Tip:	Just a specific idea concerning the Brett Kavanaugh investigation. Trying to locate the house Dr. Christian Ford described where she was sexually assaulted. She said one of them "closed the door and turned up the music...". This must have been a house either Kavanaugh or Mike Judge was intimately familiar with. My immediate guess would be the house of either young man's parents, or one's grandparents'. Please follow this lead! Thanks,

Tip:	Regarding the investigation of Dr. Christine Blasey Ford and Judge Brett Cavanaugh I hope that the FBI will investigate Dr. Ford's Financial records and interests including children's college funds to see if there has been a sizable monetary gift from an unknown source. This bizarre situation has many features of the trouble that George Soros has stirred up throughout US, Ireland, and other parts of world to facilitate a liberal agenda. A money trail could be a clue. Probably the FBI already thought of this, but I still thought I should pass it on. Thanks you.

Tip:	Hello. I had a thought. Christine Ford claimed that Brett Kavanaugh was "too heavy" so that she couldn't get him off her during the alleged attack. Kavanaugh is not a big man now and my guess is that he was not a huge teenager either. [redacted] and it was the weight ratio that we used to figure out that [redacted] Weights of these two people can be objectively found in medical records from 1982. Just saying. Thank you. Please Read This Whole Post: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] I have never before been as fearful for the future of our country as I am today. I make it a priority to remain apprised of our country's political state and as a result, I personally, have been very affected by the coverage, allegations, testimony, demeanor, and investigation (or lack of) concerning Brett Kavanaugh. Which is why I'm reaching out today. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] one day at a time. While the FBI investigates Mark Judge and his recollections of the evening Dr Ford states she was assaulted, there is someone who would 99% most certainly have first hand knowledge of many/ all of the horrendous actions Mark Judge participated in - leading up to his first day of sobriety. As part of AA's 12 Step Program, a critical part of the step work, the alcoholic must admit - in a private 1:1 setting - to their selected Sponsor, any and all prior illegal, horrendous, unthinkable, and shameful acts/ behaviors - where if not shared with their Sponsor, relapse is imminent. Self forgiveness is critical in maintaining sobriety. So what this means: If the FBI is able to discover and locate Mark Judge's first Few Sponsors (it is not uncommon to have had a few over time), that Sponsor could/ would have received first hand admittance from Mr. Judge himself, of the behaviors and actions, that would almost undoubtedly confirm the allegations at hand in relation to Mr Judge himself. If not specifically the evening of Dr Ford's claimed assault, than the similar behaviors and actions with other inebriated young women. Please recall that Mr Judge allegedly admitted to a past girlfriend his participation in several young men having sex with one, young woman who was inebriated. Because it requires specific and intimate exposure to the 12 Steps of AA, and only an alcoholic can truly understand the magnitude as to how deep and personal the Step Process is, I felt it necessary to share with the FBI that by strategically approaching Mr Judge's past Sponsors, it is inevitable that if anyone were to have first hand knowledge of his crimes, it would be the Sponsor. The AA promise to the recovering alcoholic is: IF we follow all 12 Steps specifically, thoroughly, and HONESTLY, we too can live a free and joyous life. Free of our shame, regrets and sins and joyous as a result of working a rigorous 12 Step program. This information is being sent in the case the FBI has yet to realize this possible route of further investigating the Kavanaugh case. I am hopeful this information has been helpful. Thank You and good luck! This country is counting on you - I am counting on you and I believe in you! Sincerely, [REDACTED]

Tip:	Brett Kavanaugh's witness against him, Dr. Ford had on LARGE GLASSES. I think she saw only blurred images out of them because when she looked at the Democrat senators who were questioning her she would look over her glasses with a smirky smile to them on her right side. When she was questioned by the Republican senators she would not look at them. Dr. Ford's long blonde hair covered one eye under her glasses that cut the visual acutely of seeing the Republican senator who was questioning her. I think she was lying. She came with blinders on. I wear glasses, however, another prescription can cause blindness if I wear glasses with that prescription. Please profile this observation against Dr. FORD against Judge Kavanaugh.

Tip:	After reading many articles on this horrible Kavanaugh &#8220;trial,&#8221; I have to say that Christine Blasey Ford's testimony is very troubling. There are so many holes in her story, and they are very convenient for her since this event allegedly took place 36 years ago, yet despite having a foggy memory, she has explicit memory of other details. I would love for the FBI to ask her 7 questions. 1. Why did Christine Blasey Ford deliberately evade when asked by Rachel what her connection to the Kavanaugh group was??? When asked by Rachel what her connection to the Kavanaugh group was, why did she evade giving the name of Chris Garrett, one of Kavanaugh's high school classmates who was also his friend. I didn't hear her say the name of Chris Garrett, if she did. Instead she hemmed and hawed and said it was the boy that Whelan, who I believe was a former clerk of Antonin Scalia's, wrote an article about Garrett as her possible attacker, that she made a mistaken identity since the two teenage boys looked a good bit alike. YET I READ IN ONE OF THE ARTICLES THAT CHRISTINE BLASEY FORD WAS DATING CHRIS GARRETT THAT SUMMER. 2. Did Chris Garrett take Christine Ford to and from the alleged party? Christine Ford says she has a foggy memory about so many of the details, that she has no memory of how she got to and from the alleged party.

IF SHE WAS DATING CHRIS GARRETT THAT SUMMER, THE OBVIOUS ASSUMPTION ONE WOULD MAKE IS THAT CHRIS GARRETT IS THE ONE WHO PROVIDED HER TRANSPORTATION. HE WAS PROBABLY WITH HER AT THAT PARTY, IF THERE EVEN WAS SUCH A PARTY.

AND THAT BRINGS ME TO THE ASSUMPTION THAT IF GARRETT WAS WITH HER, IT IS UNLIKELY THAT HIS BUDDIES WOULD HIT ON HIS GIRLFRIEND WHILE HE WAS THERE.

3.
Why did Christine Blasey Ford scrub her social pages on the Internet? it is reported she scrubbed all her social pages.

4. Is it true that Christine Blasey Ford had posted on her Facebook page during the Gorsuch nomination process that SOMEONE SHOULD COME FORWARD AND ACCUSE GORSUCH OF RAPE???

Did that alleged party actually happen?

6. Dr. Ford, are you a democrat activist, and in what activities did you take part?

7. Did Christine Blasey Ford frame Brett Kavanaugh?

I do not believe Christine Ford, I think she did a great job of acting, and I think the democrat lawyers drilled her until she got that performance right.

It is so important that an innocent man not have his life and his reputation and her future destroyed, and I do believe that this is what the democrats are trying to do, and they just don't care about justice and fairness and truth.

Please find the truth for us.

Thank you.

Tip:	I want to know why aren't the suspicious finances of Brett Kavanaugh being investigates? Yes, I know neither Trump nor McConnell want the exposure but if there ever was a "follow the money" case, this is it. I also feel that McConnell opened the door to Russia which is how he had the nerve to deny Merrick Garland a fair hearing and thus violate the Constitution. What does it take to put him behind bars?

Tip:	Unasked Questions Why is no one questioning Brett Kavanaugh's definition of the terms he uses on his yearbook page to remember his high school life? Check out Google or Yahoo Search for the definitions provided as standard by the Urban Slang Dictionary. Boof; there refers to anal sex; Kavanaugh's answer was flatulence. So Urban Slang has added it as Brett flatulence; Devil's Triangle is defined as sex between 2 men and one woman (cf. Dr. Blasey Ford's testimony re. her alleged assault and you won't think it's a fabrication). The seven f's; FFFFFFFF; on his calendar and on his yearbook page are listed in the Urban Dictionary also. These f's start with Find them; and end up with a completed sexual conquest. No wonder Renate was incensed to hear that he had included her name as his alumnus. Bet she's sorry she added her name to that letter endorsing him! Eiffel Tower also references a threesome. FBI, are you investigating?

Tip:	Re: Brett Kavanaugh; [redacted] b6 -3 [redacted] so I may have overlapped with Brett Kavanaugh [redacted] b7C -3
although I did not know him personally. I believe standard Yale procedures at that time are pertinent. If you haven't done so already, you might consider contacting any of the following people: If a student blacked out, his classmates were instructed to contact the Yale Police (a division of New Haven police). If they did contact the police, the police would send an officer to the dorm room. If the student was unconscious or heavily inebriated, they would be brought to the Yale New Haven Hospital ER, rather than the Yale Health Service. Most students live on the Old Campus their first year, in the Hall (part of a full building) assigned to their residential college (like an upper class dorm). In years 2 through 4, they live in that specific residential college, although some transfer to another residential college or fraternity or live off campus. Regardless, they are still assigned to a residential college. If the Yale police were called, I believe they would also notify the Master of that residential college. So, people who would know about this incident include: 1)the Yale Police officer; 2) Yale New Hospital ER; 3)the Residential College's Master; 4)the Residential College Master's wife (all of the Master's were men at the time, and their wives were very active members of the Residential College community; and 5) the Residential College's Dean (for academic issues). Also, every student is assigned to a Freshman Counselor (generally a senior or grad student) who lives in a single room close to those other students assigned to him or her and knows them quite well. The Freshman Counselor would often know about these incidents from other students, even if it wasn't formally reported to the Yale Police. So, in addition to his classmates, there several people who were adults in positions of authority who might have known about each black out incident, even if it wasn't formally reported. I hope this is helpful.

Tip:	Rep Maxine Waters (United States Congresswoman from California) has issued a threat to Mark G Judge, a witness in an ongoing FBI investigation. She has used her public twitter account to tweet "We all know where Mark Judge is. We all believe Dr. Ford. He was in the room. He better not lie to the FBI!" This is witness tampering. She has been known to threaten Republicans and call upon her supporters to harass and intimidate Republicans in many ways but this is different. Mr. Judge is a witness in your investigation of Judge Brett Kavanaugh and she is telling her supporters that "we know where Mark Judge is" and then gives an ultimatum. This can only be interpreted as a threat of violence due to Rep. Water's previous comments and needs to be looked into as Witness Tampering. I am attaching a link to her tweet. https://twitter.com/RepMaxineWaters/status/1046403065522401280

Tip:	In the investigation of judge Brett Kavanaugh, there are numerous potential examples of him lying to Congress, which need to be investigated further to see if he committed perjury. Many very specific instances to investigate are detailed in great depth in the following article, which also deeply investigated and followed-up on what the facts are outside of what he said (eg, maps of his house vs. others involved; facts about terminology he used which is true or not true). I wanted to make you aware of the depth and detail of this article so you can follow these leads further. They go to the question of whether he is a generally credible witness in the case against him. And also go to the crime of perjury. Thank you. https://www.currentaffairs.org/2018/09/how-we-know-kavanaugh-is-lying

Tip:	Please forward this to FBI/Brett Kavanaugh investigator. Thursday, Sept 27 Dr Ford submits her sworn testimony. Being questioned by a Democratic senator she is asked what she thinks is her most traumatic time during the alledged assault. She responds referencing the two boys laughing. She then continues that one of the boys is on top of her, but she couldn't determine which one. I am not a trial lawyer nor a trained investigator; however, I would/do question if she knew which boy, if either assaulted her. This information I have submitted can be seen as reported on ABC Evening News w/ David Muir, Friday, Sept28th, first story. Please watch and review and investigate accordingly. Get back w/ me if needed. Hope this helps. Thank you

Tip:	This is in regards to the FBI investigation concerning Brett Kavanaugh and Christine Ford. Could you please forward this to the appropriate FBI folks investigating this? I have the link and contact information of people that uncovered this. It would be terrible if this woman made it all up and the joke is on us. She also needs to be investigated. This is all I know and it is disturbing. We should NEVER allow false allegations. Christine Ford Published 2008 Article on Self-Hypnosis Used to Retrieve and Create Artificial Situations By Pamela Geller - on October 2, 2018 https://gellerreport.com/2018/10/ford-hypnosis-artificial.html/ Christine Blasey Ford has been shown again and again to be lying. She can't remember key details of the night during which Brett Kavanaugh supposedly assaulted her, and even the few details she does remember change in every retelling. She has made an unsubstantiated and likely unsubstantiatable charge, and yet the Republicans have bent over backwards to accommodate her. Every new revelation, however, including this one, shows that they're being played. The game is clear: the Democrats are trying to delay Kavanaugh's confirmation until after the mid-terms, when they hope to control the House and the Senate. The American people should repudiate this disgusting tactic thoroughly, both now and in November. And the Senate should vote now to confirm Kavanaugh.

“HUGE! Christine Ford Published 2008 Article on Self-Hypnosis Used to Retrieve and ‘Create Artificial Situations,’” by Jim Hoft, Gateway Pundit, October 1, 2018:

Christine Ford has not turned over her therapist’s notes to the Senate regarding her suppressed memories about Judge Kavanaugh abusing her decades earlier.

This may be because if the memories were revealed through hypnosis they would be “absolutely inadmissible” in the court of law in many states, including New York and Maryland.

Robert Barnes@Barnes_Law
Deeply true. Two most unreliable, but often believed, forms of testimony: 1) confessions; 2) eye witness recollections.

Scott Adams✔:@ScottAdamsSays
Pro Tip 2:
Every discussion of Kavanaugh and Ford that doesn't mention the unreliability of eye witness accounts, and memory in general, is either ignorant or a con job.

1:13 PM - Sep 28, 2018
Twitter Ads info and privacyThere were also accusations that Christine Ford was under a hypnotic trance during her testimony.

Now this…

One of Christine Blasey Ford’s research articles in 2008 included a study on self-hypnosis.

The practice of self-hypnosis is used to retrieve important memories and “create artificial situations.”

BRETT KAVANAUGH FBI Investigation: I am a [redacted] [redacted] Yesterday at approximated 9:30 p.m. EST, via cellphone call and email I was provided information from a [redacted] [redacted] Cell: [redacted] Email: [redacted] regarding a non-authenticated "compromising/questionable" photograph of CHRISTINE BLASEY FORD. Tip:	[redacted] and closely following the Kavanaugh developments. I am not Democrat or Republican oriented. But nobody on the net or in the news is looking into a very SIMPLE FACT. When Prof. Ford went into the bathroom after Kavanaugh allegedly assaulted her, she must have been under heavy duress and most probably crying. Then, when Kavanaugh and his friend went downstairs, she also went down and went home. Her hair must have been dishevelled / she might have been crying - did the friend she went with to the house not see her state/ and also the others downstairs see her rushing out of the house. Such an incident would stay in ANYONE'S memory for the rest of their lives. Her girl friend and all the others do NOT RECALL SUCH AN INCIDENT. It is clear that Prof. Ford is lying. During her testimony in front of the Senate - being nervous for the first 10/15 mts is understandable but her nervous voice continuing throughout the testimony is her acting. She teaches 100's of students and must be having a lot of confidence - she was acting throughout the questioning. Best of luck to get to the TRUTH

Tip:	My understanding is that the following statement has already been received by your office and I am waiting to hear back. However, if I am mistaken, I submit the following: "I have been contacted by numerous reporters about Brett Kavanaugh and have not wanted to say anything because I had nothing to contribute about what kind of justice he would be. I knew Brett [redacted] and Brett enjoyed socializing with athletes. Indeed, athletes formed the core of Brett's social circle. In recent days I have become deeply troubled by what has been a blatant mischaracterization by Brett himself of his drinking at Yale. When I watched Brett and his wife being interviewed on Fox News on Monday, and when I watched Brett deliver his testimony under oath to the Senate Judiciary Committee on Thursday, I cringed. For the fact is, [redacted] Brett was a frequent drinker, and a heavy drinker. [redacted] On many occasions I heard Brett slur his words and saw him staggering from alcohol consumption, not all of which was beer. When Brett got drunk, he was often belligerent and aggressive. On one of the last occasions I purposely socialized with Brett, I witnessed him respond to a semi-hostile remark, not by defusing the situation, but by throwing his beer in the man's face and starting a fight that ended with [redacted] in jail. I do not believe that the heavy drinking or even loutish behavior of an 18- or even 21-year-old should condemn a person for the rest of his life. I would be a hypocrite to think so. However, I have direct and repeated knowledge about his drinking and his disposition while drunk. And I do believe that Brett's actions as a 53-year-old federal judge matter. If he lied about his past actions on national television, and more especially while speaking under oath in front of the United States Senate, I believe those lies should have consequences. It is truth that is at stake, and I believe that the ability to speak the truth, even when it does not reflect well upon oneself, is a paramount quality we seek in our nation's most powerful judges.

I can unequivocally say that in denying the possibility that he ever blacked out from drinking, and in downplaying the degree and frequency of his drinking, Brett has not told the truth.

I felt it was my civic duty to tell of my experience while drinking with Brett, and I offer this statement to the press. I have no desire to speak further publicly, and nothing more to say to the press at this time. I will, however, take my information to the F.B.I."

Tip:	I have called you a lot hopefully this time you can lead to some satisfaction. You definitely do not want my story it is not worth it. I cannot talk to anyone for the safety of myself as well as others at least Forget that mess. Focus on the current events and is a threat to the world and is working with Brett Cavanaugh All of the lies created a mess, regardless of any test I barely trust the hospital right now. Enough is enough how can I raise a future president if no one is doing their job to make sure I am in a position to do it right. I am tired and a certified vegan. If my diet gets messed up I can die. All I can do is keep fighting for the truth. I am so tired just fret about me, my feelings and my future let Brett win he might send to jail and that what he needs. I have to do everything to make sure Brett is satisfied. Sincerely,Your survivor

Tip:	I wanted to submit a concern regarding the Brett Kavanaugh hearing that took place last Thursday, September 27th. I viewed the video of the hearing from a post on Facebook and it clearly showed at the end of the hearing, Senator Sheila Jackson Lee handing an envelope to the male lawyer for Ms. Ford. She was looking around as to not wanting to be noticed and it was a bit curious since I am not certain that she knows the lawyer. But, some sort of transaction took place and the envelope was placed into his jacket pocket. Money? Since you are investigating the matter, this may be a great time to ask. Seems a bit seemly to me. Thank you.

Tip:	Regarding the investigation of Brett M Kavanaugh: I allege Kavanaugh may have unreported offshore bank accounts not reported to the IRS, as his name appears in the International Consortium of investigative Journalists database. The ICIJ won a Pulitzer for reporting. If the FBI searches for Brett M. Kavanaugh, that name will return results for 2233 offshore entities and more info. Like Paul Manafort, Mr. Kavanaugh must swear under oath to the FBI that he has reported all of his financial interests to the IRS, prior to his confirmation vote in the Senate. Do your job, investigate. I have personal knowledge of this database search - I did it myself.

Tip:	Please be sure to interview Mr. Timothy Gaudette, who hosted the July 1, 1982 gathering at his home. He is likely to recall the get together and the presence of the young adolescent girls. Brett Kavanaugh, Christine Blasey Ford and the additional persons she has attempted to provide to the FBI for follow up must be interviewed under penalty of perjury for a truly credible and fair investigation to occur and to preserve and protect the integrity of the highest court in our land. Thank you very much!

Tip:	I suggest that the gathering alleged by Christine Blasey-Ford occurred at the home of [redacted] who had recently moved out of his marital home. [redacted] a member of Brett Kavanaugh's friend cohort at Georgetown Prep. [redacted] (via case search Maryland). It is likely that his father maintained a home in suburban Montgomery Cty for visitation purposes. [redacted] lists a [redacted] suggesting he was spending much of his time away from MD. Such a situation would explain the "sparsely furnished" living room described by Dr. Ford. Such a room is not what one would expect to find in the home of an upper class suburban family at the time. The situation would also explain the lack of parental supervision at the alleged gathering.

Tip:	Our firm, Kaplan Hecker & Fink LLP, represents a woman, Elizabeth Rasor, with information concerning the credibility of Mark Judge, who we understand has been or will be interviewed in connection with the investigation into Judge Brett Kavanaugh. On September 26, Ms. Rasor signed a notarized affidavit attesting to the information below. We shared her affidavit with the Senate Judiciary Committee. As we told the Committee, she would be willing to participate in the FBI's investigation in any way. Please contact us for further information and to arrange to speak with Ms. Rasor ----- I, Elizabeth Rasor, being duly sworn, hereby depose and say: 1. I make this affidavit based on my personal knowledge. 2. I have a bachelor's degree in English Literature from Catholic University and a master's degree in Special Education from Teacher's College at Columbia University. 3. I first met Mark Judge in or around the fall of 1986 while we were both students at Catholic University. 4. We engaged in a serious, romantic relationship for approximately two years beginning in 1986 through 1988. We dated exclusively during much of that time period and attempted to reunite several times in the months afterwards until I moved to New York from Washington, D.C. in 1989. 5. While we were dating, I spent time with Mark's friends from Georgetown Prep and attended a couple of social gatherings at which they were present.

6. I met Brett Kavanaugh at a couple of social gatherings on or around 1987.

7. Brett continued to socialize with Mark and their friends from Georgetown Prep during this time.

8. At the parties that Brett and Mark attended during this period, there was frequent and wide-spread alcohol consumption.

9. In or around 1988, in the context of a conversation we had about how we lost our virginities, Mark told me, in a voice that seemed to convey a degree of shame, about an incident that had occurred a few years prior, where he and several other boys from Georgetown Prep took turns having sex with a woman who was drunk. It was Mark's perception that the sexual activity was consensual.

10. To the best of my recollection, at the time of the conversation, I, and I believe Mark were sober.

11. After this initial conversation Mark and I never discussed this again.

12. Mark did not share with me any names of other individuals involved in this incident, and I do not have any information to suggest, one way or another, that Brett was one of them.

13. Mark and I broke up towards the end of 1988.

14. I last spoke with Mark in or around 2013. We met for lunch at Georgetown University to catch up, and I brought my son.

Tip:	[REDACTED] can stop monitoring me and my computer and devices, as I've done nothing wrong, at least not in their jurisdictions. As for the FBI director, Christopher Wray, why is he doing the investigations on the Brett Kavanaugh for the SCOTUS seat when he himself is a part of the Federalist Society? Hmm? I'd call that something that is corrupt that the FBI should be looking into. No wonder Trump thinks he's got the LE down on their hands and knees! He does! WTFlying Kite! The director should be investigated! https://demwritypress.com/2018/10/01/quid-pro-quo-trump-the-federalist-society-brett-kavanaugh/

Tip:	Hi. It is a little bit backwards, but can Dr. Ford take a lie detector test? It is not as telling as Kavanaugh's lie detector test would be, but with Kavanaugh's refusal to take the test, along with a negative lie detector test from Dr. Ford, the inference would strongly help bring closure to the issue of whether the rape happened. The nation could move on? A simple question to Dr.Ford would suffice. Did Brett Kavanaugh rape you, right? Yes or no. Appointed or we move on. Closure.

Tip:	I would like to report that Director Chris Wray and the men and women of the bureau are in dereliction of their duty to carry out thorough and expansive background investigation of allegations made against Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh. I report this crime against the people of the United States because of the deluge of daily news reports about the FBI turning its back on witnesses connected to the these allegations. I call upon Director Wray and the FBI to follow up with all witnesses who have relevant or corroborative information about the various allegations against Brett Kavanaugh. Please do your jobs. 	I believe that I have the solution of the current Kavanaugh case and I feel compelled to share it with you.
	This also explains the seeming truthfulness of both Mrs. Ford and Mr. Kavanaugh.
	Mrs. Ford,
	Mr. Kavanaugh, and Mr. Mark Judge entered the room most likely somewhat inebriated and Mrs. Ford ended up on the bed.
	It is my judgement that Mr. Mark Judge is who penetrated Mrs. Ford, having his head on Mr. Ford's neck and shoulder while Mr. Kavanaugh was holding in her place and shutting her mouth shut, towering over her head, so she thought she was looking up at Mr. Kavanaugh's eyes and face while actually being violated by Mr.

	If you would take a couple minutes and arrange the scene

Tip:	'The Atlantic': The surprise of Brett Kavanaugh's testimony is that he, too, appears not to care (about lying) . Tiny example: Kavanaugh said, again and again and again, that his high-school beer drinking had been legal, because he was 18, and the drinking age in Maryland was 18 at the time. Except neither of those things is true. He was 17 during the summer in question; he was born in February, 1965, and Christine Blasey Ford is talking about the summer of 1982; and in any case the drinking age in Maryland at the time was 21. These are not complicated or gray-zone facts. (Mild complication: While Kavanaugh was still 16, Maryland's drinking age was 18. Then, soon after he turned 17, the Maryland legislature raised the legal age to 21, as you can read here. But at no point in Kavanaugh's high school career was he of legal drinking age in Maryland.) Any high school student who likes beer knows exactly what the drinking age is. Kavanaugh knew then, and now. He just plain lies about it. And he seems not to care. This lie stands out because his claim is so easy to disprove. So too with boof and ralph (known to have a weak stomach). But Kavanaugh showed the same Trump-like lack of concern in a number of other, more policy-related assertions. Nathan J. Robinson has an extremely detailed analysis of Kavanaugh's response to Christine Blasey Ford's account, here. (Its headline is, 'How We Know Kavanaugh Is Lying.') Soon after Kavanaugh's nomination was announced, and long before the sexual-assault claims, Democratic senators Dick Durbin and Patrick Leahy said that Kavanaugh had misled them (& perilously close to being lied to) about his role in the Bush administration's torture policies, back during his D.C. Circuit confirmation hearings back in 2006.

Lisa Graves, who had been a Judiciary Committee staffer for Leahy, wrote in Slate that newly released emails and documents established that Kavanaugh had lied about his Bush White House role back at the 2006 hearings. The details are complicated, but she concludes:

Newly released emails show that while he was working to move through President George W. Bush's judicial nominees in the early 2000s, Kavanaugh received confidential memos, letters, and talking points of Democratic staffers stolen by GOP Senate aide Manuel Miranda. That includes research and talking points Miranda stole from the Senate server after I had written them for the Senate Judiciary Committee as the chief counsel for nominations for the minority.

Receiving those memos and letters alone is not an impeachable offense.

No, Kavanaugh should be removed because he was repeatedly asked under oath as part of his 2004 and 2006 confirmation hearings for his position on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit about whether he had received such information from Miranda, and each time he falsely denied it.

[H]e lied.

Under oath.

And he did so repeatedly. [REDACTED] The lying is the big concern and then drinking and aggression

[REDACTED] was interviewed and presented the interviewing agent a memo he had prepared regarding the allegations of Kavanaugh's prior conduct. [REDACTED] did not provide any substantive information, simply a personal analysis and possible leads for the FBI to follow based on information already in the public record. Of note, on [REDACTED] self-completed visitor information form he claimed to be an investigator for US Representative Cathy Rodgers (D-WA), but upon questioning clarified he had simply exchanged some communications with her office on the matter. [REDACTED] memo is attached for reference along with a copy of his [REDACTED] Driver License and Visitor Form.

Tip:	URGENT!!! This is an email I received yesterday: Christine Ford Wrote Article on Self-Hypnosis Used to Create Artificial Situations; The left is quick to dismiss and label anything a conspiracy theory; that goes against what they want the liberal masses to believe. However, a lot of the things they call conspiracy theories; are likely to be proven true. Christine Ford published a paper in 2008 that explains how it is possible to self-hypnotize and invent stories (and memories) that the person wants to believe. If Ford proved in the paper that it is commonly done, how can this one be a conspiracy theory? Christine Ford has not turned over her therapist's notes to the Senate regarding her suppressed memories about Judge Kavanaugh abusing her decades earlier. This alone set off red alerts in the minds of the American people. If there is nothing to hide, then why refuse to turn over the reports? What could those reports reveal about Ford's story? This may be because if the memories were revealed through hypnosis they would be absolutely inadmissible; in a court of law in many states, including New York and Maryland. If she was able to hypnotize herself, she could have easily planted false memories of Brett Kavanaugh attempting to rape her. Additionally, this would come in handy when she quickly volunteered to take a polygraph. Why was she so eager to take the polygraph? No one prompted her to do so.

People have said that this is why polygraphs aren't used as evidence in a court of law. If the person being tested believes the situation happened, then in their mind it isn't a lie. If they believe they were assaulted by someone, then to them it isn't a lie. People have been known to ace a polygraph test this way.

Please LOOK INTO THIS NOW!!! THIS COULD REALLY CHANGE THE OPINION OF THE LEFT SIDE SUPPORTERS!!!

Sincerely,

[Redacted Signature]

This is in regards to the expanded FBI background check of Judge Brett M. Kavanaugh.

During his testimony last Thursday, under oath, in front of the Senate Judiciary Committee Mr. Kavanaugh committed proveable perjury.

This has nothing to do with “boofing” or “devil’s triangle”, though I’m sure he’s lying about that, too. However, to prove that you would third party verification and testimony refuting his claims. So, it’s almost useless.

He did, however, commit perjury while testifying when he was being questioned by Rachel Mitchell. She had asked about his drinking in high school, and he went on a rant about beer and how much he liked it, end with this statement (from the transcript of his testimony): “The drinking age, as I noted, was 18, so the seniors were legal, senior year in high school, people were legal to drink”

This is untrue. The legal drinking age in Maryland was raised to 21, on July 1 1982 (which I know is ironic because it’s also the date that has come under scrutiny from his calendar).

Now, it is possible that at 17, a mere six months from his 18th birthday, the heavy drinking Brett Kavanaugh was unaware of the change in the law in Maryland. It’s possible, but probable. And, what’s more, it doesn’t matter if the 17/18 year old Brett knew the drinking age.

What matters is that in 2018, he testified (under oath) that it was 18 at the time, during his senior year which would have been from September of 1982 to May or June of 1983. The drinking age in Maryland during that time was 21.

He lied, what makes it perjury is that it was a material lie, he was doing it to bolster the choir boy image he was trying to paint of himself.

During the [redacted] I was eyewitness to a shocking ceremony taking place inside the DKE fraternity house that involved a semi-circle of cheering frat brothers watching what was presumably a local prostitute perform a sex act. I have three additional eyewitnesses and two additional non-witnesses to whom I had related the event back in the late 80s. I do not know whether Judge Kavanaugh was present at the frat house during the event, but he was still in New Haven during the time period, attending Yale Law School. The event was taking place on the ground floor of the frat's newly-purchased off-campus house. I also know the name of the one of the party's attendees, a DKE fraternity member.		b6 -3 b7C -3
I first contacted the New York office of the FBI on Saturday, September 29th and was transferred to a national call center where, after waiting on hold for 15 minutes, I onboarded my name, my recollection, the identity of the one frat member seen at the event, my investigative advice, my witnesses' names, and the names of those with whom I shared the information back in the late 80s to what seemed like a low-level input agent. I subsequently called the FBI's New Haven field office on Sunday, September 30th where I was told that there was no need to resubmit my claim if I'd already spoken to the National Call Center. I asked to speak to an agent, but was told that agents weren't in the office since it was a weekend. I followed up again with the FBI's New Haven field office on Monday, October 1st where I was transferred to the National Call Center. After waiting another 15 minutes on hold, the telephone agent acknowledged that my initial claim had been entered into the system and that it had been "submitted out accordingly." I asked if I could be sent an email acknowledging my initial September 29th outreach and was told "no." The telephone agent said that if I had additional information to add to my initial report that I could wait 30 minutes on hold to speak to someone else. I asked if I could provide my phone number so that I could be called back when an agent was available, and was told "no."

Around that same time, [redacted] and a third unnamed roommate who lived in the suite where Brett allegedly committed the assault began discussing what they had witnessed. After weeks of consideration, they gave their accounts to the New Yorker on Thursday, September 13. The next day, Friday, I began receiving texts asking for information about Ramirez.

Many of my acquaintances know that [redacted]

[redacted] by Monday, September 17, I had learned the details of the alleged assault. On Thursday, September 20, I called [redacted] and we talked about New Yorker reporter Ronan Farrow contacting him and another classmate and close friend. On this call, [redacted] shared the surprising news that Brett had called him. He said that Brett was giving him a heads up that press would likely make contact and wanted to make sure [redacted] would share “no bad.” It seemed [redacted] understood this to mean he was not to speak ill of Brett’s history. [redacted] told me that when the New Yorker’s [redacted] asked him about the assault details he said “I definitely don’t remember that.”

Tip:	Part 2/3
By the next day, September 21, the New York Times had called [REDACTED] and confronted him with the information about Brett's call. I immediately received an angry text from [REDACTED] accusing me of telling the Times information he said he had shared in confidence with me and just two other friends. >From the content and all-capital-letters of the text, [REDACTED] seemed to feel that there was a great deal at stake for Brett if Brett's fears of exposure ever became public. Together [REDACTED] and I have provided evidence of a multi-month effort by Brett and his supporters to influence potential witnesses of the alleged assault on Deborah. This effort began two months before the press had any information about the alleged assault and appears to have increasingly involved Brett himself while the press was contacting his friends in the days before the New Yorker story broke on Sunday, September 23. We have also provided evidence that Brett lied under oath. At the September 25, Senate Judiciary Committee staff interview he claimed no particular recollection of Deborah at the 1997 wedding when they had both been in the wedding party, the wedding ceremony, as well as in the wedding photograph that he had just recently seen. Similarly, at the September 27 Senate Judiciary Committee hearing Brett claimed he had first learned of the alleged assault on September 23, upon publication of the New Yorker piece. Even with the assumption that Brett misspoke and meant that he heard about it through contacts with the New Yorker, he still would have lied, since he knew of the alleged assault in July 2018, if not on the night he committed it in 1983. The only other explanation for these untruths is repeated memory failure: failure regarding events in 1983, 1997, July 2018, and September 2018.

Tip:	I am very concerned that the FBI is not doing - or is not being allowed to do - an adequate background check investigation regarding Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh. Christine Blasey Ford has not even been interviewed. Dozens of potential witnesses who are eager to provide information to the FBI have not been contacted. This is unacceptable and does not meet the FBI's normal standards. The US Senate and the American people deserve to know the full truth about this nominee to the highest court in the land. A minimal background check investigation will only serve to sow further distrust and doubt about the legitimacy of this candidate. A thorough background check investigation is essential. Thank you.

Tip:	To Whom It May Concern: I watched Judge Brett Kavanaugh on National television to all appearances lie under oath during his Senate Confirmation Hearing. Kavanaugh to all appearances lied about his yearbook, his drinking, his connections to Yale, and, according to [REDACTED] receiving stolen documents. A few of Mr. Kavanaugh's classmates have come forward and publicly stated Mr. Kavanaugh is lying about his drinking. As for Mr. Kavanaugh being a legacy student, I would imagine this could be cleared up rather quickly by checking to see if Kavanaugh's grandfather did indeed attend Yale University. The question of stolen documents raised by the hearing and confirmed by [REDACTED] should be investigated. As for the yearbook, it seems to me Mr. Kavanaugh's peers would know the intended meaning.

Tip:	This is not a crime tip, but I can't get through on the public access line. Just encouraging your agents to interview all witnesses provided who might have been in the room when Debbie Ramirez was allegedly harassed by Brett Kavanaugh. Also, other Yale classmates who experienced Kavanaugh's drinking habits. I'm reading that lots of witnesses who may have corroborating info about untruths Kavanaugh may have told during his confirmation hearing are not being contacted. Thank you for doing the most thorough investigation possible, as becoming a Supreme Court Justice is so important!! Sincerely,

Tip:	2 Saturdays ago, on Judge Jeanine Pirro's show, she mentioned Brett Kavanaugh's [redacted] over Ford's [redacted]. During Ford's testimony, she mentioned being claustrophobic, needing a second front door of her home. Also, she and her husband provided rooms for GOOGLE INTERNS!!! The same Google that hates POTUS. Then being a psychologist, with the letter from the ex-boyfriend, the info he provided, all these should be be looked into as well. I also thought from Ford's testimony, she was in the perfect profession to be able to alter her answers, which seems to be what the ex said in his letter. As a [redacted] these things jumped out at me.

Below is a letter written by Mr. Charles Ludington as reported by the N.Y. Times. Mr. Ludington can be contacted by the FBI via [REDACTED] [REDACTED] (protect) and a request received October 1, 2018 via the Charlotte Division, Raleigh Resident Agency "I have been contacted by numerous reporters about Brett Kavanaugh and have not wanted to say anything because I had nothing to contribute about what kind of justice he would be. I knew Brett at Yale because I was a classmate and a varsity basketball player and Brett enjoyed socializing with athletes. Indeed, athletes formed the core of Brett's social circle. In recent days I have become deeply troubled by what has been a blatant mischaracterization by Brett himself of his drinking at Yale. When I watched Brett and his wife being interviewed on Fox News on Monday, and when I watched Brett deliver his testimony under oath to the Senate Judiciary Committee on Thursday, I cringed. For the fact is, at Yale, and I can speak to no other times, Brett was a frequent drinker, and a heavy drinker. I know, because, especially in our first two years of college, I often drank with him. On many occasions I heard Brett slur his words and saw him staggering from alcohol consumption, not all of which was beer. When Brett got drunk, he was often belligerent and aggressive. On one of the last occasions I purposely socialized with Brett, I witnessed him respond to a semi-hostile remark, not by defusing the situation, but by throwing his beer in the man's face and starting a fight that ended with one of our mutual friends in jail. I do not believe that the heavy drinking or even loutish behavior of an 18- or even 21-year-old should condemn a person for the rest of his life. I would be a hypocrite to think so. However, I have direct and repeated knowledge about his drinking and his disposition while drunk. And I do believe that Brett's actions as a 53-year-old federal judge matter. If he lied about his past actions on national television, and more especially while speaking under oath in front of the United States Senate, I believe those lies should have consequences. It is truth that is at stake, and I believe that the ability to speak the truth, even when it does not reflect well upon oneself, is a paramount quality we seek in our nation's most powerful judges.

I can unequivocally say that in denying the possibility that he ever blacked out from drinking, and in downplaying the degree and frequency of his drinking, Brett has not told the truth.

I felt it was my civic duty to tell of my experience while drinking with Brett, and I offer this statement to the press. I have no desire to speak further publicly, and nothing more to say to the press at this time. I will, however, take my information to the F.B.I."

Tip:	Brett Kavanaugh while at Yale was a member of the "secret societies." These are drinking clubs with social connections to help careers forward. The student at Yale is "tapped" in October, and interviewed for the club. Then each man discusses his life for 1 -3 hours (divorce, stress, sexual adventures, etc). There are financial records and member records for each society. Legal fees and costs incurred at the society are available. Please consider following these leads for the years when Brett Kavanaugh was at Yale. [redacted] completed degrees at Yale, which is a fine institution. However, the secret societies are independent of the Yale administration and many scandals have involved the secret societies. Evaluation of the sophomore-senior years of Brett Kavanaugh while at Yale may illuminate further background pertinent to his credibility and truthfulness about his past.

ATTN: Special Counsel Robert Mueller

Vladimir Putin ascended to the leadership of the FSS in mid-1998. That same year, Brett Kavanaugh left being a partner at the world's highest-grossing law firm to go back down to his previous job as an Associate Counsel under Kenneth Starr.

13 years later in 2011, Kavanaugh slips into a court decision a "gutting" of a provision that, in 2016, Putin uses to great effect in sabotaging our election.

Reference: <https://www.motherjones.com/politics/2018/09/how-brett-kavanaugh-made-russian-election-interference-easier-and-robert-muellers-job-harder/>

Now,
in 2018, Kavanaugh is being rewarded with a promotion to the Supreme Court -- that smells of collusion.

But Trump's goal was to be elected --- could Putin's goal be for Kavanaugh to subvert our Supreme Court?

And,
if both the Presidency and the Supreme Court are subverted, who will subvert the Senate?

If you can identify who might be in line to take over from the ancient McConnell and subvert our Senate, you have a plot that is a National Security danger.

I recommend that you ask to interview Brett Kavanaugh.

ATTN: Special Counsel Robert Mueller -- EXPANDED

Vladimir Putin ascended to the leadership of the FSS in mid-1998. That same year, Brett Kavanaugh left being a partner at the world's highest-grossing law firm to go back down to his previous job as an Associate Counsel under Kenneth Starr.

13
years later in 2011, Kavanaugh slips into a court decision a "gutting" of a provision that, in 2016, Putin uses to great effect in sabotaging our election.

Reference: <https://www.motherjones.com/politics/2018/09/how-brett-kavanaugh-made-russian-election-interference-easier-and-robert-muellers-job-harder/>

Now, in 2018, Kavanaugh is being rewarded with a promotion to the Supreme Court -- that smells of collusion.

But Trump's goal was to be elected
--- could Putin's goal be for Kavanaugh to subvert our Supreme Court?

And,
if both the Presidency and the Supreme Court are subverted, who will subvert the Senate?

If you can identify who might be in line to take over from the ancient McConnell and subvert our Senate, you have a plot that is a National Security danger.

Of the Senate leadership candidates suggested by one website, the only one I see as a possible Putin target is Senator John Barrasso of Wyoming, who lost a primary battle in 1996 and was appointed to the Senate in 2007. He's a Catholic (like Kavanaugh; is this important to Putin?) whose background is as a surgeon -- not politics.

I recommend that you ask to interview both Brett Kavanaugh and John Barrasso.

Tip:	PLEASE ADD TO MY FILES / RECORDS: White House 'fully confident' of Kavanaugh's confirmation after seeing FBI investigation Huffpost Willa Frej Oct 4th 2018 5:24AM The White House received the results of the FBI investigation into Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh and sent the information to the Senate early Thursday morning, saying it is fully confident that Kavanaugh will be confirmed. Republicans generally have made up their minds on Kavanaugh, barring some massive development in an FBI report focusing on the allegations of a sexual assault 36 years ago. The FBI is unlikely to turn up many conclusive findings, and Republicans don't seem all that receptive to arguments that the nominee has committed perjury or displayed a lack of judicial temperament in his fiery and partisan testimony. Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh and sent the information to the Senate early Thursday morning, saying it is fully confident that Kavanaugh will be confirmed. The information is the last addition to the most comprehensive review of a Supreme Court nominee in history, which includes extensive hearings, multiple committee interviews, over 1,200 questions for the record and over a half million pages of documents; White House deputy press secretary Raj Shah said on Twitter.

“With this additional information, the White House is fully confident the Senate will vote to confirm Judge Kavanaugh to the Supreme Court.”

Should he not be convicted of purgury, obstruction of justice, lying to investigators, and rape.
Should he not be going to prison. I have not been following it recently, but I think I heard enough.

The Alien Gods are playing with everybody's mind and caused the rape unless there are statue of limitations, though Brett Kavanaugh is guilty too. The Alien Gods are playing with the FBI's minds in this investigation and your actions you should know.

Tip:	How does the FBI explain doing an investigation of the alleged sexual misconduct of SCOTUS nominee Brett Kavaniagh when the accused or the accusers were not investigated?? How is that a complete and through investigation? Your reorientation is being RUINED by being partisan to the so called President and NOT doing a legitimate investigation into Kavanauhh's accusers! What a joke the FBI is under the Trump administration! To think that I was thought the FBI was a first class agency above political demands — this year has proved me wrong!!!

Tip:	Your phone line states there is a report for complaints and yet when you got to it there is no direction for that. I'm writing on now because I feel it is a crime what is going on with the present limited investigation on Brett Kavanaugh. Limited being the key word here as there appears to be no need by the FBI or the White House to properly investigate this matter. I thought what is the need to look into a person life from decades ago as we all change. However, there becomes a problem when the individual is out right lying to the public and he is to be responsible for decisions made by our Supreme Court of our country. This is a slap inn the face of not only the woman of our country, but the entire country knowing a man make decisions on our justice is far from the person with integrity that we want in that position. The FBI needs to investigate a situation in more depth that could once again cause more division within our country rather than pass this off as just a minor incident.

Tip:	i am a witness to repeated perjury before the Senate Judiciary Committee by one Brett Kavanaugh. Six of his classmates at Yale University have stated under oath he lied about drinking and/or abusive behavior. Ms. Swetnick has published a sworn affidavit alleging rape and felonious drugging of coeds with Quaaludes. A percipient witness to this behavior has signed a sworn affidavit in support thereof. Yet for some unknown reason the FBI refuses to talk to witnesses to Kavanaugh's repeated and continuing perjurious testimony. Please for the love of God do your jobs and prevent this miscarriage of justice.

Dear FBI,

I just found something and I want you guys to read it. It talks about a judge in Rev 19 that is the "whitehorse". This is NOT Jesus its another man. I believe its Brett Kavanaugh.

Read the scripture very carefully.

Rev 19:11

Christ on a White Horse

11 Now I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness He judges and makes war. 12 His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He [e]had a name written that no one knew except Himself. 13 He was clothed with a robe dipped in blood, and His name is called The Word of God. 14 And the armies in heaven, clothed in [f]fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses. 15 Now out of His mouth goes a [g]sharp sword, that with it He should strike the nations. And He Himself will rule them with a rod of iron. He Himself treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. 16 And He has on His robe and on His thigh a name written:

KING OF KINGS AND
LORD OF LORDS.

I think he knows about Donald Trump and the captives and much more as it states in the scripture. So now we have found the man known as [redacted] Go get you guys and take them down. I hope it does not take too long. Take care

God Bless You.

Tip:	I was assigned a case in which [redacted] emailed the MCP Chief of Police with allegations about Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh. I spoke with [redacted] She checked with [redacted] who advised I should submit this through the tip line. The following are emails from [redacted] the first to the Chief and then the second is a reply to an email I sent to him: I would like to file a complaint against Brett Kavanaugh as an accomplice to armed robbery, attempted murder, drug trafficking, torturing a victim, preschool teacher, doctor, and whistleblower. He is one of the worst human rights abusers in history. He refuses to tell the truth or obey the law and filing Judicial Misconduct and Disability in the DC Circuit is useless because [redacted] and his juvenile delinquent friends cover it up. Thank you, [redacted] Response to my email asking him for a contact phone number: [redacted] You can reach me at [redacted] You were also forwarded 2 other emails with several thousand pages of supporting documentation. Please give it to a detective. I am tired of babysitting Brett Kavanaugh and the rest of his misbehaving friends in the DC Circuit Court of Appeals. You have my permission to criminally prosecute them for trafficking heroin and a list of felonies a mile long which are detailed in the documents

Tip:	Brett Kavanaugh is most likely a criminal....a rapist. This behavior requires investigation and you are shirking your responsibility. I guess you want to cover up his crimes for Traitor Trump??? Can we conclude that you will also dutifully cover up Traitor Trump and the rest of the GOP goon squad's crimes related to money laundering, collusion with a foreign government to overthrow our election, tax evasion, election finance crimes, etc. Will you also cover for him if he shoots that guy on the street in Manhattan? Never thought you guys would be so very weak and so willing to betray our democracy. Thanks a lot.

Tip:	I noticed that Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh perjured himself several times when testifying before the Senate Judiciary Committee. There is evidence that he stole documents, and that Senate Republicans helped him cover up that crime. A witness testified that he attempted to rape her, and I don't believe you even tried to interview her corroborating witnesses. Does reporting a crime or offering evidence to you ever make a difference, or do you just bow to Republican pressure? (See release of 320 forms for Hillary Clinton testimony on email servers). I believe several million other witnesses can corroborate the crimes I witnessed.

Tip:	I saw a man (Brett Kavanaugh) life under oath to the US Senate. It is easy to find facts which call in to question many of his statements. As he is already a federal judge and may be a Supreme Court justice, I feel the FBI must investigate.

Tip:	Since his inauguration Donald Trump has maintained a fusillade of insults against the Attorney General, the Department of Justice, and the FBI. He has openly accused those agencies and individuals of harboring a "deep state" intended to bring down his presidency and of utter incompetence. Now then, the FBI was called upon to conduct a "thorough and comprehensive investigation" of credible allegations of sexual assault against Brett Kavanaugh and to determine if he lied under oath to the Senate Judiciary Committee. The investigation conducted was neither thorough nor comprehensive and was every bit as much of a charade as was the Judiciary Committee hearing!! Considering the extent to which Trump has deliberately tarnished the reputation of the Bureau, I find it incomprehensible that the Bureau would have not undertaken interrogations of Dr. Ford, Julie Swetnick, Kavanaugh's classmates at Yale, PJ Smyth and others who allegedly attended the party on 1982 or anyone known to the Bureau but not known to me who might have provided pertinent information enabling a comprehensive investigation! Not only did you forego an opportunity to advance the cause of Justice but you allowed for a huge smoke screen to be created to actually facilitate the obstruction of justice being attempted by the White House and the Senate Republicans. Your woefully inept performance casts an enormous cloud over the FBI and all of the Department of Justice and serves as evidence that you are just political hacks like those in the Executive and Legislative branches. We should expect more from law enforcement than a pusillanimous cover up in these matters.

Tip:	I called the D C office and held until I got through to an agent today. She was just confirming my personal info and I had just started to give her the info I wanted to pass along when the phone went back to the recorded message. The info I wanted to pass along was about Dr. Christine Ford and that she may have given false information about herself when she first started to testify during the Senate hearings last week. I wanted to email this to the FBI because it is info that was forwarded to me by email. She said in her opening statement that her occupation is a psychologist. She has a degree as an educational psychologist but is apparently not licensed as a psychologist in California which requires much more training. She can teach but not treat without this license. Someone at Stanford realised this and changed the heading on her listing from psychologist to affiliate. If I could have an email address I would like to forward this email to you to see if it is of any importance. I tried to contact Sen. Grassley's office by fax to see if I could get it to him but can only guess how many people are trying to contact him and didn't expect a response. I did not try to contact media because I knew it would not get to where it needed to go. I am not any kind of activist. I would be forwarding this regardless of who it might benefit. If I get the opportunity to forward this to you I have a couple of other emails I will forward to you that are kind of revealing. I did not dig this up. I wouldn't even know where to start. It was sent to me by friends, one of whom retired as Deputy Police Chief of a large West coast city. Thanks,
