SUMMARY

(P)(D)(C):(D) advised that MIKE BRODKIN was in his offices from 11:40 a.m. until 11:56 a.m., and from 1:04 p.m. through late in the afternoon.

At 1:51 p.m., PAUL "RED" DORFMAN arrived. is noted that DORFMAN is a former official of a Teamsters Union local in Chicago and that he is presently very influential in the Teamsters Union. He is a close associate of JAMES R. HOFFA.

The following conversation then took place between BRODKIN and DORFMAN:

BRODKIN:

will tell you, I saw him. I had to get ahold of him. You know when I came down there today, I had to make the date right in his chambers on the second floor. He thought that was better. When we were through, he says, "follow me." He uses the sixth floor. He says, "You be in on the second floor." Son of a bitch, I went right in there to talk to my man there. Did you know this has got his trucks right in front of the Federal Building there, with a loud speaker? I says, Union 777? At one entrance he's got a station wagon.

DORFMAN:

For what?

BRODKIN:

Don't ask me. Parks right there across from the Federal Building at Quincy and what-you-He told me, when this case is over, there will be a grand jury investigation here on trying to get somebody on the jury. The way he tells me, was is the guy. What has he been doing? I told about it. So don't you say nothing to unless h unless he says something to you, you hear? What has he been doing?

DORFMAN:

Nothing I know of.

BRODKIN:

He wanted to know if was interested in this case. Yeah, but had nothing to do with this case. Not a goddamned thing. I don't know what, but I said to him, and he said, "Well, they may have indicted." You hear that?

DORFMAN:

Yeah.

BRODKIN:

There was a slip left on the lawyer's table with one of the jurors' name on it.

DORFMAN:

With what?

BRODKIN:

I don't know, but there's some guy there, somebody (obs) around on that jury. From the information I got, I think it's to get ahold of and tell him if he's doing anything, he better stop it.

He said he was gonna let the case go to the jury. He said he was gonna knock out all the counts he can. But the jury is going to get the case.

DORFMAN: He'll be in for it.

(H)(7)(C)

BRODKIN:

I know. He said he'll give them all the instructions they want. He sure hates that with a vengeance.

DORFMAN:

The same thing with and somebody has been doing some beefing.

BRODKIN:

Yeah. Close to Oh, I put two and two together. And although he's not known to be a drinker, I know he drinks.

DORFMAN:

What counts is he talking about?

BRODKIN:

There'll be, ah, counts in connection with that hospital deal. I don't know what evidence there is about that. Some hospital, what is that, some beal?

DORFMAN:

Yeah.

BRODKIN:

Well, JIMMY didn't have a (obs) thing on that.

He's going to do every goddamned thing that he can. Was I surprised down there to see them (obs) trucks in front of that building there. And I'm parked right on the same side there. Right directly across from the entrance. Did you ever see anything like that or hear anything like that in your life? But SLIM will tell you about it. What I'm telling you. You go there and you don't know anything about it. Until he tells you, you understand, RED? At 11:30 today he had to go out West. When did JIMMY get back? Last night?

DORFMAN:

(No comment audible).

BRODKIN: You see him?

(H(H)(c)

DORFMAN:

No, I wanted to see you first.

BRODKIN:

I got ahold of him, I said, "I'll meet you at the usual place." He says, "No, that's no good."

He met me right on the second floor.

DORFMAN:

And this is gonna go to the jury? He's not going to throw it out?

BRODKIN:

That's right. (pause). The question now, is he going to take the stand?

DORFMAN:

I imagine he will.

This is no (obs) good. Letting it g to the jury on JIMMY. I thought he'd throw it out.

BRODKIN:

He says to me, that's all those counts get loose anyhow.

DORFMAN:

Huh?

BRODKIN:

He's got to let it go on some of those counts

DORFMAN: I got to tell it to JIMMY.

BRODKIN: Well, I mean you go see first!

DORFMAN:

BRODKIN:

'Cause I know they are going to First. send for that other guy, Mr. He's been (obs)'ing around on that because he never, he didn't go tell me in so many terms. But he gave me enough to read in between the lines. I said to him, "You mean to say you can't slip a favor with the unions and hit 'em with that?" The lawyers taking up their papers, he wrote his name on the desk. And they concentrated on that guy. But I told him, I said, "Judge," I said, "You got taken care of nice at the Riviera." He said, "That's right." I said, "The rumor was, I said before you went to trial that your kid was going to get married. Remember you telling me that story?" I kind of felt this about You know, That SOB, when he put that (obs) on the stand and had him take the Fifth Amendment. The way he was monkeying around. I asked him about | He's doing a good job. I said you didn't have any repercussions with me. These guys have probably been bragging all over town that his son was there. He said to me, "you don't want me to put a noose around my neck." I can't do this."

All right.

(h)(h)(c) on the evening of July 5, 1964, BRODKIN was contacted by and requested to contact him.

Apparently BRODKIN asked whether he should meet him in "the usual place," but, surprising to BRODKIN, he was instructed to meet in the which are located on the second floor of the Federal Building in Chicago. From this part of the conversation, there appears little doubt that BRODKIN and have had a relationship with each other in the past and that they have had a particular meeting spot where they have consummated previous matters of mutual interest.

Attention is directed to the fact that Judge RICHARD B. AUSTIN is the Federal Judge who currently is presiding over the trial of JAMES RIDDLE HOFFA in the Federal Courts in the Northern District of Illinois. He likewise is the judge who ruled favorably for the plaintiff when Chicago Top Hoodlum SAM GIANCANA sought an injunction against FBI surveillances last summer. He is a former First Assistant State's Attorney of Cook County and an unsuccessful candidate for Governor of the State of Illinois, having run in 1956.

possible that has received some information indicating that a grand jury investigation will take place following the trial of HOFFA, and that the subject of this grand jury investigation is to be Chicago Top Hoodlum. This is true. However, the grand jury investigation of will be in regard to the fact that he, as a labor official, has received gifts from the Best Sanitation Company, in violation of Federal law. Insofar as the Chicago Office is aware, there is no information available indicating that is tampering with the HOFFA jury or that any Government agency is investigating any tampering with this jury or any part may have in such matters.

It is noted that BRODKIN on two or three occasions indicates that did not directly inform him that such was the situation, and he comments that he "put two and two together." It is therefore very possible that BRODKIN has misinterpreted the information which supplied him.

In reference to the time of the meeting between and BRODKIN, it is noted above that BRODKIN came into his office at 11:40 a.m., and that he was also absent between 11:56 a.m. and 1:04 p.m. It is believed that the conversation between and BRODKIN probably took place around 9:00 a.m. on the morning of July 6, 1964, and that possibly BRODKIN met with at the noon hour, it being noted that BRODKIN informs DORFMAN, above, that he has already given this information to

In regard to the information concerning the sound trucks and station wagon, it is noted that it is a fact that has had such equipment in the immediate vicinity of the Federal Building, and that he has used a loud speaker in this regard. It is not clear that this information was given by to BRODKIN, and it may be that BRODKIN noticed this when he went to the Federal Building on July 6, 1964.

It is not clear why requested information as to whether was personally interested in this case. Insofar as this office is aware, has no immediate or direct interest in the HOFFA situation.

No information is available concerning the significance of the slip left on the lawyers' table as mentioned to BRODKIN by

It appears self-explanatory that RODKIN feels that should immediately get in touch with and warn him to stop whatever activity he may be engaging in.

It also appears self-explanatory that informed BRODKIN that he was sympathetic to the HOFFA defense, but that he "

Apparently he indicated to BRODKIN that he would not grant this motion but that he would knock out all the counts of the Government against HOFFA that he can and that he would also be very generous with the defense when he makes his instructions to the jury.

According to this conversation, it appears and an associate of on the Federal Bench, have either sent an emissary or have contacted personally regarding any leniency he might be intending to give the HOFFA defense. However, it is not clear exactly what the relayed to in this regard.

The reference to is to co-defendant in the HOFFA trial.

The reference to "JIMMY" throughout this conversation is obviously a reference to JAMES HOFFA, and the references to and are obviously references to Chicago Top Hoodlum.

In regard to it is significant that BRODKIN indicated that is "responsible for labor." This confirms information concerning obtained from other sources indicating that the present time has been placed in charge of the affairs of organized crime as they relate to organized labor in the Chicago area.

The reference to "CURLEY" in this regard is a reference to Chicago Top Hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS, who apparently from time to time also has contacts in the labor movement.

The reference to "LEFTY" is a reference to LOUIS CAMPAGNA, who died approximately ten years ago and who is known to have had responsibility for the hoodlums' contacts in organized labor prior to his death. Among his nicknames was the name "LEFTY LOUIE" and "LITTLE NEW YORK."

Northern District of Illinois who at the present time is one of the several attorneys who are representing defendants in the HOFFA trial. Among his fellow counsel in this regard are and the referred to by BRODKIN and DORFMAN during their conversations. In the "Greek kid" referred to.

evaluation of the relationship which exists between and BRODKIN.

HUMPHREYS THEN COMMENTED ON CRITICISM BY MAYOR CALEY OF CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT AFTER POLICE DEPARTMENT SET UP ITS OWN POLICY WHEEL. NOTED DALEY CRITICIZED THIS AS FORM OF ENTRAPMENT.

that he and six of his associates had recently lunched at the Lowenbrau Restaurant located on the lower level of Wacker Drive at Michigan Avenue. It appeared that mentioned this due to the fact that this was one of the few times that so many hoodlums met together at one time in recent months. It is noted that this meeting was fisured by the Chicago Office on 7/7/64 after receipt of the contemplated meeting had been obtained from It is noted that this meeting was attended by Chicago top hoodlums MURRAY HUMPHREYS, FRANK FERRARO, RALPH PIERCE and HY GODFREY

The above three individuals then terminated their conversation with a discussion of the recent publicity in Chicago newspapers regarding the establishment by the ICC and the Chicago Police Department of a policy wheel on the South Side of Chicago. It is noted that this joint operation was set up approximately three months ago and was broken up following arrest by the Cook County Sheriff's Office of employees of the wheel. The fact that law enforcement in the Chicago area had seen fit to engage in illegal activities, even for espionage purposes, has become the source of considerable criticism by the Chicago newspapers and by some Chicago public officials such as Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY. comments concern his feeling that the Chicago Police Department should not be allowed to "entrap honest citizens" by initiating in illegal activities and "sucking them into it."

This is a very lucrative and responsible job and feels that in the event SANDY SMITH, reporter of the "Chicago Sun-Times" discloses his prior criminal record while asking him questions on a deposition that his job may be in jeopardy.

During the late morning of 7/20/64 BRODKIN situation wherein that discussed the Chicago hoodlum has been placed in jail although an appeal has been pending in regard to his narcotics conviction. is noted that the Federal Narcotics Bureau allegedly developed was planning to jump his bond information that and they obtained a hearing and a subsequent court order which resulted in the immediate incarceration of though his appeal has not yet been heard. It is the theory of BRODKIN that the Federal Narcotics Bureau had been since his keeping a 24 hour surveillance on conviction and that since this surveillance became "too expensive," they have "developed a story that he attempting to leave the country" and therefore succeeded in getting the appeal bond revoked.

fact that practically all Chicago top hoodlums who were in town attended the wake of his mother. He mentioned that JOE BATTERS, Chicago top hoodlum TONY ACCARDO, called but did not attend. GIANCANA was out of town but and FERRARO attended. BRODKIN mentioned that "HUMPHIE" was out of town, a fact which was known to the Chicago Office, HUMPHREYS being in Miami, Florida, at the time of the death of BRODKINS mother. FRODKIN voiced the opinion that "HUMPIE would have been the first one there if he was also mentioned that Chicago hoodlum who is in control of the Laundry Workers and Dry Cleaners Workers Union No. 46 here, was also there. When mentioning some mention was made of BRODKIN, and was called a "smuck" by BRODKIN. This is another indication that BRODKIN although outwardly civil to each other are not really BRODKIN mentioned that when father died. BRODKIN paid for the funeral of father out of money but that this money has never been returned BRODKIN mentioned that apparently to the spent only one hour at the wake and funeral combined.

HORNSTEIN informed HUMPHREYS that he was then on his way to see Chicago top hoodlum It is noted that previous information has been received from this source indicating that at the present time HORNSTEIN is making up a diamond ring for HUMPHREYS advised HORNSTEIN the believes that is not in town at the present time. HUMPHREYS advised HORNSTEIN that he HORNSTEIN advised HUMPHREYS that he will see HUMPHREYS at a wedding in the near future and HUMPHREYS and HORNSTEIN then agreed that they will go out to eat some day in the near future.

Following the departure of HORNSTEIN, BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS engaged in the following conversation:

BRODKIN:

First I want to show you this.

HUMPHREYS:

LEO's taking it in September, huh.

BRODKIN:

September 3rd; there's the letter, copy of the letter. What they sent me. That's the letter from LIBBY to me and the letter back is from the Parole Board to LIBBY.

HUMPHREYS:

Well, he'd do that anyway, wouldn't he?

BRODK IN:

No he wouldn't.

HUMPHREYS:

When was he do out?

BRODKIN:

Bull (obscene) no, he (obscene) the could of kept him another eight months there.

HUMPHREYS:

Really?

BRODKIN:

Sure (ph).

HUMPHREYS:

Why, for each five years.

BRODKIN:

No, five yes; it takes about forty, some aw,

forty some months.

HUMPHREYS:

He's done.

BRODKIN:

No, he's only done 32 months; he'll be doing 34

all together.

HUMPHREYS:

Well what would he had to do originally, aw, I mean.

BRODKIN:

Originally, they give, with the maximum with good time off, have to do about 41 months. He got 7 months and one-half.

HUMPHREYS:

Well, you think LIBBY did something there?

BRODK IN:

He didn't hurt him. You see they had a guy worth listening to. Through a guy that the head of a synagog in Austin.

A guy named (ph). And aw, this and LBJ are like this. 'Cause I remember he went down and set the corner stone for the new synagog in Austin, Texas. That's the guy that worked on it and all they gave him. I don't know what (obscene) they gave him, a $500 contribution for the synagog. They set up this new hearing for him in Washington and then, aw, aw.

HUMPHREYS:

So they're giving everybody credit.

BRODKIN:

Wait, wait, wait, no no, then they said whose his

Congressman, you know what I mean. I said

LIBONATI (ph) is the fellow that was interested in it. They said, well that's fine.

HUMPHREYS:

Who said this?

BRODKIN:

Huh?

HUMPHREYS:

Who asked you who was the Congressman?

BRODKIN:

Well, aw,

HUMPHREYS:

Oh!

BRODKIN:

You know what I mean.

HUMPHREYS:

Because...

BRODKIN:

So that's the way it went.

HUMPHREYS:

Then he did go in?

(H)(T)(C)

BRODKIN:

Why sure he went in. There's no question about it. (Obscene) are you kidding? Certainly he went in. No bull (obscene) about it because, him last March, cause he got in there.

HUMPHREYS:

Yeah.

BRODKIN:

He's got in there what he says, right here.

We are pleased, aw, oh yaw, to sum up the letter of March 25. Last March 25, LIBBY called me and said he met and land had told him that he would be coming up in July and he'd make it. had told him that

That was it. And do you want ...

HUMPHREYS:

Then they did it.

BRODKIN:

No I got it, but I wanted to show it to you.

You know.

HUMPHREYS:

That's all right.

BRODKIN:

You know I wanted to show 'em there was bull (obscene) on this thing. That you went all the God damn way with this thing.

HUMPHREYS:

Brother, I didn't think he'd make, I'd bet against

BRODKIN:

That's what you said, but anyway, I'm glad he did

It appears that what BRODKIN exhibited to HUMPHREYS was a letter from United States Congressman ROLAND VXLIBONATI of Illinois. Apparently LIBONATI had received a letter from the Parole Board concerning the impending parole of former Chicago bookmaker It is noted that former Chicago bookmaker who was arrested with others in is a Terre Haute, Indiana, several years ago while conducting a large nation-wide bookmaking ring there. It appears that the letters from LIBONATI and to LIBONATI indicate that will be paroled on 9/3/64. BRODKIN expresses the opinion that is being paroled $7\frac{1}{2}$ months earlier than he reasonably could expect.

رے زا

The reference to is a reference to Chicago bookmaker It would appear that he was in contact with a Rabbi in Austin, Texas, who possibly is close to President LYNDON B. JOHNSON. Apparently, visited this Rabbi in Austin and made a contribution to him of $500. BRODKIN implies that as a result a new hearing was set up for in Washington. There is nothing in this conversation, however, to show any connection between was set up for President JOHNSON and the SHAFFER situation.

The identity of ' is unknown to the Chicago Office, although it appears that he is possibly connected with the parole board. It is noted that Congressman LIBONATI is, or has been, a member of the Committee on Prisons of the U.S. House of Representatives.

At this point the conversation between HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN switched as follows:

HUMPHREYS: Well what do you think about our case?

BRODKIN: Well, I was very disappointed in this guy.

This is from calling my brother and myself, you know. I got in this morning you know.

HUMPHREYS: What's this for?

BRODKIN: Well, read it.

HUMPHREYS:

That's very nice. Well what were you disappointed in the trial about.

BRODK IN:

Well, what the (obscene), I,

HUMPHREYS:

You see, I talked to WALSH this morning. MAURY WALSH says we got some good errors, real good errors. For instance, one I'm almost positive of.

BRODKIN:

Well I haven't gone near him. I won't go near

HUMPHREYS:

He said, even the Judge called the DA's attention to it, you know. Are you going to connect this up. And they said yes. Then they couldn't connect it.

BRODK IN:

Aw, there's a lot of stuff that went in,

HUMPHREYS:

And he said another thing, the Judge made an error on; he says there could be more,

BRODKIN:

Huh?

HUMPHREYS:

He may have done it to give us a little help. You know, in his own way. But you see he let the whole indictment go in.

BRODKIN:

I know that, but he told him; I said look I checked He told them when the Government asked that the indictment go in; I'm not going to let it; I'm not going to let it in. Then he took it on himself without notifying anybody to send it in to them on the Friday. CURLY, I don't know what the (obscene) has happened here. You know, I was real disappointed guy. I was disappointed.

(h)(7)(c)

HUMPHREYS:

You can't do everything.

BRODKIN:

I know, but that isn't it. It isn't like this guy. There's something in this (obscene) en thing I haven't found yet, het, God dammit, that he's, aw, troubled him. And aw, aw, and I don't, I can't understand it until I talk to him. I, I'm not going to call him. See, I'm waiting for a call from him. I want to leave it this way. Because, number one, aw, I know he's away now, see. And I know he's going to call me. I know he's going to call me just as sure as you're sitting there. And I want to find out what the (obscene) went haywire. When I saw him after this guy got the call from; one day and he was telling the story about some (obscene) en lawyer in case getting drunk. And talking of BRODKIN and to fix this case. And that the kids, the aw, the sone of the aw, the Judge was enjoying aw, sumptious, aw, honeymoon out at the Dunes at Las Vegas. So on Friday, one day, he tells me they called and some of them were at the house and told him, I want bill jurst in case, my kid being there, I want to pay it. It's got to be. He told me this story. Without naming the lawyer, or who the Judges were; see you understand?

HUMPHREYS:

Did you tell all this?

BRODKIN:

Sure he knew this.

HUMPHREYS:

never said nothing to me.

BRODKIN:

Wait a minute, wait a minute. Sure he knew this. Wait a minute. That's after I got it from him. Aw, there were in the process of just winding up the Government case. He didn't like the work...... So then aw, I made a date to see him. I wanted to find out, see who blow the (obscene)en whistle. That's gotta be told, you know what I mean. So he said, that's when he said to me, I gotta let it go to the jury. I told him, I was very disappointed with him. He says to me, you want me to put the noose around my neck and hang myself. I said no Judge, nobody expects you to do that. I wouldn't want you to do it. And, nor the people, I says that are interested in this fellow. I said would not want you to do it. I give him the right answer?

HUMPHREYS:

Oh, yaw, yaw.

BRODK IN:

Wait a minute, (repeats), then I says to him I want you to do one thing for me. Now if you got any ideas Isaid, that's when he started to move away, he backed out because he started telling me that there some (obscene)ing around with jury. And that

HUMPHREYS:

Yaw.

BRODKIN:

And that either way the case went, there would be an investigation and I see now by the (obscene) en paper that there is. All that he gave me you understand, what's his name was the guy, without even fingering him.

HUMPHREYS:

The Fink.

BRODKIN:

The guy with the taxicab union.

(H)(1)(C)

HUMPHREYS:

(ph)?

BRODKIN:

Yaw, because he wanted to know if got mixed up in it. Because let himself slip up, you know what I mean. I said no, because I says I can tell you, you know I never lie to you. But I didn't know everything. You know.

HUMPHREYS:

Yaw.

BRODKIN:

Hell, I don't know anything because,

HUMPHREYS:

Yaw.

BRODKIN:

He knows me. And he says to him what happened I says, You've got to help him when he's on the stand. You've got to let the evidence in, you got to help him. We need your (obscene)en promise. Definitely. I saw him once after that. When it went to the jury. It was after my mother died because he called me. He said I want to see you to express my sympathy to you and everything. And I said well it's one of those, Judge. It'll be two weeks this coming Monday when I met him then. And aw, that's when he told me then. And aw, that's when he told me,

I don't need a personal disagreement here.
I said you can always tell if that's right or not.
And that's when he told me that the Judges went to him and told him about this lawyer, that was drunk; aw,

HUMPHREYS:

What would be the only solution?

BRODK IN:

Dirty (obscene). I'd tell 'em.

HUMPHREYS:

I think we ought hold,

BRODKIN:

Do you,

HUMPHREYS:

There's one guy out for

BRODKIN:

And you listen to me.

HUMPHREYS:

Send one guy out for

BRODKIN:

I had that (obscene)

HUMPHREYS:

Who?

BRODKIN:

No, I don't mean that one.

HUMPHREYS:

Oh you mean,

(H(7)C)

BRODKIN:

Yeah, the guy that use to represent BATTERS, that (obscene). You know in that (obscene)en Stickney case. He represented a SOB, aw, that SOB, that in the office of that township. And the guy took the stand against us and I asked him, I said your guy can take the 5th Amendment. Why should he hurt anybody. You know what I mean. And he wouldn't do it. He took the stand. So (obscene) him he ain't no good in my book.

HUMPHREYS:

Did go after him about this?

BRODKIN:

Yaw, he went after him. That right. If I did that him, he'd holler. I don't what misunderstanding you because I knew.....What the (obscene) the difference it is. But he's friendly with and Now.

HUMPHREYS:

he couldn't get nothing.

Well in any event, that's scared this little guy, see. About this (obscene) wedding, that I was a guest there, I told if BRODKIN was hare, I can't talk to my partner, I can't talk to a lot others.

But,

HUMPHREYS:

Well you can't ever talk to

HUMPHREYS:

Yaw, I know he did; we work with 'em pretty good

you know.

BRODKIN:

He convicted him.

HUMPHREYS:

Yaw.

BRODKIN:

And they, butchered (ph) in the second case you know they didn't listen the guys we had they doubled up on the copper and made them their case.

HUMPHREYS:

Yaw.

BRODKIN:

That's how we (obscene) the second case. But the

. I says look, nobody wants to put the noose around your guy but you can't let this guy.

HUMPHREYS:

No never.

BRODK IN:

Wait, wait, that's right. So anyway the night when he told me.

HUMPHREYS:

Well where would grant get stores like that unless some client of his is doing some.

BRODKIN:

Don't ask me.

HUMPHREYS: Who is he representing in that case? (F)(7)(c)

BRODKIN: He's representing a guy named ah, from aw, from New Orleans.

HUMPHREYS: Because I've never known him to talk out of turn.

BRODKIN: Who?

HUMPHREYS:

BRODKIN: Well he did this time.

HUMPHREYS: I've never known him to.

BRODKIN: Well that's; because.

HUMPHREYS: You sure it's him and not the other guy.

BRODKIN: Positive. Positive. Now, aw, you see I gotta, there's a lot more to this and I got to get. I'm going to satisfy myself. Cause if I think, think (obscene)en this guy doubled crossed me, you know what I mean. I'll never speak to him.

HUMPHREYS: Well, you know.

BRODKIN: Did you hear what I said to ya?

HUMPHREYS: Yaw, you can't do that.

BRODKIN: Well I know, but,

HUMPHREYS: That isn't good business.

BRODKIN: But what the (obscene) it hurts me.

HUMPHREYS: Well now don't raise your voice. Take it easy. Sometimes you can't have everything you want MIKE and you have to do the best you can. You ran into a deal here where you have to play the field.

Of course, let me tell you another time.

you and I. Because, listen

HUMPHREYS:

No, he's a dynamo.

BRODKIN:

Wait, a minute, not only that. But I told him, the only time I saw him and the only reason that I went to see 'em was to tell 'em the very thing which had to be reckoned with. And DORFMAN agrees with me on that. But when he put his fate in his hands, in your fellows hands, wait a minute, and he was told what to do. He should of stopped, he shouldn't of gone to (ph) or (ph), he shouldn't.

he shouldn't of gone; well I know for a fact that they sent in there to talk to hates guts. You know that.

HUMPHREYS:

And l

wouldn't go in and talk to him.

BRODKIN:

Well,

HUMPHREYS:

He might aw.

Wait a minute, then he had, aw, they had this big guy from the pharmaceutical company, wanting him to make friends with what's his name, this guy, who manages the teamsters building at 29 E.

Madison.

HUMPHREYS:

That's be different. That guy.

BRODKIN:

Well wait a minute (repeats statement) I know, but they had him go to That did it with And s no bull (obscene) (obscene). And don't like him, I know

Yeah, Auh, something went wrong, I don't know what the (obscene) it is because with this guy to get scared as he got, Mothing could be done with that jury.

HUMPHREYS:

Yeah, that jury was guarded and locked up.

BRODKIN:

Well, I'm telling ya.

HUMPHREYS:

There was headlines in the paper on that books, was the only thing, I can't see if they got to the

BRODKIN:

Well I don't know about that either.

HUMPHREYS:

I don't know nothing, but I read it in the paper,

you see.

BRODKIN:

I took, aw, the morning that I got that about I made my business to meet and FRANKIE right in front of Zimmermans Liquor Store over there. They were waiting to pick you All you guys were going West. What's his name was there waiting for you? GODFREY.

And I told the story this morning about He says to me, that (obscene) hanging around this corner, the Judge says, he don't belong here. See, so I says, Judge I ain't got nothing to do with him, you know what I mean. What more can I tell the guy.

HUMPHREYS:

Well, we didn't

BRODK IN:

Well I know you didn't

HUMPHREYS:

We didn't do nothing. We just figured he's nuts and let him alone.

BRODKIN:

I've had a hundred (obscene) deals from the time I've known that guy. And I've always come out somehow, somehow, maybe not to the very letter. But somehow. I know that hurt, you know what I mean.

(1)(7)(1)

HUMPHREYS:

Yeah.

BRODKIN:

So I know there's something ther, I got to find it to satisfy myself.

HUMPHREYS:

Well you will, you'll find it.

BRODKIN:

To satisfy me, I'm not going to call him, I'm waiting, I'll get a call from him.

It is obvious from the above conversation that HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN discuss the trial of JAMES RIDDLE HOFFA which ended in a guilty verdict in Chicago on 7/26/64.

BRODKIN's reference to his disappointment in "in this guy" obviously refers to his disappointment in the method in which Federal Judge RICHARD B. AUSTIN handled the HOFFA trial. Apparently BRODKIN had just received a letter of condolence from and this is what he showed HUMPHREYS early in this portion of the conversation.

HUMPHREYS' reference to MAURY WALSH is a reference to the Chief Counsel for HOFFA and his co-defendants. WALSH is a Chicago attorney with offices in the Bankers Building, loss west Adams, Chicago, and he is generally regarded in Chicago as the defense attorney who is most capable of handling cases in the Federal District Court of the Northern District of Illinois. At the present time he is representing HUMPHREYS in the IRS case against the second wife of HUMPHREYS and WALSH also represented Chicago top hoodlum TONY ACCARDO in the two income tax trials against ACCARDO in Federal Court. He is a very close associate of HUMPHREYS and is highly regarded by HUMPHREYS.

It appears obvious that WALSH informed HUMPHREYS that he feels that there is reversible error in the trial of HOFFA which will cause the Circuit Court of Appeals to reverse the verdict against HOFFA and his co-defendants. Apparently, one of these errors concerned that fact that AUSTIN allowed certain evidence into the trial on the condition that the Government would connect this evidence with other evidence to be produced later which it never did in the opinion of WALSH.

It is not know whether it is HUMPHREYS' opinion or WALSH's opinion that AUSTIN "may have done it to give us a little help in his own way."

HUMPHREYS' remark "you see he let the whole indictment go in" apparently refers to the fact that Judge AUSTIN allowed the indictment to be given to the jury after they had retired to consider their decision even though the indictment contained counts on which HOFFA was indicted but which were stricken by Judge AUSTIN following the presentation of the Government case against HOFFA. It is noted that BRODKIN has previously expressed his opinion that this is "grave error."

BRODKIN's conversation concerning his contact of confirms what the Chicago Office has already learned from this source and from BRODKIN's comment, however, concerning that ' is particularly significant in view of the information received from who related the rumor to that BRODKIN paid the bill for the honeymoon of Las Vegas. It would appear that following the contact of by then desired the bill so that he could show that he himself was paying this bill, as, according to he did.

BRODKIN's comment that he was very disappointed when he was informed by further solidifies the evaluation of the Chicago Office that BRODKIN and has some type of an understanding concerning the HOFFA case which very well may have been that would grant a defense motion for a directed verdict following the completion of the Government case against HOFFA and his co-defendants. It again appears apparent that had not and granted this motion.

It is also obvious that informed BRODKIN that the Government intended to investigate tampering with the jury following the completion of the HOFFA trial. It is noted that this information has previously been supplied by BRODKIN to PAULADORFMAN and to his associate, In this regard it is noted that the Chicago Office made contact with prior to his conversation with BRODKIN in this of practically all Chicago top hoodlums, and one of the prime corruptors of judges and other public officials in the Chicago area.

(P)(7)(c)

A reference to is obviously a reference to Chicago top hoodlum who is an sessociate of HOFFA and who was in daily attendance at the HOFFA trial.

BRODKIN's reference to the "drunken lawyer" is indication that he continues to feel that the source of the information concerning the association between and BRODKIN with and the Las Vegas situation is one of the attorneys for HOFFA and his co-defendants. It is noted that BRODKIN personally dislikes intensely. As a matter of fact, the Chicago Office is unaware of any such contact of by and is aware that with this information.

BRODKIN's reference to representation of a defendant in the "Stickney case" is a reference to the fact that represented a witness in that case who testified against a city official of Stickney, a southwestern suburb of Chicago, even though BRODKIN requested to have his client take the Fifth Amendment and refrain from giving testimony address the defendant in that case. This apparently is the prime reason why BRODKIN has an intense personal dislike for HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN apparently are in agreement that BRODKIN's is not to be trusted.

BRODKIN's reference to ' in the second case," is an apparent reference to the case prosecuted by when was States Attorney. This was a false arrest and brutality prosecution against of the Chicago Police Department, but at the time of the case in 1953,

(b)(7)(c):(b)

Yard Unit was charged with the responsibility for the The Scotland investigation of organized crime. hoodlum and bookmaker who was arrested by officers of the Scotland Yard Unit in 1952 and who thereafter complained that he had been beaten in the headquarters of the Scotland Yard Unit. This case was not prosecuted at the time of complaint but several months later, upon the election of a new States Attorney, States Attorney. He thereafter presented the case against and his officers to the Cook County Grand Jury and two trials of and his men took place. In the first trial and his men were convicted but a new trial was later held and were found not guilty. This trial was marked with several and his officers clashes between Chicago Police Officers and Judge DOUGHERTY who presided with and apparently caused to become hostile to law enforcement officers in the Chicago area. As an example of the atmosphere in that trial, Chicago Police Officers sprayed with a rotten egg odor while he was arguing the case in court.

It is apparent from the conversation that HUMPHREYS is hard to convince when BRODKIN attempts to inform him that with the and BRODKIN story.

At this time the Chicago Office is unable to furnish an explanation for the mention of BRODKIN concerning "when he put his fate in your fellow hands" and of the reference to (ph) or

No Chicago informant or source has furnished any information which can be used to evaluate BRODKIN's references in this regard.

The Chicago Office likewise is unable to identify "this big guy from the pharmaceutical company, this guy who manages the teamsters building at 29 E. Madison." From the conversation it appears that "this big guy from the pharmaceutical company" and the "guy who manages the teamsters building" are not one and the same. It is noted that HUMPHREYS' comment that is an (obscene). He'asa dog!" would appear to be the best type of recommendation for the integrity of

The comments of HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN indicating that they know of nothing concerning tampering with the jury in the HOFFA case other than what they read in the paper is significant. It is noted that the Chicago press on the morning of the date of this conversation carried front page articles indicating that United States Attorney HANRAHAN and the Assistant United States Attorneys who handled the HOFFA matter, were then in Washington conferring with Justice Department officials concerning an investigation of jury tampering. These are the headlines which HUMPHREYS refers to and his reference to "books" apparently is a reference to the fact that the same newspaper articles contained information that copies of a magazine, not identified but known to be the "Nation," were sent to all judges in the Northern District of Illinois. As the Bureau is aware, this article in the "Nation" criticized the prosecution of HOFFA in his Nashville, Tennessee, jury tampering trial.

BRODKIN's comment concerning his contact of and FRANKIE" apparently refers to the fact, as previously known, BRODKIN left in his chambers and immediately contacted Chicago top hoodlum BRODKIN apparently contacted due to the fact that he is aware that is the Chicago representative of organized crime who is charged with the responsibility of maintaining liaison with labor officials in the Chicago area. He apparently met who was with Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO at the time in front of Zimmermans Liquor Store on the corner of Franklin and Randolph Streets in Chicago, approximately a block from the office of BRODKIN. BRODKIN's comments in relation to this meeting appear to indicate that was also in attendance at this meeting, but this is not believed to be a correct interpretation of BRODKIN's comments in this regard in view of what previously has become known from this source.

BRODKIN's comment "I've a hundred (obscene) deals from the time I've known that guy and I've always come out somehow, somehow, maybe not to the very letter. But somehow," is very significant and is a further indication of the many previous dealings between BRODKIN and

It is obvious that BRODKIN does not intend to handling of the HOFFA case to rest but instead intends to vigorously take this up with when he is contacted by as he apparently feels he will be.

Following the above conversation, HUMPHREYS informed BRODKIN that the reason he wanted to see BRODKIN was about "the DORFMAN thing." HUMPHREYS commented that he had seen DORFMAN "over at Mike Fish's." From on 7/28/64 it is known that HUMPHREYS dined at Pete Fish's Restaurant on the evening of 7/27/64 and it was obviously been when he met DORFMAN at Fish's. It is noted that Chicago hoodlums generally refer to Pete Fish's Restaurant as "Nike Fish's" in view of the fact that this restaurant was formerly named Mike Fish's and because MIKE FISH ja now again associated with his brother, PETE, in the operation of that restaurant. HUMPHREYS noted that "some big and little union guys" were also present at Fish's, apparently on the evening of 7/27/64 and that this meeting was "spotted" by FBI agents. It is a fact that the Chicago Office attempted a surveillance of HUMPHREYS on the evening of 7/27/64, but did not observe HUMPHREYS at Pete Fish's Restaurant. HUMPHREYS noted that was already present at Fish's when HUMPHREYS arrived and that with ALEX at Pete Fish's Restaurant was Chicago attorney

(1)(7)(0)

Vegas." HUMPHREYS later mentioned that a "union guy from San Francisco" was also present. HUMPHREYS indicated that the only guy "he didn't want caught" on the surveillance was the "Greek guy from Las Vegas" because "they can't stand the heat."

HUMPHREYS later appeared to identify the Greek guy" as (ph) son from Detroit and mentioned that DORFMAN knows the "Greek guy." HUMPHREYS informed BRODKIN that he he should be sure to warn DORFMAN that they were being watched by the FBI on the evening of 7/27/64 at Pete Fish's Restaurant.

BRODKIN then attempted to contact DORFMAN at DORFMAN's office and then at the Black Market, a novelty store located in the basement of the Sherman Hotel in Chicago and then at the H & H Restaurant on LaSalle Street in the Loop area, of Chicago. However, he was unable to locate PAUL. It is noted that every time he made a phone call HUMPHREYS cautioned him to be careful what he said on the phone, particularly at the H & H Restaurant. It is noted that the H & H Restaurant is a hangout for Chicago gamblers and minor hoodlums.

Continental Hotel. While the phone was ringing, BRODKIN informed HUMPHREYS that DORFMAN "has some union people in from San Francisco" and HUMPHREYS remarked "That's who was with DORFMAN last night." While waiting for the phone call to be completed, BRODKIN informed HUMPHREYS that had advised BRODKIN that he was going away for a few days. HUMPHREYS then asked for the information desk at the Continental Hotel and requested the room number of Mr. (ph), and was apparently advised that (ph) is staying in Room 1501. BRODKIN was unable to reach anyone in Room 1501.

A copy of this airtel is being submitted to the Las Vegas Office and that office is requested to identify "the Greek who is son from Detroit" and who is apparently associated with a Las Vegas hotel.

(H)(1)(c)

A copy of this airtel is being submitted to the San Francisco Office and that office is requested to identify (ph).

For the information of Las Vegas and San Francisco, PAUL "RED" DORFMAN is a former Teamster official who is a very close associate of JAMES HOFFA and who is a Chicago hoodlum of relatively minor stature.

BRODKIN then inquired of HUMPHREYS concerning RALPH PIERCE, Chicago top hoodlum. HUMPHREYS commented that he had just left PIERCE.

At this point BRODKIN informed HUMPHREYS that he must be at the Chicago Temple for religious services at 4:45 PM this afternoon as he has pledged to attend these services morning and night for a year in respect to the memory of his recently deceased mother. As HUMPHREYS prepared to leave, BRODKIN again advised him that he is not going to contact but will wait until he is contacted by He noted that apparently is playing golf at the Olympia Field. Country Club and that he knows that he can reach there any time of the day or at home at night but that instead he will wait for the contact him. It is noted that the Olympia Field Country Club is located in a southern suburb of Chicago near the residence of Illinois.

BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS then left together and BRODKIN's last remark was that he would keep HUMPHREYS up to date on developments in this matter.

At 2:05 PM PAUL DORFMAN arrived. He apparently responded to a message which BRODKIN had left for him to contact him. It is noted that in my airtel of 7/31/64 it is pointed out that Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS conferred with BRODKIN and instructed him to inform DORFMAN that DORFMAN was under FBI surveillance on the evening of 7/27/64 when he was in the company of union officials from San Francisco at Pete Fish's Restaurant. BRODKIN then informed DORFMAN of HUMPHREYS' message to "be on guard for a tail" and that "HUMP wanted you to know that you were being tailed at Pete Fish's Restaurant with those guys from San Francisco the other night."

DORFMAN pointed out "Those were legitimate guys." BRODKIN stated that "All I know is HUMPIE wanted you to know about the tail."

BRODKIN then informed DORFMAN of his great feeling for HUMPHREYS, stating that HUMPHREYS "is a real nice guy and although he's getting older and although he's sick and although a lot of things he don't tend to himself no more, he's still a pretty sharp old guy."

BRODKIN and DORFMAN then discussed again the fact that their dealings with in an acquittal for JAMES R. HOFFA. BRODKIN advised DORFMAN that HUMPHREYS stated that he feels terrible about this situation.

DORFMAN advised that he had to sit down either in Detroit or in Washington with HOFFA and discuss this situation with HOFFA.

BRODKIN then informed DORFMAN that HUMPHREYS had told him yesterday to wait for call rather than have BRODKIN call BRODKIN stated that HUMPHREYS felt bad about the finding of the jury but he warned BRODKIN not to make an enemy of BRODKIN again stated that there is something that has not yet informed him "about what BRODKIN stated that he is very interested in learning what went wrong and DORFMAN likewise indicated he wanted an explanation of action in this case. DORFMAN stated that he feels "rear bad because I kept telling HOFFA about what a good guy is."

BRODKIN then informed DORFMAN that HUMPHREYS
"wanted to know: how you felt. I said he feels real bad,

I didn't tell him about what you said about too many cooks.
I gave him the same story I got from the little guy. I don't

In reference to the above, it would appear that this indicates that HUMPHREYS questioned BRODKIN concerning the feelings of DORFMAN in regard to the HOFFA verdict. is noted that Chicago is DORFMAN's hometown. According to the source who was privy to the conversation between BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS in its entirety, HUMPHREYS at no time asked such a question of BRODKIN and it is felt that BRODKIN is padding his conversation with HUMPHREYS for the benefit of DORFMAN. Apparently DORFMAN has informed BRODKIN that he feels that there were too many people involved in attempting to obtain a favorable verdict_for HOFFA in Chicago and that this is the reason why reversed himself and did not provide such treatment. is noted that the Chicago Office is aware that along with several of his Chicago bookmaking partners conducted a large bookmaking ring in the Montreal area a year or so prior to the time they went to Terre Haute and operated a similar ring.

BRODKIN then related to and the individual possibly identical with about how he and MURRAY HUMPHREYS had to "step in and settle the differences" between gamblers in Canada. In this regard it is known that Canadian gambler was visited in Montreal by BRODKIN in the winter of 1962-63 and that in the fall of 1963 was again visited, this time by MURRAY HUMPHREYS. Apparently, then, the purpose of the trip to Canada by HUMPHREYS in the fall of 1963 was for the purpose of "stepping in and settling the differences" with and the other two Canadian gamblers who observed HUMPHREYS in contact with on the occasion of his visit to Montreal and Toronto.

HUMPHREYS interrupted at this point indicating that he was not particularly interested in involvement involvement with the IRS and said to BRODKIN "Listen will you call the gym and see if is up there? I don't know how to call there and get him. What do they call him by up there, I forget the God damn name." BRODKIN indicated that they call him and that he would immediately call and contact him.

Obviously this situation involves the fact that HUMPHREYS desired to make immediate contact with Chicago top hoodlum and that he felt that was at Postl's Health Club but that he did not know what name used at the (h)(7)(c) club and therefore was unable to contact him. He apparently knew that BRODKIN, being a member of the same club and being closest associates, would know how to immediately contact \ BRODKIN made a telephone call to POSTL's as follows: "Ah, yho is this, Ah, is the handsome boy there? All right." While was apparently being summoned to the telephone call, HUMPHREYS instructed BRODKIN to tell to "meet me out in the hall." When phone, BRODKIN had the following conversation with him: "Yeah, how are you? Are you dressed or what? Ah, your friend CURL, has to see you, so put on whatever you have to and I'll bring him upstairs. What floor do you want him on, the floor below or." At this point BRODKIN was interrupted by HUMPHREYS who informed him to tell that he would come to the gym. BRODKIN so informed

Following the telephone call MIKE informed HUMPHREYS that had not given the entire story to HUMPHREYS. This elicited the comment from HUMPHREYS that "poor will have a breakdown, he gets too excited about everything, he's so excited about everything." BRODKIN replied to this "He's nutty."

BRODKIN then explained to HUMPHREYS that Internal Revenue had come to see inasmuch as had some transactions with and they figured that these transactions were 'hidden' and that was using as a payoff man to the protection there. BRODKIN indicated that IRS is on "that ass over there, they want to indict for income tax I guess. Whether that guy is through playing around, politically, and spending a lot of money betting and everything else, they're trying to make a net worth case on him, so that's how | got involved."

know if been keeping you abreast of everything. Ah, you see that little guy it's nobody's fault and MOE and me handled it just the way it should have been handled.

(F)(7)(c)

But, ah, he would send in guys to for help with don't like between you and I." At this point it appeared that BRODKIN made the comment gave him the $20,000" but since BRODKIN said this in a very low tone, source was unable to definitely advise that this was the exact comment of BRODKIN. BRODKIN then continued "The Little Guy told me that. I, I saw him Monday. I made it my business to go see him. Between you and And I told him I said listen, I said you put me in a kind of a bad spot. He said MIKE, what do you want, you want me to put the noose around me or something. I said I wouldn't do that to you or my close friends. He said I know that, he said I want to help this guy in every way, shape or form. And then, I, ah, you know, I wanted him to, a lot of times the first time, you know he..... handled that with this guy. So I told him look, I need your help, nobody elses, you know what I mean. He said I'll do everything that I can. And then he start showing me the instructions that WALSH gave him. For Christ's sake it was a speech and he said how can I give the jury that. I said see if you can't give him a break on all the counts you can and he says to me.... then I con'ed him. I said I know your heart is with me. ••••• This guyyou see there was a lot of obstacles that you and I had to overcome here." At this point HUMPHREYS interrupted BRODKIN by saying, "Well come on, I got to get this guy, I got to get him moving." BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS then left, obviously for Postl's Health Club, and no further conversation was obtained by this source on

In regard to the above conversation it is obvious that again BRODKIN discusses his contact with

Obviously what he told HUMPHREYS was a renash of his conversations with and with PAUL "RED" DORFMAN. The only new facts obtained from the conversation above with HUMPHREYS are that BRODKIN apparently was in close contact with States Attorney, prosecuted of the Chicago Police Department. but then a

The Bureau is also advised that on 7/22/64, Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS appeared in the office of BRODKIN on another matter but while in contact with BRODKIN was furnished in substance the identical information concerning his contact with which was subject of his above conversations with DORFMAN and conversation was not as lengthy as the conversation with DORFMAN and not in such detail. However, BRODKIN commented that he has been "handling" matters with "that time with He convicted the first time." This would appear to refer to the conviction of of the Chicago Police

Also it appeared that during this conversation BRODKIN mentioned something about 'giving him the twenty thousand." This remark was far from clear to the source in that it was mentioned in a very low voice. However, it is possible that at one time or another given $20,000 by Chicago hoodlum Remytel 7/13/64, and Butel 7/14/64, requesting background and clarified details concerning a reported set up of a policy wheel by the Chicago Police Department and reported criticism thereof by Mayor DALEY.

The Chicago press has recently reported that CHARLES SIRAGUSA, Executive Director, Illinois Crime Commission (ICC), initiated a policy wheel in the city of Chicago with the use of an undercover Agent who had previously been an informant of SIRAGUSA's in New York City, when SIRAGUSA was Assistant Director of the Federal Marcotics Bureau. When SIRAGUSA decided that he needed additional capital to finance this wheel, which he called the Nu-Way Red Top, he went to the Bureau of Inspectional Services and the Chicago Police Department and solicited officers of that unit and additional capital. After consultation between Deputy Superintendent JOSEPH MORRIS and Captain WILLIAM DUFFY, presumably with the overall approval of Police Superintendent ORLANDO W. WILSON, this operation was commenced in approximately April, 1964. Along with the undercover agent of the ICC, the Chicago Police Department furnished two other full-time officers to work on this policy wheel that was reportedly furnished $10,000 as additional capital.

After approximately three months, policy tickets were confiscated during a raid by RICHARD CAIN, Chief was terminated when SIRAGUS publicly announced that he did so due to his concern for the personal safety of his undercover agent.

Captain DUFFY announced that the profits in the operation were "nil" and said "the syndicate must use some kind of policing to cut down on cheating."

SIRAGUSA announced publicly in early July, that his undercover agents posing as gangsters became accepted members of the mob but had to be withdrawn due to "talkative Chicago policemen who sabotaged this scheme by openly discussing the espionage project and thereby breeching security and endangering the agents' lives." He said that if it had not been for "babbling policemen" the espionage operation could have gone on for years.

During the operation of the wheel, information was turned over to the police department, according to Superintendent WILSON, by the undercover men that at least one undercover agent was beaten by Chicago policemen after being arrested for his participation in the wheel.

The "Chicago Daily News" reported an interview of one RONALD KRASNEK who had been contacted by SIRAGUSA's undercover agent and put in a high position in the operation of the wheel. The article, running on the front page of the "Daily News", quoted KRASNEK as saying, "That guy they sent out was a goof. All of us knew it. We must have taken him for $20,000." This article detailed information obtained during an interview of KRASNEK in the Cook County Jail where he was awaiting trial for burglary and the entire article sarcastically tells how KRASNEK and his associates were aware from the beginning that this was an operation of the Chicago Police Department, and of the ICC but that they went along with it anyway due to the large amount of money they were able to siphon off from the proceeds of the wheel by playing SIRAGUSA's undercover agent "for a sucker."

Generally the Chicago newspapers have been critical of the Chicago Police Department and the ICC due to the fact that SIRAGUSA and the police department engaged in an illegal operation. It was reported that the Sheriff's Police Department had the entire operation under surveillance and only the plea of Police Superintendent WILSON kept them from making a series of arrests.

CG 92-14

At the heat of the controversy on July 9, 1964, the Chicago newspapers reported a press conference of Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY of Chicago who was quoted as saying when questioned if he, like "many people", was critical of police and undercover agents of the ICC: "No one in the practice of law will support entrapment." It was this conference that DALEY also refused to comment on remarks made by WILSON earlier that week that "increased crime will make every street in Chicago a jungle" and that "soon people will be afraid to walk down Michigan Avenue," it being noted that Michigan Avenue is the location of the best department stores and hotels in the Chicago Loop WILSON's remarks, DALEY said "I think he made a mistake there."

It was this situation which was referred to in Chicago Daily Summary teletype on HUMPHREYS of July 13, 1964. It is not clear whether HUMPHREYS has firsthand knowledge from his hoodlum associates that everybody knew that the policy wheel was being operated by law enforcement or whether he obtained this from facts generally publicized in the Chicago press.

Reference is also made to one (phonetic) of Montreal. It is also recalled that Humphreys has made a more recent visit to Canada for reasons which are not known.

Promptly submit appropriate letterhead memorandum containing this information and any other pertinent related data for transmittal to Legat, Ottawa, for assistance in efforts to determine reason for Humphreys' Canadian visits, activities while there and identity of and any contacts Humphreys may have had with this individual.

Apparently, PRIO had requested a meeting with ALBERISIO for the purpose of having ALDERISIO contact his underling. It appears that a Negro has committed a serves of robberies, apparently on the North Side of Chicago, and has recently been arrested. After having been arrested, his bond was arranged by a bondsman who turns out to be a friend of Since one of the victims of this Negro is a friend of PRIO, PRIO wants to insure that does nothing to obtain favorable treatment for this Negro. PRIO wants the Negro convicted and sentenced, and wants some furs which were stolen from his friend returned. As a result of the conference, ALDERISIO made a telephone call to and arranged to meet him with then left in order to meet with PRIO remained in the office of BRODKIN.

Following the departure of ALDERISIO and arrived and asked PRIO for his opinion of Chicago top jewel thief has recently been released from prison and is on It is noted that bond while awaiting trial on another case. Apparently has contacted either or BRODKIN in regard to favorable treatment which might be provided him. requested the opinion of PRIO concerning for the reason that he will do something for this regard 'Y PRIO indicated that he was not , but that as far as he knows, is "all_right." the reupon indicated that he might do has requested.

At this point, was called from his office by his secretary. He returned in approximately five minutes and informed PRIO that he had just received a telephone call from HY GODFREY who advised him that "they" were meeting in the Cart Restaurant and that their meeting had been discovered by the Chicago Police Department.

GODFREY avised as related to PRIO, that "they" were afraid that the Chicago Police Department either had warrants for their arrest or subpoenas calling for their appearance before a legal body. indicated, however, that before he could give GODFREY any advice, GODFREY informed that HUMPHREYS had taken it upon himself to make a "test case" of himself and leave the restaurant in order to determine what action the Chicago Folice Department would take concerning him. When the other hoodlums observed that the Chicago Police Department did nothing to HUMPHREYS, they then realized that they were merely under surveillance and that there were no warrants or subpoenas to be served upon them.

In regard to the above situation, it is noted advised on August 13 and 17, 1964, that HUMPHREYS intended to meet with eight of his associates at the Cart Restaurant at noon on August 17, 1364. During the late morning, CA was informed by of the Intelligence Unit of the Chicago Police Department that his men had observed several bading members of organized crime in the Loop area of Chicago during the late morning hours and wondered whether the FBI was aware of any particular meeting which was to take informed that the FBI was aware of no such meeting, but that it was possible, since thes. hoodlums have been meeting at the Cart Restaurant in the recent past, that they might meet there on August 17, 195...

that his men had discovered these hoodlums at the Cart Restaurant and had observed them while they dined and met there.

According to information obtained from and the Cart Restaurant on August 17, 1964:

MURRAY HUMPHREYS

CG 92-350 Sub 11

FRANK FEBRARO and HY CODFREY

(b)(2)

When informed PRIO concerning the above situation, PRIO opined that the police may have "surrounded" this meeting due to the recent bombings of restaurants in the Chicago area. This caused PRIO to comment, "All these guys need money, their businesses are going bad, so they set their places on fire." This caused to comment, "This may be a significant comment, indicating that organized crime in Chicago is not involved in the wide-spread arson and bombings which have taken place in Chicago during the past two years. On the other hand, PRIO may have made this comment to for strategic purposes.

At this point, attempted to learn the location of BRODKIN and was informed by BRODKIN's searetery that she was informed by BRODKIN that he would be "PRIO then commented that the secretary must refer to the yacht of Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO.

and FRIO then discussed which restaurant the Chicago hoodlums were discovered in. did not appear to be certain of the name but felt that it was either the Cork Restaurant on Dempster Avenue in Skokie. Illinois, a northern suburb of Chicago, or the Cart Restaurant on Wabash. During this discussion, PRIO mentioned that the Cork Restaurant in Skokie is the "joint where goes" and commented that he had observed there the previous night. This is an obvious reference to Chicago and Miami top hoodlum. It is noted that information has previously been obtained from indicating that the Cork Restaurant in Skokie is a favorite hangout of North Side hoodlums.

while PRIO waited for the return of ALDERISIO and the discussed politics with the later. It became obvious during this conversation that PRIO favors the election of President JOHNSON over Senator GOLDWATER.

PRIO then requested to recontact"HY" and "find out what's going on."

CG 92-350 Sub 11

then made a telephone call to the Cart Restaurant and apparently talked to BEN ORIOFF, the owner and proprietor of the Cart. He was informed that all the hoodlums and GODFREY had left, but that the Chicago Police Department remained at the Cart. Trequested the person believed identical with ORLOFF to have anyone "contact him.

Approximately a half hour later, received a telephone call from Chicago top hoodlum RALPH PIERCE and was informed that 'then advised that '

" He then advised

At this point Chicago hoodlum PAUL "RED DORFMAN arrived, looking for BRODKIN. When informed that BRODKIN was not there, DORFMAN shortly departed.

PRIO and then vaguely discussed the HOFFA PRIO indicated his great dislike for Attorney General ROBERT KENNEDY. He mentioned "the Government just grabs any (obs) it has something on and makes a stool pigeon out of them. That way, the pigeon will say anything they want." indicated that in his opinion, this case would be reversed by the Court of Appeals, and mentioned a favorable opinion of Judge SCHNACKBERG, who is PRIO indicated that he was not as confident about reversal as was because "BOBBY KENNEDY is theman here." PRIO indicated that he felt that KENNEDY "will get his man, either by hook or crook." He mentioned that KENNEDY had to get HOFFA before he got out of office. Again PRIO indicated "we will be in more trouble if GOLD-WATER wins the election than if JOHNSON stays in office. If GOLDWATER wins the national election, OGILVIE will be the boss of your party here and he will not give us a day's rest." Obviously this is in reference to Cook County Sheriff RICHARD OCILIVIET who is a rising political power and who is a staunch supporter of Senator GOLDWATER.

blame" for this situation, and decided that "we had as State's Attorney, we thought we would benefit, but who did we really hurt when we went out to beat him."

The conversation then turned to the dislike of PRIO and of Mayor RICHARD I DALEY of the City of Chicago. No specific reason for this dislike was mentioned.

and ALDERISIO advised that shot." This would indicate that had not done anything to prevent the conviction of the Negro burglar. ALDERISIO advised that he informed not to do anything, and that would be in touch with concerning this situation, and that "when comes over, you let know anything he wants to know. ALDERISIO indicated that would talk to the bondsman in an attempt to recover the fur pieces which were stolen from PRIO's friend. ALDERISIO repeated, "I said if comes there, you show him the same respect you show me, as if I wanted to know. You know is with the group."

PRIO and ALDERISIO then discussed the situation where someone has run up obligations of over $50,000 in his operation of a nightclub, apparently on the near North side of Chicago. During this time, mention was made of the living room" and "JIMMY." Although it is by no means definite, it is possible that this situation involves the "Living Room," a near North Side night club, and that the reference to "JIMMY" is a reference to Chicago top hoodlum JAME ALLEGRETTI, who is known to own night clubs and restrurants on the Near North Side of Chicago. It is noted that the Living Room is ostensibly owned and operated by who has been a front for Chicago top hoodlums in the past in the operation of night clubs and restaurants. As a matter of fact, the relationship of Chicago hoodlums goes back to the time when he was a waiter at Collisimo's Restaurant, which was the original hangout of the Chicago hoodlums, even prior to AL CAPONE.

It appeared from the discussion between PRIO and ALDERISIO that the owner of this restaurant desired to sell out, and ALDERISIO indicated that he would find out exactly what the obligation was, "plus whatever he wants for himself. I said sit down and give me a figure and I will sit down with you. I said sit down and give me your obligations. Tell me what your obligations are and whatever you want, I said, JIMMY, and then we can talk. That's what I told him."

PRIO then mentioned, "I think most of his obligations are taxes that he owes there, and I don't know how much that is. I don't think there is none of them

It is significant that ALDERISIC then followed that statement with the following: 'We have got that spot, there's $500 a month there. There's a tag of $500 ble that what ALDERISIO means is that since this is and has been a hoodlum joint, there is a requirement of a monthly tribute of $500 to the Chilago hoodlums.

In reference to this might club, the Living Room, it is noted that this is the former location of the Trade Winds, and that the Trade Winds has been known to be dominated by Chicago hoodlums for decades. At one time it was owned by ART ADLER, whose nude body was found stuffed in a Chicago sewer following his being kidnaped.

The conversation then returned to the Chicago Police Department's surveillance of Chicago hoodlums at the Cart Restaurant, and ALDERISIO advised that he had been informed concerning this situation, apparently by in an outer office, outside the privy of this source. PRIO and ALDERISIO then wondered aloud as to how this meeting had been discovered. ALDERISIO advised, "They were all there. You see, when you go into a public place, you've got 50, 60, 75 or 100 people there. Now somebody might see you and they make a telephone call and say those fellows are having a meeting at such and such a place, and that's it. The other day, now, they asked me and JIMMY to have lunch over at Mitchell's, I have never been in that joint, and while we were there they nailed some guys taking a bet, and the police told them they were watching us, and in the meantime they send this guy to take a bet.

(D(7)(c)

The guy was going to the race track and somebody gave him $20 and said, here, bet this while you go there. All kinds of (obs) going on in this town." When PRIO indicated that he was not aware of the location of "Mitchell's," ALDERISIO advised him that it was on the corner of Division and State. The conversation returned to the Cart incident, and ALDERISIO advised that he "understood they had the whole restaurant surrounded there," and that "CURLY walked out first and they saw him disappear." This reference to "CURLY" is a reference to HUMPHREYS.

At this point, 3:10 p.m., PRIO and departed. There was no further activity from the source until 5:01 p.m., when ALDERISIO and returned to BRODKIN's office. ALDERISIO and then disquesed the trial pending against ALDERISIO wherein is a co-defendant. Re your airtel 8-20-64.

Your attention is invited to the paragraph on page 9 immediately preceding the caution statement.

It is desired that the statement by Hornstein indicating that when he was sentenced he obtained a 9-year sentence after having paid the judge $40,000 be clarified and amplified. For example, it should be determined, if possible, without compromising the source, the identity of the judge who sentenced Hornstein; the charge for which he was prosecuted; and the date, length, and place of sentencing.

Chicago top hoodlum LESLIE KRUSE: This identification has been made by SA who interviewed KRUSE at length sometime ago, and has made a voice identification of the visitor to HUMPHREYS' apartment as definitely being identical with

This identification has also been effected due to the fact that advised SA on 8/24/64 that KRUSE had just returned to Chicago from the West Bahama

It is noted that the visitor to HUMPHREYS' apartment mentioned that he had been on the West Bahama Island on the 4th of July and also mentioned that desired to return to the West Bahama Island within two days or so. It would now appear that KRUSE accompanied back to the West Bahama Island, after receiving instructions from HUMPHREYS to "get going on this."

Additionally, it is noted that has advised that within the past month KRUSE has obtained the services of a full-time nurse in order to take care of his 80-year old mother, who is in extremely poor health, having just returned to the residence of KRUSE from St. Francis Hospital in Evanston, Illinois. This is pertinent due to the fact that HUMPHREYS mentioned that he had talked to a woman at the residence of his visitor in Chicago the previous night, and the visitor mentioned that HUMPHREYS must have talked to his nurse.

In view of the above, there appears to be very little doubt that HUMPHREYS' visitor on 8/18/64 was Chicago top hoodlum LESLIE KRUSE.

Las Vegas and Miami can discontinue efforts to identify HUMPHREYS' visitor in view of the above identification.

The report that Chicago hoodiums have been able to obtain a confidential book containing information on hoodlums and informants should be followed closely and appropriate discreet efforts should be made to determine full particulars

Keep Bureau advised of all future developments of interest in this regard.

Chicago highly confidential source advised hoodlum Phil Alderisio had possession on 8/29/64 of a book allegedly containing biographies, associates, meeting places and habits of all Chicago area hoodlums, together with some indication of identity of at least three "stool pigeons." Source had no information as to origin of book. However, Chicago surmises it must be one recently prepared by a Chicago area law enforcement agency.

Recent information indicates that Humphreys and other Chicago hoodlums are concerned over supposed attempts of Chicago and meeting places.

In view of this, you should continue to be circumspect in the development of confidential sources. This does not mean that you should in any way curtail activities looking toward the continued development of successful confidential techniques. However, you should, of course, exercise extreme care in order to fully insure the security of this type of coverage.

NOTE: Recently, individuals, posing as detectives of the Chicago Police Department, made efforts to enter Humphreys' apartment under pretext and as a result Humphreys and other hoodlums have concluded this is a Mone to cover the installation of confidential sources in their residences and meeting places and, in view of this, Chicago is being alerted to exercise care in order to protect Bureau sources.
