan Party.
Layton had boarded one of the aircraft and began firing at the persons already on board with a handgun. It appears Layton began firing after hearing the shots fired from the flatbed trailer.

89-4286-2370

----

The following persons were killed by gunfire from individuals on the flatbed trailer: (V)

Congressman Leo J. Ryan

Don Harris, NBC Correspondent

Bob Brown, NBC Cameraman

Greg Robinson, San Francisco Examiner photographer
Patricia Parks, PT "defector"

A few of the people on the plane with Layton when he began firing at them were injured, but none died as a result of their wounds.

FBI involvement in the investigation of the assassination of Congressman Ryan is based upon the Congressional Assassination Statute, Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 351. Immediately after Congressman Ryan was murdered, the Department of Justice (DOJ) was contacted to determine jurisdictional aspects of the FBI and DOJ in this matter. The Department replied that the Congressional Assassination Statute gives the Department extra-territorial jurisdiction to prosecute attacks on Congressman. Such prosecution, of course, must be conducted in the U. S. FBI investigative jurisdiction under this Statute is limited, however, to the U. S., its territories and possessions. The FBI has authority to investigate this matter in the U. S. to determine whether a conspiracy existed to assassinate Congressman Ryan. Investigation to determine if a conspiracy existed is continuing. (M)

Within hours after Congressman Ryan was murdered at Port Kaituma PT leader Jim Jones ordered his followers to drink a poisoned fruit flavored drink. It was later alleged some of the PT members were forced to drink the poisoned liquid at gunpoint.

A subsequent count revealed 913 bodies at the Jonestown compound as a result of suicide or murder. These bodies were flown by U. S. Air Force personnel to the Armed Forces mortuary at Dover, Delaware; autopsies were performed on seven bodies including that of PT leader James Warren Jones. The combined efforts of FBI Identification Division and Dover Air Force Base personnel were successful in identifying 631 bodies of the 913 total (69%).

577 individuals were identified by fingerprints alone.  $\langle \mathcal{U} \rangle$

45 were identified by dental charts alone. ( W)

9 were identified by a combination of fingerprints and dental charts.(  $\mbox{\em V}$

The above identifications were reported by the FBI

Identification Division on 1/3/79. A few other identifications may have been successful as additional fingerprints, dental charts,

X-rays, etc., were located. (V)

Of the unidentified bodies most were infants and children for whom there were no identifying documents available.

The Government of Guyana has charged Larry Layton with five counts of murder, three counts of attempted murder, and two counts of gun violation. A preliminary hearing began in that country during the week of 10/29/79. If the presiding magistrate determines there is sufficient probable cause, he will authorize an indictment to be issued charging Layton with those offenses.

The U. S. Department of State (USDS), DOJ, and FBI coordinated efforts to assist the Guyanese by helping two key witnesses, Vernon Gosney and Odell Rhodes, return to Guyana to testify. The preliminary hearing in Guyana has been continued and the results will be reported when it concludes.

As of 9/22/79, the latest date for which information is available, \$546,263 have been expended during this investigation for salaries and related expenses.  $\langle W \rangle$

The main file for this investigation in the San Francisco FBI Office consists of 50 volumes.

A subfile consisting of 20 volumes holds interviews of survivors, witnesses, and other pertinent investigations recorded on form FD-302  $\backslash$   $\backslash$

The San Francisco Office has 700 lA envelopes containing pertinent documentary evidence.

There are also 100 subvolumes containing information about certain individuals identified as key witnesses or suspects.

Approximately 2,000 pounds of bulky evidentiary material consisting of 22 foot lockers of tape recordings, documents, and other items is maintained in the San Francisco FBI Office  $\forall |$

San Francisco is also maintaining 14 crates of video tape material received from various sources.  $\{ M \}$

Immediately following the Jonestown incident, 30 Special Agents in the San Francisco FBI Office were assigned full-time to this investigation. During its early stages as many as 80 Agents were assigned to this investigation at any one time across the country,  $|\downarrow\rangle$

Eighty Jonestown survivors were interviewed by the FBI upon their return to the U. S.( $\N$ )

A total of approximately 2,000 individuals have been interviewed during this investigation. These individuals are broadly described as PT members, survivors, former members, certain of their associates, and other individuals who may have had pertinent information  $_{\tau |\mathcal{N}|}$

THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION SHOULD NOT BE PUBLICLY RELEASED ( (4)

During March, 1979, a Federal Grand Jury in San Francisco began hearing testimony to determine if a conspiracy existed in the U. S. to assassinate Congressman

Ryan in Guyana. individuals testified before that Grand Jury. On 3/14/79, a sealed indictment was returned by the Grand Jury charging Larry Layton and 14 un indicted deceased co-conspirators with conspiracy to murder

Congressman Ryan, a violation of Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 351 (d). Layton was also charged in a separate count with aiding and abetting, a violation of Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 351 (a).  $(\mathcal{N})$

The DOJ is closely following Layton's possible prosecution in Guyana. Depending upon the results of prosecutive action in that country, decisions will be made as to prosecution of Layton in the U.S. on the charges set forth above.

Jones: ... I have loved you ... how very much I have tried my best to give you the good life ... in spite of all that I've tried, a handful of our people, with their lies, have made our life impossible. There's no way to detach ourselves from what's happened today. Not only - We're in a compound situation, not only are there those who have left and committed the betrayal of the century, some have stolen children from others and then seek right now to kill them because they stole their children, and we are sitting here waiting on a powder keg. I don't think it is what we want to do with our babies. I don't think that's what we had in mind to do with our babies. It was said by the greatest of prophets, from time immemorial, "No man takes my life from me, I lay my life down." (Crowd: yeah!!) So, to sit here and wait for the catastrophe that's going to happen on that airplane (it's gonna be a catastrophe) ... Almost happened here, almost happened, the congressman was nearly killed here... But you can't steal people's children. You can't take off with people's children without expecting a violent reaction. And, that's not so unfamiliar to us, either, even if we were

Judeo-Christian, even if we weren't Communists. The worldly kingdom suffers violence and the violence is triggered by force, If we can't live in peace then we must die in peace. (Applause) We've been so betrayed, we have been so terribly betrayed, but we've tried, and as Jack Beam often said (and I don't know where he's at right this moment, poor Jack), he says if it's only worked one day, it was worthwhile ... (crowd cheers) ... Of what's going to happen here in a matter of a few minutes, is that one of the few on that plane is gonna shoot the pilot. I know that. I didn't plan it, but I know it's gonna happen. They're gonna shoot that pilot, and down comes that plane into the jungle and we had better not have any of our children left when it's over, 'cause they'll parachute in here on us. I'm telling you just as plain as I know how to tell you, I've never lied to you... I never have lied to you. I know that's what's gonna happen, that's what he intends to do and he will do it. He'll do it. What's there being so bewildered with many, many pressures on my brain, seeing all these people behave so treasonous, it is just too much for me to put together, but, I now know what he was telling me and it'll happen. plane gets in the air even. So my opinion is that we be kind to children and be kind to seniors and take the potion like they used to take in ancient Greece, and step over quietly because we are not committing suicide. It's a revolutionary act. We can't go back. They won't leave us alone. They're now going back to tell more lies which means more congressmen. And there's no way, no way we can survive. Anybody ... Anyone that has any dissenting opinion, please speak ... Yes ... You can have opportunity, but if their children are left we're gonna have them butchered. We can make a strike but we'll be striking against people that we don't want to strike against. And what we'd like to get is the people who caused this stuff and some, there's some people here are prepared to know how to do that, ... go in town and get Timothy Stoen, but there's no plane, there's no plane, you can't catch a plane in time. He's responsible for it. He brought these people to us. He and Deanna Myrtle. But people in San Francisco will not, not be idle over this. And not take our death in vain, you know ... Yes, Christine ...

Christine: Is it too late for Russia?

Jones: Kere's why it's too late for Russia. They killed.

They started to kill. That's why it makes it too late for Russia. Otherwise I'd said, "Russia, you bet your life." But it's too late. I can't control these people. They're out there. They've jone with the guns and it's too late. And once we kill anybody, at least ... that's the way I've always ... I've always put my lot with you. And when one of my people do something, it's me. ...

Understand, I don't have to take the blame for this,

but I don't live that way. They said deliver up

Jjara, who tried to get the man back here.

J'ara, who's mother's been lying on him and lying on him and trying to break up this family and they've all agreed to kill us by any means necessary ...

You think I'm going to deliver them Jjara?

Not on your life. No. (Crowd: No! No!)

Unman: Is there any way if I go, that it'll help?

Jones: No, you're not going. You're not going.

(Crowd: No! No!)

Jones: Not going. I can't live that way. I cannot live that way. I've lived for all and I've died for all. ... (applause) ... I've been living on a hope for a long time, Christine, and I appreciate ... You've always been a-very good agitator. I like agitation because you have to see two sides of one issue, two sides of the question. What's those people gonna get done once they get through? They make our life worse than hell, they'll make the Russians not accept us. When they get through lying ... They told so many lies between there and that truck that we are, we are done in as far as any other alternative.

Christine: Well, I say let's make an airlift to Russia, that's what I say. I don't think nothing is impossible, if you believe it.

Jones: But how we gonna air ... How're you going to airlift to Russia?

Christine: Why, I thought they said if we got in an emergency, they gave you a code to let them know.

Jones: No, they didn't. They gave us the code that they'd let us know of an issue, not us create an issue for them. They said if we ... if they saw the country coming down, they'd agreed they'd give us the code, they'd give us a code. You can check on there and see if it's on the code. Check with Russia to see if they'll take us in immediately. Otherwise we die.

I don't know what else you say to these people.

But to me death is not ... death is not a fearful thing, it's living that's treacherous. ... (applause)
I have never, never, never, never seen anything like this before in my life. I've never seen people take the law ... and do ... in their own hands, and provoke us and try to purposely agitate and murder of children. There's no use, Christine, it's just not worth living like this ... not worth living like this.

Christine: I think that there were too few who left for twelve hundred people to give them their lives, for those people that left.

Jones: Do you know how many left?

Christine: Oooh, twenty odd ... that's, that's small ...

Jones: ... twenty-odd, twenty-odd ...

Christine: Compared to what's here.

Jones: ... twenty-odd. But what's gonna happen when they don't leave. I hope that they could leave ... but what's gonna happen when they don't leave?

Christine: You mean the people here?

Jones: Yeah, what's gonna happen to us when they don't leave? When they get on the plane and the plane ## goes down?

Christine: I don't think it'll go down.

Jones: You don't think it'll go down? (Crowd: Yes it will ...) I wish I could tell you you were right, but I'm right. There's one man there, who blames, and rightfully so, Eddie Blakey, for the murder, for the murder of his mother and he'll sh... he'll stop that pilot by any means necessary. He'll do it. That plane will come out of the air. There's no way you can fly a plane without a pilot.

Christine: I wasn't speaking about that plane. I was speaking about the plane for us to go to Russia.

Jones: How do ... To Russia? Do you think Russia's gonna want .. no they're not gonna ... Do you think Russia's gonna want us with all this stigma?

We had really had some value ... but now we don't have any value.

Christine: Well, I don't see it like that. I mean, I feel like as long as there's life, there's hope. That's my faith.

Jones: Well, someday we're gonna die, someplace that hope runs out. 'cause everybody dies. (Crowd: right, right) ... I haven't seen anybody yet that didn't die. And I'd like to choose my own kind of death for a change. I'm tired of being tormented to hell, that's what I'm tired of. (Crowd: right, right) .. Tired of it. (applause) Tired of people's lives in my hands and I certainly don't want your life in my hands and I'm going to tell you, Christine, without me, life has no meaning. ... I'm the best friend you'll ever have. And once, once I have to pay, I'm standing with Jjara, I'm standing with those people. They're part of me. I could detach myself ... my attorney says detach myself ... no, no, no, no, no ... I'd never detach myself from any of your troubles. I've always taken your troubles right on my shoulders and I'm not gonna change that It's too late. I've been running too long. Not gonna change now. ... Maybe the next time you'll get to go to Russia ... the next time 'round ... This is, what I'm talking about to now is in the dispensation of judgment. This is the revolutionary ... this is revolutionary suicide council, I'm not talking about self, self-destruction. I'm talking about what, we have no other road. I will take your call. We will put it to the Russians, and I can tell you the answer now, because I'm a prophet. Call the Russians and tell them and see if they'll take us.

Christine: Not that I'm afraid to die ...

Jones: I don't think you are ...

Christine: by no means ...

Jones: I don't think you are ...

Christine: But I look at all the babies and I think they deserve to live ...

Jones: I agree ...

Christine: you know ...

Jones: But also they deserve ... what's more they deserve peace.

Christine: We all came here for peace ...

Jones: And we, have we had it?

Christine and crowd: No ...

Jones:

I tried to give it to you. I've laid down my life, practically, I've practically died every day to give you peace ... and you still not have any peace. You look better than I've seen you in a long while, but it's still not the kind of peace that I want to give you. The person's a fool who continues to say that you're a winner when you're a loser .. Win one, lose two.... What? I didn't hear you, ma'am, you have to speak up ... That's a sweet thought, who said that? ... come on up and speak it again, honey. Stand up and say it about (inaudible) ... love ... (inaudible) is taking off, no plane is taking off ... It's suicide. They have done it ... Stoen has done it ... but somebody ought to live ... somebody ... can they talk ... can they not talk to San Francisco to see that Stoen does not get by with this infamy? ... with this infamy ... he has done the thing he wanted to do ... to have us destroyed.

Christine: When you, when you, when we destroy ourselves

we're defeated ... you are saying, "Let the enemy defeat us."

Jones: Did you see, die you see "I Live to Fight No More Forever"?

Christine: Yes, I saw that.

Jones: Did you not have some sense of pride and victory in that man, that he would not subject himself to the will and whim of people who tell that they are gonna come in whenever they please, push into our house, come when they please, take who they want to, talk to who they want to ... does this let living ... that's not living to me. That's not freedom. That's not the kind of freedom I sought.

Christine: But I think where they made their mistake is when they stopped to rest. If they had gone on, they would have made it. But they stopped to rest ...

Unman: It's over, sister, it's over ... we've made that day ... we made a beautiful day and let's make it a beautiful day ... that's what I say.

Jones: We win, we win when we go down. Tim Stoen has nobody else to hate... He has nobody else to hate. Then he'll destroy himself. I'm speaking here not as the administrator, I'm speaking as a prophet today ... I wouldn't sit up in this seat and talk so serious if I did not know what I was talking about. Is there any way to call back ... the immense amount of damage that's going to be done? But I cannot separate myself from the pain of my people. And you can't either, Christine, if you stop to think of it. You can't separate yourself. We've walked too long together.

Christine: I know that. But I still think, as an individual,
I have a right to ...

Jones: You do, I'm listening ...

Christine: I think, what I feel, and I think we all have the right to our own destiny as individuals.

Jones: Right ...

Christine: And I think I have the right to choose mine and everybody else has the right to choose theirs.

Jones: Mm-hmm ...

Christine: You know ..."

Jones: Mm-hmmm. I'm not criticizing, I'm not governing ...
What's that?

Unwoman (in background): She talks like she wants to leave us, well, she can go ahead ... they're our individual lives, that's what you're saying.

Christine: That's right.

Jones: That's today, that's what twenty people said today ... with their lives.

Christine: I think that I still have the right to my own opinion.

Jones: I'm not taking it from you. I'm not taking it from you.

Unman: Christine, you're only standing here because he was here in the first place. So I don't know what you're talking about having an individual life. Your life has been extended to the day that you're standing there because of him.

Jones: Despite this, she has as much right to speak as anybody else, too. What did you say, Louvie (ph.)? Well, you will regret that this very day if you don't die. You'll regret it if you don't ... that you don't die. You'll regret it.

Christine: (few words inaudible) ... A man who saved so many people?

Jones: I saved them, I saved them but I made my example.

I made my confession. I made my manifestation and the world was ready ... not ready for me.

Paul said, "I was a man born out of due season." I've been born out of due season just like all we are and the best testimony we can make is to leave this God-damn world. ... (cheers from crowd)

Unwoman: She must be scared to die.

Christine: I'm not talking to her. Will you let her or let me talk?

Jones: You talk.

Christine: Would you make her sit down and let me talk while

I'm on the floor or let her talk?

Jones: .. proper to tell your leader what to do. It really isn't. I've listened to you. You asked me about Russia. I'm right now making a call to Russia. What more do you suggest? I'm listening to you. If Russia gives me one slight bit of encouragement, I just now instructed her to go there and do that.

Unwoman: You won't do no fuckin' good in Russia, God-damn it ... (pause).

Unman: All right, now everybody hold it, we didn't come ... hold it, hold it, hold it ...

Jones: ... much longer to maintain. (Crowd: That's right)

Jones: To lay down your burdens, I'm gonna lay down my burdens, down by the riverside, should we lay them down here ... inside of Guyana. What's the difference? No man didn't take our lives, right now, he hadn't taken it, but when they start parachuting out of the air, they'll shoot some of our innocent babies. I'm not ... I don't want to see this, Christine. They gotta shoot me to get through to some of these people. I'm not letting it take Jjara. Can you let them take Jjara? (Crowd: No-no!)

Christine: You wanna see John die?

Jones: What's that?

Christine: You mean you wanna see John, the little one, who's keep ...

[N]

Jones: I want to keep ... (crowd - loud background noises, inaudible) ... peace, peace, peace, peace, peace, peace, peace,

Unwoman: Christine, are you saying that you think he thinks more of them than other children here?

Jones: John, John ...

Unwoman: That's what you're saying ...

Jones: Do you actually, do you think I would put John's life above others? If I put John's life above others I wouldn't be standing with Jjara. I'd send John out, he could go out on the driveway tonight.

Christine: ... he's young ... they're young.

Jones: I know, but he's no different to me than any of these children here. He's just one of my children.

I don't prefer one above another. I don't prefer him above Jjara. I can't do that. I can't separate myself from your actions or his actions.

Unwoman: No way.

Jones: If you'd done something wrong, I'd stand with you.

If they wanted to come and get you they'd have to take me.

Unman: Well, we're all ready to go. If you tell us we have to give our lives now, we're ready. I'm pretty sure all the rest of sisters and brothers are with me.

Jones: For months I've tried to keep this thing from happening but I now see it's the will ... it's the will of Sovereign Being that this happened to us. That we lay down our lives in protest against what's been done. That we lay down our lives to protest in what's being done. The criminality of people, the cruelty of people. Who walked out of here today?

Did you notice who walked out? Mostly white people, mostly white people walked. I'm so grateful for the ones that didn't, those who knew who they are.

There's, there's no point, there's no point to this. We are born before our time. They won't accept us. And I don't think we should sit here and take any more time for our children to be endangered, for if they come after our children and we give them our children, then our children will suffer forever.

Christine: ... different right here.

Jones: I have no quarrel with you coming up, I like you.

I personally like you very much.

Christine: People get hostile when you try to ...

Jones: Oh well, some people do. But then .. some people do. Put it that way. I'm not hostile. You had to be honest and you stayed. If you'd have wanted to run, you'd have had to run with them because anybody coulda run today, they would have wanted to. I know you're not a runner and your life is precious to me. It's as precious as John's. And I don't ... what I do, I do with weight and justice and judgment. I've weighed it against all evidence.

Christine: And that's all I've got to say.

Jones: And what comes, folks, what comes now?

Unman (in background): Everybody ... hold it! Sit down right here ... (loud background noises, agitated)... Stay seated ...

Jones (incoherent sounds): Say, peace, say p

Unwoman: Everybody be quiet, please.

Unman: ... show you got some respect for our lives.

Unman: Let me sit down, sit down, sit down.

Jones: I know ... Mmmm-mmmm. I tried so very, very hard. I've been trying over here to see what can, what can happen (inaudible) who is it ...
(unintelligible voices) ... Get Dwyer out of here before something happens to him ... (pause) ... Dwyer.

Umman: Jjara?

Jones: I'm not talking about Jjara, I said Dwyer. Ain't nobody gonna take Jjara, I'm not letting 'em take Jjara ... (pause) ... Gather in, folks, it's easy, its easy. Yes, my love ... (pause) ...

Unwoman: At one time I felt just like Christine felt. But after today I don't feel anything because the biggest majority of the people that left here were white and I know it really hurt my heart because ...

Jones: Broke your heart, didn't it?

Unwoman: It broke my heart to think that all of these years that the white people have been with us and they're not a part of us. So we might as well end it now because I don't see ...

Unman: Quit talking the Congressman has been murdered ... (pause, Singing and music) ...

Unknown voice in background: It's all over ...

Jones: It's all over, all over ... what a legacy, what a legacy. But the Red Brigade's the only one that's ever made any sense anyway. They invaded our privacy, they came into our home, they followed us 6,000 miles away. The Red Brigade showed them justice, the Congressman's dead ... please get us some medication. It's simple, it's simple, there's no convulsions with it, it's just simple, just please get it before it's too late. The GDF will be here. I tell you get moving, get moving, get moving ... (unintelligible words) ... (voice in background: No, no, no, no, no...)

Jones: Don't be afraid to die ... (unintelligible words) ...

if these people land out here, they'll torture some of our children here. They'll torture our people, they'll torture our seniors. We cannot have this. (crowd: right, right) ... are you gonna separate yourself from whoever shot the Congressman? I don't know who shot him ... (crowd: no, no, hell no.)

Jones: Speak your piece and those had a right to go and they had a right to ... how many are dead? Oh, God almighty, God almighty ... Mmmm? ...

Unman: Patty Parks is dead.

Jones: Patty Parks is dead?

Unwoman: ... you and the others to endure long enough in a safe place, to write about the goodness of Jim Jones ...

Jones: I don't know how in the world they're ever gonna write about us. It's just too late, it's too late. The congress is dead, the congress lays dead, many of our traitors are dead, they're all laying out there dead. Mmmm? ... (crowd: good, good) ... I didn't but, but my people did. My people did. They're my people ... (crowd: right, right) ... and they've been provoked too much ... (crowd: right, right) ... They've been provoked too much. What's happened here's been too ... it's been an act of provocation ...

Unwoman: They did it themselves ... they did it ...

Christine: If it's anyways possible to have them to give Ted something to take him, I'm satisfied. O.K.?

Jones: What's that?

Christine: I said, if it's any way you can do, if you can have them to give Ted something so that he won't have to let him go, too, O.K.? And I'm satisfied.

Jones: Yes, that's fine ... Ted, yes, yes, yes ...

Christine: 'cause I said I never wanted to him to die ... and I appreciate you for everything.

Jones: (unintelligible)

Unwoman: You are, you are the only, you're the only and I appreciate ... (clapping in background) ...

Jones: Please, please. Can we hasten, can we hasten with that medication. You don't know what you've done ... (pause) ... I've tried. (clapping in background) ... (unintelligible words) ... They saw it happen and ran in the bush and dropped the machine guns, I never in my life ... But there'll be more ...
(music and humming in background). You've got to move.
Are you gonna get that medication here? You've got to move ...

Unwoman: Hurry up!

Jones: Marsha, we got 40 minutes.

Unwoman: You have to move and the people that are standing there in the aisle go stand the (unintelligible words), so everybody get behind the table and back this way, O.K.? There's nothing to worry about, so everybody keep calm and try and keep your children calm. And the oldest children can help love the little children and reassure them.

They're not crying from pain. It's just a little bitter tasting but, they're not crying out of any pain. Annie McGowan, can I please see you back ...

Unman:

let me tell you about it; it might make a lot of you feel a little more comfortable. Sit down and be quiet, please. One of the things that I used to do, I used to be a therapist. And the kind of therapy that I did had to do with reincarnation and past life situations. And every time anybody had the experience of going into a past life, I was fortunate enough to farthe to be able to let them experience it all the way through their death. so to speak. And everybody was so happy when they made that step to the other side. When you accept it ... you can do but step that way, it's the only way to step. (sound of babies crying in the background ... music). Be assured in that choice is not ours now. It's out of our hands.

Jones:

Unman: Would you have a body that's been crippled, suddenly you have the kind of body that you want to have (babies crying in the background and voice in the background saying: calm the children ... something to give them a little rest, a little rest. Calm the children ...)

Unman: It feels good, it never felt so good, family,

I tell yuh ... you've never felt so good as how that feels ... (babies screaming) ...

Jones: And I do hope that those attorneys will stay where they belong and don't come up here ... why they did?

Unman: What happened?

Jones: What is it? ... Did what? ... Hard.

It's hard, it's hard. ... only first, only at first is it hard. It's hard only at first. Living, you, you're looking at death. It only looks ... living is much, much more difficult. Raising up every morning, and not knowing what's going to be the night's bringing. It's much more difficult. It's much more difficult.

Unwoman: I just want to say something to everyone that I see that is standing around and are crying. This is nothing to cry about. This is something we should all rejoice about. We can be happy about this. They always told us that we should cry when you're coming into this world, but when we're leaving and we're leaving it peaceful ... I tell you, you should be happy about this. I was just thinking about Jim Jones. He just has suffered and suffered and suffered. He is the only god and he don't even have a chance to enjoy his death here. (clapping and voices in background) ... I wanted to say one more thing. This is one thing I want to say. you that've gone and there's many more here. He's still -- the way, that's not all of us, that's not all yet. There's just a few that have died. A chance to get ... to the one that they could tell ... their lies to. So and I say I'm looking at so many people crying, I wish you would not cry, and just thank Father, just thank him. I tell you about ... (clapping and shouting) ... I've been here, uh, one year and nine months and I never felt better in my life. Not in San Francisco, but until I came I enjoy this life. I had a beautiful to Jonestown. I don't see nothing that I should be crying about. We should be happy. At least I am. Let's all be the same ... (shouting, clapping and music in background)

-23-

Unwoman: ... Wouldn't be alive today. I'd just like to thank Dad 'cause he was the only one that stood up for me when I needed him and thank you, Dad.

Unwoman: (unintelligible words) and I'm glad you're my brothers and sisters and I'm glad to be here ...

O.K.

Please ... for God's sake, let's get on with that Jones: we've lived ... we've lived as no other people have lived and loved. We've had as much of this world that you're gonna get. Let's just be done with it. Let's be done with the agony of it ... (clapping and shouting in the background). It's far, far harder to have to watch you every day die slowly and from the time you were a child to the time you get gray you're dying. ... dishonest and I'm sure that they'll pay for it, they'll pay for This is a revolutionary suicide. This is not a self-destructive suicide. So they'll pay for this. They brought this upon us and they'll pay for that. I leave that destiny to them (children crying in background) ... who wants to go with their think it's humane. I wanna go ... I want to see you go, though. They can take me and do with me whatever they want to do. I wanta see you go.

I don't wanna see you go through this hell no more.

No more, no more, no more. (babies crying in background) ... We're trying. If everybody will relax. The best thing you do to relax and you will have no problems. You'll have no problems with this thing if you just relax.

Unknown man: ... the children here ... a great deal because of Jim Jones. And, the way the children are, laying dead now, I'd rather see them lay like that than to see them have to die like the Jews did, which was pitiful anyhow. And I'd just like to thank Dad for giving us life and also death, and I appreciate the fact the way our children are going because, like Dad said, when they came in, what they're going to do to our children, they're going to massacre our children. And also the ones they take, captive, they're gonna just let them grow up and be dummies like they want them to be and not grow up to be Socialist like the one and only Jim Jones. So I'd like to thank Dad for the opportunity for letting Jonestown be, not what it could be, but what Jonestown is. Thank you, Dad. (clapping).

Jones:

It's not to be feared. It is not to be feared. It's a friend, it's a friend. You're sitting there. Show your love for one another ... (unintelligible words) ... let's get calm, let's get calm, let's get calm. (babies screaming in background) ... to us ... we had nothing we could do, we can't, we can't separate ourselves from our own people. (pause, children crying in background) ... For twenty years laying in some old rotten nursing home ... (pause) ... taken us through all these anguished years. They took us and put us in chains and that's nothing. ... (stuttering) ... there's no comparison to that, to this. They've robbed us of our land, and they've taken us and driven us until we tried to find ourselves ... we tried to find a new beginning, but it's too late. You can't separate yourself from your brother and your sister. No way I'm gonna do it. I refuse. don't know who fired the shot, I don't know who killed the Congressman. But as far as I'm concerned, I killed him. You understand what I'm saying? I killed him. He had no business coming.

I told him not to come. ... (long pause) ... die with respect, die with a degree of dignity. Lay down your life with dignity. Don't lay down with tears and agony. It's nothing to death, just like Max said. It's just stepping over into another plane. Don't, don't be this way. Stop this hysterics ..
This is not the way for people who are socialistic Communists to die ... no way for us to die. We must die with some dignity ...

Unman: That's right. ... (pause) ...

Jones: ... soon we'll have no choice. Now we have some choice. You think they're gonna send, allow this to be done and allow us to get by with this ... you must be insane ... But children, it's just something to put you to rest ... Oh, God ... (babies crying in background) ... mother, mother, mother, mother, mother, mother, please, mother, please, please, don't, don't do this, don't do this ... lay down your life with your child, but don't do this ...

Unwoman: ... doing all of this for you ...

Jones: Free at last (clapping) ... please, keep your emotions down, keep your emotions down ... children, it will not hurt if you will be, if you'll be guiet, if you'll be quiet (children crying in background, humming, music) ... pause ... it's never been done before you say? It's been done by every tribe in history, every tribe facing annihilation. All the Indians in the Amazon are doing it now. They refuse to bring any babies into the world. They kill every child that comes into the world, because they don't want to live in this kind of a world. So be patient, be patient ... death is ... I tell you I don't care how many screams you hear, I don't care how many anguished cries ... death is a million times preferable to ten more days of this life. If you knew what was ahead of you, if you knew what was ahead of you, you'd be glad to be stepping over tonight. Death, death, death is common to people ... and the Eskimos, they take death in their stride. Let's, let's be dignified. If you'll quit telling them they're dying, if you adults will stop some of this nonsense ... Adults, adults, adults, I call on you to stop this nonsense. I call on you to quit exciting your children when all they're doing is going to a quiet rest. I call on you to stop this now. If you have any respect at all ... Are we black, proud and Socialist, or what are we? Now stop this nonsense, don't carry this on any more, you're exciting your children. (Crowd: right, right.) ... All over and it's good. No, no sorrow that it's all over. I'm glad it's over ... Hurry, hurry my children, hurry. All I say, let's not fall in the hands of the enemy. Hurry, my children. Hurry ... there are seniors out here that I'm concerned about. Hurry, I don't want to leave my seniors to this mess. Quickly, quickly, quickly, quickly, quickly ... sisters, good knowing you ... no more pain now ... no more pain I said, Al, no more pain. Jim Cobb is laying on the airfield dead at this moment ... (cheers, shouting and clapping) ... remember though this Oliver woman said she, she'd come over and kill me if her son wouldn't have stopped her. These, these are people that are peddlers of hate. All we're doing is laying down our life. We're not letting them take our life. We're laying down our lives ... (background voices) ... not taking their lives. We just want peace.

Unman:

All I'd like to say is that my so-called parents are filled with so much hate.

(Background voice saying, "O.K., stop this stop this, stop this, children, stop this crying, all of you.") ... in countries.

I think you people out here should think about how your relatives was and be glad about, that the children are being to rest and all I can say is that I thank Dad for making me strong to stand with it all and make me ready for it.

Thank you. ... ...

All that's, let me - All they're doing is taking a drink, that takes, to go to sleep ... That's what death is, sleep ... I know, but I'm tired of it all.

Unwoman:

Jones:

... loving thing we could have ever done, the most loving thing all of us could have done and it's been a pleasure walking with all of you in this revolutionary struggle. No other way I would rather go than to give my life for Socialism, Communism and I thank Dad very, very much.

Unwoman:

That, that Dad's love and mercy, goodness and kindness and bring us to this land of freedom, his love, his mother was the advanced, the advanced guide to Socialism and his love, his mercy will go on forever, unto the ... (unintelligible word) ...

Jones: (unintelligible words) ... Where's the vat, the vat, the vat? Where's the vat with the green C thing? CN.

Unwoman: Love is to go on (unintelligible words) ... and thank you, Dad.

Jones: The vat, with the green CN please. Bring it here so the adults can begin ... beg you, don't, don't, fail to follow my advice, you'll be sorry ... you'll be sorry ... (unintelligible word) ... that we'll do it than that they do it ... (voices in the background saying, that's right, that's right) ... Must trust, you have to step across ... We used to sing: "this world, this world's not our home." Well, it sure isn't. ... We were saying, it sure wasn't ... Really doesn't want, you're telling me. All he's doing is what we'll tell him. Assure these ... Can some people assure these children of the relaxation of stepping over to the next plane? That'd set an example for others. You set 1,000 people who say,

"We don't like the way the world is ..." (Crowd:
That's right, that's right) ... (unintelligible words) ... take our life from us, we laid it down, we got tired. We didn't commit suicide. We conmitted an act of revolutionary suicide protesting the conditions of an inhumane world." ... (end of Jones talk, music playing, and then silence).

PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MEMBERS (PIM) -CONTACTS WITH THE CUBAN EMBASSY IN GUYANA

A cursory review of the People's Temple Members File revealed that the Russian Embassy, as well as the Cuban Embassy, apparently did not want to establish solid contacts with the People's Temple members. (U)

The following paragraphs, extracted from different communications, lead to conclude the above:

From a letter addressed to "Dear Charles (Charles Garry, PTM Attorney), " the following was extracted: (U)

> "One time when Jim (Jim Jones) was projecting what would happen should his health fail, that all his people might go to Russia. Russia was not sure she could help in that situation. The thought was communicated to Moscow that PT (People's Temple) might help any way we could--and the response was, 'Why don't you give your help to the United Nations?', and that disturbed a lot of our people. But Russia is still very friendly and helpful, but > Russia said she could not help--but Cuba was willing to talk further with us. Some could not understand why Russia, being so powerful, could not help, when Cuba, despite her own hardship and precarious position, was willing to be of help." (U)

The above was not dated or signed; however, it read, "Jim sends his dear friend his love." (U)

Excerpts of a letter by Sharon Amos, entitled, "Visit of Alfriedo Ferreira, 14/8/78 (Tony W., Sharon A.), Administrator of the Cuban Embassy," are as follows: (U)

"I told him when he came about the idea of sending in a medical team and equipment from Cuba and he said he doubted if that would be possible. He first thought I had asked because they were going to refuse to have J.J. (Jim Jones) go to Cuba and he said that they had not refused for J.J. to go tho they didn't yet have the answer about it. (U)

"He didn't think it would be possible, but he would ask. (U)

"He said that the team in Guyana was perfectly capable of giving J.J. full medical tests and could have all the equipment necessary at Georgetown Hospital." (U)

Another paragraph from the same letter reads as follows:

PEOPLE'S TEMPLE MEMBERS (PTM) -CONTACTS WITH THE CUBAN EMBASSY IN GUYANA

"Regarding even some of the Cuban doctors here going to Jonestown, he said he didn't think that could be done/they strictly work for the COvt. and are on contract and wouldn't have the equipment to take out there." (U)

In the same letter, different paragraphs read as follows:

"Alfriedo of the Cuban Embassy came by our home and we talked to him about J's, health and Cuban doctors coming into Jonestown at our expense. (U)

"He said no way because their Govt. sends them to a certain area and they have to stay here. (U)

"We asked if we could get them from Cuba and he said he would check, but he doubted it. (U)

"Wants J.J. to come to town because the GT (Georgetown) Hospital has everything that the drs. need to test J.J. (U)

"Sharon asked if J.J. could be treated at another hosp. like Ershads because GT Hosp. has a problem of unsterility. (U)

"He understood this and said that would be fine, but they will only put the dr. there and we'd have to make the arrangements with the hosp." (U)

Excerpts of a letter by Sharon Amos, entitled, "Cuban Embassy: /8/78 (Sharon and Tony)," are as follows: (U)

"I asked if any of the Cuban doctors could come up to Jonestown and he (Alfriedo) said that a new batch had come in two weeks ago and they were just accomodating themselves to Guyana and being trained so they can't/I asked what about the old doctors/the old Cuban doctors, and he said no they couldn't come because if J.J. comes to town, he'd see which one of them could handle the situation medically." (U)

Excerpts of a letter, dated May 15, 1978, by Deborah Touchette and Terri Jones, entitled, "Daniel Sallis, Cuban Embassy; With Terri Jones, Tim Carter, and Deborah Touchette," are as follows: (U)

"Daniel said frankly he didn't think that we had more than a 50% chance that we would get asylum, he said maybe I shouldn't tell you this, but I think that I will anyway. He said as far as I'm concerned, I like you, said he understood us better, but in Cuba they are lacking three things: (a) Lack of knowledge in Cuba about PT (People's Temple); (b) Solidarity (don't know of our solidarity with Cuba). Then he said, well, just basically there are two things. We reinvited him to the project. I asked him how they would come to the conclusion that we were a true Socialist community if they did not come out and see how we lived and what we were doing? He said he would do that, but frankly he was just waiting for clearance from Cuba to go there." (U)

A review of the files revealed the following two photographs:

- (a) A photograph of Jim Jones and Huey Newton, the reverse side of which bears the following notation: (U)
  - "Jim JOnes and Huey P. Newton in Havana, February 19, 1976." (U)
- (b) One black and white photograph of a group of individuals departing a Cuban Airline plane, one of whom is Jim Jones. (U)
