At 10:01 a.m., today, I received the attached memorandum dated 10-21-66 for the Director which I understand was written by Cliff Sessions in the Office of Public Information at the Department. It is addressed "To All Division Heads and Bureau Chiefs" and initialed by Ramsey Clark. It states the President has asked for a daily report on governmental matters of interest to him while on his Asia trip. Starting today (Monday through Saturday) reports should be sent by 2 p.m. to Sessions from every Division on developments. Similarly, if there is nothing to report a statement should be given to that effect.

It is recommended that we inform Mr. Sessions that we have FBI men at the specific request of the President stationed in countries being visited by him. These men currently furnish significant information to the Presidential party along the way. Also, as we have in the past, we by teletype and letter twice daily supply the White House directly with significant developments. Copies of such letters, of course, go to the Acting Attorney General. In the event any information of an emergency nature over and above the data currently thus disseminated arises, we will call the same immediately to the attention of Mr. Sessions.

RECOMMENDATION:

REC 32

62-111200-370

That this memorandum be returned to my office and that I be authorized to inform Mr. Sessions as related above.

In connection with the trip of President LYNDON JOHNSON to the Far East and Australia during October, 1966, Special Agents HOMER A. BOYNTON, JR. and NELSON J. CONOVER of the New York Office were assigned to Australia for the purpose of assisting the Secret Service in carrying out their responsibilities for the protection of the President during his visit. This communication is being prepared in order to provide a summary of the activities of the Bureau representatives in Australia, and it is hoped that it may be of some benefit to the Bureau and the Legat in Manila. In addition to the relation of facts, some conclusions and suggestions have been made based upon the observations of the agents assigned to Australia.

The advance party of the Secret Service divided their responsibilities in Australia with one group of Secret Service agents assigned to handle Canberra and Melbourne, another group handling Sydney, and a small group in Brisbane and Townsville. All of these cities were on the President's schedule. The Bureau personnel were similarly divided, with SA BOYNTON working with the Secret Service at Canberra and Melbourne, and SA CONOVER at Sydney. Inasmuch as the President was to spend only a brief period of time in Brisbane and Townsville, neither CONOVER nor BOYNTON traveled to these cities, but liaison was established with the Secret Service at these locations. A close and cordial working relationship was established with the Secret Service in Australia, and the Bureau agents assisted primarily in the area of protective intelligence.

When the President arrived in Australia, the Bureau agents were assigned to mutually agreed upon posts at various locations where the President would visit. It is to be noted that at the conclusion of the President's visit to Canberra, Assistant Director WALTER YOUNG of the Secret Service personally expressed his appreciation for the assistance given to the Secret Service by the FBI representatives in Australia.

The presence in Australia of Bureau representatives for a two-week period afforded an excellent opportunity to promote the Bureau's interests, and discussions were held with various Australian police departments [redacted]

As stated above, the FBI representatives worked closely with the Secret Service , and the protection of the President was given paramount consideration. However, whenever an opportunity was presented, discussions were held with the police [redacted] (u) b7D described above as well as other police personnel of lower rank too numerous to mention. Such discussions concerned the work and responsibilities of the Bureau. Australian police are most friendly and are intensely interested in the Bureau, most specifically the laboratory facilities, training, and jurisdiction. Regarding training, most of the police officials exhibited a keen interest in the FBI National Academy, and it is believed that consideration should be given to the enrollment of an Australian police officer in the Academy at some future time.

Attached is a summary cablegram from our Legal Attache in Manila, submitted for information; therefore, no dissemination necessary at this time.

Legal Attache commented that Philippine police and security forces generally considered to have done a better job than expected. Success of President's visit from a security standpoint attributed to fact President's exposure limited to one occasion. This was a direct result of information furnished by Legal Attache concerning local conditions.

Mrs. Mildred Stegall called from Manila at 9:45 this morning. She is in charge of the President's office in Manila.

She stated that the President appeared to be in fine health and good spirits. She stated there had been a number of anti-U.S. demonstrations and at that time (9:45 p.m. in Manila) there were approximately 500 demonstrators carrying torches outside the U.S. Embassy. She mentioned that this had little bearing upon the conference and she felt the President believed that plans were proceeding in good order.

Mrs. Stegall was again most complimentary concerning FBI personnel. She stated that our people, and particularly SA Haynes, had been most mindful of her every need. She indicated that FBI personnel were working hard and had furnished good information.

Mrs. Stegall asked if we were having any difficulties with her office back here and I told her there were none.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENT'S TRIP TO FAR EAST

Tropics - Pac

Mildred Stegall, who handles personal matters for the President, called from Manila at 10 a.m. today (10 p.m. Manila time).

She indicated that the President had safely returned from Vietnam and that everyone had breathed a sigh of relief upon his return. She stated that Mrs. Johnson had called all of the "Johnson people" together for a brief reception that evening and that the President had stopped by upon his return from Vietnam. She also stated that most of their contingent had attended the fiesta at the Palace and that the President had bought Philippine attire for the men and women in their group.

Mrs. Stegall indicated, as she has done several times before, that our people had done an excellent job for the President and that the Director would no doubt be hearing from the President direct concerning this assistance. She added that she had arranged transportation for our people on military plane and that our Manila group would be back in Washington probably late tomorrow night, 10/27/66. Mrs. Stegall will fly home in Secretary Rusk's plane.

SUBJECT: PRESIDENT'S RETURN FROM ASIAN TOUR

OTROPUS - PAC

[] No. 1 Man to Mr. Ernest Friesen, Administrative Assistant Attorney General for Administration, telephonically advised the writer this morning that the Attorney General's Office had called and instructed that all Bureaus and Divisions be contacted to extend an invitation to all employees who desire to join in the welcome of the President on his return from his Asian tour at Dulles Airport.

[] stated that no pressure was to be applied in having persons proceed to Dulles Airport for this purpose but in turn, they did not want to think the welcome of the President was restricted to officials of the Government. [] further stated those desiring to participate in the welcome of the President at Dulles to arrive anywhere from 7:15 P.M. to 7:30 P.M. as the President is expected to land at approximately 8:00 P.M.

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the above information be made available to all personnel through the Division Heads; however, there will be no urging or pressure exerted in connection with their attendance.

Honorable Marvin Watson
Special Assistant to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Watson:

In connection with the recent travel of the President to the Manila Summit Conference and various Pacific countries, I thought you would be interested in an account of the participation of FBI representatives.

Sixteen Special Agents departed with the advance party and were stationed at the various points to be visited. In addition, Special Agent Robert H. Haynes accompanied both the advance party and the President on his trip. My liaison representative at Manila furnished assistance to the White House Staff and Secret Service, and the FBI field offices at Honolulu and Anchorage furnished support during the President's stops in those two cities.

The Special Agents were active in contacting foreign government representatives and police officials to secure and develop information which would be of assistance in maintaining the safety of the President and avoiding as much as possible any embarrassment to him or other U.S. officials. In this regard, police officials who are graduates of the FBI National Academy were particularly helpful. A high percentage of these graduates hold important positions in their respective police agencies. In addition, other police and government officials who are regular contacts of my liaison representatives covering the Pacific areas were contacted by the Special Agents. All of these persons were most cooperative and eager to assist in making the President's visit a success.

Honorable Marvin Watson

In addition to the personal contacts with foreign officials, the Special Agents assisted in reviewing and correlating information of pertinence available from appropriate U.S. Government sources. All information obtained was included in the intelligence summaries prepared by Secret Service for use in planning the activities and protection of the President.

While the Special Agents did not participate in close physical protection of the President, they were present at the various public appearances and worked with local police officials identifying particularly troublesome individuals and groups.

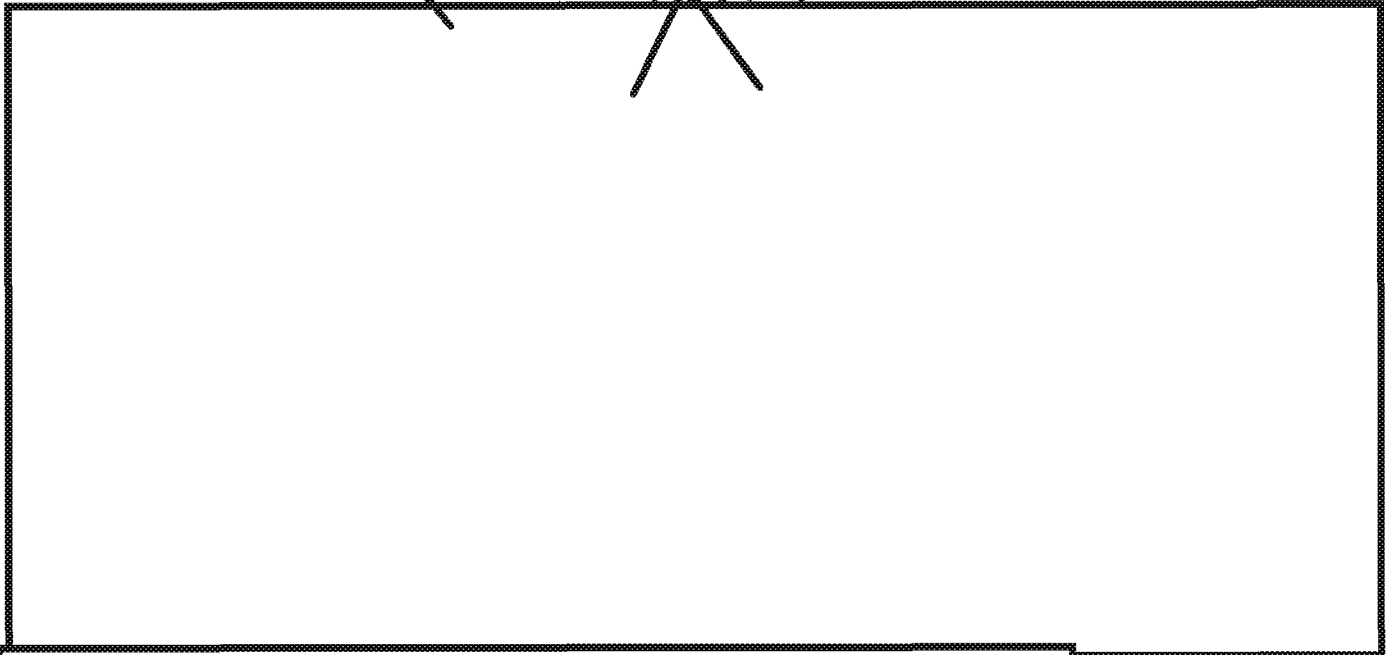

Mr. Haynes advises me that members of the White House Staff and Secret Service were most cooperative and helpful to the participating FBI personnel. I wish to thank you for this invaluable assistance in fulfilling our assigned task.

Sincerely yours,

Domestic Intelligence Division

Two Who Threw Paint at Johnson Are Fined $761

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Two brothers were fined a total of $761 today for throwing paint over President Johnson's car during his ride through Melbourne Oct. 21.

John N. Langley, 21, a sales representative, and his brother David, 18, a student, had spent 14 days in jail before Magistrate E. J. Danaher passed sentence.

David was put on 18 months' probation and John on two years. The magistrate ordered John to undergo psychiatric treatment.

Danaher said he was satisfied that the incident during Johnson's motorcade here stemmed from the brothers' views on the Viet Nam war and that there was no organization behind it.

The magistrate also ordered that $1,940 paid to the court by the brothers' father be distributed among bystanders whose clothing was damaged by the paint. President and Mrs. Johnson escaped the paint because the bubbletop of their limousine was up.

It is the opinion of SA O'MALLEY that the excellent treatment afforded him while assigned in Kuala Lumpur was the result of excellent liaison work on the part of the Legat, Manila, and, also, the high regard for the Bureau instilled in those members of the RMP who had attended the FBI National Academy. As a result of this excellent groundwork, the Special Agents assigned in Kuala Lumpur experienced no difficulties with the RMP.

[] Secret Service, called at 10:00 a. m. this morning. He stated that in connection with the President's forthcoming trip to Guam the President had at first instructed that no automobiles be transported from the United States to Guam for his usage. The President stated that he would use a limousine that was currently in Guam.

[] told me that the Secret Service representative in Guam had advised that there were no automobiles in Guam which could adequately be used to protect the President or give him any comfort whatsoever. The automobiles in question are old, have no armor plate and cannot be depended upon in operation. [] stated that he had discussed this matter with the President and the President had pointblank told him that he would allow a limousine to be sent over if J. Edgar Hoover agreed with [] position.

[] stated the purpose of his call was to solicit FBI aid in convincing the President that it was absolutely necessary, mainly for protection purposes, to have one of the President's limousines taken to Guam.

I told [] that as he well knew, the Director had constantly stressed the fact that adequate protection should be given the President at all times, and particularly while traveling in strange countries. I stated the Director was already on record in communications to the White House insisting that the President be afforded proper protection in travel and elsewhere.

I told [] that, unless advised to the contrary, he could assume that the Director thoroughly agreed with him that one of the President's limousines should be taken to Guam so that he could have adequate protection and comfort.

COMMITTEE TO STOP THE WAR IN VIETNAM (HONOLULU) (CSWV)

On March 14, 1967, Honolulu T-1 advised as follows:

The CSWV, a characterization of which is appended hereto, met the evening of March 13, 1967, at the Church of the Crossroads in Honolulu. During the meeting it was announced that the group would picket Honolulu churches on Sunday mornings of March 19, 1967, and March 26, 1967. [] would be in charge of the demonstrations, and the groups would meet at the Church of the Crossroads prior to the picketing. (S) (u)

[] University of Hawaii and [] of the CSWV, discussed President Lyndon B. Johnson's trip to Guam. [] stated the President's itinerary was not, as yet, known, but if he transited Honolulu and made himself available to the public, the CSWV would attempt to picket him. [] therefore, asked all members to remain on the alert for a quick call for a possible demonstration. [] thought President Johnson's plane would probably land at Hickam and if the public was allowed to enter the Base, they would attempt to organize a demonstration. [] stated that in the event the public was not allowed on the Base, they may attempt to have a few members picketing at the main gate of Hickam Air Force Base. (S) (u)

At this time, [] of the CSWV, spoke in a low voice stating that [] (S) (u)

Assistant to the Director C. D. DeLoach contacted Inspector J. A. Sizoo, Domestic Intelligence Division, early on the morning of 12-21-67. Mr. DeLoach had received a call from Marvin Watson at the White House who advised Mr. DeLoach that the President is considering visiting Rome en route to the United States from Australia.

Inspector Sizoo had contacted Legal Attache Thomas J. Biamonte at Rome and instructed Biamonte to ascertain the potential of demonstrations or other disturbances occurring should the President visit Rome. Biamonte has been instructed to submit a cablegram which will be made immediately available to Mr. DeLoach.

At 7:50 a.m. this date, Biamonte was contacted via Defense telephone system at which time he advised that he had in transmission a cablegram which reads:

Potential for Demonstrations Against any Ranking Official of U.S. Government who may Visit Italy. Rome paper this A.M. reported President Johnson was considering brief stop in Rome to visit Pope Paul, following visit to Far East.

In opinion of [redacted] visit to Italy of any high-ranking U.S. Government official would undoubtedly provoke demonstrations protesting U.S. policy in Vietnam.

Demonstrations would be promoted by Italian Communist Party; however, it usually loses control of demonstrations to pro-Chinese communist elements who have predilection for more violent activity. Bureau will recall visit of Vice President to Italy early this year provoked paint and egg throwing. The [redacted] are extremely confident that its

On July 11, 1968, the same source reported that members of the Peace and Freedom Party had met in Honolulu the previous evening and they believe President Johnson will arrive in this city about July 19, 1968. The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing the United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965 SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS Constitution. In the October 7, 1966 issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The remainder of the meeting turned into a Eugene McCarthy for President Rally.

The group was not aware of the plans that evening for President Johnson and President Thieu of the Republic of Vietnam, and hence, agreed to again picket and demonstrate in front of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing the United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community, and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965 SDS National Convention, an anti-communist proviso was removed from the SDS Constitution. In the October 7, 1966 issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

CIRCUS CLOWNS DISCUSS WAR • PEACE

Can anyone believe that the present Johnson-Thieu conference is directed toward a peaceful settlement of the war? Are any plans being made to permit a genuine coalition government? Will any American troops be withdrawn or will the US cease its relentless bombing of the North as a consequence of this conference?

The answers are obvious. We can expect nothing other than an increased commitment to continue to solve political and economic problems by military means, regardless of the will of the Vietnamese and American people.

CONFERENCE IS CONSPIRACY

The conference appears to be a conspiracy designed to tighten US military commitment in hopes (by lbj and Thieu) that the next US president will be bound by such a commitment.

That the conference is taking place now while the Paris talks are on-going is significant. Apparently, Thieu wants assurances that lbj won't "make deals" with the NLF behind his back, and he wants it on paper.

Some people may be asking why it has taken the NLF so long to assassinate Vietnam's Benedict Arnolds who previously fought with the French against their Vietnamese countrymen. It should be recognized that the NLF can eliminate Thieu or Ky at will, but have chosen not to do so. The question remains, why?

Perhaps they reason that just as lbj's policies have greatly increased the number of US radicals, the incredible corruption and petty power-grabbing by the so-called "Saigon Government" serves to generate support for the NLF. In short, Thieu and Ky serve as effective symbols of the hated collaboration with the American aggressors. Why should they destroy such useful symbols?

It is our position that any negotiations or conference, whether in Paris, Honolulu, or Timbuktu, which deal with anything other than the specific conditions under which US troops will be withdrawn from Vietnam and the bombing permanently and unconditionally halted, such negotiations are phoney and deceptive and deserve nothing more than condemnation as delaying tactics.

THIS IS A ROACH SAMPLER

The Roach is Hawaii's only regular underground newspaper. We will print virtually anything we believe to be true, regardless of pressures. We are also eager to print cartoons, poetry, imaginative photographs, etc.

The Roach crawls out from underground every two weeks on Tuesdays. If we don't catch him carefully, he even sometimes sneaks out Mon. night.

Where can you get the Roach? At Crossroads Book Gallery (Moiliili) and Mama Mia's Pizzz Place (at King and McCully). In Kailua, you can get it at Bibliomania (book store) or Mary Jane's (but unfortunately, not at her place in the International Market Place).

The Roach lives at Box 352, Haleiwa, Oahu, Hawaii, 96712. He loves clever little ads like the kind that can be found in the Berkeley Barb or LA Free Press. When he's really hungry, he likes big ads.

Rates: 35¢ per line, $2.50 per column inch, $22.50 for a half page, and $45.00 for a full page. (A full page in the Establishment Press costs close to a thousand dollars)

You can even make bread with Roaches! You buy from us at 10¢ and sell for 15¢ and we will buy back whatever you cannot sell, if any. But whoever herad of an unwanted Roach?

The Roach is normally a 12-page collection of anti-establishment news, fun, and commentary. It costs a mere 15¢. With your support, an even bigger, better Roach can be produced. Everything is possible.

THE HAWAII PEACE AND FREEDOM PARTY SPEAKS OUT ON:

I. THE VIETNAM WAR

THE HAWAII PEACE AND FREEDOM PARTY CONDEMNS THE U.S. MILITARY PARTICIPATION IN VIETNAM AND URGES AN ORDERLY BUT RAPID WITHDRAWAL OF ALL U.S. TROOPS FROM THAT COUNTRY FOR THE FOLLOWING REASONS:

- A. Above all, we have brought devastating destruction to the people, culture and property of Vietnam. Our war crimes there are approaching the extent of the atrocities under Nazi Germany.
- B. Our tax money has been going into this losing war for years instead of into constructive production for world peace. This is worse than waste.
- C. The Vietnamese people have never committed aggression against Americans, and would not now be enemies of this government if our country had not sent its army to invade their land.
- D. Small children and infants who cannot conceivably be regarded as our enemy (unless one endorses the program of wholesale genocide) are being killed and maimed in horrible ways by our scientific weaponry.
- E. We deplore the grossly disproportionate number of men called up from the Hawaii National Guard for active duty and the high rate of non-white Hawaiian deaths in the Vietnam war.
- F. We ourselves have become ashamed to be called Americans because of what our countrymen are doing in Vietnam. We wish to be proud of our nation. We wish to be able to love justice and our country too. But we cannot yet.

II. MILITARISM

THE HAWAII PEACE AND FREEDOM PARTY OPPOSES THE CANCER OF U.S. MILITARISM THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY AND THE WORLD.

- A. In a larger perspective, Vietnam is only the worst example of America's glorification of the gun. We deplore the existence of thousands of U.S. military bases outside our own boundaries. Their presence can be called "self-defense" only in self-deception.
- B. When was the last time the U.S. tried to settle its disputes with other nations by honest and rational dialogue instead of force or the threat of force?
- C. Why should much of Hawaii's best land be usurped from its inhabitants who would use it productively and instead be given to the military whose existence perpetuates destruction?

PEACE and FREEDOM!

YOUR STAKE IN THE FUTURE IS TO HELP ORGANIZE FOR PEACE, FREEDOM AND SOCIAL JUSTICE—NOW! BUSINESS-AS-USUAL POLITICS HAS BROUGHT OUR NATION TO ITS PRESENT CRISIS OF EXTREME POVERTY FOR 40 MILLION AMERICANS, OF RACISM, VIOLENCE, WAR AND INJUSTICE. AMERICANS NOW FACE TWO RADICAL ALTERNATIVES: TURN THE COUNTRY OVER TO THE POLICE AND THE MILITARY, OR TURN IT BACK TO THE PEOPLE. WE SAY TURN IT BACK TO THE PEOPLE! HERE IS OUR PROGRAM.

ELECTORAL POLITICS

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

PEACE

TO THE QUESTION: How should we end the war in Vietnam, we say GET OUT NOW! The United States must end its futile effort at military and political domination of Asian countries. Billions squandered on unjust wars in Asia must be diverted to rebuild American cities, provide jobs, health, housing and food for its millions of poor citizens. Peace and an end to all military adventures in other peoples countries is America's first order of business.

FREEDOM

The PEACE AND FREEDOM PARTY supports the black liberation movement in its struggle for social justice and control of local communities. We support similar movements among Hawaiians and other local minorities, and nationally among Mexican-Americans, Indians, Puerto Ricans and other oppressed peoples.

URBAN AFFAIRS

AMERICA'S CITIES are rotten at the core. The incentive for their original growth was profit for real estate, construction and other commercial interests. Honolulu's present "growth" is still a disease of profit-seekers. Hawaii's land ownership is feudalistic and a means of domination by the wealthy. The PEACE AND FREEDOM PARTY raises these demands toward radical renewal of urban life: ★ Abolishment of absentee slum ownership. ★ Replacement of corrupt city-hall domination of urban affairs with local controls, residents' councils and decentralized community power. ★ Democratize land ownership and limit size of holdings. ★ Terminate all further high-rise construction pending formulation of life-style demands by the people. ★ Replace developer-oriented state land policies with conservationist policies.

VICTIMS
PROTECTION OF THE PRESIDENT

On October 14, 1968, James Johnson, Deputy District Attorney, Los Angeles County, 11009 South New Street, Downey, California, furnished the following information:

Judge Peter Cook, Downey Municipal Court, Downey, California, received two letters from [redacted] in connection with the case that Judge Cook handled in August, 1968, involving [redacted]. Johnson furnished a xerox copy of each of these two letters.

The first letter, undated, was addressed, "To the Judge that took the case of [redacted] of Sharon, Mass.". According to this letter, in August, 1968, [redacted] took a trip from Massachusetts to Los Angeles, California, to see [redacted] as he, [redacted] owed [redacted] $2,000.00. The [redacted] family refused to answer the door to their residence and called local authorities who had [redacted] arrested. The next day [redacted] appeared in court and received a three-day or $30.00 fine but he, [redacted], did not believe he was guilty even though he pled guilty. [redacted] claimed that the next time he wanted a fair trial or he "might kill three or four people". [redacted] described his physical ailments and his plans for future legal action in this matter. This letter was not signed.

The second letter, which was received by Judge Cook, is obscene, undated and signed by [redacted]. [redacted] in this letter claimed that [redacted] owed him $2,500.00. This letter states in part "...are you proud of what you do putting honest people in jail. ...". "...if I don't hear from you I going to Calif. and kill him and myself ...". "...In give you Oct. 25 for an answer for a triel or else I come out there to kill [redacted] if this is the only way to get a triel I will kill and it will be your fault...".

[REDACTED] was arrested on August 20, 1968, by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office, Norwalk Station, in connection with a complaint by [REDACTED]. She alleged that [REDACTED] was walking on her lawn and looking in the windows, banging loudly on the front door and yelling. [REDACTED] had assaulted [REDACTED] with a hatchet fourteen years ago concerning an alleged debt that he owed [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] upon arrest, allegedly advised the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office that he had just arrived in Norwalk, California, from New York for the sole purpose of collecting the money owed him by [REDACTED] claimed that he was not leaving the [REDACTED] residence until he got his money or until he had killed [REDACTED]. The arrest report stated that in the opinion of the arresting deputy, [REDACTED] was in need of psychiatric care.

[REDACTED] appeared in court before Judge Cook and was sentenced to $30.00 or thirty days in jail for disturbing the peace. The next contact that Judge Cook had with [REDACTED] was when he received the first letter on September 23, 1968, and the second letter he received on October 7, 1968.

The facts of this case were discussed with Assistant U. S. Attorney Edward J. Wallin, Los Angeles, California, and he declined prosecution due to the fact that there is insufficient evidence and this was a matter which would properly be handled by local authorities in view of the fact that the threats arose out of a previous debt which victim supposedly owed [REDACTED].

SUBJECT: CALL FROM MRS. MILDRED STEGALL
AUSTIN, TEXAS, 8/19/69

EW

⑥ Mrs. Mildred Stegall, secretary to former President Lyndon B. Johnson, called; however, I was out of the office and returned her call approximately twenty minutes later. Mrs. Stegall stated that the Secret Service had checked out an employee that she was considering in the capacity of Assistant Librarian at the new LBJ Library, Austin, Texas. She indicated that in this individual's investigative report there appeared a notation to the effect that this individual had been given an honorable discharge from the Army for the convenience of the Government. She stated that further checking had reflected that this person was declared unsuitable because of personality. She told me there was no reference made in the report to perversion, crime or any other matters of a derogatory nature. She asked what I thought about having further investigation made.

I told Mrs. Stegall that the Secret Service had obviously made the inquiries in this matter in the first place and that, frankly, she should turn to Secret Service for an opinion rather than the FBI. She said she thought this would be the answer and that she would prepare a memorandum to the Secret Service in this regard. She did not furnish the name of the individual in question.

Prof. Johnson Has Retirement Plan

By Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson

President Johnson is getting ready for retirement to private life with the same zest that he is pushing his legislative program. He has already organized plans for an Institute of Public Affairs at the University of Texas and will draft various "professors" to come there to inspire the students.

"I'm going to get 'Professor' Wayne Morse to come down to Texas," he told a friend, referring to the Senator from Oregon who once served as dean of the University of Oregon Law School. "Only Wayne charges too much. He's going to have to reduce his fee."

The President is also thinking of other molders of national thought such as "Professor" Mike Mansfield of Montana, who used to teach history at the University of Montana. He may even draft "Professor" William Fulbright, who used to be president of the University of Arkansas.

"Professor" Johnson and "Professor" Fulbright disagree on Southeast Asia, but Mr. Johnson believes in discussion, not necessarily in consensus, when it comes to university life.

He also wants his national affairs faculty to spend time on the campus talking with students, not just lecturing to them. He feels that one cure for current campus unrest is to let students spend two or three hours intermittently during a week with top leaders of Congress and government, talking about the problems of the day—ranging from Vietnam to the responsibilities of the Presidency.

The latter is a subject to which Mr. Johnson has given a lot of thought. He feels that the job of being President of the United States is so big under our Constitution that its responsibilities must be diversified. He has considered all sorts of remedies, such as the appointment of six Vice Presidents to handle different departments of Government.

LBJ has already raised the money to build the Johnson Library in which to house his presidential papers. It will be located near the University of Texas and will be operated without expense to the public but for the benefit of the public. The building will be finished in time for him to begin work as "Professor" Johnson shortly after he leaves the White House on Jan. 20, 1969.

Let 'Em Eat Caviar

With the poor people camped in a rainy Washington, Rep. John Rooney, Brooklyn Democrat, seems more concerned about the price of caviar abroad than the price of bread here at home. At a recent House Appropriations hearing, Rooney asked Joseph Palmer, Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs,

"How much has the price of caviar increased in that area?"

Palmer: "I don't think the price of caviar is very important to most of our posts in the area. I imagine it has probably kept pretty stable."

Rooney: "Do they have enough caviar?"

Palmer: "I think the principal consumers of caviar in the area are the Soviet missions. They probably keep pretty well supplied."

Rooney: "Now, now. Have you ever been to an American installation any place where you couldn't scrape up some caviar?"

Palmer: "I've never served it myself."

Rooney: "Fantastic!"

The New Yorker next asked William J. Handley, Assistant Secretary for the Near East and South Asia, about the price of caviar in that area.

"Has it increased?" he needed Handley.

Handley: "The last time I paid for caviar in Iran, it was $22 a kilo. I remember the first time I bought caviar. It was between $5 and $6 a kilo back in the 40s when I was stationed in Iran."

Rooney: "Anyway, we've found a guy who eats caviar."

Handley: "Can't afford it any more, sir. The thing that surprises me after looking at the Caspian fisheries was how much caviar you can actually get out of a sturgeon. Sometimes you get a hundred pounds out of one sturgeon."

New Drug Chief

Some members of the drug industry are pulling backstage wires to influence the appointment of a new Food and Drug administrator replacing Dr. James Goddard, who has just resigned.

They want someone who will be a little more lackadaisical than Dr. Goddard, who, though he had a bad press, did a forthright job of protecting the public. They would not be too happy with Dr. Herbert Ley, now director of medicine, or counsel William Goodrich. Both are pro-public men.

On the other hand, some of the better drug companies would like to see vigorous enforcement. They figure they have nothing to lose and that both they and the public would be better off with a forthright new administrator.

Gratitude and Brass

Illustration of gratitude: Gov. Nelson Rockefeller being booed by Negro students at Spellman College, founded and financed by his grandfather, because the Chase Manhattan Bank, which his family controls, does business with segregationist South Africa. (The Rockefeller family has given $40,000,000 to Negro colleges) ... Illustration of inconsistency: Bobby Kennedy promising to undo the mistakes of the past eight years, almost half of which were under his brother.

LBJ Letter Briefs Congress on Manila

By Drew Pearson

President Johnson has sent a personal letter to every member of Congress, both Democrats and Republicans, with a report on the Manila Conference. He has also sent a somewhat more detailed letter to the 14 leaders of Congress, Democratic and Republican.

In both reports, copies of which have been obtained by this column, the President emphasized political reforms in South Vietnam together with its economic reconstruction.

To congressional leaders the President reported that he had received a pledge from South Vietnamese Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu and Premier Nguyen Cao Ky "to elect a chief of government six months after the constitution is completed—it will not be later than March, 1967; to begin holding village and hamlet elections early in 1967."

Johnson also reported to the congressional leaders that he had received a pledge from Thieu and Ky "to carry forward a program of National Reconciliation"—another important step, since it means permitting the Vietnamese, once they lay down their arms, to participate in the elections and serve in the South Vietnamese government if elected.

The letter to congressional leaders follows in full:

November 3, 1966

Dear _____

I would have enjoyed a meeting of the full leadership of the Congress today to discuss my Asian trip and all its implications. But, in the absence of a number of your colleagues, I would like to give to you personally some of my personal conclusions.

First, I found a reservoir of friendliness and goodwill toward the United States in all parts of the Pacific region.

They recognize, from our past actions in Korea and from our present actions in Viet-Nam, that we are prepared to sacrifice to see them remain free and prepared to help them develop their economic life.

Second, I found that those closest to the danger of aggression and subversion are those who understand best why that danger must be faced and turned back. These are people who are prepared to stand up and be counted. It is now clear to one and all that we are not in this thing alone.

Third, there is profound understanding in Asia that by our firm stand in Viet-Nam and in Southeast Asia, we are buying time for all the nations of that region to face their own problems realistically and to begin to build their own future together as a region.

Finally, I found an Asia very much on the move. In one country after another I found leaders and governments intent on making a better life for their peoples. Their problems are immense. But they are not daunted by the scale of the task. And they are making progress—sometimes amazing progress—as in Korea.

We stated our resolve to resist aggression; conquer hunger, illiteracy and disease; build a region of security, order and progress; seek reconciliation and peace.

There were other accomplishments that received little or no attention in many of the reports from Manila. I call your attention to the following commitments by Vietnamese Chief of State Thieu and Prime Minister Ky: to train and assign a substantial share of the Vietnamese armed forces to clear-and-hold actions in order to provide a shield behind which a new society can be built; to give land reform "top priority"; to begin mapping a new and expanded postwar economy (and the related allied commitment to plan conversion of military installations in the context of Vietnamese peacetime planning); to elect a chief of government six months after the Constitution is completed—it will be not later than March, 1967; to begin holding village and hamlet elections early in 1967; to carry forward a program of National Reconciliation; to ask their allies to remove their forces, as the military and subversive forces of North Viet-Nam are withdrawn and peace becomes possible in the South—to which we replied, with Vietnamese agreement, with the six months proposition.

I consider all of these substantial advances in the continuing effort to achieve a peaceful, secure, and prosperous South Viet-Nam.

In closing, I want to pass along my impression of the men who are fighting in Viet-Nam and standing guard in Korea. They are magnificent. General Westmoreland told me that no Commander-in-Chief ever commanded a finer armed force. They are brave, and good humored, and selfless.

I sincerely wish you could have been with me—to see them and to see the vital and exciting Asia that is forming up and will take shape if we see it through to an honorable peace in Viet-Nam.

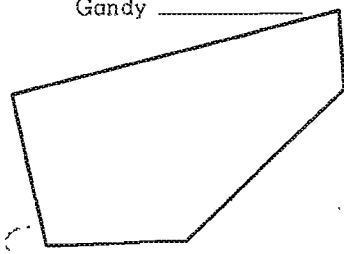

Sincerely,

Lyndon B. Johnson

JOHNSON 10/30 NX
 NIGHT LD

BY MERRIMAN SMITH
 UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL

KUALA LUMPUR, MALAYSIA (UPI)--IGNORING A SERIES OF BLOODY LEFTIST RIOTS AGAINST HIS VISIT TO MALAYSIA, PRESIDENT JOHNSON WARNED COMMUNIST CHINA SUNDAY THAT IT IS INVITING DANGER BY DEVELOPING NUCLEAR WEAPONS.

JOHNSON ADDRESSED A STATE DINNER IN HIS HONOR, MAKING HIS FIRST PUBLIC COMMENT ON THE RED CHINESE TEST OF A NUCLEAR-TIPPED GUIDED MISSILE ONLY HOURS AFTER ANTI-AMERICAN RIOTS ERUPTED IN KUALA LUMPUR AND SIX OTHER CITIES. IT WAS THE WORST VIOLENCE OF THE PRESIDENT'S ASIAN TOUR.

RIOT POLICE SHOT AND KILLED ONE PERSON IN KUALA LUMPUR WHEN A MOB ATTACKED THE U. S. INFORMATION SERVICE LIBRARY ABOUT TWO MILES FROM THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING WHERE JOHNSON WAS MEETING WITH THE MALAYSIAN CABINET. AT LEAST 17 OTHER PERSONS WERE INJURED IN DEMONSTRATIONS ORGANIZED BY MALAYA'S PRO-PEKING LABOR PARTY.

THE STATE DINNER CONCLUDED JOHNSON'S 22-HOUR WHIRLWIND VISIT TO MALAYSIA, THE SIXTH FOREIGN STOP ON HIS SEVEN-NATION JOURNEY TO THE FAR EAST. HE FLIES TO SOUTH KOREA MONDAY MORNING (7:40 P.M. EST SUNDAY) FOR A TWO-DAY STOP BEFORE RETURNING TO THE UNITED STATES ON WEDNESDAY.

JOHNSON SAID COMMUNIST CHINA'S TEST OF A MISSILE ARMED WITH A NUCLEAR WARHEAD AND THE "PURSUIT OF A NATIONAL NUCLEAR CAPABILITY . . . MAKES INTERNATIONAL RMS CONTROL, INCLUDING A NUCLEAR TEST BAN AND A NON-PROLIFERATION TREATY, VASTLY MORE DIFFICULT.

"IT ALSO INVITES DANGER TO CHINA ITSELF. FOR THE LEADERS OF CHINA MUST REALIZE THAT ANY NUCLEAR CAPABILITY THEY CAN DEVELOP CAN -- AND WILL - BE DETERRED.

"WE HAVE ALREADY DECLARED THAT NATIONS WHICH DO NOT SEEK NATIONAL WEAPONS CAN BE SURE THAT THEY WILL HAVE OUR STRONG SUPPORT, IF THEY NEED IT, AGAINST ANY THREAT OF NUCLEAR BLACKMAIL."

JOHNSON DESCRIBED CHINA'S NUCLEAR WEAPONS PROGRAM AS "A TRAGIC FACT" IN AN ESSENTIALLY UNDER-DEVELOPED COUNTRY.

"FOR BREAD IS THE NEED OF MILLIONS WHO FACE STARVATION EVERY DAY AND BOMBS TOO OFTEN ARE PURCHASED AT THE PRICE OF BREAD."

SPEAKING DIRECTLY TO THE PEKING REGIME, JOHNSON SAID: "WE HOPE THAT MAINLAND CHINA, OKE OTHER DEVELOPING NATIONS, WILL CONCENTRATE ITS RESOURCES ON ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT. IN THIS WAY A TRULY MODERN CHINA CAN EMERGE ON THE MAINLAND.

"A PEACEFUL CHINA HAS NOTHING TO FEAR FROM ANY OF US. A PEACEFUL CHINA CAN EXPECT FRIENDSHIP AND COOPERATION. A RECKLESS CHINA CAN EXPECT VIGILANCE AND STRENGTH.

"ALL OF ASIA WILL GAIN WHEN THE DAY COMES TO PASS THAT CHINA IS AT PEACE WITH ITS NEIGHBORS AND FREE FROM THE FEARS AND SUSPICIONS THAT KEEP HER ISOLATED FROM THE WORLD."

THE ANTI-AMERICAN RIOTS HAD LITTLE EFFECT ON JOHNSON'S VISIT TO MALAYSIA, A THRIVING SOUTHEAST ASIA NATION WHOSE MAIN STATE OF MALAYA DEFEATED A VIET NAM-TYPE COMMUNIST TAKEOVER 12 YEARS AGO.

JOHNSON CALLED ON MALAYSIA'S KING, MET WITH THE CABINET AND VISITED A MODEL LAND DEVELOPMENT AREA 41 MILES SOUTH OF KUALA LUMPUR WHERE HE TAPPED A RUBBER TREE AND DRANK MILK FROM A COCONUT HACHED OPEN IN FRONT OF HIM.

THE PRESIDENT MADE THE TRIP TO THE LAND DEVELOPMENT AREA AT LABU JAYA BY HELICOPTER. THERE, THE MALAYSIAN GOVERNMENT HAS TAKEN SUB-MARGINAL AND LARGE JUNGLE AREAS AND TURNED THEM INTO UP-TO-DATE, WELL-KEPT COMMUNITIES.

THE VILLAGE OF LABU JAYA SUPPLIES WORKERS FOR RUBBER PLANTATIONS IN THE AREA AND FARMERS IN THE AREA GROW LARGE QUANTITIES OF FRUITS AND VEGETABLES, INCLUDING TAPIOCA--PRESIDENT JOHNSON'S FAVORITE DESSERT.

THE PRESIDENTIAL HELICOPTER LANDED IN A MUDDY RAIN-SOAKED FIELD. JOHNSON THEN VISITED THE HOME OF JAMRUS BEN JANI, A RUBBER TAPPER WHO HAS A SEVEN-ACRE ALLOTMENT ON WHICH HE MAINTAINS MORE THAN 1,000 RUBBER TREES.

THE FAMILY GAVE JOHNSON A LARGE BASKET OF HOME-GROWN FRUIT. HE OFFERED TO PAY FOR IT, BUT BEN JANI REFUSED.

THE PRESIDENT WALKED INTO A GROVE OF RUBBER TREES AND USED A SPECIAL KNIFE TO COMPLETE A CIRCULAR CUT AROUND ONE TREE WHICH HAD BEEN TAPPED.

THE PRESIDENT GAVE THE IMPRESSION OF A TYPICAL TOURIST, ENJOYING COCONUT MILK AND MOVING ALONG NARROW FOOTPATHS WITH A NATIVE DRUM BAND PLAYING AS IT FOLLOWED ALONG BEHIND.

THE HEAT AND HUMIDITY AT LABU JAYA APPARENTLY TIRED THE PRESIDENT AND HE CANCELLED A BRIEFING ON RURAL DEVELOPMENT ON HIS RETURN TO KUALA LUMPUR, PREFERRING TO REST BEFORE THE STATE DINNER.

MORE THAN 400 GUESTS ATTENDED THE BANQUET, A BLACK TIE AFFAIR IN THE HALL OF MALAYSIA'S NEW PARLIAMENT HOUSE.

THE DINNER INCLUDED A LONG PROGRAM OF MALAYAN DANCING WHILE JOHNSON AND THE OTHER GUESTS ATE CLEAR CHICKEN SOUP, A TRADITIONAL BAKED FISH DISH CALLED "OTAK-OTAK," FRESH DUCKLING, VEGETABLES AND A DESSERT OF ICE CREAM AND FRESH MALAYSIAN FRUIT.

ON HIS ARRIVAL IN KUALA LUMPUR FROM BANGKOK, THAILAND, JOHNSON PRAISED MALAYSIA'S RECORD OF ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL PROGRESS.

"FOR A WEARY AND WAR-TORN LAND ACROSS THE SOUTH CHINA SEA, MALAYSIA STANDS AS A SYMBOL OF WHAT IS POSSIBLE -- AND WHAT SURELY WILL COME TO PASS.

"YOU HAVE SHOWN THAT MILITARY ACTION CAN STOP COMMUNIST AGGRESSION," JOHNSON SAID IN A REFERENCE TO MALAYA'S VICTORY AGAINST A COMMUNIST TAKEOVER ATTEMPT 12 YEARS AGO. RESPONDING TO JOHNSON AT THE STATE DINNER, MALAYSIAN PRIME MINISTER ABDUL RAHMAN AND THE KING OF MALAYSIA ASSURED THE PRESIDENT THAT THEIR NATION "UNDERSTANDS AND WELCOMES THE DIFFICULT BUT VITAL ROLE YOUR COUNTRY IS PLAYING TO DEFEND SOUTH VIET NAM FOR PEACE IN ASIA."

RAHMAN SAID MALAYSIA WAS UNABLE TO MAKE ANY MILITARY CONTRIBUTION TO THE WAR EFFORT IN VIET NAM BUT HE REITERATED THE COUNTRY'S STRONG MORAL SUPPORT.

KUALA LUMPUR--MALAYSIAN POLICE FIRED SHOTS INTO THE AIR TODAY TO DISPERSE ABOUT 30 RIOTING YOUNGSTERS WHO THREW ROCKS AND BOTTLES AT A HOTEL WHERE AMERICAN GI'S ON LEAVE FROM VIET NAM WERE STAYING. THE ANTI-AMERICAN OUTBURST CAME AS POLICE TIGHTENED SECURITY MEASURES FOR THE ARRIVAL SUNDAY OF PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

THE YOUTHS, MOSTLY CHINESE, SHOTED "YANKEES GO HOME" AND SHATTERED SEVERAL WINDOWS IN THE PROPICANO HOTEL IN THE HEART OF THE CITY BEFORE BEING DRIVEN AWAY.

SOME OF THE BOTTLES CONTAINED OIL--APPARENTLY AN AMATERUISH ATTEMPT TO MAKE MOLOTOV COCKTAILS. BUT THEY DID NOT EXPLODE.

EARLIER TODAY THE OPPOSITION PEOPLES PROGRESSIVE PARTY OF MALAYA ANNOUNCED IT HAD CALLED OFF SCHEDULED DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT BECAUSE IT FEARED REPRISALS.

"WE HAVE CALLED IT OFF BECAUSE WE HAVE LEARNED THAT IF WE STAGE THE DEMONSTRATIONS THERE WILL BE REPERCUSSIONS," D. R. SEENIVASAGAM, PARTY PRESIDENT, SAID TODAY.

"SOMETHING WILL HAPPEN IF WE DO IT. WE HAVE RECEIVED SOME INFORMATION ABOUT THIS. WE CANNOT SAY WHAT IT IS, BUT WE ARE CANCELLING THE DEMONSTRATION."

BANGKOK--PRESIDENT JOHNSON GOT A GALA WELCOME TO THIS ASIAN CITY TODAY AND DREW CHEERS FROM THAI CROWDS WHEN HE TOLD THEM "OUR PASSION IS PEACE BUT WE ARE COMMITTED TO THE PROPOSITION THAT NO NATION SHALL DOMINATE ANOTHER IN THE PACIFIC."

KING BHUMIBOL AND HIS BEAUTIFUL QUEEN SIRIKIT GREETED THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. JOHNSON WHEN THEIR HELICOPTER LANDED IN THE ROYAL PLAZA OF THE CAPITAL FROM A DAY'S REST AT THE RESORT OF BONG SAEN.

PRIME MINISTER THANOM KITTAKACHORN ALSO WAS ON HAND FOR THE CEREMONY. JET FIGHTERS SWEEP OVERHEAD. A 21-GUN SALUTE WAS SOUNDED AND THE TWO HEADS OF STATE REVIEWED A DETACHMENT OF THAI SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND MARINES.

SAILORS AND MARINES.

ACCEPTING THE KEY TO THE CITY, JOHNSON SAID:

"I BELIEVE THAT THE SEVEN PACIFIC NATIONS SUCCEEDED AT MANILA, BUT THAT IS A JUDGMENT THAT WILL BE BEST MADE BY HISTORY. FOR THE PACIFIC WATERS ALSO TOUCH HANOI AND MAINLAND CHINA. ONE DAY, I BELIEVE, THEY WILL JOIN OUR PACIFIC BROTHERHOOD -- IN PEACE, AND WITHOUT THE SUSPICIONS AND HOSTILITY THAT MAKE COOPERATION DIFFICULTY.

"WE LOOK FORWARD TO THAT DAY. FOR OUR PASSION IS PEACE. WE SEEK NO EXTERNAL HOSTILITY. WE SEEK NO DOMINANCE. AND WE ARE COMMITTED TO THE PROPOSITION THAT NO NATION SHALL DOMINATE ANOTHER IN THE PACIFIC."

THE CROWDS ON THE STREETS GAVE THE JOHNSONS A WARM WELCOME BUT THE TURNOUT WAS THE SMALLEST THE PRESIDENT HAD RECEIVED ON HIS TOUR AND THE MOST ORDERLY, POSSIBLY BECAUSE OF STRICT SECURITY MEASURES.

THERE WERE ABOUT 100,000 PERSONS AT THE ROYAL PLAZA.

THE PRESIDENT DID NOT STOP FOR ANY OF THE HANDSHAKING THAT HAD MARKED HIS CAVALCADES IN NEW ZEALAND, AUSTRALIA AND THE PHILIPPINES. AT ONE POINT 60 MOTORCYCLE POLICE WERE ESCORTING THE PRESIDENTIAL CAR WHEN HE DROVE TO THE PALACE IN A CLOSED LIMOUSINE.

JOHNSON TOLD THE THAIS HE HAD SPENT THURSDAY REFLECTING ON THE MEANING OF THE DAYS THAT HAD PASSED SINCE HE BEGAN HIS 25,000-MILE TOUR.

"I REALIZED THAT THE SAME WAVES THAT WASH BANG SEAN -- AND BANGKOK -- ALSO TOUCH MALAYSIA, AND SOUTH VIET NAM, AND THE PHILIPPINES. AND AS THE WAVES MOVE OUT THEY WASH AGAINST SOUTH KOREA AND AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND AND, MANY THOUSANDS OF MILES AWAY, THE SAME PACIFIC WAVES TOUCH MY OWN NATION AT HAWAII AND ALASKA AND CALIFORNIA AND OREGON AND WASHINGTON.

"THESE WAVES SPEAK OF THE DEEPEST MEANING OF MY JOURNEY. FOR WE HAVE LEARNED AGAIN THAT WE ARE PACIFIC BROTHERS, WITH COMMON INTERESTS, WITH A COMMON DESTINY."

TOKYO--MORE THAN 2,000 VIOLENT LEFTIST STUDENTS RIOTED TONIGHT IN DOWNTOWN TOKYO AT A "PEP RALLY" FOR FRIDAY'S NATIONWIDE ANTI-VIET NAM WAR STRIKE.

AFTER ATTENDING A MASS MEETING IN HIBIYA PARK, LOCATED JUST BEHIND THE DIET (PARLIAMENT) BUILDING, THE STUDENTS CHARGED THROUGH THE STREETS TOWARD SHIMBASHI STATION, A MAJOR SUBWAY AND COMMUTER TRAIN STATION.

ALTHOUGH THERE WAS APPARENTLY NO INTERNATIONAL CONNECTION, THE DEMONSTRATION OCCURRED AS PRESIDENT JOHNSON STARTED AN OFFICIAL VISIT IN AUSTRALIA. JOHNSON IS EN ROUTE TO MANILA TO ATTEND A CONFERENCE WITH LEADERS OF SIX OTHER NATIONS TO TRY AND FIND A PEACEFUL SOLUTION TO THE VIETNAMESE WAR.

THE ANTI-VIET NAM WAR STRIKE WAS PLANNED BY JAPAN'S LARGEST TRADE UNION, SOHYO, BEFORE PRESIDENT JOHNSON ANNOUNCED HIS PLANS TO ATTEND THE MANILA CONFERENCE AND TOUR ASIAN COUNTRIES. THE STRIKE IS EXPECTED TO BE THE LARGEST SINCE ANOTHER SOHYO STRIKE FORCED THEN PRESIDENT EISENHOWER TO CANCEL A VISIT TO JAPAN.

THE STUDENTS STONED THE HIBIYA AND MARUNOUCHI POLICE STATIONS EN ROUTE TO THE RAILWAY STATION. LAW REQUIRES THAT DEMONSTRATORS RECEIVE PERMISSION FROM THE METROPOLITAN POLICE BOARD BEFORE HOLDING THEIR DEMONSTRATIONS. THE STUDENTS DID NOT GIVE ANY WARNING OR OBTAIN SUCH PERMISSION FOR TONIGHT'S IMPROMPTU RIOTS.

"THERE ARE NO INDICATIONS WHATSOEVER TO SUBSTANTIATE THAT REPORT," SAID BRIG. GEN. SEGUNDO VELASCO, IN CHARGE OF SECURITY ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE SEVEN-NATION MEETING. BUT HE ORDERED HIS MEN TO DOUBLE CHECK, JUST IN CASE.

THE MANILA DAILY BULLETIN SAID LOCAL COMMUNISTS DREAMED UP A PLOT TO TRY TO KILL JOHNSON AND KY, USING MEMBERS OF THE OUTLAWED HUKBALAHAP MOVEMENT.

LBJ Gets City's Biggest Ever Crowds

Cheers, Jeers Rock Sydney

CANBERRA, Australia, Oct. 22 (UPI) — President Johnson got the biggest reception in Australia's history today but the "fair dinkum" welcome in Sydney was blemished by an ugly melee when anti-Viet Nam agitators fought police and sought to throw themselves in front of the President's car.

Over one million Aussies packed the Sydney streets and jammed its famed harbor with boats of every size and shape to greet LBJ and Ladybird. The President, to the distress of security guards, was out again in the crowds shaking hands.

Mr. Johnson flew back to Canberra in the afternoon and dined on Texas size steak at a barbecue at the picture-book "Lanyon" sheep and cattle station.

He flies to Northern Australia tomorrow and thence to the seven-nation conference in Manila.

RIOT

In Sydney, a near riot erupted outside the art gallery as the President's car arrived. Demonstrators, both young men and women, broke thru barriers and fell to the roadway in front of the motorcade.

They were hauled away.

Police and U. S. Secret Service agents were kicked as they tried to force the demonstrators back. Rolls of toilet paper and balloons painted black to simulate bombs were thrown at the President's limousine.

Mounted police charged the crowd.

There was hand-to-hand fighting between demonstrators and police. Thirty-seven persons, including 11 women, were taken into custody.

Mr. Johnson appeared distressed as he entered the gallery for his formal welcome and inside the jeers and catcalls could still be heard. The demonstrators screamed in an attempt to drown out Mr. Johnson's voice on the loudspeakers to the crowd of 3000.

In America, during the past few years, I have heard Australia described as a very 'American' place," Mr. Johnson said. "I can only assume that America is described here as a very 'Australian' place.

BANNERS

Outside the "peace" demonstrators carried dozens of banners and placards including "Go Home Yank," "Go Home You Cowboy" and "LBJ for God." Other signs read: "LBJ the Man of Today" and "President Johnson Keep Up Your Good Work."

It was another dismaying incident for the hospitable Australians following

Melbourne's paint-throwing yesterday.

The Sydney turnout far exceeded in size and dazzle the receptions given to Queen Elizabeth on her two tours.

When Mr. Johnson's Air Force One plane, an orange kangaroo now painted on its nose, was welcomed at the airport the Premier of New South Wales, Ribon Askim, told him that Sydney would provide everything including demonstrators "Because, Mr. President, we don't want you to get homesick."

The President's personal bodyguard, Rufus Youngblood, who was drenched with red paint in the Melbourne demonstration, stayed at Mr. Johnson's side through the day.

CANBERRA--PRESIDENT JOHNSON AND AUSTRALIAN PRIME MINISTER HAROLD HOLT SAID TODAY THE MILITARY SITUATION IN VIET NAM IS IMPROVING. BUT THEY SAID IT WAS NECESSARY TO MAINTAIN THE PRESENT MILITARY EFFORT "FIRMLY" UNTIL A SATISFACTORY SETTLEMENT CAN BE REACHED WITH NORTH VIET NAM.

JOHNSON AND HOLT MET ALONE FOR 45 MINUTES THEN CONFERRED FOR ABOUT AN HOUR WITH SENIOR MEMBERS OF THE AUSTRALIAN CABINET.

"THE DISCUSSION CONCENTRATED ON THE PROBLEMS OF ASIA AND PARTICULARLY THE PROBLEMS OF VIET NAM," THE JOINT STATEMENT SAID. "IT WAS AGREED THAT THE MILITARY POSITION IN VIET NAM WAS NOW DEMONSTRABLY SUCH THAT NORTH VIET NAM COULD ACHIEVE NO MILITARY VICTORY.

"IT WAS, HOWEVER, CLEARLY RECOGNIZED THAT IT WOULD BE NECESSARY FIRMLY TO MAINTAIN THE PRESENT MILITARY EFFORT UNTIL A SATISFACTORY SETTLEMENT COULD BE NEGOTIATED. THE FIGHTING COULD END ONLY WHEN IT WAS CLEAR THAT THE GREAT ISSUES AT STAKE HAD BEEN SECURED.

THE STATEMENT SAID JOHNSON AND HOLT NOTED THE "IMPROVED MILITARY OUTLOOK" IN VIET NAM AND THEN DISCUSSED PROSPECTS FOR A PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT AND THE SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT OF THE COUNTRY.

IT SAID THIS PHASE OF THE TALK WAS IN PREPARATION FOR THE MANILA MEETING.

JOHNSON AND HOLT AGREED THAT THE MANILA CONFERENCE WOULD INCLUDE "A REVIEW OF THE CONTINUING MILITARY SITUATION AND PROSPECTS, BUT WOULD CONCENTRATE MOST OF ITS ATTENTION TO CONSIDERING HOW CONDITIONS COULD BEST BE ESTABLISHED AND SECURED FOR THE FUTURE PEACEFUL DEVELOPMENT OF VIET NAM AND OF ASIA GENERALLY."

"THE LONGER TERM PROSPECTS FOR THE FUTURE OF ASIA WERE ALSO CONSIDERED," THE STATEMENT SAID.

"THERE WAS ON BOTH SIDES AN EXPRESSION OF CONTINUING CONCERN FOR THE WELL-BEING OF THE NATIONS AND PEOPLES OF ASIA, AND AN EMPHASIS ON THE URGENCY OF BRINGING ABOUT CONDITIONS FAVORABLE TO RAID ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL ADVANCEMENT."

THE TWO LEADERS SAID THIS ADVANCEMENT DEPENDED IN GREAT MEASURE ON EFFORTS TO END HOSTILITIES.

THE STATEMENT PRAISED RECENT EFFORTS OF ASIAN NATIONS TO INCREASE MUTUAL SELF-HELP AND COOPERATION IN BOTH THE ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL FIELDS.

"IT WAS AGREED THAT THESE EFFORTS BY THE NATIONS OF THE REGION TO TAKE A LARGER HAND IN SHAPING THEIR OWN DESTINY BY COOPERATION REPRESENTED A MOST HOPEFUL AND PRACTICAL DEVELOPMENT WHICH WOULD CONTINUE TO COMMAND THE SUPPORT OF OUR TWO GOVERNMENTS," THE STATEMENT SAID.

(ASIAN CONFERENCE)

MANILA--PRESIDENT JOHNSON TOLD HIS ASIAN COLLEAGUES AT THE MANILA SUMMIT CONFERENCE TODAY HE HOPED THEIR DELIBERATIONS WOULD PROVIDE "NEW FUEL FOR THE CAUSE OF PEACE IN SOUTHEAST ASIA."

THE PRESIDENT SPOKE AT THE END OF THE FIRST DAY'S MEETINGS AFTER A TOUGH MILITARY BRIEFING FROM GEN. WILLIAM C. WESTMORELAND, U.S. COMMANDER IN SAIGON, WHO REPORTEDLY ASKED FOR MORE TROOPS IN VIET NAM.

THE LEADERS OF THE SEVEN NATIONS FIGHTING THE COMMUNISTS THERE MET IN FIVE HOURS OF CLOSED SESSIONS AFTER A FORMAL OPENING CEREMONY IN WHICH PHILIPPINE PRESIDENT FERDINAND MARCOS CALLED ON NORTH VIET NAM TO ACCEPT THE HAND OF CONCILIATION.

JOHNSON, AFTER LISTENING TO ALL THE OTHER LEADERS, SAID HE REGRETTED THAT NORTH VIET NAM WAS NOT PRESENT. HE SAID THE HANOI GOVERNMENT THUS FAR HAD BEEN UNWILLING TO "APPEAR AT ANY TABLE OR EVEN TO TALK QUIETLY OR INDIVIDUALLY ABOUT THE PEACE THAT COULD COME IF IT CHANGED ITS MIND."

JOHNSON, WHOSE REMARKS WERE SUMMARIZED IN A BRIEFING BY PRESS SECRETARY MOYERS, TRIED TO STRIKE A DELICATE BALANCE BETWEEN TALK OF PEACE AND LETTING HANOI AND PEKING KNOW THAT THE ALLIED FRONT WOULD BE MORE SOLID THAN EVER AS A RESULT OF THE MANILA MEETING.

"LET THE BULLIES OF THE WORLD KNOW THAT WHEN THEY DO ATTACK THEIR NEIGHBORS, THE FRIENDS OF THE NEIGHBORS WILL BE THERE TO HELP," HE SAID.

JOHNSON, TRYING HIS BEST TO AVOID ANY SUGGESTION OF DOMINATING THE CONFERENCE, SAID HE CAME TO MANILA AS "AN EQUAL AMONG EQUALS TO SHARE WITH FRIENDS AND ALLIES OUR PROBLEMS, OUR PLANS AND OUR HOPES."

THE MOST IMPORTANT RESULT THAT COULD COME FROM THE CONFERENCE, HE SAID, WOULD BE TO LET THE WORLD KNOW THAT "THE NATIONS DIRECTLY ASSISTING SOUTH VIET NAM ARE RESOLUTE."

IN THE FORMAL OPENING CEREMONY, MARCOS SOUNDED THE KEYNOTE THEME:

"WE MUST ESTABLISH PEACE IN ASIA."

WESTMORELAND, AMERICA'S MILITARY COMMANDER, WARNED THAT "THE WAR IS FAR FROM OVER" AND THAT HE EXPECTED A NEW RED OFFENSIVE OF CONSIDERABLE SIZE BEFORE THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS IN THE U.S.

IN ANSWER TO A QUESTION, WESTMORELAND WAS SAID TO HAVE RECOMMENDED THAT MORE TROOPS, BOTH FROM THE ALLIED NATIONS AND THE U.S., BE SENT INTO THE WAR-STRICKEN COUNTRY.

THERE ARE NOW ABOUT 370,000 THERE, 325,000 AMERICAN.

PREMIER NGUYEN CAO KY OF SOUTH VIET NAM, WHO ALSO SPOKE AT THE CLOSED SESSION, SAID HIS GOVERNMENT WANTED PEACE TO COME AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE BUT HE WARNED: "IT CANNOT BE PEACE AT ANY PRICE."

IT WAS RELIABLY REPORTED THAT THE ADVANCE U.S. DELEGATION LED BY SECRETARY RUSK HAD MADE IT CLEAR THAT IT OPPOSES A HALT TO BOMBARDING NORTH VIET NAM UNLESS THERE ARE CONCRETE INDICATIONS A CEASE-FIRE WOULD LEAD TO A SETTLEMENT OF THE WAR.

PRESIDENT MARCOS SPOKE ON BEHALF OF THE PARTICIPATING NATIONS AT THE FIRST AND ONLY PUBLIC SESSION. SAID MARCOS:

"WAR MUST BE ELIMINATED. WE MUST ESTABLISH PEACE IN ASIA.

"WE EXTEND A HAND OF CONCILIATION ACROSS THE CHINA SEA FROM THIS COASTAL CITY TO NORTH VIET NAM. BUT HE (NORTH VIET NAM) SHOULD RESPOND NOT WITH THE USUAL SPATE OF SLANDER BUT WITH SOME MANIFESTATION OF GOOD WILL."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON LISTENED INTENTLY AND OFTEN LED THE APPLAUSE.

SEATED WITH JOHNSON ON THE PLATFORM WERE THE HEADS OF SOUTH VIET NAM, THAILAND, SOUTH KOREA, AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND.

LT. GEN. NGUYEN VAN THIEU, CHIEF OF STATE OF SOUTH VIET NAM, WAS THE ONLY OTHER SPEAKER IN THE OPENING CEREMONY WHICH WAS ATTENDED BY LADYBIRD JOHNSON AND THE WIVES OF OTHER LEADERS.

"WE ARE READY TO EXAMINE ANY AVENUE THAT COULD LEAD TO PEACE IN VIET NAM," HE SAID. "OUR PURPOSE IS CLEAR, OUR MOTIVE IS SIMPLE. WE WANT TO COUNTER THE THREAT TO PEACE IN VIET NAM IN AN ATMOSPHERE CONDUCTIVE TO PEACE."

AFTER THE OPENING SESSION, THE DELEGATES MOVED TO MALACANANG PALACE FOR THE MAJOR CLOSED BUSINESS SESSIONS OF THE CONFERENCE.

IT WAS THERE THAT KY MADE HIS REMARKS, OUTLINING SOUTH VIET NAM'S POSITION. KY'S STATEMENT WAS RELEASED BY THE VIETNAMESE EMBASSY IN MANILA.

"THE PICTURE IS INDEED ENCOURAGING IN SPITE OF THE INCREASING AND CONSTANT ATTEMPTS BY THE NORTH VIETNAMESE TO INFILTRATE MORE MEN AND ARMS INTO SOUTH VIET NAM," HE SAID. "THE COMMUNISTS HAVE SO FAR BEEN SUCCESSFULLY CHECKED ON EVERY BATTLEFIELD."

KY SAID SOUTH VIET NAM WANTS PEACE TO COME AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE.

"WE DEMAND PEACE, FOR WE HAVE SUFFERED TOO LONG FROM THE CALAMITIES OF WAR," HE SAID. "BUT IT CANNOT BE PEACE AT ANY PRICE."

KY SAID THE ULTIMATE GOAL SHOULD BE A UNIFIED VIET NAM.

"OUT OF ALL THE VARIED ELEMENTS THAT MAKE UP PRESENT DAY VIET NAM WE MUST BUILD ONE NATION, WITH ONE PURPOSE," HE SAID. "FOR ONLY WHEN WE ACHIEVE THIS CAN WE HAVE PERMANENT PEACE AND A PERMANENT FUTURE FOR ALL THE VIETNAMESE."

AMERICAN SOURCES SAID FOUR DEFINITE IMPRESSIONS EMERGED FROM THE OPENING TALKS:

--THE CONSENSUS OF THE SEVEN ALLIES THAT ALL INTEND TO SEE THE STRUGGLE THROUGH BECAUSE THERE IS NO ALTERNATIVE.

--MILITARY AND ECONOMIC EFFORT MUST BE COORDINATED SO AS TO MAKE A START ON POST-WAR REHABILITATION WHILE STILL FIGHTING.

--RECOGNITION THAT RECONCILIATION IN SOUTHEAST ASIA IS A TWO DIMENSIONAL MATTER, THAT THERE MUST BE HEALING OF WOUNDS AMONG FACTIONS IN SOUTH VIET NAM AS WELL AS AN UNDERSTANDING WITH THE COMMUNISTS.

--RECOGNITION THAT ALL OF THE NON-COMMUNIST ASIANS ARE NOT HERE AND THAT THEY MUST BE WORKED WITH IN BROADER REGIONAL ARRANGEMENTS.

KY WAS SAID TO HAVE MADE IT CLEAR PRIVATELY THAT HE DOES NOT OBJECT TO THE U.S. IDEA THAT THE VIET CONG AT SOME POINT MIGHT "HAVE A VOICE" IN PEACE TALKS THROUGH REPRESENTATION ON THE NORTH VIETNAMESE DELEGATION.

The Washington-Go-Round

Manila Result Encourages President

By Drew Pearson

At the Cabinet meeting just before President Johnson departed for Asia he was grouchy and discouraged. He had been working long hours in preparation for his trip and he was convinced it would not be successful.

His discouragement showed up in the way he asked questions of the Cabinet. They are accustomed to being driven hard, "chewed up" as one of them expressed it.

On this occasion the President seemed so down that four Cabinet members tried to counter his pessimism. Secretary of State Rusk gave an encouraging pep talk about the trip. Secretary of the Treasury Henry Fowler added some optimism on the economic picture. Vice President Humphrey chimed in.

And Secretary of Defense Bob McNamara, who carries the control of $60 billion in atomic bombs in his pocket but also carries about the strongest olive branch in the Cabinet, gave some energetic views on the prospects of peace.

They all knew that, despite the criticism of outsiders, Lyndon Johnson has been the most fervid advocate of peace and around his Administration. He worries about the men he sends into battle. He prays for the day when that obligation will end.

And he is also the most persistent, hard-driving salesman for peace. The difficulty, however, is that he is not selling politicians or people, but governments, and the selling has to be done long-range, not face-to-face.

LBJ's Sales Efforts

The President did some effective selling with Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko three weeks ago, and while Gromyko was noncommittal, the sales talk for getting some results as the conference ended, the President put his arm around the Soviet Foreign Minister's shoulder — something which isn't done in the formal charades of European diplomacy — and patted him affectionately as if their countries never had exchanged a harsh word or experienced a single difference.

The biggest thing the President gave Gromyko was an absolute assurance that there would be no sharing of atom weapons with West Germany. He guaranteed there would be no multi-nuclear force. This was a big concession, because Chancellor Erhard had been in Washington only a few days before asking for at least some German participation in nuclear weapons.

Since then some noises have come out of the Kremlin indicating that Mr. Johnson's sales effort was not in vain.

The recent meeting of the Soviet's East European allies, together with Mongolia and Cuba, is reported to have decided on overtures to North Vietnam to soften its peace terms on two points: 1—agree to South Vietnam as a participant at the conference table; 2—agree to stop sending troops into South Vietnam.

To meet these conditions, the President also had to do some tough selling in Manila, chiefly with Premier Ky, the tough little pilot who once fought in the French army against the Vietnamese, and who, coming from North Vietnam, has been resisting any idea of sitting down at a peace table with the North Vietnamese, let alone the Vietnamese.

Selling Premier Ky

Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge had done some advance arm-twisting with Premier Ky before they left Saigon. But President Johnson did the final selling to get Ky to agree that the Vietcong, if they laid down their arms, could run for election, hold public office, and participate in the government.

This was announced at Manila. Previously it had been announced that South Vietnam would permit the National Liberation Front (the Vietcong) to participate in the peace talks.

Selling these concessions to

Premier Ky was not easy, as shown by the fact that five minutes after he got off his plane back home he shot off a hot statement at a news conference that he would never negotiate with Communists or permit them in the Cabinet.

"No, never," he exploded.

Ky held the news conference only by accident—milder President Nguyen Van Thieu was supposed to hold it; so Premier Ky's explosion isn't too important. He can be resold. In the end, the United States will write the peace.

Regardless of Ky's outburst, the Manila Conference was much more successful than President Johnson ever expected.

Unfortunately, whether he gets a peace for Southeast Asia will depend largely on the Red Chinese. The Russians have some influence, but not as much as the Chinese. The latter are too close. The Vietnamese must live under their shadow. The Russians are too far away.

Meanwhile the most important development to come out of recent diplomatic events is a tacit agreement between the USA and the USSR to pull together for peace.

The Russians don't want any fanfare about it. They get too much ribbing from the Chinese that they are "stooges of the imperialistic Americans."

So they have suggested that we go slow about publicity. Nevertheless, the tacit understanding is there.

SAIGON--PRESIDENT JOHNSON FLEW UNDER A WARTIME COVER OF SECRECY INTO VIET NAM TODAY AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE U.S. ARMED FORCES.

PRIME MINISTER NGUYEN CAO KY OF SOUTH VIET NAM WELCOMED THE PRESIDENT TO THE HUGE AMERICAN BASE AT CAM RANH BAY, ON THE COAST 190 MILES NORTHEAST OF SAIGON.

JOHNSON FLEW FROM MANILA UNDER ONE OF THE GREATEST SECURITY CLOAKS OF HISTORY. HIS MOVEMENTS WERE SHROUDED IN SECRECY FROM MID-DAY WEDNESDAY WHEN HE SIMPLY DROPPED FROM SIGHT IN THE PHILIPPINES AFTER A VISIT TO CORREGIDOR.

IT WAS A 90-MINUTE VISIT. THE PRESIDENT FLEW BACK TO MANILA WEDNESDAY EVENING TO RESUME HIS 25,000-MILE FAR EAST TOUR CAPPING THE ASIAN SUMMIT CONFERENCE.

AS JOHNSON FLEW INTO THE FOREIGN LAND WHERE 325,000 AMERICAN MEN ARE FIGHTING, U.S. OFFICIALS WOULD NOT EVEN CONFIRM HE HAD LEFT THE PHILIPPINES. THE OFFICIAL U.S. ANNOUNCEMENT AWAITED HIS RETURN TO MANILA.

IT WAS THE FIRST TIME AN AMERICAN PRESIDENT HAD VISITED A WAR ZONE WHILE IN OFFICE SINCE FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT WENT TO CASABLANCA IN 1943.

PRESIDENT-ELECT EISENHOWER FLEW TO KOREA IN 1952 AFTER HIS ELECTION BUT BEFORE HE TOOK OFFICE. HIS TRIP WAS LIKE JOHNSON'S IN THAT BOTH WERE IN AND OUT BEFORE MOST OF THE WORLD KNEW ABOUT IT.

PREMIER KY AND GEN. NGUYEN VAN THIEU, THE SOUTH VIETNAMESE CHIEF OF STATE, FLEW FROM MANILA TO CAM RANH BAY AHEAD OF THE PRESIDENT AND WERE THERE TO GREET HIM.

TOP AMERICAN MILITARY OFFICERS ALSO WERE ON HAND.

CAM RANH BAY IS ONE OF THE MOST SECURE AREAS OF VIET NAM. IT IS THE PRINCIPAL SUPPLY PORT FOR AMERICAN FORCES AND ITS WAREHOUSE AND DOCK FACILITIES ARE LOCATED ON A SAND SPIT JUTTING OUT INTO THE SOUTH CHINA SEA THAT CAN BE SEALED OFF FROM THE MAINLAND PROPER.

ITS 10,000-FOOT RUNWAY IS ONE OF ONLY FOUR IN SOUTH VIET NAM LONG ENOUGH TO ACCOMMODATE JOHNSON'S AIR FORCE ONE JET.

KY, ON HIS RETURN TO SAIGON, WAS ASKED THE PURPOSE OF JOHNSON'S TRIP.

"ALL HE DID WAS VISIT THE TROOPS IN CAM RANH," KY SAID.

KY HELD A NEWS CONFERENCE ON HIS ARRIVAL IN SAIGON.

HE SAID THAT DURING THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT HE CHATTED WITH THE OFFICERS AND MEN STATIONED AT THE HUGE BASE.

"MR. JOHNSON THIS AFTERNOON VISITED CAM RANH FOR ONE AND ONE-HALF HOURS," KY SAID. "THEN HE FLEW BACK TO MANILA."

53 NOV 3 1966

WASHINGTON CAPITAL NEWS SERVICE

...KY' SAID HE DID NOT DISCUSS THE VIET NAM SITUATION WITH THE PRESIDENT DURING THE VISIT.

"I ALREADY TALKED ABOUT EVERYTHING WITH THE PRESIDENT IN MANILA," HE SAID.

A CLOAK OF SILENCE FELL ON JOHNSON'S ACTIVITIES AT MID-DAY WHEN HE TOOK OFF FOR CORREGIDOR.

A MILITARY SPOKESMAN AT CORREGIDOR SAID ONLY THAT THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY HAD "COME AND GONE." AFTER THAT, SILENCE.

IN BRIEF REMARKS PREPARED FOR DELIVERY AT CORREGIDOR, JOHNSON SAID:

"OUR IMMEDIATE CONCERN IS THE WAR IN VIET NAM WHERE WE (THE ALLIES) HAVE ALL AGREED THAT A TERRORIST COMMUNIST INSURGENCY SPONSORED AND BUTTRESSED BY THE HANOI GOVERNMENT SHALL NOT DESTROY THE INDEPENDENCE OF VIET NAM."

Liu Orders Vietnik Arrest Probe

Police Chief Dan Liu yesterday assigned a top department official to compile a detailed report on the arrest of three anti-war demonstrators Monday.

Liu said he had named Inspector George O'Connor to make the investigation and furnish a report requested by Allen C. Wilcox Jr., chairman of the Honolulu Police Commission.

Liu said he did not know if a Secret Service agent whom Managing Director Robert F. Ellis said Wednesday was involved in the arrests would be available at the trial of the trio which is scheduled Tuesday.

Charged with disorderly conduct and free on $25 bonds are Dr. Willis P. Butler and University of Hawaii students Robert P. Hoen and George P. Sarant. Police said they were arrested after they refused to move hanging effigies of President Johnson and another marked "Pentagon" shortly before Johnson arrived at the Center.

Butler contended undue force was used in making the arrest and that charge brought a request from Councilman Frank F. Fasi for a report to City Council. Ellis wrote the Council that the police had acted properly and said he would ask the Police Commission to obtain a detailed report.

Liu said the Commission discussed the incident briefly during a regular meeting Wednesday and indicated approval of the conduct of the arresting officers. Wilcox asked that the report be compiled for the Commission as requested by Ellis. "I hope the report will be completed by next Friday," he said. "It will be sent to Chairman Wilcox, who will circulate copies to members of the Commission for their consideration. It is possible they could comment on it at the regular Commission meeting Nov. 2 if they wish to do so."

Liu said he assumed that any Secret Service agent involved in the arrests had gone with the Presidential party on Johnson's Far East mission.

"My knowledge of the case so far indicates the Secret Service impressed on our police that if any incidents arose they should take appropriate actions," Liu said.

Liu indicated he did not know if the agent asked the police specifically to arrest Butler, Hoen and Sarant.

In writing to the City Council Wednesday, Ellis used this statement:

"It was with the complete concurrence and in response to a stated request of a U.S. Secret Service agent that the action was initiated."

Report finds no evidence of 'manhandling'

Acting Mayor Robert F. Ellis said yesterday he "can find no evidence of manhandling" in the arrest of three anti-war demonstrators at the East-West Center on Monday. He said the arrests were made at the request of a Secret Service agent.

The Acting Mayor called a press conference with Chief of Police Dan Liu at the Mayor's office Tuesday afternoon. Neither he nor Chief Liu would divulge further details of the events leading up to the arrest.

Ellis began by reading a letter he had written to Mrs. Eileen K. Lota, city clerk.

The letter answered her letter of the same date advising him that the City Council has requested the chief of police to submit a report on the alleged man-handling of three men arrested shortly before President Johnson spoke at the East-West Center.

"I reviewed the incident in great detail with the chief of police immediately following the President's departure," Ellis wrote. "I can find no evidence of manhandling."

"I agree with the chief of police that there was evidence of increased tension and potential trouble immediately prior to the arrest" of the three men.

"With the security of the President of the United States being a paramount concern in the minds of our police, the policemen acted positively and properly to remove this source of potential danger.

"It was with the complete concurrence and in response to a stated request of a U.S. Secret Service agent that the action was initiated."

Commends police

"I commend our police for their alertness to the problem and for their quick and positive action in the matter."

"Since Mrs. Chase made the report that 'they were, as I saw it, shoved to the ground by the police,' and since Mr. Fasi has interpreted the action to be 'manhandling,' I have asked the Police Commission to review this matter with the chief of police," the Acting Mayor wrote. (His reference was to Judy Chase, Star-Bulletin reporter who witnessed the arrest.)

"I have asked them particularly to report to me as soon as possible so that their conclusions will be available" to the City Council and to Mayor Blaisdell, his letter concluded.

Chief Liu was asked what the three men had done to incur arrest. He said the case is coming up in court next week and he did not care to discuss it at this time.

Asked if carrying an effigy was in itself an act of disorderly conduct, the chief replied, "No, I don't think this was the basis for the arrest."

Queries

The chief and Acting Mayor were asked whether they had been told by the White House, the Secret Service or "any other local agency" that President Johnson would prefer not to see signs of opposition to his Viet Nam policy at any public functions.

Several questions along this line were asked. "Any other local agency" could also mean the F.B.I., C.I.A. or U.S. Information Agency.

"There has been none," the chief said. Ellis chipped in with a "No."

The chief was asked whether officers assigned to the East-West Center had been given special instructions about dealing with "potential demonstrators."

"These are experienced men," the chief replied. "They relied upon their own observation and their own experience. They are instructed to preserve the peace at all times and prevent any untoward incidents."

Noted rumbling

He said the police on the scene at the University

"were able to note rumbling" and "the tenor of groups in the immediate vicinity. I would give them credit to be able to sense an impending breach of the peace."

"As you know, the men on the front line are the better judges," Liu said in answer to a comment that Washington and White House police rarely find it necessary to arrest peace demonstrators.

"Not being on the front line, I heavily rely upon these experienced men and I thought that, after studying their reports and the accounts that they gave me, that their actions were fully justified."

At the request of Councilman Frank Fasi, the City Council has asked the Police Department for a report on the alleged manhandling of three anti-war demonstrators Monday at the East-West Center.

Dr. Willis Butler, 47, co-chairman of the Hawaii Committee to End the War in Viet Nam, and two University of Hawaii students, George P. Sarant, 20, and Robert P. Hoen, 23, were charged with disorderly conduct.

They posted $25 bail each and intend to plead innocent at their trials.

Fasi cited Star-Bulletin reporter Judy Chase's account of the arrest of three men carrying a sign protesting President Johnson's policies in Viet Nam an hour before the President was to speak.

Mrs. Chase wrote that the three men "were, as I saw it, shoved to the ground by police when they refused to remove their sign."

"I don't agree with these men or their position," Fasi said, "but I know all of us would like to see our citizens protected in their legal rights to demonstrate any place on this island."

Acting Council Chairman Matsuo Takabuki moved to refer the matter to the Finance Committee, which handles police matters. Fasi is a member of the committee.

But Finance Chairman Cession Chikasuye objected.

"It was my understanding that this was done to prevent a riot of other members of the crowd," he said. "I think it was justified."

Councilman George Koga asked, "What kind of a precedent is being set. There are many other cases of rioting which do not get the notoriety of this one."

He said he did not think a council inquiry would be "delving too much into the administration."

Councilman Ben F. Kaito said he thought there could be grounds for a disorderly-conduct charge against the three men "and brutality on the other side" as well.

As far as the merits of the case are concerned, who is right and who is wrong, and whether undue force was used, he said, the court is in the best position to determine that.

But the council has asked the police for similar reports of the facts and at least we can request it again, he added.

Chikasuye opposed the idea of giving free publicity to the three Viet Nam protesters.

"By giving them publicity, we give them what they want," he said. "The have been charged before the court. I certainly don't want it to be considered by my committee."

Councilman Eugene Kennedy, a former policeman, said, "I feel we have an excellent police chief and police commission. This is their job."

The incident needs investigation, he said, they can make the investigation and the council can ask for the report.

Fasi asked that the Police Department report to the council what the actions of their men were.

"I think we should show the police we are concerned about any allegations" of brutality or misconduct "whether they go to court or not. We are entitled to hear the police side. The paper's version makes it appear that brutality did take place."

Chikasuye suggested that Fasi ask the police for the information as a councilman.

"Why make it a council matter?" he asked.

"In the past," Fasi replied, "it has been difficult for a councilman to get information from the administration. This should go through the council."

Councilman Kekoa D. Kaapu said, "I think the chief and the commission can present the facts as they know them. I know that in other parts of the Mainland, very often people who support unpopular causes are arrested rather than the crowds who attack them."

Takabuki suggested "Can we ask the police chief to submit his report to the Finance Committee" if there is no objection?

Chikasuye agreed, "provided it doesn't jeopardize the State's case."

(JOHNSON)

WELLINGTON--PRESIDENT JOHNSON SET HIS SIGHTS ON THE UPCOMING PACIFIC-ASIAN SUMMIT CONFERENCE TOMORROW WITH A CHALLENGE TO NORTH VIET NAM TO JOIN IN "A DIFFERENT KIND OF WAR"--A FIGHT FOR HUMAN DIGNITY, HEALTH, AND ENLIGHTENMENT.

HE PLEDGED THAT THE U.S. WOULD ENLIST FOR THE DURATION IN ANY COOPERATIVE BATTLE OF THE HANOI REGIME AND "YOUR BROTHERS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA" AGAINST POVERTY, DISEASE, AND IGNORANCE.

"WHAT CAN BE GAINED BY CONTINUING A WAR YOU CANNOT WIN?" HE ASKED.

IN THE FIRST MAJOR ADDRESS OF HIS SIX-NATION TOUR, THE PRESIDENT HAMMERED HARD AT THE PEACE THEME AND SOFT-PEDALED THE WAR EFFORT.

JOHNSON SPOKE AT A PARLIAMENTARY LUNCHEON THAT WAS THE HIGHLIGHT OF HIS 24-HOUR VISIT TO NEW ZEALAND. HE GOES ON THURSDAY NIGHT TO AUSTRALIA, THE NEXT STEP ON HIS 25,000-MILE VISIT TO ALLIES IN THE VIET NAM STRUGGLE.

THERE WERE NO THREATS IN THE PRESIDENTIAL ADDRESS--ONLY AN APPEAL TO WORK WITH OTHERS IN U.S.-SUPPORTED EFFORTS TO RAISE LIVING STANDARDS.

HIS HOST, NEW ZEALAND PRIME MINISTER KEITH J. HOLYOAKE, STRUCK A SIMILAR NOTE. HE CALLED FOR A JUST SOLUTION IN VIET NAM "SO THAT THE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL GROWTH WHICH IS SO NECESSARY TO ASIAN SECURITY CAN BE ACHIEVED."

WHILE THE PRESIDENT WAS WITH THE LEGISLATORS, MRS. JOHNSON WAS HONORED AT A LUNCHEON GIVEN BY MRS. HOLYOAKE.

JOHNSON TURNED ON THE TEXAS CHARM FROM THE MOMENT OF HIS ARRIVAL HERE TODAY TO AN AIRPORT GREETING. HE SYMPATHIZED WITH A GROUP OF MAORIS WHO HAD HUDDLED TOGETHER AGAINST A BITING WIND AND BEATING RAIN WAITING FOR HIS ARRIVAL.

HE PLAYFULLY CHIDED THE PRIME MINISTER FOR FORGETTING THAT JOHNSON ALREADY HAD MET HOLYOAKE'S DEPUTY, JACK MARSHAL, IN WASHINGTON. HE CHATTED ABOUT SHEEP RAISING WITH AGRICULTURE MINISTER B. E. TALBOYS, WHO LATER CRACKED: "HE'S A RANCHER, ALL RIGHT."

THE PRESIDENT MADE NO REFERENCE IN THE ADDRESS, PREPARED FOR DELIVERY AT THE LUNCHEON, TO TODAY'S DEVELOPMENTS IN SAIGON, WHERE A GOVERNMENT CRISIS HAD BEEN THREATENED BY RESIGNATION OF SEVEN MINISTERS OF PREMIER NGUYEN CAO KY'S CABINET.

IN HIS PREPARED ADDRESS, JOHNSON DECLARED:

"WE SAY TO THE LEADERS OF NORTH VIET NAM: A NEW ASIA IS EMERGING. YOUR PEOPLE SHOULD BE PART OF IT--PROUD, INDEPENDENT, PEACEFUL--THE BENEFICIARIES OF A SOCIAL AND SCIENTIFIC REVOLUTION THAT IS REGENERATING THE LIFE OF MAN."

"WHAT CAN BE GAINED BY CONTINUING A WAR YOU CANNOT WIN? WHAT CAN BE LOST BY JOINING WITH YOUR BROTHERS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA IN A DIFFERENT KIND OF WAR--A WAR FOR HUMAN DIGNITY, A WAR FOR HEALTH AND ENLIGHTENMENT, A WAR FOR YOUR CHILDREN AND GENERATIONS OF CHILDREN TO COME. AMERICAN PLEDGES HERSELF TO SERVE IN THAT WAR--FOR ITS DURATION."

MUCH OF THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH FOLLOWED THE THESIS SET FORTH IN HIS JULY 12 ADDRESS APPEALING TO THE ASIANS TO GET TOGETHER FOR THEIR OWN GOOD INSTEAD OF QUARRELING OVER IDEOLOGIES. ASSERTING THAT "THE KEY TO ASIAN PEACE IN COMING GENERATIONS IS IN ASIAN HANDS," JOHNSON ADDED:

"FOR IT IS IN ASIA'S INITIATIVE THAT WILL BE FOUND THE INSTITUTIONS OF PROGRESS. IT IS ASIA'S EXAMPLE THAT WILL INSPIRE ITS PEOPLE TO BUILD ON THE BEDROCK OF SOCIAL JUSTICE. IT IS ASIA'S DREAM THAT WILL DETERMINE THE FUTURE OF THREE OF EVERY FIVE HUMAN BEINGS ON EARTH."

THE PRESIDENT SAID IT WAS TRAGIC THAT THE VIET NAM WAR "MUST BE FOUGHT BEFORE ASIA CAN BE FULLY FREE TO WAGE THE OTHER WAR--AGAINST HUNGER AND DISEASE."

"IT IS TRAGIC," HE CONTINUED, "THAT EVERY FOOT OF GROUND ON WHICH RICE MIGHT BE PLANTED, EVERY VILLAGE IN WHICH A SCHOOL MIGHT BE BUILT, EVERY HILLSIDE ON WHICH A HOSPITAL MIGHT RISE TO HEAL THE PEOPLE OF VIET NAM, MUST BE SECURED AGAINST TERROR."

JOHNSON PAID TRIBUTE TO THE BRAVERY OF NEW ZEALANDERS, CITING THE MANY TIMES THEY HAVE GONE TO THE AID OF OTHERS BATTLING AGAINST INVADERS.

"ON BEHALF OF A PEOPLE WITH WHOM SHOULDER TO SHOULDER THEY FOUGHT, SUFFERED, AND DIED, I SALUTE THEIR TOWERING MEMORY," HE SAID.

NEITHER THE PRESIDENT NOR HIS AIDES OFFERED ANY IMMEDIATE OPINION ON HOW THE TEMPORARILY WATERED-DOWN CRISIS IN VIET NAM MIGHT AFFECT THE MANILA CONFERENCE.

HOLYOAKE SAID IT WAS HIS FERVENT HOPE THAT THE CONFERENCE WOULD OPEN AVENUES TOWARD A LASTING SOLUTION IN VIET NAM.

"BUT THERE MUST BE TWO SIDES TO A PEACE SETTLEMENT AND WE ARE ANXIOUSLY WAITING, AS WE HAVE BEEN FOR A LONG TIME, TO LEARN THAT THE OTHER SIDE IS INTERESTED."

HOLYOAKE DEVOTED MUCH OF HIS SPEECH TO PRAISING THE UNITED STATES FOR ITS ASSISTANCE TO OTHER COUNTRIES. HE RECALLED THAT U.S. CITIZENS HAD CONTRIBUTED MORE THAN $80 BILLION TO ABOUT 120 COUNTRIES SINCE WORLD WAR II.

"THE BURDEN YOUR PEOPLE CARRY IS ALMOST UNBELIEVABLE," HE TOLD JOHNSON. "BUT THEY DO NOT CARRY THAT BURDEN ENTIRELY ALONE. IT IS SHARED BY ALL THOSE COUNTRIES WHICH PLACE THEIR TRUST IN THE FREE DECISIONS OF FREE MEN--COUNTRIES WHICH ARE PREPARED TO RESIST AGGRESSION AND WHICH BY THEIR OWN ACTIONS MAKE A CONTRIBUTION TO PEACE AND PROSPERITY THROUGHOUT THE WORLD."

THIS MORNING THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. JOHNSON VISITED THE NATIONAL WAR MEMORIAL FOR THE CUSTOMARY WREATHLAYING. THE PRESIDENT THEN RECEIVED OPPOSITION LABOR PARTY LEADER N. E. KIRK AT THE EMBASSY. THE LABOR PARTY HAS OPPOSED THE VIET NAM ACTION, AND IT DECLINED IN PARLIAMENT LAST WEEK TO VOTE FOR A RESOLUTION PROPOSED BY HOLYOAKE PLEDGING BIPARTISAN SUPPORT OF HIS EFFORTS AT THE MANILA CONFERENCE.

(ASIAN CONFERENCE)

MANILA--THE COMMUNISTS WILL CONTINUE TO REJECT PEACE PROPOSALS FOR VIET NAM BECAUSE THEY EXPECT THE AMERICAN VOTERS TO REPUDIATE THE JOHNSON ADMINISTRATION'S STAND NEXT MONTH, A HIGHLY AUTHORITATIVE SOURCE SAID TODAY.

THE COMMUNIST POSITION WAS PASSED ON TO THE PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT, PRESUMABLY FROM DIPLOMATIC LISTENING POSTS ABROAD, IN THE MIDST OF PREPARATIONS FOR THE MANILA SUMMIT MEETING OF THE UNITED STATES AND ITS ALLIES IN VIET NAM STARTING MONDAY.

IT WAS INTERPRETED HERE AS A WARNING THAT THE COMMUNISTS WILL SPURN ANY PEACE OVERTURES WHICH MIGHT EMERGE IN THE SEVEN-NATION TALKS.

THE SOURCE SAID THIS INFORMATION WILL NOT DETER THE PARTICIPANTS IN THE MANILA MEETING IN THEIR QUEST FOR A PEACEFUL AND HONORABLE SETTLEMENT OF THE VIET NAM WAR.

A MAJOR ITEM IN THE MANILA AGENDA IS THE FORMULATION OF A PEACE FORMULA WHICH MIGHT EVENTUALLY ATTRACT HANOI TO THE CONFERENCE TABLE. THE SUMMIT PARTICIPANTS ARE EXPECTED TO MAKE A SEARCHING ANALYSIS OF ALL PREVIOUS VIET NAM PEACE PLANS AND THE REASONS WHY THE ALLIES BELIEVE THE MEETING WILL BE USEFUL IN CHARTING THE FUTURE COURSE OF THE HOTTEST ISSUE IN THE WORLD TODAY.

THEY POINTED OUT THAT THIS WILL BE THE FIRST TIME THAT THE VIET NAM ALLIES WILL BE MEETING TOGETHER IN ONE PLACE AND THAT THIS IS A NECESSARY FIRST STEP BEFORE THE ALLIES CONSIDER SITTING ACROSS THE CONFERENCE TABLE WITH THE COMMUNISTS IN ANY PEACE NEGOTIATIONS ON VIET NAM.

INFORMED SOURCES, MEANWHILE, SAID NO VOTES WILL BE TAKEN DURING ANY DEBATE THAT MAY ARISE IN THE TWO-DAY MANILA MEETING. THEY SAID ALL DECISIONS WILL BE ARRIVED AT BY CONSENSUS.

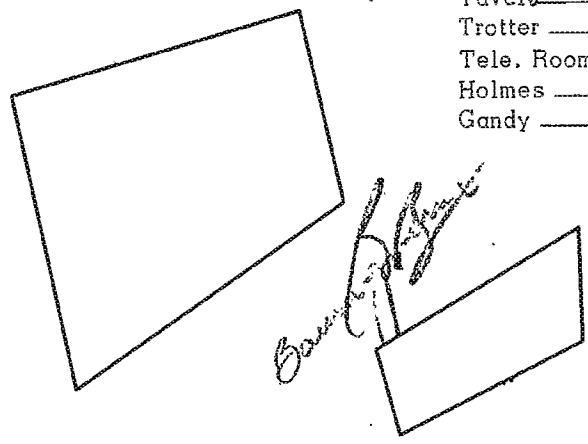

ENGLISH WILL BE THE OFFICIAL LANGUAGE DURING THE DISCUSSIONS AND ANY DELEGATION -- PRESUMABLY THE SOUTH VIETNAMESE -- WISHING TO SPEAK IN FRENCH WILL HAVE TO BRING THEIR OWN INTERPRETERS.

SAIGON--SEVEN SOUTH VIETNAMEE CABINET MINISTERS RESIGNED TODAY, PLUNGING THE GOVERNMENT INTO A CRISIS THAT COULD JEOPARDIZE THE MANILA SUMMIT CONFERENCE. TWO MINISTERS LATER CHANGED THEIR MIND BUT NEW CRACKS DEVELOPED IN THE GOVERNMENT.

THERE WERE REPORTS FOUR MORE CABINET MINISTERS WERE CONSIDERING RESIGNING DESPITE PLEAS BY PREMIER NGUYEN CAO KY WHOSE PRESTIGE WOULD BE SEVERELY DAMAGED SHOULD HE GO TO MANILA WITHOUT A UNIFIED GOVERNMENT BEHIND HIM.

INFORMED SOURCES SAID BETWEEN 20 AND 25 DEPUTIES IN THE NEWLY ELECTED 117-MEMBER CONSTITUENT ASSEMBLY ALSO WERE THREATENING TO RESIGN IN A CRISIS BROUGHT ON BY RESENTMENT BY SOUTHERNERS IN THE GOVERNMENT OVER THE POWER AND PRESTIGE OF NORTHERNERS -- INCLUDING KY.

KY CALLED AN EMERGENCY CABINET MEETING AT HIS OFFICE AND SOURCES SAID BY THE END OF THE MEETING TWO OF THE SEVEN HAD WITHDRAWN THEIR RESIGNATIONS AND THAT KY HAD ACCEPTED THE OTHER FIVE.

THE TWO MINISTERS REPORTED TO HAVE WITHDRAWN THEIR RESIGNATIONS WERE NGUYEN HUU BIEN, MINISTER OF LABOR, AND TRUONG VAN THUAN, SECRETARY OF STATE FOR TRANSPORT AND LOGICS.

DESPITE THE CRISIS, INFORMED SOURCES IN MANILA EXPRESSED BELIEF THE ASIAN SUMMIT CONFERENCE WOULD PROCEED AS SCHEDULED ALTHOUGH ONE OF THE MINISTERS WHO LEFT THE CABINET WAS KY'S NO. 1 ECONOMIC ADVISER. OTHER NATIONS ATTENDING THE MEETING EXPRESSED REGRET AT THE VIETNAMESE POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS.

WASHINGTON--OFFICIALS SAID THE SOUTH VIETNAMESE CABINET CRISIS MIGHT NOT BE NEARLY AS SERIOUS AS IT SEEMED ON THE SURFACE.

WORD REACHING WASHINGTON INDICATED THAT MOST OF THE CABINET RESIGNATIONS WERE NOT EXPECTED TO BE CARRIED OUT, IT WAS REPORTED.

IF REPORTS TO THIS EFFECT WERE TRUE, IT COULD MEAN THE POLITICAL CRISIS WAS LOSING ITS STEAM AND ON ITS WAY TO SETTLEMENT.

OFFICIALS SAID THAT AT THE PRESENT TIME THERE WAS NO REASON FOR ANY MAJOR CHANGE OF PLANS REGARDING THE MANILA CONFERENCE.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Peace Is Stake in President's Trip

By Drew Pearson

It has been a long time since Woodrow Wilson disregarded the advice of George Washington about entangling alliances and went to Paris to negotiate a peace treaty. But in between his trip in 1919 and Lyndon Johnson's pilgrimage to the Far East today, every President has gone abroad with the exception of Warren Harding, who died halfway through his first term.

Pearson

Coolidge took a modest junket to Cuba, and I tagged along. Herbert Hoover took a long trip around South America as President-elect, and I tried to go along but was thrown off his battleship in San Pedro harbor.

Franklin Roosevelt took several trips to Latin America, and three famous war trips to Casablanca, Teheran, and Yalta, the latter having been excoriated by critics for alleged generosity to Stalin—though history may be more tolerant in viewing the final results.

Harry Truman took his famous 1945 trip to Potsdam where he and Stalin rubbed each other the wrong way. Eisenhower took many trips to Geneva, most of Europe's capitals, Argentina, India and the Philippines; and tried to get to Japan until anti-American riots interfered.

John F. Kennedy visited Latin America, Vienna, and the capitals of Europe.

And since the difficult days when old-fashioned diplomacy thwarted Woodrow Wilson, most of these Presidents have done well. They helped their country internationally and themselves politically by these trips.

No Polished Diplomat

Lyndon Johnson, hitherto not a junketing President, has a lot going for him on the journey which he starts today.

Chiefly, he can improve the chances of peace in the Far East, and parenthetically improve his lagging image at home. Or, if he fails, he could bring on an escalation of the war and end up with the tragic holocaust of World War III.

On domestic matters, Lyndon is probably the shrewdest political bargainer to occupy the White House in half a century. But on foreign affairs he can be a babe in the woods.

Thus when touring South Vietnam as Vice President he fell for President Diem, whom Cardinal Spellman and Madison Avenue had contrived to put on the throne after the French exodus. Again, when he flew to Honolulu last February, Lyndon embraced the former French pilot, Premier Ky. In Lyndon's defense it should be noted that Ky was about the only reed we had to lean on, but the President didn't have to lean quite so enthusiastically—at least in public.

This time Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge has been doing some missionary work before Ky and Lyndon meet. Lodge had to use a lot of persuasion, even some arm twisting on Ky but he got a grudging agreement from him to accept Vietcong envoys as part of the North Vietnamese peace delegation in case of truce talks. Ky even agreed to grant amnesty to the Vietcong who accept a peace settlement and return to a peaceful life.

This is important, because Vietcong leaders could then become eligible to run for public office in competition with Ky and his cohorts.

This was a real triumph for Ambassador Lodge, since a few months ago Ky was even opposed to any peace talks at all.

Skeptical Critics

There are some skeptics who predict the Manila Conference will turn into a war council, not one to promote peace. I don't believe so.

In the first place, Lyndon Johnson is desperately sick of the war which he inherited, but which he escalated. Second, even the ruddy-faced, country-squire leaders of Australia and New Zealand are getting restless flak from the voters and would like to see an honorable peace; while President Marcos of the Philippines is being called a pro-American puppet by Manila voters because he is sending 2000 engineering troops to South Vietnam to rebuild the countryside.

The only Manila conferee who will want the war to continue — besides Premier Ky — will be Premier Thanom Kittikachorn of Thailand, whose government remains in power only because 30,000 American troops are on his soil, plus eight military bases.

But when the President gets away from the picturesque and sometimes smelly canals of Thailand and the ivory elephants that feature the lovely palaces of Bangkok, he will find that both communism and capitalism are isms which the people don't worry much about. What they want is three bowls of rice a day or the wherewithal to buy it.

Basically, food, clean water, housing, schools and health form the most effective weapons in the struggle for power in the Far East. And these are commodities which Lyndon Johnson knows as well, perhaps better, than any other President.

Bereaved Father Threatens LBJ

SYDNEY, Australia, Oct. 17 (UPI) — A man who said his 19-year-old son was recently killed while fighting in Viet Nam, phoned a newspaper here today and threatened to kill President Johnson when he arrives Saturday.

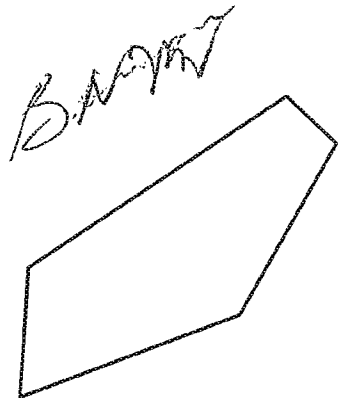

The man assured Daily Mirror news editor William Perry he was not a "crank of phony."

"I am going to blow Johnson's head off Saturday," Mr. Perry quoted the man as saying. Australian secret servicemen were alerted. Police began searching thru files of recently killed servicemen for possible clues.

Earlier, Adelaide police received an anonymous report that a group was plotting to come to Sydney to take Mr. Johnson's life.

In Wellington, New Zealand, Prime Minister Keith Holyoake said he had been warned that an attempt would be made to assassinate him.

He said such threats could not be dismissed.

CONFERENCE 10/5 NX

NIGHT LD

MANILA (UPI)--THE ~~MANILA~~ CONFERENCE ON THE VIET NAM, 10-21 6/6
 WAR WAS SET FORWARD WEDNESDAY TO OCT. 24. FOREIGN MINISTER NARCISO RAMOS SAID THE NEW DATE WAS CHOSEN TO ALLOW AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND TIME TO PREPARE FOR UPCOMING ELECTIONS.

THE CONFERENCE, WHICH WILL BE ATTENDED BY PRESIDENT JOHNSON AND THE LEADERS OF SIX ASIAN COUNTRIES, WAS FIRST SET FOR OCT. 13 WHEN PHILIPPINE PRESIDENT FERDINAND MARCOS MET JOHNSON IN Phil. Isl. - DC
 WASHINGTON LAST MONTH. IT WAS LATER DELAYED TO OCT. 28.

THE CONFERENCE, EXPECTED TO LAST TWO DAYS, IS SCHEDULED TO UNDERTAKE A REVIEW OF ALL PROPOSALS THUS FAR PUT FORWARD FOR PEACE IN VIET NAM. THE CHIEFS OF STATE WILL ALSO ATTEMPT AN ANALYSIS OF WHY THESE PROPOSALS FAILED.

AS WELL AS THE U.S. AND THE PHILIPPINES, THE CONFERENCE WILL BE ATTENDED BY THAILAND, SOUTH KOREA, SOUTH VIET NAM ALONG WITH AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND. ALL ARE NATIONS DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN THE VIET NAM WAR.

A MEETING WEDNESDAY BETWEEN RAMOS AND DIPLOMATS REPRESENTING THE OTHER PARTICIPATING NATIONS PRODUCED NO AGREEMENT ON A FOREIGN MINISTER CONFERENCE TO PRECEDE THE SUMMIT.

ONE AMBASSADOR QUESTIONED THE NECESSITY OF HOLDING THE MINISTERIAL CONFERENCE, ARGUING THAT IT WOULD LEAVE THE GOVERNMENT CHIEFS WITH NOTHING TO DISCUSS.

SOUTH VIETNAMESE FOREIGN MINISTER TRAN VAN DO, MEANWHILE, SAID THAT IF A NEW PEACE PLAN IS DEvised AT THE MANILA SUMMIT, IT MUST INSURE THAT COMMUNIST AGGRESSION WILL NEVER AGAIN THREATEN HIS COUNTRY.

ANY PLANNED SOLUTION OUGHT ALSO TO AID THE ESTABLISHMENT OF PERMANENT PEACE IN ASIA, THE MINISTER TOLD UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL.

FROM SEOUL CAME A REPORT THAT SOUTH KOREA INTENDS TO PUSH FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A MINISTERIAL-LEVEL CONSULTATION BODY DESIGNED TO COORDINATE STRATEGY AND POLICIES ON THE VIET NAM WAR AFTER THE SUMMIT IS OVER.

JOHNSON 10/5 WA

URGENT

WASHINGTON (UPI) --PRESIDENT JOHNSON WILL HOLD A NEWS CONFERENCE THURSDAY POSSIBLY TO DISCUSS HIS PLANNED TRAVELS IN THE PACIFIC AREA.

WHITE HOUSE PRESS SECRETARY BILL D. MOYERS ANNOUNCED THE CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD AT 3:30 P.M. (EDT) IN THE EAST ROOM OF THE WHITE HOUSE AND MADE AVAILABLE FOR LIVE TELEVISION AND RADIO BROADCAST.

WHILE MOYERS DID NOT SAY SO, IT WAS KNOWN THAT JOHNSON WANTED THE OPPORTUNITY TO DEAL WITH QUESTIONS ABOUT THE PLANNED ASIAN CONFERENCE ON VIET NAM NOW SET FOR LATE THIS MONTH IN THE PHILIPPINES, AND ABOUT SPECULATION THAT HE WOULD TRAVEL ELSEWHERE IN THE EAST.

THERE HAS BEEN WIDESPREAD SPECULATION THAT IN ADDITION TO FLYING TO THE PHILIPPINES MEETING, NOW SET TENTATIVELY FOR OCTOBER 28, JOHNSON ALSO WOULD VISIT IN AUSTRALIA, NEW ZEALAND AND SOUTH KOREA.

DIPLOMATIC SOURCES HERE AND IN ASIAN CAPITALS SPECULATED THAT POSITIVE ANNOUNCEMENTS FROM SOME OF THE HOST GOVERNMENTS MIGHT BE FORTHCOMING SHORTLY. IF THIS WERE TRUE IT WOULD ADD ANOTHER REASON FOR JOHNSON WANTING TO MEET WITH REPORTERS LATE THURSDAY BECAUSE HE HAS INSISTED THAT NEWS OF THE FORTHCOMING ASIAN CONFERENCE ORIGINATE LARGELY FROM THE ASIAN PARTICIPANTS INSTEAD OF FROM THE USUAL WASHINGTON "BACKGROUND" SOURCES.

MOYERS DECLINED TO JOIN IN THE SPECULATION OTHER THAN TO ASSURE NEWSMEN THAT THE PRESIDENT WAS NOT CALLING THE NEWS CONFERENCE FOR THE PURPOSE OF ANY SPECTACULAR OR UNFORSEEN DISCLOSURES.

MOYERS WOULD SAY ONLY THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD THOUGHT FIRST OF HAVING THE CONFERENCE IN HIS OFFICE BUT HAD DECIDED, IN CONSULTATION WITH MEMBERS OF HIS STAFF, TO MOVE THE SESSION INTO THE MUCH LARGER EAST ROOM WHICH WILL ACCOMMODATE SO-CALLED "LIVE" BROADCAST FACILITIES.
