a total of $240,000. He stated that he cannot figure out why [REDACTED] feels that he can obtain the restaurant for $150,000 plus the inventory and accounts receivable.

[REDACTED] also was upset because of the fact that he had heard that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are attempting to purchase the restaurant from one [REDACTED] who apparently received his information from one [REDACTED] (ph). He also mentioned that DAVEY YARAS, Chicago and Miami top hoodlum, also apparently knows about the prospective purchase. HUMPHREYS interjected at this point, and felt that it doesn't matter whether YARAS knows about it or not, and that he should know about it, since [REDACTED] would be expected to tell YARAS since he is "close to YARAS." HUMPHREYS then made the following comment:

"[REDACTED] will take the money under the table. That is the only thing that I am interested in. Let me get this deal down simple. The deal is this: These fellows over here, went over and talked to the other fellow. I talked to [REDACTED] and he said he'd take some money under the table. Now how that can be worked out, I don't know. [REDACTED] and you have to work that out, MIKE, and you're the only one I'd let do this. You know how this is done." [REDACTED] then said, "[REDACTED]"

[REDACTED] "BRODKIN then commented, [REDACTED] controls 100 per cent of the stock and you don't show in the picture, that's what he told what's-his-name?"

[REDACTED] HUMPHREYS: "And then you take cash for your end." [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] "HUMPHREYS: "Can you handle it that way?" BRODKIN: "That's what we gotta do." HUMPHREYS: "Well, you have to do it by tomorrow." [REDACTED]

(b)(7)(c)

[REDACTED]

In reference to the above, it is noted that ORLOFF was interviewed by agents of this Office on two occasions concerning the financial interest in the Cart Restaurant, inasmuch as an allegation was received that HUMPHREYS had a financial interest there. ORLOFF at that time advised that no one other than himself had any financial interest in the Cart Restaurant.

It appears obvious from the above conversation that [REDACTED] has an interest which will run between $75,000 and $90,000 in the Cart, and that this is a hidden interest. It also appears likely that [REDACTED] has not reported income from the Cart Restaurant and would be susceptible to successful prosecution in this regard by IRS. It would also appear possible that when this deal is made, the money on paper will amount to whatever the interest of the parties other than [REDACTED] is, and that [REDACTED] will then receive in cash "under the table" the amount of his interest. It would appear that [REDACTED] money will never appear on any papers concerning this sale. However, at this time, no dissemination is being made of this information to IRS in deference to this sensitive source.

HUMPHREYS then mentioned to BRODKIN as he was leaving that he would be in town for consultation on this and other situations, except over the Christmas holidays when he intends to visit his family in Oklahoma. This is a reference to his first family.

At 3:19 p.m. [REDACTED] ^{III} conferred with BRODKIN. [REDACTED] is an employee of the [REDACTED]

Apparently, BRODKIN had previously approached [REDACTED] many months ago concerning a case which he wanted fixed. Now, this case appears to be

EXTREME CAUTION SHOULD BE EXERCISED IN THE USE OF THIS INFORMATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE BODY OF A REPORT EVEN THOUGH PARAPHRASED. IT SHOULD NOT BE USED IN LEAD COVERAGE OR AS THE BASIS FOR AN INTERVIEW UNLESS SPECIFIC CLEARANCE IS OBTAINED FROM THE BUREAU AND FROM CHICAGO. THIS IS AN EXTREMELY DELICATE AND SENSITIVE SOURCE WHICH THE CHICAGO OFFICE IS MAKING EVERY EFFORT TO FULLY PROTECT.

██████████ furnished information concerning activities on 11/25 and 11/27/64: It is noted that 11/26/64 was Thanksgiving Day and there was no information reported concerning activities on that date.

This source advised that when BRODKIN arrived at his office in the early afternoon of 11/25/64, he found an envelope apparently containing money on his desk, but no note attached thereto explaining what the money was for. BRODKIN could not figure out what this was about, and questioned practically everybody in his office as to where the money had come from. He finally decided that Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS must have come in and left the envelope without saying a word to anyone since BRODKIN represented HUMPHREYS recently in regard to the deposition given by HUMPHREYS in the suit against SANDY SMITH and the Chicago "Sun-Times." On this occasion BRODKIN refused to accept money in payment for his services from HUMPHREYS, and now BRODKIN feels that this must be the way that HUMPHREYS was getting him to accept the money.

BRODKIN therefore made a telephone call to Celano's Custom Tailors on the near north side of Chicago and asked for either [redacted] or [redacted]. This obviously is [redacted] or [redacted], employees of Celano's. BRODKIN then asked for "the old man," and when [redacted] apparently told that he was not there, then asked for [redacted] and when apparently told that he likewise was not there, asked for "BUTTERCUP." Apparently also informed that "BUTTERCUP" was not there, BRODKIN then requested that if any of them should come in, that they should contact him.

These references obviously refer to HUMPHREYS, Chicago top hoodlum [redacted] and HY GODFREY, respectively.

BRODKIN later called Postl's Health Club and asked for "the good looking guy," but apparently was informed that Chicago top hoodlum [redacted] wasn't there.

On 11/27/64, Chicago bookmaker [redacted] ^X arrived. He asked whether the contract for his purchase of the Cart Restaurant had been drawn up yet. BRODKIN advised that he had not as yet finalized the contract and that he was going to have lunch with [redacted], one of the owners, that date. It is noted that the Chicago Office has recently opened a case on [redacted] in view of information which was just received indicating that [redacted] has again taken an active interest in bookmaking activities in the Chicago area. It is noted that [redacted] on 11/27/64, advised that he has not yet learned how [redacted] " This obviously would refer to [redacted] action on football games played on Thanksgiving Day. This installation is located in the subject's Chicago residence. Humphreys is a hoodlum of national importance who has a long-time association with organized criminal activity.

This source has consistently furnished pertinent information regarding Humphreys' activity. It is through this source that information is developed concerning his many trips and is, therefore, of great assistance in effecting coverage of Humphreys when out of the Chicago area. During the recently authorized period, Humphreys traveled to Miami, East St. Louis and Hot Springs. These trips were determined in advance through this source. The source also reports Humphreys' regular meetings with Hy Godfrey, his bodyguard and errand boy. During these conversations they frequently discuss matters of interest concerning the hoodlum organization in Chicago.

The Special Investigative Division concurs with the recommendation of SAC, Chicago, that this source be continued for a 90-day period.

9. Since the last submission of an FD-143, the travel of HUMPHREYS to the Miami, Florida, area, to the East St. Louis, Illinois, area, and to the Hot Springs, Arkansas, area, has been covered through information obtained prior to the departure of HUMPHREYS from Chicago.

As a result of this coverage, the whereabouts of HUMPHREYS, almost on an hourly basis, has been possible to determine during the past three months. Also as a result of this coverage, HUMPHREYS was arrested on a traffic violation by the Dade County Sheriff's Office in Miami, Florida.

Also as a result of this coverage, the room numbers of HUMPHREYS were known in Hot Springs, Arkansas, almost immediately upon his arrival there from Chicago.

During the past three months, HUMPHREYS has continued his practice of meeting almost daily, Monday through Saturday, with his bodyguard, errand boy, message center, and chauffeur, HY GODFREY. During these almost daily visits, HUMPHREYS instructs GODFREY as to whom he desires to meet with on that date, and, ordinarily, where. GODFREY then gives HUMPHREYS any messages he has received from other hoodlums or from any other of HUMPHREYS' associates, and HUMPHREYS then instructs GODFREY as to return messages to these people. Frequently these messages involve requests for meetings with HUMPHREYS and HUMPHREYS re-instructs GODFREY to inform these people whether he desires to meet with them or not. GODFREY then takes messages to these people as to HUMPHREYS' desires, and sets up meetings with them.

On many occasions, HUMPHREYS and GODFREY discuss matters of interest to the hoodlum organization in Chicago.

HUMPHREYS has met on several occasions during the past three months at the location of another highly confidential source, [REDACTED] On almost each occasion, information has been obtained from [REDACTED] indicating that HUMPHREYS intended to visit the location of the other source.

CG 92-350 sub Z

Already, information has been received from this source indicating that HUMPHREYS intends to travel to the Norman, Oklahoma, area over the Christmas holidays, and concerning other of his plans in the future.

A hearing was held 12/9/64, Dade County Court, Miami, regarding the case of [Redacted] arrested by the Dade County SO, 11/12/64, for Vagrancy and Frequenting a Gambling House. [Redacted] who made the arrest, testified. The case was dismissed.

The "Miami Daily News" and "Miami Herald" made inquiry to this office concerning the hearing, in that they stated that the testimony described the circumstances of the arrest as having come from the instigation of the FBI, specifically, SA RALPH R. HILL. The "Miami Herald" stated that they heard that "HILL ordered his [Redacted] arrest." A "no comment" was given concerning the circumstances of the arrest, and a denial was given concerning the fact that SA HILL allegedly ordered the arrest.

[Redacted] Dade County SO, advised this date that the circumstances of the hearing were as follows: [Redacted] took the stand and testified that [Redacted] was pointed out by "another law enforcement agency" on 11/12/64, and was subsequently arrested.

[REDACTED] said that to his knowledge [REDACTED] did not state that SA HILL ordered this arrest, and further, that the newspapers probably confused the fact that he, [REDACTED], had ordered this arrest with SA HILL.

The above circumstances fall in line with information recently received by Chicago to the effect that MIKE BRODKIN, through MURRAY HUMPHREYS, ordered [REDACTED] to have it "entered in the records that SA HILL instigated the arrest of [REDACTED]"

NOTE

(b)(7)(c)

Chicago received information that a group of hoodlums, including Samuel Giancana, [REDACTED] and others, were scheduled to make a plane trip from Chicago to Miami 11/12/64 to attend a private golf tournament and a possible "girlie" show. SA Ralph Hill of the Miami Office furnished this information to Dade County Sheriff's Office and identified [REDACTED] and other hoodlums to [REDACTED] of the Sheriff's Office, after which [REDACTED] was arrested by a representative of the Sheriff's Office on a charge of vagrancy and frequenting a disorderly house. Chicago hoodlum Murray Humphreys stated to associates the arrest was ordered by SA Hill and that efforts should be made to establish this with a view to possibly involving the Bureau in a law suit.

At hearing charges against Cerone dismissed and Miami papers made inquiries as to whether arrest had been ordered by SA Hill. [REDACTED] Dade County, Florida, Sheriff's Office, has advised that at hearing [REDACTED] attorney forced [REDACTED] to testify that SA Hill had pointed out Cerone, however, [REDACTED] did not have information that [REDACTED] had stated that SA Hill had ordered [REDACTED] arrest. Miami is being requested to submit further details and clarification.

ANTI-RACKETEERING

 (H)(7)(C)

In connection with our criminal intelligence investigations relating to the activities of Chicago hoodlums and in particular hoodlum leader Murray Humphreys, information was developed that ~~_____~~ a prominent underworld figure and close associate of Chicago underworld "boss" Sam Giancana, and several other individuals were to attend a private golf tournament in Miami, Florida, during the latter part of November, 1964.

This information was furnished to the Miami Office, which subsequently ascertained that ~~_____~~ and his associates were in attendance at the Kings Bay Club, where gambling in the form of dice and cards was in progress.

The Dade County Sheriff's Office was informed of this activity and the identity of ~~_____~~ and the others was also made known to the Sheriff's Office. ~~_____~~ was later arrested by an officer of the Sheriff's Office and charged with vagrancy and frequenting a gambling house. The case against ~~_____~~ has been dismissed.

A Chicago highly confidential source has now reported that Murray Humphreys has indicated that he believes ~~_____~~ arrest was caused by the FBI and that Special Agent (SA) Hill ordered the arrest.

It is noted that SA Ralph R. Hill, now assigned to the Miami Office, was previously assigned in Chicago and is familiar with the Chicago hoodlum element and did, in fact, observe ~~_____~~ in Miami prior to ~~_____~~ arrest.

This source further reported that Humphreys is attempting to establish that SA Hill ordered the arrest with a view to possibly involving the Bureau and/or SA Hill in a law suit. SA Hill did not order ~~_____~~ arrest, but the arrest order came from Dade County ~~_____~~ Humphreys apparently has confused SA Hill with ~~_____~~ who ordered the arrest.

Re: Murray L. Humphreys

(b)(7)(c)

It should be pointed out that Humphreys has for some time been obsessed with the thought of thwarting Federal and local investigations by involving the Bureau and other law enforcement agencies as defendants in law suits and this appears to be the basis for his concern over the arrest of [REDACTED]

ACTION

Our Miami and Chicago Offices have been instructed to keep us fully advised of all developments in this matter and our Chicago Office is remaining alert for any information concerning Humphreys' efforts to induce law suits.

BRODKIN and [REDACTED] then discussed methods by which [REDACTED] could evade the appearance before the New York County Grand Jury, it being noted that he has again been subpoenaed to appear before the Grand Jury in this regard even though he has just been convicted and sentenced for bribery. BRODKIN is unable to think of any manner in which this could be done; however, due to the fact that if [REDACTED] did not appear the bond could be forfeited and a capias could be issued for [REDACTED] arrest.

[REDACTED] and BRODKIN then discuss the fact that BRODKIN has obtained information that Cook County Circuit Court Judge [REDACTED] is going to be the new Chief Justice of the Criminal Courts of Cook County. [REDACTED] commented "[REDACTED]"

BRODKIN, however, claimed that he would be able to talk to [REDACTED]. It is noted that heretofore [REDACTED] and BRODKIN have been able to influence the Chief Justice of the Criminal Courts of Cook County to reassign cases which were before Judges who were "unfriendly" to [REDACTED] and BRODKIN. [REDACTED] enjoys a very fine reputation in Chicago and, as a matter of fact, this office uses [REDACTED] in order to obtain warrants for gambling raids to be conducted by local law enforcement agencies in the Chicago area.

BRODKIN then talked to [REDACTED] concerning the notes which he took concerning grand jury proceedings in New York City and told [REDACTED] that Chicago Top Hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS is interested in this case and has indicated that he would talk to [REDACTED] concerning his treatment of [REDACTED].

BRODKIN then contacted [REDACTED] to contact one [REDACTED] (phonetic) and told him to have [REDACTED] contact one [REDACTED] (phonetic) "for a copy of the Grand Jury testimony. But be very careful, this is a touchy situation. If [REDACTED] should get ahold of this, he might get mad".

At 3:16 p.m., Chicago Top Hoodlum [REDACTED] arrived. [REDACTED] advised that on the morning of 12/16/64, Chicago Top Hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS instructed BY GODFREY to make an appointment for him with [REDACTED] and MIKE BRODKIN at Mike Fish's Restaurant on the near North Side of Chicago at 3:00 p.m. However, according to information supplied by [REDACTED] later on the afternoon of 12/16/64, GODFREY misinterpreted the instructions of HUMPHREYS and instead informed [REDACTED] and BRODKIN that HUMPHREYS would meet with them at BRODKIN's office at 3:00 p.m. [REDACTED] then came to BRODKIN's office pursuant to the instructions given him by GODFREY.

BRODKIN informed [REDACTED] that he had talked to Miami Attorney [REDACTED] previously on 12/16/64, and that [REDACTED] has been discharged on the charge against him in Miami. It is noted that [REDACTED] represented [REDACTED] in Miami. BRODKIN informed [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] was sending BRODKIN a copy of the testimony in the case and that BRODKIN will read over this material and then give HUMPHREYS his opinion as to whether or not the FBI in general and SA RALPH R. HILL in particular, could be sued or not.

[REDACTED] brought some of the newspaper clippings concerning his trial with him and gave them to BRODKIN. When leaving, an hour later, he referred to these clippings and requested that these clippings be given to HUMPHREYS.

[REDACTED] mentioned that "[REDACTED]" [REDACTED] advised that he believes that he had seen SA HILL at the club where he was arrested and that he knew SA HILL from the days when SA HILL was assigned to Chicago since SA HILL [REDACTED]

(b)(7)(c)

BRODKIN then mentioned concerning situations where he has represented clients who have been interrogated by SAs HILL and [REDACTED].

BRODKIN and [REDACTED] then discuss the fact that pending in the legislature in Springfield, Illinois, are bills aimed at legalizing wire tapping in Illinois. [REDACTED] is of the opinion that there is no [REDACTED] in fighting these bills because [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] then mentioned that he is reading the book "The FBI Nobody Knows" which he claimed was written [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] and BRODKIN then discuss the status of the health of several of Chicago's top hoodlums and their associates.

After approximately a half an hour, when it became apparent that HUMPHREYS was not about to arrive, BRODKIN made three telephone calls to hangouts of HUMPHREYS in an attempt to locate HUMPHREYS. These included Ceano's Custom Tailors, Henry Susk Pontiac Agency, and the office of Chicago Attorney [REDACTED]. He was unable to locate HUMPHREYS at either of these locations.

BRODKIN then informed [REDACTED] concerning the involvement of [REDACTED] in the "Playboy case in New York City". [REDACTED] ventured his opinion that it was HUGH HEFNER who [REDACTED]. BRODKIN corrected him by saying "they all did all the hollering there but it was [REDACTED] who did the testifying at the case."

[REDACTED] mentioned to BRODKIN that he and HUMPHREYS hoped to put both their cases together,

(b)(7)(c)

[REDACTED]. He mentioned that when he returned to the club where he was arrested the following night, the manager of the club apologized to him. He also mentioned that he was the only person arrested even though he was with "Needles" (LEONARD GIANOLA), [REDACTED], four lawyers from Chicago, and six businessmen from Chicago, including an automobile dealer, [REDACTED].

At 4:01 p.m., BRODKIN received a phone call from HY GODFREY who apparently was calling in response to one of the calls placed by BRODKIN above. [REDACTED] then talked to GODFREY and after approximately a half an hour when GODFREY returned the call, it was decided that [REDACTED] HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN would set up their meeting for the following day at Mike Fish's Restaurant.

for Europe in December. It is noted that [redacted] left the Chicago area for Europe on 12/17/64.

BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS then discuss the fact that they had had a meeting scheduled for the previous day but that HUMPHREYS did not arrive in BRODKIN's office as BRODKIN and Chicago Top Hoodlum [redacted] expected. HUMPHREYS advised BRODKIN that he had instructed HY GODFREY to inform BRODKIN and CERONE to meet him at Mike Fish's Restaurant on the near North Side of Chicago rather than meet with him in BRODKIN's office. HUMPHREYS explained that while BRODKIN and [redacted] were waiting for him at BRODKIN's office he was waiting for them at Fish's Restaurant. BRODKIN advised HUMPHREYS that he had attempted to contact him by calling the office of Chicago Attorney [redacted] and also Celano's Custom Tailors on the near North Side of Chicago. HUMPHREYS indicated that BRODKIN should not bother to call him in the future because "I never go to the tailors no more".

Handwritten notes:
// [unclear]

The following conversation then took place between BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS:

BRODKIN: Okay. In the meantime, I talked to [redacted] and he is sending me the transcript.

HUMPHREYS: What does he think?

BRODKIN: He thinks there may be a possibility to do something. He wants me to read the transcript.

HUMPHREYS: Well, that's why I came over because I'm going to meet [redacted] in a little while. I want to know what your opinion is.

BRODKIN:

I'll give you my opinion when I read the transcript. When are you leaving?

HUMPHREYS:

Tuesday.

BRODKIN:

I'll see you before then.

HUMPHREYS:

I don't think so. Do you know this guy at the American Civil Liberties?

BRODKIN:

I know who he is, yah.

HUMPHREYS:

Well, keep it in mind because we're also going to have to get started to fight those wire tap bills. Down there. And we're going to have to do it without them knowing that it's come from us. So we might have to use them.

BRODKIN:

I got the man who can direct the whole thing. [REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS:

Yah, but will he do it?

BRODKIN:

He will do it if I tell him to do it. But he's been in the hospital.

HUMPHREYS:

Well, you get this on your mind because we're going to have to go in and beat some of those bills. We've got a bunch of reformers in there now.

It appears obvious that initially BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS discuss the arrest of Chicago Top Hoodlum [REDACTED] in Miami recently. It is noted that previously information has been obtained by this source that HUMPHREYS desired that Miami Attorney [REDACTED] obtain the services of a court reporter and that he ask questions of the representatives of the Dade County Sheriff's Office when they testified in the [REDACTED] case as to whether they obtained their original information concerning the presence of [REDACTED] in Miami from the FBI in general and from SA RALPH R. HILL in particular. Obviously [REDACTED] is in the process of sending the transcript of this hearing to BRODKIN who will show it to HUMPHREYS. Apparently [REDACTED] feels there may be a possibility to do something concerning a suit by [REDACTED] with HUMPHREYS behind the scenes, against the FBI.

The second part of their conversation obviously refers to the fact that a bill authorizing law enforcement agencies in Illinois to legally tap telephone wires is expected to be introduced before the Illinois General Assembly when the Assembly convenes in Springfield, Illinois, shortly after the first of the year. Several organizations such as the Better Government Association and the Chicago Crime Commission have been busy dropping such a bill and Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY has appointed a committee to propose such legislation. Obviously, HUMPHREYS is concerned about the possibility that this legislation may pass and he is interested in fighting this legislation through the American Civil Liberties Union without he himself or his hoodlum associates being identified as attempting to fight this legislation.

[REDACTED] is an elderly Chicago attorney who for years was associated with the American Civil Liberties Union but who retired from the practice of law in Chicago several years ago.

DRAFTING

(b)(7)(c)

However, he has recently re-entered law practice and is now associated with BIEBER and BRODKIN.

BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS then discussed the status of the health of [REDACTED] and agreed that it was good for [REDACTED] to get away at this time because he "is too nervous".

Following the departure of HUMPHREYS, one [REDACTED] contacted BRODKIN. [REDACTED] is a sister of [REDACTED] who recently was convicted of the murder of her husband. [REDACTED] of the Cook County Circuit Court, who presided over her trial, until this week kept [REDACTED] in the Cook County Jail where apparently her confinement was more comfortable than it would be at the Illinois State Reformatory for Women. As the source has previously furnished information, [REDACTED] has done this on the request of BRODKIN. Following the telephone call from [REDACTED] BRODKIN made a telephone call to [REDACTED] of the Cook County Jail. He informed [REDACTED] secretary to tell [REDACTED] that "Mr. Michael's is calling." However, [REDACTED] was not available and BRODKIN indicated that he would call back later. BRODKIN then mentioned to [REDACTED] who entered at that point: "The judge was going to keep her here for me to Christmas. But he calls me last week, the judge. He says that (obscene) client of yours. [REDACTED] called me, he says [REDACTED] called him, he wants the supernatural. He threatened to sign the letter and send her away right now. [REDACTED] even went to the First Ward. He went to all the top fixers in the whole (obscene) town! And this makes [REDACTED] mad. What the hell, he's already held her here six months."

In regard to the above BRODKIN identifies the "top fixers in the whole (obscene) town" as being himself, [REDACTED] and the First Ward.

(A)(7)(C)

The reference to [REDACTED] is to the former Illinois State Senator who is the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] is the brother of [REDACTED] and there can be little doubt that BRODKIN properly identifies him when he refers to him as one of the "top fixers in the whole (obscene) town". The reference to the First Ward is obviously a reference to the Regular Democratic Organization of the First Ward including Democratic Ward Committeeman [REDACTED] and Secretary BUDDY JACOBSON. The Chicago Office likewise would not quarrel with BRODKIN when he includes "the First Ward" in his grouping of "the top fixers in the whole (obscene) town".

It is also of interest in note that at no time did BRODKIN or any member of his firm represent [REDACTED]. This representation was handled by Chicago Attorney [REDACTED]. BRODKIN's only concern with the [REDACTED] case is behind the scenes in his efforts to make her comfortable in Chicago rather than sending her downstate to the Illinois State Reformatory where she, as a convicted murderer, properly belongs. It is also noted that this source has furnished considerable information indicating that BRODKIN has a close relationship with [REDACTED] and that [REDACTED] has furnished him favorable treatment in the past.

EXTREME CAUTION SHOULD BE EXERCISED IN THE USE OF THIS INFORMATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE BODY OF A REPORT EVEN THOUGH PARAPHRASED. IT SHOULD NOT BE USED IN LEAD COVERAGE OR AS THE BASIS FOR AN INTERVIEW UNLESS SPECIFIC CLEARANCE IS OBTAINED FROM THE BUREAU AND FROM CHICAGO. THIS IS AN EXTREMELY DELICATE AND SENSITIVE SOURCE WHICH THE CHICAGO OFFICE IS MAKING EVERY EFFORT TO FULLY PROTECT.

[REDACTED] case. [REDACTED] claimed that (FNU) [REDACTED] an attorney, had double-crossed [REDACTED]. BRODKIN has felt this case was mishandled from the start.

At 11:50 a.m., BRODKIN left the office, announcing he had a luncheon date with MURRAY HUMPHREYS. Before leaving, BRODKIN tells [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] is telling HUMPHREYS and others that he, BRODKIN, is telling false stories around about how he and [REDACTED] saved his brother, [REDACTED] during the grand jury testimony in the Playboy case in New York City. MIKE has got the proof of the testimony and he's going to set [REDACTED] straight on this. MIKE adds, "A person can't trust anyone any more."

At 1:46 p.m., BRODKIN made a telephone call to [REDACTED] at the Cook County House of Corrections to obtain preferential treatment for an inmate, [REDACTED].

At 2:40 p.m., BRODKIN again calls [REDACTED] identifying himself as Mr. MICHAELS. This is a personal call and MICHAELS is [REDACTED] insurance man. After getting him on the line, MIKE tells [REDACTED] that he'll be right out there to see him.

At 2:56 p.m., BRODKIN left his office.

On 12/23/64, at 10:39 a.m., BRODKIN telephoned the father of [REDACTED] mentioned above, and advised him that he "laid out $60 to those fellows out there" for their help in obtaining preferential treatment for his daughter over the Christmas holiday.

It is noted that [REDACTED] was recently convicted in the murder of her husband, who was found in his automobile, which was burned on Chicago's far South Side.

With reference to the statement to the effect "those fellows out there," by BRODKIN, it is felt that this refers to [REDACTED] and possibly also [REDACTED] with whom MIKE has been working in getting favorable handling of the [REDACTED] matter. BRODKIN requests that [REDACTED] father, come to his office alone, for an important conversation.

At 11:29 a.m., Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED] visits with BRODKIN and they discussed BRODKIN's luncheon with MURRAY HUMPHREYS on the date before, at which time HUMPHREYS instructed him that [REDACTED] has been instructed by HUMPHREYS to do whatever BRODKIN's group wants with regard to the purchase of the Cart Restaurant.

BRODKIN indicated that he was at Moe's (SAM GIANCANA, Chicago top hoodlum) last night. He said that they had a real get-together and that "they were all there, three tables of them." MIKE apparently had joked with [REDACTED] (LNU) about [REDACTED] not cutting MIKE in on the take. This obviously refers to the Armory Lounge, which is GIANCANA's headquarters when he is in town.

BRODKIN then mentioned that [REDACTED] (Chicago top hoodlum), is on his trip. [REDACTED] intends to keep in contact with MIKE and advise him of where he's going or staying. [REDACTED] girl, [REDACTED] is also with him.

It is noted that [REDACTED] was scheduled to meet [REDACTED] in Zurich, Switzerland, on 12/20 or 21/64, for an extended vacation of skiing and sightseeing.

BRODKIN then mentioned that he had talked to RALPH PIERCE recently. RALPH told him that his group had been very interested in buying the Cart Restaurant, but when they heard who was dealing on it, they did not pursue the matter further.

This is an interesting point because PIERCE is an extremely close associate of Chicago hoodlum LESLIE KRUSE, and these two are apparently very close friends of [REDACTED]

(b)(7)(c)

At 11:43 a.m., [REDACTED] visited with BRODKIN. [REDACTED] is a known "juice" collector, and more recently, has become involved in the mysterious death of Berwyn, Ill., alderman GEORGE VYDRA, in that [REDACTED] apparently was used to obtain one of the licenses for a club owned by VYDRA, and subsequently lost his license. BRODKIN advised [REDACTED] that he had contacted [REDACTED] today and that [REDACTED] was drunk and BRODKIN could get no satisfaction out of him. This visit by [REDACTED] was to obtain clearance from the Judge in a legal matter concerning a person identified as [REDACTED]. BRODKIN then confirmed what was mentioned above by stating that he was at the Armory last night. He said that he was with [REDACTED] (LNU), [REDACTED] (LNU) and the others.

[REDACTED] inquired as to whether the [REDACTED] and BRODKIN answered that he was. This would seem to indicate that large scale meetings are still taking place at the Armory Lounge attended by many of Chicago's top ranking hoodlums.

intermediary between these officials and [REDACTED] BRODKIN is very bitter concerning the fact that [REDACTED] is roaming around Chicago denouncing you and me. I'm gonna show the grand jury testimony to HUMP when HUMP comes back." The reference to "HUMP" obviously is a reference to Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS.

BRODKIN then advised that he had lunch on the date before HUMPHREYS left for his Christmas vacation 12/21/64, with Chicago top hoodlums HUMPHREYS, RALPH PIERCE, and LES KRUSE. BRODKIN stated that he had assured these hoodlums that [REDACTED] won't talk. He could have, but he chose not to. And now he's the fall guy." BRODKIN indicated that PIERCE was upset concerning this situation and that he asked the other hoodlums for permission to contact the [REDACTED] concerning this matter.

BRODKIN mentioned that [REDACTED] has been going around Chicago attempting to inform people as to the actions of [REDACTED] and BRODKIN in protecting the [REDACTED] and that [REDACTED] encountered [REDACTED] in a barbershop the other day, and "told him off." "He also told [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] about this, they have no use for [REDACTED]"

BRODKIN indicated that HUMPHREYS and PIERCE and KRUSE gave some promise to furnishing money to BRODKIN for [REDACTED] defense. He also indicated that he doesn't like the idea of the [REDACTED] throwing a testimonial dinner for [REDACTED] in order to raise money but feels that "we should go out and contact ten or so guys and get the money that way."

The above information is submitted to the New York Division for their continuing interest with respect to the New York State Liquor Authority scandal.

refers to [REDACTED] a Pontiac agency in Chicago, it being noted that previously, information has been obtained indicating that BRODKIN and [REDACTED] have fixed sales tax assessments against this company.

BRODKIN then received a telephone call from a person who wanted an opinion concerning the book [REDACTED]. BRODKIN was apparently informed that the [REDACTED] won't handle the distribution of this book in Chicago unless they can be sure that they will not be arrested or sued. BRODKIN then made a telephone call to [REDACTED] Corporation counsel, concerning the book. [REDACTED] apparently indicated that he could not be quoted regarding this book inasmuch as his office has not as yet made a decision on the book.

BRODKIN later called San Diego, California, 714-[REDACTED] and informed someone there of [REDACTED] information. He then dictated a letter which in effect told the Levy Company that the company publishing this book would assume all responsibility for the distribution of it.

BRODKIN then informed [REDACTED] that "we've got to get that telephone tap bill killed. The Teamsters are going to have a man down there working against it." It is noted that BRODKIN has been contacted by Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS, as reported in a summary last week, concerning the efforts of HUMPHREYS, PAUL DORFMAN and BRODKIN to make sure that three anti-crime bills, including the wiretapping bill, are not reported out of committee in Springfield.

BRODKIN then received a telephone call from either [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] Chicago area gamblers. It is noted that this source has been furnishing continuing information concerning the efforts of these bookmakers to purchase the Cart Restaurant in Chicago.

[REDACTED], one of the owners of the Cart Restaurant, was "very nice about it. He'll have [REDACTED] keep the deal open until you decide whether to buy the joint or not."

It would therefore appear from this conversation that [REDACTED] and his group have not as yet definitely decided to make the purchase of the Cart Restaurant. It is noted that information has recently been obtained indicating that Chicago attorney [REDACTED] wants at least half of the $200,000 purchase price as a down-payment. [REDACTED] BRODKIN, [REDACTED] et al, prefer to put only 25 per cent down on the purchase.

On 1/8/65, BRODKIN attempted to call St. Louis attorney MAURICE SHENKER in St. Louis. Apparently he was informed by SHENKER's secretary that SHENKER was then at the Dunes Hotel in Las Vegas, where "they're having a big meeting." This led BRODKIN to believe that SHENKER "must have a piece of that Dunes too."

PAUL DORFMAN, who was present at the time, replied, "Sure, he put the deal together. He's the guy that put the deal together for the union to buy the hotel. And they have leased the casino back." DORFMAN is a former official of the Teamsters Union who is a notorious Chicago hoodlum and labor racketeer.

BRODKIN informed DORFMAN that he had received a card from Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] and that "[REDACTED] will be back at the end of the month. HUMP will be back on Saturday." It is noted that [REDACTED] is in Europe and that as of 1/8/65, Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS was in the Miami, Fla., area.

EXTREME CAUTION SHOULD BE EXERCISED IN THE USE OF THIS INFORMATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE BODY OF A REPORT EVEN THOUGH PARAPHRASED. IT SHOULD NOT BE USED IN LEAD COVERAGE OR AS THE BASIS FOR AN INTERVIEW UNLESS SPECIFIC CLEARANCE IS OBTAINED FROM THE BUREAU AND FROM CHICAGO. [REDACTED] Later, Chicago Police Department [REDACTED] arrived. He carried on a desultory conversation with the individuals involved. From his conversation, it was obvious that he is police officer who approximately a month ago furnished records from the Chicago Police Department to BRODKIN.

Early in the afternoon of 1/14/65, Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS made a telephone call to BRODKIN. Obviously it concerned HUMPHREYS' wishes that the purchase of the Cart Restaurant be taken care of and that negotiations be wound up at the earliest possible time. BRODKIN informed HUMPHREYS that [REDACTED] HUMPHREYS' close associate, who owns a hidden interest in the Cart Restaurant, would be in BRODKIN's office at 2:00 p.m., and that this deal would then be finalized. [REDACTED] also conversed desultorily with HUMPHREYS. When BRODKIN again talked to HUMPHREYS following [REDACTED] conversation with him, he told HUMPHREYS, "If that fellow down East needs any help, I've got a man there. I'm concerned, he's my friend." Obviously this refers to the fact that Chicago top hoodlum SAM GIANCANA has been

(b)(7)(C)

[REDACTED]

In the above conversation, the reference to CURLY is obviously a reference to Chicago top hoodlum HUMPHREYS. "The restaurant" is a reference to the Black Angus, and the reference to [REDACTED] is apparently a reference to [REDACTED]. The reference to [REDACTED] is apparently a reference to [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] then mentioned to BRODKIN that he had "[REDACTED] Obviously this pertains to the tax reduction which [REDACTED] had obtained for the person to whom [REDACTED] had spoken to him about, in Chicago Heights.

In mid-afternoon on January 14, 1965, [REDACTED] arrived. MIKE immediately informed him that HUMPHREYS knew about the meeting and that he had called just a little while ago. [REDACTED] indicated that he intends to leave for Palm Springs, California, the following Sunday, and that he would stay at the Desert Skies in Palm Springs. [REDACTED] then talked about the fact that he had apparently invested money in a building at 1 East Schiller in Chicago, and that a friend of [REDACTED] had just moved into this building.

[REDACTED] then explained to [REDACTED] that he had offered [REDACTED] $50,000 in cash, $75,000 by check, and $75,000 on credit, but that [REDACTED] would not accept this. [REDACTED] then explained that [REDACTED] will not do "five cents worth of business under the table. It has to be all above board. You understand that his brother is a Federal Judge and he has to act in an honest way. There's nothing I can do about this."

[REDACTED] obviously refers to U.S. District Judge [REDACTED], Northern District of Illinois. [REDACTED] indicated that he does not intend to waste much more time with this situation as he has two other individuals who are waiting to buy the Cart Restaurant. He indicated that he is interested in selling to [REDACTED] only because MURRAY HUMPHREYS wanted to set [REDACTED] up in some legitimate enterprise following his release from the Federal Penitentiary on parole. He indicated that the business has made a great deal of money and it's getting better all the time, and is worth much more than $200,000. [REDACTED] again indicated that if Federal Judge [REDACTED] was not the brother of [REDACTED] there might be something worked out under the table, but that since [REDACTED] is related to the Judge, [REDACTED] will do nothing that is under cover in this situation or in any other.

[REDACTED] indicated that if the purchase is made, that since he does not know anything at all about running a restaurant, [REDACTED] can help. [REDACTED] cautioned [REDACTED], however, that [REDACTED] should not be on the license, and was assured that [REDACTED] will not be. [REDACTED] again indicated that the only reason he is holding up the sale of the Cart Restaurant to the other individuals is due to the fact that HUMPHREYS is interested in [REDACTED].

[REDACTED] then indicated his concern that he has heard [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are attempting to buy the Cart Restaurant. [REDACTED] indicated that he is unable to figure out where these rumors started.

[REDACTED] made several telephone calls in an attempt to reach [REDACTED], but was unable to do so. Finally, all departed, but at 4:07 p.m., [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] returned. Apparently [REDACTED] had been unable to get in touch with [REDACTED] at that time. He advised [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] is firm that he wants $200,000 and that he wants $125,000 in cash and will possibly accept $25,000 in credit. The remaining $50,000 should be given to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] indicated that [REDACTED] is running the show and that he [REDACTED] has to go along. [REDACTED] complained that since [REDACTED] brother had become a judge, [REDACTED] wants to conduct all his affairs on the level and wants a clean deal and wants to always leave a good public impression.

[REDACTED] then indicated that he does not particularly information was developed that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] in the Kansas City area, was observed in the company of Kansas City hoodlums in a Kansas City night club, Mo, and that also there was an individual named [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] who was believed to be the nephew of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] This would show a previous connection between [REDACTED] and Kansas City hoodlums.

Concerning [REDACTED], it is noted that he has no particular status in the Chicago area. He owns and operates the [REDACTED] on the Near North Side of Chicago. However, he is not known to be a particularly influential Chicago hoodlum.

Concerning [REDACTED], it is noted that this individual is known to have been involved in some situations where it is believed hoodlum money may have been invested.
This includes the Jupiter Corp., which at the present time includes real estate investments. Originally the Jupiter Corp. was an oil company.

[REDACTED] formerly owned the Dunes Hotel in Las Vegas.

It is also noted that another Chicago highly confidential source, [REDACTED], has furnished information on 1/9 and 1/10 and 1/11/65, indicating that someone from out of town is in Chicago to see HUMPHREYS. HUMPHREYS has met with this individual at the Continental Hotel in Chicago. The Chicago Office has suspected that this individual is the individual from Kansas City who was in the company of [REDACTED] at the Chateau Royale on the evening of 1/9/65. Apparently, from the above information, this individual is not identical with NICK CIVELLA, but rather with [REDACTED].

The above information is submitted to the Las

The above information is submitted to the Kansas

Reur summary teletype 1/25/65.

Based on the limited descriptive data available to your office concerning the tear gas device mentioned by subject Humphreys, it appears the device may be the "Tear Gas Watchdog," an electrical tear gas system devised by Tear Gas Devices, Broad Street, Stamford, Connecticut. The "Tear Gas Watchdog" can be installed in residences, businesses and automobiles and is a complete ready-to-install package which shoots a powerful tear gas discharge at any intruder. This system reportedly can be installed in minutes and sells for $18.95.

The "Tear Gas Watchdog" was nationally advertised on page 6 of the January, 1965, issue of "The Shooting Industry" which is a magazine published by Publishers Development Corporation, 8150 North Central Park Avenue, Skokie, Illinois.

Similar devices are produced by other companies such as Penguin Associates Incorporated, Malvern, Pennsylvania. Some of these devices are actuated electrically and some mechanically.

The Laboratory is attempting to obtain additional data on the above devices which will be furnished you at a later date.

The above is furnished for your information. In the event your office definitely identifies the device mentioned by Humphreys at a later date, the Laboratory should be furnished appropriate data for its information.

Chicago teletype 1/25/65, which is attached, sets forth information received from a highly confidential source relating to a conversation between subject Murray Humphreys, a veteran Chicago hoodlum, and an unknown person. Humphreys described a tear gas device he had obtained to prevent surreptitious entrance into residences and businesses through doors and windows. The Chicago Office requested a check be made with the Laboratory to determine the nature of this device.

Based on the limited descriptive data available to the Chicago Office, it appears the device mentioned by Humphreys may be the "Tear Gas Watchdog" an electrical tear gas device devised by Tear Gas Devices, Stamford, Connecticut, which provides burglar protection for residences, businesses and automobiles. This nationally advertised device shoots a powerful tear gas discharge at any intruder and is a complete ready-to-install device.

Similar devices are produced by other companies such as Penguin Associates Incorporated, Malvern, Pennsylvania. Some of these devices are actuated electrically and some mechanically.

obtained from [REDACTED]. However, on this occasion, HUMPHREYS instructed his chauffeur and bodyguard, HY GODFREY, on the morning of 1/16/65, to contact BRODKIN and have BRODKIN come to the apartment of HUMPHREYS due to the fact that it was extremely cold in Chicago and HUMPHREYS did not desire to leave his apartment that date. (F)(2) (F)(7)(D)

Just before GODFREY left to so instruct BRODKIN, HUMPHREYS instructed GODFREY to contact SAM GIANCANA, Chicago top hoodlum, and inform him that he is "supposed to meet [REDACTED] in Florida Monday. Get ahold of BUTCH and tell him and see if MOE can make it." The reference to [REDACTED] apparently is a reference to [REDACTED] an owner of the Desert Inn and Star Dust Hotels in Las Vegas. The reference to BUTCH is obviously a reference to GIANCANA's bodyguard and chauffeur, DOMINIC "BUTCH" BLASI. (F)(7)(C) Y

When BRODKIN arrived at 10:03 a.m., on 1/16/65, HUMPHREYS cautioned him, "Wait until I turn the radio on. I want to talk some business with you." Although the radio was then turned on loudly, source was able to ascertain that HUMPHREYS informed BRODKIN that the reason he wanted to talk to him on that date was due to the arrest that week of Los Angeles top hoodlum [REDACTED] by the Internal Revenue Service in Chicago. It is noted that [REDACTED] voluntarily surrendered himself to the IRS in Chicago during the previous week. HUMPHREYS is believed to have informed BRODKIN that he wanted BRODKIN to look into the case against [REDACTED] and find out what he can "about what the 'G' has on [REDACTED]." When BRODKIN asked whether [REDACTED] had ever been in trouble, HUMPHREYS mentioned that "the heat is on him just like it is on all us guys, but I think the only pinch he ever had was with JOE and them guys out in California." This apparently refers to the occasion when Chicago top hoodlum TONY ACCARDO, commonly referred to by his associates as "JOE BATTERS," was arrested with [REDACTED] by the Intelligence Unit of the Los Angeles Police Department approximately ten years ago when ACCARDO arrived in Los Angeles to meet with [REDACTED] and Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO, who was then residing in a suburb of Los Angeles.

HUMPHREYS then instructed BRODKIN to join "us" for lunch Monday, 1/18/65, "in the Palmer House in the restaurant on the Wabash side on the main floor just inside the door."

It is noted that on 1/18/65, a surveillance was conducted by SAs [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. They observed BRODKIN join Chicago top hoodlums MURRAY HUMPHREYS, RALPH PIERCE, [REDACTED], PAUL DE LUCIA, and LES KRUSE, along with Los Angeles top hoodlum [REDACTED] and the chauffeurs and bodyguards for these individuals, HY GODFREY and [REDACTED]. It is assumed that [REDACTED] was in this conference due to his capacity as a bodyguard or chauffeur inasmuch as he has never before been observed in the company of Chicago top hoodlums. He is known in Chicago as a petty burglar and thief, not as a member of organized crime. He very likely chauffeured [REDACTED] to the conference.

BRODKIN then discussed with HUMPHREYS the purchase of the Cart Restaurant in Chicago by BRODKIN, his law associate, [REDACTED] and Chicago bookmakers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. He advised HUMPHREYS that Chicago and Miami top hoodlum DAVE YARAS came to him and told him to be very careful about the involvement of [REDACTED] in the purchase of the Cart Restaurant. BRODKIN advised he told YARAS that he had talked to "our mutual friend," (an obvious reference to HUMPHREYS), about the purchase, and that he now wanted HUMPHREYS to know that YARAS had come to him.

In desultory conversation, HUMPHREYS mentioned to BRODKIN that when he visits his second wife in Miami, Florida, he always stays in her house on Key Biscayne, but that he does not enjoy it there because there are so many people around her that he does not care for.

BRODKIN then mentioned to HUMPHREYS as follows:

"I got a close friend who is a member of the original $1,000 Club of HUMPHREY up in Minnesota. He is with the law firm that represents Sears and Roebuck up there. Name of [REDACTED]. He tells me he's going to the Inauguration.

I told [REDACTED], who is close to him, I put [REDACTED] through law school by giving him a job at the ball park when I had the concessions with the Cubs and Sox. So I told [REDACTED] 'You keep your wires open down there. We might need some favors from Mr. HUMPHREY through your friend.' He said okay. He got him about ten G's."

(b)(7)(C)

[REDACTED] is a well-known Chicago civil attorney. He is known to represent Sears, Roebuck & Company. He is also known to be very close to BRODKIN and BRODKIN refers all his civil work to [REDACTED].

The following conversation then took place between BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS:

- BRODKIN: They tell me there is gonna be a new Attorney General. From Dallas, Texas. Polish guy name of GAWORSKI (ph).
- HUMPHREYS: Well, I'll tell you something. I'd like to have a guy from Texas in there. I have found that guys from Texas will talk to you. And there is a lot of contacts you can make with a guy from Texas.
- BRODKIN: Well, the guy that helped [REDACTED] is head of a synagogue in Dallas and when they built a new temple, JOHNSON went down there at the commemoration and made a speech.
- HUMPHREYS: Well, I never thought he would make that parole. I woulda bet on it.
- BRODKIN: You know what it was? Just a simple contribution to that temple. Didn't involve much at all. And, of course, LIBBY gave him some help. Say, I ran into him on the street. I told him not to open his mouth about his feelings. He asked about you right away and I said, he is your friend.

(b)(2)
(b)(7)(C);(D)

Dallas whose name was previously obtained from [redacted] and furnished to the Dallas Division. It appears that this individual furnished [redacted] a reference when he applied for parole several months ago.

BRODKIN's reference to "LIBBY" is a reference to former U.S. Congressman ROLAND V. LIBONATI, who was recently replaced by GIANCANA with FRANK ANNUNZIO. HUMPHREYS obviously contacted GIANCANA and made known his feelings that due to the seniority of LIBONATI which enabled him to have a position on the Judiciary Committee of the U.S. House of Representatives, he did not feel that LIBONATI should be replaced. However, GIANCANA replaced LIBONATI without regard to HUMPHREYS' desires in this respect.

D.C.
III.

BRODKIN's reference to "a Polish guy by the name of GAWORSKI" is apparently a reference to LEON GAWORSKI of Houston, Texas. It is noted that GAWORSKI is a member of the biggest law firm in the country and that he is a former president of the Texas State Bar Association and formerly was Chief of the American War Crimes Trial Section in Germany. He also handled the Government contempt proceedings against Gov. ROSS BARNETT of Mississippi in 1962.

BRODKIN's references to the individuals in the Illinois State Legislature are all to colored legislators who are associated with U.S. Congressman WILLIAM LAWSON, who is the most influential Negro public official and politician in the Chicago area. [redacted] is an alderman in Chicago and [redacted] is an Illinois State Legislator.

D.C.
III.

[redacted] is the [redacted] Ward of the City of Chicago and is one of the most corrupt politicians in Chicago. He is completely subservient to the desires of GIANCANA.

BRODKIN then informed HUMPHREYS of the problems he is having with his law associate, [redacted]. He indicated that [redacted] has an inferiority complex and that he is too easily influenced by people who compliment him, such as [redacted] former [redacted].

N.Y. III.

[REDACTED] HUMPHREYS
confused [REDACTED] with BERNIE GLICKMAN, Chicago fight manager, and commented that TONY ACCARDO, Chicago top hoodlum, likes GLICKMAN.

(b)(7)(c)

HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN then reminisced concerning their original corruption of Circuit Judge of Cook County. [REDACTED] It is noted that [REDACTED] was formerly a [REDACTED] and it was not clear from the conversation whether [REDACTED] was corrupted while he was acting in this capacity or later, when he appointed Cook County Circuit Judge. BRODKIN reminisced concerning the time that he took HUMPHREYS and now-deceased former Chicago hoodlum leader JAKE "GREASY THUMB" GUZIK into [REDACTED] and TONY ACCARDO "got mad because I went over his head." BRODKIN reminisced that at that time GUZIK told him to give [REDACTED] something but BRODKIN did not feel that [REDACTED] would take money. He suggested instead to GUZIK that GUZIK buy "the man something for his home, that's the way to do it." But later on, "we helped him get elected. I thought I knew something about those things, but you guys were not only two miles ahead of me but you were ten miles. I remember the guy called and said he's in trouble, he needs more votes, and they called out to the headquarters out west and right away six precincts swung everything to him. "

HUMPHREYS also recalled this situation and commented, "He only won by 20,000 votes. I remember, I had the pressure on all over. But since then, he's piled up pretty good on his own, he's got a good record. He's well liked by the public."

HUMPHREYS then complimented BRODKIN because the "Chicago Tribune" hasn't "blasted me for a couple of years since you made that contact with them. They don't pick on me too much since that time you straightened them out." No indication has been received by the Chicago Office as to the meaning of HUMPHREYS' remarks in this regard.

Following the departure of BRODKIN at 11:20 a.m., HUMPHREYS received a visit from his brother, ERNEST.

CG 92-350 sub 11

It is noted that ERNIE HUMPHREYS, also known as JACK WRIGHT, is a minor Chicago hoodlum. HUMPHREYS and his brother talked about how easy-going SAM GIANCANA usually is, but "he is as rough a guy as there is when something gets him going. When you ask him for something, he'll just say, 'Now take it easy, take it easy, I'll think about it,' and that means you won't get it. But when somebody gets him excited then watch out, you don't want to be that guy. But you see how these guys just try to get him riled up. He thought if he went late at night, he'd be all right. But no, they had him all the time, but they waited until he put his ticket in and was getting on the plane and then they handed him the subpoena."

Here, HUMPHREYS obviously refers to the subpoena which was served on GIANCANA by agents of the New York Office on 1/11/65.

HUMPHREYS then commented concerning his great respect for ~~Cole~~ HENRY CROWN, the president of the General Dynamics Corporation, the owner of the Empire State Building in New York City, and a heavy investor in the Conrad Hilton Hotel chain. It is known that CROWN is a Chicago resident. Although HUMPHREYS implied an association with CROWN, he did not at any time actually indicate that he is personally acquainted with CROWN. What HUMPHREYS appeared to respect about CROWN was his business ability. III,

On 1/17/65, Sunday, HY GODFREY made an unusual appearance, inasmuch as ordinarily he does not arrive to discuss HUMPHREYS' "program" on Sundays. However, apparently he came to inform HUMPHREYS concerning the message which HUMPHREYS had asked him to take to GIANCANA concerning the meeting with [redacted] in Florida proposed for 1/18/65. GODFREY informed HUMPHREYS, "That guy can't make it tomorrow. He sent word. But he said to tell him MOE knows what it's all about and don't worry about it. It's all quiet and it'll be all right." Apparently, GODFREY had been in touch with the bodyguard and chauffeur of GIANCANA, BUTCH BLASI, who had in turn relayed HUMPHREYS' message to GIANCANA and received the above message from GIANCANA for HUMPHREYS in return. (b)(7)(c)

HUMPHREYS then indicated, "Okay, I can call him either now or in the morning," apparently a reference to [REDACTED] (b)(7)(c)

Later in the conversation, HUMPHREYS again indicated, "Okay, I'll call out there with this thing." GODFREY, apparently not immediately aware that HUMPHREYS was referring to his original message, asked, "With [REDACTED] and HUMPHREYS replied, "I'll work it all out." GODFREY then repeated, "He said he knows all about it, knows what it's all about, and tell [REDACTED] not to worry." In view of the fact that [REDACTED] name was repeated approximately three or four times, on 1/16 and 1/17/65, there is little doubt that the name was obtained accurately.

GODFREY then indicated that he had received a message from Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] who as of 1/17/65 was touring Europe. He informed HUMPHREYS, "You know [REDACTED] was in Athens. The moment he landed there, they had his picture in his paper with headlines." To this HUMPHREYS replied, "How do you like that! That'll do him a lot of good."

GODFREY then informed HUMPHREYS that as soon as [REDACTED] landed in Athens, Greece, and saw the headline and his picture, he immediately left Greece by return plane.

The above then caused HUMPHREYS to comment as follows:

"Boy, they are really putting the dogs on us. Every day you hear something else. First, I got pinched in Florida, then [REDACTED], then MOE in New York, and now this."

Obviously, HUMPHREYS referred to the traffic arrest of himself by the Dade County Sheriff's Office in Florida, and the arrest for vagrancy of Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED], also by the Dade County Sheriff's Office in Florida, and the subpoena by New York agents of the FBI of GIANCANA in New York City.

HUMPHREYS then informed GODFREY that Chicago

top hoodlum PAUL DE LUCIA would meet him, HUMPHREYS, and his associates at the luncheon meeting which HUMPHREYS had previously scheduled for 12:00 o'clock on 1/18/65 at the Palmer House Hotel. He informed GODFREY that he had invited MIKE BRODKIN to be there, and he also told GODFREY, "I'll try to reach out for [redacted] and have him there. Maybe I'll be able to get him at his office in the morning." This apparently is a reference to Chicago attorney [redacted]. However, apparently HUMPHREYS was unable to reach [redacted] as he desired on 1/18/65 because the surveillance of this meeting did not result in an identification of [redacted] as being present.

GODFREY then informed HUMPHREYS that he had called Chicago top hoodlum JIMMY ALLEGRETTI "at the hospital yesterday. He was discharged. That stuff in the newspapers is a lot of bull. He isn't dying." HUMPHREYS commented in regard to this that "maybe he planted that story to help him, take the heat offa him."

It is noted that Chicago newspaper reporter JACK LAVIN, [redacted] wrote an article which appeared in the Chicago press on 1/15/65, that ALLEGRETTI was then confined in a hospital and that he was given approximately six months to leave. He also wrote that ALLEGRETTI would possibly have one leg amputated and that the cause of his impending death was diabetes. Apparently HUMPHREYS feels that LAVIN wrote this story for ALLEGRETTI at the request of ALLEGRETTI in order to take the heat off of ALLEGRETTI and reduce the interest of law enforcement agencies in this area in the activities of ALLEGRETTI. However, this appeared to be mere speculation on the part of HUMPHREYS and he did not appear to have any concrete information that this was true.

HUMPHREYS then again commented concerning his surprise that "they had the picture of GUSSIE in the papers in Athens." He didn't have in his book he was going to Athens. "Boy, I'm getting a defeatist attitude. But you can see why I worry. You can see how close they are behind us when they can do that stuff. Like MOONEY. They know everything we're doing. You don't have to be that dumb that you can't see that."

To this, GODFREY replied, "No. They're on us constantly. For years we have set a pattern and now they've got the pattern set. And where they can't break it down, then they go into harassment."

Apparently what HUMPHREYS intends to indicate above is that [redacted] did not indicate in his passport that he intended to visit Greece. HUMPHREYS is therefore upset that [redacted] must be under constant surveillance so that as soon as he got on a plane for Greece, law enforcement agencies were able to alert the news media in Athens, who, at least according to GODFREY, had a picture of [redacted] in the paper as [redacted] was arriving on the plane. The Chicago Office has no previous information concerning this occurrence and does not know whether, in fact, GODFREY's story is accurate. [redacted] (f)(7)(c) (b)(2)

When HUMPHREYS asked GODFREY whether "MOONEY is all right then?" GODFREY replied, "Yeah. PHIL ALDERISIO told me to tell MOONEY to get ahold of WILLIAMS. So all I did was send the message. I said PHIL told me to get WILLIAMS. And I think if you do you will eliminate a lot of headaches."

GODFREY's references to ALDERISIO and WILLIAMS obviously are to Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO and to Washington, D.C., attorney EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS. It is noted that WILLIAMS represented ALDERISIO recently in Miami, Florida, when ALDERISIO was acquitted for his involvement in an ITAR-extortion case in the Federal Courts in Miami.

GODFREY then informed HUMPHREYS that he had been informed, apparently by BLASI, that GIANCANA claims that he was not taking the Fifth Amendment in his three appearances which he made before the Federal grand jury in New York City during the week of 1/10/65. When HUMPHREYS indicated surprise at this, GODFREY informed him that what GIANCANA was doing was answering "no capish, no capish," to each question. GODFREY and HUMPHREYS both enjoyed a large laugh at this. GODFREY then informed HUMPHREYS that GIANCANA must go back before the grand jury on 1/19/65.

HUMPHREYS then informed GODFREY that he and GODFREY had "slipped up, you mostly. He told me to see DAVE YARAS and I didn't. You didn't get ahold of him and I didn't see him." GODFREY then informed HUMPHREYS that he had not slipped up, that he had contacted YARAS, who had told him that the matter could wait and that YARAS would see another individual who was apparently involved in the situation described by HUMPHREYS. GODFREY then informed HUMPHREYS, "So now I got them together tonight. I just forget to tell you about it." It is noted that DAVE YARAS is a Miami and Chicago top hoodlum. No information was obtained from the source indicating the nature of the situation discussed in this respect.

GODFREY then informed HUMPHREYS that his wife and Chicago and Detroit top hoodlum SAM ALEX were waiting for him in GODFREY's car below and that they had invited HUMPHREYS to go to brunch with them at Fritzel's Restaurant. HUMPHREYS indicated that he did not desire to go to breakfast, at this time, 11:30 a.m., inasmuch as he had taken a sleeping pill the previous night and had just arisen. He also indicated that he did not desire to go to Fritzel's Restaurant, where the group was going, because, "I don't want to listen to [redacted]. Everytime you go there, you have to listen to his problems." Obviously this is a reference to [redacted] and proprietor of Fritzel's Restaurant. (b)(7)(c) in the amount of $37,300. When finally [redacted] agreed to this, BRODKIN instructed [redacted] to immediately go to [redacted] business and obtain this check so that it could be given to [redacted] in [redacted] office the following day with the result that the matter could be cleared up in calendar 1964. Apparently it was to the benefit of [redacted] that this matter be disposed of during the calendar year of 1964 rather than in 1965. It is noted that [redacted] is a law associate of MIKE BRODKIN.

From the above, it would appear obvious that BRODKIN has "fixed" the sales tax bill of [redacted] through [redacted] and [redacted]. It would appear that [redacted] actually should owe up to $120,000 in taxes, plus 1 per cent a month penalty on that amount, and that instead, he is able to settle for $37,300.

At 3:00 p.m. on 12/29/64, Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS arrived and continued a conversation which apparently had commenced elsewhere with Chicago hoodlum and labor racketeer PAUL "RED" DORFMAN. As the conversation which the source was privy to commenced, HUMPHREYS was saying that he understands that Chicago top hoodlum [redacted] is claiming 50 per cent of an individual whose identity later become known as heavyweight fighter ERNEST TERRELL. DORFMAN apparently agreed that this was true and that "the guys in the East are 50 per cent." DORFMAN then advised that "but up until now, there wasn't any money to talk about. But if this kid wins this fight here, he'll be recognized, you're going to be in on television, movie rights, and you're talking about lots more money." III.

HUMPHREYS then indicated that he did not feel that GLICKMAN, obviously a reference to Chicago fight figure BERNARD GLICKMAN, "isn't a dirty guy. He's clean. He just got dirty on JOE." This apparently is an opinion of HUMPHREYS that the only time that GLICKMAN's reputation has been spoiled is when he was a defense witness for Chicago top hoodlum TONY ACCARDO, who is commonly referred to by his associates as JOE BATTERS. However, DORFMAN differed with HUMPHREYS in this regard and advised HUMPHREYS that he had also been connected with [redacted] and [redacted]

those guys." HUMPHREYS' recollection being refreshed, he then agreed with DORFMAN.

DORFMAN then indicated that GLICKMAN had the original contract with TERRELL, and that the contract is good as of this time. However, he indicated that the "Eastern group" wants to build up the reputation of TERRELL as being a clean-cut fighter who is a credit to the fight game so that they can capitalize on their investment on TERRELL. DORFMAN indicated that the "Eastern group" desires to counteract the reputation which other heavyweight fighters such as SONNY LISTON and CASSIUS CLAY have, so that TERRELL can be built up into a "million dollar property." It became obvious that DORFMAN and the "Eastern group" do not feel that any public exposure to the association which exists between GLICKMAN and TERRELL would do TERRELL any good, and that on the contrary TERRELL's reputation will be spoiled if any newspaperman learns of the connection between GLICKMAN and TERRELL.

DORFMAN indicated that TERRELL had been offered a $25,000 guarantee to fight EDDIE MACHEN in San Francisco. However, he refused this guarantee and will sign to fight MACHEN in Chicago without a guarantee. DORFMAN indicated that the reason for this is that the backers of TERRELL feel that he does not have a good chance of gaining the judges' decision should MACHEN still be on his feet at the conclusion of 15 rounds. However, these backers feel that TERRELL stands to obtain more favorable treatment should the fight take place in Chicago.

(b)(7)(c)
Apparently HUMPHREYS was approached in this regard due to the fact that he represents the interests of [redacted] with [redacted] being in Europe for an extended period of travel. However, HUMPHREYS likewise intended to leave Chicago immediately following this discussion, and asked whether there was any rush concerning this situation and whether he could handle it when he returned to Chicago on the 9th of January. DORFMAN indicated that this was all right with him but that he would like to go ahead and have "the guys come in here Sunday, sign for the match and go ahead." HUMPHREYS indicated that this would be all right with him. It is noted that following this conference on 12/29/64, a press conference was held in Chicago at the Sheraton-Chicago Hotel on 1/4/65 and it was announced that TERRELL would fight MACHEN in the International Amphitheater in Chicago on 3/5/65. At this time it was announced it was announced that MACHEN was receiving a 20 per cent guarantee, or 30 per cent of the profits, whichever was greater, but that TERRELL would be fighting without a guarantee, for 30 per cent of whatever the profits might be.

(b)(7)(c)

As the conference concluded, HUMPHREYS indicated that it was his understanding that what DORFMAN wanted was "GLICKMAN out of the picture." DORFMAN agreed, stating, "That's about it. Now, if they wanted, whatever he wants to give GLICKMAN, there's no hard feelings about giving him some money. How he's going to get it, doesn't have to be decided." DORFMAN then indicated that he felt that GLICKMAN should obtain money because GLICKMAN "originally had this fighter, and I don't know how much money GLICKMAN claims to have spent for the guy but he couldn't do nothing. Them guys in New York are the guys that got him going, they got him a few TV fights. But now he figures this guy can be built up into million dollar gates. The guy in New York."

HUMPHREYS then indicated that DORFMAN originally informed him that "██████████" already talked to JOE B., he already told him, didn't he?" DORFMAN replied, "He is supposed to have told him to tell GLICKMAN to stay away from the guy, but he's still around. And some newspaper guy is gonna get ahold of the thing. Now this kid is a clean kid. In fact, they had him on the 'Tonight' Show. Played the banjo, sang. He is a hell of a fighter. He's a clean kid. You could build him up into a model, a credit to the fight game."

HUMPHREYS then indicated, "All right. We can handle it."

DORFMAN then advised HUMPHREYS, "One of the 'mustache' is with him." HUMPHREYS replied, "What's the

'mustache,' who is he?" DORFMAN replied, "JOHN VITALE." HUMPHREYS then remarked, "Well, you have to be careful with the Mustache. Because there is a lot of conflict in there, and you can't get together like we can here."

It would appear that the references to "Mustache" refer to the Cosa Nostra. HUMPHREYS obviously feels that there is conflict in the Cosa Nostra with the result that members of La Cosa Nostra cannot "get together like we can here."

It is noted that when the Chicago newspapers announced the signing of TERRELL and MACHEN in Chicago on January 4, 1965, it was mentioned in one of the newspaper accounts that one JULIE ISAACSON of the New York local of the Toymakers Union, advised that TERRELL would train in New Jersey, for the MACHEN fight. This newspaper account did not make any further reference to ISAACSON or identify his connection with the fight or with TERRELL. However, from this reference, it would appear that ISAACSON and/or the New York Local of the Toymakers Union, must have some interest in TERRELL.

(b)(7)(c)

The involvement of DORFMAN in TERRELL is not clear from the above conversation. However, it is noted that DORFMAN is a former official of a Teamsters Union in Chicago and that he is a notorious Chicago hoodlum and labor racketeer. He is well known in labor circles throughout the United States. It is very possible that he has no direct involvement in this situation, and that he is being used as an intermediary between the Toymakers Union in New York City and the Chicago hoodlums. It is clear from the above conversation that "the Eastern group" owns 50 per cent of TERRELL, and that the Chicago hoodlums, including [redacted], own the other 50 per cent. However, JOHN VITALE obviously has some interest in this situation. It is noted that VITALE is a St. Louis hoodlum who previously has been involved in the fight game as a manager. In view of the background of DORFMAN, it would appear that he would be well trusted both in labor circles and by Chicago hoodlums. Therefore, he appears to be a natural to act as an intermediary between these two groups in the ownership of TERRELL.

CG 92-350 sub 11

~~BERNIE GLICKMAN~~ [REDACTED] (G)(7)(C)

[REDACTED] has managed several prominent prize fighters in the past, including former welterweight champion VIRGIL AKINS. He is a very close personal friend of Chicago top hoodlum TONY ACCARDO. He is also very close to Eastern hoodlums [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and other hoodlums who have infiltrated the fight game. [REDACTED]

The above information is being submitted to the New York and St. Louis Divisions due to the obvious involvement of individuals in New York and St. Louis with TERRELL. The New York Office is requested to identify [REDACTED] and advise whether it is known that [REDACTED] or his local have a financial interest in TERRELL. However, no investigation other than contact with established sources and informants should be made. [REDACTED]

The St. Louis Office should advise in the event it is known that VITALE has a financial interest in TERRELL.

Following the conclusion of the presentation of DORFMAN's problem to HUMPHREYS, HUMPHREYS stated, "All right. We'll work it out, we won't have any trouble here."

(b)(7)(C):(D)

Now I got troubles for you. You walked right into it. We have to stop all those bills downstate. The telephone tapping and the immunity bill I think I can block them. Now, the Teamsters I already talked to, [REDACTED] But you have to help where you can." To this, DORFMAN replied, [REDACTED] HUMPHREYS stated, "I didn't get to him." DORFMAN stated, "I'll talk to [REDACTED]" HUMPHREYS stated, "You tell [REDACTED] I want this."

The references to [REDACTED] and to [REDACTED] are to two of the foremost Teamsters officials in the Midwest.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS then informed DORFMAN that he has already lined up support in St. Clair County. It is noted that another highly confidential source, [REDACTED] has previously furnished information that HUMPHREYS instructed his associate, [REDACTED] to telephonically contact East St. Louis, Illinois, hoodlum leader FRANK "BUSTER" WORTMAN and instruct him to line up political support against the bills which are about to be introduced in the current session of the Illinois State Legislature.

HUMPHREYS then indicated that he has to "move upstate from St. Clair County like Peoria and those places. But if you get labor guys to work with the Teamsters, this is where you could help us. Now, I don't talk to [REDACTED] with the... .. Union, but they got a hell of a local in Peoria." DORFMAN indicated that he would talk to [REDACTED]." HUMPHREYS replied, "Good. I know him, too, but I don't want to show my hand in the thing. I'm the guy, in the beginning, he's the guy that helped me out and organized that thing. But you got to get ahold of everybody you can and knock everyone of those (obs) bills out. It's the Mayor here. Now I'll be working too. I've got some contacts that no one knows that I can put some pressure on. But if individual contacts are made in localities, it will help a whole lot better. You must get it over to labor that if this wiretap bill goes through, everybody will be tapped. And you can't let it get to the floor, it has to be taken care of in committee. You get to anybody you can downstate. I'll be working down there too. BUSTER has got his court trials and everything is starting to get away from him, you understand? Too many of these guys quit and they don't want to get in on it any more. Now, I got a political leader downstate, he's about 80 years old. But the (obs), you can't talk to him any more, he gets a little feeble on you. And he's stubborn. Every time I get a hold of him to tell him to do this, do that, he says, 'Oh, mind your own business.' He never used to talk to me like that. But that's what these days are coming to."

The above information is being submitted for the information of the Springfield Office. Springfield is requested to attempt to identify [REDACTED] in Peoria. (H)(7)(C)

Springfield is also requested to identify the political leader who is 80 years old mentioned by HUMPHREYS. However, no open investigation should be conducted in this regard except for established sources and informants.

At this point, BRODKIN returned to his office following luncheon with [REDACTED] at the Covenant Club. DORFMAN and HUMPHREYS thereupon wound up their conversation concerning DORFMAN's efforts to influence labor people against the above bills and then HUMPHREYS apparently directed his remarks to BRODKIN:

"Are you gonna get ahold of those civil liberties guys and get them working?"

BRODKIN replied, "Listen, we'll lay out a regular program on this thing."

HUMPHREYS then instructed BRODKIN to "get the stuff going. You can't wait until the last minute. You have to get in those committees."

BRODKIN was of the opinion that "the guys who do more for us are the colored guys." HUMPHREYS agreed by saying, "That we got. But get the others, that's the thing."

(b)(7)(c)

BRODKIN then asked HUMPHREYS when he was going to "sit down and read those transcripts that I got for you." HUMPHREYS, apparently believing that the transcripts BRODKIN referred to were those involving the trial of [REDACTED] in Miami, then indicated that he was very interested to learn what the transcripts showed of the involvement of SA RALPH R. HILL in the arrest by the Dade County Sheriff's Office of Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED]. However, BRODKIN then informed HUMPHREYS that the transcripts to which he referred were the transcripts showing the grand jury testimony in New York City concerning the involvement of [REDACTED] in the bribery of the New York State Liquor Authority officials. When HUMPHREYS indicated less interest in these transcripts than the ones which he had felt BRODKIN meant to indicate, BRODKIN became excited due to his feeling that he is being smeared in Chicago by the [REDACTED] who are claiming that BRODKIN and [REDACTED] did nothing in New York City to protect the [REDACTED]. BRODKIN has previously informed HUMPHREYS, PIERCE and KRUSE that he can prove how he took care of [REDACTED] by showing the grand jury testimony which indicates that [REDACTED] Chief Assistant to the New York County District Attorney, directed questions at witnesses which were designed to elicit information that [REDACTED] was acting only as an intermediary on behalf of [REDACTED] when he bribed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

Following the above, BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS engaged in a conversation wherein HUMPHREYS attempted to give BRODKIN the needle. Although this conversation is not particularly important to the Criminal Intelligence Program, it is being set out hereinbelow inasmuch as it furnishes an insight into the relationship which exists between HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN and their thinking:

BRODKIN: (Apparently to DORFMAN)

Listen, this guy gave me a slogan one time, I've never forgotten. "The hours may be short but the pay is good."

HUMPHREYS: Listen to me, the hours aren't short. The hours aren't short.

CG 92-350 sub 11

BRODKIN: I know they're not. I'm getting tired trying your cases out there. (A reference to the West Side of Chicago where the Criminal Court Building is located).

HUMPHREYS: Well, we can't put you on the bench any more. You ruined yourself.

BRODKIN: Listen, you can never tell. I'm liable to get the okay from the guy in the 5th Ward. I'm no stranger to him. (A reference to [REDACTED] the Democratic Ward Committeeman of the 5th Ward of Chicago). (F)(7)(C)

HUMPHREYS: He wouldn't give you nothin'.

BRODKIN: He wouldn't? He might. Who knows. He might, I never asked him for nothin'.

HUMPHREYS: Well, listen. If you got the okay from him, you don't need us to put you up.

You know I'm retired. I'm not even supposed to be talking to you guys. You know that.

BRODKIN: Listen, as long as the Lord is good to you and keeps you with us, I'll always come to you with my problems. You know that, don't you? You know, you inherited me when SHORTY died. (A reference to the deceased JAKE "GREASY THUMB" GUZIK, a former leader of the Chicago underworld). You remember the instruction you gave me in the restaurant on the second floor, just after SHORTY died? You said you belong to me now. You remember that?

HUMPHREYS: Yeah. Okay. Just keep it that way. Good old SHORTY. He saved us all. You know, he never used to go to Postl's until I started to go there and I started to use it as my office.

CG 92-350 sub 11

BRODKIN: I don't know if you ever knew it, but he worshiped you like you were his own kid. Did you hear what I said to you?

HUMPHREYS: I know it. The only time he ever got mad was when he was going to move into VOGEL's building where [REDACTED] and LES lived, and I said, "Jesus, JACK, you'll (obs) us all up over there with the heat from you." He said, "(obs) all you guys, I'm gonna buy the building and chase all of youse out." But I had a point. Like when I first brought my co-op. I was all set and then EDDIE decided to come in, this guy coming in, that guy coming in. I said to FRANK, "Do you want to buy mine cheap?" I moved out. I figured the coppers would be waiting for those guys and catch me. So FRANKIE bought me out. And you know what? FRANKIE used to say to me, "(obs), I'm getting caught every other day around here." Because that's when the "G" got started. (b)(7)(c)

In clarification of the above, it is noted that allegations have been received that EDDIE VOGEL owned the apartment building at 4200 North Marine Drive where Chicago hoodlums VOGEL, [REDACTED] and LES KRUSE formerly resided. Later, VOGEL moved from 4200 North Marine Drive to 320 Oakdale into a cooperative apartment building. It is known that HUMPHREYS also purchased a co-op apartment in this building, but that before he moved in, he sold his apartment to former Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO. Apparently, HUMPHREYS, who has never lived in a building where other hoodlums reside, was of the opinion that surveillances by law enforcement agencies on his fellow hoodlums would at least occasionally result in surveillances on him. His reference to "because that's when the "G" got started," obviously refers to the fact that shortly after FERRARO and VOGEL moved in to 320 Oakdale in 1957, the Top Hoodlum Program commenced.

At this point HUMPHREYS departed. BRODKIN and DORFMAN then conversed, and BRODKIN indicated to DORFMAN that he had informed [REDACTED] who has a background in banking in the Chicago area, prior to his public service, that DORFMAN was interested in conferring with [REDACTED], concerning a bank which DORFMAN apparently has a financial interest in. BRODKIN informed DORFMAN that [REDACTED] has just the man for DORFMAN but that the man is now not in Chicago. He indicated that this individual is presently connected with the Continental Illinois Bank.

(H)(7)(C)

It is noted that allegations have previously been received indicating that PAUL DORFMAN has a financial interest in the Exchange National Bank of Chicago, one of Chicago's largest.

It is noted that in HUMPHREYS' conversation above, concerning JAKE GUZIK, he mentioned "He saved us all." It is felt that this remark has significance in that it was GUZIK who directed the attention of Chicago hoodlums in legitimate businesses of all kinds following the end of the Prohibition Era. Obviously, HUMPHREYS, who, along with GUZIK, was a leader of organized crime in Chicago during Prohibition, feels that GUZIK "saved us all," when he showed Chicago hoodlums how to make inroads into legitimate businesses when the source of their previous income, alcohol, dried up.

IT SHOULD NOT BE USED IN LEAD COVERAGE OR AS THE BASIS FOR AN INTERVIEW UNLESS SPECIFIC CLEARANCE IS OBTAINED FROM THE BUREAU AND FROM CHICAGO. Relatives

Divorce of Daughter

On November 10, 1964, [REDACTED], Cleveland County Clerk's Office, advised on page 284 of the clerk's folder of divorce proceedings under Action #5757D, a petition of divorce was filed by LOUELLA H. BRADY MURPHY against EDWARD LANE MURPHY, indicating they had married March 22, 1963, at Norman, Oklahoma, and that EDWARD LANE MURPHY had adopted GEORGE LEWELLYN BRADY in June, 1963. The petition prayed for divorce and requested the restoration of the names LOUELLA H. BRADY and GEORGE LEWELLYN BRADY. (F)(7)(C)

MURPHY responded on September 17, 1964, by general denial and indicated that antenuptial agreement signed by both parties on March 20, 1963, provided that any funds expended by Mrs. MURPHY in building MURPHY's business would be retained by him. The suit is presently pending.

(b)(7)(C):(D)

[REDACTED]

II. CURRENT INTERESTS OF
MURRAY HUMPHREYS

[REDACTED] has advised that the most important current interest of MURRAY HUMPHREYS is to prevent the passage of the anti-crime bills which are expected to be introduced before the current session of the Illinois State General Assembly in Springfield, Illinois, the capitol of Illinois. This source advised that there are three bills which HUMPHREYS is particularly interested in blocking. These are the bills sponsored and drawn up by the Mayor's Committee, the Committee appointed by Mayor RICHARD J. DALEY of Chicago, to draw up effective bills designed to fight crime. These bills include a bill to legalize wire-tapping, a bill to grant immunity to witnesses so that the witness can be granted immunity in any court, and a bill to define certain phases of gambling as "syndicated gambling" and a felony.

This source advised that HUMPHREYS is contacting as many individuals as he possibly can, including attorneys and labor leaders, in attempt to line up influence so that these bills can be blocked in committee, before they are reported out of committee. HUMPHREYS feels that he does not have sufficient influence over the entire membership of both houses of the General Assembly, but that if he can reach key members of the committees to which these bills will be referred, he has "a fighting chance" to see that these bills are not reported out of the committee, and therefore never come up for vote on the floor of the House and Senate.

He described HUMPHREYS as a nice old man, and the reason for HUMPHREYS' trips to Miami are to look after BETTY JEAN and make certain that no one, including [REDACTED] "takes her for a ride." IV. CURRENT HANGOUTS AND MEETING PLACES OF MURRAY HUMPHREYS

Pete Fish's Restaurant
St. Clair and Ontario Streets
Chicago, Illinois

[REDACTED] advised that many years ago, HUMPHREYS met in a private dining room at Pete Fish's Restaurant approximately two or three times a week with his associates in the leadership of organized crime in the Chicago area. However, when HUMPHREYS became concerned that this location had become known to law enforcement agents in the Chicago area, he discontinued meetings there, although he continued to dine there, particularly during the evening hours, with his associates, on a social basis.

[REDACTED] advised, however, in January, 1965, that HUMPHREYS has again instituted the practice of meeting in the third floor dining room of Pete Fish's Restaurant. Source advised that this is a private dining room, and that HUMPHREYS and his associates are served meals there and can hold an entirely private conversation at that location.

Stouffer's Restaurant,
Prudential Plaza
Chicago, Illinois

SAs [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] observed MURRAY HUMPHREYS

meeting with RALPH PIERCE and HY GODFREY in Stouffer's Restaurant located in the Prudential Plaza on the far north-east side of Chicago's Loop area on December 11, 1965. (b)(7)(C):(D)

██████████ advised that HUMPHREYS, during the middle and late part of 1964, used Stouffer's Restaurant on a once-a-week basis for meetings with his hoodlum associates. However, since approximately his return from the Miami area, in the middle of January, 1965, HUMPHREYS has not been observed at Stouffer's Restaurant.

Office of ██████████
Chicago, Illinois

Information is set out hereinabove wherein it is indicated that HUMPHREYS has been meeting in the offices of ██████████ approximately three times per week during the past two months. This is true during the time when HUMPHREYS has been in Chicago, it being noted that as set out hereinbelow, under the caption, "Travel," HUMPHREYS has been spending a great portion of his time outside the Chicago area. It is noted that the visits of HUMPHREYS to the offices of ██████████ generally place at approximately 10:00 a.m. and are generally the first order of business for HUMPHREYS.

Celano's Custom Tailors,
North Michigan Avenue,
Chicago, Illinois

██████████ advised during the late 1950's and 1960's that it was the custom of HUMPHREYS to meet at that time in the private office of ██████████ which was then located at 620 North Michigan Avenue in Chicago. This source advised, however, that in the spring of 1963, HUMPHREYS became concerned that his frequent visits to ██████████ had come to the knowledge of law enforcement agents in Chicago, and he discontinued meeting at ██████████. Shortly thereafter, ██████████ moved approximately two blocks north on Michigan Avenue. Since that time HUMPHREYS has not frequented ██████████ although he continues to buy his suits and overcoats there. However, HUMPHREYS utilizes ██████████ as a message drop and sends and receives messages through ██████████ and ██████████ employees at that location.

██████████ advised that during the past six months or so HUMPFREYS has been making a practice of meeting with his associates in the several restaurants located in the Palmer House Hotel in the Loop area of Chicago. This source noted that HUMPFREYS has been known to frequent Palmer's Pub, the Town and Country Restaurant, Trader Vic's and the Palmer House Grill, and to carry on lengthy conferences during the luncheon hours with his associates in organized crime.

This informant advised that it is the practice of HUMPFREYS to schedule meetings with his associates for the Palmer House Hotel, and to meet with this associates in the corridor on the lower level of the Palmer House Hotel and then decide in which restaurant they will dine and converse. Informant advised that HUMPFREYS feels that in this manner, law enforcement agencies are not able to set up effective coverage of his meetings.

V. TRAVEL

Norman, Oklahoma

██████████ advised that HUMPFREYS traveled by Santa Fe Railroad to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on December 22, 1964, and returned by railroad to Chicago on December 28, 1964, following a visit to his first wife, daughter and grandson, in the vicinity of Norman, Oklahoma.

██████████ advised that HUMPFREYS again left the Chicago area to visit these individuals, again using the Santa Fe Railroad, on January 18, 1965. As of January 20, 1965, HUMPFREYS remained out of the Chicago area.

Miami, Florida, Area

██████████ advised that HUMPFREYS returned to the Chicago area from his visit to his family in Norman, Oklahoma, on December 28, 1964. On December 30, 1964, he flew to Miami, Florida, in order to visit his second wife opened for corruption in the Judiciary. This is in line with recently-issued instructions in this regard. The Chicago Office will particularly follow the contact of [REDACTED] in this particular case, it being noted that the number of the ticket which the unidentified individual was issued, is known to the Chicago Office. As further information is obtained, the Chicago Office will then make a consideration as to what use this information can be put to.

Later in the afternoon, [REDACTED] arrived and mentioned that ROCKY ARMONDO died, and that the 1st Ward Regular Democratic Organization was going to the wake as a group and that BRODKIN was invited to accompany them. It is noted that ARMONDO for years has been the personal bailiff of Cook County Circuit Judge DANIEL A. COVELLI. Information was obtained approximately three years ago from confidential coverage of GIANCANA that GIANCANA considered ARMONDO for the position as 1st Ward Alderman when he was considering replacing JOHN D'ARCO. As the Bureau may recall, GIANCANA and ARMONDO conversed concerning this situation and ARMONDO indicated that he did not believe that he was articulate enough in order to do a responsible job as the 1st Ward Alderman.

He, instead, recommended FRANK ANNUNZIO. Although ANNUNZIO was not given approval in this instance by GIANCANA, he was recently elected U.S. Congressman from the 7th District of Illinois (West Side of Chicago).

III. Late on the afternoon of 1/26/65, Chicago hoodlum PAUL "RED" DORFMAN arrived with [REDACTED] has recently been convicted for bribery of officials of the New York State Liquor Authority. BRODKIN informed DORFMAN that [REDACTED] had talked to [REDACTED] about the [REDACTED] case. BRODKIN mentioned, "[REDACTED] almost died when he heard the case was before [REDACTED] knows the Assistant United States Attorney who is handling the case, and can probably get some help there." Further, "PAUL and HUMP wanted to help the old man out by getting him an attorney." It is obvious that the above comments refer to the income

██████████ furnished information concerning activities on 2/9/65:

MIKE BRODKIN's first activity on 2/9/65 was to call Chicago top hoodlum ██████████ and inform him that he had been informed by Chicago attorney ██████████ that someone from ██████████ had picked up some briefs from ██████████ and that ██████████ now needed them. When ██████████ apparently questioned as to who this person might have been, BRODKIN replied, "██████████" Obviously he referred to a top lieutenant of ██████████, ██████████

At 12:55 p.m., Chicago top hoodlums MURRAY HUMPHREYS, RALPH PIERCE, and LES KRUSE arrived to converse with BRODKIN. From another highly confidential source it is noted that these hoodlums had originally met at Trader Vic's Restaurant in the Palmer House Hotel on 2/9/65, and that they intended to come to BRODKIN's office following their luncheon meeting.

When HUMPHREYS and his group arrived, they were in the process of discussing the identities of persons who were listed on a sheet or sheets of paper. It appeared from subsequent conversation that this list was the identities of persons who are on the jury panel of the Cook County Criminal Courts. From subsequent information, it also appeared that the group is interested in making contact with a member or members of the jury which will be selected to try the insurance fraud case which is to commence on 2/15/65 in the Cook County Criminal Courts against Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] and three other co-defendants.

Obviously, this list included the home addresses and the employment of the individuals noted thereon. HUMPHREYS assumed the role of parceling out leads to those hoodlums who were present, and to HY GODFREY, who arrived shortly after the others. These leads consisted of attempting to ascertain whether any hoodlum or any of their associates were acquainted with any of the individuals whose names appeared on the list. Mainly what the conversation concerned itself with was to determine what connections the group might have with officials and owners of the companies who employed the individuals on the list. For instance, they noted that one person worked for the Metropolitan Sanitary District of Chicago. They therefore decided that they would contact Chicago hoodlum and legitimate businessman [REDACTED] inasmuch as they knew that [REDACTED] has a connection with [REDACTED] a trustee of the Metropolitan Sanitary District. Presumably, they would have [REDACTED] contact [REDACTED] who in turn would contact the employee of the Sanitary District, who was on the list.

HUMPHREYS also mentioned that an employee of the Material Service Division of General Dynamics "ought to be 100 per cent good." This feeling on the part of HUMPHREYS possibly resulted due to the fact that [REDACTED] of the Material Service Division of General Dynamics, is a close friend of the [REDACTED] brothers.

They also made a note of what ward the persons on the list lived in, with a view toward contacting a politician or public official in that ward in order to make the contact.

Another example of the HUMPHREYS strategy was to determine in what suburb persons on the list appeared. For instance, one individual lived in the town of Robbins in the Southern suburbs of Chicago. HUMPHREYS indicated that he would give this lead to "FRANK," an apparent reference to Chicago top hoodlum FRANK LA PORTE, who is charged with the responsibility for the affairs of organized crime in Southern Cook County, where Robbins is located.

He assigned a lead to investigate employees of the A. B. Dick & Company and at the Addressograph Company to KRUSE, inasmuch as KRUSE lives in Skokie, a far North suburb of Chicago, where these companies are located.

During the middle of the conference, HUMPHREYS became concerned due to the fact that BRODKIN has hired a new secretary to take the place of his former secretary, who resigned at the end of January. He questioned BRODKIN closely about where he had obtained the services of this girl from, and commented, "The 'G' may have sent her in here." It appeared thereafter that whenever this secretary came into the room, the conversation stopped.

What account secretary for

(F)(7)(C)

At the request of PIERCE, HUMPHREYS assigned him a lead to investigate a person who worked for the Pure Oil Company, inasmuch as the "main guy, [REDACTED] used to bum around" with PIERCE.

Leading to the interpretation that this is a list of a jury panel is the fact that HUMPHREYS felt that an individual whose name appeared on the list and who appeared to be employed as a self-employed attorney would be "automatically disqualified" and that another individual on the list who appeared to be employed by the Treasury Department would be "automatically disqualified by the Judge".

CG 92-350 sub 11

HUMPHREYS also indicated that he would contact labor leaders and have other individuals contact labor leaders in order that persons who appeared on the list as being possibly members of a union could be contacted by the leader of the union to which they belonged.

While the group was in session, HY GODFREY received a telephone call from Miami from Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] who is vacationing there. When the conversation terminated, GODFREY advised that [REDACTED] would return to Chicago on Monday, 2/15/65. (F)(7)(c)

This caused BRODKIN to comment, "When there's work to be done, [REDACTED] goes to the sunshine."

Apparently BRODKIN expected that [REDACTED] would also join the conference, and when he inquired as to where [REDACTED] was, he was informed by HUMPHREYS, "Just forget about [REDACTED]" It is not known whether HUMPHREYS meant to indicate that he would contact [REDACTED] or whether he was not going to use the services of [REDACTED] in this regard.

During the conference, BRODKIN passed out official programs to the inauguration of President JOHNSON.

As the conference concluded, HUMPHREYS assigned HY GODFREY to take copies of the list to the top hoodlums who control the various areas of Chicago. He instructed GODFREY to give each of these hoodlums a copy of the list, but to make certain that they understand HUMPHREYS' instructions that they are to make no direct approach to the jurors at this time. They are merely to investigate to determine whether they have any avenue of approach to these jurors and to report back to HUMPHREYS in this regard. HUMPHREYS presumably will then decide whether the approach can be made without jeopardy and will decide how the approach can be made.

It is noted that another highly confidential source of the Chicago Office, [REDACTED], is also furnishing information concerning the hoodlums who are being contacted by GODFREY at the instructions of HUMPHREYS.

CG 92-350 sub 11

(b)(7)(c)

As of this time, the Chicago Office, through the three highly confidential sources which are furnishing information concerning the efforts of HUMPHREYS, [REDACTED] and others to influence the outcome of the [REDACTED] trial, has not obtained any information indicating that Judge [REDACTED] the presiding judge in this trial, has been influenced to provide favorable treatment to [REDACTED]. In fact, from information received, it appears that Judge [REDACTED] is more under the influence of [REDACTED] Assistant to the Cook County State's Attorney, than he is under the influence of BRODKIN or of [REDACTED], or of anyone who may have approached him from the United Steelworkers of America. It is noted that Judge [REDACTED] is a former [REDACTED] and was recently elected a judge due to the influence of [REDACTED] of District 31, of the United Steelworkers of America. It is noted that this district is the largest district of the United Steelworkers of America, and that [REDACTED] has considerable political influence in the Chicago area.

The Chicago Office will remain alert for any further information which is obtained concerning attempts to reach the jury in the [REDACTED] case.

EXTREME CAUTION SHOULD BE EXERCISED IN THE USE OF THIS INFORMATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE BODY OF A REPORT EVEN THOUGH PARAPHRASED. IT SHOULD NOT BE USED IN LEAD COVERAGE OR AS THE BASIS FOR AN INTERVIEW UNLESS SPECIFIC CLEARANCE IS OBTAINED FROM THE BUREAU AND FROM CHICAGO. THIS IS AN EXTREMELY DELICATE AND SENSITIVE SOURCE WHICH THE CHICAGO OFFICE IS MAKING EVERY EFFORT TO FULLY PROTECT.
