FRANK NITTI, LOUIS ROMANC and FREDERICK EVANS were arrested with MURRAY HUMPHREYS in October, 1940, as a result of an indictment for conspiracy to embezzle $350,000 from the Bartenders and Vaiters Union, Local 27°. They were found not guilty in December, 1940, when GEORGE MC LANE, the business agent of the union, who had instigated the prosecution refused to identify the defendants as the individuals responsible for the embezzlement.

"The Chicago Sun Times" of May 1, 1955, reported hat acting chief of Detectives HARRY BENZIN had stated he was looking for MURRAY "The Camel" HUMPHREYS and SAM "golfbag" HUNT, for questioning in the bombing of the Rogers Park home of an attorney MORRIS I. KAPLAN, 1040 Albion which caused $500 damage to the home and about $1,000 to surrounding windows.

on the grounds that he had failed to declare an item of $50,000 which was paid to him in the form of ransom
after HUMPHREYS had reportedly kidnapped ROBERT G.
FITCHIE in 1931. FITCHIE was kidnapped and held for two days until the ransom money was paid. It was in 1939 during the Internal Revenue Department case in May that facts were brought to light that HUMPHREYS was the man who had received the ranson. He was not brought to trial for this, however, because the Illinois Statute of Limitations had run out.

On a previous occasion the Internal Revenue Department was instrumental in sending HUMPHREYS to Leavenworth Penitentiary from October 27, 1934 to January 8, 1936 for income tax evasion. In connection with the above mentioned ransom money, the Internal Revenue Department demanded that HUMPHREYS pay $74,000 in interest and penalties.

An article in the Chicago Tribune reflected that Miss LENA PUETZ, 920 Wesley Avenue, Oak Park Avenue, had identified pictures of MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS and WILLIAM "Klondike" O'CCNNELL as the individuals who were with WILLIAM "Three Fingered" JACK WHITE prior to his being killed.

On August 9. 1946, HUMPHREYS was observed ()()()(e) by SAs and in conversation with JACK GUZIK in the lobby of the Chicagoan Hotel, Clark and Madison Streets.

The "Chicago Tribune" on May 11, 1933, carried an article reflecting that in July, 1932, MURRAY HUMPHREYS along with "Three Fingered" JACK WHITE, STUDDY LOONEY, "Klondike" O'DONNELL and FRANKIE DIAMOND visited the office of the Milk Wagon Drivers Union, 220 South Ashland Avenue.

On June 23, 1932, Chicago Crime Commission thought the members of the Meadow Moore Dairy were MURRAY HUMPHREYS, "Three Fingered" JACK WHITE and GECRGE "Red" BARKER.

that officials of the cencern, the International Cleaners () (7)(c) and Dyers, Incorporated, had been threatened by MURRAY HUMPHREYS and "machine gun" JACK MC GURN, CAPONE gangsters.

An article appearing in the "Chicago Tribune" of January 13, 1932, concerning the ROSENBERG killing states as follows:

"One of the reports seemingly well substantiated that his (ROSENBERG's) International Cleaners and Dyers, which had its plant at 2810 South State Street, came in conflict with another South Side concern in which MURRAY HUMPHREYS and "machine gun" JACK MC GURN, another CAPONE lieutenant, were interested. ROSENBERG's methods were superior, his prices reasonable and he was taking the HUMPHREYS - MC GURN business. What happened afterwards was released by his wife:

'He was seized she said and taken to the office of MORRIS KAPLAN, a lawyer and two men one of the men a representative of his business rival and the other a young man, told him to get out of business and stay out."

Commission, advised in Nevember, 1943, that MURRAY HUMPHREYS did not think he was making enough money through a legal business, so in the early 1920s, he branched out and became an accomplice of the CAPONE gang. While connected with CAPONE, he acted as his bedy guard and was a terrorist and "muscle man". He became active in the CAPONE organization throughout Probition days but with the advent of the repeal of Probition, HUMPHREYS sought a new source of income.

He secured centrel of the Klever-Shampay Karpet Kleaners, Incerperated, 4633 Cettage Greve Avenue. His wife, MARY HUMPHREYS also ewned a few shares of stock in this organization and it was estensibly headed by one was the front man of the Klever-Shampay Karpet Kleaners outside and also handled the routine administration and all of the work. HUMPHREYS! purpose was to line up customers which he did by terrerizing and threatening metheds. One incident of this was on April 23, 1941 when ANTON GORCZAK, a truck driver for a rival cleaning establishment was clubbed to death in a small cleaning and dyeing stere at 1745 West 63rd Street. The ewner of the store, a man named had decided to give up his cleaning business to the organization for which GORCZAK was a pick up man and on the first day that GORZAK went to the above named address, he was followed into the store by two men, knocked down and bludgeoned with a heavy weeden club, which resulted in his death five heurs later. Subsequent investigation by the States's Atterney's Office resulted in the arrest of ene DAVID GOLDBLATT, who confessed that he was the driver of the car which was used by the killers of GORCZAK. GOLDBLATT admitted that he had been hired for this jeb for a price GOLDBIATT was tried and sentenced te a leng term in the Illineis State Penitentiary but after he had served a year and one-half of the sentence, the Illinois Supreme Court revised the decision and he was ordered released because it was claimed that there was insufficient evidence and because the evidence obtained was obtained only after GOLDBLATT had been administered a heavy beating.

Another of HUMPHREYS! business deals was his position as an "Official" of the Individual Towel Company, which organization supplied towel service to loop office buildings and they had a contract with the City of Chicago to supply towels to the penny lunch rooms, swimming pools and such in the Chicago Public School System. This contract amounted to $15,000 and when an investigation reflected that HUMPHREYS was connected with the organization, the city replied that it did not know that he was an official of the organization and the reason that he secured the contract was that the Individual Towel Company was the low bidder in this connection. It was also assertained that the above named DAN GOLDBLATT oase was employed by the Individual Towel Company.

After the trial and conviction of DAN GOLDBLATT for the murder of ANTON GORCZAK and GOLDBLATT's statement that he had been hired by gangsters to do the job, Mayor KELLY of Chicago, closed the Klever-Shampay Karpet Kleaners and refused to issue a new license.

The files of the Chicage Crime Commission reflect that on April 28, 1920, MURRAY HUMPHREYS was indicted with one HARRY OISON and JAMES WHEATLEY on a rebbery charge. The robbery was at B. J. Hagamann's Jewelry Store on January 2, 1920. He was also indicted with HARRY OISON and one JOSEPH HADAD on a charge of robbery of Mandel Brethers Barn, 4812 Cottage Greve Avenue, on December 19, 1929. The defendants, HARRY OISON, JAMES WHEATLEY and JOSEPH HADAD, were tried and found guilty and sentenced to prison terms. MURRAY L. HUMPHRYES was not apprehended, and the indictments were stricken off with leave to reinstate. Subsequently the indictments were reinstated, and a hearing set for April 18, 1927. Eventually the order reinstating the indictments was vacated.

The records of the Chicago Crime Commission reflect that on June 17, 1920, MURRAY HUMPHREYS was indicted on one charge of rebbery and one charge of burglary. These indictments were stricken off with leave to reinstate on September 22, 1920 because the defendant had not been apprehended. On January 30, 1930, MURRAY HUMPHREYS was arrested in the room of RALPH PIERCE, a reported member of the alleged Chicago Crime Syndicate and reputed bedyguard of MURRAY HUMPHREYS, on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. This case was subsequently not pressed in the Felony Court, and an indictment which had been returned was also dismissed.

The records of the Crime Commission also reflect that MURRAY HUMPHREYS and RALPH PIERCE were arrested on Nevember 11, 1930 at 910 South Halsted Street. On a piane in this room were six leaded revolvers. MURRAY HUMPHREYS and PIERCE were charged with vagrancy. Official disposition of this case is not known.

An article appearing in the "Chicage Tribume" on Nevember 21, 1931 stated that MARTIN P. MURPHY, President of the Advanced Linen Towel Supply, 2516 Armitage Avenue, was severely beaten by two heodlums. MURPHY claimed that MURRAY HUMPHREYS was at the head of the Linea Supply Association, and that his troubles had started when he, MURPHY, refused to contribute to a fund for the purchase of an automobile for HUMPHREYS.

The records of the Chicago Crime Commission reflect that on March 22, 1932, MURRAY HUMPHREYS, described then as the principal manager of AL CAPONE's gambling interests, was arrested in front of the New Southern Hotel, 13th and Michigan. After being run through the police show-up, he was released.

Records from the same source reflect that unknown hoodlums had kidnaped Dr. FREDERICK GRUNEK, physician and surgeon, whose office was located at 3954 Sheridan Road. Dr. GRUNEK was taken to the New Southern Hotel where MURRAY HUMPHREYS is reported to have threatened him with death if he did not agree to withdraw charges of unethical conduct which Dr. GRUNEK had placed before the Chicago Medical Society against Dr. MAX THOREK, operator of the American Hospital, 850 Irving Park Boulevard. Dr. GRUNEK agreed to withdraw charges and telephoned the President of the Chicago Medical Society to that effect. After his release, Dr. GRUNEK revised the charges and was again kidnaped and forced at the point of a gun to sign a statement drawn up by an attorney whom he knew only as "KAPLAN", in which he denied charges of unethical conduct against Dr. THOREK.

An article appearing in the "Chicago Tribune" on August 10, 1932, stated that MURRAY HUMPHREYS; MARCUS "STUDDY" LOONEY, a Chicago hoodlum now deceased; GEORGE "RED" BARKER, (deceased); R. J. O'MALLEY, a reported Chicago hoodlum, and WILLIAM "KLONDIKE" O'DONNELL, a Chicago hoodlum now deceased, were attempting to dominate the Teamsters Union, and that in June of 1932 they demanded of STEVE SUMMER, Business Agent of the Milk Wagon Drivers Union, control of that union.

An article in the "Chicago Tribune" on January 13, 1933, stated that HUMPHREYS was picked up for questioning in the killing of TED NEWBURY, a reported Chicago hoodlum.

CG 92-348 (1-)(c)

An article in the "Chicage Tribune" on March 7, 1933 stated that HUMPHREYS tegether with CHARLIE FISCHETTI, a ceusin of AL CAPONE, and a reported member of the alleged Chicage Crime Syndicate, was questioned about the murder of DENNIS H. ZEIGLAR, a labor official.

An article in the "Chicage Tribume", the exact date of which is unknown, reflected that a Miss LENA PUETZ, 920 Wesley Avenue, Oak Park, Illinois, had identified pictures of MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS and WILLIAM "KLONDIKE" O'DONNELL, whe were with WILLIAM "THREE-FINGERED" JACK WHITE prior to his being killed.

The "Chicage Tribune" on May 11, 1933, carried an article reflecting that in July of 1932, MURRAY HUMPHREYS, "THREE-FINGERED" JACK WHITE, "STUDDY" LOONEY, "KIONDIKE" O'DONNELL and FRANKIE DIAMOND, a reported member of the alleged Chicago Crime Syndicate presently in a federal pentientiary and related by marriage to AL CAPONE, visited the effice of the Milk Wagen Drivers Union, 220 South Ashland, where they told union efficials, "We are going to take ever this joint." Subsequently HUMPHREYS is reported to have preposed to STEVE SUMMER that he accept $100,000 and retire as union business agent, and upon retirement HUMPHREYS and his meb were to take ever the union, thereby securing control of the union's treasury amounting to approximately $800,000.

On June 4, 1933, an article appeared in the "Chi-cage Tribune" which reflected that MURRAY HUMPHREYS, "THREE-FINGERED" JACK WHITE and CHARLES FISCHETTI, a cousin and enetime bedyguard for AL CAPONE and currently reported member of the alleged Chicage Syndicate, appeared in the Feleny Court on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. The disposition of this case is not known.

In an article appearing in the "Chicage American" on May 2, 1933, reflected that Captain DAN GILBERT, Chief Investigator for the State's Atterney's Office, described

CG 92-348 (ト)(つ)(ウ)

MURRAY HUMPHREYS as Public Enemy Number 1 and czar of the business rackets in Chicago. Captain GILBERT was quoted as stating that through control of certain Labor unions HUMPHREYS forced the cleaning and dyeing industry to pay tribute to him.

On July 28, 1933, MURRAY HUMPHREYS, AL CAPONE and 32 others were indicted by the Cook County Grand Jury on charges of conspiracy to control the cleaning and dyeing industry, the carbonated beverage and linen supply industries through kidnapings, strikes, bombings, slayings and acid throwing.

In 1939, the Internal Revenue Department brought HUMPHREYS into court for failure to declare an item of $50,000 ransom paid to him and GEORGE "RED" BARKER (deceased) for the purported kidnaping of ROBERT C. FITCHIE, President of the Milk Drivers Union. STEVE SUMMER, Treasurer and Business Manager of the union, identified HUMPHREYS and BARKER as the two persons who collected the ransom paid by the union for FITCHIE's release. This kidnaping occurred in December of 1931, and HUMPHREYS was fined $74,000 inasmuch as the statute of limitations barred any presecution.

On July 6, 1939.

complained to the Chicago FBI Office that MURRAY HUMPHREYS controls the cleaning and dyeing interests in Chicago through the drivers union and the Inside Workers Union. He claimed that HUMPHREYS controlled these unions through strong arm methods, and was seeking to get control of the entire industry by gaining control of the retailers by the same method.

In Cataber, 1940, MURRAY HUMPHREYS, together with FRANK "THE ENFORCER" NITTI, (deceased) former reported member of the alleged Crime Syndicate; LOUIS ROMANO, former president of the Bartenders and Beverage Dispensers Union, and reported associate of members of the alleged Chicago Crime Syndicate; FREDE ICK EVANS, reported member of the alleged Chicago Crime Syndicate; and other were indicted for conspiracy to embezzle $350,000 in the union. These defendants were found not guilty when GEORGE MC LANE, the Business Agent of the union, who had instigated the presecution, refused to identify the defendants as the individuals responsible for the Syndicate taking over the Bartenders Union.

On May 5, 1941 an anenymous complainant advised the Crime Commission that MURRAY HUMPHREYS and FRED EVANS were partners in the Ruby Dry Cleaners, 2807 Mentrese, and a number of ether enterprises.

In an article dated October 25, 1941 the "Chicage Tribune" published some ledger sheets which were supposedly found in the apartment of JACK GUZIK, a reported member of the alleged Chicage Crime Syndicate, which ledger sheets were supposedly seen only by JACK GUZIK, FRANK "THE ENFORCER" NITTI, EDWARD VOGEL, a reported member of the Chicago Criminal Syndicate, and MURRAY HUMPHREYS, and pertained to gambling activities of the Syndicate in the Chicago area.

On February 3, 1942, the "Chicago Tribune" observed that HUMPHREYS had been arrested on general principles. He was released on February 4, 1942. On May 12, 1942, the "Chicago Tribune" disclosed that MURRAY HUMPHREYS surrendered to the police and appeared before a grand jury which was investigating gambling in Cook County.

On May 14, 1942, a confidential informant of unknown reliability advised the Chicago Crime Commission that (1)(7)(6) control of labor unions, as well as vice and gambling was in the hands of FRANK NITTI, MURRAY HUMPHREYS, LOUIS CAMPAGNA, and the latter three also being reported members of the alleged Chicago Crime Syndicate.

The "Chicage Sun" newspaper published in Chicage en October 1, 1943 disclosed that JAMES RAGAN had teld police that MARTIN "SONNY BOY" QUIRK, former Chicage heedlum, new deceased, planned the murder of DANNY STANTON (deceased), a reperted gambler on the South Side, and thereafter took ever dated 12/26/57 at Chicago.

Although this report contains considerable background information it would appear that the information is largely the result of a file review and that little current active investigation is represented in the report. It is further noted that the information deals largely with Humphreys' activities in the 1930's and 1940's and that only a relative small amount of the information pertains to his activities since 1950.

It cannot be emphasised too strongly that the success of this program demands vigorous, active investigation to develop the activities of the subject.

In connection with the further investigation of Humphreys consideration should be given to obtaining his up-to-date record from the Identification Division and consideration should also be given to reviewing police and court records concerning all known arrests.

It is noted that the Bureau is presently attempting to locate Humphreys for the benefit of the Senate Select Committee on Improper Activities in the Labor or Management Field. You should insure immediate handling of all leads to locate Humphreys and the Bureau should be kept currently advised of any information as to Humphreys whereabouts.

In addition to the items mentioned in Bulet 11/27/57 full compliance is to be had with the points covered in Bulet 1/15/58 which was addressed to the New York Office with copies to all continental offices.

C. ASSOCIATES

Through the years HUMPHREYS has associated with almost all of the prominent so-called Syndicate members in Chicago. Investigation reflects that with almost all of the prominent so-called Syndica members in Chicago. Investigation reflects that probably his closest associates are the following:

> RALPH PIERCE, who reportedly controls gambling on Chicago's south side and is an alleged member of the so-called Syndicate.

EDWARD VOGEL, who controls the operation and placement of slot machines in Cook County, Illinois and is also amprominent member of the so-called Syndicate.

During their life times HUMPHREYS associated with CHARLES GICE, who was convicted in the Browne-Bioff movie extortion case in 1943; SAMUEL "Golf Bag" HUNT, who controlled gambling on Chicago's south side; CHARLES FISCHETTI, who controlled gambling on Chicago's north side; JACK GUZIK, the financial wizard for the old CAPCNE gang; and "Three Fingered" JACK WHITE, a mob gunman. All of these individuals were members of the Chicago Crime Syndicate who are now deceased.

D. CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES

Chicago Crime Commission, in November, 1943, advised that HUMPHREYS joined the old CAPONE gang in the early 1920's and while connected with CAPONE acted as his bodyguard, a terrorist and a muscle man. Shortly after the repeal of prohibition HUMPHREYS secured control of the Klever Shampay Karpet Kleaners, Incorporated, 4633 Cottage Grove Avenue, which was obstensibly headed by one SAMUEL CAINES, with aliases SAM GINSBERG and Doc GINSBERG. HUMPHREYS activities in connection with this company was to obtain customers which he did through threats and terror.

The files of the Chicago Crime Commission reflect that on April 28, 1920, HUMPHREYS was indicted for robbery with HARRY OLSON and JAMES WHEATLEY. These files reflect further that on December 19, 1920 he was indicted for the robbery of Mandel Brothers Barn on Cottage Grove Avenue. His co-defendants were found guilty but HUMPHREYS was not apprehended and the indictments were stricken with leave to reinstate. Subsequently the indictments were reinstated but eventually the order reinstating the indictments was vacated.

In the "Chicago Tribune" on November 21, 1931, it was reported that MARTIN P. MURPHY, President of the Advance Linen Towel Supply, 2516 Armitage Avenue, was severely beaten by two hoodlums. MURPHY claimed HUMPHREYS was at the head of the Linen Supply Association and that his troubles had started when he refused to contribute to a fund for the purchase of an automobile for HUMPHREYS.

The Crime Commission files reflect that on March 22, 1932, HUMPHREYS, who was then the principal manager of AL CAPCNE's gambling interests, was arrested but released after standing in a show-up. The Crime Commission records reflect that unknown hoodlums had kidnapped a Dr. FREDERICK GRUNEK and took him to the New Southern Hotel where HUMPHREYS reportedly threatened him with death if he did not agree to withdraw charges of unethical conduct the doctor had brought against a Dr. MAX THOREK, who operated the American Hospital, 850 Irving Park Boulevard. Under this duress GRUNEK withdrew the charges. After his release, Dr. GRUNEK revived the charges and was again kidnapped and this time forced at gun point to sign a statement which was drawn up by an attorney known to him only as KAPLAN, in which he denied the charges of unethical conduct against Dr. THOREK.

In the "Chicago Tribune" on August 10, 1932, appeared an article reporting that HUMPHREYS, MARCUS "Studdy" LOONEY, GEORGE "Red" BARKER, R. J. O'MALLEY, and WILLIAM "Klondike" O'DONNEL were attempting to dominate the Teamsters Union. LOONEY, BARKER and O'DONNELL were described as Chicago hoodlums. They are now all deceased.

The "Chicago Tribune" on January 13, 1933, reported that HUMPHREYS was picked up for questioning in connection with the murder of TED NEWBURY, a Chicago hoodlum. On March 7, 1933, the "Chicago Tribune" reported that HUMPHREYS, together with CHARLES FISCHETTI, was questioned in connection with the murder of DENNIS H. ZEIGLAR, a labor official. In an article on May 11, 1944, in the "Chicago Herald American" it was reported that HUMPHREYS was arrested and questioned in connection with the kidnapping of JACK HUGHES and the murder of JENS LARRISON.

The "Chicago Daily News" on May 26, 1945, reported that JAMES "Red" FAWCETT, a Chicago hoodlum, was shot and killed in a Chicago tavern on that date. The article reflected that the police were seeking in connection with this murder SAM HUNT, RALPH PIERCE, MURRAY HUMPHREYS and others.

The "Chicago Sun" on August 13, 1946, in an article written by reporter EDDIE DOUGHERTY, stated that HUMPHREYS was questioned in the murder of LLOYD ROURKE, a laundry wagon driver; in the murder of PETE ROSENBERG, a cleaner and dyer whose business was absorbed by HUMPHREYS; in the murder of MARINUS HVID, a garage owner; and in the murder of ANTON GORCZAK, a laundry driver who had been taking customers away from HUMPHREYS.

In an article appearing in the "Chicago Tribune" the date of which is unknown, it was reported that a witness had identified photographs of MURRAY HUMPHREYS and WILLIAM "Klondike" O'DONNELL as having been with WILLIAM "Three Fingered" JACK WHITE just prior to WHITE's murder.

On May 11, 1933, the "Chicago Tribune" carried an article reflecting that in July, 1932, HUMPHREYS, JACK WHITE, "Studdy" LOONEY, "Klondike" O'DONNELL, and FRANK DIAMOND, visited the Office of the Milk Wagon Drivers Union, 220 South Ashland, and stated to union officials, "We are going to take over this joint".

An article appearing in the "Chicago American" on May 2, 1933, quoted Captain DANIEL GILBERT, then Chief Investigator in the States Attorney's Office in Cook County, Illinois, as describing MURRAY HUMPHREYS as Public Enemy Number One and czar of the business rackets in Chicago. GILBERT was quoted as saying through control of certain labor unions HUMPHREYS forced the cleaning and dyeing industry to pay tribute to him.

In 1939, the Internal Revenue Bureau brought HUMPHREYS into court for failure to declare an item of $50,000.00 ransom paid to him and GEORGE "Red" BARKER for the purported kidnapping of ROBERT C. FITCHIE, President of the Wilk Drivers Union. The Treasury and Business Manager of the Union, STEVE SUMMER, identified HUMPHREYS and BARKER as the individuals who collected the ransom paid by the Union for FITCHIE's release. The kidnapping occurred in December, 1931. HUMPHREYS was fined $74,000.00. No action was taken against him for the kidnapping for the reason the statute of limitations barred any prosecution.

On July 6, 1939, one complained to the Chicago Office that MURRAY HUMPHREYS controls the cleaning and dyeing industry in Chicago through the drivers union and the Inside Workers Union. Claimed that HUMPHREYS controlled these unions through strongarm methods and that he was seeking to control the entire industry by controlling the retailers by the same method.

The "Chicago Tribune" on February 3, 1942; the "Chicago Sun" on October 1, 1943, and October 24, 1943, published articles describing MURRAY HUMPHREYS as a Crime Syndicate gambling figure.

On May 14, 1942, the Chicago Crime Commission received information that HUMPHREYS controlled not only labor unions but all vice and gambling in the Crime Syndicate along with a few other individuals.

Neighborhood Investigation

7710 South Bennett Chicago, Illinois

During the course of a neighborhood inquiry on October 31. 1958 South Bennett Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, was interviewed.

advised that he had known MURRAY.L. HUMPHREYS only slightly, as a neighbor had been called upon to treat HUMPHREYS professionally for a coronary condition. He could not recall the year this happened, but stated that it was the year the Kefauver Committee had wanted to question HUMPHREYS and had been unable to locate him.

(F)(7)(C):(D)

He said that there was an amusing story about HUMPHREYS at this hospital. When HUMPHREYS was questioned about whether he had hospitalizations insurance by the admitting officer, he pulled out a roll of $100.00 bills and waved them around, demanding, "is this hospitalization enough?" Said that this story went the rounds of the hospital, so that very soon everyone who worked there was aware of the identity of HUMPHREYS.

(1-)(7)(2):(1)

HUMPHREYS left the South Shore Hospital in an ambulance, and the next day, all the Chicago newspapers were publicizing the fact that he was wanted for questioning by the Kefauver Committee.

that HUMPHREYS had been a patient of the Wesley Memorial Hospital, Chicago, for a most unusual inflammatory disease of the optic nerve, which he believed he recalled had caused a total blindness in HUMPHREYS! left eye.

Also on October 31, 1958 an attempt was made to olicit any pertinent information about HUMPHREYS from who had been HUMPHREYS as neighbor, knew nothing about him, and did not want to talk about him.

In a effort to see whether HUMPHREYS might still own the premises at 7710 South Bennett, a further investigation was made at Chicago. It had been reported by Osklahema City that CLEMA BRENDLE HUMPHREYS, the now-deversed wife of the subject who resides near Norman, Oskiahema, was divorced in an uncontested suit on July 23, 1957 in Osklahema. Nothing further was known concerning the actual breakup of the HUMPHREYS whose home address is 7710 South Bennett, Chicago.

On November 6, 1958 an investigation was conducted by Investigative Clerk in the Cook County Recorder's Office, 121 North Clark Street, Chicago, from which the following information was reported:

The premises at 7710 South Bennett, legally described as lots 4 and 5; block 19, of the Smithfield Sub-Division, were sold to MARY C. BRENDLE (NB, this is a form of EUMPHREYS' wife's maiden name) on December 29, 1936 for approximately $13,000.00. A morgage to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company was given on December 1, 1936 in the amount of $8,400.00. These premises were sold by MURRAY L. HUMPHREYS and CLEMA HUMPHREYS to JOHN T. HONAGHAN, and MARCY MONAGHAN, the present owners, on March 16, 1953 for about $35,000.00. Document number 15483759 shows that a United States Government Internal Revenue Tax Lien was on this property, and Document Number 12690650 shows that this Lien was released as a part of this sale transaction in 1953.

On November 5, 1958 a survey was made to determine whether a survellance maintained on this building might provide pertinent information to this investigation. It is believed that such surveillance would not be productive at this time because of the difficulty of separating the identity of employees and visitors from employees of other nearby tenants.

Re: 4200 Marine Drive Apartment Building

survey of the listed tenants was made on November 5, 1958 without locating anyone who was known to be connected in anyway with the subject.

Re: Rumored Past Connection of MURRAY HUMPHREYS

There has been a persistent rumor in Chicago underworld circles that MURRAY HUMPHREYS was a college man and this was alleged to be one of the reasons he was thought to be the brain guy for the old Capone Mob. This story about HUMPHREYS was further backed up by the additional rumor that HUMPHREYS was at one time a partner of the Hillmans "Stop and Shop" Food-Stores at Chicago.

CG 92-318

(h)(¬)(c)

On November 10, 1958 of Hillmans, Inc., 30 West Washington Street, Chicago, advised that he has been with this company since 1929 and knows for a fact that MURRAY HUMPHREYS has never been connected with this company in anyway, whatsoever. Further, says that although he is not personally acquainted with HUMPHREYS, several years ago he had HUMPHREYS pointed out to him as a customer at the 63rd Street store of Hillmans, and at that time knew him by sight as a regular customer.

It was thought possible that if a legitimate employment of HUMPHREYS with the Hillmans Store could be located that someone could be found who could give information concerning his alleged college background.

Re:

(1)(1)(1)

Investigation was conducted and reported in this case during April and May, 1958, concerning information furnished by a police officer to the effect that MURRAY HUMPHREYS was living on a farm near Grays Lake, Illinois, under the name of Information that lived on Singing Hills Farm, Calahan Road, Round Lake, and operates the Franklin Park, Illinois, was reported, but file shows no definite statement that HUMPHREYS is not identical with interviewed at the office of the Franklin Park, Illinois. It was determined that who does bear a marked resemblance to the latest photograph of subject, was formerly acquainted with HUMPHREYS, although he said he has not seen subject in years, and has no idea of his current whereabouts. According to the fact that he never takes a drink. Is not identical with HUMPHREYS.

A physical surveillance in the area of the block of East Ontario Street; between North Michigan Boulevard and St. Clair Avenue, was maintained during the day of November 25. 1958. by SAS

At 11:05 AM; MURRAY HUMPHREYS was observed in Celano's Tailoring Shop, 2nd floor, 620 North Michigan. At this time he was observed to be in earnest conversation with and another unidentified man. Subsequent investigation indicates that this unidentified man might have been whose Cadillac automobile was observed to be parked opposite the Mike Fish Restaurant (C)(C) on East OntariotStreet during the entire period from approximately 10:30% AM, when it was first noted, to shortly after 4:00 PM. During this conversation at the Celano Tailoring Shop was observed to make some notes and HUMPHEYS did not remain in the view of observing agents for the period until 12:05 PM, but at 12:05 PM was observed to leave the front doorway at 620 North Michigan, run across Michigan Avenue, and enter the Mike Fish Restaurant. At 12:12 PM, Mr. HUMPHREYS and an unidentified man believed to be the same person with whom he had been speaking in Celano's walked to the Mike Fish Restaurant, entering it at 12:15 PM.

At 12:21 PM SAMUEL M. GIANCANA drove up in front of the Eastgate Hotel at the corner of East Ontario and St. Clair, got out of his car, and proceeded to the Mike Fish Restaurant which he entered, simply waving his hand at the Negro dcorman of the Eastgate Hotel. During the day this doorman was observed to move his automobile, which is a 1956 black, two door, Belaire Chevrolet,

As mentioned above at approximately 10:30 AM;
a Cadillac automobile bearing 1958 Illinois license from the Mike Fish Restaurant.

Further inquiry by SA indicates that on September 30, 1957, together with one was indicted by the Essex County New Jersy Grand Jury in 51 counts, charging and with embezzlement, false pretense; and illegally obtaining money from the treasury of the Laundry Workers Union. Further suitable investigation concerning the possible association of the subject with will be (b)(7)(c) conducted in view of the fact that MURRAY HUMPHREYS was himself indicted, although never convicted as a conspirator in taking over the management and looting the union funds of a similar union in Chicago.

It should be noted that during this surveillance the subject was observed to leave Mike Fish's Restaurant by the back door and the alley leading to St. Clair Avenue, and to walk the block south to the St. Clair Hotel carrying a box the size of a suit box under his arm. This was at 2:15 PM, and at (2:32 PM) the subject returned and entered the Mike Fish Restaurant by the back door, but did not carry the box on his ceturn trip.

A surveillance was again maintained in the same area on December 1, 1958, on which date the subject was observed to leave the Celano Tailoring Shop at 12:18

This surveillance was maintained until after 4:00 PM, at which time it was discontinued because of bad weather and poor visibility, however the subject was not observed to leave the Mike Fish Restaurant.

DETAILS:

I. Recent Appearance of HUMPHREYS

Before Special Federal Grand Jury
At Chicago, April 2, 1959

On April 2, 1959, Chicago metropolitan newspapers reported that MURRAY HUMPHREYS had appeared as a witness before the Special Federal Grand Jury at Chicago on that date. According to newspaper accounts, HUMPHREYS claimed to have flown into Chicago from Tucson on the morning of April 2, 1959. The Chicago "Sun Times" published a photograph of HUMPHREYS showing him wearing a patch over his left eye and leaning on a cane, a copy of which photograph has been forwarded to the Bureau. HUMPHREYS did not say, but did imply, that he is now living in Tucson forreasons of health.

(I-)(7)(c):(D)

Phoenix has advised that one BAIRD THIESSEN, City Editor of the Tucson "Daily Citizen" told the Associated Press that HUMPHREYS is "a Tucson resident who is returning to his Tucson home after testifying."

A review of Chicago general investigative intelligence files, and of the files regarding the CAPONE Gang, reflected considerable information which would support the contention (6)(2) by that HUMPHREYS does, in fact, control at least some (6)(2) of the laundry business in the Chicago area, however, even (6)(3) if he does, it seems doubtful whether even proof of such a secondary boycott as described above could be shown in restraint of trade, if provable.

Bureau is being advised of the nature and extent of Chicago file information on this matter in its recent inquiry under the caption: "Criminal Element in Business Field: Laundry and Cleaning Industry, Chicago Division".

It is noted from a April 14, 1959, file review that the Chicago Crime Commission has reported information indicating that HUMPHREYS and EVANS were partners with MAX RUBENSTEIN in the ownership of Ruby Cleaners as far back as 1946.

IV HUMPHREYS! Alleged Control of Laundry Drivers and Inside Workers Unions

It is noted that the Bureau desires to be further advised in regard to an allegation made by informant and other coverage of this phase of the case, with emphasis on the possibility of developing a violation by HUMPHREYS or his associates.

It should be pointed out to the Bureau that a review of Chicago files points up the fact that HUMPHREYS and his associates now apparently have the necessary control of the unions, and it appears that the purpose of the present operation is simply to maintain that control.

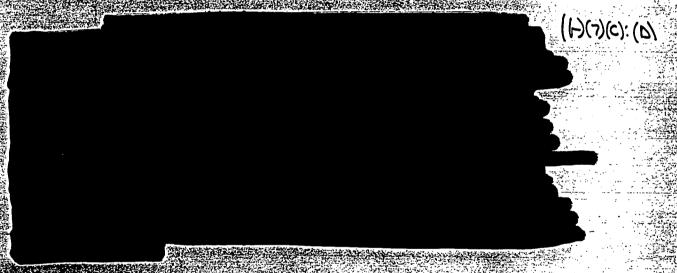

A file review made April 14, 1959, certainly indicates that every kind of violence was used by HUMPHREYS and his associates to get control of the unions; but it would appear that either the Statute of Limitations bars prosecution for those acts of violence attributed to HUMPHREYS and his friends, or he has once been in jeopardy for those acts and cannot again be prosecuted for them.

A few of the highlights produced by instant file review are these:

In the early 1930's it was alleged (the source of the allegation is not shown) that HUMPHREYS had gained control of the Chicago cleaning and dyeing industry through his control over the Drivers Union and the Inside Workers Union. One DAVID GOLDELATT, an employee of a carpet cleaning company owned by HUMPHREYS, located at 4633 Cottage Grove; Chicago, was tried and convicted for beating one ANTON GORCZAK to death with a baseball bat. GORCZAK was also a driver. GOLDBLATT testified that he had been hired to do this job by "DOC" GINSBERG, HUMPHREYS' partner in this rug cleaning business, Mayor KELLY of Chicago refused to permit the company's license to operate to be renewed, and HUMPHREYS was forced out of this business.

An unidentified source said that HUMPHREYS was the head of the Linen Suppliers Association at Chicago in 1931. One of the Advanced Linen Supply Company, 2516 Armitage Avenue, Chicago, was brutally beaten by two hoodlums on November 21, 1931. He told newspaper reporters that he haddeclined to contribute toward a new Cadillac for HUMPHREYS, and he supposed this was the reason for the beating.

In its issue of August 10, 1932, the "Chicago Herald Tribune" had a story stating that Chicago hoodlums MURRAY HUMPHREYS, MARCUS "STUDS" LOONEY, "RED" BARKER, R. J. O'MALLEY, and WILLIAM "KLONDIKE" O'DONNELL, were trying to dominate the entire Teamsters Union in the Chicago area, and had approached STEVE SUMMER, Business Agent for the Milk Wagon Drivers Union, and demanded control of this union. In its issue of May 11, 1933, the "Tribune" reported that these men, together with FRANK DIAMOND (true name FRANK MARITOTE) had approached STEVE SUMMER in the business office of this union, 220 South Ashland, Chicago, during July, 1932, and that HUMPHREYS had offered SUMMER $100,000 cash if SUMMER would retire and turn over the union leadership to HUMPHREYS and his associates. The union treasury had $800,000 at this time. SUMMER refused to do so.

The "Chicago Herald Tribune" carried several stories concerning criminal charges of violence that were made (and dropped) against MURRAY HUMPHREYS. On January 13, 1933, he was questioned in connection with the murder of TED NEWBURY, a Chicago hoodlum. On March 7, 1933, together with CHARLES FISCHETTI, another of Chicago's famous hoodlums, HUMPHREYS was questioned about the murder of DENNIS H. ZEICHLAR, a Chicago labor official. On June 4, 1933, HUMPHREYS appeared in a Chicago Felony Court on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. With him were two other notorious Chicago hoodlums, CHARLES FISCHETTI and "Three-Fingered" JACK WHITE; no disposition of this case is shown in the records.

The "Tribune" reported on July 28, 1933, that HUMPHREYS, together with AL CAPONE and 22 other Chicago hoodlums, were indicted by the Cook County Grand Jury for conspiracy to control the cleaning and dyeing industry, the carbonated beverages industry, and the linen and towel supply business in the Chicago area by means of kidnaping, beatings, strikes, bombings, killings and acid-throwing. No outcome of this action is shown, but it is known that HUMPHREYS was not convicted under this indictment.

In 1939, the United States Internal Revenue Service charged HUMPHREYS with a failure to pay income tax on a $50,000 ransom which he and "RED" BARKER had demanded and collected for the release of ROBERT G. FITCHIE, President of the Milk Wagon Driver's Union, whom they had kidnaped. Criminal prosecution against HUMPHREYS and BARKER was barred by the Statute of Limitations.

Street; Chicago; made a complaint to the FBI at Chicago, stating that HUMPHREYS; by the use of strong arm methods, controls the cleaning and dyeing industry at Chicago through the control which he exercises over the laundry drivers and inside workers unions at Chicago; and that HUMPHREYS was then (in 1939) attempting to gain control of the small retail cleaners themselves by the same methods. No investigation of this complaint was made.

In October, 1940, an indictment was returned by a Chicago Grand Jury against HUMPHREYS, FRANK NITTI, LOUIS ROMANO, FRED EVANS and others, charging them with a conspiracy to embezzle $350,000 from the funds of the Bartenders Union. But at the trial, GEORGE B. MC LANE, then Business Agent of the Bartenders Union, and the man who had made the original compaint, refused to identify the defendants, so they were acquitted.

In 1943 it was reported that HUMPHREYS, RALPH CAPONE and "SCREWY" MADDOX took $200,000 from the treasury of Teamsters Local 705, Chauffeurs Union, "to insure a quiet election".

The Chicago newspapers at various dates have carried stories about various occasions on which HUMPHREYS, with or without other Chicago hoodlums, has been picked up for questioning by the Chicago Police, usually in regard to a murder, and their released with no further action being taken against him. He had been questioned about the murders of the following persons:

JENS LARRISON; kidnap of JACK HUGHES; "RED"
FAUCETT, a Chicago hood shot dead in a tavern at 2462
East 75th Street, Chicago; murder of LLOYD ROURKE, a laundry
Wagon driver; murder of PETE ROSENBERG, a cleaner shop Operator; murder of MARCUS HVID, a garage operator, murder of ANTON GORCZAK, a laundry wagon driver; murder of JAMES

they are not to be regarded as all-inclusive and you should be continuously slert to the possibility of developing other violations, both Federal and local, in which these persons may be involved. Eimilarly, you should not overlock the possibility of new or additional developments relating to a previous substantive investigation of these individuals wherein the USA declined prosecution. Consideration should be given to bringing such investigations up to date and re-presenting them to the appropriate USAs.

Anti-Racketeering files already exist on Bufalino, Humphreys, Presser and Triscaro. Those that have been closed should be recpened and renewed emphasis should be given to those that are now pending. In addition, Anti-Racketeering files on the other four individuals should be opened.

The office of origin should subsite letter by 6-11-59, outlining the proposed investigative approach in each case. Such investigation should be given immediate, thorough and continuous strention; a report should be submitted within 30 days of this letter and each 30 days thereafter.

It is recognized that during the course of these inquiries information received may indicate the desirability of opening similar files concerning other racketeers with whom Hoffa is closely associated. Instances where it is believed further exploration of the relationship between these individuals and Hoffa appears warranted, should be brought to the Bureau's attention.

As indicated in referenced Bulet, although we have no specific allegations not previously investigated, the Bureau can be utilized as a basis for presecutable action against Hoffa and his close associates.

afforded Hoffa and those closely allied with him, indicates the possibility they may have violated Federal or State laws in accomplishing and maintaining their dominant position in the deal with the union. Keep this foremost in your thoughts in conducting the investigations requested above.

Recognizing that these racketeers are operating in the labor field on a day-to-day basis, individuals contacted in connection with these investigations are to be impressed with the fact that the Bureau is not investigating, nor in fact, interested in the internal operations of the union, but is interested in actions of the individuals which may constitute violations of law.

At this time no direct interview is to be had with any of the listed racketeers relative to developing information about their activities.

Concerning FRED EVANS, it is noted that investigation has determined that this individual is presently residing in a cooperative apartment at 5000 North Marine Drive in Chicago.

The "Chicago Daily Tribune" in its issue of April 7, 1950, contained an article on page 8, containing identities of members of the old AL CAPONE gang who were as of 1950 active in Chicago. PETERSON listed FRED EVANS as being a "financial brain" of the syndicate.

A transcript of testimony in case file number 40C-5061 in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, reflects that MURRAY HUMPHREYS and FRED EVANS, among others, in a law suit brought by members of the Bartenders Union requesting an accounting of the funds of that union by the defence. In this trial GEORGE B. MC LANE, a member of the Bartenders Union, testified to the bad reputation of MURRAY HUMPHREYS, FRED EVANS and four other defendents as being connected with the Chicago Crime Syzdicate and accused them of "muscling" into a great number of labor unions, most of them locals of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and of dissipating in the treasury of these locals. He also testified as to violence on the part of the defendants. It is noted that HUMPHREYS and EVANS were indicted for conspiracy to embezzle $350,000 from the Bartenders Union in 1940. however, they were found not guilty. The "Chicago Sun" in its issue of April 27, 1944, contained an article entitled "Life Sketches of Mobsters Summoned By Grand Jury." The following is quoted from this article:

"FRED EVANS, 5000 Marine Drive, identified as the bookkeeper for the Syndicate. He was known as the financial genius who guided FRANK NITTI and in 1940 was accused of participating with the mob in an attempt to gain control of the Bartenders Union."

On April 11, 1959, SA drove a (F)(7)(C) private auto bearing 1959 Illinois License Plates into the place and talked with a woman who identified herself as in charge of looking after the place. SA well used the pretext of being an old friend of HUMPHREYS from East St. Louis, Illinois. Said he has not been staying there and she said she has heard nothing as to his being anywhere in the Tucson area. She said after the appearance of a newspaper article with HUMPHREYS photograph she received a telephone call for him from an unidentified man. She said at that time she thought perhaps he might be staying at the Triple H Ranch so she called over there and learned that he had not been at the Triple H Ranch.

SA common May 12, 1959, talked with who has known HUMPHREYS for several years.

The following informant has furnished recent information concerning HUMPHREYS but none during the period covered by instant report:

It is noted that it is a very difficult task to achieve informant coverage on the activities of HUMPHREYS due to the fact that, as reported herein, he spends such a small amount of time in the Chicago Area. However, full attention will be given to the establishment of informant and be given to the establishment of informant and PCI coverage on HUMPHREYS with the expectation of improvement in this regard.

has advised that FRED EVANS was (1)(7)(c) the "financial genius" of the CAPONE mob in the late 1920's and 1930's. In 1940, EVANS and HUMPHREYS, among others, were indicted for extortion of the Bartenders Union in Chicago. During the course of the trial, GEORGE B. MC LANE, an official of the Bartenders Union, testified to the bad reputation of HUMPHREYS and EVANS as being connected with the Chicago crime syndicate and accused them of "muscling" into a large number of labor unions, most of them locals of the IBT, and of dissipating the treasuries of these locals. HUMPHREYS and EVANS were found not guilty.

EVANS has been identified in Chicago newspapers as the bookkeeper for the Chicago crime syndicate, and as the financial genius who guided FRANK NITTI, CAPONE's successor.

After proper identification, it was explained to that the agents desired to interview him regarding (F)(7)(b) his association with MURRAY HUMPHREYS.

CG-92-348 (1)(2)(1)

It is noted that as previously reported, MURRAY HUMPHREYS under the aliases LOUIS H. HUMPHREY and LEON HUMPHREY has advised that he is a partner in the Kiley - Humphrey Oil Company, 208 South LaSalle, and that he was connected with Middlewest Oil Company at 7710 South Bennett, Chicago. It is noted that it also has been previously reported that investigation at 208 South LaSalle in Chicago failed to disclose the existence at any time of the Kiley - Humphrey Oil Company, and that the location of the Middlewest

BACKGROUND

A) Residence

(H)(T)(C):(M)

On November 16, 1959, a telephone call was made by SA to the telephone contained in the apartment of (())(7)(C) MURRAY HUMPHREYS and a short conversation took place. HUMPHREYS did not identify himself but his voice was recognized by SA reliable information in the past, advised that MURRAY HUMPHREYS had a conversation on that date with FRANK FERRARO. FERRARO is a prominent Chicago Crime Syndicate Hoodlum and is known to be an intimate associate of HUMPHREYS as well as being the number liaid of the Chicago top hoodlum.

Stated that HUMPHREYS stated something to FERRARO about his louse and then complained about having to "rock and roll around my cown house." FERRARO then asked "are they around there?" and HUMPHREYS replied "not now. Everybody is supposed to call them, they had one (obscene) stand right out in front of the place. He has been standing out there like the rock of gibraltor FERRARO then asked "Ain't there a back way there?" and HUMPHREYS answered "Yeah, but you got to come around. They can see you from the park. You can come in from the side door, but they can see you do that from the park. I won't go. I won't give them the satisfaction. I wouldn't make it easy for those (obscene) and they don't make it sasy for you. They walk up and talk to you and you wouldn't tell them anything they say O.K. we'll go to everybody you know. So they go to everybody and they follow you. So you go and make a call. They get all excited. Gee, we got to find out who he's talkin' to. If only you could just get them in a spot".

From HUMPHREYS! description of his "house", it is apparent that he refers to his apartment at 4200 North Marine Drive since this apartment is located directly across the street from a park adjacent to the Lake Shore Drive in Chicago and since there is a side door and no back door.

HUMPHREYS' CONCERN WITH FBI INVESTIGATIONS

(P)(a) mentioned above, advised on September 22, 1959, that MURRAY HUMPHREYS on that date had a lengthy conversation with FRANK FERRARO, above, and with an unknown individual. Early in his conversation, HUMPHREYS made the following comment: "How come just those two FBI guys can cover so much field. They must be workin' (obscene) for illegitimate children) RALPH (PIERCE, former Chicago top hoodlum), says they went to every neighbor in the block ringing doorbells, door to door". Following this, HUMPHREYS discussed with FERRARO the activities of the FBI concerning their contacts at his apartment building and the fact that they have completely covered his residence. It is noted that this information is set out verbatim above under the caption "Residence".

reported that on the same date SAM GIANCANA, Chicago top hoodlum, who is the leader of the Chicago Crime (/-)(7)(2) Syndicate, entered the room in which HUMPHREYS was having a discussion with

As GIANCANA entered the room; HUMPHREYS greeted him loudly and then said "How about you, they following you around?" GIANCANA replied "Yeah, but so what?" HUMPHREYS then said "They're at my house. The FBI. The FBI?" GIANCANA then said "Oh, they chased us. Got us coming out of the house. They chased us. JOE (This reference to JOE is obviously to JOE BATTERS, the name by which TONY ARCADO is known at Chicago Crime Syndicate) went one way and I went the other". HUMPHREYS then asked "That's the FBI you mean" and GIANCANA replied "Yeah, that's the time JOE got the subpoena. They even went up and questioned sure they done it. The (obscene)". HUMPHREYS then said "They're at my house all the time but they can't find me and sore as a (obscene), follow my brother every place he goes. Give him a bad time. They even go up the elevator with him at the hotel."

HUMPHREYS then asked a Why was a heausing your name. Cause 11 m as careful as (obscue) on this 181 yould never use no more than the man in the moon 128 then stated (

then says "Tellathem they reall constituents from your ward at one time" they stated

HUMPHREYS then states "Yeah. What did say, that's my business to talk to everybody. Right there is your opening any time. What did MARCANTONIO (apparently VITO MARCANTONIO, deceased congressman from New York) say? My office is open to anybody. And I got four offices. They were all Commies you know. I went up to meet him at his house. He had a junky old house and everything and he says to me: TOMMY BROWN (THOMAS LUCHCHESE, New York top hoodlum) was with me and he was talking to me. He said I live like a Commie and everybody thinks like a Commie, but that's how I got my vote."

Later in the conversation between and HUMPHREYS on the same date the following conversation took place between the two:

HUMPHREYS then asked "Who has, the Federals? "The FBI?" answered HUMPHREYS then stated "Oh, they won't call you. That's what they re doing to all of us. Here's what they re doing, This is the Republicans and ROGER's order. You knew you've got a very straight laced administration. With this (obscene) in there for President. So what they're doing is building ah, anybody they think is connected in any way, shape or form, they're building a digest of their past and all this and that. And they're settin it up in records, so that if anything ever happens they can walk right over and". HUMPHREYS then began banging his fist on the desk and continued saying "Do it that quick. You understand, they got all your contacts, then, why they would put you in it, I don't know. Being a public official. But you see with us guys they figure that if we try to lam or anything, with all our relatives and all our contacts and this and that they'd be ready to snap in and catch you that quick. You know that's what they're out to get. Now, they have one other object here. No matter what it is, find you guilty of anything and get you sentenced to jail. That was their idea. Then they finally gave up when they found out they couldn't get anything big. Then they said even get them a $25 fine and it'd be alright. They said get 'em and convict 'em of somethin'. So that's the way they stand. You understand it now". HUMPHREYS pauses at this point and then states "Huh?"

then indicated more displeasure with the situation but spoke in a low tone and is mostly inaudible.

was again in conversation with FRANK FERRARO, above. On this occasion FRANK FERRARO asked "What's this with him and HUMPHREYS then stated says he's a nice guy but he's a (Obscene). That (Obscene): FERRARO then asked and HUMPHREYS replied HE says he's a nice guy. He said that you and HUMP are very close pals. He said that we saw you drinking with HUMP and took the number of your car and followed HUMP home. He said we couldn't find out where HUMP lived before this. And that's a (Obscene) lie. They spotted too. You FERRARO laughs at his point. "He says he used to have a plant on 47th Street years ago. He said I don't ask him any questions and he don't ask me any questions.

FRANK said I lied like hell. But he said the guy is a pretty nice guy. I said yeah, but he just (obscene) you." FERRARO laughed again. (b):10)(c):(d) It is noted that referred to above has been contacted by SA on several occasions concerning his association with HUMPHREYS. and he was observed with HUMPHREYS at the Drake Hotel in May of 1959. Following this contact with HUMPHREYS he was interviewed and although he first denied any recent association with HUMPHREYS he later admitted and furnished other information. On September 23, 1959, advised that HUMPHREYS was in conference on that date with HY GODFREY. GODFREY is a (F)(7)(c) body guard and "runner" for HUMPHREYS and for top hoodlum. He is a former prize fighter and now operates an insurance company on the South Side of Chicago.

then furnished

his association with HUMPHREYS when confronted with the fact that the FBI knew from personal observation that he had very recently been in contact with HUMPHREYS. Then furnished substantial information concerning

They were over to my daughter!s. Tapped the phone and everything. They made the stab at me." HUMPHREYS then stated "Don't forget. They never give up. It might take them 10 years but they stay after you. Don't forget that."

was later in conversation with

It is noted that information has previously been ()(7)(6) reported indicating that was the front for HUMPHREYS ()(7)(6) in that particular union.

HUMPHREYS stated "Got to contact everybody by phone so they don't know who the hell you're talking to.
They found where I lived, the (obscene)." They found where I lived, the (obscene)." They then stated with some guy last summer at the Drake. They followed him and they followed me too. advised that on the same date HUMPHREYS (F)(A)

HUMPHREYS stated "Im havin' a hard time cause that FBI is followin' everybody around. You know. Just keepin' a check on you, seein' what you're doin. You know." EDDIE then stated "What the hell, they been followin' you for 40 years." HUMPHREYS then stated "Yeah, but this time they got a real tough one. Put you to bed and take you out. They don't leave you go" and EDDIE stated "You mean they take you in custody?" HUMPHREYS stated "No, just follow ya: Then they mark down all car numbers and who you'see. Like if I met you some place—that's why I tried to talk to you on the phone yesterday rather than come in contact. Cause then they'd start following you or make a note in the office who I talked to". EDDIE then asked "Is there something on?" and HUMPHREYS answered "Terrific drive they got on. They're on a lot of people that way. That's that ROGER's policy. And that's why I figured yesterday it was better me tellin' you on the telephone". EDDIE then stated "But this other thing, 50 years he's been shakin' em down". HUMPHREYS then stated "But I'm tellin ya, I'm having my own troubles" and EDDIE answered "I know that but you gotta do somethin'".

advised that on October 13, 1959, HUMPHREYS had a long discussion with FRANK FERRARO, above.
During the course of the conversation the following ensued:

HUMPHREYS stated "I can't go home. Not the first time I've been locked out of the house." FERRARO then asked "Aren't you gonna move out of there?" and HUMPHREYS answered "I can't. I've got a long lease. I've got three months left. I could sublease it, but I don't wanna give them the satisfaction. They haven't proved it was me yet, as far as I'm concerned. They haven't caught me yet." FERRARO then remarked "Aw, quit (obscene) yourself. I hope you're right". At this point all laughed.

advised on October 27, 1959, that on that date MURRAY HUMPHREYS made a telephone call to an individual who was unknown at the time of the call. HUMPHREYS instructed this individual at the beginning of the phone call as follows:

"I want you to get a hold of the FBI. Find out what the (obscene) they want. I don't know. They have been all over the country raisin' (obscene). They were around here and everything you know. They must be wantin' to pull me in this and that and then put a tail on me".

Informant stated that on this particular day HUMPHREYS spoke in a very low voice and a lot of his corrections. low voice and a lot of his conversation was inaudible but the informant was able to ascertain that HUMPHREYS mentioned the name of and then later, while still talking about made the following comment:

"That (obscene). He's takin' money and raidin' places. It may be better to sit back and just have nothing to do with him."

Much later on the same day, HUMPHREYS was in (C)(C) conversation with above and FRANK FERRARO, above. During the conversation, HUMPHREYS made the following comment:

"What's his name, the guy at Scotland Yard. I have an appointment up there today. Gettin' the guy is one thing, making a deal is another thing. We got to make a different kind of a deal, cause it isn't as good as it used to be. He takes money and then raids joints, he raided a joint the other day. But he was pretty smart about it. He had one guy take the money and then he raids the joint himself. But he would give you the sheets back for so much money. But on a deal like this we got to start figurin' out how we can make money with him. Understand? I'm gonna talk it over with cause knows all that. Says something about 'a bagman'. knows that, you know. MOONEY (believed to be MOONEY GIANCANA) and them (obscene) there, you're going to turn in everything there, you're going to make a fortune."

It is known that he is very highly trusted by police officials in Chicago, by the Chicago Crime Commission and by RICHARD OGLIVIE, Special Assistant to the Attorney General, conducting Federal Grand Jury investigations at Chicago at the present time. HUMPHREYS' reference to Scotland Yard is a reference to the name which was formerly used in reference to the Intelligence Unit of the Chicago Police Department.

It is noted that it is apparent that what HUMPHREYS is concerned about is the fact that in late October of 1959, the Chicago Office of the FBI furnished information directly concerning the then current existence of a gambling spot where concerning the concerning the concerning the

Based on the concern that HUMPHREYS has over activities in this regard and from his references to the fact that has been taking money it would seem apparent that the only reason that made this raid was due to the close interest of the FBI in it.

V. PRESENT POSITION OF HUMPHREYS IN THE CHICAGO CRIME SYNDICATE

As an indication of HUMPHREYS' role in the Chicago Crime Syndicate at the present time, the following information is set out in order to show that HUMPHREYS has been attempting to influence the affairs and operation which he has no direct interest in but which would indicate that HUMPHREYS is a leader of the Chicago Crime Syndicate. Information which is contained under this caption is placed here as a general catchall for such information whereas information pertaining to interests which directly concern HUMPHREYS' financial benefit are placed hereinafter under appropriate captions.

On September 22, 1959, on that date MURRAY HUMPHREYS and

The informant stated that the subject of their discussion was the fact that FRANKIE LA PORTE, the Chicago Crime Syndicate leader in Southern Cook County, had gotten himself involved in a situation where several night spots under his general control in Calumet City, Illinois, had been raided by the State's Attorney's office.

HUMPHREYS advised that he had no direct interest in any "joints" in Calumet City but that he was very concerned with this situation because he had learned that State's (A)(7)(3) Attorned was going to make a test case of the night spots involved in this situation and institute a civil suit in the Superior Court of Cook County for the purpose of having the night spots declared a public nuisance.

according to HUMPHREYS' information, would then ask for a permanent injunction to prohibit the landlords of these spots from renting the premises for any reason whatsoever for the period of one year. HUMPHREYS referred to these laws which enable the State's Attorney to so proceed as the "Padlock Law".

HUMPHREYS was also concerned about the fact that ()(7)(6) was going to try the case in Superior Court and at this point in their discussion the following conversation ensued. An unknown person who was also present during this discussion, made the following statement, like you could get it away from him " then stated,

HUMPHRKYS then said, "You just can't let that go thru, otherwise every judge in the county (obscene). FERRARO replied, "Then they put an injunction in that the joint can't be rented for a year, that's a 50 year old law, for (obscene) sake." The unknown person present then commented, "

Apparently they are all reading the complaint filed by the sections.

At this point HUMPHREYS replied, "They just brought it in to me yesterday. They just got on it yesterday. Told me that this thing had to be straightened out. (phonetic) was there too. Said you cannot let this go through, because every joint they raid they 'll walk in and close it for a year. Machine, anything. The unknown individual said, commented. then stated. was just talking about his name was on but FRANKIE LA PORTE hasn't got anything to do with commented, " Italked and asked me talk to him." The replied, "Hello." HUMPHREYS then took the phone and stated, "Hello. Well, according to that fellow yesterday, when we talked to him, he said we didn't want these places closed for a year, so would you advise these guys accordingly. It's just like prohibition, they padlock and you can't use it. That's the point. Do you know all about it or don't you?" " HUMPHREYS said, "Let talking to the others in the room, said, (-)(7)(c) HUMPHREYS hung up the phone and then said to the group, "That's what it is. See the guys on the street, we don't give a (obscene) about them. We don't want them to get a ruling that they can close the joint for a year, put a padlock on them. The landlord suffers then." said,

HUMPHREYS stated, "His contention is (obscene). I'm gonna tell you what you got. ()()()()

They got another lawyer on there.

And of course
he's not interested in that part. He's just interested in getting FRANKIE's name expunged there. He's not in on this.

You see, FRANKIE used to own part of one of these joints, three years ago, and he's sold it. But his name is still on it, so when they indicted all these guys they indicted him—or not indicted, they didn't indict they filed a petition to close the place for a year. Which is an old law. That's what we're interested in. Well, we can get FRANKIE's name expunged from the record, cause he really is not an owner.

But we can't afford to let that place be closed for a year.

That's the point. Because you can't put nothin'—else in there or anything.

Then HUMPHREYS
said, "That we don't care. We don't want that padlock. Do you understand, it's as simple as that. Like the old prohibition days. They just put a padlock on it and you can't rent that place to anybody for one year. Then you know what happens.
No landlord will rent you a place, he won't let you in. He'd say, 'What the (obscene), give me a year's rent':

HUMPHREYS then stated, "How can you beat it; there's a law in there," and said, HUMPHREYS commented, "Well, it hasn't been funconstitutional, it's been in effect for 50 years."

HUMPHREYS interrupted by stating, "The landlord is supposed to check and see the good moral character of the person he rents his place to " then stated, at which time HUMPHREYS said in a loud voice, "There's no argument about it. Didn't they do it in prohibition days? They just walked in and put a padlock on it." at this point, tried to outshout HUMPHREYS but did not succeed. HUMPHREYS continued, "SHORRY in the First Ward had 28 padlocks. Twenty-eight padlocks in one ward. You remember (phonetic)? You remember him?"

(V)(7)(0) (FX7Xc) replied, HUMPHREYS then said, "You remember. Hexused to be right next door to the prohibition agents and everything would be all right, but every once in awhile a strange guy would come in and they got 28 padlocks. So there's 28 places for a year that can't be rented. So that's what this law is $\infty$ So if you go to a landlord for a saloon, he's not gonna rent it to you. He's gonna say, give me a year's rent. Isn't he?" replied, "HUMPHREYS then stated "That's the thing we don't want to happen." Is it clear to HUMPHREYS then stated, said, HUMPHREYS answered, "No, he's not gonna do anything but get another lawyer in there." asked, HUMPHREYS answered. "I lilatellayou what it means right now!" HUMPHREYS further stated, "I'm positive I'm right! We were talking it over in the hotel yesterday. FRANKIE in there. He says this can't happen." said, HUMPHREYS further commented, "Listen, first he has ()(7)(c) to find the guys guilty. Then he has to file a civil suit and ask to have the place padlocked. I think it'll go before another judge on that basis." 1 said. Then HUMPHREYS stated, "You better call in FRANKIE APPORTE Let FRANKIE tell 'em." asked, HUMPHREYS answered, "Tell him the story on it. FRANKIE has nothing to do with the joint. But we can't afford to let them put a padlock on it. If you recall, we couldn't get a place for a speakeasy unless we gave a landlord a year's rent then he'd give it to you." stated. There followed a period of whispering, after which HUMPHREYS stated, "He's rough."
