Director,
United States Bureau of Investigation,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

There are transmitted attached hereto duplicate copies of lists of ransom notes paid in the Urschel kidnaping case.

It is suggested that in multigraphing the lists be headed;
"Washington, D.C.

Lists of banknotes paid as ransom in kidnaping cases."

It is my understanding that after the number of banks throughout the country has been secured and an appropriate number of lists prepared, a sufficient supply is to be sent to each field office for distribution therefrom. In that case, the letter from the field office to be sent to each bank should read substantially, as follows;

"There are transmitted attached hereto lists showing numbers of banknotes paid as ransom in kidnaping cases. If any of these notes come into your possession, in the event that you are located in a city in which there is also located an office of the United States Bureau of Investigation, please notify said office immediately by telephone. In the event that you are located in a town or city in which there is no office of the United States Bureau of Investigation, please notify immediately the nearest police or law enforcement official and also telegraphically or telephonically, the nearest office of the United States Bureau of Investigation. Your co-operation in this matter will be greatly appreciated."

The letter from the Bureau to the field offices should advise said offices that, for their strictly confidential information, the lists constitute the numbers of the banknotes paid as ransom in the Urschel case and any information received relative thereto should be immediately investigated and the result of the investigation transmitted to the Oklahoma City office, the office of origin. The field offices should, of course, be instructed to mail the lists with cover circular letter out immediately.

Very truly yours,

H. Nathan,
Assistant Director.

Dear Sir:

There is being sent to you, under separate cover, a copy of Bureau circular letter of August 7, with attached list of bank notes paid as ransom in kidnaping cases.
