GREATER NEW YORK LABOR PRESS CLUB

A source advised on December 6, 1962, that the Greater New York Press Club (GNYPG) was formed during February, 1961, by LOUIS WEINSTOCK when he was the General Manager of "The Worker" by obtaining members who would contribute funds, subscribe to and work for "The Worker," and also to hold social and cultural affairs.

The source stated that in the spring of 1962, JAMES LUSTIG was the Business Manager of "The Worker." LUSTIG announced at a press club meeting at Adelphi Hall, New York City, held on April 26, 1962, the formation of a new press club known as the "City Press Club Executive Board" (CPECB). The purpose of this new club was to coordinate the work of all the borough press clubs in the New York City area; to strengthen the work of the press clubs; to organize new press clubs; and to draw in people who were not members of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA). The source stated that the basic purpose was to raise funds for "The Worker" and increase the circulation of that publication. Persons not members of the CPUSA could be members of the new club, but leadership in the club was limited to members of the CPUSA. The name of the CPECB was later changed to "Greater City Press Club" (GCPC) which club became the successor of the GNYPG.

The source continued that in July, 1962, LOUIS WEINSTOCK again became General Manager of "The Worker" and the GCPC again became known as the Greater New York Readers' Club, Greater New York Readers' Clubs, Greater New York Readers' Conference, Greater City Press Club and the City Press Club, by personnel responsible for preparation of notices and literature regarding meetings and activities of the clubs. The source advised at that time the GNYPG had no office or headquarters and used the mailing address of "The Worker," 23 West 26th Street, New York City.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

The second source advised on August 15, 1962, that the Greater New York Readers' Club was formerly known as the "Three Boro Readers' Club."

APPENDIX

GREATER NEW YORK LABOR PRESS CLUB

The first source advised on May 28, 1963, that the GNYPC holds no membership meetings and that the officers had ceased to function for the GNYPC. The source advised that LOUIS WEINSTOCK was responsible for using the name of the GNYPC in conjunction with the activities of the Readers Conferences at "Worker" functions. The organization of the GNYPC no longer functions.

The first source advised on April 21, 1964, that, on March 31, 1964, about 50 members of the CPUSA met at the Hotel Woodstock, 127 West 43rd Street, New York City. At this meeting, JOE BRANDT, the Business Manager of "The Worker," advised that, after consultation with the Editorial Board and other officials of "The Worker," it was decided to rebuild the GNYPC and to rename it the Greater New York Labor Press Club (GNYLPC). Those present at the meeting, without a dissenting vote, approved this decision.

A third source advised on April 29, 1964, that on the same date ERIC BERT, Managing Editor of "The Worker" said that the GNYLPC is a group of individuals who, as volunteers, help support "The Worker" and aid in its distribution and circulation.

Reurlet and letterhead memorandum dated 9/14/66.

No action is being taken by the Bureau with regard to dissemination of referenced letterhead memorandum at the Seat of Government as it adds nothing to the previous memorandum submitted by you on 5/31/66 which has been so disseminated.

In relet you state it is your opinion that captioned individuals have left for Europe, yet information set forth by you in referenced letterhead memorandum contains no indication that subjects have departed the United States. It is further noted that you placed both these cases in a pending inactive status, when, in effect, it is apparent that the current whereabouts of these Security Index subjects are unknown to your office. Your assumption of foreign travel on their part is based on your unsuccessful efforts to locate subjects at their residence and on passport information obtained in April, 1966, yet investigation conducted by you in September, 1966, has shown that the Pasternaks have cancelled foreign travel reservations previously arranged by them.

You should immediately reopen these cases and by means of aggressive and imaginative investigation determine the whereabouts of these subjects. Submit Form FD-122 if appropriate. If your investigation determines that these subjects have actually engaged in foreign travel, attempt to ascertain facts concerning their

This matter should receive prompt and continuous attention and you should keep the Bureau advised of your efforts in this regard.

NOTE: New York by letter and LHM of 5/31/66 advised of intended travel to Europe on the part of the subjects in September, 1966, which information had been obtained from passport records dated April, 1966. New York then closed instant cases subject to reopening in August, 1966, for the purpose of verifying subjects' departure.

1968 MAY DAY COMMITTEE

On April 10, 1968, a confidential source, made available a copy of a press release under the letterhead of the Communist Party of New York State, 33 Union Square, West, New York, New York. The release, dated April 4, 1968, and captioned, "May Day Committee, 1968, 32 Union Square, New York, New York 10003, telephone 924-0552", indicated that May Day would be celebrated this year by a demonstration to take place in Union Square, May 1, 1968, from 5:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. The release added that RASHEED STOREY, Chairman of the 1968 May Day Committee, made this announcement in behalf of a May Day conference held the previous night at Academy Hall, New York, New York.

A second confidential source advised that RASHEED STOREY is a member of the New York District Communist Party Committee.

The April 16, 1968 issue of "The Worker". (an East coast Communist newspaper) on page 9, contained a statement attributed to RASHEED STOREY concerning the purpose of the 1968 May Day Rally. The statement in part read as follows:

"The May 1 demonstration will demand an end to all imperialist war, the complete liberation of oppressed peoples everywhere. It will give full support to the black liberation struggle and to opposition to all forms of white racism and anti-semitism. It will support trade unionists fighting for a better life, and rank and file control of their unions".

The May 7, 1968, issue of "The Worker" on page 8 indicated that GUS HALL and others spoke at the May Day Rally, May 1, 1968, at Union Square, New York, New York.

"The New York Times" of March 16, 1967, in an article, described GUS HALL as General Secretary of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA).

On May 8, 1968, a third confidential source advised that the May Day Rally held at Union Square, was sponsored by the CP, USA.

On June 10, 1968, the second confidential source advised that the 1968 May Day Committee is no longer active. It was formed merely to organize the May Day Rally and disbanded upon completion of this celebration.
