ADMINISTRATIVE:

BARRETT was considered a suspect in the bombing of the Soviet Embassy, Washington, D. C., on February 21, 1968. Investigation determined he was in Jackson, Miss., during the pertinent periods, which eliminated him as a suspect.

BARRETT's whereabouts was ascertained during the pertinent period in the case of the assassination of Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., on April 4, 1968.

An organizational report concerning the American Victory Committee and/or the American Victory Force, which are synonymous, is not being prepared at this time by the Jackson office, inasmuch as the organization does not have a membership and to date is not incorporated in the State of Mississippi. Reliable sources state that BARRETT would like very much to have a large organization; however, he "can't seem to get it off the ground."

This matter will be followed closely by the Jackson office and in the event the organization begins to grow, an organizational report will be submitted under proper title.

JN 157-7106

Information copies of this report are being sent to offices listed, as BARRETT has been in the territories covered by those offices or has indicated plans to make speeches or attempt to organize a chapter of the American Victory Committee in those areas.

II. CONNECTION WITH KLAN OR HATE-TYPE ORGANIZATIONS:

JN T-1 on October 27, 1966, advised that RICHARD BARRETT, a white male, age 23, in the past few months, accompanied by [REDACTED] went to Natchez, Mississippi, and contacted [REDACTED]

The purpose of the contact was for BARRETT to ascertain if [REDACTED] knew the names of a couple of men in each county in Mississippi whom BARRETT could contact in an effort to have them join some type of hate group he was trying to form.

[REDACTED] told BARRETT he could not assist him in his request.

JN T-2 on August 23, 1966, advised that [REDACTED] is supposedly the leader of an unchartered secret United Klans of America, Incorporated (UKA), group in Jackson, Mississippi, which has about twelve members.

JN T-3 on October 30, 1966, advised that [REDACTED] attended a White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi (WKKKKOM) conservative meeting at Byram, Mississippi, on October 30, 1966.

JN T-4 on March 17, 1967, advised that [REDACTED] is a member of the Original Ku Klux Klan of America (OKA), the WKKKKOM, and the UKA.

JN T-5 on March 2, 1967, advised that [REDACTED] publicized a letter dated February 13, 1967, which stated he was resigning from the UKA, along with all the former State officers.

[REDACTED] (NA), Chief of Detectives, Jackson, Mississippi, Police Department, on May 22, 1967, advised that RICHARD BARRETT, along with approximately 68 other individuals, proceeded to parade on Capitol Street in Jackson, Mississippi, on May 21, 1967, the parade culminating at the War Memorial on North State Street in Jackson. The parade began at approximately 3:00 PM. During the parade individuals carried placards and signs reading, "Did 10,000 Americans die in vain in Vietnam?"; "Victory in Vietnam"; "Win the War Now"; "Deport Stinky Stokely"; "Bury Communism"; "Better Dead than Red"; and others of similar nature. Upon arrival at the War Memorial RICHARD BARRETT, along with several other individuals, made comments and short speeches.

The group then burned what they said was a Viet Cong flag and BARRETT made the statement, "We did something in Mississippi they couldn't do in New York; we burned the Viet Cong flag."

b7C

[redacted] stated that among the group were [redacted] [redacted] and their families.

[redacted] advised on August 29, 1966, that [redacted]
[redacted] had been a member of the Rankin County, Mississippi, unit of the UKA before the group returned to the WKKKKOM but that his present affiliations are unknown.

b6
b7C

[redacted] Administrative Assistant, Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol, Jackson, Mississippi, on July 30, 1967, advised that RICHARD BARRETT, along with five other individuals, arrived at the State Capitol grounds at approximately 2:15 PM on July 30, 1967, and requested permission to place a wreath at the foot of the statue of THEODORE BILBO. BARRETT was advised that the Capitol was closed on Sunday, at which time the group placed the wreath on the steps leading to the Capitol.
BARRETT then requested permission to read a proclamation, at which time this permission was denied. BARRETT advised that he was forming a group which is to be called the

b6
b7C

"American Victory Force," which will consist of a group of young, militant segregationists.

[redacted] stated BARRETT and his group wanted to parade on the Capitol grounds carrying a flag; however, BARRETT was advised that if he paraded, he and his group would be arrested. [redacted] stated that at this time BARRETT and his group left the Capitol grounds and remained on the sidewalk for approximately 35 minutes, after which time they departed. There were no incidents and no one was arrested.

On August 3, 1967, Sergeant [redacted] Detective Division, Raleigh, North Carolina, Police Department, advised that on June 20, 1967, he and Detective Sergeant [redacted] attended a meeting at the College Inn Motel, Raleigh, North Carolina, at which time RICHARD BARRETT was attempting to organize a parade in Raleigh which would show support for the war in Vietnam. [redacted] stated that persons at this meeting numbered seven and included a representative from the Citizens Council. A tentative date for the parade was set for August 13, 1967.

[redacted] stated that they had determined that apparently no additional arrangements were made for the scheduled parade and it would apparently not take place in Raleigh as originally planned because of rumors, not substantiated, that BARRETT was a member of the American Nazi Party whose aim was to create a disturbance between Negroes and whites.

[redacted] stated that BARRETT was apparently in the Raleigh area only for a short period of time and that his present whereabouts was not known.

A characterization of the American Nazi Party is set forth in the appendix of this report.

JN 157-7106

JN T-5 advised on August 8, 1967, that he is acquainted with RICHARD BARRETT and in recent contact with him determined that BARRETT is attempting to organize an organization entitled "American Victory Committee," with address of 171 Horseshoe Circle, Post Office Box 3372, Jackson, Mississippi. Source stated that BARRETT has set himself up as national chairman of this committee. Source stated he does not believe that BARRETT will get a foothold in his attempts to organize this organization, inasmuch as the general consensus of the people he comes in contact with is that he is a "nut."

An article appearing in the Meridian Star, July 31, 1967, Meridian, Mississippi, indicates that BARRETT plans to organize a new, militantly segregationist group called "America's Victory Force." BARRETT said the group's purpose would be "to promote Christianity and patriotism" and to further the unity and cooperation of white Americans." He said the "main flavor of our militancy will be in racial segregation -- we will promote, however, that the group's militant acts would be within all laws."

JN T-5 on August 2, 1967, advised that he has learned that BARRETT is attempting to get a new organization formed; however, he does not believe BARRETT will have any success, inasmuch as BARRETT cannot get along with anyone around him.

Captain [redacted] Jackson Police Department, advised on August 14, 1967, that during a poor-peoples march to the State Capitol, Jackson, on August 14, 1967, RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT approached the marchers alone, carrying a sign which read, "Fight Poverty -- Work." This sign was taken from BARRETT by unidentified Negroes and torn to pieces, after which BARRETT was immediately arrested by officers of the Jackson Police Department on a charge of disturbing the peace. BARRETT was removed from the scene without further incident.

b7C

JN 157-7106

JN T-6 advised on August 14, 1967, that RICHARD BARRETT of Jackson, Mississippi, held a "Victory in Vietnam" parade in Natchez, Mississippi, on the night of August 12, 1967. There were approximately 25 automobiles in the parade, two people in each car, making a total of approximately 50 people in the parade.

Source advised that this parade was not organized and it was considered to be a complete "flop." Source stated that he had observed several individuals participating in the parade whom he knows to be members of the Ku Klux Klan.

Chief of Detectives [REDACTED] (NA), Jackson Police Department, Jackson, Mississippi, on October 24, 1967, advised that RICHARD BARRETT had contacted him, advising him that he (BARRETT) would hold a demonstration at the State Capitol in Jackson, Mississippi, beginning at 3:45 PM on October 24, 1967. BARRETT stated that he was going to drag the United Nations flag around the Capitol and then burn it. Chief PIERCE stated that the City of Jackson has no authority to arrest BARRETT based on the burning of the United Nations flag, inasmuch as it is not a recognized sovereign nation.

b7C

RICHARD BARRETT, with [REDACTED] arrived at the State Capitol grounds at 4:00 PM on October 24, 1967. Both individuals, dragging a United Nations flag, walked on the sidewalk around the State Capitol. BARRETT and [REDACTED] then stepped on the United Nations flag and a Viet Cong flag, thereafter squirting lighter fluid on the two flags and setting them afire. As they walked around the Capitol they carried two signs entitled "Victory in Vietnam" and "U. S. over U. N."

JN 157-7106

At the conclusion of the flag burning BARRETT made the statement that "We have a future in the United States; the United Nations does not." He also stated, "Get the United Nations out of the United States and we will have victory in Vietnam."

b6

[redacted] is a white male, age 15, from Florence, Mississippi.

JN T-7 advised on October 25, 1967, that [redacted] is the son of [redacted] of Florence, Mississippi, who is known to have been a member of the UKA and is presently Acting Chairman of the Florence Citizens Council, a new group which will allegedly sponsor segregation of the races in Florence and will attempt to establish private segregated schools. Source further advised that [redacted] was extremely upset regarding his son's association with RICHARD BARRETT and stated he will not allow BARRETT to return to his residence or contact his son in the future.

b7C

JN T-8 advised on October 23, 1967, that RICHARD BARRETT just recently returned to Jackson, Mississippi, from a tour in North Carolina, where he allegedly made speeches in behalf of [redacted] for President. BARRETT allegedly made a little money on this speaking tour.

JN T-9 on December 3, 1967, furnished a copy of a handbill which was being distributed to selected individuals in the restaurant operated in Crystal Springs, Mississippi, by [redacted] Grand Dragon, WKKKKOM. The handbill read:

"Patriotic Christian Working People
Come to Crystal Springs...Anti-Communist, God and Country Rally. Hear Reverend [redacted]"

b6
b7C

JN 157-7106

Crystal Springs, [redacted] Richard Barrett, Jackson, Railroad Depot, 3 PM, Sunday, December 10."

b6
b7C

Prior to the time for the rally, FBI Agent [redacted] who resides in Crystal Springs, Mississippi, was in the business section of the town, when he was approached by RICHARD BARRETT, who introduced himself. Upon learning the name of the Agent, BARRETT said he had heard of him and that he did not want to talk to anyone who stood for what the Agent stands for.

JN T-10 advised that BARRETT's talk at the rally had to do with his service in Vietnam, integration in the Armed Forces, the murder of a white soldier because he did not want to sleep with a Negro, and the necessity of doing something to keep Negroes from taking over in the United States. BARRETT said that President JOHNSON, HUBERT HUMPHREY, MARTIN LUTHER KING, and the FBI are all in the same category and that he has no respect for any of them.

The above source stated that [redacted] who is an officer of the WKKKKOM and spoke at some length, devoted much of his time to criticism of the FBI. He said the FBI has deteriorated and that he has no respect for the organization. He said that if the FBI does not like a person, that person may find dynamite planted in his house and that if the FBI cannot win a conviction in a case, they will buy a conviction. He also said the FBI is now harassing widows.

b7C

JN T-2 advised on October 23, 1967, that BARRETT is considered a "nut" and one who is not trusted by any Klan organization.

JN T-11 advised on January 2, 1968, that RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT had presented a petition to the Mississippi Secretary of State on the morning of that date. He said the petition was signed by twelve individuals from Holmes County, Mississippi, and requested that Representative [redacted] Negro, State Representative-Elect, Holmes County, Mississippi, not be seated in the House of Representatives. The petition challenged [redacted] election to this position. Source advised that the Secretary of State advised BARRETT that this petition would not be accepted or acted upon, as seating in the Legislature can only be challenged by a member of the Legislature. The Secretary of State advised BARRETT that neither he nor the individuals who signed his petition were members of the Legislature.

JN 157-7106

b7C

JN T-2 advised on December 27, 1967, that subject attends meetings of the Americans for the Preservation of the White Race (APWR), which are held in and around the Jackson, Mississippi, area.

A characterization of the Americans for the Preservation of the White Race is set forth in the appendix of this report.

JN T-8 advised on January 4, 1968, that BARRETT attends meetings of the APWR in Jackson, Mississippi; however, he is not liked by the members and they will not let him join.

JN T-2 advised on February 7, 1968, that it had been voted at the APWR meeting on February 6, 1968, to expel RICHARD BARRETT from future APWR meetings, inasmuch as he could no longer be trusted. The source stated that it is felt that he is cooperating with the FBI. In addition BARRETT at each meeting makes a nuisance of himself and cannot keep his mouth shut.

JN T-12 advised on February 7, 1968, that BARRETT was heard to comment over the weekend that he had recently returned from Mobile, Alabama, where he had spent a week.

working for the National Organization for the Victory in Vietnam Committee, of which he is chairman. BARRETT also commented that he is an active campaign worker for GEORGE WALLACE for President; however, he does not get paid, nor has he had any instruction concerning his role.

JN T-2 advised on February 27, 1968, that BARRETT has been busy preparing for an eleven-state speaking tour. BARRETT stated that he plans to leave Jackson on March 3, 1968, on his speaking tour and will be going to Washington, D. C., at the conclusion of the tour. BARRETT did not indicate what states were involved in the speaking tour.

He was promptly advised that he did not have to make a statement, that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law, and that he had the right to talk to an attorney or anyone else before saying anything at all. He advised orally as follows:

He is a member of the Board of Governors for the American Victory Force (AVF). He is unaware of the activities of RICHARD BARRETT, who is President or Commander of this organization, nor is he fully aware of the aims and purposes of the organization except that all the members are dedicated to fighting Communism, preserving the white race, and striving against mongrelization of the races.

He recalls being at the residence of RICHARD A. BARRETT, 171 Horseshoe Circle at 7:30 P.M. on February 14, 1968. He had been called by BARRETT and asked to appear at that time for a meeting of the Board of Governors. He continued that only he and BARRETT attended and that the conversation dealt mainly with the fact BARRETT was having considerable difficulty preparing important organizational papers.

On February 21, 1968, he was to again appear at the weekly meeting of the AVF, however, was unable to do so and instead called BARRETT at his residence and excused himself from attending.

He has no information nor can he speculate on what BARRETT might have done between February 14, and February 21, 1968. He believes it is entirely possible

A Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT place a wreath and small placard beside the entrance to the Washington Monument, Washington, D. C., at 2:30 PM on March 9, 1968. He also was observed to pin a Purple-Heart medal on the placard, which read as follows:

"Tribute to our brave soldiers-May Washington's will to win be reborn for victory in Vietnam."

The wreath and placard were removed by BARRETT within ten minutes. No speech or announcement was made by BARRETT, who departed the area shortly thereafter.

BARRETT, interviewed under suitable pretext, identified himself as the speaker for America's Victory Force, from Jackson, Mississippi. He advised that he is twenty-five years of age and is a twice-wounded veteran of Vietnam. He stated that his purpose for laying a wreath, placard, and Purple-Heart medal at the Washington Monument was to "call on Americans to appreciate the sufferings of our soldiers in Vietnam and to support our boys by calling for prompt victory in Vietnam. So that our sons have not sacrificed in vain."

BARRETT related that his future plans for a speaking tour are not formulated or definite at this time; however, he stated that he planned to apply by letter to the local police authorities in Washington, D. C., for a permit to allow him to demonstrate at the Washington Monument on April 22, 1968.

BARRETT indicated that he had previously been interviewed in New York City by [redacted] on "The Big Lie" program. He stated that within the next week or ten days he planned to be in New York City for a second interview on "The Big Lie" program.

JN 157-7106

JN T-5 advised on July 24, 1967, that he is acquainted with BARRETT and stated that BARRETT is not a member of any Klan group and, in his opinion, will never be accepted into the Klan, inasmuch as the Klansmen consider BARRETT to be a "complete nut" who cannot be trusted. Source stated that those individuals having come into contact with BARRETT describe him as an individual who cannot keep his mouth shut and that they will not trust him with any information.

The above source advised on January 15, 1968, that to his knowledge BARRETT is still not accepted by the Klan, and he does not feel that BARRETT will ever become a member of the Klan in Mississippi.

In his book, This Time The World, copyrighted in 1961, George Lincoln Rockwell identified himself as Commander, American Nazi Party of the World Union of Free Enterprise National Socialists (ANP - WUFENS), Arlington, Virginia.

The April 4, 1963, issue of The Richmond News Leader, a Richmond, Virginia, daily newspaper, reported that George Lincoln Rockwell had on the previous day again applied for the American Nazi Party to be chartered in the State of Virginia, but this request was turned down by the Virginia State Corporation Commission. This action was taken pursuant to an act of the 1962 Virginia Assembly which prohibits use of "Nazi" or "National Socialism" in a Virginia charter. This article further pointed out that Rockwell's Party is presently chartered in the State of Virginia as the George Lincoln Rockwell Party.

On August 14, 1964, a source advised that the ANP - WUFENS was organized by George Lincoln Rockwell at his residence in Arlington, Virginia, on February 26, 1959, as an international "National Socialist" movement based on the German Nazi Party headed by Adlof Hitler. He added that Rockwell is the dominant force and personality in this party; that he is espousing a "line" of hatred against the Jews and Negroes; and that he is seeking, through speeches, distribution of literature and picketing, to establish a cohesive and dominant political party in the United States and in foreign countries.

According to the "Stormtrooper's Manual," an official publication of the ANP, the phases of ANP struggle for power are fourfold, namely, first "to make ourselves known to the masses"; second, "the dissemination of our program and truth about the Party"; third, "organizing the people who have been converted to our propaganda"; and fourth, "the attainment of power through the votes of the newly won masses."

On September 16, 1965, the source advised that George Lincoln Rockwell believes he has completed the first three phases in his struggle for power and is now into the fourth stage, to wit, the "attainment of power through the votes of the newly won masses." The source stated Rockwell believes this because of his success in gaining a place on the ticket in the November, 1965, gubernatorial election in the State of Virginia.

OF THE WHITE RACE (APWR)

The records of the Secretary of State, State of Mississippi, Jackson, Mississippi, reflect that the Americans for the Preservation of the White Race was granted a charter of incorporation on June 25, 1963, at Jackson, Mississippi. A source advised on August 25, 1967, that the APWR is not dominated, controlled, or directed by any Klan organization and does not advocate or engage in violence. Many of the members of the APWR belong to the various Ku Klux Klan organizations; however, only one of the national officers of the APWR is known to be a member of any Ku Klux Klan organization. No Ku Klux Klan organizational funds are designated or used by the APWR.

This source advised that the APWR is primarily concerned with providing separate educational facilities for the white children of Mississippi and is engaged in various money-raising projects for this purpose, as well as actively attempting to nominate and support candidates for state offices who are sympathetic to their cause. This source also noted that members of the Ku Klux Klan support the APWR by engaging in the money-raising activities. [REDACTED] Natchez, Mississippi, continues as national president for the APWR.

UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA, INC.,
KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN (UKA)

Records of Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, reflect that this Klan organization was granted a corporate charter on February 21, 1961, at Atlanta, Georgia, under the name United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc.

A source advised on February 27, 1961, that United Klans was formed as a result of a split in the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. According to the source, the split resulted from a leadership dispute and United Klans has the same aims and objectives as the parent group. These are the promotion of Americanism, white supremacy, and segregation of the races.

The first source and a second source advised in July, 1961, that United Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of America, Inc., merged with Alabama Knights, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. The merged organization established headquarters in Suite 401, Alston Building, Tuscaloosa, Alabama. (The organization is directed by ROBERT SHELTON, Imperial Wizard, and is the dominant Klan group in the South, with Units in several Southern states.)

Second source advised that at a meeting in Prattville, Alabama, on October 22, 1961, the U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, merged with the United Klans of America, Inc., Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Third source advised on May 25, 1966, that the UKA is currently an active organization, with Klaverns in several states. This source said that ROBERT M. SHELTON is the Imperial Wizard of this organization and was elected to this position on September 5, 1964, at a National Klonvocation in Birmingham, Alabama. A source advised that on February 15, 1964, approximately 200 members of the Original Knights of the Ku Klux Klan from the State of Mississippi met at Brookhaven, Mississippi. Those present decided to defect from the Original Knights and to form their own Klan group in Mississippi to be known as the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi.

This source advised that the aims and purposes of the WKKKKOM are to preserve Christian civilization, protect and promote white supremacy and the segregation of the races, to fight Communism and to extend the dignity, heritage, and rights of the white race of America.

The same source advised on August 25, 1967, that the WKKKKOM is an unincorporated, secret organization existing in the State of Mississippi and formed for the sole purpose of preserving white supremacy regardless of the cost and including the use of force and violence. The official constitution and other directives of the organization do not openly advocate the use of force or violence; however, it is generally conceded among the members that in the end force and violence will be the salvation of the white man regarding his relationship with the Negro race. The WKKKKOM is controlled by the Imperial Wizard and state officers. The state is divided into districts and provinces. There is an estimated membership as of August 25, 1967, of 400 to 600 dues-paying members of this organization. RACIAL MATTERS - ORGANIZATION

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 26, 1968, that Richard Anthony Barrett was going to appear on WLBT television at Jackson, Mississippi, on November 30, 1968. This source also stated he understood this program was cancelled as Barrett was a controversial figure.

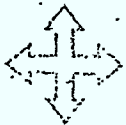

This source made available a letter addressed to [redacted] Lamar Life Building, Jackson, Mississippi, which is attached hereto.

Dear [REDACTED]

We were advised in a meeting in Jackson on Nov. 30th at the WLBT studios by [REDACTED] that you represented the station and that you would apprise us of the reason for the cancellation by the station of our interview on the Junior Chamber of Commerce program that morning.

Officials of the Junior Chamber of Commerce were also in attendance at that meeting.

After speaking with you this morning, you advised that no written explanation would be forthcoming, giving the impression that you do not wish to disclose the reason for the program's cancellation.

If this is not your intent, we would appreciate hearing from you, as we expect to bring the matter to the attention of the FCC.

It certainly would be regrettable if you felt it was necessary to conceal either your motivation in this matter or our testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee: the subject of the cancelled program.

I can be reached in Jackson at America's Victory Force HQ, 825 W. Amite St.; phone 353-1531.

This source also advised Barrett was to be sponsored by the Mississippi Junior Chamber of Commerce, but that it was cancelled due to the fact this program was to be furnished only for responsible individuals and Barrett was determined to be otherwise.

A second confidential source advised on October 27, 1966, that Richard Barrett, a white male, age 23, in the past few months, accompanied by [redacted] father of [redacted] [redacted] went to Natchez, Mississippi, and contacted [redacted]. The purpose of the contact was for Barrett to ascertain if [redacted] knew the names of a couple of men in each county in Mississippi whom Barrett could contact in an effort to have them join some type of hate-group he was trying to form. [redacted] told Barrett he could not assist him in his request.

Assistant Chief of Police J. L. Ray, Jackson, Mississippi, Police Department, on November 23, 1966, advised he had received information that Barrett had two large flags hanging in his room which he claimed were given him by Governor George Wallace of Alabama. Barrett has received mail from "Voice of the People", address unknown, condemning Negro servicemen in Vietnam.

An article appearing in The Clarion-Ledger, a Jackson, Mississippi, daily newspaper, under date of February 12, 1967, indicates that Barrett graduated from Rutgers University, New Brunswick, New Jersey, in 1964. He later returned his degree to the University because he said they had Communist Party leaders teaching there. He said the institution also sanctioned the sending of blood, money, and supplies by certain groups to the Communists in North Vietnam. Barrett's statement to the Associated Press at that time was "We can't battle Communists abroad and tolerate them here at home".

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT
RACIAL MATTERS (ORGANIZATION)

An article appearing in The Natchez Democrat, Natchez, Mississippi, under date of April 22, 1967, indicates that Richard Barrett is a former Army infantry enlisted man. The article further indicates that Barrett recently returned from Vietnam where he was wounded twice in action and received the Purple Heart twice.

On May 15, 1967, M. B. Pierce, Chief of Detectives, Jackson, Mississippi, Police Department, advised that Barrett had made application for a permit to hold a parade on May 21, 1967, sponsored by the American Victory Committee of which Barrett is Chairman. The theme of the parade was "Win in Viet Nam" and Barrett was urging veterans, mothers, workers and students to participate in this parade.

Barrett was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on March 13, 1967, at which time he advised he is a "racist" and he gives talks frequently concerning segregation and talks concerning Vietnam. He said he believes in segregation and feels that segregation should some day be the law of the land, and it is his objective to organize an organization with this objective in mind. He related he is a Vietnam veteran and is firmly convinced that the United States should be involved in the Viet Cong war but it should win the war and not sacrifice American lives for political reasons.

Barrett continued that he is not a member of the Ku Klux Klan or any other organization and would not identify any of his associates nor state whether he was or was not acquainted with any members of the Ku Klux Klan. Barrett refused to discuss in detail any of his activities inasmuch as he felt the FBI was becoming a national police agency similar to the Gestapo.

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT
RACIAL MATTER (ORGANIZATION)

Records on file at the Military Personnel Records Center, St. Louis, Missouri, reveal Richard Anthony Barrett, Army Serial Number RA 12701033, served in the U. S. Army from June 4, 1964, to May 27, 1966, receiving an honorable release from active duty as Specialist 4 at Oakland, California, and transferred to United States Army Reserve to complete military obligation. Terminal date of military obligation is shown as May 3, 1970. Records indicate that Barrett is currently a member of the Standby Reserve, United States Army Reserve Control Group. He had foreign service in Vietnam and received Vietnam Service Metal, Purple Heart with oak leaf cluster and Combat Infantry Badge. No record of disciplinary action or treatment for mental or nervous disorder is contained in his file. These records indicate Barrett was born on February 18, 1943, at New York, New York.

M. B. Pierce, Chief of Detectives, Jackson, Mississippi, on May 22, 1967, advised that Richard Barrett, along with approximately sixty-eight other individuals, proceeded to parade on Capitol Street in Jackson, Mississippi, on May 21, 1967, the parade culminating at the War Memorial Building on North State Street, Jackson, Mississippi. The parade began at approximately 3:00 P. M. During the parade individuals carried placards and signs reading "Did 10,000 Americans Die in Vain in Viet Nam"; "Victory in Viet Nam"; "Win the War Now"; "Deport Stinky Stokely"; "Bury Communism"; "Better Dead than Red", and others of similar nature. Upon arrival at the War Memorial Building, Richard Barrett, along with several other individuals, made comments and short speeches.

Pierce stated that the group then burned what they said was a Viet Cong flag and Barrett made a statement "We did something in Mississippi they couldn't do

SUCCINCT RESUME OF ACTIVITIES

BARRETT, upon interview, advised he is a "racist" and he gives talks on segregation. He believes in segregation and feels that segregation should some day be the law of the land and it is his objective to organize an organization with this object in mind. BARRETT is known to associate with members of the Klan in Mississippi.

BARRETT has organized the "American Victory Committee" setting himself up as National Chairman and has organized several parades with general theme of "Back the Boys in Vietnam". He is organizing "American Victory Force" which will be a militantly segregationist group whose purpose will be to promote Christianity and patriotism and to further the unity and coordination of white Americans. He said the "main flavor of our militancy will be in racial segregation - we will promote, however, that the group's militant acts would be within all laws".

During a Poor Peoples March to the State Capitol, Jackson, Mississippi, on August 14, 1967, sponsored by the NAACP, BARRETT carried a sign "Fight Poverty, Go to Work". He went into the crowd of Negroes, the sign was torn up, and the police arrested BARRETT and charged him with disturbing the peace.

Enforce Loyalty, Barrett Tells Pearl Students

Richard Barrett, of Jackson, addressed the student body at Pearl-McLaurin Junior High School Friday, calling for enforced loyalty in public schools.

"Federal funds should be cut off by Congress to schools that employ disloyal teachers, instead of harrassing local school officials with guidelines," said Barrett, a 25-year-old Vietnam Army veteran, who has been awarded the Purple Heart Medal twice. He recently addressed the Senate Judiciary Committee in Washington advocating such an amendment to S. 2988, the Internal Security Act.

Barrett, who is First Officer of America's Victory Force, a Vietnam veterans' organization, and currently an Army reservist, displayed some of the weapons used by the communists in Vietnam. "The deadliest weapon used by the Viet Cong is the stab-in-the-back at home," said Barrett, who told the cheering students that one way to win the Vietnam War is through faith and patriotism at home."

JOHN STENNIS

The Honorable James O. Eastland
U. S. Senate Office Building
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Sir:

There is a man in our state who is speaking in several churches, civic clubs and schools. He was at our Southern Baptist Convention in New Orleans and disrupted the proceedings. He appeared at our Mississippi Baptist Convention and used some disruptive tactics there also. He has a brochure with pictures showing him standing in the Senate chamber, supposedly speaking to the Senate. The information under the picture says, "Richard Barrett speaks to the Senate at the invitation of Senator Eastland." He has another picture showing him standing in the speaker's stand at the Southern Baptist Convention. The captions says, "Richard Barrett addresses the Southern Baptist Convention." I was at the convention and attended every session and all he ever did was read a resolution. After that he argued about several motions that were made.

The first experience I had with Richard Barrett was in Jackson during the Democratic Primaries. He managed to get himself elected as chairman of the precinct convention. He then carried the ballot box out somewhere and kept it for three hours before carrying it to the County Chairman. The chairman had to throw the box out in as much as the ballots had been tampered with. Mr. Barrett caused disruption in the Hinds County Court Room where the convention was being held. The chairman almost had to have him evicted.

I have been told that this man is a member of the American Nazi Party. I would like to know what information you have on this man so that we can warn schools and churches concerning his activities. No one seems to know how he is financed. He claims to have been born in New York and reared in New Jersey but came to Mississippi because he likes the way we live and what we believe.

This man may be an extremist or just a plain nut. In either case we would like to have more information on him.

Thank you for your help.

Yours sincerely,

RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT

An article appearing in the January 3, 1970, issue of the "Daily Press", a Utica, New York, daily newspaper, entitled, "Let People Run Schools, Barrett Says", reads as follows:

"Richard Barrett, a former Utican who now is an active conservative in Mississippi, said here last night he thinks state funds ought to be withheld from schools ordered to integrate by the U. S. Supreme Court.

"Barrett is first officer in America's Victory Force, a Vietnam War veterans organization. He is in Utica, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Barrett of 2839 Oneida St., until Tuesday.

"If the Mississippi State Legislature fails to support what Barrett calls 'federalized' schools, this 'Would release more funds for private schools, which are springing up all over the state,' he said.

"Thirty-three Mississippi school districts were ordered to begin desegregating Jan. 5 in a U.S. Supreme Court decision last October.

"Barrett called the court-ordered desegregation 'shameful and tragic' because he said, 'this is an erosion of the constitutional rights of the people to control themselves'.

V. SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

Inspector [redacted] United States Park Police, Washington, D. C., advised on April 17, 1968, that BARRETT, who was identified as speaker of the American Victory Force, Jackson, Mississippi, was issued a permit to hold a prayer meeting and to lay a wreath on the Washington Monument grounds on April 22, 1968, in support of the war in Vietnam.

He has organized the "American Victory Force," which will be a militantly segregationist group whose purpose will be to promote Christianity and patriotism and to further the unity and coordination of white Americans. He said the "main flavor of our militancy will be in racial segregation -- we will promote, however, that the groups militant acts would be within all laws."

On April 22, 1968, Inspector [redacted] stated BARRETT did not appear on the Monument grounds, nor had he explained why he was not there or asked for another permit.

An article appearing in the January 3, 1970, issue of the Daily Press, a Utica, New York, daily newspaper, entitled "Let People Run Schools, Barrett Says," reads as follows:

"RICHARD BARRETT, a former Utican who now is an active conservative in Mississippi, said here last night he thinks state funds ought to be withheld from schools ordered to integrate by the U. S. Supreme Court.

"BARRETT is first officer in America's Victory Force, a Vietnam War veterans organization. He is in Utica, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. BARRETT of 2839 Oneida St., until Tuesday.

"If the Mississippi State Legislature fails to support what BARRETT calls 'federalized' schools, this 'would release more funds for private schools, which are springing up all over the state,' he said.

"Thirty-three Mississippi school districts were ordered to begin desegregating Jan. 5 in a U.S. Supreme Court decision last October.

"BARRETT called the court-ordered desegregation 'shameful and tragic' because, he said, 'this is an erosion of the constitutional rights of the people to control themselves.'

"BARRETT, at 26 the owner of an advertising firm in Jackson, Miss., said that 'local control is an issue the north and south hold in common. If the government federalizes schools, let the government pay for them.'

"BARRETT made a name for himself in the conservative protest business three years ago when he returned his diploma to Rutgers University to protest 'against' the Communist professors there. 'I'm quite proud of that,' he said. He is a 1964 graduate of Rutgers.

"BARRETT will speak at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the People's Christian Church in Cedarville."

On April 2, 1970, JN T-1 advised that RICHARD BARRETT has filed for organizational tax exemption on the organization entitled "America's Foundation." BARRETT was listed as chairman of the board, and stated that the office for this organization is listed as 825 West Amite Street, Jackson.

BARRETT lists the organizational structure that the purpose of the foundation is to award scholarships to students who have achieved excellence in curriculum and/or athletic endeavors, including students and orphans of Vietnam veterans.

The method of obtaining funds for this organization, according to BARRETT, will be direct mail, advertising in newspapers, and having radio programs and television programs.

Investigation has shown that BARRETT continues to travel throughout the state of Mississippi attempting to speak before the high schools and in churches, expressing the theme, "Back the boys in Vietnam," and under the auspices of the American Victory Committee.

BARRETT during interview of 1967, claimed he was a "racist" and gave talks frequently concerning Vietnam. He stated that the United States should not be involved in the Vietnam war and should win the war and should not sacrifice American lives for political reasons.

V. SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

On August 6, 1970, Major EUGENE B. BEALL, United States Marine Corps Reserve Center, Jefferson Street, Jackson, Mississippi, advised that BARRETT identified himself to him as the Chairman of the American Victory Force at Jackson, Mississippi. BARRETT requested literature from the Marine Corps; however, the officer on duty refused to give the literature to him at which time BARRETT directed a letter to the Secretary of Navy, setting forth the fact that he had been refused literature.

RICHARD BARRETT has organized "The American Victory Committee," setting himself up as national chairman, and has organized several parades with the general theme of "Back the boys in Vietnam." He has organized the "American Victory Force," which will be a militantly segregationist group whose purpose will be to promote Christianity and patriotism and to further the unity and coordination of white Americans. He said the "main flavor of our militancy will be in racial segregation -- we will promote, however, that the group's militant acts would be within all laws."

Major BEALL stated that he later met with BARRETT and in his opinion BARRETT was "A guy with a gift of gab".

On October 7, 1970, [redacted] City Editor, Clarion-Ledger, a Jackson daily newspaper, advised that RICHARD ANTHONY BARRETT, who is National Chairman of American Victory Force, announced that recently he met with the Veterans of Foreign Wars Commanders in Washington, D. C., and that BARRETT was representing his fellow-Mississippi Vietnam War Veterans.

On February 15, 1971, JN T-1 advised that RICHARD BARRETT had been regularly contacting individuals desiring to know what is going on in the Americans for the Preservation of the White Race (APWR) organization in Jackson, Mississippi.

The Americans for the Preservation of the White Race (APWR) was founded by white segregationists in Mississippi in 1963 and continued to advocate segregation of the races and white supremacy until 1970 when it became inactive. Former members of the various Ku Klux Klan organizations used the APWR as a front organization in promoting private schools throughout Mississippi.

On March 17, 1971, [redacted] Director, Governor's Highway Safety Program, Jackson, Mississippi, advised that BARRETT had advised him that he had been traveling over the State of Mississippi making speeches with the theme "Backing the boys in Vietnam". BARRETT was identified as Chairman of the American Victory Force at Jackson, Mississippi.

An article appearing in the June 2, 1971, issue of the Jackson Daily News, a local daily newspaper entitled "Richard Barrett Candidate for Post in House" reads as follows:

"Richard Barrett of Jackson has formally announced his candidacy for the House of Representatives, Hinds County, Post 4.

"Barrett is president of Barrett & Company, a Jackson advertising and publishing firm. He is a veteran of the Vietnam War and was wounded twice in the army-infantry.

"Barrett, who received his BA degree in government in 1964 and has continued his studies at the Jackson School of Law, said he has drafted legislation for use by the U. S. Senate Judiciary Committee, for use by the U. S. Senate Judiciary Committee, chaired by Sen. James O. Eastland and proposed legislation before the U. S. Senate Internal Security Subcommittee to curb campus revolutionaries, which led to the Anti-Riot Law prohibiting interstate travel for the purpose of inciting riots.

"Barrett also stated he has met with representatives of the Vietnamese and Allied Governments seeking release of American POW's and also has supported legal action before the U. S. Supreme Court to preserve local control of local institutions.

"Barrett has coached Little League baseball and received an America's Foundation award for service to youth. He was awarded by the Sertoma Club, a local and national civic club, at its international convention for his contributions to American liberty. Barrett is a member of the Jackson Touchdown Club, the VFW and the First Baptist Church.

"Barrett stated, "I am humbly grateful for the encouragement and confidence given to me by so many friends from throughout Hinds County. I wish to continue to merit your confidence through dedicated and conscientious efforts in your behalf. My procession as a publisher has trained me to express the ideas of people, together with my training in the law. It is my sincere desire to have the privilege of serving you, the citizen, by expressing your will in the clearest, most effective manner. I pledge honesty, integrity and hard work to maintain your trust and the dignity of the high office of your Representative. My motto is: "The Open Door, Open Ears and the Helping Hand" in your behalf.

"My deepest concern is for the people of Hinds County and in the progress of our great State of Mississippi.

"My primary interest is in the over-burdened taxpayer, who deserves dedicated efforts and no-nonsense legislation to make his living better and his dollar go farther. My goal is to cut wasteful state spending and to reduce the state income tax by bringing dollars into Hinds County through new industrial growth, sound business planning, and development of markets for Mississippi-made products.

"The public and private school systems both have my support. I have worked with school people and share the common concern with all parents that the welfare of our children should be uppermost. All areas of tax benefits to parents of school children should be increased through sound legislation.

"I say frankly that drug-pushing in Mississippi must be stopped now. Our law enforcement officers and firemen deserve the highest priority of support.

"I am particularly concerned with veterans' affairs and wish to see increased efforts to make existing benefits fully known and available to those eligible, with stress upon upgrading job rehabilitation programs," he said."

Investigation has shown that BARRETT continues to travel throughout the State of Mississippi attempting to speak before the high schools and churches expressing the theme "Back the boys in Vietnam", under the auspices of the American Victory Committee.

A review of the central files of the FBI reveals the following information which may relate to the subject of your name check request.

Richard Anthony Barrett, born February 18, 1943, at New York, New York, was the subject of a security investigation by this Bureau from 1966 to 1972 relating to racial/extremist matters. You are referred to reports dated April 17, 1968; May 1, 1970; and March 16, 1972, each at Jackson, Mississippi, which were previously furnished to your agency. 157-7486-20,27,29

In February, 1985, during the course of another investigation, a review of the records of the Jackson Police Department (JPD), Intelligence Division (ID), Jackson, Mississippi, revealed that Richard Barrett, according to a report prepared in February, 1978, was allegedly the head of the Anti Jew States Rights Party headquartered in Marietta, Georgia. Barrett was described as an attorney whose office was located in Suite 506, Barnett Building, Jackson, Mississippi, and whose home address was 154 South Sunset Terrace (city and state not shown). In addition, information was received by the JPDID that Barrett and another individual allegedly had a residence or a warehouse in Rankin County, Mississippi, which was stocked with Nazi paraphernalia, and where they indoctrinated people into Ku Klux Klan activities. This information was never confirmed by the JPDID.

(S) In January, 1987, the FBI received a complaint from Richard Anthony Barrett of Jackson, Mississippi, who advised that he had received telephonic death threats as a result of his participation in a rally at Cummings, Georgia. Attached is a memorandum dated February 24, 1987, at Jackson, Mississippi, regarding this matter which was closed by the U.S. Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, on August 19, 1987.

In December, 1988, during the course of another investigation, information was received that the "CBS Evening News" aired a story on December 20, 1988, regarding Skinheads assembling on Whidby Island, Peugeot Sound, Washington, to attend a memorial honoring a former member. During the broadcast, the reporter interviewed an individual identified by CBS News as Richard Barrett, "white supremacist." Barrett advised CBS News that he was providing firearm instructions for Skinheads in Mississippi. In addition, information was received that in the past, an individual identified as Richard Barrett, lawyer, of Learned, Mississippi, and Jackson, Mississippi, had attempted to arrange a meeting with [redacted] (PROTECT IDENTITY), Vice Mayor, Yonkers, New York, in connection with a long standing dispute regarding a Federal court order to the City of Yonkers to build low income housing. [redacted] received a letter from Barrett which stated in part, "Freedom is not free; the price is high. I hope you will continue to pay it - as we will - until the tyranny of unelected Federal judges is defeated - so that the rights of the majority will prevail in a democracy of the American people." [redacted] also received an unsolicited application for membership in the American Pistol and Rifle Association, Box USA, Benton, Tennessee.

In an effort to further identify the aforementioned Richard Barrett who claimed to have provided firearms training to Skinheads, and to determine if he was identical to the individual who attempted to establish contact with the Vice Mayor of Yonkers, New York, the following information was developed in addition to that which has previously been set forth in this memorandum.

A check with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (BATF), Jackson, Mississippi, revealed BATF had received information from their office in Arkansas that an individual identified as Richard Barrett had been in contact with members of the "Covenant, the Sword, the Arm of the Lord." No further information was known.

100-487961-6X6

An inquiry with the JPDID revealed that Richard Barrett was a known segregationist in the Jackson, Mississippi, area. JPDID characterized Barrett as mainly an instigator and not someone known to be violent in nature. According to the JPDID, Barrett would train individuals, conduct marches and make speeches, but he was not one to commit violent acts.

100-487961-6X6

On December 3, 1988, and December 4, 1988, two articles, copies of which are attached, appeared in the "Clarion-Ledger," a Jackson, Mississippi, newspaper, advising of Richard Barrett training Skinheads on firearms in Learned, Mississippi.

100-487961-6X6

In January, 1990, during the course of another investigation, an individual who had provided unreliable information in the past advised he attended a meeting with other white supremacists on January 10, 1990, in Birmingham, Alabama, where one of the topics was recent letter bombings. According to this individual Richard Barrett of Jackson, Mississippi; [redacted] were in attendance at the meeting, the location of which was unknown. Pa. station to film skinheads in Learned

■ A crew will film the youths training today near Richard Barrett's home.

By Jerry Mitchell
Clarion-Ledger Staff Writer

DEC 3 1988

A Pennsylvania public broadcasting station plans to film a segment featuring military training by skinheads and other neo-Nazi youth this weekend in Learned.

Officials at Philadelphia station WHYY-TV confirmed they plan to visit Mississippi to shoot a possible spring segment on military training and indoctrination of the skinheads and others.

The skinheads is a right-wing group, composed primarily of youths who shave their heads and don steel-toed boots as a sign of commitment to their cause. Sociologists say they are the fastest growing segment of the racist right.

Self-proclaimed segregationist Richard Barrett said the training session adjacent to his home today and Sunday is in preparation for national demonstrations planned next month in protest of the Jan. 16 holiday honoring slain civil rights leader the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.

"We're having a training session and target practice," Barrett said.

Today's military training and firing of weapons will show support of the right to bear arms, he said. "The movement will declare that the Second Amendment cannot be weakened."

The practice also will help protesters defend themselves if necessary, he said.

After weapons practice Sunday afternoon, a cookout and bonfire is planned.

"We also will be having a perspective on Mississippi Burning," a newly released film that focuses on the 1964 deaths of three civil rights workers in Philadelphia, Barrett said.

"Our position is that it is slander on Mississippi and that we are a God-fearing, hard-working patriotic people that is a model for the nation, not a whipping boy for the nation."

The theme for protest of the King holiday is "Liberty, Democracy and Majority," Barrett said.

"We will do for the majority in the '90s what others did for minorities in the '60s. They're going to have the past. We're going to have the future."

The group plans to join others in the Nationalist Movement in Raleigh, N.C., Jan. 14 for a "No King Over Us" rally at the Capitol to protest the holiday, Barrett said. A similar national demonstration will take place Jan. 21 in Atlanta.

A protest also will be held Jan. 16 at the Capitol in Jackson, Barrett said.

Skinheads train in state for King Day protest

Title: "SKINHEADS TRAIN IN STATE FOR KING DAY PROTEST"

■ Three Atlanta youths and three state men joined white supremacist Richard Barrett at a camp on Mississippi 18.

By Mary Dixon
Clarion-Ledger Staff Writer

DEC 4 1988

LEARNED — Three militant Atlanta skinheads came here Saturday to help white supremacist Richard Barrett train anybody who's "red, white and blue" how to shoot a gun.

Barrett, who called this weekend The Warrior Weekend, said the paramilitary training is open to all Americans "red, white and blue," "not black or yellow."

Barrett and the youths plan to march in Atlanta next month to protest the holiday celebrating the birthday of the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., the slain civil rights leader.

Besides Barrett and the youths, three local men attended the training session Saturday.

CE 18
This morning, Barrett and the skinheads, dressed in camouflaged pants and combat boots, plan to continue training with pistols and rifles and to share information about preserving the white race.

Barrett said it's important to arm oneself "from outside elements that want to eat away at America."

When asked who they believed was hurting America, the skinheads — Shay Cannon, 16, Robert Vasura, 17, and Spencer Anderson, 18 — said Communists, "queers" and foreigners.

"I hope to probably better myself and get in some target practice," Anderson said of his trip to Mississippi.

The three Atlanta youths belong to the Old Glory Skinhead movement, an ultra-right wing organization.

Barrett, a New York native who has lived in Jackson for many years, is the attorney and one of the organizers of The Nationalist Movement, which aims to advance and preserve the white race.

On Saturday afternoon, Barrett and the skinheads shot small-caliber pistols and a rifle with a scope in a dried up creek behind a camp on Mississippi 18. Barrett, a Jackson attorney, owns the camp.

The youths and Barrett spread out white supremacy signs and three American flags around their target area which was in a grove of oak and hickory trees.

Some of the placards said: "Our red, white and blue whips your black, black and black," "Abolish King Day," and "Down with Black Power."

One of the targets set up by the skinheads was a white placard bearing the letters "MLK," widely recognized as the initials of Martin Luther King.

The youths joked that they were spelling "milk" and left out the letter "i."

After Barrett saw the target with "MLK," he placed it upside down in the brush without explanation.

Vasura, a native of England who has lived in the United States for four years, said he is a skinhead because he is proud of his white heritage.

A cook, Vasura said, "I would like Europe to be totally white as Africa would like to be totally black."
