Re: "Progressive Labor"
Internal Security - C

Reference is made to New York memorandum dated May 14, 1963.

A picket demonstration was held on the evening of May 23, 1963, in the vicinity of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, 50th Street and Park Avenue, New York City, where President Kennedy appeared at a birthday dinner held on that date at the Waldorf Astoria.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed the following groups, identified from placards, participating in the packet demonstration in the vicinity of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel:

Progressive Labor (PL)
New York Local - Socialist Workers Party (SWP)
Young Socialist Alliance (YSA)
Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants (CAMD)
Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell
Accion Patriotica Unitaria - New York District (APU)

A characterization of the above organizations are attached hereto.

It was estimated that a total of 150 persons participated in the above demonstration.

The Progressive Labor group joined into one large picket line with the SWP, YSA and CAMD groups which were led by Milton Rosen, editor of "Progressive Labor".

A characterization of Milton Rosen is included in the characterization of "Progressive Laobr" which is attached hereto.

Copies of the March, 1963, issue of "Progressive Labor" and other Progressive Labor mimeographed flyers were handed out to persons watching the demonstration.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Re: Progressive Labor

The SWP also passed out mimeographed flyers.

The PL, SWP, YSA and CAID demonstrators carried hand-printed signs demanding "Immediate Freedom for Negroes in Alabama", "Jobs for all Workers", "Call Off the Dogs in Birmingham", "End Racist Terror in Monroe" and "Arm Birmingham Negroes Now".

Sources not identified in the Appendix Section of this memorandum have furnished reliable information in the past.

ACCION PATRIOTICA UNITARIA
(Patriotic Unitarian Action)
(APU)

A source advised on January 26, 1959, that the APU was formed at a meeting held in Santurce, Puerto Rico, on January 25, 1959, under the direction of RAMON MEDINA RAMIREZ, who later resigned as President of the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico (NPPR) on May 3, 1959.

[REDACTED] stated that the APU would be presented to the public as a pro-independence group favoring peaceful methods for obtaining Puerto Rico's independence. b7D

A second source advised on November 23, 1962, that JUAN ANTONIO CORRETJER became affiliated with the organization during 1960 and holds the position of Secretary General. While RAMON MEDINA is President, CORRETJER is the driving force behind the APU and controls all policy and organizational activities. Under CORRETJER's leadership membership has been continuously on the rise and a number of APU missions established throughout the island. CORRETJER's socialistic and communistic ideas have greatly influenced organization policy and on August 27, 1962, he instituted classes in Marxism for the APU main mission in the San Juan metropolitan area.

[REDACTED] b7D
that the APU considers Puerto Rico a U. S. colony, lacking sovereignty, and pledges to support the establishment of an independent republic. This is to be achieved by electoral abstention and peaceful resistance, the first step being to educate the Puerto Rican people to support electoral abstention following which passive resistance in the form of a general strike will paralyze public activities and allow the formation of a liberating constituent. This constituent for the people's government will expropriate all U. S. properties; establish people's cooperatives and state ownership of all large business enterprises.

NEW YORK DISTRICT (APU)
(Patriotic Unitarian Action)

[REDACTED] with the assistance and approval of JUAN ANTONIO CORREJER, described by the source as Secretary General of the parent APU organization in Puerto Rico, the APU in New York was enlarged and expanded by the creation of additional APU organizations in Manhattan and the Bronx, and the establishment of the APU - New York
District Junta. b7D

The APU groups in Brooklyn, Manhattan and the Bronx, which are generally referred to as sub-juntas, make up the APU New York District. Each of the sub-juntas has its own staff of officers and holds weekly meetings. However, supervision and control of the three APU sub-juntas is exercised by the New York District Junta [REDACTED] b7D

CARLOS VELEZ RIECKEHOFF, whom the source described as a former leader of the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico (NPPR) in New York, who resigned from the NPPR in April, 1962, was elected as the first president of the APU - New York District Junta.

The same source advised that the APU in New York is considered to be an affiliate of the APU in Puerto Rico, is governed by the same constitution and has the same general aims and purposes as the parent organization.

The NPPR has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

COMMITTEE TO AID THE MONROE DEFENDANTS

A source advised on October 10, 1961, that the Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants (CAMD) was formed during September, 1961, by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York City.

Source advised that the aims of the CAMD are to afford financial support and counsel for ROBERT F. WILLIAMS and four other defendants who were involved in a racial incident on August 27, 1961, at Monroe, North Carolina. The SWP hopes to dramatize this incident nationally and internationally through the CAMD and thus attract individuals to the SWP aims and principles by playing a leading role in the integration struggle.

According to the source, the organization and impetus of CAMD activities throughout the various parts of the United States such as obtaining sponsors and the raising of funds, are the results of the efforts of various SWP branches.

The above source advised on September 6, 1962, that the headquarters of the CAMD is located at 168 West 23rd Street, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

"Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June, 1953, the 'Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL, the ROSENBERGS' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953, and then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case'"

("Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" dated December 1, 1961, issued by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, page 116.)

In September, 1954, the name "National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" appeared on literature issued by the Committee. In March, 1955, the current name, "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell," first appeared on literature issued by the Committee.

The Address Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, as published by the New York Telephone Company, on April 9, 1962, lists the "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" (CSJMS) as being located at 940 Broadway, New York, New York.

"PROGRESSIVE LABOR"

A source advised on January 10, 1962, that on November 27, 1961, General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York, was rented under the name Progressive Labor by MILTON ROSEN, who listed the character of business as "Magazine." MILTON ROSEN'S business and residence was 90 Sterling Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Records of the New York County clerk's Office, New York, New York, reflect that on February 16, 1962, MILTON K. ROSEN, 90 Sterling Street, Brooklyn, New York, filed a Business Certificate which stated that he was doing business under the name Progressive Labor Co. at 799 Broadway, New York. Volume 1, number 1, January, 1962, issue of "Progressive Labor" indicates that it is published monthly, with its address General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn 1, New York. Its editors were listed as MILTON ROSEN and MORT SCHER.

Volume 1, Number 3, March, 1962, issue of "Progressive Labor" indicates that it is published monthly by the Progressive Labor Co., with offices at 799 Broadway, New York, New York.

[REDACTED] a member of the Communist Party (CP) [REDACTED] made available an undated letter on the letterhead of Progressive Labor, which introduced the new magazine. This letter stated that the main purpose of this magazine is to help develop an alternative policy for the labor movement and stated in part ". . . the fundamental solution to the problems of the American people will be in a socialist America, a society in which the people will own the means of production . . ."

b7D

"The Worker" an East coast Communist newspaper, issue of January 7, 1962, page 10, column 3, under the caption "MILTON ROSEN Expelled by CP" reported an announcement by the Communist Party of New York State of the expulsion of MILTON ROSEN and MORTIMER SCHER from the Communist Party for disruptive activities, which stated in part ". . . together they are issuing a scurrilous anti-labor and anti-party sheet mis-named Progressive Labor, as the organ of this group. . . ."

"PROGRESSIVE LABOR" (CONT'D)

b7D

A third source on March 13, 1962, advised that there are indications that "Progressive Labor" will continue as a publication, but that it is too early to make a prediction.

A fourth source on March 5, 1962, advised that the supporters of "Progressive Labor" expect that it will continue to be published and that it will be a force in the labor movement.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY - NEW YORK LOCAL

A source stated on August 25, 1960, that the New York Local of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was founded during January, 1938, in New York City.

A second confidential source stated on May 10, 1962, that the New York Local of the SWP is affiliated with and follows the aims and purposes of the National SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIX

YOUTH SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS) page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1950, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA), was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 10, 1962, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 10, 1962, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise, almost exclusively, the national leadership of the YSA. The YSA, in reality, is the youth section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

A source advised on September 17, 1962, that the headquarters of the Young Socialist Alliance are located at 125 4th Avenue, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.
