A Request to the Judiciary Committee of the U. S. Senate

TO INVESTIGATE THE CONDUCT OF THE

U. S. ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE

IN THE ROSENBERG-SOBELL CASE

INTRODUCTION

The functions of the Attorney General's office, including the offices of the various United States attorneys and their assistants, as well as the various bureaus in the Department of Justice and the Federal Bureau of Investigation, are to carry out the laws of our nation. These officials are charged with the responsibility not only of prosecuting those persons accused of crimes but also of protecting impartially the constitutional and legal rights of all citizens. It has been said that "The United States Attorney is the representative not of an ordinary party to a controversy but of a sovereignty whose obligation to govern impartially is as compelling as its obligation to govern at all and whose interest therefore in a criminal prosecution is not that it shall win a case but that justice shall be done".

(See Appendix 1)

We believe that in the case of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg and Morton Sobell the Attorney General's office and the subordinate United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York failed to carry out their responsibilities with respect to achieving justice for all citizens regardless of political persuasion, and used every means at their command, lawful and unlawful, to send the Rosenbergs to their death and Morton Sobell to Alcatraz.

Mr. Sobell is alive today. He is appealing his conviction and sentence. The Attorney General's office continues to oppose these efforts. The Attorney General's office, in our view, is obstructing justice, exercising coercive pressures on Mr. Sobell, and generally is guilty of practices wholly alien to American concepts of fairness and decency.

We therefore turn to the Judiciary Committee of the Senate of the United States, as elected officials of the people and of the Senate, and ask that the Committee examine the improper conduct of the Attorney General's office in the Rosenberg-Sobell case.

This request for an investigation is based on the following facts:

- I. The Attorney General's office knowingly used and encouraged perjured testimony against the Rosenbergs and against Morton Sobell.
- II. The Attorney General's office promised rewards and in fact did give such rewards to several chief witnesses in the Rosenberg-Sobell case.
- III. The Attorney General's office deliberately engaged in an unlawful campaign of misrepresentation of facts through press releases prior to the trial and thus falsified essential aspects of the case, influencing public opinion to prejudge the defendants.
- IV. The Attorney General's office attempted and still attempts to keep from the courts documents that reveal the perjuries and the role the Attorney General's office played in obtaining these perjuries.
- V. The Attorney General's office engaged in the use of mental torture against the Rosenbergs and mental torture, as well as physical violence against Morton Sobell.
- VI. The Attorney General's office, by deception and misrepresentation, interfered with the courts' handling of the case.
- VII. The Attorney General's office, by withholding information, by deception, and by outright falsehoods, misled two Presidents of the United States, who had before them appeals for clemency.

The full 35-page documented brief may be obtained at 25¢ per copy from:
THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL
IN THE ROSENBERG CASE
1050 Sixth avenue, New York 18, N.Y.

February 4, 1954

Dear Friend,

On the hot, nightmarish night in June when they executed Ethel and Julius Rosenberg; and on the cold, lonely morning in January when Manny Bloch died, the world was bereft of three who were courageous - who were possessed of herculean powers because they believed in a life of decency and truth and would not surrender it.

And such a person is Morton Sobell, who is sweating out an incredible thirty years sentence at Alcatraz, because he will not falsify the heritage of the Rosenbergs and Manny Bloch; because he, too, will not surrender a life of honesty and decency.

Despite all efforts, there was not sufficient time to save the Rosenbergs; the pressures on Manny Bloch could not be alleviated, BUT WE CAN SAVE MORTON SOBELL! We can save him because truth and time are on our side.

To begin, we will hold a social discussion evening at which Emily Alman of the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee will speak - to give you all the facts, to answer all your questions in an informal discussion group. This is scheduled for:

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19th at 67-03 215th Street, Bayside at 8:30 p.m.

You responded with spirit and time to secure justice for the Rosenbergs because you knew what was involved in their case. Do the same for Morton Sobell. He rates it.

Sincerely yours,

QUEENS ROSENBERG-SOBELL COMMITTEE

Post Office Inspector in Charge.

The L. A. committee was born of discussions among a small group of friends who would get together socially once a week. All were progressives and talk usually wound up with politics. The Rosenberg Case was discussed many times, usually with pained dismay over the absence of any activity to save these two victims. Finally, we decided to stir up some interest in Los Angeles. We wrote to the New York Committee for material and then began to make the rounds - IPP - JPFO - IND - PW - CRC - the Frohloit - it was a bitter, disappointing experience. Ultra conservatives could not have acted worse - the Rosenberg Case was the un-touchable issue.

The result that we agreed that if anything was to be done, it would have to be done by people like ourselves - so we constituted ourselves a committee and began to meet Monday nights - 7 of us. A couple of noodle-trade workers, a couple of housewives, two office workers, a salesman, and a professional worker. We began to invite others. - It was slow work, hardly any response. We began to mail out Rouben pamphlets to people, progressives whom we all knew personally and we thought might be interested. I also wrote a letter at that time to about ten conservative newspapers enclosing material and giving an analysis of the case. This all in longhand since I couldn't type and had no typewriter available for someone else to use.

Then a machinist, formerly a union organizer, and his wife, formerly active in the Unemployment movement and Tenants work joined the committee. At this time the committee was still operating very informally - no minutes at meetings, etc. - and meetings were generally just discussion groups. A little money was being raised, a little over $100 in all and being sent on to New York.

Our first big break came when a national rep. visited LA and agreed to send us a list of local persons who had contacted the NY office for information or who had made contributions. She sent us a list of 37 names and this constituted our first organized mailing. And resulted in bringing into the committee, two national sponsors and other excellent forces.

The above period roughly covered January and February of 1952. In the beginning of March it was decided to get out our own fact sheet on the case. It had to be a rush job. The assignment was given on a Friday and we wanted the bulletin for the next Monday night's meeting. The finished job, two full legal sized pages, was ready for the committee, our largest meeting to date, with an altogether membership of 34 present. The mimeo Fact Sheet, which emphasized the fraud and anti-Semitic aspects of the case initiated the first of many policy discussions which was to become the bone of contention for many meetings, i.e. should we limit ourselves to an appeal for justice in the case, that the sentence was too harsh; or should we take a flatfooted stand that the Rosenbergs are victims of a political fraud and should be freed because they are innocent. (subsequent events proved that the latter position was the correct one.)

Since we have taken a strong position in pointing out the political connotations as well as the anti-Semitic angle, a much wider section of the rank and file have involved themselves in our work and are forcing the various organizations to take a leading position. The mimeo fact sheet pointed out that the Rosenberg Case was a classic example of political fraud and followed the pattern of famous past political frauds in our history. This, months before Rouben's articles on frauds were printed in the Guardian. Hence, a new committee of three was set up to write the new fact sheet. The following week new faces appeared and again a policy session took up the evening - with the result that a compromise position was taken and we coined the slogan "THE ROSENBERGS ARE INNOCENT". At this meeting it was decided to invite Rouben and to run a "large mass meeting in L. A. No one can portray the doubts, the fears, the pros and cons which finally guided in the decision to get a hall and hold a Rosenberg meeting. It must be remembered that we had no money, no sponsors, no speakers, no hall, not even a name for the committee, not even a headquarters, we had gotten no publicity, put out no literature - - - - - NOTHING!!

Why try the meeting? Those trying to lead the committee felt that to hold the meeting - we even set the date for three weeks away - would not be a catalyst on the committee and focus all activity and discussion to the deadline of the task to be done. A steering committee was set up to meet and carry out decisions during the week. Lists of potential sponsors and speakers were drawn up and assignments given to contact them. The steering committee met the following Thursday and worked out a day by day schedule - where material would come from, printed materials, date of mailing and mailing coverage, bundle deliveries of meeting material, a list of all papers to be given advertising and publicity releases, a list of the Broadway was made, a special appeal letter for contributions.

drawn, various areas for street distributions were outlined, in short a full and detailed plan was drawn and submitted to the committee the following Monday. The Committee approved:

1. 10,000 printed throwaways.
 2. 1,500 first printing of L. A. Fact Sheet.
 3. 250 special appeal letters
 4. $125 for news ads.
 5. 12 hand printed posters.
 6. $25 for hiring of the hall
 7. The fare to bring Reuben out to L.A.
- Plus a million and one details to carry through.

From there on it was just plug away. Call, contact, visit, mail.

First mailing covering all Jewish organizations, some Guardian readers, contributors, Joan Field list and the few other organizational lists made available. This was a three thousand mailing. Street distributions were limited to Jewish neighborhoods.

After our first big mailing a steady stream of contributions began to come in. New faces joined the committee bringing funds and ideas. Everybody just piled in - lots of duplications - lots of disappointments, and lots of pleasant surprises.

Gradually we became known, sponsors were won, speakers lined up. In outlying communities interest always present, found an outlet in Reuben's intended visit. Meetings were arranged for every night - a one week stay for Reuben became two - to cover all the requests for him to speak. Finally, Reuben came and all the work wound up in the successful meetings he covered so well.

How was it done? First, by following through on every phone call, every request for information, every contact given us. Second, by setting up this meeting with nothing but faith and hope and then working everybody like bloody hell until the job was done. Third, by using every face on the committee in some way - at the close of the drive we were having 25 to 35 at our committee meetings and there was something for everybody to do. Fourth, plan and checkup. Fifth, by sticking our approach - depending on the group or individual we were trying to reach - using every facet of the case - the children, the death sentence, anti-Semitism, the March sentence, etc., etc.

The following will give you a recap of some of the materials we have issued and distributed: Reuben pamphlets - 6,000 plus 1,000 to Long Beach and 1,000 went with Reuben to San Francisco to set up their committee (for which we paid). 3,000 Jewish Fact Sheets. 3,000 pamphlets of the letters. Over 1,000 Amicus briefs. This in addition to materials which members of our committee ordered separately and distributed. We have printed the following of our own material: Anti-Semitism 1940 release (quotes from various newspapers) - 2,000. LA Committee fact sheets - 12,000; Brochure, 2,000; throwaway leaflets - 15,000. Activities around the children - 1,000 - $750 to be paid. Collection can - 1,000 - pledged sustainers for the children. Other general activities: Five theatre parties, dinners, 3 concerts, picnics. Meetings: Meetings which took place around the time Reuben was here was previously discussed in letters to you. Very many small meetings are taking place since the IPP convention and the statement by the CRC on their own trial as a result the people are beginning to move. The CRC has its first outdoor meeting on the Rosenberg Case in the heart of the Jewish section of Hollywood with us furnishing the material and a speaker. At all meetings a delegation from our committee is always present with literature and Amicus briefs and in many instances have been given the floor for at least a few minutes.

We have no rental expenses for the office since all work and telephoning is done from my home. The only expense that we have is $3 for meeting hall once a week (a member of our committee donated the money for the first seven meetings) plus $75 a week for office worker who has been with us for nine weeks. We are paying back from our collections the loans which we know will soon be paid off.

After the first and large mailing (from original N. Y. list of contributors sent to us by the N. Y. office, and when money started to come in, each letter was answered personally and all questions answered. We form letter was used - thereby creating a link of the individual with the committee. This practice is still being carried out and we have on file the duplicates of hundreds and thousands of our copies. Even though this entails untold amount of work, we feel the response has more than compensated for the expense and effort thus far.

An indication of the interest which this meeting had aroused can be seen by the fact that Hon. Robert Morse Lovett, former Governor of the Virginia Islands, and William L. Patterson, National Executive Secretary of the Civil Rights Congress, and a number of persons active in Jewish Civil affairs were present in the audience. (Mr. Lovett and Mr. Patterson were called up from the audience, and each greeted the meeting) The meeting, which was chaired by Nelson Algren, prize winning novelist ("Man with the Golden Arm" and other novels) was in the form of a panel discussion presided over by Harold Rosen, a Chicago businessman. Participating in the panel were Rabbi Abraham Cronbach, Robert Herkin, of the International Fur and Leather Workers Union, Rabbi S. Burr Yampol, and David Almon. Mr. Joseph Brainin spoke on behalf of the National Committee, stating its position and urging greater efforts in the Midwest towards securing a new trial for the Rosenbergs and Morton Sobell.

An excellent script, basing itself upon the letters of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg was prepared for the meeting, and the performance was given by a number of Chicago theatre people. (Copies of the script are available for use all over the country).

The audience contributed almost $700 to the meeting.

THE CONFERENCE

A. INTRODUCTION

The greatest single impression many persons carried away from the Conference was the utter devotion, integrity, and resourcefulness of the leaders of the various local Rosenberg Committees.

A feeling of singleness of purpose permeated the Conference. The spirit of aloneness, oneness and confidence in the justice of this cause was such that Rabbi Cronbach was moved to speak of it from the floor before his departure. It was, he said, an enriching experience to have participated in the Conference.

B. DELEGATES:

In addition to Chicago, the following Midwest cities were present at the Conference: St. Louis, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Racine, Detroit, Cincinnati, Cleveland, and Peoria. All told there were 13 delegates from outside Chicago and 21 delegates from Chicago itself. Seven delegates were Negro, 27 white.

In addition to representing local Rosenberg Committees, there were delegates representing locals of U.A.W. and U.E. and Packinghouse, the Civil Rights Congress, Friends Council, and others.

Rabbi Abraham Cronbach, Chairman of the Jewish Peace Fellowship and William L. Patterson of the Civil Rights Congress participated very actively in the discussion.

C. GREETINGS TO THE CONFERENCE:

Among the greetings received at the Conference were the following: From Reverend J. E. Brown of the Progressive Baptist Church in Chicago, pledge his Congregation of 8,000 to the campaign for a new trial; Judge Merrill E. Harris, of Indiana; U.E. Local 735 of Cleveland; Prof. Ephraim Cross of New York; Mrs. Bessie Mitchell, sister of one of the Trenton Six; Professor John J. DeBoer, Professor of Education at the University of Illinois; messages were also read to the Conference from Ethel and Julius Rosenberg and Helen Sobell.

D. EXHIBIT OF ROSENBERG MATERIAL

The following exhibits, which will soon be available for national distribution, were to be seen at the conference:

1. An exhibit of all the material, pamphlets, leaflets, advertisements, etc. issued by the National Committee.
2. An exhibit of news clippings from around the world as well as from the United States carrying favorable reports on the case.

E. CONFERENCE AGENDA

The Conference was provided for two sessions, a morning session which was chaired by Mrs. Sophie Grant, director of the Chicago Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case, the afternoon session by Dr. Henry K. ... Chairman of the Illinois Peace Assembly. A report by the National Executive Secretary was given, followed by discussion, reports of the various Midwest Committees, discussion on program and policy, an outline of future activities by the National Chairman, the adoption of motions and adjournment.

F. THE NATIONAL REPORT

The National Report consisted of a resume of the activities of the National Committee from its inception, as well as touching on the work of a number of non-Midwest Committees. The report began with a brief history of the National Committee, its organization early in 1952, and its adoption of a position of "grave doubt" on the Rosenberg-Sabell case, leading to a call for a new trial. The report recounted the first round of advertising conducted by the National Committee, the pamphlets it issued, and the scores of committees it helped organize around the country.

The report noted that the National Committee had issued some 400,000 pieces of literature since its inception, the overwhelming bulk of which it had distributed. The following is a breakdown of the 400,000 figures:

the 32 page William A. Rouben pamphlet	60,000
the 8 page English fact sheet	160,000
the 8 page Jewish fact sheet	20,000
the 2 page fact sheet on Jewish Aspects in the case	30,000
the Rabbi Moyer Sharff pamphlet	15,000
the letters of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg	15,000
Amicus Briefs	30,000
Various Reprints	10,000
The trial record	1,000
Various leaflets	70,000

This figure does not include separate publications issued by local Committees such as the Los Angeles Committee which has issued its own four page fact sheet, a pamphlet on the political and Jewish aspects on the case as well as other material.

The report noted that a fairly comprehensive trial analysis and a science-fact sheet were still in the works.

The report noted that the National Office had in its possession no more than approximately 35,000 signatures to the Amicus Brief, although the list of prominent signers was very good. The report recommended that the Midwest Conference assume the responsibility for acquiring 40,000 additional signatures through the month of October.

(The National Office believes that regardless of deadlines, the impact of a very large number of signatures will make itself felt, if proper techniques are used)

The report noted that since November approximately $60,000, $8,000 of which was in the form of loans and which has all been paid back, was raised by the National Office. Of this amount, approximately $20,000 was raised at big public meetings, $5,000 from small meetings and house parties, $5,000 from literature sales, and $30,000 through the mails. The Committee has only received two $500 contributions from individuals, and none over that amount.

The expenditures of the Committee have amounted to approximately $59,000. The break down for this figure follows:

Per advertising in the Nation, the National Guardian, St. Louis Post Dispatch, Chicago Daily News, Daily Worker, Jewish Examiner, Compass, National Lawyers Guild and New York City Lawyers Guild, Amsterdam News, Jewish Life, Jewish Day, Freiheit, Jewish Morning Journal, Brooklyn Daily News	84,500
Printing of 400,000 pieces of literature	10,000
Salaries for National, Chicago and New Jersey personnel	7,500
Overhead, which includes rent, machine rentals, moving expenses, stationery, part time bookkeeper, office furniture, etc.	2,500
Postage for very large mailings, for literature, and by way of assistance to other Rosenberg Committees	2,500
Initial payments to three attorneys	5,000
Additional help for lawyers for research and investigations	2,000
Care of the four Rosenberg and Sabell children	4,000
Printing of the Brief for the Supreme Court	11,000
Leaflets, tickets, banners	500
Travel expenses for speakers and organizers	1,000
Commissary for Ethel and Julius Rosenberg in prison	1,000
Rentals	1,000
Costs of books	1,000
Costs of legal services, new publications, advertising, care of the children	1,000

The report noted: that activity in the unions has been at a very slow pace. With the exception of scattered union locals, there has been no consistent approach to the unions and to their memberships. A special Amicus is now being prepared, directed to the unions. A national organizer with considerable trade union experience is a vital addition to the Committee, and awaits only sufficient funds to be realizable. The report recommended that every local Committee undertake to establish the closest possible relations with trade unions in their communities, to bring the facts of the case to their membership and to get positive action.

The report noted: that from the very beginning of the campaign there has been substantial support from among leaders of the Negro people. In spite of this, the National Committee and the local committees have not yet developed a realistic and fruitful approach to the Negro communities in respect to this case. The report recommended that in the process of working out an approach to the Negro communities the Committees study the parallels between the Rosenberg Case, involving Jewish citizens, and recent cases involving Negro citizens. For example, just as the death sentence is reserved for Negro citizens in many communities in the United States, so the death sentence was reserved for the Rosenbergs in this case. We must recognize that a parallel between the trials of Lt. Louis Gilbert and other Negro soldiers in Korea and the Rosenberg Case because in both instances the people involved became scapegoats for reverses in foreign policy and on the battle field. Likewise the threat by a Washington, D. C., judge to invoke the precedent set in the Rosenberg Case against Miss Marie Richardson, a Negro woman leader, must be explored.

The report noted: that the Rosenberg Case has begun to receive front-page treatment in Europe and in Asia. Newspapers in France, England, Switzerland, and China have begun to take a very active interest. Also a number of very important civil rights, trade union, and humanitarian organizations abroad have begun to speak out on the case.

The report noted: that so-called scientific evidence in the case was so crude and unbelievable that it was both an insult and a danger to scientists, for it attempted to draw scientists into the trial by crowding the pseudo-scientific material with the words of two scientists.

The report recommended that local committees contact scientists in their communities and campuses and get their thinking, advice, and help in exposing the allegedly scientific material introduced into the trial.

The report noted: that the National Committee had never taken a position on any matter other than the Rosenberg Case and that it still stood by its position that the trial was unfair and that the Rosenbergs and Sobell were deserving a new trial.

At the same time, the Committee has always provided a platform for all expressions of opinion on the case, and believes that this position is correct and should be adhered to loyally as well as rationally.

The Committee does not wish to make support for a new trial contingent upon agreement on questions of war and peace. Our Committee was, however, proud that regardless of one's position on our country's policy, there is general agreement that the courts should not be used as instruments of foreign policy and should remain independent of changes in foreign policy. Likewise, our Committee cannot stand aloof from the Appeals Court ruling which in blackest fashion dubs the holders of short-sighted political views as potential spies. This ruling is contrary to the very best traditions of American justice. In similar fashion, our Committee cannot disregard that same Appeals Court suggestion that persons in political trials should waive their right to trial by jury.

The report noted: The controversy raised by the Committee's statements that there were anti-Semitic implications in the trial. The report gave a brief resume of such implications such as the absence of any Jews from the jury, the harshness of the sentences, the reprisal given to prosecutor Saypol, now Judge Saypol, by the Appeals Court in another case for anti-Semitic tactics, and the unprecedented nature of the sentences as compared with the leniency shown to Nazi spies and traitors. The report called attention to the quotation from the New York Times of December 28, 1951, which quoted a government official as saying that there is no longer fear of spies and saboteurs at the Oak Ridge Atom Bomb plant because the personnel is predominantly Anglo-Saxon. The report indicated that several steps should be taken by the National and the local Committees to place the anti-Semitic implications in their proper context and balance. The National Committee has never based its arguments for a new trial on the primacy of the Jewish aspects. It has based itself for the most part on the actual facts, testimony, and other features in the case. No amount of refutation of anti-Semitic implications can refute these other fundamental arguments. In respect to the points raised on the Jewish aspects, these need to be more deeply explored and defined. It is a fact, for example, that almost simultaneously with the Rosenberg case we had the admittedly anti-Semitic attack on Lane Rosenberg in the Defense Department. We also had a meeting of eight Jewish teachers in the New York, the order for the dissolution of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order, the bombing of Jewish synagogues and the desecration of Jewish cemeteries.

The report recommended that the National Committee and the local committees explore these matters more fully, and attempt to establish the closest possible working relations with both the membership and leadership of Jewish organizations. The report also cited several examples of positive action of A.J.C. chapters and other organizations.

The report noted: that a ruling by the Supreme Court might come any time after the first week in October. This ruling would determine whether or not the Supreme Court would agree to review the case. If it does agree a new Brief would have to be filed with the Supreme Court. If it does not now, legal possibilities will be thoroughly explored, and a new kind of campaign may have to be undertaken.

G. THE COMMITTEE REPORTS

During the Committee reports it became clear that certain common difficulties faced these committees. Because of the general atmosphere, many people were afraid to join such committees. Another factor was the position taken by the major Jewish defense organizations like Bnai Brith, A.D.L., A.J.C., etc. A third factor was the general impression of guilt which had been conveyed to the public by the newspapers.

In spite of these drawbacks, all the Committees could report progress to one degree or another. In general the Committees relied upon mailings to all sorts of lists, public meetings, and occasional small luncheons, or other get-togethers with important figures in their communities. Most of the reports, such as that of Milwaukee, indicated that the Rosenberg Committee had become an issue in their local organizations, and hopes were held out for getting some of these local organizations to take a positive position on the case.

The Committees ranged in number from four or five persons as in St. Louis and Cincinnati, to 25 active people. In Detroit where there was a very active Committee, steps were being taken to set up a speakers bureau and link the case with one of their deportation cases. A number of cities like Chicago and Cleveland could report close contact with local trade unions. Madison reported on activity on the University of Wisconsin campus.

The reporters agreed that a great deal of patience and ingenuity was required to bring the case home to the public but that there were some good things and there were always positive results. A number of committees reported, for example, that they were successful in breaking through the local Anglo-Jewish press with letters to the editor, particularly in Minneapolis and Chicago.

An interesting report was given by the reporter from Minneapolis who related that she had been fired from her employment with a Jewish fund-raising agency as a result of her Rosenberg activities. But she indicated that there was seemed to be a real change of sentiment, and her employment possibilities in the field had opened up.

In the main, the delegates agreed that from labor lay or there could be expected a heightening of activity in the form of more public meetings, Amicus signature collections, and the general dissemination of literature on the Rosenberg Case.

H. NEW TRIAL AND CLEMENCY

The Conference discussed the question of a campaign for a new trial versus a campaign for clemency at this time. Very forceful arguments were presented on both sides. It was felt by some that a campaign to get the American people to petition the President for clemency would be more important than the campaign for a new trial on the grounds that it was first necessary to insure the lives of the Rosenbergs and then argue for a new trial. It was felt that because the country for which they had allegedly conspired to commit espionage had been an ally and because the death sentences were in such sharp contrast with the sentences given to Nazi spies and traitors, and on human grounds, the support of many more people would be gotten for a clemency campaign now.

It was argued on the other hand that an appeal to President Truman before we had exhausted every appeal to the courts would, in effect, negate efforts being made for a new trial; that President Truman could reject the appeal for clemency on the grounds that the matter is in the hands of the courts and it would be wrong for the executive to interfere. It was also argued that every petition for a new trial was in itself a plea for clemency if a new trial should not be granted.

The Conference agreed unanimously, after considerable discussion that the fight for a new trial would continue until it was either granted or all legal steps to one had been exhausted.

I. MIDWEST COUNCIL

The delegates agreed to set up a Midwest Council with cities represented at the Conference. The function of this Midwest Council would be the following:

1. To arrange a constant exchange of experience and information on the campaign in the Midwest under a Midwest director.
2. To organize trips by various active committee members from one city to another, so that they could give first-hand guidance in meeting specific problems with which they were most familiar.
3. It was agreed to leave the setting up of this Council to the Chicago Rosenberg Committee.

J. ROSENBERG WEEK

The delegates recommended that the National Committee organize a Rosenberg Week some time in October, at which time one or more concerted activities around the case would take place throughout the country.

K. ETHEL ROSENBERG CAMPAIGN

The delegates agreed that a special campaign to win the release of Ethel Rosenberg from prison either on bail or by some other arrangement should be undertaken at once. The hardships inflicted upon Mrs. Rosenberg's children, Mrs. Rosenberg's own condition of almost solitary confinement in the death house, and the fact that her appeal is pending are all factors which must be brought home to the public and made part of the campaign to win her release. This campaign the delegates agreed, must be taken into the churches, synagogues, settlement houses, women's organizations and elsewhere.

L. RECOMMENDATIONS FOR NEW LITERATURE

In general, the delegates were pleased with the literature turned out by the National Committee. It was felt, however, that many more special aspects of the case had to be dealt with and, therefore, recommendations for the following new pieces of literature were made:

1. A synopsis type pamphlet which would deal with the Rosenberg Case from a number of different points of view; i. e., a cold war, civil liberties, etc.
2. A pamphlet on Ethel Rosenberg and her children.
3. A pamphlet issued by ministers and rabbis as a group.
4. A pamphlet addressing itself to the trade unions.

M. RECOMMENDATIONS ON JEWISH ASPECTS OF THE CASE

There was some difference of opinion among the delegates as to whether the Jewish aspects had been raised too much or too little. There was unanimity, however, on the question of thorough explanation and documentation on this aspect of the case. It was agreed that some of the differences of opinion came about because the local situations in the various communities differed from one another, and that only experience could determine the manner in which the Jewish aspects of the case would be handled.

N. RECOMMENDATIONS ON BRINGING THE ROSENBERG CASE TO THE UNIONS

It was agreed by the delegates that they would make every effort to send speakers and material into the local unions and to avail themselves of whatever material the National Committee could produce on the subject. It was recommended that the National Committee attempt to get the magazine "March of Labor" to carry a story on the Rosenberg Case. It was also agreed that a letter used in one of the U. S. CIO and locals should be used nationally in other unions as well.

O. RECOMMENDATIONS ON REACHING THE NEGRO COMMUNITIES

The delegates agreed that an insufficient attempt had been made to bring the case to the Negro communities. In addition to agreeing with the Secretary's report on an approach to the Negro communities, it was recommended that the Rosenberg Committee be linked with local current cases in the various communities.

P. GENERAL RECOMMENDATIONS.

The delegates recommended that greater efforts be made to bring the case into the non-Jewish community; to impress upon the candidates of the Progressive Party, and where possible, other parties, to raise the Rosenberg Case as part of their political campaign; to increase the membership of the various local committees, and to draw into that membership community and organizational leaders.

The Conference passed a motion commending and thanking the Chicago Committee for the housing and feeding accommodations they had arranged and for the highly efficient manner in which the Conference was run.
