Remytel: 8/19/64 advising that a detailed (b)(7)(C) airtel would be submitted concerning the subject of that communication.

[redacted] advised that at 9:40 a.m., on 8/19/64, the bodyguard and chauffeur of MURRAY HUMPHREYS, one HY GODFREY, brought to the residence of HUMPHREYS an individual who has tentatively been identified as [redacted] true name [redacted]. It is noted that although this identification is tentative, HUMPHREYS apparently greeted this individual as [redacted]. It is noted also that the subject of the conversation is one in which [redacted] would be expected to be involved. He is known to be an associate of many top hoodlums throughout the country, including SANTO TRAFFICANTE of Tampa, MOE DALITZ of Cleveland and Las Vegas, and is a nephew of Cleveland hoodlum [REDACTED] and of [REDACTED], [REDACTED] of the Desert Inn, Las Vegas. He has also been involved in conversations which have been reported by [REDACTED], and is known to be a close associate of Chicago top hoodlums, SAM GIANCANA and PAUL DELUCIA, in particular. It is also noted that [REDACTED] has previously represented hoodlums in this country in the construction of the Monte Carlo Hotel in Cuba, and in a hotel which was never constructed, in the vicinity of Reno, Nevada. All these factors are involved in the tentative identification of this individual as [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Don't talk too loud, you know?

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Yeah.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Yeah. But shows and things would bring this ah ---

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

(b)(7)(c)

HUMPHREYS: Do you like it, that's the thing.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Well, then we're prepared to go through with it.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Well, why can't we invest something and get more.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Well, let's get busy on it. Do you think our man can get a license there? If no, I've got a hell of a man for you. He just came out of the Air Force and he's got a hell of a record. 22 years in the Air Force. And he don't know from nothing. Never been heated up, nobody knows him, nobody could connect him with us, just a hell of a man. But we'd have to stay away from him.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Well, let's try to get this guy in there. Let's get going. Hell, if it doesn't cost us nothing, what have we got to lose. Tell the guy we're interested, you are getting your men together.

[REDACTED]

(H)(7)(C)

HUMPHREYS: Well, you're the boss on the thing, push it to a conclusion. But see if you can't get more than 40 per cent. Let's go, let's get moving. Don't listen to the Greek, he'll tell you I don't want to be no place. You've talked to me and I'll get the guys to go in.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Okay, start moving. But see if you can't get more than 50 per cent.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Yeah. Yeah, even if we have to throw in a little money. But feel them out. Don't let it outgo, because this deal, anyone would cut in on it.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: You're the boss, you go ahead but do you want me to talk to [REDACTED] to see if he can get more? I can talk to [REDACTED] I broke him in.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Well, if it's under British rule, you have to pay them 5 per cent.

[REDACTED]

(b)(7)(c)

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: You don't need it, because with that island, those boats pull in there all the time. In those islands. If you got a good game with those boats, you can make your overhead overnight.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: You would have to be there, on the spot, because you can't let people steal from you. Because the guy I have in mind don't know his (obs) from a hole in the ground. But he can meet people. He's been all over the world, about five times. He's very intelligent, a real brilliant guy, and he's got a hell of a record in the Air Force. He just took his pension, $450 a month for life. That's pretty good, huh? He just left this morning for Las Vegas. I told RALPH to let him see Las Vegas. But he don't know what a crap game is all about. You could break him in your way, you know what I mean?

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Hell, a guy like this, they can check all ways, back and forth and he can tell them to go mind their own business. I was going to find a spot out there for him. I said don't tell nobody you know me.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

(f)(7)(c)

HUMPHREYS: I figured you'd catch me there, I go over in the mornings. I called you at home last night, and you were gone, she said, he's gone, I said holy Moses.

[REDACTED]: [REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Listen, I'll meet you at lunch?

[REDACTED]: [REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: Okay, you follow this out, and if you want me to go to [REDACTED], I'll go with you. We'll just make a date and tell him we're coming over to see him.

We'll see at lunch.

At this point, the person tentatively identified as [REDACTED] departed with GODFREY.

It is noted that originally HUMPHREYS appeared to greet this individual when he arrived as [REDACTED]. It is not known that [REDACTED] is commonly referred to as [REDACTED] although his middle name is [REDACTED] and his uncle is commonly referred to as [REDACTED]. The Miami Office is requested to advise whether, to their knowledge, [REDACTED] is commonly referred to as [REDACTED]. The Miami and Las Vegas Offices are requested to peruse this information in an attempt to effect an identification of HUMPHREYS' visitor.

The reference to [REDACTED] is apparently a reference to HUMPHREYS' associate, [REDACTED] who is engaged in legitimate businesses in the Chicago area.

Although the Chicago Office is not aware of all details of the geography in the Grand Bahama Island and in the Florida area, there would appear to be little doubt that what HUMPHREYS and his visitor are discussing is a gambling operation to be erected near the airport in the Grand Bahama Island. The reference to the Lucayan Beach Hotel is obviously a reference to the gambling establishment which exists on the Island at present.

There can be little doubt that the reference to [REDACTED] is to the New York hoodlum who has been interested in the operation at the Lucayan Beach Hotel.

[REDACTED] is a Chicago, Las Vegas, New York and Los Angeles attorney who is a front man for Chicago hoodlums, and who is particularly representative of them in Las Vegas. His specialty is lining up entertainment for the Las Vegas hotels controlled by Chicago hoodlums. 211
228

[REDACTED] " The Miami Office is requested to identify

The reference to "RALPH" is obviously a reference to Chicago hoodlum RALPH PIERCE.

The reference to [REDACTED] is a reference to the office of [REDACTED] Chicago. [REDACTED] is a Chicago attorney and his office is a prime meeting place of HUMPHREYS and some of his associates.

HUMPHREYS' reference to the Air Force officer who has recently retired on pension is obviously a reference to [REDACTED]. In June and July of 1932, it was determined that HUMPHREYS made a telephone call to [REDACTED], and as a result of this telephone call, an interview was effected through liaison with the Office of Special Investigations of the Air Forces in Europe, and [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED]. 211

[REDACTED] Upon interview, [REDACTED] advised that he visited with HUMPHREYS and HUMPHREYS' wife in Geneva, Switzerland, and again in Rimini, Italy. This source has advised on several occasions during the past two weeks that [REDACTED] has just retired from the Air Force, and that he and his wife are in Chicago visiting HUMPHREYS. As a matter of fact, [REDACTED] visited the apartment of HUMPHREYS last week. It appears obvious that HUMPHREYS has in mind using [REDACTED] as a front man for the gambling operation which the Chicago group apparently will contemplate in the Grand Bahama Island.

It is again pointed out that the Chicago Office is in no way certain of the identification of HUMPHREYS' visitor as [REDACTED]. It is noted that HUMPHREYS' visitor apparently maintains a residence in the Chicago area, and that he has a nurse. The residence of [REDACTED] is unknown at the present time, although it is known that he has resided in Chicago where he has had a legitimate business. He at the present time is not residing with his wife, whom he deserted. Since [REDACTED] has a young child, it is very possible that he is employing a nurse in the absence of a wife to take care of this child. In view of this lack of definite knowledge as to the identity of HUMPHREYS' visitor, the Miami and Las Vegas Offices are requested to furnish their observations concerning the identity of this individual.

EXTREME CAUTION SHOULD BE UTILIZED IN THE USE OF THIS INFORMATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE REPORTED IN THE DETAILS OF A REPORT, NOR SHOULD ANY INVESTIGATION OR INTERVIEW BE CONDUCTED BASED ON THIS INFORMATION WITHOUT SPECIFIC CLEARANCE FROM THE BUREAU AND CHICAGO.

[REDACTED] advised that on the afternoon of 8/20/64, MIKE BRODKIN was visited by HY GODFREY. It is noted that GODFREY is the bodyguard and chauffeur for practically all Chicago top hoodlums. GODFREY explained to BRODKIN that on Monday, 8/17/64, while several of the Chicago top hoodlums were meeting at the Cart Restaurant, in the Loop area of Chicago, this meeting was discovered by Detectives assigned to the "Scotland Yard" unit of the Chicago Police Department. As the Bureau is aware, Chicago top hoodlums MURRAY HUMPHREYS, TONY ACCARDO, [REDACTED], PAUL DE LUCIA, FRANK FERRARO, RALPH PIERCE, LES KRUSE, and

GODFREY were observed by the Chicago Police Department at the Cart Restaurant following the surveillance of [REDACTED] ACCARDO and RICCA to the downtown area of Chicago. The Chicago Police Department then contacted the Chicago Office of the FBI and it was suggested to these officers that the possibility existed that they would meet at the Cart Restaurant. Following this information the above hoodlums were in fact discovered by the Chicago Police Department at the Cart.

GODFREY informed BRODKIN that the meeting was observed by two diners at the restaurant and "what do they do, they go to the office and call the cops. They said there's a big meeting here of hoodlum and gangsters and Scotland Yard sends four guys over. They swear there's a book in the joint. And they don't know whether to pinch or what, they don't know what to do. One guy goes to look for his superior to find out what's going on and then everybody walked out of the joint. In the meantime, downstairs, he's got the FBI over there, all over, checking his books. So between the two, he went home, dropped down, went to sleep, didn't wake up. They killed him. You know what I tell you? If you tell this to people, they don't believe this. But this is the truth. He was excited, the six guys, they walked in, you know, walked into the restaurant, he don't let nobody around us, you know. But these two guys walked in without a coat, they look like hoodlums. And when I tell you, they killed him. Nobody else did it."

GODFREY's reference to the above is obviously to the fact that the owner of the Cart, BEN ORLOFF, died of a heart attack in his sleep at home on the morning of 8/19/64. Obviously, GODFREY blames the death of ORLOFF on the fact that officers of the Intelligence Unit of the Chicago Police Department aggressively surveilled the meeting of the above top hoodlums at the Cart Restaurant on 8/17/64. It is not a fact that agents of the FBI have been checking the books of ORLOFF at the Cart. ORLOFF has been interviewed in the past, by agents of the Chicago Officer concerning his relationship with MURRAY HUMPHREYS, and, approximately six weeks ago, in connection with the investigation by this office of the Anco Insurance Company, the insurance company which ORLOFF did business with. However, at no time were his books checked by the FBI and no contact has been had officially with ORLOFF by this office for at least six weeks.

10-1000

It is believed that GODFREY was present in the offices of BIEBER and BRODKIN in order to converse with [REDACTED]. It is noted that [REDACTED] advised last week that GODFREY conferred with MURRAY HUMPHREYS concerning the claim by [REDACTED] that he can obtain a reduced sentence for [REDACTED] a recently-convicted Chicago automobile dealer.

It would appear that this is the reason GODFREY was in the offices of BIEBER and BRODKIN.

Following the departure of GODFREY, an unknown individual arrived and conversed with BRODKIN. They discussed the death of ORLOFF. They mentioned that ORLOFF is a very close personal friend of Federal Judge ABRAHAM LINCOLN MAROVITZ, and that MAROVITZ will be heartbroken due to the death of ORLOFF. It is noted that when ORLOFF was buried, Judge MAROVITZ was one of his pallbearers. III

BRODKIN mentioned to this individual that he had just had dinner with [REDACTED] "on his way to the Convention, I took him to dinner. He's on his way to New York. He's a nice guy. He's now living in Scottsdale, Arizona, and he's [REDACTED] of the Arizona delegation to the Democratic Convention. He made a lot of money in real estate out there and it couldn't happen to a nicer guy."

Later, BRODKIN made a telephone call to his wife, and advised her that he had had lunch with [REDACTED] and that [REDACTED] intends to leave immediately after the Democratic Convention where he is a delegate, "going to be up at Montreal, and invited us to come on up there and spend the week end."

BRODKIN then called his secretary, [REDACTED] and informed her that [REDACTED] had said to say hello, and was surprised that she was still working for BRODKIN.

It is noted that [REDACTED] is a former Chicago defense attorney who went to the Scottsdale, Arizona, area five or six years ago. He became an [REDACTED] and now is very influential in Arizona politics.

A copy of this communication is being designated for the Phoenix Office for their information concerning [REDACTED]

As the Phoenix Division has previously been informed, BRODKIN is a Chicago defense attorney who has represented Chicago top hoodlums as well as minor hoodlums, not only in the court room, but in judge's chambers and elsewhere, in efforts to obtain favorable treatment for them. He is considered to be the most unethical and unscrupulous practitioner of the law in the Chicago area.

BRODKIN then asked his secretary whether "PHILLY" was in the office and was informed that he had been in the office, but that he was now "upstairs," an obvious reference to Postl's Health Club located above the offices of BIEBER and BRODKIN. The reference to "PHILLY" is an obvious reference to Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO.

It is noted that when GODFREY was in the office, he mentioned that Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] was then at Postl's Health Club "working up an appetite."

EXTREME CAUTION SHOULD BE EXERCISED IN THE USE OF THIS INFORMATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE BODY OF A REPORT EVEN THOUGH PARAPHRASED. IT SHOULD NOT BE USED IN LEAD COVERAGE OR AS THE BASIS FOR AN INTERVIEW UNLESS SPECIFIC CLEARANCE IS OBTAINED FROM THE BUREAU AND FROM CHICAGO.

He appeared to be excited and stated that he was supposed to meet [redacted] of the 1st Ward and believed to be an [redacted] in the coffee shop of the Bismarck Hotel, with a check for $945. It developed that [redacted] had obtained a tax reduction for this individual for his current taxes which were not due until April, and that although "usually when we get a reduction, we make a check then, the same day, now he wants this practically eight months ahead of time. I think the guy is just treating me like anyone else."

This individual indicated that [REDACTED] had cut his taxes "plenty, about $2200, and that overall, I'll have a saving of about $3300 and of that, he wants $900."

BRODKIN agreed to accompany this individual to the coffee shop of the Bismarck Hotel, across the street from BRODKIN's office, and they left together, with BRODKIN advising the individual to relax.

No information was obtained concerning the identity of the individual or the property being taxed.

When BRODKIN returned, he was informed by his secretary that he had an appointment with [REDACTED] at 1:30. BRODKIN indicated that he did not know who [REDACTED] is and was told that [REDACTED] is [REDACTED] an associate of BRODKIN. [REDACTED] is a chronic complainer to the Chicago Office who is mentally unbalanced and who has made allegations concerning Bureau Agents in the past. At no time, however, did this source furnish any information indicating the arrival of [REDACTED] or the nature of her appointment with BRODKIN.

Later, [REDACTED] arrived. [REDACTED] is a Chicago business man who formerly owned night clubs here and in New York City. He has recently been indicted by a New York grand jury for his involvement in the New York State liquor authority scandal. He is a close associate of the [REDACTED] brothers in Chicago.

[REDACTED] and BRODKIN then discussed the fact that [REDACTED] Las Vegas top hoodlum, is handling a divorce for an individual apparently named [REDACTED].

BRODKIN then indicated that he was going to be the guest of an individual at the Moraine-On-The-Lake Hotel over the week end of the 29th and 30th of August, but that he probably will not go because of the birth of his granddaughter the previous day.

CG 92-350 Sub 11

After a short while, [REDACTED] and BRODKIN left the office, apparently to go to lunch.

When BRODKIN returned, he conversed with Chicago top jewel thief IRVING HORNSTEIN about having a diamond ring made. He also informed HORNSTEIN that MEYER GORDON, a now-deceased former Chicago jewel fence, "used to make up teething rings and I want you to make up one for me for my granddaughter."

[REDACTED] also was in the company of HORNSTEIN and BRODKIN at this point, and was informed by BRODKIN that [REDACTED] made a good man out of this guy," obviously a reference to Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] and his relationship with HORNSTEIN.

BRODKIN then informed HORNSTEIN of the death of Chicago top hoodlum FRANK FERRARO and asked whether he desired to give $25 for masses for FRANKIE. BRODKIN advised that he has envelopes for this and that he believed that it would be a good gesture on IRVING's part since "You don't send flowers any more, you give money to the Church for masses."

At 1:30 p.m., Chicago top hoodlums MURRAY HUMPHREYS and [REDACTED] arrived. [REDACTED] then made a telephone call and ordered $113 worth of champagne to be placed on a liner, apparently the "USS Constitution," which a friend of his was taking to Europe on Friday. He then instructed his bodyguard and chauffeur, [REDACTED] to take the money to the company where he ordered the champagne. He then informed his chauffeur to meet him at 2:30 p.m. "in the parking lot and put the grip in the trunk and call EDDIE and tell him." This reference to "EDDIE" is apparently a reference to [REDACTED] close associate, Chicago top hoodlum EDWARD VOGEL.

Following this, there was considerable conversation between BRODKIN, [REDACTED] and HUMPHREYS concerning their apparent sincere affection for the deceased Chicago top hoodlum, "FRANK FERRARO. They reminisced in some detail concerning the boyhood and background of FERRARO. They also discussed the recent death of BEN ORLOFF, the proprietor of the Cart Restaurant, a prime meeting place of HUMPHREYS.

HUMPHREYS had an envelope of pictures of FERRARO which for some reason he gave to BRODKIN.

Following the departure of HUMPHREYS and [REDACTED] BRODKIN attempted to locate Chicago hoodlum PAUL "RED" DORFMAN, but was unsuccessful. He then received a phone call from [REDACTED] and discussed without any specifics, the case involving the son of [REDACTED] of Chicago.

At 2:50 p.m., Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO, and Chicago top jewel thief IRVING HORNSTEIN resumed their conversation of the previous day. It is noted that in myairtel of 8/31/64, it was set out that ALDERISIO attempted to sell HORNSTEIN jewelry for $14,000. When HORNSTEIN stated that he would buy the entire lot at "$16 per karat," ALDERISIO laughed and said, "Oh, you (obs), I'm gonna tell [REDACTED] on you."

This again apparently refers to the relationship between [REDACTED] and HORNSTEIN.

ALDERISIO harangued HORNSTEIN by telling him that he would never die because he aggravates other people to death and that he will live to be a thousand and become "the wandering Jew."

Following the departure of HORNSTEIN, BRODKIN asked ALDERISIO concerning his opinion of the trustworthiness of HORNSTEIN and it was concluded, "He's an old man and he's good, too."

[redacted] advised that during the late morning of 8/24/64, MIKE BRODKIN conferred with [redacted]. It is noted that [redacted] formerly was an attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union and that recently he has come out of retirement as an attorney and is practicing law [redacted]. It appeared from his conversation with BRODKIN that he has an interest of [redacted] in a Chicago-area bank which is worth anywhere from [redacted] to [redacted]. Apparently someone is trying to purchase this bank and for an unexplained reason, if the purchase goes through, [redacted] will lose everything he has invested in the bank. BRODKIN indicated that "these things are Greek to me," and suggested that he and [redacted] make an appointment with Chicago attorney [redacted] and discuss this problem with [redacted].

After making the appointment, BRODKIN attempted to placate [redacted]. It was obvious that [redacted] is extremely upset with this situation, not only due to the fact that he will lose [redacted] but also due to what is obvious from the following conversation:

[REDACTED] is a Chicago attorney. [REDACTED] is an owner of a liquor store in Dixmoor, Illinois. It is of interest to note that the recent race riot which occurred in Dixmoor, a southern suburb of Chicago, was triggered when [REDACTED] allegedly beat a Negro woman whom he allegedly caught stealing liquor from his store. [REDACTED] is white and operates his business in a predominantly Negro neighborhood.

BRODKIN then informed [REDACTED] "You tell me who these Italians are that threaten you or anything like that. The guy that walks in here and is your friend, he'll do any (obs) thing for you, he'll take care of all that. Hear what I said to you, you got nothing to worry about. Do you hear what I say to you?"

It is not obvious from BRODKIN's remark which of the numerous hoodlums who frequent his office he refers to in the above conversation. Possibly, however, he refers to ALDERISIO, who most frequently appears.

On 8/26/64, [REDACTED] and BRODKIN again resumed a conversation concerning this situation. This followed their appointment with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] advised that one [REDACTED] is asking $75,000 and BRODKIN advised that [REDACTED] should just sit back and let things take their course, that apparently someone wants the bank for nothing.

[REDACTED]

Following the call, BRODKIN commented, "We'll just defend the suit and see what happens."

Immediately thereafter, Chicago hoodlum PAUL DORFMAN arrived and was introduced by BRODKIN to [REDACTED]. BRODKIN then mentioned to DORFMAN that Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS was at that time attempting to locate DORFMAN.

CG 92-350 Sub 11

Shortly thereafter, BRODKIN received a telephone call and shouted to his secretary to have ALDERISIO take this call. It appeared that ALDERISIO was then in the office of [REDACTED] BRODKIN's associate.

EXTREME CAUTION SHOULD BE EXERCISED IN THE USE OF THIS INFORMATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE BODY OF A REPORT EVEN THOUGH PARAPHRASED. IT SHOULD NOT BE USED IN LEAD COVERAGE OR AS THE BASIS FOR AN INTERVIEW UNLESS SPECIFIC CLEARANCE IS OBTAINED FROM THE BUREAU AND FROM CHICAGO. HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL SOURCE ADVISED BY GODFREY INFORMED HUMPHREYS SEPTEMBER 3 LAST HE HAD JUST LEFT SAM ALEX WHO SENDS WORD TO HUMPHREYS THE WIDOW OF FRANK FERRARO "IS VERY SATISFIED WITH THE WILL. HE MADE A COMMITMENT THAT HE WOULD TAKE CARE OF HER TO SEE THAT SHE GETS WHAT SHE NEEDED WHENEVER NEEDED." THE WILL APPARENTLY DRAWN UP BY CHICAGO ATTORNEY EUGENE BERNSTEIN. IT WAS ALSO AGREED THAT THE CHICAGO GROUP WOULD ARRANGE FOR THE SALE OF FERRARO'S YACHT AND GIVE PROCEEDS TO FERRARO'S WIDOW.

IT APPEARS PURPOSE OF SAM ALEX HERE TO ARRANGE FOR THE FUTURE COMFORT OF FERRARO'S WIDOW. NOTED THAT APPROXIMATELY FOUR YEARS AGO COMMENT WAS MADE FROM [REDACTED] INDICATING IT IS SAM ALEX'S FUNCTION TO TAKE CARE OF ALL WIDOWS OF CHICAGO HOODLUMS. OBVIOUSLY THIS REMAINS HIS FUNCTION.

HUMPHREYS INSTRUCTED GODFREY TO OBTAIN THREE TICKETS TO BROADWAY PLAY FUNNY GIRL "FOR HER AND HAVE HIM JUST LEAVE THEM IN NEW YORK." THIS MAY INDICATE HUMPHREYS INTENDS ANOTHER TRIP TO NEW YORK CITY. TICKETS ARE FOR SEPTEMBER 12 NEXT.

(If this surveillance involves cryptanalysis, include statement that decrypted material is or is not sufficiently important to continue decrypting.)

This installation, which was effected on 3/21/63, is located in the subject's Chicago residence. Humphreys is a hoodlum of national importance who has a long-time affiliation with racket activity.

[REDACTED] has consistently furnished quality information regarding Humphreys' activity. It is through this source that coverage is obtained of him and his many travels. During the past three-month period Humphreys traveled to New York and Miami. Humphreys regularly meets in the presence of our source with Hy Godfrey, who for many years has carried out his orders. Source has recently reported Humphreys in conversation with Godfrey expressed an interest in obtaining a foothold in gambling activity in the Bahama Islands. (b)(2) (b)(7)(D)

The Special Investigative Division, in view of the continued productivity of this source, concurs with the recommendation of the SAC, Chicago, that this installation be continued for a 90-day period.

Since the last submission of an FD 143 in this matter, the travel of HUMPHREYS to New York City and to Miami, Florida, has been covered through information obtained prior to his departure from Chicago from this source.

HUMPHREYS has continued his practice of meeting almost daily, Monday through Saturday, with his bodyguard, errand boy, message center and chauffeur, HY GODFREY. During these almost daily visits, HUMPHREYS instructs GODFREY as to whom he desires to meet with on that date and ordinarily where. GODFREY then gives HUMPHREYS any messages he has received from other hoodlums or from any other of HUMPHREYS' associates and HUMPHREYS then instructs GODFREY as to return messages to these people. Frequently, these messages involve requests for meetings with HUMPHREYS and HUMPHREYS reinstructs GODFREY to inform these people whether he desires to meet with them or not. HUMPHREYS then takes messages to these people as to HUMPHREYS' desires and sets up meetings with them.

On many occasions, HUMPHREYS and GODFREY discuss matters of interest to the hoodlum element in Chicago.

Of particular importance during the period covered by this FD 143, it is noted that on August 19, 1964, GODFREY brought a person tentatively identified as [REDACTED] to the apartment of HUMPHREYS and [REDACTED] discussed with HUMPHREYS a proposition whereby the hoodlums in Chicago will run gambling in the West Bahama Islands and receive 40% of the proceeds of that gambling without making any investment. HUMPHREYS appeared to be very enthusiastic concerning this situation and has in mind a retired Army colonel to be the front for the Chicago hoodlums in gambling in the West Bahama Islands. The identity of this individual has been obtained through background information provided to the source by HUMPHREYS and through independent investigation. (b)(7)(C)

Information has also been obtained concerning many meetings of other Chicago top hoodlums through this source. As an example, information was obtained on August 15 and 17, 1964, indicating that the top leaders of organized crime, some eight in number, intended to meet at the Cart Restaurant in the loop restaurant in Chicago. This information was given to the Chicago Police Department, after a determination had been made that such dissemination would not jeopardize this source, with the result that the identification of all the conferrees with the exception of one were identified. With one or two exceptions these hoodlums included all the top leaders of organized crime in this area.

REC-51

██████████ advised on 9/4/64 that on that date MIKE BRODKIN returned to Chicago from his trip to Canada. In the middle of the morning when ██████████ Chicago attorney, arrived, BRODKIN informed him that he had been in Montreal for almost a week with "your friend" ██████████. BRODKIN mentioned that ██████████ was in Iowa at this time, it being noted that the wife of ██████████ is originally from Iowa. This is obviously a reference to ██████████ former Chicago attorney who at the present time resides in Scottsdale Arizona and was with BRODKIN in Montreal as a guest of Canadian gambler ██████████. From a later conversation of BRODKIN, it appeared that the unidentified New York attorney who was in Montreal with the above group was ██████████.

According to BRODKIN, ██████████ has renounced his United States citizenship and has filed application for Canadian citizenship. It is noted that Internal Revenue has filed an Income Tax suit against ██████████ in New York. According to BRODKIN, ██████████ attempts to beat this suit by remaining in Canada as a Canadian citizen.

in BRODKIN's office at that time and he asked HORNSTEIN if HORNSTEIN knew [REDACTED]. It appears that this individual asked [REDACTED] about HORNSTEIN. HORNSTEIN indicated that he knew him. However, no further conversation concerning the identity of [REDACTED] was received.

Early in the afternoon, [REDACTED] bodyguard and chauffeur for Chicago top hoodlums [REDACTED] and EDWARD VOGEL arrived. BRODKIN asked whether [REDACTED] was in town and was advised that he was and that he would be "up in the gym" later on that afternoon. BRODKIN then asked whether [REDACTED] would be going away for the weekend and [REDACTED] advised "[REDACTED]". This apparently refers to the fact that, as obtained from [REDACTED] spent the weekend (Labor Day weekend) with his associates HUMPHREYS, ACCARDO and D'LUCIA at the farm of Detroit top hoodlum SAM ALEX near Cassopolis, Michigan. "The gym" refers to Postl's Health Club, a hangout of [REDACTED] which is located above the offices of BEBER and BRODKIN in the same building.

Later, Chicago top hoodlum EDDIE VOGEL arrived and was informed by BRODKIN that [REDACTED] in Montreal had asked about VOGEL. BRODKIN and VOGEL discussed the Jewish holiday which was to take place over the Labor Day weekend and BRODKIN indicated that he would not be in his office on Tuesday, 9/8/64, in deference to the holiday. BRODKIN then asked VOGEL if "HUMP" is around. This obviously is a reference to Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS and VOGEL advised that "BUTCH" had seen him and that "he's okay." BRODKIN then asked "Welcome [REDACTED], is there anything you want to see me about?" This is a reference to the common alias of VOGEL and VOGEL advised that he had nothing in particular to contact BRODKIN about.

Following the departure of VOGEL and LADON, Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "Milwaukee Phil" ALDERISIO arrived at 2:05 PM. ALDERISIO informed BRODKIN that [REDACTED] a co-defendant with ALDERISIO in a ITAR-Extortion case pending against them, had gone to Washington, D.C. to "talk to WILLIAMS". This obviously is a reference to EDWARD

BENNETT WILLIAMS, the attorney of ALDERISIO and [REDACTED]. They then discussed their knowledge of the fact that [REDACTED] an associate of ALDERISIO, intends to testify for the government against ALDERISIO. It is noted that previous indications of the knowledge of ALDERISIO as to the intentions of [REDACTED] have been set out in a summary from this source. It is noted that [REDACTED] is an informant of the department of justice. ALDERISIO indicated that he believes that [REDACTED] has been questioned as to whether ALDERISIO ever paid [REDACTED] expenses for a trip anywhere. BRODKIN does not feel that [REDACTED] will testify against ALDERISIO. ALDERISIO doubts this opinion and believes that the Department of Justice "is playing with [REDACTED] now."

BRODKIN then inquired of ALDERISIO as to the whereabouts of Chicago top hoodlum SAM GIANCANA. ALDERISIO responded only that "MOE is not in town." ALDERISIO then informed BRODKIN that [REDACTED] is upstairs". BRODKIN then immediately made a telephone call to POSTL's Health Club and asked "Is the young fellow, the good looking man there?" He apparently was informed that [REDACTED] was asleep and that he had left instructions that he was not to be awakened. This was at 2:15 PM.

At 2:18 PM ALDERISIO departed indicating that he was going to Postl's Health Club also.

At 3:00 PM, BRODKIN also departed for Postl's Health Club and no further activity was obtained through this source on 9/4/64.

EXTREME CAUTION SHOULD BE EXERCISED IN THE USE OF THIS INFORMATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE BODY OF A REPORT EVEN THOUGH PARAPHRASED. IT SHOULD NOT BE USED IN LEAD COVERAGE OR AS THE BASIS FOR AN INTERVIEW UNLESS SPECIFIC CLEARANCE IS OBTAINED FROM THE BUREAU AND FROM CHICAGO. [REDACTED] advised that on 9/9/64, MIKE BRODKIN's first order of business was to invite Chicago hoodlum PAUL DORFMAN and his wife, ROSIE, to the residence of BRODKIN on 9/10/64 for a birthday party. It is noted that BRODKIN celebrated his birthday on 9/10/64. During the conversation he mentioned, "your friend, the colonel, is going to be there." Inasmuch as later in the day BRODKIN made a reference to "the general" being in town, he probably refers to Las Vegas hoodlum [REDACTED]. It is noted that within the past six months or so [REDACTED] was promoted to Brig. General in the National Guard. For years, he has been referred to as [REDACTED].

DORFMAN informed BRODKIN that although he would not be able to make the party, ROSE would. BRODKIN conversed shortly on 9/9/64 with Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO and also invited him to his birthday party. He also indicated that Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS would also be there.

At 3:19 p.m., [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] arrived.

HUMPHREYS COMPLAINED HE HAS NOT EATEN OR SLEPT FOR TWO DAYS AND NIGHTS AS RESULT. COMPLAINED HE DOES NOT FEEL ARREST CAN BE USED AS BASIS FOR LAW SUIT.

HUMPHREYS WAS DRIVEN TO AIRPORT IN MIAMI BY NEIGHBOR WHO TOLD HIM FBI INQUIRED ABOUT HUMPHREYS THREE DAYS PREVIOUSLY. BRODKIN advised that he expects [redacted] to be in Chicago on the week end of 9/12-13/64 in order to visit with [redacted]. This is probably a reference to a Canadian bookmaker by the name of [redacted] who formerly was associated with [redacted] in Canadian gambling. [redacted] and [redacted] also indicated they expect [redacted] to be in Chicago to visit with [redacted] shortly. This may be a reference to Las Vegas gambler [redacted] known to be a former associate of [redacted].

BRODKIN gave [redacted] advice on the way [redacted] should conduct himself in the future. He indicated to [redacted] that at any time [redacted] needs money he should so inform BRODKIN, and that [redacted] will be taken care of. [redacted] indicated that he would like to get permission of the Parole Board to travel and that he would especially like to establish a residence in Las Vegas. Later in the conversation, there was mentioned indicating the possibility that some time ago BRODKIN and [redacted] jointly invested $5,500 to $6,000 in vacant lots in Southern California. BRODKIN advised that he had gotten this investment back and that he still retains interest in this property and on that morning had received a check in the amount of $300 which apparently represented a monthly income from this property.

BRODKIN at this point called to his secretary and instructed her that should [redacted] call, he should be given "the good news that his case in New York has been continued until some time in October and he doesn't have to report in New York Monday." For the information of the New York Office this obviously refers to the indictment of [redacted] in New York City as a result of his involvement in the scandal pertaining to the New York State Liquor Authority.

BRODKIN then vaguely informed [redacted] and [redacted] that he has "got something goin'", but I don't know yet if it's going to materialize or not. This came up when HUMPHY (phonetic) and his ex-mrs. were eating." This may have been a reference to Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS, who is divorced from his first and second wives. In this conversation, the name [redacted] (phonetic) was mentioned by both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and then apparently in the same connection something was said about the "Bahamas" in such a manner that it appeared that [REDACTED] was going to make some sort of an investment there. Although many efforts were made in order to obtain the facts of this conversation, nothing more could be obtained. BRODKIN did mention that he had been in contact with [REDACTED] who apparently is associated with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in Canadian gambling, and that, although [REDACTED] continually brags about his real estate investment in the Montreal area, [REDACTED] cautioned BRODKIN not to believe everything that [REDACTED] told him.

BRODKIN then mentioned that his associate, [REDACTED] was at that time in Honolulu with Las Vegas top hoodlum, [REDACTED]. He mentioned that [REDACTED] was in a wheelchair and said something about [REDACTED] had another heart attack." Later in the day BRODKIN talked to [REDACTED] concerning [REDACTED] travel but nothing pertinent was obtained from this conversation. Reference is made to Honolulu teletype dated 9/12/64 indicating that [REDACTED] is representing [REDACTED] in relation to the Treasury Department case against [REDACTED] in Honolulu having to do with the carrying of concealed weapons on the yacht of [REDACTED] there.

During the late morning hours inactive Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED] arrived and conversed with Chicago Attorney MIKE BRODKIN concerning the birthday party of BRODKIN which had been held on the previous evening.

At 11:16 a.m., BRODKIN made a telephone call to a [REDACTED]. When [REDACTED] came to the phone MIKE inquired concerning the whereabouts of "Buttercup". Very shortly thereafter BRODKIN made another telephone call and commented that he had been trying to "get ahold of Hy". Ever since the Chicago Office instituted its top hoodlum program in 11/57, occasional references have been made by Chicago top hoodlums to "Buttercup". These references have not been frequent but have been made since 1957. During that time the Chicago Office has been unable to definitely identify "Buttercup". It now appears most likely that "Buttercup" is identical with HY GODFREY. It is noted that [REDACTED] is a jewelry fence who operates a discount house at the corner of [REDACTED] in Chicago. This every morning is the first stop of HY GODFREY and is GODFREY's "message center". It is noted that GODFREY is the bodyguard and chauffeur for all Chicago top hoodlums and all messages from these hoodlums are left for him at [REDACTED]. Since the phone call for "Buttercup" was made to [REDACTED] and since almost immediately thereafter BRODKIN indicated that he had been trying to get ahold of "HY", it would definitely appear that GODFREY is identical with "Buttercup".

At 11:31 a.m., [REDACTED] instructed his secretary to call [REDACTED]. From a later conversation it is noted that this is a reference to [REDACTED] of the Illinois Supreme Court. [REDACTED] is a close friend of BRODKIN.

At 11:44 a.m., BRODKIN instructed his secretary to call the chambers of [REDACTED] Federal District Court. When the chambers of [REDACTED] was reached BRODKIN was informed that the judge had not returned to Chicago as yet but that he would be back on Monday, 9/14/64.

BRODKIN then discussed with [REDACTED] an associate of his in the practice of law in Chicago, the investigation of IRS concerning the insurance company owned by HY GODFREY. This is the Hyde Park Insurance Company, Incorporated. [REDACTED] indicated that he is not at all happy with the situation and that HY GODFREY could get a year and a fine for each error which IRS finds in his books. BRODKIN instructed [REDACTED] to give this case intensive attention. BRODKIN then made another telephone call to one [REDACTED] (phonetic). He informed her that he had been unable to contact [REDACTED] but that as soon as he does he will recontact her. Immediately thereafter he informed [REDACTED] 1st Ward, who had entered the office that he was attempting to contact [REDACTED] in order to "get some heat taken off". It is noted that [REDACTED] is the Cook County Clerk and an extremely influential politician and public official.

At this point Chicago inactive bookmaker [REDACTED] appeared and asked BRODKIN [REDACTED]. This apparently is a reference to [REDACTED] s associate. Las Vegas top hoodlum [REDACTED] commented that he has heard that [REDACTED] has suffered another heart attack.

[REDACTED] indicated that he is going to be on parole for two years and two months and that he's got to be very careful of meeting his old associates for this reason. He mentioned, however, that he had lunch at the H. and H Restaurant that day. It is noted that the H. and H. Restaurant is a favorite meeting place of loop area Chicago bookmakers.

BRODKIN at 2:31 p.m. made a telephone call to a [REDACTED] who is unknown to this office. He informed [REDACTED] that he had been given a tip to bet on "Next Fiddle" who was running in the 6th at Arlington Park. BRODKIN suggested that he bet 40 to win, 10 to place and 10 to show on this horse. At 3:00 p.m., an unidentified individual arrived. From the tenor of his conversation it appeared that he is either from New York City or Boston. BRODKIN informed him that HUMPHY, an obvious reference to Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS, "is going away for a few days." It did not appear that this individual, who was called [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] by BRODKIN, was well acquainted with HUMPHREYS inasmuch as he indicated that he met HUMPHREYS one day while on a train to New York City. BRODKIN informed this individual that HUMPHREYS at one time told him that [REDACTED] who owns the [REDACTED] and who was associated with [REDACTED] in the International Boxing Association, once informed

HUMPHREYS that he could have an apartment in a building owned by [REDACTED] in Chicago but that HUMPHREYS would have to live there under an assumed name. HUMPHREYS was upset by this and made an obscene remark to [REDACTED] according to BRODKIN. Mention was then made of the fact that HUMPHREYS formerly was an associate of RUBY COHEN. COHEN is a now deceased former Chicago outside alderman who owned nightclubs on the South Side of Chicago. At this point the unidentified individual mentioned "[REDACTED]"

The Chicago Office is unable to identify or any contacts that HUMPHREYS may have made with this individual. It appears that the trip to HUMPHREYS' in Montreal which was disclosed in myairtel 8/13/64 was in fact the trip made by HUMPHREYS in the fall of 1963. It is also known that HUMPHREYS also was in Canada with his second wife shortly after their marriage several years ago, but from information provided by another highly confidential source, this appeared to be a social trip. Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO arrived in the office of BRODKIN at 12:45 p.m. He engaged in a strictly desultory conversation with BRODKIN and as he got up to leave, BRODKIN mentioned to him that he "should wait around 'cause LES and RALPH are due here now." This obviously is a reference to Chicago top hoodlums LES KRUSE and RALPH PIERCE. However, it did not appear that ALDERISIO accepted this invitation due to the fact that when PIERCE and KRUSE did arrive, the voice of ALDERISIO was not heard.

At 1:05 p.m., KRUSE arrived, apparently by himself. He engaged in a social conversation with BRODKIN until 1:10 p.m., when Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS arrived. At that time [REDACTED] was also present in the office of BRODKIN and he and HUMPHREYS greeted each other very warmly, it being apparent that this is the first time that HUMPHREYS has been in the company of [REDACTED] since [REDACTED] was released from the Federal Penitentiary in Terre Haute, Ind. HUMPHREYS cautioned [REDACTED] about over-weight, and then instructed [REDACTED] that he should "stay home with your swell wife. Stay close to her, she's a wonderful girl, and then you won't get in any trouble. Just stay quiet." HUMPHREYS also cautioned [REDACTED] to stay out of card games and away from "the big thick guys."

HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN then discussed the recent arrest of HUMPHREYS in Florida. HUMPHREYS obviously is quite upset concerning this arrest, and mentioned that the only reason that he was caught in an automobile was because his former wife was in the hospital and taxicab connections from her home to the hospital are difficult. He advised that he was followed for three days by the "police" until he "made a slip by driving across the yellow line."

HUMPHREYS then talked to BRODKIN concerning the recent attempt by the Chicago Police Department to gain entry into his apartment. HUMPHREYS indicated that he knew that the names of the two officers who attempted to gain entry to his apartment were [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. It is noted that there are police officers by this name assigned to the Intelligence Unit of the Chicago Police Department. HUMPHREYS identified these men as being " [REDACTED] men." It is noted that Deputy Superintendent [REDACTED] heads the Bureau of Inspectional Services of the Chicago Police Department, the Intelligence Unit being one of four units in the Bureau of Inspectional Services.

HUMPHREYS then again conversed with [REDACTED] and told him that he would not want to be in his shoes with the "G" on his heels. They discussed at great length old times when [REDACTED] operated "the Dug-Out," a tavern which years ago was located at 15th Street and Austin on the Far West Side of Chicago.

(b)(7)(c)

HUMPHREYS then again discussed his arrest in Miami. He indicated that he is getting used to being "constantly tailed," both in Chicago and in Miami. He mentioned that the "G" continually surveils him and then "the followers talk to the people I have talked to, always bothering them." This caused HUMPHREYS to again caution [REDACTED] to "watch your step since you are on parole." BRODKIN mentioned that he had discussed this with RALPH PIERCE the previous Saturday and from the conversation it appeared that PIERCE had lunch with [REDACTED] and BRODKIN in the Pittsfield Restaurant in the basement of the Pittsfield Building at 55 East Washington in Chicago at noon the previous Saturday.

At this point, it was obvious that LES KRUSE was present, when he discussed some "nice kid" who is now a deputy sheriff. However, the identity of this individual was not obtained.

BRODKIN then commented that Canadian bookmaker [REDACTED] told him that "HUMP loves to come to Montreal."

HUMPHREYS then discussed the Florida laws concerning driving a vehicle there, and the application of these laws to people who have an out-of-state driver's license. HUMPHREYS feels that he can beat one of the counts of the charges against him due to the fact that he was driving a rental car with a valid out-of-state driver's license.

HUMPHREYS mentioned that [REDACTED] obtained an affidavit from BETTY JEAN, his former wife, which allowed him to reclaim the automobile which the Miami Police Department had confiscated from him. This reference to [REDACTED] is apparently a reference to [REDACTED], of the Susco Drive-It Company in Miami. He also mentioned that [REDACTED] had been questioned by the FBI when they attempted to learn of the affidavit and release of the automobile. He also mentioned that [REDACTED] had obtained a lawyer for him.

The conversation then switched back to HUMPHREYS' account of the attempted entry of his apartment by the Chicago Police Department. HUMPHREYS identified [REDACTED] as being "the dirty one" of the two officers. HUMPHREYS mentioned that he has spent considerable time surveilling the residence of [REDACTED] in order to get a look at [REDACTED] and mentioned that he intended to be on this surveillance that evening and get a "good look at him, face to face. I'll know him." HUMPHREYS then stated that "If it's him, I'm going to put the heat on him." He mentioned to BRODKIN that he had [REDACTED] write the Police Department asking for an explanation. BRODKIN offered any help that he can give and even volunteered to accompany HUMPHREYS on the surveillance of the residence of [REDACTED] that evening. However, HUMPHREYS did not take BRODKIN up on this offer. HUMPHREYS indicated his belief that the Chicago Police Department were "supposed to burglarize my place."

HUMPHREYS commented that he believes that FBI agents were at the residence of a neighbor of BETTY JEAN. He also mentioned that he thought that he had recognized "a plainclothes man" as an FBI agent he knew. But this person produced identification which showed that he was an officer of the Miami Police Department. HUMPHREYS felt that the FBI "must have been standing back." On several occasions he indicated his belief that the FBI was the agency responsible for his arrest in Miami. He stated that he figures that "this was a set-up," due to the fact that his police record was produced immediately upon his entry to the Sheriff's Office. When BRODKIN asked him why he had not contacted Miami attorney [REDACTED] in this situation, HUMPHREYS indicated that he would have, but that he could not think of [REDACTED] name at the time. He, instead, contacted Miami attorney [REDACTED]. He stated that he refused to have his picture taken until he was told by [REDACTED] that he could not refuse because of the Supreme Court ruling. He and BRODKIN then discussed whether such a ruling was in effect. BRODKIN and HUMPHREYS agreed that they would check on this situation further.

As a coincidence, BRODKIN at this point received a telephone call from Miami attorney [REDACTED] who called to advise that he had received a subpoena in the ALDERISIO case. BRODKIN asked HUMPHREYS whether he desired to talk to [REDACTED] but HUMPHREYS indicated that he did not.

During this conversation, the name of WILLIAMS, obviously Wash., D.C., attorney EDWARD BENNETT WILLIAMS, was mentioned. Following the conversation, HUMPHREYS commented that he considers WILLIAMS to be a "hell of a lawyer." HUMPHREYS indicated other high praise for WILLIAMS. HUMPHREYS feels that [REDACTED] can refuse to testify due to the lawyer-client privilege.

At this point, KRUSE talked about the time when he was arrested in Miami on the way to the airport for speeding. He at that time was driving a car in his wife's name and driving with an Illinois driver's license and this presented difficulty for him, as in the case of HUMPHREYS.

HUMPHREYS, KRUSE and BRODKIN then discussed the political situation, particularly as it pertains to Chicago. HUMPHREYS expressed the hope that Cook County State's Attorney DANIEL WARD will be re-elected because "with him, we know what we've got, and I'm not too sure of the guy running against him."

HUMPHREYS then mentioned that Congressman LIBONATI "got that thing through." This obviously was a reference to the fact that a resolution introduced by LIBONATI had approved for an investigation of the Justice Department insofar as individual rights of citizens are concerned. HUMPHREYS considers "LIBBY" to be a "good man." He has a "lot of guts."

The conversation then turned to the suit of WILLIAM FISHMAN against SANDY SMITH and the "Chicago Sun-Times." All present deplored the fact that Alderman [REDACTED] had given a deposition the previous day wherein he refused to answer questions concerning his association with Chicago hoodlums. As a result of this declination, SMITH wrote a front-page article "blasting

[REDACTED] " All present agreed that these tactics were "unfair."

[REDACTED] BRODKIN then made a telephone call and asked for [REDACTED]. It is noted that [REDACTED] of Cook County Circuit Judge CHARLES DOUGHERTY. It is noted that DOUGHERTY is the judge who heard the trial of HUMPHREYS and others in 1940 at which time HUMPHREYS was acquitted for extortion of the Bartenders Union in Chicago. HUMPHREYS informed BRODKIN that he and BRODKIN should take DOUGHERTY out for dinner some time and BRODKIN replied to this, "All you got to do is ask and I will contact DOUGHERTY." When BRODKIN telephonically reached [REDACTED], he asked questions concerning an appeal which has been filed concerning extraordinary remedies on the civil service system.

At 1:58 p.m., HUMPHREYS, KRUSE and BRODKIN left. It is not clear to the source that Chicago top hoodlum RALPH PIERCE ever appeared as he was expected to.

At 2:02 p.m., [REDACTED] of the Cook County State's Attorney's Office, called BRODKIN in response to an earlier call which BRODKIN had made for him. [REDACTED] and BRODKIN made plans to have breakfast together the next day.

It is noted that [REDACTED] has advised that [REDACTED]

BRODKIN then called his bookmaker, and made two bets on horse races for that day.

BRODKIN then mentioned that he continues to go to the "bath house every Sunday morning." It is noted that surveillances of the Chicago Office of BRODKIN on

CG 92-350 sub 11

Sunday mornings has indicated that he regularly visits a bath house on the west side of Chicago every Sunday morning.

(F)(7)(C)
BRODKIN then discussed with his secretary the recent arrest of an Associate Judge of the Cook County Circuit Court, named [REDACTED] BRODKIN deplored the fact that this had happened to a "nice guy." It is noted that [REDACTED] has been charged with involuntary manslaughter in connection with a brawl resulting in the death of his adversary. From the conversations of BRODKIN and [REDACTED] in this regard, it appeared that gamblers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] of Canada, are unfriendly with each other and although they are former associates, no longer can tolerate each other's presence. In this regard, BRODKIN advised that he had informed [REDACTED], "Hey, you know what I told him? I said that when the little guy comes out, I said, he ain't gonna like any of this stuff." BRODKIN's reference to the "little guy" is a reference to [REDACTED]

This reference to "CURLY" is a reference to Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS.

In mid-afternoon, BRODKIN was joined by Chicago hoodlum PAUL "RED" DORFMAN. Apparently DORFMAN had also attended the reception for RICCA's son at the Villa Venice on the previous evening and they compared notes concerning the reception. At 2:08 p.m., BRODKIN instructed his secretary to place a call to [REDACTED] in Montreal. It is noted that [REDACTED] is a Montreal gambler. Canada

At 2:10 p.m., BRODKIN made a telephone call and asked, "Is BUTTERCUP around?" "Is the grey-haired one there? Have BUTTERCUP call BRODKIN."

Following this telephone call, [REDACTED] asked for the identity of "BUTTERCUP." BRODKIN identified "BUTTERCUP" as being HY GODFREY.

BRODKIN then made another telephone call and asked for "BUTTERCUP," and when he could not reach him, he was told to call BRODKIN.

It is noted that [REDACTED] advised on the next morning, 9/29/64, that GODFREY informed Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS that BRODKIN wanted to meet with him that day. It is obvious, therefore, that the purpose of BRODKIN's telephonic contacts in an attempt to instruct GODFREY to so inform HUMPHREYS. It would appear that the reference to "the grey-haired one" is a reference to HUMPHREYS. It would also appear that these telephone calls were probably made to [REDACTED] who is a Chicago jewel fence and [REDACTED] at the corner of Grand and State Streets on the north side of Chicago, and to CELANO's Custom Tailors on North Michigan Street in Chicago. [REDACTED] furnished information concerning activities on 9/30/64.

At 11:16 a.m., BRODEIN made a telephone call in an attempt to locate "BUTTERCUP." He left word that "BUTTERCUP" should be told to call him. Immediately after he hung up he made another telephone call and asked to speak to or one of the boys." He asked that [REDACTED] have "BUTTERCUP" contact him. This reference to "BUTTERCUP" is obviously a reference to HY GODFREY, errand boy and chauffeur for practically all Chicago top hoodlums. The first call is believed to have been placed to [REDACTED] which is a message center for GODFREY. The second call was obviously to GELANO's Custom Tailors where he requested to speak to [REDACTED] one of the employees of [REDACTED] there. It is noted that later in the day BRODKIN indicated that he was trying to reach "the Camel," and that just before he left his office at 2:55 p.m. on 9/30/64, he asked his secretary if "the Camel has called back." He was informed that he had not. It is noted that BRODKIN has been attempting to reach Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS practically the entire week of 9/25/64 and that he apparently left Chicago en route to New York City on 10/1/64 without having consummated his meeting with HUMPHREYS.

At 11:18 a.m., BRODKIN asked his secretary for [REDACTED]'s number. He then made a telephone call to Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED] and commiserated with [REDACTED] over the fact that the son of [REDACTED], had been exposed that morning in the newspapers as being an Assistant State's Attorney at the Cook County State's Attorney's Office. The Bureau has previously been advised concerning this situation under the caption, "CRIMINAL INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM." It is noted that [REDACTED] is a prominent Chicago bookmaker and that political capital has been made of the fact that his son was an Assistant State's Attorney until he resigned 9/1/64.

The Bureau advised that over the week end of October 3 and 4, 1964, the Republican candidate for State's Attorney, JOHN BICKLEY, challenged DANIEL WARD, the incumbent State's Attorney who is running for re-election against BICKLEY, to make public the percentage of convictions which [REDACTED] obtained while he was in the gambling unit of the State's Attorney's Office. On October 5, 1964, the newspapers carried WARD's refusal to make public this information and BICKLEY used this declination on the part of WARD to good advantage in speeches on the evening of October 4, 1964.

At noon on September 30, 1964, the source advised that [REDACTED] chauffeur and errand boy for Chicago top hoodlums. It is noted that BRODKIN has been attempting to get in contact with Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS and that BRODKIN appeared with HUMPHREYS on the afternoon of October 6, 1964, when HUMPHREYS gave a deposition to attorneys for the "Chicago Sun-Times" in the libel case brought by WILLIAM FISHMAN against the "Chicago Sun-Times."

At 10:23 a.m., [REDACTED] arrived. It is noted that [REDACTED] had previously contacted BRODKIN telephonically and informed him that SA [REDACTED] of the Chicago FBI Office had contacted his office, and attempted to obtain an appointment with [REDACTED]. It is noted that [REDACTED] is a Certified Public Accountant who represents [REDACTED] in Chicago. It is noted that SA [REDACTED] is assigned the investigation entitled "EMBER BOOKS; PILLAR BOOKS; LEISURE BOOKS; EVENING READERS and REED ENTERPRISES, ITOM," BUfile [REDACTED] Chicago file [REDACTED] OO Houston.

At the outset, BRODKIN gave [REDACTED] specific instructions that the FBI has no right to receive any information concerning [REDACTED] without the issuance of a court order. BRODKIN explained in detail the difference between an FBI agent and a Treasury agent who produces a subpoena when he comes in an attempt to examine books of [REDACTED]. BRODKIN instructed [REDACTED] that he should assume a "patriotic air" and a "cooperative attitude," but that he should refer Agent [REDACTED] to his attorney, either [REDACTED] or MIKE BRODKIN. [REDACTED] explained that the present case emanates from a Houston investigation into an obscene book published by [REDACTED]. BRODKIN reiterated that [REDACTED] should be very polite and "not run off cocky." [REDACTED] also informed BRODKIN that SA [REDACTED] had contacted Chicago attorney [REDACTED] in this regard. He mentioned that [REDACTED] had worked on tax matters for him. It is noted that this contact was made by SA [REDACTED] inasmuch as checks had been made payable to [REDACTED].

BRODKIN also questioned whether [REDACTED] would be involved in this, and what he might do about it, but Source advised that during mid-morning on 10/6/64, BRODKIN conferred with Chicago gambler _____. It is noted that BRODKIN is representing _____ who was arrested on 9/29/64 in possession of baseball and football parley tickets. It is noted that information concerning this arrest has previously been submitted to the Bureau in one of the summaries in this matter.

_____ explained to BRODKIN that he was arrested by three officers of the Chicago Police Department who showed him a warrant, and they then took him to his car, which was parked on Chestnut Street east of Ashland in Chicago, and showed him a search warrant for the car. There, they found football parley cards and some sealed envelopes which contained stubs of parley cards and money. The following day, while _____ was at home taking a bath, the same officers appeared at his residence and showed him another warrant. They then searched his home and found $3,214 in cash and some football parley cards. However, [REDACTED] was able to swallow records of his customers while the police officers were in other rooms searching. When [REDACTED] advised BRODKIN that he had furnished a statement to the police officers, indicating that he was an employee of someone named [REDACTED] who he did not know, BRODKIN became very disturbed and on approximately a half dozen occasions, instructed him that he should not make any statement whatsoever and that he should advise arresting officers that he had been advised by his counsel never to answer questions except in the presence of his attorney.

At noon, Chicago hoodlum PAUL DORFMAN arrived. He apparently arrived pursuant to an appointment for lunch with BRODKIN, but BRODKIN advised him that he had just received a telephone call from Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS, and that HUMPHREYS wanted to see him immediately. [REDACTED] informed DORFMAN that he was to go to the Prudential Building for lunch with HUMPHREYS immediately. It is noted that [REDACTED] advised that on 10/6/64, HUMPHREYS had scheduled lunch with Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] at Stouffer's Restaurant which is located adjacent to the Prudential Building, with an entrance into the Prudential Building, on the far northwest side of Chicago's Loop.

Following the departure of HUMPHREYS, DORFMAN and former Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED] conversed. [REDACTED] advised that he has discussed moving his parole residence to Las Vegas, Nev., but that the parole authorities in Chicago and Las Vegas will have to agree to this, and that the arrangement will have to be approved in Washington. ||

At 1:31 p.m., BRODKIN returned to his office. He indicated that he intended to represent MURRAY HUMPHREYS at the deposition hearing later that afternoon. He advised that HUMPHREYS would take the Fifth Amendment and that he would enter a general motion to quash the subpoena, in that it is in the general form of a writ of assistance. It is noted that HUMPHREYS appeared to give a deposition in the case entitled WILLIAM FISHMAN vs SANDY SMITH and the "Chicago Sun-Times." It is noted that FISHMAN sued the "Sun-Times," and its reporter, SMITH, for an article which appeared several months ago in the "Sun-Times." The "Sun-Times" subpoenaed several Chicago public officials and top hoodlums to give depositions concerning their association with FISHMAN. HUMPHREYS was served on 10/5 and gave a deposition on the afternoon of 10/6/64.

BRODKIN left his office at 1:38 p.m., and returned at 3:47 p.m. He immediately made a phone call to Postl's Health Club and asked to talk to "the handsome boy." When informed that Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] was not there, BRODKIN requested that he be told that BRODKIN called.

BRODKIN then discussed the deposition given by HUMPHREYS with PAUL DORFMAN. He indicated that HUMPHREYS had been requested to furnish details concerning his association with numerous Chicago top hoodlums, public officials, labor leaders and politicians. BRODKIN advised that the situation was like a "Roman holiday." BRODKIN stated that "they figure they can embarrass him and get FISHMAN to withdraw the suit." DORFMAN indicated that "this is the most ridiculous thing in the world. FISHMAN is suing the American, and they're questioning HUMPHREYS as to who he knows." BRODKIN informed DORFMAN that they asked HUMPHREYS two or three times about his relationship with DORFMAN. BRODKIN indicated that HUMPHREYS informed him that he doesn't even know FISHMAN. BRODKIN commented that SANDY SMITH was at the table where the deposition hearing was held and he told BRODKIN, "I haven't seen you since MOONEY's daughter's wedding. It's the truth, the LaSalle Hotel, the last time I got a write-up." BRODKIN advised DORFMAN that HUMPHREYS was asked if he knows Congressman ANNUNZIO. HUMPHREYS replied, "Who the (obs) is that? I said that's a guy running for Congress. He didn't even know who it was. That's no kidding. Do you know [REDACTED] Do you know Alderman [REDACTED] Do you know [REDACTED] How much money did you get, or bring in to [REDACTED] from the strip joints on South State Street? They're trying to exert pressure on these guys to get FISHMAN to dismiss this suit."

It is noted that all the above are Democratic public officials in Chicago.

BRODKIN also advised that he had learned from HUMPHREYS that [REDACTED] was around trying to serve Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] at "different places like Mike Fish's. PIERCE was in yesterday and they gave him a blast this morning in the Sun-Times."

BRODKIN also informed DORFMAN that one of the lawyers had mentioned [REDACTED] and wondered whether there would be a subpoena out for [REDACTED] DORFMAN suggested it might be a good idea for FISHMAN's attorney to go out and "get a bunch of depositions and he can ask them about their social life and switching wives and all their drinking parties and all that that's going on."

DORFMAN then asked BRODKIN concerning the status of HUMPHREYS with his former wife, and BRODKIN informed DORFMAN that HUMPHREYS' former wife now resides in Florida, and that HUMPHREYS is "better friends with her now than before he divorced her. She is cheap and I wonder why HUMP didn't kick the (obs) out of her."

was sentenced to the penitentiary in late 1954. Recently he has been released from the penitentiary and is now incarcerated in a State Prison in Georgia for murder. [REDACTED] and his wife requested that BRODKIN make a trip to the penitentiary in Georgia to visit [REDACTED] and to gently break the news to him that [REDACTED] has married [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] felt that [REDACTED] may have already gained this information from other sources, and he wanted to insure that there would be no hard feelings between him and [REDACTED] over [REDACTED]. BRODKIN indicated that his business was pressing at the present time, but sometime in the immediate future he would make every effort to travel to Georgia to visit [REDACTED]. Both [REDACTED] and BRODKIN agreed that BRODKIN, due to his long relationship with [REDACTED] and the confidence [REDACTED] has in him, would be the ideal man to accomplish this mission.

[REDACTED] then mentioned the fact that a [REDACTED] [REDACTED] This is a reference to SA [REDACTED] of the Chicago Office, who has an investigative interest in [REDACTED] due to the fact that [REDACTED] belongs to the Cicero "juice" operation which SA [REDACTED] is investigatively responsible for. BRODKIN wondered whether [REDACTED] suspected [REDACTED] as being a "bank heist guy" but [REDACTED] commented that this was not the case [REDACTED]. BRODKIN and [REDACTED] discussed the many cases in which [REDACTED] has testified for the prosecution when BRODKIN was an attorney. When [REDACTED] observed that [REDACTED] BRODKIN responded by saying, "He's an honest, hard-working Federal agent."

When the discussion of [REDACTED] and BRODKIN turned to Chicago hoodlum DE STEFANO, BRODKIN observed, "This guy is so nuts, he even believes he is a lawyer." This refers to the fact that SAM DE STEFANO at the present time is representing himself on charges of illegal voting in the Circuit Court of Cook County. BRODKIN indicated that DE STEFANO constantly attempts to meet with him but that BRODKIN puts him off because he says he is too busy, "I won't have anything to do with him. I remember the time he made a loan to some fellow that was no good and then he wanted to shake him. He came to [REDACTED] for help. We refused to help him because we said he failed to go through the proper channels. When the little guy was living, they had to come through him before coming to us, but when he died, the policy is now that either HUMPHY, [REDACTED] or MOONEY has to approve before they come to us. By this policy, we don't get involved in something that we shouldn't be in. We'll never get hurt this way." It would appear that in reference to the "little guy," BRODKIN intends to indicate now-deceased former hoodlum leader JAKE "GREASY THUMB" GUZIK. His references to the other three hoodlums are obviously to Chicago top hoodlums MURRAY HUMPHREYS, [REDACTED] and SAM GIANCANA. It would appear that before any member of organized crime is able to come to [REDACTED] or BRODKIN for help, they must first obtain permission to do so from the above three hoodlum leaders.

Following the departure of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and BRODKIN discussed the amount of money and the identity of political candidates whom they should make campaign contributions to. They decided to make campaign contributions of $200 to Circuit Court Judges [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and $100 to Circuit Court Judge candidates [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. They also mentioned that they should give a contribution to [REDACTED] who is running for a statewide office.

At 2:57 p.m., BRODKIN's secretary commented that "[REDACTED]" had not as yet called that day, and indicated surprise in this regard. This is obviously a reference to Chicago top hoodlum FELIX ALDERISIO.

At 2:58 p.m., Chicago top jewel thief [REDACTED] arrived, and carried on a brief, desultory conversation with BRODKIN before he left to enter [REDACTED] office and converse with [REDACTED]

BRODKIN's last order of business on 10/9/64 was to ask his secretary for the phone number of Judge [REDACTED] Circuit Court of Cook County, and ask her for an envelope and a card. He then made a phone call to Judge [REDACTED] and informed her (Judge [REDACTED] being a female) that he would be over in ten minutes. From the above conversation and from the fact that he asked his secretary for an envelope and a card, it appears obvious that BRODKIN intended to give Judge [REDACTED] her campaign contribution from the law firm of Bieber & Brodtkin.

[REDACTED] furnished information concerning activities on 10/7/64:

(b)(7)(C): (D)

At 11:56 a.m. on 10/7/64, an individual believed to be former Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED] arrived and conversed with MIKE BRODKIN. Apparently [REDACTED], some years ago, had a dispute with bookmakers in other cities in the United States. Apparently, [REDACTED] contacted Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] concerning this situation and also contacted BRODKIN concerning it. BRODKIN at this point in the conversation made the comment, "I took it up with MOONEY and MOONEY told me to tell Mr. [REDACTED] to keep his (obs) mouth shut. That's the decision was made by the board and that was the decision. And that's it, forget about it. Don't talk about it."

No information is available concerning the nature of [REDACTED] former problem, but it is noted that he is a Chicago bookmaker who has been involved in gambling in Canada and throughout the United States. He is one of the most prominent bookmakers in the country. It would be logical to assume that due to the fact that his business took him throughout the United States and Canada, he may have become involved in a situation which was taken before "the Commission". This may be the significance of the reference by BRODKIN to "the Board."

BRODKIN then discussed the fact that Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS had called him and requested that BRODKIN represent him in the deposition hearing given on the afternoon of 10/6/64 to attorneys for the "Chicago Sun-Times." It is noted that this information was the subject of my summary airtel on 10/2/64.

BRODKIN went into some detail concerning this situation with [REDACTED] but none of it is new and all of it was reported in my airtel of 10/2/64.

BRODKIN then informed [REDACTED] that he was contacted by Miami and Chicago top hoodlum DAVE YARAS "the other day. He says, I'm not as friendly with the guys as I used to be on account of you. Let me know in case of a meeting." It is noted that, as was set out in my summary last week, BRODKIN has had some sort of a dispute with YARAS because he asked YARAS for a favor which was granted but which YARAS demanded payment for.

BRODKIN then again discussed the deposition given by HUMPHREYS in the "Sun-Times" case and referred to the fact that HUMPHREYS was questioned concerning his relationship with Chicago hoodlum [REDACTED]. BRODKIN stated, "Between you and I, he said, [REDACTED] he don't even know him. [REDACTED] he couldn't afford to know. He's RALPH and the other guys, they run him."

This would appear to indicate that HUMPHREYS is not acquainted with [REDACTED] and that [REDACTED] works under Chicago top hoodlum RALPH PIERCE. It is noted that although this may be true, generally, [REDACTED] accompanied HUMPHREYS to Hot Springs, Arkansas, several years ago to bring PIERCE back to Chicago from Hot Springs after PIERCE suffered an accident while golfing in a golfing cart.

BRODKIN then mentioned to [REDACTED] that Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS wanted "to get into the [REDACTED] case. He wants to help [REDACTED] HUMPY doesn't owe any money, he just wants to help. When HUMPY goes, it'll be like the last of the Mohicans, the pattern will have left." BRODKIN then mentioned that he informed HUMPHREYS that he would like to be adopted by HUMPHREYS so that he would be heir to HUMPHREYS' fortune "when he left." BRODKIN then indicated that HUMPHREYS replied to this, "It could happen, any night."

It would appear that HUMPHREYS volunteered some assistance to [REDACTED] who is presently being tried in New York City for conspiracy to bribe officials of the New York State Authority in connection with the granting of a liquor license to the Playboy Club in New York.

Late in the afternoon, Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO arrived. ALDERISIO conversed concerning his "being stopped" by a captain of the Chicago Police Department. He was unhappy with this situation and apparently he let this police captain know it. BRODKIN informed ALDERISIO that "I've got [REDACTED] if you should want him." It is noted that [REDACTED] is a Chicago attorney formerly connected with the American Civil Liberties Union and an expert in civil liberties law.

When ALDERISIO left, he indicated that he was going to Postl's Health Club. It is noted that in one of my recent summaries, mention was made that ALDERISIO no longer frequents Postl's, and that he now frequents the Duncan YMCA. Apparently this information is not quite factual in that ALDERISIO appears to frequent both Postl's and the Duncan YMCA.

EXTREME CAUTION SHOULD BE EXERCISED IN THE USE OF THIS INFORMATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE BODY OF A REPORT EVEN THOUGH PARAPHRASED. EXTREME CAUTION SHOULD BE EXERCISED IN THE USE OF THIS INFORMATION. IT SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE BODY OF A REPORT EVEN THOUGH PARAPHRASED. IT SHOULD NOT BE USED IN LEAD COVERAGE OR AS THE BASIS FOR AN INTERVIEW UNLESS SPECIFIC CLEARANCE IS OBTAINED FROM THE BUREAU AND FROM CHICAGO. THIS IS AN EXTREMELY DELICATE AND SENSITIVE SOURCE WHICH THE CHICAGO OFFICE IS MAKING EVERY EFFORT TO FULLY PROTECT.

[REDACTED] furnished information concerning activities on 10/16/64.

At 12:57 PM Chicago top hoodlum, MURRAY HUMPHREYS entered. The first thing he did was make a telephone call to an unidentified individual in an attempt to learn of the place of employment of the daughter of [REDACTED]. It is noted that [REDACTED] is a close associate of HUMPHREYS who operates the Superior Laundry and Linen Supply Company in Chicago and who has a hidden interest in the Cart Restaurant in Chicago. As the Bureau has been previously advised [REDACTED] is attempting to sell his interest in the Cart and Chicago Attorney MIKE BRODKIN and former Chicago bookmakers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are interested in investigating in this situation. HUMPHREYS determined that [REDACTED] daughter, [REDACTED] works at the [REDACTED]. He made a telephone call there but was unable to reach her at that time.

HUMPHREYS then advised BRODKIN that he had obtained the transcript of his testimony when he gave a deposition in the FISHMAN versus the "Chicago Sun-Times" case, but he left it with the receptionist at MIKE FISH's Restaurant and that he will get it so that BRODKIN can have it photostated for future reference. In this regard HUMPHREYS later mentioned that immediately after he furnished this deposition he was in contact with SAM GIANCANA, Chicago hoodlum leader, and informed GIANCANA of the nature of the questions put to him in this deposition hearing. He advised GIANCANA also that SANDY SMITH, Chicago "Sun-Times" reporter, was also attempting to subpoena [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], along with many others to question them concerning many items not pertinent to the FISHMAN case. HUMPHREYS indicated that the questions asked of him were "real hot" and that it was his recommendation to GIANCANA that FISHMAN drop his suit in order to preclude further depositions from Chicago hoodlums and their associates. HUMPHREYS then commented that FISHMAN then dropped his suit. At no time did HUMPHREYS actually say that GIANCANA instructed FISHMAN to drop the suit, but this certainly was the implication. From HUMPHREYS' comments, it appears obvious that the FISHMAN suit was dropped due to the fact that Chicago hoodlums did not desire further embarrassment for themselves and for their associates.

BRODKIN then mentioned his high regard for Cook County Circuit Judge [REDACTED] and then commented that he was aware that HUMPHREYS does not share this high opinion of [REDACTED]. HUMPHREYS mentioned that [REDACTED] prosecuted him one time. BRODKIN stated that [REDACTED] would do anything for [REDACTED]. It is noted that [REDACTED] is the [REDACTED] at the Criminal Courts Building at 26th and California in Chicago. [REDACTED] is [REDACTED]. It is noted that [REDACTED] was the judge who presided over the trial of HUMPHREYS when HUMPHREYS was tried for extortion of the Bartenders Union in Chicago in 1940. (b)(7)(d)

At 1:13 PM former Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED] arrived and mentioned to HUMPHREYS that [REDACTED] the one from Indianapolis, contacted him the other day and sent his greetings to HUMPHREYS. It is noted that [REDACTED] was tried and convicted with [REDACTED] in the nationwide gambling operation they operated in Terre Haute, Indiana several years ago.

HUMPHREYS then asked the advice of BRODKIN concerning whether an individual who is not a resident of Florida could act as the executor or administrator of an estate which is filed in the state of ^{Florida} California. He then informed BRODKIN that he has reference to the fact that his former wife, BETTY JEAN NEIBERT, HUMPHREYS, has him listed "this way but I don't know whether this can be done or not. [REDACTED] told me that he does not believe that this can be done and I want to make sure because I don't want a void will". It would definitely appear that the reference to [REDACTED] is to [REDACTED] Chicago Attorney. BRODKIN informed HUMPHREYS that he would check on this and later in the day he informed HUMPHREYS that he is not legally qualified to be an executor of the will of BETTY JEAN NEIBERT due to the fact that he is not a legal resident of Florida. It is noted that [REDACTED] advised several months ago that HUMPHREYS had suggested to BETTY JEAN NEIBERT HUMPHREYS that he be listed in her will as the executor.

BRODKIN then informed HUMPHREYS that he desired that HUMPHREYS talk to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who are both interested in the purchase of the Cart Restaurant, but HUMPHREYS informed BRODKIN that he does not feel that he wants to talk to them about this because he is not involved and that he has fulfilled whatever interest he might have had in it by informing BRODKIN of the opportunity, and now that it is up to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to talk to [REDACTED]. BRODKIN persisted however, and stated he wanted [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to talk to HUMPHREYS so that they would have a complete idea of this situation. It is noted that this source has previously advised that BRODKIN desires that HUMPHREYS be involved in this so that "you will never have any trouble". HUMPHREYS then informed BRODKIN that [REDACTED] came to him and told him about his offer to sell the restaurant and that he wants $200,000 for his end. He advised that [REDACTED] told him that he has been "taking $100,000 in a year".

At this point, [REDACTED] arrived and HUMPHREYS briefly conversed with them concerning this situation. He mentioned that one [REDACTED], who apparently is the manager and who apparently does all the work, gets $500 per week, but that he does not want to purchase an interest, this has been offered to him already. HUMPHREYS then advised that [REDACTED] "is scared sick about the money he is making and wants to get out. If you take it you should run it as it is now being run, don't change a thing. [REDACTED] is afraid of Internal Revenue because of the money he is making." From this reference it appears obvious that [REDACTED] feels that he may be susceptible to a successful prosecution by the Internal Revenue Service, apparently because he is not claiming the full amount of money he is making on the investment which he has at the Cart Restaurant.

HUMPHREYS mentioned that he has informed [REDACTED] that "MIKE and the others are interested and that I would like to see them in that restaurant". However, he cautioned that [REDACTED] is a stubborn man. BRODKIN assured HUMPHREYS that he can handle [REDACTED].

At 1:25 BRODKIN received a telephone call and then agreed to meet with the caller in the Vienna Shop of the Bismarck Hotel. He then informed HUMPHREYS that [REDACTED] wanted to meet him and HUMPHREYS asked when [REDACTED] is to go before

Grand Jury. It is noted that Chicago hoodlum [REDACTED] has been subpoenaed before the Grand Jury to furnish testimony concerning his interest in the Sahara Inn North. It is noted that the Sahara Inn was owned by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] under circumstances showing fraudulent dealings. The [REDACTED] FEDERAL GRAND JURY is currently investigating this situation, ON INCOME TAX EVASION CHARGES AGAINST [REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS then made reference to [REDACTED] and commented "he's really a goof, he's nuttier than (interrupted)". BRODKIN indicated that he agreed with the opinion of HUMPHREYS regarding [REDACTED] and added "if he ever gets his back to the wall when they get him before the Grand Jury he'll holler his head off. You watch and see". BRODKIN commented that [REDACTED] is one of those individuals who "likes the game, but don't like the name, and they can't take it." BRODKIN then brought [REDACTED] HUMPHREYS up to date concerning the trial of [REDACTED] in New York including his advise to [REDACTED] about taking the 5th Amendment before the Grand Jury, refusing to take the proposition of [REDACTED], concerning the fact that [REDACTED] has been brought back from England by the prosecution to testify, concerning the false statement made by [REDACTED] and concerning his praise of New York Attorney [REDACTED]. It is noted that all of this information has previously been the subject of my daily summaries.

As BRODKIN left to meet with [REDACTED] HUMPHREYS informed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to meet with [REDACTED] and make the deal. BRODKIN asked HUMPHREYS if he was going to be around the next week and HUMPHREYS informed him that he may go to "the Springs next week. RALPH and LES are going to be down there." HUMPHREYS invited [REDACTED] to go along with him but [REDACTED] did not feel that he could obtain the approval of his parole board in this regard. HUMPHREYS commented that he would only stay in Hot Springs about 10 days. He and [REDACTED] then compared notes concerning their "rehabilitation" following their release from prison. HUMPHREYS indicated that he was "a little punchy when I first got out".

At 2:07 PM BRODKIN returned and made a telephone call to [REDACTED] of the Continental Hotel in Chicago to make reservations for some people who were coming in from out of town. BRODKIN then mentioned that [REDACTED] "pal is in my office, as chipper as ever. The gray haired man". BRODKIN then put HUMPHREYS on the phone and he conversed with [REDACTED]. It is noted that [REDACTED] formerly was [REDACTED] which was used by HUMPHREYS as a meeting place several years ago. [REDACTED] of the Continental Hotel, on the near north side of Chicago.

At 2:14 PM HUMPHREYS completed his call to [REDACTED] the daughter of [REDACTED] whom he called "Junior". HUMPHREYS requested that [REDACTED] tell her father that BRODKIN is anxious to see him.

At 2:15 PM HUMPHREYS departed.

A few minutes later BRODKIN received a telephone call and mentioned that "he just left this office a minute ago". When he hung up he informed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that the call was in reference to the suit filed by HUMPHREYS against the Chicago Police Department on 10/16/64. This suit was filed for HUMPHREYS by BERNARD MC DONNELL. BRODKIN then informed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] of the attempt of the Chicago Police Department to enter HUMPHREYS' apartment several weeks ago at 2:20 in the morning. BRODKIN mentioned the names of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] as being the people sued by HUMPHREYS. BRODKIN said that "they went up there to install a mike. They thought that HUMPH was away". BRODKIN's reference to the above names are obviously to Chicago Police Department Superintendent O. W. WILSON. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. The Bureau is conversive with all details concerning this situation.

As the Bureau is aware, Chicago major hoodlum leaders LOUIS "LITTLE NEW YORK" CAMPAGNA, CHARLES "CHERRY NOSE" SIOE, PHILIP D'ANDREA, PAUL "THE WATER SKE" LUCIA and JOHN ROSELLI were co-defendants in an anti-racketeering prosecution brought in the Southern District of New York, charged with having extorted from various motion picture producers a sum upward of $1,000,000. These hoodlums were convicted and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment on Dec. 31, 1943. They were all released on parole on Aug. 13, 1947, after having served just slightly over the minimum sentence received for this conviction. After the conviction of these hoodlums, there were still pending indictments against these individuals in the Southern District of New York. [REDACTED] a Dallas, Tex., attorney, was engaged by a mysterious "MIKE RYAN" to obtain dismissal of these indictments pending in New York against the parolees in order that the indictments would not be a block to their paroles. [REDACTED] testified later before the grand jury in Chicago as well as before a Congressional committee investigating the paroles that he was engaged by "MIKE RYAN" and further testified that for his legal services in connection with the dismissal of the indictments, this "MIKE RYAN" paid him $15,000. $1,000 was supposedly paid in Chicago in 1946 and the balance of the $15,000, or $14,000, was paid in New York on May 6, 1947, at which time the indictments were dismissed. [REDACTED] testified that he was unable to furnish any information concerning the identity of "MIKE RYAN" and testified that he did have a Chicago telephone number for "RYAN" but that it was in his pocketbook, which was taken from his person by a pickpocket, and that he was therefore unable to furnish any information concerning the identity or location of "MIKE RYAN".

Extensive investigation was conducted by Bureau Field Offices all over the country in an attempt to identify "MIKE RYAN." Insofar as the Chicago Office is aware at this time, the identity of "MIKE RYAN" was never established. However, information was developed that [REDACTED] along with other individuals from Dallas, Texas, who were allegedly involved in obtaining the early paroles of the Chicago hoodlum leaders, came to Chicago and met with MURRAY HUMPHREYS in the Stevens Hotel (now the Conrad Hilton) and in the Edgewater Beach Hotel. This was in 1947. Insofar as the Chicago Office is able to ascertain at this time, no verification of the involvement of MURRAY HUMPHREYS or of his meeting with the above individuals in Chicago, has ever been obtained.

(H)(7)(C): (D)

On Oct. 16, 1964, [REDACTED] advised that on the early afternoon of that date, MURRAY HUMPHREYS conversed with former Chicago bookmakers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] has just been released from the Federal Penitentiary in Terre Haute, Ind., and information has been received indicating that he was paroled early due to the influence of U.S. Congressman ROLAND V. LIBONATI. In discussing the fact that [REDACTED] is on parole at the present time, the following conversation between the above three individuals took place:

(The attention of the Dallas Office and the Bureau is invited to the fact that the following conversation is very spotty in that most of it was not received by the source. It so happens that a unique situation exists with regard to the reception from this source. When the weather is mild, the windows in the office [REDACTED] are always open, and the elevated trains which run just outside the windows cause considerable difficulty insofar as reception is concerned. However, when the day is either extremely hot or extremely cold, these windows are closed so that the air-conditioning can be effective, and the reception of this source is very effective. On October 16, 1964, the weather was mild, with the result that the windows were open throughout the entire conversation reported hereinbelow).

HUMPHREYS: You fought for this parole. You never gave up. You were beefin' all the time you were in there. And you thought everybody could do it, too, that was your mistake. (Elevated train interferes for next minute).

When all these guys (inaudible comment) ... I said you name your price (inaudible comment) not an (obs) nickel, and I spent a lot of money on that case. That's because with my experience I can tell you to watch out, you know (inaudible comment) ... parole (inaudible comment) ... and I met that (obs) in the hotel. I called him on the phone first and I said, Listen, you missed the one guy, the parole board always turned him down (inaudible comment) ...

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

(H)(7)(C)

[REDACTED]
(cont'd):

HUMPHREYS:

[REDACTED]

(Appears to say "I worked like hell on that")
...(inaudible comment) ... I never expected that and I looked at him and I said, "You can." He said, "Yeah." I said, "You wanna go to work, go ahead." And he says, "Yeah, I'll go to work. ...(inaudible comment) And I wouldn't believe him. And that's why I got ahold of him and I give him a hard time, you see. And I said, "Well, that's good enough for me." ...(inaudible comments)... and they came in here right away. No more than the next morning. ...(inaudible comments) and then when the investigation started they were screaming, all kinds of trouble. He wouldn't have moved anyhow, he was too big a guy. And they had everybody in. One guy they got, they got him bad. But they didn't really get him. They thought they had him real good. We had to have this one case removed, to get ahold of CLARK. And then they had the charge knocked out.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS:

[REDACTED]

Yeah. When that was taken off, that gave me the chance. And that was where I was afraid they were gonna catch somebody, because there were about eight or nine people there on that, the different departments that we had to go through, you know. One department to another, and they had to go before the Judge and dismiss it.

[REDACTED]

HUMPHREYS: CLARK. That's when .. after that he became a mean (obs) ! Before that he was a hundred per cent! A HUNDRED PER CENT! You know? When that happened, you couldn't get through nothing. He was through, he quit. You couldn't get a favor off of him. Nothing. When that happened, that was all. You see he did this as a favor. He didn't do this on his own. He did it because the guy who went to him was an ex-law partner and then the scandal broke! (obs)!

[REDACTED]
HUMPHREYS: They all did.

[REDACTED]
HUMPHREYS: Who, CLARK?

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] (Charlie Ford - now dead)
HUMPHREYS: FORD, yeah.

Yeah, but it wasn't him. The guy I had was [REDACTED] Dallas.

[REDACTED]
HUMPHREYS: We went down to see him with ...ah ... what was the name of that fight promoter in Philadelphia? Years and years ago? He's pretty old now, I met him in Washington a couple of years ago. He was pretty sick then. He was a fight promoter. Well, that's the guy that had him. He took CHARLIE over to the Board of Health. But [REDACTED] was the guy.

(b)(7)(c)

HUMPHREYS: I only used him to get the case taken off. I had the other guys, but I had to have the case taken off.

[REDACTED]
HUMPHREYS: He has to be old, now.

[REDACTED]
HUMPHREYS: You know, his name never came out in any way.

[REDACTED]
HUMPHREYS: I went into Dallas years ago. (Thirty seconds of inaudible comments) ... and this [REDACTED] looked into the office and he just looked out at this lawyer and started to laugh, you see, because by now the investigation was all over with and no one ever got, the minute he saw, he just flew out of the office because he didn't want to be seen, but he started to laugh. Oh, [REDACTED] was his name. [REDACTED] He was a hell of a guy. They were dyed-in-the-wool guys. Dyed-in-the-wool.

Following this, there was approximately one minute of inaudible comments, and then no further references to the above situation.

It would appear obvious that HUMPHREYS' conversation relates to his efforts to obtain the paroles for the Chicago hoodlum leaders identified above.

It would also appear possible that "MIKE RYAN" is identical with MURRAY HUMPHREYS. It also appears that THOMAS CLARK, the Attorney General in 1947, formerly practiced law with a Dallas attorney named [REDACTED] and that HUMPHREYS was able to obtain favorable treatment in having the other indictment against the hoodlum leaders removed by CLARK after CLARK was contacted in this regard by [REDACTED]

b.c.
Texas

U.S.

5/1/50

The Dallas Office is requested to identify [REDACTED]. It is noted that HUMPHREYS comments that [REDACTED] name "never came out in any way." A perusal of the files of the Chicago Office in regard to this situation does not reflect that [REDACTED] was ever identified in this investigation.

The reference to the "fight promoter from Philadelphia" possibly is a reference to [REDACTED] ^{Po} The Philadelphia Office is requested to comment concerning this identification and to advise in the event any information is known connecting [REDACTED] with [REDACTED] or anyone else figuring in this investigation.

The mention of [REDACTED] is obviously a reference to [REDACTED] St. Louis attorney who was ^{mo} frequently mentioned during the investigation of the bribery, parole matter investigation.

Although HUMPHREYS comments concerning the situation wherein he went into Dallas, apparently years after the investigation was concluded, "would appear to indicate that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were in the same law office on the occasion of HUMPHREYS' visit, but that when one saw the other, one of these individuals immediately left because he did not want to be involved with the other.

It would appear that the situation described above by HUMPHREYS and his contacts with [REDACTED] obviously concern only the attempts by HUMPHREYS to have the other indictment against the parolees removed. Apparently [REDACTED] and CLARK were involved in this situation but [REDACTED] was not. Apparently HUMPHREYS makes no effort to tell the entire story of the paroles, it being noted that HUMPHREYS makes no mention of any fix which he made with the parole board or with anyone else to obtain the parole itself. It would therefore appear very possible that HUMPHREYS was also in contact with [REDACTED] to expedite this phase of the parole.

It is also noted that HUMPHREYS at no time makes any mention of [REDACTED]. The Dallas Office is requested to advise whether [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were ever connected in the practice of law.

The reference to "FORD" is a reference to the Wash., D.C., attorney by that name. It does not appear that he was utilized in any fashion by HUMPHREYS in connection with the parole of the Chicago hoodlum leaders.

The reference to "CHARLIE" is very possibly a reference to CHARLES "CHERRY NOSE" GIOE. However, this reference is not susceptible to interpretation by the Chicago Office.

It would appear that THOMAS CLARK provided favorable treatment to the hoodlum element prior to the investigation of the bribery case involving this situation. However, after that case he apparently refused to be involved in such actions. CLARK, is now, of course, a Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

It is noted that HUMPHREYS' involvement in the above situation is consistent with his functions to act as the "mastermind" of strategy utilized by Chicago area hoodlums when confronted with prosecution of any type.

with a subpoena, they wanted a record of every time you and I went into our various boxes, a subpoena duces tecum." After considerable conversation, BRODKIN indicated that [REDACTED] should get ahold of [REDACTED] and that he would immediately go to the American National Bank to obtain all circumstances of this situation. It is noted that there is a [REDACTED] who is assigned to IRS. It would appear that IRS is investigating a situation involving [REDACTED] and BRODKIN. It may not necessarily involve the income taxes of [REDACTED] and BRODKIN, but may refer to a client of theirs. Obviously it would appear that the safety deposit boxes of [REDACTED] and BRODKIN in the American National Bank are the subject of the subpoena duces tecum.

Following BRODKIN's return from the American National Bank, he conferred with [REDACTED] in [REDACTED] office and the source was not privy to this conversation.

Indiana
III
At 2:29 p.m. on 10/13/64, former Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED] arrived, and carried on a lengthy conversation. It appeared that several nights ago, BRODKIN was approached by [REDACTED] at Pete Fish's Restaurant on the near north side. [REDACTED] a close associate of MURRAY HUMPHREYS, and a former partner of HUMPHREYS in the Superior Laundry & Linen Supply Company, apparently has a financial interest in the Cart Restaurant. His approach to BRODKIN was for the purpose of obtaining a buyer for the Cart Restaurant, it being noted that BEN ORLOFF, [REDACTED] partner in the Cart, recently died of a heart attack. BRODKIN indicated that he has already talked to HUMPHREYS concerning this situation because "the first okay got to come from HUMP." The exact significance of this remark is not known to the Chicago Office because the Chicago Office does not know that HUMPHREYS has any financial interest in the Cart. However, it is possible that he shares an interest with [REDACTED] in any financial investment made by [REDACTED]. He is known to be a close associate of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] has admitted this on interview. It is also noted that the Cart Restaurant was a prime meeting place of HUMPHREYS until the death of ORLOFF.

[REDACTED] indicated that he likewise is aware of the intention of [REDACTED] to sell his interest in the Cart

Restaurant, and that he has already discussed purchasing this interest in partnership with his close associate, former Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED]

BRODKIN commented to [REDACTED] "We'll give CURLEY an honorary interest in there. A little piece comes off each guy and then you know you ain't going to have no trouble." [REDACTED] agreed with this. Since "CURLEY" is a common nickname for HUMPHREYS, it would appear that in order to forestall any problems with labor and other interests, BRODKIN suggested that HUMPHREYS receive income from the proceeds of the Cart Restaurant following the purchase.

It is noted that from the conversation of BRODKIN, it appeared that he also intends to make a financial investment in the Cart Restaurant. It would appear from the conversation that the present manager of the Cart would be given a financial interest in order that he would conscientiously do his job and that BRODKIN, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] would make the investment.

At 2:32 p.m., [REDACTED] called his associate attorney, [REDACTED] into his office. He instructed [REDACTED] to contact "your man in the courts," in order to determine if there are any paternity suits filed against [REDACTED]

BRODKIN instructed that this be handled immediately. From subsequent conversations, it appears that what BRODKIN has in mind refers to a "Bunny girl" who may presently be employed in the Playboy Club in New York City, but in any event, who is expected to provide testimony against [REDACTED] in the conspiracy to commit bribery case against [REDACTED] currently pending in New York City.

It would appear that [REDACTED] served as a reference for this girl when she applied for naturalization and falsified his statement by saying that he has known her all his life, whereas in fact he has only known her since she became employed by the Playboy Club. Apparently, BRODKIN also suspects that [REDACTED] is the father of her illegitimate child.

[redacted] and [redacted] are presently engaged in some sort of dispute and that [redacted] and [redacted] who were born and reared together, apparently are siding against [redacted]. Apparently this dispute has been going on for sometime inasmuch as it is known that Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS traveled to Canada to settle a dispute between Canadian gamblers in the fall of 1963. [redacted] indicated that he has obtained tentative approval from his parole officer in Chicago to travel to Canada, and that he expects sometime in the foreseeable future to go to Canada to talk to the above three bookmakers. It is noted that [redacted] several years ago, was involved with the above three individuals in an international bookmaking operation in Canada. Canada

At 2:55 p.m., former Chicago bookmaker [redacted] arrived, and BRODKIN informed him that he had met MURRAY HUMPHREYS the previous day and HUMPHREYS instructed BRODKIN to get ahold of [redacted] and [redacted] inasmuch as [redacted] who owns a major portion of the Cart Restaurant, although "operating in the background," wanted to sell his share of the Cart Restaurant. BRODKIN informed [redacted] that [redacted] wants $200,000 for the joint and "he said the joint makes $100,000 a year and he needs a lot of cash. He's the silent partner. How much of a piece he's got, I don't know. I think it's a natural for a guy like you."

BRODKIN suggested that what might be a good idea would be for [redacted] who is virtually retired, to spend time in the operation of the restaurant, but that [redacted] (ph) who apparently is the current manager of the restaurant, should be kept on as a partner. BRODKIN suggested that maybe [redacted] would like to invest some money, perhaps $20,000, in the operation of the restaurant. [redacted] appeared to be interested in this situation.

BRODKIN then suggested, "What you do there, is take a little point off of each guy that invested in there, and give it to like HUMPHREYS, like a pension, or to whoever he designates."

██████████ raised the problem as to whether he would have enough money to be able to ██████████ "an investment in this, but then felt that he has ██████████" Apparently ██████████ is the owner of some property which has enough income so that he would be able to make this investment without being in jeopardy of a net worth suit by IRS.

At 3:05 p.m., ██████████ interrupted the above conference and informed BRODKIN that Chicago top hoodlum ██████████ called "██████████" to MIKE BRODKIN.

At 3:12 p.m., an individual who identified himself as being ██████████ (ph) arrived and informed BRODKIN that ██████████, a close associate of Chicago top hoodlum PHIL ALDERISIO, mentioned to ██████████ that ██████████ and BRODKIN might be able to locate someone who could ██████████ "██████████" BRODKIN informed ██████████ that he does not want anything to do with this and that ██████████ should not "(obs) around with it." ██████████ indicated that the jewels had not yet been stolen, but "██████████" BRODKIN emphatically reiterated that he wants nothing to do with this situation and that ██████████ should be sure to tell ██████████ this. ██████████ left at this point.

At 3:41 p.m., BRODKIN made a telephone call to Postl's Health Club and asked for "the good looking guy." When Chicago top hoodlum ██████████ came to the phone, BRODKIN requested him, "If you see the young man, tell him to get to me tomorrow. Leave word." Obviously what BRODKIN was requesting of ██████████ was to reach out for Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS and request HUMPHREYS to contact BRODKIN.

At this point, BRODKIN made his above telephone call to ██████████ at telephone number ██████████ in New York City. In addition to the conversation above reported, BRODKIN informed ██████████ that he would not be in New York City until the following week since New York attorney ██████████ does not think it is necessary until then.

BRODKIN then made a telephone call to New York

(b)(7)(C)

This installation is located in the office of Chicago racket attorneys Mike Brodtkin and [REDACTED] who are notorious for representing top level Chicago racketeers in both marginally legal ventures and outright illegal enterprises. This office is regularly frequented by top level Chicago hoodlums including Humphreys, Phil Alderisio, [REDACTED] Ralph Pierce, Ross Frio, and others. This source has been in a position to cover discussions between these individuals concerning their regular gambling activities, shylocking ventures, shakedown activities, and payoffs to Chicago police and political officials. During the recently authorized period, in addition to the above-type information, this source furnished considerable data regarding the circumstances surrounding the early parole of former Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED] including the involvement of U. S. Representative Roland V. Libonati in this situation. Source divulged that Humphreys plans to obtain an interest in the Cart Restaurant in Chicago, which is a regular hoodlum hangout. Source has also furnished considerable information regarding the corruption of [REDACTED] Northern District of Illinois. This data indicates that [REDACTED] has furnished favorable treatment for Chicago top racket figures upon the request of Attorney Brodtkin, probably ever since [REDACTED] was an Assistant State's Attorney in Cook County in the late 1930's. During this period the above source has also furnished valuable information concerning the current trial of [REDACTED] in New York City for conspiracy to bribe New York State Liquor Authority officials. This situation involves payoffs approaching $100,000 for the granting of the license to New York's Playboy Club.

This source has regularly provided top level intelligence data regarding the activities of Chicago's leading hoodlum element, which data has been unavailable through other means and it is recommended that the source be continued for an additional 3-month period.

Since the last submission of an FD-143, this source on several occasions has furnished information concerning the corruption of [REDACTED] Northern District of Illinois. This source has furnished information indicating that [REDACTED] has furnished favorable treatment for Chicago top hoodlums upon the request of MIKE BRODKIN ever since he was an Assistant State's Attorney of Cook County in the late 1930's.

The source has also furnished several pieces of information concerning the current trial of [REDACTED] in New York City for conspiracy to bribe New York State Liquor Authority officials.

Source has furnished considerable information concerning the identity of the contacts of [REDACTED] and BRODKIN among public officials and members of the judiciary in the State of Illinois.

Source has furnished considerable information concerning the circumstances surrounding the early parole of former Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED] and the involvement of Congressman ROLAND V. LIBONATI in this situation.

Source has furnished information concerning the current plans of HUMPHREYS to be involved in "honorary interest in the Cart Restaurant in Chicago." HUMPHREYS has conversed with BRODKIN in the presence of the source on three or four occasions during the past three months.

Several Chicago top hoodlums have conversed in the presence of the source during the past three months. These include HUMPHREYS, [REDACTED] HY GODFREY, ROSS PRIO, ALDERISIO, and several of their close hoodlum associates. Also included is RALPH PIERCE, along with LESLIE KRUSE, Chicago hoodlums. Considerable information concerning the background and current activities of these hoodlums has thereby been obtained.

██████████ furnished information concerning activities on 10/28/64:

This source advised that at 1:45 p.m., on the above date, Chicago attorney MIKE BRODKIN was contacted by former Chicago bookmakers ██████████ and ██████████. They again discussed the prospects of the three of them purchasing the Cart Restaurant, Wabash and Harrison Streets, Chicago, Illinois. It is noted that this is one of the best restaurants in Chicago. It is also noted that this situation has been discussed four or five times and that ██████████ obviously has a hidden financial interest in this situation and that following the death of the individual who also was financially interested, BEN ORLOFF, ██████████ has now decided to sell his interest.

"[REDACTED] may have mentioned at this point that PHILLY is a close friend of [REDACTED], an apparent reference to Chicago bookmaker [REDACTED], the brother of [REDACTED]. BRODKIN indicated that he would leave the entire matter up to [REDACTED] for whomever he desires to select as employees at the Cart Restaurant.

[REDACTED] indicated that he had a problem because [REDACTED]. This apparently is a reference to Chicago and Miami top hoodlum DAVE YARAS. It is noted that [REDACTED] in particular, but apparently [REDACTED] also, have operated in the past under the aegis of YARAS and Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED], on the far north side of Chicago. Obviously, [REDACTED] is concerned that inasmuch as he has been under the control of [REDACTED] may not approve his investment in the Cart Restaurant. BRODKIN, however, alleviated the fears of [REDACTED] in this regard, and stated, "[REDACTED]". This obviously is a reference to Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS. It is noted that HUMPHREYS has previously been consulted by BRODKIN, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] concerning this situation in the presence of [REDACTED], and has indicated his approval.

BRODKIN then mentioned that "HUMPHREYS okayed the place for [REDACTED] when he went in there."

[REDACTED] then wanted to know whether [REDACTED]. This obviously is a reference to [REDACTED] on the northwest side of Chicago and who previously had been a partner of ORLOFF in restaurants and strip joints in Chicago. BRODKIN informed [REDACTED] that he had previously informed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that as long as HUMPHREYS okayed the entire situation, [REDACTED] is out." BRODKIN indicated in this regard, however, "but if you guys go in there, you'll have to give up a little something. Because [REDACTED] (Chicago top hoodlum) already said to me, HUMPHREYS told me what you're doing and he said I'll leave all that to you. He says, you know, Judge, you don't make a move unless you get an okay from me. I says fine. I said the people I got, I said, there's no mystery about it. I said the little guy (a reference to [REDACTED] is trying to get a little in so that he'll have a little income and [REDACTED] is one of the main fellows in there. I said whatever is done will be done with your consent and the consent of everybody."

BRODKIN then advised, "I said to HUMP, HUMPY said to me, look, I'm old already, you know what I mean, he says, [REDACTED] will represent my interest in there, too. I said that's good enough for me. So I know if it's done, it'll be done the right way."

[REDACTED] later reiterated instructions previously given to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that "I don't want you to say nothing to [REDACTED] about it. He'll blabber it all over the (obs) town. Later on, when it happens, fine." This is obviously a reference to BRODKIN's law partner, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] then wondered whether or not it would be possible that [REDACTED] would set up a front and have this sold to him, who in turn, he could sell it to us." BRODKIN felt that [REDACTED] would not "want to get involved in this because of the tax implications." BRODKIN then advised that he had told [REDACTED] yesterday that he wanted a statement from the auditor concerning the operation of the business, and that he wanted a copy of the balance sheet. He advised that he would then take the balance sheet and the auditor's statement to HUMPHREYS and then ask HUMPHREYS whether, based on the information contained therein, this is a "good deal or not."

The reference to [REDACTED] is a reference to someone not known to the Chicago Office. It is possible that this is a reference to [REDACTED] a Chicago attorney who is known to be close to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is a brother of Federal Judge [REDACTED]

BRODKIN then questioned whether [REDACTED] might be interested in investing money in the Cart Restaurant. [REDACTED] stated that he did not know. BRODKIN indicated that he recently had an argument with YARAS, as previously reported by this source, but that he does not believe he will have any difficulties with YARAS. He mentioned that sometime ago he gave YARAS $15,000 in cash and BRODKIN's [REDACTED] gave YARAS a $15,000 check drawn on the [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] so that YARAS could use the $30,000 "so he could show, to buy that thing down in Florida." This would appear to refer to the interest of YARAS, through his son, in the [REDACTED]

BRODKIN then asked [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who else might be involved in this deal with an investment. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were not heard to answer this question directly. BRODKIN then stated that this matter should be taken very seriously and that the matter should be thoroughly investigated before anyone put any money in this situation. He mentioned that the restaurant was originally leased for 13 years, two years have now passed, and there are 11 years remaining on the lease.

On several occasions, BRODKIN cautioned [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] not to mention this situation to anyone.

BRODKIN then informed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that the only reason that they have been asked into this situation was because HUMPHREYS liked [REDACTED] and wanted to do something for him now that he is out of the Federal penitentiary. BRODKIN then told of his high regard for HUMPHREYS, and how HUMPHREYS recently asked him on an hour's notice to represent him in a hearing, and that when they were through, HUMPHREYS wanted to pay him $300 for his hour's work. BRODKIN instead informed HUMPHREYS that he would never take any money from HUMPHREYS when it was a personal matter. "I told HUMP that if it was something from one of the members of your organization, then I would ask you how much to charge, but if it's for you, yourself, I would never take anything from you." HUMPHREYS then told BRODKIN, according to BRODKIN, that if BRODKIN should need any money for his investment in the Cart Restaurant, HUMPHREYS would lend it to him. BRODKIN stated that [REDACTED] always kids BRODKIN about "taking advantage of CURLY (HUMPHREYS) but that I never take advantage of HUMPHREYS or [REDACTED] or anybody else, and I never have and I never will. I told them that I would take a fall for you (obscenes) and I would take it without saying a word to anyone and I've been close a couple of times."

BRODKIN stated that HUMPHREYS has always told him to "protect yourself and (obs) these guys and this is what MOONEY (GIANCANA) tells me, too." BRODKIN later told [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] "We've got to be very honest with these guys, and make sure that we never try to put anything past them." "And you, [REDACTED] should particularly be honest with HUMP because HUMP is your friend. When you needed help I went to HUMP, because he was the guy that could salve it, and he did." This may be a reference to the fact that U.S. Congressman ROLAND V. LIBONATI was apparently instrumental in obtaining an early parole for [REDACTED]. This was possibly after having been contacted by HUMPHREYS, who is known to have great influence with Congressman LIBONATI.

BRODKIN then advised [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that HUMPHREYS has presented another proposition to BRODKIN. BRODKIN stated that HUMPHREYS was close to the man who owned the Thunderbird Motel, "in Florida, on Collins Avenue". This individual has now died and the ownership of the motel is in the middle of a family dispute on "who should get what. HUMPY believes that he can make a deal with these people for the motel in case anyone here would want to go into it. "

In regard to the great affection which BRODKIN holds for HUMPHREYS, BRODKIN then advised that he was going to tell [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] something which he has told to no one else except [REDACTED]. He advised that several years ago, his daughter became pregnant and ran away and got married. Both BRODKIN and his wife were horror-stricken and extremely upset about this situation. "One day HUMP came in and he saw me and he said what's the matter. And I told him what had happened, and he told me to accept the situation, receive the kid just like everything was all right, and have a real good wedding party for them. However, I was having a lot of trouble with my wife about this, and he went and talked to my wife, he and his wife, and my wife and I, and we talked about this, and we decided to do what HUMPY said. So they came back to Chicago and they went through the Jewish ceremony and we had a reception and I don't know how much it cost me, because I had so much whisky. And then HUMPY, he took the guy aside, and he said if you don't treat this girl the way this girl deserves to be treated, I'll follow you and if it's the last thing I do, I'll kill you. And then he gave me a G-note and he told me, don't stick this in your pocket, this is for the kids. And when the baby was born he gave them $500."

BRODKIN then came back to his problem with DAVE YARAS. He stated, "When DAVE's kid came here and went into the laundry business. I got the kid accounts and so did [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] get some accounts. I'm not really mad at him. You know that whole Terre Haute deal was bad. You lost money, went to jail and made 1600 enemies." Obviously BRODKIN refers to the fact that a son of DAVE YARAS is involved in the operation of the [REDACTED] in Chicago. He also refers, of course, to the fact that [REDACTED] was convicted after having been arrested while operating a nation-wide gambling operation in Terre Haute, Indiana.

been indicted for perjury, whereas [REDACTED] has not been indicted for perjury, since he took the Fifth Amendment before the grand jury. BRODKIN pats himself on the back practically every day for furnishing this advice to [REDACTED]

At several points during his conversation, BRODKIN talks about how he is conversing with a man named [REDACTED] an individual whom he has been in contact with in New York regarding this case. No information is available to the Chicago Office concerning the identity of this man named [REDACTED]. However, BRODKIN talks of him in deference as if he were someone important.

New York is requested to identify [REDACTED] if possible.

BRODKIN also mentioned that he wanted to sit in on the trial in the courthouse, but [REDACTED] refused to grant him permission to do so because "you gave that assistant a hard time in Chicago when they tried to take [REDACTED] back. They wanted to take him back under lock and key. I stopped that. He went by himself." BRODKIN mentioned also, "Oh, another thing, this (obs) [REDACTED] when he got finished testifying, the D.A. got up and said he had been threatened in Chicago. You know that's another (obs) lie. I was with HUMP yesterday. I told HUMP, and he said that (obs) (obs). I ate lunch with HUMP yesterday. The old, old story, how do you get put in the soup? Somebody talks." Obviously BRODKIN's reference to "HUMP" is to Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS, who BRODKIN previously has mentioned has volunteered his services in behalf of [REDACTED] should such services be needed.

BRODKIN, in talking about the judge involved in this case, [REDACTED] mentioned that the judge is a "real weak, weak (obs) like most Jewish judges."

Concerning the above conversation, it is noted that [REDACTED] advised that on October 23, 1964, the day previous to the above conversation, BRODKIN had a PHILLY (Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO) would do to him, don't you?" At this point BRODKIN used an obscene phrase in describing what ALDERISIO would do to [REDACTED] if he was aware that [REDACTED] was attempting to purchase stolen jewelry.

Following this, [REDACTED] and BRODKIN discussed the progress of the attempts of the three to purchase the Cart Restaurant, Wabash and Harrison Streets, Chicago. [REDACTED] has been investigating the financial situation in regard to this restaurant and he reported on the progress of this investigation to BRODKIN. [REDACTED] mentioned that the total asking price would be in the area of $200,000 and that he is pickering with the owners in the area of $150,000, plus whatever the inventory would be at the time of the sale. [REDACTED] mentioned that [REDACTED]."

From information obtained on November 13, 1964, from [REDACTED] it appeared during a conversation between Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS and [REDACTED] one of the principals in the Cart Restaurant, that the above reference to [REDACTED] is a reference to Chicago attorney [REDACTED] the brother of [REDACTED]

Apparently [REDACTED] acting in his capacity as an attorney for [REDACTED] and others in the Cart Restaurant, is dealing with [REDACTED] in the contemplated purchase by [REDACTED] of this business. It is noted that there does not appear to be any irregularities on the part of [REDACTED] in this situation. [REDACTED] mentioned that he intends to have the liquor license and food license put in his name should the purchase go through. [REDACTED] appears to continue in his intention to devote full time to the operation of this restaurant should [REDACTED] and BRODKIN make the purchase.

For the information of the Miami Office, Chicago hoodlums have for some time been of the opinion that they could thwart Federal investigation by involving the Bureau or other Federal law enforcement officers as defendants in law suits. Murray Humphreys himself, as a result of an attempted entry of his apartment by local police some time ago, expressed a desire to involve the Bureau as behind-the-scenes participants in this activity for the purpose of involving the Bureau in a law suit.

It appears that Humphreys is extending his desires to the situation of [REDACTED] arrest in Miami, Florida. Miami should follow this matter closely and advise the circumstances attendant to [REDACTED] recent arrest. Keep the Bureau advised of all developments.

When he was escorted to the Intelligence Unit for questioning, he informed [REDACTED] that "this is a lot of con, former Sheriff KELLY would never do this to me, he was a liberal." HUMPHREYS was extremely upset concerning this arrest and called it a "push-around." He threatened the Dade County Sheriff's Office with legal action.

MC DONNELL, has alleged that police officers ROBERT SCHREIBER and MATT RODRIGUEZ went to HUMPHREYS' apartment in Marina City with a building employee after telling the employee that they were investigating an anonymous phone call that HUMPHREYS had suffered a heart attack. MC DONNELL claims that the employee opened HUMPHREYS' door with a pass key when HUMPHREYS failed to respond to a telephone call and to a knock on the door. However, a night latch stopped complete opening of the door, and HUMPHREYS then appeared and prevented further entry. VII. DEPOSITION GIVEN BY HUMPHREYS
IN LIBEL SUIT BROUGHT BY WILLIAM FISHMAN AGAINST THE
"CHICAGO SUN-TIMES" AND THEIR REPORTER, SANDY SMITH

It is a matter of public knowledge that WILLIAM FISHMAN, owner of the Crossroads, a strip-joint located at 400 South State Street, Chicago, Illinois, brought a libel suit against the "Chicago Sun-Times," and its reporter, SANDY SMITH, due to the fact that SMITH, in an article in the "Sun-Times," in early 1964, identified FISHMAN as being an associate of hoodlums.

On October 5, 1964, MURRAY HUMPHREYS accepted a subpoena served on him by SMITH personally. He appeared the next day, October 6, 1964, in the offices of the attorneys for the "Chicago Sun-Times," at 72 West Adams Street, at a deposition hearing.

In connection with this deposition, SMITH wrote the following article which appeared on page 3 of the October 7, 1964, edition of the "Chicago Sun-Times," under the caption, "HUMPHREYS Takes Fifth 63 Times, Then Concedes Accuracy of Data." This article is quoted below in its entirety:

"The crime syndicate's fixer, MURRAY (CURLY) HUMPHREYS, ducked behind the Fifth Amendment 63 times Tuesday. Then, astoundingly, the 65-year-old HUMPHREYS lowered his constitutional shield against self-incrimination.

"He chuckled and admitted that his questioners had accurate information about his role in the mob.

"For fear that he might incriminate himself, HUMPHREYS had refused to answer questions about politicians and honky-tonks in the 1st Ward. Nor would he, for the same reason, talk about his insurance deals, the murder of a government witness against him, or his journeys to Washington to chat with Congressmen.

"But when the interrogation was concluded, HUMPHREYS conceded, with a grin, that the questions had hit home. As he put it, his activities in the Cosa Nostra syndicate had been 'bird-dogged pretty well.'

"APPEARS AT HEARING

"HUMPHREYS appeared at a deposition hearing in the libel suit filed against the Sun-Times by a 1st Ward honky-tonk operator, WILLIAM FISHMAN.

"A subpoena was served on HUMPHREYS as he emerged from his Marina City apartment Monday.

"At that time, he was talkative, disdaining the title of fixer. Instead, he likened himself to a 'politician.' Of course, he said then, he would have to invoke the Fifth Amendment when he testified because:

"'If a fish doesn't open his mouth, he won't get hooked.'

"HUMPHREYS followed his keep-off-the-hook script most of the time Tuesday during his deposition in the offices of Isham, Lincoln & Beale at 72 W. Adams, counsel for The Sun-Times.

"INCRIMINATION POSSIBLE

"He claimed he might incriminate himself if he even spoke his own name -- MURRAY LLEWELYN HUMPHREYS.

"He said it might incriminate him to testify about FISHMAN and his honky-tonk or to disclose whether he and FISHMAN held stock in an oil company.

"Even his opinion of the reputation of FISHMAN's B-girl joint, the Crossroads, at 400 S.

State, might be self-incriminating, HUMPHREYS said.

"HUMPHREYS used the Fifth Amendment to fend off questions about a currency-exchange workers union run by a syndicate gambler, William McGuire, from an office in the 400 S. State Building. McGuire rents the office from FISHMAN.

"D'ARCO, MARCY CITED

"HUMPHREYS said that he would risk self-incrimination if he talked about the 1st Ward Democratic committeeman, JOHN D'ARCO, or PAT MARCY, secretary of the 1st Ward Democratic Organization.

"During the hearing, HUMPHREYS lawyer, MICHAEL BRODKIN, complained that the gangster was being 'harassed and embarrassed' by the interrogation.

"In Circuit Court, meanwhile, FISHMAN's lawyers raised the same issue of embarrassment in an effort to halt the questioning of politicians, mobsters and other witnesses by attorneys for The Sun-Times.

"Judge NICHOLAS J. BUA refused, however, to stop the deposition hearings.

"21 QUESTIONED

"Attorneys for The Sun-Times have questioned 21 witnesses, including politicians, gangsters, and B-girls at the Crossroads. Twenty-seven other witnesses are scheduled to testify.

"Among them are D'ARCO, MARCY and the Chicago Cosa Nostra boss, MOMO SALVATORE (MOE) GIANCANA.

"The deposition interrogations were protested in court by SIDNEY Z. KARASIK, an attorney for FISHMAN.

"KARASIK contended -- as did HUMPHREYS' lawyer, BRODKIN -- that some witnesses were 'annoyed, embarrassed and harassed' when they were subpoenaed to testify under oath.

"Such mobsters as HUMPHREYS and PAT MANNO (once FISHMAN's partner in an oil venture) were 'persons of great notoriety and ill repute,' KARASIK asserted.

"The gansters' depositions, KARASIK claimed, would result in publicity 'prejudicial' to FISHMAN, whose Crossroads liquor license was revoked on prostitution charges.

"ROBERT F. HANLEY, Isham, Lincoln and Beale attorney, told the court, 'If he (FISHMAN) is embarrassed, we are delighted. And we say wait until the trial (of the case) for some real embarrassment.

"This case has nasty issues. The plaintiff (FISHMAN) brought the case. If he can't stand the heat, he ought to get out of the kitchen. This case is about hoodlums ... (and) about the connections between syndicate crime, politicians and policemen.'

"By the motion to stop the depositions, HANLEY argued, FISHMAN's lawyers were attempting to 'cut out of this lawsuit ... 1st Ward politicians.'

"That might be accomplished, HANLEY said, if FISHMAN's attorneys would stipulate that 'protection by politicians' kept honky-tonks running in the 1st Ward.

"Rejecting that proposal, KARASIK said, 'Let's not get comical about this.'"

_____ furnished information concerning activities on 11/16/64:

This source advised that at 1:44 p.m. on 11/16/64, Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS arrived to converse with Chicago attorney MIKE BRODKIN. He informed BRODKIN that he was very interested in the fact that Chicago top hoodlum _____ had recently been arrested in the Miami, Florida, area in a private golf club where apparently gambling was going on.

HUMPHREYS advised that although there were many other people there, including "the Senator," and "NEEDLES,"

██████████ was the only person arrested. The reference to "the Senator" is a reference to a person unknown to the Chicago Office, whereas the reference to "NEEDLES" is apparently a reference to Chicago hoodlum LEONARD "NEEDLES" GIANOLA.

HUMPHREYS advised that ██████████ initially resisted the arrest by the Sheriff's Office, and protested as to why he was the only person being arrested whereas there were other people involved also. HUMPHREYS advised he has learned that the Sheriff indicated to ██████████ that he was being arrested because the "G" insisted on it.

HUMPHREYS advised that Miami attorney ██████████ a former associate of BIEBER & BRODKIN in Chicago, was representing ██████████ in Miami and he instructed BRODKIN to telephonically contact ██████████ with the following instructions:

"What I want you to do is to get him to have a court reporter in there and to get the Sheriff's men there mad at the 'G' who had ██████████ pinched. You understand? Because if we can get three or four cases like that, we might be able to catch one of these 'G' guys. So what I wanna do is to try to get these 'G' guys, like HILL, who had it done, you understand? If I can catch him on one or two or three cases, maybe I'll bring up some kind of a private suit on him personally. You understand? It was him who did this. He's the 'G' guy that was transferred down there from here. It was the same way with me, they had me pinched there. You understand? I want to catch two or three of these guys. If we can build up a case, if we can get enough people. But I want him to have a court reporter in there and make them talk. "

At 1:46 p.m., BRODKIN placed a telephone call to the office of ██████████ and learned that ██████████ was then in Federal Court in Miami. He instructed ██████████ secretary that this was a very important matter and that she should immediately contact ██████████ and tell him that it was very important that he immediately contact BRODKIN at Central 6-0550 in Chicago. He instructed

(b)(7)(c)

While waiting for [REDACTED] to contact BRODKIN, HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN again discussed the situation and HUMPHREYS reiterated his instructions to BRODKIN. HUMPHREYS advised BRODKIN that when he was informed about this case, he asked, "Did you guys go in and try to make a record of this case, and he said no, and I said, well, you guys are not doing right. Because the 'G' is just going and going and going and we've got to stop them somehow."

At 1:52 p.m., BRODKIN received a telephone call from [REDACTED]. He asked him whether he had [REDACTED] matter," and asked when the case had been put over to. When informed that the case had been continued until Tuesday, November 23, he asked HUMPHREYS whether he wanted to talk to [REDACTED] personally. HUMPHREYS then took the phone and advised [REDACTED] "Listen. This is a friend of a friend of yours. Listen, [REDACTED] when you go in on that case, have a court reporter with you. Now listen to me. Try to make those guys, so you get it on the record, that they were told by the 'G' to do this, and especially by HILL. You know what I mean. So try to make a good record with them on it. All right?"

BRODKIN then took the phone again at this point and asked [REDACTED] whether he was clear as to the instructions just given him. He then informed [REDACTED] that "this fellow expects you to show some collusion between, cooperation between, this other authority and local authority."

As BRODKIN concluded his conversation with [REDACTED], he asked HUMPHREYS whether there were any other instructions and HUMPHREYS informed BRODKIN, "No, just go all out." BRODKIN thereupon relayed the instructions to "go all the way, now," to [REDACTED].

Obviously this situation concerns the recent arrest by the Dade County Sheriff's Office in the Miami area of Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED]. From a perusal of the conversation here, it does not appear that the Dade County Sheriff or any of his men actually informed [REDACTED] that he was being arrested on the instructions of the FBI, and at no time did it appear that the name of Special Agent RALPH R. HILL, formerly assigned to the Chicago Office and now assigned to the Miami Office, was ever given by the Sheriff's Office to [REDACTED]. It would rather appear that HUMPHREYS, who is well acquainted with SA HILL, both from Chicago and in Miami, suspects that SA HILL is the person responsible for the arrest of [REDACTED]. At no time did he give any basis for his suspicions in this regard and it does not appear that he has any particular facts to support his conclusion in this regard.

The Miami Office may desire to confer with those representatives of the Dade County Sheriff's Office who might be expected to testify on November 23 in this matter to make certain that they are prepared for any questions which might be calculated to obtain false information concerning the relationship which exists between the Miami Office and the Dade County Sheriff's Office, particularly as that relationship concerns the arrest of [REDACTED].

The Miami Office is cautioned, however, not to make any contact which would in any way jeopardize this source.

During the latter part of this conversation, former Chicago bookmakers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] arrived. They obviously were there according to arrangements previously made by HUMPHREYS with BRODKIN, it being noted that on November 13, 1964, [REDACTED], a very close associate of HUMPHREYS who is a partner in the Cart Restaurant in Chicago, contacted HUMPHREYS in the presence of another source, and discussed with him his concern that the negotiations for the purchase of the Cart Restaurant by BRODKIN, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were proceeding too slowly. HUMPHREYS informed [REDACTED], BRODKIN and [REDACTED] that he had conferred with [REDACTED] and that [REDACTED] had inquired as to whether or not these individuals were still interested in purchasing the Cart Restaurant. HUMPHREYS advised that if these people are not interested, [REDACTED] has other interested parties to deal with. HUMPHREYS advised the other three that this business is owned by three people in equal partnership, but that Chicago attorney [REDACTED] represents 100 per cent because he is the attorney for all three individuals. [REDACTED] would prefer that he be paid for his portion by check so that he can show everything on the record. HUMPHREYS also advised that [REDACTED] apparently wants everything on the up and up so that the record can properly reflect this transaction with a minimum of difficulty insofar as the Federal Government is concerned. HUMPHREYS indicated that one of the partners in this establishment is the widow of the recently deceased BEN ORLOFF and that because of this, the proceedings will have to be recorded properly for probate purposes. HUMPHREYS then advised that he can guarantee this business made $10,000 during the past month and that "everything shows on paper now, before that, I don't know, maybe not, but as of now, everything on paper is right." [REDACTED] advised that his investigation has determined that the net earnings in the past 28 weeks of the Cart was $30,000.

HUMPHREYS cautioned [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] in particular to keep everything that is mentioned here in the strictest confidence of the group, and that "I never talked to anyone else about what I talked ... with somebody else, and this is what you guys should be sure you do." He then asked BRODKIN whether, "this office is in good shape?" BRODKIN replied, "It is, as far as I know." This appeared to satisfy HUMPHREYS.

HUMPHREYS then advised BRODKIN that he wanted BRODKIN to confer with [REDACTED] privately. BRODKIN indicated that he did not feel that he should do this since attorney [REDACTED] might "get mad at me." HUMPHREYS advised, however, that there was no problem in this respect, and that BRODKIN, as the attorney for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] should get together with [REDACTED] and close this deal as quickly as possible. HUMPHREYS advised that he wants only one person involved in negotiation and that he will remain in the background, giving them whatever advice he can.

(F)(7)(C)

At 2:07 p.m., [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] departed.

BRODKIN then exhibited a letter he apparently had recently received from another attorney concerning a case in Federal Court, possibly in another district. It appeared that HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN had previously talked concerning this matter and HUMPHREYS has requested BRODKIN to "inquire into the nature of this appeal so that he can be advised for whatever use he may be able to put this information in future situations.

HUMPHREYS indicated he might be interested in helping finance this appeal even though, apparently, it did not involve anyone in whom he was directly interested. He apparently pocketed the letter from the other attorney and advised BRODKIN that he would "take this matter up in a couple of days."

No information is available from the conversation which enables Chicago to determine what HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN discussed in this regard. However, it appears that someone has been convicted based on a charge which makes HUMPHREYS feel that if a successful appeal can be made to this conviction, it will establish a precedent which would be helpful to Chicago area hoodlums. It is possible, however, that HUMPHREYS and BRODKIN are discussing the conviction of [REDACTED] former Chicago nightclub owner, recently convicted in New York City due to his involvement in bribery of New York State Liquor Authority officials on behalf of the Playboy Club and the Tenement Club.

The reason for this interpretation is that HUMPHREYS, according to this source, has previously offered to lend financial assistance to [REDACTED]. Lending support to this conclusion is the fact that during the course of discussing this problem, BRODKIN mentioned that the attorney who sent the letter, "called and asked him to get ahold of his friends." This may refer to the fact that New York attorney [REDACTED], [REDACTED] attorney, requested that as many influential people in Chicago who could be so persuaded, should send letters to the Judge noted that [REDACTED] is a very close associate of YARAS. [REDACTED] also advised that he had discussed with YARAS whether or not to involve [REDACTED] the owner and license holder at the Black Angus Restaurant on the northwest side of Chicago, in the Cart Restaurant. However, YARAS was of the opinion that this should not be done because he did not believe that [REDACTED] should [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] mentioned that he had discussed with YARAS how he had become involved in this deal. He informed YARAS that HUMPHREYS gave the deal to BRODKIN, who gave it to [REDACTED], who in turn gave it to [REDACTED] for the follow-up. BRODKIN mentioned that he would fill [REDACTED] in on all the details of this purchase as soon as a decision is definitely reached.

BRODKIN then also advised that he would cut [REDACTED] in for $5,000 which would be half of BRODKIN's investment in the Cart Restaurant. He would do this "just to keep things on the up and up between me and [REDACTED]". BRODKIN mentioned that [REDACTED] frequently goes to Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] with deals without previously mentioning this to BRODKIN, with the result that BRODKIN becomes angry when [REDACTED] informs him of [REDACTED] plans.

[REDACTED] mentioned also that he had talked about his proposed investment in the Cart Restaurant with Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO [REDACTED] and he [REDACTED]

This would possibly pertain to an investment in Las Vegas which [REDACTED] has also been considering.

BRODKIN on this date discussed on several occasions the arrest by the Chicago Office of the FBI of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. On each occasion, the person to whom he was talking at the time agreed with him that these individuals are "no good"

BRODKIN then made a telephone call to Cook County Circuit Court Judge [REDACTED]. He used the name "Mr. MICHAEL" as being the person contacting Judge [REDACTED] and informed Judge [REDACTED] that he is "that friend of yours that was in your chambers the other day. Are you gonna be available today? All right, I'll run over right now. All right. Thank you."

At 2:46 p.m., Chicago top hoodlum FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO arrived. ALDERISIO informed BRODKIN that [REDACTED] and a close associate of ALDERISIO, had furnished him some information concerning an attorney. ALDERISIO requested that BRODKIN call [REDACTED] at [REDACTED], in Chicago, and determine the name of the other attorney mentioned to ALDERISIO. BRODKIN did as requested, and learned that the attorney [REDACTED] is interested in is named [REDACTED]. BRODKIN indicated that he knew him extremely well and that he is an Illinois bar examiner who is one of the best attorneys in the Chicago area. He used to be the secretary for the Chief Justice of the Illinois Supreme Court and a professor at Northwestern University. However, at no time did ALDERISIO, BRODKIN or [REDACTED] make any mention as to the nature of the interest of [REDACTED] in [REDACTED].

However, it could relate to information obtained from another highly confidential source when [REDACTED] mentioned that he was setting up a trust, and wanted a good attorney to handle this situation for him.

At 2:54 p.m., Chicago top hoodlum MURRAY HUMPHREYS arrived with his close associate, [REDACTED]. III. HUMPHREYS and ALDERISIO exchanged desultory conversation and HUMPHREYS jokingly stated that Chicago top hoodlum [REDACTED] told him that morning that HUMPHREYS was going to be "put on the farm" unless he quits becoming involved in things which don't directly concern him. They then discussed the fact that ALDERISIO had been acquitted in his ITAR-case in Miami, and discussed generally the situation involved in the Denver case against ALDERISIO.

BRODKIN, HUMPHREYS and ALDERISIO then discussed the fact that the trial of PAUL "RED" DORFMAN is now in its third day in San Francisco, and that the jury was picked on the first day.

HUMPHREYS then discussed the fact that he had intended to dine in a new restaurant located in the Blair Building in Chicago but that when he arrived, someone came to him and requested that he not eat there because "[REDACTED] has his office upstairs and you'll just bring heat on this place." HUMPHREYS and ALDERISIO were amused at this and ALDERISIO informed HUMPHREYS that the food in this new restaurant is "no good anyway." This obviously refers to the fact that ALDERISIO frequently meets in a private office located in the offices of the First Mortgage Company in the Blair Building on the near north side of Chicago. It is noted that the Chicago Office has established confidential coverage there.

HUMPHREYS then indicated that he has just begun to frequent the Ontario House located next door to Pete Fish's Restaurant on the near north side of Chicago. It is noted that another highly confidential source has previously furnished this information. HUMPHREYS met with [REDACTED] and PIERCE twice during the week of November 15, at the Ontario House.

HUMPHREYS also mentioned that [REDACTED] likes eating in the second floor above the cafeteria in the Allerton Hotel on the near north side of Chicago just north of "Jimmy Celano's."

At 3:00 p.m., ALDERISIO departed, and HUMPHREYS, [REDACTED] and BRODKIN then discussed the purchase by [REDACTED] BRODKIN and [REDACTED] of the Cart Restaurant from [REDACTED] and others. HUMPHREYS informed BRODKIN that he had brought [REDACTED] to BRODKIN's office to discuss this deal because he does not want to spend any more time on it and he feels that if [REDACTED] and BRODKIN can iron out the situation, it can be settled quickly and without problems. [REDACTED] informed BRODKIN that the purchase price is $200,000 plus an inventory worth $20,000 or so in food and whiskey and $20,000 in accounts receivable, which is
