DSS, Office of Intelligence and Threat Analysis (ITA), assesses the general threat level against SecGen ANNAN as LOW. However, United Nations (UN) leadership and policies have become a lightning rod for various extremist groups internationally (radical Islamic elements which pose the greatest concern) and domestically [REDACTED].

SUBJECT: Protective Intelligence Coverage - Visit of the Secretary General of the United Nations, Kofi Annan, to Houston, Texas
04/22/98-04/23/98

DSS/JTTF Liaison - Houston has been tasked by DS/FLD/HUFO to provide protective intelligence coverage for the visit of the Secretary General of the United Nations, Kofi Annan, to Houston, Texas, from 04/22/98 to 04/23/98. While in Houston, Secretary General Annan will be the featured guest at a public forum sponsored by the Baker Center, Rice University. Pursuant to this matter, appropriate local law enforcement notifications, collection/analysis of threat information, and protective liaison/support will be undertaken by DSS/JTTF Houston.

DSS/P has indicated that a DSS protective detail will be provided for the Secretary General.

DSS/JTTF Houston requests the following from addressee offices:

- DS/ICI/PII: Query all relevant sources for any available threat information relating to this visit.
- DS/ITA: Provide a Threat Assessment (in a format that can be shared with local law enforcement personnel) to DS/FLD/HUFO as soon as possible.
- [redacted] Forward notice to FBI/Houston DT and NS units for review/action as deemed appropriate.

b7E per FBI

Developed threat information that may effect this protective operation can be forwarded to DSS/JTTF during business hours c/o DS/FLD/HUFO [713-209-3482], or after hours by paging DSS/JTTF Liaison at 1-800-759-8888, PIN 1104090.

Your continued support of DSS/JTTF Liaison - Houston is greatly appreciated.
