The main speaker of the evening was WILLIAM PATTESON. He described China and its advances, and also discussed his trip to Europe. He said that he had met with JACQUES DUCLOS in France. He devoted a portion of his talk in speaking for the release of HENRY VINSTON.

PHIL ROSENBERG introduced a color motion picture in China, filmed during KHRUSHCHEV's visit. The film, which was in Chinese, featured Chinese military might and Chinese youth. ROSENBERG made the comment that this film shows that "we are not alone".

ESTHER BRALL made a collection speech, noting that money collected from this meeting was for "The Worker".

ReNY FD 122 dated 12/28/61.

Re FD 122 set forth subject's employment as unknown.

The following investigation was conducted in order to determine the subject's new employment:

Surveillances were conducted on 1/18/62 and 1/23/62, in the vicinity of the subject's residence, 46-19 Skillman Avenue, Sunnyside, Queens, NY, at which time the subject was not observed. b7e

b7c

It was determined that the subject leaves his residence at approximately 7:00 to 7:30 AM. b7e

As a result of the above information, a surveillance was instituted 7:00 AM on 1/23/62, however, the subject was not observed.

b7d

[REDACTED] advised SA [REDACTED] b7c
on 1/23/62, that the subject leaves residence between 6:30 to 8:30 AM but he could furnish no information as to the type of employment the subject has at this time. [REDACTED] advised that on this date it appeared that the subject was not going to work as he was still in his apartment as late as 10:00 AM. (It is noted there are three other SI subjects residing in the immediate vicinity of the subject.) b7d

[REDACTED] stated that the subject is planning to move from his present residence the end of January or early February, 1962, but that he did not know where. He also advised that in view of the subject's plan to move, he may not be employed at the present time.
