[redacted] (requested confidentiality) white male, date of birth [redacted] voluntarily appeared at the Charlotte office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) on instant date [redacted] was appraised of the identity of the interviewing agents by show of credentials, [redacted] then voluntarily provided the following information:

[redacted] currently resides at [redacted] with [redacted] [redacted] provided his home telephone number as [redacted] and mobile number as [redacted] telephonically contacted the FBI office in Milwaukee to report that he served in the United States Army at [redacted] with Wade Michael Page. [redacted] observed national media coverage of the recent shootings at the Sikh Temple of Wisconsin and recognized a photograph of Page. [redacted] was aware that Page died during the incident.

[redacted] has been employed as [redacted] [redacted] about Page. [redacted]

[redacted] expressed his concern that the United States Army has recently taken some negative criticism in the media for some military personnel having racist views.

[redacted] stated that he was surprised to learn that the incident involved victims at a Sikh temple. [redacted] stated that he would not have been surprised if the victims were African-Americans, because of Page's openly racist views. When asked, [redacted] reported that because of Page's previous Psy-Ops training, Page should certainly have known the difference between the Sikh and Islamic religions. [redacted] added that although Page expressed anti-African American views, Page had a disdain for anyone who was non-white.

[redacted] advised that he and Page were [redacted]

[redacted] from Page. [redacted] with Page. [redacted] only knew Page for [redacted] and has had no contact with him since [redacted] Page was never deployed for a "real world" mission.

[redacted] recalled that Page displayed several White Supremacist Extremist (WSE) tattoos on his body. One tattoo was on Page's calf. Page used to drive a Volkswagen Thing, which was designed on the platform of a Nazi staff car. [redacted] reported that Page would usually be "fine" during the daytime, but at night "Mr. Hyde came out". Page used to wear navy blue combat "skinhead type" boots. Page used to give a fellow soldier named [redacted] a hard time about favoring and dating Latino women. [redacted] stated that Page "creeped him out".

[redacted] is not affiliated with any WSE groups.

[redacted] reported that Page had a friend named [redacted] and Page were drinking buddies. [redacted] lived in [redacted] to Page. Page and [redacted] were known to routinely consume a bottle and one half of bourbon over the course of an evening. [redacted] learned this information from [redacted]. Page was eventually demoted from the rank of Sergeant to a Specialist for being drunk in his room on several occasions and failing to show up for formation. Page was also charged with absent without leave (AWOL). Page was kicked out of the Army in October of 1998.

[redacted] and Page frequently listened to loud WSE music in Page's room. [redacted] expressed some racist beliefs, but not to the extent that Page did. [redacted] for the most part laughed at Page. [redacted] frequently drank with Page and was fairly close to him. [redacted] was a [redacted]

[redacted] Page kept a personally owned 9mm pistol in his barracks room, which was a violation of the base policy.

While Page was still enlisted at Ft. Bragg, Page attended a party where he openly told racist jokes targeting African-Americans. This behavior was reported to Page's Commander by a [redacted] (phonetic). The Army launched an internal investigation in December of 1998. The investigation was initiated by [redacted]. Mostly everyone in the unit was interviewed to determine if there was a systemic radical element among the troops. The result of the internal investigation was that the racist beliefs were limited only to Page who had already been discharged. [redacted] recalled that Page's [redacted] was [redacted]

Page did not have any girlfriends during the 1997-1998 time frame that [redacted] is aware of. After Page left Ft. Bragg, he moved to Colorado.

Continuation of FD-302 of Interview of [REDACTED], On 08/07/2012, Page 2 of 3

Even though [REDACTED] did not know PAGE well, he was surprised to learn that PAGE was involved in the shooting. [REDACTED] said that PAGE most have lost his "shit" and gone crazy because shooting people like PAGE did were the actions of a crazy person. [REDACTED] said that even though PAGE had lost his job and [REDACTED] it was not an excuse for what PAGE did, referring to the shooting. The HAMMERSKINS are against this type of violence. The HAMMERSKINS goal is to be aligned with the 14 words. [REDACTED] could not recall the 14 words but stated that it was the [REDACTED] 14 words but not in a violent way.

[REDACTED] was shown a picture of [REDACTED] knew the individual in the photo as [REDACTED] was [REDACTED] but PAGE [REDACTED] and he did not know why.

[REDACTED] stated that he did not know anyone whom PAGE would associate with in Wisconsin, other than [REDACTED] did not know why PAGE was involved with the shooting or anyone that might have been involved or anyone that would have known about the shooting prior to it taking place.

Prior to moving to Wisconsin, PAGE was living near [REDACTED] some place in the south, maybe Florida. PAGE and [REDACTED] did not [REDACTED] believed that [REDACTED] and PAGE knew each other because they were both Confederate Hammerskins (CHS). When PAGE moved to Wisconsin, [REDACTED] did not move [REDACTED] knew PAGE "pretty well," better than [REDACTED]

PAGE is a patched HAMMERKSIN but [REDACTED] did not know who gave PAGE his patch. [REDACTED] estimated that PAGE had been a "Hammerskin" for about a year, if he had to take a guess.

[REDACTED] knows [REDACTED] through HAMMERSKIN events and [REDACTED] does not know [REDACTED] to have any violent tendencies. [REDACTED] was shown multiple photos of [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] identified as [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was a Confederate Hammerskin.

[REDACTED] lives with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is looking for other work. [REDACTED] stated that he does not own a gun.

There were approximately 65 individuals in attendance at the concert. The HAMMERSKIN group [REDACTED] When questioned as to the leadership of the group, [REDACTED] stated that there was no leader and that the Hammerksins were a "leaderless resistance." [REDACTED] was unwilling to provide any information about members of the group. After SA [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that he [REDACTED] forgot to mention that [REDACTED] was a member of the group; [REDACTED] stated that yes, [REDACTED] was a member the concert was held. [Writer's note: the above mentioned concert was called the "Summer of Hate" and was put on by the Western Hammerskins and the Northwest Hammerskins under the name "The West Coast Firm," the concert was held on July 21, 2012 at the Veterans of Foreign War (VFW) Hall located at 136 Chambers Street, El Cajon, CA.]

[REDACTED] was unable to name other groups at the show. SA [REDACTED] stated that he was surprised to learn that the Supreme Power Skins (SPS) were in attendance at the event and asked [REDACTED] if the HAMMERSKINS associated with SPS. [REDACTED] stated that the HAMMERSKINS did not associated with SPS or other skinhead groups in the area. The concert was an "open invite" and other groups were welcome to attend the concert. [REDACTED] stated that the SPS were "shit bags."

CASE / EXAMINATION SYNOPSIS

On 08/05/2012, at approximately 10:45 a.m., the Oak Creek Police Department, Oak Creek, Wisconsin, was dispatched to the Sikh Temple of Wisconsin, 7512 South Howell Avenue, Oak Creek, Wisconsin, for a report of an active shooter. An Oak Creek Police Officer responded the shooting location and subsequently engaged the shooter, Michael Wade Page, DOB 11/11/1971, in the Temple parking lot. During the altercation with Page the first responding officer was hit with several rounds from Page's 9mm handgun. A second officer subsequently arrived on-scene and also engaged Page at which time Page was hit two times before turning his gun on himself and taking his own life. Investigation at the scene identified 7 fatalities to include Page, as well as 3 victims suffering gunshot wounds, including the Oak Creek Police Officer.

On August 8, 2012, at approximately 7:25 p.m., [redacted] was driving east bound on I-94 from the State Fair grounds toward downtown Milwaukee, Wisconsin. At approximately 25th Street, [redacted] observed the subject, who was driving a dark green vehicle, which resembled a van, drive past [redacted]. Soon after the subject drove past [redacted] the subject slowed down and motioned to [redacted] to slow down as well. [redacted] slowed down and rolled down his passenger side window because the subject was on his right side. [redacted] thought that the subject might be asking for directions. Immediately after [redacted] rolled down his window, the subject made a gun gesture with both of his hands and simultaneously made noises that sounded like a gun firing. In addition, the subject moved his hands as though he was cutting his throat.

In response, [redacted] asked the subject what was wrong with him, to which the subject said "we will kill all of you." The subject then proceeded to point to the business sign on the driver side of the vehicle to show [redacted] who he was. [redacted] informed the subject that he was going to call 911, at which point, the subject drove away quickly. [redacted] called the police department and reported the subject's license plate. [redacted] believed the entire interaction was about thirty seconds long.

[redacted] was shown three different photographs of an individual named [redacted] (see attachments); however, [redacted] was not entirely certain that the photographs were the subject and [redacted] wanted to make sure he identified the correct individual.

The subject had [redacted]. The subject was wearing a sleeveless shirt, which was [redacted]. [redacted] The subject also had a goatee similar in color to [redacted] in the second photograph (see Attachments). The subject was not wearing a hat or sunglasses. The subject appeared to be about [redacted] years old, muscular, and approximately 170 pounds. [REDACTED] said the subject looked like a "tough guy."

Once [REDACTED] heard the subject say that he would "kill all of you," [REDACTED] immediately thought that it must be the same shooter from the Oak Creek shooting or that it was a member of the same group as the shooter in Oak Creek. [REDACTED] believed that the subject appeared to be a little smaller than the shooter from Oak Creek. Since [REDACTED] thought the subject might be a member of the same group, he decided to call the police and report it right away, which he did. [REDACTED] provided 911 with the license plate number of the subject's vehicle but was unable to read the sign on the driver side of the subject's vehicle.

[REDACTED] stated that he was not angry about this interaction with the subject but that he was more afraid. If the subject had a gun, the subject could have shot five or six times. It would have been very easy for the subject to have killed someone, if he had a gun. All he would have to do is slow down and shoot.

On August 10, 2012, shortly after the in-person interview, SA [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] at [REDACTED] to inquire about the vehicle he was driving on August 8, 2012. [REDACTED] provided the following information:

[REDACTED] drove a [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] did not remember the license plate for [REDACTED] so he instructed SA [REDACTED] to call an individual at [REDACTED] who was driving the [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] drove on August 8, 2012. SA [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] and was informed by [REDACTED] [REDACTED] date of birth [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] had a Wisconsin license plate, number [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] also stated that he did not cut off the subject and that they were driving approximately fifty-five to sixty miles per hour or less.

[redacted] WADE MICHAEL PAGE's (PAGE) [redacted]

[redacted]

PAGE came to Southern California on his motorcycle, riding from North Carolina, and shipping the belongings that he decided to move with himself.

PAGE was first introduced into the WSE movement in the year 2000, when he met several other WSE at Hammerfest. [redacted]

[redacted] PAGE, PAGE and [redacted] did not believe in affiliating with any one group. [redacted] and would facilitate PAGE's contacts with members of the WSE movement. Later, PAGE would claim to be affiliated with the Hammerskins, the National Alliance and the Volksfront. [redacted] thinks PAGE may have become a member of the Hammerskins approximately one year prior to the shooting.

This statement was very telling to [redacted] drank copious amounts of alcohol, therefore in [redacted] mind for other WSE to believe PAGE had an alcohol problem he must have been drinking very heavily.

[redacted] characterized PAGE as being somewhat sheepish and believes this may have been due to PAGE being on the losing end of a previous fight. [redacted] noted that, like most WSE, after PAGE would get cut off in traffic or have a negative interaction with an individual of another race, PAGE would frequently go on a racially centered tirade; however, PAGE's tirades were much more mild than other WSE.

[redacted] never observed any indications of manic behavior or a mood disorder, which would make PAGE prone to violence. PAGE seemed to have a reasonable grasp on the consequences of his actions and the finality of decisions. PAGE understood the reality of the WSE movement. [redacted] points to this understanding with a story wherein [redacted]

[redacted] characterized PAGE's speech and opinions as being consistent if not more mild than other WSE. [redacted]

[redacted] have expressed surprise at PAGE's actions.

[redacted] aka. [redacted], white male, date of birth (DOB) [redacted] was interviewed at [redacted] at [redacted]. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] advised that he knew Wade Michael Page, the individual who was killed after shooting and killing a number of persons at a Sikh temple in Wisconsin earlier this month.

266N-MW-2440609

[redacted]

[redacted] explained that he had heard of Wade Page a number of years before he actually met Page in person. [redacted] recalled that Page was in a California band called Youngland. [redacted] stated that he first met Page in person approximately [redacted] ago through [redacted]. At the time, Page was living in Fayetteville, NC area, and had contact with [redacted] area. Page was introduced to [redacted], including [redacted]. Soon Page was involved in [redacted].

[redacted] explained that [redacted]

Page, [redacted] (real name not recalled), whom [redacted] advised was not a skinhead.

[redacted] advised that Page later got arrested for DUI, which resulted in his losing his Commercial Driver's License (CDL), which in turn resulted in Page's losing his truck driving job. Prior to Page's losing his job, [redacted] advised that Page had money. On more than one occasion, [redacted].

At the time, Page had quality musical equipment and a number of guns. [redacted] advised that Page had shotguns and rifles, but [redacted] did not recall Page ever having automatic weapons. After Page lost his job, he began having financial problems. Ultimately, Page relocated to Wisconsin.

[redacted] advised that his last face to face contact with Page was in [redacted]. At this time, Page was [redacted] and seemed quite happy.

[redacted] advised that his last telephonic contacts with Page would have been around [redacted]

[redacted] During these last phone calls, [redacted] found Page to be happy and content. At the time, Page was [redacted] Page told [redacted] that he was regularly traveling to Chicago, Illinois, and interacting with the Northern Hammerskins (not same as Confederate Hammerskins). [redacted] did not know who [redacted] was interacting with in Chicago or in Wisconsin. [redacted] advised that he and Page called each other. [redacted] could not recall Page's phone number, indicating that he had Page's number instead programmed into his [redacted] cell phone.

[redacted] advised that he never heard anything in advance from Page directly, or indirectly, to cause [redacted] to believe that Page would commit such a violent act.

Although [redacted] advised that he had no prior notice that Page would commit such an attack, [redacted] did offer an explanation as to why Page attacked the Sikh temple. [redacted] advised that he heard after the attack

[redacted] that sometime before the attack, [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] and Page was cut off (or cut himself off) with the Hammerskins. Per [redacted]

[redacted] believes that Page picked the Sikh temple not for any specific hatred towards Sikhs, but as a random act of violence against a non-white group to prove Page's loyalty to the cause, and further because [redacted]

[redacted]

266N-MW-2440609

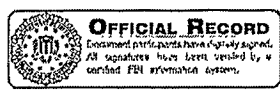

Continuation of FD-302 of Interview of [redacted], On 08/15/2012, Page 4 of 4

[redacted] advised that he never heard Page specifically direct hatred or comments towards Sikhs. [redacted] further advised that Page was smart enough to know the difference between Muslims and Sikhs. [redacted] figured that Page probably would have preferred to attack Muslims, but another non-white group was sufficient for purposes of a suicidal attack (death by cop) for the above theorized purpose(s).

[redacted] had no specifics to support his theory, but did indicate that the information relating to [redacted] At this point, [redacted] was shown by interviewing agent, [redacted] [redacted] advised that [redacted] is the same as [redacted] [redacted]

[redacted] advised that after the Page attack, he understood that the FBI spoke to [redacted] and others who knew Page when Page [redacted] [redacted]

[redacted] advised that he had nothing else to offer in regards to Page and Page's attack on the Sikh temple.
