SECURITY MATTER - C

Reurlet 8-21-59, captioned "Morton Sobell, Espionage - R"
(Bufile 101-2483, London file 65-915, New York file 100-37135). bl

It is requested that you contact [redacted]

[redacted] If necessary the information would, of course, be appropriately paraphrased and transmitted under top secret classification. Possibly [redacted] might prefer to paraphrase the information itself or, as an alternative, might prefer to approve the same information after preparation in suitable form by your office.

For your information, Perlin's name is being included in the Security Index; however, the most damaging evidence of subversive activity available concerning him is contained in relet. Because of Departmental review of Security Index cases, dissemination of the information in question to the Department would be desirable.

NOTE ON YELLOW:

Subject's name being approved for inclusion in Security Index. He is a member of law firm of Bonner, Kinoy, and Perlin, which has for many years handled numerous CP affairs. Perlin himself is the attorney for Morton Sobell and is active internationally in behalf of Sobell. Information in relet reported in the Sobell case concerns Perlin's contact with top CP leaders in England. [redacted] furnished the information under top security classification and requested that it not be disseminated outside the Bureau.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE
FOR MORTON SOBELL IN THE ROSENBERG CASE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case:

- "1. Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June 1953, the 'Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL,' the ROSENBERGS' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case -- a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States -- was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October 1953 and 'then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case.' National headquarters remained at 1050 6th Avenue, New York City. Co-chairmen of the newest organization were DANIEL MARSHALL and JOSEPH BRAININ. (Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, "Trial by Treason: The National Committee to Secure Justice for the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell," August 25, 1956, pp. 118 and 120; also cited in Annual Report for 1955, House Report 1648, January 17, 1956, originally released January 11, 1956, p. 30.)

NATIONAL LAWYERS' GUILD

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, contains the following concerning the National Lawyers' Guild:

"National Lawyers' Guild

- "1. Cited as a Communist front.
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)
- "2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'
(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally released September 17, 1950.)
- "3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers' Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.'
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

There is attached an editorial which appeared in "The Commercial Appeal," Memphis, Tennessee, for 11/29/59. This editorial, entitled "Time Enough Then," mentions attempts made by friends of Morton Sobell to contact the White House and the Department of Justice requesting parole for Sobell. The editorial points out that Sobell will not be eligible for parole until 1962 which will be time enough to consider the problem of parole.

Morton Sobell was convicted along with Julius and Ethel Rosenberg of conspiracy to commit espionage and was sentenced to thirty years in Federal penitentiary in 1951. The editorial points out that Sobell escaped the "just end" of execution "solely because he cooperated with the Government after the ring was uncovered."

It appears the editor has confused Morton Sobell with David Greenglass. Sobell never cooperated with the Government. At the time of his sentencing in 1951 Judge Kaufman, Trial Judge, stated that he was not imposing the death penalty because the evidence did not link Sobell with the theft of atomic secrets. Judge Kaufman did add that he wanted to make a statement for whatever it was worth that in his opinion Sobell should never be paroled. David Greenglass, brother of Ethel Rosenberg, was a co-defendant in the trial. He entered a plea of guilty and appeared as a Government witness. He was sentenced to fifteen years in 1951 and has been denied parole. Both Greenglass and his wife appeared as Government witnesses and both are still cooperating with the Government.

ACTION:

It is recommended this memorandum be forwarded to Assistant Director C. D. DeLoach who may desire to contact the editor of "The Commercial Appeal" and point out to him the fact that he has confused Sobell with Greenglass and, thus, set the record straight.

As you have previously advised, Mrs. Rose Sobell is in town, staying at the Emery Hotel, and is making efforts to see the President, General Goodpaster and myself in an attempt to secure Executive clemency for her son.

She saw Mr. Czarnt, the Pardon Attorney, and he advised that she felt that all doors were closed to her. On December 3, 1959 Mr. Cushman, my Executive Assistant, also saw her and thereafter conveyed to me the substance of her plea, namely that her son will have completed ten years in prison next Fall, and that this is punishment enough, assuming his guilt, which she, of course, does not admit.

I thought this should be a matter of record in the event an attempt is made to engender further support for this cause on the grounds that Mrs. Sobell had been unable to talk or get her message to anyone other than the Pardon Attorney. I advised against having anyone on the President's staff see her because from your intelligence reports to me it would provide the Communist Part, U.S.A., an opportunity to exploit such a visit for its purposes.
