Kahane has been on 5 years Federal Probation since 7/71, for violating the provisions of the Gun Control Act, 1968. He was convicted on 6/27/74, in Jerusalem, Israel District Court, on a charge of attempting to disrupt the friendly relations between Israel and the United States in connection with the visit of Soviet Communist Party leader Leonid Brezhnev to the United States in 6/73. In that connection, Kahane was sentenced to 2 years imprisonment which was suspended on the condition that he not engage in illegal activities. ## Kahane's new centre to open in Jericho

Jerusalem Post Reporter

TEL AVIV. — Rabbi Meir Kahane, former Jewish Defence League leader, said yesterday that an Institute of Human Relations, named after Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his mother, will be established in Jericho "shortly" but he refused to say when. Speaking at a press conference yesterday to introduce his new political movement, "Kach," he said that he expects to run for the Knesset.

(Kahane ran unsuccessfully for the Knesset last year under the letters "Kach" — which mean "thus" and recalls the old Irgun Zvai Leumi slogan of armed resistance, "Kach, Kach" — "Only thus".)

Rabbi Kahane said that "the Jewish Palestinians" (Israelis and others supporting Palestinian claims) were "a cancer in the nation's body," and he and his associates would fight them with everything that non-violent demonstration can produce. "We shall not hesitate to hold demonstrations outside the Israel Embassy in Washington should the Government of Israel surrender to its 'Jewish Palestinians'," he said.

The difference between a "party" and a "movement," according to Rabbi Kahane, is that a party has branches and organization which need money; while a movement is an effort by a small group of devotees to spread their ideas by word and printed matter. "And we do not have money," he said.

RECIPIENTS DEBRIEF ALL SOURCES WHO ATTENDED JDL CONVENTION IN NEW YORK CITY SEPTEMBER 8, 1974, TO DETERMINE IF DURING HIS SPEECH OR AS RESULT OF HIS ATTENDANCE AS OTHERS SPOKE, KAHANE MIGHT HAVE VIOLATED HIS PROBATION. NOTE:

Kahane, founder and former International Director of JDL, was convicted in EDNY for federal gun law violations and is currently on a five-year probation sentence resulting therefrom. He was convicted on June 27, 1974, in Jerusalem, Israel District Court on a charge of attempting to disrupt the friendly relations between Israel and the United States in connection with the visit of Soviet Communist Party leader Leonid Brezhnev to the United States in June, 1973. In that connection, Kahane was sentenced to two years imprisonment which was suspended on the condition that he not engage in illegal activities.

(WDC) CALLING FOR THE REMOVAL OF DR. HENRY A. KISSINGER AS SECRETARY OF STATE. A TOTAL OF APPROXIMATELY 100 PERSONS WERE ON THE BUSES.

SHORTLY AFTER 1:00 P.M., ON SEPTEMBER 15, 1974, SPECIAL AGENTS OF THE FBI OBSERVED RABBI MEIR KAHANE, FORMER INTERNATIONAL JDL DIRECTOR, AND A SMALL GROUP ASSEMBLING IN THE PARK OPPOSITE THE RESIDENCE OF DR. PRIOR TO THE ARRIVAL OF THE ABOVE DESCRIBED TWO BUSES AT APPROXIMATELY 3:00 P.M. MOST OF THE ESTIMATED TOTAL OF 150 TO 175 PARTICIPANTS CARRIED POSTERS THROUGHOUT THE DEMONSTRATION. THEY WERE CRITICAL OF DR. KISSINGER AND U.S. FOREIGN POLICY RELATING TO ISRAEL AND CYPRUS, AS WELL AS DETENTE WITH RUSSIA.

RABBI MARCEL BLITZ OF THE PICKWICK JEWISH CENTER IN BALTIMORE, MARYLAND, ACTED AS MASTER OF CEREMONIES FOR THE SPEECHES CARRIED OVER A PUBLIC ADDRESS SYSTEM SET UP IN THE PARK OPPOSITE THE KISSINGER RESIDENCE. KAHANE, THE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER, WAS PRECEDED BY REPRESENTATIVES OF THE CYPRIOT AMERICAN ASSOCIATION; THE FREE CYPRUS COMMITTEE; AND THE AMERICAN UKRAINIAN SOCIETY. THERE WAS ALSO A BRIEF MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR ALL MASSACRED JEWS. PRELIMINARY SPEAKERS WERE CRITICAL OF DR. KISSINGER AND U.S. FOREIGN POLICY RELATING TO CYPRUS, ISRAEL AND DETENTE WITH THE SOVIET UNION.

KAHANE, INDICATING THAT CURRENT U.S. POLICY IS CHOKING ISRAEL, STATED, "WE DECLARE WAR THIS AFTERNOON ON HENRY KISSINGER." HE SAID ISRAEL IS FACING A TIME OF CRISIS IN

WHICH THE FATE OF THAT NATION LIES IN THE BALANCE. DESCRIBING DR. KISSINGER AS AN EGOMANIAC, KAHANE CLAIMED THAT THE SECRETARY OF STATE HAS BETRAYED NATION AFTER NATION, HAS WEAKENED NATO AND HAS BETRAYED THE AMERICAN IDEAL. HE SAID IT WAS HOPED THAT A COALITION OF JEWS, GREEKS, CYPRIOTS, UKRANIANS, ARMENIANS AND OTHER EXPLOITED PEOPLE WOULD BE REALIZED IN ORDER TO IMPRESS PRESIDENT FORD THAT DR. KISSINGER IS A LIABILITY TO HIM AND THE UNITED STATES.

ALLEGING THAT DR. KISSINGER HAS DONE MORE THAN ANYONE TO BRING ISRAEL TO THE BRINK OF DISASTER WITH ITS ARAB NEIGHBORS, KAHANE ASSERTED THAT IN COMING WEEKS THE JDL WILL AWAKEN AMERICAN JEWRY TO ITS RESPONSIBILITY TO DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT. HE INDICATED THAT JEWISH ORGANIZATIONS WILL BE THE TARGETS OF PICKETING, SIT-INS, TELEPHONE CALLS AND RALLIES WILL BE HELD TO BRING THE DANGER OF DR. KISSINGER TO ISRAEL AND THE WORLD TO THE ATTENTION OF PRESIDENT FORD. HE EXHORTED ALL JEWS TO ENCOURAGE THEIR RABBIS TO ACTION AND CALLED FOR RALLIES OF THOUSANDS, NOT HUNDREDS, OF JEWS TO PROMOTE THIS CAUSE.

KAHANE SAID THAT ON SEPTEMBER 21, 1974, THERE WILL BE

KAHANE AFFIRMED THAT "KISSINGER WILL GO. WE WILL MAKE SURE OF THAT," ADDING THAT THE ONLY WAY PRESIDENT FORD WILL MAKE THE NECESSARY CHANGE IS FOR JEWISH ACTIVISTS TO GO OUT AND FORCE IT. HE SAID THE TIME HAS COME FOR JEWS TO BE JEWISH AND SAVE ISRAEL.

AFTER THE ABOVE SPEECHES, THE DEMONSTRATORS, CHANTING ANTI-KISSINGER SLOGANS AND CARRYING THE PREVIOUSLY DESCRIBED POSTERS, MARCHED IN FRONT OF AND THEN AROUND THE KISSINGER RESIDENCE UNTIL APPROXIMATELY 4:15 P.M., WHEN THEY DISBANDED AND PROCEEDED WITH POLICE ESCORT, TO THE WHITE HOUSE IN THE TWO BUSES AND PRIVATE CARS. THE GROUP CONTINUED THEIR DEMONSTRATION PARADING ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE, N.W., IMMEDIATELY IN FRONT OF THE WHITE HOUSE UNTIL 5:00 P.M., AT WHICH TIME THE DEMONSTRATION TERMINATED.

MEIR D. KAHANE
INTERNAL SECURITY - NATIONALISTIC
TENDENCIES - JEWISH DEFENSE LEAGUE

On September 15, 1974, Special Agents of the FBI observed the hereinafter described demonstration in Washington, D. C. (WDC) calling for the removal of Henry A. Kissinger as Secretary of State. The activity was under the supervision of Dr. William R. Perl, former Chairman of the Greater Washington Area Jewish Defense League, who at the 1974 convention of the Jewish Defense League (JDL) in New York City on September 8, 1974, was elected to the National Board.

The JDL, organized in September, 1968 by Rabbi Meir D. Kahane and headquartered in New York, New York, is composed primarily of young Jewish-American extremists who consider themselves to be protectors of "Jewish rights" and supporters of the State of Israel in its relations with other nations of the world, particularly those of the Middle East. The JDL has chapters located in several of the larger metropolitan areas of the United States and many of its members have been trained in self-defense and use of firearms. JDL members have engaged in numerous harassing demonstrations throughout the United States while attempting to dramatize the conditions of Jews in the Soviet Union and in Arab nations. Many of its militant members and sympathizers, while combatting what they believe to be anti-Semitism, have engaged in acts of terrorism resulting in violence and the impairment of diplomatic relations between the United States and certain other nations of the world. Rabbi Kahane, former International Director of the organization, has publicly proclaimed on several occasions that violence is necessary at times to accomplish the objectives of JDL.

In his application for a permit on August 28, 1974, Perl identified the sponsoring organization as "Americans For a Better America," which he later indicated was hoped to represent a conglomerate of various ethnic groups having the common bond of a desire to replace Dr. Kissinger. Originally, it was planned for the group to assemble at Lafayette Park, opposite the White House, and march to the State Department where speeches would be given. Plans were later changed and coordinated by Perl with the authorities for the demonstration to take place opposite the Kissinger residence, 4220 Nebraska Avenue, N.W., and then in front of the White House.

Shortly after 1:00 p.m., Rabbi Meir Kahane, former International Director of the JDL, and a small group assembled in the park opposite the Kissinger residence. Approximately 50 to 75 demonstrators had gathered in the park prior to the arrival at about 3:00 p.m. of two buses from New York City, bearing an estimated 100 additional participants. Most of the estimated total of 150 to 175 demonstrators carried posters throughout the gathering in the park and later in the afternoon at the White House. Following are some of the messages conveyed in the posters:

MEIR D. KAHANE

"Kissinger Is Choking Israel"

"Dump Henry -- Henry Back To Harvard"

"JDL - Henry, The Honeymoon Is Over"

"No Detente Over Jewish Lives"

"Why Freedom Here - Cia Abroad - Free Cyprus"

"We Demand Liberation Not Coexistence With Moscow And Communism"

"Kissinger Don't Kill Israel"

"Kissinger Don't Help Moscow Kill Ukrainians"

"Russia Stop Destroying Ukrainian Culture"

"No Dialogue With Tyrants"

"Kissinger - Cyprus Isn't Your Pawn - Cyprus For Cypriots"

"American Youth And Students Support The Struggle For Academic Freedom"

"Kissinger's Deli" (showing a sausage, captioned "Israel," sliced by a knife into three parts, individually captioned
"Syria-Egypt-Jordan")

"Kissinger - Hands Off Israel"

Rabbi Marcel Blitz of the Pickwick Jewish Center in Baltimore, Maryland, acted as Master of Ceremonies for the speeches, which were carried over a public address system set up in the park opposite the Kissinger residence.

MEIR D. KAHANE

Kahane, the principal speaker, was preceded by representatives of the Cypriot American Association; the Free Cyprus Committee; and the American Ukrainian Society. The preliminary speakers were critical of Dr. Kissinger and U. S. foreign policy relating to Cyprus, Israel and detente with the Soviet Union. There was also a brief memorial service for all massacred Jews.

In his speech, Kahane indicated that current U. S. policy was "choking" Israel and stated, "We declare war this afternoon on Henry Kissinger." He said Israel is facing a time of crisis in which the fate of that nation lies in the balance. Describing Dr. Kissinger as an egomaniac, Kahane claimed the Secretary of State has betrayed nation after nation, including Israel and Greece; has weakened the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO); and has betrayed the American ideal. He said it was hoped that a coalition of Jews, Greeks, Cypriots, Ukrainians, Armenians and other exploited people would be realized in order to impress President Ford that Dr. Kissinger is a liability to him and the United States.

Alleging that Dr. Kissinger has done more than anyone to bring Israel to the brink of disaster with its Arab neighbors, Kahane stated he had prevailed on Israel not to strike the first blow and, as a result, was responsible for the deaths of hundreds of Israelis in the most recent Arab-Israeli conflict. He further indicated it was Dr. Kissinger who forced Israel to sign an agreement with Syria and has put Israel in a position where it can now be destroyed.

Kahane asserted that in coming weeks the JDL would awaken American Jewry to its responsibility to do something about it. He indicated that Jewish organizations would be the targets of picketing, sit-ins, and telephone calls and that rallies would be held to bring the danger of Dr. Kissinger to Israel and the world to the attention of President Ford. He exhorted all Jews to encourage their Rabbis to action and called for rallies of thousands, not hundreds, of Jews to promote this cause.

Kahane said that on September 21, 1974, there would be a march from the United Nations (U.N.) to each of the Arab missions to the U.N., commenting that he wanted to see thousands there.

Kahane affirmed that "Kissinger will go.. we will make sure of that," adding that the only way President Ford will make the necessary change is for Jewish activists to go out and force it. He said the time has come for Jews to be Jewish and save Israel.

After the above speeches, the demonstrators, chanting anti-Kissinger slogans and carrying the previously described posters, marched in front of, then around, the Kissinger residence until approximately 4:15 p.m., when they disbanded and proceeded, with police escort, to the White House via the two buses and private cars. The group continued their demonstration, without any more speeches, parading on the south side of Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. immediately in front of the White House until 5:00 p.m. at which time the demonstration terminated.

Handouts that were distributed during the demonstration included the following:

(1) A one-page reprint from the "Jerusalem Post Weekly Overseas Edition," captioned, "Who are you, Professor Kissinger?" At the bottom of the page the request was made to "Mail this to the Secretary of State, c/o State Department, Washington, D. C..... S.O.I.L. SAVE OUR ISRAEL, 1133 Broadway, New York 10010 Rm. 426."

(2) "An Open Letter to the President" by Meir Kahane, which was in the "Jewish Press" edition of August 30, 1974.

MEIR D. KAHANE

(3) "A Hunger Strike Until Death," a one-page appeal in the interests of Valentyn Moroz, a Ukrainian historian allegedly tortured and imprisoned near Moscow for his expressed views on Soviet policy in the Ukraine. It requested petitions be sent to the President; the U. N. Secretary General; and the President of the International Commission of the Red Cross, noting that additional information in this case could be obtained from the Ukrainian Student Organization of M. Michnowsky, 315 E. 10th Street, New York, New York.

The entire demonstration was orderly. No incidents occurred and no arrests were made.

JEWISH DEFENSE LEAGUE

The Jewish Defense League (JDL), organized in September, 1968, by Rabbi Meir D. Kahane and headquartered in New York, New York, is composed primarily of young Jewish-American extremists who consider themselves to be protectors of "Jewish rights" and supporters of the State of Israel in its relations with other nations of the world, particularly those of the Middle East. The JDL has chapters located in several of the larger metropolitan areas of the United States and many of its members have been trained in self-defense and the use of firearms. JDL members have engaged in numerous harassing demonstrations throughout the United States while attempting to dramatize the conditions of Jews in the Soviet Union and in Arab nations. Many of its militant members and sympathizers, while combatting what they believe to be anti-Semitism, have engaged in acts of terrorism resulting in violence and the impairment of diplomatic relations between the United States and certain other nations of the world. Rabbi Kahane, former International Director of the organization, has publicly proclaimed on several occasions

On [REDACTED] advised that
MEIR KAHANE intends to speak at the University of Maryland (UM), College Park, Maryland September 12, 1974 7:30 pm.
His speech at UM is being sponsored by Hillel House,
JDL, UM Program Board and the UM Jewish Student Union. His topic is to be "Jewish Radicalism and the JDL."

On September 12, 1974, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) were present at UM for Rabbi KAHANE's intended speech. A youthful crowd was also present. However, Rabbi KAHANE failed to appear at the appointed time and as the hour grew late, the crowd dwindled. By 9:00 pm, only a small number of youth (perhaps twenty) remained. Since Rabbi KAHANE failed to appear, the agents left.

On September 13, 1974, [REDACTED] advised that Rabbi KAHANE did make a late appearance at UM and talked informally with a small group briefly.

On September 5, 1974, an article appeared in the Reisterstown Star, a local Baltimore suburban newspaper, page six, entitled "KAHANE Sets Appearance at Pickwick Jewish Center." The article is duplicated

Kahane sets appearance at Pickwick Jewish Center

SEPTEMBER 5, 1974

Rabbi Meir Kahane, back in the United States after three years in Israel, has announced that initially his purpose in returning to the United States is two fold: He hopes to burst the bubble of Henry Kissinger and alert American Jews to the possibility that the Secretary of State is not a friend of Israel - And he is here to begin a drive to build a much-needed Yeshiva in Jericho.

On Sunday September 15, the controversial Rabbi will lead a demonstration in Washington to force awareness of the precarious situation Israel may find herself in, if the current foreign policy pattern of the United States continues. Prior to that, on Saturday night September 14, at 8:45 p.m., Mr. Lou Sachs, the newly elected president of the Pickwick Jewish Center announces that the Brotherhood of the Center will present Rabbi Meir Kahane to the Baltimore community in a major address that will take place at The Center located at 6221 Green-spring Avenue.

In reference to the controversy that surrounds Rabbi Meir Kahane, Mr. Lou Sachs stated 'You may or may not agree with the controversial Rabbi, but in that he reaches all of us, you can in no way deny his importance to history and contemporary Jewish life.'

In recognition of the great effort of Mr. Lou Sachs, and the Brotherhood of the Pickwick Jewish Center, to bring back our estranged and alienated Jewish youth to the fold, Rabbi Meir Kahane has agreed to spend the entire week-end at the Pickwick Jewish Center. This weekend has been designated by Mr. Lou Sachs, president of the congregation, as the 'Brotherhood Week-end' of the Center.

Rabbi Marcel Blitz, spiritual leader of the congregation remarked that for the first time in the history of Baltimore Jewry a service just two days before the High Holidays may outdraw 'Kol Nidray' itself.

Due to the expected overflow turnout, Brotherhood president, Mr. Harry Korsover, has announced that tickets for the Saturday night appearance of Rabbi Meir Kahane will be available at the Pickwick Jewish Center, a week prior to the event.

On September 6, 1974, an article appeared in the Baltimore Jewish Lines entitled "Myths to be Shaken at Pickwick by Controversial Rabbi KAHANE." The article, which is duplicated below, reports that Rabbi KAHANE will be speaking at the Pickwick Jewish Center, 6221 Greenspring Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, September 14, 1974.

Myths To Be Shaken At Pickwick By Controversial Rabbi Kahane

Mr. Louis Sachs, president of the Pickwick Jewish Center announces that the "Brotherhood" of the Center, will present Rabbi Meir Kahane to the Baltimore community in a major address that will take place at the Pickwick Jewish Center located at 6221 Green-spring Ave. on Sat. Sept. 14, 9 p.m.

Rabbi Meir Kahane, is the founder and leader of the Jewish Defense League, the organization which has attracted worldwide attention with its program to save the Jewish people and the Jewish identity.

Rabbi Kahane back in the United States after three years in Israel, has announced that his primary purpose in returning to the United States was to organize demonstrations against Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger. "It's about time the myth of Henry Kissinger as a savior is punctured," said Kahane who was active in demonstrations against Soviet diplomats in the U.S. before he moved to Israel in 1971.

On Sun., Sept. 15, the controversial rabbi will lead a demonstration in Washington to force awareness of the precarious situation Israel may find herself in, if the current foreign policy pattern of the United States continues.

In reference to the controversy that surrounds Rabbi Meir Kahane, Mr. Lou Sachs president of the congregation stated, "You may or may not agree with the controversial rabbi, but you can in no way deny his importance to history and to contemporary Jewish life. Rabbi Kahane is easily the most controversial, exciting, and charismatic Jewish leader of our times. His major ideas and expositions are at variance with every Establishment Jewish leader one can think of, but none can deny that he has succeeded in capturing minds and hearts and in being loved (and hated) as none of the other leaders have."

Rabbi Marcel Blitz, spiritual leader of the congregation will speak about "The Future Destiny of the State of Israel and the Jewish People" and will introduce Rabbi Meir Kahane to the congregation, who will briefly address the assembled.

Rabbi Marcel Blitz, rabbi of the Pickwick Jewish Center remarked, that for the first time in the history of Baltimore Jewry a service just two days before the High Holidays may outdraw "Kol Nidrey" itself.

While in the United States Rabbi Kahane also plans to begin a drive to build a much needed Yeshiva in Jericho.

In building a Yeshiva in Jericho a heavily Arab populated area, Rabbi Kahane hopes to begin a trend that will insure Jewish continuance in controversial sectors—that is, establish a Jewish Center of Learning to proclaim that this place belongs to Israel and no one else.

The presentation of Rabbi Meir Kahane to the Baltimore Jewish community by the Pickwick Jewish Center, in no way endorses the philosophy of Rabbi Kahane but is done solely in the interest of a public forum.

b7c On September 10, 1974, [REDACTED] Baltimore City Police Department, Baltimore, Maryland advised that Rabbi KAHANE has submitted a proposed itinerary while in Baltimore September 13-15, 1974. It is as follows:

On September 15, 1974, an article appeared in the Sunday edition of the Baltimore News American, page 2-B, entitled "Jewish Leader calls KISSINGER Threat." The article described an interview by reporter J. WILLIAM JOYNES with Rabbi KAHANE, September 13, 1974. The article is duplicated below:

By J. WILLIAM JOYNES

Contrary to the general belief of the American people that he is a savior of Israel, Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, is "a threat to the United States and to world peace," says Rabbi Meir Kahane.

So strongly does the founder and national director of the Jewish Defense League feel this, he has recently returned to this country from Israel vowing to get President Ford to see that Kissinger "is a liability, not an asset."

"The Israelis knew on Thursday before the Saturday attack of the Egyptians that it was coming. It was no surprise as everyone believes.

"But Kissinger prevented Israel—forced it—from striking a preventive blow. He said: 'Don't fire the first shot. The world will not stand for it.'

"Now I have come to the United States to awaken American Jews to the danger that is Henry Kissinger and his foreign policy."

The rabbi intends, with the help of the Jewish Defense

RABBI KAHANE

League and any other Jews who care to join him, to stage his first protest today at the White House and in front of Kissinger's home.

His remarks here were made Friday afternoon in an interview at the Jewish Center.

He believes that President Ford will keep the hold-over secretary of state just as long as he is an asset to the President.

"President Ford is a man who would like to be elected President in 1976. If he sees angry protests by Jews in key states, if Jews fail to contribute their money, if he sees his self-interest suffering, Ford's self-interest will lead him to drop Henry Kissinger," he said.

It's time for Jews to let the President know, he says fervently, and points to what other minority groups have done in the past.

"Look at the lobbies. Everyone has one. Look at the black caucuses. They looked out for black interests and voted accordingly. Farmers do the same.

"Jews on the other hand have always done the incredibly stupid thing of turning away, of avoiding a fight. Our yardstick should be what is good for our interest."

A former rabbi in Brooklyn, N.Y., where he grew up, Kahane moved to Israel in 1971 and holds a dual citizenship.

Prior to that, he caused nationwide headlines by protesting in front of the Russian Embassy the treatment of Soviet Jews, and he still has harsh words about his fellow Jews, especially rabbis, who never uttered a word of protest. More than 5,000 Jews went to Washington for that one, some 1,300 being arrested.

Those words have aroused strong pro and con feelings, and although the president of Pickwick Jewish Center, Louis Sachs, says the center merely provided a platform for a controversial speaker "because it is the American way," a detail of police had been asked for the meeting.

Referring repeatedly to Jewish leadership he says: "There are no Jewish leaders here. They are only functionaries. They have never been in the forefront of anything. Did you ever hear them speak out for the rights of Soviet Jews? Never.

"Not until the Jewish Defense League told Jews with Jewish funds to fight for Jews, did they ever speak up. Now it's time for Jews to get smart again.

"The Soviet Jewish problem is not fixed. We made a great step forward, but it has not changed the attitude of the Jewish leadership. They rationalize it away. In a nutshell, the Jewish Defense League was a catalyst to push other groups to something for the Russian Jews. But you have to be militant to do it."

Protesting Kissinger's foreign policy in Washington, he expects to be joined by Greeks and Cubans. Jews are not clever when it comes to their own interests, he adds.

"He should look to see who are his allies. Today it's the Greeks. Tomorrow it could be someone else. When you need help and someone offers you help, you should take it."

Speaking quietly but fervently to Rabbi Marcel Blitz, of Pickwick Jewish Center, this reporter and several other interested persons who came in later, the former Brooklyn (N.Y.) rabbi is pessimistic about the economy of the United States, too, drawing a parallel with Nazi Germany.

He foresees a holocaust and it will be great.

"The State of Israel," he explains, "came into being by the hand of God, a decree of God, and it will not be wiped away. But the Jew outside Israel is the Jew in exile.

"The greatest danger is not to the Jew in Israel but outside. When we have an economic setback, people become angry and bitter and frightened, and they look for a scapegoat, and that scapegoat will be the Jew.

"The Germans were just ordinary people, nevertheless they did what they did. It could happen here.

"Hitler came into power by election. It was not because the people were bad but they were frightened people. I feel human beings are just frail or weak, and when times are bad it brings out the worst. I do not know what will happen to people here. Psychologically, they are used to the good life."

On September 16, 1974, [REDACTED] advised that he attended Rabbi KAHANE's speech at the Pickwick Center. He stated that approximately 300 people were in attendance. KAHANE summerized his activities from his early career until he moved to Israel in 1971. The main target of the Rabbi's speech was Secretary of State, HENRY KISSINGER who he described as being less than a friend of the Jews. KAHANE stated that it was his intention to show the President of the United States that retaining Mr. KISSINGER as Secretary of State is a liability. He stated that Mr. KISSINGER prevented Israel from striking a blow at the Egyptians even though Israel knew beforehand that the Egyptian attack was coming. KAHANE stated that KISSINGER reasoned that if the Israelis fired first then the world would be alarmed.

KAHANE stated that President FORD will keep Mr. KISSINGER only as long as he is useful and KAHANE intends to show President FORD that KISSINGER is not useful.

KAHANE stated that he is planning several marches to Washington, D.C. and hopes to join with other dissatisfied groups such as the Greeks.

[REDACTED] advised that KAHANE then made a statement that dissatisfied his audience. He stated that he was unhappy with Jewish leadership in the United States in that they never were in the fore-front and always avoided a fight; also one never hears them speak out against the treatment of Soviet Jews. KAHANE stated that he is in this fight to the finish.

On September 18, 1974, [REDACTED] stated that he also attended Rabbi KAHANE's speech September 14, 1974. He stated there were about 400 people in attendance. He stated that the one and a half hour speech was essentially organized in three sections:

1. An oration giving the same information that appeared in the Baltimore Jewish Times, September 6, 1974.
2. Jewish identity and,
3. Why he and all Jews should dislike KISSINGER.

Source stated that Rabbi KAHANE did not make any threats or mention weapons or violence in his speech.

The September 16, 1974, issue of the George Washington University publication "Hatchet" carried an announcement of the appearance of Rabbi Meir D. Kahane at 8:00 p.m. on September 19, 1974, in the Marvin Student Center at the University. The notice which described the subject as founder of the Jewish Defense League (JDL) carried the following quote from "Playboy, October, 1972" under Kahane's picture: "If an American Nazi Party leader posed a clear and present danger to the American Jews, then not to assassinate such a person would be one of the most immoral courses I could imagine." The event was co-sponsored by the Jewish Activist Front at the University and the George Washington Program Board.

of its militant members and sympathizers, while combatting what they believe to be anti-Semitism, have engaged in acts of terrorism resulting in violence and the impairment of diplomatic relations between the United States and certain other nations of the world. Rabbi Kahane, former International Director of the organization, has publicly proclaimed on several occasions that violence is necessary at times to accomplish the objectives of the JDL.

A Special Agent of the FBI furnished the following report concerning subject's appearance on September 19, 1974:

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

9/27/74

Date of transcription

The Marvin Student Center Auditorium on the George Washington University (GWU) campus was the setting for a speech given by Rabbi MEIR KAHANE. The speech was sponsored by an organization calling itself the Jewish Activist Front (JAF), headquartered at the GWU Center, 800 21st Street, N.W., Room 417, Washington, D. C. (WDC) 20006, telephone 676-7574. Approximately 200 persons were in attendance.

The JAF is self-described in a flyer distributed at the speech as..."a coalition of different political philosophies dedicated to alleviating problems facing the Jewish people in this community and around the world. This organization is not affiliated with any other organization other than the Baltimore-Washington Union of Jewish Students. The JAF, as the Jewish agency on campus, is dedicated to the support of the State of Israel, defending the rights of Jews in the Soviet Union and other parts of the world, and bringing about a reawakening of Jewish consciousness, ethics, and pride."

Rabbi MEIR KAHANE made the following address:

It has been about one month since his return to the United States from Israel, and he is currently on a speaking tour of college campuses in this country. He wants to express to college youth in these talks the "Jewish Idea," or what it is to be a Jew in a Christian country. This era, or the last 30 years, has seen the holocaust of a people and also the foundation of a Jewish State. The lesson of Auschwitz for the Jewish people was that as the Gentiles slaughtered the Jew, no Jewish God intervened. This was the exile for the Jew, and the exile is the desecration of God's name. The creation of the State of Israel was a result of the Jewish concept of God, one who shapes destiny. These exiled Jews believed in a specific Judaism.

Interviewed on 9/19/74 at Washington, D.C. File # WF0100-49605
by b7C SA [REDACTED] Date dictated 9/23/74

Regarding the exile and the creation of a Jewish State, there must be one or the other, there cannot be both. The State of Israel was the beginning of the redemption. Israel must have a Jewish Government and a Jewish army, and if need be, a Jewish fist upon a Gentile state. The Vatican will never recognize Israel.

One of the great Jews was ZEV JABOTINSKY, who in 1938 told Jews to get out of Poland and go to Israel, as a catastrophe was coming. No one listened to JABOTINSKY, not even rabbis or Zionists.

Zionism is the return to the land of Israel. What are the Jews in the United States doing about this return? Israel is calling for them, there's plenty of land, but not Jews though. There has been a history of Jewish migration to Israel from the time of Moses. The holocaust 30 years ago forced there to be a Jewish homeland. What happened 30 years ago will happen again. The United States is a great country, but not for the Jews, because it's not our country. In the United States today, we have Vietnam, Watergate and former President NIXON, and upon NIXON is heaped "a Model T FORD." We have racial situations as that in Boston. The economic crisis here is really an international crisis, and one that is almost insoluble. Inflation must be met at home. It is threatening people who have tasted the good life, and these people lose it. The Jew will be the scapegoat. He is blamed for the Black situation in America and is blamed for the Chicanos. The myth exists that every Jew is a Rothchild.

Rabbi KAHANE next made the following remarks about Secretary of State HENRY KISSINGER, the Arabs, and Israel:

KISSINGER is only part of the problem. Israel has ABBA EBAN, who speaks 12 languages impeccably, all at the same time. The Arab has a national pride, and because of this there will never be peace in Israel because Arabs think that all Jews are thieves. However, Israel is not the Arabs' country. But thank God for the Arabs, because if Israel must have enemies, thank God for the Arabs.

KAHANE served in the Israeli Army. He has four children. He wants peace there. However there should be no more illusions, no more suffering. In 1967 there was a literal political orgasm in Israel as the Arabs wanted to throw the Jews into the sea.

Regarding KISSINGER and his deeds, KISSINGER told EBAN and SIMCHA DINITZ, the envoy to the United States from Israel, at the start of the Yom Kippur War, that Israel should not strike the first blow against the Arabs. Israeli General ELIZAR wanted to strike the first blow. What happened? After three weeks of fighting, 2600 Israelis were dead. Israeli General SHARON said to him that Israel only needed two days to win the war. When Israel was on the verge of winning, KISSINGER arrived. KISSINGER called for a cease fire and took a military victory out of Israel's hands.

Regarding KISSINGER and the problem of the Syrian Jews, KISSINGER came to Israel four or five months ago. KISSINGER said that the Syrian Jews' situation was an internal problem of Syria, like the Soviet Jews' situation is an internal problem of Russia. KISSINGER was unable to get an agreement, but NIXON told him to get an agreement. So the Israeli Government gave in to KISSINGER.

KAHANE next spoke about the Jewish Defense League (JDL), and what the JDL was meant to do. He spoke about the following:

The primary interest of Russia is not Soviet Jewry, but it is detente, trade and all the good things. JDL attacks on Soviet diplomats and installations were not to frighten them. One time U. S. Envoy to the United Nations CHARLES YOST, invited him to talk with him at the United States Mission in New York. YOST told KAHANE the JDL was harming relations between the United States and Russia. KAHANE said that was exactly what the JDL wanted to do.

Russia will not keep its word regarding the release of 80,000 Jews. They will not let out even 60,000. The pressure put on the Soviets by KISSINGER and Senators FULBRIGHT and JACKSON is not in the interests of the Jewish people. When Jewish leaders asked former President ROOSEVELT to bomb Auschwitz, ROOSEVELT said no. Some 12,000 Jews were killed there daily.

What should the Jewish people do about this? Some 50,000 Jews should go to the White House, and sit there until some action is taken. Today Israel is making suicidal concessions. It is insanity because Israel is giving up every inch of land it rightfully won. Morale is low in Israel. Israel looks at 6 1/2 million Jews in America. Israel needs Jewish political power and Jews in America need to learn from the Blacks. American Jews must make it clear to President FORD that his Middle East foreign policy has to change, and it should also be made clear to FORD to send KISSINGER back to teach in Harlem.

What should Jewish college youth do? In Washington, all Washington Jews should be called out en masse to go to the White House in protest, and from there to go to KISSINGER's house at 4220 Nebraska Avenue, N.W. for a protest. Jewish college youth should demand that local Jewish Community Council (JCC) leaders should take part in this protest, and if they refuse, then Jewish college youth should take over their offices. Do not be afraid of being arrested, there is nothing to it. They won't arrest you, they're ashamed.

The beginnings of the JDL were to control crime ridden Jewish areas in New York. These are areas in which elderly and poor Jews live. There was no police protection. The JDL came in to help people from being mugged.

A few years ago a low income housing project was to be built in Forest Hills, New York, an upper middle class Jewish community. Some opponents of this housing project came to him at the JDL office in New York, and told him about their legal and court battles in opposition to this project being built. These opponents asked him if all the legal and court efforts fail, could the JDL blow the project up?

What is a good Jew? Mainly, a good Jew is one who feels the pain of another Jew.

WFO 100-49605

The speech was followed by a question and answer period. In response to a question about current charges against him in Israel, KAHANE said that he sent letters to Israel's Arabs while he was in Israel. These letters said that he was setting up a fund of money to be used for an immigration plan whereby any Arab who was interested in a new life in a western country could contact him and he would arrange a visa for that Arab. Some 3,000 Arab families contacted him. For that letter, he was indicted for incitement to revolt. He faces a 5 year sentence. The letter was meant to give the Arabs a freedom of choice: go or stay.

The second charge for which he faces trial in Israel this November stems from all the Arab terrorist massacres against the Israelis, starting with Munich in 1972. He decided the only way to deal with terror is with terror, and he decided on a plan to gather arms and counter-attack. He faces 7 years on that charge.

KAHANE said let the Arabs form their own state, Palestine. If the Arabs begin a war again, there will be less of a Jordan to build a Palestine State.

In response to a question as to whether KAHANE ever worked as a Government informant, he responded that he worked as an FBI informant during the early 60's in this city. He worked for the FBI in the John Birch Movement by joining the John Birch Society to find out its membership and what they wanted to do. He found out a lot of good things about the Birchers for the Government, and this was his only connection as a Government Agent.

The program which began at 8:09 p.m., ended at 10:07 p.m.

MEIR D. KAHANE

According to FBI records, Kahane was not an FBI informant in Washington, D. C., as alleged by him on September 19, 1974.

Mr. Philip Bigger, United States Probation Office, Brooklyn, New York, on September 30, 1974, advised that his office was in receipt of an itinerary for Rabbi Meir Kahane for the month of October, 1974.

During the month of October, 1974, Rabbi Kahane would appear at the following places in New Jersey, on the below-indicated dates:

past weekend at Hillel, Rutgers University and stated that the JDL was the catalyst that makes the moderates take action. Kahane was quoted as stating that "moderate" students do not get involved in activist causes. Kahane stated that a Jewish activist involvement on the Rutgers campus could do things which Hillel could not.

This article further reported that Rabbi Kahane emphasized that a holocaust could be coming to the United States similar to the one that hit Germany in the 1940s. Kahane was quoted as stating that "this is a more ethno-centric and violent country." He pointed out that a continuation of these traits could contribute to making another disaster for the Jewish people.

This news article also related that throughout his discussion, Kahane repeated the need for Jews to take care of themselves, because no one else would look out for them. Kahane also expressed the need for more Jewish activism and when warranted, civil disobedience and militancy.

b2/b7D [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, [redacted]

[redacted] The purpose of this meeting was to afford an opportunity for the public to hear Kahane speak on current problems facing the United States and world Jewry. [redacted] stated that this appearance of Kahane was scheduled to take place at the Bergenfield-Dumont, New Jersey Jewish Center, which is located at 169 North Washington Avenue, Bergenfield, New Jersey.

[redacted] on October 15, 1974, advised that Meir Kahane appeared as scheduled at the Bergenfield-Dumont Jewish Center on the evening of October 12, 1974. [redacted] advised that approximately 300-350 persons were in attendance. Kahane arrived with a group of individuals who acted as body guards for him and who stationed themselves in strategic positions in the hall, and though concealed, these body guards gave every appearance of carrying night sticks.

b2/b7D [redacted] advised that Kahane gave a very forceful-type of speech in which he clearly supported acts of violence. Kahane supported it, according to [redacted] by stating that if Jews were going to be attacked, they should attack first. Kahane also stated that he supported open demonstrations and extorted the people in attendance at his speech to get themselves involved in these demonstrations. Kahane urged the people to visit Israel so that they could see first hand the progress which has been made and that they would thereafter, remain united as Jews. Kahane in his speech also referred to United States Secretary of State Henry Kissinger and Former Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban as hypocrites, because of their attempts to compromise Israel's position with the Arab world.

[redacted], who is in a position to furnish reliable information, on October 21, 1974, advised that Rabbi Meir Kahane spoke at the Teaneck Campus of Fairleigh Dickinson on the evening of October 17, 1974. [redacted] advised that there were approximately 150 students in attendance and that the general tone of Rabbi Kahane's speech was for all Jews to unite and he expressed criticism of United States Secretary of State Henry Kissinger in his efforts to bring about a compromise between the State of Israel and member nations of the Arab world.

[redacted] stated that he did not believe that Kahane's speech had much effect on the students and there was little or no money collected for Kahane at Fairleigh Dickinson, Teaneck, New Jersey.

APPENDIX

The JDL, organized in September, 1968, by Rabbi Meir D. Kahane and headquartered in New York, New York, is composed primarily of young Jewish-American extremists who consider themselves to be protectors of "Jewish rights" and supporters of the State of Israel in its relations with other nations of the world, particularly those of the Middle East. The JDL has chapters located in several of the larger metropolitan areas of the United States and many of its members have been trained in self-defense and the use of firearms. JDL members have engaged in numerous harassing demonstrations throughout the United States while attempting to dramatize the conditions of Jews in the Soviet Union and in Arab nations. Many of its militant members and sympathizers, while combatting what they believe to be anti-Semitism, have engaged in acts of terrorism resulting in violence and the impairment of diplomatic relations between the United States and certain other nations of the world. Rabbi Kahane, former International Director of the organization, has publicly proclaimed on several occasions that violence is necessary at times to accomplish the objectives of JDL.

Enclosed for the Bureau and for the New York Division are two articles from the "Pipe Dream", which is a university paper, distributed at the State University of New York at Binghamton, New York.

On 10/15/74, [REDACTED] advised that he covered the meeting of Rabbi MEIR KAHANE, at the university, and advised that there was approximately 200 individuals who attended the meeting. Source stated that of the 200 individuals, approximately 50 to 75 were citizens of the surrounding community and not university students. Source stated that the overall tone of the speech was very moderate and that there were no disturbances at the university because of the speech.

Source stated that even though Rabbi KAHANE called for a local chapter of the Jewish Defense League at the university, Binghamton, New York, he does not feel that there is enough support for the JDL to warrant formation of such a chapter.

Source stated that if any additional information comes to his attention regarding the JDL on campus at the State University of New York, Binghamton, New York, he would immediately contact the Binghamton Office of the FBI.

'obscenity' of american jews

by Laurel Nadler

"We will strike at that thing which the Russians want most: detente," said Rabbi Meir Kahane, executive director and an original founder of the Jewish Defense League (JDL) in a speech on campus last night.

Calling U.S. Secretary of State Kissinger "the most serious threat to the Jewish nation," Kahane said that "not one inch of Jewish land must go back [to the Arab nations]... No matter how much land you give up, there will never be peace in the Middle East."

Although Kahane said he feels that "nationalism per se is at best a foolish thing and at worst a dangerous thing," he explained his position by stressing the separation he felt should exist between the Jewish people and others, because "the Jew is different."

This difference arises, according to Kahane, "not because of ethics" or intelligence, but "because God gave the Jew a Torah... there are particular laws which no one has but the Jew."

Commenting on what he sees as the basic "obscenity" of American Jewishness, Kahane urged the young Jew to pick up the true learning of Judaism "in exchange for bagels, lox, and typical American Jewish temple an 'incredible mausoleum keeper of Watergate' who he owned by caterers" and identified the allegedly token rite of the bar-mitzvah as "the death of Judaism."

Kahane explained his concern for helping Jews by saying that no one will do it for them but they themselves, "not [former President Franklin D.] Roosevelt, the Vatican, or the Russians." He called the American Jew "the silent partner to the Holocaust."

Kahane blamed American Jewish leaders such as Dr. Stephen Wise, the B'nai Brith, and the American Jewish Congress for not leading Jews in massive protest sit-ins on Washington when news of the Auschwitz killings first leaked out in 1942. "Rabbis won't go to jail for Jews, only for blacks, Puerto Ricans, and chicanos," Kahane said. "They stink with respectability."

Kahane said he blames Kissinger for his mediating efforts which caused Jewish deaths when the Israeli government was convinced by Kissinger "not to strike the first blow because the world will not understand," in last year's Yom Kippur War. In addition, "Kissinger robbed us of a victory when he urged a ceasefire."

Kahane noted that he attributes Kissinger's Middle East negotiating efforts of last April to the pressure of his employer, Richard Nixon, the

Meir D. Kahane
Internal Security - Nationalistic Tendencies -
Jewish Defense League (JDL)

The JDL, founded in 1968, is composed primarily of young Jewish militants who consider themselves as defenders of "Jewish Rights." Demonstrations attempting to dramatize the Jewish problem in Russia, and similar demonstrations against Arab establishments have often resulted in violence. Rabbi Meir Kahane, founder and former National Director, has stated publicly on many occasions that violence is sometimes necessary to accomplish the aims of the JDL.

b7D On August 19, 1974, [REDACTED] advised that Meir Kahane founder and former National Director of the JDL, arrived in New York from Israel on August 14, 1974. The purpose of his visit to the United States is to solicit funds and attempt to formulate a new organization designed to advance Jewish causes as they relate to Israel and its present conflict with the Arab States, and also promote more favorable conditions for Soviet Jewry.

Source advised the new organization is to be called "KOACH", which is the Hebrew word for strength. Kahane hopes to influence key JDL members to join his new organization. In this regard, the source advised that an internal power struggle is presently taking place within the JDL administrative structure which involves pro and anti-Kahane factions of the organization. Certain members of the JDL leadership and administrative board have become disenchanted with Kahane and feel he has divorced himself from the original ideals of the JDL, and since his residence in Israel, he has used the JDL to foster his own ends.

Specifically, the anti-Kahane faction of the JDL accused the former leader of diverting a large amount of money initially raised by the JDL to institute and foster a school in Israel for American Jews which never materialized. Kahane allegedly diverted this money to finance his recent unsuccessful campaign for the Israeli Parliament and also to finance his legal defense as it relates to several criminal charges lodged by the Israeli Government regarding his activities in Israel.

According to the source, while in the United States, Kahane plans to contact some of his former financial backers to persuade them to furnish the necessary funds for his new organization. He also plans to develop membership primarily through public appearances which will be primarily in the area of talk-type local radio shows and press releases describing the new organization which will be targeted primarily to Jewish newspapers in the New York area. In this connection, Kahane has already appeared on the Bob Grant local personality talk show and is tentatively scheduled to appear on the Barry Farber Show which is a radio program with a similar format.

On August 20, 1974, [REDACTED], who has furnished insufficient information to assess his reliability, advised that certain members of the pro-Kahane faction of the JDL have discussed the possibility of organizing a new group which would be called the Youth Committee for Jewish Survival (YCJS). This group, made up primarily of former JDL members, would physically take over what remains of the JDL and call for a national convention. Kahane would be invited to appear, and this new group would then propose that their organization, namely the YCJS, would propose a merger with Kahane's new group and both organizations function as one. According to the source, the purpose of this tactic would primarily be to give the YCJS a stronger bargaining position as to the formation of policy of the new merger. The primary purpose of the YCJS would be to design all the activities of the new organization, so that it would keep Israel in the limelight regarding future activities of the group.

[REDACTED] learned that Kahane plans to travel to Geneva, Switzerland, sometime in September, 1974, in an effort to protest the action of Secretary of State Henry Kissinger and the United States policy towards Arab countries and also to protest the Russian arms policy with Egypt.

See per
Paul Comm. /
EOUSA

On August 21, 1974, Mr. Patrick Walsh, Federal Probation Office, Brooklyn, New York, advised that Meir Kahane had directed a letter to that office prior to his arrival in the United States, at which time he indicated that his intention in the United States was to advance the cause of Israel and Soviet Jewry through public appearances during this visit. This correspondence also stated that Kahane had no intention of becoming involved in any militant activity while in the United States.

Walsh also advised that his office had, in the past, been in contact with Assistant United States Attorney Thomas Pattison, of the Eastern District of New York, relative to the activities of Kahane while he was in Israel. Informa had been furnished to Mr. Pattison regarding the official criminal charges which had been placed against Kahane by the Israeli Government, particularly those which involved his activities with firearms. Mr. Pattison, according to Walsh, had initiated contact with the Israeli Government in an effort to obtain official documentation of the specific formal charges in an effort to determine whether such charge would be in violation of his probation. According to Walsh, no response has been made at this time by the Israeli Government to Pattison's request, mentioned above.

On 10/23/74, there was a news announcement which stated that Rabbi MEIR KAHANE was going to picket the Greater Miami Jewish Federation Building at 4200 Biscayne Boulevard, Miami, on 10/24/74. This announcement, over Radio Station WIOD, stated that KAHANE was going to ask the employees of this building to walk-off their jobs and take part in the picketing.

On 10/24/74, at approximately 4:00 p.m., there were 11 adults, including two young black males, and three small children, walking around in a circle in front of the aforementioned building, carrying signs with the following statements on them:

"Jewish Money for Jewish Causes"

"Throw the Rascals Out"

"Not One Inch of Retreat in Israel"

"More Jewish Money for Day Schools"

"More Jewish Money for the Poor"

The group walked in a circle until 4:20 p.m., when they all sat down near the front door of the building and a young-looking white unidentified male wearing a yamalka, who appeared to be in charge, talked to them for about 10 minutes.

At approximately 4:35 p.m., the group dispersed taking their signs. There were no incidents or acts of violence.

b2/b7D [REDACTED] advised on 10/24/74, that KAHANE had asked the Jewish Community for a 4 p.m. mass demonstration in front of the Greater Miami Jewish Federation Headquarters to protest against the "Robber Barons," who are delinquent in their support of poor Jews throughout the world. Source advised that there were ten persons in attendance and that KAHANE was very angry and dejected.

MM 105-20368

KAHANE spoke to other small groups at the following locales:

On October 23, 1974, 7:30 p.m., Nautilus Junior High School, 4301 North Michigan Avenue, Miami Beach, Fla.

October 23, 1974, 3 p.m. - 6 p.m., the Bill Smith Show, WKAT, Miami, Fla.

On October 2, 1974, [REDACTED] advised that Rabbi Meir Kahane was scheduled to speak at the Veterans Auditorium in San Francisco on October 15, 1974 at 8:30 p.m., and at the Oakland Auditorium in Oakland on October 16, 1974 at 8:30 p.m. Source stated that the price of the tickets had been tentatively set at $5.00 apiece and that the speeches were being arranged and scheduled by the San Francisco Chapter of the Jewish Defense League (JDL).

The Jewish Defense League (JDL), organized in September, 1968, by Rabbi Meir D. Kahane and headquartered in New York, New York, is composed primarily of young Jewish-American extremists who consider themselves to be protectors of "Jewish rights" and supporters of the State of Israel in its relations with other nations of the world, particularly those of the Middle East. The JDL has chapters located in several of the larger metropolitan areas of the United States and many of its members have been trained in self-defense and the use of firearms. JDL members have engaged in numerous harassing demonstrations throughout the United States while attempting to dramatize the conditions of Jews in the Soviet Union and in Arab nations. Many of its militant members and sympathizers, while combatting what they believe to be anti-Semitism, have engaged in acts of terrorism resulting in violence and the impairment of diplomatic relations between the United States and certain other nations of the world. Rabbi Kahane, former International Director of the organization, has publicly proclaimed on several occasions that violence is necessary at times to accomplish the objectives of the JDL.

ENCLOSURE

In the October 4, 1974 issue of the "Jewish Bulletin," a local weekly Jewish newspaper, there appeared an article entitled, "Kahane, JDL Chief, Has Dates Here." According to the article, Kahane was scheduled to speak in the San Francisco Bay Area as mentioned above and that the topic of his speeches will be "Kissinger and Israel." Additional information furnished shows Kahane was born in Brooklyn, New York, was ordained at Mirrer Yeshiva, has a law degree from New York University, has authored three books, and has established a Jewish Identity Center in Jerusalem.

The article stated further that Kahane has been arrested numerous times in connection with his belief in a strong Jewish identity and will stand trial in Israel in November, 1974, on charges of "attempting to smuggle arms to Europe to combat Palestinian terrorists in 1973." Additional information regarding Kahane's speaking engagement may be obtained from the local office of the JDL, 3410 Geary Boulevard, San Francisco, telephone 752-3335.

On October 15, 1974, there appeared an article in the San Francisco "Examiner," entitled, "Rabbi Kahane Warns City's Jews of Doom." The article stated in part as follows:

Kahane criticized San Francisco Jews for contributing to organizations that were not completely Jewish and for not helping the Jewish poor. He also criticized local Jewish leaders for tolerating free speech for the Nazis. "Nazis who would put you in gas chambers have no rights."

Kahane announced the creation of "Project Hadar," a self-defense program that gives young Jews "both a Jewish head and a Jewish fist."

JDL, Kahane said, has a bad image, which is good. Jews generally have a good image, which is bad. "I'm not in the business of being loved."

Kahane stated that the JDL has between 3,000 and 4,000 members, down from a high of 15,000. He blamed the decline in membership on everything from "a bad, bad press, to the FBI and members' wives and dogs."

b2/b7D
On October 16, 1974, [REDACTED] furnished the following information regarding Kahane's speech of October 15, 1974, which source said was delivered to approximately 130 people:

[REDACTED] stated Kahane's speech was mostly an elaboration of three main points about how to be a good Jew: (1) Return to the Torah, presumably Orthodox study and practice, (2) "Thou shalt not stand by thy brother's blood" - defend other Jews, (3) "Go Home" to Israel - the U.S. is not your country. He elaborated on how young Jews who marched for Ho Chi Minh were more logical than their parents who observed one part of the Law (the Torah, etc.) and not other parts. Nothing less than a complete return to the Bible and orthodox prescriptions would be satisfactory for the true Jew, according to Kahane. Defending other Jews is a necessity, he said, elaborating his second point. Violence is justified to save another Jew. There is no such thing as a Syrian Jew - there are just Jews who happen to live in Syria. There is no point, he said, blaming the Vatican or Roosevelt, for not saving Jews in World War II - could we have expected more? The people to blame were American Jewish religious leaders who did not sit down, 50,000 strong, on Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington, to, by mass protest, demand and get the bombing of the death camp supply lines by Roosevelt. Martin Luther King broke the law for blacks - to save the life of a Jew, anything is justified, said Kahane, but no more than is minimally necessary. Violence is not proper if it is not necessary.

MEIR D. KAHANE

b2/b7D [redacted] advised Kahane stated it is necessary to deal with a Hitler and such types swiftly and necessarily when the time arises. "He who is merciful to the cruel is destined someday to be cruel to the merciful," quoted Kahane. Those Jews who defended Hitler's right to organize in the 1920s were ultimately cruel to themselves and to the merciful and the civil libertarians. If Earl Raab (leader of the San Francisco Jewish Community Relations Council) saw an Egyptian beating a Jew, what would he do - start a committee to study the problem, said Kahane. But Moses taught us what to do. He saw an Egyptian beating a Jew, and he "smote him."

[redacted] advised Kahane propounded a number of "axioms," such as Axiom III - "not an inch of Israeli land is to be surrendered." The Arabs are right, he said - the land there is all one - it belongs to the Jews. Axiom IV - Kissinger is no good for the Jews. He is a pathological liar and his policies are based on deceit, Kahane said.

b2/b7D
b7C [redacted] advised Kahane's final exhortation to the audience was to them, and especially to the "young people" to "go home" to Israel where they would be safe and where they belong. The U.S., he said, is on the verge of economic collapse, and people will want the Jews as scapegoats. After his speech he took questions from the audience. Outside the auditorium and prior to the meeting, a number of Jewish youths were distributing an anti-Kahane leaflet.

[redacted]

b7C On October 18, 1974, [redacted] advised that Rabbi Kahane spoke in San Francisco on October 15, 1974, for the purpose of raising funds for the San Francisco Chapter of the JDL. Before the speech a number of JDL members along with private police searched the auditorium for explosives. Members were given assignments to pass out literature about the JDL and Kahane. At approximately 7:30 p.m., a group of protestors from the Berkeley Union of Jewish Students (believed to be identical with the Jewish Student Union at the University of California at Berkeley) arrived to protest the presence of Kahane and there were numerous verbal arguments between members of the JDL and the Jewish student group. Kahane arrived at 8:30 p.m. and spoke for two hours on the problems with Jews in America. His speech centered mainly around the middle-class Jews and their latent neglect of Judaism. Kahane also touched on the condition of Israel and the future war with the Arab nations, which he said is inevitable. At the close of his speech Kahane announced the start of a new organization which he is trying to form. The name of the organization is SOIL, Save Our Israel, and he asked for volunteers who wanted to form a chapter to come up after his speech and sign a register. Approximately ten people signed the SOIL organization roster. It was announced at the meeting that the JDL had planned a sit-in at the Jewish Federation Building at San Francisco for October 16, 1974, which would be lead by Rabbi Kahane. The invitation was extended for anyone who wanted to join that activity.

b2/b2D [REDACTED] stated that Kahane would be going back to Israel in two weeks.

On November 1, 1974, [REDACTED] advised that there were approximately 125 people at the Veterans Auditorium on October 15, 1974, to hear the speech by Rabbi Kahane. Source stated he considered that approximately 50 individuals were either JDL members or supporters. He believed 50 of the individuals were students from the Hebrew Academy, a local private Jewish School, and the remaining individuals were believed to be unaffiliated with any specific organization.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] learned that the JDL had contacted local press, advising them of an intended demonstration and had, in fact, attempted to enter the Jewish Welfare Federation Offices but were turned away by the recently procured security personnel.

APPENDIX

JEWISH DEFENSE LEAGUE

The Jewish Defense League (JDL), organized in September, 1968 by Rabbi Meir D. Kahane and headquartered in New York, New York is composed primarily of young Jewish-American extremists who consider themselves to be protectors of "Jewish rights" and supporters of the State of Israel in its relations with other nations of the world, particularly those of the Middle East. The JDL has chapters located in several of the larger metropolitan areas of the United States and many of its members have been trained in self-defense and the use of firearms. JDL members have engaged in numerous harassing demonstrations throughout the United States while attempting to dramatize the conditions of Jews in the Soviet Union and in Arab nations. Many of its militant members and sympathizers, while combatting what they believe to be anti-Semitism, have engaged in acts of terrorism resulting in violence and the impairment of diplomatic relations between the United States and certain other nations of the world. Rabbi Kahane, former International Director of the organization, has publicly proclaimed on several occasions that violence is necessary at times to accomplish the objectives of JDL.

On October 23, 1974, [redacted] advised that Meir Kahane spoke before a gathering of several hundred individuals at 7001 North California Street, Chicago, Illinois, on the evening of October 20, 1974. The main thrust of Kahane's remarks concerned the "Peril of Israel" and the immediate urgent need for volunteers from around the world to travel to Israel to assist in the struggle against anti-Semitism. Kahane stated he had recently come from Israel where his wife and children still reside. He said he will return to them in the near future and that he has no fear of prosecution from either the United States or the Israeli Governments. Kahane never specifically stated what duties the volunteers would have when they arrived in Israel but he stated "There is room for every able bodied person."

Approximately ten minutes of Kahane's remarks were devoted to a personal attack on the United States Secretary of State Henry Kissinger and his foreign policy. Kahane opposed the detente with the Soviets and strongly supported the policies of Senator Henry Jackson.

Kahane concluded his remarks with an impassioned appeal on behalf of Israel, stating that Israel is now "fighting for its life." He called for all those interested in aiding Israel to sign up at a table near the podium. It was not indicated exactly what persons were volunteering for when they signed up, but Kahane specified that putting ones name on the list did not mean that person was expected to travel to Israel in the near future. Kahane indicated that there were other ways to help and [REDACTED] assumed this meant financial donations. [REDACTED] indicated that 30 to 40 individuals signed the petition.

No collections or contributions were sought at this meeting but Kahane did promote several upcoming events which he indicated would be fund raising events on behalf of Israel [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] During his remarks Kahane never mentioned the Jewish Defense League (JDL) specifically and no JDL banners were evident in the audience. There were four or five young Jews at the front of the auditorium in front of the speakers podium who apparently were meant to provide physical protection for Kahane.

[REDACTED] stated that the recent lecture on October 20, 1974, by Meir D. Kahane was attended by several members of the Chicago Chapter of the JDL.

Intelligence Division

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 2/24/75

This relates to Meir D. Kahane, founder and international director of the Jewish Defense League (JDL), who has been on Federal probation since July, 1971, for violating the Federal Gun Control Act. He was convicted in June, 1974, in Israel for attempting to harm Israeli foreign relations. He was convicted a second time in November, 1974, for attempting to transport automatic weapons and ammunition from Israel to the U.S.

Attached pertains to his revocation of probation on 2/21/75 in the Eastern District of New York and his sentence to one year incarceration. He was released on his own recognizance until 2/26/75 when his attorney will submit appeal papers. However, his movements were restricted by the judge to New York City and Eastern District of New York.

Attached has been disseminated to State Department, Secret Service, Department of Justice, and all FBI offices on Kahane's proposed speaking tour.
