[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

On September 27, 1928, he was naturalized in the United States District Court, Eastern District of New York, under certificate number 2517814. At this time he changed his name to MEYER LANSKY.

It is noted that school records for subject, set forth in detail later in this report, reflect his birth date as August 28, 1902.

The "New York Journal American", a daily New York City newspaper, in its issue of February 21, 1958, carried an article captioned "Gambler Faces Ouster to Poland". This article reflected that INS was preparing deportation proceedings against LANSKY.

On July 25, 1958, MORTON ROBSON, Assistant United States Attorney, Southern District of New York, advised that the denaturalization proceedings against the subject were dismissed on May 28, 1958, for lack of prosecution. Mr. ROBSON stated they cannot be reinstituted in New York since subject is now a resident of Florida.

Application number 6697-29 was issued to MEYER LANSKY, white, male, age 26, and ANNIE CITRON, white, female, age 18. LANSKY's parents were MAX, born in Russia, and YETTA, born in Russia. His residence was 6 Columbia Street, New York City.

A review of the material concerning MEYER LANSKY determined that prior to the revolution in Cuba, LANSKY was extremely active in legalized gambling in Cuba. After the successful revolution in Cuba and the taking over of the Government by CASTRO, LANSKY returned to the U. S. (about 1/59). He now resides at 612 Hibiscus Dr., Golden Isles, Hallandale, Fla.

DATE:

WEF: 408:ew

Criminal DivisionSUBJECT: Meyer Lansky

Intelligence Report, dated September 23, 1960, headed "Meyer Lansky Anti-Racketeering", prepared by [REDACTED]

Naturalization forms filed by Lansky on April 3, 1926, and April 14, 1927, respectively, state that his then occupation was "machinist". Although he was trained as a machinist, if it can be shown that he had stopped working in that capacity and had actually become a racketeer before he was naturalized, it may be possible to have the order of September 28, 1928, granting his naturalization, set aside.

It will be appreciated, therefore, if you will inform us whether [REDACTED] can be made available for interview and use as a witness. We shall also appreciate being informed of the identity and availability of [REDACTED] who may have knowledge that Lansky was identified with crime during the period beginning five years prior to April 14, 1927, when his petition for naturalization was filed, until the date of the admission to citizenship. Testimony that he was engaged in criminal activities shortly before or shortly after this period would be pertinent.

Receipt is acknowledged of your memorandum of March 1, 1961, [REDACTED] ew 38-51-3702.

Inquiry is being made to determine if [REDACTED] listed in report of Special Agent [REDACTED], dated at Miami, Florida, September 23, 1960, is available for testimony concerning Lansky's criminal activities during the five years prior to April 14, 1927. Inquiry is also being made to determine if [REDACTED] are available for similar testimony.

You will be advised as soon as the pertinent findings have been made.

NOTE:

Department suggests possibility of denaturalization proceedings against Lansky if it can be established he was engaged in criminal activities during five-year period immediately prior to naturalization 4/14/27. Lansky was born in Poland and as a small child immigrated to U. S. with parents. By airtel 3/3/61 appropriate offices instructed to review files and advise Bureau by 3/10/61 of pertinent data.

Re Miami airtel, 5/2/61.

Mrs. MEYER LANSKY interviewed at her home, 612 Hibiscus Drive, Golden Isles, Hallandale, Fla. She stated MEYER LANSKY was suffering severely from ulcers and had gone off on an auto trip for a few days. She stated he has to be alone during these attacks.

Mrs. LANSKY went into a tirade about the "harassing tactics of the FBI." She said it was a shame that the FBI was contacting friends and associates of LANSKY and making inquiry about him as he had a clean record and nothing to hide, and these tactics were a source of embarrassment to him. She stated she would tell her husband that the FBI had made inquiry of her concerning him, and that he would contact the FBI Office in Miami on his return.

IN VIEW OF LANSKY'S BACKGROUND AND FORMER ARRESTS FOR HOMICIDE, HE SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

at subject's residence, April 18 through 27, 1961, failed to reflect any evidence subject had returned home. A man, possibly identical with subject, was observed by SA [REDACTED] at this residence on April 28, 1961. b7c

On May 3, 1961, Mrs. MEYER LANSKY was interviewed at this address. She stated MEYER was suffering from ulcers, and had gone off on an auto trip for a few days. She stated he has to be alone during these attacks. Mrs. LANSKY went into a tirade about the "harrassing tactics of the FBI". She said it was a shame that the FBI was contacting friends and associates of LANSKY, and making inquiry about him, as he had a clean record, and nothing to hide, and these tactics were a source of embarrassment to him. She stated she would tell her husband that the FBI had made inquiry of her concerning him, and that he would contact the FBI Office in Miami on his return.

Figurs on May 3 through 9, 1961, failed to reflect the subject at his residence or at his known hangouts in the Miami area.

On May 10, 1961, LANSKY telephonically contacted the FBI Office at Miami, Florida, and stated he was available for interview at his residence.

By communication dated April 28, 1961, the New York Office advised that:

The following investigation at New York, New York, was conducted by SA [REDACTED] in an effort to locate subject. Subject had not been seen or heard from by any of these individuals: b7c

MEYER LANSKY, 612 Hibiscus Drive, Golden Isles, Florida, advised prior to interview he had contacted his lawyer, and was advised not to answer anything which he thought might incriminate him. He stated he knew [REDACTED] for many years. He said he last saw [REDACTED] about a year ago in Miami. He said he saw him socially, and it was not a business contact. He said he believed [REDACTED] at this time is somewhere in California. He said he believed [REDACTED] is living in Italy, with her two children. He said he believes she moved there from Switzerland, to take advantage of the Italian schools. He said he did not know why she lived abroad. He said he does not have any business interests with [REDACTED] at this time. He refused to discuss any business dealings he may have had with [REDACTED] on the advice of his lawyer. LANSKY stated he knew he was being investigated by the Internal Revenue, and said he was not going to be pinned down to specifics in any way, as he was not going to incriminate himself in any way. His attitude was friendly, but he evaded all questions on business, or contacts. He advised he was legally married to his present wife, THELMA, but refused to say where or when. He said he felt he was being persecuted because of his name, and said he took a "fall" in the Arrowhead Inn fiasco because there had been a falling out amongst politicians, and he was offered up as a ~~Sop~~ as a consequence.
