Albuquerque, New Mexico
March 8, 1966

I, Linda Hughes, 8202 Morrow Road, N.E., Albuquerque, New Mexico, make the following voluntary statement to Gordon Jackson, identified to me as a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

I was formerly employed with the Hilton Hotels in Albuquerque, New Mexico and was so employed in the early 1940s.

On February 10, 1966, I received a telephone call from a person identifying himself as Malcolm Sharp, an attorney. He wanted to know if I had read the book about the Rosenberg case written by Walter Schneir. I told him no. He then seemed to be surprised that I had not kept up with the Rosenberg case and the Sobell case. He volunteered to bring a copy of the book to my home so I could read it.

The following day Mr. Sharp came by my home and left a copy of the book by Walter and Miriam Schneir, together with a summation of "Invitation to an Inquest," prepared by him, and an affidavit prepared by him which he wanted me to sign. In referring to the summation, he told me "these are my views entirely." At this time he told me that he was at the University of New Mexico, and a law professor in the law school.

Mr. Sharp explained that his purpose in contacting me was to ask me to verify the statements in the book attributed to me. He indicated that he had talked with Mr. Arnhart, the present manager of the Hilton Hotel, and he had been cooperative.

I checked that portion of the book wherein I am referred to and have found it is inaccurate and misquotes my statements to Mr. Schneir. At the time Mr. Schneir was in Albuquerque preparing the book, I had not wanted to talk with him, and I felt I had no positive information which I could furnish, but after thinking it over, decided that it would probably be the only way to get rid of him because he had been very persistent.

On February 11, 1966, Mr. Sharp again called me and wanted to know if he could come by and pick up the affidavit. I told him that he could pick it up if he wanted to but that I had not signed it and did not intend to sign it because it is not correct. Mr. Sharp was disturbed about me not having signed the document and suggested that I check with Mr. Arnhart. I told him I did not need to check with Mr. Arnhart, that my mind was definitely made up, and I had no intention of signing. He then wanted to know if I had read the book and I told him that I had not, but would like to keep the book for a while so I could read it. He then said I could have the book, that Mr. and Mrs. Schneir should have sent me a complementary copy of the book, which must have been an oversight. I then wanted to pay him the $5.95, the price marked on the book, and offered to send him a personal check but he refused payment and insisted that I could have the book.

Linda Hughes

I reminded Mr. Sharp, at this time, that I could not recall ever having signed an affidavit in connection with this matter, as he had previously given some indication that I had signed such an affidavit. When Mr. Sharp handed me the affidavit for my signature, he had mentioned that if I would sign it there was a possibility it would save me having to go back to New York to testify. He seemed confident there would be a new trial in the Sobell matter. At the time I informed him that I had no intention of signing the affidavit, he took the attitude that I would have to be subpoenaed. He made this remark in such a manner that it indicated to me that I should be afraid of a subpoena. In my reply to him I let him know that I was not afraid of a subpoena and had no fear of testifying.

In reviewing the affidavit which deals with the difference in the date on the face of the registration card of Harry Gold at the Hilton Hotel in Albuquerque and the stamp date on the back of the card, I note that the statement is made "In this case, since there is a discrepancy, I would take the stamp as the valid date of registration." This is not true inasmuch as it is just as likely that someone forgot to change the stamp, or that it got off unintentionally one way or the other, or the stamp had not been used until sometime after the registration card was made out, or that being an electrical device, many things could have gone wrong with it.

On February 28, 1966, Mr. Sharp, again called me and wanted to know if I had done any thinking about this matter and made a comment I did not understand. He said "my friends in New York misunderstood a letter I wrote to them," and I just wanted to know if you had done any thinking about signing the affidavit and had changed my mind. I told him that it did not matter how much thinking I would do about it that I would not change my mind.

I have read this and one other type written page and they are correct.
