NY 65-14932

T-1 stated this information was obtained from either Mrs. SOPHIE RIVERS, Mrs. EDITH SIMMS, or Mrs. LEOLA ADLER. The informant stated that these women, who all live at 188 Claremont Avenue, are all close friends of the subject and informant is sure that they are aware of the subject's past. T-1 also stated that a Mrs. MOLLY IRVING, same address, is one of the subject's closest friends.

T-1 stated that subject appears to be a very nervous individual and on one occasion the informant recalls subject telling SOPHIE RIVERS that she was taking interpretive dancing lessons to help overcome her nervousness.

On September 12, 1955, T-1 reported that subject had returned on that date from her vacation. T-1 also learned from Mrs. SOPHIE RIVERS that subject intends to move in the near future. Mrs. RIVERS told T-1 that subject's mother will live with her when they move. T-1 stated that subject's mother visits her quite frequently, often staying over night, and helps subject take care of the two children, BENJAMIN and EMILY.

In connection with subject's moving, T-1 reported on September 7, 1955, that subject's husband told one of the tenants in the building that he was bringing his family home from their vacation soon and "they were going to move to the country as it is good for the kids."

Investigation at Fire Island, Long Island, New York

ROY PARDEE, Assessors Office, Islip, New York, advised SA DANIEL F. O'CONNOR on September 2, 1955, that from his records there was no ownership records within the town limits for any individual named either COPLON or SOCOLOV.

WILLIAM BIRMINGHAM, Realtor, Ocean Beach, Fire Island, New York, advised SA DANIEL F. O'CONNOR on September 2, 1955, that he did not see subject nor had he seen anyone answering her description at Ocean Beach, Fire Island, New York, during the summer.

T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 2, 1955, that he did not see subject nor had he seen anyone answering her description at Ocean Bay Park, Fire Island, New York.

NY 65-14932

Information Regarding Associates of Subject

EDITH SIMMS

T-1 stated on September 21, 1955, that EDITH and HERMAN SIMMS have lived in Apartment 4H, 185 Claremont Avenue, for about five years. T-1 further stated that they have a boy about five years of age. T-1 stated that HERMAN SIMMS is a commercial artist and is apparently doing free-lance work as he uses his home for a studio.

Mrs. EDITH SIMMS, Apartment 4H, 185 Claremont Avenue, was interviewed by SA JACK L. STEMPLE on April 17, 1952, in connection with another matter. At that time Mrs. SIMMS volunteered the information that she, Mrs. SIMMS, is "definitely not anti-Soviet but in fact pro-Soviet Union."

SOPHIE RIVERS

T-1 advised that Mrs. SOPHIE RIVERS, her husband, CHARLES, and her two boys have resided in Apartment 5G, 185 Claremont Avenue, for about five years.

T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 30, 1955, that on June 29, 1955, SOPHIE MAY RIVERS, 185 Claremont Avenue, attended an open Communist Party (CP) meeting at 124 West 124th Street, New York, New York. The informant stated that those in attendance comprised the regional and sectional leadership of the Harlem Region CP.

On June 8, 1955, T-3 advised that SOPHIE MAY RIVERS was chairman of one of the groups of the Parent Teachers Association, Harlem Region CP.

T-3 further advised that SOPHIE MAY RIVERS attended meetings of the Harlem Region CP on December 8, 1954, January 12, 1955, and April 19, 1955.

The CP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

LEOLA ADLER

T-1 advised on September 21, 1955, that LEOLA and PAUL ADLER live in Apartment 13 at 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City. The informant stated they have resided there for approximately five years and have a boy about two years old. T-1 further stated that LEOLA ADLER is employed as a seamstress in the fur industry.

MOLLY IRVING

T-1 advised on September 21, 1955, that MOLLY IRVING is one of the subject's closest friends. T-1 stated that MOLLY IRVING is a housewife and has two children about the same age as subject's children. T-1 added that subject and MOLLY IRVING are often seen together about the premises of 185 Claremont Avenue. The informant further stated that she believed MOLLY IRVING's husband is employed in some capacity in the entertainment end of the television industry.

Information Regarding Contacts of the Subject and Husband

T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 26, 1955, that toll calls were made on July 27, 1954, to New Paltz, New York, 8369 and on March 12, 1955, to Woodridge, New York 19J1, from subject's residence.

NY 65-14932

DAVID JAFFE

The 1954-1955 telephone directory for Woodridge, New York, reflects that telephone number 19J-1 is listed to DAVID JAFFE, Glen Wild, New York.

T-5, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on March 16, 1953, that DAVID JAFFE was section organizer of the CP in the Woodridge, New York, area.

T-6, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 14, 1953, that DAVID JAFFE was born on October 4, 1911, at Glen Wild, New York. He is married to ANN SHULMAN JAFFE and is a poultry farmer, having a farm at Glen Wild, New York. Informant further stated that JAFFE served in the United States Army from March, 1942, to October, 1945.

T-7, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on July 22, 1954, that DAVID JAFFE attended the CP Farm Commission meeting at Newburgh, New York, on July 13, 1954.

CHARLES J. BAKER

The 1954-1955 telephone directory for the town of New Paltz, New York, reflects that telephone number New Paltz, New York, 8369 is listed to one CHARLES J. BAKER, 44 Plattekill Avenue, New Paltz.

On July 11, 1955, Mrs. VIRGINIA ELLIS, Manager of the Ulster County Credit Service, Kingston, New York, advised SA HAROLD V. CATES that she could locate no record of CHARLES J. BAKER from the files of her office.

On July 11, 1955, ARTHUR BROWN, Deputy Sheriff, Ulster County, New York, advised SA HAROLD V. CATES that he could locate no record of CHARLES J. BAKER in the files of the Ulster County Sheriff's Office.

T-8, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on July 14, 1955, that CHARLES J. BAKER, 44

Plattekill Avenue, is a retired individual who has resided in New Paltz, New York, for the past several years. He is the father of CHARLES E. BAKER, a professor at New Paltz State Teachers College.

Mrs. VIRGINIA ELLIS subsequently advised SA HAROLD V. CATES on July 14, 1955, that CHARLES E. BAKER is listed in a 1951 credit report as a professor at New Paltz State Teachers College. He was reportedly in his 40's, and married to one BARBARA BURGER, who was in her 20's.

On July 20, 1955, Mr. WILLIAM J. HAGGERTY, President of the New Paltz State Teachers College, advised SA HAROLD V. CATES that CHARLES J. BAKER is the father of one of his professors, CHARLES E. BAKER. He said that the elder BAKER is retired and is in his late 70's and has been in the New Paltz area since 1950. Prior to that he resided in the Bronx, New York. He stated that BAKER lived in Upstate New York prior to residing in the Bronx and he thought he possibly lived in Glen Falls, New York, but he was not certain of this.

T-9, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that subject's husband received the following correspondence on the dates indicated:

July 8, 1955 - S. M. Coplon and Son
200 Fifth Avenue
New York City

August 3, 1955 - Kingsview Homes, Inc.
345 East 46th Street
New York City

August 4, 1955 - American Labor Party
320 West 80th Street
New York City

September 6, 1955 - Kingsview Homes, Inc.
345 East 46th Street
New York City

September 7, 1955 - National Lawyers Guild
40 Exchange Place
New York City.

S. M. COPLON and SON

T-10, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 29, 1955, that they have a report on S. M. COPLON and SON dated June 16, 1954. This report indicates that BERTRAM COPLON is in his late 30's. He is the son of the late SAMUEL COPLON and associated with his father in this business for over ten years prior to the latter's death in 1949.

Mrs. REBECCA COPLON is the widow of SAMUEL COPLON and is a partner along with her son but takes no active part in the management. T-10 stated that S. M. COPLON and Son is a manufacturers representative in the toy, game, and children's book line. They represent over eleven accounts throughout the United States with all income derived from commission on sales.

BERTRAM COPLON was interviewed on June 15, 1954, by T-10 and he declined a financial statement. He indicated a satisfactory financial condition is maintained with liabilities confined to normal operating expenses which are adequately covered by cash resources.

It is noted that the firm S. M. COPLON and SON was founded by subject's father and is presently managed by her brother, BERTRAM, who is a partner along with her mother, REBECCA COPLON.

American Labor Party

T-11, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 9, 1954, that from the time of its inception in 1936, there existed within the American Labor Party a struggle for power among three groups. These were the Communist Party, the Socialist Party, and the Social Democrats. By the early 1940's, the Communist Party emerged as the controlling force within the American Labor Party in the major industrial areas in New York State. Generally these were the areas around Albany, Buffalo, Jamestown, Rochester, Schenectady, Syracuse, Troy, the Hudson River Valley, Columbia, Dutchess, Nassau and Westchester Counties, and New York City, with the exception of Brooklyn. In 1942 the Communist Party was able to capture the American Labor Party in Brooklyn. T-11 knew this situation to continue up until at least 1949. The American Labor Party never developed into an organization of any real consequence in the non-industrial areas of New York State.

T-12, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 9, 1955, that the Communist Party today, as in the past, through its members in key positions in the American Labor Party, constitutes the force that controls it.

National Lawyers Guild

Concerning the National Lawyers Guild, the following appears in the booklet "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., on May 14, 1951:

"1. Cited as a Communist front. (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)

"2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.' (Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, Report on the National Lawyers Guild, House Report No. 3123, September 21, 1950 (originally released September 17, 1950).)"

Miscellaneous

T-13, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 29, 1955, that the full name of the individual who was sharing subject's apartment with her husband during the summer was MONTY LOWELL SONTAG.

T-1 advised on September 12, 1955, that MONTY SONTAG was no longer staying in subject's apartment. T-1 stated that SONTAG's name had been removed from the mailbox and the informant no longer saw him about the premises. T-1 stated that about a week before subject came home from her vacation, the informant observed subject's husband and SONTAG put a few personal effects into ALBERT SOCOLOV's car. Informant assumed SONTAG was being moved and has not seen him since that time.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

On September 1, 1955, Assistant United States Attorney GEORGE BAILEY, Southern District of New York, advised that the subject is presently free on $40,000.00 bail and that travel is limited to the Eastern District of New York and the Southern District of New York. However, she is allowed to travel to and from Washington, D.C., and to stay there to take care of legal proceedings.

that since she returned from her vacation the subject does not appear to associate with the other tenants as much as she formerly did. The informant explained that prior to going away the subject was a constant companion of Mrs. MOLLIE IRVING and to a lesser extent also associated with Mrs. EDITH SIMMS and Mrs. LEOLA ADLER. However, since her return she is rarely seen in the company of these women and the few times the informant has observed her about the premises of 185 Claremont Avenue, the subject was alone with her two children.

The informant had no additional information to offer concerning the subject's plans to move. The informant further stated that Mrs. EDWIN L. ROBERTSON, Apartment 4B, 185 Claremont Avenue, had advised that the subject told Mrs. ROBERTSON she had spent her vacation at Shelter Island, Long Island, New York.

Mrs. EDWIN L. ROBERTSON, Apartment 4B, 185 Claremont Avenue, advised on November 7, 1955, that she had a casual conversation with the subject shortly after her return from vacation. Mrs. ROBERTSON stated that they discussed how hot it had been in the city during the summer and the subject remarked that she had spent her vacation at Shelter Island, Long Island, New York, and had a wonderful time. Mrs. ROBERTSON stated the subject did not elaborate on the matter so she did not pursue it any further.

MOLLIE IRVING

The records of the Board of Elections, New York City, as checked by SA FRANCIS J. VOGT on October 28, 1955, reflect that in 1954 BEN and MOLLIE IRVING, 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, registered as supporters of the American Labor Party. There was no registration record for 1953 or 1952.

Upon registering in 1954, MOLLIE IRVING indicated she was 35 years of age, married, born in the United States, a resident of the state for 35 years and a resident of the election district for three years.

Upon registering in 1954, BEN IRVING indicated he was 36 years of age, married, born in the United States, a resident of the state for 36 years and a resident of the election district for three years.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as checked by SE DONALD C. STRELETZKY on October 18, 1955, contained no information on MOLLIE IRVING, 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City.

LEOLA ADLER

Also known as LEONI ADLER, LEONA ADLER

The records of the Board of Elections, New York City, as checked by SA FRANCIS J. VOGT on October 28, 1955, reflect that in 1952 and 1953 LEONI ADLER, 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, failed to list any party affiliation. In 1954, LEONI ADLER registered as a supporter of one of the two major political parties. In 1952, 1953 and 1954, PAUL ADLER, 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, registered as a supporter of one of the two major political parties.

Upon registering in 1954, LEONI ADLER indicated she was 32, married, born in Germany, naturalized in February, 1946 at Poughkeepsie, New York, and had resided 14 years in the state and three and one-half years in the election district. In 1954, PAUL ADLER indicated he was 38 years of age, married, born in Germany, naturalized in December, 1952 in the Southern District of New York and had resided seven years in the state and three and one-half years in the election district.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as checked by SE DONALD C. STRELETZKY on October 18, 1955, reflect a credit report, dated May 24, 1955, which indicated PAUL ADLER (wife LEONA), 185 Claremont Avenue, is 40 years of age. He is a purchasing agent with the Israel Corporation of America, 400 Madison Avenue, New York City, and has been so engaged for four years. They are exporters of general merchandise. ADLER's income was reported as being $5,000 yearly.

EDITH SIMMS

The records of the Board of Elections, New York City, as checked by SA FRANCIS J. VOGT on October 28, 1955, failed to reflect any registration record for EDITH SIMMS, 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, for 1952, 1953 or 1954. The records reflect that in 1952 HERMAN SIMMS, 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, registered as a supporter of one of the two major political parties. In 1953, he registered as a supporter of the Liberal Party and in 1954 there was no registration record for HERMAN SIMMS.

Upon registering in 1953, HERMAN SIMMS indicated he was 43 years of age, married, born in the United States, a resident of the state for 20 years and a resident of the election district for four years.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as checked by SE DONALD C. STRELETZKY on October 18, 1955, reflects a credit report, dated January 9, 1951, which indicates HERMAN SIMMS (wife EDITH), 185 Claremont Avenue, was about 35 years of age. He had lived at his present address for one year and formerly resided at 306 East 82nd Street, New York City. Mr. SIMMS had been an advertising artist for Roaman's Department Store, 20 West 39th Street, New York City, for two years with a reported income of $5,000 yearly. He formerly was reported to have operated as a free-lance fashion illustrator from his residence.

T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the subject's husband received the following correspondence on the dates indicated:

September 24, 1955	National Lawyers Guild 40 Exchange Place, New York City
September 29, 1955	Emergency Civil Liberties Committee 421 7th Avenue, New York City
September 30, 1955	Kings View Homes, Inc. 345 E 46th Street, New York City American Labor Party 220 West 80th Street, New York City

National Lawyers Guild

Concerning the National Lawyers Guild, the following appears in the booklet "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., on May 14, 1951:

"1. Cited as a Communist front. (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)

"2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which (since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.' (Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, Report on the National Lawyers Guild, House Report No. 3123, September 21, 1950 (originally released September 17, 1950).)"

Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

The "Daily Worker", an East Coast Communist newspaper, issue of October 8, 1951, page 1, columns 4 and 5, in an article entitled "150 Notables Form Emergency Civil Rights Committee", reflected that the formation of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee had been announced on October 7, 1951. It was shown that the purpose of the organization would be to help mobilize public opinion in support of the traditional American Constitutional guarantees of civil liberties and to render aid to victims of abridgement of these liberties in politics, education and the professions. Pioneers, according to the article, included more than 50 members of the clergy and many educators and professionals.

Writing in "Political Affairs" issue of August, 1954, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, Communist Party functionary, referred to the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee as one of the "forces carrying on the defense of the Bill of Rights today".

Concerning "Political Affairs", FLYNN, testifying in the case "US vs. ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, ET AL", on October 20, 1952, stated that "Political Affairs" has been the theoretical organ of the Communist Party since the publication's beginning in 1945.

The "New York Times", a daily newspaper, issue of April 12, 1955, page 25, columns 1 and 2, contained an advertisement of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee reflecting the address of the committee as 421 Seventh Avenue, New York City.

American Labor Party

T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 9, 1954, that from the time of its inception in 1936, there existed within the American Labor Party a struggle for power among three groups. These were the Communist Party, the Socialist Party and the Social Democrats. By the early 1940's, the Communist Party emerged as the controlling force within the American Labor Party in the major industrial areas in New York State. Generally, these were the areas around Albany, Buffalo, Jamestown, Rochester, Schenectady, Syracuse, Troy, the Hudson River Valley, Columbia, Dutchess, Nassau and Westchester Counties, and New York City, with the exception of Brooklyn. In 1942, the Communist Party was able to capture the American Labor Party in Brooklyn.

T-3 knew this situation to continue up until at least 1949. The American Labor Party never developed into an organization of any real consequence in the non-industrial areas of New York State.

T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 9, 1955, that the Communist Party today, as in the past, through its members in key positions in the American Labor Party, constitutes the force that controls it.

Kings View Homes

T-5, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on October 19, 1955, advised that an incorporation card on Kings View Homes was filed on February 5, 1953, by Attorney MAXWELL H. TRETTER, 122 East 42nd Street, New York City.

T-6, who has furnished reliable information in the past, in December, 1949, advised that MAXWELL TRETTER, 122 East 42nd Street, New York City, was a member of the National Lawyers Guild.

The records of the New York County Clerk's office reflected on November 9, 1955, that a Certificate of Incorporation was granted to Kings View Homes, Inc., on February 5, 1953, pursuant to Section 4 of the Redevelopment Companies law. The purpose of said corporation is to acquire land in New York

Re memo of SA ROBERT W. COHOLAN dated 9/29/55.

On 11/21/55 the following investigation was conducted by the writer at Shelter Island, N.Y. in an effort to determine if subject was a summer resident at Shelter Island for summer of 1955:

Mrs. MELBA SHERMAN, Clerk, U.S. Post Office, Shelter Island Center, N.Y. advised that she has a definite recollection of mail received at her post office during the summer of 1955 which was addressed to (fmu) SOCOLOV. It is her recollection that mail to this individual was placed in the mail for Shorewood Farms and ~~xxxx~~ and this particular mail was picked up by the Hollands (LEONARD HOLLAND). This recollection was not certain however. Mrs. SHERMAN viewed photographs of the subject without recognizing same as a person she had seen. She pointed out that she could not recall the addressee of mail to SOCOLOV ever picking up the mail in person. (This was done by a person, possibly HOLLAND, who is known to informant as a resident at Shorewood Farms.

Mr. WILL WILCOX, Office manager of the Shelter Island Light & Power Co., viewed the photographs of the subject without effecting an identification. He also checked his records and these records were negative as to subject's name as a user of power and light.

Mrs. KATHERINE D. WILCOX, Librarian, Shelter Island Public Library advised that no person by last name of subject borrowed books from the library during the summer of 1955.

JOHN PICCOZZI, owner of Island Food Market, Shelter Island advised that he did not recognize the subject as a customer of his - by name or photo during the summer season of 1955. It is pointed out that many of the residents at Shorewood Farms patronize the market of this source.

Mrs. MAE PICCOZZI, Winthrop Road, and Mrs. DOROTHY KAHLE, Hager Road, Shelter Island, reliable and well-informed sources on Shelter Island advised that they did not recognize the photos of the subject as any person who lived on Shelter Island during the summer of 1955.

It should be noted that Shorewood Farms is a secluded development on Shelter Island which is for the most part populated with known Communists and Communist sympathizers as summer residents. Many of these houses are owned by individuals and other houses are leased from JOHN and JEAN GARR. The latter lessees names would not appear on any public records such as lighting Co. records. Extensive investigation re Shorewood Farms has been conducted under the caption of JOHN H. GARR; JEAN GARR (105-6225). Residents of this Farm for the summers of 1953 and 1954 have been identified and reported in this file. A perusal of this file may disclose the name of a known associate of the subject, with whom she may have resided for the summer of 1955.

Additional sources at Shelter Island were not available for interview and these interviews will be conducted unless advised to the contrary by NYO.

ReBulet 10/5/55 which reflected that Mrs. IRMA STEFFANY CALNAN departed from Denver 9/20/55 to be married to one ARVID JOHNSON, and subsequent to their honeymoon she could be reached in care of ARVID JOHNSON, Yucca Valley, California, by the middle of October, 1955. Re Los Angeles airtel 10/31/55.

SA IRVIN C. SHEPPERD contacted DOROTHY STEVENSON, Clerk, U. S. Post Office, Yucca Valley, on 11/21/55, and she advised that all mail for ARVID JOHNSON was still being forwarded to Sedalia, Colorado.

Mrs. VESTA LAFFERTY, Yucca Mesa Road, Yucca Valley, advised SA SHEPPERD that ARVID JOHNSON has not returned to Yucca Valley, and she has not heard from him.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. SANDELL, Mt. View Circle, Joshua Tree, California, advised SA SHEPPERD that they do not know the current location of ARVID JOHNSON or of IRMA STEFFANY CALNAN.

A copy of reBulet of 10/5/55 is attached hereto for Denver. Denver is requested to attempt to locate IRMA STEFFANY CALNAN and conduct the requested Bureau interview. The Los Angeles Division will periodically check at Yucca Valley, California to determine if CALNAN appears there.

1375 Birch Street, Denver, Colorado, the mother of MONTY LOWELL SONTAG, at which time the following information was ascertained concerning MONTY SONTAG. Mrs. SONTAG advised her son, MONTY, is presently attending Columbia University in New York City where he is working towards the Doctor of Philosophy degree. She advised that MONTY L. SONTAG is also teaching school on a part time basis but was unable to furnish pertinent information concerning the school system in which SONTAG was teaching; however, she did mention that she believed his teaching activities were in connection with his course at Columbia University. Mrs. SONTAG advised MONTY SONTAG is presently residing at Central Avenue and Old Nyack (possibly Nyack) Turnpike, Spring Valley, New York.

The Denver City Directory for the year 1954 reflects MONTY LOWELL SONTAG, a student residing at 1375 Birch Street, Denver, Colorado, at which address it was noted the directory listed SAMUEL H. and ROSA M. SONTAG also residing. SAMUEL SONTAG's employment was noted in the directory as "General Factors Company."

Records of the Retail Credit Men's Association, 1445 Welton Street, Denver, Colorado, as checked November 29, 1955, reflect that MONTY LOWELL SONTAG was born in Denver, served in the U. S. Army three years during World War II, was attending the University of Denver as of 1950 and was still recorded as a University of Denver student as of March, 1954. His credit record disclosed that he was employed at Colorado General Hospital as of September, 1953, and that during 1952 he was manager of the General Collection Agency, Denver. Records of this credit agency reflected that MONTY SONTAG's father, SAMUEL H. SONTAG, has resided in Denver since 1923, having arrived in Denver at that time from his previous residence at Allentown, Pennsylvania. The record reflected SAMUEL SONTAG was born in Germany, came to the United States as a child and was raised in Paterson, New Jersey. SAMUEL H. SONTAG was recorded as being self-employed in the Textile Business in operation of the General Factors Company, Denver, and that as of August, 1953, SAMUEL SONTAG was the sole owner of this company. His credit record reflected that SAMUEL SONTAG, as of 1953, received an annual income from the General Factors Company of approximately $20,000 a year and that his business was valued at $150,000 to $200,000. SAMUEL SONTAG's residence at 1375 Birch Street, Denver, was valued at $22,000 as of August, 1953, according to his credit record.

On November 29, 1955, BELLARMINO and KILLEN DURAN, both of 1265 West 10th Avenue, Denver, Colorado, advised they had never been acquainted with MONTY LOWELL SONTAG and possessed no information indicating that MONTY SONTAG has ever been involved in the activities of the Communist Party or related organizations in the Denver Metropolitan area. It is noted that on April 27, 1955, BELLARMINO DURAN testified in United States District Court, Denver, Colorado, that he was a member of the Communist Party on behalf of the United States Government from the Fall of 1948 until April 3, 1955. During this period of time, BELLARMINO DURAN furnished information of a security nature to the FBI. KILLEN DURAN was a member of the Communist Party at Denver, Colorado, on behalf of the U. S. Government from 1949 until April 3, 1955, and during this period of time she furnished information of a security nature to the FBI.

The Communist Party has been designated by the United States Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Re Los Angeles letter to Bureau, November 30, 1955.

Mrs. ~~IRMA STEPHANY CALMAN~~ now residing at 2445 West 39th Avenue, Denver, Colorado, interviewed January 10, 1956 at Denver, advised she was not interviewed concerning COPLON prior to CALMAN'S employment by F.B.I. as translator; however, Mrs. CALMAN now recalls she was interviewed regarding COPLON soon after COPLON'S arrest, possibly in March or April, 1949, not later than July 1, 1949, when CALMAN resigned from Bureau employment. Mrs. CALMAN recalled that while she was still employed as translator at the Bureau, under supervision of a Mr. DOWNING (FNU), whom she described as a "red headed individual," Mrs. CALMAN was requested by Mr. DOWNING sometime during spring of 1949 to go to Department of Justice Building, where an official handling the COPLON case desired to interview CALMAN regarding her knowledge of COPLON. Mrs. COPLON stated she thereupon proceeded by Department of Justice or possibly Bureau bus to Department of Justice Building, where she was interviewed regarding COPLON and furnished information substantially the same as that furnished Bureau Agent at Denver on September 20, 1955.

She stated this was only occasion other than September 20, 1955, when she was interviewed regarding COPLON and recalled only that the official who interviewed her in Department of Justice Building was a man about 40 to 45 years of age, name and further description unknown.

Mrs. CALMAN has not yet married ARVID JOHNSON, who is having difficulty in obtaining divorce from his first wife, but CALMAN plans to marry JOHNSON as soon as he obtains the divorce. Mrs. CALMAN, who received her mail at Post Office Box 112 Highland Station, Denver, advised she plans residing in Denver indefinitely and will notify Denver F.B.I. Office in event she moved as well as leaving the forwarding address with Postal authorities so that she will be available in event needed at any future date.

Mrs. CALMAN commented that one EDMUND LORENZ, Polish and Russian translator at the Bureau, also may be able to shed light upon identity of the official who interviewed her regarding subject COPLON, as Mrs. CALMAN feels she may have remarked to LORENZ subsequent to the interview in 1949 that she had been interviewed regarding COPLON by a Department or Bureau official.

activities of the subject, but contact with whom has been insufficient to form a basis of reliability, advised on January 6, 1956, that the subject still resides at 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City. T-1 stated that the subject is pregnant and is expecting the birth of her third child sometime in the late spring. T-1 stated that she has ^{heard} nothing further concerning the subject's plans to move, although the informant felt that the SOCOLOVS would be forced to leave their one-bedroom apartment as it would be inadequate for five persons.

T-1 further stated the subject's close friend, MOLLIE IRVING, passed away suddenly about the end of November, 1955. The informant stated that Mrs. IRVING died of leukemia after a very short illness, and her sudden death shocked the tenants at 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City. T-1 stated that prior to her death MOLLIE IRVING and the subject were very close friends and were usually observed together by the informant and spent considerable time in each other's company. T-1 further stated that BEN IRVING, MOLLIE'S husband, continues to keep his apartment and the subject occasionally takes care of DEBRA IRVING, his small daughter.

Investigation at Shelter Island, Long Island,
New York

Mrs. EDWIN L. ROBERTSON, Apartment 4-B, 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, advised on November 7, 1955, that she had a casual conversation with the subject after her return from her summer vacation. At that time, the subject told Mrs. ROBERTSON that she had spent the summer at Shelter Island, Long Island, New York.

T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 21, 1955, that she has a recollection that mail addressed to SOCOLOV (first name unknown) was received at Shelter Island in the summer of 1955. T-2 advised that the mail was placed in the mail for Shorewood Farms and was picked up by LEONARD HOLLAND, a summer resident at Shorewood Farms. However, the informant advised that this recollection was uncertain.

T-2 viewed photographs of the subject without recognizing same as an individual informant had seen.

Mr. WILL WILCOX, Office Manager of the Shelter Island Light and Power Company, advised SA DANIEL F. O'CONNOR on November 21, 1955, that his records were negative as to the subject's name as a user of power and light on Shelter Island.

Mrs. KATHERINE D. WILCOX, Librarian, Shelter Island Public Library, advised SA DANIEL F. O'CONNOR on November 21, 1955, that no person by the name of SOCOLOV or COPLON borrowed books from the library during the summer of 1955.

JOHN PICCOZZI, owner of the Island Food Market, Shelter Island, advised SA DANIEL F. O'CONNOR on November 21, 1955, that he did not recognize photographs of the subject as a customer of his during the summer season of 1955.

It is noted that many residents at Shorewood Farms patronize Mr. PICCOZZI's food market.

Mrs. MAE PICCOZZI, Winthrop Road, Shelter Island, and Mrs. DOROTHY KAHLE, Hager Road, Shelter Island, who are familiar with some of the summer residents at Shelter Island, advised SA DANIEL F. O'CONNOR on November 21, 1955, that they did not recognize photographs of the subject as any person who lived on Shelter Island during the summer of 1955.

T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 21, 1954, that the Hampton Bays "clique" of the Communist Party (CP) had a fund-raising party at the residence of JUDY and LEE COOPER. The informant stated that a number of the tenants at Shorewood Farms, Shelter Island, attended this affair. According to the informant, another affair of a similar nature was to be held over Labor Day weekend by the Shorewood Farms crowd.

The CP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Mrs. JOHN H. GARR, 73-12 35th Avenue, Jackson Heights, Queens, New York, was interviewed by SAs THOMAS

NY 65-14932

J. DOWLING and JAMES P. MARTIN on May 12, 1955. Mrs. GARR stated that she and her husband purchased the Artemus Ward Estate on Shelter Island, Long Island, New York, in 1947, and it is now called Shorewood Farms. It is operated by Shorewood Farms, Incorporated, as a summer resort, in which corporation both Mrs. GARR and her husband are principals.

Concerning the tenants of Shorewood Farms, she advised that they became tenants either as a result of advertisements placed in metropolitan newspapers or as a result of knowing other individuals who resided at Shorewood Farms. She advised that a large number of the original tenants at Shorewood Farms, including some of the present tenants, became so as a result of the efforts of BERNARD FREEMAN, one of her original tenants, to whom she paid ten per cent in commission for obtaining new tenants.

She also advised that a number of tenants at Shorewood Farms became so as a result of being recommended by PETER GUEST and his wife.

Mrs. GARR stated she is not and has never been a member of the CP or any of its affiliates. She stated that she felt that she could make the same statement for her husband who was ill and not available for interview. She further stated she abhors Communism and all that it stands for.

At that time, Mrs. GARR furnished a list of names of individuals who would be tenants at Shorewood Farms during the summer season of 1955. It is noted that no individual with the surname of SOCOLOV or COPLON was on the list. It is also noted that Mr. and Mrs. LEONARD HOLLAND were listed as guests at Shorewood Farms for the summer season of 1955, and they had been recommended by PETER GUEST.

Because of the limited identifying information concerning the tenants of Shorewood Farms mentioned above, it is not known whether the following information is identical with those individuals.

T-4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in February, 1954, that BERNARD FREEMAN married MAY FRIEDLANDER on August 14, 1953, in New York City.

T-5, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 4, 1944, that MAY FRIEDLANDER was a member of the Flatbush section of the CP.

NY 65-14932

T-6, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in 1949 that PETER GUEST was a rabid Communist and that his first wife was reported to have lost her mind due to her Communist activities.

T-6 advised that JEAN KINGS GUEST, PETER GUEST's present wife, is also reported to be a Communist, and that to the informant's knowledge known Communists have held meetings at the GUESTS' apartment in New York City.

A pretext telephone call to LEONARD HOLLAND, 455 East 14th Street, New York City, on August 10, 1953, reflected that he is an attorney with offices at 551 Fifth Avenue, New York City, and resides at 455 East 14th Street, New York City. HOLLAND advised that he was formerly an instructor at the United States Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, New York.

In a Personnel Security Questionnaire dated August 1, 1948, submitted to the United States Maritime Commission, Washington, D. C., LEONARD HOLLAND indicated he was born March 4, 1922, at Brooklyn, New York, as LEONARD M. COHEN. He indicated his name was changed by court order in August, 1946. He listed his wife as RUTH ROBBINS, born April 10, 1924, at New York City. At that time, he was an instructor at the United States Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, New York.

City, with her husband and their two children. Informant stated that she had a brief conversation with the subject on February 21, 1956, at which time the subject advised her that she expects her third child to be born in about six or seven weeks.

The informant further stated that the subject's advanced stage of pregnancy keeps her inactive and makes her stick close to home. The informant added that the subject spends considerable time with DEBRA IRVING, the four year old daughter of MOLLIE IRVING, a close friend and neighbor of subject, who died suddenly in November, 1955.

T-1 stated that DEBRA IRVING attends day school and when she comes home in the afternoon, she remains with the subject until her father, BEN IRVING, comes home from work.

Mrs. EDWIN L. ROBERTSON, Apartment 4B, 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, advised on November 7, 1955, that she had a casual conversation with the subject after her return from her summer vacation.

At that time the subject told Mrs. ROBERTSON that she had spent the summer at Shelter Island, Long Island, New York.

Mrs. JOHN H. GARR was interviewed on May 12, 1955, by SAs THOMAS J. DOWLING and JAMES P. MARTIN. At that time Mrs. GARR advised that she and her husband operate Shorewood Farms, Incorporated, a summer resort at Shelter Island, New York.

An attempt was made to re-interview Mrs. GARR on February 8, 1956, at her place of business, Dalton Cooper Company, 200 West 34th Street, to ascertain whether subject may have stayed at Shorewood Farms during the summer of 1955.

IS - R; ISA OF 1950

On 3/7/56, NY 1284-S* advised that (FNU) PALMER, son of ARCHIBALD PALMER, contacted NEEDLEMAN relative to the sale of a cleaning establishment known as Archer Cleaners Glen Oaks, Inc., 255-07 Union Turnpike, Bellerose, NY, which is owned by SAMUEL ARCHER, one of NEEDLEMAN'S clients. Incidental to their discussion re the cleaning establishment, NEEDLEMAN told PALMER that he had just talked to his father and observed that he did not know of another lawyer who could have gotten as much out of the COPLON case. NEEDLEMAN continued that he thought ARCHIBALD PALMER was overzealous and a tough guy to get along with, but when he read about the COPLON case, he realized that it took just that kind of attitude to win it. (FNU) PALMER replied that it did to bring out those disclosures. NEEDLEMAN continued that no one (other than ARCHIBALD PALMER) would have had the nerve to pit themselves against the FBI, and that COPLON is out of jail now only because of his doing.

It is noted that P and C Bulet to NY, dated 6/29/49, entitled, "ARCHIBALD PALMER, Information Concerning" stated that PALMER had two sons, RALPH and ROGER.

Synopsis:

T-1 advised subject is expecting birth of her third child about 4/16/56. Mrs. JOHN H. GARR, proprietor of Shorewood Farms, Shelter Island, L.I., NY, advised subject and family spent summer of 1955 there. Mrs. GARR stated subject had been recommended by LEO HURWITZ. Information re Communist activities of LEO and JANE DUDLEY HURWITZ set forth.

DETAILS:

T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on April 9, 1956, that subject and her husband, as Mr. and Mrs. ALBERT SOCOLOV, continued to live in Apartment 4D, 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, with their two children. T-1 stated she had a brief conversation with subject on April 2, 1956, at which time subject indicated that she expects her third child to be born in about two weeks.

The informant stated that subject's advanced stage of pregnancy appears to confine her close to her home.

The informant added that subject's mother visits her occasionally and helps take care of the children.

On March 15, 1956, Mrs. JOHN H. GARR, President of Dalton-Cooper Company, 200 West 34th Street, New York City, identified a photograph of subject and her husband as Mr. and Mrs. ALBERT SOCOLOV, who were tenants at Shorewood Farms, Shelter Island, New York, during the summer of 1955.

Mrs. GARR stated that she and her husband own Shorewood Farms and rent 30 cottages to tenants during the summer.

Mrs. GARR stated that subject had been recommended by LEO HURWITZ who, along with his wife, JANE DUDLEY HURWITZ, are also summer tenants at Shorewood Farms.

Mrs. GARR stated the HURWITZES have been summer residents for the past few years and that LEO HURWITZ is connected in some way with the theatrical field, while his wife, JANE DUDLEY HURWITZ, is a former dancer. She added they have a nine year old boy and live at 43 West 93rd Street, New York City.

T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 28, 1948, that JANE DUDLEY, wife of LEO HURWITZ, photographer and producer, was, at that time, a member of the Communist Party (CP).

The CP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

T-3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 16, 1943, that LEO HURWITZ was a member of Branch B, Northwest Section, Los Angeles CP, which section was primarily for motion picture directors and producers.

The informant stated HURWITZ was awaiting transfer to Branch A2, Northwest Section, which was primarily for screen writers.

Mr. JOSEPH H. JACKSON, 485 Madison Avenue, New York City, Personnel Director, Columbia Broadcasting System (CBS), furnished the following information ~~for~~ SA JOHN C. WILSON in November, 1944:

He stated that LEO HURWITZ was employed as a writer and director in the Television Department for CBS, New York City, since January, 1944. HURWITZ was born ~~June~~ 22, 1909, and is a native-born citizen. He is married to JANE D. HURWITZ. He graduated from Harvard University in 1930, where he majored in psychology and philosophy, and obtained a BA degree. Prior to coming to CBS, JACKSON stated HURWITZ was employed as a writer and director by Vanguard Films, Culver City, California.

On June 30, 1953, LEO HURWITZ was approached by SAS ALEXANDER M. GANSKY and WILFRED R. SCHLARMAN, near his residence, 43 West 93rd Street, New York City, at which time they told him they would like to discuss a confidential matter with him. HURWITZ replied he had nothing to discuss with the FBI and in the event he did, he would communicate with this office. The interview was terminated at this point, as HURWITZ walked away from the agents.

T-1 stated that the subject and VIVIAN GLASSMAN were close friends and had worked together at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey. T-1 further stated that ANITA FRUCHTBAUM SALISBURY had met VIVIAN GLASSMAN several times on social occasions through her sister, VIVIAN FRUCHTBAUM.

Informant learned that sometime in 1949, subject told ANITA FRUCHTBAUM SALISBURY that she had mailed a package for JUDY COPLON at the request of VIVIAN GLASSMAN. Informant stated that ANITA FRUCHTBAUM SALISBURY chided subject for having anything to do with JUDITH COPLON, but subject stated she would do what she pleased.

Informant stated that in the late 1940s,

T-1 stated that subject is a Communist or Communist sympathizer. Informant stated that she would take the part of Soviet Russia in any discussion and had solicited signatures for the Stockholm Peace Petition.

In connection with ANITA FRUCHTBAUM SALISBURY, T-1 stated she shares the same political views as her sister, but is less vocal about it.

ANITA FRUCHTBAUM SALISBURY, 425 Central Park West, New York City, was interviewed at her place of employment, J. P. Foley and Company, 50 East 42nd Street, New York City, on June 26, 1956, by SAs RICHARD T. BRADSKY and ROBERT W. CONOLAN. Mrs. SALISBURY stated that she met VIVIAN GLASSMAN through her sister, VIVIAN FRUCHTBAUM. She advised that during the war, her sister and GLASSMAN worked at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, and lived together. She would meet GLASSMAN when she visited her sister. She stated she did not get to know GLASSMAN very well, and has not seen her for over ten years.

In response to an inquiry whether she knew if GLASSMAN was a Communist, she stated it was a ridiculous question as she would have no way of knowing GLASSMAN's political beliefs. She was also asked whether her sister, VIVIAN FRUCHTBAUM was a Communist. She stated that this also was a ridiculous question as her sister entertained no Communist beliefs whatsoever, and no one was in a better position to know this than she.

She further stated that neither her sister nor VIVIAN GLASSMAN knew JUDITH COPLON. It was pointed out that they could be friends of COPLON without her knowledge, but she scoffed at this and stated that it would be extremely unlikely.

She stated that she and her former husband had an apartment on West 21st Street, New York City. She did not know whether GLASSMAN had an apartment on West 23rd Street, nor did she know GLASSMAN's sister.

JUDITH COPLON was found guilty June 30, 1949, in District of Columbia of violating Section 793 and 2071, Title 18, United States Code.

The Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia on June 1, 1951, remanded the case for a hearing on whether there had been an interception of telephone calls between COPLON and her attorney. This hearing has not been held.

JUDITH COPLON was convicted in the Southern District of New York on March 7, 1950, and was sentenced March 9, 1950, for violating Section 794, Title 18, United States Code and conspiracy to violate Section 793, 794 and 2071, Title 18, United States Code. These convictions involved espionage activities for Soviet Russia.

With regard to the above conviction, the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit reversed the conviction on December 5, 1950, and remanded the case for a new trial.

NY 100-115952

The United States Supreme Court on January 26, 1952, refused to review either decision on writs of Certiorari, JUDITH COPLON has not been retried.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" dated May 14, 1951, prepared and released by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the Stockholm Peace Petition:

"Stockholm Peace Petition

- "1. Cited as Communist.
(Congressional Committee on Un-American Activities, interim statement issued on the Communist 'Peace Petition' Campaign, July 13, 1950.)"

On March 9, 1951, DAVID GREENGLASS, an admitted Soviet espionage agent, was interviewed by SA ROBERT F. ROYAL and RICHARD T. KRADSKY at City Prison, New York City. GREENGLASS advised the Agents that on one occasion he had asked JULIUS ROSENBERG, executed Soviet espionage agent, sometime in 1947 if JOEL BARR and VIVIAN GLASSMAN were in the espionage network. ROSENBERG answered sharply "no." However, a short time later, ROSENBERG told GREENGLASS that JOEL BARR was active in the espionage network. GREENGLASS stated that when ROSENBERG answered "no" to this question concerning JOEL BARR and VIVIAN GLASSMAN in the manner in which he did, he meant that BARR and GLASSMAN were involved, but that he did not want to talk about it.

On August 3, 1950, VIVIAN GLASSMAN advised SAs ROBERT F. ROYAL and RICHARD T. KRADSKY that on July 22, 1950, she made an airplane trip to Cleveland, Ohio, under the fictitious name Mrs. S. GOLDBERG and offered WILLIAM PERL $2000 to flee to Mexico. GLASSMAN advised that the money was received from an unknown man who called at her apartment on July 21, 1950, but she refused to assist in identifying this individual.

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were convicted of conspiracy to commit espionage against the United States and were executed at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York, on June 19, 1953.

WILLIAM PERL is incarcerated in United States Penitentiary, Terre Haute, Indiana, serving a five year sentence for having committed perjury before a United States Federal Grand Jury, Southern District of New York, in that he denied knowing JULIUS ROSENBERG and MORTON SOBELL.

SOBELL is incarcerated in Alcatraz Penitentiary, California, serving a 30 year sentence after conviction on a charge of conspiracy to commit espionage with JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG on behalf of the Soviet Union.

In connection with ANITA FRUCHTBAUM SALISBURY, T-2 stated that she shares the same political views as her sister, but is less vocal about it.

On March 13, 1953, Mrs. VIVIAN FRUCHTBAUM CARLIN was contacted at her residence, 0-67, Fairlawn Parkway, Fairlawn, New Jersey, by SAs WINFRED ELDER JESTER and STUART E. CHALIFOUX. When advised of the identity of the agents, VIVIAN FRUCHTBAUM CARLIN requested to know the nature of the interview and when advised that they wished to talk to her concerning persons she had been employed with at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, in 1942 and 1943, she stated that this employment had taken place so long ago, that she did not feel she would be able to furnish the agents with any information.

The agents thereupon advised her that they would like to ask her some questions concerning VIVIAN GLASSMAN. Mrs. CARLIN again stated that it had been so long since she had worked with GLASSMAN, that she did not feel she would be able to furnish any information. At this point, the agents requested that she at least give them the opportunity of asking her the questions, to which she again gave the same answer. Mrs. CARLIN was then asked if she would prefer not to speak to the agents at all and she answered yes.

ANITA FRUCHTBAUM SALISBURY, 425 Central Park West, New York City, was interviewed at her place of employment, J. P. Foley and Company, 50 East 42nd Street, New York City, on June 26, 1956, by SAs RICHARD T. HRADSKY and ROBERT W. COHOLAN. Mrs. SALISBURY stated that she met VIVIAN GLASSMAN through her sister, VIVIAN FRUCHTBAUM. She advised that during the war, her sister and GLASSMAN worked at Fort Monmouth, New Jersey, and lived together. She would meet GLASSMAN when she visited her sister. She stated she did not get to know GLASSMAN very well, and has not seen her for over ten years.

The records of the Board of Elections, New York City, as checked by SA FRANCIS J. VOGT on October 28, 1955, reflect that 1952 and 1953 LEONI ADLER, 185 Claremont Avenue failed to list any party affiliation. In 1954 LEONI ADLER registered as a supporter of one of the two major political parties. In 1952, 1953 and 1954 PAUL ADLER, 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, registered as a supporter of one of the two major political parties.

Upon registering in 1954, LEONI ADLER indicated she was 32 years of age, married, born in Germany, naturalized February, 1946, at Poughkeepsie, New York and had resided four years in the State and three and one half years in the election district. In 1954 PAUL ADLER indicated he was 38 years of age, married, born in Germany, naturalized in December, 1952, in the Southern District of New York and had resided seven years in the State and three and one half years in the election district.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York as checked by SE DONALD G. STRELETZKY on October 18, 1955, reflect a credit report dated May 24, 1955, which indicated PAUL ADLER (wife, LEONA), 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, was 40 years of age. He is Purchasing Agent with the Israel Corporation of America, 400 Madison Avenue, New York City, and has been so engaged for four years. They are exporters of general merchandise. ADLER's income was reported as being $5,000.00 yearly.

on January 8, 1957. T-1 stated that the subject mentioned that they were moving to a cooperative development in Brooklyn but did not give any particulars.

On January 8, 1957, T-1 advised that the subject and her family had moved from 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, on that date.

T-2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 14, 1957, that the subject moved from 185 Claremont Avenue, New York City, to 125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York, on January 8, 1957.

Mr. KENNETH KLINGER, superintendent, 125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York, advised SA ROBERT W. COHOLAN on January 14, 1957, that Mr. and Mrs. ALBERT SOCOLOV and their three children live in Apartment 12D at this address. Mr. KLINGER stated that they have a three bedroom apartment. Mr. KLINGER added that he knew very little concerning the SOCOLOV'S and suggested that the office of James Felt and Company, 362 Fifth Avenue, be contacted as they manage the development.

Mrs. F. MILLER, clerk, James Felt and Company, 362 Fifth Avenue, New York City, advised SA ROBERT W. COHOLAN on January 14, 1957, that ALBERT and JUDITH SOCOLOV reside in Apartment 12D, 125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York. Mrs. MILLER stated that this is a cooperative development buildg and managed by James Felt and Company. Mrs. MILLER further stated that the SOCOLOV'S purchased their apartment for $3,300 and they pay a rental of $106 per month.

At approximately 5:45 p.m., 4/11/57, the following information in substance was received from NY 1537-S*, whose identity must be protected. This is being submitted for information.

JACK MC MANUS and JIM ARONSON, both of the "National Guardian" staff, conferred with NEEDLEMAN at the latter's office. ARONSON asked NEEDLEMAN what he thought about the SOBLE case. NEEDLEMAN went into a lengthy explanation as to how he had been obtaining evidence which would discredit BORIS MORROS. He mentioned material received from SIDNEY KAUFMAN concerning foreign films and information concerning dealings with music publishers in regard to "War and Peace." NEEDLEMAN then told MC MANUS and ARONSON about a client of his, one GEORGE ADAMOUR, who was questioned by the FBI concerning his association with JACK SOBLE. NEEDLEMAN mentioned that the questioning centered about ADAMOUR's meeting with SOBLE at an unidentified hotel. NEEDLEMAN said it was his opinion with regard to the ADAMOUR incident that the FBI had been trailing SOBLE at the time of the meeting or that the SOBLES were talking. NEEDLEMAN then told them that the "whole business in the papers" shocked him and that he could not believe that they had pleaded guilty without some deal having been made.

According to the informant, ARONSON then commented that he knows BORIS (MORROS) and that he is a "phony liar." ARONSON told NEEDLEMAN that BORIS "took" a man named BALL for $50,000.00 on the music rights for "War and Peace," and that BALL had to make a trip to Europe in order to recover $40,000.00 of his money. ARONSON mentioned that BORIS still has $10,000.00 belonging to BALL. NEEDLEMAN then commented that he thought that if BORIS ever got on the stand, "We could have murdered him."

ARONSON then commented that he and MC MANUS felt there was something fishy going on and said that they did not know how to handle it. NEEDLEMAN said that while they were with him he could contact his old friend HAROLD FRANKEL who is representing ALBAM (JACOB ALBAM). ARONSON commented that "they left Albam holding the bag if he does not plead guilty." According to the informant, NEEDLEMAN then made a telephone call to HAROLD FRANKEL regarding the SOBLE case. The informant said that at the conclusion of the call, NEEDLEMAN commented to ARONSON and MC MANUS that he was told that there was not a deal and with this, they all laughed.

NEEDLEMAN then stated that in his mind, there was no question but that a deal had been made and said that it appeared to him to be a parallel situation to the ALFRED DEAN SLACK case, saying that perhaps they did get material from a library or place like that and passed it on so they could plead guilty to one of the lesser charges. ARONSON then commented that he knew SOBLE was a good friend of BORIS (BORIS MORROS).

ARONSON then asked NEEDLEMAN if he thought that the STERNS (ALFRED and MARTHA STERN) would be indicted. NEEDLEMAN said he did not think so and then explained that VAN TASSEL (AL VAN TASSEL) had been called before the grand jury to explain his business association with STERN. MC MANUS then asked NEEDLEMAN if he had any idea as to where the present grand jury is going. NEEDLEMAN then told them that BEN RESNICK had been called before the jury and had been questioned regarding activities back as far as 1920. NEEDLEMAN then commented "Resnick was through in 1930."

ARONSON then asked NEEDLEMAN if he thought the paper (National Guardian) should try to draw a parallel between the SOBLE and the SLACK case. NEEDLEMAN told them that they should wait a while and see how things go and suggested they not get "out on a limb" He suggested that they might look into SOBLE's mental condition. NEEDLEMAN stated that SOBLE'S attorney probably advised him to take the plea as the lesser of two evils after seeing his mental condition. NEEDLEMAN then commented, "The best gal in this whole deal was Judy Coplon." He then went on to explain that people are under terrific pressure in a circumstance such as this.

MC MANUS told NEEDLEMAN that they "knocked this thing around all day" and thought that if they could do something to "knock the government in the head" that it would be a good thing. MC MANUS then reverted to the SLACK case and said, "The FBI got their hands on Gold, a sick guy, and their victims were the Rosenbergs (JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG) and Slack." He then commented that perhaps the government has something on MORROS. ARONSON then commented that MORROS had been in and out of Russia many times. NEEDLEMAN then suggested that perhaps they would be better off to let the entire matter rest this week in order to give him time to have lunch with FRANKEL and get the whole story before making a move.

MC MANUS and ARONSON, according to the informant, then stated they were considering running a story on SOBLE pointing out his mental condition and that beside this article they were intending to run a story on SLACK, pointing out that he plead guilty to avoid the death penalty. NEEDLEMAN cautioned them that they should be careful and not discredit either SOBLES' or SLACK's attorneys and suggested that if they did decide to run anything in the paper that he first be given an opportunity to see the copy. He then suggested that perhaps the government agreed with the SOBLES to let Mrs. SOBLE off as they did in the case of RUTH GREENGLASS.

KELLY.

DETAILS: On May 25, 1957, HARRY SINGER, United States Customs, Idlewild Airport, called SA THOMAS J. O'HARA, Jr., and stated that the subject had arrived from Mexico at Idlewild Airport, New York City, at 1:00 a.m. on May 25, 1957, aboard Air France Flight 070. She was accompanied by two daughters, CARLA, age 8, and SUSANA, age 9. She gave a local New York City address of Hotel Olcott, New York City.

EUGENE FISHBEIN, Manager of the Hotel Olcott, 27 West 72nd Street, New York City, was contacted by SAS THOMAS J. BARRY and FRANCIS W. ZANGLE on May 27, 28, 29, 31, and June 3, 1957. He advised that subject and her two daughters had checked into the hotel on the morning of May 25, 1957. She was assigned Room 1109 which is a suite of two rooms with accommodations for light housekeeping.

FISHBEIN stated during the course of the week he had occasion to observe the subject at various times during the day and had seen her and the children in the lobby. They did not appear to have any visitors.

On June 1, 1957, subject and her daughters checked out of the hotel and advised they were departing via United Airlines on that evening to return to Mexico.

Subject was interviewed on the evening of May 31, 1957, by SAS THOMAS J. BARRY and FRANCIS W. ZANGLE. She advised that the purpose of her trip to New York was to see a heart specialist about one of her daughters who she feared was suffering from a heart murmur.

She stated she had left the United States in 1946 after her marriage to ROBERTO GUARDIA BERDECIO and since that time had returned only twice. Once she visited her parents in the Fall of 1948 and was also here in 1953 after the death of her father, JULIUS DAVIS. She remained in New York City at that time for about a month in order to settle the affairs of her father's estate.

Shortly after her return to Mexico in 1953 her mother, Mrs. REBECCA DAVIS, and her sister, ELLEN DAVIS, gave up their residence in New York and came to Mexico where they now reside with her.

The subject admitted knowing JUDITH COPLON and FLORA DON WOVSCHIN. She said FLORA DON WOVSCHIN was her best friend during their school days. They both attended Fieldston High School, Barnard College, and the University of Wisconsin. She said that WOVSCHIN had met a Russian in the United States and had married him and departed this country around 1946. She later heard that WOVSCHIN had died. She said WOVSCHIN's mother had told her that she had received a death certificate from the USSR attesting that FLORA DON WOVSCHIN had died of pneumonia in Vladivostok. Subject said that WOVSCHIN's mother now resides in Mexico City.

Subject stated that she did not recall exactly how WOVSCHIN met the man she married, NIKOLAI KARPEKOV, but she supposed that it was because of her interest in Russian War Relief, an organization which WOVSCHIN, but not she, worked for even when they were still in school. Subject said that KARPEKOV was the only Russian national that she had ever met through WOVSCHIN or any other way. This meeting came about during the Spring of 1946.

She said that on this occasion KARPEKOV, WOVSCHIN, BERDECIO, and she all went to Jones Beach together for a day's outing. When they saw WOVSCHIN again without KARPEKOV she and BERDECIO tried to talk WOVSCHIN out of marrying KARPEKOV. She said they did this because they felt that WOVSCHIN was not in love with KARPEKOV and that the only reason she seemed to want to marry him was in order to go to Russia.

WOVSCHIN was married to KARPEKOV in a ceremony in the Russian Embassy, Washington, D. C., subject stated, but she herself was not present at the wedding. Subject recalled the wedding might have taken place in New York City at one of the Russian establishments, she was not sure which.

Shortly after they were married, WOVSCHIN and KARPEKOV left the United States and subject next heard from WOVSCHIN in a letter from Beirut. In this letter WOVSCHIN did not appear too happy with her marriage.

Shortly after that in September, 1946, subject married BERDECIO and they sent an announcement of the marriage to WOVSCHIN to an address of WOVSCHIN's uncle who resided in Russia. Subject said she got this address from WOVSCHIN's mother who, at that time, resided in New York. Subject said she received a telegram of congratulations from WOVSCHIN and that was the last she had ever heard from her.

Concerning JUDITH COPLON, subject stated she met COPLON in her sophomore year at Barnard College, New York City. She said she was never as close to COPLON as she was to WOVSCHIN. She described her friendship with COPLON as merely a casual one.

She said after she left college she went to Mexico in December of 1943, where she was employed as a messenger in the Office of Naval Intelligence at the American Embassy in Mexico City. It was during that time that she met ROBERTO GUARDIA BERDECIO.

In July of 1944 she returned to the United States and was going to look for a job which would require more of her talents than the messenger job did in Mexico. She said that she was qualified as an economist.

Shortly after her return to New York in the Summer of 1944, JUDITH COPLON called her on the phone and asked her what her plans were. She said she did not know how COPLON knew that she was back in New York, but presumed that COPLON had heard from one of their fellow alumnae from Barnard. She told COPLON that she was looking for a job and COPLON suggested to her that she file an application with the Office of Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs (OCIAA).

COPLON told her that HARRY CONOVER, a former employee in COPLON's branch of the Justice Department, had recently transferred to OCIAA. COPLON suggested that CONOVER might be able to assist subject in obtaining placement with OCIAA. She obtained the job at OCIAA as COPLON had suggested and was stationed in Washington, D. C.

There she resumed her close acquaintanceship with FLORA DON WOVSCHIN who was then an employee of the State Department, but she said she saw very little of COPLON in Washington or at anytime thereafter. She said she was very surprised to read that COPLON was arrested and that she has not corresponded with COPLON at anytime since.

Subject stated that she did not know whether WOVSCHIN or COPLON were ever Communists and she denied that she herself was ever a Communist and stated she was not now a Communist.

She continued throughout the interview to insist that she had never been approached by anyone to assist the Soviets in any way and that she had never done so. She advised that she had never turned over any documents or revealed any confidential information to the Soviets or anyone else and had never been asked to do so.

She stated that JOSE ANTONIO ARZE was a friend of her husband who looked her up in the United States after her return from Mexico. She stated she knew very little about ARZE except that he was a Bolivian and a friend of her husband. She said she saw him a few times in the United States during 1945 and on one occasion ARZE took her to a New Year's Eve party at the home of some of his Bolivian friends who resided in Brooklyn. She did not recall their names or the location of their home. She said that the New Year's Eve party was probably on December 31, 1944, or January 1, 1945.

She said that she had heard from her husband recently that ARZE died. She believed he had died somewhere in Mexico of something like a liver ailment and she thought he had died about a year and a half ago.

Subject stated that she continued to retain her United States citizenship and she presently resides in Mexico with the status of "Immigrado". She stated she does not intend to give up her American citizenship. She stated she is acquainted with many Americans who now reside in Mexico. She stated she did not know whether there were any Communists among this group of Americans because such matters as political beliefs were never discussed among the group. She said that she knew they were liberals but that was all she would say. She said she did not know why they wanted to leave the United States and reside in Mexico.

She said she had flown here via Air France but could not obtain return reservations aboard Air France and therefore had obtained return reservations aboard Eastern Airlines, departing Saturday night, June 1, 1957.

JUDITH COPLON

In the Spring of 1953, T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, stated that the subject considered JUDITH COPLON to be one of her closest friends with whom she continues to correspond. The subject had invited COPLON to visit her during the Summer of 1953 and COPLON accepted the invitation.

However, on July 7, 1953, T-1 advised that COPLON informed the subject that she would not be able to visit her that summer inasmuch as the Federal Bureau of Investigation was keeping a close track of her.

JUDITH COPLON was found guilty on June 30, 1949, in the District of Columbia of violating Sections 793 and 2071, Title 18, United States Code.

JUDITH COPLON was convicted in the Southern District of New York on March 7, 1950, and was sentenced on March 9, 1950, for violating Section 794, Title 18, United States Code, and conspiracy to violate 793, 794 and 2071, Title 18, United States Code. The convictions involving espionage activities for Soviet Russia.

With regard to the above convictions, the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, reversed the convictions on February 5, 1950, and remanded the case for a new trial.

The Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, on June 1, 1951, remanded the case for a hearing on whether there had been an interception of telephone calls between COPLON and her attorney. This hearing has not been held.

The United States Supreme Court on January 28, 1952, refused to review either decision on writs of certiorari. JUDITH COPLON has not been retried.

FLORA DON WOVSCHIN

MARIA WICHER, mother of FLORA DON WOVSCHIN, was interviewed on January 22 and 23, 1952, in Decatur, Georgia, by SAS DALLAS MOBLEY and RICHARD A. MINIHAN.

MARIA WICHER stated that subject shared FLORA DON WOVSCHIN's pro-Russian views but was not quite as strong in these views as WOVSCHIN. She stated WOVSCHIN had worked for Russian War Relief during World War II and believed that the subject had been in this work also. MARIA WICHER stated that she too had worked for Russian War Relief.

MARIA WICHER stated that FLORA DON WOVSCHIN was married in 1946 to NIKOLAI KARPEKOV, an employee of the Amtorg Trading Corporation, New York City. WICHER stated that the marriage was performed by a Russian official, identity unknown, at the Russian Consulate in New York City. MARIA WICHER said that KARPEKOVs sailed for Russia on July 19, 1946.

By memorandum dated February 28, 1942, BENJAMIN MANDELL, Director of Research of the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., described the Russian War Relief as a Communist controlled front organization.

The memo stated that the Russian War Relief was started at a rally held July 2, 1941, in New York City. This rally was sponsored by the American Council on Soviet Relations which was later changed to the National Council of American Soviet Friendship, which in turn was cited as subversive and Communistic by Attorney General TOM CLARK in letters to the Loyalty Review Board released December 24, 1947, and September 21, 1948.

JOSE ANTONIO ARZE

The February 19, 1945, issue of the "Daily Worker", an East Coast Communist newspaper, contained an article which announced that JOSE ANTONIO ARZE, head of the Bolivian Left Revolutionary Party (PIR), was to deliver a series of eight weekly lectures on Latin America beginning on February 19, 1945.

SYNOPSIS:

Subject continues to reside at 125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York. MARION DAVIS BERDECIO interviewed 5/31/57, and stated JUDITH COPLON was a friend from college days, but that she had not corresponded with COPLON since COPLON's arrest.

DETAILS:

On July 10, 1957, KENNETH KLINGER, Superintendent, 115-125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York, advised SA ROBERT S. KENNEMUR that JUDITH COPLON SOCOLOV continues to reside in Apartment 12-D, 125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York. KLINGER said he had learned nothing of any summer vacation plans of the subject and her family but stated that the tenant usually advised him when they were going on vacation so he could shut off their utilities.

He said that in the event they do advise him of vacation plans, he would attempt to determine their destination.

On May 31, 1957, MARION DAVIS BERDECIO of Mexico City, Mexico, was interviewed by SAS THOMAS J. BARRY and FRANCIS W. ZANGLE of the New York Office. BERDECIO advised that she met JUDITH COPLON in her sophomore year at Barnard College, New York City. She described her friendship with COPLON as merely a casual one.

BERDECIO said she went to Mexico in December, 1943, where she was employed as a messenger in the Office of Naval Intelligence at the American Embassy in Mexico City. In July, 1944, she returned to the United States and was going to look for a job which would require more of her talents than the messenger job did in Mexico. She said she was qualified as an economist.

Shortly after her return to New York in the summer of 1944, JUDITH COPLON called her on the phone and asked her what her plans were. She said she did not know how COPLON knew she was back in New York but presumed that COPLON had heard this information from one of their fellow alumnae from Barnard College. She told COPLON that she was looking for a job, and COPLON suggested to her that she file an application with the Office of the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs (OCIAA).

COPLON told her that HARRY CONOVER, a former employee in COPLON's branch of the Justice Department had recently transferred to OCIAA. COPLON suggested that CONOVER might be able to assist BERDECIO in obtaining placement in OCIAA. BERDECIO said she obtained the job at OCIAA as COPLON suggested and was stationed in Washington, D. C.

She said she saw very little of COPLON in Washington or at any time thereafter. She said she was surprised to read that COPLON was arrested and that she had not corresponded with COPLON at any time since.

BERDECIO said that she did not know if COPLON was ever a Communist and she denied that she herself was ever a Communist and stated that she was not now a Communist.

New York report of SA FRANCIS W. ZANGLE dated 8/24/57 at New York, captioned as above, reflects the results of an interview with the subject on 5/31/57 in New York City.

During the course of this interview, the subject said that after she left college, she went to Mexico in December of 1943 where she was employed as a messenger in the U. S. Office of Naval Intelligence at the American Embassy in Mexico City.

Shortly after her return to New York in July, 1944, JUDITH COPLON called her on the phone and learned that the subject was looking for a job. COPLON at that time suggested to her that she file an application with the Office of Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, (OCIAA). COPLON told her that one HARRY CONOVER, a former employee in COPLON's branch of the Justice Dept., had at that time recently transferred to OCIAA, and suggested that CONOVER might be able to assist the subject in obtaining placement with OCIAA. The subject obtained the job at OCIAA as COPLON had suggested and was stationed in Washington, D. C.

The New York report mentioned above, set forth a lead for WFO to identify HARRY CONOVER, former employee of OCIAA.

CONOVER advised that he did not recall MARION DAVIS BERDECIO and he was unable to recognize a photograph of her. He stated that he was employed at the Office of Co-ordination of Inter-American Affairs (Co-ordinator's Office) from August, 1944, to February, 1945. He stated that during the approximate six months he was employed in the Co-ordinator's Office, he did not recall JUDITH COPLON having referred anyone to him in connection with employment there.

Concerning JUDITH COPLON, CONOVER advised that he recalled her as an employee of the Economic Warfare Section, Department of Justice, in New York City. He stated that he was employed in this same section, but was stationed in Washington, D. C. He said that during the course of a year, he visited New York on business three or four times and that during his visits to the Economic Warfare Section there, he became acquainted with COPLON. CONOVER further stated that in the Spring of 1944, COPLON came to Washington, D. C., on temporary assignment and for a time shared an office with NORMAN BURSNER, during which time, she and BURSNER were writing a paper on the steel industry.

CONOVER advised that he had no social contact with COPLON and spoke scarcely ten words to her in his life. He said that he had not seen or heard from her since he left the Justice Department. He stated that at the time he knew COPLON, he had no reason to believe her to be in any way connected with communism or to have been unusually pro-Russian. He stated that at the time of the newspaper publicity concerning COPLON's arrest on espionage charges in 1949, he searched his recollection in an attempt to reappraise his knowledge of her, but that the only thing that came to his mind was that she, along with ROBERT FAHLFORTH, JAMES S. MARTIN, and NORMAN BURSNER, subscribed to the theory that large United States business firms were responsible for the rise of ADOLPH HITLER to power in Germany, and had assisted Germany in the hope he would some day attack Russia.

CONOVER stated that he did not agree with this thesis and his disagreement was one of the reasons he decided to leave the Justice Department in mid 1944. In this connection, CONOVER stated that WOHLFORTH, MARTIN, and BURSLE, in 1944, increasingly pointed the work of the Economic Warfare Section toward post-war planning and the "smearing" of American enterprise, for which he did not think the section was qualified. He stated that at the time, he was of the opinion that the section should have concerned itself with trying to win the war by assisting in the selection of bombing targets in Germany and Japan and should have waited until the war was won before taking up the problem of reconstruction. CONOVER indicated that he was particularly surprised at JAMES MARTIN's attitude in this regard. He mentioned that MARTIN had graduated from Saint John's College in Annapolis, Maryland, at which time, he was not much interested in contemporary events. He stated, however, that after MARTIN's employment by the Department of Justice, he wholeheartedly supported the thesis described above going along with WOHLFORTH and BURSLE in this regard. CONOVER added that he was rather astonished to read in the "New York Times" newspaper in May, 1946, that MARTIN had at that time shared the speaker's platform with the Soviet representative to the United Nations at the meeting, which he believed to be sponsored by the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship.

The National Council of American-Soviet Friendship has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

TITLE OF CASE JUDITH COPLON, was.		Report made by NORMAN E. BLISS	Typed By pav
		CHARACTER OF CASE ESPIONAGE, - R

Synopsis:

Subject continues to reside 125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, NY. HARRY CONOVER, in interview 9/23/57, advised he recalled COPLON as a former employee, Economic Warfare Section, U.S. Department of Justice, NYC. CONOVER stated he did not know COPLON socially, and, at the time he knew her, he had no reason to believe she was in any way connected with Communism or was unusually pro-Russian.

DETAILS:

On November 113, 1957, KENNETH KLINGER, Superintendent, 115-125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York, advised SA NORMAN E. BLISS that the subject continues to reside in Apartment 12D at this address. He stated that he sees little activity of any sort on the part of the subject and said that there has been nothing concerning her actions which could be regarded as unusual as far as he can observe.

On September 23, 1957, HARRY CONOVER (EDWARD HENRY CONOVER), in charge of Economic Affairs, Bureau of Internal Organizations, Office of Internal Economic and Social Affairs, Department of State, Arlington Towers Building, Arlington, Virginia, was interviewed by SAS ROBERT C. BYRNES and THOMAS A. MENDENHALL. Concerning JUDITH COPLON, CONOVER advised that he recalled her as an employee of the Economic Warfare Section, Department of Justice, in New York City. He stated that he was employed in this same section, but was stationed in Washington, D.C. He said that during the course of a year, he visited New York on business three or four times and that during his visits to the Economic Warfare Section there, he became acquainted with COPLON. CONOVER further stated that in the Spring of 1944, COPLON came to Washington, D.C., on temporary assignment and for a time shared an office with NORMAN BURSLEER, during which time she and BURSLEER were writing a paper on the steel industry.

CONOVER advised that he had no social contact with COPLON and spoke scarcely ten words to her in his life. He said that he had not seen or heard from her since he left the Justice Department. He stated that at the time he knew COPLON, he had no reason to believe her to be in any way connected with communism or to have been unusually pro-Russian. He stated that at the time of the newspaper publicity concerning COPLON's arrest on espionage charges in 1949, he searched his recollection in an attempt to reappraise his knowledge of her, but that the only thing that came to his mind was that she, among others, subscribed to the theory that large United States business firms were responsible for the rise of ADOLPH HITLER to power in Germany, and had assisted Germany in the hope he would some day attack Russia.

EDNA COLEMAN discussed with NEEDLEMAN various CP matters as follows:

NEEDLEMAN asked, "Are you folks out?(of the CP). I don't know whether you...I don't know...Do you still attend meetings?" EDNA replied, " I think within the last couple of weeks I made a move to be registered." With regard to dissension in the CP, NEEDLEMAN said, "I'm satisfied that the Party has just no reason for existence so long as they have these two contending, three contending groups." NEEDLEMAN mentioned that HOWARD FAST is starting to name names and that LOUISE BERMAN is one of the individuals referred to indirectly by FAST. NEEDLEMAN asked about EDNA's husband, SAM, and EDNA revealed that he had gotten back three-fourths of his bail. EDNA mentioned the possibility of initiating further action in SAM's case. NEEDLEMAN, however, thought it too soon after the decision to do anything and observed that they could move after a year to dismiss the indictment. NEEDLEMAN related that he had spoken to SOCOLOV, (AL SOCOLOV), about the outstanding indictment against JUDY COPLON. According to NEEDLEMAN, SOCOLOV said, "We talked to so many lawyers. Most of them are of the opinion let sleeping ghosts lie".

In discussing VICKIE, (probably VICKIE LAWRENCE), EDNA said VICKIE had been a very close friend of hers but that they were not speaking due to a political disagreement over JOHN GATES. NEEDLEMAN said MARTY LIFFLANDER must agree with "them", (LAURENCES), as the LAURENCES and LIFFLANDERS had recently visited with the WALLERSTEINS.

EDNA told NEEDLEMAN that she is currently studying human relations and is working on organizing a neighborhood council as part of a course she is studying. She said the project is being sponsored by the National Council of Christians and Jews, (inaudible), New York University.

HAURICE PAUL, aka MORRIS KURTZ, who was referred to NEEDLEMAN by the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, consulted the latter about his forthcoming INS hearing on 11/26/57. In response to NEEDLEMAN's questions, PAUL revealed that he had been a member of the IWO until it was dissolved and had marched in the May Day Parade. With regard to CP membership, NEEDLEMAN asked, "Ever a Communist Party member?" PAUL replied, "I should tell you that?" NEEDLEMAN retorted, "All right, don't tell me. If you asked the question, then I don't want you to tell me. When we go up there, (INS), you are going to invoke the Fifth Amendment on all questions other than your name and address". NEEDLEMAN cautioned PAUL that to do otherwise would subject him to the risk of deportation.

Concerning his activities, PAUL revealed the following: He entered the U.S. in 1922 and is from the Ukraine. He has not had an employer since the beginning of 1953. He was separated from his first wife in 1938 and was divorced in August, 1956. His first wife is in Minneapolis. Since his separation, he has been living with another woman and has a daughter, LISA, almost 20 years old. PAUL mentioned the name ETHEL HEPBURN who informant thought could be either his first or second wife. He has a friend, MARY LESEUR (ph), who he has known since the 1920's and who used to stay at his place while visiting in NYC. PAUL said "they (FBI?) followed her every step of the way". PAUL said the FBI followed him for some time and thought it due to his trade union activities. In the late 20's he became an organizer in the Amalgamated Clothing Workers and worked with them until 1938. In 1940, he withdrew altogether from the union. PAUL claimed the FBI followed him in Chicago and contacted him in 1943 "on the job" in Florida to ask whether he was ever in France or had connections with French people. PAUL said he was asked if he had ever been a CP member and that he had claimed there was possibly a mix-up on his name and that he was being confused with someone else. PAUL said he used the name MORRIS KURTZ when he came to the U.S. but had not changed his name legally. He claimed, however, to have notified the Alien Enemy Registration Board. PAUL claimed to have been approached, (by the FBI?), 2 or 3 times since 1943, most recently during last May or June, but said he had not talked to "them". PAUL specifically recalled that the FBI had talked to Dr. FRANK in Florida which was where he stayed.

NEEDLEMAN assured PAUL he would meet the latter at 70 Columbus Avenue (INS) at 9:30 a.m., 11/26/57. PAUL gave NEEDLEMAN his telephone number as AL5-0965. NEEDLEMAN asked if there were any "stool pigeons" that could identify him and PAUL said he did not think there were.

Bulet dated 12/9/57 requested the WFO to identify COPLON's dressmaker so that indices on her could be searched, and the significance of her contact with COPLON established.

WFO report dated 3/8/49 in the COPLON case pp. 16, 19 and 48, reflect COPLON in contact in early 1949 with one PERRY MAE BARNES, (aka Perry Mae Lillie), a colored dressmaker residing at 501 23rd Street, N. W. A review of WFO files also reflects that [redacted] advised that on two occasions in February, 1949, COPLON referred to her dressmaker as PERRY MAE LILLIE (LILLY). b7D

The records of Stone's Mercantile Agency Inc., Washington, D. C., checked on 12/16/57 by SA THOMAS A. Mendenhall, contained a report dated 2/26/52 concerning PERRY MAE LILLY, (Terry Mae Lilly), 1861 Monroe Street, N. W. Her husband was listed as ELBERT LILLY. An inquiry from one of Stone's customers on 4/10/57 reflected that ELBERT was at that time employed as a driver for Safeway Stores. A former address of ELBERT and PERRY MAE LILLY was listed as 501 23rd Street, N.W. Stone's also contained a record dated 7/22/44 concerning PERRY MAE YOUNG, 501 23rd Street, N. W., which reflected she was suing ISOM YOUNG of that address for a limited divorce.

WFO indices contain no information concerning ISOM YOUNG, PERRY MAE YOUNG and ELBERT LILLY. RUC.

Enclosed is a Photostat of a 268 page (pages 12 and 13 missing) untitled rough copy manuscript by WILLIAM REUBEN concerning the trial of the US vs. JUDITH COPLON, 4/25/49-6/30/49, at Wash., D.C.

The manuscript was made available to SA ROBERT J. BEATSON by R.L. SULLIVAN, Manager, Claims Department, Universal Carloading and Distributing Co., 345 Hudson St., NYC. Information concerning circumstances of acquisition of manuscript is set out in detail in NY airtel, 12/19/57, captioned "UNSUB.; Espionage Agent who bought Jeep Station Wagon Or Truck And Who Was Known To 'Hara' Reimo Haghanen's Superior", (BUfile65-64539).

The manuscript discredits the FBI and Department of Justice regarding the COPLON investigation and trial, and supports the innocence of JUDITH COPLON. It is written as a quasi-documentary in that it sets forth trial proceedings chronologically and uses many direct quotes from key participants in trial.

Several pages (pages 72-76 and 110-113) contain vituperative comments concerning FBI personnel and policy. Names of Special Agents and Dept of Justice personnel who testified during the trial are set out and their trial testimony and related activities criticized.

There is no information known to the NYO indicating that REUBEN has attempted to publish the manuscript or will attempt to publish it in the future.

Enclosed for the Bureau are five copies of a letter-head memorandum setting forth information concerning three checks drawn by the subject's husband, ALBERT SOCOLOV, for one LIO. LUPERCIO GARZO RAMOS, who cashed them at Juarez, Mexico.

It has also been determined that SOCOLOV, on June 16, 1958, wrote a check for "All World Travel", a New York City travel agency, for $217.76 which is approximately the fare for a round trip from New York City to El Paso, Texas, which adjoins Juarez, Mexico. The information concerning SOCOLOV'S checks was obtained 6/30/58, from R. J. O'REILLY, Manager, First National City Bank of New York, City Hall Branch, 257 Broadway, New York, New York, (protect).

From the above facts it appears likely that SOCOLOV is merely procuring a divorce for a New York client and RAMOS is handling the details at Juarez.

New York does not plan to approach "All World Travel" in this matter inasmuch as that firm was the subject of a brief IS-PO investigation in 1955, and ALEXANDER SPIRO, owner of "All World" was the subject of an IS-R case (Bufile 40-10473).

It is requested that the Bureau have the Legat, Mexico City, through available sources, discreetly identify LUPERCIO GARZO RAMOS.

Re: JUDITH COPLON, with aliases

The subject's husband, ALBERT H. SOCCLOV, an attorney, maintains a checking account at the First National City Bank of New York, 257 Broadway, New York City. It has been determined that he wrote checks to one LIC. (attorney) LUPERCIO GARZO RAMOS on May 29, 1958, June 6, and June 16, 1958. These checks were in the amounts of $100., $75., and $80., respectively.

The May 29 and June 16 checks were cashed by RAMOS at the Bank Comercial Mexicano, Juarez, Ch., Mexico, on June 2 and June 20 respectively. The remittance numbers placed on these checks at Juarez were 419918 and 416707.

The June 6 check was not cashed by RAMOS but was apparently sent by him to one MINNA ROTHENBERG, Brooklyn, New York, who cashed it.

On June 30, it was determined by SA NORMAN E. BLISE that the Aircoach round trip fare from New York, New York, to El Paso, Texas, (which adjoins Juarez, Mexico) costs $201.75.

T-2 advised in May, 1955, that All World Travel, 355 5th Avenue, New York City, operates a travel agency selling airline, steamship and hotel reservations, with their volume of business evenly divided between domestic and overseas travel.

T-3 advised in 1948, that ALEXANDER SPIRO, owner of All World Travel, had praised JOSEPH STALIN in his presence. He further pointed out that it has come to his attention that since SPIRO came to the United States from Poland, he has become sympathetic to the present Polish Communist regime in Warsaw.

On July 16, 1955, KENNETH KLINGER, Superintendent, 115-25 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York, advised that the subject and her husband, ALBERT SOCOLOV, still reside at 125 Ashland Place. He stated that there has been no indication as to when the SOCOLOV's would take their vacation, if any, this summer.

Re New York letter to the Bureau dated 7/8/58 which enclosed a copy of a letterhead memorandum of the same date.

Relet requested that the Bureau have the Legat, Mexico City, through available sources, discreetly identify LUPERCIO GARZA RAMOS.

On 8/31/58 [] advised that the files of the Passport Division of the Mexican Foreign Office contained no record of LUPERCIO GARZA RAMOS. Likewise, MEX-118 advised that no record on GARZA RAMOS could be located through the files of the Federal Judicial Police and the Judicial Police of the Federal District and Territories, as well as the Metropolitan Police of the Federal District.

[] advised that he endeavored to obtain data concerning Attorney LUPERCIO GARZA RAMOS at the offices of the Mexican Bar Association, located at Calle Madero 29, Office 301, Mexico, D. F., as well as at the offices of the National Association of Lawyers, located in Mexico City, but at both places he was advised that it was strictly forbidden to furnish data on their members. As a result, it could not be determined whether or not GARZA RAMOS is a member of these two lawyers' associations.

On 9/2/58 [] advised that Lic. LUPERCIO GARZA RAMOS has been handling legal matters and real estate transactions in Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua, Mexico, since the time of Governor ALFREDO CHAVEZ. His title of attorney was obtained through the Governor. He has never taken a bar examination and has practically no legal background from academic studies.

GARZA RAMOS is a very astute individual. He obtained certain lands in Ciudad Juarez, now known as Fraccionamiento Garza Ramos. No one can explain how he came into possession of these lands. He has obtained other lands and properties, the titles to which are not clear, and he has put them in the names of his wife and children. His brother acts as a collector for him and a front man in many deals. GARZA RAMOS is a member of the Union de Profesionistas and the Confederacion de Organizaciones Populares in Ciudad Juarez. He considers himself as having a taste for poetry.

On 9/4/58 former [redacted] advised that he has known Lic. LUPERCIO GARZA RAMOS since 1932. He is originally from the State of Coahuila. At that time he was a minor employee of the Chihuahua state government, working in Praxedes Guerrero, Municipality of Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua. Later, he was named Assistant District Attorney in Guadalupe in the same municipality.

GARZA RAMOS received the title of attorney from the state government without previous studies or education. Years later he became a notary, which title he still holds. As an attorney he is bad; as a notary, he is unscrupulous. GARZA RAMOS has been involved in difficulties because of considerable notarial acts and the suspicious acquisition of real estate. At the present time he has a considerable amount of capital which he allegedly acquired through real estate deals and the issuing of birth affidavits for people who did not have birth certificates. Numerous attorneys in Juarez and Chihuahua City have been quite outspoken about the complete lack of professional ethics on the part of GARZA RAMOS. It was learned that GARZA RAMOS was not admitted to the lawyers' association in Ciudad Juarez. As a result, he provoked a schism and formed another lawyers' association. Former [redacted] stated that GARZA RAMOS is not to be recommended.

In the event the Bureau and the New York Office desire additional information concerning Lic. LUPERCIO GARZA RAMOS, it is believed that the El Paso Division, which adjoins and covers activities in Ciudad Juarez, Chihuahua, will be in a position to secure additional information.

Mrs. WIDENER attended the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) sponsored celebration of the 167th Anniversary of the Bill of Rights, held 12/15/58, at the Hotel New Yorker, New York, New York. She was accompanied by EDITH KERMIT ROOSEVELT, the granddaughter of THEODORE ROOSEVELT, and Dr. AUGUSTIN VAZQUEZ NAVARRO of Mexico City, Mexico. Dr. NAVARRO is associated with the Institute for Economic and Social Research at Mexico City. Both he and Miss ROOSEVELT are completely anti-Communist. Miss ROOSEVELT attended this function as she is preparing an article for "U.S.A." in which she will undoubtedly mention the ECLC. Dr. VAZQUEZ NAVARRO attended at the invitation of Mrs. WIDENER inasmuch as she felt it would be advisable to have a male escort at this affair.

The speakers were Judge HUBERT T. DELANY, Mrs. DOROTHY MARSHALL and HARVEY O'CONNOR as listed on the invitation to the affair.

Mrs. WIDENER stated that it was announced that $33,000 had been pledged by the audience to support the ECLC. It was announced that CORLISS LAMONT had contributed $12,000. Judge DELANY contributed $1,000. PALMER WEBER contributed $1,000. ROCKWELL KENT, $800. Mrs. WIDENER stated that she had contributed $5.00 under the name of ALICE BERAZOWSKY.

Mrs. WIDENER added that she observed IRVING

BEININ in attendance at this affair.

Mrs. WIDENER stated that an individual who identified himself as the father of LEONARD BOUDIN, sat at her table. He stated that his brother, LOUIS BOUDIN was a great radical and the author of a book called "The Class Struggle." His brother LOUIS was congratulated by LENIN for his work in writing the book. As a result LENIN invited LOUIS BOUDIN to be a professor of law at the University of Moscow. However, this was turned down by the author BOUDIN.

This individual (the father of ^{LEONARD} ~~LOUIS~~ BOUDIN) stated that a revolution was necessary in the US in order to bring about Socialism. However, he stated that conditions here were better-much better. This individual added that LEONARD BOUDIN was planning to go to Czechoslovakia during January, 1959, for some important work. He stated conditions in Czechoslovakia were good.

This individual (the father of LEONARD BOUDIN) added that his son had really made his reputation in the COPLON case. As a result, judges now treat LEONARD BOUDIN with great respect. He continued that his son visits JUDY COPLON occasionally and that he has advised COPLON to keep out of the public eye.

This individual (the father of LEONARD BOUDIN) commented that his other son had lost a $10,000 a year job with an advertising agency because of Senator MC CARTHY. This son was given six month severance pay.

Copies of this letter are being furnished to the Albany, Bost and Los Angeles Offices inasmuch as the subjects, residing in their territories, are mentioned in the letter.

In June, 1958, NY T-1 advised that

b7D

NY T-2 advised on September 2, 1958, that RANOS has been handling legal matters and real estate transactions in Ciudad Juarez, Mexico, since the time of Governor ALFREDO CHAVEZ. His title of attorney was obtained through the Governor. He has never taken a bar examination. He obtained certain lands in Juarez, and no one can explain how he came into possession of these lands.

He has obtained other lands and properties, the titles to which are not clear, and he has put them in the names of his wife and children.

NY T-3 advised on September 4, 1958, that he has known RANOS since 1932. NY T-3 described him as a bad attorney and an unscrupulous notary. He has been involved in difficulties because of notarial acts and the suspicious acquisition of real estate. He has considerable capital which he allegedly obtained through real estate deals and the issuing of birth certificates for people who did not have certificates. NY T-3 said that numerous attorneys in Juarez and Chihuahua City have been outpoliced concerning the lack of professional ethics on the part of RANOS.

In October, 1958, ARMANDINO PRUNEDA GONZALEZ, lawyer, Chihuahua City, Mexico, advised SA JOHN J. CREEDEN, JR., that RAMOS has a reputation of handling shady divorce cases by mail, and there is an unconfirmed rumor that he has an agreement with a judge in Juarez to sign divorce papers even though these papers are not legal.

In October, 1958, NY T-4 and NY T-5 advised SA CREEDEN that RAMOS is not known to be a member or sympathizer of the Mexican Communist Party (PCM).

On December 27, 1958, NY T-1 advised that

The National Lawyers Guild was cited as a Communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.

On January 13, 1959, KENNETH KLINGER, Superintendent, 115-125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York, advised that there has been no unusual activity on the part of the subject who still resides in this building with her husband and children.

On 2/27/59, the informant advised that NEEDLEMAN made plans to go to a movie picture with IRVING and DOROTHY KAPLAN that evening.

On 2/28/59, the informant reported that a Mrs. SPILLBAUM (ph) advised NEEDLEMAN that a Mrs. FROME had some literature (apparently pertaining to the Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy) for distribution, as well as petitions to be signed. NEEDLEMAN arranged to have his son, DAVID, obtain this material from Mrs. FROME.

On 2/28/59, the informant reported that NEEDLEMAN advised JULIA GOSHAL that a representative of the Bureau of Internal Revenue had expressed interest in talking to NEEDLEMAN about JULIA GOSHAL's affairs. The latter stated that the Bureau of Internal Revenue wanted "closing statements" (possibly in connection with a house recently purchased by JULIA GOSHAL). NEEDLEMAN stated that his own position was clear and that in view of the confidential nature of a client-attorney relationship, he would give no information. JULIA GOSHAL indicated that she did not want "these statements" given to the Bureau of Internal Revenue. She said she had an appointment at this Bureau on 3/1/59, and would claim that she had been unable to find the documents wanted.

On 3/28/59, the informant reported that NEEDLEMAN found that, because of another engagement, he could not accept the invitation of AL SOCOLOV to dinner on 3/21/59.

On 3/1/59, the informant related that TRUDY GOLDENBERG advised EDITH NEEDLEMAN that there was to be a meeting of the "Steering Committee" on Wednesday night (3/4/59?) at the home of SARAH FILMER. She invited EDITH and GIBBY NEEDLEMAN to the affair. EDITH NEEDLEMAN was not sure they could attend. TRUDY GOLDENBERG mentioned that there was going to be a big meeting on March 11 and "sample leaflets" were being mailed to all the members.

On 3/1/59, the informant advised that MAX SIKORER was to meet NEEDLEMAN at the latter's home the morning of 3/2/59. NEEDLEMAN was representing SIKORER in adoption proceedings.

NEEDLEMAN advised WILLIAM L. STANDARD that he had seen ANATOLI KOROSTELEV the day before and had met the new president of the Amtorg Trading Corporation. NEEDLEMAN revealed that he had invited KOROSTELEV to dinner on 3/2/59. STANDARD was pleased to hear that NEEDLEMAN had "broken the ice." He said that he considered KOROSTELEV to be a very mature individual for whom he had a lot of respect.

NEEDLEMAN said he told KOROSTELEV that he would like to invite STANDARD and his wife too, but KOROSTELEV had suggested that they "keep it in the family."

NEEDLEMAN apologized to AL SOCOLOV for being unable to accept his dinner invitation for 3/2/59.

SAI MAGDOFF inquired whether NEEDLEMAN's friend (HARRY WELLS) was back from Europe with the film he had taken to be developed abroad. NEEDLEMAN said WELLS was due back any day.

NEEDLEMAN referred BARBARA LACY to MORTON HECKERLING, of WILLIAM L. STANDARD's office, for a secretarial job. NEEDLEMAN said she had been a client of his and that her father was ALEX MUNSSELL, who had once turned down an inheritance of one million dollars. He said she was a good typist but had no legal experience. NEEDLEMAN added that she had worked at NYU and was desperately in need of a job. He added that he would vouch for her integrity.

DETAILS:

In April, 1959, NY T-1 advised that the United States Life Insurance Company, 84 William Street, New York City, holds a term life insurance policy for ten thousand dollars on ALBERT SOCOLOV, husband of the subject. This policy was taken out in 1954. At that time an investigation was made of SOCOLOV by a private agency for the insurance company, and his reputation and credit were reported as good. According to NY T-1, the beneficiary of the above mentioned insurance policy is SOCOLOV's wife, JUDITH.

In May, 1959, NY T-2 stated that ALBERT SOCOLOV owns approximately $10,000.00 worth of various stock securities through the firm of Bruns, Nordeman Company, Brokers, 52 Wall Street, New York City.

On May 19, 1959, KENNETH KLINGER, Superintendent, 115-125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York, advised that subject and her husband are still residing in this building and there has been no unusual activity on their part to his knowledge. AL SOCOLOV informed NEEDLEMAN that he had secured a cottage at Hampton Bays, NY, for the week end of Labor Day.

ABRAHAM HIMOFF informed NEEDLEMAN he had been in Chicago and had seen some people, including "Morris". He asked how his case was coming along. NEEDLEMAN told him nothing was happening at the moment, but assured him that the suit had been started.

September 2, 1959

Miss A. STATNEKOO told NEEDLEMAN she had heard something was being done in connection with the importing of Russian crab meat in the US. NEEDLEMAN stated that a test case was supposed to be made, but he had heard no details. Miss STATNEKOO indicated that she could get Russian crab meat advantageously through Switzerland. She asked whether NEEDLEMAN would be interested in handling a test case and how much ^{they} he would charge. NEEDLEMAN replied that he had been going to make such a test case but did not know what it would cost. He and Miss STATNEKOO estimated it might be $2,500. NEEDLEMAN said that whoever bought the test case would be successful because trade with the Soviet Union was ready to be opened up. Miss STATNEKOO indicated that she would like to consider starting such a test case, after talking to an individual in the shipping business. Her one concern was that everyone would begin to import crab meat if the case was won and the time and money would have been spent for someone else's benefit. NEEDLEMAN assured her, however, that as the case progressed, he would take her to see ANATOLI KOROSTELEV, introduce her as the person who had instituted the case, and suggest that she be given first consideration.

SID TOBIAS told NEEDLEMAN that after Labor Day he wanted to discuss with him a matter pertaining to RAY BROWN (widow of SAM BROWN).

NEEDLEMAN ascertained that HY YUDEWITZ had to join the Teachers Union, and arranged to have an application form sent to him at 224 Sullivan Street, NYC.

The informant learned that YUDEWITZ was to receive $4,500 as a starting salary, but would get an increase after he obtained a Masters Degree next January.

JACQUELINE FINK informed NEEDLEMAN that she was looking for a law partner, and hinted that she had him in mind. NEEDLEMAN told her he could not do it, but promised to look for someone for her.

JOSH LAWRENCE told NEEDLEMAN he and four of his brothers owned a house in New Jersey, which their mother occupies at present. LAWRENCE stated that the brothers share in her support. He mentioned one of the brothers had suggested that the house be incorporated for tax purposes. The LAWRENCES wanted NEEDLEMAN to handle the details, but NEEDLEMAN suggested calling MORTON STAVIS, "one of our good friends", in New Jersey.

EVE MIZARA told NEEDLEMAN she had been expatriated and would have to be sworn in again (as an American citizen). She said that even if her legal problems were straightened out by the end of September, she would be frustrated in her desire to go abroad because the swearing in would be put off until after the elections.

MAURINE HOLBERT advised NEEDLEMAN that she wanted to get a loan from a bank, and she requested him to co-sign the notes for her.

FLORENCE WALLERSTEIN informed NEEDLEMAN that JOHN HARRINGTON was endorsed (by the FINLETTER group). She did not know how "Mike" NISSELSON had voted, but had heard that even after NEEDLEMAN had spoken to him, NISSELSON had been doubtful as to what he would do. NEEDLEMAN asked FLORENCE WALLERSTEIN to find out how NISSELSON had voted, and threatened to "fix his wagon" if he did not vote for HARRINGTON.

through IRVING KAPLAN who recommended taking a profit on Stubnitz-Greene as soon as this stock was up two points.

AL SOCOLOV asked NEEDLEMAN where he could go for a short vacation over Labor Day with his wife (JUDITH COPLON) and three children. NEEDLEMAN recommended renting a cottage in Hampton Bays. He mentioned that a party was to be given at the home of PHILIP and OLGA FIELD for the benefit of the 'National Guardian' and the Teachers Union. NEEDLEMAN told SOCOLOV that MAUD RUSSELL, who had just come back from Red China, where she had spent four months, had 'all kinds of things to show and tell' and would provide the entertainment at this affair.

On 7/22/39, NY 994-S*, a highly confidential source whose security must be protected, advised SA ALEXANDER C. BURLINSON that, while on vacation at Hampton Bays, Long Island, he attended a party on Labor Day, September 1th, at the summer home of PHILIP FIELD at Hampton Bays.

MAUDE RUSSELL, who recently had been in China, gave a lecture on China, and showed slides of Chinese scenes. One thousand dollars was collected from the guests at the party, one-third of said amount to be given to the Teachers' Union, one-third to the National Guardian, and one-third to MAUDE RUSSELL. Of the guests present, the informant recognized the following: ISIDORE GIBBY NEEDLEMAN, IRVING KAPLAN, DAVE GREEN and HARRY MAGDOFF. The informant, while at the party, was told that JUDY COPLON was also present.

ALEC JONES advised NEEDLEMAN that SUZANNE GREEN wanted to go away for a week but would be unable to leave unless she could find a place for her son JOHNNY to stay. NEEDLEMAN offered to keep the boy at his home while SHE GREEN was away.

NEEDLEMAN advised IRVING KAPLAN he had met with LEO LINDER that morning and they were all set on the Merritt, Chapman and Scott case.

NEEDLEMAN told WILLIAM AHERNSTON to invite him to "certain conventions". AHERNSTON remarked that these gatherings would take place in November and December. He asked whether NEEDLEMAN would attend a mass meeting on September 25, 1959. NEEDLEMAN said he had planned to be there but would have to take care of his son, who had sustained a broken leg.

ALBERTSON inquired whether NEEDLEMAN planned to be at an affair sponsored by the Independent Socialist Party. NEEDLEMAN replied that he was not going because he did not know what he could do there. However, he offered to try to get other people, who would be "helpful", to attend. ALBERTSON said his "good old friends, the Trotskyites" were "screaming murder". He added that he would be there "officially".

ALBERTSON indicated that he would expect a contribution by mail from NEEDLEMAN, since the latter could not be at the function on September 25th. NEEDLEMAN promised to send it.

NEEDLEMAN received a check for $250.00 from SIDNEY KAUFMAN and another in the same amount from the latter's wife, ANDREA KAUFMAN, in settlement of SAM BROWN's claim against KAUFMAN for alteration work performed at the KAUFMAN residence.

The informant learned that JUDITH COPLON SOCOLOV was at Adelphi Hospital, Brooklyn, with hemorrhoids resulting from her last pregnancy.

BLANCHE HOROWITZ angrily told NEEDLEMAN she wanted to be fired by the National Lawyers Guild right away and asked to be given severance pay to January, (1960). She said she would have her demands brought up at the (Executive Committee) meeting of the NIG on September 23, 1959.

NEEDLEMAN revealed that the Finance Committee meeting on September 22nd had disclosed that the sum of $1,500.00 would have to be raised. BLANCHE HOROWITZ said she was not interested in the "headaches" of the Guild. She said she had worked for the Executive Committee and they were responsible for the way she was being fired.

She said what she had accomplished was her "stock in trade" and she was not going to give it to SCHIMMER so he could sell it to the NLA for $10,000.00 a year. She confessed that she had no other job lined up.

Dr. MILTON WEINSTEIN complained about the excessive mark-up on the tickets NEEDLEMAN had sent him for the NLA theater party. NEEDLEMAN admitted it was quite large but pointed out that it happened only once a year and that the Guild does a "good job." NEEDLEMAN estimated the organization would make about $3,500 on the affair.

BERNARD ELTZ advised NEEDLEMAN he had gone into the laundry business at 106th Street and Columbus Avenue and was having trouble with a "racketeering union." He said this organization, which had been ousted from the AFL, goes around collecting from owners of laundrettes, on the threat of a picket line. ELTZ added that after fighting for a couple of years, he signed up with this union. He told NEEDLEMAN that the AFL-CIO had made this union drop the claim of AFL-CIO affiliation. Therefore, he felt the contract was not valid and he decided "not to pay off any longer". He informed NEEDLEMAN that he had been called up before the State Arbitration Board. ELTZ said he had only one employee, a woman, who did not want to belong to the union.

NEEDLEMAN promised to visit ELTZ's place of business to discuss the matter further on September 24, 1959.

The informant advised that NEEDLEMAN subsequently consulted SAM NEUBERGER regarding this matter. NEUBERGER was of the opinion it was a good case against the union but might cost a lot of money. However, he encouraged NEEDLEMAN to handle it.

NEEDLEMAN told IRVING KAPLAN that a number of letters had been received supporting the application of HARRY CARLISLE for a grant-in-aid from the Fund For Social Analysis. He indicated that some of these letters came from the First Unitarian Church, and there was also one from JOHN HOWARD LAWSON.

NEEDLEMAN ascertained that JUDITH COPLON SOCCOLOV expected to go home from the hospital on September 26, 1959, and that she intended to go to the National Lawyers Guild theater party. NEEDLEMAN promised to save her a couple of tickets.

ERNIE GOODMAN, who reminded NEEDLEMAN that he served him "the best cup of coffee in New York", referred to NEEDLEMAN one of his employees. He told NEEDLEMAN, this woman, a Mrs. LERNER, needed advice in a divorce matter.

The informant recalled that early in May, 1959, an individual named ERNIE, who told NEEDLEMAN he was one of the owners of the Envoy Restaurant (375 Lexington Avenue, New York City) invited NEEDLEMAN to drop in some evening for a drink and to talk over old times.

Synopsis: Subject and her husband still residing at 113-123 Ashland Place, Brooklyn. Subject guest at party given by PHILIP FIELD at Hampton Bays, NY, 9/6/59.

DETAILS:

On September 22, 1959, NY T-1 advised that on September 6, 1959, the subject was present at a party at Hampton Bays, New York, which was given by PHILIP FIELD.

NY T-2 advised that PHILIP FIELD, and his wife, GLORIA, were in contact with SAM CARR on January 24, 1949. IDOR GOVZENKO has identified CARR as a member of a Russian Espionage ring operating in Canada prior to 1946.

On September 22, 1959, NY T-3 advised that the subject had recently gone to the Adelphi Hospital, Brooklyn, for a minor operation. NY T-3 advised on September 23, 1959, that the subject would be leaving the hospital on September 26, 1959, and was planning to attend a dinner of the National Lawyers Guild in the near future.

The National Lawyers Guild was cited as a Communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, page 149.

On November 20, 1959, KENNETH KLINGER, Superintendent, 115-125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, advised SA NORMAN E. ELIAS that the subject and her husband, ALBERT SOCOLOV, still reside in their apartment in this building. KLINGER said that no unusual activity on the part of the subject has come to his attention.

(OO:BUREAU)

Re: Rep of SA JOE C. SPARKS, dated 11/18/59, at Mexico, D. F.

It was noted that re: rep contained a statement from [redacted] that in May, 1959, MAY BROOKS said subject was recently disturbed because one of her best friends with whom she and JUDITH COPLON had gone to school, had been to Mexico and that this unnamed girl was suspected of working for the United States State Department and of having furnished information against JUDITH COPLON. MAY BROOKS said subject defended her friend and had suffered because of it even though it subsequently developed that this unnamed girl had been falsely accused of having furnished information against

b7D

No further effort is recommended to determine the identity of the school acquaintance of subject, but the following observations may be of use at some future time:

1. HENDECIO probably wonders how the FBI was alerted to COPLON's activities, and may have thought that this school acquaintance might have turned COPLON in.

2. Her curiosity may have again been aroused following her interview in NY, on 5/31/57, and she probably discussed it with her husband or MAY BROOKS on her return to Mexico. Although two years ago, this would be relatively recent, since she has been out of school since 1943.

3. The most obvious school acquaintance would have been FLORA DON WOVSCHIN, who not only worked for the State Department in 1944, but also was identified, according to [redacted] (not to be disseminated), as the person who recruited COPLON and BERDECIO for the MGB.

4. WOVSCHIN left US for Russia in 1946, and has since died. Her mother, MARIA WICHER, resided in Mexico, but WOVSCHIN apparently never resided there. Although MAY BROOKS said the suspected friend had been in Mexico, this part of the story may have been inaccurate.

DETAILS:

On January 14, 1960, KENNETH KLINGER, Superintendent, 115-125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, advised SA NORMAN E. BLISS that the subject still resides in this building with her husband, ALBERT SOCOLOV, and her children. He stated that he has not observed any unusual activity by the subject, and said that she still occupies herself as a housewife.

KLINGER stated that he has not seen the old Rambler station wagon owned by the SOCOLOVS for some time, and believes that they may have sold it. He advised that if he saw them in another car he would get identifying data concerning it.

The NEEDLEMANs planned to have dinner with OLGA and PHILIP FIELD, and possibly with IRVING and DOROTHY KAPLAN, on 2/21/60. They expected to attend the theater together afterwards.

STEVE GELLARD (ph) sought NEEDLEMAN's advice on joining a labor union. He indicated that he wanted to get into the International Hod Carriers, Building, and Common Laborers Union. He had learned that hod carriers are paid $3.65 an hour. NEEDLEMAN suggested that he call the union local to find out whether he was eligible for membership.

February 19, 1960

SAUL RUDES informed NEEDLEMAN that he had a problem involving a friend who works in a shipyard and who had been denied a Coast Guard pass. This pass had been granted to him in the past on the strength of statements and applications which had not required him to swear to anything. According to RUDES, this individual had received a questionnaire embodying 547 organizations. He had signed this questionnaire although it included the IWO, of which he was a member. More recently a new document was sent him reciting other questions which, by their nature, indicated that the answers were already known. RUDES did not feel he could advise his client to answer these questions.

NEEDLEMAN told him that it had been held that membership in the IWO was not proper grounds for refusing citizenship or Coast Guard clearance.

RUDES told NEEDLEMAN that these documents contain such questions as:

"Have you ever known or associated with an IRVING VELSON? If so, explain circumstances.

"Have you ever attended CP meetings in Brooklyn, NY at any time during 1946, 1947, 1948, 1949, 1950, 1951?

"Have you ever been a member of the IWO? If so explain why you neglected to admit this on your Post Security Card Application questionnaire.

"Were you ever a candidate on a CP slate of the IUMSWA Local # 13, Brooklyn, NY, in April, 1949.

"Have you ever read the 'Daily Worker'?

"Have you ever subscribed to the 'Daily Worker'?

"What is your present opinion of Communism?"

NEEDLEMAN contended that the answer to many of these questions was that it was none of their business. NEEDLEMAN asked RUDES to get additional facts from his friend and to get in touch with him on 2/23/60 when they could go over the questionnaire in more detail.

AL SOCOLOV informed NEEDLEMAN that his wife, JUDY COPLON SOCOLOV, was expecting another child in about three months. He told NEEDLEMAN that he was making so much money he did not know what to do with it all. He asked NEEDLEMAN whether

"the CITRONS" would be interested in selling their house (in Hampton Bays). NEEDLEMAN said he knew they had been willing to sell it last summer. He suggested that SOCOLOV could get in touch with them about it at the Teachers Union.

NEEDLEMAN and DOROTHY KAPLAN discussed the death of latter's sister, EMMA, on 2/18/60, and agreed that it was "a blessing".

The informant learned that the NEEDLEMANS, KAPLANS, PHILIP and OLGA FIELD, HARRY and BEATRICE MAGDOFF, SAM and MARY POSEN, were to attend the theater together on 2/21/60.

DETAILS

On February 19, 1960, NY T-1 advised that the subject was expecting another child in approximately three months. NY T-1 further advised that ALBERT SOCOLOV, subject's husband, has been inquiring as to the possibility of purchasing the house belonging to ALICE CITRON. NY T-1 believed that this information referred to a house at Hampton Bays, Long Island, New York. It is noted that Hampton Bays consists primarily of summer residences.

NY T-2 advised in 1955 that ALICE CITRON was, as of that time, a Communist Party (CP) member but held no office. NY T-2 stated that she had been a member of the CP since 1935.

The CP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

NY 65-14932

On February 24, 1960, KENNETH KLINGER, Superintendent, 115-125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, New York, advised that the subject and her husband continue to live quietly and there has been no unusual activity on their part which has come to his attention. He stated that he has not observed the subject or her husband with a car for several months and is of the opinion that they do not have one at this time. KLINGER stated that he has not personally observed the subject in a few weeks but has seen her husband on several occasions recently.

DETAILS

On June 9, 1960, Mr. KENNETH KLINGER, Superintendent, 115-125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn, advised SA NORMAN E. BLISS that he had observed the subject on the previous day and noted that she is obviously pregnant. He stated that the subject continues to reside at that address with her husband, ALBERT SOCOLOV, and her children.

Mr. KLINGER further stated that he recently noted that the subject and her husband have purchased a 1957 two-door Plymouth sedan with cream top and blue body.

On July 14, 1960, the records of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, New York State furnished by LAWRENCE MEIGHAN to IC THOMAS I. MC GUINNESS reflected the following information pertaining to the auto registration for ALBERT H. SOCOLOV, subject's husband:

The 1960 registration 6C9573 was for a 1958 Plymouth sedan, colored turquoise and white, engine number LOIN1558.

The records also reflected the 1958-61 automobile operator's license number 1714461 registered to ALBERT H. SOCOLOV, born October 20, 1921. SOCOLOV's residence was listed as 125 Ashland Place, Brooklyn and his business was indicated as "self-employed". The records described SOCOLOV as male, 182 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches, blue eyes and brown hair.

On 8/23/60, NY 1537-S*, a source that has furnished reliable information in the past and must be adequately protected, furnished the following information concerning a conference that took place on that date between NEEDLEMAN and Mr. and Mrs. WALTER SCHNEIR:

SCHNEIR told NEEDLEMAN that he and his wife were writing a book about HARRY GOLD and were trying to locate MIRIAM MOSKOWITZ so that they could interview her in connection with the book. NEEDLEMAN suggested that ABE BROTHMAN might have MIRIAM's address.

SCHNEIR explained that the book hinged upon the presence of other people in HARRY GOLD's life and thought that NEEDLEMAN might be able to help by telling what he knew about GOLD. NEEDLEMAN asked if SCHNEIR had read the file that referred to him (NEEDLEMAN) and when SCHNEIR replied he had, NEEDLEMAN commented that the testimony was entirely accurate. NEEDLEMAN stated that GOLD and BROTHMAN had come to see him at a time when he was House Counsel for Amtorg and his office was in Amtorg's place of business. NEEDLEMAN had told GOLD and BROTHMAN that he could not represent them because of his position with Amtorg. When GOLD had asked what he should do if the FBI came before he secured a lawyer, NEEDLEMAN had told him to "throw them out" unless they had a warrant. At this point NEEDLEMAN asked SCHNEIR what he would do if he were subpoenaed by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as to his conversation with NEEDLEMAN in asking for information about GOLD. SCHNEIR replied that he would refuse to answer on First Amendment grounds and if necessary would go to jail for it.

In answer to SCHNEIR's inquiry as to when he first met GOLD, NEEDLEMAN stated that a classmate of his at Cornell University, JULES KORCHIEN, had invited him to lunch where he introduced him to two individuals, GOLD and ABE BROTHMAN. NEEDLEMAN placed this lunch early in 1946. He stated that BROTHMAN explained that he was building vitamin producing plants for various countries and indicated that he wanted to do the same for Russia. BROTHMAN had then intimated that they (GOLD and BROTHMAN) had already done some work for the Russians and had a sum of money waiting for them in Russia. NEEDLEMAN pointed out that at this stage he told BROTHMAN that he should confine himself to merely talking business since Amtorg was only a business organization. NEEDLEMAN remarked to SCHNEIR that he believed that when BROTHMAN was speaking about a sum of money in Russia, he was doing it solely to impress NEEDLEMAN and furthermore he (NEEDLEMAN) considered GOLD to be a pathological liar. NEEDLEMAN went on to say that he finally arranged an interview for GOLD and BROTHMAN with SARIANOVICH (Phonetic) who was head of a special Russian commission dealing with vitamins. Although BROTHMAN had an opportunity to explain his proposition to SARIANOVICH, no deal was ever consummated.

NEEDLEMAN again mentioned that after having witnessed the interview between GOLD and BROTHMAN and SARIANOVICH, he obtained the impression that GOLD was "pathological." He added that what predisposed him to dislike GOLD was his talking about having done something for Russia and NEEDLEMAN remarked that if GOLD had actually performed some such duties, he should have kept him mouth shut. SCHNEIR then asked NEEDLEMAN if he could remember anything else of importance that GOLD had talked to him about along that line. Although most of NEEDLEMAN's reply to SCHNEIR's question was inaudible, the informant stated that NEEDLEMAN did say that he considered GOLD so unreliable that he did not want to hear anything about his activities. NEEDLEMAN further stated that GOLD might have assumed that a person who was counsel of Amtorg must be a Communist, but that such an assumption would only be made "by a nitwit."

SCHNEIR then asked NEEDLEMAN whether the story BROTHMAN had told the Grand Jury was substantially correct, namely that BROTHMAN met JACOB GOLOS about 1940 or 1941. During the meetings between GOLOS and BROTHMAN a woman named HELEN, who turned out to be ELIZABETH BENTLEY, was present. Later GOLD was sent along so that he could examine blueprints and arrange to explain them to GOLOS so that GOLOS could handle business with Amtorg. NEEDLEMAN said that he had no reason to doubt the foregoing story. NEEDLEMAN stated that actually he saw GOLD a total of two or three times. He added that he had the impression that BROTHMAN had believed GOLD's story about having a sum of money waiting for him in Russia in payment for "some extra-curricular activities" he had done for the Russians.

SCHNEIR remarked that it seemed queer that BROTHMAN and GOLD would have to seek out NEEDLEMAN if they had already done such good work for Russia. NEEDLEMAN explained that if BROTHMAN and GOLD had been engaged in some type of spy apparatus for the Russians in the US, Amtorg would not necessarily know anything about it and in fact GOLD's and BROTHMAN's principal would not want them to go near Amtorg since such apparatuses would be kept separate and distinct. NEEDLEMAN added that this was true of most espionage operations regardless of the nation involved.

SCHNEIR remarked that there were a couple of people who had worked in the plant for BROTHMAN. NEEDLEMAN stated that he occasionally runs into one of them, but cannot remember his name. Mrs. SCHNEIR asked if this person could be OSCAR VAGO. NEEDLEMAN replied in the affirmative.

NEEDLEMAN said that he believed BROTHMAN now had a very lucrative job in Port Jervis, which he had obtained through some man he met while in jail. SCHNEIR commented that he and his wife had interviewed BROTHMAN and had been impressed with his keen mind. He said that BROTHMAN had talked for several hours about his past, but there were one or two things he had told them which appeared to be untrue. When SCHNEIR had asked when BROTHMAN met HARRY GOLD, he had replied that it was either in 1945 or 1946, but later in his conversation BROTHMAN had indicated that he knew GOLD several years earlier.

SCHNEIR asked NEEDLEMAN if he had ever heard of ALFRED D. SLACK. NEEDLEMAN recalled the case and mentioned that BILL REUBEN had written about him. SCHNEIR stated that HARRY GOLD had apparently paid SLACK to do certain industrial research. He asked if such research activities would fall within the operations of Amtorg. NEEDLEMAN replied that Amtorg would never sanction such activity or be involved in asking someone to do such research; however, NEEDLEMAN said that he did not rule out the possibility that some individual in Amtorg, while performing his regular duties at Amtorg, might on the side be in some kind of apparatus to secure information that was not part of Amtorg's business. SCHNEIR mentioned that when GOLD and SLACK were involved in this industrial research the time was about 1938. NEEDLEMAN pointed out that he would know nothing about such activity as he did not become associated with Amtorg until 1943. He added that he was sure that people who were now with Amtorg would know nothing of any possible association that GOLD or SLACK might have had with Amtorg in 1938, as it is the policy of Amtorg to change its personnel every four or five years.

When SCHNEIR asked NEEDLEMAN whether he had known JACOB GOLOS, NEEDLEMAN replied "He didn't know me. I knew him." NEEDLEMAN did not explain or amplify this reply.

In answer to NEEDLEMAN's question as to the type of book the SCHNEIRS were planning to write and why GOLD interested them as a subject for a book, SCHNEIR replied that there had never been a book by a popular publisher on the subject except for one by REUBEN and one by WEXLEY (Phonetic) and added that he had found certain deficiencies in both books, remarking that the book by REUBEN did not seem completely reliable in every respect. NEEDLEMAN assured SCHNEIR that BILL REUBEN would not hesitate to lie. SCHNEIR said that it was his belief that there was a whole new generation that knows nothing about HARRY GOLD and by interviewing as many people as possible who were in any way connected with GOLD, they were expecting to be able to tell the whole story as truthfully as possible. He went on to say that they were interested in writing not just a historical document, but wanted to put it in a logical context with what it means in terms of a tradition and what role GOLD filled. He said they would try to show what made GOLD important at this particular time and place whereas at another time or place he might have been in a mental institution or would have been of no importance at all.

NEEDLEMAN asked SCHNEIR when GOLD was supposed to have been involved with FUCHS. SCHNEIR replied that their first meeting was in 1944, and GOLD was supposed to have also met FUCHS in 1945. NEEDLEMAN remarked that this supported the consensus of opinion that he had been part of an apparatus. SCHNEIR said that GOLD never mentioned getting any money from the Russians and GOLD had said that he paid his expenses himself. SCHNEIR remarked that this made GOLD's story all the more incredible since it showed no motivation for GOLD's action especially since he said he was not a Communist. He said that GOLD had stated that he did industrial espionage in order to pay off a debt for a friend who got him a job in the 1930's, and this led him into other work where finally he was doing missions which could have given him the death penalty. SCHNEIR said it was difficult to understand such action on the part of GOLD since with the latter there was neither ideology nor money involved.

NEEDLEMAN suggested that the SCHNEIRS attempt to interview GOLD to which SCHNEIR replied that they would like to but did not believe it possible. SCHNEIR added that they would also like to try and see FUCHS in East Germany. When NEEDLEMAN expressed surprise that SCHNEIR could afford a trip to Germany, SCHNEIR said that he had been doing fairly well lately selling articles to various publications such as "The Nation", "Redbook", and "The Reporter." One of his articles in "The Nation" was entitled "Campaign To Make Chemical Warfare Acceptable." Another of his articles is to appear in the October or November issue of "Better Homes and Gardens." SCHNEIR said that he is willing to accept an advance on his book, but wants to wait until next year because of income tax reasons. At the present time he is a Medical Editor for "M.D. Medical News Magazine."

NEEDLEMAN remarked that he had no objection to his name being used in the book, but preferred that it not be mentioned. NEEDLEMAN related how his name became involved in the JUDY COPLON trial. He said that he had met COPLON at a conference in Washington when Amtorg was asked to register as a foreign agent and

COPLON had sat in on the conferences. At that time her name meant nothing to him. Later while JUDY COPLON's trial was in progress NEEDLEMAN read an account of it in the "New York Times" which mentioned that a decoy memorandum had been prepared and passed on to COPLON. The decoy memorandum implied that NEEDLEMAN, Counsel for Amtorg, was an FBI informant. NEEDLEMAN said that on reading this he was stunned and for a moment could not decide what to do. He finally went to the president of Amtorg and offered to resign if Amtorg had a doubt as to his loyalty. NEEDLEMAN said that the president embraced him and assured him that they knew he was not working for the FBI; however NEEDLEMAN said he was greatly upset for over a year and could not bear anyone joking about it.

In commenting on the COPLON case, NEEDLEMAN said he was convinced that she had engaged in espionage activities and did not believe her story that the material found in her purse was for the purpose of writing a book; however, he did not believe that she could have given the Russians anything of great value. He added that the COPLON family will not ask for return of the $25,000.00 in bonds which they posted for JUDY COPLON's bail. He said that the family still get the coupons from the bonds, but do not want to do anything that would cause the Government to retry the case.

SCHNEIR then asked NEEDLEMAN's opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the ROSENBERGS. He said that in his opinion as a lawyer they did not receive a fair trial and were not adequately represented by counsel. He said that he did not feel that they stole the atom bomb, but did believe they were involved in some kind of espionage.

NEEDLEMAN concluded by saying that it was his opinion that HARRY GOLD had been some kind of Russian agent and BROTHMAN was aware of it.

A review of the NY indices reflects that WALTER SCHNEIR is a writer who in May, 1958, was chairman of the Queens County Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy and has attended a number of meetings of the committee. While at Syracuse University in 1949, he took part in a rally of the Young Progressives of America.

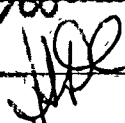

By means of a pretext call on 8/31/60, to the "M.D. Medical News Magazine", 30 E. 60th St., NYC, it was determined that SCHNEIR is employed by that publication as a news editor and was currently on a summer vacation.

The Queens Telephone Directory lists WALTER SCHNEIR, 42-34 Elbertson Ave., Elmhurst, LI, NY, telephone TW 8-1131.

The NY indices reflect that his wife, MIRIAM SCHNEIR, is a school teacher employed by the NYC Board of Education, and has attended meetings of the Queens County Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy, since 1958.

The foregoing is for the Bureau's information and any further mention of the projected book by the SCHNEIRS will be brought promptly to the Bureau's attention.

DETAILS:

On January 16, 1961, EDWARD L. BRAUNE, Legal Agent, New York Telephone Company, New York City, advised SA that the subscriber to UL 5-6817, originally connected on May 12, 1952, was ALBERT SOCOLOV of 161 State Street, Brooklyn, New York. The Telephone Company records reflected SOCOLOV is a self-employed Attorney at 401 Broadway, New York City, and that he banks at the MERCHANTS BANK, Broadway Branch, New York City.

Neighborhood

On March 2, 1961, Mr. and Mrs. GREGORY MIROW, 163 State Street, Brooklyn, New York, advised that they are acquainted with the subject and her family as neighbors as well as on a social basis. They advised that they frequently babysit with the subject's four children and described her and her husband as a devoted married couple. They commented that the subject, in their opinion, is a wonderful mother and an intelligent person.

The MIROW's advised that the SOCOLOV's were fine neighbors and they could not recall either of them making any political statements which would indicate that they were disloyal to the United States. Mrs. MIROW advised that she and her husband were participants in a neighborhood improvement association on State Street, as were the SOCOLOV's. The purpose of this association was strictly for the improvement and cleanup of vice and drug addiction in the neighborhood. She recalled that the SOCOLOV's were quite active in the group as they had worked hard in improving their home and converting it into a two-family apartment building. The SOCOLOV's occupy the top three floors and the bottom floor is rented to a young married couple.

Mrs. MIROW recalled the neighborhood association discussions, at times, took political tangents, mainly concerning pre-election discussions, and she recalled that the SOCOLOVs voiced their support of the then Presidential Candidate JOHN F. KENNEDY. Mr. MIROW advised that he recalled no statements made at any time by the SOCOLOVs which could be construed as anything but loyal to the United States. The MIROWS advised that the SOCOLOVs are known and liked in the neighborhood. They stated that they knew of no one in the neighborhood friendly with the SOCOLOVs who was employed by the United States Government or who would have, to their knowledge, access to any classified Government information.

The files of the New York Office, reviewed on February 28, 1961, failed to reflect any information regarding Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE MIROW.

The Strange Spy Case of Judy Coplon

12 Years Later, Mother of 4, She's Still Out on Bail

By Milton Lewis

© 1961 N.Y. Herald Tribune Inc.

Today, more than twelve years after her arrest on spy charges the case of Judith Coplon, whose "guilt is plain," remains a legal nightmare.

It has been unhappily inherited by the new Administration, particularly Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, just as the Eisenhower regime and his Justice Department way back in 1953 were faced with the same dilemma—and failed to resolve it.

Judith Coplon, Barnard 1943 cum laude, was a petite, brown-eyed girl of twenty-seven when she was picked up on espionage charges the night of March 4, 1949, at Third Ave. and 15th St., Manhattan. She was then employed as a Justice Department political analyst in Washington. Arrested with her was Valentin A. Gubitchev, then thirty-three and third secretary of the Soviet ministry of foreign affairs, attached to Russia's U.N. staff here.

On May 17 Judith Coplon will be forty. And on May 28 she will mark her eleventh wedding anniversary. Her husband is Albert H. Socolov, a lawyer who helped process the appeals of

Time-Table in the Coplon Case

March 4, 1949—Judith Coplon arrested at Third Ave. and 15th St. with Valentin A. Gubitchev, of Soviet U. N. delegation.

June 30, 1949—Convicted in Washington of stealing classified Justice Department documents. Stood trial alone. Got forty months to ten years.

March 7, 1950—Convicted in New York of attempting to pass those papers to Gubitchev, who stood trial with her and also was convicted of espionage. Both got fifteen years, but his sentence was suspended when he agreed to go back to Russia, never to return to these shores.

Dec. 5, 1950—United States Court of Appeals at Foley Square set aside her New York conviction though her "guilt is plain." Reason for reversal: F. B. I. agents arrested her without a warrant and tapped her phone, using such information for evidence.

June 2, 1951—United States Court of Appeals in Washington upheld her conviction there but ruled she was entitled to a lower court hearing regarding her allegations of F. B. I. wiretaps. That hearing was never held.

Jan. 28, 1952—United States Supreme Court, called upon by both sides to make order out of chaos, ducked. It refused any review.

And, all this time, Miss Coplon, now the mother of four, has been free in $60,000 bail.

her two spy convictions, one in New York, one in Washington. They have four children: a girl of nine and three boys of seven years, five years and nine months.

They live in a 130-year-old red brick building off downtown Brooklyn, occupying three of its four floors. They own the property, moved in four months ago and are in the process of redoing it. There is no letter box on the building to indicate that the Socolov family lives there. The telephone is unlisted. Their existence is an extremely quiet one. Residents of the mixed neighborhood are unaware, for the most part, of the lady of the house. Miss Coplon's dark brown hair is still dark brown, though there are a few stray grays. She appears to have added at least twenty pounds to the 105 pounds she carried on her 5-foot frame a decade ago. But she still has considerable bounce, taking two steps at a time in the inner staircase of her home to "greet" and then throw out a reporter-photographer team.

"Has anything happened?" she demanded as she swept her five-year-old son into her arms.

"No, we just wanted to talk to you about the status of your case."

"Sorry," she snapped. "I have nothing to say. Please leave."

She referred all queries to one of her lawyers—not her husband.

That lawyer, Leonard Boudin, chief ball-carrier on her two appeals, would only speak on an off-the-record basis. Mr. Socolov, the husband, was equally reluctant, saying at his office:

"We prefer no story. . . . We have cherished those years of privacy we have had."

Similarly, the Justice Department says, "We don't discuss pending matters." However, J. Walter Yeagley, assistant attorney general in charge of the department's Internal Security Division, conceded there were no immediate plans on the part of the government to do anything.

Meanwhile, Miss Coplon remains free—but still under two indictments—in bail totaling $60,000, of which $40,000 in cash covers her New York true bill. That money is not drawing any interest for the eleven years it has been resting with the court clerk. The $20,000 bail in Washington was posted through a bonding company.

In Washington, a Federal jury on June 30, 1949, convicted Miss Coplon of stealing classified Justice Department documents, which were found on her person, by F. B. I. agents. She stood trial alone and was sentenced to forty months to ten years in prison.

In New York, a Federal jury on March 7, 1950—one year after the arrest—convicted her of attempting to pass those papers to Gubitchev, with whom she maintained she was in love until she found out he already had a wife. Gubitchev was also convicted of espionage and both received fifteen-year terms, hers to run consecutively. But his sentence was suspended when he agreed to sail back to Russia, never to return to these shores. He is presumably still alive, though he has not been heard from in years.

On Dec. 5, 1950, the United States Court of Appeals at Foley Square unanimously set aside her New York conviction even though it held that Miss Coplon's "guilt is plain." (Gubitchev had agreed not to appeal.)

The appeals court, headed by Judge Learned Hand, ruled that the conviction must be upset because Miss Coplon was arrested without a warrant and that the government had failed to show conclusively that its evidence stemmed from sources other than illegal wire taps.

But the indictment was not ordered dismissed and the way was left open for a retrial. However, the appellate court, in the view of many lawyers, knocked the props out from any possible retrial when it also ruled that since the arrest by F.B.I. agents was made without a warrant, the incriminating Justice Department documents found on her cannot be used against her. Those papers were the crux of the case.

(Since then a law has been passed easing the way for the F.B.I. to make arrests without warrants.)

Hearing Not Held

On June 2, 1951, the United States Court of Appeals in Washington upheld Miss Coplon's 1949 conviction there—but said she was entitled to a lower court hearing to determine whether her telephone conversations with her lawyer before and during the Washington trial had been tapped.

If that were the case—and this was conceded at the New York trial—the District of Columbia Appeals Court said she was entitled to a new trial in Washington. A hearing suggested by the appellate court, was never held.

Instead, opposing sides appealed to the United States Supreme Court in an effort to bring order out of considerable chaos. The government went in with two motions, the defense with one, hoping to untangle conflicting Court of Appeals decisions.

So what happened?

On Jan. 28, 1952, the Supreme Court refused any review, leaving things completely up in the air. The next month—on Feb. 13, 1952—the defendant had her first child. She was married on May 28, 1950.

Government officials—none of whom wish to be quoted—privately concede that they have a "hot potato" and don't know how to handle it. As a result of the Coplon case, they have been trying for years without success to get wire-tapping legislation passed, permitting such activity where espionage is suspected. Even if such a measure went through, many lawyers question whether it could be applied ex post facto.

When asked if there is any thought of moving to dismiss the indictments against Miss Coplon, the government answers with a question:

"Why doesn't the defense make such a move?"

That question put to the defense brings no direct answer, but persons close to Miss Coplon offer this explanation: her two eldest children go to public school and can read. They know nothing about their mother's situation—and she doesn't want them to know.

But the day must come when they will find out and in a few years all four children will be able to read. To this these friends of the defendant reply: "She is aware of that. But the thought frightens her. She wants to put it off as long as possible."

Meanwhile, Miss Coplon continues under double indictment and free in $60,000 bail—with both sides apparently waiting for the other to make a fresh move in a twelve-year-old case.

SEYMOUR LNU

SEYMOUR was a member of the Kensington LYL Club in Brooklyn from 1945 until he was last seen in 1950. He was also a member of the Kensington CP Youth Club from about 1948 to 1949. SEYMOUR is about 5'9" tall, 190-200 pounds, brown hair, heavy build, and would now be about 31 years old. Since SEYMOUR was last seen, HERBERT CELNICK mentioned that SEYMOUR was no longer a member of the CP. CELNICK also stated that SEYMOUR was married, worked as an electrician, and lived in the electrical workers cooperative houses on Linden Boulevard in Brownsville.

It is noted that the Government had been trying for years to deport SEYMOUR's mother; however, she was never deported.

SAMUEL J. NEWBERGER

NEWBERGER was the leader of the ALP in the 21st Assembly District South in Brooklyn. He was also the attorney who defended JUDITH COPLON. NEWBERGER was always affiliated with the left-wing group in the ALP during the time he was known from 1944 to 1950. However, no direct CP affiliations are known. One time the Flatbush CP Youth Group sought NEWBERGER's assistance when one of their colored members was arrested on a stabbing charge.

NEWBERGER's daughter, whose name is unknown, was a member of the Roosevelt Club Teenagers AYD in Flatbush during the period about 1948-1949. She was also in the Flatbush Teenagers YPA during this period. She would have been too young at this time to be a CP member. NEWBERGER's daughter once said, "Judith Coplon was just a poor lonely girl who made a mistake."

MARY MORRIS

MARY MORRIS was a county or state leader of the YPA during the period of about 1948-1950. About the beginning of about 1950, in her parent's home in the Ft. Green housing project in Brooklyn, she was heard to make the statement that she was then a CP and LYL member. MARY is a Negro who would now be about 36 or 37 years old. She was last seen in early 1950.

RUTH MORRIS

RUTH MORRIS was the president of the Ft. Green LYL Club during the period of about 1949-1950. RUTH, the sister of MARY MORRIS, would now be about 30 years old.

BESS LUMPKIN

BESS LUMPKIN is the daughter of HATTIE LUMPKIN CP leader in Buffalo. BESS was a member of the Bedford-Stuyvesant CP Youth Club about 1948-1949. She was county educational director of the LYL in 1949 to at least 1950, when she was last seen. BESS has a good singing voice and was married to a white merchant seaman and lived in Bedford-Stuyvesant. She was last seen in 1950 when she was still a CP member. However, about 1955 members of her family in Buffalo mentioned that she was well. She was presumably still in the Party at this time because if she had left the Party, members of her family, who were strong Party members, would have mentioned this. BESS was what some people in the Party might call an extreme Negro Nationalist.

Kiss Coplen's dark brown hair is still dark brown, though there are a few stray grays. She appears to have added at least twenty pounds to the 105 pounds she carried on her 5-foot frame a decade ago. But she still has considerable bounce, taking two steps at a time in the inner staircase of her home to "greet" and then throw out a reporter-photographer team.

"Has anything happened?" she demanded as she swept her five-year-old son into her arms.

"No, we just wanted to talk to you about the status of your case.

NY 65-14932

"Sorry," she snapped, "I have nothing to say. Please leave."

She referred all queries to one of her lawyers-not her husband.

That lawyer, Leonard Beukin, chief bail-carrier on her two appeals, would only speak on an off-the-record basis. Mr. Beukin, the husband, was equally reluctant, saying at his office:

"We prefer no story....We have cherished these years of privacy we have had."

Similarly, the Justice Department says, "We don't discuss pending matters." However, J. Walter Longley, assistant attorney general in charge of the department's Internal Security Division, conceded there were no immediate plans on the part of the government to do anything.

Meanwhile, Miss Goplon remains free-but still under two indictments-in bail totaling $60,000, of which $40,000 in cash covers her New York true bill. That money is not drawing any interest for the eleven years it has been resting with the court clerk. The $20,000 bail in Washington was posted through a bonding company.

In Washington, a Federal jury on June 30, 1949, convicted Miss Goplon of stealing classified Justice Department documents, which were found on her person, by F.B.I. agents. She stood trial alone and was sentenced to forty months to ten years in prison.

In New York, a Federal jury in March 7, 1950-one year after the arrest-convicted her of attempting to pass these papers to Gubitchev, with whom, she maintained, she was in love until she found out he already had a wife.

Gulitchev was also convicted of espionage and both received fifteen-year terms, here to run consecutively. But his sentence was suspended when he agreed to sail back to Russia, never to return to these shores. He is presumably still alive, though he has not been heard from in years.

On Dec. 5, 1950, the United States Court of Appeals at Foley Square unanimously set aside her New York conviction even though it held that Miss Coplon's guilt is plain. (Gulitchev had agreed not to appeal).

The appeals court, headed by Judge Learned Hand, ruled that the conviction must be upset because Miss Coplon was arrested without a warrant and that the government had failed to show conclusively that its evidence stemmed from sources other than illegal wire taps.

But the indictment was not ordered dismissed and the way was left open for a retrial. However, the appellate court, in the view of many lawyers, knocked the props out from any possible retrial when it also ruled that since the arrest by F.B.I. agents was made without a warrant, the incriminating Justice Department documents found on her cannot be used against her. These papers were the crux of the case.

(Since then a law has been passed easing the way for the F.B.I. to make arrests without warrants.)

Hearing Not Held

On June 2, 1951, the United States Court of Appeals in Washington upheld Miss Coplon's 1949 conviction there-but said she was entitled to a lower court hearing to determine whether her telephone conversations with her lawyer before and during the Washington trial had been tapped.

NY 65-14632

If that were the case-and this was conceded at the New York trial-the District of Columbia Appeals Court said she was entitled to a new trial in Washington. A hearing, suggested by the appellate court, was never held.

Instead, opposing sides appealed to the United States Supreme Court in an effort to bring order out of considerable chaos. The government went in with two motions, the defense with one, hoping to untangle conflicting Court of Appeals decisions.

So what happened?

On Jan. 23, 1952, the Supreme Court refused any review, leaving things completely up in the air. The next month-on Feb. 18, 1952-the defendant had her first child. She was married on May 23, 1950.

Government officials-none of whom wish to be quoted-privately concede that they have a "hot potato" and don't know how to handle it. As a result of the Coplon case, they have been trying for years without success to get wire-tapping legislation passed, permitting such activity where espionage is suspected. Even if such a measure went through, many lawyers question whether it could be applied except facts.

When asked if there is any thought of moving to dismiss the indictments against Miss Coplon, the government answers with a question:

"Why doesn't the defense make such a move?"

That question put to the defense brings no direct answer, but persons close to Miss Coplon offer this explanation: her two eldest children go to public school and can read. They know nothing about their mother's situation-and she doesn't want them to know.

But the day must come when they will find out and in a few years all four children will be able to read. To this these friends of the defendant reply:

"She is aware of that. But the thought frightens her. She wants to put it off as long as possible."

Meanwhile, Miss Coplen continues under double indictment and free in $60,000 bail-with both sides apparently waiting for the other to make a fresh move in a twelve-year-old case."

SUBJECT: JUDITH COPLON, aka ESP-R

DATE: 5/2/61

Former Attorney General HERBERT BROWNELL called, and in your absence, spoke to the writer. He asked to see either you or the writer at 4:30 p.m. on 5/3/61.

The writer inquired as to whether there was anything which we might prepare for and, while he did not go into detail, Mr. BROWNELL said it had to do with some publicity appearing in the paper approximately one month ago concerning JUDITH COPLON.

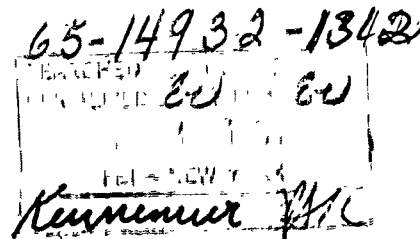

The file copy of an article appearing in the "Herald Tribune" for 4/7/61, concerning JUDITH COPLON and her case, is attached hereto.

I telephonically informed Inspector DONALD MOORE of the Domestic Intelligence Division of Mr. BROWNELL's call and what it concerned. He asked that we promptly furnish the results of Mr. BROWNELL's visit.

On 5/4/61, I telephonically advised former Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr. that mere tenance would not be reason for connotation of subversiveness but, however, we could not give any assurances as to the degree of association or any influence that might be exerted on the young couple by COPLON. I suggested he might wish to consider advising his friends to supply this office with information and go on record.

Mr. Brownell thanked me for the courtesy and said he thought this was a good idea.

The above information was furnished the Bureau by teletype.

One copy of this report is designated for the Washington Field Office, as that office has an interest in this case.

On 5/2/61, former Attorney General HERBERT BROWNELL telephonically contacted ASAC E. H. WINTERROWD of the NYO and asked to see either SAC H. G. FOSTER or ASAC WINTERROWD at 4:30 p.m., on 5/3/61. BROWNELL said his visit to the NYO had to do with some publicity appearing in the paper approximately one month ago concerning JUDITH COPLON.

On 5/3/61, BROWNELL telephonically contacted ASAC WINTERROWD and cancelled his appointment but did advise that a friend of his, whom he was reluctant to identify, has a daughter and son-in-law who are tenants of COPLON at 161 State St., Brooklyn. His friend was highly concerned about tenancy and desirous of knowing whether tenancy has subversive connotations. BROWNELL stated he was not in a position to name the young couple but inquired as to whether tenancy had subversive connotations. He was informed the matter would be checked and he would be contacted on 5/4/61. Investigation previously conducted by the NYO had identified this couple as HENRY E. BOSE and wife and there was no information in the files of the NYO identifiable with BOSE and his wife.

On 5/4/61, ASAC WINTERROWD informed BROWNELL that no connotation of subversiveness could be attributed to his friend's daughter, who was allegedly a tenant of the subject. However, no assurance could be made as to the character of the daughter and son-in-law of his friend since the degree of association with the subject was not known. BROWNELL was advised that this office would be receptive of any information his friends might wish to offer.

On 5/8/61, HENRY BOSE appeared at the NYO and was interviewed by ASAC WINTERROWD. The results of this interview is set forth in the details of the report. BOSE volunteered to bring any matters concerning COPLON that he thought would be of interest to the FBI to the attention of the NYO.

Mr. BOSE asked what course of action he should take regarding to living in the apartment in COPLON's home. He was informed that this was a matter of his personal choice but that his views would be made a matter of record in the files of the FBI. He stated that the call from former Attorney General BROWNELL to the office was prompted by his father-in-law, Mr. HOWARD BUHSE, 1080 Fifth Avenue, NYC. Mr. BUHSE is a partner in Hornblower and Weeks, a well-known stock brokerage firm in NYC. Mr. BOSE said he would like to have the fact that his father-in-law asked him to come to this office also made a matter of record.

DETAILS:

On April 25, 1961, Miss MARIE DE BIASE, Secretary, Office of Associate Dean RALPH BISCHOFF, Vanderbilt Hall, New York University, Washington Square, New York, New York, advised IC GEORGE P. ULLRICH that HENRY E. BOSE, 161 State Street, Brooklyn, New York, was attending New York University Law School. She stated BOSE had been attending New York University Law School since February, 1959, to present, including summers. BOSE is a graduate of Princeton University, having graduated in June, 1957, with a B.S.E. Degree.

Miss DE BIASE further advised that BOSE was born on July 2, 1935, at Jersey City, New Jersey. In February, 1960, he gave as his local address 311 East 72nd Street, New York 21, New York. He had listed his employment as United Cork Companies, Kearney, New Jersey. His father was listed as HENRY H. BOSE, 208 Ridge Road, Rutherford, New Jersey.

On June 8, 1961, HENRY EDWARD BOSE appeared at the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and advised ASAC E. H. WINTERROWD that he wished to go on record as to his feelings concerning JUDITH COPLON and to advise that he had no sympathy whatsoever for her and her involvement in activity which, in his consideration, was tantamount to treason. Mr. BOSE stated he is a student at New York University Law School and he advised he had read the decisions involving the COPLON case and that she was released only on procedural technicalities. He said he felt she was guilty.

He said he has never engaged in any conversation with COPLON or her husband concerning the case and that he had never had any discussions with them involving anything having political ramifications. As to association between Mr. BOSE and his wife with COPLON and her husband, he said it has been purely a landlord-tenant relationship and there have been infrequent occasions when they have met. As a law student, he has asked some questions of COPLON's husband, ALBERT SOCOLOV concerning points he was interested in as a law student.

Mr. BOSE said they took occupancy of the apartment in December, 1960, and have a two year lease. At the time, they rented the premises through a real estate agent and did not know the owner Mrs. SOCOLOV who, was in fact JUDITH COPLON. It was only after the publicity in the Herald Tribune that they learned the identity of COPLON.

BOSE advised that at no time has either COPLON or her husband ever discussed her case or any publicity concerning her with him or his wife. BOSE further stated that he has observed nothing unusual on the part of the SOCOLOVS.

Mr. Brownell was advised at the time that no connotation of subversiveness could be attributed to any tenancy in the COPLON building but that no assurances could be made as to the character of the tenants he had in mind.

Mr. Brownell subsequently identified the tenants as Mr. and Mrs. HENRY BOSE and advised Mr. BOSE would be contacting this office.

On 6/8/61, HENRY EDWARD BOSE, who has leased an apartment from COPLON and her husband, appeared at NYO and stated he wished to go on record as to his feelings concerning the COPLON woman and to advise that he had no sympathy whatsoever for her and her involvement in activity which, in his consideration, was tantamount to treason. In the interview with Mrs. GREGORY MIROW on 8/21/61, Mrs. MIROW said she had seen the article about JUDITH COPLON in the 4/7/61, issue of the NY "Herald Tribune" and she thought it was "terrible" that the photographer had taken the photograph of COPLON and her friend standing on the steps of COPLON's home. She commented "That could have been me if I had happened to be visiting her at the time". Her objection to the photograph was that it placed the friend of COPLON's in the position of being "guilty by association" when she could have been entirely innocent of COPLON's true identity, or knowing her true identity, she could have been someone passing by who had stopped to chat with COPLON. It appeared that Mrs. MIROW's main

DETAILS:

On August 21, 1961, Mrs. GREGORY MIROW, 163 State Street, Brooklyn, New York, advised SA ROBERT S. KENNEMUR that JUDITH COPLON SOCOLOV and her family continue to reside at 161 State Street, which is next door to the MIROW residence, and Mrs. SOCOLOV is a housewife. She said the SOCOLOVS had been very busy this summer putting an addition on the rear of their home and they have not been away on a vacation. She said they did spend one weekend on Long Island, where they visited one of their daughters who was in summer camp there. Mrs. MIROW said she kept the youngest SOCOLOV boy while the SOCOLOVS were away that weekend and the other children were left with friends of the SOCOLOVS.

Bureau teletype dated 4/13/64 instructed that a letterhead memorandum be disseminated to Secret Service on all Security Index cases. Captioned subject is listed on the Security Index by virtue of previous Espionage or Internal Security-R connections. Accordingly, a letterhead memorandum must be prepared on this subject.

The Agent to whom this matter is assigned will review the instructions of Supervisor WARREN T. MARCHESSAULT dated 4/20/64, which is available on the Section 33 Supervisor's desk, and will thereafter conduct such file review and investigation as may be necessary and rough draft an appropriate letterhead memorandum.

Since this entire project must be completed within 30 days, each Agent should complete his assignment within 10 working days of the date of this memorandum.

Re: Judith Coplon Socolov

Judith Coplon Socolov resides at 161 State Street, Brooklyn, New York, and is a housewife with several children. She is married to Albert H. Socolov, an attorney.

She was born May 17, 1921, in Brooklyn, and is described as five feet one inch, dark brown hair, medium complexion, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Number 157539A.

Judith Coplon Socolov was convicted in Washington, D.C., on June 30, 1949, of stealing classified Justice Department documents, and in New York, on March 7, 1950, together with Valentine A. Gubitchev, a Soviet national, for violation of the espionage statutes. On December 5, 1950, the Circuit Court of Appeals in New York set aside her conviction in New York although noting her "guilt is plain". The Circuit Court of Appeals in Washington, D.C., on June 2, 1951, upheld her conviction there but held she was entitled to a lower court hearing regarding allegations of wiretaps. On January 28, 1952, the Supreme Court refused to review. She is presently free on bond.

Judith Coplon Socolov was employed as a Political Analyst in the Foreign Agents Registration Section of the Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., at the time of her arrest on March 4, 1949.

ELEANOR BROWN and her uncle, MORRIS FEINBLATT, visited NEEDLEMAN's office on 5/18/64. NEEDLEMAN advised them that RAY BROWN's will named him (NEEDLEMAN) executor and trustee as well as guardian for ELEANOR BROWN until she reached the age of 21. NEEDLEMAN said that RAY BROWN had left $5,000.00 in government bonds and he revealed that she had a savings account at the Franklin Savings Bank and a safe deposit box at the Gotham Bank. NEEDLEMAN also stated that the ILWU apparently would pay $1,000.00.

The informant learned that ELEANOR BROWN was working for a trucking firm, and that she planned to keep her mother's apartment.

TOM SWAN informed NEEDLEMAN that a man named ALLEN-STEIN was claiming that SWAN owed him several hundred dollars on a stipulation. SWAN said he had paid most of it off, but had no record. SWAN discussed this matter with NEEDLEMAN and the latter offered to try to settle for $200.00.

ALEXANDER SVENCHANSKY asked NEEDLEMAN what the status of the LEONID TANKEL case was. NEEDLEMAN said that TANKEL had been convicted and that a motion for a new trial would undoubtedly be denied. TANKEL planned to go before the judge who had sentenced him and apply for a reduction of sentence, from four months in jail to a suspended sentence. NEEDLEMAN told SVENCHANSKY that TANKEL wanted affidavits to establish that even after he had been instructed by the Soviets to cease doing business, there had been negotiations with Amtorg officials, which indicated that the Russians were still willing to work something out. NEEDLEMAN said he had been asked for such an affidavit and would probably give it to him. He thought TANKEL would very likely ask SVENCHANSKY for one.

NEEDLEMAN and LEONARD SIMPSON discussed the decision of the NYS Supreme Court Judge HENRY CLAY GREENBERG on the validity of Mexican divorces. NEEDLEMAN was of the opinion that there must have been a "pay-off" to Judge GREENBERG, and that the decision would not stand if it should be taken to a higher court.

NEEDLEMAN showed SIMPSON a copy of the book "Spies Who Changed History" and asked him to read the section which told of a decoy letter which had been prepared for JUDITH COPLON to steal from the files of the Department of Justice. This letter allegedly indicated that NEEDLEMAN was really working for the FBI while he was employed by Amtorg. NEEDLEMAN said that when he learned of this plot he had gone to the President of Amtorg and offered his resignation if there was any doubt of his loyalty to the organization. The President of Amtorg, according to NEEDLEMAN, put his arm around him and assured him that he was certain that if he were an FBI informant, the FBI would not have exposed him.

NEEDLEMAN said that he has often told JUDITH COPLON that the best thing that ever happened to him was that she had been arrested. He explained if she had passed the information verbally to someone without being arrested he would never have known what had happened, but the word would have gotten around that NEEDLEMAN was working for the FBI.

NEEDLEMAN stated that some years ago the Committee on the Judiciary was holding hearings on the FBI and its procedures, and that he had been tempted to present this story to the Committee. He had discussed the matter with PAUL O'DWYER, who had expressed surprise that NEEDLEMAN thought anything would be accomplished. O'DWYER had pointed out that the newspapers would have played up the affair with such headlines as "Attorney Spy Seeks Vindication". SIMPSON agreed that NEEDLEMAN would have gotten nowhere.

DETAILS:

On October 26, 1964, NY T-1 advised that subject still resided at 161 State Street, Brooklyn, New York, and continued as a housewife. NY T-1 observed that for almost two months during the summer, subject and her children were apparently away on vacation, but NY T-1 occasionally saw her husband, ALBERT SOCOLOV, around the house. The SOCOLOVs continued to receive their mail at this address giving no forwarding address.

On April 2, 1965, NY T-1 telephonically advised that the SOCOLOVs continue to reside at 161 State Street, Brooklyn, and that subject continues as a housewife. NY T-1 had no pertinent information regarding subject's activities.

On November 5, 1962, NY T-2 advised that a Silver Anniversary Banquet of the New York City Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild was held October 26, 1962, at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, New York City, and Mr. and Mrs. ALBERT SOCOLOV attended.

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild appears in the Appendix attached hereto.

It is noted that on July 24, 1959, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation made a pretext telephone call to the National Lawyers Guild, 154 Nassau Street, New York City, and was advised that ALBERT SOCOLOV was a member of the National Lawyers Guild.

APPENDIX

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the National Lawyers Guild:

"National Lawyers Guild

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)
- "2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related September 17, 1950.)
- "3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.'
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

Re New York letter to the Bureau dated 1/24/49.

Reference is made to Washington Field teletype to New Haven dated 11/17/47 in the case entitled "ARTHUR ROBERT ROSENBAUM, W.A.A., L.G.E." requesting the New Haven office to interview a Mrs. MARTIN RAFF, formerly Miss MARIAN CORE, of 559 Orange Street, New Haven, who had once been a member of the State Department branch, Local #3, U.P.W.A. Mrs. RAFF was interviewed at that time and gave information about ROSENBAUM, a MARCELLE DIANE ELINSON, and a group of U.P.W.A. members in Washington, D.C. who followed the Communist Party line, which Mrs. RAFF claimed she had opposed.

This information was forwarded to the Washington Field by letter dated April 20, 1948 entitled "STATE DEPARTMENT BRANCH, LOCAL #3, U.P.W.A.; Mrs. MORTON RAFF, Informant, SECURITY MATTER - C". This information was also set out in detail with respect to ROSENBAUM and ELINSON in the report of SA FRANK V. BATTLE dated 11/21/47 at New Haven in the case entitled "ARTHUR ROBERT ROSENBAUM, W.A.A., Washington, D. C., L.G.E.", a copy of which was forwarded to the Washington Field Office.

It is noted that in supplying information about the above individuals Mrs. MORTON RAFF furnished some background information relating to herself. Since the files of the New Haven Office contain no further information about Mr. and Mrs. MORTON RAFF and the Bureau and Washington Field have this information in detail, no further action is contemplated by this office. In connection with the instant investigation which grew out of Gubitchev's meeting with Judith Coplon in New York City on the evening of January 14, 1949, a review of the Bureau's files has been conducted and failed to reflect any information in addition to that set forth in the teletype of the New York Office dated January 15, 1949.

The meeting with Coplon would appear to indicate that Gubitchev is an agent of the M.G.B. and that he very likely maintains contacts with other individuals engaged in like activities in the United States. The New York Office should, therefore, through the technical surveillance on his residence and the services of [redacted] at his business address, carefully follow his activities. This coverage should be supplemented in so far as feasible by discreet spot surveillances. Every effort should be made to determine the extent of Gubitchev's operations in Soviet Intelligence and to determine his contacts in the United States. The Bureau should be kept fully advised of all developments in this matter.

In an effort to determine if Coplon is presently delivering documents to her Soviet Intelligence superiors, the Bureau has prepared a short summary memorandum on the Amtorg Trading Corporation on which there was placed a memorandum of transmittal to the Department in which it was stated that the Bureau is presently using as informants on a confidential basis, two highly placed officials of the Amtorg Trading Corporation. This memorandum which has been prepared from a Foreign Agents Registration angle will reach Judith Coplon's hands and it is contemplated that she will either attempt to transmit the documents for copying purposes to her contacts or in the alternative will orally pass the information concerning the two Amtorg officials. This information, is as you know, false, and has been prepared for deceptive purposes. Two

The Washington Field office, as previously advised, should be alert for the transmittal of any documents by Coplon.

The New York office should report any information which might be developed to the effect that an investigation of officials at Amtorg is undertaken by Soviet Intelligence. This might be indicated by numerous transfers of Amtorg officials, the calling of Amtorg officials to the Soviet United Nations Headquarters or in their being called to the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D. In connection with the recent contacts between Judith Coplon and Helen Siegel in New York City, the personnel file of Helen Siegel was obtained from the Department of Justice and reflects the following information:

Helen Siegel was born September 19, 1922 in the Bronx, New York City. Her father's name is Louis, who was also born in New York City, and her mother's maiden name was Storch and she was born in New York City. In her application, dated June 28, 1943, Helen Siegel listed an uncle, Dr. H. H. Storch, who was the head of the Physicist's Laboratory, Bureau of Mines at Pittsburgh. Helen Siegel listed the following education: PS 73, 164 Anderson Avenue, New York City - 1928 - 1935; Walton High School, 1935 - 1939; Hunter College, 695 Park Avenue, 1939 - 1942; Barnard College, 1942 - 1943. The application indicates that Miss Siegel obtained an AB degree at Barnard College. She listed her foreign language abilities as reading French and German and speaking French. She applied for the position of Research Assistant and entered on duty July 12, 1943. She indicated that she had previously taken a Civil Service examination for Junior Professional Assistant in July, 1943. 740

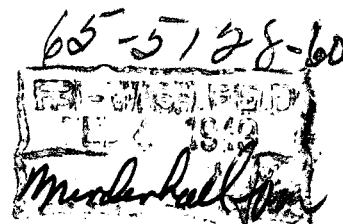

A memorandum in the file dated July 22, 1943 signed by Mr. Hugh B. Cox recommended her for a position in the Economic Warfare Section in New York City. An efficiency rating dated March 31, 1944 at New York City was made by Robert Wohlforth and rated Miss Siegel as "Very Good." She submitted her resignation on June 27, 1944 to take effect June 30, 1944. This resignation is actually noted in the Departmental files as taking effect on July 14, 1944. There was no reason noted for the resignation.

There are attached for possible assistance in further investigation of this girl in connection with this case three photographs obtained from her application for employment with the Department of Justice, for both the New York and Washington Field Offices.

In line with previous instructions issued by the Bureau, every attempt should be made to determine if this woman might be identical with the unknown subject Zora, concerning whom you have previously been furnished information.

SUBJECT: JUDITH COPLON
ESPIONAGE - R

Information has been received from a departmental official that Miss Thomas, Secretary to Mr. Peyton Ford, has voiced a suspicion of Judith Coplon and also of one Ulda Eldred who presently is the Secretary to Mr. Foley in the Foreign Agents Registration Section.

Miss Thomas stated that Eldred was a very close friend of one Rose Fox, formerly in Foreign Agents Registration Section, who is now deceased. This is Rose Fox whose sister, Ida Fox, was very active in picketing the National Theater in Washington, D. C. According to Miss Thomas, after Rose Fox's death, Judith Coplon attempted to take up a collection within the Foreign Agents Registration Section for flowers. Miss Thomas has stated that Ronald MacDonald, who is now in the Solicitor General's office and Mrs. Irma Kalnan, who is presently employed as a translator at the Bureau, might have additional information concerning Miss Coplon.

Mrs. Irma Kalnan was interviewed on February 1, 1948, at which time she advised that she had been employed as a political analyst and translator in the Foreign Agents Registration Section from October 12, 1942 until February 1, 1946. At that time the Foreign Agents Registration Section was in the Hutchins Building. She stated that while she did not know Judith Coplon well, she has a feeling that Miss Coplon is Communistically inclined, although she has no specific information on which to base this suspicion. She recalled that Judith Coplon had been friendly with Louis Nemzer and Bernard Morris. Mrs. Kalnan is also suspicious of these two individuals. She recalled that on one occasion in discussing with Nemzer the Mikhailovich - Tito issue, Nemzer expressed himself in favor of Tito and said, "We can only support those who are fighting on our side", indicating to Mrs. Kalnan that he thought Mikhailovich was a traitor. According to Mrs. Kalnan, Nemzer is now employed at some university which she believes is in Ohio.

Mrs. Kalnan also said that Judith Coplon was not well liked by a number of those employed in the Foreign Agents Registration Section as she was known as "a girl with a pull". Mrs. Kalnan mentioned that she had seen Coplon on the street several months ago, at which time Judith Coplon asked Mrs. Kalnan about her trip to Czechoslovakia and also commented that she, herself, had made a trip to France in the summer of 1948. Mrs. Kalnan was also acquainted with Adele Miller and has heard her criticize Judith Coplon but she did not have any knowledge of any dispute between the two women. She felt that Adele Miller's nervous breakdown was perhaps caused by her being too religious.

You should make immediate arrangements to thoroughly interview Miss Thomas who is employed in Mr. Peyton Ford's office and following such interview, contact Ronald MacDonald for any information he may have. These interviews, of course, should be conducted in such a manner as to insure that our investigation of this woman is maintained on a discreet basis.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

FROM : KENNETH T. DELAVIGNE, Supervisor

SUBJECT: JUDITH COPLON
ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: February 7, 1949

During the late afternoon of February 4, 1949, I asked Mr. FLETCHER of the Bureau for advice as to whether the special Memorandum in this case prepared by the Bureau had been made available to the subject, explaining to him this information was necessary in order that I determine the degree of coverage by way of surveillances, etc. to afford this case. At that time, Mr. FLETCHER advised me that the Memorandum had been given by him at 5:00 P. M. the preceding day to Mr. FOLLEY of the Department, and that since he had no way of immediately determining whether the subject had actually received the Memorandum that this office should proceed on the assumption that she has had access to it. 740

The foregoing is with regard to Bureau letter in this case to the Washington Field Office dated February 2, 1949.

On February 9, 1949, a surveillance was conducted on the subject by Special Agents ROBERT E. LEONARD and ROBERT L. SHELTER, and the following activity noted.

At 12:25 P. M., she left the Department of Justice Building and proceeded to Ceres Restaurant, 1307 - E Street, N. W., where she met a man whose description will be set forth later. The meeting appeared to be pursuant to an appointment. They left the restaurant after dining, at approximately 1:20 P. M., and proceeded to the front of Garfinckel's Department Store on the F Street side, between 11th and 15th Streets, N. W., where they conversed and walked aimlessly around.

Shortly thereafter, subject entered the department store alone and the man boarded a "Riverside Stadium" bus and proceeded to Annex 1, State Department, at 23rd and E Streets, N. W., where he entered room 412, the door of which bore the lettering, "Division of Passports and Communications". Subject was not observed to pass any document or article to the man within the observation of the surveilling agents.

The description of the aforementioned unidentified man is as follows:

Age:	approximately 32 to 36 years
Height:	approximately 5' 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ "
Weight:	170 to 175 pounds
Complexion:	medium to dark
Hair:	short, black, flecked with grey
Nose:	long, Roman type
Glasses:	flesh tinted, rimmed
Carriage:	slightly stooped
Dress:	hatless; wore grey top coat and brown suit

It is noted that the current State Department directory lists BERNARD S. MORRIS as being assigned to room 412, State Department, Annex 1.

Re report of Special Agent SCOTT MILLER, dated January 28, 1949, at New York, New York in this matter, which on page 22 calls attention to the fact that the entry in COPLON's diary for February 18, 1949, "Get tickets for show" may mean that she is scheduled to meet GUBITCHEV on this date.

^{long dis. telephone} Confidential Informant [] had advised that the subject in a conversation with PAULINE SLAVIN, Cornish Arms, 311 West 23rd Street, telephone Chelsea 3-7400, extension 626, stated that she would be in New York on the 18th and thought that she would be free that evening after nine but would have to go home early. The subject stated that she would not be in New York before 5:00 P. M. She first suggested that PAULINE call her at home, GE 8-1048, but then said "I've just been thinking it over, I don't think I want my mother to know that I'll be in and not go right home". During the conversation, PAULINE said, "Listen, you know I have that book for you - I've had it ever since". COPLON replied, "That's okay, I have the thing for you". No definite arrangements between COPLON and SLAVIN were arrived at and it was agreed that if COPLON did not hear from SLAVIN by mail, the former will know that SLAVIN just couldn't arrange anything for that Friday. COPLON also mentioned that she intended seeing her "two married friends in Flushing" on Saturday, February 19, 1949. b7D

Informant further advised that subject informed LORRAINE SINDERBRAND that she was going to New York on February 18th. SINDERBRAND then told COPLON that her sister SOPHIE PEARLBERG, nee ELKINS, in New York wants to introduce COPLON to a young man. LORRAINE described this man as a French Jew, short and rather bald, whose father is a multi-millionaire in the steel industry in Paris, France. The man's name was given as LUZAR (phonetic) and COPLON stated that she would plan on seeing LUZAR on Sunday night, February 20th. LORRAINE then said that LUZAR had a sister who married an American and is living in Pittsburgh. She said that LUZAR was planning to visit her and that it might be on the weekend of the 18th. According to LORRAINE, LUZAR is engaged in the junk business in the United States. Mrs. SOPHIE PEARLBERG is believed to be the wife of EVERETT PEARLBERG. 140

Another confidential informant had advised that COPLON indicated that she intends, while in New York over the weekend of February 18th to 20th, 1949, calling a man who has stated that he has something for her. The identity of this individual is not known but it may possibly have been MORTON POMERANTZ, 1633 - 51st Street, Brooklyn, New York, although the informant stated that the name sounded like "MORTON", "MORRIE", or "MORTIE KERVITZ". The individual in question was in Washington, D. C. on January 27, 1949, at which time COPLON contacted a number of persons concerning a job for him, apparently without success.

COPLON has also advised her mother and others that she intends being in New York on February 18th, 1949.

Mr. GRANVILLE thought there might be some importance to the letter in view of the eagerness manifested by COPLON to receive it.

A confidential informant has advised that he had access to room 2220, Department of Justice Building, which is the office of the subject, on the evening of February 10, 1949. The following items of interest were noted.

COPLON had a notation on her desk calendar for Wednesday, February 9, 1949, "12:30, Ceres, BERNIE". Physical surveillance reflected she had lunch at Ceres with a man who was surveilled to the room number of the State Department which is assigned to BERNARD MORRIS.

She also had a notation on this calendar for Wednesday, February 16, 1949, "12:15 N. (or possibly M.) HIRSCH". Arrangements will be made to cover COPLON's activities at this time by physical surveillance.

In the lower left hand drawer of her desk were found copies of the following reports: 740

SA DAVID EDWIN TODD, dated December 31, 1948, at San Francisco, entitled, "ROY THOMAS, INTERNAL SECURITY - R";

ReWFOtel dated February 15, 1949 to the Bureau and New York Office requesting New York to interview Mr. W. VAN ALLEN and Miss JEAN WALICKI, employees of the New York Office of the Department of Justice.

At noon today, Mr. DEROY McCAULEY, Special Assistant to the Attorney General and Administrative Officer of the Anti-Trust Division, Department of Justice, advised the writer that he had just received a letter dated February 15, 1949, from Mr. W. VAN ALLEN, formerly in charge of the personnel in the Anti-Trust Division, U. S. Department of Justice, 30 Broad Street, New York City, in which after mentioning a previous telephone conversation with Mr. McCAULEY, he stated that JEAN WALICKI had recently become friendly with the left-wing group in the New York Office. In this letter, VAN ALLEN expressed the opinion that "anyone who hires a gang of comics and party followers must have similar leanings himself. An examination of the personnel which started at least 50% of the New York Office of the War Division will emphasize this point". It is believed that Mr. VAN ALLEN is referring to ROBERT WOHLFORTH as having hired these individuals.

VAN ALLEN also advised of having been interviewed in 1946 by an FBI agent concerning JUDITH COPLON. He expressed concern over the fact that Miss WALICKI had referred the agent to him rather than to ROBERT WOHLFORTH and expressed the possibility that WOHLFORTH and WALICKI had arranged it that way in order for WOHLFORTH to learn through his Washington contacts what he, VAN ALLEN, had to say about JUDITH COPLON.

Mr. McCAULEY explained that in his telephone conversation with VAN ALLEN, various employees of the New York Office of the Department of Justice were discussed and that JUDITH COPLON's name was mentioned. Mr. McCAULEY questioned VAN ALLEN as to whether he would be willing to furnish information to a Special Agent of the FBI concerning any of these individuals. He replied that he would be glad to furnish any information that he could. In this connection, however, VAN ALLEN requested that if an FBI agent interviewed him he, the agent, first mention Mr. McCAULEY's name to him.

It was ascertained that the New York Office had not as yet conducted interviews with VAN ALLEN and WALICKI and that office was telephonically advised not to conduct such interviews unless further instructions were received.

Unless advised to the contrary, it is desired that Mr. W. VAN ALLEN be interviewed at his residence, 1403-09 Holly Avenue, Flushing, Long Island, as he has advised Mr. McCAULEY that if an FBI agent interviewed him at his office it would be detrimental to his position among his fellow employees. The lead to interview Miss JEAN WALICKI should be disregarded and she should not be interviewed.

ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: February 18, 1949

At 11:00 A. M. today, in the absence of Mr. BELMONT, I telephonically advised Mr. GRANVILLE of the New York Division that COPLON plans to leave Washington, D. C. at either 1:00 or 2:00 P. M. today for NYC. I advised him generally of the contents of Bureau letter dated February 16, 1949, concerning the type of activity desired in this connection and informed him it was my understanding that Mr. FLETCHER of the Bureau would discuss this matter with Mr. BELMONT further. I advised him that the subject has mentioned that she is going to visit some "married friends" in Flushing on February 19, 1949, and that she recently mailed a photograph album which she purchased in Washington to KATHERINE LESSER, at 144-35 - 76th Avenue, Flushing.

With regard to the teletypes from NYC dated February 17, 1949, referring to WFO letter of February 14, 1949, referring to conversation between COPLON and SLAVIN, I advised him we had received no further information concerning this contact and with regard to the handling of this matter in New York, suggested to him that if a contact is made under suspicious circumstances that New York make efforts to ascertain through a highly confidential source what is passed to SLAVIN.

I further advised Mr. GRANVILLE that subject has had her hair cut short and it now comes just below the ears. I advised him the subject will be accompanied to New York by Agents CARL W. BUCHHOLZ and THOMAS A. MENDENHALL, and furnished him the description of these two agents together with an agent in the New York Office who knows MENDENHALL.

At 2:30 P. M. today, I advised Supervisor KENNEDY, in Mr. GRANVILLE's absence, that the subject, alone, had left on Pennsylvania train #142, at 2:00 P. M. in Coach 1633, and will arrive in NYC at 6:00 P. M. I advised him she is wearing a full length black cloth coat, black high heeled shoes with ankle straps, no hat, carrying a black purse of kid leather with gold trim, wearing a blue crepe dress, and carrying a brown airplane type overnight bag which she has previously carried when surveilled by New York.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : SAC, Washington Field

DATE: February 16, 1949

FROM : Director, FBI

~~STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

ESPIONAGE - R

In view of the fact that Judith Coplon's present position gives her access to numerous FBI reports of a confidential nature as well as access to other restricted material, it will be necessary to bring this case to a conclusion at an early date. It is contemplated that following her trip to New York City on February 18, 1949, for the week end, consideration will be given to interviewing her at an early date. While such an interview will be aimed at gaining her cooperation in acting as a double agent, there is, of course, a strong likelihood that the interview will not be successful in this and that the espionage activities of Coplon and Gubitchev will cease. The activities of other persons active in the network, not known to us, will also probably cease at least temporarily. In order that we may be in as good a position as possible at the time of the interview, it is imperative that all possible investigative leads be completed by the date of interview. This means that our investigative coverage of the following leads must be expedited:

1. We must determine, in so far as is possible, the extent and nature of the espionage activities being engaged in by Valentine A. Gubitchev. This necessitates that his activities from now until the interview of Coplon should be given full coverage through technical and spot physical surveillances. Two

2. On February 18, 1949, both Coplon and Gubitchev should be under physical surveillances in order that we may have coverage of any meeting which takes place between the two persons. The physical surveillances should be extremely discreet in nature and it may be necessary to drop the surveillances for security reasons following the meeting.

3. We should determine additional background information concerning Seymour Nagan and check his activities by spot surveillances to determine if he is the espionage contact between Coplon and her Soviet principles.

4. We should determine background information concerning other contacts of Coplon in an effort to determine which of her contacts and associates may also be engaged in Soviet espionage activities.

5. We should determine the nature of the present activities being engaged in by Marion Davis who has been tentatively identified as the Marion Davis who was employed by the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs. The investigation of her in New York City should be expedited.

CC - New York

FBI-WASH-FEB 16 1949
Belmont

6. We should continue to make every effort to identify the unknown subject Zora who recruited Coplon as a Soviet agent.

In addition to the foregoing, it is contemplated that if the interview with Coplon, when conducted, is unsuccessful in developing her as a double agent, the various contacts and associates of Coplon will be interviewed in an effort to determine the nature of their association with her. You should keep the Bureau fully advised of all developments in this matter as they occur.

JUDITH COPLON, ESPIONAGE R. WILLIAM VAN ALLEN, OF THE ANTITRUST DIVISION, NEW YORK CITY, ADVISED TODAY THAT THE ECONOMIC WARFARE SECTION OF THE WAR DIVISION OF THE DEPARTMENT IN NEW YORK CITY CLOSED ITS OFFICE IN NEW YORK CITY JUNE THIRTY, FORTYFIVE. HE FURTHER ADVISED THAT FOR SOME TIME PRIOR TO THE ACTUAL CLOSING IT WAS MORE OR LESS KNOWN IN THE OFFICE THAT SUCH WOULD HAPPEN BECAUSE OF DIFFICULTY IN OBTAINING SUFFICIENT FUNDS. HE FURTHER SAID THAT THIS WAS KNOWN PRIOR TO JAN. ONE, FORTYFIVE. HE FURTHER STATED THAT IT WAS KNOWN SOME TIME IN ADVANCE THAT ONLY PART OF THE EMPLOYEES COULD BE RETAINED. THIS WOULD BE A FURTHER INDICATION THAT ZORA WAS WORKING IN THE ECONOMIC WARFARE SECTION AT THE SAME TIME AS COPLON. VAN ALLEN ADVISED THAT THE FEMALE EMPLOYEES IN THE OFFICE WHO SHARED COPLON'S POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY AND WERE CLOSER TO HER THAN THE OTHER EMPLOYEES IN THE OFFICE WERE ELSIE FRIEMUS, HELEN SIEGEL, SHIRLEY ARONOW, MRS. BEATRICE WALFISH, AND VIRGINIA M. MARINO. VAN ALLEN WILL MAKE AVAILABLE THE PERSONNEL FILES OF ALL EMPLOYEES, ECONOMIC WARFARE SECTION, ON A CONFIDENTIAL BASIS BUT THIS WILL TAKE AT LEAST ONE WEEK.

HAROLD CARTER had been requested to resign.

OF SIEGEL, STATING THAT BECAUSE SHE HAD BEEN TRAINED IN LAW, IT WOULD BE INADVISABLE TO HIRE HER FOR A POSITION WHERE SHE WOULD BE UNDER SUPERVISION OF AN ECONOMIST. THE RECORDS OF THE PLACEMENT SERVICE AT BARNARD COLLEGE REFLECT THAT AFTER LEAVING THE DEPT. OF JUSTICE, SIEGEL WORKED FROM SEPTEMBER FORTYFOUR TO ABOUT AUGUST FORTYFIVE AS A REPORTER FOR THE NEWARK STAR LEDGER AND FROM SEPTEMBER, FORTYFIVE UNTIL FORTYEIGHT, SHE ATTENDED COLUMBIA LAW SCHOOL, NYC, GRADUATING WITH LL.B. SIEGEL-S EXACT DATES OF EMPLOYMENT BY THE ECONOMIC WARFARE SECTION WERE FROM JUNE TWELVE FORTYTHREE TO JULY FOURTEEN FORTYFOUR, WHEN SHE RESIGNED, GIVING AS HER REASON, THE DESIRE TO ENTER MORE LITERARY FIELDS. RELATIVE TO SHIRLEY GLADYS ARONOW, WHO IS NOW MRS. SIDNEY SAMIS, INFORMATION CONCERNING HER WAS SUPPLIED BUREAU BY NY TEL DATED FEB. TWENTYFIVE. ~~STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

Rebulet February 2, 1949, requesting the Washington Field Office to interview Miss THOMAS, secretary to Mr. PEYTON FORD and Mr. RONALD MacDONALD, Solicitor Generals Office.

Miss THOMAS, upon interview, could furnish no information concerning COPLON additional to that set out in referenced Bureau letter. She stated that inasmuch as she had left the Foreign Agents Registration Section in March, 1946, she had not had an opportunity to learn much about the subject. She stated that a Mrs. IRENE LONGLEY had replaced her in this section and she thought that the latter could furnish more information concerning COPLON. It is therefore requested that the Bureau authorize the Washington Field Office to interview Mrs. LONGLEY.

Mr. RONALD MacDONALD advised that he had been in the Polish Section of the Foreign Agents Registration Section from May, 1942 until January, 1946. He stated that although he had been acquainted with COPLON, he could furnish no information concerning her activities other than that she was, during 1945, taking courses in photography and Russian at American University. He further advised that he was aware of the fact that she had taken a pleasure trip to Europe in 1948, having flown to Paris and from there traveled to Italy, apparently on some sort of a tour. He stated that he had never heard any rumors of disloyalty or questionable activities on the part of the subject and stated that he was not in a position to have known much about the subject, having never supervised her work.

Confidential Informants [] and [] of this office have advised that the subject, SARA BECKER, presently employed by the American National Red Cross, Washington, D. C., and BERNARD S. MORRIS, employed in the International Functional Intelligence Division, Department of State, have been in contact with each other concerning an application which all three wish to file with the Civil Service Commission for positions with the Central Intelligence Agency.

Informant advised that in a conversation with MORRIS, the subject discussed the advisability of disclosing confidential information on an application form, and stated that she didn't want anyone in her office to see this application. She then stated that ~~the only person that she would~~ really want to go to would be "R. P. W.". It is noted that the informant may have misunderstood the middle initial and it is possible that COPLON was referring to ROBERT MARTIN WOHLFORTH. However, the possibility also exists that she was referring to a different individual. (RAY P. whearty of the Department)

According to this informant, on March 2, 1949, COPLON was contacted by a female (BECKER ?) who inquired about filling out an application blank and who was wondering how to reply to several questions as to past work experiences. COPLON advised this individual that she was going to New York over the weekend and would call her upon her return.

Later in the day, informant advised that BERNARD MORRIS of the State Department advised COPLON, "I have given that thing to a guy to look over and he was glad to look it over". He further stated that he was waiting to get it back and that he would bring it over Friday, to which COPLON replied that she was leaving at 1:00 P. M. Friday for New York and returning early Sunday. MORRIS then said that if this "guy" drafted it he could type it in. COPLON then informed him that it had to be in the 15th.

Today, informant advised that COPLON indicated that she wished to leave Washington at 1:00 P. M. because she desired to get to New York early as she wanted "to pick up something downtown", explaining that downtown meant around 42nd Street.

It therefore appears likely that the subject intends seeing WOHLFORTH in connection with those applications while in New York over this weekend.

VAN ALLEN HAD ADVISED THAT WHEN MARINO FIRST CAME TO HIS OFFICE, SHE APPEARED TO BE A VERY RELIGIOUS GIRL OF CATHOLIC FAITH BUT AFTER A PERIOD OF TIME SHE SEEMED TO BERY FRIENDLY WITH COPLON, SIEGEL AND ARONOW. AS PREVIOUSLY STATED, VAN ALLEN STATED THAT COPLON-S CLOSEST ASSOCIATES, WHO IN HIS OPINION SHARED HER POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY, WERE WALFISH, FRIEMUS, SIEGEL, ARONOW AND MARINO. VAN ALLEN STATED THAT AS FAR AS HE WAS CONCERNED, THE REMAINDER OF THE FEMALE EMPLOYEES IN THE OFFICE WERE ALL RIGHT. THE FILE OF IRENE HEBARD, WHOSE NAME APPEARED IN COPLON-S ADDRESS BOOK, REFLECTED THAT SHE WAS EMPLOYED AS A STENOGRAPHER BY THE EWS ON NOV. EIGHT, FORTYFOUR. SHE WAS REFERRED TO THE EWS BY THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION. SHE WAS BORN MAY THIRTY, NINETEEN FIFTEEN, PITTSBURGH, PA. AT THE TIME OF HER FILLING

TO : GUY HOTTEL, SAC, Washington Field

DATE: March 4, 1949

FROM : SA JOE R. CRAIG

SUBJECT: JUDITH COPLON
ESPIONAGE - R

Not for release

As previously recorded in surveillance log of January 13, 1949, JUDY COPLON was observed, by SA JOHN O. CAVADINE and the writer, to meet an unknown man at the corner of 14th and G Sts., N. W., in front of the Pennsylvania Railroad Ticket Office at approximately 12:50 PM, January 13, 1949. This unknown individual was described as 6' 1" in height; weight 170 lbs; age 25-30; hair-brown (cut short); wearing light brown suit, brown shoes, brown and checked tie, and eyeglasses.

Referenced surveillance log notes that COPLON and the above individual talked approximately one minute; that thereafter, the man walked across the street to the Hamilton National Bank, 619 14th St., N. W.

The log further records that after the unknown individual left the above bank, SA CAVADINE contacted teller W. L. ANDERSON, who exhibited a check deposited by the unknown man. This check, numbered 30490, dated January 7, 1949, was drawn on the Fifth Avenue Office of the Guaranty Trust Company, Fifth Avenue and 49th St., New York City, payable to SEYMOUR NAGAN and issued by the "New Republic", 40 East 49th St., New York City.

On February 25, 1949, SA HOLLIS BOWERS and the writer, through cooperation of JOE BUSCHER, brother of SA LAWRENCE E. BUSCHER, ascertained that the name of SEYMOUR P. NAGAN, was on the door of Room 1180, within a suite of rooms rented by McGraw Hill Publishing Company, National Press Building, 14 and F Sts., N. W. JOE BUSCHER is Service Manager of the above building.

Through a spot check of Room 1180, at the above location, the writer recognized an individual therein as identical with SEYMOUR NAGAN, as described in the surveillance log of January 13, 1949.

It was noted that the names of SEYMOUR P. NAGAN and DONALD LOOMIS appear on the door of Room 1180 at the above location. Further observation of NAGAN noted that he is of medium build, olive complexion, wears horned rimmed glasses, has dark brown hair (parted on right side). He was occupying the front desk in Room 1180 when observed.

Another man, probably DONALD LOOMIS, occupied a desk behind NAGAN. The above office, approximately 12 x 18 feet, has a third desk against the wall away from the door.

Following the above, BOWERS and the writer, made attempts to identify NAGAN's car in the vicinity of the National Press Building and NAGAN's residence, 2000 F St., N. W., with negative results.

On February 28, 1949, a surveillance maintained by SA BOWERS and the writer at the National Press, from 8:45 AM to 11:05 AM, failed to note NAGAN entering the building. Spot checks of NAGAN's office throughout this period, failed to locate NAGAN.

On March 1, 1949, after two periodic spot checks of NAGAN's office, NAGAN was observed by the writer to be at his desk in Room 1180, National Press Building at approximately 3:55 PM.

This is to advise that per instructions of Mr. DELAVIGNE who had received instructions from Mr. LADD to have Mr. LEWIS NEMZER immediately interviewed concerning his association and knowledge of the subject and in particular it should be ascertained from him if he had at any time given any information regarding any situation in the Department of Justice or any other government department to anyone in the Department of Justice, the FBI, or House Committee on Un-American Activities, or anyone else, and if so, exactly and specifically what the information was, and the result of this interview should be submitted to the Bureau - attention Mr. D. M. LADD, Assistant Director by noon tomorrow, MONDAY.

The writer ascertained from Mr. BERNARD MORRIS that NEMZER's current address is 451 Loveman Avenue, Worthington, Ohio, and that he is presently teaching at the State University, Columbus, Ohio.

The writer in the absence of Mr. OSTHOLTHOFF, SAC and ASAC at Cincinnati telephonically contacted Special Agent LAWRENCE KELLER, Supervisor, Cincinnati Office, and gave the above instructions to him in addition to sufficient background information on the case and requested that a detailed and complete interview be conducted with Mr. NEMZER.

JUDITH COPLON, ESP R. THE FOLLOWING INDIVIDUALS HAVE BEEN INTERVIEWED BY WFO WITH BUREAU APPROVAL...

HARRY A. BECKER, ATTORNEY, FCC, SOCIAL ACQUAINTANCE OF SUBJ SINCE LATE FORTYTHREE OR EARLY FORTYFOUR IN NY AND WASH, ADVISED THAT ON MARCH TWO LAST DURING DINNER AT SHAPIROS APARTMENT IN PRESENCE OF HIMSELF AND SHAPIRO COPLON EXPRESSED CONCERN OVER THE FBI POSSIBLY HAVING HER PHONE TAPPED AND ASKED BECKER WHAT HE KNEW RE SUCH ACTIVITIES ON PART OF FBI. BECKER ASKED SUBJ WHAT HER CONCERN WAS ABOUT RE SUCH ACTIVITIES ON PART OF FBI AND SHE ASKED IF THEY WOULD LISTED TO DIRTY STORY WHEREUPON BECKER REPLIED THEY WERE LOOKING FOR SOMETHING BIGGER THAN THAT. SUBJ THEN MENTIONED CLICKING AND HUMMING NOISES SHE HAD NOTICED IN HER TELEPHONE.

MISS SARAH BECKER, EMPLOYED AMERICAN NATL RED CROSS, ADVISED SHE HAS BEEN ACQUAINTED WITH COPLON SINCE FORTYTHREE WHEN BOTH EMPLOYED BY DEPT OF JUSTICE, NYC. SHE STATED SHE KNEW SUBJ TO BE CLOSELY ASSOCIATED WITH MRS. SYDNEY SAMIS, NEE SHIRLEY ARONOW, WHO HAD BEEN A CLASSMATE OF COPLON AT BARNARD COLLEGE AND HAD ALSO WORKED WITH SUBJ. SHE ALSO STATED THAT ROBERT WOHLFORTH, HEAD OF DEPT OF JUSTICE

STAFF IN NY, ELSIE FRIEMUS, ANOTHER ASSOCIATE AND CLASSMATE AT BARNARD, HELEN SIEGEL, PRACTICING ATTORNEY IN NYC, AND PAULINE BRAVER OF NYC WERE FRIENDS OF SUBJ. BECKER FURTHER STATED THAT PROF. PITTMAN POTTER WAS COPLONS FACULTY ADVISOR AT AMERICAN UNIVERSITY RE THE SUBJECT MATTER OF THESIS WHICH SHE IS PRESENTLY PREPARING. BECKER NAMED COPLONS CLOSE FRIENDS AND ASSOCIATES IN WASH AS VIRGINIA MARINIO OF ANNAPOLIS, MD, AND NATHAN LENVIN AND HAROLD KOFFSKY, DEPT OF JUSTICE ATTORNEYS. BECKER ALSO STATED SUBJ WAS INTERESTED IN MODERN DANCE AND PHOTOGRAPHY AND OWNED EXPENSIVE CAMERA. SHE FURTHER STATED COPLON HAD VISITED NY AT LEAST ONCE A MONTH FOR PAST YEAR FOR PURPORTED PURPOSE OF VISITING PARENTS. IN HER CONVERSATIONS WITH COPLON THE LATTER SEEMED TO AVOID CONTROVERSIAL SUBJECTS, ESPECIALLY THE LOYALTY PROGRAM ABOUT WHICH SUBJ WAS VERY SENSITIVE AND SEEMED PARTICULARLY ANXIOUS NOT TO GIVE IMPRESSION TO ANYONE THAT SHE MIGHT BE DISLOYAL TO GOV'T. BECKER SAID SHE HAD HEARD THAT WHILE AT BARNARD COLLEGE SUBJ WAS MEMBER OF QUOTE LIBERAL OR RADICAL UNQUOTE GROUP AND THERE WERE RUMORS TO EFFECT THIS FACT PREVENTED SUBJ FROM BECOMING MEMBER OF PHI BETA KAPPA. MRS. RUTH NEARENBERG BLAUSTEIN, FORMER EMPLOYEE, DEPT OF JUSTICE, WASH, DC, ADVISED AS A STENO SHE HAD TAKEN DICTATION FROM COPLON FROM MAY TO OCTOBER FORTYSEVEN. SHE FURNISHED NO FURTHER PERTINENT INFO.

HAROLD DAVID KOFFSKY, DEPT OF JUSTICE ATTORNEY, ADVISED HE HAD KNOWN SUBJ SINCE FEB. EIGHTEEN,, FORTYEIGHT, AS A BUSINESS ASSOCIATE.

HE HAD OBSERVED HER COPYING FROM FILES AND ABSTRACTS BUT AS THIS WAS PART OF HER DUTIES WAS NOT SUSPICIOUS OF HER. SHE ALWAYS APPEARED TO BE QUOTE FLUSH UNQUOTE WITH MONEY AND AT TIMES HAD AS HIGH AS THREE OR FOUR UNCASHED PAY CHECKS IN POSSESSION.

NATHAN B. LENVIN, DEPT OF JUSTICE ATTORNEY, ADVISED HE HAS BEEN WORKING WITH SUBJ IN FAR SECTION OF DEPT SINCE JULY FORTYFIVE. HE SAID RECENTLY ONE NORMAN BURLER, FORMER DEPT OF JUSTICE EMPLOYEE, AFTER TESTIFYING BEFORE HCUA RE COMMUNIST MATTERS VISITED COPLON IN HER OFFICE. THE LATTER EXPRESSED GREAT INDIGNATION AFTER HIS DEPARTURE OVER FACT THAT ANYONE HAVING RED TINGE WOULD VISIT PEOPLE HOLDING RESPONSIBLE POSITIONS IN DEPT.

JOY GAIL RAYWID, DEPT OF LABOR EMPLOYEE, FURNISHED NO PERTINENT INFO. MRS. RUTH ROSSEN, EMPLOYED DEPT OF JUSTICE SINCE THIRTYFIVE, SAID SHE BEGAN WORK IN INTERNAL SECURITY SEC. ONE MONTH AGO AND AT TIME MET

SUBJ AS FELLOW EMPLOYEE. HER WORK CONSISTED OF REVIEWING FBI INTERNAL SECURITY REPORTS AS TO COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES BY ^{various} VARIOUS INDIVIDUALS - PARTICULARLY

INFO RE INDIVIDUALS CONTACTING FOREIGN LEGATIONS OR EMBASSIES BE ROUTED TO HER.

HAROLD PAUL SHAPIRO, ATTORNEY, APPELLATE DIV, DEPT OF JUSTICE, SAID HE HAD MET COPLON IN AUGUST FORTYEIGHT IN OFFICE OF SYDNEY BRODIE AND HENRY PUTZEL, BOTH ATTORNEYS IN DEPT. HE WAS CLOSE SOCIAL ACQUAINTANCE OF COPLON AND AWARE OF FACT SHE MADE SEVERAL TRIPS TO NY, RECALLING SPECIFICALLY THOSE MADE ON JAN. FOURTEEN AND NINETEEN, FEB. EIGHTEEN AND MARCH FOUR LAST. COPLONS TRIP ON JAN. NINETEEN MADE PRIMARILY AT HIS BEHEST DUE TO FACT HE HAD OBTAINED NY PLAY TICKETS AND REQUESTED SHE ACCOMPANY HIM. HE FURNISHED NO FURTHER PERTINENT INFO.

MISS ETTA TAYLOR, DEPT OF JUSTICE STENO, ADVISED SHE HAD BEEN ASSIGNED TO TAKE DICTATION FROM SUBJ FOR PAST YEAR AND IN THIS CONNECTION PREPARED DATA SLIPS CONTAINING EXCERPTS FROM FBI REPORTS AT COPLONS DIRECTION. COPIES OF DATA SLIPS MADE FOR EACH PERSON OR ORGANIZATION APPEARING IN BODY OF REPORT AS UNDERLINED BY SUBJ AND WERE FILED IN CABINETS ALONG WALLS OF ROOM OCCUPIED BY COPLON EITHER BY SUBJ OR TAYLOR. TAYLOR SAID SHE COULD NOT IDENTIFY PARTICULAR DATA SLIPS FOUND IN COPLONS POSSESSION AT ARREST AS HAVING BEEN PREPARED BY HER BUT STATED SHE IS ONLY ONE WHO PREPARES SUCH SLIPS AT PRESENT. NONE OF INDIVIDUALS INTERVIEWED COULD FURNISH INFO RE ESPIONAGE ACTIVITIES ON PART OF COPLON.

TO : GUY HOTTEL, SAC, WASHINGTON FIELD

DATE: March 5, 1949

FROM : KENNETH T. DELAVIGNE

SUBJECT: JUDITH COPLON
ESPIONAGE - R

At 11:25 March 4, 1949, Mr. FLETCHER instructed the writer to detail two agents immediately to cover the room of COPLON so as to make certain that no one gained entry thereto. Agents TIERNEY and BUCHHOLZ were immediately instructed to cover this assignment and to remain in such position as to keep this room within sight until they were relieved and to see to it that no one gained entrance to it.

Agents CRAIG and FUOSS were immediately advised by the writer to relieve TIERNEY and BUCHHOLZ on this assignment at 8:30 A. M., March 5, 1949 and to follow the same instructions as previously pointed out.

Special Agent OBERNDORF was instructed to report to this office at 9:00 A. M. for purpose of supervising and handling the anticipated search of COPLON's room.

At 11:30 P. M. on March 4, 1949, Agent JONES telephonically furnished Agent FIRDERKO at the Russian Plant the salient details in this case with instructions to immediately advise the writer if any pertinent telephone calls were received with regard to the arrest of GUBITCHEV.

In accordance with my instructions, JONES furnished the identical information to Special Agents LaFRANCE and MINNO, LaFRANCE being scheduled to assume duty at 12 Midnight and MINNO at 8:00 A. M.

At 11:50 P. M., Fr. FLETCHER instructed the writer to obtain specimens from all typewriters in the Foreign Agent's Registration Section of the Department and this assignment was given by the writer to Special Agent JONES to handle the first thin in the A. M. of March 5, 1949.

At approximately 12 Midnight, March 4, 1949, Mr. FLETCHER instructed the writer to be available in the office the morning of March 5 and to have agent personnel available for the purpose of conducting a search of COPLON's room. He instructed this search not be conducted until Bureau instructions to do so were received, dependent on whether a waiver of search could be obtained from COPLON or a search warrant secured.

At 6:00 A. M. On March 5, 1949, Agent MILNES, on duty in Mr. FLETCHER's office, stated that FLETCHER desired the writer to telephonically contact Mr. FAY, USA, at 8:00 A. M., and arrange to secure a search warrant for COPLON's room. In response to my question, MILNES stated that no additional authority from the Bureau would need to be requested to conduct the search after the warrant had been obtained.

In response to my request to whether the Bureau and/or the Department had decided as to the material and wording to be included in the affidavits and warrant, he advised that this apparently had not been specifically decided on but stated the affidavits should be based on the documents COPLON had in her purse at the time of her arrest and on information and belief for the purpose of securing the typewriter used by her in preparing the abstracts found in her possession. He stated that we should be certain in obtaining the affidavits not to indicate in any way any illegal action which may have been participated in during this investigation. He advised that complaints had already been filed in NewYork City against COPLON and GUBITCHEV.

At 8:00 A. M. I telephonically contacted Mr. FAY at his home. He stated he had been contacted earlier that morning by Mr. FORD, of the Department, and had received Mr. FORD's instructions to assist in any way possible in the preparation of the search warrant. At that time Mr. FAY suggested that the affidavit for the search warrant state that on information it was known that COPLON, on her arrest, had been found to possess 34 abstracts of reports on security matter and espionage cases and that on information and belief she was believed to be in the possession of, to own or to operate a typewriter used to produce these abstracts. He stated that the prayer should be broad enough to cover any other material found at COPLON's home which might assist in this case. He advised that he would be available for the purpose of consultation in the event he was needed.

Through arrangement with U. S. Commissioner LAWRENCE, the writer, accompanied by Agents MENDENHALL and PAYNE appeared in his office at 9:00 A. M., on March 5, 1949. Shortly after our arrival, the writer was advised that Assistant United States Attorney CHARLES MURRAY was being designated by Mr. FAY to assist in the preparation of the search warrant.

At 9:45 A. M., Agent MILNES furnished me the message that Assistant Director NICHOLS had specifically instructed that the agents on duty in the COPLON room be warned against furnishing any information or comments to the press. Since they were not telephonically available, I instructed Agent PAYNE to contact MARY JANE CRETZMEYER, a Bureau employee who resides at Jefferson Hall, to contact the agents for this purpose.

At approximately 10:15 A. M., AUSA MURRAY appeared at Mr. LAWRENCE's office and in a preliminary discussion with Mr. LAWRENCE it was felt by Mr. MURRAY that more adequate consideration should be given this matter before the preparation of the search warrant. Mr. MURRAY, the writer and Agents MENDENHALL and PAYNE then went to Mr. FAY's office where Mr. MURRAY, after checking the law on the subject, began the preliminary preparation of the search warrant. At approximately 11:00 A. M., Mr. MURRAY was joined by USA FAY and thereafter, an affidavit was prepared for the writer and Agent PAYNE. Upon their completion and before going to the U. S. Commissioner's Office, the writer telephonically contacted Mr. LADD and read the affidavits to him and Mr. NICHOLS. Mr. LADD instructed that these affidavits not be filed in that they furnished objectionable details in the case. He instructed me to tell FAY to call Assistant Attorney General FORD and that no affidavits were to be filed without his, LADD's approval.

During the discussion with Mr. FAY and Mr. MURRAY, it was pointed out by them that a legal search warrant cannot be obtained purely on information and belief. They stated it is necessary that the warrant be supported by actual knowledge and in support of this Mr. MURRAY cited the case of SCHENKS vs. U. S., 2 Fed. Second 185, 55 Appeals, D. C. 84.

Thereafter, as the result of several telephone calls with Mr. FORD, of the Department, the attached affidavit of Special Agent PAYNE was prepared.

Based on the decision of Mr. FAY and MURRAY, after their telephone conference with Mr. FORD, the writer telephonically informed Mr. LADD that the only affidavit involving Bureau personnel to be submitted was the attached affidavit of PAYNE, which I then proceeded to read to him. Mr. LADD indicated that this was considerably more within the desires of the Bureau in this matter. I then informed him that we had located a colored maid employed at McLean Gardens who could testify that within a recent period while cleaning COPLON's room she had observed a typewriter. I advised him that with Mr. FAY's approval she was being brought to the Commissioner's office and an affidavit to that effect would be secured from her and he approved of this procedure.

I also advised Mr. LADD that the USC, MURRAY, FAY and FORD had agreed that rather than have a New York Agent come to Washington that it would be agreeable and legal to have Agent PAYNE talk to Agent T. SCOTT MILLER, JR., of the New York Office (whom WHITSON, of the Bureau, had in the meantime identified to the writer telephonically as the New York Agent who had removed from the purse of COPLON the 34 abstracts) identify MILLER as a Bureau agent through voice recognition, so state to the Commissioner, who would then accept an oral statement for the purpose of the search warrant. Mr. LADD agreed to this also with the qualification that MILLER would testify only that he removed these documents from COPLON's purse. Mr. LADD instructed that he be advised immediately as to exactly what was stated by MILLER. I immediately furnished these instructions to ASAC BELMONT and Agent MILLER, of the New York Office and requested BELMONT to advise Mr. LADD as to what was said by MILLER since it was impossible for me to cover the call at the Commissioner's office. I asked BELMONT to tell Mr. LADD that if he disagreed with any statement made by MILLER, to contact me immediately in the Commissioner's office so that I could take appropriate action.

Thereafter, as hereinbefore indicated, MILLER spoke to the Commissioner and furnished his affidavit. No contact was made of the writer by Mr. LADD.

During the hearing, GERALDINE DeVAUGHN, the colored employee at McLean Gardens, appeared before the Commissioner and furnished the attached affidavit.

Thereafter an affidavit for search warrant, supported by the affidavits of PAYNE, MILLER and DeVAUGHN, was prepared and a search warrant was issued by the Commissioner directed to Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and based on reason to believe that COPLON has concealed in her room certain property, namely, "typewriter, typewriting paper, carbon paper, erasers, documents and files belonging to the U. S. Department of Justice relating to the National Defense, which are the instrumentalities and fruits of violations of Title 18, Sections 371, 793, 794 and 2071, U. S. Code."

The writer then telephonically contacted Mr. LADD and advised him of the contents of the affidavit for search warrant and the search warrant, copies of which are attached to this memo.

At the same time I advised Mr. LADD that it was the very definite opinion of Mr. MURRAY that because of the deletion of the material considered objectionable in the previous affidavits by the Bureau and by Mr. FORD, that to remain within the legal limits of the search warrant, we would be enabled only to seize a typewriter if found in COPLON's room. When Mr. LADD asked for an explanation of this, I advised him that it was Mr. MURRAY's opinion and also the opinion of the Commissioner that the search warrant would authorize the seizure of only that material identified in the search warrant and since the affidavits were so restricted, they could of necessity apply only to the typewriter. I further advised Mr. LADD that Mr. MURRAY and the Commissioner were both very dubious about the legality of extending the search beyond that necessary to locate the typewriter and that Mr. MURRAY had suggested that if in addition to the typewriter, other material was observed during the search which appeared pertinent that it not be seized but that consideration be given to the issuance of an additional search warrant on the theory that the original search warrant provided an original legal search in the execution of which evidence not specified in the search warrant was observed. I explained to Mr. LADD that MURRAY was of the opinion that even with this, it was rather questionable from a legal standpoint as to the extent to which such an exploratory search could be extended.

I told Mr. LADD I therefore, had instructed agents to institute search to seize the typewriter and no other material and that if any other material were observed, it would be taken up with the Bureau and the USA. He agreed to the procedure.

DATE: March 4, 1949

At 1:05 P. M. today, I advised SAC SCHEIDT of the New York Division that the subject had left Washington on Pennsylvania Senator train #176, at 1:00 P. M. today and will arrive in NYC at 4:45 P. M. I told him she was in coach #1629, in the center of the train at the time of departure and that she is wearing a gray-tan kerchief with dime sized black circular figures with white centers over her head; black cloth full length sweep winter coat; carrying the red imitation alligator make-up kit she has previously carried to NY; and the black pocketbook with gold trim which she has previously carried to NY.

I advised him that Agents THOMAS A. MENDENHALL and H. DUDLEY PAYNE are accompanying subject and furnished him the following descriptions:

Age:	31	Gray gabardine top coat;
Height:	6' 1"	tan snap brim hat; gray plaid suit;
Weight:	175	orange and blue necktie
Broad Face

I told Mr. SCHEIDT that MENDENHALL's clothing is exactly the same as he wore on the last trip with COPLON to New York and that MENDENHALL and Agent WIRTH of the New York Division know each other.

PAYNE

Age:	38	Blue-gray top coat;
Height:	5' 10"	gray suit; red tie
Weight:	180

I advised Mr. SCHEIDT that MENDENHALL and PAYNE had been instructed to turn the surveillance over to the NYC Agents at the Station and then to proceed to the NY Division to await instructions and not to participate in the physical surveillance after it is taken over by the New York Office.

On March 5, 1949 the writer received the following information from [] and supplied it immediately to Mr. Whitson on the times indicated:

- 10:00 AM LEV S. TOLOKONNIKOV, Chief of the Soviet Consulate Division, made reservations to NYC, leaving Washington by airline at 11:05 AM, and arriving NYC 12:45 PM.
- 10:16 AM LEONID A. MOROZOV, 1st. Secretary of the Russian Delegation to UN, called IVAN IPPOLITOV, Secretary to the Russian Ambassador to advise the Amb. of the arrest of a Soviet citizen. MOROZOV said that V.A. GUBITCHEV had called him at 6:00 AM to tell him of the arrest. Morozov said that Gubitchev had been arrested on the street last night, and had not been permitted to call his superiors until this morning. Morozov said that he went to the F.B.I. at 7:45 AM this date to see Gubitchev, but that they would not allow him to see Gubitchev, that they insisted on certain formalities, and that they said they didn't understand Russian. Ippolitov said he would tell the Amb. Ippolitov called Morozov back at once and wanted to know Gubitchev's exact position - Morozov said it was Third Secretary, and he was an Engineer in the planning of the new building. Morozov could not say where Gubitchev was being held, but promised to have the exact address by the time Tolokonnikov reached NY.
- 11:37 AM RUFINA B. SOLDATOVA advised Ippolitov that Gubitchev was an Officer, Grade 13, Degree 3. She stated that Morozov has not been able to see Gubitchev as yet.
- 12:05 PM Ippolitov called Mr. James Webb, Under Secretary of State, and requested an immediate appointment for Amb. Panyushkin.
- 12:10 PM Hamelsine, in Webb's office at State Dept., said Webb would see Panyushkin at 1:00 PM.
- 12:16 PM Ippolitov told Boris K. Sokolov that he would go with the Amb. to the State Dept.
- 12:16 PM A. G. Artamonov, of the Cultural Section of the Embassy, told Alexandrov, of Tass, NYC, to collect all information about the Gubitchev case.
- 1:07 PM Soldatova told Ippolitov that Y. A. Malik, head of the Russian Delegation to UN had protested to Warren Austin, head of the U.S. Delegation regarding the arrest of Gubitchev, and Austin said he had no authority in the matter, but would take it up with the State Dept. She also said that Soldatov had just gone to see the Assn't to the Secretary General of the U.N.
- 2:05 PM Ippolitov told Soldatova that the Soviet Amb. has just protested to the State Dept. and had demanded the immediate release of Gubitchev. He told Soldatova to pass this on to Malik.

At 5:25 P. M., March 5, 1949, Special Agent OBERNDORF advised me that the search at COPLON's room had been completed and that the only material found was a Corona portable typewriter, a box of carbon paper and some cheap stationery which did not appear to have a watermark but which appeared to be typewriter stationery. I instructed him to maintain the surveillance and to wait for a call from me.

I immediately communicated this information to Supervisor WHITSON at the Bureau and received his instructions that all of this material should be seized provided this met with the approval of AUSA MURRAY.

The writer was then advised by Agent OBERNDORF that an examination of the 1948 diary in COPLON's room contained the following entry for Friday, December 10:

- "1. PETUKIN
2. BARNARD"

I telephonically contacted AUSA MURRAY and with regard to the typewriter, carbon paper and stationery, he instructed that this material be seized on the basis of the existing search warrant. With regard to the diary entry, he stated he felt this would not be covered by the existing search warrant and that if the Bureau desired to obtain this as evidence, he would recommend the obtaining of an additional search warrant. However, he did point out that a cryptic entry such as this, not supported by other notation, in an actual trial would probably not be of too great importance since undoubtedly, if it became of such importance it would be supported by stronger information pointing to COPLON.

At 5:50 P. M., I communicated this information to WHITSON with the advice that the name PETUKIN is negative in our indices and means nothing to us so far as the COPLON case is concerned. WHITSON stated he desired to consider this matter further and also to check the Bureau indices and would advise the writer later.

At 6:30 P. M., Supervisor GODFREY advised he was calling for WHITSON and stated the Bureau files contained only one reference which did not appear to pertain to PETUKIN. He stated he had discussed this with Mr. LADD who advised if the facts concerning the diary entry con-

1. One box of Write carbon paper, size 8 x 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ ", manufactured by Write, Inc., Bridgeport, Connecticut, containing black light weight special use carbon paper.
2. Two sheets of writing paper, mottled in appearance.
3. Four sheets of typing paper.
4. Two half sheets of bond paper.
5. One abstract pad of 13 pages.

It is requested that Items 2 to 5 be compared with specimens received from the New York Office consisting of the documents taken from the subject at the time of her arrest in that city. It is requested further that if possible it be determined if the carbon paper submitted herewith may have been used in preparing the documents found in the subject's possession at the time of her arrest. The Laboratory is requested further to conduct any other examination which the Laboratory deems advisable and pertinent to this investigation.

It is suggested that the specimens submitted herewith be returned to this office on completing the examination.

At 10:00 A. M. this morning, Inspector LAUGHLIN and Supervisor LAMPHERE of the Bureau instructed the writer to have an immediate inventory made of the data (abstract) sheets maintained in the Foreign Agents Registration Office and in this connection to originate this examination by a contact with Mr. FOLEY. They instructed that particular attention be given to identifying Bureau major cases on which COPLON could have secured information, such as the ADAMS and WITZACK cases.

They advised the Bureau has received information that the Department plans to integrate the data sheets in the FAR Section with the general Department files and pointed out that of course this procedure, in view of developments in the COPLON case, would be undesirable from the Bureau's standpoint. Mr. FOLEY is to be asked concerning plans in this regard, however, no opinion or request is to be made to him, and the Bureau is to be advised.

They also instructed that the inventory should include the location of the original Departmental documents from which the material found in COPLON's possession is a copy of or was copied from and that all duplicates of these originals in the FAR Section should be identified and located.

General interview with Mr. FOLEY concerning the administration of the Section, type of material to which COPLON had access by virtue of her duties, etc., was approved. They advised that this authority extends not only to the FAR Section but also to the Internal Security Section, which is under Mr. FOLEY.

On March 16, 1949, Inspector FLETCHER advised that he had discussed with Mr. FOLEY of the FARS the possibility of making an analysis of the records of that Section for the purpose of determining those cases on which COPLON had furnished or removed information. He stated that as a result of this, he desired that a detailed analysis be made of the data sheets on file in the FARS in an attempt to determine those instances where copies of the data sheets are missing.

He instructed that the analysis be made by locating the original data sheet and then checking to determine if the copies indicated on the original sheet are on file or missing. He stated it would be necessary to note only those cases where copies are missing and those instances may be ignored in which the original and all copies are accounted for. He pointed out that he felt the present position of the Bureau with respect to this case indefensible in that we are unable to show the obtaining or furnishing of any information by COPLON except for a very recent period of time.

I pointed out to Mr. FLETCHER that this identical project had been considered by this office when the original survey of the FARS was ordered by the Bureau and that for the time being we had decided not to attempt to conduct such an analysis because of the tremendous quantity of these data sheets, the lack of system used in filing them, and the feeling on the part of this office that such an analysis, if completed, would not be a conclusive finding that COPLON had removed the missing sheets from the FARS files.

Mr. FLETCHER instructed that it would be necessary to make such an analysis unless the WFO could show to the Bureau that such an examination would be illogical or valueless.

EXTENT OF SOCIAL ACTIVITIES AND SOCIAL CONTACTS OUTSIDE DEPT. NOT KNOWN TO NEMZER. NEMZER KNOWS OF NO CONTACTS OF COPLON WHO WERE CONNECTED WITH CP OTHER THAN POPPER MENTIONED ABOVE. COPLON MADE FREQUENT WEEKEND TRIPS TO NEW YORK OFTEN LEAVING MIDDLE OF FRIDAY AFTERNOONS. ASSUMPTION ~~ON~~ ON PART OF NEMZER WAS THAT COPLON WENT TO HAVE CONTACTS WITH EARLY FRIENDS BECAUSE SHE WAS SUCH QUOTE A LONELY PERSON UNQUOTE. EXACT DATES OF TRIPS NOT KNOWN TO NEMZER, BUT GENERALLY WERE WEEKEND TRIPS, AND ON OCCASION, DATES NOT RECALLED, COPLON STAYED IN NY, BELIEVED ON VACATION. IN SUMMER OF FORTYEIGHT COPLON SURPRISED NEMZER BY ANNOUNCING SHE WAS TAKING A CONDUCTED TOUR TO FRANCE DESPITE FACT SHE HAD ALLEGEDLY PREVIOUSLY STATED SHE WAS TAKING SUMMER OFF TO WRITE A THESIS ON QUOTE FRENCH PROPAGANDA IN UNITED STATES DURING WORLD WAR TWO UNQUOTE. UPON RETURN TO U. S. IN SUMMER OR EARLY FALL OF FORTYEIGHT COPLON DID NOT APPEAR TO ~~LOOK~~ LOOK WELL TO NEMZER. COPLON STATED TO NEMZER THAT TRIP HAD BEEN MERELY A SIGHTSEEING TOUR AND NO CONTACTS WERE MENTIONED BY HER. FINANCIAL CONDITION OF COPLON APPEARED TO BE USUALLY GOOD

AND SHE STATED SHE HAD SUFFICIENT MONEY FOR TRIP TO FRANCE. COPLON NEVER MENTIONED ANY FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES TO NEMZER. COPLON STATED TO NEMZER DURING CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS DURING FORTYEIGHT ON OCCASION WHEN NEMZER WAS IN WASHINGTON D. C. THAT SHE WAS LOCATING AN APARTMENT FOR HER DOCTOR, NAME UNKNOWN, AND DID NOT HAVE TIME TO JOIN NEMZER AND FORMER ASSOCIATES FOR LUNCHEON. COPLON HAD BEEN TREATED BY DOCTOR FOR FEMALE TROUBLE AND HAD UNDERGONE OPERATION DURING PAST TWO YEARS. NEMZER FELT THAT COPLON HAD ~~QUOTED~~ QUOTE WEASELED UNQUOTE OUT OF LUNCHEON. NEMZER TOOK BERNARD S MORRIS TO STATE DEPT. WITH HIM WHEN HE WENT WITH THAT DEPT. PRIOR THERETO COBLON ~~AND MORRIS~~ AND MORRIS HAD BEEN PROMISED SALARY RAISED BY JUSTICE.

COPLON SEEMED WILLING TO TRANSFER TO STATE DEPT. IF REQUESTED, BUT NEAR END OF FORTYSEVEN COPLON CHANGED VIEWS ABOUT TRANSFERRING FROM JUSTICE, WHICH SURPRISED NEMZER ALTHOUGH NEMZER KNEW OF NO EXPLANATION FOR HER CHANGE. NEMZER TALKED WITH SUPERVISOR OF COPLON IN JUSTICE DEPT. STATING HE COULD TAKE COPLON TO STATE DEPT IF SHE DID NOT RECEIVE RAISE. COPLON ~~HEARD~~ HEARD OF INCIDENT AND PHONED NEMZER, ACTED SHARPLY, AND USED LANGUAGE INDICATING HER DISPLEASURE AT HIS ACTION. NEMZER BELIEVES COPLON HAD FULL ACCESS TO EVERYTHING IN RECORDS DIVISION OF JUSTICE BY PHONING FOR RECORDS OR BY PERSONAL SEARCH IN RECORDS ROOM. NIGHT TO COPLON. NEMZER EMPHASIZED DURING INTERVIEW FROM TIME TO TIME THAT COPLON WAS VERY EMOTIONALLY UNSTABLE BUT THAT HE HAD NO REASON TO BELIEVE SHE WAS CONNECTED WITH CP. NEMZER STATED THAT TO HIS RECOLLECTION HE AT NO TIME HAD FURNISHED ANY INFO OR STATEMENT REGARDING ANY SITUATION IN DEPT. OF JUSTICE OR FBI TO ANY OTHER GOVT. AGENCY OR TO A REPRESENTATIVE OF ANY DEPT. OR TO ANY MEMBER OF ANY HOUSE COMMITTEE. NEMZER STATED THAT HE AND ASSOCIATES CONSIDERED THEIR POSITION WITH DEPT. TO BE A VERY SPECIAL ONE AND THAT THEY WERE EXTREMELY CONSCIOUS THAT MATERIAL THEY WORKED WITH WAS VERY CONFIDENTIAL AND THAT NO DISCUSSION TO HIS KNOWLEDGE WAS EVER HAD BY HIM WITH ANYONE CONCERNING ANY SITUATION WITHIN THE DEPT. OR CONCERNING ANY ACTIVITY IN DEPT. BY MEMBERS OF DEPT. OR OF THE FBI. NEMZER STATED THAT ON OCCASIONS WHILE HE WAS ASSOCIATED WITH DEPT. HE HAD GONE TO THE RECORDS OF HCUA FOR THE PURPOSE OF SECURING INFO CONCERNING INDIVIDUALS INVOLVED IN INVESTIGATIONS IN HIS SECTION. HIS VISITS TO HCUA RECORDS WERE NOT FREQUENT AND HIS CONTACT THERE WAS WITH AN INDIVIDUAL NAMED MANDEL WHO HAS RECENTLY BEEN THE AUTHOR OF SOME ARTICLES IN NEWSPAPERS OR MAGAZINES. NEMZER SAYS NO DISCUSSIONS WERE HAD WITH ANY PERSON OF THE UNAMERICAN COMMITTEES OTHER THAN SOME INDIVIDUALS WHOM THE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE WERE INTERESTED IN HAVING THE STATE DEPT. KEEP IN THE ~~SECRET~~ U. S. ~~SECRET~~ BECAUSE OF SOME ASSISTANCE RENDERED TO THE UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE. NEMZER MENTIONED SPECIFICALLY ONE

NEMZER STATED THAT AT NO TIME HAD HE EVER CONTACTED ANY MEMBER OF HCUA AND THAT HIS ONLY CONTACT WITH MANDEL WHILE REVIEWING RECORDS MAINTAINED BY THAT COMMITTEE. NEMZER STATED THAT HE HAD WORKED WITH FBI AND HAD TESTIFIED AS A WITNESS IN CASE OF WHITE RUSSIAN IN THE CASE OF U. S. VS. VON ZIATSKY. ONE OF THE PARTIES IN THIS CASE WAS NAMED KUNZ. NEMZER WORKED ON THE CASE IN WASHINGTON AND THEN WENT TO HARTFORD, CONN., FOR SEVERAL DAYS, DATE NOT RECALLED, IN CONNECTION WITH CASE. NEMZER ALSO WORKED WITH FBI IN CASE OF U. S. VS. KAYFIELD RUSH, WHICH CASE INVOLVED A RUSSIAN ~~PROXX~~ PROPAGANDA DISSEMINATING AGENT. IN CONNECTION WITH DISCLOSURE OF ~~DEXX~~ INFO CONCERNING ANY SITUATION IN DEPT., NEMZER ADVISED THAT DURING THE EARLY DAYS OF WAR THERE WAS A POLISH TRANSLATOR EMPLOYED BY DEPT. NAMED DOMBROWSKY, FIRST NAME UNKNOWN, WHO WAS FINALLY FORCED OUT OF DEPT. BECAUSE OF INEFFICIENCY. DOMBROWSKY ~~EXXX~~ APARENTLY DID LOT OF TALKING AND ~~EXXX~~ MAY HAVE WRITTEN LETTERS ^CONCERNING SITUATION IN DEPT. TO ANYONE, INCLUDING UNAMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE. NEMZER ALSO MENTIONED A MRS. LONGLEY, AN ELDERLY WOMAN WHO WAS QUOTE A LETTER WRITER UNQUOTE WHO HAD WRITTEN TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL CONCERNING PEOPLE LOAFING IN DEPT. NEMZER SUGGESTED MRS. LONGLEY AND ABOVE MENTIONED DOMBROWSKY AS ONLY TWO PERSONS HE COULD THINK OF AS LIKELY TO HAVE TRANSMITTED INFO CONCERNING ANY SITUATION IN DEPT. TO OUTSIDE SOURCES. NEMZER ADVISED HE WILL CONTINUE TO ~~COGITATE~~ COGITATE ON SITUATION AND ANY FURTHER ~~EXX~~ RECOLLECTION CONCERNING COPLON OR

ESPIONAGE - R

DATE: March 7, 1949

On March 4, 1949, Inspector FLETCHER of the Bureau instructed the writer that a search should be conducted of the room in the Justice Building occupied by COPLON for the purpose of determining what new files had been received by her and also to determine the location of the Memorandum on MATORG dated March 3, 1949, which had been made available to her by the Bureau.

Special Agents COURTLAND J. JONES, EARL L. FUOSS, and JOE R. CRAIG were detailed to handle this.

There is enclosed herewith for the Washington Field Office, one sheet of ruled paper on which subject COPLON has written in her handwriting an order for breakfast during her temporary detention at this office pending arraignment on March 5, 1949.

It is requested that the Washington Field Office immediately have this enclosure transmitted to the Laboratory in order that it may be compared with specimens of subject's handwriting known by Washington Field Office to be on file in the Laboratory.

The New York Office should be advised immediately of the results of this handwriting comparison.

Enclosed herewith is one set of fingerprints of JUDITH COPLON and two sets of fingerprints of VALENTINE A. GUBITCHEV, all taken at the New York Office on March 4, 1949, after their arrest.

It is suggested that these fingerprints be used for comparison purposes in the examination of original documents taken from JUDITH COPLON on March 4, 1949 on the occasion of her arrest, which documents have already been forwarded to the Bureau. These are being forwarded directly to the Security Division of the Bureau as the Laboratory reports have not been received as yet and it is believed the Security Division can refer the Laboratory to the appropriate file numbers and documents for its requested examination.

Reference is made to the teletype of the New York Office dated February 25, 1949. The personnel file of the Department of Justice on Shirley Gladys Aronow has been reviewed and reflects the following information.

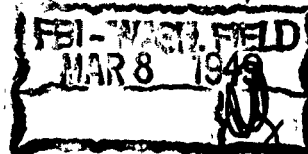

Miss Aronow filed an application on June 10, 1943 giving her legal residence as 866 West End Avenue, New York City, telephone, Schuyler 4-3272. Her application reflects her father's name as David Aronow who was born in Russia and her mother's maiden name as Rae Kamlet who was born in the United States. Shirley Aronow was appointed on June 16, 1943 as an expert in the Anti-Trust Division at New York City. This appointment was effective on June 17, 1943 at which time she took an oath of office. She was actually employed in the Economic Warfare Section at a salary of $2,000 per annum. An efficiency report dated March 31, 1945 was under a rating by Robert Wohlforth.

Miss Aronow was recommended for a transfer from the Economic Warfare Section of the War Division of the Department of Justice on June 7, 1945 to employment in the Anti-Trust Division at $2,600 per annum. The reason for the transfer, according to a communication in the personnel file, was that the New York Office of the Economic Warfare Section was being closed. The transfer was effective on July 1, 1945. Miss Aronow's position was abolished in a letter to her dated March 14, 1946 because of a reduction in personnel. The date of her termination is given as April 15, 1946.

There is no information in the Bureau's files which can be identified with David Aronow with the possible exception of the reference concerning a David Aronow who was a member of IWO Lodge of December, 1946. There are no references on Dr. Sidney Martin Samis or on Shirley Samis. The only reference on Shirley Gladys Aronow appearing in the Bureau's files is the Departmental applicant investigation.

The personnel file of the Department of Justice relative to Sarah Becker who is a contact of Coplon has been reviewed. This reflects that she was born on April 29, 1911 in Milwaukee Wisconsin. She filed an application on November 5, 1942 in which she listed her father as Abraham Becker, born in Kaunal, Lithuania, and her mother's maiden name as Anna Zak, born in Grenshek, Lithuania. She listed the following relatives in Government service:

cc - Washington Field

Major Samuel Becker, blood brother, Ambassador Hotel,
Chicago, Illinois, Ordnance Explosive and Safety Branch

A. Harry Becker, blood brother, St. Clair Hotel, Chicago, Illinois, Attorney for the FCC

Robert Charush, cousin, 3359 North Humboldt Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, United States Mailman

Sarah Becker attended the University of Wisconsin from September, 1927 to June, 1934, receiving her PHD in 1935. She was appointed as an expert in the Anti-Trust Division, Department of Justice on November 19, 1942 at a salary of $2400 per annum, payable from the working fund of the Board of Economic Warfare. Her official headquarters at the time of her appointment was given as Chicago but was immediately changed to Washington, D. C. The appointment was effective on January 11, 1943. She was transferred to the Economic Warfare Section in New York City on September 14, 1943. Her efficiency reports as of March 31, 1944 and March 31, 1945 were under a rating by Robert Wohlforth. She was transferred to the Anti-Trust Division of the Department of Justice on June 12, 1945 on the grounds that the New York Office of the Economic Warfare Section was being closed. This transfer was effective on July 1, 1945. She was separated from work in the Anti-Trust Division on April 15, 1946. At that time her address was 4300 Kansas Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

In connection with the above references to Sarah Becker's two brothers whom she terms as blood brothers, it is to be noted that information appearing in her personnel file reflects that her parents were naturalized in the United States in 1906. There is no indication that either of them is deceased or that she has any step-parents. Information has been received from Departmental officials to the effect that the Economic Warfare Section of the War Division of the Department of Justice went out of existence as of December 28, 1945. However, it is apparent from the personnel files of the two persons referred to above that the New York Office of the Economic Warfare Section closed during June of 1945. This is also substantiated by the information obtained from Mr. William Van Allen of the Anti-Trust Division in New York City who advised that this section in New York City closed as of June 30, 1945.

DATE: March 8, 1949

At 9:05 A. M. this morning, I advised Mr. LAUGHLIN of the Bureau that Informant [] reflected that at 12:50 A. M., March 8, 1949, SOLDATOV of the New York United Nations, had tried to reach First Secretary TOLOKONNIKOV of the Consular Division of the Embassy. I reminded LAUGHLIN that TOLOKONNIKOV is the individual who was sent by the Embassy to New York on March 5, 1949 to endeavor to effect the release of GUBICHEV. This call was unsuccessful.

I advised Mr. LAUGHLIN that at 1:00 A. M., TOLOKONNIKOV called SOLDATOV, who said "they called him and said it will be possible at 11:15 A. M." and that SOLDATOV wanted to know whether it would be possible for TOLOKONNIKOV to come to New York, TOLOKONNIKOV stating he would have to consult.

I told Mr. LAUGHLIN that at 1:15 A. M., TOLOKONNIKOV called and said he would come and that at 1:20 A. M., a reservation to New York via American Airlines leaving at 7:10 A. M. was made in the name of NAUMENKO. In this regard, I pointed out to Mr. LAUGHLIN that it is routine at the Embassy to make the reservation in the name of an individual different from that of the actual traveler.

I suggested to Mr. LAUGHLIN the possibility that this call had reference to the present incarceration of GUBICHEV.

At 9:15 A. M. today, I contacted Mr. LAUGHLIN of the Bureau and requested advice from him as to whether in connection with this case it is necessary for me to secure prior approval of the Bureau before requesting and examining Justice personnel files of fellow and former employees, friends, associates, etc. of JUDITH COPLON who have worked in the Justice Department.

After checking with Mr. LADD, Mr. LAUGHLIN advised me that such approval would not be necessary but stated that Mr. LADD had suggested that these requests be made of Mr. CLYDE PALMER of the Department.

DATE: March 8, 1949

On March 8, 1949, Mr. WHITSON of the Bureau called with reference to STEPHEN W. MANCHUR and advised the Bureau has received information this individual is supposed to have furnished a statement during 1946 regarding the FARS of the Justice Department to the HCUA; that also LOUIS RUSSELL of the HCUA is supposed to have given a copy of this information to the WFO, the foregoing information being per PEYTON FORD of the Department. WHITSON requested advice as to whether RUSSELL had done so.

I explained to him that on the previous day I had personally advised Mr. LADD that through information confidentially furnished by RUSSELL during which he had partially identified this individual from his recollection of this event, the WFO had set forth a teletype lead for the Detroit Division to interview discreetly MANCHUR who is now teaching at Wayne University in Detroit, Michigan, and told him that a response to this was expected in the Bureau at 12:00 noon today. I asked him if he had any objection to a discreet contact by this office with RUSSELL for the purpose of ascertaining whether he recalled having sent a copy of this information to the WFO and he replied there was no objection to this provided the inquiry was not made in too pointed a fashion.

Immediately after this, RUSSELL contacted SA RAPHAEL I. NIXON and advised him that through a review of HCUA files he had definitely determined that STEPHEN MANCHUR was the individual who furnished information in September, 1946 to HCUA regarding the situation in FARS. I advised WHITSON that RUSSELL had informed NIXON that shortly prior to September 20, 1946, he had taken a letter to LAMAR CAUDLE, Assistant Attorney General, which requested that the Department make available for review by an HCUA investigator, Departmental files pertaining to a substantial list of organizations and individuals concerning whom information had been furnished HCUA by MANCHUR. In this regard, RUSSELL stated that CAUDLE referred him to NATHAN ELIFF, who RUSSELL stated, was one of the individuals mentioned in the letter and on whom information of a derogatory nature had been furnished by MANCHUR. RUSSELL had advised that ELIFF at that time was not cooperative.

I advised WHITSON that RUSSELL stated that under date of September 20, 1946, over the signature of JOHN CARRINGTON, Clerk of the HCUA, he had written a letter to Attorney General CLARK stating that the Committee had previously asked for the files mentioned in the former letter and that the HCUA representative had been placed in contact with ELIFF who had advised he would tell CLARK concerning this matter upon the latter's return from Europe. RUSSELL advised WHITSON that this letter called for a response from the Department and that HCUA presently has in possession a copy of the September 20, 1946 communication but to date has been unable to locate in its files the copy of the communication preceding this one. RUSSELL suggested to NIXON that as he recalls it, he left the letter of September 20, 1946 with ELIFF and feels that possibly ELIFF destroyed this communication since it involved him.

I further advised WHITSON that RUSSELL had stated that prior to September 20, 1946, HCUA had questioned MANCHUR, apparently in Executive Session, and thereafter had issued a report. I asked him if he desired that we endeavor to secure a copy of this report and he stated that this should not be done in the absence of a request from the Bureau. I also advised WHITSON that a check of the WFO records reflected that RUSSELL had not made available a copy of this information.

I also told Mr. WHITSON that RUSSELL had ascertained that Congressman WOOD is this afternoon to furnish a press release regarding the 1946 situation which will state the Committee received information regarding pro-Russian persons employed in FARS; that COPLON was mentioned by the informant of HCUA who was a then former fellow employee; and would point out that there is no-one to blame for the present situation but would emphasize the need for a greater degree of cooperation between the Department and HCUA.

I also advised that RUSSELL stated that a newspaper man whose name is unknown to him knows that the 1946 informant of HCUA is presently employed at Wayne University at Detroit but does not know the name of this individual.

Mr. WHITSON advised the writer that Detroit is presently interviewing MANCHUR and thus far has ascertained that he is definitely the individual who informed HCUA.

ESPIONAGE - R

This is to advise that Mr. R. C. GODFREY of the Bureau telephonically inquired at 8:30 P.M. on March 6, 1949 about the identity of the Bureau of National Affairs, wherein he had a WFO letter indicating that Miss DORA SANDERS was employed. In this connection, he mentioned that because of the Bureau's uncertainty about the identity of this organization, the Bureau would be unable to grant permission to the Field at that time to interview Miss DORA SANDERS.

He said that the Bureau was awaiting State Department clearance before authorizing the Field to interview SONIA COHEN, with United Nations.

At 9:10 P.M., this office informed Mr. GODFREY that the Field would await clearance on the above two persons from the Bureau the following day. At that time Mr. GODFREY was also apprised of the information furnished previously by the New York Office, namely, that the House of Detention in New York City had refused several requests on the part of individuals to interview JUDITH COPLON.

This information, it might be noted, was furnished by SA JAMES ADAMS of the New York Office at 8:45 P.M.

The above is submitted for the information of the file.

AFTER NEMZERS MANIPULATION TO KEEP COPLON IN THE FAR SECTION HE ANNOUNCED THAT SHE WOULD TAKE OVER THE WORK IN THE SLAV FIELD WHICH DR. MAMZUR HAD BEEN HANDLING. DR. MAMZUR ARRIVED AT THE CONCLUSION THAT THE CLIQUE MENTIONED WAS PRO SOVIET BECAUSE OF THE FOLLOWING.

NEMZER, KNOWN TO THE INFORMANT FROM SOME TIME IN FORTYTWO, CONSISTENTLY REFERRED TO THE HCUA AS A FASCIST GROUP, STATED

THAT DIRECTOR J. EDGAR HOOVER WAS A FASCIST AND THAT THE FBI WAS ONLY AFTER COMMUNISTS AND ANTI SOVIETS AND QUOTE SAW THINGS UNQUOTE. ~~NEMZER~~ ^{NEMZER} ALSO REFERRED TO ANYONE ANTI SOVIET AS FASCISTS AND CONTINUOUSLY CHARGED RED BAITING TO ANY STAND TAKEN BY PERSONS CRITICIZING COMMUNISTS OR PRO COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES. TO WASHINGTON FOR THE PURPOSE OF DISCUSSING THE LIBEL SUIT WITH KARR, THE RESULT OF SUCH DISCUSSION BEING A SETTLEMENT OF THE SUIT OUT OF COURT. NEMZER ALWAYS RECOMMENDED QUOTE THE HOUR UNQUOTE TO THE ANALYSTS IN THE FAR SECTION AS BEING A GOOD SOURCE OF INFO AND RECOMMENDED THE QUOTE NEWS LETTER UNQUOTE OF THE ANTI DEFAMATION LEAGUE, BELIEVING THAT THE CHARGES OF PRO NAZISM THEREIN WERE GOOD BASES FOR INVESTIGATION. INFORMANT STATES NEMZER ACQUAINTED WITH ALBERT PERRY, FIRST EDITOR OF QUOTE THE HOUR UNQUOTE, AND KNEW PERRY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO, WHERE BOTH NEMZER AND PERRY ATTENDED. NEMZER INTRODUCED PERRY TO INFORMANT IN LATE FORTYTWO OR EARLY FORTYTHREE. NEMZER ALSO ACQUAINTED WITH ONE GOLD, BELIEVED BY THE INFORMANT TO BE POSSIBLY BEN GOLD, WHO WAS WITH THE FOREIGN NATIONALITY SECTION OF OSS, AT ABOUT THE SAME TIME. INFORMANT HAD NO INFO AS TO COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES OR CONNECTIONS ON PART OF GOLD. INFORMANT ALSO STATED THAT ALBERT KAHN, JR., HAD ARNOLD MARGOLAN FIRED FROM OSS ON A TRUMPED UP CHARGE OF BEING A FASCIST. INFORMANT COULD NOT CONNECT THIS WITH NEMZER EXCEPT THAT MARGOLAN'S DAUGHTER, A . MRS. HANSEN, ~~WORKED FOR THE PROSECUTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE~~ under Nemzer with FAR EAST section in FORTYTWO AND AT ONE TIME TOLD INFORMANT HE WAS A QUOTE TERRIBLE UKRAINIAN NATIONALIST UNQUOTE. INFORMANT STATES INVESTIGATOR RUSSELL OF THE HCUA IN MARCH OR APRIL OF FORTYSIX CAME TO THE FAR SECTION FOR INFO ON ONE ANTHONY BIMBA. NOT TO BOTHER WITH HCUA REQUESTS FOR INFO. INFORMANT BELIEVES THAT ELLIFF WAS IN AGREEMENT WITH THIS. INFORMANT STATED THAT NEMZER HAD RECOMMENDED THE REGISTRATION OF THE CP OF INDIA AS FOREIGN AGENTS ON ONE OCCASION. INFORMANT FELT THAT THIS MIGHT POSSIBLY HAVE BEEN A COVER UP. INFORMANT RECALLS THAT DAVID BOOKSTAVER WAS CONTACTED IN LATE FORTYFIVE OR EARLY FORTYSIX BY SEVERAL AGENTS OF THE PRO SOVIET POLISH GOVERNEMENT, WHO WERE INQUIRING OVER THE PHONE AS TO THE NECESSITY FOR REGISTERING UNDER THE RA. BOOKSTAVER INTIMATED THAT THEY SHOULD NOT ASK HIM IF THEY HAD TO REGISTER, INDICATING THEREBY THAT IF THEY DID HE WOULD HAVE TO SAY YES. HE TOLD THE AGENTS TO QUOTE FORGET IT UNQUOTE AND NOBODY WOULD BOTHER THEM IF THEY DID NOT REGISTER. INFORMANT STATES BOOKSTAVER KEPT NO MINUTES AT CONFERENCES HELD WITH POSSIBLE REGISTRANTS UNDER THE RA WHICH WAS AGAINST THE FAR SECTION POLICY. A POLITICAL ANALYST WAS NOT AT SOME OF THESE CONFERENCES HELD BY BOOKSTAVER WHICH ALSO WAS AGAINST THE POLICY. INFORMANT DURING HIS WORK IN THE FAR SECTION NOTICED THAT HE WAS NOT GETTING CERTAIN FILES AND CORRESPONDENCE HE BELIEVED WERE IN EXISTENCE FROM A MRS. THOMAS, IN CHARGE OF DOCUMENTS OF THE SECTION. HE LEARNED THAT BOOKSTAVER HAD TOLD HER TO SEND THE CORRESPONDENCE AND FILES TO HIM INSTEAD OF TO THE INFORMANT. INFORMANT IS UNDER THE IMPRESSION THAT BOOKSTAVER MAY HAVE DISPOSED OF SOME CORRESPONDENCE RELATING TO ENFORCEMENT OF THE RA. INFORMANT RECALLS NOTHING SPECIFIC AS TO THE PRO SOVIET ATTITUDE OF NATHAN ELLIFF EXCEPT HIS CLOSE AND

ELLIFF WAS A CLOSE FRIEND OF NEMZER IN AND OUT OF THE OFFICE. INFORMANT BELIEVES NEMZER HAD MUCH INFLUENCE WITH ELLIFF. INFORMANT TERMS BERNARD MORRIS QUOTE SLAVE UNQUOTE OF NEMZER AND KNEW THEM TO BE GOOD FRIENDS. HE RECALLS NOTHING SPECIFIC BUT DOES KNOW THAT MORRIS HAD MADE OVER A PERIOD OF TIME GENERAL REMARKS AGAINST THE HCUA. MORRIS REMARKS INDICATED TO THE INFORMANT THAT HE WAS A QUOTE LEFTIST UNQUOTE. INFORMANT DID NOT CONSIDER LEON SEGAL AS PRO SOVIET BUT CONNECTED HIM WITH THE GROUP ONLY BECAUSE NEMZER WAS FAVORABLE TOWARD SEGAL AND SEEMS TO HAVE PROTECTED HIM. INFORMANT ALSO ASSERTED THAT NEMZER HAD FORMED A LUNCHEON GROUP COMPOSED OF PERSONS WORKING IN THE EAST EUROPEAN FIELD IN ALL THE GOVERNMENT AGENCIES, THAT IS, JUSTICE, FEA, G TWO, ONI AND OSS. INFORMANT DOES NOT RECALL THAT NEMZER EVER ANNOUNCED A SPECIFIC PURPOSE FOR THESE LUNCHEONS. THE INFORMANT ADVISES THAT HE HAS NEVER REPORTED THE ABOVE INFO TO THE FBI, HE RECALLS THAT TWO FBI AGENTS MADE A SURVEY OF THE DEPARTMENT IN FORTYFIVE, IT WAS HIS DESIRE TO TELL ^{THEM} ~~THEM~~ OF HIS SUSPICIONS REGARDING EMPLOYEES OF THE FAR SECTION BUT HE DOES NOT BELIEVE HE HAD THE OPORTUNITY TO DO SO. INFORMANT DOES RECALL HAVING DISCUSSED INDIVIDUAL ^{REGISTRATION} CASES WITH UNIDENTIFIED OFFICIALS OF THE FBI BUT DID NOT MENTION HIS SUSPICIONS BECAUSE HE WAS AFRAID IT WOULD GET BACK TO NATHAN ELLIFF OR NEMZER. HE HAS NEVER REPORTED ALL OF THIS INFO TO ANYONE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE ITSELF, ALTHOUGH HE TALKED IN A GENERAL WAY OF IT URGING MORE RIGID ENFORCEMENT OF THE RA TO LARRY KNAPP, ELLIFFS PREDECESSOR AS CHIEF OF THE FAR SECTION, TO ONE MC CAULEY, AN ADMINISTRATOR IN THE INTERNAL SECURITY SECTION OF THE DEPARTMENT, AND TO JAMES MC INERNEY, FORMER CHIEF OF THE INTERNAL SECURITY SECTION AND LATER ASSISTANT TO THE AG.

~~INFORMANT~~ ^{INFORMANT} DOES NOT BELIEVE HE MENTIONED ANY NAMES

BECAUSE OF HIS FEAR THAT HE WOULD BE ACCUSED OF TRYING TO RETAIN HIS POSITION. KNAPP INDICATED HE WAS INTERESTED AND WOULD DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT BUT LEFT IN NOVEMBER, FORTYFIVE, TO GO WITH THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND IT WAS THEN OUT OF HIS JURISDICTION. MCCAULEY SUGGESTED THAT HE SEE MC INERNEY. MC INERNEY, WHEN THE MATTER WAS DISCUSSED WITH HIM IN FORTYSIX, GAVE THE INFORMANT NO SPECIFIC ENCOURAGEMENT. AFTER RESIGNING, INFORMANT WENT TO THE HCUA IN AUGUST, FORTYSIX, FOR INFO TO ASSIST IN A BOOK INFORMANT PLANNED TO WRITE. HE, WHILE THERE, DISCUSSED WITH INVESTIGATOR RUSSELL HIS SUSPICIONS OF A PRO SOVIET CLIQUE IN CHARGE OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE REGISTRATION ACT IN THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE AS SET OUT ABOVE. HE DOES NOT RECALL THAT RUSSELL SHOWED A GREAT DEAL OF INTEREST AND STATES THAT HE HAS NEVER BEEN CALLED TO TESTIFY BEFORE THE HCUA. INFORMANT DOES NOT RECALL IF HE MENTIONED JUDITH COPLONS NAME SPECIFICALLY TO RUSSELL. INFORMANT GAVE INTERVIEWING AGENTS THE NAMES OF TWO PERSONS WHO WERE DISCHARGED FROM THE FAR SECTION IN THE REDUCTION OF PERSONNEL IN EARLY FORTYSIX AND WHO

SHARED HIS OPINIONS AS TO THE PRO SOVIET CLIQUE THEREIN. THESE ARE MISS FRANCES BUTLER AND MISS AVANZINO. HE DOES NOT KNOW WHERE THEY ARE NOW EMPLOYED. ACCORDING TO THE INFORMANT, THE FEMALE EMPLOYEES IN THE FAR SECTION HATED JUDITH COPLON AND HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH HER BUT HE DOES NOT KNOW THE REASON FOR THIS HATRED. INFORMANT BELIEVES THAT JESSE MCKNIGHT, WHO WAS NEMZERS PREDECESSOR AS TOP POLITICAL ANALYST WAS NOT PRO COMMUNIST OR PRO SOVIET BUT DID GIVE NEMZER, WHO WAS WORKING UNDER HIM AT THE TIME, THE QUOTE RUN OF THE DEPARTMENT UNQUOTE. INFORMANT WAS NOT ASKED DIRECTLY IF HE HAD EVER MADE A REPORT TO THE HCUA. HE PROFFERED THE INFO, COMMENTING THAT HE HAD SEEN AN ARTICLE IN THE PAPER RE A SOCIOLOGY PROFESSOR WHO HAD GIVEN INFO TO THE HCUA AND HAD CONCLUDED THEREFROM THAT HE WAS THE PERSON INVOLVED. THE INFORMANT REQUESTED THAT THE INFO FURNISHED HEREIN NOT BE GIVEN TO THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE IF NATHAN ELLIFF AND OR LOUIS NEMZER COULD COME INTO POSSESSION OF IT. DETROIT INDICES REFLECT THAT THE DIRECTORY OF UKRAINIAN PROFESSIONAL ASSN PUBLISHED NINETEEN THIRTYNINE INCLUDED NAME OF INFORMANT AS MEMBER OF THIS ORGANIZATION. UPA FOUNDED SUMMER NINETEEN THIRTYTHREE CHICAGO NOT INCORPORATED. PURPOSE TO HELP SOLVE PROBLEMS OF UKRAINIAN PEOPLE AND WORK TOWARD THEIR INDEPENDENCE IN UKRAINIA. DISCLAIMED ANY FOREIGN CONNECTIONS. IN NINETEEN THIRTYEIGHT SOME MEMBERS UPA ADVOCATED SUPPORT OF HITLER BELIEVING INDEPENDENT UKRAINE WOULD RESULT AND THEY WOULD BE SAVED FROM COMMUNISM. Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

FROM : THOMAS J. BARRY, SA, WASHINGTON FIELD

SUBJECT: JUDITH COPLON
ESPIONAGE -R

DATE: MARCH 8, 1949

Washington daily newspapers for March 5, 6 and 7, 1949 were obtained by the writer. All articles were reviewed and clippings were made of them.

The following information obtained from these articles is being submitted as possible leads, which may not have been covered up to this time:

*Interviewed
Buckley*
ELIZABETH FINLEY, a secretarial worker who lived in a nearby apartment in the 2600 block of Tunlaw Road, advised newspaper reporters that subject would work until the early morning hours on her typewriter and would leave for work in the morning with great wads of newspapers under her arm and also that on Sundays the subject used to go bicycling with a young dark-haired man.

Mullins*
Mr. and Mrs. ROGER GARLOCK, present address 6212 Green Tree Road, Bethesda, Maryland, said they used to live next door to Miss COPLON at 2634 Tunlaw Road, N.W. They said Miss COPLON told them she was working on "some kind of thesis" for her courses at school, which necessitated her typing. They also said Miss COPLON went to Europe for approximately two months, starting about March 1948 and that while she was gone, she had stored her furniture under their name. When she returned, they said a dark-haired young man helped her move her things to McLean Gardens. Both recalled Miss COPLON took frequent weekend trips to New York, where she told them she visited her parents.

Interviewed
Manager CHARLES ALLISON of McLean Gardens told newspaper reports that Miss COPLON moved into her apartment room, 135 at Jefferson Hall on July 23, 1948. Her application there, showed she listed herself as a "Political Analyst", naming WILLIAM FOLEY as her Justice Department superior. As references in this application, she listed the City Bank and BERNARD S. MORRIS.

The Times Herald for Sunday, March 6, said it was a consensus among American University professors that subject was a brilliant student of Soviet Economic Planning and an expert Russian linguist. The only professor named in this article was Graduate Dean PITMAN POTTER, who said that the subject was "obviously uncertain about underlying assumptions." He explained this to the reporters as a wavering disposition as to what beliefs to follow.

Another teacher at the American University, not named

WASHINGTON, D. C.

said that as far as he knew the only thing which could indicate that the subject might conspire to give away U. S. secrets was her avid interest in the Soviet Union. Another professor said that a paper submitted by Miss COPLON in the course on "Economic Planning in the Soviet Union" is considered one of the best ever presented by an American University Graduate student.

*Interviewed
N.W.* Mrs. JOHN E. FULLER, Resident Manager, 2634 Tinlaw Road, N.W., said that she told newspaper reports that once or twice tenants at that address complained to her Miss COPLON disturbed them with her typewriter in the early morning hours.

An article in the Washington Post dated March 6, 1949 stated that the applicant had attended American University from September 1945 to January 1948 and had enrolled at the George Washington University Law School in February 1948 but quit within one month. Also that Miss COPLON had a slender, tall and dark boy friend. This article was written by JAMES F. DONOVAN, United Press Staff writer, who said he covered the Justice Department, and described the subject as a "gossipy little thing." He said she always seemed ready to exchange pleasantries and small talk with other girls in the department's internal security section, but was also known as a hard worker and sometimes was still on the job when the other workers had quit for the day. He said, unlike most women employees of the security-conscious Justice Department, she gave her opinion freely of many of the Justice Department officials, and that she had a great respect for the FBI.

In an article in the Washington Post dated March 6, 1949 with a New York date line, it was reflected that Dean MILLICENT C. McINTOSH of Barnard College, Columbia University, released a two-page statement describing COPLON as being highly intelligent, talented, and with a pleasing personality. Miss McINTOSH quoted from two letters of recommendation sent to Barnard when COPLON sought part-time employment there in Research or Writing. One letter was from LAURENCE A. KNAPP, Chief of Foreign Agents, Registration of the Department of Justice and the second was from JESSE M. MacKNIGHT.

In an article in the Washington Post dated March 6, 1949, it was stated that Representative NIXON, a member of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, demanded a full scale investigation to determine whether the Justice Department is qualified to protect this country "against Communist infiltration." It was learned, according to this article, that Miss COPLON'S name figured in a confidential report to Chairman JOHN WOOD of the House Committee on Un-American activities on September 3, 1946.

The report carried highly critical statements by an informant about the Foreign Agents Registration Section. The informant is shown to be a Social Science professor in the Midwestern University. The article stated that this informant specifically criticize COPLON but said there was a definite pro-Soviet attitude in the Registration Section. He was alleged to have said that the section condemned anything that was anti-Soviet and at the same time that which was pro-Russian was considered satisfactory. He was also alleged to have said that reports on pro-Soviet foreign agents often failed to reach the desk of responsible government officials and prosecutions for failure of these agents to register were rarely pressed. NIXON admitted there was such a report in the Committee files, according to the article, and said it indicated a "shocking inexcusable laxity on the part of the Justice Department in screening its own employees for loyalty." He said that the above report showed the section to be responsible for keeping four Communists fronts from registering under the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

ESPIONAGE - R

Re FBI Laboratory report dated March 4, 1949, identifying Documents Q-25 through Q-33, as having been typed on Royal Typewriter, Serial KM-2585483, located in room 2216, Department of Justice Building. It is observed that these documents are carbon copies.

An examination of a wooden box located on the west side of room 2220, which room is the office of subject, reflects that in the rear of this box in a section of unfiled material, the originals of Q-25 through Q-29 and Q-33 were located.

It has been learned that subject as a political analyst reviewed Bureau reports which might have a bearing on Foreign Agents Registration Act matters. If she felt the information appearing in the reports would be of some possible future use to the FARS, she underlined sentences in the synopsis and details she desired written up on a "data slip". In the upper left hand corner of the data slips, there usually appeared the name of the file or subject matter with which the Bureau report concerned itself. In the upper right hand corner of the data slips, there usually appears the names of individuals or organizations which are mentioned in the summary of information appearing on the data slips.

For an illustration, the Bureau's attention is directed to Q-25. In the upper left hand corner there is written, "Napoli". In the upper right hand corner there is written, "Communist Party Secretary of Peru" and "Articino". This means that the stenographer in the FARS, Miss ETTA TAYLOR, typed an original and two carbons, making a sum total of three. If the upper right hand corner contained four names or subject matters, there would have been a sum total of five made. The original of Q-25 and only one carbon were located. It is assumed that subject had the second copy in her possession when arrested. AU

There are being transmitted herewith the originals of Q-25 through Q-29 and Q-33, as well as the carbon copies located with the original. It is observed that in each instance one carbon is missing.

There are also being enclosed the original data slips and carbons of Q-31 and Q-32, which were located in an unfiled portion of a paper file box which was on a file cabinet on the south side of room 2220. It is observed that one carbon is also missing from both Q-31 and Q-32.

Q-30, which is also a carbon, reflects that the name N. NICHOLAS CARANFIL in the upper right hand corner of the data slip has a line underscored beneath it.

Re: JUDITH COPLON

It is also observed that it bears the initials "BSM" as the identity of the analyst. BERNARD S. MORRIS is a former analyst for the FARS. Q-30 bears the caption, "General NICOLAE RADESCU" in the upper left hand corner. In the upper right hand corner, there appears, "NICOLAE MALAXA", "M. NICHOLAS CARANFIL", and "M. BARBU NICULESCU".

In a file cabinet marked "Miscellaneous" located on the north side of room 2220, there is a section devoted to Rumanians. Under this section, there is a name tab entitled, "General NICOLAE RADESCU". The original of Q-30 was filed behind this name tab. There is a tab bearing the caption, "NICOLAE MALAXA" and behind it there is a carbon of Q-30. There is also a name tab for "M. BARBU NICULESCU" and located behind this name tab is a carbon of Q-30. There is no name tab for "M. NICHOLAS CARANFIL", nor is there a carbon or original of Q-30 in the Rumanian file. It is presumed that subject removed the carbon for M. NICHOLAS CARANFIL and that it is the carbon found in subject's possession when she was arrested. The original of Q-30 is enclosed.

All of the above mentioned documents being submitted to the FBI Laboratory have been initialed by Special Agent COURTLAND J. JONES, who located them and also bear the initials of Mr. WILLIAM E. FOLEY, head of the FARS and Internal Security Division of the Department of Justice.

The FBI Laboratory is requested to make a typewriting comparison of the originals of Q-25 through Q-33 with the carbons taken from the person of subject when she was arrested on March 4, 1949, at New York City. Upon the completion of the examination, the original and carbons transmitted herewith should be returned to the Washington Field Office.

In connection with an official investigation being conducted by this office, it is requested that information concerning all deposits and withdrawals of the Bond Safe Keeping Account of Miss Judith Coplon be made available to Special Agent Ralph F. Winte of this office. It is desired that the dates and the amounts of the deposits and withdrawals be shown. It is further necessary to this investigation that the issue date, the amount and number of the bonds deposited and withdrawn by Judith Coplon be made available.

It is further necessary to this investigation to determine the total amount of bonds purchased by Judith Coplon, together with the issue date and the amount. If this information is available through your office, the receipt of same would be appreciated.

It would be appreciated if the above request would be expedited due to the urgency of prosecution presently being conducted in the U. S. Court.

Very truly yours,

RFW

THROUGH GAIL RAYWID, CLASSMATE OF SUBJECT, BARNARD COLLEGE. BERMAN GOT PHIL ELMAN, SOLICITOR GENERALS OFFICE AS BLIND DATE FOR COPLON AT RAYWID-S REQUEST AND ATTENDED TRUDY SHUTE /PH/ BALLET, CONSTITUTION HALL. NEXT SAW SUBJECT AT CHICKEN HUT, WASHINGTON, D.C. IN EARLY SUMMER NINETEEN FORTYEIGHT AND STARTED DATING HER. HAD A NUMBER OF DATES AT BEACH DURING JULY AND AUGUST. RECALLS THAT SUBJECT HAD THEN RECENTLY RETURNED FROM TRIP TO ITALY. BERMAN THEN HAD DISAGREEMENT WITH SUBJECT AND DID NOT AGAIN SEE HER UNTIL ABOUT EARLY DEC. NINETEEN FORTY EIGHT. BERMAN STATED HE LEFT WASHINGTON, D.C. DEC. EIGHTEEN NINETEEN FORTYEIGHT AND TELEPHONED COPLON TO SAY GOODBYE. THEY SETTLED THEIR DIFFERENCES AND BERMAN INVITED HER TO ONE OF FAREWELL PARTIES GIVEN HIM. HE ASKED HER TO TELEPHONE HIM WHEN SHE CAME TO NYC. SHE CALLED HIM AT CHRISTMAS AND THEY ATTENDED A BALLET AT NYC CENTER. THEY MADE A DATE FOR JAN. FIFTEEN, NINETEEN FORTYNINE. ON THAT DATE BERMAN TOOK HER TO DINNER AT TOWN HOUSE SOMEWHERE ON LONG ISLAND. WASHINGTON, D.C.

THEY WERE ACCOMPANIED BY HIS FRIEND FRED BLANK AND A GIRLFRIEND. BELIEVES SUBJECT RETURNED FOLLOWING WEEK AND HE TALKED TO HER ON TELEPHONE AND ASKED HER TO TELL HIS FRIEND JOSEPH STONE TO BRING HIM A BOTTLE OF SCOTCH ON HIS NEXT TRIP FROM WASHINGTON AS HE HAD HAD A HALF CASE OF WHISKEY STOLEN FROM HIS AUTO. STONE HAS MET COPLON ON ONE OCCASION IN JULY NINETEEN FORTYEIGHT AT A BEACH PARTY. WAS TO HAVE ANOTHER DATE WITH SUBJECT WEEK OR TWO BEFORE WASHINGTON-S BIRTHDAY BUT SHE CANCELLED IT. THIS WAS LAST CONTACT WITH SUBJECT. BERMAN STATES COPLON WAS ENJOYABLE COMPANION. SHE NEVER DISCUSSED OR EXPRESSED ANY INTEREST IN POLITICS, IDEOLOGIES, WORLD AFFAIRS, OR THE LIKE. BERMAN UNDERSTOOD HER TO BE IN REGISTRATION DIVISION OF JUSTICE DEPT., BUT THOUGHT PERTAINED TO REGISTRATION OF LOBBY-ISTS. SHE NEVER DISCUSSED HER WORK. DID NOT APPEAR TO HAVE PARTICULAR FRIENDS OTHER THAN GAIL RAYWID, APPRENTICE TRAINING SECTION OF LABOR DEPARTMENT AND PAULINE SLAVIN, WHO HAS BEEN PREVIOUSLY IDENTIFIED. SUBJECT INDICATED TO BERMAN THAT SHE HAD A STEADY BOY-FRIEND IN WASHINGTON, D.C. BUT DID NOT IDENTIFY HIM. BERMAN, DURING INTERVIEW, SAID HE HAD CONSIDERED MARRYING SUBJECT IN SUMMER OF NINETEEN FORTYEIGHT. BERMAN STATES UNABLE TO COMPREHEND OR ACCOUNT FOR SUBJECT-S REPORTED ESPIONAGE ACTIVITIES AS SHE SEEMED DISINTERESTED IN POLITICS AND BEING HIGHLY EMOTIONAL, DID NOT IMPRESS HIM AS SUITABLE FOR SUCH WORK.

IDENTIFICATION OF DOCUMENTS FOUND ON MISS JUDITH COPLON
ON MARCH 4, 1949.

It is observed that on March 5, 1949, the documents taken from JUDITH COPLON had been broken down into four groups.

Group No. 1 consists of 15 typewritten abstracts pertaining to Internal Security - R and Security Matter - C subjects. These were prepared on Royal typewriter bearing Serial Number KMM 2562236 located in Room 2220 and directly behind subject's desk. The identification was effected by the FBI Laboratory on March 5, 1949, according to teletype of this date from the Bureau. These abstracts, which are condensations of Bureau reports, are approximately 5 x 7 in size, were apparently typed by a proficient typist and were the original copy of the abstract. These documents bear the following numbers, which are the numbers the Agents gave them when they arrested COPLON:

At 5:45 P. M. this date, Mr. LAUGHLIN of the Bureau stated that Mr. RAY WHEARTY of the Department, advised him that he has been reviewing the report submitted in this case by the WFO and wants a number of agents from this office in NYC for Grand Jury purposes at [redacted]

Mr. LAUGHLIN stated that Mr. WHEARTY wants the agent most familiar with that portion of the report covered in pages 5 through 9. I furnished him the name of SA [redacted]

He stated he wanted the agent who can best testify to the legal search conducted of COPLON's apartment and I furnished him the name of SA [redacted]

He wanted the name of the agent most familiar with the entire case and I furnished him the name of SA [redacted]
[redacted]

Mr. LAUGHLIN instructed me that unless he advised otherwise, these three agents and no others, should be available at New York at [redacted]. He asked me for an opinion as to what other agents might be desirable for testimony purposes and I told him that since I had not been advised as to the details of the complaint or what the Special Assistant to the Attorney General intends to introduce to the Grand Jury, that I did not feel I was in a position to offer an opinion.

I pointed out to Mr. LAUGHLIN that in connection with the individual who is best familiar with pages 5 through 9, that probably the proper person to testify would be [redacted]

I told Mr. LAUGHLIN that I had just received a call from Mr. GRANVILLE in New York who had stated he had been in touch with Mr. DONEGAN who wanted to know the identity of the WFO agents who should testify. I told him I had asked GRANVILLE what DONEGAN intended to show and offered to furnish GRANVILLE the names of all agents in the WFO who could testify to anything in the COPLON case or to furnish the agent who was most familiar with all developments, whichever was desired. GRANVILLE stated that DONEGAN did not go into detail on this and advised DONEGAN was then in conference with BELMONT on the same matter and that he would re-contact DONEGAN and try to find out what it was he wanted.

I pointed out to Mr. LAUGHLIN that it appears WHEARTY and DONEGAN are working independently of each other and that WHEARTY has a copy of the WFO report on the COPLON case and DONEGAN apparently does not have.

At about 6:00 P. M., Mr. GRANVILLE advised the writer he had discussed this matter with DONEGAN who had indicated to him he had decided to use only NYC agents on [redacted] to await the WFO report and to plan on using WFO agents on [redacted]. I then advised GRANVILLE as to the LAUGHLIN negotiations. He advised that DONEGAN was then on his way home, that he would call DONEGAN and tell him concerning WHEARTY's instructions that the three WFO agents be in NYC [redacted]. I advised GRANVILLE that as it now stood, I have Bureau instructions to have the three agents in NYC at [redacted] and that I intended doing this.

At 6:20 P. M., I contacted the Bureau and was advised that Mr. LAUGHLIN had gone home. I then reviewed the entire situation with Supervisor MILNES, pointing out to him the contrary arrangements being made by DONEGAN and WHEARTY and also pointing out to him that I had not received any countermand of the Bureau instructions to have these three agents in NYC on [redacted].

I subsequently saw Supervisor BAUMGARDNER in the Bureau who stated the handling of this matter had been left for him by LAUGHLIN and that MILNES had furnished him the details which I had given. BAUMGARDNER stated he had discussed this matter with Mr. LADD, who had decided the Department is handling this matter and since WHEARTY had indicated he wanted the agents that they should go. Agent MILNES advised me he would call GRANVILLE in New York and so advise him.

At 11:10 AM on March 7, 1949, [redacted]

[redacted] personally contacted Inspector Lee R. Pennington, indicating that he had information of interest concerning an associate of Judith Coplon. Inspector Pennington referred [redacted] to Special Agent E. M. Gregg.

b7D

[redacted] stated that he is [redacted] and that since April of 1948 he had been employed by the [redacted]

[redacted] described Miss Barber as single, about 27 years of age, residing at 5916 Wilson Lane, Bradley Hills, Bethesda, Maryland (telephone: Wisconsin 3914). He said that she had previously worked for the Nation War Labor Board, upon its dissolution transferring to the Bureau of Apprenticeship. According to [redacted] Miss Barber is extremely reliable.

The informant advised that Miss Joy Gail Raywid [redacted] was a native of New York City, and that he understood that her parents had been born and raised in Russia. He said that she was single, about 27 years of age, and resides at 30 Plattsburg Court, N.W., McLean Gardens, Washington, D. C. (telephone: Woodley 7400, extension 9826). He also said that he understood that Raywid was a graduate of Barnard College and that prior to her employment with the Bureau of Apprenticeship she had also worked for the War Labor Board. He described her as "most peculiar" and decidedly unattractive, stating that within the last three weeks she had received treatment at the George Washington University Hospital for some unidentified affliction.

[redacted] advised that Raywid worked directly under Dr. Oswald Lionel Harvey (contact with whom he considered inadvisable) and that her duties were of an economic nature not entailing access to classified material. He said that she was formerly active in the Union (United Public Workers of America - CIO) but knew of no other organizational activity or affiliation. He said that she made frequent visits to New York and Boston and made a great number of seemingly personal telephone calls over her office extension.

Examination requested by: Washington Field

Reference: Letter dated March 7, 1949

Examination requested: Document

Specimens:

- K15 One box of Write carbon paper, 8" x 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ ", manufactured by Write, Inc., Bridgeport, Connecticut, containing black lightweight carbon paper.
- K16 Two sheets of white mottled-finish paper, approximately 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ " x 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ ".
- K17 Four sheets of thin white paper, approximately 8" x 10 $\frac{1}{2}$ ".
- K18 Two pieces of white bond paper torn on one edge, approximately 8" x 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ ".
- K19 One 3" x 5" bound pad of white paper containing 13 pages.

Results of Examination:

It has been concluded that the paper specimens, Q36, Q37 and Q38 and the paper taken from the subject's room, described above as K17, came from the same original source. This conclusion is based on evidence found that all of these sheets of paper were cut with the same knife. In addition all of the sheets of paper were found to have the same physical properties with respect to size, thickness, color, finish, transparency and fluorescence.

The other paper specimens submitted, K16, K18 and K19, were not similar to any of the other questioned paper previously submitted, Q1 through Q43. It is noted that one sheet of K18 contained a portion of a Government watermark.

None of the carbon paper, K15 had been used. Because of the common type of carbon paper used to prepare specimens Q25 through Q33, which are the only questioned carbon copies thus far submitted, it was not possible to determine whether the carbon paper used to prepare Q25 through Q33 was of the same type as K15..

Specimens Q1 through Q43 are described in the Laboratory report dated March 7, 1949 and were submitted by the New York Office with a letter dated March 4, 1949.

Specimens K15 through K19 will be returned to the Washington Field Office as soon as appropriate photographs of K17 have been made. No photographs of the other specimens will be retained in the Laboratory.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : SAC, Washington Field Office

DATE: March 9, 1949

FROM : Director, FBI

SUBJECT: JUDITH COPLON, WAS;
ESPIONAGE - R

In connection with the various interviews being conducted by your office, the Bureau's files have been reviewed regarding Ulda Eldred. This reveiw reflects the following information:

On September 15, 1947 the Justice Department submitted a Loyalty Form on Ulda Lillian Johnson Eldred, who was born March 21, 1912 at Altoona, Kansas and who was employed by the Department of Justice as a Secretary. On this Loyalty Form she listed her husband's name as being George Donald Eldred who was born February 22, 1907 at Altoona, Pennsylvania. This form reflects that Mrs. Eldred had been employed by the Department of Justice since 1937 and had resided since 1937 at 1620 E Street, N.E., Washington, D. C. This form was returned to the Department of Justice with a notation that no disloyalty data were found in the Bureau's files.

According to CI C-544, on December 19, 1947, Ruth Rifkin, Martin Popper's Secretary, spoke to Miss Copeland (Judith Coplon) at Extension 1134 in the Justice Department, who said "they saw the film which are four reels" and she asked Rifkin to inform the New York party not to send any more film; that the film was sent by bonded messenger, but the Government "doesn't have that facility to return them and they will return the film by Railway express." She stated that she didn't know the value for the insurance. Ruth Rifkin suggested she hold the film because Martin Popper would be back in town and she would ask him about the value. Copeland (Coplon) suggested Ruth Rifkin call Mrs. Eldred on Extension 1188 concerning this.

It is to be noted that Ruth Rifkin resided at McLean Gardens, which is the same apartment development where Coplon lives. The above call would also appear to be in connection with the regular duties of Judith Coplon and Ulda Eldred.

The same informant also reflected an earlier call from Miss Copeland (Judith Coplon) on December 19, 1947 to Elaine West for Martin Popper. West suggested Popper's secretary call her. Copeland said to have Ruth Rifkin call her at the Department of Justice, Extension 1134.

ESPIONAGE - R

Mr. FLETCHER of the Bureau telephonically advised this date that Mr. WILLIAM E. FOLEY of the Department, at 6:30 PM, March 9, 1949, advised that DOROTHY FILLIUS, who is the secretary for WERNHEIDE, had furnished information relating to JOSEPHINE KLIEN, a former employee of the Department, now with the Army in Japan. FILLIUS at one time handled the "Paper Clip" program, which relates to German scientists in the United States. This program was handled as a confidential matter in the Department and FILLIUS had been given instructions to keep the material confidential. FILLIUS had reported that JOSEPHINE KLIEN on several occasions had come in and tried to read material dealing with the "Paper Clip" program, and it was necessary to be very pointed with her to get her out and to leave the material alone. KLIEN is described as an associate of JUDITH COPLON.

Mr. FLETCHER instructed that Miss FILLIUS should be interviewed, and on the basis of the known information concerning KLIEN, appropriate investigation should be instituted. The IDA should also be appropriately advised of the allegations concerning KLIEN.

Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : SAC, Washington Field

DATE: March 12, 1949

FROM : Director, FBI

SUBJECT: JUDITH COPLON, was
ESPIONAGE - R

You should immediately reinterview Harold Shapiro and obtain from him a signed statement incorporating in detail his intimate relationship with Judith Coplon, including his trip with her to Baltimore and Philadelphia, where they registered as man and wife.

The signed statement is to be transmitted to the Department of Justice and you should include in your memorandum which incorporates this statement a short summary of the results of the investigation, reflecting the relationship between Coplon and Shapiro.

JUDITH COPLON
ESPIONAGE - R

Rebulet March 12, 1949.

Surveillances of JUDITH COPLON by agents of the Washington Field Office from about January 7, 1949, to March 4, 1949, revealed that she spent a great deal of her time with HAROLD P. SHAPIRO. The majority of her evenings were spent in his company, they often lunched together, were together over weekends, she frequently visiting in his apartment at 1906 R Street, NW.

On January 8, 1949, physical surveillance revealed that SHAPIRO and COPLON drove in SHAPIRO's 1946, black Plymouth sedan, Connecticut license BP280, to Baltimore, Maryland, where SHAPIRO registered with the subject as Mr. and Mrs. H. P. SHAPIRO, 122 Burnside Avenue, East Hartford, Connecticut. They were registered by Room Clerk C. M. CONNERS, account No. 3442, registration card G-4164, and were assigned to Room 412. Investigation by the Baltimore Division revealed that the individuals who were registered as Mr. and Mrs. H. P. SHAPIRO checked out of the Southern Hotel at 3:01 p.m. on January 8, 1949.

By teletype dated January 13, 1949, the Philadelphia Office advised that Mr. JOSEPH KELLEHER, assistant manager, Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, produced records reflecting that Mr. and Mrs. H. P. SHAPIRO of East Hartford, Connecticut, registered at the Bellevue-Stratford at 7:07 p.m. on January 8, 1949, and checked out at 4:09 p.m. on January 9, 1949. They occupied Room 1523.

Confidential Informant [] who is known to the Bureau, advised that the subject had returned to Washington, D.C., later in the day of January 9, 1949. b7D Surveillance of the subject on January 19, 1949, revealed that she and SHAPIRO took the 1:00 p.m. Pennsylvania train from Washington to New York City, arriving at 4:50 p.m. Surveillance continued by agents of the New York Division revealed that SHAPIRO registered for a single room at the Piccadilly Hotel at about 6:20 p.m. and the subject accompanied him to his room. Approximately 40 minutes later both left the hotel and after having dinner attended the Century Theatre, after which SHAPIRO accompanied the subject on the subway to her home at 178 Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn, New York.

The subject again met SHAPIRO on the evening of January 23, 1949, at Pennsylvania Station, New York City. Both boarded the 7:30 p.m. train for Washington, D. C.

RE: JUDITH COPLON, ESP - R

On February 4, 1949, surveillance revealed that at 11:30 p.m. the subject and SHAPIRO left the Playhouse Theatre and drove to his residence at 1906 R Street, NW. This surveillance was discontinued at midnight, subject not having left. Surveillance was reinstated at 1906 R Street, NW, the following morning, February 5, 1949, at 8:00 a.m. At 1:00 p.m. the subject and SHAPIRO were observed leaving this address.

On February 11, 1949, surveillance revealed that at 8:45 p.m. the subject and SHAPIRO left Alfonso's Restaurant and drove to 1906 R Street, NW. This surveillance was discontinued at 11:40 p.m., the subject not having been observed to leave this address. On February 12, 1949, surveillance was maintained, beginning at 8:00 a.m., alternately between subject's residence at Jefferson Hall, McLean Gardens, 3685 38th Street, NW, and SHAPIRO's residence at 1906 R Street, NW. The subject's blind remained drawn in her room the entire day and she was first observed at 6:03 p.m. when she and SHAPIRO drove up in the vicinity of her residence. At 8:58 p.m. on this date subject and a girl friend, JOY GAIL RAYWID, took a cab from McLean Gardens to SHAPIRO's apartment where they attended a party given by him. At 1:40 a.m. on February 13, 1949, SHAPIRO drove COPLON and RAYWID to McLean Gardens and RAYWID went into her residence there. COPLON also entered her residence, remained five minutes and then returned with SHAPIRO to 1906 R Street, NW, where both entered. This surveillance was discontinued at 2:15 a.m. on the 13th. At 8:00 a.m. on the 13th this surveillance was again undertaken at 1906 R Street and at 10:40 a.m. COPLON and SHAPIRO were observed coming from his apartment house.

On February 17, 1949, surveillance revealed that at 10:30 p.m. SHAPIRO picked up the subject at her residence and drove to 1906 R Street, NW. On this occasion she had a suitcase with her. This surveillance was discontinued at 2:30 a.m. on February 18, 1949, at which time the subject had not left. Surveillance was again taken up at 8:00 a.m. on this date and at 8:50 a.m. COPLON and SHAPIRO left 1906 R Street and drove to the corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and 10th Street, NW, where the subject alighted from his car and walked to the 10th Street and Pennsylvania Avenue entrance of the Justice Building. SHAPIRO continued driving around the building and into the basement, entering at the 10th Street court entrance.

During the interview of HAROLD SHAPIRO conducted by Special Agents H. DUDLEY PAYNE and ROBERT L. SMELTZER on March 5, 1949, SHAPIRO admitted under questioning that he had indulged in immoral relations with JUDITH COPLON at his apartment at various times, as well as in the Southern Hotel, Baltimore, and Bellevue-Stratford Hotel, Philadelphia, on the occasion of their trip to these cities on the nights of January 7 and 8, 1949. He declined at this time, however, to furnish a signed statement incorporating these facts. In a subsequent interview with SHAPIRO conducted March 14, 1949, he again admitted to these agents intimacy with COPLON in Baltimore and Philadelphia and at his apartment in Washington. Before the completion of the statement, SHAPIRO said that he preferred not to furnish or sign any further admission concerning his intimacies with JUDITH COPLON. He was advised that such a statement was requested of him by the interviewing agents in their official capacities in connection with an official investigation. It is felt that this point was emphatically stressed to SHAPIRO although he was also told that he was not under compulsion to make such a statement. The partially completed statement, which was reduced to writing during the course of the latter interview with SHAPIRO, is being set forth immediately below:

Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D.C.

"I, HAROLD PAUL SHAPIRO, make the following voluntary statement to Special Agents H. DUDLEY PAYNE and ROBERT L. SMELTZER who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation after having been told that I do not have to make any such statement and that this statement may be used against me in a court of law. On New Years Eve, December 31, 1948, I first had intercourse with JUDITH COPLON in the apartment of a friend of mine in Washington, D.C. I decline to name this friend as he does not know JUDITH and has never met her so far as I know as he was out of the city on this particular occasion. Shortly thereafter, in the early part of January, JUDITH and I drove to Baltimore, Maryland in my car after work one Friday. I don't recall definitely who suggested this trip but presume it was I. In Baltimore we stayed at the Southern Hotel, where I registered for JUDITH and myself as Mr. and Mrs. H. P. SHAPIRO of East Hartford, Connecticut. We spent the night together in the hotel room.

"SHAPIRO at this point declined further comment concerning the trip above mentioned or to further furnish a statement concerning any immoral relations with JUDITH COPLON. The written portion of the statement obtained up to this point was handed to SHAPIRO to read and he affirmed that it was true in substance and accurately reflected what he had said. SHAPIRO stated that he was willing to cooperate in every respect with the FBI in respect to the case of JUDITH COPLON but that he felt that in further discussing or furnishing a signed statement concerning his immoral relations with her, he was 'sticking his neck out' and actually not giving assistance of value to the espionage investigation.

Reference is made to the Bureau's memorandum to you on March 8, 1949, in connection with certain information which had been confidentially furnished to the Bureau by [redacted]

[redacted] upon a recontact with a Bureau official, that Gail Joy Raywid who has been closely connected with Coplon has been receiving numerous telephone calls and that she only says a few words, then gets some nickels and goes out to a pay station to make a call.

b7D

[redacted] further advised that Miss Mildred S. Barber, who is identified in the referenced memorandum, had informed him that Raywid's boy friend is named George Speigel. Speigel originally graduated from Amherst, then entered Harvard Law School, and according to Miss Barber, was the organizer of a law guild which she believed to be subversive.

This information is being called to your attention in connection with the previous request that you interview Miss Barber.

An individual identifying herself as Miss Jean Branch, 20 Chesapeake Street, Southeast, Washington, D. C., telephonically advised on March 7, 1949, that "This Coplon case has intrigued me." She stated that at the present time there are a number of employees located in the "office proper - the white collar workers" of the Picker X-ray Corporation located, she believed, on Fourth Avenue, in New York City, with whom she has reason to believe Judith Coplon has been associated. She pointed out that in her opinion the Picker X-ray Corporation itself, which does a great deal of Government work, is a reputable concern but had "too many avid CC NY students who lean much too far to the left" working in its front office. She believed this Corporation to be a "formidable Semitic outfit".

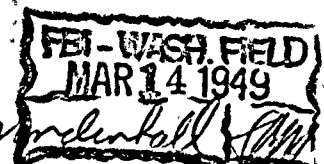

Miss Branch did not know of anyone in particular with whom Coplon was allegedly associated but stated that she had reason to know Coplon was connected with various employees in the office proper of this concern.

The Washington Field Office should interview Miss Branch to determine if she has any information in her possession on which further investigation might be predicated.

RE: JUDITH COPLON
ESPIONAGE - R

Dear Sir:

Enclosed are ten copies (Washington Field-6) of the report of SA T. Scott Miller, Jr., dated March 8, 1949, New York.

It will be noted that both COPLON and GUBITCHEV are made subjects of this report as this report was prepared at the specific request of Raymond L. Whearty, Special Assistant to the Attorney General, to enable him to properly present the case to the grand jury on March 9, 1949.

The New York Office is putting half of the copies of this report in the GUBITCHEV file and half in the COPLON file. The Bureau and Washington Field may do likewise.

It will be noted that this report contains only information which would be of value to Mr. Whearty in presenting the case to the grand jury. Subsequently, an investigative report will be set out, setting forth information concerning technical information and collateral investigation, in an attempt to identify individuals who might possibly be operating in Soviet intelligence.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD SCHEIDT, SAC
