ACT NO. 1 OF 1976

I assest.

25th March, 1976

1976

L. V. DeGALE Governor-General.

An Act to require Banks to maintain special deposits with the Ministry of Finance and to deal with unclaimed moneys.

[25th March, 1976].

Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Representatives of Grenada, and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1.- This Act may be cited as the

Short title

BANKING (SPECIAL DEPOSITS) ACT. 1976

2.- In this Act the term-

interpre tation.

"Bank" means every bank which is trading within Grenada;

"Deposit liabilities" means liabilities in respect of all savings accounts and includes fixed deposits and current accounts;

"Minister" means the Minister of Finance;

"Quarter" means the period of three months ending on March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 each year;

"Special deposits" means a deposit made under the provisions of this Act.

Special deposits

3.— Subject to section 5 (1) of this Act every bank shall maintain a deposit with the Accountant General of an amount equivalent to five per centum of the amount of its total deposit liabilities.

Method of Salculation 4.— The amount of the special deposits required to be maintained by a bank during any quarter with the Accountant General shall be an amount equivalent to five per centum of its total deposit liabilities at the close of business on the last day of the preceeding quarter.

Date of payment.

5.— (1) Initial payment of the special deposit and any subsequent payment occasioned by an increase in the rate per centum shall be made in the manner and at the date or dates to be determined by the Minister.

(2) Any further payments by, or refunds to the banks, arising from increases or decreases in the deposit liabilities as calculated at the end of each quarter, shall be made within 15 days of the end of that quarter.

Unclaimed moneys.

6.— (1) Where any moneys have remained dormant and unclaimed in the possession or under the control of a bank for a period of six years or more (beginning either before or after the commencement of this Act) the bank shall immediately transfer such moneys to the

1976

Accountant General who shall then cause a notice to be published in the Gazette—

- (a) giving full particulars of the moneys transferred;
- (h) stating the period during which such moneys were lying at the Bank; and
- (c) stating that unless within one year from the date of the publication of the notice in the Gazette a claim to the moneys is established to the satisfaction of the Accountant General the moneys will be dealt with in accordance with subsection (2) of this section.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) upon the expiration of the said year any of such moneys to which no claim has been established as aforesaid shall lapse to and become part of the revenues of Grenada.

(3) Where--

- (a) a claim has been duly made but not determined during the said year; and
- thi before the expiration of that year the Accountant General lodges with the Minister a certificate to that effect signed by the Accountant General, then subsection (2) shall not have effect in relation to the moneys in question until that certificate is cancelled or revoked.
- 7 Note this landing the provisions of section 6 a Refund of depositor of any or such moneys or his trustee or down at and personal representatives may have such moneys deposits.

Act 1

refunded to him if he can prove to the satisfaction of the Accountant General that-

(a) he was out of Grenada during the year of the publication in the Gazette and could not reasonably have known of the publication.

or

(b) he knew of the publication and took all reasonable steps to notify the Accountant General of his claim before the moneys became part of the revenue of Grenada. or

(c) where by reason of infancy or any other disability he did not make a claim within the year of publication in the Gazette; and

(d) he brings his claim within 10 years of the publication.

Penalty.

8.- A Bank which fails to comply with any of the provisions of sections 3 or 6 of this Act shall be guilty of an offence and shall on Summary Conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding $20,000.00 and to a fine of $1,000.00 per day as long as the offence continues.

Regulations

9.—(1) The Minister may make regulations generally for carrying out the purposes or provisions of this

(2) Such regulations may create offences and provide for the imposition of fines therefor not exceeding $1,000.00.

Commence-ment.

10. - This Act shall be deemed to have come into effect as from the 1st day of January. 1976.

Passed in the House of Representatives this 24th day of March, 1976.
