RONALD REAGAN Summary

At your request there is being summarized information from public sources and Bureau files concerning the above.

"WHO'S WHO IN HOLLYWOOD, 1951 EDITION" (DELL PUBLICATIONS): -

"Ronald Reagan saved 77 lives working his way through college as a life guard. He was also a sports writer and announcer. Ronald hails from Tampico, Ill., and is 37 years old. A film hit before his Air Forces career, he made a magnificent comeback in The Voice of The Turtle. Last year he was divorced from Jane Wyman. He and Jane had a daughter Maureen, 8, and a son Michael, 4. You saw Ronald last in Louisa."

FROM "CURRENT BIOGRAPHY" (1949): -

Ronald Reagan (pronounced "Ray'gan") was born 2-6-11 in Tampico, Illinois, the son of Irish-born parents. His mother is of English-Scotch ancestry, said to be a descendant of the Lord Napier, an authority on maritime law. Reagan graduated from high school in Dixon, Illinois, where his father was a shoe merchant. His brother, Neil Reagan, in 1949 was an executive with a radio advertising concern.

In 1932, Reagan received a B A degree at Eureka (Illinois) College where he worked his way through school, was a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, and was employed as a swimming coach.

After graduating from college, Reagan was employed as a sports announcer by radio stations. He became interested in the movies and signed a Warner Brothers contract in 1937. His first picture was "Love Is On The Air". He made over twenty "B" pictures before he was cast as George Gipp in the movie "Knute Rockne - All American" in 1949. He subsequently appeared in "Tugboat Annie Sails Again" (1941), "Desperate Journey" and "Kings Row" (1942).

The actor served in the U. S. Army from April 14, 1942, to December 9, 1945, obtaining the rank of captain.

In 1947 Reagan played the part of the sergeant in the production "Voice of The Turtle." In 1949 he appeared in "John Loves Mary," "The Girl From Jones Beach," and "Night Unto Night." (In 1948 he made the picture "The Hasty Heart" in England, and was one of a group of Hollywood actors who gave a Command Performance for the Royal Family.)

In 1949 Reagan was cast for a starring role opposite Ida Lupino in "Fugitive From Terror" but retired from the cast in June 1949 after breaking a leg playing in a charity baseball game. In that year, Reagan signed a five year contract for one picture a year with Universal-International. Reagan is under exclusive contract to Warner Brothers First National Studios.

Reagan became active in the Screen Actors Guild in 1941 and became a member of the Board of Directors in 1946. In 1947 he was elected to serve the unexpired term of Robert Montgomery as President of the Screen Actors Guild. In a subsequent campaign for that office Reagan was opposed by "Left-wing Members," but won the office in November 1947, was elected for a second term in 1948, and was re-elected in 1949 as President of the Guild.

Writing as a vacation substitute for Victor Riesel, New York Post labor columnist, on 6-24-47, Reagan, speaking for himself and past presidents of the Guild, George Murphy, Edward Arnold, and Robert Montgomery, declared that they were violently opposed to "indiscriminate Red-baiting" but urged that every union realize the menace of Communism seeking to infiltrate trade unions. Victor Riesel was quoted as commending the ability of Reagan which he said would be useful to the AFL.

Reagan testified before the House Un-American Activities Committee in October 1947 at which time he claimed that Communists in the Guild constituted only one percent of its members.

Reagan in 1949 was named Chairman of the Motion Picture Industry Council which in that year passed a resolution promising cooperation with law enforcement agencies in "ridding the community" of criminal elements, and recommended that young newcomers to the movie studios be thoroughly schooled in personal behavior and responsibilities.

During the 1948 Presidential election the actor, who serves on the board of the Hollywood chapter of the American Veterans Committee, organized the Labor League of Hollywood Voters, backed by twenty-one AFL unions, in support of President Truman's candidacy.

Reagan is a member of the Friars Club and attends the Christian Church.

In January 1940 the actor married Jane Wyman and they have two children. They were divorced in July 1949.

Reagan is described as 6' 1" tall, weight 175 lbs., blue eyes, and brown hair. His address is c/o Warner Brothers, c/o The Screen Actors Guild in Hollywood, and his home is at 360 North Camden Drive, Beverley Hills, California.

ORGANIZATIONS

American Veterans Committee (AVC)

A report of the Los Angeles Office dated June 17, 1946, contained information that Ronald Reagan attended a conference luncheon of the AVC in Los Angeles. At that time he introduced a speaker at the luncheon. In the report appears the statement that the conference adopted a program "in complete conformity with that of the Communist Party line," and there was stated that a few Communists were active in the AVC. The report, however, contained no information regarding Communist activity on the part of Reagan or his own associates. (100-339008-31)

The Paso Robles Press on 8-20-46 carried an article regarding an AVC meeting and mentioned Reagan as active in the national organization, along with F. D. Roosevelt, Jr., Harold Stassen, Tyrone Power, Sterling Hayden, et al. (100-339008-49)

A confidential source reported plans for an AVC dinner to be held at the Plaza Hotel in New York City in November, 1946. Ronald Reagan was listed as a member of the National Finance Committee of the AVC, whose chairman was Newbold Morris. (100-339008-109)

Committee For A Democratic Far Eastern Policy

A Los Angeles Office report of 4-11-46 mentions the Los Angeles Committee For A Democratic Far Eastern Policy, described by a confidential informant as being a Communist front pressure group set up to support Soviet Union foreign policy in the Orient. The report contains the statement "the Communist nature of the effort is unmistakable...the headquarters...are located (in Hollywood)...this location is continuously used by Communists as a propaganda center." The report then lists Ronald Reagan as one of the "sponsors and directors, all of whom have records of Communist activity or sympathies." No further details along this line are contained in the report with respect to Reagan. (100-138754-124)

In June, 1946, the letterhead of the Committee For A Democratic Far Eastern Policy carried the name of Ronald Reagan as one of the sponsors who included Irving Potash, Doxey Wilkerson, Louise R. Bransten, Paul Robeson, and others. (100-64700-488)

According to the Communist newspaper "Peoples World" for 2-26-48, this Committee urged President Truman to recall troops from China and declared support of Indonesian independence. (100-343301-A)

A confidential source furnished a copy of a form letter and other literature of the CDFEP announcing that in April, 1946, a "Spotlight on the Far East" dinner was held in New York City, attended by Senator Tobey, Agnes Smedley, Richard Watts, Jr., U.S. Congressman Hugh DeLacy and others, at which time there was played a recorded message from Madam Sun Yat-Sen. The printed program listed Ronald Reagan as one of the sponsors on this occasion, along with Lee Pressman, Paul Draper, Paul Robeson, and others. (100-64700-684)

CONFIDENTIAL

Americans For Democratic Action (ADA)

In a Los Angeles report dated 4-16-48 it was pointed out that the ADA in Hollywood is "left," and that the majority of its members had at one time or other been members of Communist front groups over a period of years. As being typical of such individuals, according to a confidential informant, there was listed the name of Ronald Reagan. Also listed were Leo Rosten, Walter Wanger, Melvyn Douglas, and others, "who are affiliated with ADA but who have helped the Communist movement." (100-138754-461)

International Rescue And Relief Committee

The handbill "Alert," self-styled confidential weekly report on un-American activities in California, announced the Los Angeles appearance on 4-6-48 of Arthur Koestler, described as an expert in Marxism who was hated and feared by the Communists. The appearance was sponsored by the International Rescue and Relief Committee, and among members of the Southern California Committee was Ronald Reagan. (100-1852-24)

ANTI-COMMUNIST ACTIVITIES

Labor League Of Hollywood Voters

The "Hollywood Reporter" for November 11, 1948, reported the formation of the last mentioned organization for the purpose of blocking Communist penetration of motion pictures. Ronald Reagan was reported to be the chairman. (100-138754-513)

Hollywood Independent Citizens Committee Of Arts, Sciences and Professions

On December 12, 1950, Mr. Dore Schary, second in command at MGM Studios, had a conference with the SAC in Los Angeles. He stated that in 1945 he, as well as "such other well-known anti-Communists as Ronald Reagan" had been active in the HICCASP. The informant said that in 1945 the Communists took over this organization at an open meeting and that he and others dropped out of the organization and had nothing more to do with it. The Director noted "I would view with some reservations Schary's profession of anti-Communism now. It is, of course, not popular nor profitable to be known as fellow travelers now, but these Johnnies-come-lately raise in me a question as to their basic sincerity." (100-138754-695)

Motion Picture Industry Council

A confidential informant of the Los Angeles Office reported in 1948 that in an effort to "whitewash" charges of Communism in the movie industry, there had been organized the Motion Picture Industry Council under Mr. Dore Schary, to cover up and play down all public information relating to Communist activities. Among the members of this group was Ronald Reagan, and also named was Cecil B. DeMille and others. (100-138754-481)

At a meeting during June, 1949, Y. F. Freeman, an executive of Paramount Studios, referred to Ronald Reagan as being exemplary in avoiding unintentional listing of his name by Communist front groups. (100-138754-525)

In January, 1951, a confidential army source referred to this organization as being headed by Ronald Reagan, and as being "allegedly Communist Party infiltrated." (100-138754-699)

(S-1) XX W

A confidential informant of our Los Angeles Office, however, reported in 1950 that the organization was free from any Communist taint or penetration. (100-138754-667)

Screen Actors Guild

The Washington Evening Star for 11-17-47 carried a story regarding the election of Ronald Reagan as President of the Guild which adopted a resolution calling for officers to sign non-Communist affidavits. (100-138754-A)

In September 1949, Ronald Reagan was nominated for re-election as head of the Guild. (100-138754-545)

A confidential informant of the Los Angeles Office in November 1950 reported that the Guild was controlled by a group of actors who were actively opposed to Communism. Ronald Reagan had been re-elected as President in November 1950 and was outspoken in his opposition to Communist activities in Hollywood. (100-138754-691) A confidential informant of the Los Angeles Office had reported in September 1950 that Ronald Reagan was definitely an anti-Communist Guild leader.

During his testimony before House Committee on un-American Activities on 4-10-51, (reported by highly confidential source) the confessed Communist Sterling Hayden referred to his Hollywood cell activities in the movie industry during 1946. He said his group made no progress because of the Board of Directors of the Guild and referred to Reagan "who was a one-man battalion against this thing" (presumably against Communism.) (100-138754-793)

TESTIMONY BEFORE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

Ronald Reagan was one of a number of "friendly witnesses" called to testify before the House Committee on un-American Activities during October 1947. He said that he had been a member of the Screen Actors Guild since June 1937; that he had received literature from the Committee for a Far Eastern Democratic Policy which he could not identify as being Communist or not and with whose views he disagreed; that he was duped through a telephone call to lend his name as sponsor of a recital which he later learned was actually under auspices of the Joint anti-Fascist Refugee Committee; and that he recognized the Communist strategy of using the names of prominent people to raise money and gain support.

Mr. Reagan recognized the Communist Party as being a political party and said he hesitated to see any political party outlawed on the basis of its political ideologies. If an organization proved to be an agent of a foreign power, that is another matter. He referred to disruptive Communist efforts in the Guild but he referred to Communism as being a very small group in the organization. He said that he abhors Communist philosophy but as a citizen he never wanted to see our country submit to fear to the extent that we would compromise with any of our democratic principles. (100-138754-362)

ASSOCIATES

A Los Angeles Office report describes a cocktail party held in Beverly Hills during November 1943 at which time Ronald Reagan almost came to blows with a man who made anti-Semitic remarks. He also had an argument with Edward G. Robinson at the party, no details given. (100-146517-33)

A confidential source of the Los Angeles Office reported that in March 1948 [redacted] (reportedly a member of the Communist Party in Hollywood) was asked by [redacted] to try and raise campaign funds for [redacted] Congressional candidate, by contacting Ronald Reagan, Thomas Mann, Olivia De Havilland, and others. (100-343468-39) b6 b7C

MOBILIZATION FOR DEMOCRACY

The Los Angeles Office obtained from a Los Angeles police officer a copy of a radio script broadcast on September 9, 1946, in Los Angeles under the title "Operation Terror" which was presented by Mobilization for Democracy, an alleged Communist front organization. This organization was reported to be under the direction of Robert W. Kenny, Attorney General of the State of California. Its Executive Secretary was [redacted] described as a Communist Party functionary. The radio broadcast was narrated by Ronald Reagan and purported to list a number of Ku Klux Klan acts of terrorism in the Los Angeles area. A plea was made for cooperation to bring about better understanding among different elements of society, regardless of race, creed or color. (100-343748-8) b6 b7C

CONTACTS WITH FBI

In September 1941, Special Agent Charles C. Browning, Jr. submitted a memorandum to Mr. Clegg pointing out that as Assistant Executive Secretary of the college fraternity Tau Kappa Epsilon he was in a position to make contacts with a number of persons including Ronald Reagan. In a letter from the Director 9-26-41, Special Agent Browning was thanked and was asked to contact Ronald Reagan and the other individuals named, furnishing them the names of our various Special Agents in Charge. (66-2542-7560)

May 23, 1951

On April 10, 1947, Special Agents Richard D. Auerbach and Fred G. Dupuis interviewed Ronald Reagan and his wife, Jane Wyman, as to their knowledge of Communist activity within the Screen Actors Guild. Reagan described a meeting at the home of James Roosevelt in Beverly Hills, California, of July 5, 1946. This was a meeting of the Hollywood Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions. Reagan and his group advocated a resolution opposing Communism as well as Fascism. John Howard Lawson was present and declared that no resolution would ever be passed condemning Communism. The resolution proposed by Reagan was voted down whereupon he resigned from the organization that same evening by telegraph. (100-33892-124)

In a letter dated October 24, 1947, to the Director, Mr. Quentin Reynolds made reference to a dinner which they had attended and at which Ronald Reagan had made a passing remark that Mr. Reynolds was said to be a Communist. (This is mentioned in this memorandum because the letter from Mr. Reynolds indicates that the Director and Ronald Reagan were both present at the dinner in question) (94-34419-9)

On December 19, 1947, the Los Angeles Office reported information concerning Communist activities in the motion picture industry. The investigative report sets forth the information received by Special Agent Fred G. Dupuis from T-10 (Ronald Reagan, President of the Screen Actors Guild.) Reagan said that he had been made a member of a committee headed by L. B. Mayer for the purpose of purging the motion picture industry of Communists. Reagan referred to the House un-American Activities Committee hearings conducted by Chairman Thomas in Washington, D. C. as being regrettable. Reagan thought that the "unfriendly witnesses" should have been allowed to make the prepared statements they had ready, and they would have condemned themselves in the eyes of the public more efficiently than the Committee was able to do. He criticized the attitude of the Committee Investigator, Stribling. Reagan said that the group to which he, himself, belonged did not have a sound program for eliminating Communism, because it was impossible to identify Communist Party members, some of whom he was convinced were members of the Guild. Reagan was convinced that Congress should outlaw the Communist Party and that Congress should define organizations which are Communist controlled. (100-138754-367)

Los Angeles report dated 2-10-48 was submitted concerning Lloyd Gough, a reported Communist Party member. The investigative report sets out information obtained from [T-6] [redacted] b7D

May 23, 1951

[redacted] who said that meetings of the Guild were attended by a clique of individuals headed by Ann Revere, and included Lloyd Gough, Larry Parks and Karen Morley, who invariably followed the Communist Party line at Guild meetings. (100-351326-5)

SUBJECT: "COMMUNIST TARGET--YOUTH"
CALL FROM RONALD REAGAN
1:20 P.M., 8-26-60
POSSIBLE TELEVISION SHOW

By reference from the Director's Office, I talked with Ronald Reagan, the movie star, at 1:20 p.m., 8-26-60. Mr. Reagan had just finished reading the Director's pamphlet, "Communist Target--Youth." He was very enthusiastic. He stated he has a Sunday night television show which has a viewing audience of 30 million people. It is the "General Electric Theater." He mentioned that this was a very high type show and that the programs usually are of the type that will render a public service.

Mr. Reagan felt that the Director's pamphlet should receive considerable publicity throughout the United States. He expressed the thought that the entire population should be made aware of the communist danger. He would like to base a future Sunday night program upon the pamphlet if the Director has no objections. He stated that the locality in which the youth riots occurred (San Francisco) would naturally be changed and that all names would be fictionalized in view of legal problems involved. He pointed out that the show would reflect innocent appearing students on a college campus and how these students could be duped by the communists into carrying on subversive activities.

Mr. Reagan also brought up the possibility of the Director appearing on his television show at the conclusion of the program. He stated if the Director could not come to California he would be happy to have a camera crew film the Director in his office. He stated this would lend great authenticity and dignity to his program. He would request the Director to give approximately 2 to 3 minutes of remarks concerning the danger of communism and particularly communist infiltration of youth.

I told Mr. Reagan that the Director would be very pleased at his interest in this matter and would, of course, correspond with him in the very near future. He was told of the Director's travel status at the present time. He was additionally advised that the Director's very tight schedule usually precludes him from appearing on television or radio and that such would undoubtedly be the case in this instance; however, the matter would be checked.

Re: "COMMUNIST TARGET--YOUTH"
Possible TV Show

Ronald Reagan is, of course, well known to the Director as an anti-communist. He has paid several visits to the Los Angeles Office and we have had cordial relations with him.

ACTION:

Inasmuch as Reagan's program would undoubtedly do a great deal of good, it is suggested that we offer no objections to the program. This should serve as a great public service, if produced properly, and should additionally furnish considerable desirable publicity for the Director's pamphlet, "Communist Target--Youth" we would not have complete control

Mr. Reagan specifically indicated he would appreciate very much our informally reviewing his script whenever it was written concerning the program. Mr. Reagan did not ask for any technical or consultant advice in connection with this program. He merely desires permission from the Director to use the pamphlet and to have the Director on his program.

There is attached a suggested letter to Reagan. The letter additionally informs Mr. Reagan that the Director, because of his heavy schedule of commitments, cannot appear on the program although the invitation is deeply appreciated.

Dear Mr. Reagan:

Upon my return to Washington I was immediately advised of your telephone conversation with Assistant Director C. D. DeLoach on August 26, 1960.

I am pleased to learn of your interest in the congressional pamphlet which I wrote entitled "Communist Target--Youth." Your desire to use this pamphlet as a basis for producing a television show and your most thoughtful invitation for me to appear on such a program are the source of deep personal satisfaction for me; however, I must regretfully decline.

The production of an inspiring program of the magnitude you propose would necessarily require our technical assistance regarding the many ramifications involved in accurately portraying the insidious methods the communists use to infiltrate our youth. I regret that we are not in a position to cooperate in such a production.

Mr. RONALD REAGAN telephoned through operator from West Los Angeles, California, for the Director. He was advised of the Director's absence from the city and referred to Mr. DeLoach.

Mr. DeLoach advised that Mr. Reagan had just read the pamphlet "Communist Target--Youth," and Mr. Reagan thought that this pamphlet should be brought to the attention of as many of the public as possible. Mr. Reagan has a Sunday night television show called the General Electric Theatre, and he would like to do a television show based on the pamphlet showing how college youths could be duped by the Communist Party. Mr. Reagan stated he would change the location and fictionalize the identities of the people involved. He thought this would be a great public service.

Mr. Reagan said he would like to have the Director appear at the end of the program and express the danger of communism.

EX-105 REC-22 100-382196-3

Mr. DeLoach advised Mr. Reagan that he doubted seriously that the Director would be able to do this, but that this very kind invitation would be brought to the Director's attention for consideration. Mr. Reagan asked about making a show based on the pamphlet, and he was told that this would also be considered and he would be advised.

SUBJECT: RONALD REAGAN
MASTER OF CEREMONIES
GENERAL ELECTRIC THEATER

BACKGROUND:

You will recall that the captioned individual telephoned the Director's Office on 8-26-60, and upon referral, you talked to him. Reagan was interested in producing a television show for the "General Electric Theater" shown on a national network on Sunday evenings on the subject of Mr. Hoover's pamphlet, "Communist Target--Youth." He was very enthusiastic about the pamphlet and stated that he would like the Director to appear on the show at the conclusion of the program and give approximately two or three minutes of remarks concerning the danger of communism and particularly communist infiltration of youth.

You told Mr. Reagan that the Director would be pleased at his interest and that you would bring the request to his attention and that Mr. Hoover would write him in the near future concerning this matter. Reagan did not ask for technical advice in connection with the program but particularly wanted permission from Mr. Hoover to use the pamphlet as the basis for the script and to have the Director appear on his program.

Mr. Tolson commented that he doubted the wisdom of permitting the program with our consent as any misunderstanding would be attributable to us. The Director concurred in this observation.

REC- 33 100-382196-4

The Director wrote Reagan on 8-31-60 thanking him for his interest in producing the television show but declining to appear on the program. The Director's letter also stated that such a program would necessarily require our technical assistance to accurately portray the communist methods in infiltrating youthful groups but that we were not in a position to cooperate in such a production.

EX-107

Reagan again telephoned the Director on 9-8-60 and declined to speak to an assistant when Mr. Hoover's absence was explained. He said perhaps he would try to contact the Director tomorrow morning, Friday, September 9, and while he did not explain his reason for calling, it undoubtedly concerns the use of the Director's pamphlet as the basis for a television production.

Re: Ronald Reagan

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA:

Ronald Reagan was born in Tampico, Illinois, on 2-6-11 and was graduated from Eureka, Illinois, College with an A. B. degree in 1932. He began his career as a newspaperman but switched to sports announcing on station WHO in Des Moines, Iowa, where he was employed from 1932 to 1937. He has been a prominent motion picture actor since 1937 and is one of Hollywood's most active political figures and considered very conservative by Hollywood standards. He served as a Captain in the Air Force in World War II, was married and divorced from actress Jane Wyman and is presently married to Nancy Davis. He was President of the Screen Actors Guild, 1949-1951; breeds thoroughbred horses and trains hunters and jumpers.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

The Bureau has not investigated Ronald Reagan. Our files do contain numerous references to him chiefly in connection with his anti-communist activities in different Hollywood organizations. Informants have advised us that he is definitely anticommunist and he so indicated when he appeared before the House Committee on Un-American Activities as a friendly witness in October, 1947. He has been contacted on several occasions by Agents of our Los Angeles Office and in every instance has been cooperative and helpful; he in turn has visited our Los Angeles Office, and our relations with him have been cordial. RECOMMENDATION:

For the Director's information in the event Ronald Reagan calls him on Friday, September 9, 1960.

Mr. Ronald Reagan, Master of Ceremonies of the General Electric Theatre, telephoned through operator from West Los Angeles, California, for the Director. He was advised of the Director's absence from the office and offered the services of Assistant Director DeLoach, which he accepted.

Mr. DeLoach advised that Mr. Reagan indicated he appreciated very much the consideration given on his call to Mr. DeLoach on August 26 and also the letter which he received from the Director dated August 31. He said he was somewhat disappointed inasmuch as the Director had indicated it would be impossible to cooperate regarding this matter, which was to permit him to do a television program regarding the Director's pamphlet "Communist Target - Youth" and for the Director to appear at the end of this program. Mr. Reagan pointed out that he knew of the grave importance of communist infiltration of our youth and he thought it highly desirable to produce a TV program based on the San Francisco riots, which, however, would not mention the Director's pamphlet or involve the FBI in any manner. He stated he wanted an alarmist-type program to awake the American public to the fact that "it can happen here." He intends to show how college students can be duped into carrying out the work of the communists. Reagan said that he would be the narrator of the program. He said he had recently seen the TV portrayal of the Sacco - Vanzetti case and he thought this was distorted to favor the "sob sisters" viewpoint and he thought it was high time somebody reflected the true facts as to what the communists are trying to do. He said he sincerely hoped the Director would not think he was trying to plagiarize the magnificent pamphlet which the Director wrote concerning the San Francisco riots. He reiterated he would not involve the FBI or the Director in this program.

Mr. DeLoach emphasized the fact that the FBI could not offer any service to him regarding the program in view of our heavy responsibilities. He said he fully understood this but after the script has been written, he is hopeful that we will take a look at it. Mr. DeLoach told Mr. Reagan, while the Director could not interpose any objection to a public service program which did not mention the name of the FBI or the Director's pamphlet "Communist Target - Youth," he should be very careful not to infer that this program is FBI sponsored. Mr. Reagan stated this would certainly be done.

Mr. RONALD REAGAN telephoned through operator from Los Angeles, California, for the Director. He was advised of the Director's absence from the office and was offered the services of an assistant which he declined. He asked when he could expect to speak with the Director and was told that the Director is presently out of the office attending a conference and that it was not possible to say just when the Director would return.

Mr. Reagan said that perhaps he would try to contact the Director tomorrow morning.

It is noted that Mr. Reagan telephoned for the Director on August 26, was advised of the Director's absence from the city and was referred to Mr. DeLoach. Mr. Reagan called in regard to his desire to do a television show based on the Bureau's pamphlet "Communist Target--Youth" and his desire to have the Director appear at the end of the program and express the danger of communism.

Mr. DeLoach's memorandum (copy) is attached. Mr. DeLoach's office advised that the attached copy of the letter to Mr. Reagan dated August 29, had been rewritten. Revised letter is on special locate and will be submitted to the Director immediately upon receipt in this office.

These Days . . . .

A Mayor Named Jimmy for L.A.?

By John Chamberlain

LOS ANGELES — A visitor to California quickly gets the idea that virtually every local political figure has a past. Ronald Reagan, the Hollywood broadcasting star who made by far the best speech of the whole 1964 campaign for Barry Goldwater, used to be a Democrat, and once, so it is now charged by some of his enemies, unknowingly consorted with Lefties in an innocent front. (The answer to this might be, "Who didn't?")

Chamberlain

Sen. George Murphy, long a Republican, also began his political life as a Democrat. Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles has always remained a Democrat, but he supported Dick Nixon against John F. Kennedy. This is a chameleon State, politically speaking, and evidently it doesn't matter so much what you were as when you changed.

A far more basic trouble, it would appear, is that some people don't change at all. There's Congressman Jimmy Roosevelt, for example, who wants to take the Los Angeles mayor's job for himself in the coming April primary, which will see him running against incumbent Yorty and a Republican named Pat McGee. Jimmy stands right where he was, the darling of the Left.

YEAR AFTER YEAR he has been in the forefront of the fight in Washington to abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee. Nobody accuses Jimmy Roosevelt of any sinister motives in this, but at this juncture in California affairs, un-American activities are an important issue.

This is the state that has witnessed the quickest growth of the new W.E.B. DuBois clubs, which take their name from the Negro scholar who, at the age of 90 or so, turned his back on a lifetime of constructive activity to become a Communist. The recent campus riots at Berkeley were a mixed-bag affair, with Maoists, DuBois clubbers and even right-wing Goldwaterites making a united front on a specious free speech issue.

One question in Los Angeles is why Jimmy Roosevelt cares about protecting DuBois clubbers and Maoists from the possible probings of congressional investigators. Mayor Sam Yorty has not always pleased conservatives, but people in both political parties who take the safety of the Republic seriously recall that Yorty, as a State legislator, once played a prominent part in starting an investigation of Communist manipulation of the State relief administration. The memory of this is bound to get Sam Yorty some Republican votes come April.

THE LEFT-RIGHT split in the Los Angeles mayoralty race picture shades off into other splits, which are exacerbated by the feuds in both parties. In Yorty's corner, if only unofficially, there is Jesse, or Big Daddy, Unruh, the Democratic speaker of the State Assembly. This means that Jimmy Roosevelt can claim the support of partisans of Gov. Pat Brown, who feuds with Unruh.

The left wing of the Democratic Party, the council of Democratic Clubs, constitutes itself a chowder and marching club for Jimmy Roosevelt. This means that Jimmy has the support of many labor groups, and he is claiming the ethnic group vote. But the CDC couldn't keep Pierre Salinger from snatching the senatorial nomination from under the nose of popular Alan Cranston, the State Comptroller, last year, so it can hardly be said to be all-powerful. And Yorty has been wooing the big Los Angeles Mexican bloc.

An outsider would think that with two Democrats fighting one Republican in the "nonpartisan" mayoralty primary, the Republican might sneak in as a result of the division between his enemies. But the outsider is told that Republicans will flock to Yorty's banner just to keep Jimmy Roosevelt out. The hope of the conservative Democrats and the Republicans is that Yorty will get 51 per cent of the primary vote, thus avoiding a run-off contest.

THE BIGGEST count against Yorty is that he "bickers" with the City Council. But the city charter gives negative power to the Council, and every mayor since 1935 has had to be a bickerer in order to make himself heard. Jimmy Roosevelt, who has dallied with the idea of putting a review board over the Los Angeles Police Department, would hardly decrease the sum total of local yakking. And it would be a yakking in which the leftist decibel count would be high.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

New White House Stage for LBJ

By Drew Pearson

President Johnson doesn't seem to fear Republican Barry Goldwater, but he is threatened by a major challenge. It is not against congressional candidates by the ultra-conservative Republican Party, nor against his peace program by the John Birch Society, nor against his foreign aid program by the Chamber of Commerce.

Pearson

The challenge comes from Cleveland's Hallen department store, which wants to inaugurate the "first attraction of its kind anywhere" over the White House facade of the White House.

The "attraction" — sound and light — is ordinary folks. The Greeks have done it on the Acropolis in Athens, and what the French have done at Versailles just outside Paris.

The system of colored lights will play on these historic monuments with loud sound effects telling the crowds the history.

Miss Hallen's plan is to let thousands of tourists sit on benches in the park south of the White House while lights play on that beautiful building and the speaker tells the story of John Adams, the first President who moved in, perhaps Miss Hallen discussing with Abigail Adams the problems of the White House bathrooms and cold outside toilets.

Or the loudspeaker would carry the voice of Abraham Lincoln, as he delivered the prologue of the Civil War, or Franklin D. Roosevelt inaugurating the New Deal, or John F. Kennedy debating the Bay of Pigs.

A committee has been appointed to consider Miss Hallen's sound-and-light ideas, not only for the White House but also for the Lee Mansion and for the Capitol.

Pity the President

However, neither Miss Hallen nor the committee seems to have considered the consequences to President Johnson.

What, for instance, does this do to his light-bulb program? He has set such an example of turning out lights that Mayor Robert Wagner of New York is emulating him and expects to save $2000 a month on the Manhattan light bill. Even I have been able to get the electricity using Mrs. W. to turn off a few lights in our home.

With the south side of the White House flooded every evening, obviously LBJ's light program goes glimmering. (Perhaps this was why the Federal Power Commission came out with its 400-page report last week predicting that the cost of electricity could come down 50 per cent.)

Again, what does Miss Hallen's scheme do to the President's sleep? True, he is frugal, but he is sometimes awakened at night with cables from Viet-Nam anyway. But imagine having the voice of John Adams discussing outside toilets interrupting your evening, or the sonorous voice of FDR addressing "my friends." The latter might be sleep-provoking. But if LBJ had to listen to the nasal twang of Calvin Coolidge it could drive him back to Texas.

Again, what does sound and light do to the President's bird-watching program? He is a very hospitable guy. He is tempted by the crowds outside the White House fence. The hugs the railing every evening to see the lights on Harry Truman's "front porch" and hear the voice of Abe Lincoln rehearsing the Gettysburg Address would be too much of a temptation. How could he resist?

History is important in the education of tourists. That is important. But surely [illegible] consideration must be given to the President's light bill, his sore hand, and his sleep.

Merry-Go-Round

One of the most accurate pollsters used by President Johnson, Oliver Quayle, has made a survey of the United Steelworkers line-up in the election battle between President Dave McDonald and Secretary I. W. Abel. It shows McDonald leading with a substantial margin of 53 per cent. Abel has only 41 per cent, with 1 per cent undecided. The poll, a thorough one, included locals in basic steel, aluminum, nonferrous metals and miscellaneous industries. . . California Republicans, having elected actor George Murphy to the U.S. Senate, now are talking about running Ronald Reagan, right-wing General Electric TV commentator, for governor against Pat Brown. If so, Pat's slogan will be, "One movie actor is enough." —The slogan that hurt Pierre Salinger most in the California Senate race was coined after Bobby Kennedy had entered the race for the Senate in New York. The slogan was: "Vote for the candidate of your choice in the state of your choice."

St. Paul Teachers' Fed Tries, Fails To Muffle Ron Reagan's Spiel To Students

St. Paul, Jan. 31. — Fearing a political talk, the St. Paul Federation of Teachers didn't want Ronald Reagan to be allowed to make an address to students at this city's largest high school.

The body protested to the local school board against the scheduling of the talk, but in vain. Board refused to call it off.

Brought to St. Paul by its area Chamber of Commerce to speak at that body's annual membership meeting and to participate in the local Winter Carnival celebration, Reagan was persona non grata to the teachers' organization. That's because he's generally considered to be a spokesman for the extreme conservative point of view.

In its protest letters to the schools' superintendent and school board members, the Teachers' Federation asked for the establishment of "a policy dealing with the presence of controversial issues in the forum of the school assembly."

Chamber of Commerce officials said that the "school administration" itself requested that Reagan be made available for the high school talk. It was stated that neither the Chamber nor anyone else had advance information as to the nature of the actor's talk, but that there was no reason to believe it would be political.

What Reagan did talk about mostly to the students was the danger of communism, especially to youth. He spoke in several areas of political dispute, expressing the viewpoint that compulsory health insurance is not the answer to the problem of illness among old people and that the income tax is unfair.

Upon his arrival from Hollywood at a press conference, when apprised of the Teachers Federation protest, Reagan said that "in fairness, they should wait and hear what somebody says before attacking.

"It's a sad day if you can't discuss issues without being attacked in advance," he told the reporters.

"Who is defending the extreme right?" asked Reagan, who mentioned that he's not a John Birch Society member.

"It seems that people determine what is extreme right by looking at you from the far left. The same people who were labeled pinks and other such terms, and who rightly protested, see nothing wrong in taking off on the 'neo fascists' and the 'lunatic fringe'."

While in the Twin Cities, Reagan also addressed the Minneapolis Conservative Citizens Club.

My dear Senator:

Your letter enclosing a copy of a news item from the Twin Falls Times - News, Twin Falls, Idaho, was received on November 7, and I welcome the opportunity to respond to your questions about the communist menace.

In view of your concern, may I point out that the communists have tried to infiltrate every part of our society, but they have not achieved substantial success because of our internal security programs; the investigation, arrest, and prosecution of a number of Party functionaries; and the rising tide of public opposition to the communist movement. All this has been accomplished in orderly constitutional fashion and is something of which every American should be proud. We must continue to be alert to these infiltration efforts. I wish to emphasize most strongly that communism is a grave threat to the continued existence of the United States. Because of this, it is doubly imperative that we be calm, rational, and thoroughly accurate in what we say and do in opposing communism. This is no time for rumors, unfounded suspicion, gossip and the hurling of false accusations.

In accordance with Presidential directives, instructions from the Attorney General and various Federal laws, the FBI is charged with conducting specific types of investigations concerning applicants, appointees and employees of agencies of the Executive Branch of the Government. Of course, the FBI does not issue clearances or nonclearances, express opinions regarding the suitability of persons for Government employment or make recommendations with respect to hiring, firing or retaining applicants and employees of other Federal agencies. The purpose of these inquiries is to determine facts about an individual on which appropriate officials can make a sound judgment as to whether or not that person warrants the trust placed in him as a public servant. In the domestic intelligence field, the primary aim of the FBI is to keep appropriate Government officials constantly informed with respect to the activities and plans of the enemies of democracy within the United States so that effective countermeasures and preventative means can be devised. The FBI, as in the past, will endeavor to carry out these investigative responsibilities to the utmost.

Enclosed are several items setting forth my views on these and other matters relating to communism which you may find of interest.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Attached to this letter is a copy of a newspaper clipping from the Twin Falls, Idaho Times-News of October 17, 1961, reporting on a meeting at which a tape recording of a speech by Ronald Regan was heard by the group.

Do you have any information that would support Mr. Regan's charges as made in this article that the Communists are infiltrating all phases of the government? If so, are you in a position to tell me what steps are being taken to remove these persons from any government positions that they may be holding?

Ronald Reagan, the well-known actor who announced his candidacy for California's Republican gubernatorial nomination on 1/4/66, appeared on "Meet The Press" TV show on Channel 4 (NBC) at 1:00 p.m., 1/9/66.

Reagan was queried considerably concerning the John Birch Society and specifically as to why he had condemned the communists and the Ku Klux Klan but had not made the same denunciations of the John Birch Society. In reply, he answered that the Communist Party and the Ku Klux Klan had been listed as subversive by the Department of Justice and that the FBI had not found anything subversive in the Birch Society. He also commented that the State of California had investigated the Birch Society but found nothing subversive. He called for a Congressional investigation to "clear the air."

Reagan was also asked why he decided to run for Governor and he replied that the people in California have been living under a dictatorial fiat long enough. He was also questioned concerning a statement allegedly attributed to him that he did not support the Civil Rights Bill. He stated this was erroneous and that this comment was attributed to him after a long explanation pointing out certain weaknesses which he felt existed in the Bill as passed. He indicated that this statement certainly should not be interpreted as being an indication of his being anti-civil rights.

Over-all, Reagan made a good appearance and was quite quick and witty in answering the numerous questions put to him which could have been considerably embarrassing to his future political ambitions.

Reagan Suggests Probe Of John Birch Society

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—Ronald Reagan, in answer to suggestions he is right-wing politically, declares "my views haven't changed an awful lot since I was a Democrat."

Reagan, actor-turned-politician, is out for the Republican nomination for governor of California. He was the guest Sunday on NBC-TV's "Meet the Press."

Reagan has been a Republican since 1960, when he helped Richard M. Nixon in his unsuccessful bid against the late President John F. Kennedy.

The veteran of movies and television was questioned much on the John Birch Society — whether he would or would not denounce it in his campaign.

"I think that in order to clear the air, Washington should investigate the John Birch Society," Reagan said.

"You can't kick an organization out of your party that is not in it. Surveys have shown that the John Birch Society has as many Democrats as Republicans."

Reagan, vociferous in his condemnation of Communists and the Ku Klux Klan, was asked why he hadn't made the same denunciations of the John Birch Society.

Reagan replied: "There is a vast difference. I'll take second to no one in my denunciation of the Communists and the Ku Klux Klan, but they are listed as subversive organizations. The FBI says it found nothing subversive about the John Birch Society."

He stressed: "I am not a member of the John Birch Society, nor am I ~~going to join~~."

~~Reagan Asks~~ 'Air-Clearing' Birch Probe

BURBANK, Calif., Jan. 9 (UPI) — Republican Ronald Reagan today suggested a congressional investigation of the John Birch Society to "clear the air" on whether the anti-Communist organization is subversive.

Reagan, 54, who announced last Tuesday that he is a candidate for California's Republican gubernatorial nomination, made the suggestion on the television program "Meet the Press" (NBC, WRC).

The GOP hopeful was asked why he hesitated to express the "general conclusion" on the Birch Society when he was willing to condemn the Communist Party and the Ku Klux Klan.

He answered that the Communist Party and the KKK had been listed as subversive by the Justice Department. On the other hand, he said, neither the FBI nor investigations by the California Senate had uncovered anything of a subversive nature in the Birch Society.

"Maybe the air could be cleared if Washington would investigate the Birch Society and say whether it is or is not subversive," he said.

BACKGROUND:

The Director has asked for a summary on Ronald Reagan, the Hollywood actor. The 3-16-65 issue of "The Washington Post and Times Herald" contained a column by John Chamberlain which discusses California politics in general but specifically refers to Ronald Reagan, who Chamberlain claims made far the best speech of the 1964 campaign for Barry Goldwater. Chamberlain states that Reagan used to be a Democrat, "and once so it is now charged by some of his enemies, unknowingly consorted with Lefties in an innocent front. (The answer to this might be, 'Who didn't?')" It is noted that recent news articles indicate Reagan may run against Pat Brown for California Governorship.

BIOGRAPHICAL DATA:

Ronald Reagan was born 2-6-11 at Tampico, Illinois, and received his A.B. degree in 1932 from Eureka, Illinois, College. He became a newspaperman but switched to sports announcing, being employed from 1932 to 1937 on Radio Station WHO in Des Moines, Iowa. Since 1937 he has been a motion picture actor and has become prominent. He served as a Captain in the Air Force in World War II, and for some years was married to Jane Wyman, whom he subsequently divorced, and married Nancy Davis. Reagan breeds thoroughbred horses and trains hunters and jumpers.

INFORMATION IN BUFILES:

The Bureau has not investigated Reagan; however, our files do contain numerous references to him, primarily concerning his anticommunist activities in various Hollywood organizations. He has been considered one of Hollywood's most active conservative political figures. In the recent political election he campaigned for Barry Goldwater. He has spoken in various parts of the country on the evils of communism and was a friendly witness before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in October, 1947. One source in 1960 advised that he understood that Ronald Reagan, along with several other prominent Hollywood personalities including Adolph Menjou, were members of the Beverly Hills Chapter of the John Birch Society, but in a 1962 press conference Reagan incidentally mentioned that he was not a member of the John Birch Society.

CRIME RESEARCH

M. A. Jones to DeLoach
Re: RONALD REAGAN

Although he has been extremely anticommunist since about the mid-1940's, he was reportedly a sponsor of the Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy, which has been designated by the Department of Justice pursuant to Executive Order 10450. In testimony before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in October, 1947, he said that he had received some literature from this organization, and that he was duped through a telephone call to lend his name as sponsor of a recital which he later learned was under the auspicies of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. It is noted in his testimony that he said he abhored the communist philosophy.

In the 1940's Reagan was reportedly a member of Americans for Democratic Action and the American Veterans Committee. In 1950 Dore Schary, prominent Hollywood personality, indicated he and Reagan, as well as others, had been active in the Hollywood Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions in 1945, but got out that year when communists took over. Reagan became President of the Screen Actors Guild in 1947 and was subsequently re-elected. He was extremely active in the Guild in opposing the communists.

Reagan has visited our Los Angeles Office and relations with him have been cordial. In 1960 he contacted the Bureau regarding his desires to do a television show for the "General Electric Theater," which he narrated, on the Director's pamphlet "Communist Target--Youth." This was declined. On his "General Electric Theater" series, Reagan has produced a two-part program concerning the activities of [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

In March, 1960, we cooperated with Reagan by making inquiries here in Washington regarding Maureen Reagan, the daughter of Jane Wyman and Reagan, who was living with a married Metropolitan Police officer here in Washington. [redacted] Our inquiries appeared to confirm this situation and information was furnished on a confidential basis to now Senator George Murphy, who originally contacted our Los Angeles Office in the matter. Maureen had, in 1959, been the subject of a favorable Departmental applicant-type investigation in connection with Immigration and Naturalization Service employment; however, the investigation was discontinued.

It is noted that in December, 1964, we received word that the San Diego Patriotic Society (SDPS) intended to make an "American Patriot Award" to the Director for his outstanding services to the United States of America. If there was nothing in the files to prevent doing so, the SAC, San Diego, was instructed he could accept the award on behalf of the Director. The award is connected with the American Patriot Hall of Fame which is sponsored by the SDPS, a conservative group, and several other local conservative organizations. Some time in April the presentation will be made at a formal meeting attended by Ronald Reagan, John Wayne and perhaps former Senator Barry Goldwater, who has been given such an award.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

GOP Hushed Up Reagan Dossier

By Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson

Before Ronald Reagan, the charming Hollywood actor, was nominated as the Republican candidate for Governor of California, certain GOP leaders had prepared an amazing dossier on his past. They feared that Reagan was too politically unstable to lead the state.

Since then the research on Reagan's past record has been hushed up. There has been some backstage discussion among some California Republicans as to whether it should be published, but the decision so far has been negative.

Among the Republicans who have their fingers crossed about Reagan are former Gov. Goodwin Knight, Sen. Tom Kuchel, former Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco, and Joseph Shell, candidate for Governor in 1962 and Republican leader of the California Assembly.

Their skepticism is based partly on his lack of experience, partly on the fact that he once teamed up with extreme leftists, now is backed by extreme rightists. They wonder whether, if elected, he would prove to be a "revolving door" governor, given to sudden policy reversals.

This column has now obtained a copy of the Republican research on Reagan. And since he is running for the Governorship of the Nation's most populous State, with plans — according to backers —of going on to the White House, the public certainly has a right to know all his background.

The Reagan Record

Here, therefore, are the most important excerpts from the Reagan dossier which Republican leaders prepared but have not used:

On Sept. 7, 1946, Reagan was billed by the Peoples World [illegible] of the Communist Party in the West Coast, as the star in "Operation Terror," a series of 13 weekly broadcasts, "sponsored by Mobilization for Democracy," produced with the cooperation of the Hollywood Writers Mobilization.

The Mobilization for Democracy is listed by the House Un-American Activities Committee, page 220 of its 1961 report, as follows:

"Created by California Communists since 1945. It is a Communist-inspired and dominated organization, carefully window-dressed and directed and engaged in inciting riots, racial hatred, and disrespect for law and order. It is one of the 'key' Communist fronts in California."

The Hollywood Writers Mobilizations is described by the California State Senate Un-American Activities Committee, page 258 of its 1958 report, as follows:

"The Committee has reported on this Communist front, Hollywood Writers Mobilization, at some length in its 1945 report. It should be stated here that the Hollywood Writers Mobilization is a direct successor of the Pacific Coast Branch of the League of American Writers, Communist front for literary Communist and Communist fellow-travelers. The name Hollywood Writers Mobilization was assumed shortly after the Stalin-Hitler pact was ended by Hitler's attack on the Soviet Union, 6/22/41. It went into frenzied activity following the attack on Pearl Harbor. It should be pointed out that the record proves that the 'patriotism' indicated on the part of the leaders of this Communist front organization was dependent upon their secret loyalty to the Soviet Union."

The Hollywood Writers Mobilization was also cited as "subversive and Communist" by Attorney General Tom Clark, December, 1947, and September, 1948.

Changeable Candidate

The above highlights the most significant point in the career of candidate Reagan, namely the complete reversal of his position.

Today, in contrast, Reagan is proud of the awards he has received from segregationist Govs. Ross Barnett of Mississippi, Orval Faubus of Arkansas, and from the right-wing Citizens for Constitutional Government. He has been opposed to open housing and is cashing in, politically, on the white backlash resulting from various civil rights disturbances on the West Coast.

Republican skeptics in California wonder if Reagan will change again.

They have also dug up a significant item from the Communist Peoples World, Feb. 26, 1946, reporting that Ronald Reagan was a sponsor of the "Los Angeles Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy," which charged that "U.S. foreign policy in Asia is sowing the seeds of a third world war," and urged "the removal of troops from China."

A large body of American public opinion today agrees that Mr. Reagan was probably right in 1946 and that if we had not boycotted the Chinese after that we would not be confronted with a solidly Communist China today, determined either to take over Vietnam or to keep us continually fighting a divisive and debilitating war.

But Reagan, who may have been right in 1946, has gone into a complete reverse in 1966, and has lined up with the McCarthyites, the John Birchers and the ultra-rightists.

Reagan's Early Days Worry GOP

By Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson

Confirmed California Republicans have been uncertain as to how far they should go in covering up Ronald Reagan's extreme left record before he became the darling of the extreme right.

Former Mayor George Christopher of San Francisco, for instance, a candidate against Reagan for Governor in the Republican primary last June, made some oblique references to the record but did not follow through.

Speaking in northern California June 2, Christopher referred to "Reagan's wide-ranged political swings from the extreme left to the extreme right."

Next day in Bakersfield, Christopher asked the questions: "Did Mr. Reagan ever belong to the Americans for Democratic Action and when? Did he ever belong to the United World Federalists and when? Did he jointly sponsor protests on U. S. atomic policies with the chairman of the Communist Party in Los Angeles—and how long did this association last?"

Christopher cited Reagan's experience as "a student at Eureka College, Ill., in leading a student uprising against the rules of his own college, which finally provoked the college president to resign in disgust."

This part of the Reagan record is especially interesting in view of the fact that one of his main attacks against Gov. Pat Brown is for coddling of beatnik student activities at the University of California. Reagan has demanded that Brown clean out the University.

Reagan's Beatnik Record

However, Reagan's record as a student beatnik has been dug out of his autobiography, page 26, describing the manner in which he presented a petition to Eureka's board of trustees demanding the president resign. Reagan tells how the trustees and the president came out of their conference with "gloomy dachshund faces" to face Reagan's committee.

"Very simply our (strike) plan was that we would go home on vacation and we would return to the campus on the day vacation ended, but no one would attend a single class, and this strike would continue until our demands were met," recounts Reagan.

"The plan was simple, but I am afraid my emotion wasn't. I reviewed the history of our patient negotiations, with due emphasis on the devious manner in which the trustees had sought to take advantage of us . . . When I came to actually presenting the motion, there was no need for parliamentary procedure . . . Hell, with two more lines I could have had them riding through 'every Middlesex village and farm' . . . without houses yet.

"After Thanksgiving," continues the man who objects to students strikes at the University of California. "We put our strike plan into effect. The College ground to a standstill. Every afternoon the strike committee sponsored a dance. After a week the new president resigned."

California GOP bigwigs, such as Assembly Leader Joe Shell, who were members of the Republican Party when Reagan was a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, don't resent his changing party affiliations. What they wonder is whether he will revert back again. They don't want to put a political chameleon in the Governor's mansion.

Why did Reagan change so radically? Was it because of conviction? Was it because he grew up? Or was it because of money? Reagan's friends will give you different answers.

G.E. Took Over

But the fact is that it was in 1954 that Reagan began drawing over $100,000 a year from General Electric as a radio and television commentator. Before that he was an actor making money in "B" pictures when he could get work, or doing left-wing programs for the Hollywood Writers Mobilization (listed as a Communist front) when there was no work.

After he began drawing $100,000 a year plus from GE, Reagan started campaigning against Medicare, playing down the importance of labor unions, and taking on the political coloration of the corporation which at that time had one of the most anti-labor policies in the nation—General Electric.

Before 1954, his technique as a leader is best described by himself in his book. Asked by Walter Pidgeon to keep an open mind on a proposed strike settlement, Reagan says that he replied: "Walter, I agree with you completely — I'm going to keep an open mind. I'm going to read his plan before I vote no."

That's part of the record of Ronald Reagan, the man whom the right wing is now pushing to be, first, Governor of California, then, President of the United States.

U.N. to the Rescue

U.N. Ambassador Arthur Goldberg is pushing behind the scenes to get the United Nations to adopt measures to protect foreign embassies and diplomats around the world.

When pro-Israeli pickets burst into Syria's U.N. Mission in New York City, Goldberg personally sought their arrest and prosecution. He also offered a prompt apology to the Syrian delegation.

He urged that the U.N. act to safeguard embassies in all nations.

GE Disputes Column on Reagan Link

By Drew Pearson

General Electric has written a letter to editors, taking exception to a recent column regarding the long affiliation between GE and Ronald Reagan, now republican nominee for Governor of California.

Pearson

It is not quite clear from the letters whether GE seeks to disassociate itself from the right-wing views of Reagan. The net effect, however, is to muddy the political water.

Let me try to unmuddy it. In the column complained of, I stated that General Electric had changed from the old days when three executives were sent to jail and the corporation itself was given a fine of almost $1 million. However, since GE now accuses me of misstatements, let's examine the GE-Reagan record.

First, and most important, the column in question stated that what Reagan is now selling California voters is "anti-communism, morality in government, and platitudes about fairness to the working man." And, I said, for 10 years Reagan was the TV-radio spokesman for General Electric.

Not GE Spokesman

General Electric now corrects me on the term of years Reagan worked, stating it was only eight, which I am glad to accept; and also claims Reagan never acted as "official spokesman" but rather as "host and occasional star of the 'General Electric Theater' "; and that if he talked to labor leaders on his tours, "he did so only when they were included in large audiences of employes at General Electric plants." GE also states that it never "edited or censored Reagan's speeches."

Executives of the International Union of Electrical Workers inform me, and are willing to testify, that Reagan paid "glamor visits to GE plants, was extremely active in selling the line that GE was such a good company that no union was necessary, was vehement against Medicare, generally downgraded the plight of older people and their need for aid, and made a pitch for a John Birch-type of foreign and domestic policy.

Obviously GE made no attempt to edit or censor him.

GE was also involved in the conspiracy to fix prices for which three of its executives later went to jail and for which it was fined the highest amount ever thrown at a corporation in a criminal case.

Reagan, who now preaches morality to the California voters, was either willing to ignore this or didn't know about it. If the latter is true, which I am inclined to believe, he was not as alert as the Governor of a great state must be to prevent graft and corruption.

Battle on Communism

Reagan did not have to be alert, however, to know of the battle over communism that took place inside General Electric between two of its unions. All he had to do was read.

If he had read the papers, including this column, he would have known better than to get hooked up with a company which did nothing to clean out a pro-Communist union.

Norman Herrington, who signs himself in letters to editors "Public Information, General Electric," states "We are completely confounded by the statement that a Senate Labor sub-Committee headed by Hubert Humphrey dealt with what is perported to be General Electric anti-labor policies." Herrington also went into an involved explanation of how GE continues to do business with a pro-Communist union, blaming this on a vote staged by the NLRB.

The Senate report, which Herrington does not know about, is captioned, "Communist Domination of Unions and National Security" covering hearings held between March 17 and July 8, 1952, held in the 82d Congress under a subcommittee chaired by Hubert H. Humphrey, then Senator from Minnesota.

The hearings dealt with the battle between the United Electrical Workers, later expelled from the CIO as pro-Communist, and the non-Communist IEU for the right to organize General Electric. On page 26, the Senate Committee, in its final report, stated:

"We feel justified in commenting on an attitude reflected in certain statements issued by the General Electric Corp. on the theme of 'a plague on both your houses.' The essence of the theme is that there is little to choose between the left wingers and the right wingers. The reference is to the UE and the IUE respectively.

"This is an amazing statement and shows little comprehension of the forces at work in this world in the year 1952. If an employer says in effect there is no difference between a Communist union and an anti-Communist union, it is understandable why many workers may not pay too much attention to a valid charge that a union is Communist-controlled. Not to make this distinction, as apparently General Electric and other employers have not, is to play the Communist theme song."

This report was written in 1952. Ronald Reagan can read. He had been active as head of the Screen Actors Guild, including the picket line. Yet despite this report and the stir it caused in labor and industrial circles, he went to work for GE in 1954 and remained its spokesman until 1962.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Reagan to Seek California U. Probe

b7C

By Drew Pearson

LOS ANGELES—Things are moving fast in the upcoming Ronald Reagan Administration for California.

Pearson

Watch for President Clark Kerr, one of the outstanding educators of the Nation, to resign or be fired as president of the University of California.

Reagan expects to appoint John McCone, former CIA chief, to investigate the university. There have already been three investigations of student activities, but Reagan wants another.

This will touch off a wholesale exodus of Berkeley professors. Too many other colleges are eager to snap them up.

More Actors?

Watch for John Wayne, star of "Stagecoach," "Reap the Wild Wind," "The Lady Takes a Chance," "Tall in the Saddle," "Wake the Red Witch," "Blood Alley," "Wings of Eagles," "North to Alaska," and many other Westerns, to run for the U.S. Senate against incumbent Sen. Tom Kuchel, now Republican Whip.

Or if Wayne doesn't want to desert Hollywood, the nod may go to Chuck Connor, former ball player and star of "Rifleman."

Also watch for Reagan's appointment of Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles to replace Sen. George Murphy, the former actor who is expected to retire for reasons of health.

Yorty, an alleged Democrat, who supported Nixon against Kennedy in 1960 and Nixon against Brown for Governor in 1962, hustled back from Mexico one day before the elections to clinch his support for Reagan.

He had already turned over his files to Reagan, and his staff went down the line for Reagan. On election night Yorty appeared at the Coconut Grove victory breakfast with Reagan where the Reaganites gave him a grateful ovation.

They Will Be Missed

Unnoted in the headlines of the Ronald Reagan-Pat Brown race was the defeat of some of California's most dedicated legislators. Here are some top crusaders for the public who won't be in Sacramento anymore:

Assemblyman Jack Casey of Kern County, who pushed the passage of California's Medicare bill.

Sen. Fred Farr of Carmel, who fought the big lumber companies and battled against the billboards.

Sen. Jim Cobey of Merced, who fought the utilities on water and public power.

Assemblyman John Williamson of Kern County, who battled for beaches and parks.

Sen. Eugene Nesbit of San Bernardino, who fought for the public interest generally.

Sen. Al Winengand, of Santa Barbara, who fought for birth control and aroused such bitter animosity that during one birth control battle he got a letter from a constituent saying "I wish your mother had taken one of those pills."

Sen. Virgil O'Sullivan of Colusa County, who fought the oil companies and succeeded in reserving the revenue from offshore oil for California education. O'Sullivan wears an old coat, has eight children, spends his time fighting the oil lobbyists. After he was defeated, he telephoned Gov. Pat Brown, also defeated: "We got the tideland oil bill on the statute books," he said. "We may be out, but they can't turn the law back."

Election Melting Pot

Last week's election highlighted the melting pot that is America. Three Rockefellers, scions of one of the wealthiest families in the world, were elected in three different states, two as Republican Governors, New York and Arkansas, one, John D. Rockefeller IV, as Democratic State Senator in West Virginia . . . In the same election Louis Kruger, son of a Jewish taxi driver, ran for the N.Y.

The sons of three famous men—Bob Taft successfully ran for Congress in Ohio; FDR, Jr. lost for Governor in New York; Adlai Stevenson Jr. won the post of State Treasurer in Illinois . . . In Nevada, Woodrow Wilson was elected to the Assembly. This Woodrow Wilson is a Republican and a Negro.

Three Greeks were elected in diverse parts of the country. Peter Kyros was elected to Congress in Maine, and Nick Galifanakis was elected in North Carolina — both Democrats. Spiro Agnew, Republican, was elected Governor of Maryland, defeating an Irishman and a Jew . . . The son of a Basque sheepherder, Paul Laxalt, was elected Governor of Nevada.

The Irish, who dominated American politics for years, didn't do too well this time. The following Irish-Americans lost out in their races for Governor: Eddie McCormack in Massachusetts, Frank O'Connor in New York, George Mahoney in Maryland, William Egan in Alaska and Pat Brown in California.

Despite general Republican gains, five of the most rock-ribbed Republican states elected Democratic Governors — Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Kansas and Iowa.

SUBJECT: RONALD REAGAN (R)
GOVERNOR-ELECT--CALIFORNIA

BACKGROUND:

On 11-8-66, Republican Ronald Reagan of Pacific Palisades, California, defeated incumbent Edmund G. (Pat) Brown in the gubernatorial election in California. Reagan, an actor and rancher, was born 2-6-11, Tampico, Illinois. He received an A.B. degree from Eureka, Illinois, College in 1932, became a newspaperman and then switched to sports announcing on radio station WHO in Des Moines, Iowa, from 1932-1937. Since 1937, Reagan has been a motion picture actor and breeds thoroughbred horses and trains hunters and jumpers. During World War II, he was a Captain in the Air Force.

The Bureau has not investigated Reagan; however, our files do contain numerous references to him primarily concerning his anticommunist activities in various Hollywood organizations. He has been considered one of Hollywood's most active conservative political figures and in the 1964 election, he campaigned for Barry Goldwater.

Reagan has spoken in various parts of the country on the evils of communism and was a friendly witness before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in October, 1947. Although he has been extremely anticommunist since the mid 1940's, he was reportedly a sponsor of the Committee for a Democrat Far Eastern Policy (cited pursuant to Executive Order 10450). In testimony before the HCUA in October, 1947, he stated he had received some literature from this organization and that he was duped through a telephone call to lend his name as a sponsor of a recital which he later learned was under the auspices of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. In the 1940's, Reagan was reportedly a member of the Americans for Democratic Action and the American Veterans Committee. In 1950, Dore Schary, a prominent Hollywood personality, indicated he and Reagan, as well as others, had been active in the Hollywood Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions in 1945, but got out that year when the Communists took over.

The Director invited him to call upon the FBI for assistance in matters of mutual interest. (100-382196-9)

Dear Sir:

In a recent conversation about the fall elections a friend questioned the political background of Governor-elect Ronald Reagan of California. He asserted that Reagan was at one time a "card carrying member of the Communist Party". When I pressed my friend for his source of information he attributed it as a quotation from you.

It would be greatly appreciated if you could clear this clouded situation as you are a well known authority on the international Communist movement and its growth in America.

Such accusations are not new in American politics, but they seem to be more prevelant in the rise of the political career of the new Governor of California. His association with the Screen Actors Guild has led to a great amount of it. But I believe it was at this point in his life that he became aware of the infiltration of Communism in the movie industry and initiated a cleaning of the industry.

Thank you for your time and trouble. Your response will uncloud some muddy waters.

Yours truly,

Dear [redacted]

Your letter of November 14th has been received.

I never made the statement that Governor-elect of California, Ronald Reagan, was at one time "a card carrying member of the Communist Party." I would appreciate knowing the identity of your friend who attributed the statement to me so that I can advise him of its inaccuracy.

The FBI is strictly an investigative agency of the Federal Government and, as such, neither makes evaluations nor draws conclusions as to the character or integrity of any organization, publication or individual. Therefore, I am sure you will understand why I could not have made that statement.

Sincerely yours,

On November 17, 1966, Mr. Mulford visited the Bureau and spoke to SA John W. O'Beirne, Crime Research Section.

Mr. Mulford explained that he has been a long-time friend of the FBI and is well-known to our San Francisco Office. He said that during his term in the California Legislature he has introduced a number of bills designed to assist law enforcement in that state. He recently introduced a measure which will make it a felony to attack a police officer while he is on official business.

Mr. Mulford advised that he was very active in the recent gubernatorial campaign of Ronald Reagan and desires to exploit the opportunity he feels exists to have Governor Reagan clean out the left-wing elements which have been so active recently in the State of California. He said [redacted] will be appointed by Reagan to head a ten member policy guidance committee.

Mr. Mulford was tactfully informed that although his position was well understood, the FBI could not be placed in the position of "clearing" appointees to State positions. He was reminded that information concerning communists and liberal personalities has been a concern of the State of California Committee on Un-American Activities which has been functioning in this field for many years.

Mr. Mulford replied that while he realizes the Bureau's position, he thought it would be well to place on record what he believes to be the attitude of the incoming administration of his state regarding these matters and he thought the Bureau would want to assist. He was advised that we are precluded from the action he suggested.

NOTE: In this case the Denver Office advised that [redacted] Denver Post" newspaper had received an anonymous telephone call from an unknown male, stating he was going to kill Ronald Reagan. Since there is no indication that the call was interstate, it does not appear that there is a violation of the Federal Extortion Statute, but existing instructions require that Secret Service, local law enforcement agencies and the victim are to be notified in such instances. There is no indication that this has been done.

Enclosed, herewith, for the Bureau's information are two articles from the "San Francisco Chronicle" 1/6/67 relative to Governor REAGAN's inaugural message. It is noted that in his address the Governor makes several points relative to law enforcement:

1. Return local communities' power to pass and enforce police ordinances.

2. Support legislation against smut and pornography.

3. Create a California Crime Technological Foundation at a future unspecified time in an effort to employ the most scientific techniques to control crime.

4. Explore the idea of creating a state police academy to train law enforcement officers.

I thought the Bureau might be interested in his inaugural comments.

Reagan Aims at Budget-'Squeeze, Cut and Trim'

Inaugural Message--Fiscal Order

By Earl C. Behrens
Political Editor

Sacramento

California will "squeeze, cut and trim" to put its fiscal house in order, Governor Ronald Reagan declared yesterday in his inaugural address.

He proposed a program to reduce crime, to reform the welfare program by changing "relief check to pay check," to battle against waste in government and to halt mob lawlessness.

"Those with a grievance can seek redress in the courts or the Legislature but not in the streets," the 55-year-old governor said in his address on the steps of the State Capitol.

TOLERANCE

"Lawlessness by the mob, as with the individual, will not be tolerated. We will act firmly and quickly to put down riot or insurrection wherever and whenever the situation requires."

He spoke to both houses of the Legislature and to an audience estimated by Sacramento police at 15,000 to 20,000. The outdoor inauguration, third of its kind in the state's history, was held in sunshine following an early morning rain.

The temperature was 44 degrees.

Reagan declared his administration would strive to provide "those things we need, knowing we can afford them and they are paid for."

TAXES

Among them, he said would be property tax relief — "which I believe is absolutely essential."

And though there will be stricter controls on welfare Reagan said, the State will carry out the sentiments of a humane program in providing aid to those who truly need it.

The new governor declared that "gimmick" financing had been employed by the outgoing Democratic Administration. He did not mention former Governor Edmund G. Brown by name.

The governor said he has "inherited" a financial situation which presents him with a possible "deficit in the coming year" of perhaps "three-quarters of a billion dollars." He said this would be the case if present levels of state spending continue and if the "absolutely essential" property tax relief is given.

PROPERTY

He said he was preparing a "detailed and comprehensive program" of property relief.

ENCLOSURE

He did not present any proposed tax increase program but he did, in effect, rule out any "withholding of personal income taxes" as a means in raising State revenue. This was a program of former Governor Brown which was defeated in the legislature.

Reagan declared he would "stand between the taxpayer and the tax spender." He declared that government "is the people's business and every man, woman and child becomes a shareholder with the first penny of tax paid."

He said the entire tax situation is now being studied and reviewed before any tax recommendations will be made.

LOCAL

The new Governor in brief proposed to:

- Return to local communities power to pass and enforce police ordinances.
- Remove judicial appointments from politics.
- Support legislation against "smut and pornography."
- Create a California crime technological foundation at a future unspecified time in an effort to employ the most scientific techniques to control crime.
- Explore the idea of creating a state police academy to train law enforcement officers.
- Reduce administrative overhead in Welfare Administration, cut red tape and return control as much as possible to the county level.
- Support a statewide program to reduce unemployment and depend upon private industry, under direction of H. C. McClellan, a volunteer. Lieutenant Governor Robert Finch will be the liaison between government and private industry in the job training and education program.
- Cooperate with State Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty in returning more control of curriculum and selection of textbooks to local school districts and in the out of state recruitment of teachers.

On education, Reagan said:

"It is no denial of academic freedom to provide education within a framework of reasonable rules and regulations.

"It does not constitute political interference with intellectual freedom for the taxpaying citizens — who support the college and university systems — to ask that, in addition to teaching, they build character on accepted moral and ethical standards."

Other proposals enunciated by Reagan included:

- Legislation to provide each union member with a secret ballot in his union on policy matters and the use of union dues.
- A mediation service in labor-management disputes not covered by existing law.
- Improvements in workmen's compensation in death benefits and benefits to permanently disabled.
- Less restrictive controls on Federal grants and a bigger share of Federal taxes collected in California, along with tax credits for parents sending children to college.
- Federal legislation to "lift the archaic 160-acre water limit.
- Abolition of restirctive labor polices in agriculture.
- Solutions to "unrealistic" taxes which threaten "economic ruin" to agriculture.

The governor harshly criticized the Brown administration's change from a cash to an accrual system of bookkeeping. ~~This,~~ he said, was "financing the 12 months' spending with 10 months' income.

Reagan contended the cost of California's government is too high. "It adversly affects our business climate," he said.

"Our fiscal situation," said Governor Ronald Reagan, "has a sorry similarity to the situation of a jet liner out over the North Atlantic, Paris-bound.

"The pilot announced he had some news — some good, some bad — and he would give the bad news first.

"They had lost radio contact; their compass and altimeter were not working; they didn't know their altitude, direction or where they were headed.

"Then he gave the good news — they had a 100-mile-an-hour tail wind and they were ahead of schedule."

The language in Reagan's inaugural address yesterday was richer and more literary than the words he had expressed spontaneously during the campaign before he won election two months ago.

But like the campaign presentation, the address did more than outline a program. It carried in it some clues to the philosophy that has guided Reagan through his career into the governorship.

And there were indications of how Reagan would face the problems of governing the largest state in the Union during the next three years, 11 months and 28 days.

"We are going to squeeze and cut and trim until we reduce the cost of government," Reagan said.

"It won't be easy, nor will it be pleasant, and it will involve every branch of government, including the Governor's office . . .

"For many years now, you and I have been shushed like children and told there are no simple answers to the complex problems which are beyond our comprehension.

"Well, the truth is, there are simple answers — there just are not easy ones . . . The time has come for us to decide whether collectively we can afford anything we think of simply because we think of it.

"The time has come to run a check to see if all the services government provides were in answer to demands or were just goodies dreamed up for our supposed betterment."

This was Reagan's view of law enforcement and the challenge of crime:

"When fiscally feasible, we hope to create a California crime technological foundation utilizing both public and private resources in a major effort to employ the most scientific techniques to control crime.

"At such a time, we should explore the idea of a State police academy . . . We lead the Nation in many things; we are going to stop leading in crime.

"Californians should be able to walk our streets safely day or night. The law-abiding are entitled to at least as much protection as the law-breakers."

Reagan's proposed program for the future, he suggested immediate legislation to give local communities the right to pass stiffer law enforcement ordinances.

On courts, on youth and the aged:

"I pledge my support and fullest effort to a plan which will remove from politics, once and for all, the appointment of judges . . .

"Just as we assume a responsibility to guard our young people up to a certain age from the possible harmful effects of alcohol and tobacco, so do I believe we have a right and a responsibility to protect them from the even more harmful effects of exposure to smut and pornography . . .

"We are a humane and generous people and we accept without reservation our obligation to help the aged, disabled and those unfortunates who, through no fault of their own, must depend on their fellow men. But we are not going to perpetuate poverty by substituting a permanent dole for a pay check."

Reagan attempted, too, to put his succession to the governorship into perspective.

"What is taking place here is almost common-place routine," he said. "We are participating in the orderly transfer of administrative authority by direction of the people . . .

"Perhaps you and I have lived with this miracle too long to be properly appreciative. Freedom is a fragile thing and is never more than one generation away from extinction.

"It is not ours by inheritance. It must be fought for and defended constantly by each generation, for it comes only once to a people. Those who have known freedom and than lost it have never known it again."

On 4/19/66, at 5:20 pm, [redacted] Monsanto Chemical Company, Creve Coeur, telephoned this office and stated that an individual had been calling the guard office late at night, making all kinds of threats against the property of Monsanto and the guards employed by them. This individual threatened to machine gun the guards and threatened to come out and blow up Monsanto Chemical Co. He also told the guards that he was a communist, that he was in favor of the over-throw of the US Government by force and violence and was in favor of aiding Russia and furnishing scientific information to the Chinese. [redacted] stated that he did not know the identity of this individual who was making the phone calls but that he had been told that a certain individual, name unknown to [redacted] was suspected; that the supervisor of this person had listened in on a phone conversation over an extension and believed it to be identical with a former Monsanto employee.

[redacted] stated that these anonymous telephone calls had began in 2/66, and that the guards were getting "jumpy". [redacted] wished to know if there was any Federal statute under which the FBI could investigate the matter. He was informed that in the absence of any information that these telephone calls were interstate in character, the FBI could take no action. He was requested, however, to ascertain the name of the suspect so that this office would be aware of his identity and could advise the Secret Service in SL of his threats to do violence inasmuch as they wish to know the identities of all such persons as did the FBI.

On 4/20/66, [redacted] stated that the individual who was suspected was [redacted] who has been used occasionally as a temporary employee doing common labor work and whose services are furnished through Man Power, Inc.

FBI — SAINT LOUIS

At this time [redacted] stated that he had conducted quite a research project through the law library at Monsanto and had ascertained that it was a violation of Section 2385, Title 18, to advocate overthrow of the US Government by force and violence. [redacted] was informed that this particular section of the USC is identical with the old Smith Act which has been practically emasculated by US Supreme Court decisions; that [redacted] was known to this office and that he had made similar statements to the FBI and that the USA had declined any prosecution against [redacted]

[redacted] stated that he realized that this was probably a matter for local authorities in view of the threats to blow up Monsanto and machine gun the guards and that he would take the matter up with the Creve Coeur PD. b6 b7C

It should be noted that [redacted] stated that he was formerly a SA of the FBI but resigned in 1961 and has been employed in the Contract Division, Legal Dept., Monsanto, since 1/66.

[redacted] stated that should any charges be made against [redacted] he would immediately notify this office.

SUBJECT: STUDENT AGITATION, UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA INFORMATION CONCERNING (INTERNAL SECURITY)

Limited Classification

See Box Serial
Form 4-374

San Francisco advised on 1/14/67 that California Lieutenant Governor Robert Finch had requested representatives of the Bureau to meet with him and Governor Ronald Reagan on 1/16/67 to discuss the situation at the University of California campus at Berkeley. SAC, San Francisco, was instructed to comply with this request and to make no commitments but to determine what the Governor had in mind which prompted the request.

The aforementioned meeting took place as scheduled on 1/16/67. Governor Reagan advised he is concerned about the situation at the University of California, particularly, on the Berkeley campus. He indicated he is apprehensive that a new wave of demonstrations will erupt at Berkeley as a result of his strong stand against student agitation and his insistence that the University of California be operated on a sound fiscal basis.

Governor Reagan said he would be very grateful to the Director if he could be advised of any information developed concerning plans for future demonstrations to be held on the campus or at press conferences scheduled by him. He indicated he feels it is probable that some of his press conferences could be stacked with "left wingers" who might make an attempt to embarrass him and the state government. He also said it would be very helpful if we would furnish him on a confidential basis any subversive information contained in our files concerning Clark Kerr and the members of the University of California Board of Regents. Kerr is the President of the University of California and has adopted a palliative attitude toward campus agitation. In regard to the latter request, SAC, San Francisco, referred the Governor to the Thirteenth Report of the California Committee on Un-American Activities which contains detailed information regarding Kerr and the Board of Regents. There is no additional pertinent information in our files.

OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA
100-151646

As you know, the situation at the University of California at Berkeley has been an explosive one which has been exploited to a tremendous advantage by communists and other subversive elements. This situation was a political issue during the last election and Governor Reagan is obviously determined to take appropriate action to quell the unrest on the Berkeley campus.

OBSERVATIONS:

We are instructing San Francisco to comply with Governor Reagan's request to be advised of information we develop regarding plans for future demonstrations on the Berkeley campus or at his press conferences. We are also instructing San Francisco to confidentially advise Governor Reagan that we have no pertinent information concerning Clark Kerr or the Board of Regents of the University of California. In addition, we are requesting San Francisco to prepare blind memoranda concerning faculty members and students at the University of California at Berkeley who have subversive affiliations. These memoranda are to be forwarded to the Bureau for review.

This presents the Bureau with an opportunity to take positive steps to thwart the ever increasing agitation by subversive elements on the campuses. Berkeley has long been the "proving grounds" for campus agitators and agitators on other campuses take their lead from activities which occur at Berkeley. If agitational activity at Berkeley can be effectively curtailed, this could set up a chain reaction which will result in the curtailment of such activities on other campuses throughout the United States. This would also be helpful to the FBI.

I strongly feel that the most effective way to take advantage of this situation is to have a Bureau official, who is thoroughly familiar with the Berkeley situation and subversive activities in general, confidentially brief Governor Reagan. At that time, copies of the blind memoranda prepared by the San Francisco Office regarding students and faculty members with subversive affiliations should be furnished to Governor Reagan for his confidential information. Section Chief C. D. Brennan of the Internal Security Section has the qualifications and ability to handle this sensitive matter and I therefore recommend that he be designated to handle this assignment.

On February 25, 1967, at 7:09 p.m., a telephone call was received at the Detroit Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) from a caller who refused to identify himself other than by his United States Marine Corps Serial Number [redacted] This caller stated that he advocates the assassination of JOHN EDGAR HOOVER, Director of the FBI, Mr. GEORGE ROMNEY, Governor of Michigan, and Mr. RONALD REAGAN, Governor of California. b6 b7C

The caller described himself as an ex-Marine Corporal of World War II and stated that he would love to be tried on the basis of his war experience and record in World War II and said that the only thing that would be determined by the court would be that he was considered insane.

The caller also said that, "We ex-Marines are going to run this country or destroy it; that J. EDGAR HOOVER thinks he is God, but LBJ don't think it and will be glad to get rid of him," and "that I may go to Washington pretty soon and assassinate someone". He also said that no Federal Jury would ever convict him of anything but being insane.

The caller further stated that the FBI sent an agent to his mother's house without a search warrant and that all he wants is for someone else to go into her house without a search warrant because "I'm going to assassinate them". The caller said that his name was known by Agent [redacted] of the FBI office in St. Louis, Missouri. He also said that the FBI was 100% to blame for the assassination of President KENNEDY by OSWALD due to their utter stupidity and knowing what the Secret Service had already told the FBI. He concluded by stating in reference to the FBI, "You are the Gestapo of the United States of America. I denounce you and would assassinate your leader". During this call the caller refused to give his name and stated that he just traveled around. He claimed to have attended the University of Kentucky for three years after World War II from 1947 to 1950. b6 b7C

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Washington, 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

It has recently come to my attention that the F.B.I. will soon open a Division Headquarters in Sacramento having jurisdiction over the newly established Federal Eastern Judicial District. This is gratifying as this will more ably assist all of us in our continuing fight against crime and subversion.

As I study the large area covered by the Eastern District, I am favorably impressed with the wisdom of your decision in this matter. I am vitally interested in doing everything I can to combat the moral decay as shown by our rising crime rate in our country today. Having always had the highest regard for you personally and the splendid record the F.B.I. has achieved, please accept my personal assurance that your agency will have the most complete cooperation possible from my office.

I am looking forward to meeting the new agent in charge for your Sacramento Division in the near future, and if my office can be of any assistance whatsoever, do not hesitate to call on me personally.

My dear Governor Reagan:

Your most thoughtful letter was received on March 6th and, on behalf of all my associates, I want to thank you for your personal assurances of complete cooperation in the fight against crime and subversion.

I have instructed my representatives to extend all possible assistance to local and state agencies in California in matters of mutual interest, and I do hope you will not hesitate to call upon us whenever we can be of service. I share your confidence that a great deal can be accomplished by working together.

If current negotiations for suitable quarters are favorable, we plan to open our Sacramento Office in early summer. After space problems are resolved, I will name a staff and have the new Special Agent in Charge get in touch with you at his earliest opportunity. You may be sure that all of us in the FBI look forward to working with you and your administration.

With warmest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

JUNIOR ROLAND HUMBLE
THREAT AGAINST GOVERNOR RONALD REAGAN
PROTECTION OF THE PRESIDENT

On March 10, 1967, [redacted] Governor's Office, State of California, Los Angeles, California, furnished the following information to the Los Angeles Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] stated that one [redacted], California, had advised his office that [redacted] Junior Roland Humble, had left the family home on March 9, 1967, to kill the Governor of California. She said that Humble, a retired Army Captain, is alcoholic and capable of an act of violence when he is drinking. She reported that he was armed with a derringer.

According to [redacted], the Pasadena, California, Police Department reports that Humble is capable of any desperate act in that he has a past record of pulling a gun on police and recently reportedly threatened an unknown person with a switchblade knife. Humble has access to free military transportation and reportedly might go to Las Vegas, Nevada.

Humble was described by [redacted] as white, male, age 66, born February 13, 1901, at Leeds, South Dakota, six feet tall, weight 145 pounds, blond hair, green eyes. He has FBI No. 615191A and CII No. 585104. He was last arrested at San Bernardino, California, by the Sheriff's Office in January 1967 on a charge of drunk driving. b6 b7C

[redacted] said that the Governor's Office at Sacramento, California, had been advised, and that Governor Ronald Reagan was presently in Washington, D. C.

A review of the files of the FBI at Los Angeles reflects that Humble is apparently identical with Junior Roland Humble, subject of an Impersonation case in 1950. Investigation at that time reflected that Humble was separated from the Armed Forces in 1945 as retired. He was rated as

100-35[illegible]-20

No further investigation is being conducted in this matter.

This confirms telephonic information furnished t[redacted] on 3-10-67 at 6:50 PM by [redacted] one hundred per cent disability, psychoneurotic. The basis of the investigation was that during 1950 Humble had been utilizing Air Force transportation while dressed in his officer's uniform, claiming that as a retired officer under military regulations he was permitted to utilize Air Force aircraft for transportation. The case was never presented, and no further information is available in the files of the FBI at Los Angeles.

The above information was furnished to Special Agent [redacted] U. S. Secret Service, Los Angeles, at 10:14 A.M., March 10, 1967, by Supervisor William John Nolan, FBI, Los Angeles. b6 b7C

In view of Humble's previous use of Air Force transportation, Colonel John O'Connell, Office of Special Investigations, District 18, Norton Air Force Base, California, was also advised of the above at 10:47 A.M., March 10, 1967, by Supervisor William John Nolan, FBI, Los Angeles.

SUBJECT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

Enclosed herewith is one xerox copy of a letter and envelope addressed to "Govenor Ronald Reagan".

On April 27, 1967, ARTHUR VAN COURT, Chief, Special Services, Office of the Governor, State of California, Capitol Building, Sacramento, furnished Special Agent [redacted] a xerox copy of a threatening letter, with envelope, received by the Governor's Office. The letter is dated April 5, 1967, and is signed "John Doe". Mr. VAN COURT stated he turned the letter over to the California State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation upon receipt and that agency is conducting investigation.

Mr. VAN COURT advised he has already furnished a copy of the letter and envelope to STEPHEN A. BYRNE, Special Agent in Charge, United States Secret Service, Sacramento, for information purposes. He also stated he is providing the same to the FBI for the same reason.

In view of investigation by CII, none is being conducted by this office. No dissemination is being made in view of the fact that the United States Secret Service is already in possession of this information.

Governor Reagan
Sacto. Calif.

Dear Sir: I am taking this means to warn you that your life, as well as your family are in dire danger, as the result of your interference with the State Hospitals.

On a recent visit to one of the State Hospitals, I happened to overhear a conversation between several young men, patients in the hospital who are about to be released.

They were plotting your assassination, and also to bring bodily harm to your family unless you stop interfering with the state hospitals. They can not understand why you should cut down expenses for something so worth while and at the same time increase the salaries of government employees.

These men claim they would rather die in the electric chair than die in the gutter, of alcoholism.

Where can these poor unfortunates go for treatment, if not to a state hospital? Many of them can not afford a private hospital.

My dear Ronald,

When I was in Washington recently I spent some time with Mr. J. Edgar Hoover. He was most complimentary in his remarks. You will note that I referred to his evaluation of Ronald Reagan in the enclosed article.

Certainly your all-out fight against crime, and efforts to improve the moral and spiritual values of our people, especially youth, must continue.

SUBJECT: INQUIRY FROM OFFICE OF GOVERNOR RONALD REAGAN WASHINGTON, D. C.

[redacted] Washington representative for Governor Ronald Reagan of California, called on July 28, 1967, and advised that the [redacted] and three daughters plan to drive from Virginia to Sacramento, California, beginning August 7, 1967. He stated that Mrs. Nofziger desires to obtain a permit to carry a pistol in her car for personal protection and [redacted] requested guidance as to how this could be done.

After checking with ASAC [redacted] of the Washington Field Office, [redacted] was advised that there is no such thing as a national gun permit, neither is there any one agency which can authorize a person to carry a weapon in an automobile across the country, with the exception of Federal officers of course. He was further advised that a driver is subject to each state's particular laws regarding firearms. He was told that if [redacted] had a California police officer chauffeur for her it was highly possible that each state would recognize the authority of a state policeman to carry a weapon in an automobile and/or from one state to another.

[redacted] stated that he felt it was highly impossible for them to make arrangements for a policeman-chauffeur. He then stated that perhaps if [redacted] was to become an honorary California police officer she would be allowed to carry a pistol in her automobile without being subject to arrest. He was advised that the FBI could make no decision in this regard.

[redacted] was very appreciative for the information furnished him.

SUBJECT: GOVERNOR RONALD REAGAN
(Homosexuals on staff)

Jack Anderson, of Drew Pearson's staff, called me on 10/27/67, and stated that Pearson had called him from the West Coast to ascertain if any information could be picked up to confirm a rumor Pearson had received while on the Coast. Anderson told me that Governor Reagan had on his staff [redacted] recently complained that her 16-year-old son had been the subject of a homosexual attack by a member of the staff of Governor Reagan. The Governor assigned an investigator by the name of Van Court to look into this matter. Van Court placed a microphone in a cabin owned by [redacted].

Anderson stated that Pearson had learned that Van Court's microphone reflected homosexual activities at the above-mentioned cabin on the part of [redacted] another staff member whose name is [redacted] and a third individual whose last name is [redacted] (Anderson was unable to state whether this is [redacted] or not).

While at the cabin one of the visitors reportedly was a young FBI Agent who did not know that the three above-named individuals were homosexuals. [redacted] made a pass at the FBI Agent. The FBI Agent allegedly turned him down and left the place. Anderson wondered if the FBI had any statement to make concerning this matter. I stated we did not.

Anderson stated it could be that Pearson had garbled his facts, inasmuch as Pearson had another rumor that Reagan had become alarmed over the fact that [redacted] was "leaking" the results of cabinet meetings, and he had, therefore, asked Van Court to investigate the matter. Van Court did

I told Anderson that this was not a matter within the investigative jurisdiction of the FBI and we could not be of any assistance to him whatsoever. I stated I wanted him to know, however, that we had no information whatsoever reflecting that any FBI Agent had been involved in such a matter.

After talking with Anderson, I called SAC Grapp and asked if he knew any of the above information. Grapp stated there was no truth whatsoever to any statement that an FBI Agent was involved in this matter, but that he had picked up a rumor several weeks ago about the fact that [redacted] had been found in a compromising position by a reporter and had been blackmailed as a result. SAC Grapp mentioned that his source of information stated this was the reason for [redacted]. b6 b7C

I told Grapp of Anderson's call and of the fact that Pearson was out on the West Coast. I stated if he received calls from either one of these men he should make no comment whatsoever. Grapp stated he would be guided accordingly.

It will be recalled that for the past several days press stories have advised that a telegram or radiogram (or copy thereof) sent by [redacted] of the White House to [redacted] on the SS Independence during the Governors' Conference somehow fell into the hands of Governor Ronald Reagan of California, who disclosed its contents to the press. There has been speculation in the press that this matter may be or is being investigated by some Federal law enforcement agency as a violation of the Federal Communications Act of 1934.

UPI ticker of 10/24/67 reflects that the White House denied any knowledge of reports that the FBI planned to investigate the circumstances which led to Reagan receiving a copy of this communication. The UPI story said that Press Secretary George Christian of the White House would not comment but instead, referred questions to the FBI. On this UPI ticker the Director has noted, "I assume we are not in on this. H."

For the Director's information, we are not conducting any investigation into this matter, nor have we received a request from the Department of Justice to conduct such an investigation as of this date. We are so stating in inquiries being received from the press by my office.

NEW YORK--THE EIGHT-DAY CRUISE OF POLITICS AND PLEASURE FOR THE NATION'S GOVERNORS ENDED YESTERDAY WITH THE SUSPENSION OF THE CHIEF OPERATOR OF THE LUXURY LINER INDEPENDENCE, IN THE CASE OF THE "PURLOINED RADIOGRAM."

GOV. REAGAN, WHO RECEIVED A COPY OF THE RADIOGRAM INTENDED FOR A WHITE HOUSE LIAISON MAN ABOARD THE FLOATING CONFERENCE, SAID:

"THIS ACTION SMACKS OF PERSECUTION. THIS IS THE GREAT SOCIETY AT ITS BENEVOLENT BEST."

REPORTS CIRCULATED THAT THE FBI WAS INVESTIGATING TO SEE IF A FEDERAL LAW HAD BEEN BROKEN, BUT SOURCES IN WASHINGTON SAID A COMPLAINT WOULD HAVE TO BE LODGED THROUGH THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT BEFORE AN INVESTIGATION. THAT HAS NOT BEEN DONE, THEY SAID.

THE SUSPENSION OF THE RADIO OPERATOR, CHARLES BERGER, A VETERAN OF 16 YEARS WITH THE AMERICAN EXPORT-ISBRANDTSEN LINES, WAS ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY AFTER THE INDEPENDENCE BROUGHT THE NATIONAL GOVERNORS' CONFERENCE BACK TO NEW YORK. THE SUSPENSION WILL BE IN EFFECT PENDING AN INVESTIGATION, SAID THE LINER'S CAPTAIN, CHARLES REILLY.

Radio Man Removed In Governors' Case A9

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (UPI)—The chief radio operator of the liner SS Independence was suspended today pending investigation of how a White House telegram got into the wrong hands during the shipboard Governors' Conference.

Shortly after the liner brought the National Governors' Conference back to New York, Capt. Charles W. Reilly announced he was suspending chief radio operator Charles Berger.

The mysterious "purloined radiogram"—as it came to be known during the Governors' eight-day cruise to the Virgin Islands—was sent by White House Aide Marvin Watson to former Gov. Price Daniel of Texas, President Johnson's liaison man at the floating Cnference.

But the message ended up in the hands of California Gov. Ronald Reagan, who disclosed its contents. It specifically pressed Daniels to recruit support for a resolution backing Mr. Johnson's Vietnam policy.

Reagan told a news conference in Sacramento, Calif., today that he had not broken any Federal law, intentionally or accidentally, when he read and disclosed the radiogram's contents.

The delivery of the telegram to the wrong party could be the subject of an investigation either by the Marine Inspection Office of the Coast Guard or by the Federal Communications Commission. The FBI said it would only conduct inquiries into the matter at the request of the Justice Department.

The Coast Guard, FBI and FCC said late today they were not yet investigating the telegram incident.

The U.S. criminal code makes it a crime for anyone "not an agent of the sender" to divulge a telegram message without authorization, except in cases of "ships in distress."

REAGAN DESCRIBES MESSAGE ARRIVAL

Says He Broke No Law in Disclosing the Radiogram

Special to The New York Times

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Oct. 24—Gov. Ronald Reagan denied today that he or his staff had broken any law in reading and disclosing the contents of a copy of a wire from the White House to a Presidential conference of the nation's Governors.

The Republican Governor aide at last week's shipboard told reporters here that he had received a copy of the radiogram, in a sealed envelope addressed to him, as just one of the number of mistaken deliveries at the conference.

"I think in an operation this big, it just happened that this was Big Casino, this particular message," said Governor Reagan "but there were at least a dozen that I know of . . . mistaken deliveries. As a matter of fact Paul Laxalt, Governor of Nevada, received a message intended for me."

Mr. Reagan said he had not been questioned by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation about the incident, although there was a report that the bureau was participating in an investigation to determine whether Federal law had been violated by the disclosure of the wire's contents.

"I would have thought that Washington would have preferred to just let the matter die," Mr. Reagan said.

Intended for Price Daniel

The White House message was intended for Price Daniel, former Governor of Texas, who was President Johnson's liaison man at the 59th Conference of Governors, which took place aboard the Independence on a cruise to the Virgin Islands.

The message, from W. Marvin Watson, a special assistant to the President, included suggestions for what Mr. Reagan described as "arm-twisting" of several Republican Governors to get them to support the resolution backing the Administration's Vietnam war policy.

He said that he and other Governors were seated around the table when conference aides began distributing messages to them and their assistants. Mr. Reagan said three were given to his staff and immediately handed over to him.

All were in sealed envelopes and addressed to him. After, opening one, which turned out to be a copy of a message he had received earlier, the California Governor said he opened another.

"When I opened it and saw the heading 'White House', I immediately took the envelope and looked again to make sure that I hadn't opened something in mistake," said Mr. Reagan. "It was a Xeroxed copy. As it developed, Price Daniel received the original 20 hours earlier than I received this copy.

"Everyone — almost everyone around the table was receiving messages. As I say it was a regular delivery. The first few lines were obviously dealing with a Vietnam resolution and a list of such resolutions in the Governors Conference.

"So, frankly, I assumed that this must be some kind of a general distribution, trying to convince us of the necessity for adopting a Vietnam resolution, and I read it. It wasn't until I got to the last few lines on the next page that I decided that evidently it wasn't meant for my eyes or anyone else's because in the last few lines were the instructions for arm-twisting a couple of Republican governors."

Governor Reagan said he returned it to his staff and disclosed to the Republican Governors the existence of the message "and that evidently this whole thing [the Vietnam resolution] was as we had thought from the beginning, the desire of the White House, springing up from our fellow Governors."

That evening, a reporter for The Associated Press asked him about the message, Mr. Reagan said. The reporter was referred to the Governor's staff. The Governor's communications secretary, Lyn Nofziger, said he gave the reporter a copy of the wire but added:

CAPITOL STUFF

By TED LEWIS

Washington, Oct. 24—Now that federal law enforcement agencies are in the act, presumably the White House will finally find out how Gov. Ronald Reagan got hold of a secret message from a presidential political aid.

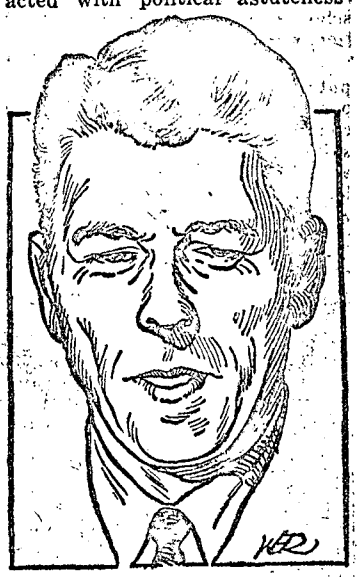
The purpose of this political madness is impossible to ferret out. If it is an effort to cut Reagan down to the size of brain-washed Gov. Romney, it is a curiously inspired piece of political shenanigans.

That Message Shows Politicos Forget History

Sure, the entire episode has been embarrassing to the President and the administration! And the White House has a natural and admitted curiosity concerning just how the leak occurred.

But the suggestion is ludicrous that Reagan acted unethically by reading and distributing a White House telegram addressed to a Democratic politician. Any politician would be a damfool in any big campaign if he didnt read—and make full use of—any titillating bit of the opposition's private correspondence that fell into his hands.

So Reagan, while on the luxury cruise of the nation's governors aboard the Independence, acted with political astuteness when he let other Republicans see what the White House instructions were to Democratic governors.



Ronald Reagan
Was it so terrible?

As a result of this leak of course, the GOP governors refused to go along with a White House plan for them to endorse formally the Johnson-Rusk Viet policy. And the President had to cancel tentative plans to fly dwn to the Virgin Islands and make a speech commending them on their patriotism.

The damage has been done. It would have been better for all sides to forget the incident. That would be the advice of all nationally experienced politicians. They know that a display of vindictiveness is ineffective in a case where voters find humor rampant with politicians messed up by their own conniving.

Even Reagan, out in Sacramento, couldn't abstain from reviving the whole ethical-political issue today. He was aware at the time that the Isbrandtsen Line had investigated the leak, and that the coast guard and the Federal Communications Commission wanted all the facts—just in case.

It was even reported here that the FBI was in on the fringes of the investigation. This is unlikely of course, but when this administration expresses even simple curiosity at the White House level, pretty much the whole bureaucratic probing apparatus gets into motion.

A Form Letter, Reagan Thought

What Reagan had to say was comparatively unimportant except that he thought he ws just getting a copy of a form letter that while addressed to LBJ's liaison man on the cruise, Price Daniel of Texas, was presumably for general distribution.

He should not have weaseled. He had all sorts of precedents from previous political wars to show that enemy correspondence belonged to anyone who could lay his hands on it and exploit it.

As far back as the oldest party hack can remember, both parties' national committees and campaign operatives have operated on the basis that nothing should be put in writing if secrecy is vital. Too many times in the far distant past letters meant for the "eyes only" of another loyal party figure have turned up in the other party's headquarters and influenced elections.

In 1964, there was a big hassle with hypocritical cries of "unethical" tossed around wildly. The GOP National Committee had placed a "spy" in Democratic Party headquarters. Copies of LBJ's travel plans were leaked, so Barry Goldwater's managers knew where Johnson was going before local Dmocratic leaders.

This was a real cute trick, but the Reagan affair was more like a case in the presidential election of 1818, when Benjamin Harrison beat Grover Clevland by a narrow margin.

Just before Election Day that year, British Ambassador Sackville West was revealed to have written a letter to an American citizen who pleaded for advice on how to vote as a British sympathizer. Sackville West replied in effect: Vote for Cleveland. And sure enough the diplomat's letter ended up in GOP headquarters, as planned.

The Interesting Question of Ethics

How about the ethics in that skulduggery, which definitely helped Harrison win the election over incumbent Democrat Cleveland?

And how about the ethics in Barry Goldwater's admitted shenanigans at the GOP National Convention in 1964? He admitted a few weeks ago, and not sheepishly, that his supporters had been ready to cut TV lines if at any time his GOP opposition appeared able to sway the delegates against him.

As for Reagan, some of his fancy-pants critics keep on insisting that, in the Independence incident, he had taken the cynical approach to politics when he had been expected to rise and shine above the gutter of partisanship. This insane admonition has been based on his nice-guy roles on the late-late shows.

In other words, he was letting down the little old ladies in tennis shoes by acting like a big-time politician rather than a novice from Hollywood.

Regardless of the ethical controversy over his conduct, there is no valid argument about one result—what he did in connection with the letter made the Texas mob, in and out of the White House, look like rank amateurs.

That is why they have been bleeding so much—Marvin Watson in the White House, who put in writing what no smart politician would put on paper; Price Daniel, who had the audacity to cry foul on shipboard; and Texas Gov. John Connally, who suddenly developed a great passion for clean politics—at least outside of Texas.

Pages S17054-S17068. Senator Morse, (D) Oregon, pointed out that "I am concerned that we are developing in this country different standards of credibility and different types of credibility gaps. There appears to be one credibility gap for Republicans, another for Democrats. There appears to be one standard of credibility for Republican Presidents, or would-be Presidents, another standard for Democratic Presidents. There even seem to be two standards of credibility for the east coast and the west coast." He cited the news reporting of the dismissal by Governor Reagan (California) of two employees from his staff pointing out that he was "particularly concerned about the suppression of truth and suppression of news by some Republican newspapers. - - - - There appears to be two different standards for the east coast and the west coast in this case as well as two different standards for a would-be Republican President, Governor Reagan, and a Democratic President, Lyndon Johnson. - - - - I have asked the Library of Congress to research the news treatment given by the California press when a somewhat similar incident occurred in Washington in the fall of 1964 when President Johnson dropped a member of his staff." Mr. Morse placed this material along with other newspaper items in the Record. The references to the FBI, contained in the 1964 news items, have been marked for your attention. The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Gov. Reagan's 'Lie' Charge Challenged

By Jack Anderson

Four times in a 20-minute press conference, Gov. Ronald Reagan last week called Drew Pearson a liar. It was one of the veteran actor's most persuasive performances.

The point of Reagan's performance was that Pearson had lied about the dismissal of two sex deviates from the Sacramento staff. Reagan described the Pearson column as "scurrilous" and "ridiculous." When reporters pressed him about his investigation of homosexuals in his official family, the Governor snapped: "I just don't know what you are talking about, really."

Facts have now filtered out, disputing Reagan. Such respected newspapers as the New York Times and Boston Globe, after careful investigation, have concluded that Pearson was right and Reagan wrong. Charged the Globe: "To put it as politely as possible for the readers of a family newspaper, Ronald Reagan is not to be believed."

Columnists Rowland Evans and Robert Novak declared that Reagan was "telling considerably less than the truth." They quoted a prominent California Republican, following Reagan's press conference, as snorting: "Mr. Integrity just went down the drain."

Wide Credibility Gap

As a Presidential prospect who has complained about the credibility gap in Washington, Reagan must stand scrutiny as to his own credibility.

Hearst's veteran political reporter, Marianne Means, was told by Mississippi's Gov. Paul Johnson earlier this year that he had advised Reagan in a private conversation not to run for the Presidential nomination in the South. Reagan at a luncheon of United Press International editors not only called the story a "lie" but declared scornfully: "Furthermore, I have never met Governor Johnson. She must have been talking to the hippies at Haight-Ashbury."

The enterprising Miss Means promptly produced a picture of Reagan and Johnson huddled together at a governors' affair.

Syd Kossen, political writer for the San Francisco Examiner, told this column that he had heard Reagan tell a lumbermen's convention at San Francisco's St. Francis Hotel: "If you have seen one redwood, you have seen them all." Other reporters were also present, said Kossen.

Reagan not only denied he had made the statement that the reporters had heard with their own ears, but he took the trouble of playing a tape of his speech for the reporters. The tape omitted the controversial statement. Trained reporters, however, seldom make mistakes. Reagan had made the statement.

New York columnist and TV impresario Ed Sullivan, writing in the Ladies' Home Journal, has also told of mailing a registered letter to Reagan which he blandly denied receiving. Later, Sullivan was startled to read in Hedda Hopper's column: "Ronald Reagan and I had a great laugh at that letter from that New York columnist."

Reagan repeated his denial in a letter to Sullivan, dated July 8, 1966. As for the Hedda Hopper item, he said: "I have just never been a reader of the Hollywood columns."

Sullivan could swallow Reagan's story of the unreceived letter, but he added with disbelief: "This statement that a Hollywood actor never read the Hollywood columns is incredible."

When asked whether his press secretary Lyn Nofziger had discussed the homosexual case with reporters on the governors' conference cruise, Reagan snapped: "I am prepared to say that nothing like that ever happened."

Then he turned to his press secretary and asked: "Want to confirm it, Lyn?"

"Confirmed," said Nofziger grimly.

The New York Times has now published the names of six reporters who heard Nofziger discuss the homosexual case: Paul Hope of the Washington Star, David Broder of The Washington Post, Karl Fleming of Newsweek, Carl Greenberg of the Los Angeles Times, Jack McDowell of the San Francisco Examiner and Bill Ames of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

The question now buzzing in political circles is — why? It would have been far less damaging for him to admit the facts and point out that he had fired the homosexuals. Why did he try to cover up? The question will be asked by the politicians for many months to come.

Challenge for Sen. Javits

For a long time Democratic leaders in New York have been sitting on their swivel chairs figuring that Sen. Jacob Javits, the senior Republican of their state, was unbeatable.

However, a young Democratic Congressman, Joseph Y. Resnick, from the Rip Van Winkle country up the Hudson Valley, has now decided to dispel their defeatism. Resnick will announce this week that he will run for the Democratic nomination for the Senate with a view to taking on Javits.

Resnick, a Jewish liberal, will run on a pro-American ticket. He intends to challenge what he calls the "hate-Americans" and the "peaceniks" who have inspired draft card burnings and peace marches.

Indirectly he will also challenge Sen. Bobby Kennedy and John Burns, New York State Democratic chairman, who have exuded a sense of defeatism regarding both Javits and the Vietnam war.

Reference is made memorandum T. E. Bishop to C. D. DeLoach dated January 12, 1968, captioned as above, which enclosed a brief for the Director's information in connection with Governor Reagan's meeting with him on January 18th.

Late on January 17th, SAC Grapp, Los Angeles, telephoned the Bureau to advise regarding a matter about which he has just learned, which Governor Reagan may discuss during his meeting with the Director.

He said that the California Senate Judiciary Committee is currently holding meetings in Sacramento on a proposition that a state-wide campus police force be created and placed under the control of the Governor. This would centralize law enforcement on the nearly 30 college and university campuses in the state. Grapp said this is apparently becoming a hot political issue and Reagan may ask the Director's views.

He advised many of the campus police departments are in opposition to this proposal and prefer to remain independent. Grapp stated that although there could be certain advantages in the plan, such as uniformity in administration and perhaps better training, it would seem best for the Director not to express an opinion since this is purely a state issue.

This matter was discussed with Assistant Director Casper who concurs.

BACKGROUND:

The Director has agreed to see Governor Ronald Reagan of California at 10:00 a.m., January 18, 1968. This appointment has been confirmed with the Governor's Washington office. The Crime Records Division is preparing a suitable brief for the Director's use in connection with this visit.

CURRENT REQUEST:

On the morning of December 29, 1967 [redacted] Secretary in the Governor's Washington office, telephonically contacted the Bureau and advised that she was calling in behalf of [redacted] head of Governor Reagan's Washington office. [redacted] was on leave for the week but had asked [redacted] to call the Bureau to advise that Governor Reagan would be accompanied by two other individuals. She identified them as follows: [redacted] and William P. Clark, Jr., who is the Governor's Executive Secretary. [redacted] indicated that these individuals are members of the Governor's Cabinet, are appointees and not elected officials.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 18, 1968, 10 A. M.

Reference is made to Mr. Bishop to DeLoach memorandum, 1-12-68, captioned as above, which enclosed a brief concerning material of interest that the Director may desire to use in captioned meeting with the Governor.

There are attached copies of two articles from Washington, D. C., newspapers concerning Governor Reagan. These have been received subsequent to preparation of the above-mentioned brief and they may be of interest to the Director in his discussion with the Governor. One article comments on the Governor's Republican election primary plans and the other sets forth his speechmaking schedule in conjunction with his current visit to Washington. Neither article mentions the fact that the Governor will meet Mr. Hoover.

Reagan Won't Visit States Where Name Is in Primary

--By JACKSON DOYLE--
Special to The Star

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Gov. Ronald Reagan says he will stay out of states where his name is being entered in Republican primaries — including New Hampshire, where he has become an "unwilling" write-in candidate.

Reagan told a press conference here yesterday that "I've done everything in the world I can in New Hampshire to stop" what he labeled a "mail in . . . or write-in" campaign in his behalf.

He said he "certainly wouldn't stick my neck out by going there."

Any such visit to New Hampshire, he said, "would open up a can of peas that I think we have managed to keep the lid on."

The leading contenders in the New Hampshire primary March 12 are Michigan Gov. George Romney and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Nixon's strategists fear any strong Reagan effort would take conservative votes away from Nixon.

--Convention Group Named--

Reagan, just beginning his second year in the statehouse here, meantime announced appointment of a 36-member committee — composed largely of conservative Republicans but with a sprinkling of moderates — to help form his "favorite son" delegation to the GOP National Convention in Miami Beach in August.

William French Smith, a Los Angeles attorney and longtime Reagan backer, was named chairman of the organizing committee.

The panel does not include Senators Thomas H. Kuchel or George Murphy, nor any other statewide officeholder.

Smith said both Kuchel, a moderate who refused to endorse Reagan for governor, and Murphy, longtime Hollywood associate of Reagan's, have said they do not want to be on the 86-member delegation in August.

This, French said, is because Kuchel will be busy seeking reelection, and Murphy will be busy as chairman of the Senate Campaign Committee.

--Big Financial Backers--

The organizing committee is loaded with big financial backers —including oil men and industrialists who were among the earliest "Reagan for Governor" backers and who worked for Barry Goldwater in 1964.

There are a few on the organizing committee who supported New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller over Goldwater in the bitter 1964 California primary.

All 36 members of the organizing committee have one thing in common — they all supported Reagan for governor following his nomination. Furthermore, they all have stuck by him during his first year in office.

Committee chairman Smith said each of 86 convention delegates and 86 alternates will be asked, as a condition of their appointment, "to remain committed to Reagan until he, Reagan, releases the delegation."

California does not legally bind delegates to vote for the candidate to whom they are pledged, even on the first ballot, but they are morally bound to do so until released, and historically no delegate has violated such a commitment.

Reagan has scheduled a three-day fund - raising swing next week through Tulsa, Okla., Washington, D.C., New York, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and St. Louis.

He indicated yesterday that this will be the last out-of-state foray during the 1968 legislature session, which could run into late summer.

Last year, Reagan spent a good deal of time politicking around the country—resulting in ever-rising speculation that he is, indeed, running for president.

But he reiterated yesterday that he can't conceive of any circumstances that would lead him to campaign in states—other than California — where he is being pushed for the GOP nomination.

Reagan Plans Talks Here Tomorrow

California's Gov. Ronald Reagan makes a one-day stop here tomorrow in the midst of a five-day nationwide tour to raise close to $1 million for the Republican party.

The governor, often mentioned as a possible candidate for the GOP presidential nomination, will raise no money for the GOP while here.

Tomorrow he will meet with GOP leaders in Congress and GOP members from California. He also will hold a news conference.

Reagan will be in Tulsa tonight to appear at events that will bring in a total of $90,000 for the GOP. On Thursday, he will appear at fund-raising events in Pittsburgh—$120,000 to be raised — and Philadelphia, where the GOP expects to gain $525,000.

On Friday, he will be back in California to deal with a hot issue there—the question of imposing tuition fees on students of the University of California.

He resumes his fund-raising for the Republicans on Saturday in St. Louis with a series of events expected to bring in well over $100,000.

On January 18, 1968, I saw Governor Ronald Reagan of California, who was accompanied by [redacted] the Governor's [redacted]

The Governor called to pay his respects and to renew his friendship. He was quite strong in his commendation of the excellent relationship that exists between his office in Sacramento and our Agent in Charge there.

We discussed generally some of the problems which the Governor has had to face up to at the University of California and his determination to see that law and order are maintained there.

The Governor evidenced strong support of the FBI.

Very truly yours,

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECT; Alleged Threat Against "Governor", Charlottesville, Virginia, July 20, 1968, (Governor Ronald Reagan, Presidential Candidate, Scheduled to Appear Charlottesville, July 20, 1968

Subsequently, on the morning of July 20, 1968, Chief of Police James E. Adams, Charlottesville, Virginia Police Department, advised that Patrolman [redacted] working a beat on West Main Street, Charlottesville, Virginia, had been approached apparently by the same individual who approached [redacted] and Patrolman [redacted] had obtained the individual's name as [redacted] Roanoke, Virginia and [redacted] was driving a car bearing Virginia license [redacted].

Adams advised that a search of the area by [redacted] and Detective [redacted] had failed to locate anyone fitting the description of the Unknown Subject.

Chief Adams was requested to furnish the information developed by Patrolman [redacted] directly to the Secret Service at Charlottesville.

On July 22, 1968, Secret Service Agent [redacted] advised that he had made inquiry at bars and grills on West Main Street, Charlottesville, Virginia, on the morning of July 20, 1968 and failed to develop that anyone fitting the description of the Unknown Subject had been in any of the bars and grills. [redacted] further advised that telephonic contact with a Sergeant [redacted] of Roanoke, Virginia Police Department determined that [redacted] was known personally to [redacted] as a heavy drinker and prevaricator. Secret Service Agent [redacted] advised that all appropriate law enforcement agencies in the Charlottesville area had been alerted to the Unknown Subject's description and no incidents had occurred during Reagan's appearance in Charlottesville, Virginia.

"The meeting was conducted by the club's Chairman [redacted]

"The first point on the agenda was a report on the P.W. Fund drive [redacted], the club's P.W. director, he reported that there will be no Section quota on the P.W. fund drive this year as a whole, but that each C.P. club in the Moranda Smith Section, C.P. will be responsible for raising their own club's quota: The Cyril Briggs club's quota is $750.00; the South Central Club's quota is $750.00; the Che-Lummumba club, C.P. quota is $250.00; each individual club is expected to raise their own P.W. quota. [redacted], got individual pledges toward the club's quota from those who were present at this meeting: Some money was also collected on some pledges that were made.

"The 2nd point on the agenda was a report from the C.D.C. convention which was held in Fresno, Calif. March 6,7,8, 1970: This report was given supplemental by [redacted] who went to the C.D.C. convention as delegates from their C.D.C. Democratic Party clubs.

[redacted] gave the first report on the C.D.C. Convention; he said that: organized labor was realy represented at this C.D.C. convention & played an active role in important matters of the convention.

"The attendance of delegates to the C.D.C. convention were less than expected; there were only 734 delegates present, but the convention in the main was good: There were two different conventions held, in terms of the California Democratic Counsil; An endorsement convention was held & a C.D.C. convention was held.

[redacted] led the fight to include all Democratic clubs to the endorsing convention & not just members of the CDC: [redacted] stressed the point that this is the year to beat REAGAN, as governor of California, and that all forces were needed in order to guarantee the defeat of RONALD REAGAN.

b7D

"Minority assembly Leader JESS UNRUH, almost unanimously was endorsed for governor of California: A resolution was presented & adopted; calling on everyone to rally around & support JESS UNRUH, for governor of California.

"EDMUND G. BROWN, JR. was endorsed for secretary of State: MILTON GORDON, was endorsed for state treasurer.

"The three candidates running against incumbent MAX RAFFERTY; all called for unity around the front runner in the June 2, 1970 Primdary in order to defeat MAX RAFFERTY in the November, 1970 elections.

"State Senator ALFRED ALQUIST, was endorsed for Lt. Governor against CECILIA PEDROZA, who was not favorable because of support for mayor Yorty, against TOM BRADLEY, for mayor of Los Angeles, Calif.

[redacted] reported that the CDC convention urged that there be an increase of actions against the Herald Examiner's Lock-out; that all paper be boycotted & all products advertised in the Herald Examiner's paper also be boycotted.

"The CDC convention condemned Police Bruitality against the Black Panthers, and Black people as a whole; and also the Chicano people: The convention bitterly opposed WHITE RACISM: The convented voted to support the increase of pensions; and support the question of insurance & medical care for those hurt on jobs.

"The CDC convention supported the right to organize & strike; and also voted to condemn the war in Vietnam:

"U.S. Senator ALAN CRANSTON, who spoke at the opening session of the CDC convention, condemned president NIXON & the U.S. position with fighting troops in 'Laos'; which he accoused the NIXON administration of escalating in much the same way as the U.S. escatated in Vietnam.

"A brief discussion followed the reports on the CDC convention; the discussion rendered was in favor of the platform & policy of the CDC convention.

"C.P. dues & monthly sustainers were collected by [redacted] the club's organizational Secty. [redacted] the club's literature director; sold C.P. literature."

DETAILS OF REPORT:

On 4-17-70 1200 hours Yippie leader Jerry RUBIN, who is one of the defendants in the Chicago Conspiracy Trial, gave a speech at San Fernando Valley State College. He freely used obscenities and started chanting "Fuck Ronald Reagan". At this time an effigy was burned which had the names of Ronald Reagan, Max Rafferty and Judge Julius Hoffman painted on it. RUBIN further stated that the colleges were a concentration camp that destroys minds and that all studen should line up the professors against the wall and cut their heads off. He urged the crowd to do what ever was necessary to liberate the black man where-ever repression is coming down. He continued by saying that "The same thing that is happening to Bobby Seale (who is one of the defendants in the Chicago Conspiracy Trial) is happening right here at Valley State to your black brothers." RUBIN predicted that the United States will fall and the YIPPIE philosophy will prevail and save the richest country in the world from collapsing.

Once the YIPPIES have inherited the earth their number one objective will be "To murder all the parents, then demand everything and not stop until we get it."

RUBIN also commented that the recent Chicago Conspiracy Trial was typical of American justice.

There was a crowd of approximately 1,000 to 1,200 people in attendance who were mostly students from S.F.V.S.C. with a few high school students and administrative personnel from the college. Also in attendance were the news media.

After RUBIN completed his talk, Tom HAYDEN, the founder of SDS and also a member of the Chicago Conspiracy Trial, he spoke on the issues of morality of the Viet Nam war.

It was apparent that Jerry RUBIN was attempting to get the crowd to get emotionally involved but the crowd did not seem to respond to any great degree.

The crowd started to break up as soon as Tom HAYDEN had finished his talk.

H. Tom HAYDEN which is not the same Tom HAYDEN as the SDS founder, but who represents the right as compared to the leftist views of the other Tom HAYDEN spoke on the Viet Nam issue but received a cold reception from the crowd that remained.

After both Tom HAYDENS had completed their speeches a Dr. Melvin MEYER a journalism professor at the University of Massachusetts, spoke to the remaining group of people in attendance and stated that the "The revolution is overdue." He said, "It isn't a matter of systems but men. You are young and will wage it or win it. My object is to pursuade you to wage a revolution not a rebellion." He critized campus violence and suggested as a replacement a demand for improvement of a already debased education.

CONFIDENTIAL

Source did not hear the first series of speakers as source was engaged in monitoring and keeping YOUNG AMERICANS FOR FREEDOM away from the main body of the demonstration and rally. Source joined the demonstration on the steps of City Hall as Jerry RUBIN began speaking. Jerry RUBIN first led the group in chanting, "Free Bobby Seale" and the group took up this chant for approximately two or three minutes. He next lead the group in chanting, "F--- Sam YORTY" and the group took up this chant for two or three seconds. He went into the same type of chant for Ronald REAGAN and President NIXON.

He then proceeded to relate the events of the Conspiracy trial. During this time he made mockery of the courts, the legal system and the government. He repeatedly made defamatory remarks against Judge Julius HOFFMAN. He stated that if anything was done to Bobby SEALE, for example the Government is going to try to electrocute Bobby SEALE in September, there will not be a college, university or high school in this country that will be left standing. He also told that he had been warned not to cross state lines. He said he didn't understand what state lines were and that he was going to go back to the Convention in Chicago in 1970.

He stated that KUNSTLER was the main revolutionary in the United States. He told the group that he had just received news that there was a riot in Berkley which was going on at this moment. He got a great deal of applause. He also stated that there was a Bank of America which had been burned down this day. This also drew a great deal of applause. He said that he was going to Santa Barbara on April 16 and from there he would be going to U C Berkley. He touched on Timothy O'LEARY and said that for everyone of us that is put in jail, there is a group of us out on the streets. Timothy O'LEARY was sent to jail for smoking pot, and for being in possession of three sticks of marijuana. Where were the pot smokers on the street? They should organize for Timothy O'LEARY.

He spoke of Bobby SEALE'S trial which is coming up in New Haven, Connecticut and said that New Haven was not responsible, but that Yale University was responsible. He stated we would be going to Yale (source unable to obtain exact date--either May 2 or 3). He said that revolution was on the street. He spoke against the Police Department referring to them as pigs and said pigs have to go.

He stated that we in the movement are everything our mothers and fathers wanted us not to be. They wanted us to take baths--we wern't going to take baths. He stated that he was fed up with people coming up and saying, "Hi Jerry, we hope you don't have to go back to jail again--we support you Jerry--we are behind you." He repeated again, "F--- that we don't want you behind us, we want you in front of us."

Jerry RUBIN also stated that we are all "Mother F------" and that frankly he did not know where to start or when to stop. He stated that he and the rest of his cohorts in the Conspiracy Trial would not have been released if the Bank of America had not been burned down is Isla Vista. He emphasized it was not Conspiracy 7, but Conspiracy 8 because whether the crowd wanted to believe it or not Bobby SEALE was right in there. With the Bank of America being burned down, the government realized that this was pressure. Jerry RUBIN stated, "They are going to get a great deal of pressure." Jerry RUBIN spoke about Vice President AGNEW and stated that AGNEW was having a revolution in his own living room. [redacted] had been busted for pot. He stated that AGNEW could not even control his own daughter. Source was unable to accurately report Jerry RUBIN'S speech as it was punctuated so many times by four-letter words. As he came to the conclusion of his speech someone behind him held up a picket sign which had printed on it, "Do It Now." At this point RUBIN made some reference to "Do IT Now" himself.

As he left the microphone, Irving SARNOFF came up and directed anyone who needed a ride to Santa Barbara to report to the sound truck. He also stated that there were many more candles and there would be a candlelight march around at least one or two of the government buildings including City Hall.

[redacted] that he believed they had not collected any more than $300 in the bag. [redacted]

"Bread" seemed to be a little short.

Department heads of Cal Poly Pomona voted to "HIRE" at Cal Poly College.

At the present time these recommendations are in the hands of the Cal Poly College Vice-President who will make the determination as to whether or not will be hired.

Officers source states none of the approving Cal Poly Dept. heads wants to actually hire and feel in the final vote will not be accepted. These same Dept. Heads however do not want to put themselves in the position of being criticized by militant Black Students on campus by rendering a no vote against Officers source feels there is a 99% chance will not be hired as would rather each take heat from campus disitants than Gov. Reagans office.

was originally recommended for the Cal Poly position by a male black student known only as

SPEAKERS: Mike TIGAR
Rennie DAVIS
Mike LERNER
Doug DOWD
Mike ABELES

Mike ABELES was the first speaker. He was from the SEATTLE LIBERATION Defendants. He spoke at some length about his start in the movement, the oppression in the schools and the war in Vietnam. He ended up emphasizing that delegates should be sent from the United States to Hanoi to talk to the Viet Cong and to sign their own Peace Treaties. These should be brought back to the American people, to the churches, to the schools and to various organizations. This he said was being organized now and would be taking place in the very near future.

Marque NEAL gave a short speech starting first with a letter which he stated had come directly from Angela DAVIS. He stated that most of the people in the movement had probably heard by now that Angela was on a hunger strike. The reasons for her hunger strike were as follows:

(1) Only being able to shower once a day.
(2) Only being allowed two hours recreation.
(3) Solitary confinement.
(4) Not allowed to read books which had been sent to her.

DECLASSIFIED BY ESA9803 RDD/kg
ON 4/23/96

He stated that DAVIS had no faith in the American courts. She did have faith in the American people and the reason Huey NEWTON was on the streets today was not because of the American courts, but was in fact because of the pressure which had been put on by the people. He stated that the first of many demonstrations would be taking place in New York October 25 at the residence of Governor Rockefeller. On Tuesday, 5:00 p.m. at the State Building in Los Angeles there would be another demonstration to protest the treatment of sister Angela DAVIS. He stated that the movement wanted as many people there as possible so that the workers coming out of the State Building at 5:00 p.m. would know what it was all about. He stated he would get in contact with the other people on the DEFENSE COMMITTEE TO FREE ANGELA DAVIS as soon as this meeting was over.

Mike TIGAR spoke of the oppression in the Judicial System in the United States and said that instead of coming to meetings like this people would do much better to talk to each other and find out where it was really at.

Mike LERNER was the next speaker. He also spoke on Washington and the Peace Treaties and the delegates going to Hanoi.

Rennie DAVIS' speech was very much the same as the speech he gave at the ILWU Hall on October 24. He spoke of repression in South Vietnam. He emphasized that there were tigar cages there with five people to a cage. He spoke about the food which they had been given. Then he touched on the Saigon Government. He stated that people who were in a movement and looking for a place to "get out of that movement, do something." He referred to them as "spooks" and then he referred to Mr. Duke of the Saigon Government. He stated that DUKE publically made a statement that the Saigon Government should be overthrown, and there should be an uprising, and a complete withdrawal of U.S. Troops. DAVIS stated that according to the Saigon Government these statements were treasonous. Duke had been flown back to Saigon. Without question, many important people, places and organizations had supported Mr. DUKES statement.

DAVIS stated that before the presidential election in 1971 he expected to see these things happen. June 13, 1971 would be the deadline Nixon would get. There again, he stated, this deadline would be flexible. He stated that if Nixon would agree to do this immediately things would start happening. Prisoners would be home by Christmas. There would be an immediate cease fire tomorrow. There would be a provisional government in Saigon. Sigh, Key and Kim (phonetic) had to be replaced immediately. Other than that the Saigon government would remain in tact. He stated that a country which had fought 25 years was now willing to accept minority positions on the provisional government and this was fair enough and no one could question it. He spoke again about delegates going to Hanoi to sign their own Peace Treaties and completely bypass the Government. From this could come an organization to organize Campus Referendums. This would bring church organizers together and the Americans could ratify their own Peace Treaty with the people of Vietnam. He stated that May 1 was when Nixon stated there would be another troop withdrawal from Vietnam. This was just a token stance. May 1 is also the date of the Cambodian invasion by the U.S. He stated that May 1 would also be the "Peoples" ultimatum. He stated that on May 1,"We intend to stop the Government of the United States of America."

Great emphasis was put on collectives by Rennie DAVIS. People in groups of five or ten should now organize themselves and start getting together $150 to $200. He stated that with that they would be able to purchase a car and to remember this car requires no insurance. All they had to do on May 3 was drive to Shirley Highway and stall their auto. In other words, it would break down. There would also be an automobile stall in on the main artery going to the CIA building. These demonstrations would not be one day demonstrations, but would be a continuous on-going thing. The movement intends to paralyze this country. At the same time, this movement would coordinate with Asia, Europe, Latin American countries and that the North Vietnamese would then send out an appeal to So. Vietnam to overthrow the Saigon Government. Rennie DAVIS stated that all groups primary focus should be on local issues--Examples: sexism, racism, political trials & particularly the trial of Angela DAVIS. This was not going and not intended to be a one-shot action.

The next speaker was Doug DOWD. He leaned heavily on the money bit. He stated that the movement needed money, that he was very sorry to see the cans which had been passed around this night not filled. We should take a can home with us and fill it. This was important as money is needed.

The next speaker was a young girl, not identified. She announced that next week there was going to be a Halloween show. The emcee was Ronald Reagan. The guest of honor was Richard Nixon. The star actor was Senator Murphy. She stated that free tickets could be obtained to the Anaheim Convention Center October 30, 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. for anyone who wanted to contact the Republican Party. She then stated, "If you can't get inside to do your thing, there will be a peaceful, non-violent picket outside."

Elsie MONJAR stated that the fund raiser October 24 which was held at Herb MAGIDSON'S home had raised $1,000. She was very disappointed with the amount of money which had come from this meeting tonight.

Irv SARNOFF stated that he had beem at the Embassy Auditorium the evening of October 24 -- something to do with the BLACK PANTHERS. There were only approximately 200 at that meetin too.. He stated prior to this meeting starting this date that he really wished he could go back stage and not come out.

The following literature is attached to this report:

(1) Leaflet announcing the October 31 demonstration in Los Angeles listing the speakers published by the OCTOBER 31 OUT NOW COMMITTEE, 2324 Portland St, L.A.

(2) A letter signed by [redacted] stating the purpose of the OCTOBER 31 OUT NOW COMMITTEE and listing some of the committee's supporters.

"During the period when ANGELIA DAVIS was an at large fugutive from the top ten hit parade of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Communist Party almost never mentioned the name of the incident. The silence has been broken.

A not-too-well planned meeting of the [redacted] was called & held [redacted] it was learned that ANGELIA had been captured, or kidnapped according to the headlines of the People's World. The conclusion drawn from that emergency conf of was that ANGELIA had committed no crime, that she could not get a fair trial in the State of Calif. & a number of other glamorous charges made by the group. b6 b7C b7D

"The function of that meeting & the authority vested in it by the Constitution of the Last Convention of the Partys - [redacted]

"The meeting today was no-none & no less a ratification of that decision. The decision is that the Party would use every legal & political means at its disposal to first free ANGELIA from jail & secondly to fight this charges brought against her by the State of Calif.

[redacted] gave a prepared statement to [redacted] which specifically called for the structuring or organization of every means at its disposal to fight this. [redacted] called this the most important case since the JULISM RASENBERG Case.

"The question of repression against Blacks & Chicanos & specifically this brilliant young woman is only a means to striffle the voice of dissent. or something to that effect. We naturally mentioned the Board of Regents & Governor REAGEN her stop-gap measures to prevent her from teaching at the Universities & all parts of pressure brought to bear upon Miss DAVIS. b6 b7C b7D

"People were urged to make this their number one concentration by calling meeting in their areas on mass work to discuss the legal & political issues involved. [redacted] defenately feels, & said so, that ANGELIA DAVIS has been singled out by the Bougeorise repressive elements to distroy & embarass the party & its fight for free democracy in this country. The party is now so mobolized to fight this.

[redacted] will address an audience Friday night October 23rd at the First Unitarian Church & the following day another meeting of a mass charcter will be held, I believe there also.

"There has been no official word or confiremation as to the National Office thinhoñgs but I am sure its safe to assume that [redacted] will carry this fonners for the National Office.

[redacted] reported that already a number of prominent people, although he did not elaborate how prominent or whom he spoke of, had called & volunteered to participate on a special committee to "Free ANGELIA DAVIS. He did say it consisted of several ministers & one or two polatical officials.

[redacted] had been given credit for the organization of this special committee.

"Those in attendance included [redacted] b6 b7C b7D [redacted] BEN DOBBS & others."

"Los Angeles, Calif.
Nov. 24, 1970

"On Sunday afternoon Nov. 22nd there was a mass rally for ANGELA DAVIS held at the First Unitarian Church which is located at 2936 W. 8th St. The meeting was sponsored by the Fellowship for Social Justice Committee in conjunction with the United Committee to Free Angela Davis. There was a capasity filled hall in the Fritchman Auditorium of the Church and was composed of a well intergrated groupe of young & old - Black, Brown and white citizens in smypathy with the plight of Miss DAVIS. The main speaker was one of the attorneys - handling the case. Mr. JOHN L. ABT. He described the charges etc. against Miss DAVIS & explained the necessity of a broad mass "peoples campaign" in conjunction with a good legal defense for Miss DAVIS. He told the crowd that ANGELA had lost a few pounds but had not lost spirit and had sent a letter to be read to the groupe where she urged continued struggle to free all political prisoners. He said that ANGELA was not guilty of the crimes she had been indicted of & described her guilt as follows: ANGELA DAVIS is guilty of being "a black women, who showed she could make it in a "white masculine" America - without bowing down to the racist form of traditional type leaders & government bodies such as Gov REAGON etc.

"He suggested that letters be sent to Governor ROCKEFELLOW, asking that he withdraw the warrant he has signed for ANGELA's return to the State of California.

"Mrs. SHIRLEY WILLIAMS who is serving as chairman of the United Committee to Free Angela Davis appealed to the audience to get involved and to get others to help form a strong defense committee with at least one million sponsors. It was suggested that everyone use their own initiative and form committees of all kinds & sizes to fight for ANGELA's freedom. A black movie actor was on stage - he read one of DUNBAR's poems as well as the letter from ANGELA. CORKY GONZALES, Chicano friend was present and spoke on behalf of the unity & support of the Mexican Community for the DAVIS defense.

"People were urged to sign up for specific committees to work on.

"FRED RINALDO, a member of the L.A. Committee for the Defense of the Bill of Rights made the appeal for the collection and urged that pledges be made also. Over $1400.00 was collected. Four Japanese union men who are members of the Anti napon bomb committee were present & took a bow. There was much enthusiam at the meeting."

VIII. Information Concerning:

1) Attorney JOHN ABT was the main speaker at the Communist Party's Free ANGELIA DAVIS rally that was held at the First Unitarian Church of 11/22/70. Since this is November 22, 1970, it should be noted that this date is the 7th anniversary of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY in Dallas, Texas. This factor can be properly noted in this report insofar as the alleged assassin of Pres. KENNEDY, LEE H. OSWALD, for whatever reason when held in custody by Dallas Police after being told that they accused him of assassinating KENNEDY and Officer JEFFERSON D. TIPPET, apparently contacted JOHN ABT and asked ABT to represent him in trial court. Neither ABT or any of the other speakers at the rally mentioned the assassination of President KENNEDY or LEE H. OSWALD today.

2) This rally that the Communist Party coordinated today is part of a national Party effort to free ANGELIA DAVIS. Knowing of JOHN ABT, this reporter wanted to see him for myself. When this reporter arrived at the First Unitarian Church I was greeted by a comrade selling the Trotskyite Communist newspaper THE MILITANT. The Party charged everyone $1.00 to get in. The Party had gone to great extent to keep people from sneaking in through other exits or just not paying anything at all. The rally was held in Fritchman Auditorium, the main auditorium at the church. The rally commenced mostly on time. Mr. CHRISTIANSON explained that they had to begin as soon as possible since Mr. ABT had to catch an early plane out of Los Angeles and back to New York City.

3) JOHN ABT is an attorney practising law in New England. ABT is about 45 or 50 years of age. When dressed in a suit ABT looks like any 20-year veteran of the FBI or Los Angeles Police Intelligence. CHRISTIANSON, when introducing ABT, noted that ABT had worked in the New Deal of President FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT and was originally a corporation lawyer. ABT has received more hate commentaries for having OSWALD contact him probably than for anything else he has ever been connected with. ABT is known to be a member of the Communist Party's New England District. ABT stated that he is now representing the legalistic interests of ANEGLIA Y. DAVIS. ABT stated that the case against ANGELIA DAVIS that has been represented so far by the California authorities is marked by a lack of evidence against her. ANGELIA DAVIS is the former UCLA Philosophy Departmental instructor and C.P. member who the Marin County District Attorney says was involved in the famous gun fight in which a judge was killed when black revolutionists tried to free several prisoners. Miss DAVIS was arrested by the FBI in New York City after leaving a trail behind her that the FBI picked up in Miami, Fla,, area. ABT stated that when Miss DAVIS was being held in New York for unlawful flight Gov. REAGAN sent papers to Gov. ROCKEFELLER requesting that Miss DAVIS be sent back to California. He said that these papers are known as an affidavit. He said that an affidavit is supposed to contain evidence in extradition cases that the defendant committed a particular crime. He said that Gov. ROCKEFELLER had 30 days to rule on the matter. He said that the affidavit that REAGAN sent ROCKY had know particular evidence at all in it. He said that ROCKY signed it within 24 hours anyway despite its lack of evidence. He then said that this showed how the REAGAN-ROCKEFELLER ruling class was after Miss DAVIS for shaking a black fist at them. He said that the Marin County Grand Jury then handed down an indictment against Miss DAVIS and new extradition papers were sent to New York. He said that in the case of an indictment by a Grand Jury evidence was not necessary in unlawful flight extradition cases. ABT also stated that there are many people in London, Rome and Moscow who are supporting ANGELIA DAVIS. This means that the Fabian socialists in London, the Communist Party members in Rome and the revisionist neo-Czarist pig pseudo-Communists in Moscow are all behind ANGELIA DAVIS. (Most New Leftists describe the USSR Russian Communists by these words, but ABT's Party members evidently feel that the USSR Russian Communists are the real vanguard of the proletariat). ABT's comment about Moscow could also mean that the Soviet secret service K.G.B. does not feel that Miss DAVIS or ABT are C.I.A. agents. MILES COPELAND of the C.I.A. recently told the L.A. FREE PRESS readers that you should consider why someone like ABT or NIXON says something instead of just what they say. ABT's comment also helps to build support behind ANGELIA DAVIS on the part of pro-Moscow Communists who might be hesitant to support someone mixed up with adventurists and sometimes pro-Red Chinese Communists and New Leftists. ABT also stated that Miss DAVIS was being hasseled by her treatment in jail. He said that after the FBI caught her, they turned her over to the New York prison authorities for working and keeping. He said that Miss DAVIS was first put in the psychiatric ward at the City jail, for women. He said that she was often disturbed by a woman screaming at her about the evilness of Negroes. He said that when the defense got her out of the nut ward, as it is called, she was then given solitary confinement treatment. He said that has since ended, and that now ANGELIA DAVIS is with the other prisoners and getting along well with them. ABT said that when she was first being arraigned after her arrest, the black clerk in the Judges courtroom grabbed him by the arm after the trial was over and told him that he would fix him up with a pass so that he could see his client in the morning. ABT said that the girl who writes the passes, who is a Negro, remarked that the would not have gone after ANGELIA DAVYS if she had not been a militant. ABT said that clerks had never been that nice with him before now.

4) ABT was not the only main speaker that the Party had. When ABT left, the Party took up a collection. The Party later reported that they ha collected $1800-plus that day, and this apparently includes the money that they raised at the door plus other donations and pledges. Actor WILLIAM MARSHALL, a Negro, read a letter to the group from Miss DAVIS and put on a performance for the comrades that RONALD REAGAN might even be envious of. The next speaker on hand was the Castroite revolutionist OSCAR Z. ACOSTA, who in turn introduced CORKY GONZALES, who is on trial in Los Angeles for certain activities he had performed in the East L.A. riot that was held on August 29, 1970, after the peace march and before the peace rally could get underway.

5) CORKY GONZALESes real name is supposed to be RUDOLPHO GONZALES. GONZALES is linked to the Party through his and the Party's ties with FIDEL CASTRO or CASTRO's movement in Cuba. GONZALES attended the rally due to his association with ANGELIA DAVIS. He said that he has met Miss DAVIS in San Diego and at UCLA. GONZALES said that there is a revolution in the U.S. today. He said that the adversaries include the types of people who would put a bullet in his head, and that those people include racist Minutemen and pigs. His tone was that he feels that pig stands for punk-idiot-goon instead of pride-integrity-guts, if you are a local police officer, or patriotism-intelligence-guts, if you are an FBI pig. GONZALES is based in Denver, Col., and works with his Crusade for Justice communist front organization. In Colorado there are probably several hundred Minutemen of one type of another, along with Soldiers of the Cross, U.S. Rangers, John Birchers, and NSRPers. GONZALES said that his group is part of the network of revolutionists doing the dirty work. He said that the Communists in this country should give his group(s) more money to help pay for the dirty work being done. He said that more participation is needed to from armchair revolutionists. GONZALES attacked white people, particularly the white man, in his talk. (ABT had criticized the white-masculine American too). GONZALES statements indicate that he is a nationalist socialist. Unlike HITLER, his nationalism is not the white German race but the Mexicans. Like HITLER, GONZALES is a socialist. In the future the fusion of socialism and racial nationalism in GONZALES could make him the RUDOLF HESS of the Mexican-American-Chicano movement unless a pig or a Minuteman winds up stopping him before the time comes to do tothe police and white people what the Nazis did to the Jews and Gipsies. The Reds evidently believe that they will rule America by 1980 or it will be burned down so badly that nobody will run it.

6) The Communist network to bring America to its knees evidently includes revolutionists like YURI ANDROPOV and CORKY GONZALES, and of course others in other groups. To save the United States a workable counterinsurgency strategy is going to have to be developed that won't destroy the basic democratic nature of our system. At the high point of the rally, when everyone was cheering ABT's call to free Miss DAVIS and others were calling for Marxist revolution, I almost started to cry. I would have not been crying for them but for this country.

The meeting was in progress.

John Abt was addressing the audience.

Seated behind the speaker's podium on the stage were two women and four men.

John Abt spoke of his client and aspects of the case.

Some of remarks, in effect.

That there is no evidence to link Angela Davis with the murder and kidnapping for ramson charges she is faced with.
The District Attorney (or judge) at Marin County had obtained the indictment. These indictments, as all attorneys know, are easily obtained. There is no need of evidence, just a description of the crime in question and request for indictment.
(Governor) Reagan asked for extradiction of his client from New York and within twenty four hours (Governor) Rockefellow signed the papers.
Abt said Rockefellow signed the extradition papers without giving them any thought. As for sixteen hours that day Rockefelow had been busy getting votes for himself, kissing babies, sampling knishes, (Jewish food), etc.

Some laughter in audience.

Abt spoke of the use by him of act of Habeas Corpus to delay extradition of his client.
That the winning of the case, release of Angela Davis, will not be in the courts but through the pressures from outside (mass movements working for her release).

John Abt spoke of a surprise move they (legal defense) had which will be made known in December.

At conclusion of his speech John Abt was enthusiastically applauded.

The chairman, one of men seated on stage, announced that they were able to get a plane booking for only one flight for John Abt and would have to proceed with the meeting. To end the ovation to the speaker.
That there would be two extra speakers, Oscar Ocosta and Corky Gonsales.

(Some applause from audience.)

Another member of group on stage was introduced, Marshall Williams, actor, (Negro) who would read to audience letter of greeting from Angela Davis.

Los Angeles
California
22 November, 1970

Marshall Williams, smartly dressed, came to the speaker's podium, greeted the audience with " Power to the people ", then proceeded with his short speech about Angela Davis then read the greetings letter.

Shirley Williams, with the Defense Committee for Angela Davis spoke. Some of her remarks, in effect.

The defense drive must aim for involvement of one million people from across the United States and abroad.
That the defense must be not only for Angela Davis but for all political prisonars.
That at conclusion of the meeting there would be in hallway outside auditorium posters of Angela for sale, also donation envelopes for donations for the defense committee.

A book of greetings to Angela Davis on which the people could put their signatures after the meeting.

That the Defense Committee also (besides money) needed help in the headquarters, with mailing, etc.
Shirley Williams gave the address of the Committee. 3450 34th Street. L.A.

A collection made for the Davis Defense Fund by Fred - , introduced as a writer who had been once blackballed.

Fred - spoke of the need to give more than the usual. That all should make a point of either giving a day (or more) pay each month till Angela Davis is freed; or holding meetings or parties of ten, and then getting each of the ten to give a party.
He started the collection off with appeal for any one hundred dollar donations, a few moments silence, then a hundred dollar donation brought to the stage by one of the ushers. Fred - announced the donor's names as money (or checks) brought to the stage.

Among the donors, one hundred dollars from Dore Pike (probably sent in, Dore Pike, old and not well, is home bound).
Bob Large, seated next to Gibson, sent an envelope to the stage. This donation announced as one hundred dollars from anonymous friend.

The donations called for lower sums, then finally the ushers passed around collection baskets for dollar bills and any coins.

Oscar Acosta made a short speech, referring to the revolution, that it is now here.

Then Corky Gonsales took the speaker's stand.

Gonsales spoke of the position in the Barrios, of the injustices inflicted on the people there (Mexican) by the establishment.
Of the people killed by the police and their (activists) preparing the people (in barrios) to care for themselves.
Gonsales criticized some of the (in effect) non-active revolutionaries, those who gave a twenty dollar bill or paid for a dinner to help (progressive causes) but did not come down and get their hands dirty or themselves bloody.
Of the reactions against the Chicanos when they try or express themselves, as at the 29 October Moratorium, etc.

At conclusion of his speech Gonsales was enthusiastically applaueded,.

Davida Franchi said we have four Japanese trade unionists in the audience and asked them to come to the stage.

They did so and were introduced. The four acknowledged the applause of the audience with bows and some hamd waving.

Los Angeles
California
22 November, I970

The result of the collection was announced. $I.866.06.

The meeting terminated at about 4.25 p.m.

The attendance was good. Most of the seats in the auditorium were taken, and also some people in the upstairs gallery section.

About 700 persons.

Outside the auditorium a row of set up tables, at which a number of Negro young people were selling posters of Angela Davis, also on tables some Davis Defense literature, appeal leaflets and envelopes for donations for the Defense Committee.

At a small table some people waiting to sign their names to the greeting letter (book) to be sent to Angela Davis.

& REGAN. He pointed out that the white middle class society that is the power structure is offended by A.D. because she is a Black woman who made it in a masculine America. That she didn't bow down in humble gratitude & thank the power structure for her achievement but chose the path of DE BOIS and other great people. He said the biggest mistake she made was to admit her Communism and to reject white masculine America. He also stated that she is not guilty of the crimes of murder, conspricy and kidnapping but she is guilty of working to overthrow poverty, exploitation, and wanting a world of human dignity - In fighting for ANGELA we are fighting for OURSELVES. Then some other guy got up and urged everyone to organize neighborhood groups to support and raise money for A.D's defense fund and for everybody in the room to donate $100 oo - Then he went down to a days pay - & then promisary notes ect. at the end of the meeting they had raised almost $2000.oo.

"WILLIAM MARSHALL got up and recited some Black peom - Then ACOSTA introduced CORKY GONZALEZ and he spoke about the Chicano problem & how they-supported A.D. HAYWARD BURNS of the National ( ) of Black Laywers was also seated on stage but didn't speak."

"Report on Benefit for Brown Berets
1st Unitarian Church of Los Angeles
2936 W. 8st. Los Angeles, Calif.

"Meeting was held in Channing Hall of about church.

""Artists of Planet Earth" presented the above program according to notice on church bulletin board.

"A $2 charge was made at door but one could order sooner and get a ticket for $1.50. Phone numbers 656-4671 837-0442 666-0562

"About 125 to 150 attended, three-quarters of those were under 35. About 12 Negros and two Oriental-appearing young men.

"Most appeared white with about 1/3 of Erowd Latin-appearing. A few teenagers.

"A Negro named BRUCE was present as was Oriental named JOHN.

"Also present two, white, girls in their late teens or early twenties, named SHERRY and CAROLYN. One sold tickets at door.

"Also present an alleged leader of CUPP and his assistant.

"Both in their twenties, one has light brown hair and mustache, his assistant, black hair and mustache, also horn-rimmed glasses, and wore, "Free Angela" button.

"A color film titled, "Chicano Moratorium" was scheduled and many have been the one in progress on entrance to hall.

"Film had sound and told how Mexicans work the land while others profit, live in slums, how they were robbed of their land, music, food, and other cultures.

"A restaurant was shown bearing a sign, "Thompson's Mexican Food"

"It told how Indians and Chicanos were the same and of Aztec ancestry.

"After film SHERRY or CAROLYN introduced CRIS CEVADA as editor of La Causa.

"He wore a Brown Beret and tan, military type jacket.

"CEBADA said all the land belongs to the Chicanos. That is Nev., Colo., Ariz., N.M., and Calif.

"CEBADA stated that there are large numbers of Chicanos in Denver, Albuquerque, N.M., Chicago, and many other cities.

"He said all Chicanos across the nation and Mexicans in northern Mexico should be united in the struggle and they are working on such uniting.

"CEBADA said over a million Mexicans are deported to Mexico each year but we don't believe in a border, it was man-made and all this part of the U.S. was and still is part of Mexico, so belongs to the Chicanos.

"He said about 15 million in Mexico live near the border and about as many live in the S. Western States so it should belong to the people.

"CEBADA said when asked what will be done with the whites, they will be turned into Mexicans as the Chicanos were made to become white, he stated.

"He said the way Chicanos breed, for we like to live in 10 to 15 years will have enough population in the S.W. to take the land back by political or any means necessary.

"Also, European idea, live to work, we enjoy life, aren't clock punchers.

"CEBADA said if we and the Indians had taken over Europe as the Europeans did America we woud be called savages.

"He stated Zapata believed in having those who work the land own the land.

"He said in New Mexico a few years ago when Tijerina and his followers took over a court-hours, etc, the pigs were afraid and the D.A. was a traitor.

"CEBADA said at the last Moratorium the pigs used guns and all the people had was a few rocks.

"He said rocks can't hurt, maybe just split a pigs head a little unless one is close and that's no harm. This brought applause from the audience.

"He said the Brown Berets are not communists even though Chief DAVIS claims we are dupes of communists.

"Before the next speaker a collection was taken as Brown Berets were passed people put in money but it appeared as if only about half give anything.

"It was said $75 was charged to rent the hall for the evening.

"The La Causa paper was on sale for ¢25.

"The next speaker was introduced as one of, Biltmore Chicanos, charged with disturbances during Gov. REAGAN's speech.

"He, the Biltmore defendant said they are questioning judges to learn if they are racists.

"He stated that this is an important case for they are testing the grand jury decision, for only of late has a Chicano, and Negro been place on it.

"He said funds are needed and support, so come to the Hall of Injustice.

"CEBADA spoke again saying they are not like the Black Panthers but are for any peoples in the struggle.

"He said the Panthers have done some things that weren't successful and by some tactics not agreeable to the Chicanos.

"He asked that all Chicanos who live in the neighborhood barrio stay after the meeting to get organized.

"The second film shown was titled "Salt of the Earth" It had sound and was in black and white.

"A white man over 50, gray hair, glasses about 5'7" or 8", said film was old, 1953 and seen all over the world so some of the sound and picture poor but the story good.

"He announced it was made by some poeple who suffered under the JOE MC CARTHY period. It sounded as if he said projector belonged to the U.A.W.

"Film was a drama with actors and actresses about a mining strike in New Mexico about 1951.

"It claimed Chicanos were not paid the same scale for the same work done by whites.

"Also that dangerous blasting was done by one Chicano when two men were needed for safety.

"After an accident men went on strike and picketed road so scabs were afraid to come in to take jobs.

"Police arrested Chicano strike leader on false charge of assault and then police beat him in an automobile, according to film.

"Mine Co. used law that did not permit picketing.

"Wives took over picket line and police drove a car into them, cursed the women but the women beat them off.

"The police were shown as obeying the mine co. officials.

"Women were arrested but others stayed on the line. Children were in jail too.

"Police were evicting Chicano leader from mine co. owned home that did not have heated water.

"Company also cut off credit to miners at company owned store.

"At eviction police were removing furniture stepped on picture of JUAREZ, but when large crowd of miners arrived police left.

"Mine official said they would have to contact Eastern office. It was assumed strikers won fight for equality and sanitation.

"Cheers from audience when police appeared bad and a shout of, "Off the Pigs"

"A, BILL HARPER was believed present and was outside passing handbills, "Harper for College Board"

"A folder was available inside, "The Long March"

715 S. Parkview Los Angeles, Calif.

"It listed such films available as "Off the Pig", "Free Bobby", etc.

"Also available office space, meeting rooms, etc.

"Outside was a tall, white man, with long red hair and beard, and camera in hand. Wore horn-rimmed glasses.

"Biltmore defendant said press not giving case enough publicity.

"Man believed to be CUPP assistant said why not have everyone write the times and underground papers."

[redacted] gave a report on the Angela Davis case along with detailed instructions on what to do on the 16th March 1971 at [redacted] hearing at San Rafael, Ca.

b7D

She stated that the communist party, this district intends to have a number of it's members at the hearing and that over two thousand people expect to go north for the hearing from Los Angeles.

She stated that there is a contingent of 70 or more from Texas going to the hearing.

[redacted] stated that the hearing hall only holds 120 people and that there is a move on to have the hearing held in a larger hall and that we should see to it that we are all over the judge to make him realize that justice should be done.

The event is sponsored by The National United Committee to Free Angela Davis whose office is at 3450 W. 43rd Street #104, Los Angeles, Ca.

[redacted] gave a report on the current Peoples World circulation and fund drive in which stated that the drive is going very badly. She reported on the standings of the various clubs and sections.

[redacted] gave a talk on what is happening on the peace front USA in regards to the Indo China war.

She stated that this issue has created a new urgency inside the communist party USA. She said that it now appears that the United States intends to maintain it's military, economic and political presence in Indo China indefinitely.

[redacted]

b7D

District Committee - SCDCP

Page Three

[redacted] stated that the last three weeks of the war has created for the communist party new problems, both ideological and political; it has shown up the strength and weaknesses of the peoples forces.

She admitted that the VietNamization policy has produced some success for Imperialism.

She said that the advance into Cambodia and Laos has caused the peoples movement in North VietNam to make a drastic shift to keep lines open although the forces of Imperialism can't seem to make much headway either.

She said that the North VietNam government feels that it is winning because of the fact that the Imperialistic forces are not winning.

She called attention to the warning for the first time by the Red Chinese. She emphasized the fact that the Imperialists have had their way in the air this far but that this might change.

She asked why their was little or no response from the communist party and the left to the escalation of the wa r. This is a central question.

She said that idelogical and political problems are plagueing the left.

She said that the PLP claims that the North VietNamese sold out to the Soviets by accepting assistance from them.

She said that the communist party has a great fear of allying with liberals and other leftwing groups. She said that the PAC this city muted activity on the peace front.

b7D

She said that some of the leaders in the liberal camp are afraid to cooperate with the McGovern forces lest they are coopted by them.

She stated that the left is a split movement-that the Trotzyites want to assume the leadership of any movement. She said that there is no evidence of mass organization in the left today.

She said that the leaders like [redacted] just don't organize.

[redacted] said that the organizing for the April 24/71 mass legal nonviolent march and rally in Washington, D.C and San Francisco was done by theTrotzyites was a real and genuine effort by them and that they should be commended.

This march will present three demands in particular-The immediate and total unconditional withdrawal from VietNam of all US military forces-a definite date for the withdrawal-a guaranteed annual income of $6500.00 for a family of four with a definite date for it and the freeing of all political prisoners with a definite date for it.

This event was co-sponsored by the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Social Justice.

She said that the Trots have concentrated 95% of their manpower around the clock on this event.

She stated that the the Chicano Moratorium was excellent at one time in the field of peace etc but now due to it's being in a defensive position on the police brutality issue the organization is being dissipated and has diluted it's fight against the war.

She said that the black community is full of Bourgeoisie nationalism rather than proletarian nationalism which is being swallowed up by the former.

b7D

She said thaton the campuses the blacks are in the same position. There is much apathy to the peace fite.

Regarding Reagan's visit LA she said that it was absolutely impossible to find anyone to organize or attend a protest against him.

She said that the National Welfare Rights Organization LA was impotent.

She said that at the first public protest against the escalation of the war only 7 communists showed up-Why?

Just recently did the communist party agree to cooperate with the Trots on the 4/24/71 ma rch.

[redacted] said tha t she had attended an "out and Out" meeting of the Trots and said that it was very impressive.

She said that the National Peace Coalition(NPAC) and the Peace Action Council(PAC)have formed a coalition on events such as the March on Was ington 4/24/71--Multi-tactical actions Wash DC centered on the Peoples Peace Treaty April 25 and 26/71--and others.

She said that on 5 May 71 there will be stoppages of campuses, industry and sitins around all congressional cffices--these will not be of long duration 10-15 min. There will be marches or rallys-whatever the area calls for.

[redacted] talked on politics etc.

He was wondering how best the communist party could get into mass organizations such as the CDC.

Regarding the CDC [redacted] said that it is a poor state of organization. The CDC should adopt an anti-war policy and that this should be the main thrust of the CDC.

How to create an organization within the CDC is of paramount importance.

He said that the CDC is having a convention April 4 and 5.

b6

[redacted] spoke on anti-Soviet feeling in the LA area b7C and said that it must be stopped now.

He said that there is a great ebb in the peace actions LA.

He said that the black and brown communities are going towards a Bourgeoisie nationalism rapidly especially in the chicano community.

He said that the LA council's action regarding the police defense shows the growth of apathy in the chicano community.

He said that the communist party should carry through on the April and May activities for peace.

b7D

[redacted] spoke on leadership in the party which he described as poor and prone to much procrastination.

He said that it's political reaction is extremely slow.

b7D

[redacted] outlined actions of the peace coalition for the Months of April and May 71.

4/4/71. At Fresno--National Chicano Moratorium

4/19-23. Washington DC--Mass action by VN Vets against the war.

4/23-- Washington--training centers and movement centers for pending actions including civil disobedience

4/24. Washington DC and S Frisco--mass legal nonviolent march and rally

4/25-26. Washington DC--lobbying at government agencies and other actions

4/27. Civil disobedient actions tending towards an escalation through the first week in May.

5/2. Washington DC-rally a round Call to Action; A declaration of war against repression. This will be a combination protest against the war-hunger-poverty and repression. Abernathy, Geo Wiley and others will speak.

5/3. Peoples Lobby at congress and other agencies. This will be centered on social justice.

5/4. Washington DC--Peoples Lobby at congress. Focused on militarism.

These groups expect to talk personally with government officers and employees.

5/5/. Nationwide. Groups expect to stop gov't-industry-schools etc from carrying on business as usual by various means

5/16. Actions in cooperation with GIs both LA and nationally.

[redacted] b7D

The Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice is calling for an action in local areas that will protest current escalation in Indo China.

They call for mass civil disobedience and mobilizations.

The Peoples Coalition has given up it's May 2 date in favor of the Trot's 4/24 date seeing that the Trots would not relinquish their 4/24/ date.

The org asks that all those who come to Washington remain and join in with all the other events on the calendar especially on armed forces day 5/16/71.

[redacted] asked to discuss his problems. He is a social worker in E.L.A. He says that there is a radical group that wants to do away the social worker (keep the eligibility worker). These radicals are welfare recipients, he does not want to lose his job by walking out as a result of his supporting them but on the other hand wants to support the radical welfare recipients and a few radical social workers. He said he feels his job as it is now is a "pig job" but would like to be effective in making changes for both social workers and radicals. Although many of the group asked [redacted] questions, it seemed (they agreed) to get more complicated and no one seemed to know what he should do."

had a small collection box which she passed around for donations for the NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION. There seemed to be very little money in this box.

stated that she thought the Hollywood Bowl actions by the Entertainment Industry on May 2nd would not draw too many people. Upon being told that some of the students were very unhappy that there was going to be a charge into the Hollywood Bowl, replied that someone should do something about that. She then inquired how much the Hollywood Bowl was going to cost. After being told didn't know, she stated that she would have to talk with about that also stated that on was supposed to appear at the Sepulveda Unitarian Universalist Church on Haskell Street in Sepulveda. She said that he would be unable to attend so there would be another speaker in place of him.

in the company of an unidentified female, stated that she had been at the CDC Convention and that they had voted to support April 24th actions. asked her if anything had been said about the May actions. replied no.

This meeting was chaired by [redacted] The first speaker, [redacted] spoke on the Grand Jury hearings in Tucson, Arizona being held now and the accused individuals involved. He stated that their rights were being violated; they were being asked such questions as: "Were were you? What time did you return on such and such dates? [redacted] then asked for support from the PAC to help these individuals. [redacted] stated that literature on the Grand Jury investigations in Tucson and the individuals involved was available at the PAC office. This literature would be sent with the next L.C mailing to all organizations asking for support. Then these organizations could organize with their constituencies and send financial support, etc.

[redacted] also spoke on the Cairo, Illinois action. He stated that this was a vigilance group of white people, called "White Hats," along with the police department, who joined together against the blacks. The blacks of the community had to bring other blacks into the city to support them; this to boycott large markets in the Cairo, Illinois area owned by white imperialist businessmen.

[redacted] then stated that there would be a demonstration at the home of Governor REAGAN, April 4th, 1971. The question was then raised regarding the publicity that had been put out regarding this action. The publicity had stated that this would be a silent vigel. [redacted] stated, "This will be anything but silent." A request was then asked for volunteers from this meeting to work on strategy and tactics for the REAGAN action. Those volunteering: [redacted] stated that he could not work on this task force which had just been set up. [redacted] then suggested that Irving SARNOFF or someone in his capacity could bring this group together.

A treasurer's report was then given by [redacted] He stated that the LAC, as of this date, had $521.00 in the bank. He then stated that the LAC was $917.00 in the hole. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] stated that no longer could the LAC function on a one day fund raiser and that firm committments must be made from all individuals and all organizations. Delegates at this meeting must go back to their own groups and organizations and obtain financial support for the LAC on a day to day basis.

[redacted] stated that $185.00 per month came into the LAC on the Act Fast Pledge Cards. Fourteen affiliates had paid their affiliate membership. There were other groups affiliated, but as yet they had not paid their dues.

Fund raisers were suggested. [redacted] announced a fund raiser at the Ash Grove Monday, March 29th, in which [redacted] would participate. This fund raiser primarily to send individuals out of state to a Peace Conference; she did not state where this conference would be.

Officers were then selected for the LAC Executive Board. [redacted]

b7D

[redacted] then gave a report on the actions in Las Vegas by the NATIONAL WELFARE RIGHTS ORGANIZATION. He stated that NWRO badly needed the IAC's support. If the Nevada Governor won the welfare issue, it was strongly rumored that Governor REAGAN would be the next in line. He stated that court decisions had just been passed that all welfare recipients be immediately placed back on the welfare roles and their money be made retroactive from the dates that they were cut off. He stated that he was quite certain that after the hearings the Governor would then give these individuals the court hearings which they were entitled to. At that time they were quite certain that the Governor would cut off the welfare recipients again. He placed special emphasis on the action in Las Vegas, March 26th.

[redacted] gave a brief rundown on the People to People Peace Treaty office located at 455 No. Western. She stated that the four page leaflet on the People to People Peace Treaty was available here tonight and in quantities from the Peace Treaty office within the next two or three days. She stated that the office was now operational and literature was available and that the Peace Treaty was an extremely valuable organizing tool. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] stated that [redacted] was doing a tremendous job organizing from campus to campus. She then gave a brief rundown on the activities which had been planned at some of the colleges. She stated that April 13th, 1971 at John Locke School there would be a rally centering around the Medi-Cal cuts. Two of the speakers would be [redacted] She stated that some exciting things were coming out of Montebello High School and several other high schools in the area. She stated that all this had not been reported back to the Peace Treaty office at this time so she was quite certain that more schools would be involved. [redacted] stated that there would be a rally at SFVSC March 31, 1971 1200 hrs. Speakers would be: [redacted] She stated that at SFVSC the Peace Treaty had been ratifyed today; 1200 votes as to 400 votes opposing it. At Cal Poly April 6th and 8th there would be a two day teach-in. Now she wanted to hear from people at this meeting tonight as to what was happening with the Peace Treaty either with their constituencies or with their organizations. She stated that [redacted] was unable to be at the IAC Council meeting as he had a previous committment to speak at one of the colleges.

[redacted] then spoke on the Standard Oil boycott. He stated that a task force to work on the boycott had met several times and that although there were not any concrete plans as yet, that it should not be forgotten and neither should the boycott. At the beginning of April there would be a mass action or rally either at the Standard Oil Boycott hea quarters in LA or at the home of the Standard Oil President on April 12, 1971.

[redacted] then spoke on what was happening with the antiwar movement at the national level. [redacted] stated that he had just returned from a meeting of the COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE; this included the NWRO and SCLC. He stated that on April 3, 1971 these two groups would be united and they would leave Central Park in Washington. The Mule Train which was very symbolic with SCLC would then march down Wall Street in Washington on Monday. This to demonstrate against what was happening in South East Asia and against things that were happening to the poor people and against the imperialistic, capitalistic American government. He stated then the Mule Train would move slowly through the East Coast and arrive in Baltimore. On the 26th, 27th and 28th there would be demonstrations at the following offices: The Office of Labor, Departments of Justice, the Office of Health, Education and Welfare. On April 19th there would be a march by the Vietnam Veterans. On April 23rd the Mule Train would culminate in a mass rally and demonstration in Washington and on April 24th, SCLC and NWRO would be in limbo for approximately seven days; this being done so that they would not distract from the actions that had been planned by the CUT NOW COALITION for April 24th. He stated that April 25th and 30th would be the two days of actions aimed at lobbying. He stated that May 1st the Mule Train would then have an encampment in Washington. May the 2nd there would be religious services. Two of the speakers would be: Rev. ABERNATHY and [redacted] (NWRO). On May 3rd there would be mass demonstrations at the Pentagon. May 4th there would be mass demonstrations at the Department of Justice with non-violent civil disobedience. He stated that these two days would be, "No Business as Usual," to stop the war machine. He stated that on that day other peace groups in other countries in the world would be uniting to demonstrate in support of what was happening in America with the American people. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] then spoke on the action at the Hollywood Bowl by the ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE. [redacted] asked him at that point if the entertainment industry had any organization going or leadership within their own group or were they relying on the PAC for directions. [redacted] replied yes, that the entertainment industry had guerilla theaters ready to go and that the action at the Hollywood Bowl on the 2nd is a strong organizing tool for action for the next two days. As people arrived and left the Bowl they would receive leaflets and be given directions as to what they could do and where they could go. [redacted] stated that posters would be available to hand out to these individuals; they could then be given directions as to where these posters should be placed on various government buildings and other places of importance. She then stated that the tabloid from the PAC was ready and would be available at the People to People Peace Treaty's office.

[redacted] stated that the entertainment industry had done a tremendous job and that many people would be surprised that many of the well known supposedly straight people in the entertainment industry would be speakin, out.

b7D

[redacted] then stated that the action calendar which was present at this meeting with suggestions to the IAC Coordinating Committee dealing with actions here in Los Angeles covering the dates from May 1st to May 5th had been brought and put together by [redacted], AMERICAN FRIENDS SERVICE COMMITTEE.

There was then some discussion as to these actions from the floor. [redacted] stated that the two dates on the action calendar, May 3rd and 4th would possibly have to be changed so that these actions would coincide with the actions which were happening in Washington on the same dates.

[redacted] then suggested that task forces be set up to organize around these various actions. The actions were split down into three: Number one, Draft. Number two, lobbying, peace and justice. Number three, civil disobedience and boycotts, target areas and ongoing tax resistance. A motion was made from the floor that the civil disobedience task force name be changed to direct action. These three task forces would be set up from this meeting tonight. A motion was passed that the task force on direct action be headed by [redacted]

[redacted] spoke on the Repeal the Draft Action. She stated that repealing the draft was extremely urgent and that letters should be immediately mailed to various members of the Congress; particularly Senator TUNNEY; that he could be placed under a great deal of pressure particularly right now. Telegrams should also be sent.

[redacted] stated that he had met with top leaders from the UNITED AUTO WORKERS and that they had promised to support the Peace Treaty actions and the actions which were being planned in the Los Angeles area.

An unidentified male stated that he was from the Trade Unionists and that he had been in touch with the UAW who had promised to support the April 24th action. These individuals were now in the process of renting trains to take individuals to San Francisco. He stated that Senator HAYDEN had supported the April 24th action and would be coming out vocally to urge people to go out onto the streets on that date.

[redacted] from the CITY WIDE COALITION spoke on the April 24th action urging that the IAC support this move. He stated that several Congressmen had come out in support of it and within the next couple of days other Congressmen and Senators would be doing the same; including CRANSTON and TUNNEY.

[redacted] stated that in literature that had been sent from the IAC office the April 24th action had been given publicity; also the trans-action to San Francisco had been publicized. [redacted] then stated that he understood that a sub-committee of this group would be meeting with representatives from his group to find out what further help and support could be obtained from the IAC. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted]

An unidentified female from the SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY stated that on May 2nd in Washington there would be a prayer for peace, primarily aimed at the GI's who were not allowed off base for anything other than religious ceremonies; they could not attend demonstrations or rallies in uniform. These GI's would lead the march May 3rd in civilian clothes. This in total unity in defense against repression.

[redacted] asked [redacted] to obtain speakers for two actions which were planned in Ventura. One on April 2nd at the Baptist Church. He stated that this was a meeting of the black movement. One of the speakers he had already obtained was [redacted]. The other action April 15th to be centered around the Peace Treaty. This rally would be in front of the Ventura Court House. [redacted] suggested that [redacted] would be ideal to speak. [redacted] stated that [redacted] was leaving the Los Angeles area on the 16th, possibly he could be asked to stay over for two or three more days. [redacted] told [redacted] that he would contact him on Monday to let him know what speakers had been set up for these two actions.

[redacted] then gave a report on the two day conference which will be held in Isla Vista. He stated that two things were extremely important at this conference. Number one that the conference be representational and two, ideas to implement the Peace Treaty and he stated that any individual attending this conference as a delegate should be prepared to come with these things in mind.

[redacted] then stated that there would be a conference on black and brown unity on April 16, 1972 at the [redacted] Hall, 1416 S. Central Ave. Two of the speakers would be [redacted] and Cesar CHAVEZ.

End of report.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY MAY DAY MARCH & PICNIC IN SAN FRANCISCO

Buses left from Embassy Hotel, 9th & Olive, Los Angeles, at about 1:00 a.m. on night of Friday, 4-30-71 (early a.m. Sat. 5-1-71).

There were five buses (Arrow and California Charter). [redacted] estimated 175, perhaps 200 people, when they were gathered at the Embassy Hotel.

Buses were arranged according to groups of people who knew each other, [redacted] There were about 6 Spanish-speaking people who seemed to have been brought into the group by [redacted]

Buses went via Bakersfield, Fresno, Highway 152 through Los Banos, Pacheco Pass. [redacted]

Arrived in San Francisco at Challenge Center (small store building) at 23rd & Mission, morning of 5-1-71. Coffee and doughnuts by San Francisco people, and instructions given by [redacted] Then everyone left with copies of "Challenge/Desafio" and leaflet about march (copy attached) to hand out on their way to rallying point at Franklin Park.

March went to Garfield Park, on route shown on leaflet. If march to Sacramento had 1,000 people, this one was about 600-700 (guess). PLP claimed 1,000. San Francisco radio station said 300, but there were a lot more than that. There were small children and babies on the march, [redacted]

When [redacted] gave instructions at Center, he told people to use two points in talking to people who would buy "Challenge." (This was for the L.A. people who did not know San Francisco): 1. That PLP had been involved in Mission Towns (?) work (against landlords?) and: 2. That [redacted] a 16-year-old boy had been killed the night before by San Francisco police, that we should buy a paper if we wanted to read the story, and use this incident in talking to people on the street.

People with bullhorns started chants during the march (among them [redacted] Twice at least someone started "Kill the pigs, not the people" in a part of the march passing close to police at intersections. No trouble with police.

Speeches at Garfield Park, by [redacted] (high school student from San Jose); [redacted] teacher from L.A.; a San Francisco woman PLP member, and by [redacted] from L.A. (possibly by others)

Then everyone returned to Challenge Center and the San Francisco people mostly went home, and the L.A. people were assigned to places to stay, and taken there in cars. Many students stayedin dormitories that were empty for the weekend - this was at San Francisco State College, I believe.

[redacted]

Film show Saturday night at Booker T. Washington Center, 800 Presidio. Van bringing film was YKB 586, driver [redacted] Film was "Modern Times" with Charlie Chaplin. Only about 50-70 people at film show, many teenagers. At film show: [redacted] from L.A.; a schoolteacher from San Francisco [redacted]

After the film there were parties in private homes, and at Booker T. Washington Center.

Sunday morning everyone met at Challenge Center (23rd St.) for coffee and to board buses for picnic. This was in Menlo Park, at Flood Park, described in leaflet. All the L.A. people went (except two who were lost and left behind in San Francisco). Many San Francisco people were not planning to go to picnic until later, so can't guess at numbers of people who went. The L.A. buses left picnic ground at 2:00 p.m., reached LosAngeles about 10:00 p.m. (Sunday 5-2-71). No speeches made at picnic.

[redacted]

[redacted] and some others, suggested next march should be in Los Angeles, perhaps on July 4.

Literature was on sale at picnic, including a draft report "Road to Revolution III" with background reports, on ideas discussed at "recent NC meeting". The report is to be discussed internally for 6 mths. before publication. It is apparently far to the left of Mao (!) (copy available if wanted).

Other people recognized, who seem to be party members or organizers:

MAY DAY IS A DAY OF CLASS WAR

The celebration of May Day, the international workers' holiday, was born in the bloody struggle of U.S. workers for the 8-hour day. It has never been a day of peace--just as the class struggle between workers and bosses (and the bosses' government) has always been marked by sharp brutal warfare.

The thousands of working men and women who die needlessly every year in "accidents" caused by profit-grabbing companies who ignore workers' safety; the thousands of students forced to read racist, anti-working class lies in public school textbooks, and beaten, suspended, or arrested if they resist; the thousands of GI's who have learned the hard way that if they want to live the guns need to be turned around at the brass; the millions of unemployed workers, welfare recipients and their families; the tens of millions of laboring people around the world who are fighting back against big bankers' imperialism all know that the class war is everyday a real and bloody war.

They know too that the only real peace will come when the ruling class of bankers, industrialists and their political parrots and pig goon-squads are crushed, wiped out completely and all power is taken by the working class. Any other "peace"--any "peace" which leaves the rulers in power, which leaves the capitalist system of racism, imperialism and exploitation in power,--any "peace" like that is no peace at all, it's a highly-publicized trick which is supposed to make working people feel better while the bosses step all over our necks.

We in the Progressive Labor Party and our friends and allies on this May Day, then, want to rededicate ourselves to defeating those bosses. We pledge ourselves to [illegible]g the racist, imperialist system which makes them fat, to the class war--as the only way to any kind of peace for working people. We pledge to give them no peace--no peace with the imperialists, no peace with the racists, no peace with any bosses anywhere--whether the pig-hawk racists like Reagan and Nixon or the liberal dove racists like Kennedy and Fulbright. No peace with them and no peace for them! That's why the Progressive Labor Party has chosen the following slogans for this May Day, 1971:

1. Fight for Workers Power - Communism!
   Build a revolutionary working class movement to kick out the bosses and their corrupt politicians and cops and set up a system run by and for working people. A system without racism and imperialist wars; a system with full employment and decent housing; with hospitals run by patients and staff together; schools run by working class parents, students and teachers.
2. No Peace with Imperialists
   PLP is a party of war- of class war. There can be no peace until racism, imperialism and capitalism are finally buried. We oppose negotiations in Vietnam; the imperialists must be driven out altogether. We oppose "ping-pong diplomacy" - the Chinese-American friendship is a friendship of bosses directed against working people of both countries. We oppose "peace talks" in the Mid-East. The Zionists, Arab bosses and their US and Russian masters must be driven into the sea
3. Soldiers - Turn your guns around.
   Shoot the generals. Turn the imperialist war into a class war. The Vietnamese are our brothers: fight the racist brass together!
4. Workers - employed and unemployed Unite!
   Fight racist hiring practices; there must be preferential hiring for minority workers. We want jobs! Unite with welfare recipients. Kick out corrupt union bosses! Organize the rank and file.
5. Students - Smash racist administrators!
   Fight racism! Fight drugs! Drive the cops out of the schools.
6. Elections are a bosses trap!
   Liberals and conservatives are alike! There is no choice between Republicans and Democrats; between Kennedy, Reagan, Nixon, Roosevelt, McCloskey, Willie Brown and Cezar Chavez. They're all the same. Elections are a trick! Kick out all the bosses and all their politicians. Fight for the dictatorship of the working class.
7. JOIN PLP!
   Only a revolutionary communist party that never sells out can lead the working class and its allies to overthrow capitalism and its government. Revolutionary workers and students should take responsibility for building a communist party in the U.S. and JOIN PLP.

Please discuss these ideas with friends; talk to workers about communism. Build PLP.

THE P. O. W. FOOTBALL

Governor Reagan is scheduled as the guest speaker at a twenty dollar a plate dinner for prisoners of war (P. O. W.'s). The benefit will be held at Century Plaza Hotel, Century City, June 4th at 7 p.m.

We protest this political football made out of our brother P. O. W.'s They are being used as an excuse to prolong and rationalize this criminal, unjust war.

The way to bring our P. O. W.'s home is an immediate end to the war. The North Vietnamese have said that all they want is a date for total U.S. withdrawal to begin reparation of prisoners

Nixon and Reagan are engaged in "blatant double-talk" when they express concern for our P. O. W.'s and M. I. A.'s. The result of the "logic" of their policy is that it creates more P. O. W.'s and continues the endless mass slaughter of the Vietnamese, Cambodian, and Laotian people.

The California Veterans are calling this demonstration to protest continued U.S. involvement in Indochina and the use of P. O. W.'s and M. I. A.'s issue to keep the war going.

Help us end the War.....Join us in protest.

We will gather at Gelson's Market parking lot at 6 p.m., Friday, June 4th.

WHO IS CONNIE MULDER?

Dr. Cornelius Mulder is the chief propagandist for South Africa. As Minister of Information and Interior, he is the author of an ambitious and costly plan to break South Africa's increasing isolation and ostracism by the nations of the world. By skillful techniques and private maneuvers, he peddles the illusion that real change is occurring in South Africa. He seeks to lure the United States into deeper and deeper economic, cultural, and military alliance with his racist and fascist country.

Mulder sits on the South African State Security Council, a small group like the United States Security Council, where he has a voice in the major decisions of the regime. He may soon replace Hilgard Muller as Foreign Minister. He would like one day to replace John Vorster as Prime Minister. His private diplomacy with U.S. "decision-makers" is ballyhooed at home as a triumph in order to promote his ambitions.

WHAT IS MULDER DOING HERE?

Supposedly, Mulder is here on routine business: meeting with Information officials who serve in Los Angeles, San Francisco, New York, Washington and Canada. But his last trip to the United States in early 1974 gives us the clue as to what he is really up to. It was the kickoff of a greatly accelerated push to destroy opposition ot Apartheid in the United States. That's why he is here to "answer" Helen Suzman before the World Affairs Council.

WHAT IS THE MULDER OPERATION IN THE UNITED STATES?

He meets "decision makers" secretly: Mulder met then-Vice President Ford in a quiet, "private" visit and tried to sell him the idea that South Africa could help solve the energy crisis in early 1974. He secretly met Vice Admiral Ray Peet, the senior official in charge of International Security Affairs at the Pentagon. Peet is responsible for foreign military sales and U.S. military involvement in the Indian Ocean; they claim that they only discussed "mutual friends."

In Washington, Mulder met with leadership of both parties in Congress.

He also met with California Governor Ronald Reagan and editors of the Los Angeles Times.

He hired a well-placed Republic law firm to lobby for South Africa: The Ministry of Information has spent over $85,000 already on "back-door diplomacy", trying to circumvent U.S. government officials who support the official U.S. policy of opposition to Apartheid. Its lobbyists, Collier, Shannon, Rill and Edwards, also work for the stainless steel industry in its attack on United Nations sanctions against Rhodesia.

Mulder's agents have arranged illicit high-level military contacts between South African and U.S. defense personnel: The U.S. has an arms embargo policy against South Africa, which prohibits such contacts. But in May, 1974, South Africa's Chief of the General Staff of the Defense Force, Admiral Hugo Biermann, met privately with Admiral Thomas Moorer, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and with J.W. Middendorf, Acting Secretary of the Navy.

Mulder's Ministry has promoted and arranged illegal trips to South Africa by U.S. Congressmen and their staffs: Last year the Ministry paid for the trip of six Congressional staffers although it is a violation of the Constitution for any member or staff of Congress to accept such gifts from foreign governments. Later, the Ministry has used a private businessman, Werner Ackerman, to fund its all-expenses-paid tours such as that which California Congressmen Bob Wilson, Clair Burgener and Bill Ketchum took in January. But the Ministry does the inviting, makes

WHAT MULDER WANTS FROM THE UNITED STATES

South Africa is increasingly isolated in the international community. Mulder's propaganda presents South Africa as a much-misunderstood friend and ally of the United States, Europe, and even independent Africa. To cover up his real interest in eliciting western support for the racist South African regime, Mulder argues that it is in the interests of the United States to co-operate with South Africa:

Mulder says: South Africa's Simonstown naval base should be used by the United States and NATO for the defense of the sealanes around the Cape of Good Hope.

Fact: The sealanes around Africa can be equally well protected by western forces operating from other bases in the Atlantic and the Indian Ocean which are far closer to any possible zone of conflict, in the unlikely event of a conventional war on the high seas. South Africa's real concern is not the sealanes, but the "strategy of communism to secure world domination", where South Africa is the next target. Because, in South Africa, anyone who opposes the racism and minority rule of the current regime is labelled a "Communist" and is likely to be harrassed, detained, banned, and possibly tortured.

We say: NO MORE VIETNAMS! THE UNITED STATES MUST NOT BECOME MILITARILY COMMITTED ON THE SIDE OF THE MINORITY IN SOUTHERN AFRICA.

Mulder says: South Africa is a multinational state in which different ethnic groups have equal rights and opportunities in their own areas.

Fact: This policy of "separate development" or Apartheid is the keystone of South Africa's intransigent racist policy. South Africa's African people are not citizens in the major part of the land which is reserved for the 17% European population. The African "homelands" comprise only 13% of the land, and much less than 13% of the natural resources. Three million Africans have been moved from their homes to "their" "bantustans" because of this inhumane policy. Even the vast majority of the government-paid "homeland" chiefs reject the homelands policy. The bantustans serve as a reservoir of cheap labor for the white economy. They are occupied mostly by women, children and the aged, while the men stay in the"white areas"to work. Starvation, malnutrition, and early childhood deaths are widespread.

We say: THE UNITED STATES MUST NEVER ACCEPT THIS MYTH OF POLITICAL FREEDOM IN SOUTH AFRICA. THE ONLY ACCEPTABLE SOLUTION IS REAL MAJORITY RULE - A UNIVERSAL FRANCHISE FOR ALL SOUTH AFRICANS.

Mulder says: South Africa's new "detente" policy offers black Africa a better way to achieve progress in independent Africa and in southern Africa.

Fact: South Africa is acutally becoming more isolated. The imminent independence of Mozambique and Angola have radically changed the balance of forces in southern Africa, to such an extent that even Prime Minister Vorster realizes he has to pull back from Rhodesia and withdraw back to South Africa's own borders. White South Africa does not intend to give up its economic privelege, or its political control, without a fight.

We say: We support the April 19 declaration of the Organization of African Unity: "... ANY TALK OF DETENTE WITH THE APARTHEID REGIME IS SUCH NONSENSE THAT IT SHOULD BE TREATED WITH THE CONTEMPT IT DESERVES. FOR IF THE SPIRIT OF DETENTE IS TO HAVE ANY MEANING AT ALL, IT MUST FIRST AND FOREMOST BE FROM WITHIN SOUTH AFRICA.

WE SAY: THERE CAN BE NO DIALOGUE WITH SOUTH AFRICA, OR WITH MINISTER OF INFORMATION MULDER, WHILE THE RACISM, INEQUALITY, AND POLICE OPPRESSION OF APARTHEID LASTS!

all the arrangements and carefully chooses whom the Congressmen see.

The Mulder Ministry carries on an invidious advertising campaign in major U.S. newspapers and magazines. In a series of ads published this spring, the Mulder campaign promotes international acceptance of South Africa. Why couldn't the Headquarters of the UN Economic Commission for Africa be in Johannesburg? Why not Olympics in Pretoria? Why not NATO at Simonstown" No good reason, say the Ads; its just sheer irrational prejudice and bias if you believe what Dr Mulder says.

Reagan: Officials Aid Crime

Crime cannot be dismissed as a problem of sociology, Gov. Ronald Reagan said in remarks prepared for delivery this afternoon, warning that public officials who fail to take it seriously are partly to blame for its spread.

"Perhaps the single greatest need is a change in attitude, from the permissiveness of the 1960s to a realistic approach to crime in the 1970s," Reagan told a gathering of law enforcement officials in Sacramento.

"Unfortunately, too many people, including those holding public positions of responsibility, persist in viewing crime as a sociological case study rather than an urgent problem of public safety."

He said the public must hold such leaders responsible for the failure to stem the increase.

Reagan, speaking at a luncheon of delegates to his Conference of Criminal Justice, said the lax attitude toward drugs is an example of the casual attitude of many. He called drug abuse the most massive problem of law enforcement in America over the past decade.

"Despite this undeniable truth, there still are those who seriously propose to go easy on the drug laws, to decriminalize marijuana," he said. "I am in complete agreement with Atty. Gen. Saxbe that widespread marijuana use would be the inevitable result."

Reagan said that when the public calls for a solution to the crime problem, what it wants is "freedom from fear." He said people want:

—"Freedom from the threat of muggers.

—"Freedom to be able to walk the streets.

—"To take a holiday without worrying that your possessions may be stolen while you are away or your house burned down.

—"The individual freedom to enjoy all the other rights and privileges of a society which has always cherished the individual."

Reagan said there is a cause-and-effect relationship between tougher laws and a decrease in crime. He said that drunk driving deaths fell when the penalties were increased.

"When California toughened the penalties for rowdyism on campus and provided specific legal tools, the campus violence subsided," he said.

He also praised the Secret Witness program sponsored by The Sacramento Bee and other news organizations in California.

The governor called for a substitute for the exclusionary rule of law which holds that evidence seized by police in violation of a defendant's constitutional rights may not be used against him in a trial.

The governor said that the probation subsidy program enacted several years ago in California has failed and called for its elimination.

EXTORTION

On June 2, 1972, the Sacramento, California Office of the FBI advised that xerox copies of the correspondence received by [redacted] were given to Edward V. Hickey, Jr., Director of Security for Governor Ronald Reagan at Sacramento California. b6 b7C b7D

Mr. Hickey advised that he intends, on behalf of the Governor and the State of California, to interview Michael Kasberg at Redlands, California.

On June 3, 1972, the contents of the letter were discussed with Assistant United States Attorney John M. [redacted], at Los Angeles, California. [redacted] said he would not consider Federal prosecution of Mr. Kasberg for violation of the Federal Extortion Statute as the letter does not contain a clear or forthright threat to do harm. [redacted] was of the opinion that the letter contained at most an implied threat.

On the same date, at 3:00 p.m., Special Agent [redacted] United States Secret Service, Los Angeles, was advised of all information concerning this matter. b6 b7C

On June 5, 1972, Lieutenant [redacted] California State Police, Los Angeles, California, was advised of [redacted] opinion. [redacted] said he interviewed Michael Kasberg at Redlands, California, on June 3, 1972. Kasberg admitted writing the letter to the Governor of California. [redacted] said it was his opinion that [redacted] but he does not appear to be violent. [redacted] said he has notified Lieutenant [redacted] of the Redlands Police Department of the facts regarding the letter that Kasberg has written to Governor Reagan.

Ingroup-outgroup conflict vs greater loyalty.

To the leadership of our Country:

Tatterrd confusion of human affairs today behooves us to seek loyalty great enuf to be common to all mankind--one that CAN ENLIST ALL universally applicable resource of thot, spirit, and material without prejudice against source, with courage enuf to discard all froth of partiality and obsolescence. Is that attainable? Isn't that the "image"-potential resident in the innermost essence of mankind?

The politician says, "no!" He relies on "balance" of FEAR for (fleeting) stalemate as "peace." His partner, the military, proclaims peace to be (coerceable) only by VICTORY of fear. The religious fanatic captures souls in fearful belief that there's no problem solution "until Jesus comes." He's wishful enuf to sit another 2000 years idolatrously looking for some literal HANDOUT to flop into his soft lap some day "soon" somehow, quoting Scripture for proof and solace. So, what's the hang-up? Where do we to from here? Is inspiration a thing of the past? S T A T E S M E N ! ! !

Is"God" preserved in an idolized book of 2000 years ago, or engraved in a diefied figure of Jesus? Are we now celebrating His funeral by eulogizing Him away to the distant past, the hereafter, and especially to "way up there" outside His own works? If so, then of course it IS logical to ascribe lifelessness also to at least 99.9% of His works, the universe. However, stupor, and deadness then encroach overwhelmingly also on the remaining less than 1% of universal vastness, the earth-particle, precisely because of that devitalised God-image we so piously exercise as"blueprint." On universal curvature our dues come back to roost; we reap as we sow.

I urge that we open up to the reality that "God" is essentially personal animation within (the "kingdom" inherently resident in every human heart and consequently in the composite heart of the body of mankind) in consistent complicity with the inanimate without (the universal gravitation of "that in which we live and move and have our being")--in the P R E S E N T tense; if we are to have any credible clue to the past or future. I beseech that subjective sensitive reality be inserted to close the gap of erroding unreality between past and future, old and young, rich and poor, black and white, male and female. This invokes that vital umbilical cord connecting the finite with the infinite, the innermost sense of feeling in touch with creative reality, to actuate the whole body of mankind in mutual concreation as it actuates the four senses--like the thumb that backs up the four fingers to maximum usefulness.

Our time-tested Christian Bible (like "Bibles" other than Christian) can serve as guide like the manual to my lawn mower. But it's not magic nor will it live my life for me any more than the mower-manual will cut grass for me. Jesus was not a liar in claiming to be Son of God but we certainly do goof as liars when we deny that we (every human creature) are siblings likewise. Otherwise world-wide "brotherhood is nil.

Love for God and neighbor springs spontaneously when reality dawns to dispel that musty cave tradition of fear. Disarmament and peace (creative use of resources) occurs naturally when exercise of realistic (existent and PRESENT) God-image becomes general. When our leadership is enlightened in inspired aspiration to S E R V E, they enlist the miraculous potential of our cybernating mass media communicatively to that purpose. Deceptive commercials then give way to more vital evolvement.

We need to fathom magnanimity enuf to see indwelling God-P R E S E N C E from birth in every human (Buddhist, Zoroastrian, Janist, Democrat, Republican, Communist, Capitalist, or Christian--black, white, red, or yellow); inserting "Him" man-made after birth is futile. When ingroup embraces the total human race, to the extinction of out-group boundaries, our loyalties will be broad enuf for dynamic peace on earth. It's a matter of claiming our true heritage in practice "just like it is" in eternity right where we are NOW rather than in some schizophrenic other place and/or other time where we are not. This is more essential to earthlings in inner space of human relations than in those inspiring moon walks. But the two do function in reciprocating complicity.

Our gadgets do not take us to the moon and back nor do they send messages back from ¼million miles away; they only amplify what exists consistently wrought in CON_ TIGUOUS eternity. Likewise, internally, man is not so separate from "God" or fellow human. Man's external conflict is superficial and non-essential--foam on the beach.

Nor is "God" "changeless", as the finite would have Him for convenience of reference In that case human beings would be exact duplicates anonymously interchangeable. "He" did not solidify after the figurative six days of work. He is obviously in continuous evolvement, change, life. Consistent? Yes! But not breakable, brittle, rigid. Consistent change in infinite balance is the essence of continuous LIFE and all creation. Even the inanimate responds to need for change in order to be of SERVICE. Sand, for instance, "knows" how to change at a specific temperature (variable according to purity and altitude)in order to become glass for our windows. H_2O changes from liquid to solid or gas in order to serve as protective surface on a pond, propulsive in a locomotive, or as rain to grass and flowers in completion of the water cycle. If sand and H_2O did not change as they do, they would obliterate themselves as essential elements of the universe. It is likewise with civilizations of man.

Life is more real than lives because it continues beyond civilisations while lives just come and go as contributing parts of the perfect process of eternity.

Cordially yours. Michael Kasberg

P.S. Every member of Michael Kasberg mankind is the truth, and the life "(via the "Christ" within from birth) to the extent that he lives it, as did the Jesus. Likewise for every nation, even China.

The Sun, San Bernardino, Ca. Re: "Impracticallity" of morals vs lack of morals being the very source of our troubles.

Dear Editor Geehan:

Professor Robinson's letter today, titled "'Amoral' Foreign Policy Urged" is wrong. He says, ". . . in the world of power politics there is no such thing as morality. The moment a country's foreign policy is determined by morals. . . the world is in for a lot of trouble." Isn't it that very lack of morals that is indeed giving us trouble both at home and abroad? He takes the attitude that since that is how it is, that is how it shall remain. Don't identify the leak in a sinking boat!

In his thinking, in the shadow of the military mind, he is unaware of the underlying reality that militarism is obsolete as instrument of human policy. He has pursued elongating shadows until he is lost in darkness to the extent that he doesn't know he is lost in superficiality.

He needs to about-face and head toward light (understanding) now scintillating behind him in the distance---until he arrives at obliteration of dark nagativism.

Sincerely, Michael Kasberg Michael Kasberg Note: This was published (Jan.18,1972)

Tempo, Channel 9 TV, Los Angeles Re: The actual nature of Russian effort to "bury" us. (Written Nov. 18, 1968.)

Dear Bob (Dornan):

Your reference to the Cuba Crisis today as a case of "Eyeball To Eyeball" (militarily) is just one more instance of dangerous misunderstanding and misinformation propagation as to what really happened in that instance. It misleads us hazardously on the nature of the game Russia has been, and is, actually playing with us. Consequently we play into the "bear trap" at trêmendous expense to us over and over again all the way to Vietnam and back.

Russia never intended to I N V A D E the U. S. from Cuba nor to confront our Navy on the Atlantic. That's why our navy was left shadow boxing. The intention was to make it appear on the world scene that the U. S. is a "War Monger" that does not like its own "medicine", bases at her back door as she has in regards to other nations, like those in Turkey, for instance.

You might recall that this strategy was so effective that Khrushchev was hailed "Savior of Peace" at a relatively small cost to his nation.

Also, shortly therafter some of our Senators declared (on the Sanate floor) themselves willing to take responsibility for WW III if it came, while Khrushchev was denoucing "militarism" as obsolete as "instrument of Communist policy"--from a podium in East Berlin. To me this was embarrassing on the world stage.

Why, even ultra-conservative anti-Communist David Lawrence declared the Cuba affair to have been "The Hoax of The Year"---a few months after it occurred.

It is pathetic to observe that the shadow of military-mindedness of our great nation can so completely blind even the leading officials and commentators of the subtle underlying reality of what is actually happening while we nose around in the "froth on the beer." It is sad to me indeed to see our nation so far off base in its observations and thinking, groping blindly and making much noise in futility.

May God bless us all according to our individual needs toward mutual understanding.

Sincerely, Michael Kasberg Michael Kasberg

Note: I find military-mindedness so onion-strong in our country that very few ever find it possible to even consider this analysis as a remotest possibility. Consequently we as a nation become all the more vulnerable to strategy other than military. . . . . Khrushchev's challenge, or threat, to "bury" us was economic--not military --but there's been irrepressible tendency to take it as military. And now we are as of this moment on the way to economic collapse via misplacement of productive capacity and natural and human resources. S T R E N G T H, on the national level in particular, has been overwhelmingly synonymous with the military---the G U N. I suppose the bank robber and the sky-jacker think likewise. What alternative pattern is there to emulate any more? There is alternative--by departure from standard negativism.

Re: Man's prospects in abiding by the outmoded tradition of F E A R and its handmaiden, the gun.

Mr. James Geehan, Editor
THE SUN
San Berdino, Ca.

Dear Editor:

Salsberger's "FEAR IS ULTIMATE FORCE IN VIETNAM" today unwittingly points out that war requires "victory" of FEAR--because fear is its base and footing. And, how ultimate or how empty are the prospects for such "victory"!!!

It is fear that makes it necessary for man to pick up arms and deplete his natural, human, and economic resources in endless races of armament stockpiling (monuments to cowardice). Its allies are hate, spite, prejudice, greed, etc.

Ever since cave days man has been striving scared, to become BRAVE anuf to fight his fellow man in order to become free of him. Now that the world has "shrunk" he is even less free of neighbors than ever, unless mutual annihilation can be accomplished. Why?

We humans have thus far had the cart before the horse. We need to become free F I R S T---of fear and its allies---then we cannot help but be truly spontaneously B R A V E enuf to LIVE and let live.

Fear is an absence or void, like darness in a living room, that cannot be destroyed because it is a non-existence. But turn on the light and the darkness is gone.

It is likewise with pursuit of elongating shadows that lead us away from light. About-face and shadows will be left behind, because their existence depends on perversion, or backward use of light.

Weak emptiness of fear can be filled(displaced) with love and its allies of faith, confidence, courage, and genuine G U N L E S S strength.that is creative.

We cannot alter the melody of infinity; we can only be in discord with it and suffer the consequences. There is no peace in the future that is not hidden in this present little instant. Let us come out of the musty gloom of the cave into the sunlight of LIFE.

Sincerely yours,

Michael Kasberg

Take heaven!. . .No peace lies in the future which is not hidden in this present little instant. Take peace!. . .The gloom of the world is but a shadow. Behind it, yet within our reach, is joy. There is radiance and glory even in the darkness could we but see---and to see we have only to look. I beseech you to look. . .Life is so generous a giver, but we, judging its gifts by their covering, cast them away as ugly or heavy or hard. Remove the covering, and you will find, beneath it a living splendor woven of love, by wisdom with power. Welcome it, grasp it, and you touch the angel's hand that brings it to you. Everything we call a trial, a sorrow, or a duty, believe me, that angel's hand is there; the gift is there and the wonder of an overshadowing presence. Our joys, too,---be not content with them as joys. They, too, conceal diviner gifts."

1115 Church St., Redlands, Ca. 92373 Re: Necessary change: where, why, how?
May 16, 1972

Dear fellow-human of Planet, Earth:

In "Change In The Secondary School: Why and How?" (Phi Delta Kappan, May 1972) Burton W. Gorman hints, secondarily, at need for change also in our "culture, society, and technology." I feel that need for change ascribed to education, by Gorman and others, applies even much more appropriately to our whole social order, since education is only one little facet or aspect of it. On pages that follow in this packet I venture to depict the nature of change required for quality of life involving leadership, mass media, our religious structuring and all our natural, human and spiritual resources in the "image" at the essence of all options of our celestial heritage on earth. What I propose is not easy to implement consequently it is ignored especially by officialdom with access to articulation of what we are as Americans in contrast with what we can and ought to be.

I begin with a published letter concerning conduct of the top politician of our country, (2) a letter (in part) to a top religious figure, and (3) a letter addressed to total nation-wide leadership on the current world scene. I follow that with background items merging into the more distant past--including my own "conditioning" via b6 past confinement and character assassination complete. I resort to the mimeograph b7C because my writings are seldom published--they do not cater to whims of editors and publishers. I've limited my wordage to expressions brief as possible at risk of clarity. Please read on. Sincerely yours, Michael Kasberg Michael Kasberg

Dear Editor: (May 3. ;972) Re: Principle vs madness

The basic principles of (Christian) Democracy are individual dignity, mutual respect, and faith in Gof-given intelligence and reason at solving problems. These are universally applicable and should be practiced world-wide.

Instead the U. S. exercises pride, fear stemming from that distorted dominoe theory, and frightening destructiveness of the military.

Pride is an attitude of superiority (not universally applicable) that requires inferiority for contrast, as opposed to dignity that entertains equality of principle; f e a r is an empty weakness without footing or substance; and the military is an obsolete handmaiden of fear, as opposed to f a i t h.

President Nixon Monday night referred to North Vietnam as "the enemy." But what kind of friend is a power that has put over 21,000,000 deep bomb craters in the soil of South Vietnam alone? And destruction of human lives is curiously only incidental to destruction of their footing and means of sustenance for years to come.

Even Russia and China seem now on the verge of getting together over danger of creeping madness on the part of the U. S.

North Vietnam is expected to "compromise." That word suggests reasonableness. But how much mood for compromise would we, Americans, have if some power more horrible than O U R military were putting craters in our soil in either the North or South of the U. S.? Victory of F E A R is futile in any case. Sincerely, Michael Kasberg

[redacted] Sir:

I've read with much interest every word of PEACE WITH GOD. Many thanks for having it sent to me.

At this point I'm at the crossroads as to what words I should employ to correctly communicate what I feel at heart.

I do appreciate the literary quality and the degree of effort and spirit exerted to compose such a book. I wish I could say what I'm in all probability expected to say---that it turned me on completely to giving myself to Christ.

Yes, I have given myself---to the "Christ" universally everpresent in every human heart from birth to death ready to come (evolve) again, and again, and again to be recognized, entertained and exercised in practice. Love for "Christ"(God) thus is be recognized, entertained and exercised in practice. Love for "Christ"(God) thus is spontaneous, natural, genuine, meaningful, relevant. Love for every fellow-human as co-temple of that same common inherently-shared indwelling Christ, God, or "Father" is likewise then quite inevitable, without coercion or exhortation.

I find an isolated (unhomogeneous) published institutionalized one and only Christ of 2000 years ago---on the cross, in the grave, and now "way up there" (literally) at the right hand of a far-away man-conjured "Father almighty" much more difficult to love. He is external, not a fair sample, not one of us. I find such love at best quite superficial even tho it might be lauded and labeled as "supernatural."

O_O_O_P_S! Now, what have I done? I've slipped inadvertently into role of critic wehn my intention in sitting to this typewriter was to first get permission or invitation to make comment.. . . . . .

. . . .There's much more I would like to say but as of now I do not yet find my way clear to do so. Cordially yours, Michael Kasberg human. Man's external conflict is superficial and non-essential--foam on the beach.

I am left wondering who is really the "atheist," "disbeliever", or "anti-Crist"? The individual who questions man-made concoctions and idols concerning the diety or the one who denies all "God"presence until it is artificially inserted by ritual etc.?

Nor is "God" "changeless", as the finite would have Him for convenience of reference In that case human beings would be exact duplicates anonymously interchangeable. "He" did not solidify after the figurative six days of work. He is obviously in continuous evolvement, change, life. Consistent? Yes! But not breakable, brittle, rigid. Consistent change in infinite balance is the essence of continuous LIFE and all creation. Even the inanimate responds to need for change in order to be of SERVICE. Sand, for instance, "knows" how to change at a specific temperature (variable according to purity and altitude)in order to become glass for our windows. H_2O changes from liquid to solid or gas in order to serve as protective surface on a pond, propulsive in a locomotive, or as rain to grass and flowers in completion of the water cycle. If sand and H_2O did not change as they do, they would obliterate themselves as essential elements of the universe. It is likewise with civilizations of man.

Life is more real than lives because it continues beyond civilisations while lives just come and go as contributing parts of the perfect process of eternity.

Cordially yours. Michael Kasberg

Dear fellow-human of Planet, Earth:

In "Change In The Secondary School: Why and How?" (Phi Delta Kappan, May 1972) Burton W. Gorman hints, secondarily, at need for change also in our "culture, society, and technology." I feel that need for change ascribed to education, by Gorman and others, applies even much more appropriately to our whole social order, since education is only one little facet or aspect of it. On pages that follow in this packet I venture to depict the nature of change required for quality of life involving leadership, mass media, our religious structuring and all our natural, human and spiritual resources in the "image" at the essence of all options of our celestial heritage on earth. What I propose is not easy to implement consequently it is ignored especially by officialdom with access to articulation of what we are as Americans in contrast with what we can and ought to be.

I begin with a published letter concerning conduct of the top politician of our country, (2) a letter (in part) to a top religious figure, and (3) a letter addressed to total nation-wide leadership on the current world scene. I follow that with background items merging into the more distant past--including my own "conditioning" via past confinement and character assassination complete. I resort to the mimeograph because my writings are seldom published--they do not cater to whims of editors and publishers. I've limited my wordage to expressions brief as possible at risk of clarity. Please read on. Sincerely yours, Michael Kasberg Michael Kasberg

The basic principles of (Christian) Democracy are individual dignity, mutual respect, and faith in Gof-given intelligence and reason at solving problems. These are universally applicable and should be practiced world-wide.

Instead the U. S. exercises pride, fear stemming from that distorted dominoe theory, and frightening destructiveness of the military.

Pride is an attitude of superiority (not universally applicable) that requires inferiority for contrast, as opposed to dignity that entertains equality of principle; f e a r is an empty weakness without footing or substance; and the military is an obsolete handmaiden of fear, as opposed to f a i t h.

President Nixon Monday night referred to North Vietnam as "the enemy." But what kind of friend is a power that has put over 21,000,000 deep bomb craters in the soil of South Vietnam alone? And destruction of human lives is curiously only incidental to destruction of their footing and means of sustenance for years to come.

Even Russia and China seem now on the verge of getting together over danger of creeping madness on the part of the U. S.

North Vietnam is expected to "compromise." That word suggests reasonableness. But how much mood for compromise would we, Americans, have if some power more horrible than O U R military were putting craters in our soil in either the North or South of the U. S.? Victory of F E A R is futile in any case. Sincerely, Michael Kasberg

I've read with much interest every word of PEACE WITH GOD. Many thanks for having it sent to me.

At this point I'm at the crossroads as to what words I should employ to correctly communicate what I feel at heart.

I do appreciate the literary quality and the degree of effort and spirit exerted to compose such a book. I wish I could say what I'm in all probability expected to say---that it turned me on completely to giving myself to Christ.

Yes, I have given myself---to the "Christ" universally everpresent in every human heart from birth to death ready to come (evolve) again, and again, and again to be recognized, entertained and exercised in practice. Love for "Christ"(God) thus is Re: Talk vs practice.

Hon. Ronald Reagan
Governor of California
Sacramento, Ca.

Oh Governor! Dear Governor!

Granted that the Wallace assassination attempt is pathetic, it is just one more instance of the direction the U. S. has taken since the 1930's with roots in the more distant past. It is futile buck-passing cowardice to regard Arthur Bremer, or any other murderer in our country,as someone other than US. Our problems do not become solved until we fathom universal R E A L I T Y.

It was laughable to hear you whine yesterday, "Why don't they sit down and talk it over?" Yes, why don't "they" talk it over?! Preaching is much easier than practice.Your remark was ignorant, stupid, ridiculous, naive.

You are afraid the poor might get something they do not deserve or did not earn and yet you show no concern over filching of billions out of the blood and bones of fellow-humans on the part of economic "royalty." And, taxes "should hurt," but on whose part? How much are you ever willing to sit down and talk these matters over with reason??? You put the disillusioned, disenchanted, and the disadvantaged in a boat with "Communists" and insist they know no language but the mailed fist. What alternative have they then but to give you the same in return? Unfortunately often others less guilty get put into your self-styled boat. with you.

On the matter of sitting down to talk it over I can cite you personal experience dating back to 1939 and before. The enclosed packet of pages can give you at least an inkling of such effort on my part--mostly with officialdom in charge just like you are as of now. Can you now condescend to sit down and communicate with me as a citizen of your great state? Why don't you either put up or shut up before someone as sick of you as I have become puts a bullet between your teeth also?

Cordially yours,

Michael Kasberg

P. S. On basis of past experience I see the past 15 minutes of my time to have been wasted because in all probability the Governor will never see this letter. You aides that shield and protect him from the exterior have no access or capability to save him from his own inbred internal rot. And, so it goes,adios.

Re: Idolatrous denial of universal reality--the celestial heritage potential of man "in His image."

Mr. [redacted], Executive Assistant
[redacted]
Minneapolis, Minn. 55403

Dear Mr. [redacted]:

1/31/96 SSA 9803 RDD/8

I wish to thank you kindly for your letter of 30 March.

I ponder over why you relegate the "riches of Jesus Christ" to be "unsearchable." I find them not only searchable but even attainable--via the Christ that dwells inherently in every human creature (either dormant or activated). (Col.1:27)

I have no doubt that God has called [redacted] to preach, with conviction, as he does. Then you were called to find time to communicate with me. And, God has also called even me to point out hopefully how [redacted] can now increase in depth of magnanimity and breadth of loyalty. And, please consider me not impertinent. Think not that it's all in the bag--no room for growth or improvement. God's dynamic aliveness is evidenced by the observablefact that each individual born is unique from any other individual ever born before so that he can be named and identified as, externally, that particular person and not a mere duplicate of any one previous person--in tune with the counterbalancing fact that internally (within) every individual born is part and product of the same one continuous body of all mankind; namely, LIFE that is (internally) more REAL than the "lives" that externally come and go while it continues as eternity. b6 b7C

No, Jesus was not a liar in claiming to be the son of God but we most certainly do goof as liars if we deny that we (every human creature) are also the siblings of that same omnipresent God with the same heritage (John 8:41)--as tho we could be products of mere fornication. The human mechanism is infinitely intricate and most gloriously accurate within (the kingdom--all the good of God). It is not just that easily created by a few external movements. Each one of us is also "The way, the truth, and the life to the extent that we live it. (This is largely a matter of universally applicable "what" rather than some ego-centered "who.")

Yes, I do love God (His P R E S E N C E as all of the good within man, rather than His non-existence via relegation to "way up there," as is the prevalent tendency on the part of most of us yet today). And I love mankind as product and temple of the good (love) of God, as myself, as part of my whole body. Why do you suppose I became willing to have myself arrested and incarcerated in Washington in the 30's? However, I do aim to keep my heart and mind open to further activation and reinforcement. I'm sure there's room for greater depth of magnanimity and breadth of loyalty on my part. I'm eager to fathom the ocean of human awareness, broaden the horizon, raise the ceiling, and really set the human CREATIVE spirit to truly live and to grow. Even at 62 I'm still too young to be captured and/or fenced in.

I rejoice not over Jesus' death ("for me") nor the death of any other individual. It's regrettable that the high priests and authorities of his day saw Jesus as a "dangerous demented radical" and consequently executed him. It would have been much finer, more useful, for him to have lived much longer for God, country and fellowman.

The foregoing is written not with intent to contradict, offend, or subtract but rather to reinforce reality and to supplement according to need as God provides me with vision to see. I'm open to correction on anything I may have misunderstood. And I'd like challenge on any remarks or statements I've made that might be questionable.

With the very best of wishes for the [redacted]

Michael Kasberg

Sincerely yours, Michael Kasberg

P. S. The book, PEACE WITH GOD, has not arrived yet. I'm looking forward to it. Many hearty thanks again for writing to me, as you did.

Re: Man's prospects in abiding by the outmoded tradition of F E A R and its handmaiden, the gun.

Mr. James Geehan, Editor
THE SUN
San Berdino, Ca.

1/31/96 SSA9803RDD/Sc

Dear Editor:

Salsberger's "FEAR IS ULTIMATE FORCE IN VIETNAM" today unwittingly points out that war requires "victory" of FEAR--because fear is its base and footing. And, how ultimate or how empty are the prospects for such "victory"!!!

It is fear that makes it necessary for man to pick up arms and deplete his natural, human, and economic resources in endless races of armament stockpiling (monuments to cowardice). Its allies are hate, spite, prejudice, greed, etc.

Ever since cave days man has been striving scared, to become BRAVE anuf to fight his fellow man in order to become free of him. Now that the world has "shrunk" he is even less free of neighbors than ever, unless mutual annihilation can be accomplished. Why?

We humans have thus far had the cart before the horse. We need to become free F I R S T---of fear and its allies---then we cannot help but be truly spontaneously B R A V E enuf to LIVE and let live.

Fear is an absence or void, like darness in a living room, that cannot be destroyed because it is a non-existence. But turn on the light and the darkness is gone.

It is likewise with pursuit of elongating shadows that lead us away from light. About-face and shadows will be left behind, because their existence depends on perversion, or backward use of light.

Weak emptiness of fear can be filled(displaced) with love and its allies of faith, confidence, courage, and genuine G U N L E S S strength.that is creative.

We cannot alter the melody of infinity; we can only be in discord with it and suffer the consequences. There is no peace in the future that is not hidden in this present little instant. Let us come out of the musty gloom of the cave into the sunlight of LIFE.

Sincerely yours,

Michael Kasberg

Take heaven!. . .No peace lies in the future which is not hidden in this present little instant. Take peace!. . .The gloom of the world is but a shadow. Behind it, yet within our reach, is joy. There is radiance and glory even in the darkness could we but see---and to see we have only to look. I beseech you to look. . .Life is so generous a giver, but we, judging its gifts by their covering, cast them away as ugly or heavy or hard. Remove the covering, and you will find, beneath it a living splendor woven of love, by wisdom with power. Welcome it, grasp it, and you touch the angel's hand that brings it to you. Everything we call a trial, a sorrow, or a duty, believe me, that angel's hand is there; the gift is there and the wonder of an overshadowing presence. Our joys, too,---be not content with them as joys. They, too, conceal diviner gifts."

1113 Church St., Redlands, Ca. 92373, Apr. 10, 1972 Re: An observation of political and religious smallness vs broader reality.

To the leadership of our Nation:

The air is now steeped rife with past myth and futuristic aircastle promises of self-seeking opportunism out to exploit once more the upcoming ballot boxes entrenched in favor of an astute incumbent.

The American Indian had his myths. The white "Christians" that pushed him off his lands in the name of God and progress had their separate myths. Myths follow also the Hindus, Moslems, Janists, Zoroastrians, Democrats, Republicans, Independents, Communism, Capitalism, and especially Militarism, the most obsolete instrument in human policy. But precisely how separate are those separate myths? And, just how separate is the seemingly separate TRUTH about mankind?

Man has always been his "brothers' keeper," world-wide, but that truth is now more evolved in the interpenetrating (inter-dependent, if you prefer) nature of modern co-existence than it was 2000 or even 200 years ago. Thinking in terms of in-group out-group pressuring and external push-pulling (coupled with halo vs condemnation)where good is generalized in the in-group and bad in the out-group is no longer practical,if it ever was. The former now needs to include every human individual to the total extinction of the latter.

Mankind needs to be "reborn" free from all fear, hate, spite, prejudice etc. in universal open spirit rather than in some cloistered dogma or earth-bound womb. Then he can be spontaneously "B R A V E" enuf to LIVE and let live. Yes, the religions of the world (like the 256 listed sects in the U. S. alone) are each assertedly "open" to all mankind, but only if mankind will line submissively thru its particular porthole. Witness what a problem this presents to President Nixon in innovating approaches to China and Russia, for instance. Missionairies have already their eagle eyes cocked to making the Chinese over in our own image---and what an image!

World-wide brotherhood (or siblinghood, if you have aversion to the unisexuality) of man cannot be artificially brought about by any high priest or authority because that pre-requires natural common source, parentage. However, happily, that does exist already in reality as celestial heritage because every human creature is offspring of the same everpresent "Creator" in the creative "image"--unless we abandon "God" to the mythical six days in the past tense alone forever(in that case men should be duplicates like interchangeable auto parts rather than each a unique individual). We only need to claim it in expanded awareness and practice. Why ascribe poverty (or partiality to "God," the image of our own being, by limiting "Him" to a one and only son? And not even any daughters? Observe that the same universal male-female power of procreation is quite definitely present at all points of the earth, and in all probability everywhere thruout the universe. Ascribing deadness (life less)ness to more than 99.9% of the vast universe comes back to roost in our civilization in the form of crime,quarreling, riots, and progressively more involved more total more atomic computerized wars toward oblivion, because of the macrocosm's curvature, because we're bound to reap as we sow. Why ascribe intelligence, and life, ONLY to less than 1% of universal vastness, the earth-particle, in petty parsimony?Where's our magnanimity?

Solution to problems of our nation and the world is to us more vital than who'll be our next President. And this requires deeper magnanimity and wider loyalty than either politics or religion have in store for us as of now.

How insoluble are man's problems; how essential is the crisis in human relations? It should be within his power to undo them because they're of his own making. They stem from ignominious smallness of mind and spirit that needs to EXERCISE the faith of a mustard seed. Man's whole being (the whole wide universe) will then begin to serve him. As of now he uses (creatively) less than one little finger of his potential. And petty politics, like predatory commercials, just plays on that smallness.

Sincerely yours,

Michael Kasberg

1115 Church St., Redlands, Ca. 923[redacted]b6 b7C Re: PDK potential.

Feb. 19, 1972

Dear Brother-Kappan:

I've enjoyed local PDK membership nearly two years. How many of the fellows do I really know by this time? None! How many of the 254 in our group actually know me by now? Not one! Why not? Whose fault is that? I've assumed that it's largely my own. I'm venturing thru the enclosed pages to introduce myself, such as I am. Reciprocation from each one of our 254 members would be welcome indeed. And, I'd like challenge. This could provide me--or us--many vital notes to compare; it has possibility of interesting evolvement. . .(Being listed in Who's Who in American Education, International Biography, Two Thousand Men Of Achievement, Creative & Successful Personalities, etc., like holding a statistic on either national or local PDK, tho nice, does not provide interchange of thot and spirit necessary for creative health of the human individual. More recently I've experienced participation in FORUM FOR CONTEMPORARY HISTORY that involves COMMUNICATION by personal letter distribution. This promises to be most useful. What reason is there why our local PDK could not actuate to some degree thru that kind of "thing"? As of now our chapter "fiddles" while "Rome burns.") It could spark much mutual interest--via swapping of experiences in actual life and learning. Why cringe and hide from each other or nose around in the "froth on the beer"? Underlying REALITY can be quite spontaneously relishable. A sampling sip can verify that.

Our fall conference--tho poorly attended--was very interesting to me, but it terminatedabruptly ahead of schedule on grounds that those who had come from a distance had to make tracks homeward to their rabbit-holes, immediately after lunch. The final summary of the meeting was torpedoed and abandoned. Why? Was there nothing left to discuss and consider together concerning the status quo and possibilities of education and the quality of life in our country and communities in crisis? I wouldn't be surprised if those particularly eager to depart went honky-tonking till midnight anyway instead of rushing home to their schools or their wives.

Granted that there might be time for rabbit-holing and honkey-tonking but we have only two general conferences/school yr, and only one chapter meeting/mo. These C A N and ought to be palatable. They are (at least potentially) closer to R E A L I T Y than escape and diversion. What we get out of them developmentally in moral and spiritual fiber is directly proportional to input. Mankind's problem on the world scene today is essentially insensitivity to brotherhood. Have PDK'ans some part in this?

If so, then when and where C A N we proceed? By grasshopper jumps in Washington, or in the 1980's? How about coming together (integrity) more unanimously in both spirit and attendance at our meetings N O W instead of procastingly going asunder, much "later than we think"? Life (learning) is where we find it--in F E A R L E S S mutually revitalizing search and concreation, not in self-seeking diversion. In brotherly fusion, not fission. In positive mutual attraction via what there is in common at heart, not by repulsion of potentially enriching differences on the periphery.

I'm highly in favor of "new blood" via influx of new members but we shouldn't lean on that externally as a crutch; the present membership needs to be ressurrected by internal spinal uprightness and stamina, until the sanctity of our heritage on earth can be faced and realized. This is not a burden imposed on us as educators; it's an opportunity at our option--not a "must but a "may."

Sincerely, Michael Kasberg

Afterthot: Would it be wise for Vietnamese to go for the hint that upon submission Uncle Sam will monetarily "rehabilitate" all Southeast Asia in his own image when that image is one of inability to rehabilitate the ghettos, farms, business practices, downheartedness of the poor, and educational effectiveness of his own at home? Can rehabilitatation trickle down thru Saigon-type corruption as watershed; will floodingof hard surfaces in torrents down erroding ratholes nourish grass roots in need of fertilizer, cultivation and moisture? Is the direction of natural development from the macrocosm toward the microcosm or is it vice versa?

To the heads of our Nation:

Nearly four years ago I was once more "disabled" from my occupation--teaching and school administration--by means of a skeleton in my closet that assassinates my character. Actually it's Uncle Sam's but it's still officially labeled as mine.

After several months of thumb-twittling in frustration I found and took menial labor as janitor (assuming that if we don't get what we want, we need to want what we get). Physical check-up declared me fit for 10 or 15 more years of labor. Privately to my wife I expressed intentions of beating those figures.

The spirit was willing but the flesh of my right shoulder in particular did not pass the test (It had been once completely dislocated over 20 years previously in basketball. I had been told it would be troublesome the rest of my days.) It clunks. Beyond limited use it becomes irritated. Over the past three years I've spent many tense days and sleepless nights with it--in optimistic hope that nature will reward reward effort, that determined exercise will eventually make it strong. But continued use made the shoulder and adjoining areas increasingly tense and painful. I was forced to consider retirement.

At the Social Security office one [redacted] informed me that I'd be entitled to about $200/mo. and about $100 apiece for my two children--more precisely $398/mo.

Upon due notice to my employers I made definite application, on the 62 year old basis, since my family doctor was unable to "qualify" me for disability which would have put me on the 65 year figure immediately. (His x-ray showed no pain nor loose clunking nor the tension that develops. On calcium deposits noticeable he offered to needle me with cortizone shots as other MD's had done previously--to no avail. In the past only chiropractors' massage of tenseness and their ultrasonic breaking up of calcium had given me relief. MD treatment, beyond that first relocation, has been useless as a belch in a gale. But it's the MD that's in authority.)

On the second visit to the Social Security office I was informed of a "family maximum" of $302.80 altogether. I was left wondering why [redacted] had not brot up that "maximum." I was left pondering also the plight of those who are less fortunate than I--who have contributed less years via lower salary and might have 10 or 12 children (who had no choice of parents) instead of two. And how is one to live on $302.80/mo. even if he has only two children? How secure is our security?

Much has gone thru my mind the past few weeks concerning years bygone and those ahead for my children. Will they find their world more trustworthy? Will they be as naive as I have been? As of now their future looks less promising despite all academic and parental nurture.

My mother died when I was 8. Father was awfully busy raising wheat and cattle, despite a crippled left hand. My two brothers and I grew up like weeds in the wilderness, from standpoint of culture and social finesse. We worked not only long hours in the fields but also at housekeeping and cooking besides.

When the finest grade of hard spring wheat went down to 25 cents/bu., we learned first hand that in America one can go to the poorhouse working himself to death while speculators wallow in millions via manipulation of markets.

And then came the drought and dust storms to wipe our life earnings to less than zero. Somehow in the meantime I did become the educated fool of the family. I was first to ever get an 8th grade diploma at our rural school. Six years as student-janitor (along with various odd jobs and housekeeping) made it possible for me to complete high school, belatedly, and to obtain a B. A. degree in education.

My first teaching position (Werner, N. Dak. 1935-36) evaporated after one year, due to emigration of population via drought and dust storms.

Assistant Educational Advisorship for a Boston CCC company at Diston, Oregon (1936-37) ceased when CCC funds were cut and the camp was disbanded.

Teaching in the state of Washington expired after one year (1937-38) when my One-

Year Temporary Certificate became [illegible] graduates needed employment

Selling Silver-Seal kitchen utensils via demonstrat[illegible] dinner and health lecture had to discontinue when the manufacturer went bankrupt.

House-painting in Portland, Ore., could not continue when owners "had no money."
(Had it evaporated? Who had it cornered? There was it? Had it become extinct?)

Grain and fruit were rotting in fields and orchards or were deliberately destroyed to bring up price. Factories in the cities were idle, yet warehouses were bulging full. Meanwhile unfortunates were starving; they had no money for that price.

A book-full of words would not cover my interim on WPA (despite refusal to sign that required paupers' oath) to experience and study first hand that set-up in action, while taking simultaneously extension courses in Economic Research and International Economic Policies from the U. of Ore. under Dr. Victor Pierpont Morris.

Much class time was spent on the horrors of Nazism, in juxtaposition with what parasites were the WPA "loafers" that leaned on shovels--as tho they were equally horrible and consequently a product of Nazism. . .When it became inevitable for me to divulge that I was one instance of that part and product of America and the American Way of Life that the professor and his graduate students were unwittingly degrading, even beyond the humiliation of "pauper" stigma, embarrassment to teacher and students necessitated discontinuance of my attendance. They had thot they knew precisely what was going on in Germany across the Atlantic when actually they knew almost nothing even about lives of their fellow-men right under their very noses---preconception!

Congressmen (and others in charge of our nation) were just too preoccupied with big business. (Like Nero fiddling while Rome burned.)

As a last resort effort to communicate what I had seen and experienced across the country concerning involuntary unemployment and poverty in the midst of "What to do with surplus?" (of money, goods, natural and human resources, and productive capacity) I sacrificed all that I had and all that I was in getting myself arrested via a brick thru a U. S. Treasury window---with willingness to pay the penalty for my act. (I was naive enuf to think I would experience justice in hands of Government & media.)

I did get a hearing in court. I answered every one of the judge's questions without hesitation. The last one was, "What right have you to be concerned about all those millions of unemployed? (We've always had the unemployed and poor in our history.) Are you an authorized representative of an organization of the unemployed?" I answered, "Your honor, my reason is selfish. I seek security of opportunity to depend on myself for a decent living. But I happen to know that for me that security is not complete until every other citizen of our country has that same security." The laughing thigh-slapping audience seemed to enjoy my remarks very much. In embarrassment the judge motioned for the guards to remove me as he muttered something about the trial to be continued later. It was never continued.

I was incarcerated with the criminally insane behind 30 foot concrete walls in Howard Hall of St. Elizabeth's by the Potomac for three long years (Aug. 13, 1939 to Aug. 13, 1942) in suspense from day to day by means of Secret Service retainers, while Doctors Lind and Griffin in charge of me kept chanting, "We think you're ill! We think you're ill! We think you're ill! . . . . . .!!!"

A punch-drunk heavy-weight ex prizefighter was allowed to surprise me with a compound fracture of the jaw. I was left unattended 4 days and 5 nights. I was unable to swallow even my own saliva. But I did not die. Why not?

In due course both doctors became definitely ill instead. (Griffin had surgery for gall stones.) With more sympathetic interns substituting in charge I was better able to communicate with the outside world and as a result of investigation by Senator Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota I did finally get released.

Employment was now available in "cost plus" defense plants to any Tom, Dick or Harry that could walk and punch a time clock. T H A N K S to WW II.

But when the war ended, going was really tougher than ever for this assassinated character. Nevertheless, after 10 years of absence from education, I did somehow get back to teaching and even to school superintendency, but it had to be in little one-horse towns in the Midwest and I had to move every year or two to keep ahead of that skeleton in my closet. Also my thinking was "liberal" for most conservative areas.

July 1966 we relocated from N. Dak. to Calif. with intentions of buying more permanently settled so that our children would not have to be uprooted so often. Redlands looked most inviting. Subsequent to an interview on teaching Social Science I received the nicest and most encouraging letter of my life from Personnel Director, William Rosenberger. Mostly on the strength of that letter we bought a good home and settled in Redlands to stay.

The teaching position never materialized. In the meantime ultra-conservatve Max Rafferty, Supt. of Pub. Instruction, requested a second set of finger prints from me. He seems to have decided that one with my record shall not teach in California.

But where do I go from here? Past character assassination caused me to retire from the teaching profession. Unbearable pain in my shoulder and related areas caused retirement from janitor work. Yet my AMA-ultra-conservative family doctor does not "qualify" me for disability. On the age 62 basis I can draw only $151/mo. If in the meantime I earn more than $140/mo., half will be taken away. Beyond a certain figure all will be taken. Why? Why the restriction on lingering productive capacity? There's no parallel curb on even dubious proceeds of wealthy.

Even cowards can take away means of livelihood from the powerless deprived. But who among our alleged leadership dares modify disbalanced and hoarding of power-hungry multimillionaires whose snowballing loot gravitates to investments abroad and to the military, that those very deprived then get drafted to promote and defend with their lives on the other side of the earth-ball. Is there wonder why we have Hippies, Yippies, and increase in drug-addiction and crime? And what family in price-mad America can live decently on $302.8 /mo. or less? A tent in the woods is not feasable.

The wallowing wealthy can draw Social Security regaraless of all other income but if some poor man manages to be productive beyond $140/mo., it wil be taken away from him!! How rotten can we get for the sake of an out-dated economy? Is man to be forever sacrificed for property and big profits for the few till they rot in gluttony or C A N our economy be adapted to S E R V E mankind instead? I've given my best from age 8 up to the present--even at self-sacrifice beyond all call of duty and functional patriotism. Am I now to be further kicked in the teeth in return? Hell no!

Fool me once, shame on you; fool me twice, shame on me. But I'm not so gullible a second time. And today I'm not alone like I was in 1939. The tables are turning.

It can't be done! Uncle Sam cannot afford a decent living for every American either by due pension or thru productive capacity! !!! B U L L M A N U R E!!!---with due apologies to the bull and to his manure!

We might say our representatives on both the state and national levels have deteriorated to conducting themselves like stinking drizzling south end of a bull going north but that would not be correct; it would not be fair to the bull nor to his south end. The bull's anatomy is in place. It performs its function--dropping excreta harmlessly on the ground to become fertilizer to grass and flowers. That's more than can be said for Washington officialdom in particular. It broadcasts moral and verbal excreta both at home and up to summit levels abroad in a manner that pollutes, poisons, and contaminates--in the interest of vain ego and false face beyond repair.

And I have respect for bull manure too because it is intelligent; it "knows" how to become nourishing to plant life. That's more than can be said for our Congress as a whole, or for Tricky-Dicky. They do not truly S E R V E our country (and theirs) because they have pursued elongating shadows until they're lost in (military) darkness.

Of course it's in the dark that we see the stars, and there are some among Congressmen, but the light they shed is not enuf. One calls for new beginning as presidential candidate but does he have inner vision enuf for today's requirements of mankind? We need a S O U L that can awaken sensitivities to S P I R I T U A L and social R E A L I T Y that can claim our celestial heritage on earth as brothers' keepers.

Politics cannot solve our problems because it hinges on self-seeking profit motive. It's crude and clumsy. Man has always been his brothers' keeper but that truth is more evolved today than 2000 or 200 years ago. It's now more imperative.

Life is infinitely intricate(interpenetrating)and yet most gloriously accurate despite our unawareness. It promises ecstatic adventure, via change to higher levels. The alternative is oblivion. Permanence (eternity) is based on consistent balanced change according to need rather than on rigid brittle changelessness.

Even sand, for instance, is "intelligent" enuf to change to liquid at a specific temperature in order to become glass for our windows. And H_2O changes to liquid and to gas according to need. Othewise it could not serve locomotion in a railroad engine nor life via rain to vegetation in perpetuation of the water cycle. If sand and H_2O did not change as required, they would probably obliterate themselves as essential elements of the universe. And the keynote is balance!!!!

One might say that those melting points of sand and H_2O are instances of changelessness. Oh yeah? They too vary according to purity and altitude. They are moving fulcrums of balance at which change does occur---less rigid, less arbitrary and much more sensitive and functional than the predatory disbalanced gluttonous profit motive that converts goods into g l u t on the market. Consistency makes the former universally applicable. What breadth of balance even a fraction of military waste could provide if converted to genuine grass-roots purchasing power!!!

If our presidential candidates were truly enlightened in the sincerity of their aspirations to serve their country (fellow-men), that would be immediately demonstrated in challenging, encouraging, enlightening and mutually uplifting each other and the American public N O W instead of defending past egos and/or promising beautifully packaged moons in an illusionary future that recedes like the horizon line.

We need heads of state that can be F E A R L E S S enmasse in underlying reality of today, with roots in the past only for nourishment and aspirations in viable future for enlightenment. Why should today be left an erroding credibility canyon between dead past and illusionary future or hereafter?

Can bombs in bank vaults conceivably show how command of property can free lives and begin to serve life instead of being the object to pursue at human sacrifice?

Yes, if Tricky-Dicky and Congress could only about-face enmasse and see the light of reality still scintillating behind them in the distance!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Every American needs economic footing. It is morally imperative and socialllly prudent, and a sound economy requires it for functional health. As of now our economy is like a top-heavy creeking old wheel that wants to collapse because it's out of round and off balance. Its narrow base now requires artificial scarcity at sacrifice of productive capacity and general welfare. Self-less scientific cybernating service of technology has solved man's problem of production even with restricted fractional capacity. But the highly-lauded self-seeking profit system continues to fail miserably in its assigned role of merely distributing that potential blessing of product. What has happened to the moral guts and spinal stamina of those in charge of our nation---in both the public and private sectors? Is functional courage extinct?

Why a family limit to income while there's so much unused productive capacity to translate (despite irresponsible waste of it on the military)? If those SS limits were justifiable, then limits to hoarding of millions should be infinigely more so.

Without substance the "unfortunate" cannot live; without compassion and common sense the predatory affluent are already dead---but (like the turtle still running in circles after his head had been off) they do not know it.

Until every American has genuine security, it is hallucination to think that any of us has it. Why abuse and dissipate both natural and human resource? Accentuate the positive; invest in its integrity instead!

We cannot alter the melody of infinity; we can only be in discord with it and suffer the consequences. It is fear (hate, negativism, shadow) that puts us in discord; in faith (love, positivism, reality) we find infinity all-inclusive, all-encompassing, all-embracing--universally articulated toward full bloom--stable by dynamic breadth of balance. Exploited and/or dead bodies of fellow-men make sloppy footing for our country and for the world.

God is essentially personal animation w-i t h i n, consistently complicit with the inanimate without------in the P R E S E N T tense, or we have no credible clue to the past or future.

Re: Monopolized institutionalization and consequent gloom.

Dear Editor:

Institutionalized mass media coupled with institutionalized economics and religion (in the shadow of overwhelming, tho declining and obsolete, military mind) form an entrenched triangle of traditional negativism to timely change that causes the U.S. to become more and mofe the constipated posterior of the earth-planet on the world scene. When change does to some extent occur under pressure it lacks innovation and is consequently inadequate---lacks creative roots---is pretentious and superficial.

This seems to be sensed unwittingly by many established columnists. For instance, Jenkins Lloyd Jones (Jan. 2) under "American Picnic Drawing to a Close" says,. . ."The cold fact is that the once almighty dollar had to be clipped because Americans are loosing their abilty to compete."

Ernest Cuneo in his "Soft Issues and Hard Facts (Jan. 3) talks about gravest danger to our coutry and closes with, "Actually the world situation is moving from disastrous to catastrophic."

And Bruce Biossat (Jan. 3) hits the jackpot in "Colossal Ennue Engulfs Nation" as follows, in part:

"Nevertheless the net of it is that Americans are on the way to boring each other to stupor.

"Most television specials don't seem very special any more. . . . go over old ground.

". . . .There is a terrible lack of freshness in our approaches to problems which should challenge and stir us."

In my own experience when even a limited 250 word letter to the editor dares to present more basic challenge or to supplement the voluminous E S T A B L I S H E D columns with missing links, it hits the wastebasket like foreign litter.

Of course I'm free to own a newspaper or syndicate. Oh yeah?????

This leaves me frustrated!!! Where can I go from here? The above is all True!

But it is even more serenely true that my gloom (like the gloom of the world in general) is but shadow. The longer we pursue shadows (like justification of Vietnam, for instance) the longer they become as we journey away from light. It's better to light a candle at the least than to curse the darkness.

It behooves me to say, "Get thee behind me, shadow!" And, behold, I'm heading in the direction of light! Shadow becomes shorter behind me An inkling of joy stirs.

I do have a mimeograph. I can duplicate hundreds of copies of this letter--and also the two previous ones the editor did not publish. I can circulate these as far as possible the hard way and see what happens. I'm off dead center.

Since this began as a letter to the editor, I'll leave it as such. And since this is now beyond the (publishable) 250 word limit, I'll mimeograph it right at the start. Of course I'll still send a copy to the editor too. He might yet publish it.

Sincerely yours, Michael Kasberg Michael Kasberg

P. S. Had I been harsh on religion in putting it in cahoots with mass media and economics? A casual scan thru THE SUN however revealed (P. 3 of Section B. Jan. 5) that "Churches Reap Big Profits From Viet War, Study Shows." My own church (United Methodist) was found to have nearly 60 million invested in top military corporations.

History now reveals that whenever war occurs, be it hot or cold, truth is the first casualty and that wars are fought by subterfuge. And now I find my own church quite definitely involved in support of that subterfuge and departure from truth!!

The Lusitania was sent into the war zone with contraband to create an incident, in cold deliberation, to make Americans fighing mad. And now we find, on the front page of THE SUN (Jan 2. 1972), that FDR wanted to manufacture an incident to bring the U. S. into WW II months before Pearl Harbor. And then we heard about "Sneak Attack" And, is the Vietnam war now really being prolonged over prisoners of war?????

The Sun, San Bernardino, Ca. Re: "Impracticallity" of morals vs lack of morals being the very source of our troubles.

Dear Editor Geehan:

Professor Robinson's letter today, titled "'Amoral' Foreign Policy Urged" is wrong. He says, ". . . in the world of power politics there is no such thing as morality. The moment a country's foreign policy is determined by morals. . . the world is in for a lot of trouble." Isn't it that very lack of morals that is indeed giving us trouble both at home and abroad? He takes the attitude that since that is how it is, that is how it shall remain. Don't identify the leak in a sinking boat!

In his thinking, in the shadow of the military mind, he is unaware of the underlying reality that militarism is obsolete as instrument of human policy. He has pursued elongating shadows until he is lost in darkness to the extent that he doesn't know he is lost in superficiality.

He needs to about-face and head toward light (understanding) now scintillating behind him in the distance---until he arrives at obliteration of dark nagativism.

Sincerely, Michael Kasberg Michael Kasberg Note: This was published (Jan.18,1972)

Tempo, Channel 9 TV, Los Angeles Re: The actual nature of Russian effort to "bury" us.

Dear Bob (Dornan):

(Written Nov. 18, 1968.)

Your reference to the Cuba Crisis today as a case of "Eyeball To Eyeball" (militarily) is just one more instance of dangerous misunderstanding and misinformation propagation as to what really happened in that instance. It misleads us hazardously on the nature of the game Russia has been, and is, actually playing with us. Consequently we play into the "bear trap" at tremendous expense to us over and over again all the way to Vietnam and back.

Russia never intended to I N V A D E the U. S. from Cuba nor to confront our Navy on the Atlantic. That's why our navy was left shadow boxing. The intention was to make it appear on the world scene that the U. S. is a "War Monger" that does not like its own "medicine", bases at her back door as she has in regards to other nations, like those in Turkey, for instance.

You might recall that this strategy was so effective that Khrushchev was hailed "Savior of Peace" at a relatively small cost to his nation.

Also, shortly therafter some of our Senators declared (on the Sanate floor) themselves willing to take responsibility for WW III if it came, while Khrushchev was denoucing "militarism" as obsolete as "instrument of Communist policy"--from a podium in East Berlin. To me this was embarrassing on the world stage.

Why, even ultra-conservative anti-Communist David Lawrence declared the Cuba affair to have been "The Hoax of The Year"---a few months after it occurred.

It is pathetic to observe that the shadow of military-mindedness of our great nation can so completely blind even the leading officials and commentators of the subtle underlying reality of what is actually happening while we nose around in the "froth on the beer." It is sad to me indeed to see our nation so far off base in its observations and thinking, groping blindly and making much noise in futility.

May God bless us all according to our individual needs toward mutual understanding.

Sincerely, Michael Kasberg Michael Kasberg

Note: I find military-mindedness so onion-strong in our country that very few ever find it possible to even consider this analysis as a remotest possibility. Consequently we as a nation become all the more vulnerable to strategy other than military. . . . . Khrushchev's challenge, or threat, to "bury" us was economic--not military --but there's been irrepressible tendency to take it as military. And now we are as of this moment on the way to economic collapse via misplacement of productive capacity and natural and human resources. S T R E N G T H, on the national level in particular, has been overwhelmingly synonymous with the military---the G U N. I suppose the bank robber and the sky-jacker think likewise. What alternative pattern is there to emulate any more? There is alternative--by departure from standard negativism.

1115 Church St., Redlands, Ca. 92373 Re: P R E S E N C E of deity now vs "judgment" in some future that becomes dead past.
Dec. 29, 1971

Mr. James Geehan, Editor
THE SUN, San Bernardino, Ca. Note: This was N O T published.

James Restpm's "Does History Pass Moral Judgment?" is timely and yet in terms of outworn theology that dwells on dead past and illusionary future separated by eroding gap. Reality is what happens now with R O O T S in the past for nourishment and aspirations in viable future for enlightenment--in elevated perspective.

Man puts deity unwittingly into past tense ("God created"--and then retired?) and into relative non-existence outside His works "way up there." And His universe is still considered devoid of "intelligent life," except for this little earth-particle. He is then further devitalized and bottle-necked into canned monopolizing form of O N E and O N L Y son to be idolized---inconsistent with valid sample of mankind. Irregularity is inadvertently inserted into the I M A G E of creativeness man could be excercising on earth instead of deceit, greed, crime and war.

Actually deity C R E A T E S today, as in the distance past, by living P R E S E N C E in His works, in a L I V E U N I V E R S E where every human creature is His child--son or daughter. When we learn to observe C R E A T I O N in the present tense, we find a clue as to how He (consistently) "created" in the distant past also, and likewise how we are being "judged." We cannot alter the melody of infinity. We can only be in discord with it and suffer the consequences.

L I F E is more R E A L than (transitory) lives, ego, or skin-deep face of a nation. And future evaluation of the present is U N R E A L--too late, irrelevant, useless. We need to live in "His I M A G E" now rather than in shadows of it.

Sincerely yours, Michael Kasberg Michael Kasberg

Dear Editor: Re: Thinking in essence of peace. Note: This was not published. (It was written Jan. 2, 1972)

James Reston is constructively optimistic in his December 24 "World Gets A Little Time To Think." He says ideologies are being modified, raw materials and markets are now available without war. (Haven't they always been?) And then he concludes with the question of how ". . .to get beyond mere absence of war to constructive and cooperative peace for the whole human family."

I would say that solution to this problem requires access to "Why do we have foreign wars and why are we involved in them?" Reason: The P R O F I T M O TI V E of munitions manufacturers, ship-builders, etc. and American I N V E S T M E N T S abroad---according to a Senate investigation committee after WW II. (As reported to the NEA Convention, Denver Colo., June 1935 by Senator Gerald P. Nye, Chairman of that committee, and as published in the NEA Journal September 1935.)

Nevertheless 31 years later Senator Karl Mundt, for instance, was still expounding (to MEA conventioners, Moorhead, Minn.) "Competition and the profit motives are virtues!" That Nye report has since been discredited and the carnage continues, fired by predatory greed.

Actually we need cooperation and S E R V I C E, fired by creative L O V E, as motive--with reasonable profit only incidental. Some inkling of clues on this might be available from Japan and/or the European Common Market.

If we now lack acumen to lead the world, let us at least aspire to follow what is practical. Learning is a basic process of life. Otherwise we perish.

Problem solution is available if we dare go to the R O O T cause. And necessary change from the top down (as it occurs in Japan) is preferable to eventual bloody revolution.

Sincerely yours, Michael Kasberg Michael Kasberg

[redacted] It is noted that the current Postal Directory has no record of a San Paulo, California, but does indicate there is a Santa Paula, located in Ventura County, California.

The Bureau desires Los Angeles and San Diego, as well as New York, because of the information contained in enclosure, to promptly ascertain the identity of individuals mentioned to determine if they have any information concerning them and their alleged connection with the Weatherman group. Los Angeles should particularly be alert for any information indicating that any New Left group may be possibly involved in the bombing of oil wells near Santa Paula, California. San Diego, of course, since that city will be the site of the Republican National Convention, should be most alert for any additional information concerning the plot to dynamite the Convention Hall. All offices keep Bureau promptly advised of any pertinent information developed in this matter under heading of this communication and making reference to this airtel.

Los Angeles, at present, has a pending Selective Service file (25-94843) relating to one [redacted] white male, born [redacted] at Camden, New Jersey, Social Security Number [redacted] A review of this file reflects that [redacted] in late 1970 and early 1971 maintained Post Office Box [redacted] on the University of California at Santa Barbara (UCSB) campus. His home address on the post office box application is [redacted] Fullerton, California, which is the residence of his father, [redacted] A check of the campus directory fails to list [redacted] as a student at UCSB.

[redacted] was reported delinquent to the U. S. Attorney, Los Angeles, for failure to report for induction. Local Draft Board 133, Santa Ana, California, on 8/19/71, received a letter from [redacted] which advised he had moved from the Santa Barbara area in February, 1971, and instructed that his mail be forwarded (letter did not state where he had gone). However, he stated he has now returned to Santa Barbara and is living at [redacted] Isla Vista, California. He requested all correspondence from Local Draft Board 133 since February, 1971, be forwarded to his present address. As a result of [redacted] contact with his Local Draft Board, the U. S. Attorney's Office at Los Angeles has declined prosecution and Los Angeles is following for [redacted] induction into the military. b6 b7C

[redacted] Selective Service record, dated 1969, describes him as 6'1½", 170 pounds, brown hair, blue/green eyes, scar on left eye and forehead, Selective Service Number [redacted] classification 1-A, born [redacted] at Camden, New Jersey, with Social Security Number [redacted] It is not known if [redacted] is identical to the [redacted] mentioned in referenced communication.

New York airtel of 11/3/71, page 5, states [redacted] allegedly killed one [redacted] a member of the RU on the West Coast. Los Angeles is aware of one [redacted] who lives at [redacted] Goleta, California. [redacted] according to [redacted] is very much alive. He claims to be a conscientious objector (CO) and hangs around the Methodist Church in Goleta attempting to identify with the church to enhance his CO status.

[redacted] advised on 11/16/71, that [redacted] raps with the youth about politics at the church in an attempt to stimulate them toward political activity. b6 b7C b7D

1 Illegal Possession of Explosives (29-88) Storing, transportation and use of explosives (29-89)

At approximately 1:25 AM, the above date I was in the vicinity of Castle Lane in Hubbard Park. At that time I heard a loud explosion. As the headlights of my cruiser went on accused #2 vehicle I observed three individuals run from the car and go down the mountain. Accused #1 + #2 remained by the car. At first both accused denied knowing anything. I observed some glass in the floor of the accused vehicle. As I checked the rest of the vehicle I observed some more wire I followed the wire for approximately 20' At the end were two splinted rods.

The accused then told me what had happened (SEE STATEMENTS) Also implicated were [redacted] and [redacted] According to the accused [redacted] and [redacted] were responsible for what happened.

I, [redacted] BEING 19 YEARS OF AGE AND RESIDING AT [redacted] Meriden, Conn. MAKE THE FOLLOWING STATEMENT OF MY OWN FREE WILL, WITHOUT FEAR, THREAT OR PROMISE OF ANY KIND, KNOWING THAT THE SAME MAY BE USED IN COURT FOR OR AGAINST ME: b6 b7C

This statement is what I know in regards to the setting off of the bomb at the west peak tower about one month ago.

I was at my girl-friend's house that night until about 11-30 PM. I left her house and started walking for home. [redacted] came by in his car and picked me up and took me to Friendly's in Centennial Plaza. He went home and I waited about 10 minutes for a ride. A bunch of guys came by in a white Ford. The ones I knew in the crowd were [redacted] I asked for a ride and I didn't know what they were up to. When I got in [redacted] car they showed me a large red fire-extinguisher. [redacted] said they were going to go to the tower on west peak and blow it up, in fact they were all talking about the best place to blow up. I don't know where they got the exting-uisher but it looked kind of new. We went to west peak and took the bomb out of the car (I took it out of the car and handed it to someone). It weighed about 40-50 lbs. The bomb was filled partially with flour and the rest with powder. Rather than risk blowing the tower, [redacted] placed the bomb in a crevice and [redacted] had a reel of wire which he connected to the bomb, unreeled it and the other end to the car. I don't know who actually detonated the bomb, as someone said "run" and I ran. Two seconds later Ptl. [redacted] arrived. I will come in the morning and give CAPT. [redacted] more names.

New Left Movement - Violence

Reference is made to Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) memorandum at New York, New York dated May 14, 1971, captioned as above except including the names of [redacted]

On August 10, 1971, [redacted] photograph was exhibited to the building superintendent and residents at [redacted] Bronx, New York in an effort to verify [redacted] presence in New York City (NYC) in early November, 1970. The following individuals viewed exhibited photograph and were unable to identify [redacted]:

b6
b7C

[redacted] Superintendent

All the above tenants resided in adjoining apartments to [redacted] during his period of residence, with the exception of the superintendent, who lived in the adjoining apartment at [redacted] Even though living next door, the superintendent, due to the nature of his duties, saw [redacted] and his friends on many occasions and stated he had definitely not seen [redacted] at the building or in the area.

On August 17, 1971, first source, who is in a position to furnish reliable information, advised the Rockefeller Foundation, 111 West 50th Street, NYC, has no record which identifies [redacted] as ever being an associate, employee, or having ever received a fellowship or grant

b7D

On September 10, 1971, a second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, identified [redacted] participated in a protest march around Capital Square at Madison, Wisconsin on August 24, 1971. The march was sponsored by Mexican American Migrant Workers, who were calling attention to alleged discriminatory treatment that they are reportedly subjected to by their Wisconsin agricultural employers. Approximately 200 protesters were in attendance.

On September 21, 1971, a third source, in a position to furnish reliable information, advised the Rockefeller Foundation has never had any affiliation with either [redacted] or [redacted]

All efforts by the New York Office (NYO) of the FBI to determine whether [redacted] was in fact ever in the NYC area have met with negative results.

b6
b7D

Review of the identification records of [redacted] FBI Number [redacted] revealed he is not identical with New York subject [redacted] (No Middle Name - NMN) [redacted] Military records reveal New York subject [redacted] was serving in the United States Navy from December 2, 1968 to March 27, 1970, during the same period [redacted] was serving time in two Illinois State penitentiaries and Cook County Jail. New York subject [redacted] was born, raised and attended school in NYC, never, according to school, military and employment records, having resided in Illinois. According to the records of the New York City Police Department (NYCPD), Identification Division, New York subject [redacted] has never been arrested.

b7C

Communication from the Louisville Office of the FBI, dated October 15, 1971, advised that on October 12, 1971, Major [redacted] Confinement Officer, Post Stockade, Fort Knox, Kentucky, stated he had examined all military records available to him and had been unable to find any references identifiable with [redacted] On the same date, [redacted] Personnel Management, Adjutant General's Department, Fort Knox, Kentucky, advised she was unable to locate any records relating to [redacted]

On October 26, 1971 and December 6, 1971, [redacted] photograph was exhibited to source four (4), who has furnished reliable information in the past. Source 4 advised [redacted] nor anyone fitting his description, has been in contact with [redacted] in San Francisco area.

b7C

On December 8, 1971, [redacted] Hudson County Sheriff's Office, New Jersey, furnished a copy of the arrest record of [redacted] This record reflected an arrest by the Sheriff's Office, Jersey City, [redacted] for non-support, and by the Montreal Police Department, Montreal, Quebec, Canada on [redacted] for shoplifting.

On December 9, 1971, Sergeant [redacted] Johnson City, Tennessee, Police Department, advised he has no records available identifiable with New York subject [redacted]

On December 9, 1971, source five (5), who is in a position to furnish reliable information, advised there is no credit record available identifiable with subject at the Johnson City Credit Bureau, Johnson City, Tennessee.

On January 5, 1972, [redacted] Chief b6 Clerk, Division of Vital Statistics, Department of Public b7C Health, Nashville, Tennessee, advised records of that office were checked with negative results regarding [redacted] who is reportedly born [redacted] at Johnson City, Tennessee. Above office maintains all birth records for the State of Tennessee.

On January 20, 1972, Assistant District Attorney (ADA) [redacted] Bronx District Attorney's Office, 851 Grand Concourse, Bronx, New York, advised the bombing conspiracy trial of [redacted] has been adjourned until later this year with pre-trial motions pending. [redacted] stated he is not at all anxious to go to trial regarding this matter inasmuch as charges were identical against [redacted] b6 when ADA [redacted], Bronx District Attorney's Office b7C made a plea bargain with the Division Attorneys reducing the charge from a felony to a misdemeanor. [redacted] stated he only wished he could accomplish the same with [redacted].

ADA [redacted] Bronx District Attorney's Office, Bronx, New York explained original charges against the six individuals named above who were arrested on November 1-2, 1970, were dropped in that the policeman who raided Apartment [redacted] at [redacted] Bronx, New York were over zealous in carrying out their arrest, and their actions resulted in an unlawful search and seizure based on the United States Supreme Court decision in "Chimel Verses United States." ADA [redacted] advised that the above Supreme Court decision related that a search incidental to arrest is limited to that area within the immediate "arm span" of the defendant. In above case Brietbart advised that the "fruits of the search" were taken from various rooms of the apartment, in fact the entire apartment was searched. The search warrant for the other two apartments involved, that were later searched, were based on the "fruits" obtained from the [redacted] apartment leaving a question as to the legality of those searches.

Data provided by Newark regarding [redacted] indicates he is not identical with subject, [redacted] however due to possibility false information was submitted to New Jersey Department of Motor Vehicles, and further since subject is a local fugitive with his whereabouts unknown, leads are being set out to make a positive determination regarding this matter. Subject described as follows: b6 b7C

Name	[redacted]
Sex	Male
Race	White
Height	5'10"
Weight	174 lbs.
Hair	Blonde
Eyes	Blue
Scars and Marks	Tattoo on right shoulder with name of [redacted]
Date of Birth	[redacted]
Place of Birth	New York, New York
Residence	[redacted] Bronx, New York
Selective Service Number	[redacted] b6 b7C
Social Security Number	[redacted]
Navy Service Number	[redacted] (Discharged US Navy 3/27/70 on the convenience of the government)

NYO's efforts to determine the location of [redacted] and [redacted] have consisted of contacts with [redacted] for approximately [redacted] as well as contacts with [redacted] located at [redacted] Bronx, New York. b6 b7C b7D

Attempts to locate [redacted] have involved frequent contacts with [redacted] at [redacted] NYC, residence of [redacted] b6 b7C and [redacted]

Bronx, residence of [redacted] b6 b7C

Coverage has been maintained at [redacted] parent's home at [redacted] Bronx, New York. Pretext calls have been unsuccessful in locating his whereabouts.

[redacted] continues to reside with his mother at [redacted] Bronx, New York. Assistant District Attorney [redacted] Bronx District Attorney's Office, NYC, advises [redacted] has regularly reported his activities and whereabouts, and that he is generally cooperative although he maintains he has no information regarding his brothers, [redacted] b6 b7C

Efforts to determine activities of [redacted] and [redacted] have consisted of liaison with the Bronx Probation Department and the superintendent of their building, [redacted] NYC. b6 b7C

Additional coverage is provided regarding all above cases through frequent surveillances of residents involved, especially those located at [redacted] Bronx, New York; [redacted] Bronx, New York and [redacted] NYC.

This investigation has been directed for over one year toward not only developing the extent of local conspiracy involved, but also in determining whether in fact any nationwide conspiracy does exist. The conspiracy is central to discussion or examination of each of the individual subjects activities or past history as a radical. In each instance, the conspiracy indictments serve as credentials for the individuals involved, demonstrating real revolutionary intent and not just the usual radical rhetoric.

Only by understanding the ramifications regarding each subject's relationship, not only to the conspiracy, but to each other, does a complete understanding in this matter emerge. It is for this reason these individual cases are being reported on under the conspiracy caption Doycav with copies being designated to each individual case file.

For the information of the Bureau, attempts to exhibit [redacted] photographs to [redacted] have not been submitted in form suitable for dissemination, inasmuch as a prior mutual agreement precludes such dissemination to outside agencies. b6 b7C b7D

For the information of offices not familiar with the Doycav conspiracy matter, subjects are under investigation to determine if they are involved in a nationwide bombing conspiracy. [redacted] New York Telephone Company, 140 West Street, New York, New York, furnished information concerning toll calls charged to [redacted] which is listed [redacted] New York, New York. [redacted] is residing with [redacted] and has access to this telephone. [redacted] spent three years in the Peace Corps and is from Princeton. They presently reside at [redacted] Flemington, NJ, [redacted] and have opened a studio at their residence where they specialize in [redacted]

Subject stated she lived in New York City with some friends two summers ago and traveled to California. Most of the time she spent in California, she was using "speed" and "acid" and the events there are not clear in her mind. She spent most of her time in California in and out of hospitals having convulsions and withdrawing from drugs.

She spent a brief period in Isla Vista, California, and while there, was taken by a male friend named [redacted] (LNU) to a place on the beach where "they" would give her pills. She identified a photograph of [redacted] Weatherman fugitive as identical to an individual living in a converted garage in this residence. She described the residence as a dark colored or weathered board and batten construction.

b7D

Subject was vague and confused regarding details of [redacted] residence, but stated she was positive of her identification. She advised she could furnish no information concerning [redacted] and [redacted] or other Weathermen, but later stated that [redacted] had been living in Lambertville, NJ, about four years ago, was selling "speed" and moved to an unknown address in Philadelphia.

She stated she had no information regarding any alleged plot to bomb the site of the Republican Convention and knew of no communes in or near Flemington.

Although subject stated she was now "clean", her statments, behavior, and appearance seemed confused, vague, and bizarre.

b6

Further details concerning information regarding [redacted] furnished by her will be set out further by separate communication.

In view of the above, no further investigation is being conducted regarding the subject at this time. CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS-EXTREMIST.

Re memo of SA JAMES G. KEENAN, dated 6/23/72.

On 7/13/72, BEN WELLS, Superintendent, U. S. Post Office, 420 South Fairview, Goleta, California, advised that no change of address order is listed for the subject, [redacted] or [redacted] from [redacted] Goleta, California.

On 7/17/72, [redacted] owner of the duplex at [redacted] was contacted at his place of employment, [redacted] Goleta, [redacted] extension [redacted] advised that he purchased this building from [redacted] in January, 1972. [redacted] is now somewhere in Florida. When he took over, [redacted] and [redacted] were living in the front apartment as man and wife. They moved out several months later, without leaving a forwarding address, and without paying all the rent due. About three months ago [redacted] saw [redacted] in Isla Vista. However, he does not know if she or the subject are living in this area now. [redacted] has no records reflecting any background information on either one. b6 b7C

[redacted] also stated that the present tenant of the front apartment recently said that a deputy came one day trying to locate [redacted] as a principal witness in a rape case, in which she was the victim. Also, several officers, of another unknown law enforcement agency, have been around several times looking for the subject.

On 7/17/72, the records of the Santa Barbara Police Department (SBPD) were checked regarding the above with negative results. The records of the Santa Barbara County Sheriff's Office (SBSO) were negative regarding

The Atomic Energy Commission has requested a background investigation concerning Governor Reagan in view of the fact he will have access to highly sensitive restricted data as a result of a position on the Board of Regents of the University of California. The AE Act of 1954 requires full investigation where such access is involved. See Section 19, Volume II, Manual of Instructions; Chapter 78, Part III, FBI Handbook. This case must be assigned immediately to experienced Agents and a completed investigation submitted to reach the Bureau without fail by 2/6/67.

Governor Reagan was born 2/6/11, ~~Santa Monica~~, ~~California~~. He presently resides 1669 San Onofre, Pacific Palisades, California. Social Security number 480-07-7456.

SAN FRANCISCO: SAC San Francisco is instructed to personally call upon Governor Reagan and confidentially advise him of the reason for the investigation and the fact that this investigation is being conducted at the request of the AEC. Attempt to tactfully ascertain identity of Governor Reagan's parents and set out leads, if necessary, for appropriate checks.

ALL OFFICES: In view of Governor Reagan's prominence, no neighborhood investigations are to be conducted without Bureau
