CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

OCT 19 1949

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE DIRECTOR
FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

SUBJECT: Serge STEPANOFF
Alexander STEPANOFF

1. A usually reliable source has reported that Serge STEPANOFF, born 8 September 1870 at Saint Petersburg (Russia), is now living in the United States. He is said to hold American passport #94940 issued 18 July 1947 at New York City at which time he claimed that he was employed in New York City as a mechanic. In May 1949 Serge STEPANOFF allegedly passed several days at a pension at Saint-Pierre de Rumilly, Haute Savoie, France, formerly owned by CHTRANGE (or STRANGUE). In Paris (presumably during the same visit to France) he is reported to have been visited frequently at his hotel by a Madame Tamara Wakhrouchev JAKOVLEV, born 31 August 1919 at Nyni-Novgorod (Russia).

2. According to the records of this Agency a Michel CHTRANGE was reported to be an agent of the Soviet Military Mission in Paris in 1947. In the same report it was stated that his father, Michel Nikolaevitch CHTRANGE, ran the Chateau d'Arcine at Saint-Pierre de Rumilly as a pension for various Russian friends of the family. Both Michel CHTRANGE and his father were suspected at this time of running a liaison chain for the Soviets between France and Switzerland. The Madame JAKOVLEV referred to may be related to Alexandre Aleksieievitch JAKOVLEV or JAKOVLEV, Anatoli JAKOVLEV, or Vladimir JAKOVLEV all of whom have been connected with Soviet diplomatic installations or missions in Paris.

3. Our files further indicate that a Serge STEPANOFF, born 7 October 1900, applied for an immigration visa 26 January 1946 at the American Embassy in Paris. When he applied for the immigration visa, which was never completed, STEPANOFF claimed that his brother, Alexander STEPANOFF, was a naturalized American citizen and resided at 568 Spruce Street, Berkeley, California, where he was employed by the Matson Lines as a master mariner.

4. We would appreciate being furnished all the material you may have on Serge and Alexander STEPANOFF including, if possible, the dates on which they have entered and departed from the United States, the numbers of their passports, naturalization papers and any other data which might help us establish their identity. We are particularly interested in knowing if Serge STEPANOFF holds passport #94940 issued

Shy, demure looking, soft spoken FAISIYA IZOTOVA, a Soviet trade union member, now a student at Columbia University, accepted the scroll of SHEVERNIK. In fluent English, with just a trace of accent, she told the delegates that the scroll was just one more evidence of a friendship between the two countries growing ever stronger in the struggle against the common enemy.

A picture accompanied the above article showing JOSEPH CURRAN, City CIO President, and EDWIN S. SMITH, Executive Director of the National Council of American Soviet Friendship (NCASF), presenting IZOTOVA with the scroll in behalf of Soviet organized labor.

The "Daily Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

It is pointed out that the NCASF is an organization designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

LAN ADOMIAN was interviewed on September 29, 1950, by SAS RAYMOND P. WIRTH and JAMES P. LEE, at which time he advised that during the period 1944-46, he had numerous contacts with ANATOLE ANTONOVICH YAKOVLEV, Vice-Consul, Soviet Consulate, New York City.

According to LAN ADOMIAN, the above contact was initiated when he went to the Soviet Consulate to obtain a visa to visit Russia. LAN ADOMIAN related that he was unsuccessful in obtaining this visa. He further advised that he travelled to Europe in 1938 in order to fight with the Abraham Lincoln Brigade in Spain. He stated that he worked at the Amtorg Trading Corporation as an interpreter for a four month period in late 1939 or early 1940.

71 MAY 25 1956

The investigation at Tulsa, Oklahoma was conducted by SA STEINAR E. GORUD.

For the information of Detroit, as reflected in enclosed letter from NY to Bureau dated 4/4/56, DONALD THOMAS AXON was interviewed BY SA-S JESSE L. ORR and BENNIE C. GARREN at Tulsa, Oklahoma on 3/16/56 in connection with the case entitled, "JULIUS ROSENBERG, et al. Espionage -R" inasmuch as DAVID GREENGLASS had identified AXON on 3/15/51 as one of eighteen men included in either or both lists of potential Soviet Espionage recruits furnished to ROSENBERG in January, 1945, and to HARRY GOLD in June, 1945. It was indicated further that HARRY GOLD stated the list he received was turned over to ANATOLI A. YAKOVLEV of the Soviet Consulate, New York, N. Y. in June, 1945. During the interview, AXON, who was then Assistant to the Vice-President, Manufacturing and Research, Deep Rock Oil Corporation, residence address Apartment 312, 1607 East 12th Street, Tulsa, Oklahoma, denied knowing ROSENBERG and GOLD but stated he was stationed at Los Alamos, New Mexico, from about 2/3/45 to about 3/9/46 while in the U. S. Army, and from 3/9/46 to about 9/12/47 as a civilian employee of the University of California at Los Alamos. He stated he met GREENGLASS for the first time when he was originally assigned to Los Alamos; that he met Mrs. GREENGLASS only once when he had dinner with her and her husband in their apartment in Albuquerque, New Mexico when only the three of them were present; that he doesn't recall GREENGLASS ever mentioning the names of ROSENBERG and GOLD, whom he later determined from newspaper accounts were alleged espionage agents for Russia; that neither GREENGLASS nor anyone else had ever asked him to furnish information to Russia; that GREENGLASS claimed there was more freedom in Russia than AXON thought; that GREENGLASS appeared sympathetic to Russia in his conversations and claimed to have relatives in Russia; that GREENGLASS stated he objected to individual discrimination because of race or color and that he, AXON, shared the same view at the time; that he, AXON, did not consider GREENGLASS to be a Communist and would not have reported GREENGLASS if he had suspected such connection because none of the security lectures which he had attended indicated that Communists were excluded from the plant at Los Alamos. AXON stated that at the time his own ideas were so similar to those entertained by GREENGLASS that he did not consider them Communistic and he could not recall any conversations with GREENGLASS wherein the latter was attempting to obtain unauthorized information. On this occasion agents commented administratively that AXON was reserved and non-specific in answering questions.

In the January, 1944 issue of "New Currents" an editorial carried the following message:

"Two years ago in response to a plea for help from the Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee in Moscow, a number of American leading Jews created the vehicle, the organized means through which this aid could be mobilized. To its ranks came Yiddish journalists, Anglo Jewish writers and artists and trade union leaders and actors led by the known Jewish philosopher and critic, Dr. CHAIM ZHITLOUSKY. The Committee became spokesman in many ways for the Jewish professional groups. It became also the avenue through which the Jewish workers in the factories and shops could look for a progressive, all embracing Anti-Fascist unity which would weld and divers elements in Jewish life into an effective program for helping our Jewish brothers in the lands of the heroes--the Soviet Union. In the summer of 1943 with the joint invitation of the Committee and the Jewish Council for Russian War Relief, the soviet delegation of SOLOMON MICHOELS and ITZIK FEFFER came to this country."

The name of ALEX ALPERT appeared as a member of the Editorial Board with the January, 1944 issue of "New Currents." It is believed that ALEX ALPERT should be ALICE ALPERT.

The "Jewish Daily Forward", an Anti-Communist Jewish daily newspaper published in New York City, described "New Currents" as "Stalinist controlled."

TITLE JOHN HANSEN MAGDIEL			CHARACTER OF CASE INTERNAL SECURITY - R

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

Subject interviewed June 22, 1951 at Los Angeles, at which time admitted contacts with various Soviet officials in effort to sell inventions. He denied being requested or performing any other service for Soviet Union. He denied being a member of the Communist Party but stated that the Russian people would eventually rule the earth.

DETAILS:

On June 22, 1951 subject, who resides at 2227 Juliet Street, Los Angeles, was interviewed by Special Agents NEAL MCGINNIS and WILLIAM C. PATTERSON at his place of employment located in the vicinity of Whittier Boulevard and Van Norman, Montebello, California, where MAGDIEL is constructing dog kennels.

MAGDIEL stated he was born November 23, 1879 in Thromso, Norway. He came to the United States from Canada in 1904 and was naturalized in Salt Lake City in 1914. MAGDIEL stated that he, his brother DANIEL, and Dr. MORAY of Salt Lake City spent several years developing a machine which would extract electric energy from the air, and after efforts to interest the Government of the United States in this invention proved fruitless his brother DANIEL in 1929 made a trip to Moscow, Russia, in an effort to sell this invention to the Soviet Union.

o/s A photograph of GREGORY KAHEIFETS, former Vice Consul, Soviet Consulate, San Francisco, was displayed to JOHN MAGDIEL and he stated the individual pictured was identical with the KAHEIFETS whom he contacted in San Francisco.

A photograph of SEMEN MARKOVICH SEMENOV, Amtorg Representative, was displayed to JOHN MAGDIEL. However, he could not identify this photograph as identical with the SEMENOV he met in 1939.

MAGDIEL could not identify a photograph of ALEXANDER P. GRACHEV, Soviet Government Purchasing Commission Officer at Long Beach, California.

In connection with YAKOVLEV a photograph of ANATOLI ANTONVICH YAKOVLEV, who has been identified as a Soviet Espionage Agent by HARRY GOLD, convicted Soviet Espionage Agent, was displayed to JOHN MAGDIEL who stated the individual pictured was not identical with the YAKOVLEV he met in 1929.

When questioned concerning his Communist activities JOHN MAGDIEL denied that he was a member of the Communist Party. He stated that also he was a member of the Mormon Church. He did not agree with all their teachings and in his interpretation of the Bible he had come to the conclusion that the Russian people were one of the ten lowest tribes of Israel and furthermore that despite the efforts of the Catholic Church and Western Democracy the Russian people would eventually rule the earth.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter dated July 3, 1946 in which it was requested that this office take immediate steps to exhaust all possible leads to effect the identification of the ZHUKOV [REDACTED]. Your attention is directed to our reply dated July 17, 1946 wherein it is reflected that, according to information furnished by [REDACTED]

Further investigation at the New York Field Division reflects that an individual by the name of BORIS JOUKOV is presently General Manager of AMTORG TRADING CORPORATION at New York City. Recently it was recalled that [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]. A check of the list of occupants of 3 West 108 Street reflects that a family by the name of JOUKOV resides in Apartment 8.

Although this individual has not as yet been identified by the New York Field Office, it has been ascertained that his general physical description fits that of the individual who identified himself as ZHUKOV [REDACTED]. Indices of the New York Field Office reflect that BORIS ALEXEEVICH JOUKOV assumed duties as a clerk at the SOVIET PURCHASING COMMISSION, Washington, D. C. on May 14, 1943. He was born on July 24, 1912 and his wife's name is EKATERINA NIKOLAEVNA JOUKOVA.

Steps are being taken at the New York Field Office to identify and photograph the JOUKOV who resides at 3 West 108 Street. It will be noted that ANATOLI YAKOVLEV, a clerk at the Russian Consulate in New York City and a suspected NKVD Agent, resides in Apartment 19 at 3 West 108 Street.

An examination of the New York Herald Tribune newspaper, dated October 31, 1945, revealed that Page 18 was devoted to the Herald Tribune Forum which was being held at that time; that the Forum had decided that Soviet amity with the rest of the world was essential to lasting peace. The examination further revealed that one MARSHA SCOTT, wife of JOHN SCOTT, Time and Life correspondent, had recited her experiences on her first day in the United States. She indicated that she had spent her money right and left inasmuch as she had found an abundance of things to buy in this country, in contrast to those conditions that prevailed in Russia. It is also noted that DR. HENRY F. SINGERIST, Director of the Institute of History and Medicine, at John Hopkins University, also spoke on the same program as MARSHA SCOTT.
