NOTE: Yakovlev, Soviet diplomat in U.S. from 1941 to 1946. He was identified by Harry Gold, convicted Soviet espionage agent as person to whom Gold delivered data secured from Klaus Fuchs. Because of Yakovlev's involvement in Soviet espionage, indictment ret'd in 1950 although he was not in country. AUSA, SDNY in 1955 advised warrant for Yakovlev would remain outstanding.
Possibility of Yakovlev's returning to U.S. under true name not likely as extensive newspaper publicity in 1950 identified Yakovlev and his involvement in Gold-Fuchs case. No record located that L. Leo Taub, who reportedly interviewed Mrs. Yakovlev at Hunter College, was subject of Bureau investigation. Taub associated with Hunter College and Hunter College. Numerous references indicate Taub recommended sponsor for ex-refugees seeking to enter U.S. during WW II. No derogatory info located. Interview of Taub recommended.

Yakovlev while in the US was suspected of being an NKVD, MVD and MGB agent. Yakovlev was the Soviet espionage superior who received the atomic energy secrets. He apparently was a member of the Zubilin (not identified) network. On 8/17/50, the Federal Grand Jury, Southern District, New York, returned an indictment charging Yakovlev with conspiracy to violate Section 32, title 50, US code. Yakovlev was a Bureau fugitive and as of 8/7/69, the bench warrant for his apprehension was still outstanding.

The second American-Soviet Friendship Congress, sponsored by the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, Inc. (100-146964), was held on 11/6-8/43, at Hotel New Yorker, NYC. On 11/7/43, Anatoly Yakovlev, a Soviet engineer and graduate of the University of Moscow, made a speech at the National Panel of this congress. In his speech, Yakovlev figuratively unfurled the banner of Russia against the Nazi horrors and called for the equality of all nations and the brotherhood of man. (SA's)

In interviews on 6/1,2,12/50, Harry Gold of 6823 Kindred Street, Philadelphia, advised that in the early part of 1944, his Russian contact "Sam" (Semen Markovich Semenov*), was succeeded by another Russian contact known as "John" (Anatoli Antonovich Yakovlev). Gold was not certain whether the information he received from Alfred Dean Slack (65-59183) while at Kingsport, Tennessee, was turned over to "Sam" or "John". In the latter part of 1944, "John" told Gold to forget about Slack. (U)

On 7/29/50 and on 8/1, 2 and 3/50, the admitted Soviet espionage agent, Harry Gold, Informant (65-59204), was interviewed in NYC, and advised the following: In early July, 1949, Gold received a note which indicated that the Soviets desired to see him at the emergency meeting place, a sea food restaurant on the Broadway stop of the Astoria-elevated line. The method of identification was the presentation of one-half of an Arthur H. Thomas Company bill. This was arranged with Anatoli Antonovich Yakovlev during the time Gold was contacting him in June and September, 1945, prior to Yakovlev's leaving the country. On 9/24/49, an unknown contact of Gold's appeared at Gold's home in Philadelphia, and identified himself to Gold by asking if he remembered "John" and "the doctor" in New York. (U)

This serial indicated that "the doctor" was Dr. Klaus Fuchs (not identified). (U)

On 4/26/51, Harry Gold, a confessed espionage agent, furnished the following information concerning his association with Semen Markovich Semenov (100-47083) and Anatoli A. Yakovlev, his Soviet espionage supervisors in NYC. Semenov and Yakovlev both instructed Gold to appear as a married man for the purpose of concealment of his identity and to give evidence of stability. In July, 1944, Gold failed to keep an appointment with Yakovlev. The next time Gold saw Yakovlev was in 1945, at which time Yakovlev told Gold that he and Semenov had waited for Gold to show up and that he brought greetings from Semenov. Background information was set forth. (U)

It was recommended that Rosten be furnished with these photographs to be used without their being attributed to the Bureau; however, on 4/28/51, Rosten was advised that we could not make available the photographs he desired. On 9/13/51, Walter Zuk (64-32685) was interviewed in NYC, concerning Anatoli Jakovlev or Yakovlev, who might be identical with Anatoli Yakovlev, former Vice-Consul of the New York Soviet Consulate. Zuk advised that he became friendly with Mrs. Yakovlev, whose husband was a Colonel in the Russian Intelligence Service, while Zuk operated as a German spy out of Charkov, in December, 1941. In March 1942, Mrs. Yakovlev requested Zuk to obtain certain information which she could transmit to her husband. Zuk was shown a photograph of Mrs. Yakovlev, wife of the former Vice-Consul, and advised that she was not identical with the Mrs. Yakovlev that he knew. It was noted that the Vice Consul and his wife entered the US on 2/4/41, and were in New York during the period that Zuk knew Mrs. Yakovlev. (S) (u)

INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 2/10/77

Attached indicates that New York Office (NYO) has been advised by AUSA that former Deputy Attorney General (DAG) Tyler reportedly engaged in discussions with Professor Allen Weinstein concerning prosecutive aspects of the Rosenberg case. Yakovlev, former Soviet Vice Consul, NY, was the Soviet principal of the Rosenbergs who were executed for furnishing atomic secrets to the Russians. Weinstein has received information on the Rosenberg case based on an FOIPA request. (U)

The information reportedly withheld by DAG Tyler from Michael and Robert Meeropol (sons of the Rosenbergs), based on their FOIPA requests, undoubtedly refers to upholding classification of the [REDACTED]

Although NY's assessment that a meeting of Weinstein with Yakovlev in Western Europe might be utilized by the Soviets for propaganda purposes may be valid, it does not appear that any positive benefit would be derived from additional inquiries within Department of Justice to clarify or confirm the information NY received from AUSA there. During the week of January 31, 1977, in a conversation between AUSA, WILLIAM KELLEHER, of the SDNY, and an SA of the NYO, KELLEHER advised that he learned from another AUSA of the SDNY, that according to information from the Department of Justice, YAKOVLEV had made arrangements to meet in Western Europe concerning certain aspects of the ROSENBERG matter. This meeting was reportedly to take place between YAKOVLEV and one Professor ALLEN WEINSTEIN, who has done considerable research in this matter.

The NYO is not in possession of any information concerning any arrangements between the Department and WEINSTEIN for such a meeting, nor any information which would indicate, if in fact, such a meeting did or will take place.

There have been no other developments concerning this matter, since referenced report, of which the Bureau is not aware.
