Tip: This information concerns the allegation made by Deborah Ramirez against Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh.
[redacted] at Yale [redacted] Kavanaugh and Ramirez, who were both in the Class of 1987. I think it is likely that Ramirez is mistaken about Kavanaugh exposing himself at a party. There was one male undergraduate who had a reputation for doing that while I was at Yale, and it was not Kavanaugh. It was another member of Kavanaugh’s fraternity named [redacted] who was a classmate of mine. I saw [redacted] expose himself at one party. He’s also exposing himself in his fraternity’s 1988 yearbook picture. Yale College is a small school, so I think it would have been widely known if, in addition to [redacted] another student had also engaged in similar behavior. It may also be worth noting that [redacted] was in the same residential college as Ramirez (Pierson), so she was probably aware of him. Kavanaugh was in a different residential college (Stiles). I submitted this same information to a staff member of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Mike Davis, because I know him, and he suggested I also submit it to you.

There is a brand new temperament issue with Judge Kavanaugh that had not previously been an issue for him. And it will be controversial for him for as long as he is a judge.

"....He let the mask slip that he was a partisan warriort
thru his entire adult career by claiming the opposition to his SCOTUS nomination was revenge
for the Clintons..."

Kavanaugh's

cries of Ford's accusations being a "political hit" are wrong as a point of fact.

Kavanaugh
may say he did not bother to watch Dr. Ford's testimony, but the rest of America watched her, and that is going to be a problem for him as a SCOTUS

Tip:	I am a U.S. citizen and taxpayer and DEMAND that <<Julie Swetnick>> be investigated as part of the Judge Brett Kavanaugh background check that is currently underway. To omit her SWORN statement and witness testimonies is a gross dereliction of duty on the part of the FBI and their investigation to get TO THE TRUTH of Brett Kavanaugh and his reported behavior and actions during the early 1980s. THIS MAN MAY BE OUR NEXT SUPREME COURT JUSTICE AND YOUR INVESTIGATION NEEDS TO BE THOROUGH. I know that you are the experts in investigation and the American people are counting on you to do a PROFESSIONAL AND DILIGENT JOB in this very important investigation. Thank you.

Tip:	Brett Kavanaugh's statement to the Senate Judicial Committee, 9/27/18. Sorry if this sounds like a crackpot tip, but from the middle of Kavanaugh's speech (when he mentioned his daughter wanting to pray for "the woman") to the end, it looked like he was holding something in his left cheek. Looked like a person does when they try to talk with a hard candy in their mouth. Is it possible that he was using a piece of chili pepper or something else to create his tears? After the statement ended, he blew his nose & had a chance to quickly spit the object into his handkerchief, but the cheek still seemed to bother him until the break. After the break, he didn't stick his tongue into the cheek, didn't drink tons of water, didn't tear up.

Please DO offer Brett Kavanaugh the opportunity to take a lie detector test.
Funny, but he told Senator Kamala Harris that he was not willing to take a lie detector test, as had Dr. Ford, stating it was because he considered lie detector tests "unreliable."
Interestingly, he ruled in 2016, that law enforcement agencies use lie detector tests to determine the credibility of a witness. He considered them a tool of law enforcement.
So basically, he declined a lie detector test,for a reason in direct contrast to his ruling as a judge. Quite interesting. I would dearly like for the FBI to question his conflicting statements and offer him the chance to take a lie detector test, so as to demonstrate the credibility he claims.
I believe Dr. Ford. Apparently the lie detector does, too.
I watched Kavanaugh's body language and blustery demeanor. I saw his eyes often shift to the left or downward when he answered questions.I also heard him give many circuitous or evasive answers, in an attempt to avoid answering simple "no" or "yes" questions. I may be all wrong in my observation, but he appeared to have some facial traits that I have observed in people who like drinking alot.And I am curious about one thing he did very frequently during his testimony. What is with his extremely frequent sniffing? He constantly guzzled water throughout his testimony period. After one break, I saw three bottles of water lined up for him. I realize one may get parched when nervous or when talking alot....but still, everyone around me was commenting about his sniffing and water guzzling. Does he have severe allergies, or was something else making him constantly sniff? What was with that?
Whatever.
If the FBI is curious, also, they will figure it out.
Meanwhile, the very judge who ruled that the lie detector is a useful law enforcement tool, that establishes the credibility of a witness....should be offered the chance to take a lie detector test to show his credibility. Don't you think?
He SHOULD be chomping at the bit to take a lie detector test..but seems put off by that possibility.Hmmm...

Tip: To whom it my concern. I would like to offer a tip concerning the new Brett Kavanaugh investigation. Since Christine Blasey took a lie detector test I think it only fair that Mr. Kavanaugh take one as well. Please request he take one and if he refuses please note it in your report. I am 100% sure he would fail such a test. I am also 100% sure he will refuse the test. Thank you for considering my tip. Sincerely yours,

Tip: SUBJECT: BRETT KAVANAUGH1982 CALENDAR
Dear FBI – I am very concerned about the veracity of Brett Kavanagh's calendar from May-August 1982 that he submitted in evidence to the Senate Judicial Committee. I found a PDF of this calendar at Scribd, https://www.scribd.com/document/389516101/Kavanaugh-summer-of-1982-calendar#download&from_embed.
If this is the one provided as evidence, it appears as though most of it is forged. I am a graphic designer, and work with PDF documents. Whoever made this PDF reconstructed it with pieces from another source that was placed on a separate layer, perhaps in Photoshop or Illustrator, then saved as a PDF, maintaining the layers of text and type on top of various blank days within all of the months. If your forensics people could take a look at it, I think they'll find that it is not authentic. Here is a link to a page on my website with some examples of what I found:

Tip: In the Case of Christine Margaret Blasey Ford and Brett Kavanaugh: SAC [redacted] I have been looking at the issue of Christine Margaret Blasey Ford relative to the Brett Kavanaugh nomination to the Supreme Court. I will release information relative to Ms Blasey Ford's Background, her association with the Democrat Party and her Criminal History as well as her personal history with alcohol, Men, Sex and other shortcomings. Several weeks ago, I did a public files background with Nexus Lexus and two other public sources, At that time, Blasey Ford had a record of two Criminal Offenses and multiple traffic charges in Catawba County, NC. Since that time those charges have been erased or "disposed of on the traffic offenses" and no explanation on what happened to the two Criminal Charges (C). The Charges were still on the County web site the morning of July 18, 2018 at 0900-1000 hrs,,, But, by 1100 hrs they were erased. Unfortunately for Ms Blasey Ford and Catawba County, NC Court System, I have the Case file numbers on these cases.

FBI 18-cv-02567-1055

Brett Kavanaugh Investigation: Possibly helpful; article in SLATE touching on Judge Kavanaugh's lying under oath during the Senate Judiciary hearing this past week:

"Before the hearing I wrote about what Kavanaugh’s lie about the “Renate Alumni” caption under a photo of himself and some other football players said about Kavanaugh’s relationship to male networks. To my astonishment, he lied about that stupid ugly joke again, under oath. He got choked up during his opening statement—tears as sincerity—as he blamed everyone for misunderstanding what was, he insisted, a sweet gesture of inclusion. “That yearbook reference was clumsily meant to show affection, that she was one of us,” he said. Curiously, he and his friends never showed this touching homage (which shows up over a dozen times) to the person for whom it was allegedly intended. Renate did not know about the entry when she signed the letter of support affirming Kavanaugh’s respectful treatment of women. And she was understandably horrified when she did learn, because another guy in the group had included this poem in the yearbook: “You need a date/ and it’s getting late/ so don’t hesitate/ to call Renate.” Hardly a sweet gesture of inclusion.

I hadn’t expected Kavanaugh to double down on this particular lie because it was just so dumb. Yes, his strategy up to that point had been to overshoot with his denials, but at least he admitted (many times) in the hearing to “liking” beer. There were signs, in other words, that he was willing to abandon at least some of his virtuous fictions about himself.

I was wrong. Kavanaugh did not admit that he and his buddies made a cruel dumb joke. Instead he lied. And cried about it. And railed against the injustice of being so maliciously misunderstood. That tells us something about how much we can trust the relationship between his emotional displays and his truthfulness".

Tip: Please ask the FBI team that interviews Dr. Ford regarding her testimony about Supreme Court nomine Brett Kavanaugh to inquire as to how she doesn't know what exculpatory means. I watched the entire interview as many Americans interested in politics did and during her testimony she was asked if a fact brought up was exculpatory for Mr. Kavanaugh and she jerked her head and said "I don't know what that means". Now if a PhD. in psychology doesn't know what exculpatory means something is awry. Tip: You will get additional evidence about Brett Kavansugh’s lies under oath on Thursday and his past behavior from Yale friends. I suggest start with [redacted] and collect the texts and emails sent during Kavanaugh’s testimony between [redacted] and others who knew Kavansugh at Yale. Need a far more thorough investigation on Kavanaugh.

Tip: This is information about the Brett Kavanaugh Investigation. I apologize if this is the incorrect venue for this info. I have known for approximately 10 years and in that time she has been nothing but highly credible. She faces significant career risks by coming forward. Unlike most who volunteer to get involved in an investigation, she has a significant interest in not seeking attention so as not to become a distraction in her employment. I believe what she said Mark Judge told her and believe that you will too. The FBI May be reluctant to interview an is highly credible.

Tip: Dr. Ford lied under oath, misrepresented herself (Perjury)..... Just one sentence into her sworn testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee regarding allegations of sexual assault against Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh, Dr. Christine Blasey Ford may have told a lie.

After thanking members of the committee on Thursday, and while under oath, Ford opened her testimony saying, “My name is Christine Blasey Ford, I am a professor of psychology at Palo Alto University and a research psychologist at the Stanford University School of Medicine.”

The issue lies with the word “psychologist,” and Ford potentially misrepresenting herself and her credentials, an infraction that is taken very seriously in the psychology field as well as under California law.

Under California law, as with almost every other state, in order for a person to identify publicly as a psychologist they must be licensed by the California Board of Psychology, a process that includes 3,000 hours of post-doctoral professional experience and passing two rigorous exams. To call oneself a psychologist without being licensed by a state board is the equivalent of a law school graduate calling herself a lawyer without ever taking the bar exam.

According to records, Ford is not licensed in the state of California. A recent search through the Department of Consumer Affairs License Bureau, which provides a state-run database of all licensed psychologists in California, produced no results for any variation of spelling on Ford’s name. If Ford at one time had a license but it is now inactive, she would legally still be allowed to call herself a “psychologist” but forbidden from practicing psychology on patients until it was renewed. However, the database would have shown any past licenses granted to Ford, even if they were inactive.

Ford also does not appear to have been licensed in any other states outside California. Since graduating with a PhD in educational psychology from the University of Southern California in 1996 it does not appear Ford has spent any significant amount of time outside the state. She married her husband in California in 2002, and completed a master’s degree in California in 2009. She reportedly completed an internship in Hawaii, but a search of Hawaii’s Board of Psychology licensing database also did not turn up any results for Ford.

What makes Ford’s claim even more suspicious is someone affiliated with Stanford University appears to have also been aware of the potentially damning use of the word “psychologist” and rushed to cover for Ford. DANGEROUS exclusively uncovered an archived version of Ford’s page on the school’s faculty directory. On September 10, 2015, the only archived date available, Ford’s faculty page was saved to the Wayback Machine and showed Ford listed as a “research psychologist” along with her email address and office phone number.

Tip: I think there are some important questions that should be asked of Christine Blasely Ford that I have not heard anyone ask.

I am sure FBI investigators are smarter than I am.. .but in case those questions have not been thought of, here is what I wonder...

If I understood what I remember was said
at the hearing combined with news reports...
Christine Ford says that Brett Kavanaugh groped and tried to rape her. I think she is lying through her teeth..
Christine Ford says she was at a party about 8 miles or so from her house... with 4 other people.. one of them her girl friend/best friend Leland.
She does not know the date of the party. She does not know where the party was. She does not know who drove her there..
The
4 or 5 other people at the supposed party say the party never happened or they don't remember being at such a party.
Two of the people at the party were upstairs trying to rape her.. with her girlfriend/ best friend Leland downstairs with another guy, PJ..
Then Christine leaves the party without saying anything, leaving her girlfriend/best friend, Leland, there alone with 3 guys, including the 2 that supposedly tried to rape her, and goes home..
BUT does not know how she got the 8 miles home or who drove her home.
She didn't tell her girlfriend/best friend that she was leaving.
Who does that?
If Leland drove, she probably brought her there. Wouldn't

Leland have wondered where her friend Christine went?
Wouldn't Leland
wonder what happened to her best friend or where she was, or if she was safe or got home safe?
Wouldn't Leland have remembered a party that her best friend left without telling her she was leaving?
Wouldn't Leland
remember being left alone as the only girl at a party with 3 guys, with one of them being Brett Kavanaugh?
That girlfriend/best friend, Leland, says she does not remember such a party and was never at a party where Brett Kavanaugh was present.
Again,Christine does not know who drove her the 8 miles home after she left the party.
There were no cell phones in 1982. Wouldn't Leland have called her later to find out where she was or why she left the party without saying anything?
Wouldn't Christine
have called her girlfriend, Leland, later, or the next day to let her know she was okay and got home safe and how she got home.
These are some unasked unanswered questions that should have been asked of Christine Ford in the hearings.. And hopefully, the FBI will pursue these questions this week when they interview everyone supposedly involved with that imaginary party.

None of this story adds up..

Tip:

Hello,

I want to reach out to you guys about this whole Brett Kavanaugh and Christine Blasey Ford craziness. I just want you guys to please view this video of the Body Language of Christine Blasey Ford at the hearing and it's just an act. She is lying on Kavanaugh. Please take this video into a consideration, this is about clearing an innocent man who is viewed as a national alcoholic rapist and it had harmed him and his family over this false accusation including getting death threats. I also recommend, please do an FBI investigation on Christine Blasey Ford, all of her medical research as a mental health expert throughout the years, who claim she struggled with "memory" in general. Also investigative Democratic Senators like Dianne Feinstein, who was there at the hearing from Thursday. Ford had fooled the American people, at least some of them with her performance on national television. This whole thing is about Abortion and Roe v. Wade, a liberal white woman taking down a conservative white man. Taking one for the team to save abortion rights. End of discussion. I'm not trying to waste anyone time, I just want to be helpful and save someone's life.

Here the links for the same video of Christine Blasey Ford's body language in the hearing:

And Our money-
is in the Hands of Strangers. Help Me!

I chose to Write to you, because you will be Re-Opening
the Ms Ford investigation based upon the Recommendations of the Senate Judiciary Committee-whom I also Contacted for Protection and Resolution--Neither has been Afforded to me-that I am Aware of-on LEVEL that has been Afforded-to Ms Ford.🤔

Ms Ford provides No credibility or Concrete Evidence-to Support a Charge of Abuse.
But-She has Upset many People-
Who have been Violated-
And are Suffering-
🤔Remember,this Event NEVER Took Place.🤔

MsFord
was Not in a "Grounded State"of Mind
"Prior" to arriving at the Gathering-in a Wet Bathing Suit. Why? Because, She was "Either" Violated at the Country Club-which explains her "memory loss"-and attire.
Or,she was High!

This explains why No one Remembers where The Home in Question was Located-Or remembers Attending that Gathering🤔

She does create an empowering Scenario-in which-she Escapes from that Room-and "Rights
a Wrong"!

This explains why this woman can attend Parties-without incidence-in the future-with Brett in Attendance. And,why-she cannot Describe him-with any Detail.
Because-she wasn't ever-Face to Face
With Brett-that Day!
Ford projects Mark's Safeway reaction-as One of Guilt-instead of a shy young man's Public Reaction-to a cute young girl. This is Not Concrete evidence-and should Never have been presented-as such.
🤔
Ford
states that Two Boys pushed her onto a bed-
But,she Never describes-the Smell of Beer-
On their Breath-🤔 Only laughter-
They Never Speak-Why??

Because,They were Fabrications.

This was a Fantasy-created to enable Ford to Cope -with a Possible violation-unacceptable to her Hippocampus-occurring at the Country Club-

Or, she became "High" at the Country Club-and wandered into a Stranger's home.🤔
Instead of Running-Far Away from a Dangerous

Situation-she escapes to the BathRoom in close proximity-to the Traumatic incident-not knowing if it safely Locks.🤔
When Ford is asked to Identify Brett-
-she Can't-
Instead, she responds with a Bizarre reference to her Hippocampus-with a disconnected -Nod and Grin-

she "Avoids" the Question-entirely.

Ford states-that there are Two Young Men in the Room-Yet,she Punishes "One" when both Violated her. Why? After all, Mark doesn't save her-from being Ravaged.
🤔
Remember
Ford would never have "Come Forward" if Brett wasn't nominated!

Ms Ford networked with Campus and Vacation Contacts-whose Agenda was to Strategically Manipulate-the AMERICAN MANTEL-as in a "Well Played" Chess game-with financial Profit and Fame-as Incentives-for the Dysfunctional and Forgetful Ms Ford.

Doubt Dominates

Tip: On my computer earlier this week, I received a facebook post that is about Christine Blasé Ford and an entry she appears to have made in March 2017 during the nomination of Neil Gorsuch (this post was forwarded to me like fb posts are all day long.) I don't know who originated it except for my friend who sent it to me. If it is true, it would greatly influence the results of the Nomination proceedings about Brett Kavanaugh and shorten them immediately I didn't know who to tell, I have sent this info to Senators, a phone call to the President and left a msg. and no one seems to have connected to it. I cannot vouch for if it is true, I hope you can make that judgment. It says:

"In March of 17 (2017) Christine Blasey Ford posted on Facebook that someone needed to come forward and accuse Neil Gorsuch of rape to derail his SCOTUS nomination. She further said such accusations should continue until Trump nominates Merrick Garland. Looks like she decided to take her own advice." end of quote.

(I would like to remain anonymous as much as possible--I don't trust some Govt. entities.)

Tip: Regarding: Brett Kavanaugh’s 1982 calendar

1) How may 17 year olds
keep a calendar for 36 years?

2) Why are only five months provided with the front page and not the whole calendar year?

3) There are entries
in pencil as well as pen with some entries crossed over in pen?

Why
are these things significant.

In 1999, I was a [redacted] in a medical malpractice lawsuit. Using dial-up access to the internet back in the stone age, I was able to find a well respected forensics laboratory through the firm’s
participating in a national forensics association.

b6 -3
b7C -3

The
firm, Speckin Forensic Laboratory with it’s main office in East Lansing, Michigan has perfected the ability to test via ink dating whether a document has been tampered with and how long ink has been present on a card or a piece of paper.

[redacted]

b6 -3
b7C -3

[redacted]

b6 -3
b7C -3

You
see, ink from a pen, whether it be a ballpoint pen, marker or fountain pen remains wet on card
stock or paper for up to three years …. 3 years.

My
attorneys were not aware of ink dating at the time. I paid to have the testing done. I prevailed with a large settlement.

If Brett Kavanaugh’s
lawyers are providing proof of his good behavior with five pages of a calendar from 36 years ago, the questioning tomorrow should be ….

1) Where are the rest of the pages from 1982?

2) Will he provide complete calendars
from his four years at Yale?

3) Will Brett Kavanaugh allow for a forensics laboratory such as Speckin Forensic Laboratory to test the ink entries on the original calendar to determine if the ink is still …. wet?

This is how you’ll be able to verify if indeed Brett Kavanaugh’s calendar are indeed an accurate
diary of his activities during that five month period or the tampered record of a desperate individual.

Respectfully
submitted,

[redacted]

Tip:	If I ran the FBI, I would seriously be looking into the possibility of anabolic steroid abuse by SC Associate Judge nominee Brett Kavanaugh during his youth. Maybe I am wrong, he looks like the poster boy to me. His youthful "jock" behavior, past and current aggression, even his current complexion, desire to succeed at any cost, indicators all over the place. Like we need a paranoid schizophrenic for a SC Associate Justice. This is just a theory. I have no connection whatsoever with any of the individuals, nor any organization, currently referenced in the media with regard to this poltical process.

Tip: For your Prof. Ford/Judge Kavanaugh investigative team :

Julie Swetnick
Got Settlement for Past Sex Claim, Used Ford Attorney’s Firm[Debra Katz]
To Get It

New information ties two of Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh’s accusers [Christine Blasey Ford and Julie Swetnick] together.

Christine Blasey Ford, represented by attorney Debra Katz, claims that Kavanaugh sexually assaulted her when she was a high school student over 30 years ago. Julie Swetnick, represented by attorney Michael Avenatti, claims that Kavanaugh participated in gang rapes at around the same time as Ford’s claims. [Both women, who have ties to Katz, independently decided to come forward with 35-year old allegations at the same time without any coordination??] Is this evidence of a coordinated attack on Kavanaugh?

In 2008, Swetnick filed a sexual harassment lawsuit against her employer,
New York Life Insurance Co., The Wall Street Journal reported.

At that time, Swetnick was represented by the law firm ran by Debra Katz, the attorney who is currently representing Ford. The company eventually reached a financial settlement with Swetnick over the claims.

Clearly, Swetnick would have known Ford was represented by Katz before coming forward.

Avenatti

went on CNN to say there is “no coordination whatsoever” between the two cases. However, it is fair to probe for any connections since Swetnick, Avenatti, or Katz never said anything about this connection before. And their multiple connections between George Soros his organizations currently financing demonstration against Judge Kavanaugh.

Ana Maria Archila, the woman who yelled at Republican Sen. Jeff Flake of Arizona while he was in the confines of an elevator is an experienced activist with ties to George Soros. She is co-executive director of the left-wing Center for Popular Democracy, a New York-based organizing group that gets much of its money from George Soros [“who is one of the largest funders to the CPD, The Washington Free Beacon reported that in 2017 Soros provided the CPD with $130,000 from the Foundation to Promote Open Society in 2014 and $1,164,500 in 2015. Soros provided an additional $705,000 from the Open Society Policy Center in 2016.”]

The revelation of Archila’s ties to Soros falls in line with the revelation that many Kavanaugh protesters are paid players in the political arena.

Tip:	Re: Judge Brett KAVANAUGH background check, please attempt to determine whether Judge Kavanaugh had imbibed any alcoholic substances in advance of giving testimony to the Judiciary Committee on THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER27. Tip: Below are thoughts that came to mind regarding the testimony under oath of Dr. Christine Blasey Ford vs. Judge Brett Kavanaugh on Thursday 9/27/19. Unfortunately, there was inadequate questioning of Dr. Ford regarding what would seem to be rather obvious details that needed clarification. I have emailed this "information" to Senator Grassley of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

1. If Dr. Ford had been swimming/diving at the Columbia Country Club that afternoon, wouldn't she have removed her wet bathing suit before dressing in street clothes? Wearing a wet suit would have been very uncomfortable.
2. Most large homes in the neighborhood of the country club would have had a powder room (at least) on the first floor. Why did Dr. Ford choose to go upstairs?
3. If the party was going on on the first floor of the home, why would a radio have been playing upstairs?
4. If Dr. Ford was pushed into a 2nd floor bedroom, would the attackers have taken the time to "turn up the radio" to cover her screams?
5. It was determined that Dr. Ford's home was a 20 minute drive from the country club. Once she left the house to head for her home, by my calculations [redacted], it would have taken her at least 4 hours to walk home. By then her parents would have been worried and wondered where she had been and asked questions.

b6 -3
b7C -3

I am hoping the FBI will follow up with getting answers to these "questions" from Dr. Ford in their extended investigation of the witnesses regarding Judge Brett Kavanaugh.

Foreign Intelligence Service (SVR) report circulating in the Kremlin today states that a Stanford University Psychiatry Professor named Dr. Christine Blasey has become the latest centerpiece of a Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) plot to harm President Trump with her last-minute allegation, just days prior to US Senate confirmation, that Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh had attempted to sexually assault her over 30 years ago when they were teenage school children—while being kept from the American people about Dr. Blasey is that she currently oversees the CIA Undergraduate Internship Program Stanford University developed by the notorious CIA-connected Stanford University Psychiatric Professor [redacted] b6 -4 b7C -4

These FACTS are no coincidence surely, nor the fact that her Lawyer is a well known associate and employee of George Soros !

This is what NEEDS to be investigated by the FBI rather than the ridiculous and scurrilous allegations made against Justice Kavanaugh.

simple Google searcch will confirm documentation and other supporting evidence as to this CIA inspired plot.

so many different "CIAs" - so fe genuine Patriots among them though.

I am copying all these facts to Senator Graham.

FBI 18-cv-02567-1161

Re: Justice Brett Kavanaugh Request

Good morning. I’m requesting that the FBI consider the following in their investigation into Brett Kavanaugh.

Mr.
Kavanaugh swore under oath that his daily calendar (which he faithfully maintained for 38 years) proves his innocence.

Order him to produce
EVERY calendar page for those 38 years to confirm they actually exist.
Compare the handwriting then and now. I imagine it would be extremely difficult to manufacture 14,000 calendar entries on short notice.

If possible,
use forensics to confirm that the paper and ink used are from that era versus recently written.

He claims he followed his father’s example for keeping daily calendars. If so, ask his father to prove he also maintained calendars as his son states. If anything, this will substantiate the truth of that sworn statement.

The assault of Dr. Ford allegedly occurred when she was a 15-year-old minor and Mr. Kavanaugh was 17. Yet Mr. Kavanaugh incorrectly asserted in testimony that he was of “legal drinking age” while consuming beer at the time. So which was it? Was he a minor illegally consuming alcohol at the time, or was he an 18-year-old adult man who is accused of sexually assaulting a minor child?

Lastly, if I were Mark Judge, the witness to the alleged attack, I would want immunity. This would encourage him to truthfully state what really happened that night without fear of self-incrimination. Oh, and I would also want witness protection both before and after speaking with the FBI.

[redacted] b6 -3 b7C -3

[redacted] Just because something happened long ago and is forgotten or minimized by others, those memories and scars change you forever.

Thank you fot reading this. Please call me if you would like more information.

Tip: The discredited psychotherapy method of RECOVERED MEMORIES may explain the Blasey Ford / Kavanaugh case.

The “RECOVERED MEMORIES” method of psychotherapy is highly controversial and many evidence-based academic psychologists have rejected this method because scientific studies have shown that RECOVERED MEMORIES are very often confabulations with little or no factual truth basis. This method involves the therapist coaxing the adult client (through suggestion, prompting, and/or hypnosis) in order to elicit a RECOVERED MEMORY of a traumatic event (usually a sexual trauma) which supposedly transpired many years ago during the client’s childhood or adolescence. See review article from 2006 coauthored by Professor Elizabeth Loftus who is the world’s leading academic authority on this topic. https://webfiles.uci.edu/eloftus/LoftusDavisAnnualReview06.pdf

I suspect that an awareness of the phenomenon of psychotherapy-elicited RECOVERED MEMORIES is key to understanding the basis of Christine Blasey Ford’s allegation of a sexual assault by Brett Kavanaugh in 1982 when they were teenagers. According to Blasey Ford, her first disclosure (to persons other than her husband) of the existence of this sexual trauma event occurred 30 years later during sessions with her therapist in 2012. If Christine Blasey Ford’s memory of the teenage bedroom sexual assault was a therapist-elicited RECOVERED MEMORY, then this might explain how Blasey Ford could now firmly believe that she remembers a sexual assault—which in reality may not have actually occurred, or perhaps did not occur in the specific manner in which she now thinks she remembers.

If the FBI is to truly uncover the real basis of the Blasey Ford/Kavanaugh case, then I think it is imperative for an expert in the topic of psychotherapy-elicited RECOVERED MEMORIES to carefully examine the records of the therapist who treated Blasey Ford to determine if the practice of psychotherapy-elicited RECOVERED MEMORY may have occurred in regard to the development of Blasey Ford’s memory of the teenage party bedroom assault. The best expert in this regard is probably Dr. Elizabeth Loftus, Professor of Psychology at University of California, Irvine.

Please recommend that the FBI subpoena the records of Blasey Ford’s therapist and have them examined by Dr. Loftus and/or other experts on the topic of psychotherapy-elicited RECOVERED MEMORIES.

Information regarding Professor Loftus: Elizabeth F. Loftus, University of California, Irvine Distinguished Professor, Department of Psychology and Social Behavior, Department of Criminology, Law, and Society, Department of Cognitive Sciences https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Elizabeth_Loftus

Tip: Brett Kavanaugh is the subject of this tip. Calling it a "tip" is probably an overstatement. I went to Yale College and Yale Law School, [redacted] but did not know him personally. So this is not in any way a direct account of his behavior.

I just want to make sure that the FBI is aware the at Yale College, at least back in the 1980s, the members of DKE (the fraternity to which Kavanaugh belonged) often partied not only with their Yale classmates but with the students from Albertus Magnus, a local all-female college. The women from Albertus Magnus would come to DKE and to the Yale campus for parties, particularly for parties dominated by the football team and parties thrown by DKE. These women were very likely part of Kananaugh's partying social circle, possibly even more so than women who attended Yale.

I do not suggest anything was amiss. I am conveying this simply to make sure that if the FBI is assessing accounts of Kavanaugh's interactions with women while an undergraduate -- particularly interactions at parties where alcohol was served -- the FBI should reach out to the alums of Albertus Magnus College. They are very likely to have partied with him at DKE.

I really have no idea how FBI investigations are conducted but thought I should share this.

Tip: To the FBI re-opened background investigation into Judge Brett Kavanaugh
(re Dr. Christine Ford)

I noticed something striking in Brett Kavanaugh's interview on Fox News Monday night which no one else seems to have noticed, and it may be damning.

In his Monday (9/24/2018) interview (along with his wife Ashley) on Fox News, Supreme Court nominee Judge Brett Kavanaugh, while denying any involvement in or knowledge of any sexual assault of Dr. Christine Ford, stated "I am not questioning and have not questioned that perhaps Dr. Ford at some point in her life was sexually assaulted by someone in some place" (a thesis which corresponds with that presented by Ed Whelan, who tried to pin her accusation on Chris Barrett, the alleged Kavanaugh look-alike). Brett Kavanaugh also stated the following in answer to interviewer MacCallum's questions:

"MACCALLUM: ... Christine Ford,
do you know her?

B. KAVANAUGH: I may have met her. We did not travel in the same social circles. She was not a friend, not someone I knew.

MACCALLUM:
You don't remember ever being at parties with her ever?

B. KAVANAUGH:
I do not. And this is an allegation about a party in the summer of 1982 at a house near Connecticut Avenue and East-West Highway with five people present.

I was never at any such party."

Brett Kavanaugh's description of the approximate coordinates of the private home where this allegedly occurred seems to be drawn from a description, using google maps, offered days previously in the tweet by Ed Whelan, President of the Ethics and Public Policy Center, of the home of Brett Kavanaugh's old friend and fellow student from Georgetown Prep, Chris Barrett, whom Ed Whelan suggested Dr.
Ford might have confused with Kavanaugh re her accusation of attempted rape. In other words, Judge Kavanaugh evidently was still trafficking in a doppleganger theory propounded, debunked, and withdrawn by Ed Whelan previously, as late as 9/24/2018, just before his Judiciary Committee testimony.
Ed Whelan has offered his resignation over this, but it seems probable that since Judge Kavanaugh was publicly referencing this debunked hypothesis he may have had a hand along with Ed Whelan in conceiving and promoting it, trying to pin blame for a crime of which he'd been accused on another man. I hope the FBI will investigate this seriously: if true, Judge Kavanaugh is unfit to serve on the Supreme Court. Thank you for you kind attention.

Tip: SEND TO BK INVEST.: Fact check shows that Kavanaugh is a skilled liar...but still a liar
Sep 29, 2018 by Mark Sumner, Daily Kos Staff

Brett Kavanaugh’s
testimony on Thursday was highly partisan, and part of a scripted effort by Republicans who designed and orchestrated the hearings to turn Kavanaugh into a victim and Democrats into his attackers. It was a tirade that should all on it’s own disqualify Kavanaugh from service on any federal court.
But there was more to Kavanaugh’s statements than just claims that he was the victim of a conspiracy … there were also a lot of lies.

Republicans
were ecstatic with Kavanaugh’s testimony. Not only did it have the tone of angry outrage they demanded, it was filled with partisan attacks. Kavanaugh called the hearing “coordinated and well-funded efforts to destroy my good name and destroy my family” and insisted that it was meant to intimidate him into withdrawal. And he was quick with an answer—and a sneer—for every question put forward by Democrats. In particular, Kavanaugh had a ready response for every question about items on that 1982 calendar.

And
now the New York Times has done some fact-checking on those answers.
And the facts do not align with Kavanaugh’s responses. Instead, they could Kavanaugh to be “a skilled lawyer who, when pressed on difficult subjects, sometimes crafted responses that were misleading, disputed or off point.” For those who are not lawyers, what they said is that Brett Kavanaugh is a good, practiced liar.

“Legal” — Kavanaugh stated that as a high school senior, he and his classmates were “legal to drink” even though the drinking age had been raised to 21 before he ever reached the previous legal age.

“Refuted” — like every single Republicans, including committee chair Chuck Grassley, Kavanaugh insisted that witnesses had “refuted” testimony given by Christine Blasey Ford. That’s simply not true. Kavanaugh made this claim at multiple points in his testimony.
Only one of the people named was an actual witness, and all of the three testified that they could not recall the party at which the event took place. That’s not a refutation of Ford.

“Beer” — Anyone playing the “every time Kavanaugh says beer, take a drink” game was dead before the the hearing was past the first two questioners, as Kavanaugh expressed his fondness for ‘skis more than three dozen times. But Kavanaugh repeatedly insisted he didn’t drink to excess, which is a fact genuinely refuted by over a dozen genuine witnesses to his drinking in high school and college.

The
testimony of those who saw Kavanaugh drinking, and drunk, may be the most telling when it comes to the validity of the central claims.

Lynne Brookes
was classmate of Kavanaugh’s at Yale, a fellow athlete, and fellow Republicans.
She was also the roommate of accuser Deborah Ramirez. Brookes stated that Kavanaugh’s attempts to classify himself as a moderate drinker who enjoyed a few brews “grossly misrepresented and mischaracterized his drinking.

RE: Brett Kavanaugh

I am emailing to let you know 2 important facts
have been omitted from this investigation:

1) Was Mr. Kavanaugh in an alcohol blackout when he committed the sexual assault on Dr. Ford? An alcohol expert can confirm that someone can be so drunk they do not remember what they did during the blackout.

A blackout does not condone what he did. That level of alcohol consumption simply lowers someone’s inhibitions to do someone they wanted to do.

Have you asked Mr. Kavanaugh, with a lie detector, if he has ever blacked out while drinking alcohol? And if he was in an alcohol blackout during any portion of the evening in question?
A negative answer would not necessarily mean he was not in a blackout.
He may be unaware that he had a blackout. (Again, an alcohol expert can confirm that is is possible for someone to not know they were in a blackout)
But a positive answer would certainly provided useful information.

At the time of the sexual assault, the assault may have been so irrelevant to Mr. Kavanaugh that he simply does not remember all these years latter.
This would say a lot about his character. And explain why Dr. Ford has such a different memory of the evening.

I believe a through and full investigations requires these two subjects to be investigated. I am asking you to investigate them.

 Thank you.

Tip:

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to bring a matter in connection with the Dr. Ford/Brett Kavanaugh investigation to the FBI's attention.

There is a well known condition in which many medical students believe they have the disease they are studying. See, e.g., http://www.slate.com/articles/health_and_science/medical_examiner/2014/07
/hypochondria_in_medical_students_and_doctors_when_to_worry_about_health.html

Dr. Ford was a co-author of an article titled, "Does Gender Moderate
the Relationship Between Childhood Maltreatment and Adult Depression?" which was published in 2011 (available at: https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/21727161.)

Sexual
abuse was a risk factor examined.

Dr. Ford may be experiencing a variation of medical school syndrome. This may explain why there is no corroborating evidence of her story (at least publicly known).

It strikes me as odd that someone would work in - and publish - in this area (i.e, she co-authored other articles touching on potentially highlighly relevant topics - including PTSD and facial reactions/the amygdala) - and never mention her purported experience to anyone other than her husband and her therapist (as far as I know).

Tip: For the investigation of Brett Kavanaugh, I wanted to suggest that you interview Ed Whelan, if you haven't planned to already. He put out a theory on Twitter that the person who sexually assaulted Christine Blasey Ford wasn't Brett Kavanaugh, but someone who looked like him, and he showed a yearbook photo of someone in Brett's class claiming that this was the person responsible. I think it would be important to know if Brett Kavanaugh was involved in putting this theory out there, as I see this would be evidence of him trying to cover up a crime. Christine Blasey Ford said Ed Whelan looked at her LinkedIn page approximately 90 minutes before her name became public. If that's true, it means someone who knew about the allegations before they became public informed Ed. I think it would be important to know who informed Ed of the allegations, where he got the yearbook from, and how he knew to look for this person. I think it is possible that Brett Kavanaugh was involved with Ed Whelan putting out this theory to cover up for him, as the two are friends with each other. If Ed Whelan did look at Christine Blasey Ford's profile in LinkedIn before the information became public, LinkedIn would have record of this. Thank you.

Subject: Dr. Ford & Judge Kavanaugh -some context

Let me preface this by saying that I am an alumna of Holton-Arms and a life-long registered democrat. The allegations made by Dr. Ford were very serious as was Judge Kavanaugh's denial of doing any such thing as she alleged. As I read the statement from her close friend stating she had never even met Brett Kavanaugh, with or without Dr. Ford, it reminded me of something from high school that, at the time, I thought was hilariously funny ... it was a game played by groups of boys from almost all the different all-boys schools around the area.

During my years at Holton, groups of boys from different schools would get into some trouble with girls from schools other than their "sister" school. What the boys would do, since the girls were not in their circle of friends, is pick the name of a boy at their school and give the girls his name instead of their own. At Landon, there was a group of boys that would go out an tell girls all over town that their name was "John Smith" (not his real name). The reason for picking that boy was that while he was a friend, he would never find out as he was a really good guy that didn't get into trouble or join in that kind of stupidity. There were girls all over town that hated "John Smith", that had never actually met the real "John Smith"! I knew about it at the time and thought it was funny, but in light of this case I can see that maybe it's not so funny.

My next thought, based on what little I know specifically about either Dr. Ford or Judge Kavanaugh is that while something may have happened to her when she was at Holton and that boys from Prep may have been involved ... it is also just as likely that a different boy used Brett Kavanaugh's name that evening.

Thank you for your time.

I have a memory that needs to be investigated regarding the Christine Ford/Kavanaugh case. I would like to talk to an FBI agent because my memory is that a woman name "Christine"who was associated with Stanford [redacted] My memory is that he complained to me about a woman named Christine. We us I also remember confronting a one of the women who [redacted] publicly outside on the Stanford campus. [redacted] confided with me that he considered her a psychopath. [redacted] did a rotation at Stanford Medical School and his rotation might have included classes in psychology department. His rotation would have been [redacted] He stayed with me [redacted] for the six weeks in [redacted] I distinctly remember that he was invited to a party thrown by someone associated with Stanford. I distinctly remember that he mentioned that he ran into someone who started rumors that they had sexual relations. If my memory is correct, the rumor would be false I think I advised him to speak to someone in authority to clear up the rumors. [redacted] If this memory is true, we can prove that [redacted] wouldn't make sexual advances towards this Christine. I also remember confronting a woman with [redacted] present. She was spreading rumors about him and I think she was guilty of making advances towards him and then retaliating against him after he resisted. I think my memory deserves some consideration because [redacted] was offered a resident position at Stanford psychiatry but declined the position for many reasons. I believe one of the reasons MIGHT be due to not wanting to put up with the trouble Christine might cause him while completing his residency. I think my memory might need to be investigated because I believe that she might be the same Christine we thought might be a psychopath who lies. I have not spoken to [redacted] because we had a disagreement. I doubt if he would have the courage to come forward IF my memory is correct because he might not want it known publicly that [redacted] I don't have any thing to lose in speaking up. If my memory can be trusted, then it might be valuable in defending Brett Kavanaugh. I have ADDITIONAL memories to share that might help defend Brett Kavanaugh against these sexual allegations. I think it is my civic duty to defend an innocent man if my memory can be determined to be trustworthy. We might be able to prove she is capable of lies. I can supply additional information, if [redacted] forgot this incident, to back up my claim and memory. I'm willing to testify that I'm telling the truth according to my memory. I can give additional suggestions for FBI to ask the university to pull if needed to verify that I'm telling the truth. He decline Stanford's acceptance.

LET'S EDUCATE YOU ABOUT 'BOOFING'

O.B. : I was a dude who went to parties in the eighties, and worked on the yearbook staff, so let me shed some light on a few things:

"Boofing" doesn't refer to farts or flatulence.
Boofing is a very specific category of anal insertion. He lied about that.
Under oath.

"The devil's triangle" is not and has never been a drinking game. It's a euphemism for a threesome involving two men and one woman.
He lied about that too. Under oath.

Yearbook editors do not doctor or change copy provided by students for their dedication page without their permission. Whatever he wrote in his yearbook is 100% his own words. He lied about that as well. Under oath.

Just like he lied about his drinking,
just like he lied about never having assaulted anyone, just like he lied about the reasons why he won't agree to an FBI investigation to prove his innocence, just like he lied about not having tried to rape Dr. Ford at that party.

The boy who tried to rape Dr. Ford at that party was exactly the same entitled, binge-drinking jock douchebag who got away with the same exact crap at your school in the eighties and nineties.

That's
who Brett Kavanaugh is.

Tip:	Please read the following on Judge Brett Kavanaugh. It can help clarify issues from his and Dr. Ford’s testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee. Also, PLEASE question Julie Swetnick! These are vital for a thorough background check of the sexual assault allegations against Kavanaugh. I am deeply concerned that our SCOTUS is in jeopardy of being corrupted. I am a concerned citizen. Here is the link to the article from Current Affairs on Kavanaugh and Ford’s testimony: https://www.currentaffairs.org/2018/09/how-we-know-kavanaugh-is-lying Tip: I believe that Brett Kavanaugh committed the Ferderal crime of perjury in 2004, 2006 and 2018. The 2004 and 2006 occurrences occurred during his confirmation hearing to the Federal Court. The 2018 occurrence pertains to lying at his confirmation hearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee pertaining to his alcohol consumption in High School and Yale. I also believe that Judge Kavanaugh has a gambling addiction and his debt of between 60,000.00 to 200,000.00 was paid off by political supporters so expedite his confirmation to the US Supreme Court. I also believe that Brett Kavanaugh lied under oath pertaining to this debt ie. from baseball tickets when this debt was due to a gambling addition. Not only has Kavanaugh committed perjury, but he also might be compromised over the payment of his debt (public corruption).

Tip: I am very concerned that the FBI investigation into Brett Kavanaugh is being hindered by Donald Trump, who in turn is highly influenced by Russia, as you are aware. This hindrance poses a national security threat of the highest order, and must not be allowed to further weaken our country, as is the clearly stated intent of Vladimir Putin.

Many Republican members of the Senate have visited Russia in the past two years. Please do not change your longstanding practices at the behest of these men. We cannot trust their loyalty to our country.

Please thoroughly investigate every lead independent of instructions to do otherwise. You are our defense against foreign influence and tyranny.

Thank you.

Subject: Re: CHAPTER MEETING THURSDAY SEPT 20, 2018

John,
With the Bureau recently dispatched to conduct a 7th background investigation of Judge Kavanaugh pursuant to the President's instructions, I thought you should be aware of the following article I read this weekend.
If this article is true, the Bureau Agents conducting the interview of Dr. Christine Blasey-Ford should know about it before doing so. I have copied below and linked the internet URL of the article and some brief background info on the media company that published the article and the writer that wrote it, Chadwick Moore. You and the Bureau may already know about this but I thought I should bring it to your attention.

I have no reason, or yet better resources, to question whether its true journalism or fake news, however, if true, it could provide important information regarding Dr. Ford's sworn testimony before the Judiciary Committee last week in D.C. I would at least check the state government resources regarding the licensing of a "Psychologist" in California. If Dr. Ford is not a licensed psychologist in California, I think it could present problems for her since she testified she was in the hearings.
There's a number of leads in the article, but I would at least check first on her being licensed if I was still an active duty Agent. I would also be interested in knowing if her resume had been recently changed to delete the title "Psychologist" from the Stanford University website within the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies, and if so, who was responsible or directed by whom for making these changes.
FYI, let me know if I can be of further assistance. Just because, our Chapter members are retired, doesn't mean that we shouldn't make every effort to support you and the current Agents.

According to records, Ford is not licensed in the state of California

https://www.dangerous.com/49836/records-show-dr-ford-is-not-a-licensed-psychologist-may-have-committed-perjury/

By Chadwick Moore, Editor in Chief, Dangerous.com September 28, 2018

Testifying under oath before the Senate Judiciary Committee, Christine Blasey Ford identified herself as a 'psychologist,' but records indict this is a false statement under California law. Someone at Stanford University also appears to have caught the blunder and edited Ford's faculty page.

Just one sentence into her sworn testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee regarding allegations of sexual assault against Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh, Dr. Christine Blasey Ford may have told a lie.

After thanking members of the committee on Thursday, and while under oath, Ford opened her testimony saying, "My name is Christine Blasey Ford, I am a professor of psychology at Palo Alto University and a research psychologist at the Stanford University School of Medicine."
The issue lies with the word "psychologist," and Ford potentially misrepresenting herself and her credentials, an infraction that is taken very seriously in the psychology field as well as under California law.

Under California law, in order for a person to identify publicly as a psychologist they must be licensed by the California Board of Psychology, a process that includes 3,000 hours of post-doctoral professional experience and passing two rigorous exams. To call oneself a psychologist without being licensed by a state board is the equivalent of a law school graduate calling herself a lawyer without ever taking the bar exam.

According to records, Ford is not licensed in the state of California. A recent search through the Department of Consumer Affairs License Bureau, which provides a state-run database of all licensed psychologists in California, produced no results for any variation of spelling on Ford's name. If Ford at one time had a license but it is now inactive, she would legally still be allowed to call herself a "psychologist" but forbidden from practicing psychology on patients until it was renewed. However, the database would have shown any past licenses granted to Ford, even if they were inactive.

Ford also does not appear to have been licensed in any other states outside California. Since graduating with a PhD in educational psychology from the University of Southern California in 1996 it does not appear Ford has spent any significant amount of time outside the state. She married her husband in California in 2002, and completed a master's degree in California in 2009. She reportedly completed an internship in Hawaii, but a search of Hawaii's Board of Psychology licensing databased also did not turn up any results for Ford.

What makes Ford's claim even more suspicious is someone affiliated with Stanford University appears to have also been aware of the potentially damning use of the word "psychologist" and rushed to cover for Ford. DANGEROUS exclusively uncovered an archived version of Christine's Blasey's page on the school's faculty directory. On September 10, 2015, the only archived date available, Ford's faculty page was saved to the Wayback Machine and showed Ford listed as a "research psychologist" along with her email address and office phone number.
The most recent version of that page shows Ford listed only as an "Affiliate" in the department, with the words "research psychologist" removed along with Ford's email address and phone number. This suggests the page was altered by someone very recently to scrub Ford's contact information and title after she entered the national spotlight.

It is common for academics and researchers in psychology to not hold a license. California law does not prohibit anyone from engaging in research, teaching, or other activities associated with psychology if they are not licensed, so long as those individuals do not use the word "psychologist" when referring to themselves publicly.
Several searches on California's licensing database revealed many of Ford's colleagues in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies at Stanford are not licensed psychologists in California, including the department chairman Laura Roberts, who identifies herself only as a professor. Of the unlicensed members of the faculty — which includes researchers, clinicians, professors, and fellows — none refer to themselves as a "psychologist" or "psychiatrist," unless they also had a license issued in California.
Aside from potentially misleading the committee, Ford also appears to have violated California law. California's Business and Professional Code Sections 2900-2919 govern the state's laws for practicing psychology. Section 2903 reads, "No person may engage in the practice of psychology, or represent himself or herself to be a psychologist, without a license granted under this chapter, except as otherwise provided in this chapter."
Section 2902(c) states: (c) "A person represents himself or herself to be a psychologist when the person holds himself or herself out to the public by any title or description of services incorporating the words "psychology," "psychological," "psychologist," "psychology consultation," "psychology consultant," "psychometry," "psychometrics" or "psychometrist," "psychotherapy," "psychotherapist," "psychoanalysis," or "psychoanalyst," or when the person holds himself or herself out to be trained, experienced, or an expert in the field of psychology."
This appears to include titles like "research psychologist." There is one specific exemption to the law regarding the title "school psychologist," which refers to school counselors who do not need to be licensed. School psychologists are legally forbidden from referring to themselves as simply "psychologists."
Whereas the term "research psychologist" may be common in academic parlance, the issue seems to be publicly presenting oneself under any title containing the word "psychologist" if a person is not licensed. Ford is a professor and a researcher, but not a psychologist. Section 2910 of the law states, "This chapter shall not be construed to restrict the practice of psychology on the part of persons who are salaried employees of accredited or approved academic institutions, public schools, or governmental agencies, if those employees are complying with the following (1) Performing those psychological activities as part of the duties for which they were hired. (2) Performing those activities solely within the jurisdiction or confines of those organizations. (3) Do not hold themselves out to the public by any title or description of activities incorporating the words "psychology," "psychological," or "psychologist."
It is unknown why Ford, 51, a seasoned academic in the field of psychology would have made such an obvious mistake unless she was unaware of the law or trying to intentionally mislead the public and members of the committee about her credentials in the field of psychology. Her bizarre testimony often veered off into psychological jargon about brain chemistry, memory storage, and how trauma effects the brain, analysis one would expect from a clinical psychologist, rather than an academic involved in research. When asked by committee members of her most vivid memory from the attack that allegedly occurred nearly 40 years ago, Ford responded, "Indelible in the hippocampus is the laughter, the uproarious laughter between the two [men], and their having fun at my expense," referring to the part of the brain mainly associated with memory. When discussing her trauma, Ford replied, "The etiology of anxiety and PTSD is multifactorial. [The incident] was certainly a critical risk factor. That would be a predictor of the [conditions] that I now have … I can't rule out that I would have some biological predisposition to be an anxious-type person."
Yet, Ford's academic focus for years has been statistics, not memory or trauma. To look at her as some sort of expert in this area would be like asking a podiatrist about heart disease simply because he's in the medical field. Still, the media ate it up. Hours after her testimony ended, various mainstream media outlets falsely identified Ford as a "psychologist" and praised her approach to science during the hearing, calling the statistician an "expert" on issues more closely related to clinical psychology.
The Washington Post ran a headline that simply read, "Christine Blasey Ford, psychologist," The Atlantic's headline read, "Christine Blasey Ford, A Psychologist, Testifies to Congress," Slate's headline read, "Christine Blasey Ford's testimony combined her own expert analysis of the situation," The New Yorker's headline read "Christine Blasey Ford is Serving As Both A Witness And An Expert," and the Wall Street Journal ran with "Ford's Testimony Reminds Us That She's A Psychologist." As of Friday morning, Ford's Wikipedia entry also identified her occupation as "Psychologist." According to California law, all of these are false. Ford is not a psychologist.

The Senate judiciary committee is set to decide Friday on a date for Kavanaugh's confirmation vote. If Ford committed perjury, she could face up to five years in federal prison.

Tip: Purely suggestions, re: supplemental fbi backgnd investigation of Kavanaugh accuser Dr. Ford.

THE MAIN QUESTION: Who is lying?
There have been numerous far-reaching investigations of DOCUMENTARY background material on Ford, her atty's and her story.
None of this, it seems, has been of interest.
>From this DOCUMENTARY material there is obvious fact pattern suggesting that the Ford story can conceivably be an orchestrated fraud.

Perhaps SHE was the drunk, not able to "piece it together" about the assault venue, because it either didn't happen or did but was a completely different one with different perpetrator, year, etc. There have been reports she was promiscuous.

2.
Sen. Feinstein arrangement of counsel, etc.
Feinstein got Katz to be atty
for Ford then delayed release of accusation (to develop lies?).
Katz is vice chair of the Project on Government Oversight, which has been directly funded by Soros’ Open Society Foundation.

Tip: KAVENAUGH/JUDGE:

b6 -3
b7C -3

Mark Judge, per Ford, urged Brett on at first, but then asked him to stop, and jumped on them, ultimately halting the assault. Ford testified Judge froze when she met him weeks later. Ford must have used her free hand to try to remove the hand over her mouth during the assault. Judge may have realized her terror and flailing and tried to stop it. As students in a Jesuit high, Judgeand Kavenaugh would have confronted the need to confess their sins and been anxious that Ford would disclose the event and Judge's role. Whether Kavenaugh had alcoholic amnesia or not, Judge would have discussed his concerns about Ford's reporting the assault with Kavenaugh after the event and after Ford confronted Judge at the supermarket. Judge is more likely to confess his involvement in the assault if presented with the proposition that he tried to stop the assault by jumping on Kavenaugh--and succeeded. Judge has confessional books he wrote on his alcoholism and high school misconduct--giving him the cover of his efforts to stop Kavanaugh may lead him to disclose the event and the discussions he must have had with Kavanaugh about the risks that Ford would complain and that they both might be expelled and end their academic careers. Given frequent attendance at Mass at a Jesuit School, both would have faced the need to go to confession or stand out by not going to communion. They would both have a serious concerns about mortal sin at their age and their religious environment.
I have taken hundreds of depositions--Kavanaugh appears to have two tells when not telling the truth--he moves his right hand on the table to the right and back--as he decides how to respond. The video of his initial testimony shows this gesture. There is also some micro gestures with his head as he answers (after his hand movement)--however I did not see this enough to confirm this "tell."

Tip: Regarding Judge Brett Kavanaugh and his attendance at 5 Star Basketball Camp June 1982

b7C -3

at a boys all star invitational Summer high school basketball camp "Superstars", at UC Santa Barbara for the top 100 players in the Western US . It was invite only. Our chief rival was "5 star" on the East Coast and I knew them well... and looking at that calendar. I find it almost impossible to believe he was invited to "5 star" in 1982. It was a camp for national elite high school basketball players. That does not look like the calendar of an elite HS basketball player

There has to some roster record of his attendance, photos, or moreover, some university would have had him on their recruit list if he was at 5 star. Thinking of the kids we had at our camp, I find the idea that he attended that camp almost preposterous given he could not even make the team at Yale.

Somebody needs to call 5 star to see if he was even there during those 8 days

Kellyanne Conway: 'I'm a victim of sexual assault'
White House adviser Kellyanne Conway has revealed that she was sexually assaulted as a younger woman.
"I'm a victim of sexual assault," she told CNN without giving details. Ms Conway, 51, has hinted previously that she was molested by Congressmen.
The comment came as she was defending President Trump's embattled Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh, who is facing allegations of sexual assault.
What will the FBI investigation into Kavanaugh actually do?
President Trump has ordered an FBI investigation into sexual misconduct allegations against Brett Kavanaugh, his nominee for the Supreme Court.
In short, yes. The FBI has completed a traditional background check on Judge Kavanaugh, who is currently an appeal court judge.
In his confirmation hearing, the judge himself referred to "six separate FBI background investigations over 26 years".

FBI 18-cv-02567-1280

Brett Kavanaugh--See informative article for followup leads. David Brock on NBC: “I used to know Brett Kavanaugh pretty well. And, when I think of Brett now, in the midst of his hearings for a lifetime appointment to the U.S. Supreme Court, all I can think of is the old "Aesop's Fables" adage: "A man is known by the company he keeps." And that's why I want to tell any senator who cares about our democracy: Vote no. Twenty years ago, when I was a conservative movement stalwart, I got to know Brett Kavanaugh both professionally and personally. Brett actually makes a cameo appearance in my memoir of my time in the GOP, "Blinded By The Right." I describe him at a party full of zealous young conservatives gathered to watch President Bill Clinton's 1998 State of the Union address — just weeks after the story of his affair with a White House intern had broken. When the TV camera panned to Hillary Clinton, I saw Brett — at the time a key lieutenant of Ken Starr, the independent counsel investigating various Clinton scandals — mouth the word "bitch."
But there's a lot more to know about Kavanaugh than just his Pavlovian response to Hillary's image. Brett and I were part of a close circle of cold, cynical and ambitious hard-right operatives being groomed by GOP elders for much bigger roles in politics, government and media. And it’s those controversial associations that should give members of the Senate and the American public serious pause.
Call it Kavanaugh's cabal: There was his colleague on the Starr investigation, Alex Azar, now the Secretary of Health and Human Services. Mark Paoletta is now chief counsel to Vice President Mike Pence; House anti-Clinton gumshoe Barbara Comstock is now a Republican member of Congress. Future Fox News personalities Laura Ingraham and Tucker Carlson were there with Ann Coulter, now a best-selling author, and internet provocateur Matt Drudge.
At one time or another,
each of them partied at my Georgetown townhouse amid much booze and a thick air of cigar smoke. In a rough division of labor, Kavanaugh played the role of lawyer — one of the sharp young minds recruited by the Federalist Society to infiltrate the federal judiciary with true believers. Through that network, Kavanaugh was mentored by D.C. Appeals Court Judge Laurence Silberman, known among his colleagues for planting leaks in the press for partisan advantage.
When, as I came to know, Kavanaugh took on the role of designated leaker to the press of sensitive information from Starr's operation, we all laughed that Larry had taught him well. (Of course, that sort of political opportunism by a prosecutor is at best unethical, if not illegal.)
Another compatriot was George Conway (now Kellyanne's husband), who led a secretive group of right-wing lawyers — we called them "the elves" — who worked behind the scenes directing the litigation team of Paula Jones, who had sued Clinton for sexual harassment. I knew then that information was flowing quietly from the Jones te

Tip: Dear the FBI,

Ask Brett Kavanaugh about SAC parties at Yale.

I attended
Yale, [redacted] I was either a Yale undergrad, Yale employee, or Yale graduate student from [redacted]

b6 -3
b7C -3

Everyone at Yale attended
SAC parties. Everyone. SAC was Social Activities Committee. There were many social events organized around campus. Every week there was a SAC party at one of the twelve colleges. The admission was something like 1 or 2 dollars. They were cheap, there was dancing, there was tons of alcohol that you'd already paid for with your admission fee, there were ostensibly adults there to make sure nobody died, there were fights and drama, and SAC parties were almost every weekend. Affordable crazy fun for undergrads. There were kegs of beer and hugs containers of grain alcohol mixed with punch. The masters or deans of the college, and their wives, would often even add the grain alcohol to the punch! They were our chaperones. Undergrads drunk off their minds, vomiting here and there, passing out here and there, Yale campus police driving the drunkest people back to their dorms.

Ask
Brett Kavanaugh if he attended any SAC parties. He's almost certainly a liar if 1: he says he's never heard of them, and/or 2: he says he never attended them. Everyone went at least once. Even the geekiest shyest quietest students tried it at least once. Or, as many of us did, many times.

Regarding
the culture of being a woman on campus at Yale, you should read the Huffington Post article about it. Or talk to more women about what Yale was like in the 1980s. We were made to feel we were lucky to be there. There was little recourse for anything. [redacted] b6 -3 b7C -3

[redacted] To my dean or master? No. As much as I liked them, would I trust them with that information? On campus counseling services were non-existent. There was no one to talk to about it. There were few female professors and when did anyone have time to forge a close relationship with them?

Every woman I know who went to Yale in the 1980s has at least one story to tell about men misbehaving or doing far worse than that. I myself have several stories. So do all of my roommates. It was the price of going to Yale, we were led to believe.

ASK KAVANAUGH IF HE ATTENDED SAC PARTIES WHILE AT YALE. His response will be quite telling.

Best regards,

Tip: After witnessing the entire Senate Judiciary hearing process I heard the lawyers for Christine Ford state that they were working pro bono. As officers of the court, attorneys are bound to a standard of conduct not to lie to the court. There are multiple gofundme.com accounts totaling up to be between $900,000 to $2,000,000. There is also a video of a woman handing an envelope to the attorney who claimed he was representing Ford pro-bono, an envelope that appears to be at least an inch thick, just after Ford completed her testimony and they were getting ready to leave the hearing room:

b6 -4

The video clearly shows the attorney who claimed to be working pro bono taking a very thick stuffed envelope, perhaps stuffed with $100 bills to pay for Ford's defense.

Furthermore there are other issues that I have regarding the allegation that many members of congress (Maxine Waters and Diane Feinstein) have leaked the personal home addresses of officials who are working for the President, such as Sarah Huckabee Sanders, and the woman who heads DHS who had protesters threatening her at her home, as well as leaks of the personal home addresses of republican senators, as well as the personal home address of nominee Judge Brett Kavanaugh, which endangers the lives of many elected or appointed officials in our government. We do know that Diane Feingstin had the letter from Ford which she held and leaked at the correct moment. She is lying when she claims she did not leak it to the Washington Post. Her office and the lawyers of Ford and Ford herself are the only parties that had the letter. In fact, the lawyers were recommended by Feinstein.

Tip:	Just thought of something concerning the Brett Kavanaugh/Dr. Ford saga. Has anyone considered the possibility that people could be paying Dr Ford to name Kavanaugh but are paying through a GoFundMe account? I'm not saying this is a fact but I do feel this GoFundMe thing would be an almost full proof cover for someone or some group wanting to bribe or compensate another person for putting a specific name on an old story they had told a therapist. Just a little food for thought.

Tip: Consider the anagram of "Brett Kavanaugh" posted on Twitter here:

b6 -4
b7C -4

Here's
how I would have presented that anagram, if I had found it:
Brett Kavanaugh
= A brat, knave, thug

Now I highly doubt that anyone has ever published a scientific study, proving that anagrams can give real clues about crimes, or the dark side of a person's personality. But having a little experience with anagrams, I believe they can.
For example, here's an anagram that I myself found some years ago:
Phillip Craig Garrido = Go rip a child;
rip a girl.

Now the word "rip" suggests both "steal" and "rape". As you may remember, Phillip Craig Garrido is the guy who kidnapped 11 year old Jaycee Lee Dugard, and kept her as a sex slave in a shed in his back yard for 18 years. It looks like he was just obeying a subconscious message his brain had concocted by anagramming his own name. Or maybe an evil spirit was whispering it to him.

I don't really expect you to take this tip
as having much weight. It doesn't give you any actual evidence that Judge Kavanaugh is guilty of anything. But I hope this message at least encourages the FBI to take the Kavanaugh investigation seriously.

Tip: [redacted] A website [redacted] queerty.com b6 -3 b7C -3 had the following on their site 9-29-18:Trump Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh testified before the Senate Judiciary committee in what will likely go down in history as the most bizarre and incendiary judicial interview process in history. Amid all the talk about Kavanaugh’s attacks, Lindsay Graham’s outbursts and Dr. Christine Blasey Ford’s accusations of assault, one detail has gone mostly overlooked: Kavanaugh probably lied about his high school games. And someone in Congress is trying to cover it up.

During his testimony, Judge Kavanaugh claimed to have engaged in a game called “Devil’s Triangle” while in high school. He further asserted that the game bore a semblance to the popular drinking game Quarters, in which participants try to fling quarters into a glass. Kavanaugh even submitted a calendar from the period with entries that supposedly confirmed the dates on which he and friends had played.

The problem? Devil’s Triangle isn’t a drinking game. Rather, it’s a euphemism for a sexual threesome involving two men and one woman–exactly the situation Dr. Blasey Ford asserts Kavanaugh and his friend Mark Judge tried to create when they assaulted her. Furthermore, several outlets, including Queerty, have conducted extensive internet searches for records of a drinking game of that name. Thus far, nobody has turned up a reference to Devil’s Triangle drinking game until yesterday…when the Wikipedia entry for “Devil’s Triangle” mysteriously changed during Kavanaugh’s testimony.

Reports have also called into question the accuracy of Kavanaugh’s statements regarding “boofing” (a popular term for anal sex, which the judge said referred to flatulence) and “Renate Alumnius.” Kavanaugh claims the latter refers to a date with a woman named Renate Schroeder, now Renate Schroeder-Dolphin. At least 14 of Kavanaugh’s classmates have references to Renate Alumnius in their yearbooks. Two of Kavanaugh’s classmates says the entry refers to having sex with Schroeder-Dolphin.
Schroeder-Dolphin herself had endorsed Kavanaugh’s appointment until learning of the entry. She’s since withdrawn her support for him.

Tip:	Regarding the Brett Kavanaugh investigation----ask to see each person's yearbook. Male or female, whomever you interview: Brett himself, PJ, Squee, Mark Judge, Leland, etc... Their personal copies of their yearbooks could have a lot to say with "inside" jokes, etc. And, if they claim not to have them any longer? Hmmm....A guy who kept every calendar for 35 years doesn't have his yearbook? Highly doubtful, and therefore highly suspect. That none of them would have their yearbooks to share with you is curious also, and is information that the Senate might find interesting to know.

Tip: BRETT KAVANAUGH'S VERY SUSPICIOUS CALENDAR. - How many boys in high school keep daily calendars? None that I ever knew. How many still have them - in pristine condition - 30, 40 years later? Damn few, if any. If I was FBI I'd want a look at that calendar. Is it really 40 years old? Is is a recent forgery? Does the handwriting match HS samples? Does it match current samples? Is it forged? Is the paper 40 years old? Is the ink 40 years old? Does the wear look old, or forged, does it look too good, or too worn? Why and how did he keep it? Did he keep daily calendars for all his HS, college, law school, years, or did he just "happen" to keep this one? Kav, lawyer, judge, knows damn well this calendar is just a dog and pony show, he knows damn well it doesn't "prove" a damn thing, he sure as hell isn't gonna write an entry (then or now) that says "Tried to rape the Blasey girl, couldn't, she had a one piece on, damn. Better luck next time." He isn't going to document everything he did, everything that happened, everybody he did it with, it's a highly selective self serving document. And he knows it isn't admissible evidence at trial, irrelevant, zero probative value, so, it's perjury - IT'S PERJURY - he's holding up the calendar to say something it cannot say, to mean something it cannot mean - "It doesn't say anything about Christine Blasey so I could not have sexually assaulted her," 100% bullshit. If I was FBI I'd get every calendar he kept, and has, from HS, college, law school, have the ink analyzed, have the paper analyzed, have the handwriting analyze, something about the way he "just happened" to have this most convenient calendar form 40 years ago smells like rotting fish, I'd give my left hand to have the chance to cross examine this guy at trial about this calendar, that would be fun! Fun! Fun! - I know, lawyers can have a very perverted concept of fun, but blowing up a lying witness is a lotta fun. And that calendar is a lie - that calendar is perjury - THAT CALENDAR IS PERJURY - that calendar was used for one reason - to try to bamboozle the masses who don't think like Sherlock Holmes that Kav cannot have done anything to Blasey because . . . it's not in his calendar?

Whoever did miscoduct on Dr Ford used an alias name as of Brett Kavanaugh and I believe this Mark whoever was present at the time of the misconduct is covering up who the real offender was. I truly believe Brett Kavanaugh is fatally innocent and Thank God he kept all those calendars of his activities over the years. this is something i been thinking about the recent hearing of brett kanavaugh and dr. christine ford testimony.
i also want to apologize about my grammar and my poor english.

dr. ford in her testimony she said she host "google interns at her house".
i got her address from the Palo alto building permit and it shows she did do renovation at her house, she added a room and bath
also some kitchen work. b6 -4 b7C -4

google
maps clearly shows how the house has changed from 2007 to recent and u can see some of the renovations to her house including the two front door.

this might sound crazy but i think she was a illegal landlord "hosting"
or renting out her front house to "google interns" in 2011 u can see in google maps she added a brush hedge trying to hide the "2nd door".

it would be a good question to the FBI to interview her neighbors and asked them if they have see other people living in her house or check postal service record of how many other people mail were delivered to.

i think she knew the city were cracking down on illegal landlord so to justify having a second door in her house she went to seek therapy and created the story about 4 people raping her.

innocent people should not be accused
and their life destroy over political reasons.

FBI 18-cv-02567-1327

Please consider alternative scenario in Ford-Kavanaugh Case.
The facts:

1. Judge Kavanaugh states under oath he believes Dr Ford was raped.
2.
Dr Ford states under oath she was raped.
3. Dr Ford states under oath
Brent Kavanaugh raped her.
4. Judge Kavanaugh states under oath he did not rape Dr Ford, but agrees she was raped, thus an incorrect identification of the rapist by Dr Ford.
5. How often do victims of rape accurately identify their rapist? Greater than 95%. Incorrect identification is usually associated in cases of fraudulent reporting of rape, not the situation at hand.Thus Judge Kavanaugh likely raped Dr Ford.
6. In High School,
Brent Kavanaugh was playing tackle football, binge drinking excessive amounts of alcohol, acting out aggressively and questions of inappropriate sexual behavior while intoxicated. His year book entry suggests a conspiracy of deviance, thus indication for examination.
7. Brett Kavanaugh attended a private school thus accessibility to most illicit drugs without any difficulty.
State school students frequently travel to those private institutions filled with wealthy kids, providing copious illicit drugs and alcohol to purchase.

8. Medical science predicts aggressive outward violent sexual behavior in a male experiencing multiple closed head injuries in conjunction with alcohol and drugs use. The medical community would be very concerned for this young mans wellbeing without intervention and treatment. The exact mix of traumas to Brett Kavanaugh (physical,chemical,psychological etc.)
during his adolescent years has yet to be determined without doubt, but with understanding of the possibility of identical violent aggressive sexual behavior possible from multiple different combinations of these different etiologies at different times culminating in a night of rape. It is very unlikely Brett could have stopped himself at the time of the attack towards Dr Ford.
9. It is overwhelming likely that Brett Kavanaugh raped Dr Ford as described under sworn testimony.

Tip:

Re: Felony Lying & Gross Misrepresentation to the US Senate on 7/27/18 by current Judge & Attorney Brett Kavanaugh.

Dear FBI Investigators:

I am now aware that a former Yale college classmate & former college friend of now Judge Brett Kavanaugh, Dr. Elizabeth Swisher of the University of Washington School of Medicine, has said on national television & radio, that she SAW Mr. Kavanaugh drunk & under the influence of alcohol too many times to count. She has also said that she was BOTH good friends & a roommate with new case Witness/Victim, Ms. Deborah Ramirez, now a very trusted & reliable longtime FEDERAL employee. Another former Yale roommate aware of these things is [redacted] These three (3) brilliant Yale graduates have 1st-hand information for you about their real life experiences with now Judge Kavanaugh.

b6 -4
b7C -4

[redacted] Dr. Swisher from the University of CA at San Diego School of Medicine in June 1992. She was ALWAYS very perceptive, aware, open & honest. Maybe too much even. This should help you greatly.

b6 -3
b7C -3

I hope this helps you better understand important key Witness stories & truths in this new case.

[redacted] Judge

b6 -3
b7C -3

Kavanaugh clearly demonstrates someone with severe history of Alcohol Abuse, with severe minimization & denial. Deception & lying & drama are all part of Addiction. I watched his testimony & personal interviews. As you know, persons highly intoxicated or in “black out” due to alcohol overuse, usually do NOT recall many or any embarrassing or dangerous behavioral incidents after, once sober & lucid. Disinhibition of behavior & poor judgment are common & often damaging to many. This seems clear here.

Call or write should you have any additional questions or concerns,

FBI 18-cv-02567-1337

Re: Judge Brett Kavanaugh Investigation & Mark Judge’s FBI Interview
I graduated from college in 1984 and I had a friend who played football for a different university, he graduated in 1985.
At one of his football reunion party 8 or so years later that included his fellow teammates, there was laughing and banter about being an "alumnus" of something. The conversation got shushed quickly and someone said don't discuss that outside of our group.
I asked my friend later what that was about, and he shared that one of the players got a woman drunk or drugged at her party and then the friend he and some of his teammates raped her. They called themselves
"women's name" alumni. I do not remember the woman's name.
When the story
in the NY Times broke about Judge Kavanaugh's yearbook page and I read the section of Renate alumnus, I immediately suspected that Renate Schroeder was probably raped at a party and all the boys listing themselves as Renate alumni were part of it.
What confirmed it for me was when Judge Kavanaugh in his open statement last Thursday discussed Renate, he broke down emotionally and stuttered and could barely speak. He eventually said this,
“One thing in particular we’re sad about: one of our good — one of our good female friends who we would admire and went to dances with had her names used on the yearbook page with the term “alumnus.” That yearbook reference was clumsily intended to show affection, and that she was one of us. But in this circus, the media’s interpreted the term is related to sex. It was not related to sex. As the woman herself noted to the media on the record, she and I never had any six — sexual interaction of — at all.
I’m so sorry to her for that yearbook reference. This may sound a bit trivial, given all that we are here for, but one thing I want to try to make sure — sure of in the future is my friendship with her. She was and is a great person.”
When one combines the unspoken meaning of alumnus, with the claim from Mark Judge’s former girlfriend who claimed he drugged woman and his teammates raped them, with Julie Swetnick’s affidavit claiming Mark Judge drugged and created rape trains and Judge Kavanaugh’s incomplete and misleading testimony about Renate, this seems plausible.
I share this with you since the FBI will be interviewing Mark Judge and I thought it would be helpful.
I appreciate the work you do to protect all of us.
Sincerely,

[redacted]

Tip: Judge Brett Kavanaugh submitted his calendar to the senate judiciary committee therein he inserted a hand written entry as to where he was on the week end of 1982 when his accuser, Dr Ford alleged he assaulted her. Carbon dating labs are able to determine scientifically as to when these entries were made. If the lab determines that this particular entry was made in September of 2018 this would not be good news for the judge. However, if that entry was made prior to September 2018 that would be good news

for the judge.
Thank you

Tip:	ABC News story shows additional evidence that Ford, unless she had a driver's license at age 13, is about ten years older than her stated age: The Mercury News also reported that her "claim to fame," according to one of her friends, was when she drove diver Greg Louganis to the White House in 1980 when President Jimmy Carter invited Olympians to discuss the boycott of the Moscow Games. https://abcnews.go.com/Politics/christine-blasey-ford/story?id=57989558 The attack was in 1982 when she was 15. Her CV from her high school alumni paper reports that she was a professor of both Psychology and Statistics working at Stanford in 1988 - what an achievement for a 21 yr old! Come on FBI!

Tip: Brett Kavanaugh has lied under oath. Having worked on the Child Witness to Violence Project, there are know acronyms for sexual assaults clearly delineated in Kavanaugh's yearbook:
Boofing = ingesting beer
Devil's
Triangle = 3 way sex: 2 men with 1 woman
FFFF= fine them, finger them,
fuck them, forget them

Renate Alumnus is a way to claim sexual conquest of [redacted] in other words "slut shaming" a person for sexual activity.

[redacted] have commented on Brett lying under oath, as they personally knew him well and he did not disclose his heavy drinking, denied sexual activity under oath.

Tip: The FBI needs to arrest Trump, Kavanaugh, Mark Judge and the GOP immediately. https://medium.com/@thomasafine/predicting-putin-921e1236d868 I think that Putin is going to go all in. It is important that we stop the Trump, Putin, Kavanaugh, the GOP and Mark Judge. Mark Judge and Kavanaugh tried to tape Christine Ford. Kavanaugh lied about not having ties to Yale. His grandfather went there. He lied about terms in the yearbook, his calendar, knowledge of stolen emails, being of legal drinking age, his finances, etc. He also lied about his opening statement. He had said that nobody helped him but the White House, Mike Pence, Trump and the GOP had war rooms to get him out of any trouble. They did practice mock hearings. More classmates of his are saying that Kavanaugh lied about his drinking habits and a yearbook entry. Several classmates at Yale had already told the paper about Kavanaugh's drinking, including his freshman year roommate Elizabeth Swisher. There was another classmate who corroborated what they said. His name is Daniel Lavan. Daniel Lavan said " I definitely saw him on multiple occasions stumbling drunk where he could not have rational thought over his actions or clear recollection of them. His depiction of himself is inaccurate." He lived in Kavanaugh's dorm freshman year. https://www.motherjones.com/politics/2018/09/more-brett-kavanaugh-classmates-are-saying-he-lied-to-congress/

Sir - I have attach your letter to this inquiry and will submit this information for additional processing.
Thank you.

b7C -4

Below is a letter written by Mr. Charles Ludington as reported by the N.Y. Times. Mr. Ludington can be contacted by the FBI via (protect) and a request received October 1, 2018 via the Charlotte Division, Raleigh Resident Agency

"I have been contacted by numerous reporters about Brett Kavanaugh and have not wanted to say anything because I had nothing to contribute about what kind of justice he would be. I knew Brett at Yale because I was a classmate and a varsity basketball player and Brett enjoyed socializing with athletes. Indeed, athletes formed the core of Brett's social circle.

In recent days I have become deeply troubled by what has been a blatant mischaracterization by Brett himself of his drinking at Yale. When I watched Brett and his wife being interviewed on Fox News on Monday, and when I watched Brett deliver his testimony under oath to the Senate Judiciary Committee on Thursday, I cringed. For the fact is, at Yale, and I can speak to no other times, Brett was a frequent drinker, and a heavy drinker. I know, because, especially in our first two years of college, I often drank with him. On many occasions I heard Brett slur his words and saw him staggering from alcohol consumption, not all of which was beer. When Brett got drunk, he was often belligerent and aggressive. On one of the last occasions I purposely socialized with Brett, I witnessed him respond to a semi-hostile remark, not by defusing the situation, but by throwing his beer in the man's face and starting a fight that ended with one of our mutual friends in jail.

I do not believe that the heavy drinking or even loutish behavior of an 18- or even 21-year-old should condemn a person for the rest of his life. I would be a hypocrite to think so. However, I have direct and repeated knowledge about his drinking and his disposition while drunk. And I do believe that Brett's actions as a 53-year-old federal judge matter. If he lied about his past actions on national television, and more especially while speaking under oath in front of the United States Senate, I believe those lies should have consequences. It is truth that is at stake, and I believe that the ability to speak the truth, even when it does not reflect well upon oneself, is a paramount quality we seek in our nation's most powerful judges.

I can unequivocally say that in denying the possibility that he ever blacked out from drinking, and in downplaying the degree and frequency of his drinking, Brett has not told the truth.

I felt it was my civic duty to tell of my experience while drinking with Brett, and I offer this statement to the press. I have no desire to speak further publicly, and nothing more to say to the press at this time. I will, however, take my information to the F.B.I."

Dear Madame or Sir:
I just spoke with an FBI agent in Raleigh who told me to email you in order to set up a meeting as soon as possible. I assumed I could go straight to their office, but he said I needed to file an intake form first. Please let me know how to proceed as quickly as possible. Thank you.

FBI 18-cv-02567-1382

I am writing to you because of Judge Kavanaugh investigation. I graduated [redacted] The summer of 1981 I started working at [redacted] I had started making friend in my neighborhood. Several of the boys in my neighborhood went to private schools in the area. Some of the boys went to Gonzaga others went to Bullis which was still an all boys school some went to Georgetown Prep. I would often hear rumors about parties where girls were sexually assaulted so if we went to parties we would go in a group. Some of the parties were out of control,police would show up kids would scatter there were lots of drugs,lots of booze and often no parents to be found. This was common place in the 80's and early 90' cocaine was a really problem with the really wealthy kids. [redacted] I was sitting at a pub [redacted] which has been closed for years. I was waiting for my friend to get off work. [redacted] I was ashamed and angry I let myself be in that situation. [redacted] my friend had been waiting but left a note on my car telling me they were going home. It was late All I remember,I felt numb almost like I wasn't in my body anymore.i have blocked all of this until I saw the picture [redacted] All of these memory can rushing back. i couldn't stop shaking, I was paralyze with fear and anger. It was so upsetting I could not bring myself to go to [redacted] I have never shared this story with ANYONE not my family, my friend or my husband. I was compiled to come forward by all the women who have shared their story and for those who can not. I do not want to put my family through the hell Dr.Ford's family has done through. [redacted] and concerned for our safety.

Tip: Information in the public record shows Judge Brett Kavanaugh lied numerous times in his September 27 confirmation hearing and is therefore not credible in his denial of the accusations made against him.

The FBI should thoroughly investigate the accusations of sexual misconduct made against him by Dr. Blasey Ford, Ms. Ramirez, and Ms. Swetnick by interviewing whoever has relevant information regarding these accusations, related events and facts, and whether or not Judge Kavanaugh lied under oath in his testimony to the Senate Judiciary Committee. The FBI should not be limited in who it can interview or what evidence it can collect in the few days remaining of this investigation.

[redacted] has provided a list of lies by Judge Kavanaugh at his confirmation hearing and other times. This list (see partial list below), which includes several other related misrepresentations, was collected and given to him by a friend who wants to remain anonymous.

b7C -4

A Devil's Triangle is two different kinds of sexual acts, involving either a threesome, or three types of sexual intercourse with one woman in one night. It is not the drinking game he described.

"bouf," refers to anal intercourse, and not flatulence as he stated.

"Renata Alumnius" referred to him going on a date with the purported class slut, not about being her friend as he claimed. In his yearbook he refers to himself as a Renata Alumnius, portraying [redacted] as a cheap and sleazy date.

b6 -4
b7C -4

The Beach Week Ralph
Club refers to vomiting from drinking at a traditional beach week. He lied saying it referred to his weak stomach.

Witnesses saw him watching
Ford's testimony with others in the Dirksen Office Building contradicting his denial.

Kavanaugh was referred to by his college roommate and others as a sloppy, aggressive and belligerent drunk, despite his claims to the contrary.

He lied about not knowing that emails from the Democratic members of the Judiciary Committee were stolen. He admitted knowlege in emails the committee's Republicans tried to suppress.

He lied that
"100 kegs or bust" did not indicate a lot of drinking in 1982-3. He was part of a group endeavoring to drink 100 kegs that year. His best friend admitted to his girlfriend a sexual assault resembling the assault on Dr. Ford.

He lied about the nature of Mark's book. He said that both it was part of his therapy and coming clean as an alcoholic and drug addict, and called the book "fictional." It can't be both a testimonial of a recovering alcoholic and fictional at the same time.

He lied when he said he was not the "Bart O'Kavanaugh" in Mark Judge's book.

His statement he never forgot anything about the night after a night of drinking is contradicted by several classmates.

I got a call this morning from Mark Krasberg. I told him that we gave his contact info to your office already and that I would also let you know that he is cooperative.

He then got into what he knows. He said that he had an email from a journalist who described the furniture in the room during the party. I think this was someone from the New Yorker who gave him this. Based upon that description, he was pretty sure that the party would have been in his suite. I asked him who his roommates are and he told me [redacted] We were previously told by another source that the party may have been in [redacted] suite so it seems very possible that Mark is right about the location. Mark was not present but he added that if Brett and his friends were in his suite, [redacted] would have been there as well. No one else partied with Brett and Brett's friends but [redacted]

What we previously heard about [redacted] We have heard that he was not really one of Judge Kavanaugh's buddies so perhaps he would talk. He may be an eye witness to the events.

Tip: I'm contacting you today to speak on behalf of Deborah Ramirez, the second woman to accuse Brett Kavanaugh of sexual assault. I am also a Yale alumna, class of '88. I didn't know Brett Kavanaugh, nor did I witness or have any knowledge of the incident Ms. Ramirez brought forward, but I did know Ms. Ramirez. [redacted] I can say without hesitation that Ms. Ramirez was a kind, thoughtful, intelligent woman. She didn't seek the spotlight, nor was she false or manipulative. She was straightforward and honest, a person I looked forward to working with and someone I considered a friend. While we weren't close and haven't stayed in touch over the years, I remember her fondly and I believe her. If you have any questions or if there's anything I can be helpful with in this matter, please contact me. I will also be forwarding this statement to my state senators, Senators Feinstein and Harris, as well as my state congressional representative, Rep. Jimmy Gomez.

Tel:

October 1, 2018

Dear Director Wray,

Re: Under
Law Judge Kavanaugh Is Debarred From Holding Office

If the United States
Constitution and two criminal statutes hold sway, Judge Brett Kavanaugh, now nominated for US Supreme Court Justice, is disqualified from holding office under the United States.

Judge Kavanaugh is named as a co-conspirator
in a major seditious conspiracy operating with impunity within the government and the courts of the United States. You have been informed of that criminal endeavor on a number of occasions. The criminal conspiracy is is meticulously documented in the 2,200-page “Dossier of Crimes” filed with you personally on April 8, 2018.

Many senior government officials are deeply implicated in the criminality and for that reason all knowledge of, and law enforcement upon, the violent seditious conspiracy has effectively been suppressed.
Escalating numbers of delinquent government officials have rendered the seditious conspiracy a veritable ‘insurrection’ against the laws.

As member of the DC Appeals Court bench, Judge Kavanaugh is amongst those officials who aided the seditious conspirators to escape justice thus far. Judge Kavanaugh was informed of the insurrection against the laws on some 18 occasions between May 2007 and August 2010, and was presented with prima facie evidence thereof. As United States judge he had a duty to address the criminality in government. Judge Kavanaugh, together with other judges on the bench, willfully failed to honor his oath to administer justice and to impartially discharge his duties without respect to persons.

Thus, on June 15, 2007, criminal charges were filed against Judge Kavanaugh (and others) for sanctioning and assisting the seditious conspiracy and insurrection against the laws of the United States, and for aiding and abetting domestic enemies of the United States to escape justice. Those criminal charges include but are not limited to: seditious conspiracy, in violation 18USC 2384; insurrection against the laws, in violation of 18USC2383; and treason (18USC2381) for giving aid and comfort to domestic enemies of the United States. The charges against Judge Kavanaugh (and others) were in turn swept under the carpet in order to protect law-breaking officials from prosecution, and remain pending.

You have a duty to the United States and the American people, to address the seditious conspiracy and insurrection against the laws as presented in the Dossier of Crimes. The Constitution (14th Amendment, Section 3) and the statutes 18USC2381 and 18USC2383 debar Judge Kavanaugh from holding office under the United States. Should you allow Judge Kavanaugh’s nomination to be confirmed in defiance of the laws; or if you allow him to continue as judge whilst knowing of his criminality, you will be in violation of the Constitution and aforementioned laws.

Tip:	Since you have one week to investigate Brett Kavanaugh and Senators have questioned any evidence of his ill behavior as an adult, you should follow up on this email that has circulated. This was supposedly sent on his workplace email. "Excellent time. Apologies to all for missing Friday (good excuse), arriving late Saturday (weak excuse) and growing aggressive after blowing yet another game of dice." This suggests binge drinking, lack of composure and gambling. You should also further investigate the approximately $200,000 in credit card debt that he attributes to buying Washington Nationals tickets for friends.

Tip:	Subject: Brett Kavanaugh Hearing for Supreme Court. Background: The hearing that happened on Thursday, September 27, last week where Brett Kavanaugh and Dr. Ford testified. Question: Did Brett Kavanaugh lie under oath when he was asked by one of the Senators what was the definition of Boofed and Devil's Triangle. Brett Kavanaugh replied that Boofed means flatulence and Devil's Triangle was a game of quarters. If you google both of the these words, this is not the correct definition.

Tip: Re: Brett Kavanaugh, As a citizen I am concerned with all the apparent lies of Kavanaugh before Congress. One fact that hasn't been mentioned and I'm sure must concern the Senate is the 200,000 dollar debt Kavanaugh had, his explanation of it and his explanation of how it was paid off. We must know if he is indebted to anyone and thus vulnerable to blackmail. And we also we must know if he still has a gambling problem which would make him vulnerable to bribes. I hope this concern will be taken into account in the very serious matter of a possible liar, alcoholic, sexual predator, and gambler sitting on the Supreme Court. With thanks for your attention, I am Cordially yours,

FBI 18-cv-02567-1426

It appears that Judge Brett Kavanaugh perjured himself at the confirmation hearings on his nomination to a seat on the U.S. Supreme Court. I assume that lying to the Senate under oath is a federal crime the FBI is charged to investigate. If so, I hope the FBI does its duty and investigates what appear to be crimes of perjury. For example, the statements Judge Kavanaugh made about receiving stolen emails relating to the vetting of judicial nominees in the Bush Whitehouse appear to be false, or at the very least raise serious questions about his truthfulness that need to be investigated. Similarly, Judge Kavanaugh's statements under oath concerning his involvement in U.S. torture policies appear to be false, and at the very least merit serious investigation. Again, several of Judge Kavanaugh's statements at Senate hearings on September 27, 2018 appear to be false. Those statements include, but are not necessarily limited to, Judge Kavanaugh's apparent mischaracterization of the extent of his drinking and whether he lost memory from drinking, that people Dr. Ford named as present at the gathering at which he assaulted her denied that the events happened (a federal appellate judge should be know the difference between a witness who says "I do not remember" and one who says "It did not happen), the meaning of the terms "devil's triangle" and perhaps "boofing," and what he meant by referring to himself as a "Renate alumnius" (sic). As pretty much everyone has said, Dr. Christine Blasey Ford was a credible witness. It is apparent to me from the quality of Dr. Ford's testimony, the statistics on women telling the truth about sexual abuse and identified abusers' pattern of denial, and common sense, of the kind Judge Kavanaugh and his mother applaud, that Dr. Ford is telling the truth about what Brett Kavanaugh did to her. If Brett Kavanaugh was too drunk to remember what he did, then he would not be perjuring himself by denying his sexual assault on Dr. Ford. In that case, however, Judge Kavanaugh would have committed perjury in his statements that he did not lose memory through drinking. As a U.S. citizen who cares about this republic, about truth, about the quality of the people we place in positions of power and trust, and about the importance of how governmental bodies treat the people of this great nation, I request that the FBI investigate what appear to be a series of perjuries that are federal crimes. We will not be a great nation if those in power can perjure themselves with impunity.

Tip: I was watching the Brett Kavanagh hearing on TV and was puzzled by her answer when she was asked how sure she was that Brett Kananagh was the attacker. She said she was 100 percent sure and that the memory of him laughing at tje te has made an endellable mark on het hippocampus.
dont know if anyone has found this pecular, especially from a psychological professor. I could be wrong but I believe the hippocampus is the very begining of the memory process. It where short term memory is kept. From there the memorial events are then channeled through other areas of the brain until they finally are kept in the cerabellum and becpme perminate.

She should know this as a Dr in psychology, and I am cerious why nobody had fornd what she said to be pecular.
Was she trying to throw off public openion or was she using her profession as a devise to exit from the national spotlite. Never the less I think this make her testimony completely non-cridable.
How can she keep the memory of the 35 year old lafter in her short term memory?

Tip: I just messaged you about the Kavanaugh case, and I think I listed Brett's address as PJ's (sorry!). I'm sure you already have all that information, but is there any way you can visit PJ's high school residence and see if the interior matches Dr. Ford's description? The event at PJ's place (as outlined in the 8/19 entry in Brett's August calendar from 1982) fits with Dr. Ford's account, including the people there (Brett, PJ, Mark, and "other boy") and location (less than three miles). Please help us find the truth. :(

Tip: Regarding the Brett Kavanaugh investigation: In late June/early July, Virginia Hume, one of 65 women who signed the letter in support of Judge Kavanaugh, was in contact with Mark Judge via Twitter. (As you may know, Ms. Hume was a press secretary for the Republican National Committee. Also, she is the daughter of Fox News' Brit Hume.)

Hume: “Haven't you heard? No one cares about youthful shenanigans anymore! They don't even care about oldful shenanigans, for that matter.”

Hume: “Good to get it out now. You have time to make the case that you knew even then to keep business out front, party in the back.”

Judge has deleted his Twitter account so his responses are unavailable to the public.

It may be useful to the investigation to know whether information about the allegations by Dr. Baisley Ford was known with Republicans circles via Ms. Hume prior to the revelation to the public by the Washington Post.

Thank you.

Tip: In the Judge Brett Cavanaugh and Christine Ford investigation, there is absolutely no reason to ask the 2 boys and the girl who remained downstairs as only the three individuals Miss Ford who was traumatized, and Brett Cavansugh and Mark judge who were traumatizing her have any knowledge of what transpired.

I watched the proceedings on TV and I feel strongly that Brett is guilty because every time he was asked a direct question, yes or no, if he was guilty he never once answered the question but tried to lead them in another direction, with his answer. He looked absolutely guilty.

Re: FBI Investigation into Dr. Blasey Ford's accusation of Judge Brett Kavanaugh

Good afternoon,

I am writing to provide you additional information regarding the veracity of Dr. Christine Blasey Ford's nationally-televised testimony in the Kavanaugh accusation. Specifically,
I can validate the discord she mentioned about having a second "front door"
to installed into her house during the remodel.

[redacted] b6 -3
b7C -3
[redacted] I recall that the secondary "front door" was something that Christine wanted and Russell was resigned to live with. They sought my advice for ideas on how to camouflage its presence and minimize confusion for visitors to their house. I also recall that a secondary way out from the master bedroom was very important to her. She loved having that exit to the outdoors directly from her bedroom.
In addition, I recall her being very proud of putting in a secondary access/exit point in her kids' room also.

After viewing her testimony and knowing Christine [redacted] it makes sense to me that this aspect of her home's b6 -3 remodel is directly related to the trauma she experienced from her accused. During the years I've known her, I've seen Christine's good character, high integrity, and sincerity as a mom, wife, and academic. I've witnessed her quiet thoughtfulness, clarity, and measuredness in decision-making from working with her. In my opinion, this is not a person who would make up an accusation or be mistaken about facts she knows are true.

I would be happy to answer any further questions or cooperate with an Affidavit, Statement of Support, or other documentation for your investigation, as needed.

Sincerely,

Gentlemen, If you are interested in interviewing Brett Kavanaugh's fraternity brothers in the Deke House at Yale, attached is a listing of the members of DKE at Yale including from 1984 – 90, the years of those who would have known him. Included is of course his class of '87. Hope this is helpful.

Tip: I realize that the FBI may be inundated with people coming out of the woodwork with perhaps off the wall theories about Brett Kavanaugh right now. That agents may have to deal with that mess, I am sorry. Bare with me for a moment though. I have great respect for the men and women of the FBI and I believe that you all are professionals who are good at your jobs. That being said, I feel the need to mention this because sometimes the obvious can be overlooked. Judge Kavanaugh said that the party at which he is alleged to have assaulted Dr. Ford took place on a weekend because people worked. I would like to point out that teenager’s summer jobs actually often are not Monday through Friday 9 to 5 type jobs. However, parents jobs usually are Monday thru Friday 9-5 jobs wether it’s summer or not. Dr Ford has said there were no parents at the home. Wouldn’t one of the best times for teenagers to drink beer at a home be when parents are at work? Aren’t parents actually more likely to be home on weekends?

Thank you very much for taking the time to read this. I don’t know that it will help or really go anywhere. If it wasn’t clear, I have no direct knowledge or Dr Ford or Judge Kavanaugh.

Respectfully,

Tip: Re Judge Brett Kavanaugh. I know you've likely seen this but it is a great summary of Judge Kavanaugh & buddies' year book references. It's VERY informative abt drugs, drinking, spinning rooms, etc. Scroll down & look at the references to Killer Q's & 151 (Quaaludes & 151 Rum). I think he lied in the hearings. MUCH is outlined on this website that someone at FBI should review. Please don't drop the ball on this investigation. It's important to many of us who were victimized in the 80s. Thanks. BTW, you & all the Intel Comm are heros. Don't let Trump & these fake republicans bring down your morale. You're the backbone of this nation. Tip: Regarding the Brett Kavanaugh investigation. During the hearing when the female Senator who's father was an alcoholic, asked Kavanaugh if he had ever drank to excess where he had a partial memory loss or a black out, his actual response was " I don't know senator, how about you ". Then she said i'll take that as a no answer. My point is is that was inconsistent with his previous denials on this question, therefore he was lying all the other times he denied, denied and denied. I'm surprised you or the media hasn't zoomed in on that response. We all certainly know how many times he said the word beer. I also feel that since the first 4 days the FBI's scope into the investigation has been very limited yet Trump now says the FBI can interview who they think is necessary to get to the truth, that the investigation should be extended 4 days now that they have the go ahead if indeed trump has put that in writing to make it official.
So far the news reports say the FBI has NOT received any new instruction to do so. Thank You...

Tip:	This is an idea rather than a tip regarding the Kavanaugh investigation. It seems to me that the girls/women who may have been sexually abused by Brett Kavanaugh and his friends may have been considered 'beneath' these men in social class. Perhaps this is why female friends from certain schools have a positive opinion of him whereas females from less prestigious schools didn't rate his respect, and thus he felt entitled to abuse them. Thank you.

There is substantial overlap between (i) the gathering described in Judge Kavanaugh's calendar entry for July 1, 1982 ("Tobin's house — Workout/Go to Timmy's for Skis w/Judge, Tom, PJ, Bernie, Squi") and (ii) the gathering described by Dr. Blasey-Ford:

• 1) Both descriptions have Brett Kavanaugh, Mark Judge, and P.J. Smith in attendance.
• 2) Dr. Blasey-Ford’s testimony dates the gathering as up to 8 weeks in advance of the encounter with Mark Judge at the grocery store whereas Mark Judge’s book has Mr. Judge working at the store in August 1982—July 1, 1982 is up to 8 weeks in advance of an encounter with Mr. Judge in August 1982.
• 3) Beer-drinking.
Going further, Judge Kavanaugh's calendar entry for July 1, 1982 describes the gathering as taking place at “Timmy’s” (Timothy Patrick Gaudette’s) place.
• 4) [redacted] is an address apparently formerly associated with Timothy Gaudette and near the country club discussed in Dr. Blasey-Ford's testimony. b6 -4 b7C -4
• 5) The façade of the residence at [redacted] is consistent with Dr. Blasey-Ford's testimony. b6 -4 b7C -4
• 6) The layout of the residence at [redacted] is also consistent with Dr. Blasey-Ford's testimony--the upstairs bathroom across from a bedroom, the narrow staircase, etc.
Judge Kavanaugh's calendar entry for July 1, 1982 ("Tobin's house — Workout/Go to Timmy's for Skis w/Judge, Tom, PJ, Bernie, Squi") identifies four more people in addition to those identified by Dr. Blasey-Ford:
• 1) Timmy=Timothy Gaudette
• 2) Tom=Tom Kane
• 3) Bernie=Bernie McCarthy
• 4) Squi=Chris Garrett
The overlap in the descriptions, of a gathering, by Judge Kavanaugh and by Dr. Blasey-Ford augurs in favor of interviewing 1) Timothy Gaudette, 2) Tom Kane, 3) Bernie McCarthy, and 4) Chris Garrett especially about the July 1, 1982 gathering at Timothy Gaudette’s place (likely [redacted] b6 -4 b7C -4

Tip: I am just an average citizen wondering if I just accidentally stumbled across information regarding the Kavanaugh situation while reading news stories in my home. I have no connection to any of the investigation, hence would prefer to remain anonymous reporting this tip. In this MSNBC story link, there is a photo of Brett Kavanaugh accuser #2, Deborah Ramirez, posing for a photo in 1997, over a DECADE after her allegation against him. Please note she is smiling big in this photo. Is it normal behavior for a victim to be so happy in a photo with her alleged abuser? This seems like a huge red flag to me. I reported it because if she is giving the FBI information, under the penalty of perjury possibly, I would hope someone would ask her why she shows up smiling ear to ear in a photo with her abuser later in life. I am sorry if i wasted your time. Here is the link to the photo and story:

What
do blackouts mean when drinking?

A blackout involves memory loss due to alcohol or drug abuse. Blacking out from drinking is specifically associated with binge drinking.

What does it mean to get blackout drunk?

What Happens When You Get Blackout Drunk: How Heavy Drinking Affects Your Personality.
... Blackouts are defined as a period of amnesia while drinking, and are

If Brett Kavanaugh was aware of the Ramirez exposé prior to the date he declared under oath during his hearing (which he gave as "the New Yorker article), and this can be evidenced by action he took to interfere with witnesses, there is prima facie evidence of perjury.
Do your job! In the eyes of the world the FBI is proving itself still to be unprofessional and incompetent.

Tip:	Regarding the current investigation of Brett Kavanaugh. I am an artist, and we know that artwork can be dated on basis of the materials used. I am not an expert on this, but there certainly are experts. There are methods to date artwork to avoid the sale of fakes. Paper ages leaving evidence of the aging process. The industry has probably changed some paper-making formula or physical characteristics. Ink contents used may have changed. Since Brett Kavanaugh is using his own diary from his high school days as evidence of his own character and whereabouts on particular dates, has (or will) the FBI do the forensic work on the diary paper, ink, etc. to determine the age of the materials.

Tip: These are the names of specific individuals the FBI should definitely include in their investigation of the sexual allegations against Judge Kavanaugh (JK). This is only a short list of key witnesses:

1. Mark Judge –
JK’s best Georgetown Prep friend and witness to KJ’s attempted rape of Dr. Ford.

2. [redacted]

b6 -4
b7C -4

3. Safeway (or IRS)– Mark Judge was an employee at the Potomac Village store during the general time of KJ’s attempted rape of Dr. Ford.

4. Leland Keyser – Long-time friend (?) of Dr. Ford and pre-party get together attendee and denier where JK sexually assaulted Dr. Ford

5. Patrick “PJ” Smyth – Denies presence at the pre-party get together where JK sexually assaulted Dr. Ford.

6. Deborah Ramirez
– Yale classmate that KJ exposed himself.

7. [redacted]

Tip: My Beloved FBI, Why Have you not got use the $500,000.00 dollars yet from the Georgia State Lottery yet? The Game " All or Nothing " is a sham, and it Proves that the CEO and Governor and State DA Carr are in Violation of Title 18 Section 1962 R.E.C.O. Act.there are two Computers to the game the one that is on until the Draw is the one that Changes the Numbers on the Play slips and will lock the player Out if the Game is Trap and it can be with just 3000 combo worked out numbers. I have sent filed out slips to Mr. Wray in the home Office and a black Check to use to repay if I'm wrong, but I not play the 4, to 5 thousand dollars on one draw and star ruining the lottery play slip at 10:05pm so that the few changes the scanner prints are fixed and reversed before the morning draw. I hit April 13th 2016 cashed at the Lottery Office $1,000.00 no taxes because same numbers on one ticket thas when new they cheat and is still doing it today and every day do not sut the game down until the people can get back with air ball to pick the numbers. 2. How about looking at the Vice Foster death back in 1993 Look at the Report at the fist 114 pages were Brett Kavanaugh helped Ken Star the Report and the cove up and talk to the Three Federal Judges that knew it was a cover up and he wrote the Muller Rules takeing the power from three judges and give it to ? deep State. Come on People dam Trump is Smart another Deep State. down 8,000 more to go which I could have had your job but you know why I don't. My Cabinet for my County the United States For America is bigger now with Trump Ivanka & Husband, but thay do not Know ware can;t say are can lie, but we will see that the end of our Contract my Friends and Please. do not Cheat Lee Wanta, and Justice Kennedy, Please Trial on the 16th end this Contract 27 years and 6 month to the day, my beloved FIB. thank you and do your job Please. Tip: Judge Brett Kavanaugh background check: Kavanaugh's calendar references a 7/1/82 gathering at "Timmy's for skis". At the Judiciary Committee hearing last Thursday, K identified "Timmy" as Tim Gaudette. [redacted] and Tim Gaudette as a past resident. Zillow indicates that the unit has one, upstairs bathroom across from an upstairs BR with a narrow staircase leading to the first floor. This fits the description that Dr. Ford gave of the house/room/bathroom configuration where she was attacked by K (no downstairs bathroom, so she had to go upstairs, where she was pushed into a BR) . If this can be confirmed, Dr. Ford and Leland Keyser visiting this house might jog further recollections about that night. It could also help establish the date and place of the attack.

Tip: Brett Kavanaugh committed perjury during his last hearing. He stated that a senior high school student would be 18 years old and thus legal to drink in Maryland. First: not all Seniors are 18. [redacted] Second: Kavanaugh was not 18 until Feb of his Senior year. The incident with Ford occurred much before. He was involved with the 100 Keg society before he was 18. Finally, Kavanaugh, as a highly regarded jurist, intentionally mis stated the age of drinking in Maryland. At the time of the incident the legal drinking age was 21. He was lying to avoid admission that he drank illegally. That is clear perjury.
