Increasingly it seems that Ford is suffering from poor recognition of people and events as would be common if she were treated for PTSD with tranquilizers and psychotropic medications like Seroquel. Some people also have scrambled recollections after only a few episodes of over drinking. The type of confused recollections that are common are seen in the James Blunt video in which he goes for ect treatment and sees his ex-lover walking straight up a tall building. She also goes for treatments in the video, not greeting him in the lobby because she temporarily does not recall him, perhaps. A lot of highly competent people have at times had extreme memory disorders, even like those seen in the music video, and no one knows because sufferers stay in the moment and accept that some things are better not recalled, for whatever exact reason. Ford may not understand how much care she may have had and how in the moment she must remain in order to stay decent. Unlike some who only have a few things they shoukdn't discuss, Ford may need to ho no further back than last week. But this is not for me to determine. Exactly, however, very few journalists have been able to assemble questions of a decent sort about her daily functioning. There seems some evidence that she is not fully recovered and is being abused. Right now no one can say, at this juncture in the public dialogue.

[redacted] So this is not in any way a direct account of his behavior. I just want to make sure that the FBI is aware the at Yale College, at least back in the 1980s, the members of DKE (the fraternity to which Kavanaugh belonged) often partied not only with their Yale classmates but with the students from Albertus Magnus, a local all-female college. The women from Albertus Magnus would come to DKE and to the Yale campus for parties, particularly for parties dominated by the football team and parties thrown by DKE.
These women were very likely part of Kavanaugh's partying social circle, possibly even more so than women who attended Yale. I do not suggest anything was amiss. I am conveying this simply to make sure that if the FBI is assessing accounts of Kavanaugh's interactions with women while an undergraduate -- particularly interactions at parties

Quaaludes and another RAPE drug were used by many while Kavanaugh was in high school and college. Did Kavanaugh or his friend Mark Judge, or his fraternity buy these drugs for their parties? Did they use charge cards? What about drugs like cocaine ... Kavananugh had the cocaine sniffles. Look at their credit card records from 1980s onward too.

president and the judge. ford's presentation is highly suspicious and it is politically motivated. caller is surprised that people are not

I want the FBI to ask Mrs Ford under oath if she read Mark Judge's book. Did she get the details of her story from it? Or did someone else and feed details to her for smearing Kavanaugh? The fact Mark Judge worked at Safeway is in the book along with other useful details. I had the feeling Mrs Ford was hiding something with her hair falling in front of her face like she was lying about something. Later after she had relayed the sordid details she was flipping her hair away from her face. She was finished with her lies and no need to hide behind her hair.

assault. What will the FBI investigation into Kavanaugh actually do? President Trump has ordered an FBI investigation into sexual misconduct allegations against Brett Kavanaugh, his nominee for the Supreme Court. In short, yes. The FBI has completed a traditional background check on Judge Kavanaugh, who is currently an appeal court judge. In his confirmation hearing, the judge himself referred to "six separate FBI background investigations over 26 years". / Gwyneth Paltrow through the years assault from 30 years ago. "just to make it easy, since you aren't prosecuting him..." it's was still going on in his 30's and it's still going on now. she knows people who haven't had a drop of alcohol and they're wonderful take an expert in severely addictive behavior and compare different clips from previous hearings and Thursday hearing, the experts will concur with caller. refuses to take responsibility for own actions, etc. he hasn't come to the point where he realizes this is an issues. he keeps making excuses, which is completely expected. he lied and said he got into yale on his own merit but his grandfather was a alumni. he wriggles his nose when he lies like the witch in bewitched. we don't need people like this on scotus. will take years to get him out of the denial phase.

caller now talking about baseball tickets and how kavanaugh spent 200k on baseball tickets. has severely addictive personality.

when he said "this is revenge by the Clintons" she said "oh my god he's drunk."

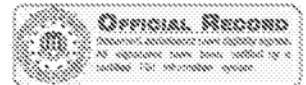

for our democracy, it's critical to try and keep it as much on the up and up as we possibly can.

if we discretely talk to his wife, she will probably eventually admit he is an alcoholic.

This message does not relate to terrorism or criminal activity. It relates to the Kavanaugh investigation. Here are some questions to ask Dr. Ford: (1) Why did you leave the house where the attempted rape occurred without warning your friend Leland to leave too? Why did you let her remain there with four boys, two of whom were potential rapists? (2) Why were you wearing a one-piece bathing suit under your clothes? Did you believe that the house had a pool and that it would be a swim party? Did you intend to go to a swim club that day, but were then invited to a party? Could the events have taken place during the day on a weekday, instead of at night on a weekend, because you had intended to go swimming at a swim club that day? Were you dropped off at a swim club by parents or friends before going to the party? Did you return to the swim club after leaving the party for a pre-arranged ride home with parents or friends? (3) Have you remembered

I have a question. why can't Dr. Ford's yearbook be brought into question as Judge Kavanaugh's has. This 2nd investigation should open the door for that. particularly the articles about "black outs" younger men etc. if new people can be questioned, her yearbook friends should be questioned also as to her "possible" blackouts which might account for all the memory lapses. the ball is in your court.

to some roster record of his attendance, photos, or moreover, some university would have had him on their recruit list if he was at 5 star. Thinking of the kids we had at our camp, I find the idea that he attended that camp almost preposterous given he could not even make the team at Yale. Somebody needs to call 5 star to see if he was even there during those 8 days [redacted]

I write to offer a suggestion on the upcoming investigation of Judge Kavanaugh. [redacted][redacted] So I inherently respect the professionalism of the Bureau. However, I am concerned that the narrative of this investigation has strayed off target. Based on my experience as [redacted]b6 b7C[redacted] I suspect the claimant is motivated by False Memory Syndrome. And I believe the Bureau should seek evidence to validate or deny this possibility to help clarify the current debate. [redacted][redacted] False Memory Syndrome is widely recognized in the mental health field. In this syndrome, external forces, e.g. therapist, close friend, political forces, suggest to a vulnerable individual that a traumatic event, e.g. sexual trauma, actually took place, and that these false memories explain prior suffering unrelated to the alleged assailant. False Memory Syndrome is described on the websites of the British False Memory Society and the False Memory Syndrome Foundation: <http://bfms.org.uk/> and <http://fmsfonline.org> Both the British and American groups argue that the veracity of a claim cannot be discerned just by listening to the testimony of a claimant. The claimant may have suffered an alleged trauma, albeit in another circumstance or only virtually. In my experience [redacted] I found this phenomenon not uncommon. Both societies conclude that the only way to distinguish between true and false memory is by corroboration based on external facts. Emotional and emphatic testimony of a claimant by itself is insufficient to ensure the- validity of a claim. Nor does refuting the claim imply that the claimant is lying. Indeed, the claimant emphatically believes in the veracity of his/her false memory. Currently, public and senate opinion is polarized- either the claimant is correct, and Judge Kavanaugh is a sex predator, or she is lying. Neither position sits right after listening to both testimonies. The third and more likely option is that the claimant was emotionally scarred at some point in her life, and then organized these powerful, negative feelings around a false memory involving Judge Kavanaugh, and/or what the Judge represents. I urge the FBI to include in their investigation a search for evidence of False Memory Syndrome- did the claimant discuss the event with a therapist? If so, when? Did she ever communicate with politically active groups which encouraged her to frame her suffering in the context of MeToo# and target the judge? Such information would needed shed light on the current debate. And ultimately help the claimant move on with her life as well.

The FBI is currently investigating credible allegations of sexual assault made by Christine Blasey Ford, Susan Ramirez, and Julie Swetnick against Brett Kavanaugh. I have therefore included a link to a 2.4.1990 article published by the Washington Post outlining the contents of a letter from seven school headmasters to parents warning them that students are regularly throwing large, unsupervised parties where "excessive drinking and sexual license are common." The article and associated letter provide essential contemporaneous context for anyone investigating the sexual assault allegations made during Judge Kavanaugh's confirmation hearings. Please share the following link with your investigative teams throughout the country so they can assess the culture at Judge Kavanaugh's and Dr. Ford's high schools: <https://www.washingtonpost.com/archive/local/1990/02/04/area->

This isn't political...but very concerned that the just-launched investigation in the Kavanaugh matter needs to be beyond just the allegations of sexual misconduct. For the integrity of the SCOTUS hopefully the investigation will also review Judge Kavanaugh's seeming tendency to lie under oath about his drinking. To that end...surely the FBI already knows about those who have spoken out about his drinking in high school and college that he denies under oath...but just in case...here is one such link to explore the person identified as having spoken to his heavy drinking <https://www.cnn.com/videos/politics/2018/09/29/liz-swisher-yale-classmate-sloppy-drunk-bts-cuomo-vpx.cnn>

I just sent the following message to (Pres.) Donald Trump: "I just want you to know that I believe you to be a buffoon. A buffoon defined by the Merriam-Webster dictionary is as follows: "1 : a ludicrous figure : clown. 2 : a gross and usually ill-educated or stupid person acting like a ridiculous buffoon." I, also, want you to know what I said to the FBI yesterday via its online tip form. I said: "I find it very hard to believe that more isn't being made about the fact that our current sitting President -- the highest office in our country -- has recommended somebody for the Supreme Court who is accused of committing sexual assault, something that our President told a reporter ON TAPE that he can get away with doing because he is a rich man. That is just sick." That is exactly what you did. No, you didn't call it a sexual assault, but I don't believe that there would be many people on a jury who wouldn't agree with the fact that grabbing a woman in the crotch area -- did you call it pussy? -- totally out of the blue, is a sexual assault. You need to stop firing people who tell you the truth. You are the laughing stock of the entire world. All you do is tell everyone what a great job you are doing, but people hate you. You are a buffoon, plain and simple. You think you can get away with sexually assaulting women just because you are rich. You are trying to get some man on the highest court of the land -- our land, MY LAND -- who is of the same ilk as you, and who has, quite obviously, treated women with the utmost disrespect. You continue to support him, even after hearing the testimony against him from a very reliable source. Do you now want to discuss the good old boy network? I wonder what favor you owe him, or if you ever attended one of his parties. I hope you will note that I am using the word "buffoon" because it is more polite than "idiot." Don't you have a daughter? How would you feel if a man had done to her what Kavanaugh did to Dr. Ford? Or, better yet, wasn't believed? You are a sick man." Why don't you ask him how he knows Kavanaugh, or if he ever attended one of his parties, or why he wants him on the Supreme Court. If Kavanaugh gets put on the highest court in the land, women are going to protest, probably all over the world. Myself included.

I believe that Brett Kavanaugh committed the Federal crime of perjury in 2004, 2006 and 2018. The 2004 and 2006 occurrences occurred during his confirmation hearing to the Federal Court. The 2018 occurrence pertains to lying at his confirmation hearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee pertaining to his alcohol consumption in High School and Yale. I also believe that Judge Kavanaugh has a gambling addiction and his debt of between 60,000.00 to 200,000.00 was paid off by political supporters so expedite his confirmation to the US Supreme Court. I also believe that Brett Kavanaugh lied under oath pertaining to this debt ie. from baseball tickets when this debt was due to a gambling addition. Not only has Kavanaugh committed perjury, but he also might be compromised over the payment of his debt (public corruption).

I apologize for using this channel, but I don't know where else to say this. Since you are doing your repeat background check on the Supreme Court nominee, I wanted you to be aware of this article: https://www.huffingtonpost.com/entry/christine-blasey-ford-witness-kavanaugh_us_5ba299bae4b069d5f9cf7f2b It describes someone whom it would seem worth interviewing, since she seems to have memory of the issue being discussed at Dr. Blasey Ford's school shortly after the alleged incident. While she appears to say she has no "first hand knowledge" of the actual event, she DOES have first hand knowledge of the DISCUSSIONS. Therefore, please pass this along to whomever might need to see it. Thank you.

RE: Judge Kavanaugh background investigation: Find the home where the alleged assault on Dr. Ford occurred and you'll be one step closer to the truth. Profile the home as you would a criminal. Interview Dr. Ford with an architect present. Dr. Ford won't remember much but everything she does remember will eliminate suspect homes. Narrow your search by asking her about the neighborhood and nearby landmarks such as shopping centers, schools and etc. Ask her to imagine being in the street in front of the home.

1. What style of home was it (Tudor, Cape Cod, Colonial etc)?
2. Was the exterior material wood, brick, a combination and etc?
3. If the home was on a slope, what direction was the slope (left to right, front to back etc.)? Among other things, this will tell you which side of the street the home was on.
4. Was it on a corner?

5. Did it have a circular driveway?
6. If it had a driveway, was it on the right or the left?
7. Did it have a garage? If so; a. Was it attached or detached? b. How many garage doors?
c. How wide were the garage doors (8' or more like 16')
d. Did the garage doors face the front or side? Ask her about the front door(s)
1. Was it on the left, center or right side of the home? 2. Single door or two? 3. Was it flush with the front of the home or was it inset?
4. Did it have a covered porch? If so, describe it. Ask her about the backyard.
1. Did it have a pool? If so; a. Was it rectangular or some other shape?
b. Lengthwise, did it run left to right or front to back? c. Where was the diving board (left or right, near end or far end)? 2. Were there outbuildings? About the interior of the home. She indicated that there was an upstairs. You can eliminate one story homes;
1. As you enter the home, did you enter into a hallway or a living room? 2. What rooms, if any, were to your right and left? 3. If you entered into a hallway, what room did the hallway lead to? 4. Where were the stairs? 5. Did the living room have windows on more than one wall? 6. Do you remember any fireplaces?
7. What rooms had windows looking out onto the front yard? 8. What rooms had windows looking onto the back yard? 9. Walk through the house describing where various rooms were.
10. Was there a railing at the top of the stairs that overlooked the first floor or did it simply lead to a hallway? 11. Did you turn or go straight at the top of the stairs? 12. If the hallway turned at the top of the stairs, was it to the left or right?
13. Was the bedroom you were pushed into on the front or back side of the home? 14. Was the bathroom you locked yourself into on the front or back side of the home? An architect can come up with more questions than I have here and develop an excellent "mug shot" of the home. Driveways, garages, swimming pools and outbuildings can be seen on satellite images and can be used to eliminate suspect homes. You may be able to limit your search to a relatively small area depending on the information that Dr. Ford gives you.

Dear Sir/Miss, Per Judge Kavanaugh investigation. Just in case you missed it, or have not checked yet, Dr. Ford misled the Senate during her Senate Hearing testimony. She testified that Judge Kavanaugh had been drinking before he arrived at the get together. However, later, during the hearing, she testified that she did not know who arrived first at the get together, she or Judge Kavanaugh. So how could she possibly know if Judge Kavanaugh had been drinking before the get together when she has no idea when Judge Kavanaugh had arrived at the get together?? She could not have. Please double check the Senate Hearing video just to make sure I did not make a mistake, but I am sure I am correct. Thanks for your time and efforts.

October 1, 2018 Federal Bureau of Investigation 450 Golden Gate Ave
San Francisco, CA 94402 Re: FBI Investigation into Dr. Blasey Ford's accusation of Judge Brett Kavanaugh Good afternoon, I am writing to provide you additional information regarding the veracity of Dr.
Christine Blasey Ford's nationally-televised testimony in the Kavanaugh accusation. Specifically, I can validate the discord she mentioned about having a second "front door" to installed into her house during the remodel. [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] I recall that the secondary "front door" was something that Christine wanted and Russell was resigned to live with. [redacted]

[redacted] I also recall that a secondary way out from the master bedroom was very important to her. She loved having that exit to the outdoors directly from her bedroom. In addition, I recall her being very proud of putting in a secondary access/exit point in her kids' room also. After viewing her testimony and knowing Christine [redacted] it makes sense to me that this aspect of her home's remodel is directly related to the trauma she experienced from her accused. During the years I've known her, I've seen Christine's good character, high integrity, and sincerity as a mom, wife, and academic. I've witnessed her quiet thoughtfulness, clarity, and measuredness in decision-making from working with her. In my opinion, this is not a person who would make up an accusation or be mistaken about facts she knows are true. I would be happy to answer any further questions or cooperate with an Affidavit, Statement of Support, or other documentation for your investigation, as needed. Sincerely, [redacted]

I was disappointed that questioners at the Kavanaugh hearing did not ask these questions of Ms. Blasey-Ford; especially since I feel I know and understand the 'normal' practice/standard of that time. Did she walk or drive to the party in question? Was she accompanied by any other person/friend, either walking or driving? If accompanied; did her friends call her the next day (if so, who and what was the explanation) to ask where she disappeared to without telling them that she was leaving the party. my girlfriends would have had many questions of me, if I had done such a thing. If she walked or drove by herself; that would have been quite unusual at her age and in that period of time. Sorry, I just have to ask and hope that the investigation will uncover an abnormality for the time and her age, such as this Christine

I am very concerned that the FBI investigation into Brett Kavanaugh is being hindered by Donald Trump, who in turn is highly influenced by Russia, as you are aware. This hindrance poses a national security threat of the highest order, and must not be allowed to further weaken our country, as is the clearly stated intent of Vladimir Putin. Many Republican members of the Senate have visited Russia in the past two years. Please do not change your longstanding practices at the behest of these men. We cannot trust their loyalty to our country. Please thoroughly investigate every lead independent of instructions to do otherwise. You are our defense against foreign influence and tyranny. Thank you.

Re: Brett Kavanaugh / Christine Blasey Ford Investigation - Strongly suggest you obtain Kavanaugh's ORIGINAL calendar and use chemical and physical analysis techniques to confirm approximate dates various entries were made. I imagine your laboratories have extensive data on ink compositions including where and when manufactured and how the composition is affected by time, once the entry is made. Please pass this suggestion on ASAP to appropriate parties in your organization to permit timely action. Thank you.

Brett Kavanaugh Investigation: Possibly helpful; article in SLATE touching on Judge Kavanaugh's lying under oath during the Senate Judiciary hearing this past week: "Before the hearing I wrote about what Kavanaugh's lie about the "Renate Alumni" caption under a photo of himself and some other football players said about Kavanaugh's relationship to male networks. To my astonishment, he lied about that stupid ugly joke again, under oath. He got choked up during his opening statementâ€”tears as sincerityâ€”as he blamed everyone for misunderstanding what was, he insisted, a sweet gesture of inclusion. â€œThat yearbook reference was clumsily meant to show affection, that she was one of us,â€ he said. Curiously, he and his friends never showed this touching homage (which shows up over a dozen times) to the person for whom it was allegedly intended. Renate did not know about the entry when she signed the letter of support affirming Kavanaughâ€™s respectful treatment of women. And she was understandably horrified when she did learn, because another guy in the group had included this poem in the yearbook: â€œYou need a date/ and itâ€™s getting late/ so donâ€™t hesitate/ to call Renate.â€ Hardly a sweet gesture of inclusion. I hadnâ€™t expected Kavanaugh to double down on this particular lie because it was just so dumb. Yes, his strategy up to that point had been to overshoot with his denials, but at least he admitted (many times) in the hearing to â€œlikingâ€ beer. There were signs, in other words, that he was willing to abandon at least some of his virtuous fictions about himself. I was wrong. Kavanaugh did not admit that he and his buddies made a cruel dumb joke. Instead he lied. And cried about it. And railed against the injustice of being so maliciously misunderstood. That tells us something about how much we can trust the relationship between his emotional displays and his truthfulness". I am a U.S. citizen and taxpayer and DEMAND that <<Julie Swetnick>> be investigated as part of the Judge Brett Kavanaugh background check that is currently underway. To omit her SWORN statement and witness testimonies is a gross dereliction of duty on the part of the FBI and their investigation to get TO THE TRUTH of Brett Kavanaugh and his reported behavior and actions during the early 1980s. THIS MAN MAY BE OUR NEXT SUPREME COURT JUSTICE AND YOUR INVESTIGATION NEEDS TO BE THOROUGH. I know that you are the experts in investigation and the American people are counting on you to do a PROFESSIONAL AND DILIGENT JOB in this very important investigation. Thank you.

In the Kavanaugh background investigation, "Timmy's house" for the July 1, 1982 party should be examined to see if it might be the location of the incident. Several of the people Blasey Ford mentions were there according to Kavanaugh's calendar. Kavanaugh mentions Timmy's last name in the Sept 27, 2018 hearing.

Hello, I want to reach out to you guys about this whole Brett Kavanaugh and Christine Blasey Ford craziness. I just want you guys to please view this video of the Body Language of Christine Blasey Ford at the hearing and it's just an act. She is lying on Kavanaugh. Please take this video into a consideration, this is about clearing an innocent man who is viewed as a national alcoholic rapist and it had harmed him and his family over this false accusation including getting death threats. I also recommend, please do an FBI investigation on Christine Blasey Ford, all of her medical research as a mental health expert throughout the years, who claim she struggled with "memory" in general. Also investigative Democratic Senators like Dianne Feinstein, who was there at the hearing from Thursday. Ford had fooled the American people, at least some of them with her performance on national television. This whole thing is about Abortion and Roe v.

[redacted] "sniffing" was a clue to cocaine use. Snorting cocaine irritates the nasal lining and leads to persistent nasal drainage. During his testimony this week, Judge Kavanaugh sniffled repeatedly, even before he began to cry. Maybe he uses cocaine. His demeanor during that testimony would be compatible with cocaine use.

It seems obvious that the FBI has not done a thorough background check on Kavanaugh. Now is your opportunity to fill in some gaps. Please, for our country, get the history of what is headed to be our Supreme Court Judge. I am a Republican, [REDACTED] and knows of many other woman who have that would require some digging to discover because of the lack of witnesses. But, there are other behaviors that have witness. Drinking has witnesses...behavior under influence has witnesses...words in a year book and on a calendar are threads to pull. I appreciate your work in investigations and do not assume it is easy, but I personally am scared where our country is headed and don't have hope in politics. The FBI has a huge role at keeping our democracy on track of truth.

The Kavanaugh Hearings. It's not that I'm saying what to do but it seems that the central thing is "The Letter" There are 21 members of the Committee, 2 people Dr. Ford and Judge Kavanaugh and there are two lawyers with Dr. Ford that seemed to be flying off the cuff most of the time. In your investigation The Same question should be asked of all 25 participants that were "involved" with this hearing. I think what the question will bring up to the surface will be enlightening . The Question: "Did you know of Dr. Ford's letter before these Hearings took place?" Good luck on the investigation for we all are awaiting the outcome. Sincerely Your, [redacted]

Regarding Kavanaugh: Regarding what he said about his calendar: He said the reason he kept his calendar was a habit he picked up from his father, and that it was a family practice to review the years events on New Year's Eve. That could be shown to be true or untrue, i.e. does his father have all his calendars?h is that a family practice? My thought being that he could have kept it all these years as exculpatory evidence, realizing long ago - at the time - that he had made a serious mistake. If his story about his father's cslandars is untrue, that could be relevant.

Below are thoughts that came to mind regarding the testimony under oath of Dr. Christine Blasey Ford vs. Judge Brett Kavanaugh on Thursday 9/27/19. Unfortunately, there was inadequate questioning of Dr. Ford regarding what would seem to be rather obvious details that needed clarification. I have emailed this "information" to Senator Grassley of the Senate Judiciary Committee. 1. If Dr. Ford had been swimming/diving at the Columbia Country Club that afternoon, wouldn't she have removed her wet bathing suit before dressing in street clothes? Wearing a wet suit would have been very uncomfortable. 2. Most large homes in the neighborhood of the country club would have had a powder room (at least) on the first floor. Why did Dr. Ford choose to go upstairs? 3. If the party was going on on the first floor of the home, why would a radio have been playing upstairs? 4. If Dr. Ford was pushed into a 2nd floor bedroom, would the attackers have taken the time to "turn up the radio" to cover her screams? 5. It was determined that Dr. Ford's home was a 20 minute drive from the country club. Once she left the house to head for her home, by my calculations (we live 8 miles from Easton, MD, where it takes us 20 minutes to drive in), it would have taken her at least 4 hours to walk home. By then her parents would have been worried and wondered where she had been and asked questions. I am hoping the FBI will follow up with getting answers to these "questions" from Dr. Ford in their extended investigation of the witnesses regarding Judge Brett Kavanaugh.

Judge Kavanaugh's yearbook entry says, "Judge - have you boofed yet?" Slang terminology both for flatulence and for a sexual act. When questioned about this term, Judge Kavanaugh responds: "It refers to flatulence. We were 16." Were Kavanaugh and Mark Judge 16 at the time of the flatulence? Or at the time of the assault on Dr. Blasey Ford? Or 16 at the time of writing the yearbook entry? I assumed the entry would have been written at 18, when Kavanaugh was a high school senior. Dr. Blasey Ford cannot recall with certainty the summer of her assault. She repeatedly stated if she could learn when Mark Judge worked at the grocery store, she would place the assault a month or two before that. So, maybe that was a slip of the tongue from Judge Kavanaugh? He and Judge were were 16. Ok. If they were 16 at the time of the assault on Dr. Blasey Ford, maybe the FBI should review his calendar from 1981 - instead of the calendar from 1982.

I am contacting you at the suggestion of the minority counsel of the Senate Judiciary Committee, on which I serve as the junior Senator from Delaware. I was contacted earlier today by someone I know who conveyed to me confidentially the information noted in the document. This information is relevant to the background investigation of Judge Kavanaugh.

Please confirm that you have received my email. If you are not the appropriate contact at the FBI or if I should be attempting to convey this information to the relevant investigatory team through some other route, please notify me.

Sincerely,

Senator Chris Coons

Brett Kavanaugh's statement to the Senate Judicial Committee, 9/27/18. Sorry if this sounds like a crackpot tip, but from the middle of Kavanaugh's speech (when he mentioned his daughter wanting to pray for "the woman") to the end, it looked like he was holding something in his left cheek. Looked like a person does when they try to talk with a hard candy in their mouth. Is it possible that he was using a piece of chili pepper or something else to create his tears? After the statement ended, he blew his nose & had a chance to quickly spit the object into his handkerchief, but the cheek still seemed to bother him until the break. After the break, he didn't stick his tongue into the cheek, didn't drink tons of water, didn't tear up.

Greetings, I live [redacted] and am following the nomination of Judge Kavanaugh to the Supreme Court. Listening to Dr. Ford's report that she visited New Hampshire and her second report that she specifically visited Manchester, I wonderd what the nature of her visit was to our state. I remembered WMUR's televised interview with Michael Avebnatti and researched the date when that took place. Aug. 15, 2018 Avenatti was in Manchester. You may want to check the dates Dr. Ford was here and just ask the question about she and Avenatti meeting. I hope this helps. Please know that many of us keep your important work in our thoughts and prayers and hold you and public servants in high regard.

his drinking habits are extremely relevant to the sexual misconduct cases alleged because they are behavior exhibited while he was under the influence of alcohol and go to whether he lied under oath to the Judicial Committee and the American people. It also is relevant to his temperament and truthfulness as a potential Supreme Court Judge. He is supposed to be bipartisan, above political bias, which we ALL saw was not the case. He was also untruthful about the drinking age in Md being 18 at this time he was in high school. It was in fact 21 because I am the same age as he and know otherwise. Given what the White House and Republicans have tried to do to your reputations the last two years, I feel that you should do ALL that you can to get to the truth despite their efforts to obstruct the investigation. The American people very much respect and appreciate you (the FBI) and you directly work for us, do you not? Perhaps that can be your "cover" in probing into all relevant areas of the judge's life that YOU deem relevant! Thank you for your bravery and courage!

Repeat caller. He was calling with a comment regarding Judge Kavanaugh. He heard that the FBI was investigating the matter.

Tier 2:

it has been reported that the FBI is investigating the allegations made against Kavanaugh caller remembers that it appears that Kavanaugh denied being at the party; however, when caller watched the talk shows on the issue, it moved forward as if he were at the party it is callers opinion that if the FBI does not press the point as to what judge Kavanaugh has to say about whether he was at the party, it is unlikely that the FBI will uncover anything that has not already been addressed

they didn't do so. What about protecting Tesla's harmed investors right thing would have been for SEC to charge Tesla Inc. with fraud as well, when they charged Mr. Musk with fraud, and start the investigations on both. right away. Justice has not been served. This supreme court who is not fit to be a US supreme court judge. What is the rush for? Why not take our time? What if some investigations, thinking, eating and need to be done after Mr. Cavanuagh investigation? Again, what is the rush for? Doesn't make you guys believe that something is fishy? It sures does make me believe that something is fishy. Also, it makes me feel hungry and nervous. I believe that I have permanent psychological issues caused by Tesla Inc., Musk and SEC. We, the harmed investors will also make recommendations to DOJ, FBI, Office of Financial Responsibility and Dancing With The Stars show. (Financial Times) You guys have abused and torched us. Isn't enough? Don't you get it? Massive punitive damages is warranted as well, and from tomorrow SEC will face compensatory damages as well as each day that goes by. Worst case scenario, we'll take this issue to Supreme Court of the US of America. In that scenario, we would pray every night that justice would be served. What we have gone through is worst than being in a front line like Vietnam War. In a Vietnam War, you get shut, artillery or grunade, and you would lose both of your legs, and it would be over. After the legs are amputated, the suffering stops, and you tell yourself, you know what, this was my destiny, at least I am not suffering anymore and I don't have anymore pain. Even if both hands are amputated as well, at least the soldier is not in pain anymore, and he or she is not suffering anymore. To me, that would have been a better fate than this. At least I would tell myself that ok, I lost my arms and legs, but it was for the sake of the country. So some acreage advancement would have been warranted last year. No question about it whatsoever. Fuck you SEC. You're on the hook now too. Massive liability (punitive and compensatory) is coming your way.

Consider the anagram of "Brett Kavanaugh" posted on Twitter here:

[redacted] Here's how I would have presented that anagram, if I had found it: Brett Kavanaugh = A brat, knave, thug Now I highly doubt that anyone has ever published a scientific study, proving that anagrams can give real clues about crimes, or the dark side of a person's personality. But having a little experience with anagrams, I believe they can. For example, here's an anagram that I myself found some years ago: Phillip Craig Garrido = Go rip a child; rip a girl. Now the word "rip" suggests both "steal" and "rape". As you may remember, Phillip Craig Garrido is the guy who kidnapped 11 year old Jaycee Lee Dugard, and kept her as a sex slave in a shed in his back yard for 18 years. It looks like he was just obeying a subconscious message his brain had concocted by anagramming his own name. Or maybe an evil spirit was whispering it to him. I don't really expect you to take this tip as having much weight. It doesn't give you any actual evidence that Judge given about Judge Kavanaugh's background relative to drinking, and passing/blacking out ... It would seem logical to check the hospital

Country Club mentioned in his (and Ms. Blasey-Ford's) testimony, and the hospitals in and around Yale Law School. If Judge Kavanuagh was Evidence about Christine Blasey Ford and Brett Kavanaugh Dr Ford stated that she was sexually abused by Judge Kavanaugh when she was 15 years old. She reported this to her therapist in 2012. All therapists in California are mandated child abuse reporters. They have to report child abuse even when the perpetrator is a child and "even if the victim of the known or suspected abuse has reached the age of majority by the time the required report is made." If Dr. Ford's therapist did not report this as required by law, the therapist could go to jail for up to 6 months and pay a fine. The therapist is mandated to report a sexual assault perpetrated by a 17 year old on a 15 year old even if the event occurred decades ago. The reason for this is that the child abuser described by Dr. Ford could reoffend for years and even molest his own children. If Dr. Ford's therapist did not believe that there was "reasonable suspicion" then a report to the local law enforcement or child abuse hot line would not be required. Either way you can get evidence if you follow this lead. Please let me know if I can help further.

Christine 20 hrs · >From [redacted]: I was a dude who went to parties in the eighties, and worked on the yearbook staff, so let me shed some light on a few things: "Boofing" doesn't refer to farts or flatulence. Boofing is a very specific category of anal insertion. He lied about that. Under oath. "The devil's triangle" is not and has never been a drinking game. It's a euphemism for a threesome involving two men and one woman. He lied about that too. Under oath. Yearbook editors do not doctor or change copy provided by students for their dedication page without their permission. Whatever he wrote in his yearbook is 100% his own words. He lied about that as well. Under oath. [The rest is available at the url I posted above.] ----- I hope this helps with the investigation. I hope I am doing the right thing by sharing this with you. It is too serious for me to assume the FBI already knows and not send this along. I really care. I trust you.

Regarding: Brett Kavanaugh's 1982 calendar 1) How may 17 year olds keep a calendar for 36 years? 2) Why are only five months provided with the front page and not the whole calendar year? 3) There are entries in pencil as well as pen with some entries crossed over in pen? Why are these things significant. In 1999, I was a plaintiff in a medical malpractice lawsuit. Using dial-up access to the internet back in the stone age, I was able to find a well respected forensics laboratory through the firm's participating in a national forensics association. The firm, Speckin Forensic Laboratory with it's main office in East Lansing, Michigan has perfected the ability to test via ink dating whether a document has been tampered with and how long ink has been present on a card or a piece of paper. In my case, my optometrist using the same pen/ink entered information on my patient card five years after the date indicated on the card. While it took almost two years for my attorneys to legally wrestle my original record from my optometrist for testing purposes, when the card was sent to Speckin Forensic Laboratory, they determined that while the ink for the entry dates were old, the ink of the information entered was still wet, having been entered when my lawsuit was filed. You see, ink from a pen, whether it be a ballpoint pen, marker or fountain pen remains wet on card stock or paper for up to three years ... 3 years. My attorneys were not aware of ink dating at the time. I paid to have the testing done. I prevailed with a large settlement. If Brett Kavanaugh's lawyers are providing proof of his good behavior with five pages of a calendar from 36 years ago, the questioning tomorrow should be ... 1) Where are the rest of the pages from 1982? 2) Will he provide complete calendars from his four years at Yale? 3) Will Brett Kavanaugh allow for a forensics laboratory such as Speckin Forensic Laboratory to test the ink entries on the original calendar to determine if the ink is still ... wet? This is how you'll be able to verify if indeed Brett Kavanaugh's calendar are indeed an accurate diary of his activities during that five month period or the tampered record of a desperate individual. Respectfully submitted, [redacted]

On my computer earlier this week, I received a facebook post that is about Christine Blasé Ford and an entry she appears to have made in March 2017 during the nomination of Neil Gorsuch (this post was forwarded to me like fb posts are all day long.) I don't know who originated it except for my friend who sent it to me. If it is true, it would greatly influence the results of the Nomination proceedings about Brett Kavanaugh and shorten them immediately I didn't know who to tell, I have sent this info to Senators, a phone call to the President and left a msg. and no one seems to have connected to it. I cannot vouch for if it is true, I hope you can make that judgment. It says: "In March of 17 (2017) Christine Blasey Ford posted on Facebook that someone needed to come forward and accuse Neil Gorsuch of rape to derail his SCOTUS nomination. She further said such accusations should continue until Trump nominates Merrick lvl 1: caller is wanting to give commentary about kavanaugh hearing. caller said the notes from the hearing need to be public. the polygraph results need to be public.

Level 2: calling about kavanaugh investigation, watched entire proceedings and he knows the notes from her counseling sessions were not produced as requested and never came into evidence and he wants them obtained, the polygraph did not accompany her to Washington, got a summary only and that is not acceptable, needs to be investigated for validity, caller thinks the people interviewed should be asked for names of others who may have knowledge and be followed up on as well, need there to be asked why she wasn't told the investigators would not go to her, why were we led to believe she was in California and couldn't fly to Washington but she was nearby the whole time and caller needs to know the truth of these things; who was she with and what was she doing when she was on the east coast, this cannot be bullied over

If I ran the FBI, I would seriously be looking into the possibility of anabolic steroid abuse by SC Associate Judge nominee Brett Kavanaugh during his youth. Maybe I am wrong, he looks like the poster boy to me. His youthful "jock" behavior, past and current aggression, even his current complexion, desire to succeed at any cost, indicators all over the place. Like we need a paranoid schizophrenic for a SC Associate Justice. This is just a theory. I have no connection whatsoever with any of the individuals, nor any organization, currently referenced in the media with regard to this political process.

criminal, the last part where she uses the wording "we" is more concerning, suggesting she personally desires/plans to cause this harm and injury herself with accomplices, and may act on this if she has the opportunity. Worrisome rhetoric, again, not sure if this constitutes as criminal but I'm concerned and wanted to make authorities aware in case there is something to this. Thank you!

During the Kavanaugh hearings there was a question asked by a Senator, First Name Unknown Last Name Unknown, regarding a note in evidence. The term on the note stated, "Have you boofed?" Kavanaugh responded that it was a game that they played.

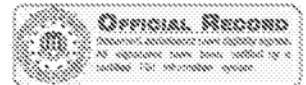

The term boofed is referred to as an enema or a turkey baster filled with beer, which is shoved up a person's butt, and goes into their colon. [redacted] thinks Kavanaugh was untruthful about what the actual practice was and feels this is vital to Kavanaugh's character. Alcohol goes into the bloodstream; however, Kavanaugh claimed he did not drink that much.

Kavanaugh feels that Senators who are voting should have knowledge of this process.

To the FBI re-opened background investigation into Judge Brett Kavanaugh (re Dr. Christine Ford) I noticed something striking in Brett Kavanaugh's interview on Fox News Monday night which no one else seems to have noticed, and it may be damning. In his Monday (9/24 /2018) interview (along with his wife Ashley) on Fox News, Supreme Court nominee Judge Brett Kavanaugh, while denying any involvement in or knowledge of any sexual assault of Dr. Christine Ford, stated "I am not questioning and have not questioned that perhaps Dr. Ford at some point in her life was sexually assaulted by someone in some place" (a thesis which corresponds with that presented by Ed Whelan, who tried to pin her accusation on [redacted])

[redacted] Brett Kavanaugh also stated the following in answer to interviewer MacCallum's questions: "MACCALLUM: ... Christine Ford, do you know her? B. KAVANAUGH: I may have met her. We did not travel in the same social circles. She was not a friend, not someone I knew. MACCALLUM: You don't remember ever being at parties with her ever? B.

KAVANAUGH: I do not. And this is an allegation about a party in the summer of 1982 at a house near Connecticut Avenue and East-West Highway with five people present. I was never at any such party." Brett Kavanaugh's description of the approximate coordinates of the private home where this allegedly occurred seems to be drawn from a description, using google maps, offered days previously in the tweet by Ed Whelan, President of the Ethics and Public Policy Center, of the home of Brett Kavanaugh's [redacted]

[redacted] whom Ed Whelan suggested Dr. Ford might have confused with Kavanaugh re her accusation of attempted rape. In other words, Judge Kavanaugh evidently was still trafficking in a doppleganger theory propounded, debunked, and withdrawn by Ed Whelan previously, as late as 9/24/2018, just before his Judiciary Committee testimony. Ed Whelan has offered his resignation over this, but it seems probable that since Judge Kavanaugh was publicly referencing this debunked hypothesis he may have had a hand along with Ed Whelan in conceiving and promoting it, trying to pin blame for a crime of which he'd been accused on another man. I hope the FBI will investigate this seriously: if true, Judge Kavanaugh is unfit to serve on the Supreme Court. Thank you for your kind attention. [redacted]

Regarding Kavanaugh, and Dr Fords testimony stating that the party she attended was on a weekend. July 1 was a Thursday, although the 4th was a Sunday and the 5th was a federal holiday. That Thursday night was probably the start to a 4 day weekend, and it indicates in kavanaughs calendar that he was going to the beach. Entries are crossed out on the 2nd which Kavanaugh testified as reminders of his cancellations. Thus, that Thursday was a weekend ahead of the fourth of july debauchery indicated in his yearbook as the Ffffourth of July. HS yearbook entries are due in the fall for spring publication, so whatever happened that night and over the rest of weekend is documented in both Kavanaugh and Judges yearbook entries!
