Tier 1: [redacted] date of birth [redacted] telephone number [redacted] and caller was watching the kavanaugh hearing with the Senator "went off" during the hearing. The hired lawyer that "they" hired because they did so badly on the Anita Hill hearing was starting to impeach kavanaugh. Senator graham went into a rant, so kavanaugh never had to answer the July 1 diary entry. Kavanaugh had already testified, he had no recollection of the diary entry. Caller says he used to be a republican and now he's a democrat because changed it right after the anita Hill. Caller doesn't think this was a party; caller feels this was a drinking opportunity for Kavanaugh.

Caller stated that due to this knowledge, there is a high possibility that B. Kavanaugh's father had multiple old calendars in storage, which were used to make the presented calendar appear older as it actually is.

Caller stated he provided this to his local office, but he does not believe the local FBI office will not do anything with it, because the secretary in the office didn't even know who Kavanaugh was.

[redacted] has a question in reference to Kavanaugh's background check. Caller has been following the hearing, and caller is appreciative of the FBI for having an investigation. Caller is ashamed and discouraged by who happens to be our leader...Trump. Caller feels Trump is trying to destroy numerous agencies, starting with the FBI. The Director Wray, who was appointed by Trump, caller hopes Wray has the integrity to follow through on this investigation. There are sources who are saying this is being restricted, and certain people are being told who they can talk to. caller has heard two women on television who were classmates of kavanaugh, who said Kavanaugh was a disgusting drunk. Caller hopes things are not overlooked and things are done properly.

SEND TO BK INVEST.: Fact check shows that Kavanaugh is a skilled liar...but still a liar Sep 29, 2018 by Mark Sumner, Daily Kos Staff Brett Kavanaugh's testimony on Thursday was highly partisan, and part of a scripted effort by Republicans who designed and orchestrated the hearings to turn Kavanaugh into a victim and Democrats into his attackers. It was a tirade that should all on it's own disqualify Kavanaugh from service on any federal court. But there was more to Kavanaugh's statements than just claims that he was the victim of a conspiracy ... there were also a lot of lies. Republicans were ecstatic with Kavanaugh's testimony. Not only did it have the tone of angry outrage they demanded, it was filled with partisan attacks. Kavanaugh called the hearing "coordinated and well-funded efforts to destroy my good name and destroy my family" and insisted that it was meant to intimidate him into withdrawal. And he was quick with an answer--and a sneer--for every question put forward by Democrats. In particular, Kavanaugh had a ready response for every question about items on that 1982 calendar. And now the New York Times has done some fact-checking on those answers. And the facts do not align with Kavanaugh's responses. Instead, they could Kavanaugh to be "a skilled lawyer who, when pressed on difficult subjects, sometimes crafted responses that were misleading, disputed or off point." For those who are not lawyers, what they said is that Brett Kavanaugh is a good, practiced liar. "Legal" - Kavanaugh stated that as a high school senior, he and his classmates were "legal to drink" even though the drinking age had been raised to 21 before he ever reached the previous legal age. "Refuted" - like every single Republicans, including committee chair Chuck Grassley, Kavanaugh insisted that witnesses had "refuted" testimony given by Christine Blasey Ford. That's simply not true. Kavanaugh made this claim at multiple points in his testimony. Only one of the people named was an actual witness, and all of the three testified that they could not recall the party at which the event took place. That's not a refutation of Ford. "Beer" - Anyone playing the "every time Kavanaugh says beer, take a drink" game was dead before the the hearing was past the first two questioners, as Kavanaugh expressed his fondness for 'skis more than three dozen times. But Kavanaugh repeatedly insisted he didn't drink to excess, which is a fact genuinely refuted by over a dozen genuine witnesses to his drinking in high school and college. The testimony of those who saw Kavanaugh drinking, and drunk, may be the most telling when it comes to the validity of the central claims. Lynne Brookes was classmate of Kavanaugh's at Yale, a fellow athlete, and fellow Republicans. She was also the roommate of accuser Deborah Ramirez. Brookes stated that Kavanaugh's attempts to classify himself as a moderate drinker who enjoyed a few brews "grossly misrepresented and mischaracterized his drinking.

For whatever it's worth, it might be worthwhile for the FBI to look into a strange coincidence I noted in the Kavanaugh testimony. He said his friend, Mark Judge, is willing to testify, "subject to felony" that Dr. Ford's allegation never happened. As a lawyer, I found that his use of that term very strange, and had never heard it before, although I thought I knew what he was referring to. After the testimony, many of the talking head lawyers/prosecutors similarly commented on the useage of that strange term. Later Mark Judge's letter used that exact same strange term, "subject to felony". I think the FBI might want to look into whether there have been any very recent telephone or other types of contact between Kavanaugh and Judge to determine whether Kavanaugh might have contacted Judge and coached

Please consider the following statement: SEC chairman on Elon Musk settlement: Trying to deter bad actions while protecting Tesla investor. It's SEC's responsibility to do the right thing. What about protecting the harmed investors who played and gambled in the stock and bond market both on the long and short side? SEC didn't do the right thing. Instead, it committed a violent crime by being being biased. It's not fair. I'll make sure SEC would be hold accountable as well. The right thing would have been for SEC to charge Tesla Inc. with fraud as well, when they charged Mr. Musk with fraud, and start

the investigations on both. right away. Justice has not been served. This situation reminds of Republicans rushing to put Mr. Cavanaugh in the supreme court who is not fit to be a US supreme court judge. What is the rush for? Why not take our time? What if some investigations, thinking, eating and need to be done after Mr. Cavanuagh investigation? Again, what is the rush for? Doesn't make you guys believe that something is fishy? It sures does make me believe that something is fishy. Also, it makes me feel hungry and nervous. I believe that I have permanenet psychological issues caused by Tesla Inc., Musk and SEC. We, the harmed investors will also make recommendations to DOJ, FBI, Office of Financial Responsibility and Dancing With The Stars show. (Financial Times) You guys have abused and torchered us. Massive punitive damages is warranted as well, and from tomorrow SEC will face compensatory damages as well as each day that goes by. Worst case scenario, we'll take this issue to Supreme Court of the US of America. In that scenario, we would pray every night that justice would be served. What we have gone through is worst than being in a front line like Vietnam War. In a Vietnam War, you get shut, artillery or grunade, and you would lose both of your legs, and it would be over. After the legs are amputated, the suffering stops, and you tell yourself, you know what, this was my destiny, at least I am not suffering anymore and I don't have anymore pain. Even if both hands are amputated as well, at least the soldier is not in pain anymore, and he or she is not suffering anymore. To me, that would have been a better fate than this. At least I would tell myself that ok, I lost my arms and legs, but it was for the sake of the country. So some acreage advancement would have been warranted last year. No question about it whatsoever. Fuck you SEC. You're on the hook now too. Massive liability (punitive and compensatory) is coming your way. Have fun.

Kavanaugh made her "claustrophobic." But there may have been something else... As Paul Sperry reported on Thursday night. The Palo Alto building permits were issued to Ford and her husband in 2008 - NOT 2012. Paul Sperry: "Palo Alto bldg permit records raise questions about Ford's testimony she completed an "extensive remodel" of home in 2012 & that this was seminal event that led her down path to coming out against Kavanaugh b/c she needed to add an escape door. Permit was issued in 2008." More... Ford may have been talking about a addition that they rent out. >From a tweet in reply by [redacted] "she built an addition on the house that they rent out !!!!! not for safety I pulled the property tax records she even said they use for google interns been verified even shows renters that receive mail at that address." We will update this as we obtain more evidence." RE: Brett Kavanaugh I am emailing to let you know 2 important facts have been omitted from this investigation: 1) Was Mr. Kavanaugh in an alcohol blackout when he committed the sexual assault on Dr. Ford? An alcohol expert can confirm that someone can be so drunk they do not remember what they did during the blackout. A blackout does not condone what he did. That level of alcohol consumption simply lowers someone's inhibitions to do someone they wanted to do. Have you asked Mr. Kavanaugh, with a lie detector, if he has ever blacked out while drinking alcohol? And if he was in an alcohol blackout during any portion of the evening in question? A negative answer would not necessarily mean he was not in a blackout. He may be unaware that he had a blackout. (Again, an alcohol expert can confirm that is possible for someone to not know they were in a blackout) But a positive answer would certainly provided useful information. 2) At the time of the sexual assault, the assault may have been so irrelevant to Mr. Kavanaugh that he simply does not remember all these years latter.

Please consider the following statement: SEC chairman on Elon Musk settlement: Trying to deter bad actions while protecting Tesla investor. It's SEC's responsibility to do the right thing. What about protecting the harmed investors who played and gambled in the stock and bond market both on the long and short side? SEC didn't do the right thing. Instead, it committed a violent crime by being being biased. It's not fair. I'll make sure SEC would be hold accountable as well. The right thing would have been for SEC to charge Tesla Inc. with fraud as well, when they charged Mr. Musk with fraud, and start

the investigations on both. right away. Justice has not been served. This situation reminds of Republicans rushing to put Mr. Cavanaugh in the supreme court who is not fit to be a US supreme court judge. What is the rush for? Why not take our time? What if some investigations, thinking, eating and need to be done after Mr. Cavanaugh investigation? Again, what is the rush for? Doesn't make you guys believe that something is fishy? It sures does make me believe that something is fishy. Also, it makes me feel hungry and nervous. I believe that I have permanenet psychological issues caused by Tesla Inc., Musk and SEC. We, the harmed investors will also make recommendations to DOJ, FBI, Office of Financial Responsibility and Dancing With The Stars show. (Financial Times) You guys have abused and torchered us. Massive punitive damages is warranted as well, and from tomorrow SEC will face compensatory damages as well as each day that goes by. Worst case scenario, we'll take this issue to Supreme Court of the US of America. In that scenario, we would pray every night that justice would be served. What we have gone through is worst than being in a front line like Vietnam War. In a Vietnam War, you get shut, artillery or grunade, and you would lose both of your legs, and it would be over. After the legs are amputated, the suffering stops, and you tell yourself, you know what, this was my destiny, at least I am not suffering anymore and I don't have anymore pain. Even if both hands are amputated as well, at least the soldier is not in pain anymore, and he or she is not suffering anymore. To me, that would have been a better fate than this. At least I would tell myself that ok, I lost my arms and legs, but it was for the sake of the country. So some acreage advancement would have been warranted last year. No question about it whatsoever. Fuck you SEC. You're on the hook now too. Massive liability (punitive and compensatory) is coming your way. Have fun.

As to Kavanaugh, consider investigating whether he was coked-up during his hearing. That could explain the nasal issues and aggression. Ask for a UA, but do it quickly, since I imagine coke clears quickly. Also, make sure it is an observed UA.

To Whom It May Concern, I am writing to bring a matter in connection with the Dr. Ford/Brett Kavanaugh investigation to the FBI's attention. There is a well known condition in which many medical students believe they have the disease they are studying. See, e.g., http://www.slate.com/articles/health_and_science/medical_examiner/2014/07 /hypochondria_in_medical_students_and_doctors_when_to_worry_about_health.html Dr. Ford was a co-author of an article titled, "Does Gender Moderate the Relationship Between Childhood Maltreatment and Adult Depression?" which was published in 2011 (available at: <https://www.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/pubmed/21727161>.) Sexual abuse was a risk factor examined. Dr. Ford may be experiencing a variation of medical school syndrome. This may explain why there is no corroborating evidence of her story (at least publicly known). It strikes me as odd that someone would work in - and publish - in this area (i.e, she co-authored other articles touching on potentially highly relevant topics -

For your Prof. Ford/Judge Kavanaugh investigative team : Julie Swetnick Got Settlement for Past Sex Claim, Used Ford Attorney's Firm [Debra Katz] To Get It New information ties two of Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh's accusers [Christine Blasey Ford and Julie Swetnick] together. Christine Blasey Ford, represented by attorney Debra Katz, claims that Kavanaugh sexually assaulted her when she was a high school student over 30 years ago. Julie Swetnick, represented by attorney Michael Avenatti, claims that Kavanaugh participated in gang rapes at around the same time as Ford's claims. [Both women, who have ties to Katz, independently decided to come forward with 35-year old allegations at the same time without any coordination??] Is this evidence of a coordinated attack on Kavanaugh? In 2008, Swetnick filed a sexual harassment lawsuit against her employer, New York Life Insurance Co., The Wall Street

Journal reported. At that time, Swetnick was represented by the law firm ran by Debra Katz, the attorney who is currently representing Ford. The company eventually reached a financial settlement with Swetnick over the claims. Clearly, Swetnick would have known Ford was represented by Katz before coming forward. Avenatti went on CNN to say there is "no coordination whatsoever" between the two cases. However, it is fair to probe for any connections since Swetnick, Avenatti, or Katz never said anything about this connection before. And their multiple connections between George Soros his organizations currently financing demonstration against Judge Kavanaugh. Ana Maria Archila, the woman who yelled at Republican Sen. Jeff Flake of Arizona while he was in the confines of an elevator is an experienced activist with ties to George Soros. She is co-executive director of the left-wing Center for Popular Democracy, a New York-based organizing group that gets much of its money from George Soros ["who is one of the largest funders to the CPD, The Washington Free Beacon reported that in 2017 Soros provided the CPD with $130,000 from the Foundation to Promote Open Society in 2014 and $1,164,500 in 2015. Soros provided an additional $705,000 from the Open Society Policy Center in 2016."] The revelation of Archila's ties to Soros falls in line with the revelation that many Kavanaugh protesters are paid players in the political arena.

Eliminate the impossible and what remains is the truth, no matter how improbable. Kavanaugh provided a calendar that completely backs his accuser and refutes his claims: All named boys were present at Timmy's on the first. They were drinking, despite his claim that he did not drink on weekdays. He said that name lists were accurate because they were backward looking, But he said he does not know the women who would have been there, so they could not be on the calendar. She said "at least" those 4 boys were there. Why would he knowingly provide all this corroboration? Because he does not know it happened. But he claims he never drank to excess to the point of blacking out. So how could he have blacked out, if he never drank to that point? First, one can't remember a night one doesn't remember. Second, if alcohol did not cause his behavior and forgetting, what did? We have a witness that claims she was drugged and raped by someone in his circle who was not him, but attended parties with him. She believed that communal drink had been drugged without people's knowledge. How likely is it that someone who is drugging and raping women would brag about clear severe felonies to all of his friends? Generally speaking, that is unlikely. He and some of his friends may believe they are involved in consensual sex if the drug was a mixture such as quaaludes and ecstasy. This would make a woman responsive to touch and then possibly less able to resist, possibly forgetting the incident the next day. This could cause a perception of consent for someone who did not know about the drugs. Kavanaugh might have been accidentally drugged by ecstasy and quaaludes combined with heavy alcohol during a fairly sober summer when he was not drinking much and therefore had a lowered tolerance for alcohol. That could make a person very tactile with a sudden and complete loss of inhibition, followed by an inability to follow through. This might also explain the bizarre laughter and Mike Judge's confusion about whether this event was good or bad, and whether he should stop it. This would also explain the boys touching each other and stumbling and laughing. Further, we saw that Kavanaugh has a dark side under extreme conditions. That is consistent with reported events, but is Kavanaugh responsible for his behavior if he was drugged? Is he responsible for extreme anger if he believes the charges are false? Is there any way to prove he was accidentally drugged? We need to know the window of when the 3rd witness was drugged and when she believes others were drugged. If that period matches the first, that backs this possibility. She has testified it was not known that communal beverages were drugged and that Kavanaugh was not the rapist she witnessed. If she is correct and she probably is, about the facts she knows, then it is likely that Kavanaugh did not know about the drugs either and that he, therefore, was also very vulnerable to drinking the drugged cockt

For the investigation of Brett Kavanaugh, I wanted to suggest that you interview Ed Whelan, if you haven't planned to already. He put out a theory on Twitter that the person who sexually assaulted Christine Blasey Ford wasn't Brett Kavanaugh, but someone who looked like him, and he showed a yearbook photo of someone in Brett's class claiming that this was the person responsible. I think it would be important to know if Brett Kavanaugh was involved in putting this theory out there, as I see this would be evidence of him trying to cover up a crime. Christine Blasey Ford said Ed Whelan looked at her LinkedIn page approximately 90 minutes before her name became public. If that's true, it means someone who knew about the allegations before they became public informed Ed. I think it would be important to know who informed Ed of the allegations, where he got the yearbook from, and how he knew to look for this person. I think it is possible that Brett Kavanaugh was involved with Ed Whelan putting out this theory to cover up for him, as the two are friends with each other. If Ed Whelan did

Can someone on the Justice B. Kavanaugh investigation this week PLEASE ask Dr. Ford how she knew the boy "that night" was Brett Kavanaugh?
Could she pick him out of a photo array? I am aware first hand that kids getting caught in places they should not have been, doing things they should not have been doing when I was a teen in the 1970's would give law enforcement someone elses name. Usually someone they did not like and of course so their parents would never be notified. So again, I respectfully ask, please..how did she know with such certianty that the boy whom she did not know was Brett Kavanaugh? Thank you.

I'm a American who is troubled by the many days of testimony and questioning of Judge Kavanaugh. I witnessed a Pattern and practice of evasiveness lying under oath to the Senate committee and to the American people. I'm requesting as a citizen that this be part of your investigation. If I lied under oath I would be prosecuted the same should hold true for a man applying for a job whose basic requirements are honestly and truthfulness in thought and deed, as well as the ability to be a bipartisan jurist which is also highly questionable after judge Kavanaugh's rage filled diatribe.

suspect: <https://web.archive.org/web/20180921051551/https://twitter.com/edwhelanepcc/status/1042893987747713024> Christine Blasey's Sexual Assault: The text below describes a possible theory as to what happened way back in 1982: Mark Judge house-sits for his grandparents when they are away or on holiday. That may have been in May/ June or early July in 1982. It is a 5 bedroomed home, but only his grandparents live there. So there would have been several spare bedrooms. Judge has a bedroom there too, which he uses occasionally when he is staying or house-sitting. The house is located near the Columbia Country Club, which is approximately 1 mile away. The dates that his grandparents were away, may well have coincided with the school holidays. We know from her testimony that Christine Blasey-Ford went swimming and diving each day at the Columbia Country Club. We also know that it was an early evening gathering. For her to have made an early evening gathering she would have to have gone to the pool in the afternoon or straight after school. If it was after school, would she have had enough time to change, swim/ dive, change again and then go to a gathering? I suggest that may have been difficult for her, unless she met someone she knew at the Club who told her about the gathering, was going and could drive her there. So think it was either a school holiday/ public holiday or at the weekend. Dates of her school holidays should, therefore, also be checked. She may have been with Leland at the Club as well - or been told that Leland would be at the gathering too. To be invited Christine must have known about the gathering before going swimming or met someone there who told her about it and the address. I don't think it was Judge or Kavanaugh as both had been drinking when she arrived. A key defence from Kavanaugh was not living near Columbia Country Club. But at times, however, it seems quite possible that Judge did. At his grandparents home. The testimony by Dr. Ford indicates Judge/ Kavanaugh were very confident in their surroundings, knew the house layout, music already playing, door locked quickly etc. These facts/ theory may explain why.

I have done much research on alcohol abuse and alcoholism. Brett Kavanaugh has many of the characteristics of current alcoholism. His constant referral to beer is unusual and defiant (another characteristic). His transference of questioning others of their drinking habits is an attempt to redirect focus from himself. Even his facial characteristics are those of an alcoholic (red cheek patches and forehead; hooded eyelids). His demeanor is that of an alcoholic. He needs treatment.

Dr. Ford lied under oath, misrepresented herself (Perjury)..... Just one sentence into her sworn testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee regarding allegations of sexual assault against Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh, Dr. Christine Blasey Ford may have told a lie. After thanking members of the committee on Thursday, and while under oath, Ford opened her testimony saying, "My name is Christine Blasey Ford, I am a professor of psychology at Palo Alto University and a research psychologist at the Stanford University School of Medicine." The issue lies with the word "psychologist," and Ford potentially misrepresenting herself and her credentials, an infraction that is taken very seriously in the psychology field as well as under California law. Under California law, as with almost every other state, in order for a person to identify publicly as a psychologist they must be licensed by the California Board of Psychology, a process that includes 3,000 hours of post-doctoral professional experience and passing two rigorous exams. To call oneself a psychologist without being licensed by a state board is the equivalent of a law school graduate calling herself a lawyer without ever taking the bar exam. According to records, Ford is not licensed in the state of California. A recent search through the Department of Consumer Affairs License Bureau, which provides a state-run database of all licensed psychologists in California, produced no results for any variation of spelling on Ford's name. If Ford at one time had a license but it is now inactive, she would legally still be allowed to call herself a "psychologist" but forbidden from practicing psychology on patients until it was renewed. However, the database would have shown any past licenses granted to Ford, even if they were inactive. Ford also does not appear to have been licensed in any other states outside California. Since graduating with a PhD in educational psychology from the University of Southern California in 1996 it does not appear Ford has spent any significant amount of time outside the state. She married her husband in California in 2002, and completed a master's degree in California in 2009. She reportedly completed an internship in Hawaii, but a search of Hawaii's Board of Psychology licensing database also did not turn up any results for Ford. What makes Ford's claim even more suspicious is someone affiliated with Stanford University appears to have also been aware of the potentially damning use of the word "psychologist" and rushed to cover for Ford. DANGEROUS exclusively uncovered an archived version of Ford's page on the school's faculty directory. On September 10, 2015, the only archived date available, Ford's faculty page was saved to the Wayback Machine and showed Ford listed as a "research psychologist" along with her email address and office phone number.

Subject: Witnesses to interview re Christine Ford allegations

Tim - I had a long talk this am with a close friend who has names of individuals who should be interviewed by FBI related to Christine Ford. People who knew her in highschool and are aware of some very serious problems that are pertinent to her claims. I told her I was going to reach out to you confidentially and if I could reach you, I would put you in touch with her to discuss further.

So I am reaching out to you. The individuals whose names she has (and is getting names of another individual) know facts about Christine Ford in the context of highschool time frame that may explain some of these allegations.

If you are able / willing to follow up on this, let me know. I'm out of pocket until later today. And I promised her I would talk to her one more time before giving you her name.

I know this FBI investigation is limited to the allegations involving Christine Ford. The individuals this woman is aware of should be interviewed for that specific purpose.

Let me know if you can address this. Thanks. [redacted]

It is so fabricated the accusation, that Dr C Ford said, that When she was saying that Kavanaugh cover her mouth, she thought he was goin accidental kill her. This is the proof that she is fabricating this allegation because when you are in this position of panic, you never think ever that you going to died accidentally , you are simple think that he is going to kill you. And this important fact that proof that she is lying, Because if someone is raping you that someone can kill you immediately too. So this fact is proving that she is a liar, thinking that he may be died accidentally [REDACTED] wants to know if "they" had access to knowing that Mark Judge worked at the Safeway store by reading all the information he have in his memoir. [REDACTED] also says they may question the psychology of a trauma victim of sexual assault who saw Mark Judge six weeks later in the grocery store. This happened after all the accusations were made about him and the woman feeling the need to make a positive move toward saying hello to him.

[REDACTED] says it does not seem plausible, psychologically, to any woman, liberal or otherwise. [REDACTED] wants a psychiatrist to weigh in on how a man can be spiritually and mentally raped in front of the entire world and how it affects his family. [REDACTED] says if one is telling the truth then one does not need to research one's memories. [REDACTED] also says why is she asking others to provide information on timelines of these boys to further be able to narrow down her own story line? [REDACTED] thinks it is a set up and "they" did it that way so she is not caught with a fabrication, because they are giving her the information. [REDACTED] also wants to know the relationship between "her" lawyers and the people who are accusing him." She was mentioning long before this to her husband that one day Kavanaugh may be in a high position in this government. She was concerned in a negative way. "She" is involved in women's marches, which shows political bias and hatred toward a candidate. All these things show motive, which is very important to this investigation. [REDACTED] thinks if "this woman" is going to cause so much to happen to a man and his family, she better answer these questions.

This may be corroborating evidence of Dr. Christine Blasey Ford's location on July 1, 1982, and this may be a lead source to corroborate her location on other dates. Dr. Ford participated in swimming competitions as a competitive diver. Her testimony mentioned the location where she typically practiced swimming (the Columbia Country Club), but records show that there may have been a swimming competition at another pool. In particular, the July 1, 1982 date discussed during the Kavanaugh hearings shows a competitive swimming time record being set in a "Freestyle" and "Butterfly" event, implying that Dr. Ford could have also been competing on that date. This information can be found publicly on the Country Club Swimming and Diving Association (CCSDA) web site (https://www.teamunify.com/RecordsSwim.jsp?tabid_=80325&team=reccdccsdamd) by selecting "Freestyle" and "Butterfly" from the "Pick a Record" drop-down list. On the day of her alleged attack, Dr. Ford reported that she attended a gathering close to the location where she went swimming. Concerned citizens on Twitter used public records to identify the address where Tim "Timmy" Gaudette (mentioned by Kavanaugh in his testimony) is

You can find many discussions about that address here: [redacted]

[redacted]
[redacted] from Woodley Gardens Pool, 850 Nelson St, Rockville, MD 20850, and is one of the locations believed to be competitive swimming site. It is only 0.1 mile (2 min) walk between the pool and Timmy's house. The likelihood of this being a competition site is corroborated by the "Woodley Gardens Waves" (Their website: <https://woodleywaves.swimtopia.com/>) competitive swim team which operates from the pool. This is likely the "-WG" abbreviation in the team names listed on the CCSDA competition records site listed above. [redacted] is listed as

[redacted]
[redacted] She may provide witness to Dr. Ford being present on that date and/or other leads. [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted]
[redacted] These and other competitors may have information about the 1982 competition schedule, event photos, and other evidence to back Dr. Ford's story. This Twitter user

[redacted] first found the pool lead using satellite view on Google Maps, and I believe this user [redacted] identified the Tim Gaudette house location from public records.

[redacted] then found the CCSDA web site, and I found the record of the competition date. I contacted the FBI Tips line earlier today w/ this verbally; submitting this follow-up. I can share screenshots on request

A Devil's Triangle is two different kinds of sexual acts, involving either a threesome, or three types of sexual intercourse with one woman in one night. It is not a drinking game. He lied about this several times and his classmates have called him out. 2. He lied about "bouf," which refers to anal intercourse, and not flatulence. He doubled down on this lie several times during testimony. 3. He lied about "Renata Alumnus." That referred to him going on a date with the purported class "slut." It was not about being her friend (and she recently said she was horrified by his yearbook references.) His testimony directly contradicts a poem about Renata written by one of his close friends found in the same yearbook he refers to himself as a Renata Alumnus, portraying Renata as a cheap and sleazy date. 4. He lied that the "Beach Week Ralph Club," which refers to vomiting from drinking at a traditional beach week (which all the schools around 5. He lied under oath about not watching Ford's testimony. Today. Witnesses saw him watching it. The Wall Street Journal reported he was watching it with others in the Senate's Dirksen Office Building. There are many press stories on this. 6. He lied about not knowing about stolen emails from the Democratic members of the judicial committee. He knew the emails were stolen and confirmed it in the emails the Judicial Committee republicans tried to suppress. The Washington Post gave him three pinocchios for this lie. 7. He lied about witnesses supporting his claims. They did not support his claims as he characterized their testimony. They generally supplied brief statements through lawyers about not remembering the party. This was no testimony. This was no independent investigation. 8. More specifically, Ford and Kavanaugh's mutual friend Leland Kaiser says while she does not remember that party, but she believes everything her friend Ford said about it. She has stated this to the press and it came up in testimony today. 9. Kavanaugh lied about his drinking. He drank a lot in the last year of high school and college (and several witnesses say he drank a lot for years afterwards). Several friends of mine who specialize in alcoholism said he exhibited signs of having drunk before this hearing. He was referred to by his college roommate as a sloppy and belligerent drunk. We saw glimpses of that belligerence today. Dozens of his contemporaries have confirmed how aggressive he becomes with drinking. 10. He lied that never drunk on weekdays in the summer of 1982. In his own calendar, he referred to "skis," which he admitted refer to "brewskis," with Mark and PJ on Thursday July 1 in a calendar entry that matches closely Ford's account. Kavanagh Case Urgent. The preplanning is still my point. The preplanning is obviously not evidence but it does add to the case. Bret Kav and Mark Judge were already upstairs, why were both of them upstairs and not at the party downstairs with everyone else? They obviously had already checked the room was empty of any other persons, otherwise they could not have use it because they may have pushed Christine Ford on top of someone else when they pushed her onto the bed. Hence my saying they would have checked it first. Not only would they have checked it, they had already prepared the room. They had already turned the music on which proves they had already been in the room. Notice how he places everything in front of him at the hearing. He puts everything in a place he wants it to be. Moves his name plate into a place he wants it to be. So it is easy to accept he would have prepared the room, the way he wanted it to be i.e. nobody in the room, music on. Interesting to ask Dr Ford, did she see if the curtains in the room were open or closed? Was the linen pulled down or was the bed made? Would show more preparation by the two boys. After preparing the room, they waited for their prey. They must have because they pushed her from behind and then kept pushing her into the room and kept pushing her until she fell onto the bed. They turned up the music, which they knew they had already turned on. They had preplanned how to cover up her shouts or screams. Bret Kavanagh was quick to put his hand over her mouth, he had done this before. From the preplanning and preparation, we can easily deduce both boys had done this before. Now, with all this preplanning, it is much harder to believe that they do not remember anything. Maybe they are petrified another girl will remember what they did to her? Please can you contact me? I am more than willing to work with you, I, unfortunately have a lot of experience with this, my cell is on the form

RE: Judge Kavanaugh background investigation: Find the home where the alleged assault on Dr. Ford occurred and you'll be one step closer to the truth. Yesterday, I sent you a tip that included a long list of questions to ask Dr. Ford that would allow you to identify the home where the alleged assault by Judge Kavanaugh took place. I said that the interview should be conducted with an architect present. However, I failed to put into perspective how effective those questions will be in identifying the home. Dr. Ford may remember many key elements of the home even though the incident occurred 36 years ago. Assume you have a general idea within a mile or two of where the incident occurred. Also assume there are 10,000 homes in that area. You can eliminate single story homes and homes built after 1982. That might be 30% of the housing stock or 3,000 homes. Ask Dr. Ford to imagine standing in the street looking at the home. If Dr. Ford can answer the following questions, then you can expect the following results; Was the driveway on the right or the left side of the home? You've eliminated half (3,500) of the remaining 7,000 homes. Did it have a garage? If so, was the garage attached or detached? Pretty easy to imagine eliminating half of the remaining 3,500 home. Now you're down to 1,750 homes. Was the garage door about 8' wide or 16' feet wide? Did the home have a single or double front door? Was the front door on the left, center or right side of the home? Was the front door inset or flush with the front of the home? Did it have a covered porch over the entry? If so, was it small or large? Describe it as best you can. It's pretty easy to imagine the answers to these questions will allow you to eliminate half of the remaining homes. Now you're down to under 900 homes. Was the street sloping? I looked at the Chevy Chase area and it seems that lots of streets slope. This sets up a situation where you have homes where some lot slopes uphill from left to right. Homes on the opposite side of the street will be on lots that slope uphill from right to left. Other homes will be on flat roads that cross a hillside. Half the homes on these streets will be above the road and the other half will be below the road. Other homes will be on the flat. The answer to this question might eliminate 75% of the remaining homes. Based on exterior factors, you've eliminated all but 150 to 200 homes. Simple questions about the interior of the home will be just as definitive. Was the living room to the right or left of the front door? Was there a family room? There are too many questions to list here but an architect can do an amazing job of drawing a general sketch showing the relationship of the various rooms to each other. Given the significance of this issue and speaking as a Realtor, I can guarantee Realtors and their associates in the area would be happy to aid in finding homes that meet the search criteria.

I have a memory that needs to be investigated regarding the Christine Ford/Kavanaugh case. I would like to talk to an FBI agent because my memory is that a woman name "Christine" who was associated with Stanford [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] My memory is that he complained to me about a woman named Christine. We us I also remember confronting a one of the women who [REDACTED] publicly outside on the Stanford campus. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] confided with me that he considered her a psychopath.

[REDACTED] did a rotation at Stanford Medical School and his rotation might have included classes in psychology department. His rotation would have been [REDACTED] He stayed with me [REDACTED] for the six weeks in [REDACTED] I distinctly remember that he was invited to a party thrown by someone associated with Stanford. I distinctly remember that he mentioned that he ran into someone who started rumors that they had sexual relations. If my memory is correct, the rumor would be false I think I advised him to speak to someone in authority to clear up the rumors. [redacted]

[redacted] If this memory is true, we can prove that [redacted] [redacted] wouldn't make sexual advances towards this Christine. I also remember confronting a woman with [redacted] present. She was spreading rumors about him and I think she was guilty of making advances towards him and then retaliating against him after he resisted. I think my memory deserves some consideration because [redacted] [redacted] was offered a resident position at Stanford psychiatry but declined the position for many reasons. I believe one of the reasons MIGHT be due to not wanting to put up with the trouble Christine might cause him while completing his residency. I think my memory might need to be investigated because I believe that she might be the same Christine we thought might be a psychopath who lies. I have not spoken to [redacted] because we had a disagreement. I doubt if he would have the courage to come forward IF my memory is correct because he might not want it known publicly that [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] I don't have any thing to lose in speaking up. If my memory can be trusted, then it might be valuable in defending Brett Kavanaugh. I have ADDITIONAL memories to share that might help defend Brett Kavanaugh against these sexual allegations. I think it is my civic duty to defend an innocent man if my memory can be determined to be trustworthy. We might be able to prove she is capable of lies. I can supply additional information, if [redacted] forgot this incident, to back up my claim and memory. I'm willing to testify that I'm telling the truth according to my memory. I can give additional suggestions for FBI to ask the university to pull if needed to verify that I'm telling the truth. He decline Stanford's acceptance.

Regarding the Brett Kavanaugh investigation----ask to see each person's yearbook. Male or female, whomever you interview: Brett himself, PJ, Squee, Mark Judge, Leland, etc... Their personal copies of their yearbooks could have a lot to say with "inside" jokes, etc. And, if they claim not to have them any longer? Hmmm....A guy who kept every calendar for 35 years doesn't have his yearbook? Highly doubtful, and therefore highly suspect. That none of them would have their yearbooks to share with you is curious also, and is information that the Senate might find interesting to know.

It also was not Asked what kind of MEDICATION She was taking? When it was described and WHO prescribed it-And What effect it could have on her memory? because

I hope in your Kavanaugh investigation you will get all the records of Dr. Ford' medical treatments especially if she had ever been hypnotized. On "Judge Judy" TV show on Fox TV last night the judge interviewed a long time district attorney who said people who had ever been hypnotized could not be witnesses in a court of law. They may have replaced real facts in their memory with falsehoods and report on those falsehoods as though they were actual events in their recollections. Please include that in your reports. Re: Kavanaugh investigation Since deception in sworn testimony to a Senate Committee should be within the scope of your investigation and, just in case you need justification to pursue this avenue, if it is an avenue you might wish to pursue, I submit that Judge Kavanaugh was actively practicing deception by using a substance to which he is allergic on his papers or on his person during his testimony to induce sniffing and pressing his tongue against the inside of the frontal portion of his cheeks to widen the back of his mouth similar to yawning in efforts to produce tears to deceive the Senate Committee and the public into believing he was unjustly accused, innocent, and hurt by what he alleged were false accusations against him. For Kavanaugh investigation, ask each Montgomery Co., MD, interviewee the floor plan of houses on Kavanaugh's calendar. Bathroom on ground floor. living/family room wrt front door and stairs, wall and banister on which side of stairs, bathroom & other door locations at top of stairs. Also actually check out current layout of each house & check building permits to determine if layout may have changed. Likely, most 1980s Montgomery County homes would have ground floor bathrooms. People who frequented the homes would know the layout -- as would the student who lived there. Ask Dr. Ford more detailed layout questions along these lines about house in which she says she was attacked. Dr. Ford might know bathroom layout to some extent if she was hiding in there -- but if she was standing against door to ensure it wouldn't open she might only be aware of which way door opens.

'BOOFING' O.B. : I was a dude who went to parties in the eighties, and worked on the yearbook staff, so let me shed some light on a few things: "Boofing" doesn't refer to farts or flatulence. Boofing is a very specific category of anal insertion. He lied about that. Under oath. "The devil's triangle" is not and has never been a drinking game. It's a euphemism for a threesome involving two men and one woman. He lied about that too. Under oath. Yearbook editors do not doctor or change copy provided by students for their dedication page without their permission. Whatever he wrote in his yearbook is 100% his own words. He lied about that as well. Under oath. Just like he lied about his drinking, just like he lied about never having assaulted anyone, just like he lied about the reasons why he won't

The boy who tried to rape Dr. Ford at that party was exactly the same entitled, binge-drinking jock douchebag who got away with the same exact crap at your school in the eighties and nineties. That's who Brett Kavanaugh is. [redacted] Article title: Five Times Brett Kavanaugh Appears to Have Lied to Congress While Under Oath Subtitle: Pesky documents keep surfacing to contradict the nominee's claims about his past. Kavanaugh's calendars mention many of the same people that Dr. Ford mentioned. Kavanaugh's July 1 entry mentions "going to Timmy's". It seems possible that Timmy's house is actually the house where Dr. Ford's attack happened. It seems critically important that you examine the list of Kavanaugh's classmates, to find any "Timmys" there, to learn the surname. Then get the street address for that Timmy, and if it was a two-story house, it MIGHT be a really important location. Dr. Ford and her friend Leland might be invited to visit the possible matching houses. If she sees 'a narrow stairway, with a bathroom on one side and a bedroom on the other side of the landing, it MIGHT be a confirmation that it is the house where the attack happened. My suspicion is that when Leland walked in that house, she might remember much more, such as possibly driving to get Dr. Ford and her to that house. It also would explain many other things, such as that 15-yearr old girls may not have had access to the beer there, but the older boys would have known how to get it, particularly since Kavanaugh mentions "going to Timmy's" for (brew)skis. Many other details seem to fall into place, if that is the house where the attach occurred. If not, Bethesda, Maryland has less than 10,000 houses, since some residents lived in apartments. Also, if Dr. Ford can remember "anything" about that house, such as if it was huge (as some Bethesda houses are, with 5 or 6 bedrooms) or the more modest two story house Dr. Ford seemed to describe, you may be able to narrow down the possible houses. A good local Real Estate Agent, or the City Building Inspector, might already KNOW that specific house, with the narrow stairway and the bathroom and bedroom. But I still think you should try to find "Timmy" to Subpoena him. I also would offer to drive to Bethesda to wander the streets looking for the specific house where Dr. Ford says the attack occurred, pro bono.

Hello, This thought regards the Kavanaugh investigation. He and his classmates need to be pressed about the yearbook item "Devil's Triangle". This slang refers to a threesome of two men and one woman. In the mind of a drunken high school student, this might be exactly what went on between Kavanaugh, Judge, and Ford. He may be bragging about the assault right there in the yearbook. At a bare minimum, it will likely show that he lied to the Senate about that slang being a quarters game.

I have a suggestion for a witness in your Kavanaugh background check investigation. Rachel Mitchell, the Prosecutor who questioned Dr. Ford & Judge Kavanaugh, has been described as a "failure" by the media. I have a contrary opinion. Ms. Mitchell does have the title of Prosecutor but has the job of "head of the special-victims division".

I have interacted with those having that job in our County Attorney's office because of my interest in the Sudden Infant Death Syndrome. I can tell you that their job is to ascertain the truth. Thus, I believe that her failure to "prosecute" Dr. Ford was commensurate with her job. I believe that Ms. Mitchell would make an ideal witness as to her role in the questioning and as to whether she achieved her goal, etc.

Dear F.B.I. Ford vs Kavanaugh, I think they both are telling the truth. But DR. Ford is recalling a dream believing it was real . That's the only explanation that fits . I myself have had this happen (believing a dream).She appeared there , The bad thing happened, and she disappeared from their ? Her witnesses say It never happened because they didn't have the dream. Kavanaugh is a victim here. Poor DR. Ford, she hasn't any idea she is remembering a dream. If she forgave Kavanaugh years ago , she would have worked out the truth years ago and wouldn't have suffered her entire life believing a dream was true. Good luck Best wishes [redacted]

He did not get assassinated unless, he died unexpectedly & boy the groups of people around him lied about him at his school making us believe that he would be so very bodacious after a woman in school where he went to b/f college, hardly any appeal. They dispersed his possessions in no time & threw his body practically out on the street. What kind of scenario is that? Who are the people that were so bruising? If he came from PA & went to Maine, maybe he sojourned to another area of his homeland to escape trouble, maybe he was a super-regional. Now, when there were Presidents & Congressmen w/ ties abroad the idea that anything would be omitted would be grounds for assault. Sounds like something a younger Congressman for foreign descent would have done & walked around continuing until he would be removed. So, Wiki says we chin zed out on his burial for himself & wife, but in 3rd grade he was a full term President, so why the change? I figure & reckon that were all out of the sorcery now, that nobody will be born in one either; butta, foreign folks. Now, Garfield did not get wacked until somebody bought foreign goods pertaining to burial & then an absent owner came up 100 years later, & he looked like Barnabus the Vampire from the set of Dark Shadows. I wonder why someone wants me to be this busy? It does cross my mind. It does strike me as odd that people have passed way before I heard about them, there must be a truely dismaying delay in the reporting of death dates world-wide. So, the wedding of the Princess Diana -blah, is something that technically could have taken place a decade before we saw it. Since they Diana included practiced it, I saw a movie about Europeans playing sorcery and doing things and then it turned crazy, but they did it through Dungeons and Dragon the game board trivia game. So, by this time some of these people are probably so avid that they may be in mental states beyond medical.

caller was watching tv when the announcement was made regarding the investigation of judge kavanaugh by the fbi. she remembered there was something on Rachel Maddow on MSNBC regarding a teenager who had been was raped, became pregnant and kavanaugh was the judge who handled the case regarding the young girls abortion. Kavanaugh was not going by the rules he should have and he was trying to delay things so it would be too late for the girl to have the abortion. caller said please do not let kavanaugh be the one trump chooses from the short list and become the one to make decisions for people and someone should look up the Rachel Maddow show that was on MSNBC.

uniquely in mentally ill patients. Admittedly, I cannot speak for [redacted] [redacted] nor is she available at home to do anything but sleep between her 12 hour work shifts for five more days. But, I strongly state to you that the FBI investigation of Judge Kavanaugh would be overlooking a powerful, profound factor if it does not include investigation into how the mentally ill in our country may be able to be deceived into thinking it is their civic duty to resort to fabricating all manner of accusations for what they mistake to be a greater cause. PLEASE TAKE THIS WITH ALL DUE DILIGENT SERIOUSNESS. Thank you!!!!

John,

With the Bureau recently dispatched to conduct a 7th background investigation of Judge Kavanaugh pursuant to the President's instructions, I thought you should be aware of the following article I read this weekend.

If this article is true, the Bureau Agents conducting the interview of Dr. Christine Blasey-Ford should know about it before doing so. I have copied below and linked the internet URL of the article and some brief background info on the media company that published the article and the writer that wrote it, Chadwick Moore. You and the Bureau may already know about this but I thought I should bring it to your attention.

I have no reason, or yet better resources, to question whether its true journalism or fake news, however, if true, it could provide important information regarding Dr. Ford's sworn testimony before the Judiciary Committee last week in D.C. I would at least check the state government resources regarding the licensing of a "Psychologist" in California. If Dr. Ford is not a licensed psychologist in California, I think it could present problems for her since she testified she was in the hearings.

There's a number of leads in the article, but I would at least check first on her being licensed [redacted] I would also be interested in knowing if her resume had been recently changed to delete the title "Psychologist" from the Stanford University website within the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies, and if so, who was responsible or directed by whom for making these changes.

FYI, let me know if I can be of further assistance. [redacted]

Testifying under oath before the Senate Judiciary Committee, Christine Blasey Ford identified herself as a 'psychologist,' but records indict this is a false statement under California law. Someone at Stanford University also appears to have caught the blunder and edited Ford's faculty page.

Just one sentence into her sworn testimony before the Senate Judiciary Committee regarding allegations of sexual assault against Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh, Dr. Christine Blasey Ford may have told a lie.

After thanking members of the committee on Thursday, and while under oath, Ford opened her testimony saying, "My name is Christine Blasey Ford, I am a professor of psychology at Palo Alto University and a research psychologist at the Stanford University School of Medicine."

The issue lies with the word "psychologist," and Ford potentially misrepresenting herself and her credentials, an infraction that is taken very seriously in the psychology field as well as under California law.

Under California law, in order for a person to identify publicly as a psychologist they must be licensed by the California Board of Psychology, a process that includes 3,000 hours of post-doctoral professional experience and passing two rigorous exams. To call oneself a psychologist without being licensed by a state board is the equivalent of a law school graduate calling herself a lawyer without ever taking the bar exam.

According to records, Ford is not licensed in the state of California. A recent search through the Department of Consumer Affairs License Bureau, which provides a state-run database of all licensed psychologists in California, produced no results for any variation of spelling on Ford's name. If Ford at one time had a license but it is now inactive, she would legally still be allowed to call herself a "psychologist" but forbidden from practicing psychology on patients until it was renewed. However, the database would have shown any past licenses granted to Ford, even if they were inactive.

Ford also does not appear to have been licensed in any other states outside California. Since graduating with a PhD in educational psychology from the University of Southern California in 1996 it does not appear Ford has spent any significant amount of time outside the state. She married her husband in California in 2002, and completed a master's degree in California in 2009. She reportedly completed an internship in Hawaii, but a search of Hawaii's Board of Psychology licensing databased also did not turn up any results for Ford.

What makes Ford's claim even more suspicious is someone affiliated with Stanford University appears to have also been aware of the potentially damning use of the word "psychologist" and rushed to cover for Ford. DANGEROUS exclusively uncovered an archived version of Christine's Blasey's page on the school's faculty directory. On September 10, 2015, the only archived date available, Ford's faculty page was saved to the Wayback Machine and showed Ford listed as a "research psychologist" along with her email address and office phone number.

The most recent version of that page shows Ford listed only as an "Affiliate" in the department, with the words "research psychologist" removed along with Ford's email address and phone number. This suggests the page was altered by someone very recently to scrub Ford's contact information and title after she entered the national spotlight.

It is common for academics and researchers in psychology to not hold a license. California law does not prohibit anyone from engaging in research, teaching, or other activities associated with psychology if they are not licensed, so long as those individuals do not use the word "psychologist" when referring to themselves publicly.

Several searches on California's licensing database revealed many of Ford's colleagues in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Studies at Stanford are not licensed psychologists in California, including the department chairman Laura Roberts, who identifies herself only as a professor. Of the unlicensed members of the faculty – which includes researchers, clinicians, professors, and fellows – none refer to themselves as a "psychologist" or "psychiatrist," unless they also had a license issued in California.

Aside from potentially misleading the committee, Ford also appears to have violated California law. California's Business and Professional Code Sections 2900-2919 govern the state's laws for practicing psychology. Section 2903 reads, "No person may engage in the practice of psychology, or represent himself or herself to be a psychologist, without a license granted under this chapter, except as otherwise provided in this chapter." Section 2902(c) states: (c) "A person represents himself or herself to be a psychologist when the person holds himself or herself out to the public by any title or description of services incorporating the words "psychology," "psychological," "psychologist," "psychology consultation," "psychology consultant," "psychometry," "psychometrics" or "psychometrist," "psychotherapy," "psychotherapist," "psychoanalysis," or "psychoanalyst," or when the person holds himself or herself out to be trained, experienced, or an expert in the field of psychology."

This appears to include titles like "research psychologist." There is one specific exemption to the law regarding the title "school psychologist," which refers to school counselors who do not need to be licensed. School psychologists are legally forbidden from referring to themselves as simply "psychologists."

Whereas the term "research psychologist" may be common in academic parlance, the issue seems to be publicly presenting oneself under any title containing the word "psychologist" if a person is not licensed. Ford is a professor and a researcher, but not a psychologist. Section 2910 of the law states, "This chapter shall not be construed to restrict the practice of psychology on the part of persons who are salaried employees of accredited or approved academic institutions, public schools, or governmental agencies, if those employees are complying with the following (1) Performing those psychological activities as part of the duties for which they were hired. (2) Performing those activities solely within the jurisdiction or confines of those organizations. (3) Do not hold themselves out to the public by any title or description of activities incorporating the words "psychology," "psychological," or "psychologist."

It is unknown why Ford, 51, a seasoned academic in the field of psychology would have made such an obvious mistake unless she was unaware of the law or trying to intentionally mislead the public and members of the committee about her credentials in the field of psychology. Her bizarre testimony often veered off into psychological jargon about brain chemistry, memory storage, and how trauma effects the brain, analysis one would expect from a clinical psychologist, rather than an academic involved in research. When asked by committee members of her most vivid memory from the attack that allegedly occurred nearly 40 years ago, Ford responded, "Indelible in the hippocampus is the laughter, the uproarious laughter between the two [men], and their having fun at my expense," referring to the part of the brain mainly associated with memory. When discussing her trauma, Ford replied, "The etiology of anxiety and PTSD is multifactorial. [The incident] was certainly a critical risk factor. That would be a predictor of the [conditions] that I now have ... I can't rule out that I would have some biological predisposition to be an anxious-type person."

Yet, Ford's academic focus for years has been statistics, not memory or trauma. To look at her as some sort of expert in this area would be like asking a podiatrist about heart disease simply because he's in the medical field. Still, the media ate it up. Hours after her testimony ended, various mainstream media outlets falsely identified Ford as a "psychologist" and praised her approach to science during the hearing, calling the statistician an "expert" on issues more closely related to clinical psychology.

The Washington Post ran a headline that simply read, "Christine Blasey Ford, psychologist," The Atlantic's headline read, "Christine Blasey Ford, A Psychologist, Testifies to Congress," Slate's headline read, "Christine Blasey Ford's testimony combined her own expert analysis of the situation," The New Yorker's headline read "Christine Blasey Ford is Serving As Both A Witness And An Expert," and the Wall Street Journal ran with "Ford's Testimony Reminds Us That She's A Psychologist." As of Friday morning, Ford's Wikipedia entry also identified her occupation as "Psychologist." According to California law, all of these are false. Ford is not a psychologist.

The Senate judiciary committee is set to decide Friday on a date for Kavanaugh's confirmation vote. If Ford committed perjury, she could face up to five years in federal prison.

caller reporting: about dr ford and what Brett Kavanaugh said. she has come to a conclusion; dr ford said Brett and judge had laughed when they were in the bed room and after they left. why would anyone laugh.
it was a cover up for witnesses that maybe in the room below them.
Brett said [REDACTED] and his father since 1972 had kept a calendar. always kept a calendar since 1982 of where they went and stuff. probably wanted to have a squeaky clean character.

In your investigation of Ford's allegations against Judge Kavanaugh, please look deeply into Ford's background and the probable reasons she brought them. In particular, please look at her connection to the abortion industry, as described in the link: <https://www.naturalnews.com/2018-09-20-kavanaugh-accuser-christine-blasey-exposed-for-ties-to-> big-pharma-abortion-pill-maker.html Please also look at her GoFundMe page(s), in which I understand she has raised around a million dollars for herself by capitalizing on her claims. Has she reported this income to the IRS? Please look at her financial records, telephone records and emails, especially for possible ties to George Soros. Also look for her involvement in anti-Trump political demonstrations, for which I understand there may be video evidence. I believe she is lying about Judge Kavanaugh. Perhaps the real reasons for her claims could be the basis for charges of perjury in her testimony before the Judiciary Committee. Thank you. [redacted]

Subject: Person with information relevant to Kavanaugh background check

Hi [redacted]

b6
b7C

I am Senator Klobuchar's chief counsel and I wanted to let you know that this morning Senator Klobuchar received a call from a former U.S. Senator who she considers very trustworthy. He said that someone called him who wants to pass along information to the FBI pertaining to Judge Kavanaugh that is relevant to the FBI's ongoing reopened background check. Senator Klobuchar has only spoken to the former senator and not to this man and we believe it is better for the FBI to speak directly to him.

The man's name is [redacted]

[redacted] The man's cell phone is [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] and he told the former senator that he didn't want his name in the press.

Again, neither the Senator nor anyone from our office has spoken with [redacted] and we believe this is best handled as part of the FBI's reopened background check.

Regarding Judge Kavanaugh investigation: please be sure to use Dr. Ford's maiden name when asking questions of any witnesses regarding the alleged sexual assault... when Dr. Ford was 15 years old, she was not known as Dr. Ford. Hence, she could not have been attacked as Dr. Ford, but only as her given name in high school. I hope this is clear. If not, please feel free to call me for further clarification. Thank you for your good work.

For the Kavanaugh investigation: a context tip for the statement Kavanaugh made to the effect that 'we didn't hang out with the girls from Holton-Arms but hung with the girls from local Catholic private schools.' This makes Blasey-Ford an even more likely target for an assault or for sexual humiliation. This is because the girls at the Catholic schools were daughters of parents whom Kavanaugh's parents would have known from church, Catholic grade schools perhaps, and the generally more insular Catholic social situation in the 70s and 80s. The girls from the private secular school would seem more socially or emotionally distant from oneself, and not intersect as closely with Kavanaugh's family's social setting. Thus, it would be easier to objectify Blasey-Ford sexually. Please take this into account when assessing the veracity of those you are investigating.
